Republicans Play 'Socialistic Trend'

In a meeting held Feb. 23 at the courthouse in Carrizozo, Lincoln County Republicans instructed their delegates to support Gov. Edwin L. Mechem for a second term at the state nominating convention in Albuquerque Feb. 29-March 1.

Resolutions adopted by the local Republicans included condemnation of "the present socialistic trend of our present national Democratic administration"; favoring decentralization of national and state governments and a return of policy which recognizes principles of states' rights and an invitation to the Jeffersonian Democrats to join in a "crusade to restore the American principles" upon which the country's forefathers "created and founded our government."

The convention ordered the local delegates to cast their allotted 15 votes for Governor Edwin L. Mechem but they will go unrepresented on the other state and federal offices. The Lincoln County delegation endorsed Patrick J. Hurley, candidate for U. S. senator, and Jason Kellaham, candidate for state corporation commissioner, with a vote of confidence. Approximately 30 Republicans from this county are expected to attend the state convocation and each one will be permitted to cast a vote on a pro-rata basis.

Several of the local Republican candidates for state and county offices spoke before the assembly. A motion to draft Mrs. Lorine Samelson, incumbent county schools superintendent, for re-election to that office, was approved. Mrs. Samelson has not made any announcement as to whether she will be a candidate.

Capitan PTA To Start Second Year March 3

By DOROTHY GUCK

Monday, March 3, the Capitan PTA will hold its regular meeting at 7:30 P. M. in the library of the high school, which marks the beginning of its second year of existence. There will be an election of officers to replace Mrs. Ed Guck as president, Mrs. Ray Province as vice president, Mrs. Leroy McKnight as secretary and M. S. Chavez as treasurer.

During the year, 100 members joined the organization. The variety of entertaining and educational programs were well managed during the direction of the following chairmen: By-laws, Mrs. Ruby Yarbrough; publicity, Frank Taylor; membership, S. M. Cozzens; budget, Joe Wigley; lunch program, Mrs. L. W. Clark; hospitality, Mary Werner; monthly programs, Lewis Cummins; parliamentarian, Lois Aldrich; historian, Pauline Utterback.

For March meeting, Fernin Montes, principal of Hondo High School, will be guest speaker.

Although the Capitan PTA is proud of its first year's record, its active members are sorry that more parents are not availing themselves of the opportunity to build a better community through participation in a program to benefit their youth. Recently, the disgruntled cry of Americans that graft and corruption has crept into all facets of life, makes us wonder that if each parent worked toward raising the ideals of his children, the world of the future might not be an improvement. The big men of the nation are the products of small communities like ours. By aiding our schools and our churches and bettering our homes, our children will make honest and capable leaders.

Your PTA is not only inviting you to spend an enjoyable evening once a month, it is urging you to take an active part in helping the school build fine citizens.

Bulletin

Deadline for filing in the local village election on April 1 is three weeks before the date of election. Mayor Vernon Petty has announced he will not be a candidate for re-election.

Alamogordo Winner In District 14 Basketball; Capitan Places Second

The Alamogordo High School basketball quintet captured District 14 championship last weekend with a 43-37 victory over Capitan in the final, giving the latter team second place. Tularosa was third with a 60-53 score over Hondo, which put the latter team in fourth place. A consolation trophy was awarded the Carrizozo basketeers for fifth place. Following is a brief resume of the tournament tilt:

Capitan, top seeded team, swamped the Ruidoso Warriors 67-6 in the opening match as Tularosa nudged Carrizozo 32-28. Pacer for the Capitan quintet was Malcolm Petree with 20 points with his teammate Donny Morris hitting 12. The Tule-Carrizozo game was close with the winner coming from behind in the last half to safeguard the margin. Gerald King and Jerry Kennedy of the local group tallied 14 and 13 markers, respectively.

The second round ended with Hondo defeating Weed 44-39 while Alamo took a lopsided victory over Clouderoff of 100-28.

In the semi-finals Alamogordo downed Tularosa 67-23 as Capitan mowed down Hondo, 67-14.

Jerry Kennedy sprained his ankle in the Tularosa game and could give his teammates very little support as they fought their way to the consolation bracket. Saturday afternoon the Grizzlies tamed Clouderoff 46-31 although playing spotty basketball. Gerald King and Eddie Holguin were high with 15 and 11 markers, respectively, to their credit. The Zoolites played Weed Saturday night and emerged with a 47-24 win, doing their most spectacular work in the second period when they made nine points and held the opposition scoreless. King was high again with 16 points while Henry Vega netted 11. King scored a total of 45 points in the tourney as Vega reached 22.

Lincoln County members of the all-district team include Don and Kenneth Morris and Malcolm Petree, Capitan, and Henry Vega, Carrizozo.

District 14 champions from Alamogordo will compete this weekend in the regional tourney at Silver City.

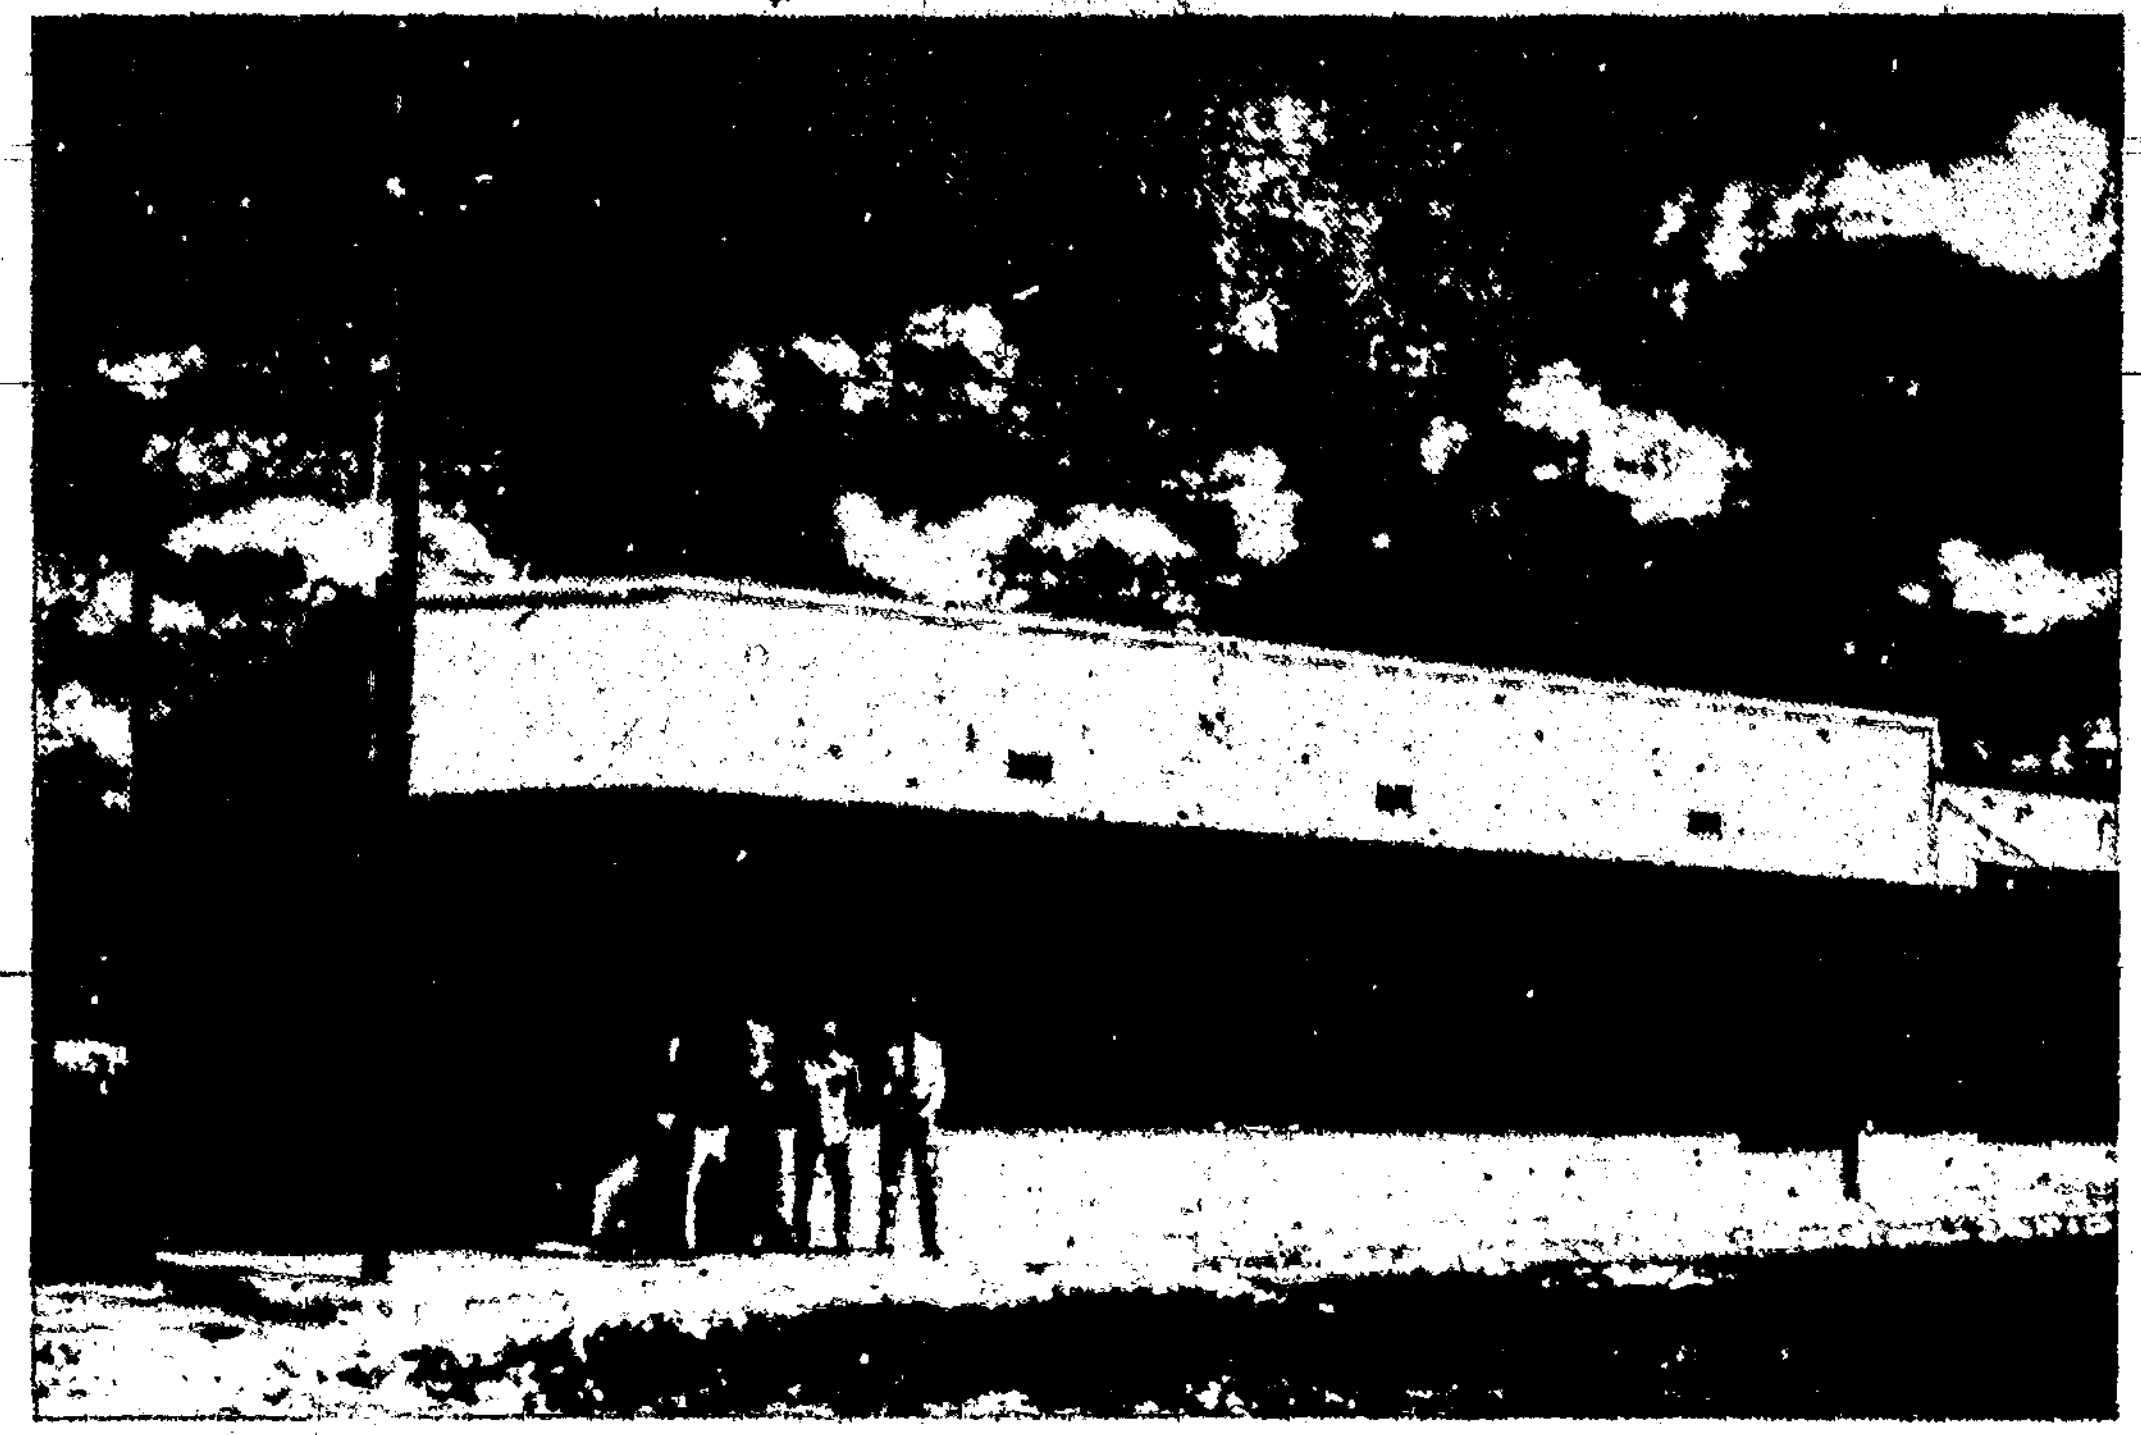

Dust Storm Handicaps Firemen In Two Alarms

The severe dust storm in Carrizozo Feb. 18 was a serious obstacle to local firemen in their efforts to control two fires within the town that afternoon.

The first fire started about noon in the home of Bob Means who was in Alamogordo on business that day. Means said his wife had gone to the store, but that five of the children were at home. His daughter, Jean, went to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. Erlena Tubbs, who called the fire department, and then dashed to the burning house to see that the other children were taken to safety.

Means said he hopes to salvage some of his household goods but that extensive damage resulted from the fire which, apparently, started in the ceiling from an undetermined cause. He expressed appreciation to the fire department and Mrs. Tubbs for their prompt assistance, as well as to residents of the community for their replacement offerings of household goods and clothing. Means added that so generous has the response been to their predicament, the family has received practically all the furniture and clothing needed for its comfort.

The second fire occurred about 6 P. M. at Oscar's Boot and Shoe Shop, which, by a freak of circumstance, is located next to the body and fender shop owned by the victim of the first fire. The cause of the latter fire was attributed to a leaking gas line. The fire was quickly brought under control by the fire department and only minor damage resulted.

Shown above in front of Carrizozo's new post office building are, left to right, Herman E. Kelt, Sr., postmaster; Mrs. Clara K. Bell, sub clerk; Lee I. Carl, second clerk, and Roy W. Harmon, first clerk. Constructed according to government specifications by the Harkey Lumber Company, the building was completed several months ago. Delay in receiving new equipment held up its opening until last week. Photo by Blakely Studio, Carrizozo.

Carrizozo Post Office Occupies New Building, Modern Equipment

The opening of the new post office building in Carrizozo, long delayed, became a reality last week when personnel of the local post office completed the move into the new quarters.

The building, located at Central and Fifth Avenues, was constructed according to government specifications by the Harkey Lumber Company of Carrizozo. Stuccoed white with terra cotta trim, the post office presents a trim and attractive appearance to travelers as they pass by it over national Highway 54 (Central Avenue). The new building, more centrally located, is more convenient for a number of residents in the community. The attractive cream colored interior is efficiently equipped with modern post office equipment for fast handling of mail. True, the boxes presented some difficulty for the first few days and post office personnel were kept busy assisting holders with the operation of the new type locks. The floor is gray asphalt tile and the counters and public writing desk is covered with rubber tile. Desert tan is the keynote color of the interior fixtures.

Herman E. Kelt Sr., who came to White Oaks in 1907, was appointed postmaster May 24, 1933. Kelt, a resident of Carrizozo since 1927, is married to the former Pansy Palmer and the father of four children, Mrs. Jack Sargent, Santa Fe; Bill Kelt, Belen; Herman E. Kelt Jr., Albuquerque, and Mrs. Fred Hennerich, Carrizozo.

Roy W. Harmon, the first clerk, was born at White Oaks. He received his appointment in February, 1936, and has been employed continuously in the local office since then with the exception of two years with the U. S. Army during World War II. He is married and the father of one small son named Billy.

Lee I. Carl, the second clerk, was born in Carrizozo and went to work at the local office in January, 1939. A World War II veteran, he is married to the former Lois MacVickers, who has taught in the local schools.

Mrs. Clara K. Bell, who first came to White Oaks in 1907, was appointed a postal clerk in January, 1942. She is the mother of three children, Jesse Bell Jr. and Alban Bell, Wortham, Texas, and Don Bell, with the U. S. Navy at Great Lakes Naval Training Center.

The Carrizozo post office staff is outstanding for its service to the public and the community rejoices in the efficient and pleasant new quarters provided for the postal employees.

To Elect Officers

New officers of the Capitan Methodist Youth Fellowship group, who were elected recently, include: John Wild, president; Thomas Utterback, vice president; Melvyn Ferris, secretary; Alice Shaul, treasurer. The organization meets every Sunday at 6 P. M.

An active participant in community affairs, Mrs. Bumgardner is a member of the Carrizozo Methodist Church, and the following local organizations: Woman's Club, Parent-Teacher group, Coalinga Lodge No. 15, and the American Legion Auxiliary. Jimmie Armer Of Fort Stanton Awarded Eagle Scout Badge Recipient of the second Eagle Scout award to be made in Lincoln County was Jimmie Armer, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson of Fort Stanton, at impressive court of honor ceremonies held Feb. 16 at the Bonita Club House, Fort Stanton, by Fort Stanton Boy Scout Troop 58. The honor, the highest in scouting, was also awarded Thomas (Skipper) Gould of that troop at a previous ceremony.

Scoutmaster Ray Baker, who opened the meeting, was followed by Howard Braun, Scout executive for eastern New Mexico as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Jackie Burnett, president of the Capitan FFW Auxiliary, presented the troop with a beautiful rayon taffeta American flag, which was accepted by Eddie Womack, senior patrol leader. Braun awarded the Fort Stanton Scouts the national council streamer for being registered on time and the three-year blue liberty bell, symbol of 100 per cent membership of all Fort Stanton youths of Scout age.

Presentation of the Eagle award to young Armer was made by his mother, and she in turn was presented a miniature Eagle badge by her son. Also awarded the miniature Eagle badge at the Feb. 16 event was Mrs. William Gould who received it from her son, recipient of the first Eagle award in Lincoln County at ceremonies held last November.

The court of honor was followed by a venison barbecue, ice cream and cake furnished by parents of the Scouts. Reverend Rainey of Glencoe gave grace at the request of Eddie Womack, senior patrol leader.

The Girl Scout troop from Lincoln and its leaders, Mesdames Jeff Dockray, McGrew and Salas were special guests of the Fort Stanton Scouts.

Las Vegas Seriously Injured Near Ancho

Castro suffered a compound fracture of the leg, scalp lacerations, and a burn mark on his back. He is in the local hospital.

New Alaniz Trial Scheduled March 3

Last Rites Held For Mrs. Amanda Everett, Long Time Corona Resident

Services were held at the Corona Presbyterian Church Sunday, Feb. 24, for Mrs. Amanda J. Everett who passed away Feb. 21 at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Hester, Corona, where she had resided for the past 20 years. Rev. W. K. Twyeffort officiated with the Hanlon Mortuary in charge of arrangements.

Three daughters survive: Mrs. Rosa Parker, Logan; Mrs. Ada Hester, Corona, and Mrs. Eula McFeeters, Escondido, Calif. Also surviving are 17 grandchildren, 28 great-grandchildren and 11 great-great-grandchildren.

Amanda J. Matthews Everett was born July 13, 1861, in Weatherford, Texas. She was married on Nov. 15, 1876, to Samuel Everett, who preceded her in death in 1929. To this union five children were born. Two sons, John William Everett and Arthur Ewell Everett, have preceded her in death.

Mrs. Everett with her husband moved to New Mexico in 1910. She was a devout Christian and a charter member of the Corona Presbyterian Church. Because her birthday came during the Ranchers' Camp Meeting she gained her greatest pleasure when the congregation sang "Happy Birthday" to her. Throughout her last illness of more than a year her sense of humor never failed her.

Rev. Twyeffort captured the spirit of her life in his remarks paying tribute to "The Pioneer Woman."

Among the relatives attending services for the deceased were: Cleve Spearman, El Paso; Mrs. Mae Dunlap, Canutillo, Texas; Mrs. Edith Louder, Happy, Tex.; Mrs. Bess Cayton, Claude, Tex.; Mrs. Lee Osborne, Amarillo, Tex.; Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Keese and nephew, McLean, Tex.; Mrs. Rosa Parker and Mrs. Fritz Henderson, Logan; Mrs. Jewel Sander and children and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gilliland and children, Roswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hardy and children, Albuquerque.

Laundromat Awarded At Open House Here

At an open house held Saturday afternoon at the Nickels Building and Hardware, a Westinghouse Laundromat was awarded Mrs. Jack Harkey of Carrizozo. Mrs. Harkey, who was unable to attend the ceremonies, won the automatic washer for her submission of the winning last line to a Jingle on Rinsol soap. W. T. Anderson, Roswell representative of Lever Bros., manufacturers of Rinsol and the donors of the washing machine, made the award. Aaron Brenner and Bob Givens, El Paso, representatives of the Zork Hardware Company, the distributor for the Westinghouse appliance in this area, were also in Carrizozo for the event.

Guests attending the open house festivities were given demonstrations of the operation of the Laundromat, as well as the Necchi sewing machine. Demonstrators were William H. Nickels, owner of the local firm, and Mrs. Dorothy Current, Carrizozo. Mrs. Nickels was assisted by Mesdames Calle Roselle, Alvie Keelin and Dorothy Current in serving coffee and cake to approximately 75 guests who called during the afternoon.

News Items Omitted

A number of news items are omitted from this issue due to lack of space and a last-minute rush of copy. Anything omitted this week will appear in the March 7 issue.

Valeriano Alaniz, Mexican national who received the death sentence in the Pete Nalda murder case tried before Judge W. T. Scoggin in 1950 in this county, faces a second trial as the result of a State Supreme Court decision. Officials of the state penitentiary at Santa Fe were notified Saturday the 46-year-old defendant was to be taken to Las Cruces Feb. 28 where his trial starts March 3 in a special term of District Court now underway.

Alaniz will be accompanied by Luis Campos, convicted as an accomplice and now serving a life term for the crime. The latter is to be used as a witness for Alaniz.

Sentenced to die in the electric chair after his original conviction of the murder of Pete Nalda, well known Lincoln County rancher, Feb. 28, 1950, Alaniz won a new trial on his appeal to the State Supreme Court, which held his request for a change of venue to another county should have been granted. The high court made no attempt to determine whether or not Alaniz was guilty of the rancher's murder. The Mexico citizen contended he could not get a fair trial in Lincoln County because Nalda's death had aroused considerable feeling among Eastern New Mexico ranch circles. The deceased was foreman of the Lewis-Sanders ranch about 20 miles east of Corona.

During the first trial, Gratia Ernaut, nephew of the slain man and chief witness for the state, testified he and his uncle had been aroused late at night by the two men. According to Ernaut, Nalda was forced to write four checks and the nephew forced to endorse them. Further testimony developed the two were marched out of the house and after hearing the remark "now is the time to kill them," Nalda instructed his nephew to run. Ernaut, recently arrived in the U. S. from France where he had served in that country's army, zigzagged as he ran and eventually made his way to the ranch home of his uncle, Mike Nalda, about 12 miles away. The nephew reported he had hidden all night in his uncle's corral because he was afraid the two men might have harmed that family. In the morning, when he saw the members of the family preparing for the daily routine, Ernaut went to the house and told them what had happened. The night before, John Nalda, son of Mike Nalda, had found the gate to the ranch property open and had investigated since it was always closed. He went on to his home and asked his father to help him look around, but when they could not find Nalda and Ernaut, concluded the two had gone to a movie. After hearing Ernaut's story, they returned to the other ranch where they found Nalda's body, a short distance away from the house, face down in a gulch with two bullet holes in the head and back.

Women and Taxes

By DOROTHY GUCK
 I've had a little more time than usual to read lately. I must have been awfully hard up to find items on taxation interesting. When a woman fails to skip those dry perusals of the economic state of the Union, there has to be some good reason for it.

My sex have always been accused of unbalancing budgets, garbling checking accounts, and frittering money on unessential doodads. The man always sweats over the income tax, and runs the greatest majority of the nation's states' and counties' business. Well, he can keep on in that capacity, but please don't mind if we women expect a reasonable answer to a few pertinent questions.

I noticed at one reading that in the 156 years since the United States formed its own government, 248 billion dollars was collected in taxes. That included two world wars. In six years, Truman has collected 260 billion in taxes. Even so, our national debt is 255 billion dollars.

Doesn't sound to me like the government is doing much budgeting and certainly not keeping the checking account on an even keel. Just what are we mortgaging to raise those billions for expenses? I'd like to read an undemandable statement of accounts.

Until I saw the explanation recently in the El Paso Times of the difference between a million and a billion dollars they were just a couple of big words that kept me from dwelling any thoughts on high finance. Mr. Truman has just asked for an $5 billion dollar budget. A few congressmen are trying to shave a million here or there, but millions or billions, what's the difference? The United States Business Service for January 28 gave two examples of the vast difference, reprinted in the Times.

If a million dollars in $1,000 bills were stacked on a table, the pile would be eight inches high. If a billion dollars in $1,000 bills were stacked, the pile would rise 100 feet higher than the Washington Monument. That example should be included in every eighth grade arithmetic book. Here's another. If a man running a factory had expenses of $1,000 a day, disregarding income on a million dollars he could operate the factory for two years and nine months. On a billion dollars with the same expenses of $1,000 a day, he could run his factory from the day Christ was born and for another 800 years.

Another prominent magazine editorial disclosed a few weeks ago that Congress actually has very little power over the budget because each department of the government prepares its own request for funds at such stupendous figure or so many details, congressmen never have the time or opportunity for thorough investigation of the validity of each item.

It irks me to know some gal in Washington is sporting a mink coat that very probably could have been bought by the income tax of this community. I don't like grain storage operators being a "little bit dishonest." Numerous subsidies attic in my craw. Unlimited resources are myths. Misappropriation of funds cheats the soldier in Korea of an honest chance. Uncle Spend-thrift might end up in the gutter.

Looks like the time has come to watch the woman who fingers a yard of calico, compares it with a bolt down the street, and buys cautiously and frugally, satisfied she has the worth of her dollar. Let's adopt the tactics of the writhin with a penny to spend for candy. No reason why billions and millions can't be used with the comprehension of their full value by trained businessmen.

Now don't expect women to tell you how to run the nation's financial business. We don't know how. Do you? Are you sure the men you have elected to that job are capable steering this ship on the right course, or might they scuttle it on a reef of bankruptcy?

It isn't the possible national pauperism that scares me, I don't want to end up in Stalin's soup line.

Salvation Army Tells Of New Collection Boxes; Tambourines Out

A new red plastic collection box, held by a uniformed member of The Salvation Army, is replacing the famous tambourine as the means of receiving public contributions. The tambourine will no longer be carried by Salvationists for collections, but will be reserved for use as a musical instrument at army meetings.

According to Marvin Roberts, the little red box, with the words "The Salvation Army," in white letters, is copyrighted and will help to distinguish the Salvationist from collectors for other organizations using the tambourine and often dressed in uniforms very similar to that of members of The Salvation Army.

Since The Salvation Army is a member agency of the Corona, New Mexico Community Chest, however, such public contributions will not be collected by Salvationists here, and any effort to collect funds should be reported to the authorities.

This initial training includes instruction in such fields as seamanship, fire fighting, gunnery, signaling and other courses.

Upon completion of their 11-week training period at the training center, graduates are assigned to duty stations with the Fleet or at Navy shore stations, or are sent to service schools for advanced technical training.

SPEND NIGHT IN CAPTAIN
 Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Bartkus report they spent Sunday night in Captain because of the snowstorm in that area. The Carrizozo family and their Captain hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Dick King, had attended a movie in Ruidoso that night and as they left the theater discovered it had begun to snow. As they neared Captain, the storm became more severe and they decided not to risk a slippery road over Indian Divide.

NEW MEXICO'S EXPANSION PROGRAM MOVES FORWARD!

IN THE LAST FEW YEARS, we have tripled our investment in plant and facilities to serve New Mexico telephone users.

- The increase in investment has been very substantial for two reasons. First, we have tried to keep pace with continuing demand. Second, it takes a lot more dollars to provide facilities at today's high cost levels.
- In the last six years we've spent $24½ million for construction of new facilities, and our program this year is continuing at an even greater rate.
- Not only is more equipment being added daily throughout the state, but New Mexico users are finding the telephone more and more useful.
- Ten years ago, about 200,000 local and long distance calls were being handled daily. Today the volume has tripled, with a daily average approximating 600,000.
- The combined efforts of 1,850 skilled employees are building for New Mexico a telephone system to match the state's growing needs.

In Memorium

As one stands beside the mound of a loved one who has passed on, there is comfort in the age old thought — here might an appropriate memorial be erected to perpetuate the qualities one has known and grown to love. By the erection of a Roberts' Memorial there will be a permanent reflection to the world of a personality it has lost.

CORONA

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY
In the district tournament played at Vaughn last weekend, Corona defeated Fields 54-25 and Santa Rosa 41-38. The finals were with Grady Saturday night. This was a hard fought game with both Corona and Grady teams fouling heavily. Corona's defense was excellent, and they made more field goals than Grady, but were unfortunate on their free shots. The final score was 55-53 in favor of Grady. Both Corona and Grady will play in the regional tournament at Roswell this weekend, Corona playing at 8:30 P. M. Friday.

Mrs. M. J. Everett died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Hester, Thursday, Feb. 21, about 6 P. M. Mrs. Everett was an old-timer in the community, and was beloved by everyone.

Mrs. Fannie Hodge has been seriously ill with pneumonia and flu at the Carrizozo Hospital the past week.

The Arie Sweeney place, about four miles northeast of Corona, now occupied by the Herman Dishman family, has been sold to Bill Keelin.

Work on an addition to the Corona City Hall has been started. The new building will be in part a garage for the new city ambulance and a jail for the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Casey have put in a Western Store next door, adjoining the Casey Sweet Shop. An archway has been added in the north wall, making the two departments like one.

Mrs. Clarence C. Ashcraft made a trip to Booneville, Ark., last week where she visited the D. B. Campbell family. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Charley Ashcraft, the former Miss Rosalee Campbell, returned with Mrs. Ashcraft to Corona Friday. Pfc. Charley Ashcraft has finished his training at Lockland Air Base at San Antonio, Texas, and is now at technical training school, Cheyenne, Wyo.

The Girl Scout area field worker will meet with the American Legion Auxiliary at the Community Room Thursday evening, March 6, and with the Girl Scouts Friday, March 7.

Mrs. W. B. Winniford, recovering from a major operation at Abilene, Texas, is expected home about March 7.

Mrs. Willie R. Bledsoe is reported in the Carrizozo Hospital this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Penix visited Mrs. Penix's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Frame, at Buldoso, last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Crumley and children, who are living west of Deming, were here visiting Mrs. Crumley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter, the first of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wart left for Hot Springs Monday.

J. E. McKibben has been at Hot Springs the past week taking the baths.

Mrs. Bob Willingham of Pueblo, Colo., passed away Saturday. Funeral services were held at the Corona Baptist Church Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Willingham is a former old time resident of Corona.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hodges returned from Tucumcari Sunday after a 10-day visit there at the homes of Mr. Hodges' brother, J. H. Hodges, and his sisters, Mrs. S. H. Stratton and Mrs. Gus Morrison. They also visited friends and relatives in Amarillo, Texas, while gone. Mrs. Stratton made the return trip with the Carrizozo family and then went on to Alamogordo to see her son, Sam, high school basketball coach there.

NOGAL MESA

By DOROTHY GUCK
I hope Mrs. Mulkey hasn't suffered too much since last week's edition of the paper. Nogal Mesa is really a fine place to live, though not as luxuriant with news as Corona.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wigley and the Henry Peebles called on the Gill Peters at Nogal Lake Friday evening to honor Chloe who was having a birthday on Saturday. Ben Pflingsten had his stitches removed and reports the injured hand ready to go back to fixing windmills.

Leota Pflingsten has been lending a hand whenever possible to her mother as Mrs. Bradford has been down with the flu.

Sammy Jones' dimples are bigger than ever since his mother, Mrs. Virgil Jones, brought home a new playmate, Roy Calvin.

Arlene and Paul Jones drove over from Buldoso this weekend to paint and repair the fire guard's cabin.

I heard of two trout being caught in Nogal Lake last week. I even saw them.

My folks came over from Glenroe, sandwiching in a day of dirt removing at my house between their gardening activities at home. They say the Buldoso Valley is waiting from its winter lethargy in a bustle of activity to clear and plow the land again.

I hope all of you are as anxious as I am to attend the next Capitan PTA meeting, Monday, March 3, at 7:30 P. M. in the high school. F. M. Montes has promised to come from Hondo and possibly bring a few of their PTA members to give us a program well worth hearing.

A few people have inquired if it is possible to go to Monjeau Lookout. The view is beautiful, but probably not worth the long hike through deep snow. We'll let you know when the road is open again for car travel.

NOTICE

Now is the time for all taxpayers in Lincoln County to render their property taxes. Deadline is March 1, 1952. Penalty will be added after that date.

The three boys picked for the all-district team were Donney Morris, Malcolm Petree and Kenney Morris. They received miniature gold basketballs. They are set to go to the regional tournament at Silver City and their first game will be played with the team from that town.

The Capitan PTA meeting will be held on Monday, March 3, when election of officers will be held. Guests for the program of the evening are Mr. F. M. Montes and Mr. Robert Lane of Hondo. Please attend if you can.

Mr. Phillip Hein of Manitowoc, Wis., is here visiting his son, John Hein and family for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer McDaniel, Tularosa, spent the weekend with Mrs. McDaniel's parents, the B. G. Barnums.

W. W. Brazel Jr. of Tularosa was a visitor at the home of his mother, Mrs. Anna Brazel, one day last week.

R. W. Gaylor, now at the Marine hospital in San Francisco, sends greetings and best regards to his Lincoln County friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Branum of Santa Fe spent the weekend here visiting Branum's mother, Mrs. Nellie Branum, and his sister, Mrs. Margie Clouse. Their daughter, Miss Barbara Jean Branum, came from Alamogordo to be with the group.

Mrs. Fred Pfingsten Sr. of Hondo is in Sheridan, Ore., at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wayne Zumwalt. Mrs. Bert Pfingsten, also of Hondo, was expected to return last weekend from Hobbs where she has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. S. E. Manning.

Captain Ray Miller, teacher at New Mexico Military Institute in Roswell and former pastor of the local Trinity Methodist Church, was a guest speaker at the recent annual matron's department of the Roswell Woman's Club. The text of Miller's speech was "New Pleasures and Careers."

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson and son, "Topper," Santa Fe, were weekend guests of Mr. Johnson's sister, Mrs. Meyer Barnett, and family. The Barnett's son, Jimmie, writes from Cloco, Texas, where he is attending college, that with the close of the basketball season, he is hard at work on his course of study.

The publishers of the News Outlook are glad to be back in The Land of Enchantment and sunshine after a vacation trip to visit relatives and friends in California and take a much needed rest (which, by the way, we didn't get). We're still trying to figure out a scheme to harness some of that state's flood waters for New Mexico. The dampness resulting from all that water caused us to feel chilled to the very bone all during our stay, and only started to thaw out as we neared the New Mexico border.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred English and son Toby returned last week from an extended vacation spent in Guaymas, Mexico, and up the Pacific Coast to San Francisco. They had planned to go to Nebraska via the northern route but upon reaching Reno, after a drive over Donner Summit, Calif., in a blinding snowstorm, were informed road conditions on east of there were not good. They were advised to take the one road south that was considered safe for driving. The Carrizozo area reported towering snow banks over the Sierra Mountains of such height it was impossible to see the top as they drove along in their car. It was necessary to obtain chains, they added, in order to traverse that particular stretch of highway.

Corona Radio Station To Be Shut Down

Announcement was made last week of the closing down of the Civil Aeronautics Authority radio station at Corona, due to lack of funds. The Corona station, designed to provide in-flight information to aircraft is at present operating as a one-man installation.

Corona was the only operating station in the state to be taken off the air by the economy move, although one scheduled to be built at Farmington was also cut out by the lack of funds.

Ralph Alfred Bonnell, Executor BRENTON & HALL, ATTORNEYS FOR EXECUTOR, CARRIZOZO, NEW MEXICO.

losses or damages incurred. Every qualified claimant is entitled to this payment. The War Claims Commission, of which Mrs. Georgia Lusk of New Mexico, is a member, has advised me that it hopes to have all POW claims settled by the end of this year. It will be necessary that these claims be filed immediately if that is done.

Claims forms and information about the various types of claims can be obtained directly from the War Claims Commission, Washington 25, D. C., through veterans' organizations, state directors of veterans' affairs and the American Red Cross. If desired New Mexico claimants may write my office and forms will be obtained for them. Not only former prisoners of war, but widows, children and parents of those deceased are eligible for benefits in that order.

New Mexico's capitol will not have to wait for the final phases of its face-lifting. The work by the Robert McKee Company can be carried to completion now without delays because of a lack of critical materials such as steel, copper and aluminum.

The National Production Authority division of controlled materials has advised me that approval is being given for the immediate use of the necessary critical materials. The NPA has taken the position that each phase of the work, such as the construction of each building and the remodeling of the main Capitol itself was a separate operation and had to be considered separately. I pointed out to the government agency officials that the entire Capitol project should be considered as one construction program and that the completion of the various units had been timed so as to interfere as little as possible with the proper operations of the various state offices.

That argument finally prevailed and allocations of the requirements of the various critical materials were made.

Universal Military Training, probably the most controversial legislative proposal of this session of the Congress, now is before the House of Representatives. What determination will be reached is problematical at this writing. Powerful forces in the moulding of public opinion have been at work many months on both sides of the question. It is my judgment, based on recent information received from influential members of the House Armed Services Committee and high officials of the Department of Defense, that drastic modification of objectionable provisions are to be made in the UMT legislation as it came out of committee.

Many members of the House, who like myself, have been opposed to those provisions of the bill which we believe would disrupt the life plans of the nation's youth needlessly, are withholding final decision on our votes until we can know definitely that those objectionable provisions have been eliminated.

What started out to be stubborn resistance on the part of high officials of the Department of Defense to adoption of a unified and more efficient procurement setup for all of the branches of the armed services appears now to be resolving itself into acquiescence to the demand that wasteful and unsound policies being revealed by the Hebert sub-committee of the Armed Services Committee of the House must go.

Hearings are to be resumed by the sub-committee in the near future when it is expected higher ups in the Army, Navy and the Air Force will be called upon to formulate a unified program of purchasing that will be acceptable to the Congress.

Facts brought out have proved beyond doubt that there can be no real justification for the present haphazard buying methods

Lincoln Counties Bought $166,622 In Defense Bonds in '52

Residents of Lincoln county added $166,622.47 to their holdings of U. S. Defense and Savings Bonds, Series "E," "F" and "G" during the calendar year 1951. S. E. Greisen, chairman of this county defense bond committee, has announced.

Of this total, $46,548.47 were invested in Series "E" alone. Federal civilian employees who consider this county as their home placed $7,168.00 in Series "E" and members of the armed forces who live here bought $3,429.80 worth last year. These last two amounts include only the bonds they purchased through allotments from wages and salaries through disbursing and finance officers.

Series "F" and "G" Bonds combined attracted $120,074.00 in this county last year.

and that unification in more than name only will be necessary before any real economy or saving of the taxpayers' money can be accomplished.

My own investigation of the matter had convinced me long ago that here was one place in government operation where worthwhile savings could be made and it is gratifying to find that committee hearings are justifying that opinion. In fact, it was my plan to introduce necessary legislation to correct the situation in event other efforts failed.

Put your electricity to work in mid-morning or mid-afternoon for economy and efficiency. Avoid peak load hours.

Business Adm. Students At Carrizozo Earn State Honors

Students in the Department of Business Administration in the Carrizozo High School have earned a number of State Commerce certificates of merit this year in typewriting, bookkeeping, shorthand and general business. Almost every student has earned one or more certificates; however, a large group of students have passed all State Commerce tests given by Miss Jewell Lee Reams, business instructor in high school.

In typewriting those earning the highest number of points are Alma Eaker, Betty Moore, Dorothy Moore, Glen Thornton, Jo Ann Straley, Janie Wedell, Emily Johnson and Gerald King. High ranking students in bookkeeping include the following: Glen Thornton, Janie Wedell, Betty Moore, Dorothy Moore, Alma Eaker, Jo Ann Straley and Emily Johnson.

Practically all shorthand students are earning certificates. Robert Key, Elaine Lenard, Birtha Shrum, Connie Dean, Datsy Samora, Angelina Sandoval and Viola Vega are the ones having the highest percentages.

The general business class comes in for its share of the honors, also. Elaine Lenard, Walter Briminstool, Connie Dean, Eddie Holguin, Richard Lopez and Andy Baroz heads the list of students having the highest number of points in this course.

The State Commerce Convention will be held April 4 and 5 at Highlands University in Las Vegas and high-ranking students are already making plans to enter contests in the various subjects at that time.

There's nothing just as good that's cheaper!

It's a fact! Your travel dollar buys more comfort, more convenience, more luxury and more miles on modern streamliners than on any other form of transportation. Roundtrips in chair cars on any of the Southern Pacific "name" trains listed below cost only about 2¢ a mile or less. Chair cars on Southern Pacific's modern streamliners have been built with your comfort the first consideration. Dust-free, draft-free air conditioning. No-glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around room. Extra large windows. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms. That's why Chair Cars on S. P. streamliners are the most luxurious form of all low-cost transportation.

There's nothing as good as S. P. for freight shipments, too. We have more miles of line serving more Western cities and towns than any other railroad. For fast, efficient, dependable freight service — whether carload or l.c.l. — call our nearest agent.

Chances are 10 to 1 YOU DO BUSINESS BY THE TRUCKLOAD... that's why this message about America's first 2 1/2-ton Diesel may be the most important you've ever read! IF yours is like most businesses today, medium-weight transportation enters many times into the cost of your product — from procurement of raw materials to delivery of the finished product. For the first time, these "average" loads can be moved at spectacular savings — at a cost far below anything you've ever paid for medium-weight transportation in the past! The efficiency and economy of Diesel power become available to every user of trucks rated as low as 2 1/2 tons (19,500 GVW — 35,000 GCW). It's the latest advance from the world's largest producer of Diesel trucks. It's an entirely new kind of GMC truck-tractor — powered by a revolutionary, lighter-weight, more compact model of the famous General Motors two-cycle engine that is first choice among Diesel truck users today. It offers the advantages of more miles per gallon and lower maintenance in hauling operations where there has been no choice but gasoline power in the past. Before you waste another cent in your largest hidden cost of doing business — transportation — check the important role this new GMC 2 1/2-ton Diesel truck-tractor stands ready to play in your own operation. As your GMC dealer, we extend this invitation: if you are a processor, manufacturer, retailer, distributor, farmer or commercial hauler using 2 1/2-ton equipment — come in and see why this new GMC Diesel will mean extra profits to you every mile of the way. ANCHO

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Hall, Martha Lou, Leonard and Mrs. Leo Joiner were visiting in Ancho Sunday. The Halls are former residents of this neighborhood, but now are in the ranching business at Trotters, N. Dak. They are guests at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Joiner, in Hondo. Leonard plans to accompany them on their return trip north.

Mrs. Ailje Bumgardner and her twin sister, Mrs. Alice McNeil of El Paso were entertained at a birthday dinner at the home of the B. W. Wilsons on Sunday. Mrs. Bumgardner has resigned as county nurse and plans to make her home in El Paso. We surely will miss her. Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Rebecca Wedell attended a farewell party in Carrizozo for her on Wednesday night.

The Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary was entertained at the B. W. Wilson home last Thursday. A jolly crowd was present. Mrs. R. E. Risinger was in Albuquerque to see her physician last Friday.

The weekly show continues to draw a good crowd to the school house every Thursday night.

Plans are well laid for the enchilada supper and card party at the school house tonight (Friday). Be sure and come and bring your friends.

Orris Smith and Milt Jones were business visitors in Belen last Saturday.

We enjoyed a short visit with Jess Holmes, state safety director, from Santa Fe, Wednesday evening and had the pleasure of bunking him overnight. Jess is quite concerned with the death toll from highway accidents as we all are, and, by the way, they are getting closer home all the time. Within the last two weeks there have been two very serious accidents only a few miles north of Ancho. The last one, last week, involved a truck driver who turned over several times. He is hospitalized in Carrizozo. The truck was completely demolished.

VFW Box Supper Proceeds Total $37

Proceeds from a box supper held Feb. 23 by the Ladies Auxiliary to the VFW Norton Pepper Post, Captain, totaled more than $37. The money will be sent to Eaton Rapids, Mich., for the completion fund of the New Mexico cottage, which is designed to house widows and orphans of veterans from this state. Al Besky, Hondo, served as auctioneer, and Mrs. Jackio Burnett, president of the auxiliary, presided at the coffee table. A prize for the most original box was awarded Mrs. Lela Escobedo of Lincoln.

Dancing followed the supper during which three contests were held. The two-step contest was won by Miss Lillian Crumley of Carrizozo and Sidney Ivig. Judges were Ollie Ackerman and Mr. Ham. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Escobedo were the winners in the jitterbug dancing with Zane Leslie the judge. Mr. Luck awarded the honor of the best waltzers to Mrs. Zane Leslie and Mr. Ham.

New Kaiser-Frazer To Be Displayed In Corona

The new 1952 Henry J. Corsair model of the Kaiser-Frazer Sales Corporation is to be on display this weekend at the Corona Motor Company, Corona. A. E. Mulkey, owner of the Corona firm, is the Kaiser-Frazer dealer in Lincoln County.

The manufacturing company stresses the 1952 models have greater economy, performance, comfort, safety, engineering, value, styling and utility than ever before.

The glamorous color-keyed upholstery features woven plastic (vinyl-coated weaves in the four-cylinder model) and is enhanced by lavish use of deep-embossed vinyl trim. The company emphasizes there is no need to buy extra seat covers since both upholstery and trim can be washed over and over again.
