Meetings Held To Discuss Fruit Plant

A group of Carrizozo businessmen attended a meeting of the White Mountain Apple Growers Association Monday night at the Bonnell ranch near Hondo to interest its members in locating a proposed packing plant in this village. Will Ed Harris was spokesman for the local group which included Marvin Roberts mayor-elect; Fred English and S. C. Snow, Mrs. Leslie Kinnard co-publisher of the Lincoln County News, accompanied the group as a representative of the press.

The Carrizozoans explained their village has no desire to upset the plans of the association or interfere in any of its arrangements, but that a number of residents are interested in learning whether it is feasible to bring the plant to Carrizozo. It was emphasized that the group attending the meeting had no power to offer the apple growers anything at that time, and that it merely wanted to know what the association would need and expect from Carrizozo as an inducement to locate in this village.

One fear expressed by the fruit growers was the possible damage to their apples in the long haul to Carrizozo. A spirited discussion on that subject led to the conclusion that with certain precautions exercised by the pickers, that obstacle could be surmounted. The apple growers themselves, according to Bert Plingsten, who heads the association's executive committee, are not yet fully organized and the project, still in its infancy, has a number of details which necessitate clarification. Machinery has been ordered and the plant must be in operation by August 15 if it is to have an opportunity to function successfully this year. One advantage of the Carrizozo location, in the opinion of the fruit growers, might be the possibility that the Devil's Canyon road which starts at Fort Stanton and terminates on Highway 70 at the Bonnell ranch, could be declared a farm-to-market road and construction for it approved.

Monday night's meeting with the apple growers had been preceded with a conference of local businessmen Friday afternoon in the Lyric Theater, at which time a committee was named to investigate the project. Following the Hondo convalesce, when the two groups agreed to determine what each side required for successful operation of the project and present their findings, the local committee scheduled a meeting Tuesday night at the office of Marvin Roberts, local Ford dealer. Carrizozoans attending that conference were Roberts, Fred English, Will Ed Harris, Cliff Zumwalt, Roy Shafer and Mrs. Leslie Kinnard. A number of factors which require additional information were discussed, and the committee plans to secure the necessary data for submission to the fruit growers in the very near future.

Clyde R. Keaton, State College, Las Cruces, associate economist in marketing (fruits and vegetables), explained the various gradings and coloring of apples, and showed a film depicting the growing of the famed Washington apples in irrigated deserts. The movie also depicted the handling of the apples from the time they are picked to the time they reach the markets of the world. An interesting sidelight was the showing of the grading, packing and shipping processes with machinery which is similar to that ordered by the Lincoln County organization.

Hostess Mrs. Sydney Bonnell supervised the serving of coffee and the two huge and delicious angel food cakes with maple icing, which were brought by Mrs. Elzie Perry and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Leroy Perry, to 22 guests.

Liquor Dealers To Meet

A meeting of the Lincoln County Retail Liquor Dealers will be held at the VFW Hall in Capitan April 30 at 2 P. M., according to Carl DeBord, Ruidoso, president of the group.

Corona Winner In Bean Valley Conference Track Meet; Vaughn 2nd

The Bean Valley Conference track meet held at Vaughn last Saturday was won by Corona with a total of 71 1/2 points. Vaughn was runnerup with 60 1/2 markers. Other scores included Estancia 34, Carrizozo 27 1/2, Mountainair 11 1/2, and Encino 3. Teams from Stanley and Moriarty did not attend the Vaughn meet. High point man for the Corona team was Norwood Vickery with 27 points which included a first in the 440, the 100-yard dash, the discus, and the shot put. He set a new record in the shot put with a toss of 44 feet and 1/2 inch.

Seven youths made the Corona victory possible with first places being scored in six of the 14 events. Corona completed conference competition with a clean sweep in athletics. Team championships have been won this year in football, basketball and track.

Two other records set at the conference were those by Bobby Hicks, Carrizozo, who made the mile dash in 4 minutes and 58.4 seconds (taking approximately 22 seconds off the old mark), and the 880-yard run in 2:15.4 (taking about 5 seconds off the former record).

The junior high school track meet was won by Vaughn with 89 points. Corona was second with 22 1/2 points, while Carrizozo came in third with 22 markers. Sammy Sildham, Ancho, made all 22 points for the local team.

The District 14 track meet will be held Saturday at the high school football field in Alamogordo. The preliminaries will be held Saturday afternoon with the finals scheduled tomorrow night at 7:30.

Funeral Services Held For Reuben Rodgers, 6

Funeral services were held at the Ancho schoolhouse Friday afternoon for 6-year-old Reuben E. Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rodgers, Luna, who succumbed at the local hospital April 16. Rev. L. S. Markham, Claunch, officiated. Interment was at the Ancho Cemetery.

The Ancho school children sang "Jesus Loves Me" and "Jesus Loves the Little Children." The little boy's favorite songs, "Put My Little Shoes Away" and "Little Church in the Wildwood," were sung by Mrs. Rebecca Wedell and Mrs. Milton Jones. Pallbearers included Parker Toshi, Wayman Lightfoot, P. A. Sildham and A. W. Nunn, all co-workers of the youngster's father.

The deceased, who was born in Lordsburg on April 29, 1946, is survived by his parents, a brother Billy Ray Rodgers, Ancho, and two sisters, Miss Elizabeth Rodgers, Ancho, and Mrs. Mary Hobbs of Hatchita.

Apology

Our sincere apology to Mrs. Gladys Morris, owner of the Morris Beauty Shop, Carrizozo, whose name should have been on the page of sponsors of the band. Mrs. Morris not only paid her fee for sponsorship but also bought enough tickets to have rated a good sized ad for her shop. The band and school appreciate this unselfish kind of backing.

Thank you, REBECCA WEDELL.

GPA To Meet

The White Mountain Game Protective Association will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Navajo Lodge, Ruidoso, on May 1.

Movies on wildlife will be shown and a guest speaker from the State Game and Fish Department is expected to attend.

MISS ERNESTINE RUSH

Pictured above is Miss Ernestine Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Rush, Yeso, whose engagement and approaching marriage to George L. Dean, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dean, Bingham, has just been announced. The date of the wedding which is to take place at Yeso in June, has not yet been revealed.

The Bingham man, a graduate of the Carrizozo High School class of 1950, is a student at State College, Las Cruces, where he is majoring in business administration. He has two sisters, Connie Dean, a senior at the local high school, and Sally Ann Dean.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the 1951 class at Fort Sumner High School and is also attending the college at Las Cruces.

Trinity A-Bomb Tourist Attraction Must Wait

Tourists will have to delay their trek to Trinity, site of the first A-bomb explosion test in 1945, and located only a few miles northwest of Carrizozo. Local residents in the area have told of seeing a blinding white flash of light at the time the bomb was exploded, as well as reported broken dishes and windows.

National Park Service officials explain the area is in the Alamogordo bombing range now being used for secret missile firing and that the development of the monument for the public may be years away. They add that hazards to public health and safety of the area are other reasons why the opening of Trinity as a tourist mecca may be delayed.

It was disclosed by U. S. Rep. A. M. Fernandez that the Park Service has asked its Santa Fe office to make preliminary field studies in preparation for establishment of the national monument. Fernandez was Gov. Edwin L. Mechem's representative at a meeting in Washington on April 2, when it was agreed the site would be preserved at a desert point near Carrizozo. The governor had requested the meeting when he learned the Atomic Energy Commission planned to fill in the bomb crater. The congressman had already introduced a bill to make Trinity a monument, and only slight changes were deemed necessary to make the measure acceptable to the various governmental agencies.

Although the location of the crater is generally given as Alamogordo in news releases, the site is actually only a very few miles from Carrizozo, while it is approximately 60 miles from Alamogordo. It is quite possible the area should be credited as one of the tourist attractions in Lincoln County; especially in view of the fact that when the unpaved portion of Highway 54 in this county is completed, a huge increase of traffic is bound to result.

Scouts Hold Cookout

Approximately 15 members of the Carrizozo Brownies and Intermediate Girl Scout troops held a cookout on the T. A. Spencer Jr. ranch near the Mal Pais last Saturday. Chaperones included Mesdames Spencer, Fred English, Larry Stockton and Ace Baty.

The next event on the Scouts agenda is the Silver Tea scheduled for May 11. Watch this paper for further details which are to be announced later.

First Annual Carrizozo Music Festival Proves Highly Successful

A successful future for the Carrizozo High School Band and Glee Clubs appeared certain after Friday night's first public performance in what is planned as an annual music festival. Members of the band and glee clubs and their director, Jerome Bartkus, school music teacher, were given loud and enthusiastic approval after every number, and, at the conclusion of the program, spontaneous applause recalled them for an encore. Although the band obliged with one more number, the audience was loath to let them leave.

Under the direction of Bartkus, the two groups had devoted much of their personal time during the past few weeks practicing the numbers included in the festival's program, and raising funds through the cooperation of local businessmen and other residents. Proceeds from Friday night's event will be applied toward purchase of much needed band instruments, and the ultimate goal of uniforms. With the remarkable progress shown since last fall when the school music teacher organized a small group of students and built a band and glee club practically from "scratch," it is not impossible or improbable that in the very near future the Carrizozo High School Band and Glee Clubs will be participating with distinction in school musical activities. The wholehearted support given the efforts of the local school group by the community is greatly appreciated, and band and glee club members are determined to add to their laurels in future performances.

The program, which included some of the most difficult march numbers in band literature, was skillfully executed. The undivided attention given Bartkus by his two groups during the concert is a tribute to his teaching and direction.

A novelty number, "Three Bears," which lived up to its reputation.

Rev. Stoney Expresses Thanks At Convocation

The Right Rev. James M. Stoney, bishop of the Episcopal Church district of New Mexico and West Texas, extended thanks to those throughout the wide area under his care for their help in bringing forward the work and service of the church at the convocation held last week in El Paso. The meetings marked the tenth anniversary of the Right Rev. Mr. Stoney's administration as bishop.

It was unanimously agreed that petition be made for this district to be called the Diocese of the Rio Grande.

The South Carolina man related an incident when as a 5-year-old boy he was pushed into the river by another boy and almost drowned. His older brother, now Bishop Stoney, jumped into the water, dragged him to safety, and then thrashed the boy who threw him into the water.

Those attending the convocation from Lincoln County were: Rev. and Mrs. O. J. Rainey of Fort Stanton, Charlie Culver of Ruidoso and Dan Storm, Glencoe.

Hurd, accompanied by John Meigs, artist from Hawaii, will leave shortly for Houston where he will be assisted by the latter in completing the murals for the new Prudential Life Insurance Company building there. Meigs was a prize winner in the recent Sun Carnival art show.

Enrollment To Be Held For Pre-School Children

Enrollment of pre-school age children for the 1952-1953 term in Carrizozo will be held May 2 at 3 P. M. in the grade school building, according to L. Z. Manire, superintendent.

The local official urges parents of all children who will be eligible to attend school next fall to register them on the May 2 date.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Horton, 29, Tinnie, arraigned in Carrizozo Monday before Justice of the Peace John Mackey, pleaded innocent to a charge of slaying her husband, Manuel Horton, 51, early Sunday morning. Preliminary hearing is scheduled for April 30 at 2 P. M., and bond set at $5,000. At press time, the sheriff's office reported her bond had not been made and she is being held in the local jail. It is expected the court will appoint an attorney.

According to State Police Captain E. A. Tafuya, Mrs. Horton is reported as signing a statement that she shot her husband seven times at the height of a domestic argument. Police reported she stated she bought the pistol several months ago when the couple separated and she had him placed under a peace bond. Discard between the couple flared again Sunday morning, according to the statement, when Horton ordered her to feed their chickens and rabbits after they returned from an all-night party that allegedly started with a dance at San Patricio. The Tinnie housewife said her husband had been sitting in their truck drinking from the time the dance ended until about daybreak.

Captain Tafuya said the woman told him she took the revolver from a closet to care Horton, but that he continued to abuse her and she opened fire. Tafuya, who was assisted in the investigation by State Patrolman Carlos Salas, Carrizozo, reported the deceased was struck in the chest, stomach, arm and leg.

Mrs. Horton is the mother of two daughters, one 5 years old and the other 9 years of age, by a previous marriage. The children are presently being cared for by a neighbor.

Participants in the contest included eighth grade representatives from all the state's Catholic schools.

Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne of Albuquerque presented Miss Pacheco with a personally autographed dictionary.

Letter Of Appreciation

152 Commerce Street,
Taree, N. S. W., Australia.
Mr. Vernon Petty, Mayor,
Carrizozo, New Mexico.
Dear Sir:

Words cannot express my gratitude towards you for cooperating with me as you did and believe me your letter is the greatest treasure in our club. Although I know very little about Billy the Kid, only what I have got from you, but I still can't believe he was the sort of guy that would shoot a man in the back. In my opinion he was the greatest hero in the Old West, however, it is what you say, only time will heal the "sore spots."

Judging by the poster you sent me, you must live in a beautiful town with a very historic background. I only wish our town had some historic buildings or monuments of famous people to see. Taree is not very big, a population of about 10,000, moderate climate, being hot in the summer and rather cold in the winter. It is 250 miles from Sydney, which is the largest city in Australia. It is one of the largest dairy cow districts in Australia and produces great quantities of milk and cream and so forth.

I only wish I could accept your invitation and come over; maybe I will some day. Thanking you once again for your cooperation, "goodbye" and "au revoir."
Yours sincerely,
BARRY PATTERSON.

The new and improved Army Signal Corps field telephone set developed by the Bell Laboratories can be operated while wearing Arctic mitts and, because it is specially shaped at the ear piece, can be used without removing the helmet. It has many other features which are described in the accompanying article.

Labs Develop New
Phone For Signal Corps

A new and improved Army field telephone set that "listens" and "talks" much better, has a number of new wrinkles of interest to all veterans, and will gladden the heart of G. I. Joe.

The field telephone is a portable instrument used for communications during battle or maneuvers. The forerunner to the new set was a rugged piece of equipment used at one time or another by practically all Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Company men in service and every other Mountain Empire soldier or marine in World Wars I and II. It required only a couple of flashlight batteries to operate but furnished good transmission under most conditions. However, changes in battle techniques necessitates changes in design and operation of all Army equipment and the field telephone is no exception.

It is three pounds lighter than the sets now in use. It is smaller. It is so rugged it will survive parachute drops with ease. It is so efficient, it operates for several miles without batteries—on voice power alone. It works effectively at 40 degrees below or 130 above zero, and at altitudes as high as 50,000 feet. It can be dunked in water without ill effect. It can be operated by a soldier wearing long, heavy Arctic mitts and, because the handset is shaved at the earpiece, it fits beneath a helmet with ease, comfort and infinitely more safety to the soldier. The signal "bell"—actually a sharp, tapping sound such as a woodpecker makes—can be adjusted in loudness from complete silence, through a whisper, to a loud penetrating alarm.

The set was developed under a contract between the Signal Corps, the Western Electric Company, and the Bell Laboratories, members of the Bell System telephone team. Thus the set reflects both the laboratories' and Western's long experience in coordinating telephone development and manufacture as well as the Signal Corps' knowledge of field requirements and combat experience. The new set, to be known as EE-8B, incorporates improvements tested in the field by the Army and in commercial use by Mountain States and other operating companies in the Bell System.

Mobilgas
Economy Run

New Ford Mileage Maker SIX Thriftiest in its Field!

Again this year . . . as in the past two years . . . Ford was first in gas economy over all other cars in its price class in the Mobilgas Economy Run. In this toughest test, a stock model Ford Six equipped with Overdrive (optional at extra cost) averaged 53.855 ton-miles per gallon and 25.463 actual miles per gallon.

This was a very special triumph for Ford's All-New Mileage Maker high-compression Six. For now, with its new design providing 101-horsepower and free-turning overhead valves, Ford is definitely pound-for-pound the most economical low-priced car to run! Yes . . . Ford's thrift was clearly proved by the 1,415-mile grind from Los Angeles to San Valley. And a very important factor contributing to this victory is Ford's Automatic Power Pilot which squeezes the last ounce of power out of every drop of gas.

The AAA Costed Board determines the miles by a "ton-mile per gallon" formula. It hours equal shown for all cars in each class regardless of size and weight. Ton-miles per gallon equals the car weight (including passengers) in tons, multiplied by number of miles traveled, divided by number of gallons consumed.

NOGAL MESA

By DOROTHY GUCK

Our part of the country seems to be more popular each week-end. I can't understand why a person is willing to get up long before daybreak and travel from Carlsbad or Roswell or Alamogordo to sit dangling a pole at Nogal Lake, in hopes of catching one or two six-inch trout. Some of my family and the neighbors have been doing it too. Patience—a pull—a peewee perch!

Henry Peebles returned home from Missouri Sunday. He stopped in Thomas, Okla., and had a nice visit with the Tom Buchananans. He says Tom's wheat crop this year is beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Rammage of Fresno, Calif.; Mrs. Lenora Wilbur of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Clara Hershey of Klamath Falls, Ore., are visiting at the Peebles ranch. The three ladies, formerly named Breece, used to be residents of Lincoln County. They came with a large house trailer, intending to take an extended tour of the East.

Ivan Watson of State College will be up to look over Bobbie Peebles' sheep Thursday.

I know of three birthdays celebrated on the Mesa last week, Mrs. Roy LaMay's, Leota Pfingsten's and Lyda Peebles'.

Ben Pfingsten has returned from Tucumcari where he visited his mother. After quite a sleet spell, he learned he has an allergy.

Messrs. Huber and McCutcheon of the Albuquerque forest office are accompanying Supervisor Moore on a general inspection of both the Capitán and White Mountain ranger districts this week.

Part of the telephone service of the county was disrupted Monday while Virgil Jones moved his house into Capitán.

Peg Pfingsten's dog Beaver is dead. If obituaries were written for canines, I'm sure his would be long and glorious. I have seen Beaver work cattle when I thought he took the place of two pretty good cowboys. He seemed to sense his master's wishes. The dog died of the ailments accompanying old age.

NOGAL

By MRS. A. B. ZUMWALT, JR.

The Nogal Presbyterian Church was officially organized Sunday by the session of the Pecos Valley Presbytery. The ladies of the church brought casseroles of food and served supper at the church. Rev. Jim Hall of Hobbs, son of Rev. Ralph Hall, preached the sermon. Rev. Homer Tagler of Roswell supervised the organizational work. Rev. Wilbur Randall of Eunice was moderator. There were several elders and visitors present, including F. L. Osmondson, T. C. Werner, Philip Smith, Ed Malone of Eunice, George Carson, Bill Vaughn, R. A. Crosby, Charles Sparks and J. D. Hatch of Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Homer Tagler of Roswell and Dr. W. M. Orr of Albuquerque.

J. Keith, Mert Zumwalt, Johnson Stearns and A. B. Zumwalt built some seats last week for the church. They are very nice.

Joe Don Womack's Prize Winning Essay

(Ed's Note: The following essay won second place for Joe Don Womack, Fort Stanton, in the New Mexico contest sponsored by the grand lodge of the state's Odd Fellows group, thereby assuring him status as a member of the United Nations Youth Pilgrimage to New York.

WHAT THE UNITED NATIONS MEANS TO ME

By JOE DON WOMACK
The organization of the United Nations was the greatest step ever taken to prevent wars and bring about international peace and world progress. For this reason I think every citizen of the world should be made to realize what an important step that was, and how it can and does affect his own countrymen, friends and family. Everyone in the world should know the purpose, the basic principles of the UN and how it operates. Before I can say what it means to me, I must say what it really is, and what it stands for.

After several conferences and meetings, representatives from 50 nations of the world met at the San Francisco conference where they signed the charter of a United Nations organization. The charter is joined with the statute of the International Court of Justice.

This voluntary union of nations became known as the United Nations or UN for short. The charter provides for certain groups to carry on the work of the United Nations. These are the General Assembly, the Security Council, the Trusteeship Council, the Secretariat, the International Court of Justice, and the Economic and Social Council. The General Assembly is the assembly of all nations in the UN in which each has equal vote. It is sometimes called the "town meeting" for the United Nations, where all can say what they think. The General Assembly meets once a year and more often if necessary. It has the right to discuss problems, make studies and make recommendations for promoting international cooperation in social, cultural, educational, political, economic and health matters.

The Security Council is composed of 11 member nations: The United States, United Kingdom, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, China and France are permanent members. The other six are chosen by the General Assembly for terms of two years each, and are not eligible for immediate re-election.

Each member of the Security Council has one vote. Decisions on important matters require seven votes but these seven must include the five permanent members. This is the rule referred to as the "veto."

The purpose of the Security Council can take prompt action without waiting for the General Assembly to pass on the decision in case of emergency. The Security Council is aided by a military staff committee composed of the chiefs of staff of the five permanent members or their representatives. In the case of an act of aggression the UN first may order severance of political and economic relations with aggressor. If this doesn't restore peace each member country tells the council how many soldiers and facilities it will place at the council's disposal, and then the UN may take action with land, sea and air forces.

The purpose of the other council of the UN includes studies and recommendations on food relief, education, social life, cultural life, health and other things which have to do with human rights.

The record of the United Nations is very good. They have had many trials and meetings to prevent war, but have had to use force only once—in the Korean war which is still in progress.

This explanation which is only a brief summary of the purpose and duties of the United Nations shows that if it is given the whole-hearted support of every citizen of the member nations it can lead the world into a future period of history in which there will be no wars, only arguments which can be settled without the use of force.

Each American should be proud that the home of the UN is in America. The meetings of the UN will be held at Lake Success, N. Y., in the United Nations Building, the ground for the building being donated by John D. Rockefeller Jr. We can attend the meetings or follow them very closely and know what is happening in the sessions of the UN.

With the aid of the United Nations the world can be made better for us and future generations. Just think of what we could build with the money we have had to spend on arms and other war materials which we have had to buy and furnish for ourselves as well as other nations. Every high school could have a new building, fully equipped, including athletic equipment, new, in scientific apparatus and materials for cultural training.

I know everyone doesn't want to have their families broken up by wars, but I believe every American boy would gladly give his life if democracy could cover the earth. I would gladly fight for that reason. That is why we are fighting in Korea because we are sure we can win with the help of the United Nations and make the world "Safe for Democracy."

After living almost 200 years as a democracy it would be hard to change the American people. But the Communists are spreading their false ideals all over the poverty stricken countries of the world. They promise to help each country economically, and promise equal wealth for all people but all the while the Communists are only trying to gain power. The United Nations, to me, is a method of holding this Red curtain from covering the world. I think that now they have all they are going to take without the interference of the United Nations.

The United Nations is the image in the mirror for all people who are looking for a method of preventing wars and increasing international friendliness among people and nations. But everyone must support this United Nations created for the purpose of serving the people and countries of the world in all of their problems and difficulties.

When the United Nations was formed it created a new source of jobs for many young people of the world. It created a very large office and it will take quite a few people to supply the needs and duties of the United Nations in the United Nations Building.

When we study in American history the period when the League of Nations was formed, we wonder why the U. S. A. didn't join the league. We are very glad that our country helped organize the United Nations and it helps us to forget that our country once didn't take an active part in the first attempt to organize the world in an effort to make an everlasting peace.

We like to be able to say our country is the best in the world and we can be very proud of our country because of its interest in world affairs, politically, economically and socially.

The United Nations has given us a newer vision of the world, because we who are religious and have been taught the spiritual world, will support with all our strength the policies of the United Nations. Because, with the aid of the UN, we can spread our teachings to other lands. In general it means to me that the United Nations will make a better and safer world to live in where each person can have the four great freedoms: freedom from fear, freedom from want, freedom of religion and freedom of speech, which is the basis of the United Nations. It will make for more and better organizations, maybe even international organizations which can bring about united friendship.

A fine organization such as the IOOF (Odd Fellows) can spread their membership to foreign soil and bring the people of all countries even closer together. These groups might even grow within themselves and make finer organizations for boys and girls to follow. The boys and girls when taught to be good leaders and followers become better citizens and therefore it is a great movement of the Odd Fellows to make an opportunity for them so that they can work along side the United Nations in their effort to unite the world in friendship. In this way father, mother, children, community, state, nation and world can be united together in clubs and other organizations whose aim is world friendship and fellowship.

The United Nations if we let it, will grow to be as big and powerful as our government because it is based on the same principle—democracy.

Democracy is a government of, by and for the people. There are other forms of government that may be good but they will not compare, in my belief, with democracy. Because the United Nations is based on the principles of democracy it is protecting the rights of the people of the world just like the U. S. A.'s government protected the interests of the people of the U. S. through the Civil War and other wars and has helped our country grow to be one of the biggest and best nations of the world. May the United Nations grow in just the same way only on a larger scale taking care of the people of the world in all their needs.

HONDO VALLEY

By ELMA F. ROGERS

Well, guess someone must have paid the preacher as we had a couple pretty good showers this past week and wish some more would pay up as we need more rain yet.

Mr. Haney, one of the contractors on the Tinkle Canyon project, was in to sign the payroll this week and says the work is going along fine and dandy, but he is surprised the rocks here are so hard; guess he doesn't know how dry those rocks are.

Mrs. W. N. Hodges returned home this past week from her visit in Arkansas. Jonnie went back and brought her home in his car. She reports a nice visit and she feels lots better. Don't know why Senator Taft does not get sent to some foreign country if he wants to be elected president. Seems like everyone is fed up on all this ballyhoo we get here at home. When they go to Europe or somewhere else they stand a better chance of getting somewhere. Sure hope Harry stays home.

See John Bell around once in awhile. Says he is pretty busy running water these days while he has some to run.

Wish we had part of the water out here in our country they have back East. We would have enough to plant our crops and the people back there would be dry enough so they could plant their crops and we would all be better off.

See lots of lambs around now. Guess maybe we can have a few chops to eat this fall again.

Sylvester Salcido is back on the job again after a brief illness. Got plenty of matches these days to light up our smokes with, as all the office cackers are passing them out. Don't know if that means they are all hot numbers or what; have to wait and see, I guess.

Just can't seem to get any gossip from anyone at all. All too busy. Fred McTeigue busy shearing; Leo Joiner busy with the highway engineers and no time to talk; Mr. Cole busy carpentering; Wilbur McKnight busy planting flowers; Milt Mabie busy with lambs; Buster Casey working on the Canyon road; Frank Titsworth busy at the garage. In fact everyone too occupied to stop and gossip, so we will just have to try and go to some of these showers and see if the women folks are too busy to talk and if they are we will just be out of news and out of luck, too.

Junior Sandfer arrived home from Korea Saturday to the delight of his mother, Katie Sandfer. He looks like he had plenty to eat. He said he had gained 30 pounds. He has a 30-day furlough before reporting to Fort Carson, Colo., for reassignment and will be discharged in December.

Testimonial Dinner Held For Lake J. Frazier.

Dan Storm, Glencoe, was a guest at the testimonial dinner held in honor of Lake J. Frazier April 22 in Roswell.

A group of Roswell and southeastern New Mexico businessmen sponsored the dinner in appreciation of his work as mayor during the last four years. Frazier who turned the mayor's post over to Warren Cobean April 16, is campaigning for governor of New Mexico on the Democratic ticket. The dinner was a send-off and good-luck occasion for the gubernatorial candidate.

Corbean, who was elected mayor of the Pecos Valley city on April 1, on the Republican ticket, paid tribute to Frazier and said that as mayor he would carry on the policies developed by the former mayor.

Dan Storm sang a song, which he had composed, about Frazier, to a guitar accompaniment.

Ideas for the song were given Storm by Happy Roy Thomas, well known entertainer and musical composer.

Assignment New Mexico

By G. WARD FENLEY.

The editor of the New Mexico (Clovis) Press plucked another hair from the old bald-headed professor's almost bare dome last week.

He said that this aged columnist was not only a thorn in the flesh of New Mexico editors but that only the first page of Assignment New Mexico arrived at his office last week.

And to quote him: "We could make some caustic remarks, intimating that G. Ward is only half there. But we won't because Fenley is a likeable guy despite . . . etc."

We admit to not being half there. Maybe we're three-fourths absent. But brother, have we got company!!! Want to know who our charming escorts are? They're members of the third estate—ye olde newspaper editors.

Take a gander at a few of their typo errors and you'll go along with me 100 per cent.

Gordon Greaves, one of my favorite targets, reported in his Portales Daily News that the ENMU Barbership Quartet was making an appearance before the American Legion convention.

The Albuquerque Journal said that Father Nicholas, Isleta Pueblo, had in his possession three tape recordings of the Oberammergau Passion Play. We could make some Clovis Press caustic remarks about this.

The Clovis Journal had some sort of new brand of Baker beans, along with its corn bread sticks.

At the annual budget hearing on teachers' salaries in Portales, the News said, "Actually the two budget commission members are right as they can be." We need some budget or non-budget committees ever so often.

We are wondering how much good an attractive ad by Sears did in the Albuquerque Journal last week. Besides a young lady's beautiful dress, the ad stated: "Mother will leave these pretty frocks."

The Carlsbad Current-Argus made a queer statement last week. In a bit of advice on how to keep milady's face in tip-top shape, the article said: "Be careful about using a wash rag or a heavy towel which might bruise the skin and rub the dirt into the pores."

We know where the shin and skin are but where's a person's spit?

That was kinda like Jimmy Barber's report last week. Jimmy said that Miss Dora Lou Gimson, maid of honor, wore a white and blue spit. I've asked my wife and dozens of other ladies and nobody seems to know what a spit is.

Eileen Miller, from Raton, sent this in with the comment: "You may not want to hurt Jimmy's feelings so soon again but if you don't use his blue and white spit, I'll develop a bad case of nervous frustration."

This columnist wouldn't want to be responsible for a case of jitters in anybody—so there it is. Charlie Faught, another of Barber's cronies from Raton, sent a clipping from the Range: "Five jockeys in the race ended in the hospital."

We've heard of being shot in the pantry but this is our first time to hear about a person's being hospitalized. Charlie thinks Jimmy might be part English and have been thinking of England's hospitals.

We liked that yarn of Jack Sitton's about Miss Caverna Clynch. Miss Clynch came back to Carlsbad 19 years from the day she was christened Caverna (at the age of two) when she and her family visited the Carlsbad Caverns. What's in a name?

Speaking of names, there's a 4-H Club in Socorro which bears the official cognomen of The Hot-tengooingiggie Club. What's the pronunciation?

That's all except to remind you that June is coming for many a couple as reported in the Atlanta Journal, to "take some grief wedding trips."

ESC Asks Farmers To Estimate Labor Needs

M. F. Miera, Albuquerque, chairman-executive director of the Employment Security Commission, urges farmers to forecast their farm labor needs for this year.

"If we know what the farmers expect of our facilities we can make advance preparations," he asserted. "With the labor supply short, and with the almost certainty that manpower problems are going to become increasingly difficult, it is urgent that the State Employment Service know rather accurately within the month what the farmers' needs will be this summer and fall."

Miera urged farmers to report their future needs by contacting the State Employment office nearest them.

Launching the day will be a ranchero breakfast followed by dancing until 10:30 A. M. Johnny Cook, chairman of the association, will be master of ceremonies.

A swap and swing program will take place at the Coliseum from 2:30 to 4:30 P. M., with callers to work out new ideas and dances. David Trowell, chairman of the association entertainment committee, will be in charge. The big dance in the evening will feature Herb Greggerson of El Paso and Ray Watson of Hobbs as M. C.'s. Music will be furnished by Forrest Delk and his Gully Lumpers from Silver City.

San Pat Man Assigned To Aircraft Carrier

Roy R. Chavez, seaman apprentice, SN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo S. Chavez, San Patricio, has been assigned to the aircraft carrier U. S. S. Philippine Sea on active duty with the Seventh Fleet in the Far East.

Chavez, who reported to the vessel from the Naval Training Center, San Diego, entered the Navy May 18, 1951, and received his recruit training at the California station.

The San Patricio man graduated from Hondo High School prior to enlisting in the Navy.

The number of sows expected to farrow in the spring of 1952 is down 8 per cent from 1951.

Schools To Join In State Clothing Collection

Public schools will take part in a state-wide children's clothing crusade to collect serviceable used clothing during the week of April 28-May 3, School Superintendent L. W. Clark of Capitan announces.

Known as Save-the-Children Bundle Week, the five-day clothing collection is part of the eleventh national children's clothing crusade held under auspices of a national committee of school superintendents. State Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Wiley heads the clothing drive in New Mexico and has announced a goal of 75,000 pounds.

Clothing obtained will be distributed by Save The Children Federation in its program of assistance to children in isolated rural areas of the United States, on southwestern Indian reservations, in Western Europe, the Far East and in Lebanon.

Child war victims in Korea, Finland, France, Greece, Austria, Germany and Italy will be overseas beneficiaries. In America, clothing is distributed in a carefully planned self help program in needy rural areas of eight southern states in which the federation operates its school sponsorship program.

Many children in the American areas served come from families with cash incomes of less than $400 a year. If it were not for Save The Children Bundle Week clothing collections, many of these children would not be able to attend school in bad weather. Clothing is distributed to needy families on Indian reservations and to children both in and out of school.

Leaflets stating the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents will be given to all children in the school system to take home.

Last year New Mexico schools collected 40,000 pounds of clothing to help underprivileged persons including those on the Navajo Indian reservation.

Fertilizer Shortage Creates Serious Threat

Slow movement of fertilizers from factories to farmers is creating a serious threat to the industry's ability to deliver expected tonnage of certain fertilizers this spring. According to information received from the National Fertilizer Association by County Agent Austin Albert, fertilizer factory storage space is severely taxed and production of some kinds of fertilizers may necessarily have to be reduced. In addition, serious transportation difficulties may develop if too great a demand occurs late in the season.

"The situation is particularly acute with regard to some nitrogen fertilizers," Albert explained. "Phosphate and urea are moving to the farms as fast as orders are received, but farmers have not been ordering ammonium sulphate and ammonium nitrate early enough to free storage space for more production."

Orders placed now for immediate delivery will help relieve the situation and insure an adequate supply of fertilizer all year around. If the fertilizer industry can maintain production throughout the year, such seasonal tie-ups can be prevented. The only way that this can be done, however, is by farmers ordering supplies in advance and storing them on the farm. Fertilizers can be safely stored on the farm if they are kept dry, Albert added.

Don't Feed Raw Bone Meal To Livestock

Stockmen are warned against the use of raw bone meal as feed for cattle and hogs because of the possible danger of transmitting the dread livestock disease, anthrax. Investigations by scientists have shown that the disease may be spread through certain feed ingredients of animal origin.

According to Russell Ludwick, deputy officer in charge of the New Mexico Feed and Fertilizer Control office at State College, the use of raw bone meal as a feed for livestock has never been approved in this state.

Much of the raw bone meal which is suspected of causing the recent outbreak of anthrax from New Jersey and Florida in the East through the Middle West to Texas and California has been imported from foreign countries, where the meal may not have been processed under the necessary 60 pounds steam pressure for 3 1/2 hours, Ludwick says.

Music Festival—

utation as an unusual musical narrative of a favorite old fairy tale, was received with delight by children and adults alike. A last minute surprise was the appearance of four dancers for "Chiapaneas," the Mexican dance number. Richard Lopez, Daisy Samora, Eddie Holguin and Viola Vega, dressed in colorful costumes, performed the rhythmic steps of the graceful Mexican dance at the glee club, accompanied at the piano by Roberta Key, provided a lyrical background with its vocalization of "Chiapaneas."

Members of the school band band are Glenn Thornton, Betty Brewster, Richard Vega, Jimmie Lucero, Skipper Harkey, Connie Ham, Dennis Close, Billy Hicks, Jeff Morris, Wanda Garrison, Gene Garrison, Leon Anheft, Billy Means, Glenda Sue King, Paula Flores, Ben Berry, Felix Guebara, Donald Hobbs, Alma Eaker, Johnny Eaker, Roberta Key, Glen Barnum, Beverly Batty, Jonette Harkey, Katie Snodgrass, Ignacio Lopez, Cope Straley and Lee Adel Baker.

Glee club members include Betty Brewster, Verna Ruth Petty, Katie Snodgrass, Betty Robinson, Carol Queen, Barbara Mixon, Dorothy Withers, Ina Withers, Peggy Cathey, Jan Hurley, Janie Wedell, Emily Ann Johnson, Ann Gallacher and Wanda Garrison. A tragic note marred the night of triumph for the school's music teacher who had contributed largely in personal time and effort to make the festival a financial as well as musical success. The evening's glory was dimmed for Mr. and Mrs. Bartkus when they received word late that night of the death of Mrs. Bartkus' grandmother in Chicago. The couple left early the following morning to attend the funeral services which were held in the Illinois city.

LINCOLN

By MRS. J. E. PHILLIPS

Mrs. Caroline Davis went to Roswell Monday on business and brought her sister, Mrs. Barbara Armstrong, and son, Dean, who live in Roswell, up for a few days visit.

Among the guests registered at the Museum this week were some from Paris, France. People do get around.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Zumwalt of Sheridan, Ore., are visiting relatives in this part of the country and at present are with Mrs. Zumwalt's mother, Mrs. Maggie Pfingsten. Wednesday Bill and Betty Shrecengost came up, too, and from the sound of the hammering and sawing, Mrs. Pfingsten's house is going to be remodeled or torn down.

Peg and Leota Pfingsten stopped by on their way to Roswell for treatment of Leota's eyes. She has an infection of the optic nerve.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hulbert and Mr. and Mrs. Giles Ramey went to Albuquerque Sunday and stayed through Monday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hulbert's brother, Joe Lindley.

Boney Baca, who has been ill, is recovered, but his mother, Mrs. Jose Baca, is ill now. However, I understand she is improving rapidly.

Clark Pfingsten and Mr. Pond have been setting out some more flowering shrubs and evergreens. Their garden is so beautiful in summer that it affords a great deal of pleasure to everyone around.

Mrs. Juanita De La Cruz and daughter, Lupita, of Rosobud, Texas, who have been visiting Mrs. De La Cruz's brother, Juan Hernandez and family, left this week.

Carl Freeman of Las Cruces, who is with the National Park Service, was here Saturday looking over some of our landmarks of historical interest with an idea of getting some work done. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coe and Mrs. Martin conferred with him.

Mrs. Boyd's mother, Mrs. Huelled, has been in the hospital in Roswell, and, since Mrs. Boyd has been with her, Mrs. Fronie Ramey has been substituting at school.

Robert Henekey was in town Tuesday to buy groceries and pick up the mail.

Leo Morris says he's so busy keeping the ditches in with all the snow water coming down that he has no time to plant.

Dr. and Mrs. G. D. Allen and their aunt stopped in Monday to say hello.

Ruidosoan Candidate For County Treasurer

Mrs. Edith Sheehan, Ruidoso, is the unopposed candidate for county treasurer on the Democratic ticket.

The candidate, a resident of this county for the past 24 years, is a high school graduate and attended the Arkansas City Commercial College at Arkansas City, Kan. A bookkeeper for the past 16 years, Mrs. Sheehan was employed in a clerical capacity at Walker Air Base, Roswell, during World War II. She returned to Ruidoso to serve as manager for the J. G. Harvey accounting service. Mrs. Sheehan also served two years as deputy clerk for the village of Ruidoso.

Child Labor Inspector Visits Carrizozo

Harold Harriger, child labor inspector of the State Department of Public Welfare in Santa Fe, was in Carrizozo Tuesday to discuss with L. Z. Manire, local school superintendent, and Mrs. Lorine Samelson, county superintendent, state and federal child labor laws. The state law, he said, establishes a minimum age of 14 for most employment, and a higher minimum age for certain hazardous occupations. Harriger explained that under the state child labor law, children 14 and 15 may not work between 7 P. M. and 7 A. M. nor more than eight hours a day and 44 hours a week and that permit certificates must be obtained by employers for children of this age whom they employ. Harriger suggested that employers subject to the child labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act should familiarize themselves with the limited occupations, and the hours and conditions of work permissible for the employment of minors of this age under the federal law.

Permit certificates are issued in Carrizozo by L. Z. Manire and Mrs. Lorine Samelson, who will also issue on request certificates of age for minors 16 or over so that the employer can have proof of age acceptable under both state and federal laws as to the ages of the minors he employs. Harriger recommended that employers obtain such certificates for young workers they employ.

Shearing Time Best To Control Sheep Ticks

Shearing time is the best time to control sheep ticks, according to County Agent Austin A. Albert, Carrizozo.

"Ticks multiply rapidly during the winter and early spring, when the wool is long," Albert pointed out. "Shearing usually removes a large number of ticks but many remain on the shorn ewes and soon spread to the lambs. The unthrifty condition of the ewes and lambs probably costs about 25 cents per head a month. In other words, it costs 25 cents a month to feed the ticks on each sheep.

"Rotenone, DDT, toxaphene and lindane are effective insecticides against sheep ticks. Dipping gives the best control because it affords the best coverage. Spraying, is, however more widely used because it is an easier method of application.

"All these pesticides have their advantages and disadvantages," the county agent added. "But all of them will do a good job if applied according to the manufacturer's directions. None of them, except rotenone, should be used on sheep within 30 days prior to their slaughter for food. Only wettable powders should be used. Treatment should be delayed until all shearing cuts have healed."

For further information, ask the county agent for a copy of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture leaflet 308, "Control of Lice and Sheep Ticks."

Farm tenancy in the United States has dropped from about 42 per cent in the early 1930's to about 25 per cent at present.

NEW FLAVOR FOR AN OLD FAVORITE

Favorite though it is, broiled chicken can become monotonous unless varied with other foods and seasonings. Lively way to perk up the bland flavor is to broil while cooking with a zesty tomato sauce. Served atop fluffy rice with a green vegetable, relishes and rolls, broilers make a festive meal.

Broiled the usual way and basted frequently with deviled tomato sauce, the chicken takes on subtle and delicious added flavor. And for further tang, cold beer makes a smooth and satisfying beverage to complement this main dish.

Adaptable for serving to the small family or a large group, broilers are the smallest size chicken sold for cooking. One will generally serve two to four persons, allowing about 1/2 pound for each serving.

Deviled Tomato Sauce
1/2 cup ketchup
3 tablespoons Worcestershire
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons sugar
Dash tabasco
Mince onion to taste

Mix all ingredients well. Use to baste chicken broilers, spreading lightly on surface of meat about every 5 to 10 minutes until chicken is cooked and brown.
