Two Desert Plants May Yield Income In State's Arid Areas

Two New Mexico plants—devil's claw (Martyria parviflora) and wild gourds (Cucurbita sp.), have shown promise in tests as potential oilseed crops in sandy arid areas of the state.

Devil's claw produces large yields of seed containing as much as 36 per cent edible oil comparable in quality to cottonseed oil.

Gourd seeds have yielded 30 per cent semi-drying oil comparable in quality to linseed oil. The oilseed cake of both plants is relatively high in protein and could be used as a concentrate feed for livestock.

There are many hitches to converting wild plants into cultivated crops. Dr. Sappenfield of N. M. A. & M. points out. Devil's claw, for example, has a spreading growth habit which presents harvesting problems, and tough, fibrous pods which are difficult to thresh. It may be possible to correct these troubles by breeding and selection.

Breeding material possessing the desired characteristics might be obtained from the new Plant Introduction Station at Pullman, Wash., for crossing and combining with the desirable characteristics already found in the devil's claw. Thus a high-yielding, upright plant bearing pods easily threshed may be developed to provide an entirely new crop for production in the dry-land areas.

John Foster Dulles to Address Nat'l Church Council at Denver

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The struggle of Christian churches against totalitarianism abroad and their efforts to build a better society at home will be major concerns of top church leaders meeting in Denver, Colo., the week of December 7.

On world affairs, the official representatives, alternates, consultants and visiting delegates will hear some top spokesmen, including the Hon. John Foster Dulles, who has been called the architect of the Japanese peace treaty, and Bishop Otto Dibelius, of Berlin, head of the Evangelical Church in Germany, who has combatted totalitarianism both under Hitler and now in the center of the East-West struggle in Europe.

At the most representative gathering in U. S. Christianity, hundreds of leading U. S. churchmen and women will come together for the second General Assembly of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. Meetings of the Council's divisions and departments will be held the first part of the week.

The General Assembly, Dec. 9-12, marks the second milestone in the life of the National Council, the cooperative agency established two years ago by official representatives of 29 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox communions to consolidate the work of 12 interdenominational agencies. The 29 constituent communions now have a combined U. S. membership totalling more than 33,000,000 and 147,000 local churches.

On the American scene, church leaders will take up questions of national issues: What Christian citizenship and concern for a responsible society implies for the participation of church groups and individual Christians in political life; the concerns of the churches in foreign policy; hopes of peace and reconstruction in Korea; support of international cooperation; Christian concerns for just immigration laws.

Within the church organizations themselves, church leaders are concerned with such issues as the allocation of new churches among denominations which are raising millions of dollars to bring churches to new population areas; the question of women's status in the ministry; the place of Christian colleges in modern U. S. life; the role of interdenominational laymen's groups in community activities.

RENDEZVOUS

By Wm. Felton

May I go out as a flaming torch And suddenly come the night! Life has given me—all that it holds, And I gloried in the fight... And I have compassed all of the joy.

Let me go out like a snapped willow string... The end of a sweet refrain That clutched the heart with fingers warm And never be heard again! 'And let none mourn when I pass away,

My turbulent anxious heart Only is keeping a rendezvous Death only could set apart.

For I have known wine, women and song And the gaude of life's brave show... I have known success and failure, too... There is nothing left to know.

Let me go out as a flaming torch... When I can no longer fight Let there be music and revelry And suddenly come the night!

Farm fires caused the death of over 3500 farm folks during 1951.

Today's beef cattle herd in the United States, totaling nearly 93,000,000, have developed from imported stock—three heifers and a bull which were brought from England in 1624.

The softly rounded hood, sweeping out to the fenders, covers Plymouth's improved 100-horsepower engine with its 7.1 to 1 compression ratio. This G. I. in Korea helped elect a president for the United States!

Even though he was thousands of miles away this soldier sat under a Korean bush and marked his absentee ballot. Sent it winging its way to be counted with yours, to elect our nation's leaders for the next four years.

That's the way things are done in a democracy. Everyone has a chance by his ballot to help keep the country free. Some, like the man in this picture, are called on to keep America militarily strong, too. And we can all help to keep her economically strong.

And one of the best ways of doing that is by investing in United States Defense Bonds. For by Bonds and other forms of saving we are building a backlog of national prosperity to strengthen America. And we must remember, always, that peace is only for the strong!

So invest in Defense Bonds today . . . and do it regularly through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Here's how E Bonds now earn more money for you! Now safe, sure U. S. Series E Defense Bonds pay an even better return than ever before . . . thanks to 3 brand-new money-earning features announced by the U. S. Treasury.

1. Now every Series E Bond you get begins earning interest after only 6 months. It earns 3%, compounded semiannually, when held to maturity. It reaches full maturity value earlier (3 years 3 months) and the interest it pays is now bigger at the start!
2. Every Series E Bond you own can now go on earning interest for 10 more years after it reaches the original maturity date—without your lifting a finger!
3. During the 10-year extension period, every unmaturing bond earns at the new, higher interest (average 3% compounded semiannually). Your original $10.75 can now repay you $33.67. $37.50 pays back $67.34. And so on.

Start now! Invest more savings in letter-paying Series E Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank!

Peace is for the strong . . . for peace and prosperity save with U. S. Defense Bonds

1953 PLYMOUTH NOW ON DISPLAY

The 1953 Plymouth was on display to the public throughout the United States Thursday, Nov. 20, the Shafer Motor Co., announced this week.

"Advanced engineering and styling make the new Plymouth more than ever before the outstanding car of the low-priced field," Roy Shafer said.

Called a "completely new Plymouth," the 1953 edition presents a new, streamlined exterior, increased horsepower, roomier interior and luggage compartments, 15% increase in glass area for greater visibility and new interior styling.

Horsepower of the 1953 Plymouth has been increased to 100 and the compression ratio stepped up to 7.1 to 1.

The 33.1-cubic foot trunk is almost 30 per cent larger than previous models.

Rear fender appearance is improved through relocation of the gasoline filler pipe at the left corner of the rear sill, which also provides for easier filling.

Moving the engine forward more than two inches gave more body room. Relocation of wheel housing gave more hip room.

The axle was moved closer to the front end of the rear spring, almost eliminating rear wheel hop when accelerating on uneven roads or in sand.

"Plymouth's prime objective for 1953," says Mr. Shafer, "was a car that was easier to park, easier to handle and easier to ride in. A trial ride quickly proves that this objective was attained."

Roswell Scene of Farm & Livestock Convention

LAS CRUCES, N. M., Nov. 19.—Farm and ranch families from all sections of New Mexico are preparing to throng Roswell on December 1 and 2, for the 32nd annual convention of the New Mexico Farm & Livestock Bureau.

With a large number of both state and national agricultural legislative issues to be voted on at the convention, indications are that the conclave will develop into the most important gathering of New Mexico's farmers and ranchers in the history of the state, according to Delmar Roberts, Roswell, president.

Action taken at the Roswell convention will be carried to the American Farm Bureau Federation convention at Seattle, December 7-11 and will represent the stand of New Mexico agriculture in the formation of the national Farm Bureau's policies, on these issues, John Augustine, executive secretary, points out.

The general convention program will be highlighted by addresses from a number of national and state agricultural leaders. Senator Clinton P. Anderson and Gov. Edwin Mechem will discuss national and State farm and ranch problems from the legislative standpoint.

Summary of Economic Factors Influencing Farm Income in 1953

(Published and distributed in furtherance of the Acts of Congress of May 8 and June 30, 1914, by the Agricultural Extension Service of New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, R. S. Nichols, director, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, cooperating.)

Domestic demand for farm products is expected to continue high during 1953.

Employment will be maintained at a high level.

Wage rates and consumer incomes probably will rise moderately at least until mid-year, and for the year as a whole, are likely to average higher than in 1952.

Economic activity may level off in the latter part of the year if outlays for the defense program are stabilized and if investment spending declines moderately as many expansion programs are completed.

Exports of U. S. farm products in the current fiscal year are down from record levels a year ago and probably will continue at reduced levels through 1953.

Farm production in 1953 probably will be maintained around the record 1952 level if growing conditions are not unfavorable.

Livestock marketings will increase with the uptrend in cattle production. Prices for livestock are expected to be lower.

Marketings of vegetable crops probably will increase with prices down slightly.

Prices received by farmers are averaging about 3 per cent below 1951. Some further easing in prices seems likely for 1953, particularly for meat animals and vegetables.

Cost rates for most materials used in farm production and wage rates are likely to inch gradually upward over the coming year. Interest and tax charges per acre also will be higher.

With no increase in cash receipts and costs slightly higher, realized net income of farm operators is likely to be somewhat smaller than the 14.2 billion dollars estimated for 1952 and substantially below 1947 and 1948.

Economic conditions in 1953, as in other recent years, will depend largely on international developments and the size and timing of the defense program.

Construction of residential nonfarm housing probably will total about a million units in 1952. With the recent easing of credit restrictions on housing and the prospect for some rise in income, demand for new homes in 1953 is likely to continue at a high level.

Supplies of food and other farm products in 1953 probably will total near record levels if growing conditions are average.

Foreign demand for U. S. farm products is declining. Exports in 1952-53 are expected to be down considerably from the previous year and probably will continue at reduced levels through 1953. During the current marketing year—relatively large declines are in prospect for wheat, cotton, fruits, grain sorghums, and a number of other commodities.

Wage rates, interest payments and land tax charges are higher than a year ago and are likely to rise further in 1953. Increased prices for steel, higher transportation charges, and generally higher wage rates are expected to result in further moderate price increases for many manufactured products used in farm production.

Five lettermen returning for the season are Gerald King, Lee Straley, Tino Lopez, Sam Wedell and Claude Wilson.

Thanksgiving vacation for the school children and teachers will start Wednesday night after school and last until Monday morning.

Capitan FHA Girls Attend District 6 Meet

Sixteen FHA girls attended the all-day meeting of District 6, held in Tularosa on Saturday, Nov. 15. Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Cozzens escorted the girls to this meeting.

The girls of the third year class, entertained the district with a skit called "The United Nations and Grandma's Ice Box." Guest speaker was Mrs. Allen Scott of Alamogordo and her topic was on floral arrangements and correct corsages for different occasions.

The Tularosa Methodist choir served luncheon at noon in the basement of the Methodist church.

Agatha Montoya, local FHA president, was elected district historian for 1953 and 1954.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Forbus have been enjoying their daughter's visit the past two weeks. Their daughter, Mrs. Dewey Wilson, is from Pawnee, Okla.

A number of families have had house guests during the hunting season. It has been impossible to keep track of all the visitors, but we hope their visit to the hunting grounds has been worthwhile.

Mrs. Marie Walker has purchased the home property owned by Lloyd Absher.

The first basketball game of the season, Capitan vs. Dexter, will be played Saturday night of this week, November 22, at the high school gymnasium.

NEW MEXICO STOCKMAN TELLS STORY OF PIONEER ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. Nov. 18

HIGHLIGHTS in the life of Jan Van Houten, pioneer New Mexico territorial stockman who came to America from Holland at the age of 18, in 1886, to manage the huge 1,714,764 acre Maxwell Land Grant is carried in the November issue of the "New Mexico Stockman," published in Albuquerque today. Written by W. H. James of Taos, a step son of the early day land manager, the story deals with Van Houten's part in the famous land grant history.

Another article in the November "Stockman" by Mrs. Tom Charles of Alamogordo tells of the colorful history of the Tres Ritas Ranch in Otero county which is now owned by Thomas E. Ryan, III. The Tres Ritas is the famous property formerly owned by A. B. Fall at Three Rivers, N. M.

BE A CONTEST WINNER

For the amateur photographer, few thrills equal that of taking a prize in a photo contest, particularly if it is a big one. But try as they may, the majority of photo fans have yet to take an award of any kind, although many of them are very competent photographers.

The truth is, that contests are won on finer points. Here are a few tips that can mean the difference between the success or failure of your next contest entry.

Always be yourself. You can count on originality, more than anything, to catch the judges' eyes. Even the best picture based upon a worn-out idea, however, will likely be passed with little more than a glance.

The only way to get originality into your pictures is to think. Get down a few ideas you feel will make interesting and unusual pictures, put them aside for a day or two, then go back and select those that have the widest appeal. It takes a little effort, too, to get a winning picture. Photograph and re-photograph your subject until you have exhausted all the likely possibilities. Then submit only the best pictures.

If you've got more pictures to submit than the contest rules allow, a good way to whittle down your choice is to show the pictures to your friends, especially those who knew nothing about picture-taking. The pictures that receive the widest attention are very likely those with the best appeal. Or you can hang all the pictures in a room where you can see them every day. The pictures that continue to draw your attention after a period of time are probably the best pictures to submit.

And don't forget to study the contest rules and obey them to the letter. That's important, too.

"Tied-up" Buck Turns Out To Be Dummy

Truth and Consequences, N. M., Nov. 17.—That 10-point buck "tied up" just north of the Greenwood Lodge has been taking a beating. One man took a shot at it before the season opened. Others have thrown rocks at it and many motorists have "snuck" up close enough to photograph it. Many motorists passing along the highway, stop, turn around and go back for a second look. Actually, the ten-pointer is a mounted head. A log forms the body. Charles T. Flota, owner of the lodge, received the head from George Parish. Flota had the head mounted on a log and set it behind a bush to give the appearance that a deer was gazing at the highway.
It has formed no end of entertainment for Mr. and Mrs. Flota and guests at the lodge.
The largest deer bagged during the season to date was an 8-point buck killed by Frank Daniels which dressed out at 171 pounds.

Charlie Cook of Roswell, missing several days, was found dead

$546 CLEARED AT HONDO CARNIVAL

The Hondo Valley PTA met in regular session Tuesday, Nov. 11, with the president, Mrs. E. W. Nelson, in charge. After the business session, Superintendent Montes reported that the Hondo Grade and High Schools had cleared approximately $546.13 at the annual fall carnival on October 31.
Supt. Montes stated also that 173 of the students in the entire school system had taken out the accident insurance offered to them.
The program evoked especial interest from the people who attended the meeting, because they were able to get information about teaching methods directly from the primary teachers.
Elsie Kimbrell explained the methods used in teaching beginners how to read, exhibiting various materials used in this part of learning.
Nora McTeague talked about the beginning child and his writing, while Pearl Bonnell dwelt on the subject of beginners and arithmetic.
All three stressed the fact that children do not mature at the same rate, even though their ages may be the same. This, they stated, "accounted for the fact that some children are slower than others at beginning to read and write."
Mrs. Wilbur Coe, of the Tres Valles Garden Club, gave the high school temporary custody of a beautiful landscape painting by Harris Shelton, noted artist of the Southwest. The picture, "Long Vigil," was presented to the club by Mr. Shelton.
After the program was concluded, the guests were served cake and coffee in the Home Economics room by Misses John Thomas, Fernin Montes and Lorenza Matrufo.
HONDO SCHOOLS OBSERVE AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

JOSEPHINE SILVA ELECTED CARNIVAL QUEEN
At Tinnie a delicious lunch-noon was enjoyed, and at the high school coffee and cake were served during the day by the home economics class.
By popular vote the students of Hondo High School chose Josephine Silva, of the Senior Class,

James C. Tiffin Wins Navy Promotion

FAR EAST (Delayed) (PHNOC)—It is an advancement in rate to boilermaker, third class USN, for James C. Tiffin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Tiffin of Tinnie, N. M., while serving here aboard the destroyer USS Walke. The advancement is a result of competitive examinations conducted this summer on all ships and Naval establishments throughout the world.

Since every Navy man has two jobs, the test was divided into military questions covering knowledge of seamanship, gunnery and military law, etc., and the professional part concerning his Navy trade.

GI INSURANCE CONVERTIBLE
Millions of World War II veterans who hold 5-year or 8-year GI term life insurance policies still may convert to permanent plans of GI insurance with guaranteed values that term policies do not have.

The first yellow cab was produced, and the color established by the New Departure Division of General Motors.

FATTENING CALVES FOR 1953 MARKET

(By Ted Conley in the Tucuman American Leader.)
FORT WORTH.—Some of the highest selling calves of 1953 are being reared for market right now. Yep, that's right—I said Nineteen-Fifty-Three!

Now we do not own a crystal ball, and fear nothing worse than making a guess as to what is going to happen—but unless every past performance falls, the really thick fat calves that sell during February, March, April, and perhaps May, in 1953, will be some of the highest priced calves seen all year.

This has been the case in virtually every year of record because that is a time of the year in which relatively small numbers of really FAT calves are available. It is a season when large amounts of heavy feed steers are on hand but there is always need for more good and choice fat calves than the supply offers during February, March, April and May, are eating just a few handfuls of feed each day from creep-feeders on the farms where they were born this fall.

These calves will gain more weight and will attain a bloom-like finish that will make the buyers at Fort Worth eager to own them for their packing houses.

Some of these calves are eating a home-mixed ration out of the creep. Others are eating one of several really good creep feeding rations made by reputable feed manufacturers. But, all of them, regardless of quality, are putting on EXTRA dollars to the selling price when they come to Fort Worth—regardless of quality.

Sometimes—even the half dairy-bred types—the kind that would be called common or plain quality—sell for as much or more than a highly bred animal. Lots of times that "plain" mother cow gives EXTRA milk that makes a rich milk. It looks like another season in which creep-feeders will pay off in weight and dollars and it will get the calves off the cows earlier and give drought-seared pastures a chance to re-seed and come back faster in the summer and fall of 1953.

Look ahead to 1953 and think seriously about creep-feeding those calves, especially if you own plain cows!

Buyers of advertising have learned that there is no substitute for the circulation that newspapers give.

whatcha mean— inflation affects me?

Yep, young fellow, that's the story. Everything you need has gone up in cost because of inflation. Milk, baby food, even those three-cornered "sacks" you're wearing.

But don't let it get you down. There are lots of us in the same boat.

For example, everything it takes to provide telephone service for your folks has gone up in price.

And then...there are taxes

Of course, next March your mom and pop will get one small break. They can count you at their "little deduction."

But taxes take a big bite out of the money your mom and pop pay us for telephone service. The total telephone tax bill last year averaged $2.70 per month for every Bell telephone in the country—and this year it'll be even higher.

Don't misunderstand me, little fellow. Every one wants to pay his fair share of taxes to keep this country the best in the world.

But we also want to see to it that your telephone service remains the best in the world. And with higher costs... higher taxes...well, we're up against a real problem.
