Cattlemen Expect Record Attendance

The largest meeting of livestock producers ever held in New Mexico is shaping up in the 38th annual convention of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association scheduled for March 23, 24 and 25 in Albuquerque. In announcing program features of the convention, President Roy Fore hand of Carlsbad said the meeting will attract more than 3,000 cattle producers.

Addresses by Gov. Howard Pyle of Arizona and Gov. Edwin L. Mechem of Santa Fe will lead of convention activities. "Governor Pyle is a former public relations advisor for the Arizona Cattle Growers Association and is well versed in problems confronting the western livestock producers," Forehand said. The two governors will appear at the opening convention session to be held in the Sunshine Theater Monday morning, March 24.

Herrell DeGraff, Itasca, N. Y., who holds the Babcock Professorship of Food Economics of Cornell University is also scheduled to appear in the opening session of the convention. DeGraff is recognized as one of the foremost authorities in the country on national food economics.

Sam Hyatt, Hyattsville, Wyo., president of the American National Cattlemen's Association, will discuss national livestock legislation currently confronting Congress. Hyatt served as chairman of the legislative committee of the national organization last year during the industry battle against a roll back in the price of beef.

A school in better beef production will highlight the program Monday afternoon, March 24. Led by George F. Ellis, Bell Ranch, the educational program titled: "Breeding More Useful Cattle," will include the following speakers:

Ivan Watson, extension animal husbandman, who will serve as program chairman. A. D. Brownfield, Deming, "What Are Useful Cattle."

"Finding the Most Useful Cattle in the Herd" will be covered by Ellis. "How to Use Superior Individuals for Herd Improvement" will be discussed by Professor J. H. Knox, head of the department of animal husbandry, State College; and "Selling Bulls by Measured Grade and Weight" will be described by George H.

Railroad Employees Get Special Safety Awards

B. G. Barnum, roadmaster for the Southern Pacific Company with headquarters at Carrizozo, accepted the special safety award given to Carrizozo employees of the Rio Grande division for no reportable accidents the past year. Employees of 15 units were tendered the special awards at the annual division safety meeting held last week at the Hotel Cortez in El Paso. James Corbett, vice president of the company, and Michael Nugent, its superintendent of safety, were there from San Francisco to confer the awards. Corbett is a native of Magdalena.

Recognition was also given the employees of the roundhouse in Carrizozo as Barnum accepted a second special safety award for their record of no reportable accidents during 1951. Ernest M. Roberts is the foreman at the local shop.

The Rio Grande Division took second place in the safety program for the past year, losing the top spot which they held for 1950 by a margin of less than 1 per cent.

BULLETIN

Friends of Mrs. Bea Leslie Sr., Captain, will be shocked to learn of her death which occurred March 18 at her home after an illness of several years. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Catholic Methodist Church with T. E. Kelley, Carrizozo, in charge of arrangements. Complete details were not available at press time.

National Girl Scout Week Observed Here

Carrizozo Girl Scouts climaxed its week's celebration of the founding of the Girl Scouts of America, Inc. on March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Ga., with a successful cookie sale.

Special services at the Carrizozo Trinity Methodist Church recognized National Girl Scout Week as Dr. R. E. Dickenson, its pastor, compared the Scouts in their uniforms with the "Little Stranger," a Biblical character.

The PTA devoted a portion of its program last week to the ceremony which saw seven girls receive their first class badges and second class badges awarded to two girl scouts, Miss Marvel Millam, executive director southeast area Girl Scouts of America, made the presentation.

The T. A. Spencer Jr. ranch was the setting recently for an anniversary party honoring the Carrizozo Brownies and Intermediate Girl Scouts. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Ace M. Baty, Intermediate leader, and Mesdames T. A. Spencer Jr. and Fred English, leader and assistant leader, respectively, of the Brownies. The beautifully decorated cake topped with a simulated Girl Scout emblem and 40 candles made an impressive centerpiece in the buffet table.

Another festive occasion was the party given last week by the Carrizozo Coalora Lodge, sponsor of the Intermediate Girl Scouts, which honored its proteges. The following program, conducted by Fay Barnum, was presented by the Scouts at that event: "What We Did at Summer Camp" by Jonette Harkey; "What We Have Learned in Girl Scouting," May Barnum; "What Girl Scouting Means to Me," Vivian Sandoval; "Badges We Have Earned," Glenda Sue King.

Lee Adele Baker, Beverly Baty, Betty Schlarb and Mary Alice King were featured in Girl Scout songs and games.

The Carrizozo Girl Scouts have expressed their appreciation for the extensive patronage accorded them during the recent cookie sale which they sponsored.

Miss Ida May Johnson Dies in Alamogordo

Miss Ida May Johnson, 82, Alamogordo, a resident of Corona from 1919 to 1929, succumbed at her home in Otero County March 9, following several years of poor health. She had been confined to bed for the past two months.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at Mullins-O'Dell chapel with Rev. Paul Holder conducting the rites. Mrs. Charles Wallace was in charge of the sacred musical selections, while pallbearers included Sam Brunsen, Jack Bivens, Douglas Welch, Staff Sgt. Charles Wallace, A. J. Henderson and Cecil Smith. Interment was at Monte Vista Cemetery in Alamogordo.

Surviving the deceased are seven brothers, Hilder, Hilmer, Herbert, Clarence, Henry, Bill and Jess Johnson, and a nephew, Roy Johnson. Hilder Johnson, who lives in Battle Creek, Mich., spent several months with his sister this winter, but had returned to his home shortly before her death. He returned to Alamogordo for the funeral.

Miss Johnson was born in Cedar Creek, Mich., Sept. 7, 1869, and came to New Mexico in 1919.

Gray Ladies Don New Uniforms; Complete Organizational Plans

By DAN STORM

The Lincoln County Chapter of Gray Ladies has received its uniforms of white cap and gray gown, and are fully organized for complete service, according to Mrs. Percy Parker, Fort Stanton, chairman of the organization.

A branch of the American Red Cross, the Gray Ladies work in military and civilian hospitals throughout the nation and overseas performing a variety of services to the sick, injured and wounded.

The local group, first to be organized in Lincoln County, was trained and sponsored under the leadership of Mrs. Edith Crawford of Carrizozo, chairman of the Lincoln County Chapter of the American Red Cross. Members in addition to Mrs. Parker are:

Mesdames Ethel Thompson, Enig Bingham, Leota Pfingsten, Barbara Wiggs and Pearl (Jackie) Burnette.

Every Friday the Gray Ladies visit the Fort Stanton Hospital to be of help and service to the American Merchant Marine seamen who come from ships all over the world to be hospitalized and treated for tuberculosis. Comfort articles such as cigarettes, soap, shaving materials, tobacco, writing paper, reading materials and many other items are given to the patients free of charge by the American Red Cross. The organization also maintains a shopping service for the patients, purchasing articles for them in the stores throughout the county.

The Gray Ladies bring cheer and morale building influences into the hospital, and in all ways possible help these men in the battle to regain their health.

Mrs. Crawford in a recent statement on the organization said "I am certainly proud of our Gray Ladies. These women are performing a worthy and unselfish service, and are a credit to the American Red Cross and to our community."

Corona Teacher Weds Homer S. Addikson

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY

Mrs. J. B. Kerr, West Point, Miss., has announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Martha Eileen Kerr, Corona teacher, to Homer S. Addikson, which took place March 14 at the Presbyterian Church in Corona. Rev. Merle A. Rice officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride was lovely in a gown of pink silk with matching accessories. She carried a corsage of pink flowers. Her sister, Miss Julia Kerr, was her maid of honor and Mrs. Thurman Nation served as matron of honor. Mr. Nation was best man.

Nuptial music including "Beverly Serenade" by Nordham was played by Mrs. Merle A. Rice. Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left on a honeymoon trip to points of interest in New Mexico and Old Mexico.

The bride's mother and her sister, Miss Dorothy Kerr, Espinola, were in Corona for the ceremony.

Mrs. Addikson has taught school in Corona for the past five years. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Addikson of Louisville, Miss., is the owner of a lumber company in Louisville where the couple will reside after May 1.

Capitan School Lunch Room Gets High Rating

Lee Peek, Las Cruces, district sanitarian, gave the Capitan school cafeteria a 100 per cent rating when he visited there last Friday. A 20-quart mixer for the lunchroom was purchased recently, and the students are now enjoying hot breads and cakes with practically all luncheons.

Last week's menus included barbecued weiners, buttered potatoes, apple sauce, whole wheat muffins, oleo, milk, spaghetti and meat balls, slaw, biscuits, pudding, pork and beans, canned tomatoes, onions and pickles, corn bread, cookies, baked ham, potato salad, carrot sticks, whole wheat bread, cherry pie, creamed tuna, mashed potatoes, green beans, peaches and cheese salad, hot rolls, honey.

Odd Fellows, Rebekahs Form Clubs

A group of Alamogordans and Ruidosans came to Carrizozo Saturday night to assist the local Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in organizing a junior Odd Fellows group and a Theta Rho Girls Club in this village.

Mr. Drake, Alamogordo, advisor of the junior Odd Fellows and principal speaker, explained to the Carrizozoans the functions of the junior groups; and Eugene Nelson, Ruidoso, a member of the Alamogordo group of junior Odd Fellows, told them what the organization meant to him personally. He also spoke on his participation in the youth pilgrimage by the Odd Fellows organization. The delegates, chosen by groups of senior Odd Fellows, are selected on the basis of scholastic, character and church records. It is not necessary that they be related to members of Odd Fellows or Rebekah groups. The Alamogordo organizations, he added, have raised enough money this year to send two junior Odd Fellows and two Theta Rho girls to the convention at Lake Success, New York, this summer. Members of the two groups have been invited to attend sessions of the United Nations delegates during their stay in New York.

It is expected to take approximately two months for the issuance of charters to the two groups, after which their clubs may function. Known as District 12, members of the two organizations will include youths from Carrizozo, Corona, Ancho, Fort Stanton, Capitan, Coyote and Oscura. Members of the Alamogordo groups will return to Carrizozo for the inauguration of the local clubs and formal installation of officers as soon as the charters are received. In the meantime, they have offered their assistance to the Carrizozo young people whenever needed in going ahead with the local program.

Approximately 100 persons attended Saturday night's meeting, including Hub Gulon, Deming, past grand master; Wayne Johnson, Alamogordo, deputy grand master; Mr. and Mrs. Barrett, Ruidoso, past noble grands; Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, Ruidoso; Messrs. and Mesdames Blair, Joy and Kimmona, Alamogordo, and Mr. Anderson of Tularosa. About 25 members of the junior Alamogordo groups made the trip to Carrizozo.

Spring Snowstorm Brings Needed Moisture

A spring snowstorm which brought moisture to parched ground in a large portion of Lincoln County Monday was welcomed by residents of the area despite the fact it disrupted traffic in some sections.

Corona was reported as having about 6 inches of snow with several inches more reported in the Ruidoso area. Approximately 2 1/2 inches of snow fell in Carrizozo, according to L. Z. Manire, local U. S. government weather observer, who also said there was .25 precipitation. Manire reported the school bus from Jicarilla did not make the run to Carrizozo Tuesday because of heavy snow in that section. A large part of the Hondo Valley and areas northwest and southwest were reported as having received little benefit from the storm.

The sheriff's office reported the highway crew was called out about 3 A. M. Tuesday morning to assist the drivers of a couple of passenger cars and a truck in the vicinity of Indian Divide because of the icy road. The crew includes Pablo Chavez, foreman; Juan Baca, Joe Vega and Vidal Silva, all of Carrizozo.

Icy roads during the storm forced the closing of Highway 70 between Tularosa and Glencoe. Highway 54 between Carrizozo and Alamogordo remained open and in good condition as traffic was diverted from Route 70 to Highways 54 and 380 into Roswell.

Other parts of the state on Monday experienced a variety of weather ranging from sand and windstorms to rain and snow.

District Judge Scoggin Confined To Hospital

Officials at Memorial General Hospital, Las Cruces, this week reported the condition of District Judge W. T. Scoggin as "poor."

Taken to the hospital last week, his condition became worse on Saturday and he has been given a series of blood transfusions since then.

The present term of the third district court is postponed pending the appointment of a judge.

Joy Dawn Reil Wins Scholastic Honors At Texas Tech College

The convocation committee of Texas Technological College at Lubbock bestowed scholastic honors on Miss Joy Dawn Reil, Carrizozo, at the school's All-College Recognition Service held Wednesday in the gymnasium. Miss Reil, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Reil of this village, was awarded individual honors for scholastic achievement during the spring and fall semesters of 1951. She is a junior in the division of business administration at the Texas college. Dr. D. M. Wiggins, president of the school, delivered the main address.

The traditional ceremony, which is held annually, pays tribute to those students who, during the preceding two regular semesters, have contributed with distinction to the college in fields of scholarship, athletics and leadership. Included in the group to be given recognition are the upper 3 per cent of the freshmen, sophomore, junior and senior classes; recipients of scholarships and awards; campus leaders; athletic lettermen, and student organizations of which two-thirds of the memberships maintain a "B" average or better.

In the 1953 service, the college recognized 141 students for scholastic attainment; 70 scholarship holders; 11 clubs; 53 lettermen, and 59 campus leaders. Those recognized scholastically for the first time receive individual honors; class honors for the second; divisional honors for the third, and college honors for the fourth time.

College honors were awarded six students at the March ceremony. Other student recognition included 10 divisional honors; 27 class honors, and 98 individual honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Reil were present from attending the college ceremonies by the illness of Mr. Reil.

1952 Red Cross Fund Campaign Underway

Lincoln County Chapter of the American Red Cross got underway this week in its 1952 campaign for funds, according to L. Z. Manire, chairman. Mrs. Jane Turner and Mrs. Edith Crawford, both of Carrizozo, and vice chairman and executive secretary, respectively, of the county chapter, will assist in the drive.

The goal in Lincoln County is $2,200 for the Red Cross campaign slogan "Answer the Call." The national organization urges an all-out pledge of support so its services for those in need may continue. The Red Cross in pointing out that its campaign is a call for all people to give a hand to a neighbor wherever he may be in need, states its organization is the means for carrying out a person's natural impulse to help others by providing a practical method for people to donate time and financial support for that purpose.

Red Cross campaign workers elsewhere in the county include: Vic Lamb, Ruidoso; Hugh Bancroft Jr., Capitan; Alice Snodgrass, Ancho; Mrs. Dorothy Zumwalt, Nogal; Eddie Penfield, Lincoln, and Mrs. Bertha Storm, Glencoe, in charge of the Hondo Valley drive. Corona's contribution to the Red Cross drive is made through its Community Chest. Mrs. Jane Turner is in charge of the campaign in Carrizozo, while Rev. George J. Boonighausen will supervise the Santa Rita Parish drive.

Mrs. Cora McCall, 73, Succumbs in El Paso

Mrs. Cora McCall, 73, former Carrizozo resident, succumbed March 14 at an El Paso hospital.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at La Cross Chapel with Rev. Ewart Watts, pastor of the Asbury Methodist Church in El Paso, officiating at the last rites. Pallbearers, all friends of the family, included R. M. Treat, former Carrizozoan. Interment was at East Lawn Memorial Park, El Paso.

Surviving the deceased are a daughter, Mrs. Mildred McQuillan; a son, Albert McCall, and six grandchildren, all of El Paso. She is also survived by a brother, John Kelly, of Deming.

During her residence in Carrizozo, Mrs. McCall was a popular as well as successful teacher, and took an active part in the manifold activities of the various civic organizations. The family moved to El Paso a number of years ago, but continued in close touch with their Lincoln County friends. Following the death of her husband, L. A. McCall, she studied nursing and was employed in that profession until she became ill about two years ago.

A devout member of the Methodist church, she was also active in the work of the Rebekah and Woodman lodges for more than 40 years.

Green Tree Man Wins Combat Infantry Badge

WITH THE 40th INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—Corporal Charles B. Montoya of Green Tree is among the first members of the 40th Infantry Division to be awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge, symbol of the front line fighting man, since the unit's arrival in Korea.

The badge shows a miniature Revolutionary War flintlock rifle mounted against a blue rectangle which is surrounded by a wreath.

The 40th, a National Guard unit from southern California, was the first organization of its kind to arrive overseas after the start of the Korean conflict. It trained for 16 months in Japan before it was committed to Korea in January.

Corporal Montoya is a member of the 223rd Infantry Regiment's Company I.

Problems pertinent to members of the South Central District of New Mexico Education Association will be discussed at an all-day meeting in Carrizozo today (Friday) which opens with registration of teachers from Lincoln and Socorro counties at 9 A. M. in the grade school auditorium. Held annually each spring, this year's convolve will attempt to promote a closer relationship among individual teachers and the association at local, district, state and national levels.

A welcome to the visiting teachers will be extended by the village's mayor, Vernon Petty, following the convening of the convention at 10 o'clock. The flag ceremony will be conducted by the Carrizozo Boy Scouts and the invocation will be delivered by Rev. R. E. Dickenson, local Methodist pastor. The Carrizozo School Band, directed by Jerome Bartkus, school music teacher, will present a number of selections for the entertainment of the visitors.

Guest speakers include Tom Wiley, Santa Fe, state superintendent of public instruction; John P. Steiner, Albuquerque, executive secretary New Mexico Association; Frank Angel, State Department of Education; Dr. Keith S. Lowell, Civil Air Patrol, and Wright W. Putney.

Other numbers on the program include selections by the Corona High School Girls Sextette, directed by Miss Leota Agee, and square dancing by Carrizozo students. A panel discussion concerning teacher retirement will be led by Spence Devitt, local teacher.

At noon a luncheon for administrators and principals will be served in the Home Economics dining room at the high school, while the teachers will be served in the school cafeteria by members of the junior class at Carrizozo High School.

Sectional meetings will be held at the high school during the afternoon from 1 to 2:15 as follows: Primary and Intermediate, Mrs. Pauline Perigo, Room 3; upper grades, Mary C. Douglas, Room 2; superintendents, L. Z. Manire, superintendent's office; elementary and high school principals, Larry Stockton, home ec; English, Mrs. Ethel Parker, Room 1; mathematics and science, Clyde Shultz, Room 5; vocational section, Marshall Powell, elementary building work shop; home economics, Betty Lou Grogan, Room 7; and all other teachers, Carl Carlton, Room 10.

The school bus driver delegates will hold morning and afternoon sessions in conjunction with the teachers' conference, with Levene Snodgrass of Ancho as chairman.

Officers of the district group are Iverson H. Burgess, Corona, president; D. C. Slaughter, Magdalena, vice president, and Miss Martha E. Kerr, Corona, secretary-treasurer. The two county district organization has a membership of 206 teachers and administrators.

Clarence Ashcraft Jr. Stationed in Wyoming

Pfc. Clarence C. Ashcraft Jr., husband of Mrs. Rosalee Ashcraft of Corona, is training as an Air Force technician at the USAF Technical School at Warren Air Force Base, Wyo. His parents also reside in Corona.

At this historic former cavalry post outside Cheyenne, the Air Force is training young airmen in the many specialties needed for air power. Besides clerical skills such as clerk-typist, stenographer and administrative specialist, the schools at Warren Air Force Base train automobile mechanics, powermen, electricians, teletype operators and repairmen.

A Critical Year

With all our hopes for the New Year, we must admit that it will be a year of great uncertainty. None can foretell what the result will be of the present Korean War, and because of that uncertainty, every effort must be made by government and by individuals to keep national defense at a high level of efficiency.

In domestic affairs the vital question is "Can we secure better government at a better price?" At the national level, the Hoover Commission recommendations are pending in Congress and on the President's desk. Whether action will be taken in accordance with those recommendations, depends upon the voters. In most of the states similar commissions are giving close study to present practices in state government, and their recommendations will also be before the voters.

It is a year of elections, and our representatives in Congress and the State Legislature will be called upon to consider these recommendations and, undoubtedly, candidates for office, national, state and local, must face questions as to their attitude on these various measures, suggested for governmental improvement. Whether we shall have government by competent public servants or so called "politicians" depends not only on the outcome of the elections, but also upon the constant, unremitting attention on the part of citizens, who will urge representatives in public offices to conduct our public business on a high level of efficiency. — New Mexico Tax Bulletin

Ray D. Sowell Seeks Re-election As Rep.

Ray D. Sowell, Pinon, Democratic candidate for state representative from the 30th district (Lincoln, Otero and Socorro) is now serving his first term in the New Mexico Legislature where he is a member of the House committees on education, enrolling and engraving, game and fish, privileges and elections and public lands and livestock.

Sowell is unopposed on the Democratic slate but faces one of two opponents on the Republican side in the general election. The Republican candidates are Albert R. Booky, Hondo, and Adolph S. Waters, Socorro.

Walker Announces For District Attorney

Allan D. Walker, Alamogordo, has announced his candidacy for district attorney of the third judicial district comprising Dona Ana, Lincoln and Otero counties. A native of Otero County, Walker is the city attorney for Alamogordo. The Otero County man will oppose incumbent District Attorney Tom K. Campbell and the latter's assistant, E. E. Chavez, both of Las Cruces, for the Democratic nomination. In the drawing for position on the ballot, Campbell's name is first with Walker and Chavez second and third, respectively. The winner of the nomination is expected to oppose one of two Republican attorneys at Las Cruces, C. C. Chase Jr. or Pete Rapploch, in the November general election.

CORRECTION

The locals for the March 6 meeting of the White Mountain Game Protective Association was the Veterans of Foreign Wars Home at Capitan instead of the American Legion Hall as reported in last week's issue of the News-Outlook.

The enchilada supper held prior to the meeting was prepared and served by the VFW auxiliary. Proceeds from the supper were earmarked for the American Flags fund.

Mrs. Ethel Thompson, auxiliary youth activity chairman, was in charge of the supper committee.

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. E. Thornton and her son, Carl, are convalescing after bouts with the flu.

Ellsworth Crow, son of Ernest Crow, is expected home on leave March 25 from San Diego, after completing naval "boot" training. Young Crow is a cousin of Vernon and Ralph Petty.

Clarence Hunt, with the U. S. Navy at San Diego, leaves Wednesday for his California base after a leave spent here with his wife, Mrs. Mildred Hunt, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt.

Mrs. John Ed Stephens (nee Grace Morris) has returned from Oceanide, Calif., where she visited her marine husband. Young Stephens is confined to the hospital there for convalescence from an attack of virus pneumonia.

Mrs. Gladys Morris returned Friday from Matador, Texas, where she visited her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Martin, and met her new grandson, Stanley Lee. The Martins are also the parents of a small daughter, Frances Jeanette. Mrs. Morris reports that while in Matador a sandstorm occurred which she considers worse than any ever encountered in this area.

Up to 1814, the name of the Australian continent was New Holland.

Signs Point To Fewer Farm Workers In 1952

All signs point to fewer workers on farms in 1952.

The U. S. Department of Agriculture reports the farm labor force was cut about 350,000 last year by workers who left for industry and the armed forces. That movement continues.

Department production officials suggest three ways, farmers can help assure themselves of enough labor this year:

First, cooperate with the local Employment Service by reporting labor needs accurately, get in orders for workers early, and inform the office promptly when workers are no longer needed. Second, make full use of labor-saving machinery and electrical equipment, and all good management practices. Third, help in community efforts to mobilize local people for farm work.

Federal Jobs Open

Naval Materiel offices throughout the nation have openings for qualified inspectors with salaries ranging from $3,410 to $5,620. It is announced.

The Civil Service positions require skills in mechanical, electrical, electronics, metals, etc., and a general knowledge of material testing methods.

Former naval personnel and others with the necessary skills should apply to the nearest supervising inspector of Naval Materiel where employment is desired, giving a brief employment history.

OPS Plans Restaurant Compliance Survey

A restaurant compliance survey is now underway in this state to determine the extent of reported price increases, according to Roy S. Walker, Albuquerque, district director. OPS representatives will contact bars and eating establishments in all sections of New Mexico.

A nation-wide survey is also underway for wholesale and retail grocers to show the percentage markups in the period immediately preceding the outbreak of the Korean War. Its purpose is to compare the OPS price regulations markups with the markups resulting from the margins used by grocers in the pre-Korean period.

Easter Seal Sale Opens

The 1952 Easter Seal sale got underway in New Mexico March 13 and will continue through Easter Sunday, April 13.

Through the generous response to the sale last year, a number of new projects in this state were established in various areas. The current campaign seeks to provide funds to carry on these projects in speech and hearing rehabilitation, epilepsy, cerebral palsy, and loan service and summer camping.

N. M. Garden Clubs Offer Scholarship

The New Mexico Federation of Garden Clubs has offered a $100 scholarship to be awarded annually to a New Mexico high school senior boy who will enroll at A. and M. College, Las Cruces, and work in the field of ornamental horticulture. The scholarship was presented to John W. Branson, college president, by Mrs. Earl Powell, Puerta de Luna, president of the federation. It is named in memory of Hallis Manning Vanderwart, member of a pioneer Roswell family, who made many outstanding contributions to the development of garden clubs throughout the state.

Applications for the scholarship must be made to the local county agent, school principal or superintendent, or president of the local garden club not later than March 25. Courses in ornamental horticulture at State College are taught by Fred Day, graduate landscape architect and director of campus maintenance.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dale McDaniel were up over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Homer McDaniel.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Stewart and Jean Reynolds of Albuquerque were here this weekend to visit Mrs. Stewart's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Zumwalt.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Peacock Sr. went to El Paso to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. Maek and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Merv Zumwalt and family went to Artesia Saturday and left their son, Glen, with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Zumwalt Sr.

Mrs. Johnson Stearns had a chicken pie supper Monday night to raise money for the PTA. Those present were Mrs. Pearl Stearns, Fred Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Floy Skinnar.

Byrl Lindzey is home with the flu.
Four-fifths of all the world's automobiles are in the United States. More than half the refrigerators are here too. America's dynamic competitive free enterprise system has given us a standard of living that is the envy of the rest of the world. Let's hold on to it.

NOGAL MESA

By DOROTHY GUCK
It may be St. Patrick's Day, but there isn't anything green on the Mesa today. Looks more like Christmas to me; though the whiteness will probably be gone by the time this column is in print.

If I were in the habit of using cigars, I'd probably enjoy one as a gift of proud father, Lawrence Peebles. His aunt received word of the birth of a son to Doris and Lawrence at Ruidoso hospital. The boy baby has a sister, Donna.

Arlene and Paul Jones moved to the guard's cabin at the Ranger Station Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Peebles received word of the death of her father, John T. Hicks, in Otsego, Mich. The deceased had been an invalid for many years. He passed away at the age of 81. Funeral services were held in Michigan.

Rangers Guck and Wild will meet with Forest Service men of the regional office in Alamogordo this week.

Peg Pflingsten and Henry Peebles will attend the PMA meeting in Carrizozo Tuesday.

Spring is affecting Leota Pflingsten a little early this year. Already she has started throwing $20 bills in the waste basket instead of dead envelopes, and feeding the dog the family's T-bones instead of dog biscuits. No telling what she might do if the weather clears.

Radio just announced the New Mexico dust would reach Chicago today. I'm sure they are welcome to a little of our enchanting land.

Birthday Party

The Carrizozo Woman's Clubhouse is the setting for the party Sunday afternoon, March 23, which Mrs. George Goodson, Alamogordo, will give in honor of her husband's birthday anniversary. The Goodsons, who will receive guests from 2 until 5 o'clock, said no formal invitations have been issued and that all friends are cordially invited.

Mrs. R. E. Lemon, Carrizozo, is in charge of the program for the occasion, while Mrs. C. E. Degner of this village will supervise the serving of refreshments. Other friends will assist with the afternoon's festivity.

CAPITAN

By ANN EARLING
Dr. Fixley of the University of New Mexico and associated with the North Central Accrediting Association visited the Capitan High School on Thursday, March 13.

John Garcia, attached to the U. S. S. Tortuga, is home on a 20-day leave.

Donna Cloud, Agatha Montoya, Gwendolyn Martin and Raynette Edington, escorted by Mrs. Seymour Cozzens, will attend the state FHA convention in Deming on March 21 and 22.

The district teachers convention will be held in Carrizozo on Friday, March 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cozzens and baby of Fort Sumner were weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Cozzens.

Johnny Annarotone is home from the hospital convalescing from a recent operation.

The second annual FHA talent show held on Friday, March 14, was a big success. All of the contestants did a fine job, and their efforts were appreciated by a capacity crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Baneroff entertained guests at their home on Saturday, March 15. The occasion was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Fletcher Hall Jr.

Mrs. Carrie Earling is confined in the hospital in Carrizozo with a leg injury, the result of a fall on Thursday of last week.

Dixie Sparks, Capitan beauty operator, is home from the hospital and hopes to be back on duty at her shop in a few days.

Mrs. Rayford Burnett attended the district meeting of the VFW Auxiliary held in Carlsbad on Sunday, March 16.

Highway 54 Group To Meet In Vaughn

The state meeting of the New Mexico State Highway 54 Association was held in Vaughn March 20. Herbert Bays, Alamogordo, is president of the New Mexico group.

An election of officers for the ensuing year was scheduled to be held, and plans for participation in the national convention at Nevada, Mo., April 25-26, were to be completed.

The meeting at Vaughn was slated to start with a luncheon reception at the Klva Cafe.

News & Views From Your Nation's Capitol

By JOHN J. DEMPSEY
Congressman from New Mexico
WASHINGTON, March 20.—Plans of the Atomic Energy Commission to cover the crater of the first atomic bomb explosion in world history at Trinity, near Carrizozo, have been held up in response to protests from the people of the state. The commission has agreed that the contract let for the earth filling job to cost about $20,000 will be held in abeyance until full consideration has been given to the protests.

In order to insure that the "Birthplace of the Atom Bomb" will be preserved as an historic spot for future generations of Americans, Rep. A. M. Fernandez of New Mexico, has introduced a bill to establish it as "an historic and scientific national monument to be known as the Trinity Atomic National Monument." It is to be placed under the jurisdiction and control of the National Park Service.

I am most heartily in accord with this legislation and have joined with Congressman Fernandez in the furtherance of its passage. In my opinion this site of one of the most important events in world history can be preserved without any cost to the people and it will attract thousands of visitors annually, just as do many other attractions in the state.

Rep. Fernandez' bill provides that "pending the vesting of such jurisdiction in the Department of the Interior (National Park Service) for said purpose, the Atomic Energy Commission shall preserve and protect said site and its crater of jade and turquoise colored glass in its original state as produced by said bomb explosion."

The fear that the crater might be a health hazard due to radioactivity does not appear to be well founded in view of the fact that in the nearly seven years since the bomb was exploded no injurious effects on human or animal life have been reported so far as the records show. Just why it should become dangerous at this late date is hard to understand, particularly in view of recent announcements by the Atomic Energy Commission concerning rapid dissipation of radioactive elements in tests in Nevada.

There certainly are other means of neutralizing whatever danger might exist thus filling in the crater and destroying the historic value of the site.

The administration's "Foreign Legion" headed by Dean Acheson, secretary of state, and Averill Harriman, mutual security director, flanked by Robert Lovett, secretary of defense, and Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, has launched a drive to convince an economically minded Congress that foreign aid in the amount of nearly eight billions of dollars is necessary to save the world for democracy.

The argument presented to a joint meeting of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees, the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was that any cut in the appropriation "would gravely impair our own security" and "might well wreck" the buildup against communism. Secretary Acheson said European nations could not carry any more of the "mutual defense burden" than they are now bearing.

It is my considered judgment that the American people are in the same boat—that they have carried and are now carrying so heavy a burden in foreign aid that our own economic stability is gravely endangered.

There are too many instances now where our own national resources and potentialities are being neglected in order to build up the economies of a dozen other nations. Many of those nations have proved by their past performances beyond any reasonable doubt that they are willing to let us carry their share. After we have done that they disclaim all obligation to us financially—and often defensively.

It is hard to convince the citizens of New Mexico, for instance, that the channeling of the Rio Grande should be shoved into the discard so that the comparatively small amount required to save our limited water resources can be added to the foreign aid jackpot.

The viewpoint of the State Department has done an about-face since Cordell Hull was the secretary and international agree-

Letter to Editor

El Paso, Texas,
March 18, 1952

Editor, News-Outlook:
I received my News-Outlook this morning, paper dated Feb. 29, 1952, the first paper I have had since Feb. 23, 1952. I was very glad indeed to get my old Lincoln County and Carrizozo paper, as I have received it regularly since 1907 but very sorry to find stamped with red ink in several places on front page (last and final issue or notice subscription expired Feb. 1, 1952).

Now this is my first time in 45 years to have my paper not arrive at my address any place in all these past years. I have been in hospital for a month in San Francisco, Calif. Have been away from Carrizozo and Lincoln County friends for the past two years but still hold it as my home county and town and would like very much if you renew my subscription to my paper for which please find enclosed $2.50.

HENRY HOFFMAN.

ments were made on the basis of mutual benefit. The people of New Mexico have an example of the soundness of the old policy in the canalizing of the Rio Grande below Caballo Dam and the building of the All-American Diversion Dam.

Regardless of the all-out effort of the administration task force it is safe to predict that the Congress has enough real economy-minded members to see that foreign aid appropriations are trimmed to a point where the welfare of the American taxpayers will be considered at least as much concern as that of the foreign nations. If the cut is less than a billion dollars many of us will be surprised and disappointed.

Further evidence that the move for economy is more than a mere campaign year gesture can be found in the action of the House, which trimmed the Third Supplemental Appropriation bill down by nearly 100 million dollars under the amount asked by the President. It also topped off about two million dollars from the amount recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

As passed by the House the bill carried $963,127,043 to finance the operations of more than a dozen government agencies and offices for the balance of the current fiscal year, ending June 30. A considerable portion of this was to care for previously approved increased cost-of-living salary raises for government workers. The bill was amended also to require that most of those agencies absorb 10 per cent of that pay increase, which means a likely decrease in personnel in some of them.

CORONA

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY

A. B. Stroope was given a surprise birthday dinner Sunday, March 16, celebrating his 74th birthday anniversary. Friends from Corona and Cedarvale gathered at his home bringing gifts and plenty to eat.

Jack Hughes of Littlefield, Texas, was here Saturday taking pictures for a studio there. The pictures were made at the I. C. Watson home.

Rev. Merle Rice attended the Presbyterian Sunday School Mission Conference at Albuquerque Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Delegates from New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada and Wyoming attended the conference.

Mrs. S. R. Simmons of Loving, N. M., formerly of Corona and mother of O. S. Simmons, is improving from her recent illness.

Ralph (Pete) Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Porter of Corona, has been sent back to Korea after being in a hospital in Japan for five months recovering from burns suffered when a squad-burner oil stove blew up in a fox hole injuring both Ralph and his buddy. Ralph's buddy was in the hospital only about a month before he was sent back to the front lines in Korea.

Phillip Minor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Minor of Corona, was recently sent overseas from San Diego to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jeters were involved in an automobile accident last week when their car left the road west of town and overturned. Mrs. Jeters was only slightly injured and her husband escaped without a scratch.

The Corona freshman basketball team won first place in the Bean Valley Basketball Tournament at Estancia last week. In the final game Miles Waldon was high point man and Eddie Luehrs second. Moriarty won second place in the tournament, Vaughn third and Encino fourth. The Corona Grade School took fourth place at the tourney held in Hondo last Saturday. Corona's town basketball team played its first game in this week's tournament with Mountainair at Vaughn Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannen Clements of El Centro, Calif., visited his mother, Mrs. George Clements, the past week.

Mrs. Frank DuBois Jr. and children and Mrs. Jack Jones of Albuquerque visited Mrs. Mary DuBois during the weekend.

Mrs. Minnie Perkins and Mrs. R. C. Schwab and children of Roswell were visiting in the Archie Perkins home Sunday.

Alex Jenkins, manager of the Corner Feed and Grocery Store in Corona, made a business trip to Roswell this week.

Mike Ingram of California, son of John Ingram, was here visiting the past week.

Danger Warning Issued In Aerial Gunnery

A government notice which appears in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue gives warning that starting on March 21 and continuing at frequent intervals until further notice, the United States Air Force will conduct aerial gunnery training which involves the firing of guns mounted on aircraft and fired at airborne targets above portions of land now leased by the Air Force for its exclusive use.

The areas include Township 9 south, Range 7 east, New Mexico principal meridian lying south of U. S. Highway 380; Township 7 south, range 7 east; Township 8 south, range 7 east, and Township 9 south, range 7 east, New Mexico principal meridian.

Air Force officials state the foregoing areas will be hazardous and dangerous during this period of training.

PERSONALS

Ben Smith, former Carrizozo jailer, and his family have moved to a ranch near Weed. Smith is reported as having taken over the management of the ranch.

To bring more telephone service to the people of New Mexico, we're building new facilities at the rate of more than $1/2 million a month!

The program includes new buildings . . . new switchboards and dial equipment . . . more cable, poles, wire and all the other things necessary to provide telephone service.

Money to finance such a huge program must come from people who are willing to invest their savings in the business.

Vital materials are difficult to obtain in the quantities we need, but we are doing all we can to secure maximum allotments.

Every effort will be made to complete the program as planned so we may meet the growing demands of the armed forces and vital defense industries, as well as the requirements of home telephone users.

More Livestock Products

Dr. Walter J. Gibbons, professor of large animal surgery and medicine at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala., shows injecting the new sex hormone, ECP, in a cow. The hormone, developed by chemists of the Upjohn Company, Kalamazoo, Mich., has proved highly successful in the treatment of sterility in cattle, swine and other domestic animals and makes possible doubling annual U.S. lamb crop by bringing ewes into heat twice a year.

Development of a new sex hormone for the treatment of non-fertile female sheep, cattle and pigs promises more even and steadily increasing supplies of meat, wool and dairy products for the United States and the rest of the world.

Failure of livestock to come into heat and breed has long been one of the most troublesome problems in agriculture. It causes tremendous economic loss not only for the farmer but for the consumer as well, since smaller supplies mean higher prices.

The new hormone is known as ECP (estradiol cyclopentylpropionate). It was synthesized by a team of chemists in the Upjohn Laboratories at Kalamazoo, Mich.

Dr. J. L. Davidson, head of the department of veterinary medicine at Michigan State University, said that the most promising application of the new hormone is in the treatment of sterile ewes.

ing one season a year—late fall and winter. Thus lambs all are born at approximately the same time.

With the use of ECP, tests at college experiment stations and by veterinarians in private practice have proved, the ewes can be brought into heat, conceive and bear lambs twice a year.

Dr. Davidson added that best estimates are that at some time or other approximately one-fourth of 4,000,000 — of the nation's 23,000,000 dairy cows "run-dry." Dr. Walter J. Gibbons treated 116 such temporarily sterile animals with ECP and reported success in 93.1 per cent of the cases.

The same is true in sows. Dr. Davidson said some 20 million pigs are never born each year because of failure of sows to conceive. ECP has given excellent results in treatment of "dry breeding" sows. The hormone also has been used successfully in the treatment of sterile horses, dogs and cats.

With winter and income tax over and done with, better times are ahead.

John Penny, according to Arch Napier of the San Juan Valley Sun, says it's been a bad winter in Farmington. Ordinarily, Penny said, he usually gets through the winter on one box of Smith Bros. cough drops but this last winter it took two.

A friend of mine, who knows my interest in typo howlers, sent me a clipping from the New York Herald Tribune which is a good footnote to business conditions.

"One local hotel impresario, asked about business, summed it up by saying that last year the backward season was a little more forward."

That's how we feel after paying taxes—we don't know whether we're coming or going.

We're sorta like that sale ad in the Dallas Morning News: "35 off—exquisite negligence."

The Albuquerque Journal had a sequel last week in the "female help wanted" column: "Girl to clean up in exchange for tuition."

The man who signed the ad runs a beauty parlor. Nuff said.

If times get much worse we're going to be like the internal revenue collector who was told by his bureaucrat boss: "You're fired; go turn in your ulcer."

We may all be eating chicken mole dinners (for melle of course) as reported in the Deming Graphic by Peter Giannettino.

And if we get out of jobs we may be writing letters such as the one from the girl in the Socorro Chieftain last week:

Robert J. Seller Resigns As Assistant D. A.

Robert J. Seller, Alamogordo, assistant district attorney for the third judicial district, announced his resignation from that office last week. Seller, who is associated in the practice of law with Allan D. Walker, Alamogordo, Democratic candidate for district attorney in this district, expressed the opinion it would be embarrassing to hold the position while at the same time connected with the office of the candidate who is opposing the incumbent district attorney, Tom K. Campbell, Las Cruces.

The Alamogordo, whose resignation is effective March 31, has informed Campbell he will assist in any way possible during the forthcoming months to conclude pending cases, as well as acquaint him with any facts which have come to his attention recently.

City Manager Form Of Government Increases

A report from the New Mexico Tax Bulletin indicates a growing number of municipalities are adopting the city manager form of administration. Records show that type of government has resulted in lower taxes, lower debt, and better administration as well as better service. As a whole, according to the report, politics have been kept out of the administration of city affairs through trained professional administrators. The report further states that it is a form of government more easily understood by the voters, more easily held accountable at the polls, and the tendency to "pass the buck" is eliminated.

News & Views From Your Nation's Capitol

By JOHN J. DEMPSEY
 Congressman from New Mexico
WASHINGTON, March 20.—Plans of the Atomic Energy Commission to cover the crater of the first atomic bomb explosion in world history at Trinity, near Carrizozo, have been held up in response to protests from the people of the state. The commission has agreed that the contract let for the earth filling job to cost about $26,000 will be held in abeyance until full consideration has been given to the protests.

In order to insure that the "Birthplace of the Atom Bomb" will be preserved as an historic spot for future generations of Americans, Rep. A. M. Fernandez of New Mexico, has introduced a bill to establish it as "an historic and scientific national monument to be known as the Trinity Atomic National Monument." It is to be placed under the jurisdiction and control of the National Park Service.

I am most heartily in accord with this legislation and have joined with Congressman Fernandez in the furtherance of its passage. In my opinion this site of one of the most important events in world history can be preserved without any cost to the people and it will attract thousands of visitors annually. Just as do many other attractions in the state.

Rep. Fernandez' bill provides that "pending the vesting of such jurisdiction in the Department of the Interior (National Park Service) for said purpose, the Atomic Energy Commission shall preserve and protect said site and its saucer of jade and turquoise-colored glass in its original state as produced by said bomb explosion."

The fear that the crater might be a health hazard due to radioactivity does not appear to be well founded in view of the fact that in the nearly seven years since the bomb was exploded no injurious effects on human or animal life have been reported so far as the records show. Just why it should become dangerous at this late date is hard to understand, particularly in view of recent announcements by the Atomic Energy Commission concerning rapid dissipation of radioactive elements in tests in Nevada.

There certainly are other means of neutralizing whatever danger might exist from filling in the crater and destroying the historic value of the site.

The administration's "Foreign Legion" headed by Dean Acheson, secretary of state, and Averell Harriman, mutual security director, flanked by Robert Lovett, secretary of defense, and Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, has launched a drive to convince an economy-minded Congress that foreign aid in the amount of nearly eight billions of dollars is necessary to save the world for democracy.

The argument presented to a joint meeting of the House and Senate Armed Services Committees, the House Foreign Affairs Committee and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was "that any cut in the appropriation would gravely impair our own security" and "might well wreck the buildup against communism." Secretary Acheson said European nations could not carry any more of the "mutual defense burden" than they are now bearing.

It is my considered judgment that the American people are in the same boat—that they have carried and are now carrying so heavy a burden in foreign aid that our own economic stability is gravely endangered.

There are too many instances now where our own national resources and potentialities are being neglected in order to build up the economies of a dozen other nations. Many of those nations have proved by their past performances beyond any reasonable doubt that they are willing to let us carry their share. After we have done that they feel all obligation to us financially—and often defensively.

It is hard to convince the citizens of New Mexico, for instance, that the channeling of the Rio Grande should be shoved into the discard so that the comparatively small amount required to save our limited water resources can be added to the foreign aid jackpot.

The viewpoint of the State Department has done an about-face since Cordell Hull was the secretary and international agree-

Letter to Editor

El Paso, Texas,
 March 18, 1952

Editor, News-Outlet:
 I received my News-Outlet this morning, paper dated Feb. 29, 1952, the first paper I have had since Feb. 22, 1952. I was very glad indeed to get my old, Lincoln County and Carrizozo paper, as I have received it regularly since 1907 but very sorry to find stamped with red ink in several places on front page (last and final issue or notice subscription expired Feb. 1, 1952).

Now this is my first time in 45 years to have my paper not arrive at my address any place in all these past years. I have been in hospital for a month in San Francisco, Calif. Have been away from Carrizozo and Lincoln County friends for the past two years but still hold it as my home county and town and would like very much if you renew my subscription to my paper for which please find enclosed $2.50.

HENRY HOFFMAN.

ments were made on the basis of mutual benefit. The people of New Mexico have an example of the soundness of the old policy in the canalizing of the Rio Grande below Caballo Dam and the building of the All-American Diversion Dam.

Regardless of the all-out effort of the administration task force it is safe to predict that the Congress has enough real economy-minded members to see that foreign aid appropriations are trimmed to a point where the welfare of the American taxpayers will be considered of at least as much concern as that of the foreign nations. If the cut is less than a billion dollars many of us will be surprised and disappointed.

Further evidence that the move for economy is more than a mere campaign year gesture can be found in the action of the House, which trimmed the Third Supplemental Appropriation bill down by nearly 100 million dollars under the amount asked by the President. It also lopped off about two million dollars from the amount recommended by the Appropriations Committee.

As passed by the House the bill carried $363,127,943 to finance the operations of more than a dozen government agencies and offices for the balance of the current fiscal year, ending June 30. A considerable portion of this was to care for previously approved increased cost-of-living salary raises for government workers. The bill was amended also to require that most of those agencies absorb 10 per cent of that pay increase, which means a likely decrease in personnel in some of them.

CORONA

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY
 A. B. Siroope was given a surprise birthday dinner Sunday, March 16, celebrating his 74th birthday anniversary. Friends from Corona and Cedarvale gathered at his home bringing gifts and plenty to eat.

Jack Hughes of Littlefield, Texas, was here Saturday taking pictures for a studio there. The pictures were made at the I. C. Watson home.

Rev. Merle Rice attended the Presbyterian-Sunday School Mission Conference at Albuquerque Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Delegates from New Mexico, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada and Wyoming attended the conference.

Mrs. S. R. Simmons of Loving, N. M., formerly of Corona and mother of O. S. Simmons, is improving from her recent illness.

Ralph (Pete) Porter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Porter of Corona, has been sent back to Korea after being in a hospital in Japan for five months recovering from burns suffered when a squad-burner oil stove blew up in a fox hole injuring both Ralph and his buddy. Ralph's buddy was in the hospital only about a month before he was sent back to the front lines in Korea.

Phillip Minor, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Minor of Corona, was recently sent overseas from San Diego to Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jeters were involved in an automobile accident last week when their car left the road west of town and overturned. Mrs. Jeters was only slightly injured and her husband escaped without a scratch.

The Corona freshman basketball team won first place in the Bean Valley Basketball Tournament at Estancia last week. In the final game Miles Waldon was high point man and Eddie Luehrs second. Moriarty won second place in the tournament, Vaughn third and Encino fourth. The Corona Grade School took fourth place at the tourney held in Hondo last Saturday. Corona's town basketball team played its first game in this week's tournament with Mountainair at Vaughn Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannen Clements of El Centro, Calif., visited his mother, Mrs. George Clements, the past week.

Mrs. Frank DuBols Jr. and children and Mrs. Jack Jones of Albuquerque visited Mrs. Mary DuBols during the weekend.

Mrs. Minnie Perkins and Mrs. R. C. Schwab and children of Roswell were visiting in the Archie Perkins home Sunday.

Alex Jenkins, manager of the Corner Feed and Grocery Store in Corona, made a business trip to Roswell this week.

Mike Ingram of California, son of John Ingram, was here visiting the past week.

Danger Warning Issued In Aerial Gunnery

A government notice which appears in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue gives warning that starting on March 21 and continuing at frequent intervals until further notice, the United States Air Force will conduct aerial gunnery training which involves the firing of guns mounted on aircraft and fired at airborne targets above portions of land now leased by the Air Force for its exclusive use.

The areas include Township 6 south, Range 7 east, New Mexico principal meridian lying south of U. S. Highway 380; Township 7 south, range 7 east; Township 8 south, range 7 east, and Township 9 south, range 7 east, New Mexico principal meridian.

Air Force officials state the foregoing areas will be hazardous and dangerous during this period of training.

$1/2 MILLION
 A MONTH
 for Telephone Expansion in NEW MEXICO

To bring more telephone service to the people of New Mexico, we're building new facilities at the rate of more than $1/2 million a month!

The program includes new buildings . . . new switchboards and dial equipment . . . more cable, poles, wire and all the other things necessary to provide telephone service.

Money to finance such a huge program must come from people who are willing to invest their savings in the business.

Vital materials are difficult to obtain in the quantities we need, but we are doing all we can to secure maximum allotments.

Every effort will be made to complete the program as planned so we may meet the growing demands of the armed forces and vital defense industries, as well as the requirements of home telephone users.

More Livestock Products

Dr. Walter J. Gibbons, professor of large animal surgery and medicine at Alabama Polytechnic Institute, Auburn, Ala., shown injecting the new sex hormone, ECP, in a cow. The hormone, developed by chemists of the Upjohn Company, Kalamazoo, Mich., has proved highly successful in the treatment of sterility in cattle, swine and other domestic animals and makes possible doubling annual U.S. lamb crop by bringing ewes into heat twice a year.

Development of a new sex hormone for the treatment of non-fertile female sheep, cattle and pigs promises more even and steadily increasing supplies of meat, wool and dairy products for the United States and the rest of the world.

Failure of livestock to come into heat and breed has long been one of the most troublesome problems in agriculture. It causes tremendous economic loss not only for the farmer but for the consumer as well, since smaller supplies mean higher prices.

The new hormone is known as ECP (estradiol cyclopentylpropionate). It was synthesized by a team of chemists in the Upjohn Laboratories at Kalamazoo, Mich.

Dr. J. L. Davidson, head of the department of veterinary medicine at the University of Michigan, said that the most dramatic of the new hormone's effects is making possible a double lamb crop. Female ewes are brought into heat twice a year—late fall and winter. Thus lambs are born at approximately the same time.

FORT STANTON

The Ray Bakers and "Butch" spent the weekend in Albuquerque visiting Ray's sister and family. They saw many of their friends while in the Duke City. I'll bet Mrs. Baker had fun shopping in the many lovely stores.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ferguson and Jackie spent the weekend in Denver visiting with Doc and June.

'Tis a sure sign of spring in spite of the snow as all the boys are spinning tops and playing "ohmy."

Dr. Torney entertained Friday night with a social game of draw bridge. A good time was enjoyed by all.

The bake sale the Church Guild held Saturday in Captain Cummins' store was a big success. Everyone was very cooperative.

Mrs. Jeff Dockray brought her children to Sunday school and spent the morning with the Parkers.

Joe Barber has taken over the filling station here and is doing very good. He's handy fixing cars and so willing in every way. Frank Smith is out of the hospital looking so good. Let's hope he stays out.

The Grey Ladies say their work is getting more interesting every week. They haven't learned all the patients' names, but you can bet the men know the Grey Ladies' names.

Jimmie Minter spent the weekend in the Duke City visiting his aunt, Mrs. Keeney.

Ray, Bert and Percy enjoyed their district scout meeting in Ruidoso last week and what a dinner they had—steak with all the trimmings and apple pie.

John and Jewel Ferguson and family have moved on the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phillips of Roswell and James Pardue of Colorado Springs spent the afternoon and evening at the Ray Bakers.

Mrs. Darlington is home from the hospital recuperating from a major operation.

L. T. Womack and wife were weekend guests at his parents' home.

Dr. and Mrs. Heck were dinner guests at the Frank Taylors Wednesday night.

The many friends of Mrs. Lund are glad to know she is feeling well enough to be up a while each day.

Charles Reed of Fort Stanton, former X-ray technician, went to San Francisco Wednesday.

Jack Shaw was called to Roswell to the bedside of his sister, who is seriously ill.

Dr. and Mrs. Torney spent last Thursday in Roswell shopping. Mrs. Fiddler kept all the little Torneys.

Annie Minter and husband, Harry, of St. Louis, are visiting relatives and friends.

Saw many folks wearing a touch of green today. Today is a big day for the Sons of Erin.

The average tax rate in Lincoln County for all state, county, city, town, village and school purposes was 23.393 in 1950 as compared with 23.843 in 1951.

Three pests of cattle—grubs, lice and scab—cause huge losses to the U. S. cattle industry each year. Grubs and lice alone take a $135,000,000 slice from the cattlemen's profit.

Assignment New Mexico

By G. WARD FENNEY

With winter and income tax over and done with, better times are ahead.

John Penny, according to Arch Napier of the San Juan Valley Sun, says it's been a bad winter in Farmington. Ordinarily, Penny said, he usually gets through the winter on one box of Smith Bros. cough drops but this last winter it took two.

A friend of mine, who knows my interest in typo howlers, sent me a clipping from the New York Herald Tribune which is a good footnote to business conditions.

"One local hotel impresario, asked about business, summed it up by saying that last year the backward season was a little more forward."

That's how we feel after paying taxes — we don't know whether we're coming or going. We're sorta like that sale ad in the Dallas Morning News: "½ off—exquisite negligees."

The Albuquerque Journal had a sequel last week in the "female help wanted" column: "Girl to clean up in exchange for tuition."

The man who signed the ad runs a beauty parlor. Nuff said. If times get much worse we're going to be like the internal revenue collector who was told by his bureaucrat boss: "You're fired; go turn in your ulcer."

We may all be eating chicken mole dinners (for melle of course) as reported in the Deming Graphic by Peter Giannettino.

And if we get out of jobs we may be writing letters such as the one from the girl in the Socorro Chieftain last week:

Cattlemen Expect—

Cureton, Lordsburg rancher. "Two Years of Weight and Grade Improvement" is the subject assigned to W. E. Flint, associate extension animal husbandman of State College. A general floor discussion and question and answer period will follow with New Mexico cattlemen participating.

Herbert J. Miller, executive director of the National Tax Foundation, Washington, D. C., appearing Tuesday morning, March 25, will outline the national tax picture. The tax foundation is the parent organization of some 38 statewide taxpayers' associations of which the Taxpayers' Association of New Mexico is a member.

George H. Hart, Davis, Calif. head of the College of Agriculture of the University of California, will explain the brush burning program now progressing in California which "may lead to reclaiming to grass, millions of acres of worthless brushland."

Presidents of five neighboring state livestock associations will participate in a panel discussion on cattle grower organization affairs. They will include: Jack Roach, Amarillo, Texas; Ralph Cowan, Douglas, Ariz.; Lloy Taggart, Cody, Wyo.; J. H. Vin-ton, Gordon, Neb., and Stafford Painter, Hogen, Colo.

The program Tuesday afternoon will be devoted to association business, adoption of resolutions and election of new officers, committee reports and selection of the place for the next annual convention.

Other Frigidaire appliances provided to the dealers include a complete line of electric ranges in 40, 30 and 21 inch widths, come featuring the revolutionary "Wonder Oven" in which one can bake and broil or bake and roast at the same time in the same oven at different temperatures.

Smart Raymond Loewy styling with advanced engineering design have been incorporated in all these new product lines.

Juan Martinez Carrizozo, candidate for one of two vacancies on the local village board of trustees, was born at Three Rivers Oct. 6, 1885, and spent his childhood on a farm in that section.

The candidate previously served the village in the capacity of councillor from 1928 to 1929 under the late Dr. F. H. Johnson who was mayor at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Martinez are the parents of a daughter, Mrs. Reuben Chavez, Carrizozo, and two sons, Alfred of Tularosa and Trinidad, who resides in California. His sons served in the U. S. armed services during World War II.

Leandro Vega, candidate for re-election to his post of councillor on the local board of trustees, is a native of Nogal where he was born March 13, 1903. His parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vega, were also natives of this county.

Vega attended schools at Nogal and here, graduating from the Carrizozo High School. He is married to the former Miss Narcissa Ramirez, Tularosa. They are the parents of four sons, Leandro Jr., with the U. S. Army at Camp Jordan, Ga.; Henry, Robert and Richard of Carrizozo; and five daughters, Mrs. Sophia Ortiz, Mrs. Ida Herrera, Mrs. Betty Luera and Misses Frances and Helen Vega, all of Carrizozo.

Fred English Attends Frigidaire Dealers Meet

Fred English, manager of the Carrizozo Hardware Company here, attended a meeting of Lincoln and Otero County Frigidaire dealers in Alamogordo Tuesday night. Dale Riley, sales-promotion manager, and Paul Clements, division manager, for W. G. Walz Company, El Paso, southwest distributor of Frigidaire appliances, were on hand for the conference.

The dealers were given a preview of the new 1932 Cyclo-matic Frigidaire food freezer and refrigerator combination, an advertisement on which is carried elsewhere in this issue. The new model features convenient "Roll-to-You" shelves and a new kind of cold called Levelcold. The shelves glide out full length to bring food within easy reach, and, in addition, there are three shelves on the door for handy storage of small items.

Levelcold is reported to be a safer cold for preservation of all kinds of food since temperatures within the refrigerator do not "see-saw" with weather changes, heavier usage or during automatic defrosting. Frigidaire engineers are credited with making possible a constant and safe cold automatically under all conditions whether on the coldest night of winter or the hottest summer afternoon.

One model holds up to 73 pounds of frozen foods while the other two models hold 49 and 43 pounds, respectively. Other Frigidaire appliances provided to the dealers include a complete line of electric ranges in 40, 30 and 21 inch widths, come featuring the revolutionary "Wonder Oven" in which one can bake and broil or bake and roast at the same time in the same oven at different temperatures.

Smart Raymond Loewy styling with advanced engineering design have been incorporated in all these new product lines.

LINCOLN

By MRS. J. E. PHILLIPS Mr. and Mrs. John Davis went to El Paso last Saturday. John remained there to start working at his new job and Caroline came back Monday. She had an unpleasant trip coming home on the bus, as the snow storm made the roads slippery and dangerous through the mountains.

A large group of Lincoln people met at the schoolhouse to practice numbers to be given at the Ruidoso talent show Saturday night. Mrs. Alice Boyd and daughter, Claire, came down from Fort Stanton to help out. We are very proud of a group of Lincoln boys who have organized a string band. Self taught, they are doing a wonderful job.

Roman Maes has a lot more of his wood carving exhibits out in front of his place and is now engaged in painting a large sign on the side of his museum. He has a very attractive place and tourists enjoy looking it over. Christobal Zamora is leaving Thursday for the veterans hospital in Albuquerque. We hope they find him well enough to send him right back home.

Mrs. Dan Giles has been ill for several days. Mrs. Lorine Samelson, county school superintendent, visited the Lincoln school this week.

Mrs. Carrie Dow and grandsons, Tommy and Bobby Dow, are staying at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wilson for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dow were up to spend the day last Sunday. Ray Taylor is driving a new truck.

Mrs. Percy Parker of Fort Stanton visited Mrs. Jeff Dockray Wednesday afternoon. Fogo Padilla went to Albuquerque to enter the veterans' hospital.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Dan Giles' sister, who resided in New Gulf, Texas.

Picacho Man Named County Demo Head

R. C. Nunez, Picacho, is the new chairman of the Lincoln County Democrats following his election at a recent meeting during which Carl Hess, Captain, former chairman, submitted his resignation due to the pressure of other duties. A native of Picacho, Nunez was born Feb. 23, 1903, the son of Mrs. Lenore Chavez, Roswell, and the late Saplo Nunez. His parents were born at Lincoln. Nunez attended schools in Picacho and has also had educational training through LaSalle University at Chicago.

The Picacho man served as president of the Hondo PTA during 1931, and is presently a member of the Production Marketing Association in Lincoln County. Nunez, who married the former Miss Lucinda Carova of Arabela on Oct. 4, 1924, is the father of seven sons, R. C. Nunez Jr. and Fred Nunez, serving with the armed forces in Korea; Walter of Roswell and Larry, Andrew, Danny and George Nunez, all at home. He also has five daughters at home, Patsy, Anita, Frances and Caroline. Mrs. Nunez' great-grandfather, the late Jose Carova, delighted in telling relatives and friends about the turbulent days of the Lincoln County War and the famed Billy the Kid who was a family friend.

A favorite story concerns one of the escapes of the Kid who sought refuge at Carova's home. Jose Carova was about 12 years old at the time. Saplo Nunez, Hondo, is a brother of the Lincoln County Democratic chairman.

Future Farmers To Hold Annual Contests

Annual contests for New Mexico Future Farmers of America will be held at State College, Las Cruces, March 29-30, with more than 500 youths expected to compete. Following the contests, the college student commission will present a program and awards will be made at the banquet which concludes the activities. Contests include livestock, dairy, crops, poultry, farm and meat judging, as well as a tractor driving exhibition as a sideline to the regular competition. It is the first year since World War II that a contest in meats has been held.

Winning teams will be eligible to compete at national contests later in the year.

Pinto Bean Support

The support price for the 1932 crop of pinto beans in Lincoln County is $7.60, according to an announcement from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

School Budget Hearings Scheduled For County

The educational budget auditor has set April 10 as the date for school budget hearings in Lincoln County. The hearings will start at 9 A. M. in the district courtroom at the courthouse in Carrizozo.

The meetings are open to the public and will be attended by municipal and county school boards of education. Representatives of taxpayers and other interested persons are expected to be present.

The funds for school maintenance of municipal and rural schools come from the same sources of revenue, and the law provides for a county school budget commission composed of two taxpayers from the county, appointed by the Board of County Commissioners. The educational budget auditor serves as the third member for each commission. It is the business of the commissions to apportion the funds according to the budgets presented by municipal and rural boards of education for the several districts of the county. The various school districts are allowed budgets according to the revenues that will be available, as estimated by the educational budget auditor.

Mrs. Dorothy Current Named Local Jailer

Sheriff S. M. (Sally) Ortiz of Carrizozo announced the appointment this week of Mrs. Dorothy Current as jailer at the county jail in the courthouse here. Lincoln County is reported to have had one other woman as jailer in previous years. She was Mrs. Hubert Reynolds, daughter of former Sheriff A. S. McCamant, and served from 1935 to 1939. Tucumcari has a woman jailer at present who carries the title of office deputy.

Mrs. Current, whose husband, Fred, is a carpenter, is the daughter of John Littleton, Carrizozo town marshal, and Mrs. Mattie Littleton of this village. She was born in Nogal and attended schools there and in Carrizozo. Two sisters, Madecame Kenneth Vanclise and Walter Lenard, reside in this village.

The new jailer's duties will include preparation of food for prisoners, disposition of correspondence and general office work. Food is deposited at a small opening in the barn of the run-around cell, and the prisoners come to this window to pick up their meals. Mrs. Current's appointment is expected to be confirmed by the county commissioners at their next regular meeting in April.

New Mexico Teachers Rank High In Salaries

According to the New Mexico Tax Bulletin, New Mexico ranks with the 12 states paying the highest salaries to teachers, and is reported to be spending more for education in relation to the income of its people than any other state. From figures released by the State Department of Education for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1931, there were 5,829 teachers, principals and supervisors in New Mexico who received a total of $19,651,034, for an average salary of $3,371. Comparisons made by the Taxpayers Association for the current year ending June 30, 1932, show the total number of teachers, principals and supervisors as 5,847 who will receive a total of $21,548,514 in salaries for an average wage of $3,660.

Robert C. Withers Candidate For Mayor

Robert C. Withers, candidate for mayor of Carrizozo in the municipal election April 1, was born in Stevens County, Texas, March 20, 1884.

Married to the former Miss Estella George of Nolan County, Texas, the family moved to Socorro County in 1931, and subsequently came to Lincoln County in 1941 where they have since maintained their home.

A rancher, Mr. Withers is the father of three sons, J. W. Withers, Alamogordo, and Wayne and Pat Withers who live on the family ranch near Carrizozo. The elder Mr. Withers built a new home in Carrizozo about a year ago and since then has made his home in this village.

The candidate is a member of the Carrizozo Odd Fellows Lodge.

Methodist Sermon

Dr. R. E. Dickenson, pastor of the Carrizozo Trinity Methodist Church, will speak Sunday on "The Living Christ Appeals From the Mountain Top." His sermon is scheduled for 11 A. M. in the new church building.

Legion District Meeting To Be Held In Carrizozo

A district meeting of the American Legion is slated for Saturday, March 29, at 1 P. M. in the Odd Fellows Hall in Carrizozo. The district comprises towns in Lincoln and Otero counties. The meeting has been called by Roger Schenck, Ruidoso, district commander.

A general discussion on the subject of Universal Military Training is scheduled, and American Legion members are urged to attend. The Carrizozo Odd Fellows Hall is located on Southern Pacific Company property adjoining the railroad depot here.

Extension Clubs To Hold District Meetings

District meetings of New Mexico Women's Extension Clubs have been scheduled as follows: District 2 (northeast counties): Huff's gymnasium, Clayton, March 22; District 4 (southeast counties): Presbyterian Educational Building, Artesia, April 1; District 3 (southwest counties): Murray Hotel, Silver City, April 3; District 1 (northwest counties): Masonic Temple, Belen, April 5. Clubwomen from every county in the state are urged to attend one of the all-day meetings.

All the public's savings in all of the country's 529 mutual savings banks total slightly more than $20 billion. Yet, all these private savings would pay for less than four months federal spending at the rate we are going.
