Mrs. Werner Named Head Of Local PTA

Acting president of the Carrizozo PTA since the resignation of Mrs. J. D. Richardson, who has moved to Taos, Mrs. Rex Werner was named president, by acclamation at Monday night's meeting.

A change in date for the February meeting from the 11th to Thursday, Feb. 7, was announced. D. D. Monroe, well known Clayton speaker, will address the group on "Our Reasonable Obligation."

PTA members were reminded of the rummage sale planned for Jan. 26 at the local fire hall starting at 9 A. M. Proceeds are to be used for the purchase of encyclopedias for the grade school. Posters announcing the sale will be placed in the windows of local business firms and in the outlying school districts. Support of this project is urgently needed, said the committee in charge.

Supt. L. Z. Manire told the group about the progress of plans for the proposed new grade school building. All legal technicalities, he said, are being ironed out and the way cleared for the sale of the bonds during the current fiscal year. When all necessary requirements have been complied with, a request for bids will be published. Manire informed the group that scarcity of materials might possibly hold up the construction of the building, but, barring any unforeseen obstacle, it is believed the new building should be ready for occupancy within another year.

The possibility of exhibiting the students' work and handicrafts at the April meeting with a reward for the winner was discussed. It was also pointed out if there were a sufficient number of articles to be displayed, an exhibit at the State Fair next fall might be arranged also. Miss Bettie Lou Grogan, Marshall Powell and James Pharris were appointed to handle the details.

Mrs. Betty Nickels discussed the advisability of forming a group to promote the high school band and help the members secure instruments badly needed. Mrs. Rebecca Wedell, music committee head, will take charge of that program and every effort will be made to aid the band in its instrument project. Residents are urged to give the band their support, and it was suggested they turn out for the games in order to gain first hand knowledge of the part the band can play in community life. Mrs. Lloyd Vigil related the support given the Hondo school band when members of that community made themselves responsible for a large sum of money with which to purchase uniforms.

A film strip, "How Strong is Russia," was shown and explained by Larry Stockton, high school principal. The picture, based on life in Russia, gave an overall illustration of the Russian regime since Lenin obtained control of that country. Stockton commented the film released by the New York Times shows only scenes released by the Russian government since no picture making by outside sources is permitted in the Soviet.

Miss Delores Gardner's home-room students won this month's count for the most parents present at this month's PTA gathering.

Hondo Man, Naval Machinist Graduate

The Jan. 11 graduating class from the Naval Machinist's Mate School, Service School Command, U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., included Teddy P. Poindexter, machinist's mate fireman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Poindexter, Hondo.

The Hondo man, graduate of Captain Union High School, entered naval service June 1, 1951, and received his recruit training at San Diego.

Students at the school are taught to install, operate and make repairs to ships' engines and all mechanical equipment. This includes maintenance and repair of outside machinery such as the ship's steering engines, cranes, refrigeration and air conditioning equipment.

Two Rescued From Elephant Butte Lake By Game Dept. Officials

Former Lincoln County residents, Ray Bell and Bill Humphries, state game department officials, figured prominently in the rescue of two Las Cruces men from the icy waters of Elephant Butte Lake New Year's Eve.

Velton and Jude Ulmer, brothers and owners of a Las Cruces night club, were returning from a duck hunting trip at the upper end of the lake when their boat capsized during a severe wind storm. Bell and Humphries, crossing the lake from the east side after night, heard their cries for help and found the men clinging to their boat. The brothers had been in the water approximately an hour, and the rescuers reported Jude Ulmer could not have survived much longer. The men were rushed to a T. or C. hospital and by the following morning were in good condition and able to return to their homes.

The former Lincoln County residents said rescue operations were difficult in view of the high waves, and that both of them had donned life preservers fearing their boat might overturn when they attempted to bring the Las Cruces men aboard. The brothers, who weigh approximately 200 pounds each, were hauled in over the side of the craft without mishap, however, although they lost three new automatic shotguns and other hunting equipment.

Contract For Tinnie-Arabela Road To Be Let

L. S. (Heavy) Drake, Ruidoso, returning from Santa Fe this week told the News-Outlook Jan. 15 is the date scheduled for letting of the contract on construction of approximately 4.622 miles of road between Tinnie and Spindle. The proposed construction consists of grading, drainage, water rolling and stabilizing surface course. The contractor awarded the bid must start work within 10 days from notification and must complete the work within 120 days.

Drake said all qualified unskilled labor, insofar as is possible, will be furnished the contractor by the state employment agency, the Lincoln County district branch of which is located in Roswell, and managed by John Dean Jr. Anyone who desires work on this project should submit his application, to that office.

Girl Scouts To Assist In Rummage Sale

The local Girl Scouts have offered their assistance in collecting donations for the Carrizozo PTA sponsored rummage sale, on Jan. 26 at the fire hall, proceeds of which will be applied towards the purchase of encyclopedias for the elementary school. PTA officials said the Scouts will make a house to house canvass Saturday, Jan. 19, to pick up contributions for the sale.

Following completion of their pickup work, the girls will go to the home of Mrs. Ace Baty for a cookout—in this case, the construction of an outdoor stove for camp cooking.

A field trip to Roswell is planned for this month, during which the scout members will visit the youth center and the Scout hut there.

At the last joint meeting of the Brownies and Intermediate Scouts, movies of scenes in Washington, D. C., taken by the T. A. Spencers Jr. on a recent vacation, were shown. The pictures included construction underway on the White House as well as many historical spots of interest. The Daughters of the American Revolution organization is assisting in the preservation of many of these historical places in an effort to combat communism by stressing loyalty to the heritage of American tradition and independence handed down by our ancestors.

March Of Dimes Dance

A March of Dimes dance, sponsored by the Carrizozo Rebekahs, will be held at the local Odd Fellows Hall, Jan. 26, starting about 8:30 P. M. The name of the orchestra has not been announced.

Patsy Jean Withers Troth Announced

The engagement of Miss Patsy Jean Withers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Withers, Alamogordo, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Withers, Carrizozo, to Sergeant Duffield C. Myers, Holloman Air Force Base, was announced recently by Miss Withers' parents. The marriage of the couple is scheduled for early summer.

The Carrizozoans' granddaughter is a member of the senior class of Alamogordo High School, a majorette in the school band, vice president of the Future Homemakers of America chapter at Alamogordo, and a member of the Rocket staff. She is also an active member of the Order of Rainbow for Girls.

The bride-elect's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McLean of Pinon and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Withers of Carrizozo, are pioneer New Mexico families. Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Gentry, Pinon, are her great-grandparents.

Sergeant Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Myers, Chambersburg, Pa., graduated from high school in Shippensburg, Pa., and has served for the past three years with the Air Force.

Herefords Purchased By White Mt. Rancher

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holmes of Rancho Vegas Altas on White Mountain, recently purchased nine registered Hereford heifers in Clayton.

Four of them were obtained from Olen Caviness, who bred and raised the great Boca Prince Domino 20th that sold a short time ago for $87,500—the highest price in Hereford history. Caviness still retains as his chief herd sire—the father of this bull, Domino Prince E 29th. The four heifers are bred to him. One heifer, purchased from the Sellman Bros. string, was sired by M. W. Larry Domino 138th, son of M. W. Larry Domino 50th. The New Mexico Stockman refers to the last named bull as "remained secure in top position among Hereford Royalty."

A T. O. bred heifer from the string of Turner & Son is bred to a grandson of the 50th Larry Domino 36th. Another heifer from the same string was left at Sellman Bros. ranch at Watrous to be bred to M. W. Larry Domino 28th, a young bull of exceptional size and bone. Two heifers from the string of M. L. George were sired by Prince Domino 70th, grand champion bull in the 1947 tri-state sale at Clayton.

Capitan Girl Scouts Sponsor Polio Drive

A March of Dimes drive against polio, sponsored by Capitan Girl Scout Troop 2 last Saturday, netted $31.

The roster of Troop 2 includes Jane Cozzens, LaWanna Kent, Patricia Gould, Clara Lujan, Cecilia Griego, Alice Shaul, Viola Griego, Jean Utterback, Betty Walker and Sharon Jones.

The Scouts' leaders are Mrs. John Shaul and Mrs. Tom Utterback.

Baptist Revival Services Start Here January 20

A series of revival services at the Carrizozo Baptist Church starting Jan. 20 and continuing through Jan. 27 was announced this week by the church's pastor, Rev. H. T. Ray.

Services start each night at 7 o'clock with Rev. Ray bringing the message to his people. Earl Rogers, Barger, Texas, as song leader will assist the minister. The public is cordially invited and urged to join the local group in this special worship period.

Not A Candidate

Geo. L. Zimmerman, local attorney, said this week he does not plan to run for the office of state senator from Lincoln County. He stated he has been approached on the subject from time to time, but is too busy with his law practice to devote the necessary time to the campaign.

The attorney added, however, he intends to campaign actively among the prospective members of the Democratic Central Committee in this county for the office of Lincoln County Democratic chairman.

Grizzlies Win Two Games

The Carrizozo Grizzlies starred last weekend in two unexpected defeats over the strong Cloudcroft and Dexter basketball teams. Friday night's tilt saw the Zozoltes win a smashing 63-32 victory over the Cloudcroft Bears and edge out the Dexterites Saturday night in a thrilling 33-31 score. Carrizozo's hopes for victory in the District 14 race have been raised as a result of the Cloudcroft victory.

Henry Vega was high for the local team with 13 points in only three quarters of play, followed by Jerry Kennedy with 12. Gerald King and Joe Lucas were next with 10 markers each. Davis was top scorer for Cloudcroft with 10 points. The Grizzlies netted nine out of 21 free throws to Cloudcroft's eight out of 24.

In the game with Dexter, the visitors grabbed a fast 11-5 lead in the first quarter, only to be slowed to a one-point margin, 15-14, at halftime after the Grizzlies turned to defensive ball playing. A hectic third period drew the crowd to their feet and saw the Zozoltes change places with a slim lead of 23-22. During the final quarter of play, the two teams were making almost basket for basket until the last 90 seconds of battle when Eddie Holguin sank a two-point goal to put the Grizzlies in the lead. The visitors came back with another shot at the basket as the Carrizozo team moved to freeze the ball in the final moments.

Ned Moore, Dexter, topped the scorers with 16 tallies while Henry Vega of the Grizzlies was next with 12 markers. Seventeen fouls were called against the local team to 14 for the visitors. Dexter made nine of its 21 free throws and the Zozoltes bagged seven out of 16. Game officials were Andy Anderson and Frank Bogert, both of Alamogordo.

The local team will battle the Corona Cardinals at the high school gym there tonight (Friday), Tuesday night, Jan. 22, the Weed Bulldogs are scheduled to come across the mountain to tangle with the Grizzlies at the local school gym.

Coach M. S. Mirmanian said this week the toughest team in southern New Mexico is scheduled to meet his quintet Saturday night, Jan. 19, when the Alamogordo Tigers, winner of last weekend's New Mexico A. & M. high school invitational tourney, come to Carrizozo. The Tigers took three games in a row—T. or C. Las Cruces and El Paso Thomas Jefferson High School, city champions—to win their title. Mirmanian urges residents of the community turn out in full force to spur their local team to greater efforts. He gives the following statistics on the team's records: Won five out of nine games; have scored a total of 340 points in the nine tilts as against 250 for the opposition; leading scorers to date, Henry Vega 61, Jerry Kennedy 44, Gerald King 43, Eddie Holguin 43. Joe Lucas holds the best average—seven points each for two games.

1952 Chevrolet To Be On Display Saturday

The showing of 1952 models of Chevrolet trucks and automobiles will be held Saturday, Jan. 19, at the City Garage here.

The truck models are reported as providing outstanding economy and durability, while the driver is accorded superior comfort, safety and handling ease.

The 1952 Chevrolet automobile models offer a variety of smart new colors, greater comfort and improved performance.

Chevrolet's automatic transmission, the Powerglide, is again listed as optional equipment on de luxe models. An automatic choke is designed to assure top power efficiency by automatically controlling the carburetor choke in accordance with engine load and weather conditions.

To Graduate

Miss Rosa Zamora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cristobal Zamora of Lincoln, will receive her bachelor of science degree at New Mexico A. & M. College commencement exercises Jan. 26.

Ruidoso Men Arrested On Narcotic Charges

Federal narcotic agents have announced the recent arrests of Dr. Harvey C. Caylor, 69, and Henry H. Shier, 50-year-old pharmacist, both of Ruidoso, on charges of issuing prescriptions for narcotics for other than "use in lawful business or legitimate practice."

Shier, arrested in Roswell, pleaded innocent before a U. S. commissioner and was freed on $3,000 bond pending federal court action. The Ruidoso physician, taken into custody by federal narcotic agents at Charleston, S. C., might be returned to New Mexico for trial if he pleads innocent, according to Mort Ammerman, federal narcotic agent in charge at Albuquerque.

A Santa Fe spokesman for the New Mexico State Board of Medical Examiners said the board has set a formal hearing (March 14) on the revocation of Dr. Caylor's license which has been suspended pending the hearing. Ammerman stated the physician is accused of issuing prescriptions for "both fictitious and actual patients who never received the narcotics, but who received other non-narcotic drugs, such as vitamin pills."

Health Officer Visits Corona And Carrizozo

District Health Officer Dr. M. A. Elstein, Las Cruces, was in Carrizozo Jan. 10 and 11 in conjunction with an investigation of certain health cases, as well as an inspection of sanitary conditions of some establishments.

The health officer said that, in general, he found conditions very satisfactory and that the cases interviewed had responded nicely. He added that he had found residents of the community very congenial and anxious to live up to the hygiene and sanitation requirements.

Dr. Elstein, who makes regular inspection trips about every two months, stated he had addressed the Corona Woman's Club on Jan. 10, on the subject of health, and had also talked to the school children as well as visited several students who were ill. He commented that Corona High School is "ideally built and efficiently equipped," and that its lunchroom patrons are getting a "well balanced diet." He inspected other Corona establishments and recommended certain improvements.

The representative of the State Health Department, who will be back in Lincoln County sometime in March to continue his inspection of establishments in other communities, stated that Lee Peek, department sanitarian, makes weekly inspection trips through the county.

Roach Candidate For Land Commissioner

State Senator Burton Roach of Truth or Consequences has announced his candidacy for the office of commissioner of public lands on the Democratic ticket. Roach said his platform will be based on his record for the past 14 years in the State Legislature, both in the House and Senate.

The senator has been a resident of New Mexico for many years during which he has engaged in the cattle business both as an independent operator and general manager of one of the larger ranches. As a result of this experience, he said, the candidate has become well acquainted with the use and value of public lands from the stock raiser's viewpoint. For the past 12 years, he has been chairman of the public lands and livestock committee, either in the House or Senate.

Free Table

A table, made in the Carrizozo schools' manual training shops, is to be given away Tuesday night when the Weed High School basketball team meets the local quintet here at the school gym. The Carrizozo High School band is also slated to make an appearance.

Red Heads Conquer Town Team In Hilarious Basketball Exhibition

The All-American Red Heads all-girl basketball team, triumphed over the local town quintet 57-43 Tuesday night in a fast hilarious exhibition of smooth ball handling and a conglomeration of monkeyshines that would be prohibited by any conventional minded league. Not content with convulsing and confusing the opposition alone, the Red Heads turned their attention to game officials Larry Stockton and M. S. Mirmanian to confound them with mirth provoking antics that left the crowd howling in glee.

The girls eased along the first few minutes of play not too far out in the lead only to speed up in the second quarter and break away for a safe margin during the rest of the game. Despite the clowning, the Red Heads, whose coach is Orwell Moore, played sharp basketball, as well they might since they are the world champion professional girls' team. Although the all-girl team's top record shows victory in 125 games out of 202, its main ambition is to give the fans a good time, in which aim they made a tremendous success in Carrizozo.

"Red" Mason, the comedienne of the traveling basketeers, an expert at natural comedy as well as a clever basketball player, kept both the audience and the town team wondering what development she would pull next. The high point of her routine of tricks came when she donned lensless glasses, picked up a cane, and went into her "blind referee" act, during which the luckless Larry Stockton bore the brunt of her "referencing."

Proof that the good looking Red Heads charmed even the local fans was evident when some of their spectacular shots, in detriment to the "Zozoltes" score, drew spontaneous and wholehearted applause from the crowd. The town team, a gallant loser to the darling and delightful opponents, appeared not too unhappy over their downfall at the hands of the farmerettes who dribble basketball for a living six months out of every year.

Local Woman Receives Westinghouse Award

Mrs. Jack N. Harkey, Carrizozo, has won a $300 Westinghouse Laundromat and a year's supply of Rain-Soft Rinsco in the Arthur Godfrey $125,000 jingle contest.

Her entry, judged on originality, sincerity and aptness, was selected as a winner by an independent contest judging organization. She supplied the prize winning last line to this jingle:

"There once was a girl known as May
Whose washes turned out rather gray.
They wouldn't have been so
With new Rain-Soft Rinsco."

The winner is one of 100 throughout the United States to win the top prize in one of four weekly contests. At the end of the contests her jingle will be judged in a field of 400 for a $10,000 grand prize.

Chuck And Chat Club Meets At Purcella Home

The ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. John Purcella on the north side of the Capitan Mountains was the setting last week for the meeting of the Chuck and Chat Club. Members brought offerings for a covered dish luncheon with the hostess providing the roast beef entree.

Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Lon Merchant, Grady Eldridge, Bill Edgar and daughter Willa, Nick Brill, Charles Jones, Messrs. Bob Latham, John and Ed Downing, Floyd Hale, all of near Capitan, and Mrs. Jeanette Smoot and daughters Minnette and Sharon, Carrizozo. Absent members included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bird, Mrs. Estelle Latham, Mrs. Lou Greaves, and Tennis Smoot. Guests were Mrs. M. L. Purcella and daughter of Roswell, Mrs. Vincent Reil of Carrizozo, Bill Weldy of Roswell and Mrs. Annie McInnes and her daughter and son, Miss Nettie McInnes and Luther McInnes, of near Capitan.

Town Team To Play Socorro Wednesday

The local Lions Club basketball aggregation takes on a big task Jan. 23 when the Socorro Independent team journeys to Carrizozo for a return game in the local high school court. The Carrizozo team on its first outing of the season, was tripped by an all-star quintet of a combined Socorro-Belen team with a score of 82-40.

Former All-American Dave Sharp, Belen basketball coach, and Tex Wallace, Socorro basketball mentor, New Mexico Conference's outstanding forward of two seasons ago, led the sharp-shooting Socorro team with 28 and 24 points respectively. Sharp, while playing with the New Mexico Aggies, was sensational in Madison Square Garden. Besides this, his left hand plunked in 99 out of 100 free throws to win the National Free Throw contest in 1947.

The height on both backboards broke the locals' back and the team had to get its points from deep on the floor. High man for Carrizozo was Raymer Shaw with 12 points, followed by Stockton and Vidauri with 10 each.

To offset the height handicap of last week the local club has invited Ralph McGuire of Ruidoso, 6 foot 5 inch former Highlands University star, and Coach King, Capitan, 6 foot 4 1/2 inch outstanding pivot man of Western University, to play with the local group. If these arrangements go through the local fans can look forward to one of the finest exhibitions of basketball ever seen on the local floor.

Many a university or professional team would welcome the basketball talent which will be displayed on the high school court next Wednesday night. All sport fans should make a date to see this exhibition.

As an added attraction, the colorful fifth and sixth grade team will play a return match with the seventh and eighth grade quintet. These future stars stress a low scoring game but action is fast and furious. They may be short on height but not on hustle. The junior basketeers start at 7 while the Lions tilt is scheduled at 8.

92 Visit Art Show At Museum Opening Day

Ninety-two guests at the Old Court House in Lincoln viewed "Still Life in New Mexico Art" on opening day, Sunday, Jan. 13. This unusual exhibit, furnished by courtesy of the traveling exhibit program of the Museum of New Mexico will hang through Jan. 27, and is the third in the winter series of art shows at the Old Court House being sponsored by the Old Lincoln County Memorial Commission.

Beginning Sunday, Feb. 3, a special treat is planned for art lovers of Lincoln County. The works of Julia Penfield Reidy, versatile amateur artist well known to Lincoln County residents, will be exhibited. Mrs. Reidy has never exhibited before, so this scheduled event will be absolutely original and different.

Plea Made For High School Band Instruments

By REBECCA WEDELL
Have you heard the local high school band lately? Or the Glee Club? If you have, you know what a tremendous job Mr. Bartkus, music teacher, is doing. If you haven't, come to the ball games and have a listen. The band needs instruments. Have you one in the attic that you have outgrown? If so, please be a nice person and lend it to the school—or just donate it. It will receive the best of care, and be repaired if necessary, and returned in as good or better condition.

Suppose It Were Your Kid

Suppose it were your kid—your girl or boy—happy, protected, cherished—with dreams of growing up to become a movie star or pilot.

What could happen to her—or to him, laughing and playing in the sun under your watchful eyes? The chances are, nothing. But to thousands of such carefree, loved, protected youngsters something did happen last year. Dreaded, sneaky attacking polio struck at them, childish laughter was stifled. There were days of pain—of excruciating anxiety—for some, a prospect of lifelong handicap. Suppose one of them had been your girl or boy.

January is March of Dimes month and during this time all of us have a chance to act as if our own children were among the unfortunate. We can strike back at this cruel disease by contributing generously to the March of Dimes to help them.

The job of getting kids back on their feet—in a literal sense—cannot continue unless you and I and all the rest of us put up more dollars and dimes than ever before. There have been 132,000 cases in four years, triple what used to be a "normal" number.

When you see the smiling faced lad on the March of Dimes posters or in the newspapers, think of the good that can be accomplished for him and others like him through the March of Dimes.

Suppose there were no March of Dimes, suppose it were your kid and no help at hand.

Fortunately, there is a March of Dimes. You created it and you can give it the extra backing it needs this year because there are so many kids—and adults too—dependent upon it.

(Written for Last Week)
This writer feels unequal to setting up resolutions to compare with Mrs. Guck, but will resolve here and now to get the news, however scanty, in on time hereafter.

Christmas and the holidays seem to have thrown me off schedule, what with Leveno in the hospital, etc.

Mr and Mrs Guy Payne, children Judy Victor and Paul, from Carlsbad, spent 10 days with Miriam's mother and dad. Mr and Mrs Bryan Hightower, during the holidays. To complete the family reunion, John Allen, Vernelle, Gary and Bill spent Christmas week with them. On New Year's Day the entire family had dinner at John Allen and Vernelle's, celebrating John Allen's birthday, as well as the beginning of the new year.

On Sunday night, Dec. 30, the Paynes and B. A. Hightowers spent a very pleasant evening with the E. I. Harkeys. The flu or whatever the prevailing mauldly it has made the rounds among the entire family, including Mrs. Hightower, Vernelle and several of the children. Jo Ann Straley and Katie Snodgrass have both been out of school several days with colds and sore throats.

Rose Harkey is in an El Paso hospital with an eye injury which she suffered from a flying chip while on a wood hauling expedition with her family.

The Square Dance Club met at the school house Jan. 5 with a merry crowd, after several weeks vacation.

The Ancho PTA met on Jan. 9 at the school house. A large crowd was present, despite so much sickness.

The weekly picture show on Thursday night brought a good crowd out. The fifth episode of "Lost City of the Jungle" was shown. Hopalong Cassidy in "Three Men From Texas" gave the children a real thrill.

Jimmy Marrujo arrived a few days before Christmas from Korea, making a wonderful Christmas for his family to have him back again.

Nellie Ruth Lucas returned to Colorado Women's College Jan. 2. Carol Hurd left Jan. 4 to continue her studies at Shipley School, Bryn Mawr, Pa.

Teofilo Salas was home on a Christmas furlough from Camp Leonard Wood, Mo. Mrs. Pearl Bonnell is able to be back at work teaching school after being in a car wreck near Tucson, Ariz., a few days before Christmas. Her husband, Ed, is still in St. Mary's Hospital in Tucson.

Mrs. Georgia Sanchez has returned to San Patricio from Wilmington, Calif. She plans to stay with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sisto Sedillos.

Helen Marrujo was home for Christmas from Prather School for Girls in Albuquerque.

Mrs. Ruth Chavez of San Patricio and Sig Montoya of Hagerman were married last week.

Juanita Ventura entertained with a party at the school house which was greatly enjoyed by the guests. Refreshments served included frosted cup cakes and cocoa. Another party will be held in Lincoln March 7 with Mrs. Jeff Dockray as hostess.

Several Southern Pacific officials have been looking around up and down the valley this week. Claire Boyd, now a senior Scout leader, will be in charge of a Brownie Scout meeting in Lincoln next week. Extensive plans are in the making for a rhythm band and the fundamentals of sewing, plus some designing, for the little ones.

We're very proud of our group of youngsters who journey to Ft. Stanton faithfully each week to attend Sunday school. Last Sunday, Dixie Dockray, Barbara McGrew, Jonnie Amatae and Chris and Julie Davis went. Mr. and Mrs. Giles Ramey plan a trip to El Paso Friday.

In 1951, there were about 6 per cent fewer farms in the U. S. than there were 50 years ago, but the average farm has increased in size from 140 to 203 acres, or about 39 per cent.

Local Student Council Plans Civic Projects

The Carrizozo High School Student Council and a special committee have been working on a constitution for the school group during the past semester which is nearing completion. It is expected to go into operation about Feb. 1.

Under the proposed constitution, the council will share largely in the planning and responsibility for activities which concern the student body. Civic projects now under consideration by the council include a cooperative plan with the village to clean up the cemetery; beautification of school grounds; elimination of parking vehicles in front of the school and creation of a parking area in the rear of the building; a teen-age canteen, and a courtesy campaign.

RETURNS FROM TEXAS

Mrs. Marbry Burns has returned from San Antonio, Texas, where she was called by the death of her brother-in-law, Claude E. Boyer, retired Chicago school teacher. Her brother, W. K. Henning, Plano, Ill., joined her and her sister, Mrs. Belle Boyer, to assist in the last rites for Mr. Boyer, whose body was taken to Plano for interment. Mrs. Boyer returned to Carrizozo with Mrs. Burns.

Mystery Man

ONE of the most amazing things about "mystery man" Henry Grunewald is the way he has been able to ingratiate himself with those in high places.

Henry is able to slip in to see the Vice President, has a letter of thanks from President Truman for a campaign contribution, drops in to see GOP Senator Brewster of Maine who calls him "Henry," and got GOP Senator Bridges of New Hampshire to help him pull wires on a tax fraud case. He has three limousines, a winter house in Miami Beach, a summer house at Spring Lake, N.J., and uses the Washington hotel apartment of former Secretary of War Harry Woodring.

How he manages all these contacts no one exactly knows, especially in view of the fact that he was unwilling to answer any questions about himself before the King committee.

However, strangest of all connections was with the former alien property custodian, Leo Crowley—despite Crowley's denials. Grunewald had such a close friendship with Crowley that he was actually authorized to speak for him at stockholders' meetings of the big, alien corporations in wartime.

Crowley now says: "I don't remember Grunewald." However, at the time he was hired, Crowley's office put a memo in the files showing his astonishing trust in "The Dutchman" by stepping any investigation of Grunewald's past.

Grunewald's Past

"The office of the custodian has investigated Mr. Grunewald," Crowley's office stated on Aug. 23, '42, "and because of the nature of the work to be performed by this man for the custodian, it is requested that the Civil Service Commission refrain from making any investigation of Mr. Grunewald. His record is entirely satisfactory to the custodian."

Perhaps what Crowley wanted to cover up was Grunewald's record as a government prohibition agent. This showed he was demoted from $4,000 to $1,000 a year on January 15, 1922, and finally was kicked out of the government on October 3, 1922, after being indicted by a New York grand jury in connection with the "illegal removal and disposition of liquor."

Later, in a job application, Grunewald gave this version of his indictment: "In October, 1922, while I was a general agent assigned to the New York prohibition office, I was indicted by a federal grand jury in the southern district of New York for conspiracy to violate the federal prohibition law. The indictment named a number of individuals, including Mr. Roswell A. Sover and myself. The case against me was dismissed after a verdict was indicated to the jury by Federal Judge Winslow. . . ."

50 Years an Alien

Here are some more things which the mystery man might have told the King committee but didn't:

Grunewald was born May 19, 1882, at Port Elizabeth, South Africa, but neglected to become naturalized as an American citizen until February 3, 1942. This was two months after Pearl Harbor and after he went to work for the alien property custodian.

For years, as an alien, Grunewald worked for various branches of the government. He served in the U.S. Navy from 1906 to 1914, worked as a desk clerk at the Naval Young Men's Christian Association in Brooklyn, got a job in 1915 as a bookkeeper for Western Electric in New York city.

His first job as an investigator came in 1917, when he secured a temporary appointment with the old FBI. In 1919, he served as confidential investigator for the Republican National Committee at $6,000. In 1921 he got a $4,000-a-year job with the Commissioner of Prohibition which, ironically, came under the Internal Revenue Bureau. It was his relations with ex-Commissioner Schoeneman and ex-Counsel Olyphant of Internal Revenue which recently brought Grunewald into the limelight.

Grunewald has also developed some interesting contacts in the liquor business, and as late as 1944 he was under investigation by the alcohol tax unit for alleged black-marketing in liquor.

Grunewald also spent from 1923 to 1942 as a personal, confidential investigator for Henry W. Marsh.

Average Citizen Is Saving More, Sales and Profit Survey Reveals

PEACE TALKS—As home towners had expected, the 30-day provisional cease-fire-line agreement in Korea expired without final agreement between the Communists and the United Nations in their peace talks. As a result, it will be necessary to redraw the cease-fire line whenever all other armistice points are settled.

Although progress in the talks has been slow, the over-all picture is encouraging. Results are beginning to show.

First, and possibly most important, is the slackening of fighting, resulting in a great drop in the number of casualties on both sides. This policy is likely to continue as long as the talks are in progress, because, as Gen. James A. Van Fleet told correspondents: "We will not sacrifice our men needlessly. What is the use of thousands of casualties if it is questionable what good they would do?"

Second, the United States and its allies have a general idea, although somewhat inaccurate, of the number of fighting men held by the Communists in their prisoner-of-war camps. United Nations negotiators, however, are still pressing for a full accounting of more than 50,000 unlisted Allied prisoners. The U.S. has asked specifically what has become of 1,059 Americans not on the official Red prisoner-of-war list.

How soon a final agreement can be reached in the talks is anyone's guess, but distrust on the part of both sides will not hasten it. As an example, the Reds charge the lack of agreement due to "extraordinary antics . . . colossal bungling, criminal negligence, and master-race arrogance" by the Americans.

On the other hand, the Allies charge the "Communists have run true to form . . . With few exceptions the talks have been marked by the familiar Red pattern of delay, deceit, and diversionary tactics."

PRICE CUTS—Retail and small town families, by far the largest group of mail order patrons in the country, are wondering if the announced price cuts on thousands of items by the firms located in Chicago is an indication of things to come during 1952.

Midwinter sales catalogues of the four biggest mail order houses in the business list lower prices on thousands of items. It is the biggest cut in years.

One firm cut the price on an 11-cubic-foot refrigerator from $282.73 to $212.75, a 25 per cent mark down on men's shirts, and price reductions ranging from 60 cents to $2.20 on shoes from last fall's levels. The firm also listed 400 price cuts on both wood and metal furniture.

SALES SAG—The Securities and Exchange Commission, and the Federal Trade Commission, in a report of business conditions during the last quarter of 1951, said sales in the nation dropped under the previous quarter's level for the first time since 1949. The report also said the profit sag, which began at the end of 1950, continued with manufacturers returns amounting to 10 per cent before taxes and 23 per cent after taxes. Sales fell off $2,000,000,000 during the period.

Only four of the 22 industries covered in the report recorded an increase of profits before taxes in the third quarter of last year. They were petroleum, food, tobacco, and apparel and finished textiles.

The commissions did not attempt to interpret the general decline in business. It was obvious, however, that decline was due to a consumer buying fall that started early in 1950, sharp increases in defense taxes, shortages of materials and controls on scarce metals. Most observers believe the trend can be expected to continue during the early part of this year.

THE OLD SOCK—According to Secretary of Commerce Sawyer the average citizen in the home towns of the nation are putting more and more of their money in the old sock and keeping it there. He says savings are greater now than at any time in the last five years.

Sawyer is all for this saving spree of Americans—amounting to an annual rate of $22,000,000,000—because he believes it has helped turn the tide against rampant inflation. He warned, however, that if Americans spend these savings in a new wave of buying, inflationary pressures will surge up again.

Personal incomes rose from $225,000,000,000 in 1950 to $291,000,000,000 in 1951. Now, in the early days of 1952, the rate is about $250,000,000,000.

GOP CIRCUS—The race of Republicans to secure the GOP presidential nomination is taking on the atmosphere of a circus—so many are joining the show that spectators are going to miss some of the acts. The latest is Harold E. Stassen. Already active are Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio and Gov. Earl Warren of California. Remaining to join the big show is Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, considered by many the white hope of the Republican party.

The other candidates had this to say of Stassen's announcement: "Every American has a right to run for President and it's well that the Republicans should have a wide choice."—Taft. "His (Stassen's) candidacy should stimulate discussion of national issues and he will undoubtedly be an important factor in the Republican convention."—Warren.

THE SUMMARY—Secretary of State Dean Acheson, whose popularity with the American people has increased since the Japanese peace conference in San Francisco, recently summed up the American foreign policy for 1951. Dividing the global picture into four sections, he had this to say:

Europe and the North Atlantic—The year 1951 was a period of progress and growth . . . The North Atlantic Treaty organization's military command has gone forward . . . The important decisions that must be made early in 1952 have to do with the quantity and quality of European military forces, German participation in the defense of Europe, and creation of a European defense community and a European army.

The Near and Middle East—We lost some ground. The Suez waterway and Iranian oil crises offer dangerous opportunities for exploitation by the Kremlin. On the other hand, Greece and Turkey are bright spots.

The Far East—In Korea, the UN must guard against a renewal of Communist treachery, even if an armistice is signed.

The Pacific—The past year was one in which progress was made toward building a structure of peace through a series of treaties with Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, and Japan.

Officers at the Army post office in Tokyo are pictured as they started sorting some 800 letters from Red held Allied prisoners-of-war in Korea to their families. The letters were flown to the United States and then sent to families in all parts of the nation by airmail-special delivery.

GLORIOUS GLOSTERS . . . Survivors of Gloucester regiment arrive home. They won fame at Imjin.

NEW WHITE HOUSE AIDE . . . David E. Bell, Palo Alto, Calif., was appointed administrative assistant to President Truman recently. The President is currently working on his committee to clean out fraud in Washington and silence criticism.

BURIED SON'S NAME ON PRISONER LIST . . . The parents of a Kansas City, Kansas, soldier, whose body they supposedly buried last summer were overjoyed when they read that his name was on a prisoner of war list submitted by the Communist Chinese command in Korea during the exchange-of-prisoner talks with the U.N. command. Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Smith are shown with their daughter, Mary Ann, 10, as they read the good news concerning their son, Pvt. James W. Smith, 19. President Truman has warned that the Reds' prisoner lists could not be trusted as being absolutely accurate, so the Smiths can only hope.

LUXURY LINER STANDS BY SHIP IN DISTRESS . . . This photo made at sea from the French luxury liner Ile De France, which docked in New York recently, shows the British freighter Chiswick wallowing in the heavy seas during the mid-Atlantic gales that delayed all New York liners with high swells. The Ile De France, the boat davits of which are in the foreground, stood by the Chiswick for 11 hours, ready to take off the straining freighter's crew of 45 and save them from the angry waters. With the abatement of the gale, the Chiswick rode easier and the skipper decided he could make it to port.

FROZEN SMOKE? . . . When the thermometer dropped to 10 degrees below zero recently, shivering Milwaukee, Wisc., citizens would have sworn the above scene depicted a column of smoke solidified in the frigid air as it attempted to rise from the chimney of a local residence. Actually this "smoke" was caused by the engine fumes of a high-flying plane passing over, as so says the news service photographer who made the picture for us. It is one of those camera illusions that make picture snapping interesting.

WINTER MERMAID . . . Next time you call some one "bird brain" you might remember that birds have sense enough in winter to seek a climate where attire like this predominates over heavy coats. She is Barbara Lockhart in Las Vegas, Nev.

VOTES AGAINST SELF . . . Uruguay President Dr. Andres Borda casts ballot in election to abolish presidency and substitute for it a nine-man council. The constitutional change was approved by a majority of about 23,000 votes.

HEART IN NEWS AGAIN . . . Richard D. Russell, Los Angeles, and fiancée, Gloria Spires, walk in hospital hall. He is the man whose delicate heart operation was viewed by doctors coast to coast on T.V. But it belongs only to Gloria now, instead of the doctors.

ORDERED TO SAVE . . . Superior Judge Frank Swain, Hollywood, ordered actress Diane Casady to invest 10 per cent of her salary in savings bonds after she argued she was having difficulty living on $200 per week and paying back debts from her income.

Spitzbergen Coal Mined By Russians

The coldest crossroads of the cold war are Norway's jagged Spitzbergen islands, where polar bears nose inquisitively into the only mining settlements operated by Soviet Russia on the free side of the Iron Curtain.

Svalbard — "the land of the cold coast" — is the ancient Norse name for this Arctic archipelago which became part of the Kingdom of Norway a quarter of a century ago.

Once an international no man's land, Svalbard has recently become a strategic question mark. It straddles potential polar air routes between Europe and North America. But under a 1920 treaty, the islands cannot be fortified, and signing nations (United States, Great Britain and its Dominions, France, Italy, Japan, the Netherlands, Denmark, Sweden, and Russia) are guaranteed continued access to any economic interests they might hold there.

Today both Norway and Russia mine Spitzbergen coal. Norway is a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization; Russia is not. Svalbard's status is somewhere between.

Proper Storage Space Insures Neatness, Orderliness

By Erita Haley

DOES picking up your house before cleaning consume more time than the actual effort to scrub and polish? If you must say "yes" to this question, then you're probably not making proper use of space for storage.

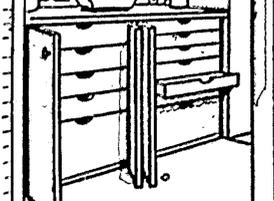

Adding storage space to your home does not involve putting in an extra room, or making a basement or attic, or any such major work. It's making good use of space you already have, and much of this can be done with simple carpentry.

"A place for everything" is becoming one of the most important phases of building and homemaking. When you have a place for everything, this means that with everything in place, you have not only neatness and orderliness, but with little effort.

When you have to shift things from crowded drawers and shelves constantly or try to put stacks of things somewhere, out of the way, it may mean that you are accumulating too many things. However, it may also mean that you simply do not have adequate storage facilities for your possessions.

Check yourself on some of the common household problems: where does luggage go? What happens to extra bedding? Where do you put your keys? Are extra dishes in the way? Can you find pots and pans and other cooking utensils easily?

If your home does not now provide easy answers to the above as well as any others of which you can think, start solving the problem with proper storage. Many of the above difficulties can be answered with very simple filing and little work; other problems can be resolved with only slightly more work.

Use Built-ins For Storage

Look around your home and see how much empty, unused wall space you have. Then look around at all the things you would like to put away. Put the two together and you come up with built-ins.

Cupboards as well as all sorts of devices can be installed into most of your rooms at little expense and at great saving to not only your possessions but to your disposition as well. Add to this the great saving in actual housekeeping and you have come to see what a small investment can do.

But just how does one go about deciding where and what the built-ins should be? This must be planned for the uses and needs each home has, but some illustrations may offer help.

For example, if linen storage is your main problem, check the walls of your bedroom and see if they're being fully used. Or, what about a hall that joins two bedrooms or is at the entrance of a bedroom?

Many of these walls can take several rows of shallow chests without crowding the room. If the room is larger, deeper chests can be used. These may be waist high or even higher depending upon how much space you need, as well as what will look right in the room in relation to its proportions and furnishings.

If you have to save space, there are many ways in which to do it. For example, do not have knobs on the chests for the drawers. These take several inches. Cutouts at the drawer fronts eliminate knobs and make them smaller and neater. Thus, they can really be blended into the wall as though they were actually built in when the house was constructed.

For cupboard storage cases.

How to Use Unused Space for Storage

Frequently you'll find that windows which do not come all the way to the floor, and most of them don't, leave wall space that can be pressed into storage cases. If you have such a space in the bedroom, and the bed or beds are set against this particular wall, place the cases right in back of the bed.

Storage cases can be low, out as long as they come to the floor and run all the way across the wall, there will be much space provided. Use these for blankets, pillows, linens or seasonal items. In children's rooms, these types of cases are excellent for putting away toys.

Tops of the cases can be used for radios, books and clocks. If desired, potted plants or interesting collections of various hobbies can be displayed on them.

No place for shoes in the bedroom, or not enough room? If you have wall space above a heating vent, convert this into a small shoe closet. This can be done by slanting boards on which the shoes are placed, with horizontal molding strips attached to the boards to act as heel catchers holding the shoes to the tilted shelves.

Do you have a kitchen and breakfast nook built together? It's not only smart looking but also space providing to construct a narrow counter between the two units. The counter itself may be used to hold serving items as well as food.

Create Orderliness in the Kitchen

Cupboards are natural furnishings to the kitchen, but there are still a great many kitchens with bare wall space that could be put to excellent use. Cupboards can and should surround all the main working centers to house all needed tools.

Not only is cupboard space essential, but when organized like a file, it will increase in usefulness. Cupboards surrounding the range or cooking area can be shaped to hold pots and pans of all sizes, so that you can pick the one you want without extracting it from a nest of pans.

Shaped partitions, often made of plywood, can be used for storing lids as well as shallow pans, trays and large platters. To be most efficient, make the partitions removable so they can be taken out for easy cleaning, as well as for changing the sizes of the particular "files" to take care of other pieces.

Drawers near the kitchen sink can also be made sectional so that utensils like forks and knives, mixing spoons, spatulas and pancake turners are not jumbled together in the drawer. Slotted holders, placed in the drawers are excellent for knives, particularly, because they protect the cutting edge of the knife.

Select Furniture For Storage Value

While you try to stretch wall space to cover storage needs, don't forget that furniture can help you in the same way. Much of the new furniture being made available is not only decorative, but it also has a great many storage features.

In selecting an occasional table, do not just expect the top to be of use. See that its base is a cabinet or a shelf or two which can be used for sewing boxes, magazines or books.

KATHLEEN NORRIS

This Girl Too Self-Righteous

"THREE YEARS AGO," writes Gerald Fletcher, from Springfield, Mass., "I met the girl of my dreams. The woman rather, for Isabelle is 23; I am 32. From the beginning a feeling sprang up between us, not only of love—and that was almost at first sight, but of an immense liking, a congeniality, a union of likes and dislikes. Our work brought us much together, Isabelle conducting a department for girls in the big institution of which I am assistant director. These first months of our friendship were the happiest of my life; I am a veteran, not much handicapped by an artificial knee, and have been deeply absorbed in a scientific work which I hope to have published a few years from now.

Happy Engagement "Our engagement was an absolutely happy time, when I went to my girl's Massachusetts home, met her delightful family, and was warmly made welcome. The engagement was then announced and our plans made for a wedding last June. It was some weeks after that that Isabelle quite suddenly asked me if I had ever had any serious love affairs with other women; she said she must know everything, and that then whatever it was it should be forgotten and forgiven. She said that she had a horror of the immorality now sold to be so prevalent among adolescents, but that she could not remain in the dark about my past.

"I was hurt by her attitude, and told her that it could only disturb her to dig up the past, but she became agitated, and I saw that she had quite honestly thought I had nothing to tell. We had several distressing scenes, after which I told has experienced a complete change of heart, she is sorry, she says she knows that men's lives are different from those of women, and that since poor little Rosy was killed in the war, I cannot restore my honor, as she puts it, by finding her and making her my wife. Isabelle's letter goes on to say that she is sure a few honest talks will set matters right and restore our old feeling for each other, but she ends with the warning that she must know everything now, and not expect any more shocks and surprises.

My dear Gerald, I say in answer, your letter leaves me no choice. Perhaps you have done Isabelle an injustice, although it does not seem so. But self-righteousness is a detestable thing, and anyone who thinks she has a right to question another about his past, his young mistakes, his natural emotions, will make a difficult wife. The smug serenity with which Isabelle proposes to probe into your soul, presently extending to you her benign forgiveness, indicates that you would always be to her a weak brother, to be helped and guided to her own heights of perfection. Just because a woman does not yield to early sex impulses doesn't mean that she hasn't equally serious faults.

Happy Engagement

"I was hurt by her attitude, and told her that it could only disturb her to dig up the past, but she became agitated, and I saw that she had quite honestly thought I had nothing to tell. We had several distressing scenes, after which I told

Fashion Trends Varied in 1951

Poodle Hair-Do Was Year's Style Oddity

The past 12 months was the year in fashion when:

Skirts became full again, and then blossomed fuller than ever before. The fuller the skirt, the tider the bodice and waist.

The poodle gave the "all" to fashion; poodle cloth and the poodle hairdo fixed everybody up.

Fabric stole the fashion headlines: pure silk of the "stand alone" variety was a must in every smart wardrobe; wools took on wondrous new thick and downy textures; Tweed became a city-dweller.

The "poor look" in accessories balanced the richness of fabrics. Some designers called it "the shrug shoulder."

The fitted coat stepped to the front of the fashion stage. Women's minds remained happily changeable as always; hats were almost nosed out of the picture by the little colour veil, then got bigger, slantier, be-jeweled, and more glamorous than ever. Everybody loved long hair with bangs, then suddenly clipped down to a wind-blown or poodle bob. The stay-at-home dress became as important a fashion as the party dress. Girls got out their eyebrow pencils and tried to look like doe-eyed Cupidettes, but most gave it up and decided to stay natural.

The skirt length wavered upward, then downward, finally decided to stay where it was—at YOUR most becoming length.

Spain was a strong fashion influence and the early Nineteenth Century Empire and Restoration Periods guided us to higher waistlines and bigger sleeves.

What went underneath caused almost more talk than what you wore outside: we had petticoat fever in a big way. We went mad for nylon nighties, we demanded crinolines and petticoats and silk brocade linings to our suit skirts.

...from Isabelle...

her a true story of the one or two episodes of my first college year, and of a genuine attachment I had to a nurse, out in the South Pacific, a heroic, gentle girl who died of an infection from a shrapnel cut.

"Isabelle immediately broke our engagement, wrote her mother that I was not the sort of man that she could ever respect, or that she could wish to have as the father of her children. She returned my letters, the beautiful ring that my father had given my mother when they were engaged.

A Little Anger Pride and a little anger helped me through this shock and change in my life; I could arrange things so that Isabelle and I did not often meet, and as the months went by I became attached through loneliness, I suppose, for I never had noticed her before—to my landlady's daughter, a very quiet girl, whose fiancé was killed in 1942, and who is a librarian. I have not led her to think I care for her, but some months ago she betrayed that she has come to like me.

"Now for the problem. This morning, while I was reading your article, a letter came from Isabelle. She

Illinois and Iowa Kiwanians Planning $75,000 Program

CHICAGO—A unique $75,000, five-year research program on the "forgotten child," the victim of spastic paralysis, has been undertaken by the Illinois and Eastern Iowa district of Kiwanis International.

The program, as announced by Harry S. Himmel of Chicago, chairman of the district's spastic child committee, was approved at a recent meeting of the trustees of the district in the Edgewater Beach Hotel and presented to a leader training conference of presidents and secretaries of local Kiwanis Clubs.

The money will be raised at the rate of $15,000 a year by voluntary contributions from the more than 10,000 members in 171 clubs in Illinois and eastern Iowa, Himmel said.

It will be used to maintain a specially trained physician at one of the medical schools in the Chicago area to devote his full time and energy to research into the cause, prevention and treatment of spastic paralysis. No action will be taken, either to seek the physician or to make a contract with the medical school and hospitals involved, until the entire sum is pledged, Himmel said.

The program is the culmination of a ten-year interest on the part of the Illinois-Iowa district of Kiwanis in spastic paralysis. It was developed by a committee headed by Himmel and including: E. J. Ballweg of Edwardsville, Bryant E. Hodley of Springfield, Dr. H. I. Conn of Newman, Ill., Dr. C. Paul White of Keosauqua, president of the Illinois State Medical Society; Dr. Harry A. Keiser and Dr. Frank P. Hammond of Chicago. Many specialists in the spastic field were consulted.

When the funds are pledged, Himmel said, the district will set up a Foundation for Research for Spastic Paralysis to carry out the program.

It is estimated that 300 to 500 spastic children are born in Illinois and eastern Iowa each year. About half of them recover spontaneously, while another group improves with care, but there is a substantial number which remains seriously handicapped.

Quar Duck, Third Reported, Turns Up In Rhode Island

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—It was undetermined whether he was a vacationist or political refugee, but Roland C. Clement, Executive Director of the Audubon Society of Rhode Island announced that a European duck was found off the shores of the state.

The bird, a ruddy sheld-duck, is native to Eastern Europe and Asia. It is a rarity in the United States, only two previous specimens having been recorded. One was found in North Carolina, the other in New Jersey.

The duck was shot by a hunter at Brock Island, 14 miles off shore.

Key Substances in Diet Affect Healing of Wounds

CHICAGO — Wounds heal faster when certain key substances are present in the diet, Dr. Martin B. Williamson, associate professor of biochemistry in the Loyola University School of Medicine, told the American Chemical Society's Chicago Section at an all-day chemical conference.

Although war wounds, accidental injuries, and surgical incisions are matters of everyday occurrence—and have been throughout history—little is known of the basic aspects of wound healing, Dr. Williamson declared.

Periodic measurements of the strength of tissue in healing wounds under conditions of controlled diet have shown that sulfur compounds in food are necessary for healing at a maximum rate, Dr. Williamson reported. The compounds are sulfur amino acids, which occur in the proteins of eggs, milk, wheat, corn and some other foods, he said.

The "healing index"—a number which expresses the rate of healing as measured in Dr. Williamson's research—was much greater on high protein diets than on low protein diets in tests conducted on experimental animals. The obvious explanation is that the protein is necessary for the rebuilding of the wounded area.

Flying Leathernecks Land To 'Cry of the Wild Goose'

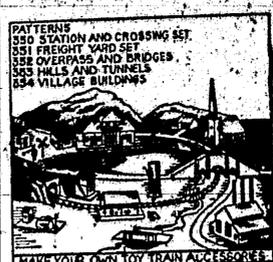

WITH THE FIRST MARINE AIRCRAFT WING IN KOREA—New arrivals to this station are a bit startled, and hurriedly scan the skies the first time they hear the cry of the "wild goose."

This is not a natural phenomenon, just the newest innovation to be used by Flying Leathernecks of the Korea Courier, a section of RAD transport aircraft attached to the First Marine Aircraft Wing.

The "goose" horn, a Japanese bulb horn, was introduced to take the place of a lot of unnecessary voice transmission.

On approaching the field, the pilot presses his microphone switch and gives a blast on the horn. One blast requests landing instruction. Two blasts signifies the wheels and flaps are down. On the final approach the goose gives out with three blasts.

The East-West Struggle Places Europeans in Political Quandary

By FARNHAM F. DUDGEON Editor, WNU

Second in a Series
Europeans today are having an extremely difficult time trying to face in two opposite directions at the same time. There is, of course, the ever present Soviet threat of military invasion.

Europe is Concerned
But, as the United States enters into a crucial election year in which the fate of European military and economic aid will be determined in congressional debate in next November's election, these people are extremely concerned with political events in the United States.

American taxpayers can feel fairly sure, on one important aspect of this situation. Their representatives from both houses of Congress have poured into Europe, in good numbers to observe first-hand the political and military situation as it exists.

When the great debates start, both in the halls of Congress and on the campaign platforms of America's home towns, there will be a store of first-hand observations, which will enable the American voters to ask direct questions and be reasonably sure of getting well-founded replies with regard to the stake we have in Europe.

Both American officials and the officials of other countries told us that these congressmen and senators, who visited them, took a good look and should be able to present a clear picture. We noticed that both political parties were well represented in these congressional inspection teams.

No Backing Down
If economic and military aid from the United States were to be withdrawn, or seriously curtailed, it would be difficult to speculate on the outcome of such action. These countries certainly would not immediately back down, or "go over to the other side".

Countries like Turkey, Greece and Yugoslavia have no choice but to stand as firmly as they can against the Soviet Union. In Turkey we were told, for example, that the world would not be in such a sorry state today if other countries had taken as firm a position against Russia as have the Turks.

In Yugoslavia there is great concern on the part of many observers, as to whether or not the people of the United States are completely convinced that the Tito defection from the Kremlin has been complete and unqualified. Our representatives in Europe voice the general opinion that Yugoslavia has, indeed, cast her lot with the West.

In countries like Italy and France there are thousands of people who still vote as "Communists". However, the general appraisal of these voters by American officials seems to be that only a small percentage are real "hard-core" Communists. They ally themselves with Communists as a protest against the other political parties which currently govern these nations.

If the cold war turned to a hot one, these people would undoubtedly fight against the Russian Communists. There would be some local sabotage, of course, but the majority would support the west.

A subject of continuing speculation by thinking men in Europe today is this problem of the "will to fight". Europe is tired. Its economy has been shattered by almost unending wars through the first half of this century. Its people bear physical and moral scars of these conflicts.

Truman and Cohorts Leading America into Morass

By Wright A. Patterson
AS WAS THE CASE in the last English election, when the socialist Atlee was voted out and the Conservative Churchill was voted in, the one issue, the only issue, was socialism. The English people were asked to pass judgement on the results of the socialistic experiment.

So in our presidential election of next November the one issue will be socialism for America. The American people will have the opportunity of saying whether or not they want to continue the socialistically inclined Truman and his fair deal cohorts in office, or whether they want a decided turn to the right.

The proponents of socialism may not express the issue as definitely as that, but the voters should not be fooled by any such phrase as "welfare state", that is but socialism of the brand England has repudiated. And we will follow the same road that has broken England, darkened its factory chimneys, blighted its fields, and left England a fourth rate nation; despite the 23 billions of American money Washington poured into that socialistic rabble.

Socialists are the park-sitters of the nation, those who are asking something for nothing, who wish to eat, without doing their share in production.

The fair dealers would have America bogged down in that same morass in which England is now trapped.

THE OVER THE COUNTER CORNER

THE OVER THE COUNTER CORNER

By Richard Hill Wilkinson
DALA WAS thinking of Bill when the young man with the mustache leaned over her counter. Kate Holland had said that she had seen Bill and Robb Ellsworth dancing at Sutton's. Kate was a gossip, but Bill had certainly been acting strangely of late.

3-Minute Fiction
Scott, aren't you?" the young man said.

Dala glanced up at him and then gave her attention to her switchboard. "Empire Hotel," she said into the receiver. "Mr. Hicker? Just a moment, please." She plugged in. "You must be psychic," she said to the young man. "Or did you inquire of one of the bellboys?" The young man looked surprised. "Neither. The clerk told me."

"And now you're going to tell me, I suppose, that you just bought this hotel and unless I go out to dinner with you tonight, I'm fired?" "You're quick," said the young man.

"I'm a good line, mister, but I can't like traveling salesman. Besides, I'm busy—Empire Hotel!" When she looked up again the young man had gone. She was a little surprised. Usually they didn't give up so easily.

The telephone was ringing when she turned the key in her apartment door at 8:10 that evening. It was Bill, of course. "Hello," she said, trying to force casualness into her tone.

"Remember me?" said a voice. "I'm the man who bought the hotel."

"Like a bad penny," Dala said. "Or didn't you understand me?"

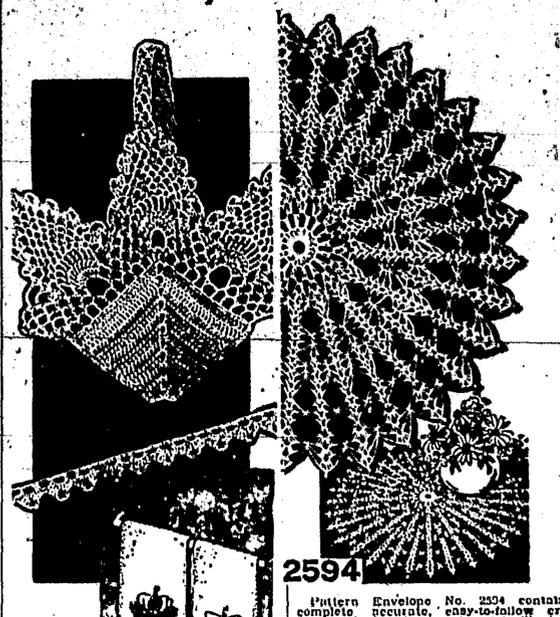

DALA was returning from lunch when she ran into Bill. He was in a hurry. Or said he was. He only stepped for a minute.

The realization made her kind of sick at heart. No matter whether you loved a man or not, it was something of a blow to find out he was two-timing you.

She jumped when the young man with the mustache spoke into her ear. "I die hard," he grinned. "There's still tonight. And I promise to be good."

Dala looked at him and thought of Bill. "All right," she sighed resignedly.

Try this Budget Saver with CLABBER GIRL

Here is a budget-saver especially popular with teen-agers... economical, too, since one "frank" is sufficient for a serving... built-in seasonings—mustard and butter or margarine—with meat juices held within the "blanket" make them extra delicious... so easy to make with Clabber Girl.

"Thanks a heap," said Dala. "I'll remember you in my prayers."

"Just called to assure you that your job is safe," the voice told her cheerfully.

"Thanks a heap," said Dala. "I'll remember you in my prayers." She hung up.

Bill didn't call that night. No one did. Dala spent a lonesome evening. She was almost glad the next day when the young man with the mustache appeared.

"By the way," he grinned. "You're supposed to give out information, aren't you?" She admitted it by nodding, at the same time dropping her usual "Empire Hotel" into the mouthpiece. "Then what's your name?" he asked.

She swung around to face him, but somehow decided against the retort that rose to her lips. "It's Dala," she said. "But calling me Dala won't help."

Thanks. Mine's Johnny."

DALA was returning from lunch when she ran into Bill. He was in a hurry. Or said he was. He only stepped for a minute.

The realization made her kind of sick at heart. No matter whether you loved a man or not, it was something of a blow to find out he was two-timing you.

About Face

Lesson for January 24, 1952

TAX collectors and customs officers in these days are highly respectable men. They are not (officially) popular; but every one knows they are necessary. What they collect is fixed by law, and they get no commission on their collections. They live on a salary also fixed by law. If any one feels "gouged" by taxes he never accuses the collector, the fault is somewhere else.

Now in Palestine, in the time of Christ, it was different. Throughout the gospels the name "publican" or, as translated in present-day English, "tax-collector", is evidently a name for a mean man. Jesus himself used publicans as examples of the lowest level of society. The reason was this: In the Roman system of tax collection, the privilege of levying taxes in a given district was "farmed out", that is to say, offered at auction. The highest bidder was given the franchise, and then he, or men he hired, would proceed to collect all the traffic would bear.

Palestine at that time was under the Romans, and the Jews had the army of occupation with them year after year. What the tax collectors did was to turn over to the Romans what the Romans wanted, and everything over and above that amount went into the collector's strong-box.

A Christian's Job

ONE day Jesus just said "follow me" to one of these men, named Matthew, and the man got up and followed him. So far as we know, he never set foot in his office again. Very likely, as a great preacher has suggested, this was not the first time Matthew had seen Jesus. Possibly they had had conversations before, out of business hours. The preacher goes on to suggest that Matthew may have come to loathe his job, but never have seen just how he could leave it.

Be that as it may, Matthew understood quite well that he could not be both a publican and a follower of Jesus. This raises a question: Are there occupations today which a true Christian cannot follow without sin?

There was a dope peddler one night sitting on a stone wall outside a New England church. Somehow the Spirit of God blessed the singing that night, for one of the hymns sang its way straight into that man's heart, and that very hour he threw his packet of dope away and became a Christian. He never went back to that business. We can all see that he was right; but are there other businesses also that cannot have the blessing of Christ upon them?

Whom Do You Follow?

THE story of Matthew suggests also that every one is some kind of follower. Some people just "follow their noses", that is, they just keep on in the routine of their lives, doing today what they did yesterday just because they have the habit of living in this way. Others follow an ambition, others a desire for revenge, others follow pleasure, others attach themselves to a leader (political, social or what not) and follow somebody else's band-wagon.

The tragedy of the Christian church is that although every Christian, or rather every church member, has solemnly promised to follow Jesus Christ, they don't all follow him, by any means. They go right on following habit, or pleasure, or ambition, and they do not ask (as Matthew must have asked) whether these things are such as Christ can bless, or not.

In spite of Jesus' plain statement: You cannot serve God and Mammon (the god of money), people go right on serving Mammon in spite of their Christian profession.

About Face!

THE word "conversion" means simply "turning around". It means turning all the way around. When the sergeant says "About Face!" it won't do for the rookie to twist his face around, or to turn one foot. It's all the way or nothing!

Yet when Jesus our Commanding Officer gives the command "About Face!" how many Christians barely move a muscle!

The church is too well led with half-converted people. They are turned around enough to go to church; but the rest of the week they are headed just the same way the world is headed. What we need is more Matthews, converted 100 per cent.

Barbara Armstrong was released from the hospital in Fort Stanton this week. We are all glad to see Barbara back again. She hopes to go to Oklahoma soon to bring little Dean back home. He has been staying with his paternal grandparents during Barbara's illness.

Mrs. Jeff Doctray entered the hospital this week. We certainly hope she won't be ill and in the hospital as long as Barbara was. Mrs. Fronie Ramey is greatly improved. She has to go back to El Paso for a checkup in about two weeks.

Little Barbara McGrew had to spend her weekend in the Carrizozo hospital with a bad cold. Mrs. Helen Meeks of Baca Canyon is still in Alamogordo visiting her daughter and son-in-law.

Mrs. Henry Rogers and son, Will, rode in from Baca Canyon Saturday. It's just like spring — makes everyone want to get out in the open.

CORONA

By MRS. A. E. MULKEY

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lee and son, J. D., of Tucumcari, were visitors in Corona last weekend. The Lees are former residents of Corona.

Announcement of the marriage of Mary Jo Philbert and Herbert Stokler, both of Anderson, Ind., has been received. Mary Jo will be remembered as the daughter of "Whitey" Philbert, one-time athletic director in the Corona schools.

Corona Cardinals lost two games to Estancia last Friday, and won two from Escobedo Saturday night.

The Corona senior class play, "Not in a Thousand Years," will be presented this Saturday night, Jan. 19, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Huston Pentz of Tucumcari, former residents of Corona, were recently very unfortunate when their new $8,000 home, nearing completion in Tucumcari, burned to the ground, a total loss. They had no insurance.

Mr. and Mrs. David Campbell and children of California arrived in Corona with their trailer house this week. The children have started to school, and Mr. Campbell is helping Roy Jeters drill a well. The Campbells are former residents of Cedarvale and Corona.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt Minor and sons of Albuquerque have moved their trailer house to Corona. Mr. Minor will help with the road construction. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Minor of Corona. The fencing of the new 10-mile strip of Highway 54 between Corona and Duran is almost completed, and the road construction crews are moving in next week.

Miss Betty Ann Bond, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Demmitt Bond, celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary Monday, Jan. 14, with a slumber party. The following friends were invited: Jo Etta Sultemeler, Patsy Sharp, Maudine Bledsoe, Betty Burns and Barbara Leigh Benyon. Betty Ann found a note under her cake which stated she was to search for the six girls, led to another note, and another, and finally to a black and white Shetland pony. The girls all had a ride on the pony, played games, etc., and Mrs. Bond found it difficult to get them to bed and to sleep. However, they were all up and ready for the school bus Tuesday morning.

The Corona Federation Woman's Club met Thursday, Jan. 10, for their regular meeting. Dr. M. A. Elsteln, M. D., district health officer, and Mrs. Ailje Burgard-ner, public health nurse, were present, spending the afternoon and evening in Corona visiting. Dr. Elsteln gave a talk to a large audience on "How to Make a Success of Yourself." He also spoke briefly on the Holy Land which he visited recently. Misses Patsy Bagley and Louella Mays gave a piano duet entitled, "The Charge of the Uihams." Mrs. Marie Nation and Miss Martha Kerr were hostesses serving delicious refreshments. At the next meeting, Feb. 14, Mrs. Ruth Knight will give a book review. Everyone welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Miles of Alamogordo were visiting Mrs. Miles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Minor, first of this week. Mrs. Miles is the former Miss Imogene

Hagerman Makes First Livestock Show Entry

Ernest Smith, Hagerman, is recorded as the first official on try in the 1952 Southwestern Livestock Show at El Paso Feb. 10-16. A member of the Hagerman Senior 4-H Club, Smith's entry is two Hereford calves.

More than 300 premium books have been mailed, county agents and vocational agricultural instructors throughout the El Paso area. To date, 42 agents have sent requests for some 600 entry blanks, indicating this year's show will be the largest ever recorded. Lone Wolf, Okla., has also requested an entry blank, the first time a state other than Texas and New Mexico has sent entries to the El Paso show. The exhibition is limited to junior competition with animals in swine, sheep and calf divisions scheduled to be shown.

Added attractions this year are special palomino and quarter horse halter classes. Eleven hundred bulletins on the horse premium list have been mailed throughout the territory.

The livestock show is held in conjunction with El Paso's annual Southwestern Champion ship Rodeo Feb. 13-17, which draws top rodeo performers from all over the nation. Competition will include regular bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, bull riding, steer wrestling and calf roping divisions, plus an added event—a scrambling wild horse race. The rodeo will also feature a bevy of special acts designed to keep the show moving at a fast clip.

Numbers On License Plates Identify County

If you've ever glanced at prefix numbers on motor vehicle license plates and wondered what counties they represented, the following list will be of interest to you:

Santa Fe 1, Bernalillo 2, Eddy 3, Chavez 4, Curry 5, Lea 6, Dona Ana 7, Grant 8, Colfax 9, Quay 10, Roosevelt 11, San Miguel 12, McKinley 13, Valencia 14, Otero 15, San Juan 16, Rio Arriba 17, Union 18, Luna 19, Taos 20, Siera 21, Torrance 22, Hidalgo 23, Guadalupe 24, Socorro 25, Lincoln 26, DeBaca 27, Catron 28, Sandoval 29, Mora 30, Harding 31 and Los Alamos 32.

The prefix numbers are based on the number of motor vehicle registrations in the counties, but Santa Fe has always carried the prefix number one since it is the seat of state government, and Los Alamos is at the bottom of the list because it is the newest county. The new red and white license plates for 1952 will carry the same prefix numbers for the various counties as in 1951.

Former White Oaks Couple Wed 50 Years

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Owen, Roswell, observed their golden wedding anniversary on Dec. 31 with a reception held at the family home. The parents of both Mr. and Mrs. Owen also celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary.

All 11 of the couple's children, as well as 21 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren attended the event in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Owen.

The Owens were married in White Oaks Dec. 31, 1901, moving to Roswell shortly afterwards where they lived during practically the entire period of their marriage.

Home for the occasion of their parents' anniversary observance were Mesdames Margaret Liston, Georgia Gilliland, Myrtle Phillips, Jewel Sterman, Faye Groesch and Mesars. Francis, Omer, Lillard, Lloyd and Ray Owen.

Antelope Trapping Scheduled This Month

State Game Department officials announced that antelope trapping is scheduled to start in Lincoln County this month. Centering in Lincoln and Chaves counties, some 300 head of antelope will be trapped and transplanted. Depending upon weather conditions, the crew plans to spend from 60 to 90 days in the field. The animals taken will be used to supplement numerous small established herds and to establish new herds in various areas over the state.

Officials also announced the long delayed Organ Mountain special deer hunt will open at sunrise January 18 and continue until sunset Jan. 21. Half of the 300 permit holders will hunt the first two days of the season and the other 150 will have the remaining two days. Hunting hours are from sunrise to sunset.

Inductees

Lincoln County men who leave Jan. 23 for induction into the armed services are Rudolfo J. Padilla, Jake M. Herrera, Leandro M. Vega and Albert S. Vega, all of Carrizozo; Bert C. Weatherby, Ruidoso; Ernest W. Purcella, Captain; Andy K. Anderson, Green Tree, and Ted L. Zumwalt, Nogal.

Guests Of Hadleys

The household of the Bill Hadleys was a crowded one this Yuletide season. For Christmas, they entertained their son, Seaman Alfred Hadley, who is stationed at San Diego; their daughter, Carol Hadley, who is attending Druid Hills High School in Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Hadley's two sisters, Mrs. Lu Hayes of Albuquerque and Mrs. Max Potter and Mr. Potter of Casa Grande, Ariz. Other guests included Seaman David Wilkins of Albuquerque, with the Atlantic fleet; and Messrs. David Reynolds and R. J. Raney, both students at the University of New Mexico at Albuquerque. Mrs. Hadley reported another group of Albuquerque friends were here for the New Year's holiday. The Hadleys' daughter left Dec. 29 for Atlanta, and their son reported back to his station Jan. 6.

Layers on U. S. farms Jan. 1 are expected to total 441,000,000, 3 per cent more than the Jan. 1, 1951, total. Numbers of young chickens raised is expected to go up 2 per cent to 716,000,000, compared with 702,000,000 this year.

Hereditary Dwarfism Serious Cattle Malady

By AUSTIN A. ALBERT
Cattlemen are aware of the many "freaks of nature" or abnormal calves that are dropped from time to time. A great number are a result of inherited characteristics.

Recently, however, a new abnormality has become prominent in the United States, causing serious losses among registered cattle and promising considerable trouble in commercial herds. This inherited abnormality results in dwarf calves, with losses as high as 80 per cent in some herds. These dwarfs are thought to be counterparts of cretinous dwarfs in humans and result from a deficiency of thyrotropic hormone.

Most dwarfs die within a few months, though some live a reasonably long time. They are virtually worthless, even as veal, being abnormally short-legged with a bulldog shaped head. They are not belted with labored or "panting" breathing and a pronounced tendency to bloat. Although most often observed in Herefords, dwarfs occur in all major breeds.

The high incidence of dwarfism is thought to result from selection of normal appearing carrier animals which have a desirable conformation characteristics. They have often better conformation, especially of the head, than normal non-carriers. About one-fourth of the calves from normal appearing "carrier" parents may be expected to be abnormal.

Dwarfism appeared first in purebred herds as a result of intense selection and because of closer relationship—inbreeding—than in commercial herds. However, since more and more range bulls are being selected from purebred herds, the condition is expected to become more prevalent in range herds. Few, if any, of the popular bloodlines of today are free of it.

The surest and easiest way to eliminate dwarfism is to use non-carrier bulls and eliminate cows which have produced dwarfs. When dwarfism appears in a herd steps should be taken at once to eliminate it. At present, progeny testing is the surest method of determining a carrier.
