State Educator Addresses PTA

J. P. Steiner, New Mexico Education Association official, addressed a meeting of the local PTA last Monday evening and told them war without peace is no good, and the average American citizen is fearful. He added those worries are reflected in the results of the recent election. Steiner claimed commitments made before the end of World War II kept the United States from achieving peace.

The educator stated it took five years residence in Europe since the end of World War II to realize the U. S. has something no other country has. He believes American citizens cannot take for granted the advantages which they possess. He pointed out the early American colonists had sacrificed to give U. S. citizens what they have today and that today's citizens must do likewise for future generations.

With the Gettysburg address, said Steiner, was born a new freedom. He related the tests which have been met by past generations in achieving a heritage to pass on to their descendants, and said the first one came when the colonists successfully established the new America. The second test was passed; Steiner stated, with the end of the Civil War.

He added the third test has not yet been passed since two great world wars have been fought since 1917, and as yet a peaceful nation cannot be turned over to the future generation. Steiner said at least 50 years of peace must be assured to pass the third test.

The nation, he said, is faced with building war camps instead of schools, and peace cannot be achieved unless Russia is convinced she must stop her aggressor activities. Democracy means religion, the educator reported, and without religion there is no democracy. Land frontiers have been replaced by frontiers of opportunity, according to Steiner, and with opportunity must go free enterprise. Free enterprise which made possible production on a huge scale won World War II, he stated, and would not have been possible with a controlled economy. The world has become complex, Steiner said, but it has also become small in relation to distance, and education is needed more than ever to combat the problems posed by this new situation.

In New Mexico, the educator reported, 14,000 children per year do not finish high school, thereby depriving themselves of needed education. The cost of buildings and maintenance for even these 14,000 children would be huge, he stated, but a program is necessary in his opinion to see that educational requirements are met. He pointed out what teachers have done on their own to solve the problem of education in the state and that Governor-elect Mechem is in favor of the association's program, but that it is up to the legislators.

Local Firm Represented At 1951 Ford Preview

Marvin Roberts, president of the Lincoln County Motors, Carrizozo, and C. D. May, service manager, were in Denver this week to attend the preview of the 1951 Ford which was shown to Ford dealers on Tuesday.

The new Fords, featuring Fordomatic drive, are expected to be introduced in Ford dealerships soon.

While in Denver, May will attend the Ford conducted school for instruction in the operation and servicing of the new Fordomatic transmission which will be an optional factory installed item, and available in the 1951 models. The instruction which includes proper procedures for the servicing and repair of this automatic transmission will be given by one of the highly trained Ford factory service men.

The Fordomatic transmission is an engineering feat accomplished as a result of the combined efforts of the Borg-Warner engineering department of the Borg-Warner Division and the engineers of the Ford Motor Company. They have been working on development of this transmission since 1946, and have endeavored to make it as nearly perfect as can be devised.

The engineers of Borg-Warner and Ford companies believed on several occasions they were ready to incorporate the automatic transmission on the Ford models, only to delay when tests failed to indicate the perfection these trained men demanded of the finished product before its introduction.

Roberts and May are expected back in Carrizozo this weekend.

Governor Receives Budget Estimate

By CAROLINE DAVIS

In a recent report to the governor, submitted in connection with its biennial budget estimate, the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission made clear its long range goals for historical development in the area of old Lincoln County. Lincoln County of the 1880's was an area embracing about 27,000 square miles and was the largest county unit of government in this country. It embraced all of present day Chavez, Lea, Eddy and Lincoln counties; most of present day Otero and Roosevelt counties, and parts of DeBaca, Socorro and Torrance counties.

Generally stated, the primary aim of the Old Lincoln County Historical Society is research into historical background, old records and titles, investigations at historic sites, and interviews with oldtimers, so that the rich and colorful history of this area shall be preserved for future generations.

Some immediate aims and projects are the preservation and maintenance of the old courthouse itself, as well as historic sites and buildings in Old Lincoln town, and the reparation and restoration of buildings, wherever practical.

The commission proposes restoration of the adobe corral wall that once enclosed the area behind the courthouse, together with the rebuilding of the courthouse and jail that formed a part of this wall.

Additional historic markers, similar in type to those newly placed in Lincoln town, are planned for the sites of the Carey Mill, Blazer's Mill, Dowlin's Mill and others.

Also contemplated are publication of some pamphlets especially one describing historic buildings in the area.

Important to the welfare of historic work in this entire section is the expressed desire of the commission to arouse local interest in matters historical, and to cooperate fully with, and to encourage wherever possible, local groups which are interested in the same goals as the commission.

The Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission announced that the 25 cents admission fee, in effect at the old courthouse, has been abolished for residents of Lincoln County. Because of the tax law, adults of Lincoln County attending the museum will be required to pay a 5 cent tax due on free admissions, but there will be no other charge of any kind.

The commission is working toward the eventual complete elimination of this admission charge, which has been necessary in the past, and the free admission of Lincoln County residents represents the first step in this very desirable direction.

The prize lamb was purchased by the Valley Oil Company, Roswell, from Miss Strickland at the fair and then presented to the Women's Extension Clubs of Lincoln County which include the Honda and Corona clubs.

A Thanksgiving Prayer...

For the Preservation of Our Homes

We, the homemakers of America, numbering more than 50 million, working together, can be the greatest single unit of influence in a world fighting for lasting peace. Let us work together and thus impel the peoples of other countries to awaken to the realization that freedom and democracy as it is known and practiced in America... as it must be known and practiced in other lands... begins in the home, depends on the home, and is successful because of the principles on which our homes are founded.

The eyes of the world are turned our way searchingly. As guardians of our homes we must, we will, give our best so that they, the people of other lands, may understand more clearly the profound but simple truth... that America, the greatest and strongest nation on earth, is free and strong because of the goodness and strength of the women who organize and manage its homes.

Fifty million women can not be defeated. With divine help, whatever lies in our hands to do can be done... with firmness, and without doubt.

Carrizozo Brownies To Sell Cookies November 18

The Carrizozo Brownie troop is busily engaged this week upon its project of assembling Brownie cook books.

From recipes contained in the cook books, the girls will make cookies to sell from door to door Saturday, November 18. Proceeds from the sale of the cookies have already been earmarked to give some needy family a basket for Thanksgiving.

The names of two new members have been added to the Brownies roster. The new members are Mary Nickels and Betty Rae Miller.

Next week the group will meet to work on their song books preparatory to joining with the Intermediate Scout Troop to rehearse Christmas carols for the song fests the two troops will conduct in Carrizozo the week preceding Christmas Day.

Miss Leigh Johnson, Atesia, district leader of the Scout movement, is expected to meet with both the local troops in the near future.

S. M. (Sally) Ortiz Gets Vote Increase

With the exception of S. M. Ortiz, incumbent Lincoln County sheriff, who was re-elected in last week's election, the canvassing board's report of election returns shows little change from the unofficial returns published in the November 10 issue of The News-Outlook.

Although there are some changes in the figures, the candidates polling the most votes in their respective parties remain the same. J. G. Moore, county clerk, with a majority of 610 on the GOP side, and Ortiz, Democrat, forging ahead by 669 instead of the unofficial majority of 606 votes as reported last week.

The following tabulation gives the complete official returns for the county candidates. Also included are the results for justices of the peace which were inadvertently overlooked in last week's issue:

Eighth Naval District Seeks Reserve Officers

The opening of a 10-program reserve officer procurement program for ensigns and lieutenants (junior grade) has been announced by the Eighth Naval District headquarters in New Orleans.

Eligible for officer commissions are civilians and enlisted reservists on active or inactive duty who qualify for service in the categories of general line, electronics, naval architect, petroleum engineer, naval intelligence, civil engineer corps, supply corps, chaplain corps, general line and supply corps for active duty and merchant marine.

The merchant marine reserve program remains open to all grades from ensign through lieutenant commander. All other programs are for ensign and lieutenant (junior grade) only.

The new procurement programs reopen for limited quotas all categories except the general line specialists program, which is open in only four categories, and the medical service corps program, which remains closed.

Candidates for naval reserve commissions under the 10 programs should apply to their nearest Navy recruiting station or naval officer procurement office.

Air Base Issues Warning On Ground-To-Air Firing

Aircraft owners, pilots and hunters are warned by Walker Air Base officials that ground-to-air firing began at the WAFB gunnery and bombing range November 2. A radio controlled target plane will be used.

The controlled firing area is described as a danger circle six miles in diameter, and approximately six miles south of Walker AFB and 12 miles south of the municipal airport at Roswell.

All aircraft are warned to avoid the area of fire during the hours of sunrise to sunset Mondays through Fridays during clear weather.

Ballots No Obstacle In Picacho Voting

Lack of candidates for the office of justice of the peace at Picacho proved no obstacle to residents of that village in last week's election.

Refusing to be daunted by the fact no one had filed, and that no official ballots were printed for the J. P. office in Picacho, some of the town's citizens went outside the county to have their own ballots printed.

The unusual and extraordinary situation apparently developed when several of Picacho's citizens were determined an election for the J. P. office should be held.

Picacho's previously appointed justice of the peace, Fred P. Bowser, apparently assumed he had no opposition for the November 7 election, and, according to the county clerk's office, did not file for the office.

Shortly before election, reports to the clerk's office, several Picacho residents appeared at the Court House in Carrizozo seeking information concerning the insertion of a write-in candidate for the Picacho J. P. office.

The Picacho citizens who had decided upon a write-in candidate for the office had some ballots printed.

The election returns gave L. A. Cole 63 votes and the incumbent, Fred P. Bowser, 10. The canvassing board has filed their affidavit to the effect Cole received a majority of the votes.

J. G. Moore, county clerk, was not available for comment upon the situation.

State Lawmakers To Attend Cattlemen's Meet

More than a dozen leading members of the New Mexico State Legislature have indicated they will attend and take part in the fourth quarterly meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association to be held in Clovis December 8 and 9, according to Roy Forehand of Carlsbad, president. "Advance hotel reservations already confirmed in Clovis indicate that more than 500 cattle growers representing every county in New Mexico plan to attend the meeting," Forehand said.

According to Forehand, special interest is being directed toward this meeting because of high interest in state legislative proposals which will be considered and acted upon.

Speakers already scheduled to participate in the meeting include: Paul Friggins, associate editor of Farm Journal, Philadelphia, Pa.; Radford Hall, executive of the American National Live Stock Association, Denver, and Ted Waldhouse, president of the Clovis Stockyards Association, Clovis.

Tom C. Cox, chief of the motor transportation department of the S.C.C. is scheduled to discuss legislative matters pertaining to livestock truckers in New Mexico. He will explain the present livestock trucking law and review possible defects in the present statute.

Ed Heringa, Clayton, vice president of the association, has been named chairman of the general resolutions committee. His committee will include some 24 ranchers representing every county in the state.

The date for the annual convention of the association to be held in Albuquerque next March will be set at the Clovis regional meeting.

Mabry Says He Will Not Appoint Commission

Governor Thomas J. Mabry announced this week he will not appoint the new five-man highway commission.

For months Mabry refrained from appointing a new highway commission, although he could have done so. Before the election he said he would leave the appointments to the next governor, but at that time, it was believed the next governor would be a Democrat.

Mabry said he was sure Mechem would appoint good men to fill the new commission. The law now provides for long terms for the commissioners and strong holds on their jobs.

Sam H. Nickels Passes Away

The death of Samuel Henderson Nickels, 67, at his home near Carrizozo late Friday, November 10, after a long illness marks the passing of another pioneer in Lincoln County.

Funeral services were conducted at the Trinity Methodist Church in Carrizozo Monday afternoon with Rev. Roy Miller, pastor, assisted by Rev. John Lawson, former pastor here but now retired, in charge.

Rev. Lawson pointed out in a simple yet eloquent sermon, the death of Mr. Nickels had brought him to Carrizozo on a mission which had been repeated too frequently during the last year. He referred to other well known pioneers in this section of New Mexico who have answered the final call in months just past. A longtime friend of Mr. Nickels, Rev. Lawson commented on their friendship and the deceased's great love for his family and friends.

Miss Wanda Garrison and Clyde Brewster sang several vocal solos with Mrs. Ben Burns at the piano.

In charge of the many and beautiful floral offerings were Mesdames Ula Mayer, Frank English, Ashby Recelle, Harry Edmiston, and Miss Grace Jones, all of Carrizozo.

Pallbearers included Messrs. Marvin Burton, Frank English, Ashby Recelle, all of Carrizozo; T. A. Spencer Sr., Three Rivers, Hugh Grafton, Lincoln, and Charlie Peebles, Alto. A large group of honorary pallbearers accompanied the casket, and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Samuel Henderson Nickels was born January 19, 1833, at Whitesburg, Ky., the son of Samuel Tipton and Martha Dickerson Nickels. He grew to manhood in the southern states of Kentucky and Virginia and attended schools at Bristol, Va., and Newport, Ky.

In 1910 young Nickels moved to Leo Tanco, N. M., upon the advice of his physician and settled on the ranch of his uncle, Walter Nickels. He first met the girl (Continued on Back Page)

Local Rebekahs Sponsor Girl Scout Troop

The Daughters of Rebekah, Cochara Lodge No. 15, Carrizozo, are sponsoring the new Intermediate Girl Scout troop recently organized here.

The regular weekly meeting of the troop was held November 14 at the George Zimmerman home with leader Mrs. Ace Batey in charge.

The group is now undergoing its tenderfoot indoctrination and have started work on the girls' Christmas project of carol books. The intermediates and the Brownies have scheduled a program of Christmas carol singing in the streets of Carrizozo during the week preceding Christmas.

At Tuesday's meeting, the girls were read the history of the Girl Scout movement.

Capitan Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor Scout Troop

The Capitan Brownie Scout Troop, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary there, held the second meeting since its organization last week at the grade school auditorium.

L. W. Clark, superintendent of schools at Capitan, has offered the newly organized Brownies a booth at the school carnival, which is to be held Friday evening, November 17, at the Capitan High School auditorium.

The troop will be in complete charge of the decorating of their booth. The sandwiches, pies, cake and punch to be sold by the Brownies will be contributed. Proceeds derived from the sale will be used to pay the national membership dues of the Capitan Brownies.

State Has -

His opponent was Republican Manuel Lujan. U. S. Senator Clinton P. Anderson (D., N. M.) in commenting on the election said the Democratic party in New Mexico did not need rebuilding so much as it needs a new face for governor in 1952.

The Republicans claim the results of the state and national elections show a complete repudiation of President Truman's domestic and foreign policies.

The Democrats hold a slim majority of control in the House and Senate, but it appears impossible the President will be able to push any significant part of his Fair Deal program during the next two years. It appears also that bi-partisanship on international issues may have rough going.

Latest unofficial returns show the Democrats in control of the Senate by only 49-47, while in the House of Representatives the count shows 232 Democrats, 195 Republicans, one independent previously classified as Democratic, and three undecided contests. A mathematical majority requires 218 House seats.

Washington sees little likelihood the Eighty-second Congress will enact compulsory health legislation, a civil rights program, new farm price plan, or other key New Deal measures which lawmakers have rejected in past. Tighter reins are expected on the programs of military and economic aid for foreign countries, along with renewed demands the administration do something about Republican claims of communism in government.

The following tabulation shows unofficial returns in the New Mexico election:

- 830 divisions for congress—Mason (R) 71,551; Armijo (R) 65,420; Dempsey (D) 92,427; Fernandez (D) 91,140. 978 divisions for governor—Mechom (R) 94,787; Miles (D) 82,017. 637 divisions for lieutenant governor—Larrizola (R) 89,429; Chavez (D) 67,770. 653 divisions for secretary of state—Vigli (R) 71,267; Roach (D) 94,933. 630 divisions for auditor—Apodaca (R) 67,269; Castner (D) 63,510. 630 divisions for treasurer—Kaupo (R) 63,453; Grizzom (D) 96,547. 637 divisions for attorney general—Caldwell (R) 76,411; Martinez (D) 91,834. 637 divisions for state superintendent of schools—Rouseau (R) 63,653; Wiley (D) 100,740. 630 divisions for land commissioner—Corlett (R) 71,561; Shepard (D) 94,722. 630 divisions for corporation commissioner—Hunker (R) 70,110; Allison (D) 92,422. 632 divisions for supreme court justice—Fowler (R) 70,476; Coors (D) 93,563. 533 divisions referendum—Yes 9,160; No 83,070.

VFW Department Head Visits Post In Capitan

By L. D. FISH Recently the Norton Pepper Post No. 7653, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was honored with an official visit from the department commander, Manuel Armijo.

Commander Armijo delivered an unusually good speech stressing the importance of getting all previous members, and new ones, to join the organization that can do the most for them. After his speech two films were shown. One dealt with the national encampment in Chicago; the other, about the VFW National Home for Orphans at Eaton Rapids, Mich. Both were instructive and entertaining. The national home is just exactly what its name implies, a real home for these unfortunate orphaned by the war. It carries none of the appearances of being an orphan asylum, as such, but gives to every child living there a real home-like atmosphere to grow up in.

Commander Armijo stressed the importance of the individual posts in promoting legislation for the veterans deserving the aid of various government agencies. He reminded us again of the importance of all the veterans groups working together to promote the good of all and that regardless of who gets the credit everyone should cooperate closely.

Awarded Rifle

The 30-30 Winchester rifle which was given away by the Santa Rita School recently was awarded to Johnson Stearns, Carrizozo businessman.

Cleaning and disinfecting the farrowing pen or house is one of the best ways to prevent hog worms, according to Extension Service livestock specialists.

Education Association Convenes In Albuquerque

The council of the New Mexico Education Association met on October 25. The meetings were held in the Hilton Hotel ballroom in Albuquerque. This group of some 200 educators represents all the schools in the state and is the policy-making group for the 6,000 teachers of New Mexico.

The afternoon session was devoted to talks by several speakers and featured an address by Dr. Glenn Snow, associate secretary of the National Education Association, Washington, D. C.

The evening session was devoted entirely to the business of the association. A final presentation of the 1931 legislative program was presented by M. G. Hunt of Portales.

District presidents each gave a report of the attitude of the teachers in their districts regarding the NMEA program. All districts were reported as unanimously favoring all points. Subsequently, the council voted to include in its 1931 legislative program two objectives. These are reorganization of the State Department of Education, which will require an amendment to the state constitution, and the protection of school monies, requiring legislation to be passed.

It is the aim of the NMEA to develop an effective group of lay citizens, 3,000 strong, at a minimum, and enroll them in the "New Mexico Citizens Committee for the Improvement of Education." Membership in this committee will entail effective support to the statewide vote on the necessary amendment to reorganize the State Department of Education.

The key organizations which the educators will work through to attain their legislative goals are the Parent-Teacher Associations, the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary. These organizations have already endorsed the NMEA program. All lay groups, however, will be contacted.

Every citizen who has the best wishes for the boys and girls of New Mexico in his heart is urged to become interested in this program which will remove politics from our state school administration, put it on a sound business basis (which every 34 million dollar business should be on), and stop the leakages of school moneys in the legislature. Money that is sorely needed to provide an education for all New Mexico children.

Study Of Ruidoso Stream Conditions Completed

Fisheries Director Fred Thompson has returned from the southern section of the state where, in conjunction with Dick Allgood, department engineer, and Bill Humphries, district warden at Capitan, he made a survey of stream conditions at Ruidoso.

The survey was made in order to recommend to the Ruidoso Game Protective Association, Chamber of Commerce, and the Lions Club, means of improving the fishing conditions on the stream. Thompson's plan of constructing a series of small dams to increase the amount of water in the stream is expected to be followed soon by construction on the part of members of the White Mountain Game Protective Association. The improvements will take place on the stream above the town of Ruidoso, between there and the Mesquero Indian reservation, and are expected to increase the trout fishing possibilities for the many tourists who come to the area each season.

State Educator To Speak Here November 13

Lincoln and Socorro county residents have been invited through the schools of the counties to hear J. P. Steiner, associate secretary in charge of public information for the New Mexico Education Association, address the Carrizozo PTA on "The American Child's Heritage," at the local grade school auditorium Monday evening, November 13.

Steiner has recently returned from Germany where he spent five years as commissioner of education. Before he accepted the overseas post, Mr. Steiner was superintendent of public schools at Portales for several years.

He is fully informed about the problems of education in the United States, as well as in other countries, and promises to deliver an address which will be of interest to all who are concerned about the education of boys and girls.

The Carrizozo PTA Association urges residents of the county to hear the important message which this educational association official has to offer.

Corona Girl Winner In 4-H Club Competition

One of the 4-H projects this year of Sally Strickland, Corona, was the fattening of a pen of three lambs.

The lambs were shown at the recent Eastern New Mexico State Fair, Roswell.

Mrs. Strickland was paid top prices for her lambs by the Valley Oil Company, and received a total of $350 for them. She used her prize money to purchase some registered Corriedale sheep from the Floyd Childress flock.

Miss Strickland now has a total of 18 registered sheep which she has made her main 4-H project for the coming year.

Nephew Of T. E. Kelleys Here For Hunting Season

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kelley of Carrizozo are expecting their nephew, J. H. Daniel, Cleburne, Texas, this week.

Daniel is planning to accompany the group of five hunters who leave today (Friday) on a big game hunt on top of the Capitan Mountains.

Orland Wilson, Capitan, will guide the party on their 10-day hunt for deer, bear and turkey.

Helen Barajas Crowned Queen Of Ruidoso Team

The Queen of Ruidoso's football team is Helen Barajas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barajas, Ruidoso.

Miss Barajas received the crown last Friday afternoon, just before Ruidoso's 21-7 victory over Capitan.

Intermediate Girl Scouts Hold First Meeting

The American Legion Hall, Carrizozo, was the scene of the first meeting last Tuesday of a group of six girls who aspire to become Intermediate Girl Scouts. It is required the girls attend four consecutive meetings so they may know whether they are really interested in the work of the organization before they are eligible to become members. The consent of each girl's parents is also required before they may join.

Mrs. Ace Baty is the leader for the Carrizozo scout troupe and is assisted by Mrs. George L. Zimmerman and Mrs. Herbert Haas. Several Carrizozo mothers, including Mrs. Fay Harkey and Mrs. Vernon Petty, have offered their assistance for field trips and special badge projects to be undertaken by the group. Mrs. Truman A. Spencer Jr., who is the leader of the Carrizozo Brownie Scout troupe, will lend a hand with the Intermediate troupe's folk dancing program.

At the initial meeting last Tuesday, the girls played games, sang songs and were given an explanation of the purposes of the organization.

Meetings of the Intermediate Girl Scouts will be held weekly in the George L. Zimmerman home, and the members will decide upon the projects they wish to undertake.

Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout troupes will be organized in Capitan. Headed by Mrs. Tom Utterback, a group of women from there visited the Carrizozo meeting to get first hand information. The Capitan and Carrizozo groups plan future exchange meetings.

State Educator Addresses PTA

J. P. Steiner, New Mexico Education Association official, addressed a meeting of the local PTA last Monday evening and told them war without peace is no good, and the average American citizen is fearful. He added those worries are reflected in the results of the recent election. Steiner claimed commitments made before the end of World War II kept the United States from achieving peace.

The educator stated it took five years residence in Europe since the end of World War II to realize the U. S. has something no other country has. He believes American citizens cannot take for granted the advantages which they possess. He pointed out the early American colonists had sacrificed to give U. S. citizens what they have today and that today's citizens must do likewise for future generations.

With the Gettysburg address, said Steiner, was born a new freedom. He related the tests which have been met by past generations in achieving a heritage to pass on to their descendants, and said the first one came when the colonists successfully established the new America. The second test was passed; Steiner stated, with the end of the Civil War.

He added the third test has not yet been passed since two great world wars have been fought since 1917, and as yet a peaceful nation cannot be turned over to the future generation. Steiner said at least 50 years of peace must be assured to pass the third test.

The nation, he said, is faced with building war camps instead of schools, and peace cannot be achieved unless Russia is convinced she must stop her aggressor activities. Democracy means religion, the educator reported, and without religion there is no democracy. Land frontiers have been replaced by frontiers of opportunity, according to Steiner, and with opportunity must go free enterprise. Free enterprise which made possible production on a huge scale won World War II, he stated, and would not have been possible with a controlled economy. The world has become complex, Steiner said, but it has also become small in relation to distance, and education is needed more than ever to combat the problems posed by this new situation.

In New Mexico, the educator reported, 14,000 children per year do not finish high school, thereby depriving themselves of needed education. The cost of buildings and maintenance for even these 14,000 children would be huge, he stated, but a program is necessary in his opinion to see that educational requirements are met. He pointed out what teachers have done on their own to solve the problem of education in the state and that Governor-elect Meehan is in favor of the association's program, but that it is up to the legislators.

He concluded by saying excellent culture still prevails in Europe, and New Mexico still has the excellent setup on education.

D. O. Murphy of Capitan has announced the following organization setup for the coming White Mountain District Boy Scouts' finance campaign. Murphy is the district finance chairman.

He states that four "Dawn to Dusk" campaigns will be launched November 29. Kickoff breakfasts are slated for Carrizozo, Capitan, Ruidoso and Mescalero.

Local Firm Represented At 1951 Ford Preview

Marvin Roberts, president of the Lincoln County Motors, Carrizozo, and C. D. May, service manager, were in Denver this week to attend the preview of the 1951 Ford which was shown to Ford dealers on Tuesday.

The new Fords, featuring Fordomatic drive, are expected to be introduced in Ford dealerships soon.

While in Denver, May will attend the Ford conducted school for instruction in the operation and servicing of the new Fordomatic transmission which will be an optional factory installed item, and available in the 1951 models. The instruction which includes proper procedures for the servicing and repair of this automatic transmission will be given by one of the highly trained Ford factory service men.

The Fordomatic transmission is an engineering feat accomplished as a result of the combined efforts of the Borg-Warner engineering department of the Borg-Warner Division and the engineers of the Ford Motor Company. They have been working on development of this transmission since 1946, and have endeavored to make it as nearly perfect as can be devised. The engineers of Borg-Warner and Ford companies believed on several occasions they were ready to incorporate the automatic transmission on the Ford models, only to delay when tests failed to indicate the perfection these trained men demanded of the finished product before its introduction.

Roberts and May are expected back in Carrizozo this weekend.

Governor Receives Budget Estimate

By CAROLINE DAVIS

In a recent report to the governor, submitted in connection with its biennial budget estimate, the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission made clear its long range goals for historical development in the area of old Lincoln County. Lincoln County of the 1880's was an area embracing about 27,000 square miles and was the largest county unit of government in this country. It embraced all of present day Chaves, Lea, Eddy and Lincoln counties; most of present day Otero and Roosevelt counties, and parts of DeBaca, Socorro and Torrance counties.

Generally stated, the primary aim of the Old Lincoln County Historical Society is research into historical background, old records and titles, investigations into historic sites, and interviews with old timers, so that the rich and colorful history of this area shall be preserved for future generations.

Some immediate aims and projects are the preservation and maintenance of the old courthouse itself, as well as historic sites and buildings in Old Lincoln town, and the reparation and restoration of buildings, wherever practical.

The commission proposes re-creation of the adobe corral wall that once enclosed the area behind the courthouse, together with the rebuilding of the courthouse and jail that formed a part of this wall.

Additional historic markers, similar in type to those newly placed in Lincoln town, are planned for the sites of the Casey Mill, Blazer's Mill, Davlin's Mill and others.

Also contemplated are publication of some pamphlets especially one describing historic buildings in the area.

Important to the welfare of historic work in this entire section is the expressed desire of the commission to arouse local interest in matters historical, and to cooperate fully with, and to encourage wherever possible, local groups which are interested in the same goals as the commission.

The Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission announced that the 25 cents admission fee, in effect at the old courthouse, has been abolished for residents of Lincoln County. Because of the tax law, adults of Lincoln County attending the museum will be required to pay a 5 cent tax due on free admissions, but there will be no other charge of any kind.

The commission is working toward the eventual complete elimination of this admission charge, which has been necessary in the past, and the free admission of Lincoln County residents represents the first step in this very desirable direction.

A Thanksgiving Prayer . . .

For the Preservation of Our Homes

We, the homemakers of America, numbering more than 50 million, working together, can be the greatest single unit of influence in a world fighting for lasting peace. Let us work together and thus impel the peoples of other countries to awaken and democracy as it is known and practiced in America . . . as it must be known and practiced in other lands . . . begins in the home, depends on the home, and is successful because of the principles on which our homes are founded.

The eyes of the world are turned our way searching. As guardians of our homes we must, we will, give our best so that they, the people of other lands, may understand more clearly the profound but simple truth . . . that America, the greatest and strongest nation on earth, is free and strong because of the greatness and strength of the women who organize and manage its homes.

Fifty million women can not be defeated. With divine help, whatever lies in our hands to do can be done . . . with firmness, and without doubt.

Carrizozo Brownies To Sell Cookies November 18

The Carrizozo Brownies troop is busily engaged this week upon its project of assembling Brownie cook books.

From recipes contained in the cook books, the girls will make cookies to call from door to door Saturday, November 18. Proceeds from the sale of the cookies have already been earmarked to give some needy family a basket for Thanksgiving.

The names of two new members have been added to the Brownies' roster. The new members are Mary Nickels and Betty Rae Miller.

Next week the group will meet to work on their song books preparatory to joining with the Intermediate Scout Troop to rehearse Christmas carols for the song tests the two troops will conduct in Carrizozo the week preceding Christmas Day.

Miss Leigh Johnson, Artesia, district leader of the Scout movement, is expected to meet with both the local troops in the near future.

The Harkey Lumber Company awards yet to be decided are:

One model 70, new 270 Winchester rifle for the largest deer. One Reynolds Lifetime Camp Kit for the buck having the most points of one inch or larger on the horns.

S. M. (Sally) Ortiz Gets Vote Increase

With the exception of S. M. Ortiz, incumbent Lincoln County sheriff, who was re-elected in last week's election, the canvassing board's report of election returns shows little change from the unofficial returns published in the November 10 issue of The News-Outlook.

Although there are some changes in the figures, the candidates polling the most votes in their respective parties remain the same. J. G. Moore, county clerk, with a majority of 610 on the GOP side, and Ortiz, Democrat, forging ahead by 669 instead of the unofficial majority of 606 votes as reported last week.

The following tabulation gives the complete official returns for the county candidates. Also included are the results for justices of the peace which were inadvertently overlooked in last week's issue:

State representative, 16th District—L. S. Drake, 1,427; John C. Davis, 1,319.

County commissioner, District 1—Granville Richardson, 1,413; Hillario Gomez, 1,250; District 2, A. C. Hester, 1,393; Harry Straley, 1,307; District 3, Wilbur L. McKnight, 1,567; Dep Leslie Sr., 1,147.

Eighth Naval District Seeks Reserve Officers

The opening of a 10-program reserve officer procurement program for ensigns and lieutenants (junior grade) has been announced by the Eighth Naval District headquarters in New Orleans.

Eligible for officer commissions are civilians and enlisted reservists on active or inactive duty who qualify for service in the categories of general line, electronics, naval architect, petroleum engineer, naval intelligence, civil engineer corps, supply corps, chaplain corps, general line and supply corps for active duty and merchant marine.

The merchant marine reserve program remains open to all grades from ensign through lieutenant commander. All other programs are for ensign and lieutenant (junior grade) only.

The new procurement programs require for limited quotas all categories except the general line specialists program, which is open in only four categories, and the medical service corps program, which remains closed.

Candidates for naval reserve commissions under the 10 programs should apply to their nearest Navy recruiting station or naval officer procurement office.

Air Base Issues Warning On Ground-To-Air Firing

Aircraft owners, pilots and hunters are warned by Walker Air Base officials that ground-to-air firing began at the WAFB gunnery and bombing range November 2. A radio controlled target plane will be used.

The controlled firing area is described as a danger circle six miles in diameter, and approximately six miles south of Walker AFB and 12 miles south of the municipal airport at Roswell.

All aircraft are warned to avoid the area of fire during the hours of sunrise to sunset Mondays through Fridays during clear weather.

Ballots No Obstacle In Plecho Voting

Lack of candidates for the office of justice of the peace at Plecho proved no obstacle to residents of that village in last week's election.

Refusing to be daunted by the fact no one had filed, and that no official ballots were printed for the J. P. office in Plecho, some of the town's citizens went outside the county to have their own ballots printed.

The unusual and extraordinary situation apparently developed when several of Plecho's citizens were determined an election for the J. P. office should be held.

Plecho's previously appointed justice of the peace, Fred P. Bowser, apparently assumed he had no opposition for the November 7 election, and, according to the county clerk's office, did not file for the office.

Shortly before election, reports the clerk's office, several Plecho residents appeared at the Court House in Carrizozo seeking information concerning the insertion of a write-in candidate for the Plecho J. P. office.

The Plecho citizens who had decided upon a write-in candidate for the office had come ballots printed.

The election returns gave L. A. Cole 63 votes and the incumbent, Fred P. Bowser, 16. The canvassing board has filed their affidavit to the effect Cole received a majority of the votes.

J. G. Moore, county clerk, was not available for comment upon the situation.

State Lawmakers To Attend Cattleman's Meet

More than a dozen leading members of the New Mexico State Legislature have indicated they will attend and take part in the fourth quarterly meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association to be held in Clovis December 8 and 9, according to Roy Forehand of Carlsbad, president. "Advance hotel reservations already confirmed in Clovis indicate that more than 500 cattle growers representing every county in New Mexico plan to attend the meeting," Forehand said.

According to Forehand, special interest is being directed toward this meeting because of high interest in state legislative proposals which will be considered and acted upon.

Speakers already scheduled to participate in the meeting include Paul Friggins, associate editor of Farm Journal, Philadelphia, Pa.; Radford Hall, executive of the American National Live Stock Association, Denver, and Ted Waldhouse, president of the Clovis Stockyards Association, Clovis.

Tom C. Cox, chief of the motor transportation department of the FCC, is scheduled to discuss legislative matters pertaining to livestock truckers in New Mexico. He will explain the present livestock trucking law and review possible defects in the present statute.

Ed Herings, Clayton, vice president of the association, has been named chairman of the general resolutions committee. His committee will include some 64 ranchers representing every county in the state.

The date for the annual convention of the association to be held in Albuquerque next March will be set at the Clovis regional meeting.

Mabry Says He Will Not Appoint Commission

Governor Thomas J. Mabry announced this week he will not appoint the new five-man highway commission.

For months Mabry refrained from appointing a new highway commission, although he could have done so. Before the election he said he would leave the appointments to the next governor, but at that time, it was believed the next governor would be a Democrat.

Mabry said he was sure Meehan would appoint good men to fill the new commission. The law now provides for long terms for the commissioners and strong holds on their jobs.

Sam H. Nickels Passes Away

The death of Samuel Henderson Nickels, 67, at his home near Carrizozo late Friday, November 10, after a long illness marks the passing of another pioneer in Lincoln County.

Funeral services were conducted at the Trinity Methodist Church in Carrizozo Monday afternoon with Rev. Ray Miller, pastor, assisted by Rev. John Lawson, former pastor here but now retired, in charge.

Rev. Lawson pointed out in a simple yet eloquent sermon, the death of Mr. Nickels had brought him to Carrizozo on a mission which had been repeated too frequently during the last year. He referred to other well known pioneers in this section of New Mexico who have answered the final call in months just past: a long-time friend of Mr. Nickels, Rev. Lawson commented on their friendship and the deceased's great love for his family and friends.

Miss Wanda Garrison and Clyde Breyer sang several vocal solos with Mrs. Ben Burns at the piano.

In charge of the many and beautiful floral offerings were Mesdames Ula Mayer, Frank English, Achby Rocelle, Harry Edmiston, and Miss Grace Jones, all of Carrizozo.

Pallbearers included Messrs. Marvin Burton, Frank English, Achby Rocelle, all of Carrizozo; T. A. Spencer Sr., Three Rivers, Hugh Grafton, Lincoln, and Charlie Peebles, Alto. A large group of honorary pallbearers accompanied the basket, and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Samuel Henderson Nickels was born January 19, 1833, at Whitesburg, Ky., the son of Samuel Tipton and Martha Dickerson Nickels. He grew to manhood in the southern states of Kentucky and Virginia and attended schools at Bristol, Va., and Newport, Ky.

In 1910 young Nickels moved to Los Tancos, N. M., upon the advice of his physician and settled on the ranch of his uncle, Walter Nickels. He first met the girl

Local Rebekahs Sponsor Girl Scout Troop

The Daughters of Rebekah, Coalora Lodge No. 15, Carrizozo, are sponsoring the new International Girl Scout troop recently organized here.

The regular weekly meeting of the troop was held November 14 at the George Zimmerman home with leader Mrs. Ace Dady in charge.

The group is now undergoing its tentative indoctrination and have started work on the girls' Christmas project of carol books. The intermediates and the Brownies have scheduled a program of Christmas carol singing in the streets of Carrizozo during the week preceding Christmas.

At Tuesday's meeting, the girls were read the history of the Girl Scout movement.

Capitan Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor Scout Troop

The Capitan Brownie Scout Troop, sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary there, held the second meeting since its organization last week at the grade school auditorium.

L. W. Clark, superintendent of schools at Capitan, has offered the newly organized Brownies a booth at the school carnival, which is to be held Friday evening, November 17, at the Capitan High School auditorium.

The troop will be in complete charge of the decorating of their booth. The sandwiches, pies, cake and punch to be sold by the Brownies will be contributed. Proceeds derived from the sale will be used to pay the national membership dues of the Capitan Brownies.

Editor, News-Outlet:
 When the Otero County Electric Co-op was first incorporated in the year 1933, it had only a membership of one to two hundred, but today this membership has increased to 1,413. Why has this membership grown? First, electricity is an asset to farmers, ranchers and business men. Second, it is a time and labor saving device. Third, it can be used to better the quality of farm products to increase income.
 Those who are users of rural power can no doubt give many reasons the Otero County Electric Co-op has grown to include this membership.
 When the cooperative was first established, it served only Cloudcroft, Mayhill and Highrolls, this included about 76 miles of energized lines. Today the Otero County Electric Co-op has energized lines from Cloudcroft, north to Capitan, south to Weed, east to Elk, west to La Luz, which includes about 500 miles of energized lines. Thus through the growth of membership comes the growth of line mileage, thereby making it possible to serve a larger territory with rural power.

EDUCATIONAL MOVIE— Carpenters have gone into movie making with a new sound and color film called "The Carpenter." The film, which runs an hour, begins with the production of lumber in the Northwest, shows the skill and agility of the loggers and mill workers who cut the trees and turn them into lumber. The film shows how lumber is put to various uses in the production of furniture, houses, plywood, is of particular value for showing to vocational classes in woodwork. INSURANCE PROVES WORTH —About eight billion dollars has been paid out in benefits to unemployed workers since federal and state unemployment insurance legislation became effective.

Robert C. Goodwin, director of the U. S. Bureau of Employment Security, said in a statement on the fifteenth anniversary of the Social Security Act August 14th that the unemployment insurance program has made a notable contribution to the strengthening of the American economy.
 "During the several periods since 1939 when the country has been under a strain, unemployment insurance aided millions of workers over between jobs. The program showed its worth, particularly in the year following World War II, when more than five million workers drew benefits while the country reconverted to peacetime production.
 "Again, in the year ended June 30, 1950, which included a part of the inventory recession begun at the end of 1948, a record 7.5 million workers drew unemployment insurance. Thus, benefit payments have been made in greatest volume in periods when unemployment was rising sharply.
 "Unemployment compensation has not only served to meet a substantial part of the needs of

Buy Fertilizers Now, Agronomist Tells Farmers

Farmers should buy or order their fertilizer for next year's crop now. That's the advice of Gordon B. Hoff, extension agronomist with New Mexico A. & M. College.

"Higher prices for most farm products in 1951 over those in 1950 will make fertilizing profitable," Hoff explains. "Unkited States farmers have found that fertilizer pays, since the quantities of nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash has increased more than three times the 1935-39 average. New Mexico farmers are estimated to be using four times as much plant nutrients."

Potash isn't so important in New Mexico, the agronomist points out, but nitrogen and phosphate fertilizers are very necessary for top production of such crops as alfalfa, pastures and cotton.

Fertilizer supplies in 1951 are expected to meet an increased demand of about 10 per cent above 1950. If the demand is greater than that, seasonal or local scarcities may arise, particularly for nitrogen in those areas of New Mexico where cotton acreage may be expanded greatly.

The immediate problem in the way of more production of superphosphate is lack of adequate supplies of sulphuric acid, Hoff says.

"Since it is expected that fertilizer may be priced somewhat higher in 1951, that's another good reason to make arrangements to get necessary fertilizing materials," he advises. "Farmers may consult their county agents for fertilizer recommendations as well as for information on how to store the material."

To make the most money from layers, grow enough pullets each spring to replace the flock 100 per cent in the fall.

Individual unemployment workers in a period of stress but also increased consumer purchasing power when and where it would contribute most to strengthening the economy."

Town Population Grows

According to preliminary 1950 census figures, a little more than half of the people in New Mexico live in towns with more than 1,000 population. Nearly half of the counties have fewer people than they had 10 years ago, though the state's total population has increased by 27 per cent. In the estimation of Professor Ralph L. Edgel of the University of New Mexico, the increase shows a decided trend towards increases in cities, towns and villages, while rural population has decreased. Of the total preliminary census of 677,152, 347,259 persons live in 45 towns of 1,000 or more population. Ten years ago 201,354 lived in these towns.

"Error of opinion may be tolerated where reason is left free to combat it."—Thomas Jefferson.

In a previous article I have stressed the economies made by the present administration and have given examples of some departments carrying on a greater volume of work than was done some years ago with even fewer employees.

There are some places, however, where we have extended the service and added employees, and one of these is in the office of the Veterans Service Commission. It was in carrying out a pledge made our ex-service men. This commission offers help, advice and various types of assistance to veterans of all wars. Three years ago there was seven people employed in this department. At the present time 10 people are employed—four in the office and 12 in the field. Among the field men, two directly represent each of the three major veterans organizations and are especially well qualified to handle problems affecting veterans. Service officers are located at convenient points around the state.

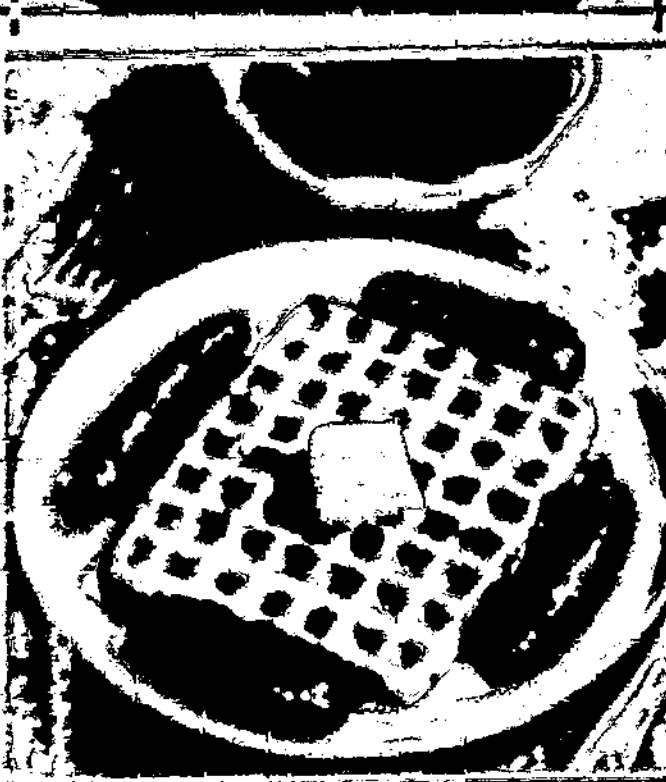

The Veterans Service Commission serves as legal guardian of minors, heirs of veterans, and of incompetents, wholly without cost to the veteran's estate or to their dependents.

Three years ago the commission had 37 guardianship cases involving only $40,000. At the present time the commission has 500 guardianship cases involving approximately $500,000; and from 10 to 15 new cases are added each month.

The commission also handles applications for GI insurance dividends and offers assistance to former prisoners of war who have prisoner of war claims.

In addition to the Veterans Service Commission, the present administration appointed the governor's approval committee to handle the veterans' on-the-job training program. Funds to help finance this approval program were made available by the State Board of Finance. Some 3,000 firms in the state had requested permission to train veterans on-the-job. Fourteen investigators were appointed to check these firms and see if they were qualified for veterans' training purposes. Those qualified were

Nurse Tells How Hadacol Was So Helpful To Her

Supplied Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron and Niacin Which Her System Lacked

Mrs. Jennie Lee Adels, 412 N. 37 St., East St. Louis, Ill., a nurse, says she wishes she had found out about HADACOL sooner because since taking HADACOL she feels so good. Mrs. Adels was suffering a deficiency of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin and Iron which HADACOL contains.

Here is Mrs. Adels' own statement: "I have been a nurse for over 14 years. My food never seemed to agree with me. I heard one day how so many folks were being helped because of HADACOL. I tried it and after a bottle I could tell a big improvement. Now I eat anything I want—sleep well and I am full of energy."

Why HADACOL Gives Such Fine Results

HADACOL does not bring just symptomatic relief. HADACOL now makes it possible to actually relieve the cause of aches and pains in the shoulders, legs and arms, certain nervous disturbances, and general run-down weakness condition due to deficiency of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin and Iron in your system.

HADACOL not only supplies deficient systems with extra quantities of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and Niacin but also helpful amounts of important Calcium and Phosphorus elements so vital to help maintain good health and physical fitness.

Why These Vitamins and Minerals Come in Liquid Form
There's a very good reason why HADACOL comes in special liquid form. These precious Vitamins and Minerals are absorbed easily and quickly absorbed into the blood stream this way—ready to go right to work. A big improvement is often noticed within a few days.

Don't Be A "Doubting Thomas"

After reading Mrs. Adels' wonderful experience with HADACOL—how can you doubt that this great new nutritional formula will help you if your system lacks Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Iron, and Niacin?

What HADACOL did for Mrs. Adels, it can do for you if you're troubled with aches and pains in the shoulders, legs, and arms, certain nervous disturbances, insomnia when due to an upset stomach, stomach distress and a general run-down weakened condition due to such deficiencies.

So what are you waiting for? Don't you see that HADACOL is the kind of product you need—the kind you should buy and the kind you should start taking immediately!

Sell On A Strict Money-Back Guarantee

HADACOL even helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when Iron is needed) to course through your body, carrying these great health-building elements to every body organ. No wonder HADACOL helps you feel wonderful.

Be fair to yourself! Give yourself a break if you have such deficiencies! Why continue to drag yourself around—a burden to yourself and your family—when relief may be as close as hand as your nearest drugstore if you suffer a deficiency of Vitamins B<sub>1</sub>, B<sub>2</sub>, Niacin and Iron. This great HADACOL is inexpensive, too—costs only a small amount a day. Trial size, only $1.35. Large family or hospital size, $3.50. If your drugstore does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The Lederle Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

deal of praise for their help in locating lost hunters, dousing fires, warning hunters of safety regulations, and keeping Lincoln County one of the best places in the state for good hunting.

Pioneer Exhibit To Open In Lincoln November 19

An exhibit of the tools and utensils of pioneer life, which appeared in the Roswell Museum under the title "What They Used," will travel to Lincoln for a two weeks showing which opens November 19. The show, announced by the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission, will run until December 3, and will be housed in the upstairs courtroom at the old courthouse in Lincoln.

Many of the items in the collection belong to Mr. and Mrs. Roman Maes and Mrs. Ruth Fenfield-Martin of Lincoln and to Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Bonnell of Glencoe.

Residents of Lincoln County will have seen many of these articles at various times but their presentation altogether as a coordinated showing should prove of interest to old and young alike. Further details about the show will be furnished next week.

1951 State Allotments For REA Show Decline

The Rural Electrification Administration has announced that a total of $312,713,779 will be available for electrification loans during the 1951 fiscal year. This figure compares with a total of $375,000,000 loaned during fiscal year 1950.

In keeping with established REA policy, state allotments have also been determined. The New Mexico allotment of loan funds is $1,806,014. In addition to the state allotment, an amount up to 10 per cent of state-allotted funds totaling $170,927,029 could be loaned any one state during the year.

On the basis of the total amount available for electrification loans, it is believed that rural electric borrowers will be able to continue on an orderly basis their programs for extending electric service.

Three State Celebration Marks Road Opening

A three-state celebration for opening of a new paved road from the Carlsbad Highway to Dell City, Texas, 87 miles east of El Paso in the heart of the Guadalupe Basin, will be held there Sunday, November 19.

Residents of New Mexico, Arizona and West Texas are invited to attend the day long festivities.

F. B. Magruder
 Appointment of F. B. Magruder as tax commissioner of Southern Pacific Company is announced by George L. Buland, general counsel for the railroad. From his office in San Francisco, Magruder will have jurisdiction over tax matters of the company throughout six western states and El Paso County, Texas. He succeeds H. B. Harding, whose retirement because of ill health was announced recently.

which will be featured by a free barbecue, square dancing and tours of the acreage under cultivation.

Exemplary civic officials from throughout the Southwest will attend the occasion dedicating the highway, which will give easy access to the rich, irrigated land made possible by the discovery four years ago of grant underground reservoir of water.

The new road branches off to the north from the Carlsbad Highway at a point 75 miles east of El Paso and is 13 1/2 miles long. Construction was started in September, 1950, and recently completed at a cost of $68,000 under the Texas farm-to-market program.

The irrigated farm area, started four years ago after ranchers discovered the underground reservoir, now has a school, church, cotton gin, two mercantile stores, two garages, a hardware store, lumber yard, two wholesale gasoline stations and one butane station. A second cotton gin is in the planning stage.

The area is located at the foot of Signal Peak and is surrounded by the Guadalupe Mountains on the east, Sacramento Mountains on the north, and Cornudas Mountains on the west. Drivers of the Butterfield stage in middle of the Nineteenth Century took a route that runs along the north side of Dell City's irrigated farms.

Three air strips are available for private fliers with single engine planes.
 A total of 12,000 acres is now under cultivation.

Productive land has played an important role in the development of our high standard of living.

Be Careful With Kerosene

Starting a fire with kerosene eliminates the need for kindling. It may also eliminate the home. Careless handling and use of flammable liquids cause 41,800 fires each year. Don't use gasoline or kerosene to hasten a fire in the cook or heater.

Time to buy trucks on something besides hearsay!

You can't afford to buy trucks by guess-work today. What you carry—how far and fast you carry it—under what road and traffic conditions—all must be considered in specifying the right truck for you in times like these.

Come in and see us—whether you want a 1/2-ton pickup or a giant Diesel 90,000 lb. GCW six-wheeler. We can give you exactly the right truck—designed for longer mileage with less maintenance expense—and it will be a real truck, engineered for your type of work.

That's why GMC sales are greater today than ever before. Truckers find they are best in the long haul. Let us show you why.

GMC Inaugurates New Road Service For Trucks

Owners of GMC trucks have been given another important free service feature with the inauguration of "Operator 25," which permits drivers on the road to locate the nearest GMC approved service by making only one telephone call.

The new system of finding GMC service facilities the easy way in any part of the nation is a phone call to the nearest Western Union office, whose Operator 25 tells the driver where to go for service.

"Operator 25" tells the locations of approved dealer service points for both GMC diesel and GMC gasoline powered trucks and truck-tractors.

The new service is the first of its kind in the trucking industry and is expected to save considerable time as well as being a convenience for operators of GMC units. The GMC truck and coach division will pay the cost of the system.

Eminent Scientist Expires In Virginia Hospital

Dr. Leland Bradley Snoddy, scientist eminent in electronic fields died November 12 in the University of Virginia Hospital. It was learned by his co-workers at the New Mexico School of Mines, Socorro, this week. Professor of physics at the University of Virginia since 1926, Dr. Snoddy expressed himself as "a westerner at heart" and spent much of his free time in New Mexico, California and eastern Washington.

Until forced by serious illness to return in mid-August to his home in Charlottesville, Va., Dr. Snoddy devoted the greater part of the last summer to research and consultation on the electricity of ice and other electronic problems at New Mexico School of Mines. He has made several trips to New Mexico and is well known to scientists here.

Dr. Snoddy's excellent reputation as a physicist stems from his work with extremely short intervals of time in atomic and other phenomena of physics. He studied the acceleration of electrons and ions, the separation of isotopes by ultra centrifuge, and transient phenomena in vacuum arc and spark discharges.

Dr. Snoddy is survived by his widow.

Carrizozo Movies

June Allyson and Dick Powell (Mr. and Mrs. in real life) will appear on the Lyric's screen November 19 and 20 in a drama of the prizefight game.

The story's action centers around middleweight champion Johnny Monterez, played by Ricardo Montalban, who is obsessed by a sense of social inferiority and a determination to achieve security. June Allyson plays the girl who is in love with Johnny, but believing he has betrayed the trust of her father, turns to sportswriter Dick Powell who has long carried a torch for her.

The conflict among the screen characters is resolved in the surprise climax wherein Johnny both loses and wins his last round.

who was to become his wife—Bernice Elaine Spiller—in 1911. In July, 1912, he was selected buyer for the dry goods department of the old Carrizozo Trading Company, and came here to live. His fiancée, Miss Spiller, daughter of Mrs. Lela Spiller, a resident of Santa Rosa, was teaching school in Fort Sumner. The young couple were married at the home of the bride in Santa Rosa November 28, 1912. They resided in Carrizozo until the spring of 1913 when the bridegroom was again advised to seek outside work to improve his health.

In May, 1913, the Nickels homesteaded a ranch in the Bernardo Gap country approximately nine miles from Carrizozo, where they gradually increased their land holdings.

In 1914, Mrs. Nickels returned to the teaching profession and taught in the schools of Carrizozo as well as others over the county. Mr. Nickels contracted the flu during the epidemic of 1918, from which he never sufficiently recovered to perform heavy ranch work. As a result he became interested in writing and did a series of "The Hungry Rusty" stories as well as other stories which appeared in the "Wild West Weekly," "Argosy" and "Blue Book." Many of his stories centered around the adventures of Billy the Kid, famous Lincoln County character in territorial days. He also wrote a number of other adventure stories.

His writing activities were curtailed by a fall from his horse which so severely injured his back it was a strain to sit at a typewriter.

In 1917, the family had moved to Lincoln where they purchased an irrigated farm. This farm was sold in 1919 and the Nickels moved to Alto but found the altitude too high for Mr. Nickels and they returned to Carrizozo in 1921. Mrs. Nickels taught in the Carrizozo schools until the spring of 1940, and in Lincoln County schools until 1945 when they purchased the Jakes Spring ranch, approximately 11 miles southwest of Carrizozo. The couple had made their home there since then.

Mr. Nickels is survived by his widow; one son, William H. Nickels, and two daughters, Mrs. Fred Picture, Austin, Texas, and Mrs. R. K. Cook, Yucca, Ariz.; seven grandchildren, Mary and William Nickels Jr., Carrizozo; Sammy and Sharon Picture, Austin, Texas, and Sue Ann, Janice and Bobby Cook, Yucca, Ariz., as well as two brothers, John B. and E. P. Nickels of Sarasota, Fla.,

Sailor-Soldier Brothers Reunite In Alabama

Carrizozo brothers, David A. and Frank Sanchez, reunited recently at Mobile, Ala., approximately 1,600 miles from here, where David is stationed at Brookley Air Base.

Frank Sanchez, HM2 with the U. S. Navy, en route to attend a special medical school in Washington, D. C., stopped off in Mobile. The two brothers traveled to Moultrie, Ga., for an anticipated visit with their uncle, Joe Maese, but upon arrival learned the uncle had moved to Memphis, Tenn. David returned to Brookley Air Base, while Frank continued on to the nation's capital.

Another brother, Frederick, is stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Ord, Calif., which makes one family represented in three branches of military service.

The nation's corn production this year is estimated at 3,163 million bushels. In addition, 550 million bushels are being carried over. This means the total corn supply will be second only to last year's record amount.
