This is National Newspaper Week over the nation, in celebration of the 300th anniversary of the first printing produced in the Colonies...

The Washington hand press, which has been pictured on commemorative stamps, was an American invention...

America leads the world today in the production of printed matter. It has advanced step by step with our industrial progress...

Aside from its contributions to our Democratic way of life, the impact of printing and its allied trades in the fields of science, religion, education and in the business world has been immeasurable.

As a printer, I am proud to have had a part, however small, in the great industry.

Rev. George Wood, probation officer for Lincoln, Otero and Dona Ana counties, is soon to retire. He makes the excellent suggestion that the counties make provision for their own probation officer...

NOTABLE QUOTES:

(El Paso Times, quoting Gov. Ed Mechem, regarding New Mexico's claim to a 10-mile strip of Loving County, Texas):

"We're not only claiming that minor strip of Loving County, Texas, but we're claiming everything west of the Neches River."

That would leave Texas only a 45-mile strip along its eastern edge. Governor, why not claim all of the Texas annexation of 1846, which would give New Mexico all of Texas, the Oklahoma panhandle, Southern Colorado and southwestern Kansas?

Mona, the Monkey, hails from South America. Her master, Otto Frehm, brought her here with her mate, Bobo, some twenty-five years ago.

Bobo went to monkey heaven several months ago and Mona has adopted a little bantam chicken which she takes to bed with her every night and holds it in her arms all night long.

To pan-handle in Mexico, one needs the right connections, according to a press dispatch from El Paso:

"Two Americans, who gave their names as Elmer Ross and J. Provoet, were fined in Juarez for begging without holding permits from the Alms Seekers' Union."

A Carrizozo resident humorously turns the tables on mankind by submitting the following: FOR SALE—Peoples' skin rug. Will trade for one gallon of honey. Inquire at Bear's Cave, White Mountain.

Seen on Highway 54, several miles south of Carrizozo: Gasoline tank trucker filling up his own gas tank.

Well-named, we'd say, is the firm of Cook & Burns, wholesale propane gas supplier of Lordsburg.

In April 1912 the couple, with their small daughter, moved to White Oaks, N. M., and they have made this State their home ever since.

Carrizozo Town Team Loses to Roswell

The Carrizozo town team was defeated Wednesday night at the high school gym, 62-56 by a much younger and taller Reeves Mixers team from Roswell, in one of the most interesting games ever seen on local courts.

The Zozanos pulled ahead in the first period and held the lead into the third stanza. The game was undecided until the final buzzer sounded.

Six-foot, six-inch G. Haley of Roswell scored 27 points for the Mixers. It was his control of the basket that decided the final score.

Hamilton and Lueras paced the locals with 20 and 14 points, respectively.

Referees were G. Zimmerman and S. Ortiz.

ENGINEER MAKING THREE-COUNTIES MINERAL SURVEY

The possibility of considerable mining activity in the Cloudcroft area, north to Highway 70, at a point between Ruidoso and Tularosa, is forecast in the visit by H. M. Prince, engineer-geologist, of Sherman, Texas.

Mr. Prince was sent here by the Wray-Wible Ore Co., to make a survey of mineral resources in the three counties of Dona Ana, Otero and Lincoln.

His firm has a number of leases in the Cloudcroft district, where plans are in the making to start mining operation and erect a mill and concentrator to process copper, lead, and silver values.

According to Mr. Prince, a body of ore extends north from Cloudcroft approximately 20 miles and of varying width. Copper values he estimates, average 2 1/2 per cent.

The government is greatly interested in the development of strategic materials, he says, and through the RFC has made numerous loans to mining companies. Deposits of ore in Lincoln, Dona Ana and Otero counties are extensive, he found, and are rich enough for profitable development.

There are numerous problems to be worked out, but milling on the spot seems to be the answer. Mr. Prince is making his headquarters at the Petty Motel, He left for Pueblo, Colo., Sunday, returning the first of the week.

CONTRIBUTE NOW TO MARCH OF DIMES

Mrs. Jane Turner, County March of Dimes chairman, announced this week that "iron lungs" containers for contributions have been sent to towns in the county, where they have been placed in business houses.

Cards are being mailed this week for individual contributions. Mrs. Turner urges generous support of this year's March of Dimes drive for funds to support the county chapter and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The foundation not only returns money to local chapters where it is needed, but is investing heavily in research that some day will find a vaccine for this dread disease.

The County goal is $2500, about double that of last year. But the need has also doubled and the local chapter is $1,000 in debt for services rendered to polio patients.

The drive continues through January 31.

Cards which hold up to 50c donations are being mailed to school children. They have always responded most generously in the past.

Mrs. Turner was in Ruidoso Wednesday in behalf of the campaign. She announces that the Tres Valles Garden Club will solicit funds in Hondo Valley and Mrs. R. Archie Perkins and Mrs. Agnate Watson in Corona.

Other chairmen are Mrs. Roy Morgan, Captain; Mrs. Johnson Stearns, Negal, and Mrs. Lloyd Vigil, Carrizozo.

Clyde Atwood Named Carrizozo's Marshal

CLYDE ATWOOD Carrizozo Night Marshal

Announcement was made this week of the appointment of Clyde Atwood as Carrizozo night marshal and a deputy sheriff of Lincoln County. He assumed his duties the first of the week.

Coming to New Mexico in June, 1941, as a member of the Air Force, Mr. Atwood was one of the first 42 men to be stationed at the camp which today is Holman Air Force Base.

As a motor sergeant he was in on the construction of Tularosa Range Camp and the radio station on North Oscura Peak. Later he served overseas in the Pacific theatre.

Following his discharge from the service, he worked at the City Garage as mechanic and truck driver until 1949, when he was appointed deputy sheriff to S. M. Ortiz. He served as deputy until March 31, 1952, except for several months during which he was called back to active duty in the reserves.

Entering the race for sheriff of Lincoln County, Mr. Atwood won the Democratic nomination but was defeated by Glen Bradley in the general election last fall. One of the new sheriff's first acts has been to name Atwood a deputy.

Open House Celebrates Grade School Completion

Carrizozo's new 8-room grade school was given a thorough inspection by local residents Monday night at Open House, celebrating the first week of occupancy by teachers and pupils.

Overwhelming approval was expressed on every hand, as parents noted the many modern and advanced ideas in school design. "Much different" was the usual comment, "from the days when I went to school."

Outstanding features of the new school are: Suspended ceilings. The reinforcing steel beams of the building are below the ceilings, which are of perforated masonite to absorb sound. The beams are uniformly painted throughout the building in a light brick-red shade.

Each room has a radio speaker which is controlled by a Stromberg-Carlson radio and record player in the principal's office. Rooms may be tuned in singly for special programs, or all the rooms may take part in special programs, such as the Friday afternoon music appreciation period from 2:30 to 3:00.

All rooms have separate waiting-in-play areas, with doors leading directly outside. Storage closets are provided at the rear of each room. Warmth is provided by continuous heating below the rows of windows. A short meeting of the PTA was held prior to open house. Illness of Superintendent L. Z. Mantra and of Wm. Nickels prevented the speaking program that had been planned. Refreshments were served the visitors in the new school building.

At the time the building was first planned, an extra room was provided, but increased enrollment at the first of the year has required the use of all eight classrooms. According to B. P. Bearden, school principal, enrollment last fall was 230, compared to 212 the previous year. Fifty first graders were enrolled at the beginning of the term.

Following is the teaching personnel of the school: B. P. Bearden, principal, of Denton, Texas. First Grade—Mrs. Virginia Anderson of Carrizozo, and Mrs. Dorothy Stallard of Tucumcari. Second Grade—Mrs. B. P. Pherigo and Mrs. Jerome Barikus of Carrizozo. Third Grade—Miss Minnie Nell of Carrizozo. Fourth Grade—Miss Ruthie Nix of Durant, Okla. Fifth Grade—Spencer Devitt of Carrizozo. Sixth Grade—Mrs. Thelma Parish of Carrizozo.

Case of 'Shot' Chickens Proves False Alarm

The hour was late Saturday evening when Sheriff Bradley's phone rang and an excited rancher in the Arabela district asked him to come right out. "What the trouble?" inquired the sheriff.

The rancher went on to explain that someone had killed about a hundred of his chickens and piled them on his front doorstep; also two guns had been stolen.

The sheriff said he would be out first thing in the morning. Bright and early he left for Arabela, taking along Deputy Richardson and Ray Taylor of Lincoln.

Investigation proved that the chickens, about two dozen of them in all, were dead sure enough, but they had been killed by the rancher's own dogs and not shot.

Also the two missing guns were located in the house. "It turned out to be a false alarm," commented Sheriff Bradley, "but according to the information given me over the phone, the case had to be investigated."

Carrizozo Grizzlies Win Two Games

The Carrizozo Grizzlies had an easy time downing the Ruidoso Warriors Friday night on the local's floor, 55 to 28, but the going was rougher Saturday when the Hamilton men journeyed to Cloudcroft to eke out a 53-52 win in a hard-fought duel.

Candalaria led the way in scoring with 15 points, while Vega demonstrated some excellent ball handling. The Carrizozo B team came through with two wins—49-14 over Ruidoso and 41-34 over Cloudcroft.

Straight Line Shortest Distance Into Theatre?

Every Sunday about three o'clock when the Lyric Theatre opens its doors to the movie fans, something very unusual happens.

The ticket line, formed primarily of the very young folks, starts at the cashier's cage and then goes back—straight back, as if Newton himself were demonstrating the shortest distance between two points—off the sidewalk and into the street.

It's a rare day when the line doesn't block at least one lane of traffic.

A. P. Sifton, manager of the Lyric Theatre, throws his arms up in despair as his efforts to curve the line onto the sidewalk are unavailing and the line starts across the street once more, only in a different direction.

Any ideas on how to bend the lineup will be gladly accepted by Mr. Sifton.

Suggestion: A rope along the sidewalk, or maybe a barbed-wire fence, huh?

Sheriff Solves Car Theft Day Before Retirement

The last and perhaps most interesting investigation made by Sally Ortiz, ex-sheriff of Lincoln County, occurred on Dec. 30, when he was called out to check on an accident on Route 390, 15 miles west of Carrizozo.

There he found a completely demolished 1953 Chrysler which apparently had rolled over several times. The vehicle carried Illinois registration plates, and had a speedometer reading of only 2400 miles.

Oddly enough, there were no occupants in sight. There was no luggage in the car. The only thing the officer found was an empty revolver holster.

When a check at the hospitals in Carrizozo and Socorro turned up nothing, there was no doubt in the mind of Sheriff Ortiz that the car was either stolen or the occupants had good reason for wanting to avoid the law.

The next morning he learned that two men had stopped at the McBrayer ranch several miles west of town the previous night and had offered Mr. McBrayer money if he would put them up for the night. Wisely enough, Mr. McBrayer took the men into town, instead, and dropped them off at a Carrizozo motel. Sheriff Ortiz checked there, and learned the men had stayed there but had left.

Aided by a description of the men, the sheriff started looking around town, and soon got a tip that the men might be at a local drug store. At the drugstore he learned the men had left on the Roswell bus.

Taking after the bus, he caught it 8 miles west of Roswell and requested the passengers to disembark. Sure enough, there were two men answering the description to the "T", but a few brief questions proved them to have no connection with the wrecked car.

Immediately Sally radioed to State Patrolman Eddy Apodaca in Socorro County, described the men and requested their apprehension if seen. Five minutes later, a hitchhiker, Duane Leslie George, 25, of Flint, Mich., was arrested by Apodaca and admitted having stolen the Chrysler in Illinois. Rufus Almand, 19, of Tucuman, was picked up later in Limiter, and admitted being a passenger with George. Both men were badly scratched, but otherwise escaped injury in the demolished car.

The men have been turned over to the FBI, for further investigation.

George was armed when apprehended.

New Wildcat Staked In Chaves County

By DON HANAN

Latest wildcat announced for Chaves county is the No. 1 White Ranch, Sec. 34-115-29E, to be drilled as a 9,500-foot Devonian test by Republic Natural Gas Co. and Seaboard Oil Co., of Delaware.

Location is around 30 miles southeast of Roswell, and three miles southwest of Richfield Oil Corporation's No. 1 J. P. White, which was plugged and abandoned at 9,058 feet total depth in the Ellenburger.

Drilling is slated to begin at once.

Water is now believed shut off at the Duncan & Branin, No. 1 Franks, NW SW Sec. 23-25-15E, Lincoln county wildcat southeast of Corona. Drilling crews have worked the past several days attempting to case off water at a 1530 foot total depth. A late field report said drilling is again underway, with continuing good shows of oil and gas.

Richard R. Spurrier, secretary of the Oil Conservation Commission, Santa Fe, recently released some interesting figures on New Mexico's oil and gas production, which reached a new high in 1952. Chaves county was listed with 59 producing wells making 182,919 barrels of oil and 151,846,000 cubic feet of casinghead gas. Roosevelt county had two producing wells yielding 6,027 barrels of oil and 1,315,000 cubic feet of casinghead gas.

Our scout reported Shell Oil Company has opened temporary district land and geological offices at 4th and Main streets in Roswell, pending completion of the new Hinkle building at the corner of Third and Main where their offices will be permanently located.

Republic Natural Gas Co. and Seaboard Oil Co., of Delaware were reported to have staked location for a 9,500 foot Devonian test 30 miles southeast of Roswell in Sec. 34-115-29E.

A total of 38 tracts comprising 8,258 acres of state land is being offered for oil and gas leasing at the State Land Office regular monthly sale to be held in Santa Fe, Jan. 10. 32 of the tracts are for sealed bids and seven will be sold at auction at the close of the regular sale.

West Coast Hydrocarbons, No. 1 Kopp - Federal, Sec. 30-115-23E, Chaves county has been reported plugged and abandoned after failing to find any production in the Devonian.

The prospect was drilled to a total depth of 10,180 feet, topping the Devonian at 10,080 feet. Surface elevation was 2,941 feet.

Linford, who has been assistant editor at NMIMT since last February succeeds Roland F. Dickey, who is leaving Socorro to become editor of "Sun Trails" magazine. Dickey also will edit Southwestern book manuscripts for the University of New Mexico Press in Albuquerque.

Linford is author of the recently-published novel, "Man Without a Star," which is a Sears Readers Club selection for February, and which Bantam Books has contracted to publish in a pocket edition of 500,000 copies in 1954. Before coming to Socorro, Linford lived in Cheyenne, Wyo., where he was engaged in freelance writing and in publications work for the Wyoming Game and Fish Commission.

Youngsters throughout the Southwest have come to regard the El Paso show highly because local buyers of winning animals have been educated by producers not to go sky high on the grand champions, but rather to maintain a good high price on all animals going through the auction ring.

Combined total of animals from all three divisions which make the auction ring is 111.

Increased Performance in New Chevrolets

The low, sweeping lines of the 1953 Chevrolets are exemplified by this four-door sedan in the "Two-Ten" series, which this year offers increased performance, comfort and convenience, in addition to a complete re-design. Apparent in this view are the enlarged front and rear vision, new fender and hood contours and a fresh grille treatment that enhance the rugged beauty of the cars. Four-door sedans are also available in the "One-Fifty" and the new Bel Air series.

LIVESTOCK SHOW AT EL PASO FEB. 9-14

Premium books for the 24th annual Southwestern Livestock Show, scheduled at El Paso County Coliseum, Feb. 9-14, were mailed to Four-H Club and Future Farmers of America chapters throughout the Southwest this week.

The El Paso show had a total of 997 animals—calves, swine, and sheep—entered last year, and officials are predicting between 1200 and 1400 entries this year.

Entries are restricted to Four-H and FFA members between the ages of nine and twenty. Classes will include those usually designated in calf, swine and sheep divisions.

Youngsters throughout the Southwest have come to regard the El Paso show highly because local buyers of winning animals have been educated by producers not to go sky high on the grand champions, but rather to maintain a good high price on all animals going through the auction ring.

Combined total of animals from all three divisions which make the auction ring is 111.

However, Peyton Packing Co. has generally paid an above the market price to any of the other entries wanting to sell.

Last year premiums and sales amounted to a record $44,000, a figure which will be far exceeded this year. Grand Champion sold for $2,439 in the calf division, $801 in the sheep division, and $1,000 in the swine division.

Four-H Club and FFA members desiring explicit information on rules and regulations of the show may write the Stock Show Office at the El Paso Chamber of Commerce.

Entries for the stock show will close Jan. 25. A quarter horse and Palomino show will be staged as a part of the stock show. The quarter horse division will offer premiums in 12 classes, and premiums will be awarded in 20 classes in the Palomino division.

The horse show is open to anyone desiring to enter an animal. Feb. 2 is entry deadline.

50 Years Old This Year

Ford Motor Company is 50 years old this year. To mark its 50th anniversary, the company has planned a series of commemorative events during 1953.

Highlight of the anniversary year will be the dedication of the company's $50,000,000 Engineering and Research Center in Dearborn, Mich. The ceremony is set for June 16, date of the company's incorporation in 1903. It will be followed by a state dinner to be attended by several hundred national figures.

On the same day, local company officials, Ford and Lincoln Mercury dealers and their wives will attend anniversary banquets in 33 United States cities in which Ford maintains plants, parts depots, and sales offices.

A pictorial book, "Ford at Fifty," will be published by Simon and Schuster in April. A portrait of an industrial enterprise taken in its 50th year, the book graphically depicts the American environment and the people who make possible the growth and success of such an institution.

Approximately 500,000 copies of the book will be produced.

NOW IS BEST TIME FOR PRUNING

By RALPH DUNLAP
County Extension Agent
Pruning can be done at any time of the year, but it's best to do it during the dormant season, when the plants are not actively growing and when most trees and shrubs have lost their leaves. The absence of leaves makes it easier for you to see what you're doing and to do a better job.

The first operation should be the removal of dead, diseased, and crossing of rubbing limbs. Make all cuts clean and parallel to the branches or trunk—never leave unsightly stubs, which hinder healing of the wounds and serve as an entrance point for disease organisms.

If you have never done any pruning before, ask a qualified person to show you how. To prune a fruit tree or plant intelligently, you should know how it bears its fruit and also its habits of growth. For example, grapevines bear their fruit on new shoots coming from the previous season's wood. Therefore, prune out as much of the old wood as possible each year, leaving sufficient one-year wood to produce a crop.

The apple bears much of its fruit on short fruit spurs which are distributed up and down the main branches and upper trunk and on the ends of the one-year twigs. If you remove these fruit spurs and cut back the one-year twigs you will destroy a lot of the fruit bearing wood. The peach bears its fruit directly on last season's growth and therefore may be pruned quite severely to keep up a good supply of wood each year.

Pruning flowering shrubs involves similar problems. It is necessary to know on what wood the flowers are borne in order to know when and how much to prune. Therefore, before you start to cut, learn something about the tree or shrub. Rose bushes and evergreens respond best by early spring pruning. Information on pruning may be obtained at the County Agent's office in the court house, Carrizozo.

New Act Requires Aliens to Register

Joseph Minton, district director of the U. S. Immigration and Naturalization Service in El Paso announced this week that under the provisions of Sec. 235 of the new Immigration and Nationality Act all aliens residing in the United States temporarily for a period in excess of 29 days must file an Address Report during the period from January 1 through January 31, 1953, and each succeeding year thereafter.

This report is in addition to the Change of Address Report which must be submitted on Form AR-11 by all aliens residing permanently in the United States within 10 days of such change of address. All aliens temporarily in the United States must submit, in addition to the report submitted in January of each year, Form AR-11 showing their current address, at the expiration of each three month period, regardless if there has been a change or not.

The fact that an alien registered in 1949 and filed an Address Report in 1952 does not relieve him of the responsibility of filing a report in 1953 and in each succeeding year.

"If you have applied for your naturalization papers," Mr. Minton continued, "but have not yet been naturalized, you still must comply with the law and submit an Address Report Card."

"The Address Report Card (Form I-53) is available at all post offices as well as at all offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. It must be properly filled out and returned to one of the aforementioned agencies.

"Unless the report is filed the alien is subject to fine or imprisonment or both and in some cases deportable from the United States."

Sonja Henie to Star in Big Ice Show

The second big ice show of the season will come to New Mexico this month when Sonja Henie will bring her 1953 Ice Revue to the arena in Albuquerque for 5 days.

Show dates are Jan. 21 through the 25th with night performances all five days and matinees the final two days, which are Saturday and Sunday.

The Ice Cycles of 1952 had a successful 5-day run in the ice arena in November.

Miss Henie, who has starred in 11 motion pictures and was an undefeated amateur figure skating champion when she turned professional, is one of the more fabulous figures in the entertainment world.

The show coming to Albuquerque with a cast of 200 and with $300,000 worth of fabulous new costumes, is staged by the Sonja Henie Enterprises, Inc., of Los Angeles.

A larger than usual out-of-town attendance is expected because the show's run will coincide with conventions to be held in Albuquerque by the New Mexico Press Association, Jan. 23-24; the New Mexico Grain and Feed Dealers Association, Jan. 20-22; and the American Society of Range Management, January 20-22.

G. T. Smothers Heads Defense Bond Drive

G. T. Smothers, president of the Bank of New Mexico, Albuquerque, has been appointed Chairman of the New Mexico Advisory Committee for Defense Bonds. Secretary of the Treasury, John M. Snyder, chose Smothers to head committees of business, professional, and civic leaders who work to stimulate buying of Defense Bonds throughout the state.

Smothers succeeded the late George M. Bloom, who was president of the First National Bank of Santa Fe.

"New Mexico will exceed its quota of $14,700,000 in 1953," Smothers predicted. "Our state has achieved a good record in Defense, War, Savings Bonds in all the previous bond drives. Although no short drive is contemplated at this time," we should exceed our quota on an all-year basis."

NATION'S FARM INCOME EXCEEDS $30 BILLION

Cash receipts from farm marketing in the 11 western states from January to October, 1952, totaled $4,951,000,000, according to the USDA's Bureau of Agricultural Economics. This was an increase of $238,000,000 over the same period a year ago.

California led the entire country during the first ten months of 1952 with $2,224,000,000 in farm income—an increase of $136,000,000. This was an increase of $136,000,000. Receipts were lower this year in Nevada, Montana, Wyoming and Utah.

Cash receipts from farm marketing in New Mexico from January to October 1952, totaled $194,282,000 compared with $169,901,000 during the same period in 1951.

Cash receipts from livestock and livestock products in the western states totaled $17,000,000,000 through November, a six per cent drop from last year because of lower average prices. Receipts from meat animals were down nine per cent, as lower average prices more than offset a four per cent increase in meat marketing.

How can a Person not versed in the subject tell a good road from a bad one?

It isn't As Easy as you might think. A road may look very strong, yet be weak. It may look inadequate, yet be competent to handle all the traffic that will use it.

There Are Three things necessary to construct a good road, students at a famous engineering college are told by one of its wisest professors. Those three things are: One, a good foundation; two, a good foundation; and three, a good foundation!

You Can Prove for yourself that a road is no better than its foundation. Take an ordinary sponge rubber mat, place a sheet of paper on it; then stand on the paper. What do you get? A broken, cracked or indented sheet of paper. Then place an identical paper on a firm floor and stand on it. The result is—undamaged paper.

LINCOLN COUNTY 20 YEARS AGO

(From the files of the Lincoln County News, Jan. 13, 1933.)

Rev. John L. Lawson, pastor of the Methodist church, announced there were 92 in Sunday school last Sunday.

The National Bank of Carrizozo reported total resources and liabilities of $320,760.79.

R.A. Huncutt, Capitan rancher 70 years of age, was robbed of $390 last Tuesday night by three masked men. When he refused to tell them where the money was hidden, they began to torture his son by pouring gasoline on his clothes and holding burning torches near him. Mr. Huncutt revealed the hiding place, but his son's feet were painfully burned.

The Ancho Woman's Club met at the home of Mrs. Barney Wilson. Mrs. Henderson presided in the absence of Mrs. Kille, president. Mrs. John Straley won first prize in a contest. Refreshments were served by Miss Irene Strawbridge.

Dayton Herron, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Adams of Elbebe, Ariz., is a Carrizozo visitor of Clayton Hust.

As of May 31, 1952, there were 285,000 reserve officers and 500,000 Navy reserve enlisted personnel on active duty rolls.

Marvin T. Hill, former Roswell policeman, and also formerly of Lubbock, Texas, is a new deputy in the department of Sheriff Harry Furey. He took over his duties Jan. 1.

DETOUR

By WM. FELTER Say goodbye and let me go... Will it matter much to you? It is better that we part. Now our brief affair is through; Though I've held your hand in mine, Knew a heartache for awhile, 'Twill forgotten be quite soon. Let's be friends; ah, now you smile! Funny things these hearts of ours

And the masks our faces wear; Smiles that hide a heart that breaks, Laughter that but cloaks despair. But the sun always comes out When the storm has passed; and so, While the rainbow colors blend Let us say goodbye and go. It was just an incident In the story of your years. Many pages must be wrote Ere we quit this vale of tears. Heartache is an interlude Sandwiched with joys we know— Now our brief affair is through, Say goodbye... and let me go.

GRASSROOTS OPINION Carthage Illinois Republican: "A little more than a century and a half is not a very long time in the history of men, and the principle of freedom of speech, worship, press and assembly, the right of due process of law and trial by jury, security against unlawful search and seizure and protection against cruel and unusual punishments is still a somewhat revolutionary idea. The struggles of men in many parts of the world are for just such principles. We in America who regard these rights as a part of our heritage should remember that preserving the documents does not preserve the ideals. Only a strong and alert, freedom loving people can do that."

Denver Colo. Mining Record: "Our national problem is to restore a sound currency. Inflation does more than levy a tax on every housewife's food basket; it eats away at every undertaking of the nation and in the extremity will sap the economic strength upon which our real defense rests. We have had twenty years of a slowly depreciating currency. The new President has no greater task than to choose a man who can, and will give the country once more a sound currency."

"The Soviet Union is the world's largest landlord. All the land is owned or at least controlled by the central government. When the communists plowed under the freedom of land ownership they also buried other human rights," said Lawrence F. Lee, President of the United States Chamber of Commerce in an article appearing in the December issue of the New Mexico Stockman.

"It is up to the citizen to see that increased expenditures are essential expenditures." There should be plenty of fish, fresh, frozen or canned, available to shoppers in 1953, with prices somewhat lower than in 1952.

Chaves GPA Installs New 1953 Officers The Chaves County Game Protective Association held its first meeting recently, when installation of new officers was the main portion of the agenda.

Incoming Vice-President Joe Coleman was in charge of the meeting held at the Roswell Chamber of Commerce building. Other incoming officers were president, Tim Maxwell, and Mrs. Effie Brown, secretary-treasurer.

A sound movie on the home cooking of fish was shown, and a short talk was given by the manager of the Dexter fish hatchery.

Fishing Said to Be Fair at Elephant Butte Dam

Here's a chance to try out that new casting pole you got for Christmas. According to the State Department of Game and Fish, Elephant Butte Patrolman Jim Hall reports fair bass, crappie, and catfishing on the lake these days, with promise of improved angling providing the weather holds. Hall said several five-pound bass have been taken on 400-series bomber plugs this past week, as well as a number of crappie from the tree tops. With live bait, the cats are biting fairly well in the Three Sisters and Black Bluff areas.

State Bonded Debt At All-time High

SANTA FE—(Special)—As of June 30, 1952, New Mexico's bonded debt reached an all time high of $96 million. This was an increase of almost $11 million over the previous year. The biggest increase was in the municipal bonded debt, which jumped from $34,570,000 in 1951 to $41,161,000 in 1952. Municipal bonded debt has doubled since 1949, reports Albert K. Nohl, Acting Director of the Taxpayers' Association of New Mexico.

"For the most part, this increase can be attributed to increased population, and demands of the citizens for new services. All of the increases, however, have not been due to public demand. In many instances, services have been initiated by government itself, without citizen pressure and without due consideration of the ultimate cost, according to Nohl.

"When we reach the point that approximately 31% of the national income of this country goes for the support of government, it is time for a careful examination of programs that are for the expansion or creation of services.

"We need to evaluate carefully our expenditure program. Services should not be expanded or new services undertaken unless they can be financed without any undue burden on the taxpayer.

"As new debt is created, the tax burden will be correspondingly increased to service the debt, unless we can increase evaluations to take care of the new service, and make savings by efficient administration and sound fiscal management.

"One of the things that can be done is to promote citizen understanding and participation in government, particularly local government.

"The citizen must be made to realize that the problem of government is his problem, and he must help solve it, or suffer the consequences.

"There will be a lot happening then and I must be ready," he said. "My people aren't prepared for it and the effect upon them will be bad."

The Apaches object to being put into the outside world. They rely on the treaty which gave them their reservation so long as they would stay on it.

"Although they will learn the white man's ways eventually it will take time and the only way to do it is through education," he says.

The story of Hozous' family reads like a western adventure, too. His grandfather was with Geronimo when the last remaining warriors were shipped east to Florida.

Later he was moved to Fort Sill, Okla., where he is today. "Whenever I visit my grandfather it's not hard to get him talking," Hozous says. "I have to laugh when I see some modern motion pictures. You see, I know exactly what happened."

And Hozous' father was another leader on the San Carlos reservation. With that background Hozous has a lot to live up to.

"My people expect a son to be as strong and as much of a leader as his father," he said. "My mother feels that way which is the reason she wants me in government and brought me to Albuquerque so many years ago."

Hozous will study law. His ideas on Indian problems are set and practical. On the talk of a new Indian Commissioner Hozous says:

"He should not be in politics

YOUNG INDIAN STUDENT TRAINING FOR LEADERSHIP

He fought through the South Pacific and Korea; but some day a young University of New Mexico student will face the toughest battle of his life at home, on the San Carlos reservation in Arizona. Hampton Hozous, a 25-year-old Chiricahua Apache studying government in the NMU campus, is training for the future when "my people will need leaders to help them depend on themselves. But Hozous comes from a long line of fighters and leaders. His grandfather, who fought with Geronimo, is living in Ft. Sill, Okla.

Hozous' father is dead but he was the organizer of a parliamentary form of government on the San Carlos reservation.

And Hozous himself is a fighter although he describes himself at a "man of peace."

Raised on the reservation in Arizona, he was 15 when his mother brought him to Albuquerque to attend the Indian school. The time for willful study hadn't yet arrived.

"I'd run away from schools in the past and I still wasn't ready to study," Hozous said. "When I was 16 I persuaded my mother to let me join the Marines."

"That was in 1943 and it was to be eight years before the youth would emerge from military service with a set and determined nature that said only one thing: "I want to help my people."

Hozous fought with the Marines through Saipan, Okinawa and other Pacific Islands. Then he went through the Korean war; the Inchon landing and the battle of the peaks in Korea.

In 1951 he was discharged and came to the University of New Mexico.

His only real education has been in the service and although he hadn't finished high school, standings on the General Educational Development tests placed him on a college level.

"I wanted to be an electrical engineer," he says, "but I found I didn't have enough mathematics, so I turned to government."

It was as if Hozous had seen the future. And his efforts have become redoubled since it was announced that the Indian Bureau will some day be withdrawn.

"There will be a lot happening then and I must be ready," he said. "My people aren't prepared for it and the effect upon them will be bad."

The Apaches object to being put into the outside world. They rely on the treaty which gave them their reservation so long as they would stay on it.

"Although they will learn the white man's ways eventually it will take time and the only way to do it is through education," he says.

FARMERS' INCOME UP

Cash income from farm marketing and government payments to farmers jumped $1 billion to $33 billion from 1950 to 1951, according to the Tax Foundation.

and should have no business connections in this part of the country. If he did he would tend to be partial to his own particular area."

And on the Indian vote: "Education will be the key-word. Otherwise my people and other Indians might become victims of a pressure group.

Weather Important To New Mexico Farmers, Ranchers

The weather during 1953 will determine success or failure for New Mexico ranchers and farmers. The year just ended was a little better to those who make their living from fields and range land than 1951. Lingered on, however, were the hard setbacks received in 1951, the driest year in a long drought.

Ranchers are entering the year with fewer cattle on hand, herds having been reduced to provide more grass for remaining livestock.

During the past year, the state felt the effects of a nationwide drop in cattle prices. It was brought on by dry weather all over the country, including Midwestern feeding areas which take much of the state's beef production.

The price drop was felt hardest in stocker cattle, the unfattened range type.

During the first 11 months of 1952, state cattlemen shipped out of state some 471,359 head of cattle, compared with 593,168 head for the same period in 1951.

Horace Henning, executive secretary of the New Mexico Cattle

Grower's Association, saw the smaller number as a reflection of the drop in prices. He said producers are holding their calf crop back for sale this coming spring, hoping for better prices.

Henning said some packers blame OPS failure to keep ceilings on stocker cattle and their by-products steady for the lower prices at the nation's markets.

As an example, Henning said that at the end of 1952 a packer received $14.20 less for the by-products of a 1,000 pound steer than he would have at the first of the year. By-products include OPS-controlled items such as tallow, cured hides and blood meal.

The future? It all depends on the weather is the universal comment from over New Mexico.

If a moist spring develops in the state, cattlemen can hold their herds on the range and wait for better prices. If the Midwest has wet weather, feedlot buyers will be looking for lean stockers to fatten.

THREE NEW POLIO CASES In its report up to the first of the year, the New Mexico Dept. of public health reports three additional cases of polio to add to the total of 501 previously published. The counties of San Juan, Bernalillo and Roosevelt reported one case each.
