Cattlemen Meet In Duke City Mar. 24

Cattlemen will be confronted with many important problems at the 38th Annual Convention of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association in Albuquerque, March 24 and 25, according to Roy Forehand, Carlsbad, President. "Never before in history has the industry faced such a wide variety of serious matters and it will take the combined efforts of the industry and associated businesses of New Mexico to maintain the agricultural economy of the state on a sound basis," Forehand said.

Declaring the association did not and would not participate in partisan politics, Forehand said that one of the major actions of the group this year would be to urge livestock producers and citizens in general to elect honest, conscientious and reliable people to public office. "The day of the professional politician who holds personal gain above his community, his state and his country must be ended if we are to prevent economic and social chaos," Forehand said. "The only way the basic freedoms of this country can be preserved is for every citizen to vote in the primary and general elections and vote with honest convictions for the candidate best qualified for the office in question."

Cattle theft is apparently on the increase in the Southwest and the Association will act on seven claims for a standing $300 reward offered by the Association. During the past three months, these people claim to have furnished information leading to the arrest, conviction and punishment of twelve persons involved in stealing cattle from association members.

Federal land acquisition and state land problems will also receive top consideration at the convention. "The Federal Government now owns some 50 percent of all land in New Mexico and this percentage is constantly

Grizzlies Announce 1952 Football Schedule

The eight-game football schedule for the Carrizozo High School squad during 1952 was announced this week by Coach M. S. Mirimanian, who added the Grizzlies have joined the Bean Valley Conference. It will be the Zozolics first year as a member of that conference group, and school officials have high hopes the local team will bring back the marbles.

Of the 23 men who lettered last year, 18 are returning with the additional prospects of two or three speedy backs from the Carrizozo Catholic Junior high school.

The local Lions Club is sponsoring a project to erect lights on the high school football field, and if the Lions are successful in their efforts, all home games will be played under illumination.

Players who will spark the local efforts this season are Claude Wilson, Don Queen, Bobby Hicks, Preston Lindsey, Sam Wedell, Gerald King, Jerry Kennedy, Roy Crumley, and Dillon Lovelace.

The 1952 football lineup lists the following schedule of games: Sept. 5, Corona (there); Sept. 12, Capitán (there); Sept. 19, Ruidoso (here); Sept. 26, Ruidoso (here); October 3, Tularosa (here); October 10, Vaughn (here); October 17, Ruidoso (there); and Oct. 22, Estancia (there). The Corona, Mountaineer, Vaughn, and Estancia teams are in the Bean Valley Conference.

Committee Named

Marvin H. Roberts and R. E. Lemon, both of Carrizozo, have been named treasurer and welfare committee member, respectively, of the local service unit of the Salvation Army.

Carrizozo is one of 90 service unit committees, and the Salvation Army's campaign for current operating funds is now underway.

Roberts is also chairman of the Carrizozo Rural and Extension Service Committee.

State Officials Press For Preservation Of Atomic Explosion Site

Of especial interest to Lincoln County residents is the announcement state officials are pressing the Atomic Energy Commission at Washington, D. C., to preserve the crater at Trinity, site of the first atom bomb test, as a national monument. Action is being deferred to see if the problem can be solved satisfactorily. AEC officials had planned to fill in the huge hole created by the historic blast on July 16, 1945, since they insist winds have begun to carry away quantities of radioactive material which, if inhaled or accidentally ingested, could be a health hazard. Gov. Edwin L. Mechem, organizations, and citizens had protested the obliteration of the crater.

Dr. Lincoln La Paz, Albuquerque, head of the University of New Mexico Institute of Meteoritics, has expressed the opinion the crater can be sealed with plastic, sprayed on like paint which will harden and "might last for centuries".

The site of the first atom bomb test is actually in Lincoln County, only a few miles northwest of Carrizozo, but is generally referred to as being located at Alamogordo or White Sands Proving Grounds. The spot has potential value to this county as a tourist attraction, and local officials and civic groups would be wise to claim it as a "must see" for visitors entering the state.

Lloyd Vigil Files For County Tax Assessor

Lloyd Vigil, Carrizozo, threw his hat into the political ring last week when he filed for the office of county tax assessor on the Republican ticket. Vigil stated he has a sincere desire to serve the residents of Lincoln County in that capacity, and, if elected, will serve them in a courteous, efficient and impartial manner. He is well acquainted in the county and solicits the consideration of the voters in the primary election May 6.

Born in Lincoln in 1914, he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sambrano Vigil. His mother is the former Mabel Baca. Vigil is a descendant of some of the oldest families of Spanish origin in Lincoln County.

The candidate attended schools in Carrizozo and Alamogordo, later returning to Carrizozo to accept employment. At one time he operated a cafe here but closed it during World War II because of limited food supplies and other restrictions. He is presently employed at Food Mart in Carrizozo. His wife is the bookkeeper at the Lincoln County Municipal Hospital here, and the couple have three small sons.

Juan Zamora Seeks Probate Judgeship

Juan Zamora, Carrizozo, has announced his candidacy for probate judge on the Republican ticket.

Born in Lincoln, Feb. 19, 1902, Zamora attended schools there. He is the son of Mrs. Sista Zamora, Lincoln, and the late Francisco Zamora. He is married to the former Miss Frances Aldaz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paulino Aldaz, Carrizozo.

The candidate is engaged in the grocery business here. Zamora said he will appreciate the support of Lincoln County residents.

Hail Insurance Rate Cut

An announcement this week discloses Lincoln is one of six counties to receive a $2 reduction in hail insurance rates on cotton crops.

A favorable loss ratio permits the basic rate on the general policy form to be lowered from $12 per $100 coverage to $10, according to the report from the Corporation Commission's insurance department.

PTA Schedules Saint Patrick Day Dinner

The Carrizozo Parent-Teacher Association has scheduled a St. Patrick's chicken pie dinner Monday night, March 17, from 6 to 9 o'clock, at the grade school lunch room. Proceeds will be used to send a delegate to the state convention, and the balance will be presented to the local schools' band fund. Residents of the area who are familiar with the delicious dinners prepared by members of this organization will want to be on hand Monday night to enjoy the good food as well as make their contributions to the worthy cause.

Officers of the PTA, who were elected at the meeting on March 10, to guide the affairs of the organization for the ensuing year are: Mrs. Rex Werner, president; Mrs. Marvyn Roberts, first vice president; Mrs. Ace Baty, second vice president; Mrs. Marjorie Pherigo, secretary; Mrs. Joaquin Ortiz, historian, and Marshall Powell, parliamentarian. The names of the foregoing officers, presented to the assembly by the nominating committee, were accepted unanimously.

The permanent award for getting out the most parents at four consecutive PTA meetings was won by students in the fourth grade. Sponsored by Mrs. Janie Key, local teacher, the students' picture award is a beautiful oil painting donated by Mr. and Mrs. Rex Werner, and painted by Werner's mother, Mrs. Allie J. Werner. The fourth graders are very proud of their picture with its attractive frame which was made for them by Marshall Powell, grade school principal.

Miss Marvel Millam, girl scout executive, spoke to the group on contributions to community life that can be made by Girl Scout groups. She also presented scouting awards to local Girl Scouts. A film entitled, "The Price of Freedom," was shown as part of the program. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Local PTA officials announce they are inaugurating a series of fund raising events for assisting with the purchase of instruments for the Carrizozo school band. The cooperation of all residents in the area is urged.

Driverless Truck Breaks Windows In Local Store

Two large plate glass windows in the front of the Harkey Lumber Co. building were completely demolished in a freak accident early Friday morning when a truck parked on 5th street rolled down the slight incline and across the intersection of Central Avenue into the local firm's building. Edward J. Mead, Roswell, who was driving the truck for his brother, A. B. Mead, also of Roswell, was eating breakfast in a nearby restaurant at the time of the accident.

Deputy Clyde Atwood, who investigated the accident, said the truck was unattended at the time it rolled down the hill, and that the cause of the break-away had not yet been determined. Atwood reported the truck was hauling ore from a Lincoln County mine for shipment from Carrizozo.

To Attend Conference

Larry Stockton, Carrizozo High School principal, will attend the annual conference of New Mexico Secondary School Principals on the campus of the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, March 20-22.

The group will study the subject of "Extra-Curricular Activities and Practices" in its three-day session. School systems of most of the principal towns and cities of the state have indicated they will have representatives at the meeting, according to Calloway Taulbee, principal of Portales public schools and president of the organization.

Attend University

According to J. C. MacGregor, Albuquerque, director of admissions and registrar at the University of New Mexico, among the 3,545 students attending the college, four are from Lincoln County. Civilian registration at the university, MacGregor added, is more than three times the number of registered veterans.

CARL PIERCE

Carrizozo Juniors To Present Hollywood Radio Party March 20

The Carrizozo High School Juniors will give local residents the opportunity to enjoy a simulated visit to a Hollywood broadcast next Thursday night, March 20, when they present "Hollywood Radio Party" at the school auditorium. Carl Pierce, formerly an associate of the late Tom Breneman on his breakfast in Hollywood program, is the master of ceremonies for the hilarious entertainment. Pierce has appeared on many other popular shows originating in the California city, including the stage version of the "Queen for a Day" radio show.

The master of ceremonies includes personal interviewing of the audience in his program, and he is reputed to have a knack for getting his interviewees to "let down their hair".

Audience participation stunts and contests are also a part of the program with prizes awarded to the winners. "Cap" awards as well as useful and valuable ones will be tendered the winning audience members. Prizes include personal gifts from Art Linkletter of "People are Funny"; Jack Bailey of "Queen for a Day"; John Nelson of "Bride and Groom"; and other Hollywood stars with whom Pierce has been associated. In addition, the famous breakfast in Hollywood sterling silver wishing ring and the orchid to the oldest woman will be presented to two lucky winners.

Prizes and surprises are also in store for the tallest man, the shortest woman, the couple married the longest, the most recently married couple, and others. The "party" atmosphere is carried on throughout the entire show by audience participation in Pierce's feats of magic.

The fun fiesta, which employs some 25 members of the audience as stars of the show, brings an unusual and amusing evening of entertainment to Carrizozo.

Baptist Youth Meeting Slated For Green Tree

A Baptist youth meeting is slated for March 15 at Green Tree in the First Baptist church there at 7 P.M., according to Rev. Jesse Allen, pastor of the church in that village.

Other guests from the college at Portales who are featured on the program include Laverne Carder, song leader; Miss Tommy Mullins, pianist; and Miss Margaret Levett, vocalist. Chaperones are Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Portales. Refreshments will be served at the close of the program and business meeting.

Members of the Ft. Stanton Guild at Ft. Stanton Hospital will hold a bake sale at Cummins Food Market, Capitán, March 15. Proceeds from the sale, which starts at 10 A.M., will be used for needy families in that area.

Carrizozo To Host Teachers At All-Day Meeting March 21

Carrizozo is the host village for the annual all-day meeting of the South Central District of New Mexico Education Association of be held here Friday, March 21, at the school auditorium. Registration starts at 9:30 A.M.

Membership of the association comprises teachers in Lincoln and Socorro Counties who meet each spring to discuss problems confronting the profession and other subjects of interest. This year an effort is being made to promote a closer relationship between the individual teachers and the association at local, district, state, and national levels.

Guest speakers are Tom Wiley, Santa Fe, state superintendent of public instruction; John P. Steiner, Albuquerque, executive secretary, New Mexico Education Association; Frank Angel, state department of education; and Dr. Keith S. Lowel, Civil Air Patrol. Steiner will conduct a panel discussion on the value of the local association to the state and national groups and to the individual. Dr. Lowel will discuss the importance of air science as a subject in the curriculum of present-day high schools.

Officers of the district group are: Iverson H. Burgess, Corona High School principal, president; D. C. Slaughter, supt. Magdalena Public Schools, vice president; and Miss Martha E. Kerr, Corona High School teacher, secretary-treasurer. There are 206 members in the two-county district organization. Preparations are being made by local officials for the comfort and pleasure of the visiting teachers.

Alamo Wrestlers Win Over Highlands High

Wrestlers from the New Mexico School for the Blind, Alamogordo, took six out of eight matches in competition with the mat stars of Highlands High School at Albuquerque, in a show sponsored by the Carrizozo Lions Club at the local gymnasium Saturday night. The Alamogordo students garnered two of the matches by falls and the other four by decisions. The Albuquerque wrestlers won their two by decisions. A decision counts only three points as against five markers for a fall. An exhibition match preceded the eight official ones staged during the evening's course.

Tapla of the Alamogordo grapplers, in the 155-pound class, is one of the outstanding wrestlers in the nation. He has never been defeated in approximately four years of completion, although a knee injury recently forced him out of a grapplers' show in Oklahoma.

Saturday night's exhibition was well attended, including about 70 Alamogordoans. The wrestlers from the school for the blind furnished the mat.

Only three schools in the state have wrestling teams. Two of them are in Albuquerque and the third is at Alamogordo. The Otero County grapplers have never been defeated by the Albuquerque teams.

Candidates' Positions On Ballot To Be Drawn

J. G. Moore, Carrizozo, Lincoln County clerk, announced this week a public meeting will be held at 11 A. M. March 17 in the district courtroom at Carrizozo for the purpose of determining candidates' positions on the primary election ballot.

Moore stated he will draw by lot the names of all primary election candidates to decide the ballot position. The drawing for position, he added, applies only to those offices for which there have been more than one filing in each party.

Cookie Sale

Carrizozo Girl Scouts will be out in full force Saturday supervising the annual Girl Scout cookie sale. The cookies will be available at local grocery stores from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Anyone wishing to place orders for them may contact Mrs. Fred English or Mrs. Ace Baty. Proceeds will be used to help defray the cost of uniforms for the Intermediate Girl Scout troop.

Barnum Withdraws From Mayor's Race

Large Crowd Attends Mounted Patrol Dance

One of the largest crowds ever to assemble in Carrizozo was at the local Country Club Saturday night when Troop 5 of the New Mexico Mounted Patrol held its annual dance. Approximately 25 patrol members and their wives were on hand to greet the guests. Wilbur Coe, Glencoe, and his orchestra provided music for dancing.

Peter Hurd, San Patricio, prominent artist, opened the program with several vocal selections, accompanying himself on his guitar. During the evening, Hurd attracted groups of guests at various spots in the hall as he strummed the guitar and sang Spanish numbers. His guest, John Meigs, well known artist from Hawaii, obliged with two pantomime dance numbers. Mrs. Leota Pfingsten entertained the guests with several vocal selections including the popular "Mocking Bird Hill."

Meigs is assisting Hurd with a mural 15 feet tall and 57 feet long designed for an insurance company's new building in Houston. The miniature panels are completed, but it will take approximately two months to duplicate them on permanent plaster and put in final form. Meigs is also at work on a mural for the Nixon Hotel at Roswell.

Troop 5 of the New Mexico Mounted Patrol meets monthly for pistol practice and other duties. The troop has a membership of approximately 30 men, who, in an emergency, are pledged to assist the governor of New Mexico, the FBI and the state police.

Local Eastern Star Meet In Alamogordo

The March regular monthly meeting of Carrizozo Comet Chapter No. 29, Order of Eastern Star, was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Goodson, Alamogordo, member of the local organization and honored past matrons.

A tour of the New Mexico School for the Blind in that town was included in the afternoon's program, after which the hostesses attractively served and taste tempting refreshments were enjoyed by the group.

Members who attended the conclave in the neighboring town were Mesdames Frank English, Rose Slitton, Emma Degner, Elena Sale, R. E. Lemon; Misses Frances Degner and Grace Jones, Carrizozo; Mrs. Guselle Titworth and Mrs. Clara Lowe, Capitán; Mrs. Frances Shaw, Fort Stanton, and Mrs. Pearl Bostian, Ruidoso.

Mrs. Betty Nickels School Supt. Candidate

Candidate for the office of county schools superintendent on the Republican ticket is Mrs. Betty Nickels, Carrizozo, wife of William H. Nickels, proprietor of a building and hardware company here and in Capitán.

The former Betty Bleasmeier is a native of Chicago, Illinois, where she met her husband. The couple were married there in 1937.

Mrs. Nickels is a graduate of Northwestern University at Evanston, Illinois, where she received the Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Music Education degrees. She also did graduate work at New Mexico Western College, Silver City, during the summer of 1938 to obtain her New Mexico teacher's certificate.

The candidate, mother of two small children, has previously taught grade school at San Patricio, as well as done substitute teaching in the grade schools at Lincoln and Capitán.

The name of the Carrizozoan appeared in the 1940 edition of "Who's Who in Music in America." Mrs. Nickels stated that if elected she will work for the best interests of county school students.

Penalties On License Plates Start March 20

H. Elfred Jones, Carrizozo, car licenses distributor for this county, said this week no penalties will be assessed on overdue plates before March 20.

Jones reported his office has on hand all passenger car plates that have been ordered previously, as well as a sufficient number for those who have not yet made application.

No truck plates have been received, and it is the understanding of Jones that none have been delivered over the state with the exception of a few that were delivered early. Applications may be submitted for truck plates, and numbers will be assigned and receipts given, so that the plates may be delivered as soon as they arrive.

The Carrizozoan requests that all residents in the county who have purchased passenger car plates, but have not yet picked them up, please do so at their earliest convenience.

News & Views From Your Nation's Capitol

By JOHN J. DEMPSEY Congressman from New Mexico Washington, March 13—Now that the smoke of battle over Universal Military Training has cleared with the return of the proposed legislation to the House Armed Services Committee for further study, a fairly clear appraisal of the reasons for the vote of 236 to 162 on the recom-mittal motion is possible. The 236 Members of the House who voted to send the bill back to Committee may be grouped as follows:

(1) Those who opposed UMT in principle. (2) Those who favored UMT in principle but believed the bill brought out of committee had not been considered sufficiently with particular regard to the damaging impact it would have on the lives of the nation's youth and manpower distribution.

(3) Those who believed no equitable or effective UMT program was possible so long as draft under Selective Service is in operation. (4) Those who believed that the proposed bill gave too much arbitrary control to the Military without retaining sufficient regulatory authority by the Congress which, in the final analysis, must be directly responsible to the people of the nation for the creation and operation of any UMT program.

The vote to recommit was not partisan. Probably no other important legislation considered by the 82nd Congress was less affected by political consideration than was this UMT bill. Both Representative Carl Vinson, chairman, and Representative Paul Kilday, ranking Democratic member of the House Armed Services Committee, pointed out that UMT, as set up under provisions of the bill, was impractical and could not be operated successfully as long as Selective Service is inducting men into the armed services. Amendment to the bill to make it effective only when drafting of men by Selective Service had ceased was proposed by Chairman Vinson and approved, but the amendment was killed by subsequent parliamentary procedure. It then became apparent the only way a satisfactory bill could be worked out would be by returning it to the committee for further consideration. My vote was cast to recommit.

President Truman's message to the Congress requesting $7.9 billion for foreign aid under the Mutual Security program for the coming fiscal year attempted to offer justification for continuation of military and economic assistance to our present allies. It is doubtful, in my opinion and in that of many Members of the Congress, whether the President justified continuation of several phases, especially economic, of the foreign aid program on the scale he proposes.

Present indications are that a material cut will be made in the 7.9 billion figure by the Congress. Some estimates run as high as a slash of $2 billion. I share the judgment of those who feel that a reasonable foreign aid program should be continued, but it should be predicated more strongly on the extent to which other nations are willing to help themselves.

The United States cannot carry the preponderant share of the burden imposed by the fight against Communist world aggression indefinitely. In my judgment the time is here when the Congress should put on the brakes—put them on reasonably and intelligently, but put them on.

It is difficult for me to justify expenditure of billions of American dollars abroad while our own people are being denied benefits that will accrue from a comparatively small outlay for development and conservation of our own resources. The emergency situation in the Middle Rio Grande where water conservation and flood control are desperately needed, is a case in point. Yet we are paying for that very sort of projects in several nations under the Mutual Security Program. I fail to see the mutuality in such a program.

Assignment New Mexico

By G. WARD FENLEY

This is the week. Good old, pleasant, gratifying, harmonious inkum tacks time. Richard Wheeler (Pathfinder) had it right in his quatrain: "Who will always vow to file Long before the deadline? I'll Who is running short of time Now that it's approaching? I'm."

Yes sir, March is when income tax chiselers come in lyin' and go out on the lam.

I don't think we can lay all our troubles in March to the Bureau of Internal Revenue. A lot of it can be laid to seasonal diseases.

With spring almost here probably we can attribute a lot of it to young men's fancies.

The Aztec Independent had a cute item this last week. The editor said that County Clerk Virginia Kittell received a letter addressed:

"Dear-Madam: due to circumstances I have made up my mind that it will be impossible for the marriage to continue will you please cancel the marriage . . . January 25, 1952. Please send me written paper showing that this is cancelled." It was not from an Indian.

Another guy in trouble—marital, that is—was that 72-year-old plumber, Bruce Steele of El Paso, who has been married 17 times to 14 women and who is the father of 31 children.

In reporting the incident, the Albuquerque Tribune quoted Steele: "I married Nellie twice and Fannie three times. They come and go. Some are dear, some divorced, and some still living."

Parents are always having trouble in bringing up children. Ed Guthmann (Springer Tribune) reported on a young professor and his wife who were meticulous about what they said in front of little Johnny.

Ed said the father came home one night with a cherry: "Well, how is everything?"

"Oh John," wailed the young wife, "I've had a hell of a d-a-y."

Jack Sitton listed Dan Burrows not only as editor of the Albuquerque Journal but as saying that the Democrats' theme song this year should be: "Deep in the Heart of Taxes."

The Albuquerque Journal said that Gov. Allan Shivers had commuted the death sentence of one George McCune to live imprisonment. Going to forcibly keep him going, we suppose.

In noting the sale of KOB and KOB-TV, the Tucumcari Daily News said that the "FCC must still approve the etc." A grand and glorious time will be had by all.

And the Silver City Press is sure that most people go to work each morning without an adequate breakfast.

Ed Guthmann sent me an editorial from the New Mexican saying, "Both the Democrats and Republicans are now feverishly in favor of giving Los Alamos proper county representation." Changed their minds, we suppose.

And in conclusion, nobody, no matter how much tax he has to pay or how bad are his marital troubles, is in such a jam as the man the Farmington Times talked about last week.

The paper reported: "Although the atomic bomb was set off from a 100-foot tower, it pounded a 2,400-foot wide shallow bowl in the man who registered for the draft surrounding the earth."

That's Buck Rogersish if we ever heard it.

That's all except to remind Lincoln O'Brien (Gallup Independent) that even if we have Feb. 29 every four years, there's no such animal as Feb. 30.

Batavia was the name of an ancient Germanic people who inhabited a part of present Holland.

Lt. Carlos Salas Jr. Home On Furlough

Lieut. Carlos Salas Jr., son of State Patrolman and Mrs. Carlos Salas Sr., Carrizozo, visited his parents here recently while on a 30-day furlough. He has just returned from Japan after service with the Fifth Ranger Company, anti-aircraft artillery, in Korea, since January, 1951. He is presently assigned to temporary duty at Fort Bliss, Texas. He is now visiting friends and relatives in this area but expects to return to Carrizozo for another visit with his parents before reporting back on active duty.

Young Salas is a holder of the Presidential unit citation, the Purple Heart, Silver Star, paratrooper's badge, Infantryman's badge, Bronze Star, Korean Ribbon, Naval Unit Citation, and Philippine Presidential Citation.

More than 6,600 experienced Scout campers from 35 states enjoyed rugged wilderness camping in 1951 at the Philmont Scout Ranch in New Mexico. Maintained by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, it comprises 127,000 acres and is the largest Scout camp in the world.

Car Recovered

The automobile belonging to Elmer Eaker, local druggist, was recovered last week about two miles east of Lincoln after having been taken from alongside Eaker's drug store where it was parked. The keys had inadvertently been left in the car, and the druggist said he heard the horn sound and thinking it was someone blowing it to attract his attention looked out the window but saw nothing amiss. The horn had apparently been blown as the person attempted to start the car. The identity of the thief who took the car has not yet been ascertained.

The car, with two blown tires, was found in a rocky bar pit near Lincoln. C. A. Snow, local oil distributor, noticed the car on his way to Roswell and notified Eaker of its discovery.

NOGAL MESA

By DOROTHY GUCK

Whee, am I breathing easier this week! We didn't win the beef given away by the Carrizozo Lions Club. My husband had invited half the people in the county to a steak supper, if he won.

Floy Skinner purchased a calf from Ben Pfingsten last week, but I don't think he intends to eat it right away.

And while I'm on the bovine subject, it's astounding what intriguing things those creatures do. LaMoyné Peters' milk cow refuses to step into news anymore, but the repercussions from her past escapades travel far. The most ardent guffaws to LaMoyné's predicaments came from his brother-in-law, Bob Pfingsten of Tucumcari. One night recently, Bob's cow, prompted by a gnawing urge in the pit of her stomach, searched for a bedtime snack. Bob had conveniently left the door open to the feed. She proceeded to make a pig of herself, and conveniently died before depleting the entire stock of feed. Guess who is laughing now?

Letter to Editor

Editor, News-Outlook:
Since it is only a matter of a few weeks until the Municipal election, I think a brief resume of what has happened since the last election and what is still in the pot cooking is in order.

I have no interest politically except to see that the incumbent officials get the recognition that is due them and to bring the facts as I see them before any new officials that may be elected, and above all to present the actual Village problems to the people of the Village.

About the only satisfaction a city official, or for that matter a city employee gets out of his job is the satisfaction of serving his community, and trying to do a good job. As you well know the Mayor and Councilmen get no money not even expense money when on City business. From where I stand it looks like about all they receive is abuse.

The most controversial subject today seems to be the Light and Power plant. In my opinion the same arguments that were good last year are still good today. Also I am quite sure the Village officials want to go along with what the majority of the people in the village want. The reason for turning down the R.E.A. offer last year was the fact that we were not offered what the plant was worth. They offered to take over the bonds and give us the locker and ice plants, but wanted the $10,000.00 surplus that was built up in the Light and Power fund. On the face of it it don't look so bad, but the locker and ice plants will be a liability to the Village, rather than an asset if we have to buy power to run them. They actually use about 20 percent of all the power that we generate. A total of about 200,000 KW at 2 cents per KW the power would cost us $4000.00 per year. Each plant will have to have one full time employee there is another $5000.00. Supplies will take another $1000 which about accounts for the total income. Since several bonding companies are willing to give us $250,000.00 or refund the outstanding bonds and to purchase new equipment it seems to me that the plant is worth more than $100,000.00.

The new rates that were installed on the advice of the Engineering firm will be binding only if we accept the offer of the bonding company that holds our existing bonds, and since we have had a better offer it is reasonable to assume that those rates can be revised downward. There seems to be some question as to the accuracy of the Village meters. The same problem came up last summer in regards to the water meters and the same offer that was good last summer is good today. The village will have the meter in question checked by a disinterested party, and I think it would only be fair to have the results printed in the paper.

I don't think anyone really expects to get something for nothing, and selling our light plant will not solve the Village's financial problems. In the first place, the picture that the El Paso Engineering firm gives us is accurate only as far as our books are accurate, this is also true with the budget report. It has been suggested by a former manager (Mr. Moore) when he was here, by me, by the Engineering firm and by our accounting firm that we install a uniform accounting system (this is mandatory when a private firm operates a utility). Not because of any irregularities in our Clerk's office but because the present system is inadequate, and does not give a true picture of the City business. For instance the total Village payroll last year was about $28,000.00 and of that $22,000.00 was charged to the light and power fund. Now if we sell the power plant our payroll will still be in excess of $15,000.00. This plus other Village expenses will have to come from some place.

Another item all capital expense has and is being charged to whatever fund that had money in it, that of course does not give us a true picture of actual costs of the various utilities. I will hasten to add that the Mayor and council has authorized our accounting firm to install a new more modern system.

The Gas plant has been a losing proposition for some time. Chiefly because the life of pipe in this soil is from 3 to 10 years (my authority for these figures is the Public Service Commission). The pipe has been in 13 years. Faced with the problem of selling the plant or replacing the mains the Village decided to sell the plant. The only offer was not acceptable, so the only alternative is to fix it up. The estimated cost for fixing it up is $15,000.00, and the Village is negotiating with a bond firm at present to get the money. It is very probable that when it is repaired we will be able to cut the gas rates.

In a few months we will have the same old water problem with us again. Most of you know what has happened, but for the benefit of those that don't, I will try as briefly as possible to tell what has happened. First about a year ago Ashley Classen and Associates of El Paso made a survey for the Village (at no cost to the Village) to determine what we need and could do. They said we can't pay 50 cents per thousand for water and recommended the two drill two wells and put in a pumping plant. We were also very fortunate to get the School of Mines to make a survey for us (also free) to determine where the best water could be found in quantities that would be worthwhile. While this was going on the S.P.

HURD EXHIBITS IN ROSWELL

Peter Hurd, San Patricio, well known Lincoln County artist, displayed 50 studies in black and white and in color at the museum in Roswell recently. Entitled "Field Sketches From Peter Hurd's Studio," the Saturday showing was reserved for museum members while the exhibit was open to the public on Sunday.

The Lincoln County man's works included some of his greatest water colors and temperas.

came up with the idea that we could go along with Vaughn and other villages along the R.R. right of way and purchase the R.R. water system. A joint board was appointed by the towns involved to investigate and determine whether it was feasible. The board's Engineer did not report favorably on it. Since then the Santa Fe and the S.P. have both come up with another proposition. The Mayor is working on that now, and will have more complete information on it in the near future.

If this article has cleared up any questions it has served its purpose.

Shown above is Miss Diana Sandefer, Las Vegas, who will represent this state as New Mexico princess in the annual Cherry Blossom Festival to be held at the Nation's capital, Washington, D. C., April 3-6. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert B. Sandefer of Las Vegas and Washington, D. C., she is a student at Mount Vernon Junior College in the eastern city. The family has a ranch near Las Vegas, and Miss Sandefer, an expert rider, can round up cattle and sheep with the best of the ranchmen. A movie studio once made a short of her riding and roping. Her major interests at school are writing and languages.

N. M. Princess Named In Washington Festival

Miss Diana Sandefer, Las Vegas, was named this week by the New Mexico State Society as state princess in the annual cherry blossom festival April 3-6 in Washington, D. C. She will be presented at a state dance in the near future.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert B. Sandefer, Las Vegas and Washington, the 18-year-old girl is a student at Mount Vernon Junior College in the nation's capital.

A rider since the age of two, she twirls the lariat and can round up sheep and cattle with the best of the ranchmen. A movie studio once made a short of her riding and roping. At Mount Vernon, her major interests are writing and languages. The summer months are spent with her family at their Dead Horse ranch near Las Vegas.

Miss Sandefer's personal mount is a thoroughbred quarter horse, Tejas Rey, a pedigree chestnut from the King ranch. Her future mount, now being trained at the family ranch, is a product of the Chestnut breeding, Dee Dee. She has her own small herd of Herefords and a boxer dog, Malabar, brought to her by her father from novelist Louis Bromfield's Malabar Farm in Ohio.

The New Mexican is a member of the Daughters of American Revolution, and has been page at the C. A. R. national meeting in Washington for several years. She will be a National Press page at the D. A. R. conclave which follows the festival.

Miss Sandefer's father is concert tour director of the U. S. Navy and Air Force bands with headquarters in Washington. He directs the summer artist series for New Mexico Highlands University near his ranch. Her mother, Inez Woodard Sandefer, is an author and biographer.

GPA MEETS

Approximately 24 members of the White Mountain Game Protective Association attended the March 6 meeting at the American Legion Hall in Capitan. The group enjoyed an enchilada supper prior to the business conference.

One main point of business was the vote to permit women active membership in the organization. The program included a showing of a wildlife film on big game in Alaska.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 3 in the grade school auditorium in Carrizozo. More films on wildlife are planned and the public is invited. Refreshments will be served.

Warning Issued On Pesticide Supplies

Here are three repeat suggestions from pesticide specialists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

They again warn farmers to order basic needs for insecticides, fungicides, and weed killers well ahead of the time farmers plan to use them.

They point out that sulfate, and lead arsenate are already in short supply. They advise growers to use alternate materials wherever possible.

And they caution farmers to keep alert to changed growing conditions or unexpectedly severe attacks by insects or plant diseases. Such developments could cause sudden acute shortages of pesticides.

Taft Speaks In Roswell

Senator Robert Taft was welcomed to Roswell Thursday by prominent members of both the Republican and Democratic parties, city dignitaries, and representatives of civic organizations. A public address system was provided to assure the senator's speech being heard by the large number of persons who had indicated their interest in his talk. A police guard of honor met Taft's plane at the municipal airport and escorted him to the Chavez County courthouse, where he was scheduled to address the public from the courthouse steps at noon.

Invitations were issued to surrounding towns in this area to hear Senator Taft who left for Albuquerque immediately following his address in Roswell.

Notice

Due to unforeseen circumstances which have arisen, it is necessary that I withdraw as a candidate for mayor of Carrizozo. This is very regrettable on my part, but I know as things now stand, that I would be unable to devote sufficient time to the duties of mayor. This would jeopardize the services which the citizens of Carrizozo are justly entitled to.

on the increase with new and expanding Federal land policies. Forehand said: "Our Association and industry is pressing for a uniform public land Tenancy Act to encourage stability and conservation of these lands and we hope such a law will be introduced and passed in the present session of Congress."

An information booth staffed by the State Land Office will be set up at Convention Headquarters in the Hilton Hotel to explain procedure now being used by that office to lease state lands on a carrying capacity basis. "The livestock industry endorsed a law in the last state legislature to facilitate this action so that state lands would provide income for our public schools on a fair production basis rather than as a flat fee which had been the previous policy of the office," Forehand continued.

State and national taxes, live stock marketing problems, government price controls, freight rates, predatory animal control, range development and credit matters were also listed by the organization president as subjects to receive consideration of the convention.

"With dreaded foot and mouth disease in Canada, our industry must be on the alert for possible spread of the malady into this country. Scientific research shows the disease will live in freezing temperatures almost indefinitely and so the outbreak in Canada may not be completely stamped out for many months," Forehand said. "We are fortunate, however, that Africa in the Republic of Mexico has apparently been eradicated. The last outbreak in that country was in August of 1931."

A survey shows that more than 3,000 cattlemen and their families will attend the convention. Meeting sessions will be held at the Sunshine Theater, entertainment at the Army and head quarters in the Hilton Hotel. A luncheon for visiting ladies will take place at the Albuquerque Country Club, Monday noon, March 24.

LINCOLN

By MRS. J. E. PHILLIPS

The Girl Scouts are very busy getting ready for the FFA talent show at Capitan Friday night. I've heard of several local entries that should be good. Let's all go.

The Lincoln School eighth graders are getting out an annual this year. They collected ads in Roswell this week.

March is living up to its reputation—but that's all right, if April brings showers—and May, flowers.

Interest is mounting in regard to the talent show in Budoos. Our Girl Scouts are entering it, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hulbert and children were here for the weekend visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Gilles went to Roswell Wednesday.

High Production Aim Of Conservation Plan.

The 1952 Agricultural Conservation Program puts the emphasis on conservation for continued production. It provides farmers with an incentive to plan farming operations for the years ahead, says County Agent Austin Albert.

As he sees it, any program to mean anything to farmers must be based on the fact that the farmer's main purpose is to make a living. Other considerations, such as proper use of the land, production to meet defense requirements, or even the generally accepted "the farm is a good place to raise a family" must fit in with this primary purpose.

"Most farmers are interested in farming in such a way that in 1952 the land will continue to turn out good crops," he continues. "They are concerned with sound farm planning that gives a prominent place to soil and water conservation."

Albert urges farmers who are planning for the next crop year to determine the best use of each field from the standpoint of future as well as current production and to select Agricultural Conservation Program practices that best support this determination.

Child Art Show To Open

New Mexico's third annual state-wide Child Art Show which will open in Santa Fe April 20, has been approved by the North Central Association of colleges and secondary schools.

Local child art exhibits in various towns will precede the state show, with winning entries in the local showings to be forwarded to the state exhibit.

The "festival" method of judging will be followed this year in the state show, permitting the board of judges more freedom in making awards than has previously been the case.
