Timely Tips

Vacation time is here, and as with all usual living, you'll have more fun and time to enjoy yourself if you plan carefully in the beginning.

Make a list of what you'll need while traveling and what you need when you arrive at your destination. Then go over it and meticulously cull all that can possibly be eliminated. Too much equipment merely means added burden. Making many costumes as possible do not make any sense at all. You need light and still have all you need.

Best headgear for travel is the light, adjustable, like soft pillboxes or scull caps. If you must take a fuzzy hat, wear it en route and pack the "little changes."

Fold suit skirts at the hip line, not in the middle. Thus any crease that remains will come up under your jacket away from critical eyes.

Those handy plastic bags you use for storing things in the refrigerator will prove equally useful for packing things for travel, whether it be for a full vacation period or just a day's outing in the country.

fall to enter college at Las Cruces A&M under the student trainee program, where he will go to school six months and work six months at White Sands Proving Grounds. He will graduate with a degree of mechanical engineer. This has been Skipper's goal and he has worked hard for it. He says Ray Baker had a lot to do with it as Ray told all his Scouts set a goal and stick to it.

The patients took up a collection to buy Dr. Torney a gift. We all hated to see him leave and wish him the best of luck.

Mr. Quillian has returned after a few months stay in Buffalo. He had a little difficulty at first but is doing all right now.

Dr. and Mrs. Heck and family left Monday for their new station in Galveston, Texas. Everyone hates to see these nice folks leave. Good luck.

Ida Mae and Billie Hale and daughter of Ingewood are home visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Minter of Fort Stanton and Mr. and Mrs. Hall in Sunset.

Carol and Earl Payne of Los Angeles surprised Carol's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Bingham, with a visit. Rose Marie Womack also is home to see her sister, Carol.

Letter to Editor

Editor, News Outlook:
Upon reading your editorial in the July 4 issue of the Lincoln County News, we feel you have made serious charges, and certainly your assertions must be based upon personal misinformation or total ignorance of the purposes of a Chamber of Commerce.
This organization allocates a part of the total budget for the highway committee to be expended for that purpose only, and we can assist our representatives or any other group in this county in securing additional funds for roads. We shall not hesitate to do so if it would seem your attitude is very narrow, in that you apparently believe we only think of ourselves. For your information, we have been replying to correspondence that should have been handled by a Chamber of Commerce in Carrizozo. In an attempt to interest those persons in moving to your town and in establishing business firms there, there are no boundary lines for a Chamber of Commerce, for who helps the county helps Carrizozo. For that matter, any event a good fortune for southern New Mexico or for the state itself, in some measure helps us. This would be well for you to keep in mind, and doubtless, Carrizozo will experience a greater prosperity than ever before enjoyed.

Incidentally, Mr. Drake is a member of our Chamber of Commerce highway committee, and was acting in that capacity only. We believe State Highway 37 is of vital importance to both Carrizozo and Ruidoso and also to those residents of the Ruidoso-Rondo Valley, and we feel your criticism is not only in bad taste but quite ill conceived.

As an editor, you are obligated to encourage the county in which you live. Your animosity has become embarrassing to the other sections of our county, and we do not care to believe that your opinions are representative of those of the citizens of Carrizozo.

Very truly,
ROSALIND BARNES, Manager,
Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce.

Ghost Light At Corona

By ANN A. E. MULKEY
Tony Otero, a young man who lives in the northwest part of Corona just inside the city limits said he was on his way home about midnight Friday, June 20, when he saw a light moving slowly in his pasture on the flats this side of the hills. He stopped his truck and went to investigate. It looked like a light of a lantern carried in the hand of someone. The light was bright in the center with a lesser glow out around it. As Tony walked forward he could see nothing but the slowly moving light. When he was a short distance away the light just suddenly disappeared. There was nothing there. A little frightened at the ghostly disappearance, Tony said he made tracks away from there as fast as his legs could carry him.

Tony did not mention the light when he went to work next morning for fear the men with whom he worked would not believe him. He stopped by the garage the next afternoon and quite by accident I mentioned the mysterious lights near Corona which I told about recently. Tony said he had never heard about them, and immediately related his story.

We don't believe in ghosts, and there was no moon shining the night the light was seen. Where could the light have come from? Will someone solve the mystery for us?

Letter to Editor

Petersburg, Alaska
July 2, 1952
Editor, News-Outlook:
Located on Mitkof Island some 900 miles from Seattle, this little fishing village has been receiving more than its share of rain. In the six days that I have been here, I have seen the sun just one day and that day the skies were not entirely clear, drifting clouds often obliterated the sun for intervals throughout the day. The nearby island mountains are still snow capped indicating a late and cold spring. One of the old-timers remarked that it was the wettest and coldest he had experienced in 17 years. Temperatures have run not over 51 degrees high and 38 low, during the past week.

The halibut fleet is out on the last trip. The season in Area 3 closes on the 12th of July. At that time the fleet will have reached the approximate poundage which is regulated by the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries. This year the allotment is 52 million pounds. This harvest is not gathered by the Alaska fleet alone but is shared with the Seattle and Canadian fleets. Prices this past week by the local buyers have varied from 21 cents to 26 cents per pound for first class fish. Some of the smaller boats that do not venture into the gulf of Alaska are making preparations for the salmon season which opens on the West Coast (about 100 miles from here) on July 14. This season lasts for about two weeks and then the general season opens the first week in August and lasts for about four weeks.

Alaska again is at the mercy of the steamship companies and the A. F. L. seamen's union, the shipping is more or less monopolized by the Alaska Steamship Company, which the AFL has been striking against these past six weeks. It is unfortunate that the people of Alaska have to suffer rather than the shipowners. The ships are their life line and to cut off this mode of transportation during the few precious months of summer evokes numerous hardships on the individual not to mention the many small business men that are bankrupt. This past week relief came in the form of a barge towed by an ocean tug. However, these barges are not refrigerated, consequently, no fresh meats or vegetables can be carried. A dairyman at Ketchikan was faced with the situation of slaughtering his herd, some 75 cows, for the lack of feed, which has to be shipped in. Fortunately, he was able to secure enough space on one of the barges to receive enough feed to keep the herd alive awhile longer. The barges are a relief but there are not enough of them to make any immediate dent in the backlog of freight piled up on the Seattle wharves.

My personal regards to my friends in Lincoln County.
Respectfully yours,
CARL E. NESS.

Card of Thanks

We want to express our deep gratitude and sincere appreciation for every word of condolence and every thoughtful expression of sympathetic understanding and the many beautiful flowers sent upon the death of our little boys.

territory is serviced by huge Pan American 60-passenger Douglas planes, connections are made by amphibious planes that shuttle throughout the island towns. Alaska is very air-minded in travel.

I haven't heard too much political talk. I spoke to one person in regard to the Alaska statehood bill, a territorial representative. His opinion was that the last statehood bill was badly prepared and it would not be good for Alaska to accept statehood under those conditions.

Prices are not too high in comparison in this southeastern area. For instance, coffee is $1 per pound, eggs 80 cents per dozen, canned milk 18 cents for the large size, beer is 35 to 40 cents per bottle, cocktails are about the same as New Mexico prices, cleaning and pressing is $2.25 per suit, haircuts $1.50. Of course, the farther north you go, the higher the prices.

My personal regards to my friends in Lincoln County.
Respectfully yours,
CARL E. NESS.

CORONA

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Yett and daughter, Lorraine, of San Diego, have been in Corona the past week. Mrs. Yett (Ruth) is taking care of her mother, Mrs. G. W. (Grandma) Chancey, who will be 92 years old in September. Grandma has been seriously ill, but is now improving. Her son, John Chancey of San Antonio, Texas, was here but became ill and had to return to his home. Mrs. Chancey's son, Jack, lives with her, and she has two other daughters, Mrs. Katherine Thomson of Corona and Mrs. Hark (Esther) Colbaugh of Cedarvale.

Miss Dorothy Rogers of Portales was home last weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers. Roger Grey, a grandson who lives with the Rogers, is visiting this week in Portales.

Miss Fatsy Bagley, who works at the Sandia Air Base at Albuquerque, was home visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bagley, July 4.

A vacation Bible school started this week at the Corona Baptist Church with a large number of children attending. The school will continue through July 18. If your children did not start this week send them next week. All children 3 through 16 years of age are welcome any day of the week. They will enjoy it.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Piggott of Progresso visited in Corona Sunday evening, and attended services at the Baptist church.

Archie Perkins, Ben Roberts, Alex Jenkins, Jim Rogers and Albert Mulkey attended a Torrance County commissioners road meeting at Estancia Monday of this week. Highway 42 from Willard to Corona was discussed, and it is possible that six more miles of road construction may be let soon, extending the paved section 17 miles this way from Willard. This will leave only about 20 or 25 miles of unpaved road between Willard and Corona.

Mrs. Ernest Yandell is in the Carrizozo hospital for 10 days treatment. She was transferred from an Albuquerque hospital last week. She has some spinal trouble which it is hoped may be relieved or entirely removed soon. Mrs. Hattie Yandell of Ray, Ariz., is staying with her granddaughters, Jo Evelyn and Carolyn while their mother is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Alberto Jarnagin of Clovis stopped for a visit in Corona last weekend. They were on their way to Tucson, Ariz., to see his mother, Mrs. E. L. Jarnagin, who has been ill. The Jarnagins are oldtimers in this area. They recently bought a trailer court at Tucson in hopes the lower altitude would be better for their health.

Clayton Crumley of Carrizozo is taking Ernest Yandell's place this week as signalman for the Southern Pacific. Crumley is a son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter.

Heavy rains fell both to the west, in the Cedarvale and Progresso areas, and down the Gallo Canyon east of Corona first of this week. There is a chance some beans and feed will be raised around here this year, and of course, there will be plenty of grass, we hope, for the stockmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bagley and son, George, and daughter, Aline, of Odessa, Texas, were visiting

County Residents Invest $431 In Defense Bonds

Residents of this county invested $431.25 in the Improved B Bonds during May of this year. In April the total was $1,068.75 and $787.50 in May of 1951, according to S. E. Grelsen, Capitán county chairman.

The new Series H Income bond was first offered June 1. It is expected that this bond will be in great demand.

"Through droughts and floods, good times and bad, New Mexicans continue to invest part of current income and capital in U. S. Defense Bonds, for their own financial security and to help defend America from aggression," said Mr. Grelsen.

old friends here last weekend. The Bagleys have purchased the J. M. Melton ranch, and may be moving to Corona soon. They formerly lived at Corona but have been away five or six years. The Meltons bought a ranch in Oregon last year and will return there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cronan of Albuquerque and Tom Moore of Tulsa, Okla., have been visiting at the J. W. Bates ranch. Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Walter of Tucson are expected to arrive as guests at the Bates ranch July 10.

Gerald Crosby, nephew of Clyde Jones, is here visiting. He is from California, and has recently been discharged from the armed services.

Mrs. Cora Prestridge, sister of Archie Perkins, and Mrs. Lucille Burke, a friend of the Lewis Cains, were here Sunday visiting. They are from Truth or Consequences.

Mr. and Mrs. Perle Messer and four children of Wichita Falls, Texas, were here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Messer, last weekend. Messer works for an oil company in Wichita Falls, and received word while here that he was to go to New York this week in the interest of his company. He and his family left Corona Sunday morning.

An oil well is being drilled just six miles northwest of Corona on the Hark Colbaugh ranch. They are down over 1,000 feet, and drilling night and day. They struck plenty of water at only about 200 feet, and more further down, and had to haul in well casing to ease off the water. We hope they strike some oil. They believe they have the best prospects for striking oil of any place in the state.

An oil well rig is expected to arrive this week, and drilling may start somewhere down the Gallo Canyon east of Corona. We will try our best to get more information about this next week.

Road work on Highway 54 was delayed because of rain this week. They expect to have the new road ready for travel by July 15 unless delayed because of rain.

Health Dept. Announces Polio Precautions

In regard to the increased incidence of poliomyelitis and an answer to many questions from parents, the State Department of Public Health reminds the public of some simple precautions that should be observed, particularly by parents in their relationship with their own children.

The parents should continue to permit their children to play with their usual companions, due to the fact the children have already been exposed to any virus which may be in the group and may have developed an immunity against the virus. Children should not be allowed to mingle with strangers, especially in crowds, or go to the homes of strangers with children.

There are at least three different kinds of virus which may cause polio and, while any particular group of children playing together may be immune to one of these viruses of poliomyelitis, strange children may carry another type of poliomyelitis virus to which, the children in the group are not immune.

Mothers should teach their children to wash their hands thoroughly before eating food because it is possible that poliomyelitis virus can enter the body through the mouth. Likewise, children should be taught not to use anyone else's towels, wash cloths or soiled drinking glasses, dishes, and table silverware, unless they are thoroughly cleaned, because the virus could be carried from one person to another through this means. Mothers should be particularly cautious in not permitting their children to become fatigued or chilled because an over-tired body or a body chilled by frequenting a swimming pool for too long a period becomes more susceptible to the ravages of poliomyelitis. Parents should avoid taking their children on trips away from home, except in an emergency, because of the possibility of exposing them to one of the three types of virus for which they have no immunity. During a polio outbreak children should preferably be kept at home rather than taken on long automobile trips. Likewise the children should not be taken to community celebrations where they may mingle with a different group of children than those whom they have been accustomed to playing with from day to day.

Parents should particularly watch their children for the early signs of poliomyelitis. These signs include headaches, fever, sore throat, an upset stomach, stiffness in the neck and back. If any member of the family has any of these signs, it is the part of wisdom to call the regular physician immediately, and until his arrival the child showing these signs should be put to bed and kept away from the other members of the family. Finally, the public should realize that the local chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is ready, and willing to extend any possible assistance to the family which is visited by poliomyelitis.

NOGAL MESA

By DOROTHY GUCK

Clean-up day at the Ranchmen's Camp Meeting will be held this afternoon (Friday). Come in your denims prepared to work and bring a picnic supper.

'Tis the strangest thing how a child can live six years without tasting bubble gum, then after one chew, go bubbling about for the rest of his life. Almost the same thing has happened to Ben Pflingsten. Not that he has taken to blowing bubbles, but a couple weeks ago he went to White Sands for the first time in his 50-year-old life. This week he had to go again. He saw the fireworks with the McDaniels of Carrizozo.

Dr. and Mrs. Darlington of Fort Stanton visited the Peebles one evening recently. Patsy Gould spent a few days last week helping fill vacation days for my Mary.

Frank and Marybelle Smith and two children were on the Mesa last week with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Jones and other of Marybelle's brothers and sisters.

Virgil Jones and family, Arlene Jones and Bob Peebles were among those joining the few thousand other cars at the White Sands fireworks display.

Rayford Runnels was taken ill at Bonito Dam Saturday and rushed to Carrizozo hospital. He was released Sunday.

All the exciting things that seem to happen around here turn out to be false alarms. I thought I had this column filled with a murder when the police received a report Saturday night that a man had been shot on the Monjeau road. The most exciting news happening there that I know to be a fact is the good rain that put an end to the threat of forest fire for the time being. We had almost three-quarters of an inch Sunday and had one visitor asking if we were growing webbed feet.

I love to eat, and had a glorious time doing just that when we had our annual chicken fry on the Fourth. One neighbor brought cherries he had been guarding under a bird cage, another watermelon which sliced big enough to reach from ear to ear, then there were pies, cakes, salads, to say nothing of two roasters full of fried chicken cooked by the men outdoors.

I didn't notice any of the guests at the Peg Pflingsten ranch lapping over into our pasture the Fourth, but Leota says all of them she expected came. She drove to Tularosa for lunch

Saturday. My son Tom returned from a long visit with the Henry Hales of Glencoe to find the lawn had not been cut or the chicken coop cleaned. Couldn't think of cheating with her cousin, Jan Clayton.

SOUTHWEST'S TALLEST BUILDING INCREASED IN SIZE

Two additional floors have been added to the Republic National Bank Building, now being erected in Dallas. The floors have increased the section facing Pacific and Ervay Streets to seven stories and have resulted in the floor space of the building being increased to 822,000 square feet. Certain other changes have been made in the exterior of the building base, all of which adds materially to the appearance of the building and further enhances its place in the already impressive Dallas skyline. This 40-floor building — tallest in the Southwest — will rise 598 feet above the ground and will incorporate every modern convenience.

Ranchers' Camp Meet To Start July 16

and good neighborliness of their forefathers was strengthened during the strenuous trek of covered wagon trains by bowing heads in unison and asking spiritual guidance, the ranchers made their Camp Meeting on Nogal Mesa a Christian one.

The rough and sometimes bawdy ways of western men have been fictionalized in such lurid colors, it does one good to see the real cowboy in worn denim and shirt sleeves hunker beneath the spreading branches of a big juniper that is his "Prayer Tree," whittle at a small chunk of wood, and simply and sincerely, without fanfare or fancy words express the thoughts in his heart.

The camp is interdenominational. Each year two preachers of different sects speak to the people without reference to their particular creeds. Services are held in the large pine tabernacle about 10:30 A. M., 2:30 and 7 P. M. daily. The times vary a little on Sunday, the last day of the meeting. The young folks, the women and the men hold their separate meetings each afternoon about 4:30.

Those sleeping on the grounds are asked to furnish their own tents, beds and bedding. Three free chuck wagon meals are served daily. The meeting is non-commercial, no collection plate is ever passed. If you care to give, your donation is welcome.

Clean-up day at the camp will be today (Friday), July 11. Helpers in putting the grounds in shape will meet in the afternoon and bring a picnic supper.

Don't waste too much polish on those boots, bring a jacket and slicker, and we'll see you at Camp Meeting.
