Boy Rescued After 24 Hours In Mountains

An Alamogordo youth, Jerry Emmett Gregg, 10, was found Monday about 1 P. M. after being lost overnight in the Oscura Mountains (approximately 35 miles west of Oscura, which is 16 miles south of this village). A helicopter piloted by "Lieut. Bloom, Holloman Air Force Base at Alamogordo, spotted the lad wandering around about four miles from his father's hunting camp on the old Withers ranch and set down to pick him up. It was reported the youth is confined to his home suffering from pneumonia caused by exposure. The rescue occurred as approximately 150 persons, including men from Holloman and Fort Bliss; National Guardsmen, law enforcement officers and individuals from this area joined in the search. Jerry told his family he got lost in the fog while rabbit hunting.

The Alamogordo lad told his rescuers he decided about 2 P. M. Sunday to hunt rabbits and set out with his 22 rifle. When the fog rolled in, Jerry, unable to find his way back and with rain falling, found refuge in a little wash under a cliff. He had left his mackinaw at camp. Wearing only shoes, trousers and a T-shirt and without a hat, the youth's clothing was still damp from the rain when he was found. He walked around for part of the night and finally slept only to be disturbed by howling coyotes.

When Lieut. Bloom sighted him, he had been wandering around practically all morning. Jerry, curious as to why the helicopter was in that vicinity, went to investigate and was taken aboard for a subsequent joyful reunion with his parents and pet dog. The dog, a constant companion of the lad, had been brought in to help with the search.

Deputy Sheriff Clyde Atwood, Carrizozo, who was at the camp when the boy was brought in, said the matches Jerry was carrying had become wet and he was unable to build a fire, but had made a bed of brush and grass. Atwood said some 40 to 50 fires were built on as many peaks Sunday night in an attempt to attract his attention. The youth said he had seen some of the fires as well as heard several shots which were fired to draw him toward the searching parties. However, according to Jerry's story, he was too tired to respond and fell asleep. The first words he said upon reaching camp were "Daddy, I'm hungry." He was given food rations by military personnel. Apparently, his one real worry occurred when he came to a canyon in which water was flowing. He said he threw his rifle across it and then decided to wade across since he didn't want to lose the weapon.

Jerry's reaction to his adventure was a mixture of disgust and elation. His chagrin was brought about when he saw two bucks and two does, but was out of ammunition. However, he was elated over receiving the field rations of the Air Force personnel who were hunting him. He accepted the food as a gift to be treasured and saved.

The absence of the Alamogordo boy was discovered about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon when his father, John Gregg, returned to camp and found him missing. A companion who had been hunting with the senior Gregg went to Oscura to give the alarm and a search party was formed immediately. Relatives of Jerry were reported as expressing confidence during the long hours of search that the lad would be found safe since he is an experienced camper.

Jerry's father and his grandfather, Emmett Gregg, operate a trailer court and billiard hall in Alamogordo.

Eastern Star Observes 41st Anniversary Here

The 41st anniversary of Carrizozo Comet Chapter of Eastern Star was observed this month with a dinner and program held at the Masonic Hall.

The past matrons, dressed in costumes fashionable in the year during which they served in office, paraded before local Eastern Star members and gave a review of the work accomplished by each matron during that year. To conclude their program, they marched again; and, as they walked, joined hands with all the others in the hall, as a prelude to the singing of "Old Lang Syne" by the group.

Mesdames F. O. Brown and Lawrence Queen were in charge of the decorations which included bouquets of fall flowers in the hall and centerpiece arrangement for the table of autumn leaves, cattails, pumpkins and fruits. Smaller arrangements of the same materials were placed at either end of the table and lighted tapers at intervals.

Mrs. L. W. Clark of Capitan headed the dinner committee. Mrs. Laura Jones opened the evening's program with her vocal selection "Memories," and Mrs. F. O. Brown sang "At the End of a Perfect Day" as the concluding number of the night's festivities.

Innovations At Museum Attracting Attention

Four hundred registered guests at the Old Court House Museum in Lincoln have viewed the solo exhibit of paintings by Dan Kusanovich, well known local artist of Fort Stanton.

The visitors have been particularly impressed by Kusanovich's versatility and his lavish use of color. One painting in particular, "Aspen," has attracted much favorable comment, and Lincoln County visitors have been delighted with the artist's portrayal of familiar scenes and landscapes.

In addition to the exhibition of Kusanovich's work, the staff at the Old Court House is happy to announce the installation of eight cases of entirely new material in the Old Court Room upstairs. The new displays include many interesting archaeological items from the collections of the late Mary Stepp Coe of Eagle Creek Ranch (located by Mrs. Tom Rigby of San Patricio), the late George A. Tinsworth of Capitan and Bill Hale of Tinnie. In addition, there are relics of Old Fort Stanton and of the Frank Coe family. Installation of four more cases is planned for the month of November.

Neighbors of Lincoln County who have not already done so are particularly urged to stop at the Old Court House to see the Kusanovich exhibit, which will hang until Dec. 20. There is, of course, no charge at the Museum to Lincoln County residents who are welcome to visit there at any time. The winter hours at the Old Court House are 8:30 A. M. to 4 P. M.

Gallup Youth Auto Accident Victim

State Patrolman Carlos Salas, Carrizozo, reported the death of Bert Cresto Jr., 19, Gallup, as the result of an accident which occurred shortly after midnight Tuesday, when the 1949 Cadillac, in which he was a passenger, went out of control about eight miles west of Carrizozo on Highway 380. He died at the Carrizozo hospital soon after he was admitted. John Earl Hughes Jr., 20, Gallup, driver of the car, escaped with only a cut on his forehead and a few bruises. The two were returning to their studies at New Mexico Military Institute, Roswell.

Salas said the accident occurred at a curve on the crest of a hill, and that, apparently, the car struck a soft shoulder on the left side of the road, and then veered off on the soft shoulder at the right side of the highway. Cresto was thrown clear of the car, but complete details as to what happened were not immediately available. The vehicle is a total loss.

Tourists, whose car the students had just passed, notified authorities at Carrizozo and an ambulance was dispatched to the scene of the accident, which Salas investigated.

Barbara McKnight Is Named Hondo Queen

By F. S. MONTES

At the recent carnival of the Hondo Valley High School, Barbara McKnight was crowned carnival queen. As the orchestra played the traditional Zaca-tecan March, Barbara, a freshman, escorted by Fritzie Bowser, marched proudly toward the queen's throne, where King Fritzie crowned her as Carnival Queen for 1951.

The winning queen and her escort were followed by Lola Romero and Edward Sanchez, the seniors; Cerila Sanchez and Jimmie McTeigue, the juniors; Danny Salcido and Danny George, representing the elementary school; Teresa Martinez and Gilbert Gallegos, eighth grade; Rebecca Richardson and Roman Pacheco, seventh grade, and Lucia Salcido and Felipe Salcido, sophomores.

Barbara McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McKnight of Hondo, won over other contestants with a total of 44,049 votes, followed by Lola Romero with 33,850. The winning queen is a member of the freshman class. Besides being a popular girl with her schoolmates, she is an honor student.

The queen contest alone netted $1,179.16. The net proceeds taken in at the carnival amounted to $1,493. A capacity crowd was on hand to cheer the winning queen and to enjoy one of Hondo's finest school carnivals.

Henry Purcella Dies While Deer Hunting

A heart attack, suffered while hunting in the Capitan Mountains Monday, proved fatal to Henry Purcella, 78, Albuquerque.

Accompanied by his grandson, Charlie (Tuffy) Purcella, 13, also of Albuquerque, the elderly man was hunting in an area south-east of Padilla Springs when he became ill about noon and told the boy to go for help. The grandson hiked to the nearest road and stopped a passing motorist who took him to Capitan (a nearby village). District Game Warden John Shaul organized a hunting party, located the boy's father, Charles Purcella Sr., and, directed by the grandson, returned to the hunting camp.

The boy, confused from shock and excitement, could not remember the exact spot where he had left his grandfather, but knew it was in brush country with lots of undergrowth. Mr. Purcella was found dead by the search group after a lapse of about three hours between the time the grandson started for help and when the elderly man's body was discovered.

A former resident of Lincoln County, the deceased had been reared on the north side of the Capitan Mountains, and, until his recent retirement, had, for a number of years, been farm foreman for the Southern Pacific Company in this county. Upon retirement, he bought a small farm near Albuquerque where he had been living.

He is survived by his widow, two sons, Earnest Purcella of Nopal Mesa and Charles Purcella Sr. of Albuquerque; two daughters, Mrs. Ruby Brown of Albuquerque and Mrs. Pearl Young of Fort Stanton, as well as several grandchildren.

The deceased came to Capitan Friday with his son, Charles Purcella, and two grandsons, Charles Purcella Jr. and Clarence Brown, all of whom reside in Albuquerque.

Ft. Stanton Boy Scouts To Hold Honor Court

The Fort Stanton Boy Scout Troop will hold its Court of Honor Saturday, Nov. 17, at the Bonito Club, Fort Stanton, according to Ray Baker, scoutmaster.

Tommy (Skipper) Gould is scheduled to receive the Eagle Scout award during the program. According to Scout records, he is the first Boy Scout in Lincoln County, said Baker.

Joe Ferguson, Joe Wilson and Jimmie Minter will be given life Scout badges. Eddie Womack is slated for the star badge, while Carl Mankinen, Earnest Sanchez and Bryan Fidler will be awarded second class badges.

Jimmie Armer, who is not up for re-rate, is short only two merit badges and two months time for becoming the second Eagle Scout in this county.

Methodists To Meet In New Building Sunday

Sunday's services at Carrizozo Trinity Methodist Church which commemorate Thanksgiving, will be held in the assembly room of the new educational building. Dr. Dickenson's morning sermon is entitled "Thanks Be Unto The Father God."

Special and cordial invitations for Sunday's services are extended to persons now past 60 years of age. Recognition will also be accorded the elder as well as oldest persons in the congregation this Sunday. Children under 12 and even the infants will not be overlooked. Parents, grandparents and all others are urged to attend the inauguration of the new building.

The cornerstones of the church building to be vacated bears the date of 1911. Rev. Dickenson is most desirous of ascertaining the names of living persons who were in Carrizozo in 1911, as well as the name of the bishop who dedicated that structure. The local Methodist pastor gives honor to those individuals who had a part in the building of the old church and states they "wrought well."

Last Rites Held For Former Resident

The body of Mrs. Callie G. Pine, 72, Phoenix, Ariz., who died in a hospital there Nov. 8, was brought to Carrizozo for burial in Evergreen Cemetery. Funeral services were held at the local Baptist Church Monday, Nov. 12, with Rev. Jesse Allen, Green Tree, and Rev. Lindsay of Midland, Texas, officiating at the last rites for the former resident of this village.

Palbearers included Messrs. Herman Kelt Sr., Roy Harmon, John Littleton, Marvin Burton, Jim Cooper and Elmer Eaker. Flower girls were Mesdames Roy Ward, Frank Richards, C. A. Snow Sr. and Miss Kathleen Ward. Rev. Lindsay sang "Beyond the Sunset."

The concluding portion of the services was conducted by the Carrizozo Comet Chapter of Eastern Star, of which the late Mrs. Pine was an early past matron.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Catherine Russell of Portland, Ore.; a son, Robert Pine of Midland, Texas; five grandsons; one great-grandson and one great-granddaughter.

The deceased was born in Texas, Sept. 16, 1879, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Columbus T. Graham, who were originally from Virginia. Mrs. Pine and her husband, Dr. Henry Pine, a veterinarian, came to New Mexico about 1910. Dr. Pine preceded his wife in death a number of years ago. The couple left Carrizozo about 1919, going first to Aztec.

Mrs. Pine, whose death reportedly followed a major operation, had been in ill health for several years.

The deceased played a major role in the building of the local Baptist Church of which faith she had been a member since early girlhood. Her many friends here report she was an outstanding Christian woman and took an active interest in community projects.

Fort Stanton Christmas Party Plans Underway

Mrs. Edna Laramie said this week plans are underway for the annual Christmas party for the patients at Fort Stanton. Offerings of homemade cookies and candy are requested from residents throughout the county.

Another project this year that will be attempted in conjunction with the Fort Stanton party, said Mrs. Laramie, is a box of homemade cookies and candy for every serviceman from Lincoln County.

Mrs. Laramie, chairman of the project for the Carrizozo district, stated the boxes will be assembled Dec. 21 at Fort Stanton, and the various postmasters in Lincoln County have promised the postage for delivery of the packages to the servicemen. The local chairman urges a generous response on the part of residents in Lincoln County in support of a worthy project.

Mrs. Mary Werner is chairman for the Capitan district and the names of chairmen for other areas in Lincoln County will be announced at a later date.

Carrizozo Water Is Again Declared Safe

According to Lee Peek, Santa Fe, sanitarian from the State Health Department for this district, Carrizozo water is again safe for drinking without precautions.

The sanitarian said last weekend that four samples each on Oct. 17 and Nov. 2 indicated negative.

Circulars declaring the water safe for human consumption without first boiling it were distributed this week by order of Carrizozo city officials.

Commissioners Claim Facts Are Distorted

County Officials Speak At Capitan Dinner

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce's dinner meeting held Wednesday night was attended by approximately 35 persons, including members and guests. Probate Judge Elerdo Chavez and J. G. Moore, county clerk, spoke on "Duties and Responsibilities of County Officials."

Hugh Bancroft, president of the Capitan organization, made the opening speech of welcome and introduced a number of guests, including John Wilder, district forest ranger, and Mrs. Wilder, Earl Harcrow, secretary of the chamber, gave a brief resume of business matters concerning the organization. Harcrow, who is also justice of the peace at Capitan, took some good natured ribbing when he inadvertently used the word "hunting" in his report. The young JP, who has been holding court recently in connection with hunting violations, was further ribbed by Primo Couzens who turned on the overhead lights as Harcrow proceeded with his report.

Ray Province, city marshal, and Joe Wigley, fire chief, spoke briefly with the latter relating a venison dinner for the firemen and their wives is planned in the near future.

Capitan Superintendent of Schools L. W. Clark spoke on National Education Week—Nov. 11-17—and extended a cordial invitation to the Open House the Capitan schools are holding tonight (Friday) from 7 to 9 o'clock. The purpose of the Open House, as a part of National Education Week, is to have the parents, relatives and friends of the students see for themselves how the job of training children to be worthwhile citizens of "the community and the ever-shrinking world" is being done.

Lon Merchant, prominent Lincoln County rancher, discussed the increasing tax structure on the various levels of government as it affected his particular business and others. He spoke on the world situation today and urged all to forget about being "Democrats" or "Republicans" and remember they are Americans.

Don Murphy, board member of the Capitan Chamber, spoke briefly to the group, and was followed by J. G. Moore who outlined the various duties of a county clerk's office and the problems arising from increasing costs.

Judge Chavez outlined the duties of the probate and district courts and a probate judge's responsibility. The judge feels it is most important for any man holding that office to know at least a rudiment of law.

President Bancroft closed the dinner meeting with wishes for a pleasant Thanksgiving and a happy holiday season.

Lincoln County Men Injured In Collision

To Hold Bake Sale

The Carrizozo Woman's Club will hold their bake sale at Petty's General Merchandise on Saturday, Nov. 17, at 2 P. M. Officers of the local club announced coffee and cookies will be served during the sale.

In perusing this week the minutes of the various meetings of the present Lincoln County Board of Commissioners, a Lincoln County News representative discovered that despite the fact this newspaper has asked month after month pertaining to the road situation in Lincoln County, or anything else of interest to the public, and a consistent reply has been that no action had been taken on the roads in Lincoln County, a statement signed only by A. C. Hester, chairman, is a part of the courthouse records, and, apparently, was acted upon at a special meeting called in April (the records indicate it was Saturday, April 25, 1951), since regular meetings, of which the public has prior knowledge, are scheduled for the first Monday in each month.

The statement follows: "Board on Saturday, April 25, 1951, took up farm to market program and issued the following statement: Due to the confusion arising from statements attributed to Lawrence Wilson and C. O. Erwin, both state highway engineers, regarding the status of the federal farm-to-market road program in Lincoln County this board feels a complete statement of all the information and facts before it as shown by the records which may be referred to and such other information as has been made available to the commissioners by the state highway engineer, Burton Dwyre, should be entered in the records of this county so that all interested persons may if they desire be properly informed.

"This commission deplors the dissension between the people from different sections of the county which the editor of the Lincoln County News attempts to create by incomplete and distorted information. The county commissioners are elected by people from all sections of the county to represent all of the county and will not be deterred from their duty by scurrilous publications, bridge burnings or nasty charges based on unfounded rumor. As there has been no advice to the commissioners from the State Highway Department to bear out the statements quoted as being made by Mr. Wilson and Mr. Erwin, it is our opinion that the interest of the county will best be served by carrying out the road work as outlined in the letter of Feb. 9, 1951. The letter of Feb. 9, 1951, from the present board of commissioners to Dwyre set forth the opinion the commissioners based on the information available and following a lengthy discussion with Mr. Dwyre regarding the entire secondary program for the county. During this discussion the commissioners were informed by Dwyre there would be no delay in construction under this program by changing the allocation of funds as outlined in the letter but that in his opinion the White Oaks road would not be approved by federal authorities for the reason that the cost per mile, per person served to construct the road would be too high, causing still further delay in commencing of any construction. Further discussion on past and continuing delays were held with Mr. Dwyre on April 19, 1951. Dwyre did not at that time advise the commissioners that there was any possibility of the White Oaks project being approved and explained delays as being 'red tape' and 'programming time'.

The statement goes on to say that following the interview a discussion was held with Charles Du Tant, executive secretary to Governor Edwin L. Mechem, asking that the governor help Lincoln County get its fair share of

Roswell Hunter Hit By Stray Bullet On Sunday

Manuel S. Torres, 30-year-old hunter from Roswell, was struck in the back of the neck by a stray bullet Sunday as he hunted for deer between Hondo and Lincoln in this county.

Torres was taken to Fort Stanton Hospital for treatment of his injury which was reported as minor. He had, however, lost a considerable amount of blood. The Roswell man was unable to give Lincoln County law officers any information as to the identity of the person who fired the shot which struck him.

LINCOLN

By MRS. J. E. PHILLIPS I've never seen so many hunters. Everyone is entertaining them and the woods are full of hunters.

At the Bill Wilson home there have been Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dow, Richard Dow, Billy and Peggy Wilson, Lawrence Dow, Jimmy and "Uncle Johnny" Dow. The Gilles Rameys had relatives from the air base in Roswell.

Alfred Hulbert and numerous others have been at the home of Lloyd Hulbert. Lazaro Zamora and Cristobal Zamora Jr. and Mr. Apadoca, son-in-law of Cristobal Zamora, Sr., visited at the home of the latter.

The Lidstones of Las Cruces, cousin of John Davis, arrived Saturday morning for hunting season. Shortly after their arrival, Julie Davis, Kay Doxgray and Julie's cousin from Las Cruces went hill climbing on a hill just back of the museum. The cousin fell from a bluff for a drop of about 60 feet but luckily sustained no serious injuries. There was a lot of excitement in Lincoln until it was determined she wasn't badly hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Welsh and family were over from Logan for the Armistice Day holiday to visit and hunt. They told me they are certainly enjoying the Lincoln County News.

Mr. Wright's son, Andy, grandson, Jack, and his wife are up for the hunting season. Mrs. Helen Meeks was in from Bon Canyon Sunday morning and told me that her son Herbert and a friend from Albuquerque were at the ranch hunting. She was on her way to Captain to pick up Will (Buzzy) Rogers to hunt with them.

Jim Luna is up from Roswell but he says he doesn't think he'll hunt—they might mistake him for a deer. Richard Phillips and Jimmy Wright have been hunting with my husband, but no luck, so Richard went back to town and sent Joe Phillips out to try his luck.

Mrs. Ramon Ventura has been on the sick list but is improving. Maurilda McGrew, Barbara McGrew and Mrs. Jeff Doxgray and children picked Sunday. I see cars everywhere and I'm sure I've left out a lot of people who are staying in and around Lincoln. Perhaps I can catch up on it later in the week. Mrs. Clyde Brewster stopped in at the postoffice for a brief business call on Monday. Judy Lamy spent the holiday with her grandmother, Mrs. Maggie Pfingsten. Silon May and son of Tucumcari and Mrs. Roy Lamy and daughter Jeanette spent last Friday with Mrs. Pfingsten. Callers at the Phillips home last Sunday evening included Mrs. Joe Phillips and children, Mrs. G. D. Allen and boys, Mrs. Eliza Phillips and the Albert Woolseys from Roswell and Mrs. Alice Boyd and daughter Claire of Fort Stanton and Mrs. Bert Pfingsten of Hondo.

FORT STANTON

The Fort Stanton hunters are holding up their end in bringing in their share of bucks. To date these are the lucky ones: Bill Merrell, John Ferguson, Bert Minters, Bill Bingham, Jimmie Thompson Jr., Emmet Womack Jr., Barber Stokley, Weslie Young, Ray Baker, Cecil Thompson, Jimmie Armer and Barney Aldaz, Zach Ray, a guest of Cecil Thompson, was another lucky one. The deer killed by Barney Aldaz, the only one of any size, weighed 199 pounds. To date it leads in the contest for the gun to be given by Warren Gaston's Captain Motor Service.

The Percy Parkers, who have returned from California, report having had a nice vacation. While in California, Mrs. Parker stated, they picked a ton and a half of olives. They visited at Oroville, and Los Angeles, returning home via Reno and Las Vegas.

Nurse Stemmer left to take a position at the Public Health Service Hospital at Carvel, La. Perry Zamora, recently discharged from the Navy, has returned to work in the hospital lab.

Spiros Vallanatos, chief clerk of the hill office, checked in for some bed rest. Dr. Heck returned from Roswell bringing his wife home with him. Mrs. Heck has been in the Roswell hospital and Dr. Heck reports his wife is much improved.

Manuel Torres, the first hunting victim in Lincoln County, was brought into the Fort Stanton Hospital Sunday with a bullet lodged in his neck. Torres has no idea who fired the shot. Mrs. Weslie Young received the sad news of the death of her father, Henry Purcella, Albuquerque, while on a hunting trip in Lincoln County.

Attend Oratorio

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Brewster, Mrs. Ben Burns and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartkus attended the oratorio presented by the choir and orchestra of the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque last week. The theme of the sacred musical presentation was the Creation.

Visits Kelleys

A grandson of the T. E. Kelleys, Charles Corbett, is here for an indefinite visit. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryson Corbett of Albuquerque, his mother drove him to Socorro last week where he was met by his grandparents.

CAPITAN

By ANN EARLING

The past weekend Edward Choate and Earl Harcerow attended the installation of Alpha Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu held at New Mexico Highlands University in Las Vegas. Pi Gamma Mu is a national honor organization of social science students. Highlands University is the first of New Mexico colleges to organize a chapter in this national organization. Edward Choate, who is a teacher in our high school, was installed as a charter member.

Dr. and Mrs. N. M. Towhill of Santa Fe were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Howard last weekend.

Word has been received here from two former Capitan residents announcing they are proud parents of baby boys. They are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ferguson Jr., now living in California, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Shook, residing in Las Cruces.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Parker and Mrs. Ida Parker have returned from their three-week trip to California.

Mrs. Robert Leslie of Capitan and sister, Mrs. Mary Walker of Roswell, have returned from visiting their mother, Mrs. N. V. Ward, in Los Angeles. Mrs. Ward, who is a former Lincoln County resident, is 82 years of age.

Parents of school children are urged to attend open house, which will be held tonight (Friday) at the school between 7 and 8 P. M.

The Capitan Woman's Club will hold their regular monthly meeting Friday, Nov. 16, at 8 P. M. All members are urged to attend to help complete plans for the silver tea and bazaar to be held in the very near future.

Henry Purcella, Albuquerque, former resident of Lincoln, died of a heart attack while hunting in an area two miles east of Padilla Springs. Mr. Purcella was 78 years of age.

L. R. Morgan has brought in the heaviest deer thus far. It topped the scales at 207½ pounds. Mr. Morgan is registered at the Phillips station for the gun to be given away for the heaviest buck.

Mrs. Helen Bekkemellon of Salt Lake City and Lloyd Absher were married on Thursday, Nov. 8, in the Methodist Church at Belen. Mr. and Mrs. Absher now reside in Capitan.

Here are some of the local men that have been lucky in getting deer: Joe Wigley, Manuel Jones, LaMoyné Peters, Ed Guck, Travis Werner, D. W. Polindexter Jr., Happy Morris, Dyer Forbes, Fletcher Hall, Bill Randall and L. R. Morgan.

At this writing 425 hunters have been checked through the checking station and 12 hunters have checked out with deer.

Arthur Pepper, brother of Stanley and Charles Pepper, passed away at Las Vegas on Saturday, Nov. 10. Interment was in Las Vegas.

Eleven hunters appeared before Judge Earl Harcerow on Monday for violating the game laws.

Former Capitan residents seen here during hunting season were Tommy Thomas, Ralph Werner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dave McFarlane and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Sears and son Bob.

Card of Thanks

We want to express our gratitude and appreciation to all the kind friends and relatives who helped us to lay away our precious mother, Mrs. Callie Pine. The lovely flowers, notes of sympathy and words of comfort will always be remembered.

GUESTS FROM CALIFORNIA
Mrs. Lloyd Treat, Roswell, and her sister, Mrs. Sam Kelsey, Ventura, Calif., are the guests of their mother, Mrs. P. M. Johnson, this week. Mrs. Treat planned to return to Roswell this week, but Mrs. Kelsey will remain until sometime around Christmas.

NOGAL MESA

By DOROTHY GUCK

I think the weather man played a dirty trick on the hunters. After half a day of sunshine, the drizzle, wind and sleet discouraged many would-be deer slayers. Very few antlers have been transported by our station.

My dad, Walter Gray of Glencoe, came over to spend the weekend and hunt.

The Vance children came down from Albuquerque to stay with Peg and Leota Pfingsten. Ralph and Mr. Bradford helped the men scour the woods for game, too.

Arlene and Paul Jones moved to Monjeau Lookout on Saturday, and off again Sunday as the rain banished, most of the fire danger.

Caroline Dabney has been testing her luck as a huntswoman. Thursday afternoon a group of friends surprised Mrs. Henry Peebles with a party. The women brought their darning and mending, chatted, enjoyed ice cream and cookies, and presented Mrs. Peebles with some nice gifts. Those attending were Chloe and Opal Peters, Loraine and Janet Wigley, Blye Cox, Leota Pfingsten, Mrs. Floy Skinner and Dorothy Guck.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gould and family and Brian Fiddler of Fort Stanton visited the Henry Peebles Sunday. Skipper Gould is to be honored the 17th when he becomes the first Eagle Scout in Lincoln County.

Two Killed In Auto Accident Near Ruidoso

Two La Mesa, Calif., men were killed and a woman and small child injured Sunday about 6 A. M. when their car missed a curve about a half mile east of Ruidoso Junction on U. S. Highway 70 and rolled over twice.

William Burns Meredith, 53, and William Hames, 50, were killed and Mrs. Mary Meredith, 37, and Thomas Meredith, 2, were injured in Sunday's accident. Three other persons from La Mesa were killed a week ago in a tragic auto accident near Deming which claimed seven victims.

State Police said the Meredith car failed to make the curve on slippery pavement.

Enters Hospital

Glen Thornton, who has been confined to his home with rheumatic fever for the past two weeks, was admitted to the local hospital Monday for further treatment, his mother, Mrs. J. E. Thornton, said this week. Twenty-two friends of the young boy stopped at his home Sunday to say hello and wish him well.

district Wednesday for a routine safety inspection. Messrs. Moore and Stevens of the Alamogordo forest office were here Thursday. Rev. and Mrs. Ralph Hall of Albuquerque stopped in Capitan Sunday evening, phoned the Peebles and called on the Gill Peters at Argus.

The county commissioners, according to the statement on record, will make such changes in recommendations as may facilitate the prompt commencement of construction of needed roads anywhere in the county when it is informed by responsible authorities that unnecessary delay may thereby be avoided.

The statement further relates the board of commissioners "flatly refutes and denies" the charge that disagreement between members of any past board of commissioners "in any way delayed action on any Lincoln County roads." According to the statement, minutes of all past commissioner meetings "conclusively prove this charge unfounded, showing complete harmony between all board members at all times" on the secondary road program.

The statement is signed only by A. C. Hester, chairman of the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners, and the records indicate a copy of the statement was to be sent to Thomas Mann, state highway commissioner from this district, and that a copy be given to any person requesting it.

Mrs. Laramie has been recruited for one more day this week in helping in the Alamogordo Selective Service office.

Local American Legion Favors Safety Program

The American Legion Benjamin I. Berry Post No. 11 of Carrizozo has declared itself in favor of developing a safety program which will affect all the residents of this area, according to an announcement made by officials this week.

Projects of this kind are carried on by Legion posts throughout the nation, but due to the small enrollment of the local post and of all the service organizations within the area, the project is too large for one group to handle.

A course in driver training for all youth of the surrounding area is the idea back of the project. It would be carried on in conjunction with other educational efforts in this area.

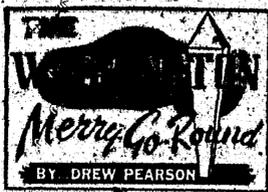

Any and all suggestions from other organizations regarding this proposal will be welcomed by the local Legion. The Carrizozo post warns, however, its proposal has not as yet reached the project stage.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bostian of Ruidoso were in Carrizozo last Thursday on business.

Vatican Appointment

REPUBLICAN pundits have now had time to take careful soundings on the President's appointment of Gen. Mark Clark to the Vatican and have concluded that politically it will do the Democrats more harm than good.

At first they feared the surprise move would win the big-city Catholic vote back to the Democratic party—a vote which, because of McCarthy's semisuccessful cry of State department Communism, was definitely slipping over to the Republican side. However, they now figure that they can easily label the Truman gesture as politics, for two reasons:

1. Although the President had talked to General Clark a couple of weeks earlier and got his consent to serve as Vatican ambassador, he did not send the appointment to the Senate until late on the last day of Congress in session. Thus, GOP leaders intend to point out, Mr. Truman could not have been too serious about getting the new ambassador confirmed.

2. The further fact that General Clark, a military man, must get a special act of Congress to permit him to serve, gives him a double hurdle to overcome and further postpones the date when he can take office.

Hot Potato in Ohio

Buried in the files of the senate elections committee, however, is some anti-Catholic campaign literature which has Republican strategists much more worried. This is the reason why the elections committee has been teetering back and forth trying to make up its mind about a real probe of the Ohio election.

Highlight of this campaign was a letter, dated Oct. 3, 1950, signed by Rev. F. R. Stoneburner of Dayton, a Lutheran, and widely circulated throughout Ohio. It reads:

"Dear Brethren: Please accept this letter merely as a matter of information. It should be known that Mr. Joseph Ferguson, who is running against Senator Robert A. Taft, is Roman Catholic.

"Knowing the efforts of the Roman church to get an official representative to the Vatican and its efforts to get public aid for parochial schools, I thought it equitable to pass this information on to you for what it is worth.

"Of course you know that our congressman, Edward Green, is Roman Catholic and that he favors public aid for parochial schools.

"It is a mistaken public idea that Governor Frank Lausche is Roman Catholic. He was raised in an orthodox church. His family goes to a Methodist church. He has never been a Roman Catholic. These are the facts as I have been able to ascertain them.

"For the authenticity of this letter, contact the Lutheran pastor in your community or Rev. F. R. Stoneburner, 201 Commercial St., Dayton, O.

"If you wish the members of your congregation to receive copies of this letter, please send such list to Post Office Box No. 224, Greenville, O."

Gillette Worries

When Taft first demanded a probe of his campaign, the Senate elections sub-committee voted 4 to 1 for it, including the two Republican members, Mrs. Smith of Maine and Hendrickson of New Jersey. The only man who voted against it was timid Senator Gillette of Iowa, Democrat.

However, when the elections committee picked Robert Murphy, an experienced investigator and a Catholic, as its counsel, Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, a Taft leader, blocked the appointment. He would not let a special bill okaying Murphy get through the house.

For weeks now the Ohio probe has hung fire. Committee investigators in Ohio have reported that Taft forced officials to check up $2,000,000 as their total expenditure, but a sampling has revealed additional amounts spent by county and city groups. One Taft organization, "Labor's League for Taft," was organized not by labor but by J. Eugene Carr, ex-president of the Canteen Chamber of Commerce and a Taft supporter.

With a full year passed since Taft's election, harassed and harried Chairman Gillette finally set Nov. 19 as the hearing date.

Churchill Wins British Election; Civilian Group Proposes UMT Plan

CHURCHILL—For the second time in his life Winston Churchill has become Prime Minister of Great Britain. As a result, many U.S. officials are predicting closer Anglo-American relations than existed under the Labor government of Clement Attlee.

Churchill's election, however, gains importance from the home towners' point of view for a number of possible conflicts in Anglo-American relations that may result and not from possible closer ties. Britain's new Prime Minister has long wanted a meeting of top western leaders with Premier Stalin, but President Truman has opposed such a move ever since the Potsdam conference in 1945.

Churchill, who once said he did not become Prime Minister of Great Britain to see the empire dissolved, is expected to take a firm stand on the Suez and Sudan problem. In fact, he could defend the empire system with such tenacity that it could become a point of conflict between Washington and London.

On the other side of the ledger, Churchill is believed in full harmony with the U.S. policy in Europe—a strong joint defense, constantly increasing economic and political unity, the close association of Britain with the European continent as well as the United States and the Commonwealth.

UMT PROGRAM—The National Security Training Commission, a five-man civilian group formed last June after Congress had approved the broad idea of universal military training, has made a report to Congress that will reach into every home and family in the nation.

Briefly, the commission has recommended a UMT program that could involve 800,000 youths annually and cost more than $4 billion in the first year. Every youth upon reaching 18 would get six months of training, then for the next seven and a half years be in a reserve component if the plan was put in operation.

The commission had this to say about world conditions and the future: "The clear prospect is that the present generation must live in danger for many years" and therefore should "learn to live with danger calmly and confidently."

Because today's military technology portrays an enemy to strike directly at the United States by sea or air, "the American people must be prepared, like their forebears who pushed the frontier westward, to meet a savage and deadly attack at any moment."

KOREA—Peace talks are underway again in Korea and rumors circulate that this time they will not collapse. However, the man on Main Street still has the feeling that you can't do business with the Communists and expect little of the negotiations.

Politely, but firmly, United Nations representatives have told the Communists they refuse to swap hard-won ground for peace in Korea. The Reds insist on a buffer zone 15 miles wide along the 38th parallel.

The possibility remains that the Allies may make minor adjustments to the present battle line that would be acceptable to the Communists. An unusual note was sounded when Communist correspondents, who usually have little to say to UN correspondents, expressed optimism: "I feel certain a few miles are not going to hold up an agreement," one is reported to have said.

POLITICS—Frank E. McKinney, Indianapolis businessman, was scheduled for the job of Democratic national chairman, replacing William M. Boyle, Jr., who recently resigned while under fire by senate investigators.

McKinney reported he had "agreed to accept" the $35,000-a-year job and would dispose of his interests in a pipeline company which is seeking a government certificate to get 100,000 tons of scarce steel. He will retain his radio and banking interests.

In his announcement that he had agreed to accept the job, McKinney said: "I'll state here and now that so long as I am national chairman, no company which I am affiliated with or interested in will ever enter the doors of a government bureau or agency seeking favors or considerations of any type or character."

IRAN CRISIS—Rumors persisted during recent days that an agreement in the British-Iranian oil dispute was near, with the United States playing an important part in the negotiations.

It was rumored the agreement would provide: (1) British marketing of Iranian oil, which would be purchased at an agreed wholesale rate and sold in consumer areas at prices sufficient to assure Britain of a reasonable profit; (2) Compensation for British properties already seized by Iranians; (3) An agreement to assure success of Iranian production, probably providing for a "neutral" manager under Iranian government control.

ATOMIC EXPLOSION
The typical column and mushroom of an atomic bomb explosion rises high above earth at Nevada test site, some 55 miles northwest of Las Vegas, Nev. This shot was made from a point on Mt. Charleston 40 miles away.

FARM ACCIDENTS—The corn harvest is in full swing in the mid-west and the farm accident rate will climb accordingly. Last year in Nebraska, for instance, the cornpicker toll was two lives, 184 fingers, 18 hands, 18 arms, one leg, four toes and two feet.

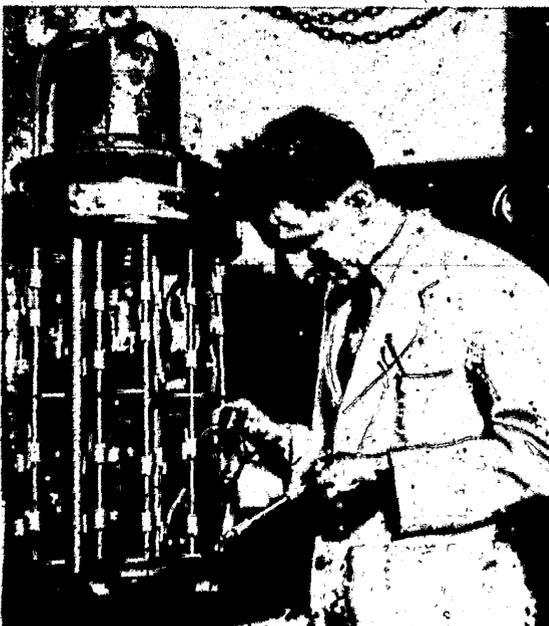

The National Safety Council estimated that farm accident deaths are being recorded at the rate of 48 a day, or 17,520 a year; disabling injuries now total 1,500,000 a year. The economic loss caused by farm accidents is estimated at $1 billion a year.

BIGGER CROPS—Although the government will not publish their production guides for 1952 until mid-December, agriculture experts predict the government will ask for bigger crops. The big push will probably be for higher yields per acre, rather than greater acreage.

The simple reason for the expected production increase is the upsurge in the number of people to feed and clothe. Since the 151 million U.S. nose-count of early 1950, census officials figure there's been a 4 million increase.

FLEE TO FREEDOM . . . Czech miners fled Prague slave camp.

BRITISH SCIENTIST MISSING . . . Donald O'Connor (shown at work at the national institute for medical research) and I. G. Campbell were said by English security officers to have vanished ahead with their families. No security secrets are involved, however, in their disappearance. O'Connor was described by the Daily Mail as an avowed Communist. Their disappearance brings to mind the disappearance of the two British diplomats, Donald Maclean and Guy Burgess.

MOSSADEGH AND LIBERTY BELL . . . Iran's Premier Mohammed Mossadegh visits Philadelphia on the first leg of a trip to Washington which scheduled him to have lunch at the White House with President Truman. Mossadegh pauses a few moments to feel the Liberty Bell in Independence Hall. The subject of liberty is especially close to the Iranian premier right now as he fights to rid his country of British influence created by the interest of the British in Iranian oil.

FIRST KOREAN WAR BRIDE ARRIVES . . . Sgt. John Morgan, 23, is greeted by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Morgan, Bremerton, Wash., as he brings his Korean war bride on the transport U.S.N.S. Patrick. The young wife, Young Soon Morgan, also 23, and Morgan were married last February after they met in May, 1950, at headquarters Korean military army group at Pohang.

St. Louis: Where Gambling Is Big Business

Crime is big business in the St. Louis area. Mostly, the section's shadowy activities are centered on illegal gambling. However, the Senate Crime Committee found that this gambling is not merely the innocent, harmless "biological necessity" which James Joseph Carroll, the cantankerous multi-million-dollar-a-year bookmaker, called it.

In the past 10 years, there have been 25 unsolved gang murders in the Missouri-Southwest Illinois area of which St. Louis is the center—a studied plan of assassinations to control all large-scale commercial gambling and vice.

During this time, five major gangs operated in St. Louis: the Hogan mob, the Egan Hats, the Cuckoo gang, the so-called Green Dagoes, composed largely of Sicilians, and a gang of Americans of Italian descent.

An off-shoot of the Sicilian mob was the Pillow gang, so named because its leader, Carmelo Fresina, once was shot in the buttocks and thereafter carried a pillow with him to use when he sat. Eventually, Fresina, an extortionist and bootlegger, was dispatched with two bullets in the head and no longer needed his pillow.

In Central and Southern Illinois, two infamous mobs—the Sheltons and the Birgers—operated.

We glanced an indication of the magnitude of book-making from testimony of Gambler J. J. Carroll. The 64-year-old Carroll, engaged in some form of horse-betting activities since he was 12, admitted that the Carroll-Mooney-Grady operation—with huge wire rooms in St. Louis, Mo., and East St. Louis, Ill.—handles "in excess of $20,000,000" a year in bets. Profits come to approximately $750,000, and his own take is approximately $110,000 a year.

Carroll seemed to have a characteristic in common with Frank Costello. Costello, a racketeer, wanted to pose as a business man. Carroll, a gambler, glorified himself with the title of "betting commissioner."

It was Carroll who, in St. Louis, became the first witness to decline to testify before the television cameras. "The whole proceeding outrages my sense of propriety," said Mr. Carroll, walking out. I promised him I would recommend that he be prosecuted for contempt. To avoid this, Carroll later came to Washington at his own expense to testify. We had more trouble there but managed to get it over by keeping the cameras off his face.

Another huge St. Louis operation was C. J. Rich & Co., a clearing house for bets on major sports, operating under the guise of a gold brokering company. We questioned two partners in this outfit, Charles J. (Kewpie) Rich and Sidney Wyman. Wyman was a dark, heavy-set man who put on a great show of scowling ferociously as he taxed his memory for answers to our questions. "Kewpie" Rich was a pudgy, round-faced, unhappy looking scud, who in appearance lived up to his nickname.

Neither would quite admit they were in the gambling business. So we compromised by discussing their business as "Operation X." Their company is less coy. Among other things, we introduced as evidence a circular openly distributed by Rich & Co. which said: "We do not restrict our transactions solely to racing. We would gladly handle wagers on all other sporting events, including baseball, football, fights and elections."

Wyman started off by telling us that "Operation X" grossed about $1,000,000 a year; after he left the stand, he sent in word through his attorney that he was wrong and the correct figure would be $4,000,000 to $5,000,000.

I asked the Russian-born Rich why he never had become an American citizen. He answered he had applied "many a time" but had been turned down repeatedly. I asked why. He unhappily replied: "On account of the business I participate in."

One aspect of both the Rich-Wyman and Carroll-Mooney-Grady operation that gave the committee particular concern was the admitted involvement of the Western Union Telegraph Co.

A raid on the Rich company storehouse turned up a card index of between 100 and 150 names of Western Union agents throughout the United States who acted secretly as betting agents for the Rich & Co. The Western Union employees were given "gratuities" to handle and, in some cases, solicit bets in their communities for Rich. Some even were paid a percentage of Rich's winnings as a commission.

Western Union, of course, found the gambling account highly lucrative.

Rich & Co. received 500 to 1000 telegrams a day. In May, 1950, alone, its telegraph bill was $28,700. The Carroll-Mooney-Grady operation was worth $77,740 to Western Union in 1950.

Our committee report said: "One wonders whether the Western Union's obnoxiousness to its public responsibility not to permit its facilities to be used in violation of state law, was in part due to the fact William Molasky, of St. Louis, a well-known gambler, is one of its outstanding stockholders."

The committee learned a great deal about William Molasky, the millionaire magazine distributor, whose finger was in many pies. An ex-newsboy, Molasky publishes a scratch sheet for horseplayers, and is a 35 per cent partner in Pioneer News, the bookies' racing news wire. He and his family own 18,000 shares of stock in Western Union, valued at the time of his testimony at $73,000.

Louisiana: Fantasia In Law Enforcement

In Louisiana, the Senate Crime Committee wrapped up a complete history of local infiltration by the national crime syndicate. Through alliances with home-grown racketeers, these big-town mobsters put gambling and other profitable rackets on a big-time basis.

New Orleans, though it has been cleaned up steadily since Mayor DeLassus S. Morrison took office in 1942, became an important provincial capital of the East coast Costello-Lansky-Adonis mob. As his protégé, Frank Costello installed a trusted lieutenant, Phillip (Dandy) Phil Kastel, convicted swindler. Then through Kastel, he controlled an important segment of the area's slot machine and gambling casino rackets and effected a working partnership with a local criminal, Carlos (Little Big Man) Marcello. Marcello, reputed Mafia leader of Louisiana, is building a criminal dynasty that one day may rival Al Capone's.

In every line of inquiry we pursued we found Marcello's trail. The Little Big Man with some of his brothers and aides owned all or part of more than 40 enterprises—all but a few of them illegal. These included gambling casinos, an interest in the local wire service, horse parlors and slot machine companies.

Our report stated: "The committee had information that Carlos Marcello and his brother, Anthony, owned a boat used in running narcotics into the port of New Orleans." Carlos had been convicted in 1923 of narcotics peddling and had served time for it.

We also established beyond doubt that the East-state gangsters who came to Louisiana depended on the negligence, the active support, or the participation of some local law enforcement officials.

On the day in 1946 that John J. Grosch took office as sheriff of Orleans parish (New Orleans), local newspapers ran a picture captioned "Just a Gift for Johnnie." It showed the new sheriff standing alongside a brand new Cadillac limousine presented him by "unnamed friends."

We heard from the sheriff's divorced wife, Mrs. Viola Grosch, a woman who holds a responsible position at the Tulane University hospital, that in the last six years of their married life together, ending in 1940 when he was chief of New Orleans detectives, Grosch had accumulated $150,000 which he kept at home in a steel box. She said she had seen him receive money weekly from a local slot machine dealer, and another character, who reputedly ran a house of prostitution, bought all the food for the week.

Next week: The Cleveland Area "Midtown" of Crime.

SCRIPTURE: Exodus 18:21
DEVOTIONAL READING: Deuteronomy 1:17-20

All Men Need Laws

Lesson for November 18, 1961

Dr. Foreman

Why do we need so many laws? Why can't we trust people to follow their conscience? There are two reasons why we can't do that: Some people won't follow their consciences, and some other people have crooked, inaccurate and dull consciences. — If they did follow them they would be wrong most of the time. Why can't we have just the Law of Love? Love is important, to be sure, but "love" by itself doesn't tell us what to do in any concrete case. And besides, too many people have no love to speak of.

Are Bible Laws Out of Date? WELL, then, can't we get along with the Ten Commandments? They cover everything, don't they? They do, to be sure; but only in a very general way. What we need is something that gets down to cases. Surely, you might think, the ancient Israelites could have gone along pretty well without laws. But God wanted them to have laws. They could not be a nation without them.

In Exodus 21-23 we have a simple code which is the earliest known group of laws applying the Ten Commandments to actual conditions and situations of living. Christians are not altogether agreed about whether the laws in Ex. 21-23 (and elsewhere in the Old Testament) apply to us today.

The authority of Christians look at it like this: The Ten Commandments, as great sign posts and standards, are everlasting in force; the other laws (as those in Ex. 21-23) were meant for that particular nation. When that nation disappeared, the laws went with it, just as (for example) the laws of Rome perished with the Roman Empire.

Getting Down to Cases HOWEVER, while these laws were not directly intended for us, and are not all usable by us, they are well worth our study, because they are examples of how the great basic principles of the Ten Commandments were once applied in practical living, and they give us valuable hints on the way to apply the Ten Commandments in our own times.

One illustration of this point can be seen in Ex. 21:22-24, the Law of the Goring Ox. The commandment reads simply: Thou shalt not kill. But what if the killing was done not by a man but by his ox?

The law goes into the question of responsibility in an interesting way. Not many readers of these lines own oxen—more likely tractors or station wagons! But the principle of responsibility for damage, the principle of criminal negligence, is as good today as it was in 1200 B.C.
