Tentative O.K. Given Tinnie-Arabela Road

Frank Horn, right of way agent for the State Highway Department, met with the county commissioners at a special meeting Tuesday called in connection with the special election scheduled for September 18 on eight amendments to the state constitution.

Horn showed the commissioners blueprints of the proposed road construction which has been programmed by the State Highway Department and tentatively approved by the Federal Bureau of Public Roads. It is expected that representatives of the federal bureau will be in the county shortly to inspect and either approve or disapprove the present survey. It is not known when actual construction will get underway, but if the federal bureau approves the survey, it is anticipated the work may be started after the first of the year. Horn pointed out there would not be sufficient money at this time to complete the seven miles as approved by the commissioners, and that present plans call for five miles of grade, drain and base course starting at Tinnie on the road from there to Arabela.

The commissioners said no further information is available on the proposed bridge construction across Moore Canyon.

J. G. Moore, county clerk, told the commissioners $11,838.65 had been received as the county's share of the gasoline tax fund.

The commissioners approved a resolution to request approval of the state comptroller for transfers of $8,000 from the county road fund to the funds for salaries, health, special election, audit and agricultural agent. The road fund would be repaid from the November tax collections.

The commissioners discussed the coming special election on September 18, concerning which a proclamation must be issued and judges and clerks named for the various voting precincts over which they will be in charge.

Information regarding the location of the voting precincts and names of judges and clerks will be released at a later date.

A general discussion of road grading over the county was held, but at this time no change in the present schedule of the county road crew is anticipated.

New Carrizozo Store Damaged By Fire

A new store in Carrizozo which is being stocked in preparation for its opening and operation in the near future by the Petty brothers narrowly escaped destruction Monday when a fire in the rear of the building burned through into a small room where some merchandise was stored.

The flames consumed telephone and light wires leading into the building, which made it necessary to shut off power in that area for a short time. Windows in the back of the store burst from the intense heat, which also blew off the stopper on an oil tank on the outside thereby allowing the oil to escape onto the ground. The fence which enclosed the rear yard remained standing, but the wood was badly charred.

The blaze is believed to have started from some boxes which inadvertently caught fire when an employe attempted to burn papers in a trash container.

Vernon Petty, one of the brothers and operators of Petty's General Merchandise here, said the fire was extinguished before it had an opportunity to destroy much of the stock stored in the back room. Petty added insurance carried on the building and merchandise is believed sufficient to cover the loss, an estimate of which is not yet available.

Fire Chief Fay Harkey credited R. L. (Friday) Sherrill, member of the local volunteer fire department, with the quick thinking which probably confined the flames to the rear portion of the store. The fire chief said Sherrill without being told grabbed a length of hose, darted to the front of the building and through the store to play a stream of water on the fire and keep it from spreading. So efficient was the work of the local fire crew that not even smoke damage is noticeable on the walls.

Howard E. Harkey Weds Cruces Girl

By ALLIE SNOODGRASS

A wedding of interest in Lincoln County is that of Miss Barbara Ellen Wahl, Las Cruces, and Howard E. Harkey, Ancho, which will take place at the First Presbyterian Church in the former city on Sunday at 6 P. M.

Rev. Frank F. Jones will hear the vows which will be repeated before an altar of flowers and palms, lighted by tall white tapers in branched candelabra.

The bride-elect, who will be given in marriage by her father, has selected a bridal gown of white marquisette with fitted bodice fastened from the neckline to the waist with a row of tiny buttons, cap sleeves and full skirt. With it she will wear elbow length white mitts and a fingertip veil of nylon net draped from a cap of net and lilies of the valley. Her shower bouquet will be white gladioli outlined with baby's breath and stephanotis with white ribbon decor.

Miss Barbara Hansen, Coos Bay, Ore., as maid of honor and the bride's only attendant, has chosen a blue marquisette frock with tight fitting jacket. White chaste daisies will form her crown cap and shower bouquet.

Richard Harkey, Ancho, will perform the best man's duties for his brother, George Norcross and Paul Wahl, both of Las Cruces, will usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wahl will wear a gown of pale pink lace, and the senior Mrs. Harkey's frock is of summer sheer. Their corsages will be white carnations.

Miss Alberta Curry, who is to play traditional nuptial selections as the guests assemble at the church, will also be the pianist for the processional and recessional marches.

The church undercroft has been selected as the setting for the reception which will follow the wedding rites. The three-tiered cake which is to center the lace covered bridal table will be pointed up by the lighted tapers on either side. Mrs. Chester Hansen will cut slices of cake for the guests after the first one is cut by the couple. Mrs. Fred Lemon will pour while Mrs. Lois Loughrey, El Paso, presides at the guest book.

The bridal pair will leave after the reception for a honeymoon to a destination which they have not yet disclosed. The new Mrs. Harkey will be wearing a palm beach suit with navy blue accessories when they leave.

The bride-elect, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Wahl, Las Cruces, formerly resided in Iowa City, Iowa. A graduate of Las Cruces Union High School, she has made her home in Las Cruces for the past two years.

Mr. Harkey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harkey, Ancho, attended schools in Lincoln County and graduated from New Mexico A. & M. College at Las Cruces.

Upon their return from the wedding trip, the couple will reside in Las Cruces where Mr. Harkey is associated with the Prichard Book and Stationery Company.

Work Started On New Methodist Church Here

Construction on a new building for the Carrizozo Trinity Methodist Church is underway. Rev. Ray Miller reported this week. George McBride, Captain, contractor for the work, expects to complete the structure by September 15. The foundation is in and the concrete floor is being laid.

The new building which is designed for use as an educational unit contains nine classrooms, a kitchen and two rest rooms. The exterior walls are to be constructed of concrete blocks and the roof is built up with layers of roofing material and asphalt. The final decision on exterior and interior decoration has not yet been made.

Four of the classrooms may be converted for use as one large dining room or recreation room by rolling back accordion-type folding wall partitions. After the present church building is torn down and prior to the completion of the sanctuary, church services will be held in this convertible room.

The plans for the new building were drawn by M. L. Powell, Carrizozo grade school principal. Rev. Miller will conduct his last services for the local church Sunday, September 2, at which time F. Lee Willshire, district superintendent for the Albuquerque district, is expected to announce the name of the pastor who will replace Rev. Miller.

Rev. Miller and his family are moving to Roswell where the minister will serve as chaplain and teacher of social studies at New Mexico Military Institute.

M., he is scheduled to speak on the subject of subversive organizations and the duty of the American people in combating them. A large crowd is expected to attend the barbeque supper and hear the governor.

Southern Pacific Assists Village In Water Crisis

Southern Pacific officials were in Carrizozo Wednesday to assist in flushing the pipes in the village's water system. The railroad company is giving the village free of charge all the water necessary to do an adequate job of flushing its pipeline, a considerable amount of which is required for proper cleansing.

Village and railroad officials acted quickly when it was learned the water within Carrizozo had again been found to contain germs in the coliform group. A telegram received by Mayor Vernon Petty on Tuesday from the State Health Department indicated the presence of the contaminating germs in a sample of water taken on Aug. 16.

Petty immediately wired Southern Pacific officials in El Paso for sufficient water to thoroughly cleanse the pipes within the village since the contamination appeared to exist only in the Carrizozo supply. The company responded by sending an engineer to assist in flushing the pipelines which work was started Wednesday.

Dr. J. P. Turner, local physician, when notified by city officials of the water contamination, advised all drinking water be boiled until it again tests pure.

First Women Jurors Serve In Lincoln County

The first women to serve as jurors in Lincoln County reported for duty last week on a case heard before Carrizozo Justice of the Peace Manuel V. Chavez. The women jurors included Misses Ottilia Vega, Helen Jean Kelt and Mrs. Myrtle Smith, all of Carrizozo.

The case on which they sat in judgment was that of Tomas Sanchez, Hondo, who was charged with "entering without consent" and the complaining witness was Emelia Torrez, also of Hondo. The case ended with a hung jury and another trial is scheduled for September 14.

Lincoln County residents who have been notified to report for federal jury duty in Santa Fe on September 11, during the fall term of federal court, include: Fred Large, Corona; Eliseo Gomez, San Patricio, and Truman A. Spencer Jr., Carrizozo.

Carrizozo Country Club To Hold Supper-Dance

The two groups will host the invitational luncheon at 1:30 P. M. in the VFW Hall at Capitlan for members of the two organizations and their guests. Governor Mechem is expected to reach Capitlan about 10 A. M. and spend the remainder of the morning and the afternoon in meeting and chatting with residents of the village.

At 5 P. M. a free barbeque supper will be served at the VFW Hall and residents of Lincoln County are cordially invited to attend this event. Following supper, Governor Mechem will address the assembly on the subject of subversive organizations and the duty of the American people in combating them. He is scheduled to start his speech at 7:30 P. M.

Dancing is planned as the final portion of the entertainment program, but an announcement concerning the name of the orchestra was not available at press time.

A large crowd is anticipated for the barbeque supper and evening events.

Lions To Discontinue Monday Night Skating

lack of patronage as the reason, but said skating on Monday nights will be resumed at any time in the future there is assurance of sufficient customers to make it practical. Monday nights have been reserved in the past for adult skaters only.

The local Lions emphasized, however, they are continuing their program of roller skating for the general public on Friday night of each week at Miller's Hall, west of Carrizozo, on Highway 380.

Hondo High Student Awarded Scholarship

By FERMIN MONTES
Marjorie Titworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titworth of Hondo, has been awarded a scholarship and will attend Eastern New Mexico College in Portales this fall. The scholarship was awarded on the basis of a high scholastic standing during her four years of high school.

During her senior year, Marjorie was a prominent leader in some of the school's major activities. She was editor of the Yucca, the school annual, and editor of The Teacher's Scream, the school newspaper. Marjorie, an honor student, was admired by her associates, and was unanimously elected athletic queen. She was selected as one of Hondo High's three girl favorites. During her junior year, she represented her school at Girls State.

From her many, many friends is a sincere wish for success and happiness in her new station. Her willingness to work to complete an undertaking, her friendly ways of dealing with her fellow worker, and the loyalty with which she upheld the banner of her school, will be missed by all at Hondo High School.

Lions Schedule Chuck Wagon Supper Sept. 8

Invitations are being sent to other Lions Clubs in the county in the hope their members will stimulate interest in the State Fair Queen contest among the eligibles in their communities. Other contacts are also planned to encourage participation in the affair on a county-wide basis.

Last year's winner in the Lincoln County contest, Miss Veda Lou Branum, Carrizozo, reported she had a marvelous time at the State Fair and enjoyed every minute of the entire nine days. She said she was glad to have had the opportunity to represent Lincoln County and knows that the girl who is selected this year will thoroughly enjoy her visit in the Duke City.

Fruit plans for the September 8 celebration have not yet been completed but the Carrizozo Lions promise residents of Lincoln County entertainment to meet a variety of preferences. For instance, there will be washboard polo and duck roping for the adventurous souls; a fiddlers' contest for the music lovers; and dancing for those who like exercise. And for the individuals who prefer to sit and watch, the famous Ancho Square Dancers Club have consented to perform their fast and intricate steps. The chuck wagon and its corps of skilled cooks will be on hand as usual to serve the traditional western style dinner that makes mouths water just to think of it.

You girls who are single, permanent residents of Lincoln County, and between the ages of 16 and 19, inclusive, and believe you have ability in putting a horse through its paces should not delay another minute in getting into the State Fair Queen contest.

The Carrizozo Lions Club reminds all Lincoln County cowgirls who are eligible to submit their entry now to the News-Outlook in the competition for a county representative in the State Fair Queen contest. Other rules set up by the State Fair Board are: Contestant must be a permanent resident of county in New Mexico from which entry is submitted; only one girl from each county may compete in finals at the fair; contestant will be judged 50 per cent on personality and 50 per cent on horsemanship; contestant must agree to appear at opening day ceremonies at State Fair, ride in opening parade, and attend rodeo ceremonies the first night; all girls may remain as guests at the State Fair for the entire nine days with food and lodging provided. Washington Newsletter

By JOHN J. DEMPSEY, M. C. WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug 23—Officials and representatives of the Economic Co-operation Administration have been warned that they must not interfere with the internal affairs, economic or political, of any European nation in carrying out functions delegated to them under the Mutual Security Act.

That warning came from the chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Rep. Richards (Dem. SC.), last Friday night after I had made a speech in the House pointing out that the plan announced by ECA, and already issued as a directive to its representatives in European countries, would lead the United States "in to an unwarranted and undemocratic intrusion into the internal affairs of those European nations allied with us in the struggle against Communism."

Chairman Richards announced to the House, following my speech, that he heartily agreed with me that the announced ECA plan proposed undue interference with the affairs of the other countries and that, if it was carried out, we could be rightfully charged with being meddlers and dictators. He said further that unless ECA materially altered its plan of operation so as to assure Congress that no such interference would be allowed, legislation would be passed which would impose proper restrictions on ECA.

The ECA plan, called the Production Assistance Drive, was obtained by me from the State Department after I had learned that it was filled with instructions to our representatives to pass into the other governments and take into their own hands virtual regulation of the economy, politics, tax structure and management-labor relations of the European countries.

After quoting several portions of the ECA directive to the House I said, "If this plan were to be carried out, this great democracy of ours could be justly accused of overstepping the bounds of international propriety and of failing to respect the sovereign rights of our allies and friends in Europe."

"The fact that we are spending huge sums in the ECA program of assistance to those countries does not give us that right, I asserted, saying:

"True, we are spending vast sums to help them regain their national strength and vigor. Equally true, we are helping ourselves at the same time because that renewed strength is being thrown into the fight against Communist aggression and lust for world power."

"We must not let our nation assume the role of a dictator—even of a beneficent dictator."

"It takes no stretch of the imagination to know what we would reply to such a proposal made to us by another nation. We are, however, more forthright than the Communists who seek the same objective through infiltration and other sinister methods."

As a result it is certain the ECA plan for international meddling will have to be abandoned.

Control of New Mexico's National Guard will remain with the state, instead of being vested in the Defense Department as originally provided for by the Armed Reserve Act of 1951.

At the instance of Governor Edwin L. Mechem and Brig. Gen. Charles G. Sage, Adjutant General of New Mexico, I raised objections before the House Armed Services Committee to provisions of the original bill which would virtually federalize the New Mexico and other National Guard organizations and leave the state only secondary control of its own military forces. Similar protests came from many other states and the National Guard Association and the Adjutants General Association of the United States.

As a result the Armed Services Committee in a meeting August 17 virtually rewrote the original bill eliminating the objectionable provisions. I have been advised by Governor Mechem and General Sage the measure which will now go to the Congress for action is satisfactory.

By a vote of 318 to 45 the House Friday overrode the veto by President Truman of the bill to provide a pension of $120 a month to veterans of World Wars I and II who are helpless to the point of needing the constant aid and attendance of another person—those who are blind or otherwise totally incapacitated. The President ascribed his veto to economy reasons. Most of the members of the House felt it to be parsimony instead of economy. They voted accordingly. The Senate is expected to take similar action.

My personal viewpoint is that there are myriad other places, including Europe, where we can and should practice economy first.

Now comes the White House with a request for 307 millions for military assistance to Nationalist China. Congress authorized 60 millions for Chang Kai-shek's government two years ago and it wasn't used. I am wholeheartedly in favor of this help for the Nationalists. If it had been given months ago Chang's government wouldn't have been "sold down the river" and we wouldn't have had 80 thousand casualties in Korea, because the Nationalists would have been able to keep the Chinese Reds so busy they couldn't even with Russia's prodding—have taken on the Korean fight against UN forces. General MacArthur wanted us to do what the White House now wants. That was one reason he was fired. Millions of Chinese people don't want Communist government, but our vacillating policy towards the Nationalists has kept them from open rebellion against it. Congress should OK the assistance proposal quickly. Too many American boys have died in Korea needlessly already. As long as we are spending billions for for-ign aid we certainly should spend some of it where it will save American lives now.

Massey from Memphis, Tenn., and a daughter, Dorothy, who teaches at Espanola, were visitors here during the weekend. Mrs. Kerr has two other daughters, Martha and Julia, who are teaching in Coronad school. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wellin and sons, Ed and Dickie, of Duluth, Minn., were visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Carl I. Ryberg, the past weekend. The Wellins and Ryberks formerly lived in Chicago. Mrs. D. H. Peeples was called to Dallas, Texas, last week because of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Mary Ellen Saco. The Corona School picnic at Red Cloud canyon given for the benefit of the teachers was attended by a large number of patrons and friends as well as all the teachers Sunday, August 19. A beautiful dinner was served under the pines. An annual affair of this kind and a weekly assembly program gets parents and teachers to know one another and makes for better co-operation for the good of the school. Mrs. C. C. Ashcraft and daughter, Yvonne, left Monday for El Paso and from there will go to Tombstone, Arizona, for a two weeks visit with friends. Miss Carol Ann Babb plans to leave August 31 for business college at Lubbock, Texas. Miss Joy Ann McInnis will also leave soon for business college at Roswell. Miss Domion and Miss Wamsy from the Mission School at Truchas presented a most interesting program of stories and pictures at the Presbyterian church last Thursday, August 10. Remember family night in the basement recreation room of the Presbyterian church Monday, August 27, at 7:00 p. m. Everyone is invited to join us in a covered dish supper. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dollohitte of Hagerman announce the arrival of Lesley Joe July 27. Mrs. Dollohitte was the former Miss Salura Simpson, granddaughter of Mrs. J. A. Simpson of Corona. Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Moore and son, Eugene, of Yucalpa, Calif., and Marlon Hudson, Anna Hudson and Robert S. Manning, 85, of Los Angeles were visiting here recently.

The fact that insects can carry diseases was not known until 1891. The discovery was made by agricultural scientists who proved that ticks spread Texas fever of cattle and insects carry pear blight from tree to tree.

FORT STANTON

By FLOSSY NESS Mr. and Mrs. Boyd and daughter, Clare, are vacationing in Greeley, Colo. Dr. and Mrs. Heck and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parker were visitors to El Paso and Juarez south of the border this last weekend. The Parkers are sporting a new blue "Rocket 88" Oldsmobile. Bert Minters had some fine luck at San Marcial lake this past weekend; he returned with two beautiful cats, fish we mean; those be-whiskered specimens tipped the scales at 32 and 25 pounds, respectively. Wesley Young, daughter Wanda, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ferguson made the trip to Clovis to attend the meeting of the State Game-Protective Organization. The Emmet Womacks are back on their jobs again after spending two weeks in Dallas, and one week in Albuquerque. Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Welch and son Greg visited a few days with the Ray Bakers, Mrs. Welch was employed at the San Francisco Marine Hospital as a nurse the same time that Mrs. Baker worked there some 10 years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burleson Jr. are spending a week with the senior Burlesons. Last Sunday they enjoyed a family picnic at Monjeau. Other visitors entertained by the Burlesons this past week were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dean. Mrs. Dean is a sister of Mrs. Burleson Jr. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Simmons were guests of the Clyde Mullins. The Simmons make their home at Albuquerque. Miss Ellen Howell of the nursing staff is in Davenport, Iowa, where she was called by the sad news of the death of her mother. Mrs. Holderman, also of the staff, is enjoying a visit to Fort Collins, Colo. Miss McGill, who was recently transferred here, has purchased a shiny new Chevrolet. She undoubtedly wants to take in some of the fine sights of the Sunshine State. On an invitation from Harold Thornberry, member of the Carlsbad chapter of the "Barber Shop Quartets," we drove to Clouderoff last Saturday to attend the convention of "Barber Shop Quartets." Four states represented were Oklahoma, Arizona, Texas and New Mexico. It was really a festival of music with new songs and songs of yesterday beautifully rendered. The aim of the organization is to preserve and to encourage quartet singing so that this typical phase of America will live on through the years to come. Before we left we were promised by the Roswell and Carlsbad chapters that they would come to Fort Stanton sometime this fall to entertain the patients and personnel of this post. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Kenney visited with the Adolph Wilsons this past week. Senior "Don Jose Totten," better known as Herb, the X-ray technician, has acquired a rare type of dog. He has catalogued it as "an African antelope hound."

NOGAL MESA

By MRS. HENRY PEEBLES The Gucks are home but Dorothy asked me to take over one more week while she rests up a bit from the long drive home. I hope you have read her article on the ranchmen's camp meeting in the "Christian Advocate," and the one in the July issue of "Farmer-Stockman." If you haven't seen the June issue of "Child Life," with a full page picture of Judy Bell and Smokey, the cub bear of the Captain fire, well, you've missed something. After reading the story that accompanied the picture, I can understand why Dorothy was so popular with the little folks as the nature teacher in the radio program, "School of the Air," for which, by the way, she wrote her own scripts. Paul Jones was sure glad to see Ranger Guck home. Lightning struck on the Bonito last week and set a fire that burned about 10 acres. Paul decided that being boss was worse than a firefighter, but he did a swell job anyway. We had a very pleasant trip to Albuquerque last week to attend the 14th annual New Mexico ram sale August 15-16 at the fair grounds. There were several Lincoln County ranchers there including Ed Nelson, Charlie Fuller and Herman Goodrum. Austin Albert, our county extension agent, was also there busily at work in the office. I wish I could give you a full report on this sale but we were there only for the first day of selling. Four hundred seventy-six rams of different breeds were listed, mostly in pens of five, as well as three pens of ewes that Wayne Hansen brought down from his ranch in Utah. Only eight rams were put up for single sale and three of them consigned by J. K. Madsen and Co. of Utah was most in demand if the highest price had anything to do with it. My son, Bob, thought he just had to have one of them for his 4-H project of registered rambouillet, but his dad said he paid enough to buy a whole flock of sheep. The highest price for Madsen's No. 1 ram was $610, but I didn't get the buyer's name. Prentiss Harris, a former teacher in the Capitlan school, paid $490 for the next, while Bobbie Peebles got his for $410. The fourth highest price on the list was a Wayne Hansen ram, also a rambouillet, that sold for $117.50. While the men were talking, I walked around admiring the beautiful fair grounds, green lawns, colorful flower beds and a large addition to the dairy barns, which is almost completed. In preparation for the State Fair which opens Sept. 23.

The drought is still with us on the Mesa, the rain gauge shows we have only had .94 inch so far this month. More and more stock tanks are going dry. Virgil Jones is pumping water for their cattle. Lee Smith of Clovis spent the weekend with the D. O. Jones. He returned home Monday with his wife and children who had been visiting Mrs. Smith's parents for the past two weeks. Several other members of the Jones family met on the Bonito Sunday for a family picnic. Ben Pfingsten and his nephew, "Arizona Bob," are doing chores for Peg and Leota Pfingsten while they are attending the Bradford reunion in Mancon, Colo. Bob is the son of Jack Pfingsten and will stay with his uncle Ben until school starts. A. J. Blyens, vocational agriculture teacher at the Capitlan school, visited the ranger station Monday to see about a project for Tom Guck in his FFA club. Mickey will stay in the 4-H club work and has received a brand new record book from Austin Albert, the county agent. Both boys plan to feed a calf for their project. Laying hens need a good supply of oyster shell to supply calcium for egg shells. Plan for the future. Buy U. S. Defense Bonds.

CAPITAN

By MARY WERNER

The three-day rodeo put on by the Lincoln County Ropers Club was very successful as to entertainment and performance. However, I won't speak for the attendance. I can say that the ones that missed the show as well as the barbecue certainly missed something. The dinner was one of the best.

The Capitan Woman's Club met Friday evening at their regular meeting. This was the annual flower show. There were so many beautiful flowers that the judges had quite a time deciding on the best for each prize. As there were so many varieties there were too many first, second and thirds to name here. We certainly appreciate all flowers sent. Mrs. Frank Titworth of Tinnie brought several kinds of flowers to exhibit. Her odd sunflowers took a ribbon as well as her dahlias. The Capitan club will be host to the fourth district convention in October.

The following boys are home from their different stations in the service: Chester Dale, Floyd Sandoval, Conrad Chavez and Frank Chavez. All of them are looking fine. Am sure that Army life is agreeing with them.

Mrs. Phil Blaise and Miss Jean Utterback were co-hostesses to a surprise "welcome home and birthday party" for Mrs. Blaise's 6-year-old daughter, Betty Hampton. The party was held under the trees near the old grade school Monday, August 20, for 37 guests. After many active games, the children enjoyed the birthday cake served with punch. The guest list included: LaWanna Kent, Donna Kay Kent, Mary Evelyn and Ella Ruth Jackson, Paul and Mike Randle, Sally and Billy Cloud, Pamela Sue Hill, Billy Humphries, Ronald and Mike Gaston, Jane, Marilyn and Kenny Cozzens, Billy and Winkle Bancroft, Mary Ann and Janis McKnight, Roy Morgan, Irene Hobbs, Judy and Jeanette LaMay, Fern Sweet, Junior and Janice Wigley, Joanne Earl, Betty Walker, Glenda Peters, Frances Jones, Loretta Jones, Patricia Hammett, Martha McKnight, Dianne Shaw and Judy Minters, Bonnie and Darlene Payne.

Mr. and Mrs. Dahl Kirkpatrick and children of Albuquerque spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Aldrich. Mrs. Kirkpatrick is a niece of Mr. Aldrich. The Aldrichs are looking forward to having their little grand daughter Suzie Aldrich also of Albuquerque down to spend a week or so with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayfield and Myrum visited the Ferris family in Capitan a few days. They also made a trip to Las Cruces to visit Mrs. Mayfield's brother. En route here they stopped for a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Glatfelter. Jack has to be back in Oklahoma for football practice Saturday.

The Capitan Round Table Club held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. William Ferguson Thursday. A delicious roast beef dinner was served to eight members and two guests. The guests for the day were Mrs. Adda Sellers and Mrs. Ina Bookless. This being the last meeting for Mrs. Earl, she was presented with a beautiful multicolored silk scarf.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Earling have returned from an extended visit in the East, in and around Boston. They enjoyed the television so much I doubt if we will be able to hold them here if we do not get TV or something equally as good.

Special installation services were held Wednesday night, August 15, for the newly elected officers of the James A. Hipp Unit No. 27 of the Capitan American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Edna Laramie was in charge of the services. The officers were presented with lovely corsages as they took their oaths of office.

The newly installed officials are: Vice president, Mrs. Percy Parker; historian, Mrs. Jeff Dockray; sergeant at arms, Mrs. Warren Gaston. Mrs. L. W. Clark is the newly elected president but due to her absence she was unable to take oath of office. Mrs. Clark is visiting relatives in Arizona. The secretary-treasurer-elect, Mrs. J. W. Earling, and Mrs. Clark will be installed at a later date. As outgoing president of the unit, Mrs. Tom Utterback received a past president's pin and the unit's thanks for a job well done during the past year.

The Capitan unit was also presented a trophy for its work on Americanism. As chairman of the Americanism committee, Mrs. L. W. Clark will receive a personal gift. The trophy and gift were presented to the unit by the New Mexico department.

LINCOLN

By MRS. J. E. PHILLIPS

Old Lincoln Day seems to have left a trail of bad colds, along with pleasant memories of the day itself behind it. John Davis had virus pneumonia but is feeling better now. Red Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. Cristobal Zamora and several other members of their family, Mrs. Dockay, Mrs. Wright and others have had severe colds.

Lincoln people greatly appreciated the cooperation of people up and down the valleys in helping put on the pageant. It just couldn't have been done without their help.

I just must mention the fact that I have never seen any other large crowd of people as well behaved as the one in Lincoln August 12. Everyone I saw seemed happy. No crowding or complaining. It was truly wonderful.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Taylor of Worthington, Ohio, who have been visiting Mrs. Taylor's grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Pfingsten, have returned to their home, taking Mrs. Pfingsten with them for an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lasaro Zamora came over from Albuquerque Saturday evening to get their little daughter, Jo Anne, who has been staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cristobal Zamora.

Mrs. Annie Ramey is still quite ill. However, she seems to be improving slowly and maybe we'll see her around again before long. I hope so—we all miss her.

Well, the school bell rings again Monday. I always enjoy seeing the school children go past and having them drop in.

Mrs. Lloyd Hulbert's brother from Tempe, Ariz., visited her last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bonnel and son, Harvey, of Glencoe, visited the Phillips Monday evening. We saw a lot of friends and had a good time at the Ropers Club rodeo Sunday. The barbecue was delicious.

Mr. and Mrs. Trinidad Gameroz are home from Mexico on vacation. They are driving a handsome new automobile.

The Auxiliary picnic in the Jicarilla mountains Thursday the 16th was a big success. A good crowd, lots of eats—but alas, no rain!!!

Ancho Square Dance Club met on August 11th. After a month's vacation due to heat. Had a nice crowd and everyone had a good time as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Knight are proud parents of a baby boy born August 17 at the hospital in Carrizozo. Danny is his name, and are the two grandmothers happy.

The B. W. Wilsons are moving cattle out to greener pastures. Roe Lovelace from Corona has been visiting Jo Ann Straley several days this week. They took in the rodeo in Capitan Saturday. Walt and Ruth Wilson will be moving into a new house soon. More about that later.

Phone Co. Says Earnings Must Be Improved

After studying the August 13 order of the Corporation Commission calling for suspension of rate schedules made effective by the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company with billing periods beginning June 28, the company issued this statement this week:

"We believe there is no question regarding the fact that every lawful practice was followed in filing the new schedule of rates in May which provided 30 days' notice before the effective date. It was done in exact compliance with constitutional provisions as interpreted by numerous Supreme Court decisions.

"After the filing, the commission announced that it would employ independent experts to help determine the reasonableness of the rates and a hearing date has been set by the commission. At this hearing, as we have done before, we will present all of the facts and company records which may be of interest. In fact, we are providing such information now to independent accountants employed by the commission.

"The company has considered the possibility of seeking a determination of the legality of the order in the Supreme Court, but found that it had no right to appeal to the court unless this were done before the effective date of the order. Since the order was served to become effective immediately without advance notification, recourse to the Supreme Court initiated by the company was not possible. The company feels it has no alternative except to state that it cannot accede to the order of the commission. A letter fully explaining the company's position was delivered to the commission Monday, Aug. 20.

"The letter points out that to provide service to those who are waiting and to continue to expand and improve the service to meet civilian and military demands, earnings must be improved to attract the large amounts of additional money from investors to finance large construction programs ahead.

"The rate of telephone growth in New Mexico has been faster than in any state in the country in the last 10 years—about seven times the population's growth—the increase in telephones during the past two and a half years equal as many telephones as were added from 1836 to 1939. Over $9,000,000 has been spent in the last two years and this year's program calls for $5,600,000.

"The same inflationary spiral that has affected everyone in business or in running a household has had the same impact on the telephone company. Our rate schedule was designed to provide sufficient revenue to enable us to go ahead without endangering our ability to furnish the amount and kind of service the people of New Mexico desire."

Interest Growing in Old Refrigerator Contest

Interest is growing in the Philco "Old Refrigerator Derby" sponsored by the Harkey Lumber Company, Carrizozo, according to Jack Harkey, a son of the company's owner.

Harkey said this week a number of individuals have registered and urged other residents in the area who have old refrigerators that are not yet registered to do so immediately as the time is drawing short to take advantage of the opportunity to win the two-door deluxe Philco refrigerator plus a Philco radio-phonograph.

The local businessman stated there are a number of additional prizes to be awarded in the derby, and stressed there are no slogans to write, nothing to buy, and nothing to do except register your old refrigerator. He added the refrigerator must be an electric one and in use in your home and in operating condition. Winners are not required to turn in their old refrigerators. Harkey emphasized refrigerator owners should not be discouraged about entering the contest just because their models were not of the Year One's vintage since with the number of prizes to be given away absolutely free, there are a number of opportunities to win valuable merchandise.

The hardware man pointed out the contest is open to adults in this area who are actual owners of the old refrigerators, and warned that August 31 is absolutely the last day to register. Winners, he said, will be notified as soon as possible after the close of the contest.

all the commercial courses. Short-hand will be offered if enough students wish to take the course. Mrs. Irene Stevens will teach all the social studies and will be the girls' physical education teacher. Mrs. Ethel Maes will again be the school librarian. Mrs. Lorene Radcliff will work in the superintendent's office. Mike Maes will continue his work as the school custodian. The bus drivers are Albert Kimbrell, Ben Sanchez, Pete Salcido and Eloy Torrez. Torrez will be driving a small bus and will haul all students residing across the river at Hondo. This is an additional bus in our district.

Our school custodian has done a wonderful job in preparing the school building for the new school term. All the woodwork has been given a new coat of paint and school desks varnished. Our new athletic field has been leveled, more and cleared of rocks; it is now ready for use. There will be four new electric sewing machines in the home economics department as well as six new typewriters in the commercial department.

The 1950-51 school year was one of the outstanding terms in the history of the Hondo High School, but 1951-52 will undoubtedly surpass all others. Our fine school band will be in its second year of work and having lost only two students, this year's performances will be a continued source of pride to our many friends. The fiesta-dancers will be striving for bigger and better performances during the 1951-52 school year. With a fine corps of teachers on hand, a pleasant and cooperative public to help us, and with the finest group of students to work for, we are ready for a good year's work. Monday we will register and on Tuesday classes get underway. We want all of our students in school without unnecessary delays.

be subject to the rules and regulations of its management, and contestants must provide a horse and arrange for its and her transportation to and from Albuquerque. Because of scarcity of stalls the State Fair cannot provide a stall for each contestant's horse. Therefore, State Fair officials suggest the horses used by the contestants be selected from those entered in regular classes or in the rodeo.

The local Lions Club will hold its third annual chuck wagon dinner and carnival on Saturday, September 8, at which time the selection of Lincoln County's representative at the State Fair will be made. A varied program of entertainment is being planned which includes the old fiddlers' contest and a big frontier dance as the grand finale.

In addition to having a lot of fun on September 8, you also have the opportunity to win nine days of exciting pleasure at the State Fair in Albuquerque September 29 through October 7. Even if you don't win the title of State Fair Queen, you will have the opportunity to attend all the functions as a member of her court and an honored guest in your own right. The Queen and her court are royally entertained by the State Fair officials during their nine days' reign.

The Carrizozo Lions are sparing no efforts to make this third annual chuck wagon dinner and carnival on September 8 the best and most enjoyable event ever produced by that organization.

Bradley Gets Riled

GEN. OMAR BRADLEY, who doesn't get riled easily, was pretty sore when he heard how one of his own army spokesmen had blurted out to a press conference the name of an airborne division which had been transferred from Korea to Japan.

The incident took place in a press conference at which the army was explaining how Chinese Communists had built up their strength in North Korea while we had weakened ours.

What happened was that General Ridgway had cabled Washington for permission to transfer the airborne division in question to northern Japan because of the fact that the Russians had two airborne divisions poised on the island of Sakhalin, threatening northern Japan. While the two Russian divisions have only enough airplanes between them to move one division at a time, Ridgway wanted to be on guard against a surprise airborne attack on Japan.

Washington accordingly gave permission to transfer the American airborne division back to Japan. Such a troop movement is highly secret. But the Pentagon briefing officer, anxious to prove that the Chinese have used the truce talks to build up their strength, blurted out the movement of this particular division to a roomful of newsmen to which foreign correspondents are admitted.

When General Bradley heard of this, he tried to call army chief of staff, Gen. Joe Collins, but couldn't reach him. So he summoned assistant chief of staff Maj. Gen. C. L. Bolte and ordered a full investigation of who pulled the boner.

Eisenhower Says No

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has quietly passed the word to his GOP boosters that he is not interested in the Republican nomination—if isolationists control the party.

In addition, Ike let it be known that he is upset by the timid and hesitant policy of internationally-minded Republicans and the way they let bitter attacks on him go unheeded.

One close friend who returned from Paris recently put it this way: "If the Republicans want Ike more to ball out the party and win an election, they're badly mistaken. That would be like putting a million dollar jockey on a two dollar horse.

"The general is not the least bit interested in running for President just to accommodate a candidate for sheriff. Those who say they want Ike so badly are going to have to do a lot more than say, 'he's a fine fellow and will win the election for us.' They'll have to work and fight to make the Republican party the kind of place where the general would feel at home."

Eisenhower's close friends agree that this issue will largely decide whether he consents to run—and on which party. They claim Eisenhower is disturbed by four factors:

1. The prospect that as the GOP nominee he might help elect an isolationist Republican on a Congress which would then proceed to dump the military and economic aid program which he has been spearheading.
2. The lack of a hard-hitting, effective international-minded GOP bloc in congress, as existed when Sen. Arthur Vandenberg was active. The last attempt to organize the internationalists among senate Republicans was in January, 1949, when Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., called a meeting. This rump group met only once.

Taft Tightens Grip

The way the Taft isolationist wing has grabbed control of the GOP party machinery. Ab Hermann, the national committee's executive director, boasted to senate secretaries the other night: "We're building a sound organization precinct by precinct, so we won't have to ride to victory on the coattails of a strong and popular figure." The Taft crowd are in charge of the Chicago convention machinery and determined to prevent an Eisenhower gallery demonstration.

4. The noisy attacks on the general from both the Chicago Tribune and the Gerald L. K. Smith brand of hate mongers. The mails are being flooded with vile diatribes against the general, while his GOP friends sit on the sidelines.

Washington Pipeline

The senate investigating committee is checking on officials who drive around in government automobiles with no identification painted on the sides. This is against the law. (Senators suspect that some officials are using government automobiles for their own personal driving). . . . The house armed services committee plans to follow up the senate report on military housing with another sharp blast in the very near future.

SCANNING THE WEEK'S NEWS of Main Street and the World

Cease Fire Talks Resume in Korea; WSB Advises New Wage Increases

A MINOR DELAY—Negotiations for a cease fire in Korea resumed at Kaesong after Communists leaders pledged to keep the conference open clear of armed troops. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway broke off negotiations after the Reds violated their pledge to keep Kaesong neutral. Apparently a minor delay in the deadlocked talks, Ridgway's action nevertheless was a firm reminder that the United Nations expected the Communist to abide by previous agreements. It was also a pointed hint that the UN means business and that peace can only be achieved by honor on both sides.

There still has been no announcement of any progress over the question of a demilitarized zone across Korea, which has deadlocked the negotiations for days. The Reds insist that the line shall be centered on the 38th parallel. The allies want it along defensible positions, south of the parallel in the west but north of the old political boundary in the center and east.

AN ISSUE FOR '52—The new price control law, signed reluctantly by President Truman, will be one of the big political issues in the 1952 presidential campaign as sure as "God made little green apples," as the cracker-barrel philosopher would say.

The fact was evident by the President's blast that the nation's families cannot have protection against inflation until "congress repairs the damage done by this new act." He added, with a grimness of tone that startled many reporters, that the measure was "the worst I ever had to sign."

The Republican and southern Dixiecrat coalition that had refused the President the powers he desired in the bill, continued to maintain it was a good measure if it was properly administered.

WAGE INCREASE PROPOSED—With the recommendation of the wage stabilization board that cost of living wage increases be allowed for all workers, it appears the administration will allow such increases at once. President Truman hinted as he signed the new price control law that the government would allow reasonable adjustments in wages to fit cost-of-living increases.

The new regulation would effect workers who are paid by the hour, or are represented by unions, in three general classes: (1) Those who had cost of living provisions in force prior to Jan. 26, 1951, the wage freeze date; (2) those employers and unions who now want to include such clauses in contracts; and (3) those who want to relate wage rates to the cost of living but who do not want an escalator clause in their contracts.

It is estimated that living costs have increased approximately 11 per cent above January, 1950.

THE WEST POINT STORY—The announcement that 90 West Point cadets have been dismissed from the academy for cheating on examinations caused considerable talk across the nation last week. The scandal, breaking of the academy's honor system that dates from 1817, wrecked the army's powerful gridiron team and was the largest mass dismissal since the military academy was founded in 1822.

Maj. Gen. Frederick A. Irving, the academy's superintendent, acknowledged that the action taken was "stern and uncompromising." But he added: "After weighing all factors most carefully, I and the responsible heads of the army, are convinced that there could be no compromise solution that would preserve the vital honor system of West Point, which is the very heart of the academy."

FOOD PRICES—Home towners throughout the nation welcomed the bureau of agricultural economics' report that plentiful supplies probably will keep food prices from going much higher this year. But most home towners, remembering the past 12 months of rising prices, accepted the statement with reservations.

Since July of 1950 retail food prices have increased approximately 12 per cent. For the whole of 1951 they probably will average at least 10 per cent higher than in 1950.

The bureau said livestock and crop-production prospects indicate that food supplies available during the latter half of this year will be somewhat larger than a year earlier. The bureau also reported beef-cattle prices at times may drop below ceilings during the heavy marketing season this fall. However, a strong consumer demand for meat may prevent any substantial decline in prices.

The bureau said future increases in prices probably would be limited largely to revised price ceilings under the new defense production act. The new law relaxes limitations on margins for processing and marketing food and other products. As a result, some widening of farm-to-retail price spreads may occur.

FUNDS FOR DEFENSE—The powerful house appropriations committee chopped $1,542,608,500 off the administration's requested military budget, but the total for defense still is a record in the peacetime history of this country—$36,002,405,990.

This amount does not include what the country will spend on Korean War replacements and troops in Japan and Germany.

The bill would allot $20,125,574,065 to the army; $15,532,143,225 to the navy, and $19,854,128,000 to the air force.

The committee said a huge outlay is needed "to create sufficient power to prevent disaster in the event war is forced upon us. At the same time the group criticized the defense department's "glaring and wasteful mistakes" in military purchases, "ill-advised buying" of civilian goods, and wasteful use of manpower.

POLIO FUND—The Sister Kenney Foundation will open its annual campaign for funds with which to continue treatment of polio and research in the causes of the disease on August 20. The campaign will continue until September 20.

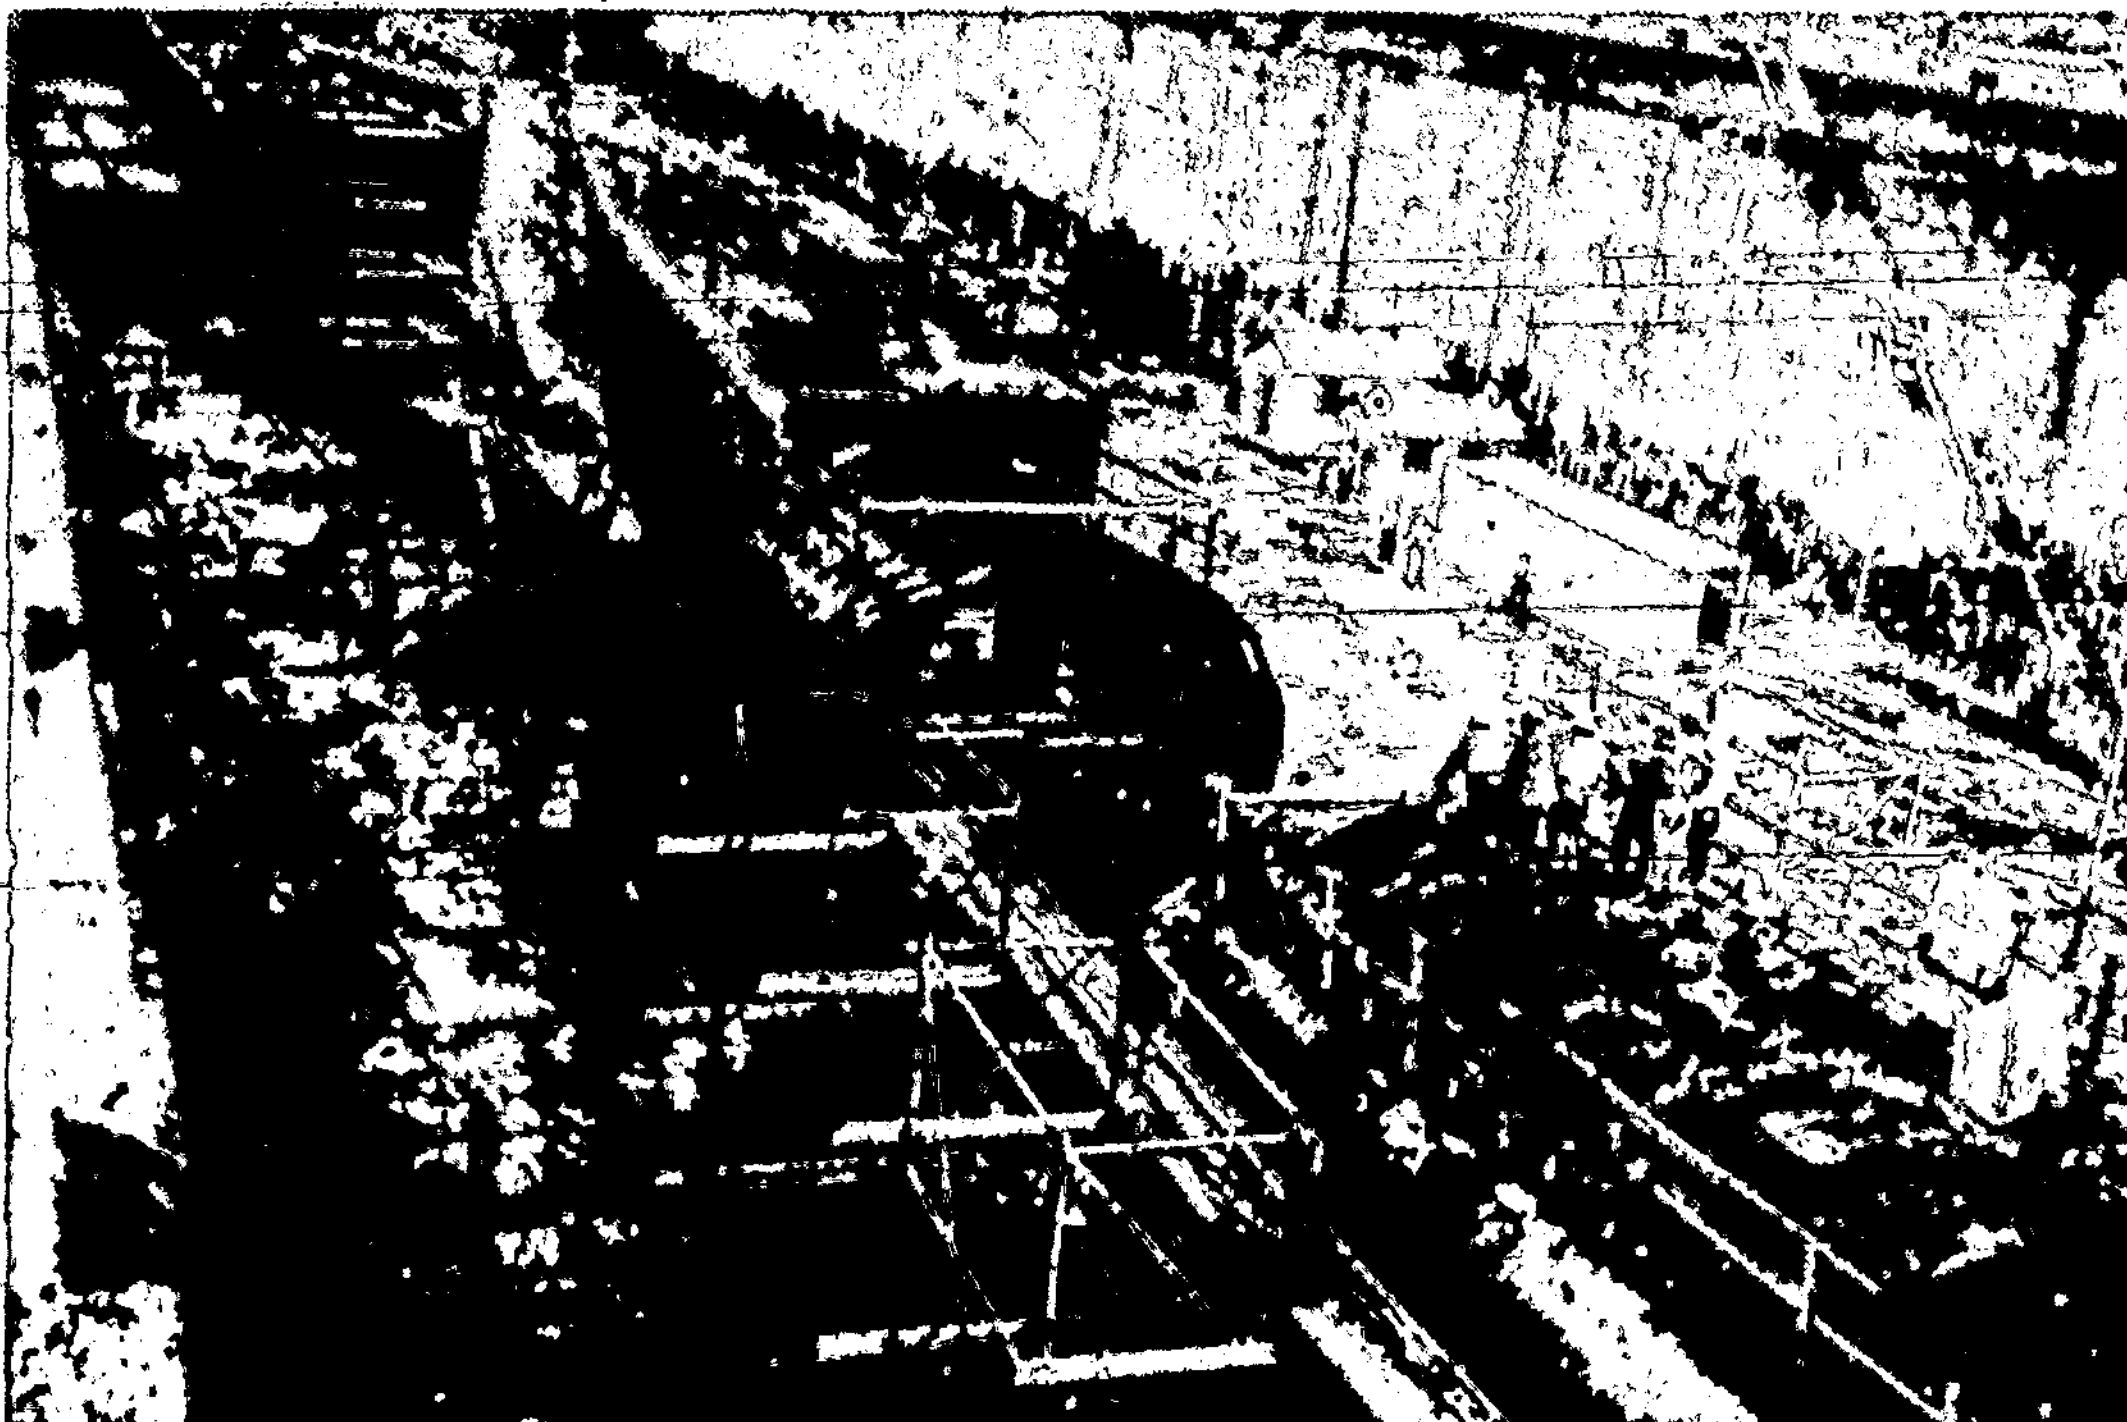

Sister Elizabeth Kenney, who directs the foundation, is the Australian nurse who came to the United States several years ago and since then attained considerable success in the treatment of infantile paralysis.

SHIP EXPLOSION . . . Cabin cruiser "Betty B" explodes off Coney Island, N. Y.

STRETCHING THE REDFIN . . . United States navy workmen are pulling apart sections of the hull of the U.S.S. Redfin, the undersea craft being lengthened at the U.S. naval shipyard in Philadelphia, Pa. A new middle section is in preparation to be fitted into the gap left by the workmen to make room for some vital new war equipment which is so top secret that naval officials will not disclose what is the function of the equipment in sea warfare. However, certain officials have been authorized to state that the submarine, when repairs are completed, will become an entirely new type of undersea weapon, never used in war before.

BLAİK HEARD IT ON RADIO . . . Bob Blaik, quarterback of the Army football team and son of the military academy's athletic director and coach, Earl Blaik, listens (second from right) with classmates on managers. He was of a group of West Point athletes who held an indignation meeting on the campus to protest cashiering of some 90 cadets for violations of the academy's honor code. Young Blaik said the first any of the cadets knew of the mass discharges was "when we heard it on the radio." Another cadet charged they were being given a "bad deal" and said 200 others could be kicked out on the same grounds. Congressmen were calling for investigation of West Point.

NEW CONGRESSWOMAN . . . Rep. Vera Buchanan (D., Pa.) receives congratulatory kisses from her 24-year-old twin daughters, Jane Buchanan (left) and Mrs. William Cavacante, as granddaughter Kristie looks on. The congresswoman was sworn in to take seat of her late husband. She won the seat in a special election held recently in Pennsylvania's 32nd district. Mrs. Buchanan's membership brings the total number of women in the 82nd congress to 11.

RED APOLOGIST . . . Wilfred Burchett, self-styled liberal Australian newsmen with the Red delegation at Kaesong says that China would demobilize her forces if the Korean war is ended and the Formosan question settled. This is the well-known Communist peace line.

CHANNEL SWIMMER . . . Abou Heli, Egyptian student, smiles in Dover, England, after he landed to complete his swim across the English channel from France. He made the difficult crossing in just over 15 hours. It was his first channel attempt.

HAZARDS OF HOME . . . Barry Bishop, 19, was one of a party of eight which climbed Mt. McKinley's 29,376 feet a few weeks ago. More recently he underwent surgery at a Denver hospital after breaking his collar bone when he fell out of bed.

ERICKSON GETS STAY . . . Kingpin bootmaker Frank Erickson leaves New York federal court after arraignment on 74-count indictment charging contempt of U.S. senate. He was brought from jail to plead.

THEY WANT TO WORK

Only One Out of Four Actually Want to Retire When He Is Old

In the face of social security requirements and expanding business programs for retirement at 65, only one American breadwinner out of four actually likes the idea of retiring to a life of complete leisure when he grows old. Three out of four want either to keep on working at their present jobs, or at least to "do something useful" in their sunset years, according to a survey of male policyholders by Northwestern National Life Insurance Company.

Of the 3,000 men covered in the survey only 24 per cent want a life of ease when they reach retirement age; 39 per cent want to be financially able to cut their working hours, or shift into some lighter occupation, while 37 per cent would keep right on working at their present jobs if permitted, and would only fall back on a retirement income when physically or mentally unable to hold their jobs any longer.

Retiring to the life of Riley appeals to more of the younger men—23 per cent of those under 40 said they would like complete freedom from work when they reach retirement age. But only 23 per cent of those aged 40-49 want complete re-irement, and of those in the 50-59 bracket—in halting distance of R-day—only 20 per cent want complete leisure while nearly half of this group—45 per cent—would like to keep on at their present jobs as long as they can "pull their weight." The remainder (35 per cent) of the older men would like to ease up a bit, or shift to some lighter occupation or money-making hobby, but they still want to be useful.

Results of the survey would indicate, the report says, that a modest supplementary retirement income would fulfill the future desires of most Americans. But the fact needs to be faced, the report adds, that many who don't want to retire may have to do so when the time comes, because of inability to maintain the pace necessary to "adhere" satisfactorily on the job, even though they may think they are "just as good as ever." Therefore, instead of the usual rigidity, flexibility is a vital need in the retirement income program of the average man, so that in case payments can be "turned on" earlier if needed, or can be postponed while his fund continues to build up, as long as he is able and wishes to keep on at a gainful occupation.

APPROXIMATELY half of those in the survey who want partial retirement would use some of their increased leisure for community service such as general charity work, religious work, Boy or Girl Scout work, child welfare activities, etc., the report shows.

Among the part-time money-making activities planned for retirement years, small-scale farming is the most popular objective, operating some form of small business such as a few tourists cabins is the next most frequently named plan.

Hunting and fishing are by far and away the favorite hobby to which the full-retirement advocates look forward; next come gardening, woodworking and photography. In the order named, three out of four plan to do some traveling when they retire; four out of five of these future travelers want to do their sightseeing in the U.S.; one out of five hopes to do some foreign travel. Twice as many would prefer to spend their sunset years in the country as would choose the city.

Among the survey group who do not care for a life of leisure is a 23-year-old architectural engineer, who observes in his response, "Too many who retire are dead 12 months later. I'll stay in harness." A 52-year-old mechanic agrees with him: "Would rather wear out than rust out." The 60-year-old president of an iron works declares, "Tried to retire after the last war. Nearly went crazy. Started new business with son as manager—now very contented."

A builder remarks, "I note that most of my friends who retire are poorly adjusted." The manager of a wholesale grocery, 60, says, "Have money enough to retire but am unable to decide what to do with my time." An independent oldster who drives a pickup and delivery truck declares, "Seventy-two and still going strong; I do not ask for old-age assistance, thank you."

A 44-year-old, however, who 10 years for complete leisure to enjoy travel and a life of ease in the country says, "I might change my mind later, but after 23 years of being dominated by an alarm clock, I doubt it."

CARMEL MYERS was only a child when she began her motion picture career in silent pictures; she abandoned it for marriage and motherhood, and now, a beautiful young widow, she has her own television show. If Hollywood executives are wise they will try to lure her back to their studios. She has a delightful voice, is a good actress, and has great charm. On her program she reminisces about Hollywood as she knew it, and interviews celebrities, all of whom she knows well. But the real news about

CARMEL MYERS

Sir Cedric Hardwicke is the latest big name to be added to the distinguished cast of RKO's "Anastasia and the Lion". He was a personal friend of George Bernard Shaw's, has appeared in many of his plays, and so was willing to play a small but important role in this new presentation of one of the famous playwright's most delightful comedies.

THE LEGALLY SPEAKING

By Irma Brown Craig

JIMMIE'S RED hair fairly bristled with defiance as he stalked up the pathway to Attorney Denton's spacious home. Any other time freckle-faced Jimmie would have jumped lightly over the low cypress hedge that separated the two homes—but not today!

Glancing over his shoulder, Jimmie could see his Dad watching from the dining room window. In all probability chuckling over the predicament old gabby Denton was in. It was, in fact, a jiced Judge's words that had sent Jimmie on this errand. "Son, you go right over to Denton's and tell him exactly what happened. He's legally bound to pay off—he can't very well talk himself out of this one with any of his high-fancy-counding-legal phrasal!" Jimmie knew his Dad and Attorney Denton had been friendly enemies in many a legal battle; he also knew the fast-talking Denton usually bested his Dad. But he'd show Denton today!

"Good afternoon, Jimmie," Attorney Denton smiled as he opened the door, "what brings you here—and why so serious, son?"

Without bothering to return the Attorney's friendly greeting Jimmie took a deep breath and plunged in: "Mr. Denton, while I was in the bakery today, a big dog jumped up on my bike carrier and stole a rib roast—and ran away with it!" Catching his breath, he continued, his words crisp and defiant, "What can be done about it, sir?"

The attorney smiled, "Well, Jim-

"Son, you go right over to Denton's and tell him exactly what happened. He's legally bound to pay off."

me, that shouldn't be too difficult. It appears to me you have an excellent case against the dog's master. You should have no trouble whatsoever in collecting."

"Is that right, sir?" well, Mr. Denton, it was YOUR dog!" Jimmie was elated—this was much easier than he'd figured.

"Oh—my dog Rex, eh? Well, Jimmie, in that case I'll be glad to pay the costs. How much was the roast?" Denton reached for his billfold.

JIMMIE chuckled to himself, "This guy's an easy one! I'm doing okeh—even better'n Pop could do. I bet!" Out loud he said "Attorney Denton, the cost of the roast is a minor matter—there's my time going back and forth—and" Jimmie squared his shoulders, "my injured reputation. No one will trust me to deliver things for them now—and that's how I earn my money!"

"That should do it," Jimmie thought proudly. "That ought to bring me enough to get a Hop-Along-Cassidy hat, as well as pay Mom for the roast."

Attorney Denton looked thoughtful, "H-m-m-m-m-m-m-m-m-m, I guess you've got me on all points, Jim, my boy. How much are the total damages?"

Mentally figuring, "Three-fifty for the roast and two-fifty for the hat," Jimmie replied briskly, "Six dollars—sir, should cover all costs. Dad would be proud of him—he'd show the attorney he wasn't so smart after all!"

Denton looked down at the minor duplicate of his old friend Judge Reed, then slowly opened his billfold.

"Thank you sir!" Jimmie thrust the six crisp one dollar bills into his pocket while making a quick, but dignified, move toward the exit. In his haste to get away, Jimmie fumbled with the door knob—most anxious that the attorney didn't see the smile he was trying to hide. He was pleased as punch with himself, and awfully anxious to show Dad how well he'd come off. "Nothing to it at all if you use your head," Jimmie thought gleefully to himself as he stepped out on Denton's porch.

"Just a moment Jimmie," Denton's suave voice interrupted his flight, "Didn't you forget something?"

"No—no, sir, I don't think so," Jimmie glanced around—he hadn't brought anything with him—not even a hat. "Well, sir, thanks again, and goodbye!"

"But, Jimmie—you HAVE forgotten something. My legal fee for advice. That will be two dollars and fifty cents!"

GRASSROOTS Congress Has Hard Time Subduing Administration

By Wright A. Patterson

IN A GOVERNMENT such as ours, the people are the top brass. They issue the orders and demand that their orders be obeyed. Their direct representatives are those they send to the two houses of congress, senate and house. Any one, big or little, who ignores and flouts the orders of the representatives of the people, the top brass, must eventually answer to the people.

It has been established as almost a rule that any action taken by congress, if that action did not accord with the expressed wish of the Administration, has been ignored, has been flouted.

That was true when congress decreed assistance for the Nationalist forces in China, then fighting the Chinese Reds. At the instigation of Secretary of State Acheson supported by the President, China did not receive the aid congress had said was to be sent. It was the President and his appointees who stopped it. Not the representatives of the top brass, the people.

Over the past decade there have been numerous instances in which the will of the people, as expressed by their chosen representatives, have been ignored and flouted.

Another such was when congress instructed that the air force of the nation should be increased to a total of 70 groups. The President did not agree with the instructions of the representatives of the people, and, at the time, reduced the number. Since doing that he has changed his ideas, and has now increased the number of groups, not to 70 but to 84, again ignoring the action of Congress.

His latest flouting of congressional instructions was in connection with the installation of radar stations on the east and west coasts. Congress not only said that installations were to be made, but appropriated the needed money to pay for the job.

Those radar stations have not been installed nor started, and the people of both coasts are left at the mercy of Joe Stalin's bombers should he wish to send them this way. The destruction of American coastal cities is something the Administration might be called upon to answer for, because of the flouting, the ignoring of the action of congress, the direct representatives of the people.

It is to be regretted that the people have no immediate appeal from any arbitrary action of the part of any administration, as has England. In the English system, any vote of a lack of confidence in Parliament means the fall of the government and a new election right then.

We vote a "lack of confidence" when Congress passes legislation the President has vetoed. Such a "lack of confidence" vote has been passed by congress on several occasions during the years of this administration, but the people must wait until 1962 before that administration can be changed.

Then the change will probably be made unless the people have forgotten, or unless a sufficient number of new employees have been added to the bureaucratic payroll to insure a needed number of votes.

The only recourse congress has to stop that method of vote making is to stop the appropriating of money with which to meet the bureaucratic payroll. The opposition would quickly stop the appropriations, if they could. They would cheerfully stop the votes, but they do not want to stop the job, which they hope to fill should they be successful in the next election.

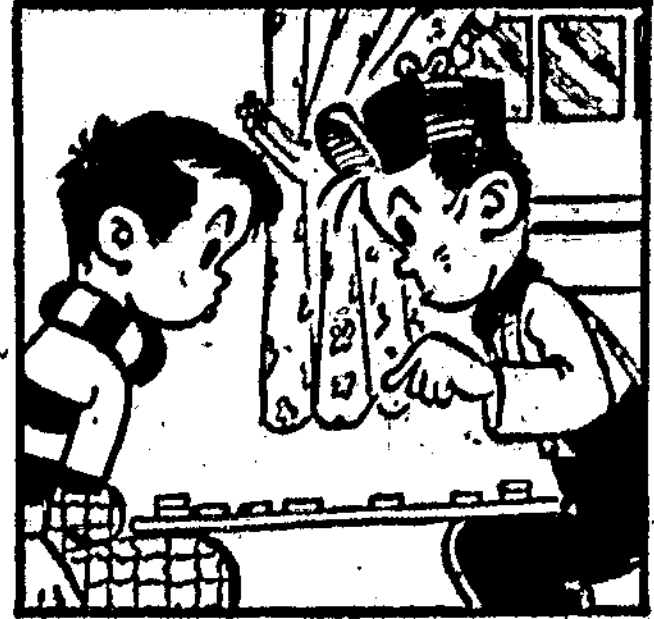

If the opposition is successful, the flouting and ignoring of Congress the direct representatives of the people, will be one of the causes. People of the coast states, east and west, may remember that, through their representatives, they instructed the administration to install radar stations as their defense against Stalin's bombers, but their instructions were ignored and flouted.

The British labor party has split over whether England should spend its money for false teeth for the toothless or for war munitions to provide England's freedom. Health Minister Bevan would buy the false teeth, leaving the arms investment to America.

Are You a Citizen?

Lesson for August 26, 1951

LET'S come down home. The official title of this week's lesson is "The Christian's Responsibility in Public Life." That is a big thing, a wide circle; but the center of the circle is you, my friend, and right around you is the community in which you live.

What kind of town is it? Not how big, but how good. It doesn't have to be a town at all. It may be a section of open country, a few miles of farms, ranches or woodland. But it is some kind of community.

In New York state the Citizen's Council prepared the following set of questions which can be used to help you rate your community. After each set of these questions write down either 10 for good, 5 for fair, or 0 for poor.

1. Education: Does your community make modern education available to every child, youth and adult? Are its schools uncrowded, properly equipped, and in good physical condition? Are the teachers highly qualified and well paid?

2. Housing and Planning: Is every family decently housed? Is there continual planning for improvement of highways and other community essentials? Are parking, transportation problems under control?

3. Religion: Is full opportunity for religious expression offered to every individual in your community? Are your churches strong and well supported?

4. Equality of Opportunity: Do people of different races, religions, nationalities have full chance for employment and taking part in community life? Are dangerous tensions kept at a minimum by avoidance of discrimination and injustices?

5. Economic Development: Are good jobs available? Do labor, industry, agriculture and government work together to insure the sound economic growth of your community?

6. Cultural Opportunities: Are your citizens' lives strengthened by ample opportunity to enjoy music, art, and dramatics? Does your community have a professionally administered library service which benefits people of all ages? Do your newspapers and radio carefully review the affairs of the community?

7. Recreation: Are there enough supervised playgrounds and facilities for outdoor activities? Does your community offer full opportunity to take part in arts and crafts, in photography, and in other hobbies?

8. Health and Welfare: Are medical care and hospitalization readily available? Is provision made for underprivileged children, the aged, and the handicapped? Can families in trouble secure the help they need?

9. Government: Do capable citizens seek public office? Are your officials concerned above all with community betterment? Does controversy stem from honest differences of opinion and not from squabbles over privilege?

10. Community Organization: Is there any organization (community forum or the like) representative of the whole community, working for the advancement of all? Do your citizens have opportunity to learn about and take part in their local affairs? Is there an organized community-wide discussion program?

It's Up to You NOW add the scores you have put down for each of the ten groups of questions. A total of 100 is fine; 50, fair.

But now look over these questions again. Is there anything you could do, personally, about each of those things? If so, have you done it? Have you done as much as you could? Have you ever tried to get other people interested?

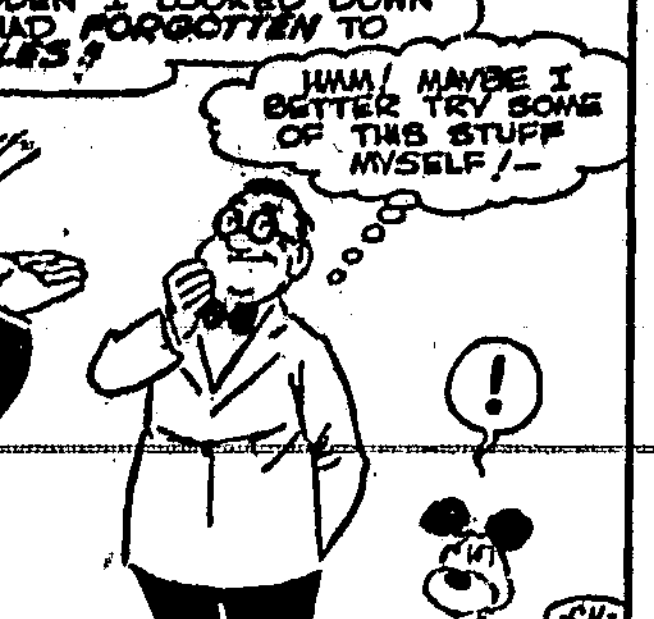

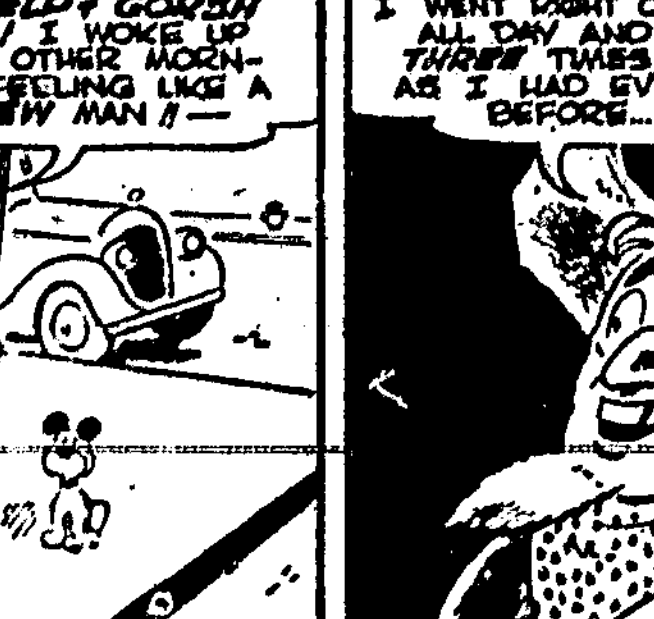

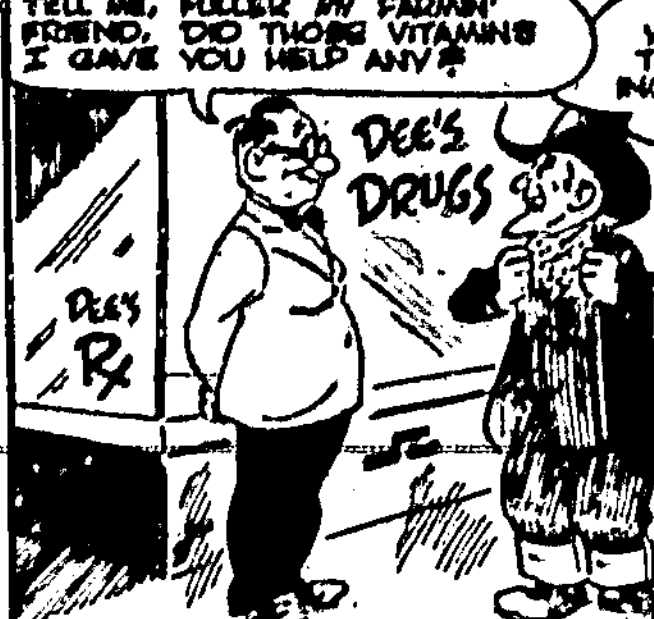

You can make another score sheet and head it: How I Rate as a Citizen. Then grade yourself under each of those ten heads, 10 for doing all you can, 5 for doing a little something, 0 for nothing at all. If you are a Christian, be especially strict with yourself.

If you were out of it, would your community miss you as much as you miss salt when some one forgets to put it on the potatoes? If you left your community, would it seem a bit darker there after you were gone?

Set Plants Early If you want a good crop of strawberries next year, be sure to set the plants early. Early planting helps get the plants established well and they will develop runners earlier than late plants.

First Bikes America's first bicycles, introduced from Europe in the early 1800's, were called, among other names, Velocipedes, Hobby Horses, and Dandy Carriages.

Saves Money in Long Run If your house looks to you as if it needs painting, you'll be wise to have a painting contractor check it over for you. Usually it's cheaper to paint than to procrastinate.

Beware of Moisture Excess moisture in wood may cause paint to blister. Always be sure that a surface to be painted is thoroughly dry before work is begun.

Avoid Mosaic Spread Tobacco users must be careful when working around tomato plants or mosaic will be spread to the plants, says Allen Bauer, Penn State extension plant pathologist.

Life Insurance "Tithers" There are now well over three million "life insurance tithers" in the U.S.—spending units putting 10 per cent or more of their disposable income into this form of protection.

Parasite Sources Mudholes and stagnant ponds are often sources of parasites and livestock diseases. Such places should be drained or fenced.

Largest Plant Located in the town of Laurel, Miss., is the largest hardwood plant in the world. It is owned by Masonite Corporation.

Beach Protection Unfinished benches will remain smooth and last longer if you give them a natural wood finish with boiled linseed oil.

Vitamins For Milk Vitamin A is necessary in the dairy cow ration for her and the calf's growth and the maintenance of health and milk production.

Cooked Greens Greens should be cooked in little or no water, and only for a short time—just until they are tender.

Prevent Mastitis Proper ventilation without drafts in the barn is essential in keeping cows' udders healthy. A barn door or window left open can seriously chill an udder, with mastitis resulting.

Gets To Be A Habit Man-eating tigers are usually old and no longer able to catch and kill forest game. When once they find how easy it is to kill men, they never stop.

Close To North Pole Towns of northernmost Mississippi, Alabama, and Georgia are closer to the North Pole than Africa's southernmost tip is to the South Pole.

Tin Cans Not Tin Tin cans are not tin at all, but sheet steel coated with a thin film of tin. This coating is only about 1 1/2 per cent of the total weight of the can.

No Steak Eaters Native diet in the Australian bush includes ants, caterpillars, cicadas and other insects, as well as various dishes compounded of snake meat.

The Only One A road sign near Walkiri on the Fiji island of Taveuni marks the only place in the world where a motor road crosses the International Date Line, longitude 180 degrees.

Cleaning Up Los Angeles County has reduced by 17 per cent the 84 tons of pollution—that in 1948—contributed daily to the atmosphere by home incinerators.

Counter-Balance The President can veto laws enacted by Congress, and his veto can be overridden only by a two-thirds vote of each House.

Steel Structure Steel consists mainly of iron, alloyed with a small amount of carbon which makes it tough and elastic.

Literary Years The Good Earth was published in 1931. Tobacco Road was published in 1932, and dramatized in 1933.

Driver Pays The average motorist pays 66 cents in taxes every time he buys ten gallons of gasoline.
