

Older Couple Can Retain Comfort and Dignity In New Retirement Home

Older couples whose children have grown up and departed can have a small, efficient home without sacrificing the comfort and dignity so rightfully theirs.

The problems faced by those couples are treated by the current Small-Homes Guide in an article entitled "Is Your Nest Empty?" The older couple has an advantage over others when it comes to decorating and furnishing a new home, because their tastes have crystallized.

The secret of successfully decorating a new home lies in choosing the proper background, and blending some of the couple's present furniture and possessions into that background.

Older couples should treat the walls, floors and ceilings of their new home as a stage set, choosing colors carefully in order to dramatize the treasured possessions they have collected.

Even though it would take a magician to cram 10 rooms of furniture into a two-bedroom house, they certainly shouldn't discard everything they now own. They can keep many of their favorite pieces and build their new room schemes around them.

Everyone knows, for example, that a man often has a peculiar attachment for his favorite chair. No matter how attractive a new chair may be, he won't want to part with the old one. However, he won't raise much fuss over having the old one upholstered to blend in with a new color scheme.

A quick tour through the couple's present home will reveal all kinds of interesting facts about them. Perhaps they collect glass or china; maybe the husband is an enthusiastic trout fisherman or duck hunter; they may have enriched their life together through travel and have collected mementos of those trips; or they may be fond of books, photography, paintings or ceramics.

The new house should reflect those interests in its decorative scheme.

Mr. and Mrs. James O'Kane of Ann Arbor, Mich., were described in the article as proof that a retired couple can achieve a satisfactory background for living in a small, new home.

The home is decorated in colors and patterns they like. The colors of wallpaper, paint, draperies, carpeting and furniture fabrics are green, plum, yellow and gray. In patterns, they chose small, symmetrical designs with fine detail and Oriental influence.

Because their personal tastes were followed carefully, the O'Kanes' home complements their personalities. It illustrates well how the comfort, dignity and character associated with a mature couple can be achieved in a retirement home.

will take the left hand, then I will go to the right hand, or if thou wilt go to the right hand, then will I go to the left." The end was that Lot chose the choicest land and left Abraham the poorest.

But Abraham did not lose by the result for far more than material results were involved. While Lot pitched his tent toward Sodom, Abraham built an altar unto the Lord. Because of Lot's material concern we have two different results: Lot lost everything he had in the subsequent destruction of Sodom. But Abraham's treasures were not linked with Sodom's sin; they were linked with God, and Abraham proved that the Scriptures were right when they say: "Godliness with contentment is great gain."

Abraham's plea for peace and harmony and cooperation was based upon a single reason—"For we are brethren." It was not fitting that brethren should quarrel and compete with each other. Here is the basis for all disputes. Where brotherhood exists it should exclude all dissension. Brotherhood is not something which is created by our desires or our imaginations.

There is a sense in which the whole human race is a brotherhood and because of that fact we should live like a family. This is the brotherhood of the flesh and it has not as yet been able to establish peace and harmony. People and races take advantage of each other just as Lot did of Abraham. When we realize the new brotherhood of the spirit, based on justification by faith, as Abraham did, then we will live like brethren. The formula "For we are brethren" will become the basis of all human relations in the home, in the Church, in the business world, in the factory and in the world.

Abraham is the Bible's example of a man who conquers the unknown. He "Went out not knowing whither he went."

How was it possible for Abraham to make a conquest of all the uncertain and unknown things of life? In the first place, Abraham conquered the unknown by making sure of the known. Everything that conquered his life was considered. He was a man of honesty and industry. He was a man of sincerity and earnestness. Every known factor of life was dealt with. He left nothing undone.

Most important of all, Abraham took God into his calculations. He knew that God knew the unknown, the unseen and the future. Abraham is known to us particularly as a man of faith. It is interesting to notice what faith meant to Abraham. Faith Meant Obedience.

"By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should later receive for an inheritance, obeyed!" (Heb. 11:8).

Faith may often be a feeling or force. As a feeling it is worthless; as a force it is the power of God released in life. On the other hand, the feeling of faith may be proper in the sense that it is a conviction. It is useless until we act upon it. In Abraham's case he might have been convinced about the new land and its new life but until he got up and acted on his convictions and went into the new land it would do him little good. He must obey as well as trust. (To Be Continued)

THE CONQUEST OF THE UNKNOWN

By REV. J. M. KERR, Pastor First Baptist Church of Capitan

ABRAHAM

Abraham proves to us that we do not need to scheme and lie and cheat and be selfish to get along in life. Remember what happened when a crisis arose between Abraham's herdsman and those of his nephew, Lot. There was difficulty because their respective herds were overrunning their grazing grounds whereupon Abraham said to Lot: "Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between thee and me, and between my herdmen and thy herdmen; for we be brethren. Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me; if thou will take the left hand, then I will go to the right hand, or if thou wilt go to the right hand, then will I go to the left."

Although the lion is called the "King of the Beasts", he is not the largest, strongest, or even the bravest member of the animal world.

MORE QUALITY SEED
More farmers will plant high quality seed in 1953 than ever before, says the N. M. Crop Improvement Ass'n. Higher production per acre coupled with lower cost of producing and harvesting will be the chief items causing this switch to quality seeds.

NEWSLETTER FROM GAME COMMISSION

DEER KILL EXPECTED TO EXCEED LAST YEAR'S

Although it will be several days before all deer checking stations' records are tabulated, it is expected that this year's kill during the November 7 to 18 season will considerably exceed last year's record. An estimated 50,000 hunters were in the field to take their game by midseason.

Last year's casualty record was greater than it was at mid-season analysis; also the number of lost people was greater last year than this year. This probably signifies that the statewide safety program, along with the precaution of having someone in the party know the area, have borne fruit. The hunters are to be congratulated on their carefulness while in the field.

GAME COMMISSION MEN TO ATTEND CATTLEMEN'S MEET
Judge C. M. Botts, Albuquerque, chairman of New Mexico State Game Commission will outline general policies and objectives of the Game Commission and speak on problems of mutual interest to landowners and sportsmen at the Cattle Growers fourth quarterly meeting in Deming, Dec. 6-7. More than 500 ranchers will attend.

Action on a host of problems, both state and national is expected at this meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association, according to Ed Heringa, Clayton, President.

Botts is former president of the New Mexico Quarter Horse Association, and has a wide acquaintance among livestock producers of New Mexico.

Both Botts and Homer Pickens, State Game Warden at Santa Fe, have been invited to meet with the association committees to review current mutual problems.

DON'T THROW AWAY THOSE "RECORD" ANTLERS

Don't throw those antlers away yet—they may be a record trophy. The New Mexico Department of Game and Fish can tell you if your trophy is worth registering—according to the Boone-Crocket Club Standards. The department plans to put New Mexico's game animals in their true rank along with the rest of the animals of the United States.

The official system of scoring antlers is standardized nationwide, and any record heads will be listed in the club's publication.

Antlers cannot be registered immediately, since official measurements aren't to be taken for at least 60 days after the animal is killed.

Hunters who feel they have a record trophy are invited to bring the head to the department for proper measurement.

TIME OUT PAYS WAY FOR FINAL SECOND SCORE

The TD made by Notre Dame in the closing seconds of the first half in their game against Iowa last Saturday will be a subject for discussion for a long, long time. It was a smart thing for a Notre Dame player to fall as it injured, in order to get the clock stopped to gain time for another goal line pass play.

GRIZZLIES WIN TWO GAMES FROM WEED; SPLIT WITH DEXTER

The Carrizozo Grizzlies won three games and lost one in weekend contests with teams from Dexter and Weed, played on the home court.

The Dexter A's proved to be tough competition, as was expected, and emerged winner, 61 to 41.

The Dexter lads, most of them over 6 footers, are expected to rate high in State play this season. Last year they were runner-up in the District regional tournament, losing to Clovis in a close game.

Coach Ken Willis, however, credits the Grizzly A's with being the best ball handlers in Saturday's game.

The Zozo Bees won their game from the Dexter Bees, indicating good reserve material.

RANGE GRASSES

(Continuing a Series on range grasses common to Lincoln Co.)

By S. H. FUCHS

JUNEGRASS

June grass is one of our most common and widespread grasses. It usually is found in mixtures, rarely in pure stands. Common species found growing alongside Junegrass include Blue Grama, Texas Timothy, Muhleys Side, Oats Grama and many others. This grass grows from the medium elevation up through the sagebrush, Ponderosa Pine, and into the Aspen belt, or to about 11,000 feet elevation. It may be found growing on a wide variety of moist and well-drained soils.

The leaves are usually basal. This characteristic limits its production. Junegrass usually greens up early. This pale green grass is readily grazed by all classes of livestock at this early stage. Junegrass is considered by ranchers to be a good overall grass.

Junegrass matures at about the time most grasses are in their prime. It thus often largely escapes grazing during this

State Needs Additional Tourist Facilities, Says N. M. Tourist Bureau

In the years immediately ahead, serious thought should be given to the creation of new facilities for tourists, says the New Mexico State Tourist Bureau.

Of the six to eight million visitors who will cross our borders this year, the proportion of those passing through and those arriving with New Mexico as their destination is not known. But we do know that we wish to encourage more people to spend a protracted vacation in New Mexico.

The Tourist Bureau advertising program encourages vacationers to select New Mexico as their destination. But, if more are to spend long vacations in New Mexico, more and better resort hotels, dude ranches and the like are needed. The prestige value of two or three large resort hotels in the State would be tremendous.

Furthermore, the Tourist Bureau believes, a large-scale establishment can generate revenue enough to do its own promotion, and such promotion benefits not only the resort or hotel but also the whole area.

For example, the advertising money spent by the Broadmoor Hotel in Colorado Springs brings money, not only to the Broadmoor Hotel, but also to the city of Colorado Springs and the surrounding area.

New facilities involve the problem of attracting risk capital to the State. Since such capital obviously exists somewhere, effort should be made to draw it to New Mexico and put it to work, as it would add to the profits of the tourist industry throughout the State.

TOURIST BUREAU SURVEY STILL NOT COMPLETE

The Tourist Bureau urges all who have not done so to return the questionnaire cards sent out on the tourist survey. The first of 1500 cards have been returned to the Bureau and the preliminary results are interesting and significant, for example:

Fifty-two per cent of the tourists came from the regional states of California, Colorado, Arizona, Texas and Oklahoma. Next largest group was from the Midwest (23%) with the Eastern Seaboard surprisingly supplying the third largest group (14%). The average tourist party numbered 2.14 people and stayed 6.52 days.

The five places most popular with tourists were Santa Fe, Carlsbad, Albuquerque, Taos and Gallup, in that order. Some 65% of the tourists had visited New Mexico before.

One-third of the tourists had incomes between $5000 to $8000 a year.

Main attraction was scenery, with climate second, Indian lore third, Spanish-American lore fourth and art and art galleries fifth.

When asked what they wanted to do in New Mexico, tourists replied that they mainly wanted to sightsee. After that, fishing, swimming, camping, and riding were the favorite activities of this late summer and early fall group.

More than 75% of the tourists questioned stayed at motels; some 18% stayed in hotels; about 7% camped; nearly 5% stayed at guest ranches, and 1.4% stayed at trailer courts.

Longest stays were at guest ranches, where the average visit was eight nights long. People staying at hotels averaged 5.8% or nearly six nights, while the largest group—more than 75%—spent an average of four nights in motels.

The above results apply only to late summer and fall tourists.

HISTORY OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN LINCOLN COUNTY
 BY PETRA VEGA

The history of the Catholic church in New Mexico goes back to the time of Coronado and the conquistadores. The first white man to set foot on what is now New Mexico was a Franciscan Friar who went ahead to pave the way for Coronado. From that time on the Catholic Church was always to be found in New Mexico.

For over three hundred years the Church in New Mexico was under the direction of the Bishops of Mexico. In 1850 the first Bishop of New Mexico, The Most Rev. John B. Lamy was appointed the first Bishop of Santa Fe by the Holy Father.

On his arrival in New Mexico he found a total of six priests, serving in what is now the States of Arizona, Utah, Colorado and New Mexico. His first act as Bishop of New Mexico was to journey to France to bring more priests.

For many years a few priests had to care for this vast territory. As more priests came to New Mexico, the extremely large parishes were divided into smaller ones. It was as a result of this division that a Catholic Parish was established in Lincoln County. The parish was established on November 12, 1883, when Archbishop Lamy of Santa Fe wrote the following letter to the people of the Rio Bonito now known as Lincoln:

CHEMICAL ADDS TO LIFE OF STORED VEGETABLES

Sprouting of stored potatoes and onions can now be controlled with a chemical that is sprayed on the vegetables before they are harvested, according to L. C. Gibbs, extension horticulturist at New Mexico A & M College.

The chemical, MH-40, contains a growth-regulator. It has been approved by the United States Department of Agriculture after four years of testing at state agricultural experiment stations throughout the country.

Several months are added to the storage life of these vegetables with the new process, Gibbs explains. He predicts the use of MH-40 will be beneficial to growers, sellers, and home-makers. The marketing life of the crops will be extended, benefiting both grower and seller. The vegetables treated remain firm and usable for longer periods in home vegetable bins.

Sweet Spanish onions have been stored as long as eight months without sprouting after treatment.

CHURCH ESTABLISHED IN LINCOLN COUNTY

"Know ye all that the Rev. Father J. Maria Garnier is hereby named pastor of Tularosa and Lincoln. We hope the faithful of the named places will respect and obey the said Father as their pastor. The residence of the said Father will be at Tularosa—until the people of Rio Bonito (Lincoln) have built a church and convent. Given in Santa Fe the 12th day of November, 1883."

On the same day the pastor of Manzano was notified that those villages which were previously under the direction of the pastor of Manzano and located in Lincoln County and to the south were removed from the jurisdiction of the parish of Manzano and placed under the direction of Father Garnier.

After some years a church and parish house were erected by the people of Lincoln. The ruins of this church may still be seen near the present Busy Bee store. This church served for about ten years. When Father Joseph Giraud moved the parish center to Lincoln it was the county seat and of greater importance than the Rancho de Torres.

This second parish church today serves as the mission chapel where mass is said regularly in the town of Lincoln. The former parish house at Lincoln is now being remodeled into a Catholic community center. The parish was moved from Lincoln to Carrizozo shortly after the county seat was moved.

At that time the Catholic Church in Carrizozo was located between the telephone office and the public school. As no land was available on which to build a parish house, Father Henry Germa purchased property on the east side of the tracks and there established the new parish center.

During seventy years of existence of the parish, the following priests served as pastors:

Rev. Juan Maria Garnier from 1883 to 1887.
 Father A. Gabeye from 1887 to 1893.
 During this time Father A. Vassal was Assistant pastor.

Father L. Migeon was pastor until 1897, when he was succeeded by Rev. Joseph Geroud, who is now retired and living at St. Vincent's Hospital in Santa Fe.

In 1904, the Rev. Henry Germa was named pastor and served until 1920 when he was succeeded by Rev. Julius Gremond.

In 1922, Father Germa returned and was pastor until the year 1924.

From 1924 to 1927 the Rev. P. J. Otten was pastor.

From 1927 to 1929, the parish of St. Rita was in charge of the Franciscan Fathers from Old Mexico.

In December, 1929, the Rev. J. Francis Mitchell was pastor of the Catholic Church of Carrizozo until 1932, when he was transferred to Mora as assistant and died a year later.

ST. RITA SCHOOL STARTED

In 1932-1933, the Rev. James A. Brady was pastor; he was then succeeded in 1934 by Rev. Salvatori Geovanni. He remained until April 8, 1948. It was under Father Geovanni's direction that the construction of the new St. Rita school was started. The school building was completed under the direction of Father

The first sisters to arrive were the Sisters of Mercy, who came prior to September, 1926. These sisters taught in the Carrizozo Public Schools. In September of 1948 they were replaced by the Sisters of St. Camille, the present teachers of St. Rita Catholic School.

Bringing the history of St. Rita Catholic Church and the Church in Lincoln County, up to the present time, a new St. Rita Church has arisen, as well as an adjacent rectory, on Birch St. near the new St. Rita School.

The St. Rita parish of Carrizozo includes much more than the town itself. The following villages are attended regularly by the pastor of St. Rita's: Claunch, Capitan, Encinosa, Sierita, Lincoln, Honda, Arabela, Picoacho, Carrizozo and Ancho.

The parish of Carrizozo includes all of Lincoln County, with the exception of the Corona area and the area around Ruidoso and San Patricio.

Mom and Dad can share their regular meals with their children, too—we'll gladly furnish extra plates and silverware.

On most of our trains, little fellows under 5 ride free. Older little people, from 5 through 11, ride for half fare when accompanied by a grown-up. (On a few of our trains, there is a small reserved seat charge that applies to anyone big enough to occupy a seat.)

Meantime, we've been thinking about your comfort, too. Chair Cars on Southern Pacific's streamliners were built with just that in mind. No-glare fluorescent lighting. Soft-as-a-cloud foam-rubber seats. Lots of leg room and move-around rooms. Extra large windows. Feather-touch doors. Spacious washrooms.

We baby your freight, too— And S.P.'s gentle freight handling doesn't cost much, either. On an average, we move a ton of things for only 1.45 cents a mile. We have more miles of line serving more Western cities and towns than any other railroad. So, for fast, efficient and dependable freight service—whether enroute or L. L. L.—call our nearest agent.

HONDO EAGLES WIN OPENING GAME

On Friday, Nov. 6, the Hondo Eagles won their opening basketball game at Corona against the Corona team by a score of 37 to 28. Esay Benavidez led the victors in bringing home the first victory from Corona in many years. In the "B" game, Hondo won 31-23, led by Caesar Salas as top scorer.

Friday night the Eagles play their first home game at Hondo. Their opponents are the Hope Basketeers. Coach Sanchez predicts a hard game for the Eagles. Last year the Eagles lost one and won one against the Hope team. Captain Larry Torres feels confident of a second victory for Hondo.

CARNIVAL QUEEN
 Dorothy Jean Chavez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Candido Chavez of San Patricio, was elected Carnival Queen of the Hondo High School at the annual School Carnival on Halloween night.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

Many parents took time out last week to visit the schools of the valley. The number of visitors surpassed that of a year ago. The Home Economics Department of the Hondo High School, under the direction of Mrs. Hazel Arthur, served refreshments on Friday, Nov. 13, to the parents who visited the high school.

BAND VISITS E.N.M.U.
 Directed by J. R. Lara, the Hondo High School Band was one of several Texas and New Mexico bands visiting the Eastern New Mexico University for their annual homecoming activities. A good performance and a good time was reported by all.

TEENAGE PANEL
 The High School girls presented a panel on "Problems of the Teenage Girl." Those on the panel were Effie Fresquez, Rita Sandoval, Barbara McKnight, Shirley Poindexter, Virginia Kimbrell, Gloria Fresquez, Peggy Clements, and Maxine Chavez. Mrs. J. R. Lara served as the moderator. Many questions were asked and discussed by the high school girls and the parents present.

ELEMENTARY PROGRAMS

The elementary schools had appropriate programs last week. Many visitors were on hand to see the many exhibits and attend the exercises.

Organize Beginners Band at Hondo H. S.

(By the Band Booster Club Reporter)
 Tuesday night, Nov. 17, a number of parents and nineteen children met with Mr. Lara to organize a beginners band. The class plans to meet once a week for one period during school hours for instruction in playing the various instruments.

Mr. Lara is making arrangements for the pupils to rent instruments for a period of three months for a small fee. At the end of that time if the child shows ability and is interested in continuing in the class the instruments may be purchased. The parents and children are well pleased with this opportunity to start musical training before reaching the high school level.

"Whittling King" to Carve N. M. History

(Written by Frances Goddard for the Las Cruces Citizen)

The history of New Mexico has been told in song and verse, in music and story, but a dramatic version is now being presented by Bill Johnson, sometimes called "The Wood Carver of Kingston," whose ambition is to carve the history of the state in native wood.

Retired from a turbulent career as cowboy, cattle rancher, miner and soldier, he now lives in Mesilla Park with his invalid wife. They make their home in a change was made in the meeting date. The next regular Band Booster meeting will be held jointly with the Hondo Valley PTA meeting on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8 at 7:30 in the High School Study Hall. Please make note of this change in dates and plan to be present for both meetings. The musical program will be well worth hearing. Everyone is welcome to attend.

what is known as "The old Vanderstucken Place" on Union Avenue, where they have resided for the past three years. Samples of his work are now on display at the First National Bank of Las Cruces.

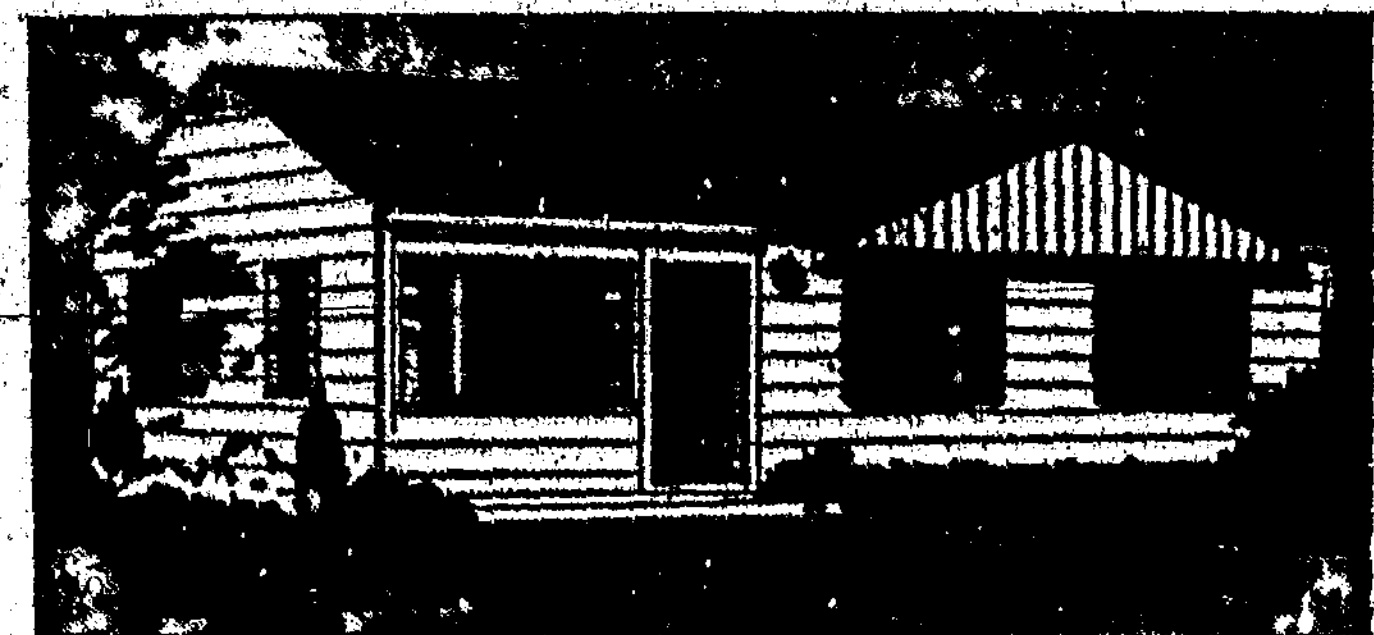

He is well equipped to tell the story of New Mexico's past as he is now 77 years old and has a great love for the Southwest country. His parents were pioneers of historic Lincoln County. He was born in Seven Rivers, a place which he says no longer exists, 21 miles from Carlsbad where his parents were forced to cease their stagecoach travels for his birth.

His father, William H. Johnson, one of the early-day cowmen of Lincoln County, his grandfather and three uncles all lost their lives during the Lincoln County War.

His mother took young Bill to his father's people in Ohio but remained only a short time, and then returned to New Mexico to stay with her uncle, Nicholas Pino, then the sheep king of Southern New Mexico. She later married Wallace Ollinger, the brother of Bob Ollinger, who is said to have been the last man killed by Billy the Kid.

Three-Bedroom House Is Cozy, Compact, Complete

© Small Homes Guide

Cozy, compact and complete is this house planned by Designer Richard E. Rollins. The plan of the economy-size home, which is about as small as a house can be and still have three bedrooms, appears in the current edition of Small Homes Guide.

The one-story, basementless design features a small storage area of the kitchen, and a disappearing staircase that leads to more storage space in the attic. Total area is 625 sq. ft. Information on blueprints and their cost can be obtained by writing to Small Homes Guide, Dept. 1230, 83 W. Washington, Chicago 2-11.

Scout Leader Meets With Corona Groups

Mrs. Ellen Brodbeck, new area Girl Scout leader, from Roswell, was in Corona Monday to meet with Scout leaders. Girl Scout troops have recently been organized in Corona — Senior Scouts, intermediates, and the younger Scouts.

Leaders are Miss Margie Cochran for the Senior Scouts; Jerry Carr and Dorothy Kerr for the intermediates, and six leaders for the younger groups include Lovie Cape, Edna Kuykendall, Mrs. Everett Dame, Mrs. George Shanks, Mrs. Johnnie Bond and Mrs. Juanita Sultemeler.

Bill Keelin and B. C. Berryman made a trip to Mountainair Thursday, Nov. 19, to transact business at the REA office.

Marshall Tracey was in Alamogordo one day last week to have some dental work done.

Rev. Whittles will be in charge of the 11 o'clock morning service at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, Nov. 29.

The Corona Cardinals divided basketball games with Vaughn last Friday. They lost the first team game, but won the second team game.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers were visiting friends in Corona this past week end. They moved from Corona over a year ago to Hot Springs, where they have a tourist court. On Monday the Rogers visited their daughter, Miss Dorothy Rogers, in Portales.

Mrs. D. J. Jones was severely burned on the hand last Wednesday when a butane stove exploded. Mr. Jones is employed by the Delta Engineering Co.

Willis and Knolan Lovelace are elk hunting this week on the Pecos.

Mrs. B. Greenwood has received word of a new granddaughter, born Monday, November 16, in Wisconsin. Parents are Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Langetleg, Mrs. Greenwood returned Saturday from a visit with another daughter Mrs. Raymond Perkins at Roswell.

Mrs. Annie Yancey of Wichita Falls, Texas, was here the past week visiting. Her son, Myron, and daughter-in-law, the former Joy Ann McInnes of Corona, have announced the arrival of Pamela Jean, born November 6 in West Virginia. Myron is in Armed Services, serving on the East Coast.

Work Continues on Youths Succeeded as Older Hunters Failed

Blake Graham of Albuquerque, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Jones, was here last week hunting with his grandfather. He got a ten-point deer. Another local young man, Johnnie Erramouspe, got a 13-pointer. (It seems that a good many of the older men who have been getting a deer every season, failed this year.)

Bill Emhoff and Luther Porter are en route home from Korea. Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bursleigh of Trinidad, Colo., were here visiting her brother, J. C. Lenhart and family during the week end.

4-H Award Pins Given 41 Members Saturday

At the County Award Program held in the Hondo gym on Saturday night 41 Club members were awarded 4-H pins for completing at least one project and turning in their records during the past year. About 52 persons attended the program.

The Ruidoso Valley 4-H Club received its club charter and first year seal for having an outstanding club program and activities. The Hondo 4-H Club received a certificate for best county recreation program.

Jerry Chavez, Associate State 4-H Club Leader, presented county awards to Vera Shaul for her canning achievement; Alice Shaul for her outstanding clothing work; Kay Taylor for food preparation; Arnel Evans for her excellent garden record; Freddie Tittsworth and Dixie Evans for leadership; James Taylor for meat animal, and Pat Joiner for his poultry record.

Each 4-H Club leader will be presented with a leader pin for having given their time and effort to help the 4-H Club members.

Lincoln County Fleeces Entered in Chicago Fair

Two Lincoln County fleeces are in the State exhibit of New Mexico fleeces which have been sent to the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago, November 27 to December 6, Ivan Watson, extension animal husbandman at New Mexico A&M announced this week.

The following New Mexico exhibitors have entered fleeces in the show:

Fine Wool Class (Commercial Division) — Flying H. Ranch — Frank McWilliams of Carlsbad and Kenneth Higgins of LaPata. One-half Blood Class — Taylor-Holman Ranch of Maljamar and Clyde Marley of Roswell (Lincoln County fleeces).

Three eighth Blood Class — J. P. McKnight of Pecos. A State exhibit of New Mexico fleeces will also be sent to the National Western Livestock Show in Denver in January 1954.

Tool Fishing Job at C. Franks Location

Glen Wilson and Ray Holderman went to work Monday for the Albuquerque Exploration, Inc., as well driller and tool dresser at the cable tool rig well being drilled on the Bogle Ranch.

The contractor for the well is Leonard George of Hagerman. The well is now down 1025 feet, with a good showing of gas.

The Fishing Tool Company of Odessa, Texas, is still fishing for lost tools in the well on the C. Franks Ranch. The tools have been found, but are stuck in the well. Plans are to blow the bit off and there is hope of recovering part, if not all of the tools. Drilling will then be resumed.

STATE PRESIDENT VISITS CARRIZOZO WOMAN'S CLUB

By CLARA BAKER

"My American Heritage — What Is It?" was the topic of the short but impressive speech given by Mrs. A. A. Kemnitz, president of the State Federation of Women's Clubs of New Mexico, at the November meeting of the Carrizozo Woman's Club, held last Saturday.

"Our heritage," Mrs. Kemnitz said, "is all the big and the little freedoms perpetuated by our pioneers—our friends and neighbors—nursing, politics, lobbying, our United Nations. What is your American heritage? It is YOU!"

Mrs. Kemnitz accompanied by Mrs. J. B. Davis, corresponding secretary, was just completing a tour of the Women's Clubs in the State—48 in all—something that has never before been accomplished by a State president.

"Women," Mrs. Kemnitz said, "seem to be living in a state of apathy, which is a very serious thing." She stressed the importance of forming a Red Cross chapter in Carrizozo; working with other clubs and civic organizations to better our community.

The State president paid tribute to Mrs. C. A. Snow, president of the Carrizozo Woman's Club; Mrs. Lewis Farris, former president, and Mrs. R. E. Lemon, State president of UNESCO, for the work they have accomplished.

During a discussion about the Christmas party, December 18th, it was brought out that the children in Fort Stanton Hospital are much in need of toys. There are 45 children in the hospital between the ages of 8 months to 10 years. Crayolas and drawing tablets, discarded decorations, cut-outs; toys that are easily handled by children confined to their beds, were suggested as being most suitable.

It was also brought to the attention of club members that the patients at the State Hospital in Las Vegas should not be forgotten. The ages there range from 4 months on up. Lipsticks, powder, and combs were suggested for the women. Toys, of course, for the children.

Due to the extreme shortage of help at Las Vegas it was requested that anyone sending Christmas packages mark the contents on the outside and designate whether it is to be for children, men or women.

Mrs. J. B. Davis announced that the Federation is offering a prize to the Club having the largest percentage of new paid-up memberships. First prize will be $50.

Washburne Forster, noted New Mexico artist, was introduced by the program chairman Mrs. I. V. Cook. He had on exhibit six of his beautiful oil paintings: "The Canadian Rockies" was so realistically cold it made one shiver; "Monument Valley" in Arizona, and the "Aspens" of northern New Mexico—both very beautiful and colorful; also two floral paintings. Most effective was a portrait of Edwin Markham, "The Aged Poet," done with a knife.

Mr. Forster uses either a knife or brush when painting, but prefers the knife. He paints from inner vision, sketches and photographs.

"People find an outlet in painting that they don't find anywhere else," the artist said. He has been invited to head the Art Colony in Cloudcroft next July and August.

Mrs. Cook then introduced Mrs. Yvonne Soper, accomplished singer, who sang "I Believe," accompanied by Mrs. Jane Shafer on the piano. As an

The cost of telephone service has gone up much less than most things you buy. National figures show that the average family actually pays a smaller part of the home budget for telephone service than it did 10 or 15 years ago.

For social use... for everyday errands... for emergencies—you can't find a better value than your telephone. We plan to keep it at the top of your list of bargains.
