Local PTA Brings Excellent Speaker

CLAYTON SPEAKER TELLS LOCAL GROUP POSSIBILITIES OF FUTURE ENSLAVEMENT

A large group of residents in this area attended the Carrizozo PTA meeting Feb. 7 which featured an address by D. D. Monroe, Clayton, nationally-known speaker. Monroe held the attention of his audience throughout the speech, the subject of which was "Our Reasonable Obligation" and which was in a serious vein interspersed with humorous stories to graphically illustrate his points.

The talk started off with mention of famous men who, although they had gained wealth and renown, nevertheless died in obscurity and disgrace, with several of them dying a pauper's death. It was the Clayton man's opinion that those men had not known how to live. From there he went on to point out the rungs of the ladder from bondage to freedom and back again, using the history of the world from its earliest days to show how human beings have been led into slavery.

In speaking of the past two World Wars, he expressed his opinion why they had come about and urged citizens of this country to guard against enslavement through failure to assume one's rightful obligation. Monroe expressed the belief the United States can overcome any of the present obstacles that appear to present a dark future for this country.

A student of international affairs, the speaker is a former leader of one of the largest international fraternal societies and a past director of a leading international service club. He has traveled widely throughout the North American continent and is familiar with conditions and trends at home. Rated in the top bracket among American public speakers, he has attained unusual recognition as an author, speaker, and entertainer.

The Clayton businessman has devoted a large part of his time during the past few years to the interest of public service, having been active in his home town civic groups as well as state organizations. An active member of several trade groups, he is also a member of the Speakers' Bureau of the American Association for United Nations, the Foreign Policy Association, and the American Academy of Political Science.

County Agent Suggests Getting Your Dam Work Done Now

Now's the time to take a look at soil and water conservation structures, with the idea in mind of taking care of the necessary repairs and maintenance. "Between now and planting time, you may have some slack periods and idle equipment that can be utilized for repair and maintenance work without interference with other work," says Austin A. Albert, Lincoln County Agent. "Such structures as irrigation dams and reservoirs, ditches, dikes, terraces, water diversions, gully plugs, etc., require maintenance and repairs if they are to continue to be effective. They can't be constructed and then forgotten. If you expect them to continue to do the job they were constructed to do."

WHAT PRODUCES NATIONAL PROGRESS?

Social or economic progress isn't something that just happens. If it were, China and India and most of the remainder of the old world wouldn't be knee-deep in poverty. America's unmatched progress has been due to the freedoms and incentives in the American system and to our American business leadership with its great capacity for constantly expanding the production of new wealth. The nature of manpower has not changed in 6,000 years; men are about as strong physically as they ever were and the size and capacity of the human brain is unchanging. But the ingenuity and enterprise of free American business men have developed a machine power that has multiplied man's productive worth to an amazing degree. And this has brought about our great social progress; it has given American workmen a living standard three times as high as their counterparts living under any other system in the world.

The Wagner Act and Taft-Hartley laws, the strikes for higher wages by industrial employees and the "social reform" legislation of the past half-century would not have advanced this nation's economic or social welfare on the whole — or the individual citizen's permanent economic outlook — had not American business throughout those 50 years been constantly devising new machine tools and techniques and expanding its production facilities to create new wealth.

Wealth, said Henry George, the social philosopher, is "any material thing made by man, from land, that has an exchange value." The government cannot make new wealth by spending tax income or redistributing it in any particular way, or by issuing irredeemable currency, or by spending borrowed money through the use of paper I.O.U.'s. But a man can take a handful of clay from his back yard or from a creek bank, shape it into a bowl and harden it in an earthen oven, and it becomes new wealth—to be sold or exchanged for something he wants. The clay itself is not wealth as it lies in the earth. It becomes wealth only after the man has worked it into something useful, something that somebody wants.

In many regions of the old world bowls for food are still made by men shaping clay with their hands and baking it in earthen ovens—and because of such primitive production, the living standard of the population has improved very little in the last 100 years. In America, our incentives and freedoms have inspired many clay potters to become dinnerware manufacturers, blacksmiths to become automobile builders, and men with one-horse plows to become mechanized commercial farmers.

Machine tools, mass production techniques and invested capital have enabled businessmen and industrialists to increase the productive capacity — the wealth making power — of American workmen to an amazing degree. And this is the key to American prosperity. There is really no secret about it. We've got the world's greatest prosperity because our industries have developed machine-power and placed it in the hands of our quick-to-learn American workmen; and thus the expansion of wealth-making production has been constant.

These reasons for America's wonderful industrial progress should be clearly understood by every citizen, especially young Americans in schools and colleges, and likewise industrial employees who get so much propaganda peddled their way which seeks to undermine their faith in our American business system. In 1850, manufacturing, as we know it today, was barely getting started: Man himself was doing 20 percent of the work, animals did 50 percent, and machine power accounted for only 30 percent. By 1900 man was doing only 15 percent, animals 30 percent, and machines were doing 55 percent. And by 1950, man was doing only 6 percent, and machines were doing the rest — 94 percent.

The output per worker per hour in 1850 was only 27 cents (in today's buying power). By 1950, thanks to industry's constant development of better machine tools and production techniques, the output per worker per hour had increased five times that amount to $1.40. And the American living standard measured by per capita buying power had improved exactly 500 percent. Thus we can see clearly how important it is — to all of us — to keep intact the basic principles of our American business system — freedom and the profit incentives that have sparked our great industrial progress.

Assignment New Mexico

By G. WARD FENLEY

Some days it doesn't pay to get up. The day this old bald-headed professor tangled with Roberta McConnell was when he shoulda stood in bed.

By way of admiration for her Gallup Independent column, we asked a couple of weeks back: "Who is this Roberta McConnell?"

That was the wrong thing to do.

Apparently you can say a woman's ugly, badly-constructed, old, snaggle-toothed, verbose and deceptive.

You must never admit you don't know who she is.

How was I to know she is the famous author of "Never Marry a Ranger." How was I to know she was of the literary elite and could turn a phrase with the best of 'em?

I know now and Roberta didn't tell me. Everybody else did.

Ruth Bush Jones jangled my phone after I stuck my silly neck out.

Al Rosenfeld made a special trip from Santa Fe to get me told.

Roberta later answered me in a few thousand well-chosen words.

All I can say now, and all any man can say in an argument with a woman—if he wants the last word—is "Yes Ma'am."

Yes sir, I feel as dizzy as the Maxwell man's car. Jimmy Barber of Raton said Pete Trujillo was operating a vehicle under the influence of liquor. Was he feeding it vanilla extract?

Or again, I could say I am worse off than the Silver City girl, Bob Ingraham (Silver City Enterprise) reported last week that Mary Margaret Soule, daughter of Mrs. Helen Soule, is recovering from surgery decently performed at Hillcrest General Hospital. We hope so.

Furthermore I'm as confused as Gordon Greaves of Portales. In the course of seven lines of type in his own personal column, he had the Mayor's name spelled three different ways. Now we don't know whether it's Bynum, Bingham, or Bigham.

Even in my "condition erace" (that's French for crushed) I can't go along with Sheriff Chas. O. Trimble's proclamation in Lovington for a "Be Kind to Agnes Week." Not after her rash of typos.

Mrs. Agnes Kastner Head said that Bob Walton "jailed" (for joined) the Robinson Insurance Agency last week.

Carter Wald (Elen) got into the act by reporting that Mrs. Petra Romero, formally Petra Ford, was filing for a divorce. Who was she informally—we'd like to know.

We'd like to inform Mr. Wald that this is early spring — not fall as one of his belatedly-run comic strips said last week.

Transposed letters still plague us. The Roswell Record noted that "It is hard for a husband to see his wife off to work at 6 a.m. and have her return home after dark, too tired even to talk to him."

But the choice—or shall we say the worst—type of the week was in the Eunice paper. It didn't make sense.

It read: "The group will adjourn to the sanctuary where there will be mod-Comfit Adult-ery." Bark's probably worse than the bite.

That's all this week except to say, with the Negro preacher, that believing what's right ain't enough.

You gotta believe it.

A cow needs from three to five gallons of water daily for each gallon of milk she produces.

RAMBLIN'

By Wayne Winters

Most every country newspaper man thinks of himself as somewhat of a columnist, and most of at least try to write such a column regularly. . . . While I've never reached the point that I myself into believing that a
of our readers agree with our
as, at least regular columns
read, and they do present opportunities by which one may write of things that could hardly be called "news". . . . Perhaps a column by an outsider will not present much of interest to the readers, but when arriving Carrizozo to relieve the Kinds of their duties for a couple weeks I noticed so many things interest that I decided to jot down a few lines along the same which we've used in other columns during the last few years.
At least it gives me a chance to get some things off my mind.

First place I might explain
I sold The Grants Beacon
first of the month and that my better judgment allows me to talk me into coming here for a couple of weeks
he and the wife slipped on a short vacation. (Have I been against Carrizozo but I had to do some vacationing myself). . . . Wasn't too anxious to take on the headaches of putting out someone else's paper,
but also know how these things
can take a person down, and having nothing else in particular to do until late this month agreed to see that the Lincoln County
news is published.

The first impression of a stranger in any town is in a way an important one to the folks who live there. Carrizozo is certainly no exception. . . . Of course, coming from Grants, which is beginning to take on the appearance of a rough, tough mining boom town, this small city in a different part of the state presented quite a contrast. . . . Yes, in most ways the contrast is favorable,
perhaps the first thing a stranger will remark are the excellent, wide, paved streets. From what this writer has seen, Carrizozo
has an outstanding street
system, which certainly denotes considerable thought and a sense of responsibility on the part of some former City Dads. . . . Next thing any outsider is going to take notice of (favorably, too)
is the abundance of modern street signs. The markers here in Carrizozo are well placed, easily read, and should be of help to

All Star Muffins

Four different muffins to star at breakfast, luncheon or dinner can now be made from the one basic recipe below. The foundation for the batter is good, sound, all-bran cereal combined in the standard way with flour, milk and molasses for the basic recipe. Add grated, range rind and dried apricots for the Fruity Variation. For a sweet-topped "upside-down" muffin, try the Honey-Nut Muffin adaptation. Or make a spicy "baked-on-topping" combining butter, sugar and cinnamon and sprinkle over the muffins before baking, as suggested in Spicy Bran Muffins. Up-side-down-baked-on-top, any way you like, you'll find this recipe is good. Make up the variations and serve a different bread at each meal. . . . or on successive days.

All-Star Muffins

2 tablespoons shortening 1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup sugar or molasses 1 cup sifted flour
1 egg 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 cup ready-to-eat all bran cereal 1/2 teaspoon salt

Blend well shortening, sugar; add egg, beat well. Stir in ready-to-eat bran cereal, milk; soak until most moisture is taken up. Sift flour with baking powder, salt; add to first mixture, stir only until combined. Fill greased muffin pans 2/3 full. Bake in preheated moderate hot oven (400° F.) 30 minutes. Yield: 9 medium or 12 small muffins.

Spicy Bran Muffins: Mix 1 teaspoon butter, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon. Sprinkle over unbaked muffin batter.

Fruity Muffins: Add to flour mixture 1 tablespoon grated orange rind, 1/2 cup diced dried apricots.

Honey-Nut Muffins: Put 1 teaspoon honey, chopped nuts in each greased muffin cup; add batter.

resident and stranger alike. . . .
Still another thing in favor of the town is the fact that it apparently has a good library.
While I've not as yet stepped inside the doors, it goes without saying than any place the size of Carrizozo which supports a library the size of this one must have a populace of above-average intelligence for this section of the United States. . . . These are only minor items, but they could be important ones to anybody who contemplated making your town his home. . . . They speak well for the progressivness of the community.

On the way over here from San Antonio to Carrizozo I could not help wondering about the mining prospects in this locality. . . .
Being especially interested in uranium (living in Grants and having A-ore holdings of my own in the huge recently-discovered fields there) I was struck by the similarity of the rock formations. . . . Seems as if it would certainly be a worthwhile gamble for prospectors in this locality to obtain Geiger counters and give these mountains a thorough checking over. Of course the easy way to do so is to follow the method of Anaconda Copper Mining Co., who has large holdings in Valencia and McKinley counties and is building a uranium processing mill at Grants

. . . . They have several planes in which they have installed instruments that amount to super-sensitive Geiger counters, then flying low over country in which radio-active ore deposits are believed to exist, watch for the tel-tale flashes of light in the indicating bulbs that denote the presence of the precious ore. . . . It is working out quite successfully, too.

During most of 1951, expenditures for food by consumers was steady at about $375 per capita.
This was about 26 per cent of their disposable income.

$10,000 CONTEST
"FOR BETTER WORLD"

"What One Person Can Do" to help make a better world is the basis of a $10,000 contest open to all individuals "regardless of age, profession, race, color or creed."

Purpose of the contest is to "dramatize the vital role the individual can play as a Christopher or Christ-bearer in changing the world for the better." It opens
on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 27, and closes Easter
Sunday, April
15, according to the Rev. James Keller, director of The Christo-phers, sponsor of the contest.

Entries should be submitted in letter form ranging from 300 to not more than 1,600 words telling what the writer or someone close to him has done to help make a better world. "Literary style is secondary. Truth, sincerity and real achievement even in an apparent small way are important. The mere listing of facts in a letter could suffice." Father Keller said.

All entries should be addressed to:
The Christopher Contest, 18 E. 48th
St., New York 17, N. Y.

Prizes range from $100 to $2,000
and, in addition, money paid for any story purchased for commercial use would be turned over to the author.

The Christophers is a Catholic movement that reaches out to all people, Father Keller said. Its purpose is to encourage individuals to enter one of the fields that touch
the lives of most people the world over. Each Christopher works as an individual. He takes out no membership, pays no dues and attends no meetings.

This combination of a bookcase and cabinets shows how charmingly hardwood plywood built-in furniture fits into a modern living room.

A home has a lot of places for a flush door besides a doorway. Essentially just a rectangle of hardwood plywood with attractive wood veneer as the outside layers, a flush door makes a good-looking, economical table top. But legs under it and the table is finished. The flush door table sketched here is attached at one end to the wall under a picture window. A flush door table top has a smooth, gleaming wood veneer surface that can be quickly wiped clean. Light and dark woods are available to suit any style of decoration.

DETROIT, MICH.—Blazing torches slash into outmoded machinery in former powerhouse of Chrysler Corporation's Dodge Main Plant here to bolster vital U. S. defense supplies of scrap metal. The 41-year-old landmark, now replaced by newer powerhouse with larger capacity, will add more than 1,000,000 pounds of iron and steel to scrap bins when completely dismantled. Chrysler Corporation's special rive to find extra scrap so far has netted more than 9,000,000 pounds dormant iron and steel.

Ten years ago the advice given about this house was: "Tear it down." However, the family that had just bought it took a second look. This led to a second life for the house because they decided the basic structure was sound enough to justify remodeling. The old screened porch was converted into an open one leading onto a concrete terrace. Asbestos siding was placed over the old clapboards. New asphalt roof shingles were applied directly on top of the old wood roofing, a reroofing method that eliminates the expense of taking worn material off. Asphalt shingles were chosen for two main reasons—fire-resistance for safety, and color for attractiveness. A soft red was chosen from among the many solid and blended colors in which asphalt shingles are made.

Military Training

IT'S a safe bet that congress will not legislate a universal military training program for 18-year-olds during the present session.

The proposed UMT bill now before congress would provide for 18 months of service, including six months of basic training, for all 18 1/2-year-old youths in peacetime after the present selective service law has expired.

Thus, the UMT program could not be initiated in the foreseeable future, since the present selective service or draft law will not be allowed to expire during the Korean War or during any threatening crisis thereafter.

At a closed-door session of the house armed services committee recently, Chairman Carl Vinson of Georgia tried to put over a Pentagon-approved compromise whereby UMT would be launched on a trial basis with an initial force of 80,000 volunteers.

However, the Georgia congressman pulled in his ears and abandoned the scheme when he couldn't get a single solid backer among his Democratic and Republican colleagues.

Congressmen James Patterson (Conn.), Arthur Winstead (Miss.), Walter Norblad (Ore.), Clyde Doyle of California, and others pointed out that it would be impractical and costly to have a token UMT and the draft program operating simultaneously. They also argued there wouldn't be enough seasoned officers to train UMT volunteers unless they were recalled from combat.

Eisenhower Smears

The smear which President Truman predicted for his friend Dwight Eisenhower have already started—in Maine and California. In the latter state, the so-called "Parisian Republicans," who do not otherwise identify themselves, are circulating copies of a scurrilous sheet accusing Eisenhower of being a stooge for Stalin.

Here are some typical smear quotes:

"The Communist party did not officially support Eisenhower for the presidency, but gave him a great ovation and host at their convention in New York on May 20, 1944. Communists unanimously greeted 'three great men,' who were: Joseph Stalin, Marshal Tito and Dwight Eisenhower."

"The Soviet gangsters decorated Eisenhower with the Order of Cozorov which is given to those who serve the Soviet cause. What service did Eisenhower perform to warrant this great (?) honor? We remember that Roosevelt selected Eisenhower over 233 senior officers. Roosevelt knew that other generals would refuse to perform the pro-Soviet role which Eisenhower so obediently played."

"In the last stages of his career as president of Columbia University, Eisenhower again revealed his peculiar pro-Soviet bias. The case in point is the acceptance of $23,000 subsidy from the Communist government of Poland by Columbia university. This subsidy was donated to further Communism."

Later Maine's Sen. Owen Brewster, a member of the Tall Inner circle, got hold of the above smear sheet and helped to have it circulated in Maine.

Grain Disappears

Next scandal to explode into headlines will result from a team of government investigators now trying to trace $3,800,000 worth of government grain that has mysteriously vanished from southwestern storage bins.

So far the investigators report: 1. Warehousemen have been peddling the taxpayers' grain for their own private profit. 2. Other warehousemen have negligently allowed grain to spoil. 3. At least 43 instances of missing grain still haven't been accounted for.

These findings have been reported to congress by Lindsay Warren's general accounting office, which checked the books of the Dallas Commodity office covering the states of Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. A copy of this confidential report has been obtained by this column.

"From our examination to date," the report declares, "it appears obvious that even a conservative estimate of shortages, in grain alone, would exceed $1,500,000."

Forced Action

Though "shortages were known to have existed in early 1951," the report complains that "action in regard to the known irregularities has had to be literally forced on the commodity office. Even after the situation had deteriorated to the extent where prominent grain operators in this area were demanding restrictive action to protect the trade, the responsible administrative officials contended action on their part was unnecessary."

Hoover Revives the 'Great Debate'; Association Reports on Farm Labor

GREAT DEBATE—Ex-President Herbert Hoover, in a major radio and television address, revived the "great debate" and possibly an important issue in the 1952 presidential campaign.

The 77-year-old former chief executive expressed alarm at the "dangerous overstraining of our economy by our gigantic expenditures" and urged reduction in our armies as a way to cut down on spending. Instead of armies, he would have the country concentrate on highly mobile air and sea forces for defense.

In explaining his viewpoint, he said: "The first purpose of this republic must be the defense of this final Gibraltar of freedom—that is, the Western hemisphere." Western Europe, he added, must be told that it must provide its own ground armies and that the United States will provide air and sea shields and munitions, all that the country can afford.

For the home townsmen, who have been gravely concerned about the possibilities of war, the former president had a reassuring comment. There is a lack of alarm in Europe because of a number of reasons. These included the fact the Russians could have conquered Europe before this if they wanted; that the Russians do not want to absorb any more nations now; that the Russians would be hard hurt in an atomic war, and that Stalin's first interests are in Asia at the moment.

Hoover's last major speech was December 20, 1950. In it he criticized the administration's foreign policy and the handling of the Far East conflict. In his latest address he again attacked the Korean situation by saying "we denied ourselves victory" by not bombing Red China and using Chiang Kai-shek's armies.

The "great debate" has been revived and it will become a growing issue as this presidential year progresses. And congress, now considering one of the greatest peacetime budgets in the nation's history, will watch closely for reaction to the former president's speech in the home towns of the nation.

EGYPT—King Farouk of Egypt, who is one of the most unpredictable rulers in the world, dismissed the nationalist government that had brought his country and Britain to the verge of war. The action came after Cairo was made the scene of rioting, looting, and destruction of property by anti-British mobs.

The new Premier, Maher Pasha, held the same position early in World War II and is believed to be a little less anti-British than the ousted Premier Mustapha Nuhass Pasha. But it was evident that Britain still faced a serious situation in Egypt and the Suez canal zone. The new Premier announced he would continue to press for the evacuation of British troops from Egypt and the unification of Egypt and the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan under Egyptian rule.

Meanwhile, Cairo was put under strict military rule and martial law declared for all of Egypt. At least 25 buildings were destroyed by fire during the rioting and 100 persons killed. Martial law will remain in effect for at least two months, the government announced.

FARM WASTE—The National Planning Association, a nonprofit, non-political organization of leaders in industry, agriculture, labor and the professions, reports the productive effort of 2,000,000 farm families in the nation is being wasted.

The association said these families are not producing for a number of reasons, including insufficient land, lack of capital, unsuitable methods, low educational standards, isolation from markets, and "static" community standards. As for underemployment, the association reported it most pronounced in the cotton South—excluding highly mechanized areas, the southern Appalachian and Ozark mountains, the cut-over lands of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota, the mountainous areas of northern New Mexico and Arizona, and the southern counties of Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio.

CRISIS AHEAD—In a report on the government's year-old effort to hold prices and wages in line, government officials report widespread success, but warn of a crisis ahead. Charles E. Wilson, mobilization director, was the official who warned that there is a crisis ahead in the battle against inflation.

Michael V. DiSalle, director of the office of price stabilization, said: "It is gratifying to realize that after a full year the cost of living has been held to a very moderate increase."

And Nathan P. Feinsinger, chairman of the wage stabilization board, said: "I believe it can fairly be said that the control of the movement of wage rates since the establishment of our program is as good if not better than hoped for by experienced and objective observers."

The latest consumer's price index by the Bureau of Labor was 103.1—or 0.1 per cent higher than the average for the 1935-1952 years. That is an increase of 2.9 per cent since February, 1951, when the wage-price freeze was first reflected.

UMT FIGHT—One of the great fights shaping up in the present congress is universal military training. Congress has approved UMT in principle, but has not authorized machinery to get it into operation.

One round of that fight took place at a house armed services committee hearing. Chairman Carl Vinson, striking back at critics of the program, denied charges that the program is un-American, anti-Christian, immoral and would lead us to financial chaos.

Said Vinson: "If it is un-American and anti-Christian to defend the greatest Christian nation in the world through a fair, effective and less costly system of military training, then I plead guilty."

He said congress must approve UMT or defeat it and explain to the taxpayers that they must maintain an armed force of millions of men for the next 20 years through operation of the draft.

Many observers believe that Congress may enact a temporary measure this session, delaying action on a permanent measure until the 83rd congress meets.

ASIA—There seemed to be a general feeling in Washington and Korea that trade talks between the Communists and United Nations' delegates is on the verge of collapse. It was because of this feeling military leaders have been meeting to consider what steps should be taken in such an event.

Meanwhile, the United States, Britain and France served plain notice they would call for United Nations action to meet any new Communist attack in southeast Asia.

Russia recently charged that the West has been building up strength along the Burmese and Indochinese frontiers for an attack on Communist China. This, the three powers say, is to cover up for a possible Communist military move in that part of the world.

If nothing else, these charges and countercharges are an indication that trouble is building up in other parts of Asia.

A new experimental lightweight caliber .30 rifle has been developed by Army Ordnance. Weighing about eight pounds, the new rifle is capable of selective semi or full automatic fire from its 20-round magazine. It embodies all of the M1 rifle's combat proved punch, accuracy and reliability plus the fully automatic feature, but weighs 1 1/2 pounds less.

OSLO LINEUP . . . American skaters at Oslo for the Olympic games are now in full activity at Lillehammer.

INVESTIGATION OF BOMB CRATER . . . Near Kaesong, Korea, United Nations officers and Chinese and North Korean Communist officials crowd together around a huge bomb crater. The Communists have issued claims that the crater was caused by a United Nations plane which dropped its load in a neutral zone during the armistice talks. The crater is on the outskirts of Kaesong, but still in the armistice restricted zone. The bomb caused no damage to life or property. In reply to Red claims, the United Nations has asked for a re-investigation of the incident, as the Reds have issued many false claims.

ARAB LEAGUES APPEAL TO U.N. PRESIDENT . . . In Paris, France, Luis Padilla Nervo, Mexico, president of the United Nations general assembly, is shown (left) talking to a delegation from the Arab-Asiatic League that called on him with an appeal that he intercede with the U.N. French delegation to help bring peace in Tunisia. The Arab delegation members are (from left) Dr. Mohamed Fadhill Al-Jamali of Iraq; Salah-eldin, Egyptian foreign minister; and U. Myat Thein, president of the Burmese delegation. With the Tunisian riot death toll at 28, the French cabinet decided to send a new note to open negotiations with Tunisia.

NEW ROOSEVELT TAKES A BOW . . . Representative Franklyn D. Roosevelt, Jr., and his wife, the former Suzanne Ferris, admire their new daughter (their first), Nancy Suzanne, as the baby makes her camera debut. Nancy was born January 11. The Roosevelts were married in August, 1946, three months after Rep. Roosevelt was divorced in Nevada by his first wife, Ethel DuPont. His first wife bore him two sons, Franklyn D. III, and Christopher.

LET IT SNOW . . . P.F.C. Frank Eyrson models latest air force clothing for winter in Burlington, Vt. Footgear, made to be worn over several pairs of socks, has felt tops and canvas tops. Heel is notched for wearing of skis.

THREATENING . . . Donald Rankin, Denver, accused of sending booby-trapped sticks of dynamite through the mails to James McGraw, Bowling Green, Ohio, points threatening finger at photographer and gets arm ready to swing at camera.

LIBYAN STALWART . . . This proud Cyrenaican soldier represents the well-trained militia that keeps law and order in the world's newest kingdom—Libya. France, England and the United States have military forces in the new nation.

COLD WAR . . . Corporal George Waddington, New Kensington, Pa., is coping with the cold war in Korea by melting snow in his helmet to get washing water. Winter has come to Korea with below-zero temperatures on some parts of front.

CLEAN SWEEP . . . Peltolans will resort to any stunt to keep in limelight. Here Senator Joseph McCarthy (R., Wis.) poses in front of Capitol with broom sent by club in Litchfield, Wis., for him to clean corruption out of the Capitol.

Homes for Christ Lesson for February 17, 1952

WHAT is a Christian home? It is no solemn place, for "solemn" is not another word for "Christian." It is not an "American" home, because while Christians can be Americans, and vice versa, the two words do not mean the same thing. Sending off the little ones to Sunday school every Sunday morning, or even piling the whole family into the car and going to church 52 times a year, will not quite do it. For church-going is only one part, and the easiest part, of being Christian. What about the rest of the week?

Does Jesus Get Beyond the Front Door? THE home of Mary, Martha and Lazarus, where Jesus often visited, we can think of as in many ways a Christian home. Jesus was welcome there; he dropped in any time, he felt at home.

Now Christ is most at home (as any one is) where people are congenial, where the attitude to the things men live by—work, play, love, worship—is the same as his attitude. Also in the Bethany home they listened to Jesus. It is well to have a Bible in the house; but that alone will not make it Christian. Is it ready? Do the children when growing up hear the words of Jesus from the Gospels? Do they hear his voice as often as they hear the voice of Mr. Cassidy or the Lone Ranger?

How the Home Can Serve THERE are three ways in which the home of today can serve Christ. One is in connection with the church. Except in rarest cases, every Christian home should be an actual part of some Christian church. A church which has no cooperation from the homes in its community will be a dying church.

The liveliest churches, on the other hand, are those where homes and church do the best teamwork. To take only one example: Does your home work together with your church in the recruiting of ministers? Ministers have to come from somewhere, and the best ministers don't all come from preachers' homes by any means. How about the boys in your home? If one of them felt an urge to be a minister or a missionary, would the rest of you laugh him out of it? Another way for the home to serve Christ is in treatment of strangers. When strangers move into your community, or live there for a short time as school teachers sometimes do, is your home open to them? Is your home a "home away from home" for lonely people? When you have a party, do you invite always only those who can invite you back, or do you (as Jesus suggested) include people who will probably never be able to repay you? A home that prides itself on being "exclusive" has forgotten Jesus' words—"I am a stranger, and ye took me not in."

Serve the Children A Christian home, moreover, will serve its own children in Christ's name. In their children will hear about Christ, not as a past figure in history but as a Living One. Parents will teach them Christian patterns of living. This will not be merely something they hear about in Sunday school; it will be the pattern of life in which they are trained from day to day, beginning even before they can remember. This home, if it serves its children as it should, will show them how to help Christ. The children will know about the church ("His body," said Paul) and what it is doing in his name around the world. From their earliest years they will be helpers in this work. They will not grow up thinking of "missions" in some vague way, but they will know and be thrilled by the great story which that single word carries.

And the children in a Christian home will be helped by Jesus far more than they help him. Even at the beginning of childhood they will learn to say "Dear Jesus, help me," when the mean word or the angry act are just almost exploding. Even as children they will learn something of what in older years will mean much more, the "practice of His presence." But no one can learn from the ignorant. And children will never learn these things at home without help. A home does not begin to be Christian with the children, but with the parents. Whatever good the children learn, father and mother must learn it first.

It's Wonderful the Way Chewing-Gum Laxative Acts Chiefly to REMOVE WASTE -NOT GOOD FOOD

Here's the secret millions of folks have discovered about FEEN-A-MINT, the modern chewing-gum laxative. Yes, here is why FEEN-A-MINT's action is so wonderfully different! Doctors say that many other laxatives start their "flushing" action too soon, right in the stomach where food is being digested. Large doses of such laxatives upset digestion. FEEN-A-MINT's action is so different! It acts in the lower bowel, where it removes mostly waste, not good food! You avoid that typical weak, tired, run-down feeling. The FEEN-A-MINT and feel your "peppy, energetic self" - full of life! Get FEEN-A-MINT! No increase in price - still 25c. 50c or only 10c!
