

RAMBLIN' AROUND

By PAUL BARNES

Carrizozo law enforcement officers last week were confronted with their first problem of discipline in connection with the Army personnel stationed at the Mal Pais camp. One of the boys over-indulged, created a disturbance and was arrested by Clyde Atwood, city marshal. Several officers from Fort Bliss were present when the soldier was arrested before Justice of the Peace Boone. Problems of discipline that may arise from future cases were discussed. The outgrowth was assurance by the officers that local peace officers can expect full cooperation from the Army in any disciplinary measures (that are necessary). M. P.'s will be stationed here to check the men's behavior, they said, adding that the Army would not stand in the way of any actions that local authorities deem necessary to enforce the law. "And remember," they said, "that when you get through with one of them, the Army has ways of its own for dealing with miscreants."

Carrizozo welcomes the men in the service of their country. We owe them a debt that can never be repaid, except in part by good will and kindness. The service men who take the trouble to get acquainted will find this a friendly community and they may, like others who have lived in our midst for a short time, be reluctant to leave.

El Paso almost stole the show at the Kids Rodeo in Capitan—almost but not quite. Several young county riders gave the El Pasoans some real competition. The contingent from the south came up to the rodeo Saturday night. They brought the horses in a trailer about the size of a freight car. It is safe to say that Nedra Burkart, grade school sweepstakes winner, and Margie McClennahan, champion in the high school girls' class, are among the best young riders in the Southwest.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce deserves a big hand for sponsoring the annual Kids Rodeo. It was a successful sporting event and paid off financially. It is a fine thing to stimulate horsemanship and the outdoors. Riding is one of the finest hobbies for young people.

El Paso says they'll be back in force next year, which is a direct challenge to Lincoln County youth to start riding hard.

In cooperation with the Carrizozo Soil Conservation District, the White Mountain Game Protective Association is sponsoring a grass reseeding program. The district is furnishing 500 pounds of seed and Fort Stanton is contributing an additional 250 lbs. The variety is principally "side oats grama," with some "weeping love grass" seed added. The latter, according to Rex Werner, soil conservationist for the district, is a native of Africa. Side oats grama, a native New Mexico grass, will grow in both heavy and gravel soils and reaches a maximum height of 18 inches. It is a summer grower and does well in higher elevations. The African grass, according to Mr. Werner, may winter kill at higher elevations. S. C. Snow, vice-president of the local GPA, is taking a leading part in the grass seeding program. Packets of the seed will be prepared this summer for distribution to sportsmen in the early fall. Their part in the seeding program will be to take a few minutes' time to plant the seed where it will do the most good.

Leon Lambson of Ramah has written a tuneful song about our State, "New Mexico." The lyric has been recorded and is already in the music boxes. It is sung by Johnny Johnson. . . . Dub Deatherage says it is a popular record at the Steak House. The first verse goes like this:

"There's a beautiful land that I call home
Where the black-tail deer and the antelope roam
Where the yucca blooms and the tall pines grow
In the heart of the Rockies—New Mexico
You can hear the echo of the coyote's wail
When the sun goes down
On the canyon trail
It's a lonesome sound
But it thrills you so
In the Land of Enchantment—New Mexico."

Leon Lambson is the younger brother of Al Lambson, who has been making his headquarters in Carrizozo for some time, being employed by the Nicoll & Lewis Construction Co. Al left us a few copies of "New Mexico," complete with musical score, and they are free to anyone who calls at the News office—while they last.

The Lambson family, by the way, are all musical. The two brothers and a sister have an orchestra called the Rhythm Rumbler. During Al's absence,

Kids' Rodeo at Capitan Was Good Show

Fete Straley of Ancho (above) with his brother Lee and sister Esther Straley, took an active part in the Kids Day Rodeo events. All three were place winners.

Ethelyn Phillips of Lincoln, on her mount "Sunshine," displayed good horsemanship in winning first place in the speed and action race, High School Girls Division.

Nedra Burkart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Burkart of El Paso, seemed to be "born in the saddle," winning first in four grade school events. Astride her mount "Domino."

Leland Raleigh rides from the starting barrier in front of a packed stand at the Kids Rodeo Sunday in Capitan. He scored "no time" in the boys speed matching race.

Marge McClennahan of El Paso had a busy day of riding at the Kids Rodeo. Her reward was first place winner in the High School Girls Division.

Two young girl riders from El Paso, Nedra Burkart and Margie McClennahan—proved to be all-around cowgirls at the Kids Rodeo in Capitan Sunday.

Nedra Burkart won the championship of the grade school girls division and Margie McClennahan was judged the champion of the high school girls division. Marley Dulaney of El Paso and Penny McKnight of Capitan were co-champions in the boys grade school division.

Kenny Parmelee of Ysleta won top honors in the high school boys division.

A good-sized crowd came early for the morning events, enjoyed a free barbecue at noon and sat through a long program of afternoon events. The beef for the barbecue was donated by L. D. Merchant, Block Ranch and Hendrick's 9HG Ranch. It was tastily cooked by Jim Thompson. The rest of the barbecue dinner was provided by the Capitan Chamber of Commerce.

The News was asked this week to express the gratitude of the Capitan Chamber of Commerce to all those who gave so freely of their time to help make the rodeo a success.

It was a success financially. All expenses were made and there is a remaining balance which will be used by the C. of C. in sponsoring Kids Achievement Day Sept. 19 in Capitan.

Following is a list of winners, in the order in which they placed.

Phone Co. Sets Ahead Rate Increase Date

Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Company exchanges throughout New Mexico are being checked by the State Corporation Commission to determine the basis for rate increases asked by the company.

The Carrizozo exchange, one of the first on the list to be checked, was visited last Thursday by Ingram Pickett, of the State Corporation Commission, and Mr. Carter, a consulting engineer employed by the commission.

Their findings will be given at a hearing to be held in Santa Fe on June 8.

Pending this hearing the telephone company has agreed to postpone the proposed rate increase until June 23, instead of June 10, as previously announced.

County Republicans To Convene June 9

The Lincoln County Republican Central Committee, through Marvin H. Roberts, chairman, this week issued a call for a county convention to be held Tuesday, June 9, at 2 p.m., in the County Courthouse in Carrizozo.

As stated in a letter sent out to delegates over the county, the purposes of the convention are to elect officers of the Lincoln County Central Committee; to elect four members of the Republican State Central Committee and to transact such other business as may come before the convention.

The number of delegates is based on one delegate for each town-votes cast for the Republican candidate for governor in the general election last November, entitling precincts to the following delegates:

Lincoln 13, Hondo 15, Arabela 3, Pecho 8, Encinoso 3, White Oaks 1, Capitan 23, Ruidoso 18, Nogal 3, Bonita 2, Corona 22, Carrizozo 46, Ancho 4, Lon 2, White Mountain 33, San Patricio 12.

A practice game will be held this Sunday at 2 p.m., at the local ball diamond in the northwest part of Carrizozo.

The townspeople are invited to attend this game.

Efforts are being made to arrange a game with a team from Alamogordo.

The diamond has been graded and is in good shape.

Col. R. M. Riggins Buys R Bar Ranch

Col. Russell M. Riggins this week announced the purchase of the R Bar Ranch from Daniel Brenton. The R Bar, comprising 20 sections, adjoins Col. Riggins' Rancho Rjachueto, between Carrizozo and Capitan.

Col. Riggins has made a good start in raising Aberdeen-Angus cattle. His present herd of 50 includes registered and commercial types. The plans are to divide them, raising purebred and registered Aberdeen-Angus on the Rancho Rjachueto and commercial types of the same breed on the R Bar.

Several prize animals in the herd are from the famous Black Cap family of cattle in this State.

W. H. (Bud) Murphree will manage both ranches, assisted by the C. G. (Red) Dancer and Abner Burns families.

Nalph D. Perry of Glencoe is among the graduates of Texas Christian University at Ft. Worth. He has earned a bachelor of science degree in physical education.

FORT STANTON'S CASE TAKEN TO WASHINGTON, D. C.

A Lincoln County delegation asked Governor Mechem's help in Santa Fe last week to prevent closing down of Fort Stanton.

Following the conference those attending the meeting said they were assured that the governor has been doing everything in his power to prevent the closure. The delegation included Sen. J. G. Moore, Repr. L. S. Drake, Dist. Atty. C. C. Chase Jr., County Treasurer S. E. Grelsen; County Clerk J. E. Harcrow; Frank C. Boyce, Carrizozo attorney, and former Sen. Louise Coe of Glencoe.

MRS. COE IN WASHINGTON

Mrs. Coe is now in Washington, where she has presented a strong case in favor of keeping the hospital open. As reported Tuesday by the Albuquerque Journal's Washington Bureau, the former state senator from Glencoe declared that Fort Stanton had the highest rate of cure for the lowest cost of any tuberculosis hospital in the country.

Speaking before the subcommittee on Labor and Health Department appropriations, Mrs. Coe said, "I represent the patients at Fort Stanton. We have a $2 million investment there which has been operating for 50 years and has cured 5000 men."

"No other public hospital in the country can give convalescent TB patients what Fort Stanton provides."

Sen. Dennis Chavez, senior minority member of the subcommittee, introduced Mrs. Coe. Later, when U. S. Surgeon General Leonard Scheele was testifying, Sen. Chavez asked him: "Even if Congress gives you the amount of money requested for hospital operation, is it your purpose to close Fort Stanton?"

Scheele replied: "No, if we got the money we would certainly keep the hospital open."

Addition Being Built to Nu-Way Cleaners

Work is well under way, this week on a 25 x 30 foot addition to the Nu-Way Cleaners building. When completed around July 1, the addition will house the finish room, cleaning room and boiler room of the cleaning establishment.

Jess Garrison, contractor, is putting up the substantial, fire-proof building for Friday Sheron. Concrete blocks are being placed on a cement foundation and the floors will be cement.

Mr. Sheron has on order over $3,000 worth of new equipment to put in the building. It includes puff irons, a cleaning unit and a boiler.

VEGA BUILDING PROGRESSES

Good progress is being made on the new Vega Feed and Grocery Store building across from the Courthouse. The cement block walls are up on the large building, which will have two stories, one for feed and the other for groceries.

Conduct Final Rites For Edwardo Najar

Requiem mass was conducted Monday morning in St. Rita Catholic Church for Edwardo Najar, 77, of Carrizozo, who died suddenly early Saturday morning. Mr. Najar had been ill since the death of his wife, Andrea Najar, last February.

He was born February 17, 1876, at Chihuahua, Mexico, but had spent most of his life in New Mexico.

Survivors include four sons, Julian Najar, Refugio Najar and Ramon Najar, of Carrizozo; Joe Najar of Alamogordo; a daughter, Mrs. Erlinda Najar of Carrizozo; a brother, Francisco Najar, of Roswell; also 25 grandchildren.

Burial was in the Catholic cemetery.

FRIEND-OF-DEMO CHAIRMAN FINDS FRIENDSHIP COSTLY

SANTA FE, May 26 — Land Commissioner Johnny Walker's action in forcing the resignation of field man Charlie Bassett, father of the secretary of state, is being attributed to Bassett's closeness to the new Democratic state chairman. Walker wanted Dick Boakum of Santa Fe for chairman. . . . Drys in Otero county have completed work on a petition for a local option election and plan to file it with county authorities in June. If the movement is successful it would close five liquor establishments in Alamogordo, four in Cloudcroft, three in Tularosa and 13 rural spots. The owners would have three-months to close out. Presently Curry and Roosevelt are the State's only dry counties.

BUCK MACY'S DEATH CONTINUES PERPLEXING

Buck Macy's suicide continues to puzzle his friends. The former state highway engineer was in good spirits and chatted pleasantly with two land office employees during a ride from Las Vegas to Santa Fe on the morning of the day he killed himself. He went directly to his home upon arriving here, talked to lawyer Ted Chase by telephone and told him he would be ready to testify in the Fithian land sale hearing at 2 o'clock as scheduled, and bare minutes after the phone call shot himself through the head.

HO and Mrs. Macy Had Told Their Attractive Santa Fe Home

Just a few days earlier and were planning to move to Albuquerque. Associates of the widely known engineer said he had been doing well in business and although he had been warned of a heart weakness he appeared otherwise in good health. Macy was the one who set the values on the State land which Taylor Fithian purchased and which Land Commissioner Johnny Walker questioned as favoring the former state Democratic treasurer. However, there was nothing in prospect at the hearing that could have embarrassed Macy beyond being shown up as having made an error in judgment.

ELLIOTT RELUCTANT TO LEAVE GAME JOB

Governor Mechem's recent pounce on the game commission is now being attributed to his desire to hurry up the retirement of Game Warden Elliott Barker who has been 22 years on the job, and who has several times set back the date of his retirement. One person, familiar with the situation, said the governor lost patience after he had been told that the warden was to leave office January 1, then March 15 after the legislature, and then "some time after July 1."

U. S. JUDGE ALSO GETS LAND BARGAIN

A U. S. District Judge, Charles Fahy of Washington, D. C., and several associates are buying from the State a section of land near Santa Fe for $3 an acre, which local real estate operators say is worth a hundred times that much. The land is on the highway between Santa Fe and Tesuque. There isn't likely to be any challenge, however. The purchase was undertaken on March 5, 1928, and has five years more to run before it is paid out. . . . The Hope retard dam in southern Chaves county which the State is going to clean out at a cost of $75,000 was roundly booted as a boondoggle project when it was built in 1910. That, because the lake bed filled up with mud and made the dam useless four months after it was completed. Engineers say, however, that the filling was the result of an unusual flood and they think the dam can be made serviceable again.

Coming Events

Seamen Patients Protest Rumors of Fort Stanton's Closing

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Editor, News:
 U. S. P. H. S. Hospital,
 Fort Stanton, N. M.,
 May 20, 1953.

You are, no doubt, aware of the plight of the Merchant-Seamen, most of whom became ill during wartime service, at the U. S. P. H. S. hospital of Ft. Stanton. Enclosed are two mimeographed letters which the patients have composed and have been sending out to their respective congressmen. You may be interested in this matter since it involves not only the welfare of the TB patients here but also a fair-sized chunk of the economy of this area and its people.

Yours sincerely,
 BEIRNT F. BASTIANSEN.

TEXT OF LETTERS

The letters follow:
 Some Public Health Service officials claim that the new tuberculosis "wonder drugs" have made Fort Stanton obsolete and that its isolated position makes it difficult to operate. If this is true, how is it that the Veterans Administration and the Indian Service still operate their facilities so successfully even though some of them are more remote than Fort Stanton? Furthermore, any place located on a modern U. S. highway (U. S. 380) cannot be considered isolated.

Some of the Public Health Service officials also argue that climate is no longer a factor in the treatment of tuberculosis. If this is true, then why do the records show that so many doctors of the Public Health Service who have contracted tuberculosis have been sent to Ft. Stanton for a period of convalescence before returning to full time duty. Or is there perhaps a difference between the tuberculosis acquired by Public Health Service officials and the tuberculosis acquired by Merchant Seamen?

A patient whose lungs and body have been reconditioned and strengthened by a period of hardening-up before he returns to work has a very good chance of his disease not being reactivated during the transition from the hospital bed to an eight hour day of labor. Records show without this period of convalescence a patient's disease will be reactivated within 6 to 12 months and he will return for further expense to the government for from one to three years.

If economy is a factor in the arguments for closing this hospital why do the Public Health officials propose moving the patients to other hospitals where the cost will be about $4.00 per day per man more than it is at this hospital? The farm and ranch at Fort Stanton shows a profit of $100,000 or more a year. This money is not deducted from the operating expenses of Fort Stanton but is returned to the General Fund in Washington, thus making the operating cost appear greater than it really is.

The capacity of Fort Stanton is 230 patients. If a saving of just $3.00 per day per man is made, this will amount to $251,850 per year. Considering advantages offered by climate and methods of procedure the average time of convalescence per patient will be shortened by at least 3 months. This will result in further savings and provide hospitalization to a greater number of patients.

Despite these obvious medical and economical advantages the Public Health Service is closing Fort Stanton in order to keep open the hospital at Detroit. In searching for logic in such procedure we have found that logic has been ignored and only personal and political reasons are involved. First, it is learned from good authority that the Chief of the Hospital Division of the Public Health Service is a native of Detroit and has promised that the Public Health Service in that city would not be closed. Second, it is also learned that Fort Stanton Hospital is being closed so that certain political backers of the present administration may acquire 27,000 acres of grazing land now operated by the hospital. If this land is leased it will return the government much less than the $100,000 per year it now produces.

Since Congress is investigating crime, waste, and subversive activities, why not look into these facts!

For more than fifty years, through two world wars, a major depression and various Democratic and Republican administrations, Fort Stanton, New Mexico has been operated by the U. S. Public Health Service as a sanatorium for the rehabilitation of tuberculous Seamen.

In this capacity it offers many advantages that are impossible in a general hospital. The objective being chiefly to strengthen lung tissues that have been weakened by disease, and to restore and recondition bodies that have been drained of vitality and lack of exercise.

A period of rehabilitation, prior to returning to work, is as essential to a tubercular as spring training is to a baseball player. Without this period of reconditioning it is useless to spend the money for a cure for the patient is seldom able to stand the radical change from a hospital bed to an eight-hour day of labor.

The long dry summers, short mild winters and the 87 percent year-round sunshine of New Mexico are ideal inducements for the patient to exercise in clear fresh air and sunshine.

For years these patients have been told that they were being sent to Fort Stanton because it was not practical or possible to give them rehabilitation in a general hospital. Because tuberculosis is an infectious disease such patients are isolated and confined from contact with other patients. They are denied the use of dining-rooms, canteens, entertainments, etc. that are provided for other patients. There have been many instances where tuberculars were denied eye, ear, nose, throat and dental work because doctors in the various clinics did not want to treat patients having infectious disease. In a general hospital the doctors are rotated from one service to another at frequent intervals and seldom become familiar with a patient's condition before they are transferred again. Many doctors have frankly told their patients: "I don't know a thing about tuberculosis, but I was assigned to this ward, and will do the best I can for you."

All of this is demoralizing and detrimental to the patient. And yet the Public Health Service advocates abandoning a proven method of procedure to return to the above mentioned methods they have so often condemned.

Many patients at Fort Stanton have tuberculosis of the bones; others have such complications as asthma, bronchitis, sinusitis, emphysema, arthritis, etc. that will be aggravated and retard their progress if they are moved to the wet and cold northern climate.

Fearing what was in store for them, if they should be moved to Detroit, many of these men have recently left the hospital against medical advice, in an attempt to find jobs so that they might remain in climate favorable to their health. Most of these cases will not be able to work for longer than six months. In the meantime, they will expose many people to tuberculosis.

Although the Merchant Seamen were not in uniform during the war, many of them were under fire, had their ships sunk by bombs and torpedoes, and lost their health because of it. They do not draw pensions from the government. They have no G. I. Bill of Rights, nor are they eligible for government loans. And now they are to be denied

News and Views From Your Nation's Capitol

By JOHN J. DEMPSEY
 Congressman from New Mexico

Washington, May 28—During the past week the American people have been rudely awakened to the stark, cold fact that the collective security front which this country has been spending billions of dollars to build as a world fortress against Communist aggression is in grave danger of falling apart. Members of the Congress, who are having to make a calm, candid appraisal in order to decide what future international program they will support, have been forced to the conclusion that the world situation, as it directly affects this country, is the worst we have known since Pearl Harbor. At that time, however, we knew who our allies were and exactly where they stood. We do not know today.

Two British leaders, Prime Minister Winston Churchill and Clement Attlee, Labor Party head, have put the American people on notice that trade with the Communists is more important to Britain than is international cooperation for world peace. Thus one of our so-called allies — one of whom we had deemed important in the United Nations and peace movements — has been showed up in its true colors. Now we know that Britain, while accepting from us billions of American dollars in aid, will continue to trade with the Communist nations, notably Red China. The fact that such trade is providing materials to help kill American boys in Korea — who make up 95 percent of the foreign troops in that war — does not appear to matter.

To many Americans the attitude expressed by the British leaders indicates that they are headed toward another "Munich" — an offer of appeasement to stem the tide of aggression. It did not work before and it will not work now. In contrast to recent forthright pronouncement President Eisenhower on America's position in the effort for world peace, the British surrender to a selfish policy of profit for Britain, is the first real evidence that the Communist plan to "divide and destroy" the free nations is bearing fruit.

That opinion, held by many of us in America, is causing us to wonder if we have been out-guessed by the Kremlin. The Attlee and Churchill speeches were given the biggest play in Soviet newspapers of any statement by foreign leaders in many years. The fact that Attlee had suggested that Red China eventually be given a seat in the United Nations council, despite the United Nations' declaration that Communist China is an aggressor nation, was heralded in the Soviet press as a definite victory for Russia which has made that demand many times in United Nations debates.

This breach in Anglo-American relations, coupled with the attitude India's Prime Minister Nehru is taking regarding prisoner repatriation and the Korean truce talks, which are verging on complete breakdown, and the cleavages among the nations of western Europe themselves, are raising serious doubts of the effectiveness of the nation's foreign aid program. There is a definite determination in the Congress to make a careful reappraisal request for an additional 5.8 billion dollars for something that looks more and more like a futile plan.

Exchanges of hot words will not bring a solution but the time has come for a firm stand to be taken by a completely unified, nonpartisan American leadership.

A recent state law puts teeth into the present law dealing with careless handling of firearms.

Don't fool yourself about fire insurance

If you're going to carry fire insurance, carry ENOUGH.
 Many people merely carry "some" fire insurance, to ease their minds a little.
 You should face the facts. What if a fire burned your home or business TO THE GROUND tonight? What would it cost you to replace your loss at today's prices?
 Your insurance should be big enough to cover a major portion of replacement cost now. THAT is the way to decide how much fire insurance to carry. See us today.

W. C. Hendren Writes Details of Accident That Caused Wife's Death

In a letter to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kelley of Carrizozo, W. C. Hendren tells of the tragic accident in which Mrs. Hendren was killed and Mr. Hendren was seriously injured. The letter follows:

"You have been very good to write, but I haven't been able to write until today, and even now it is very difficult. I am improving rapidly but have several months' ahead of me. Don't feel I can get too detailed now, but my injuries include loss of left eye, left hip dislocation, which required an operation for open reduction; right ankle and foot broken and in a cast, left ankle and foot broken; in traction for the hip, etc.; left elbow chipped, bruises on left side and front of face.

"The hip is my worst injury. I believe. Was lucky to get out so easy, I guess—did not have many cuts.

"The accident resulted from a Chevrolet pickup truck passing another car at about 60-65 miles an hour, the driver losing control and skidding into my car. It was a terrible thing and so unnecessary; woman driver and two children died, one child injured. But enough of this for now.

"I am gaining strength daily, but in traction, so have only limited movement and must be waited on a lot. Everyone is treating me wonderfully and my care is all that could be asked for.

"The Cleveland Hospital is closing June 30, and will operate as an out-patient clinic—all patients out by June 15. I will probably be sent to Chicago and thus be near my brother, or I might stay in Cleveland at the V. A. Hospital."

Picnic Food Must Be Kept Cold or Hot

Already this season, cases of food poisoning have been reported as an aftermath of picnics or community meals. The mistaken belief that once food is cooked it will keep for hours, even in a warm place, seems to be responsible for many of these outbreaks each summer.

Bacteriologists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture say the safe rule to follow when cooked food must wait is: Keep chilled or keep it very hot—but never at a warm in-between temperature. They caution that foods which cause food poisoning often show no signs of spoilage, so you can't rely on taste, odor or appearance.

Especially subject to rapid and dangerous spoilage in a warm place are soft protein foods, especially those handled in preparation. These include soft custards, cream-filled pastries, or cakes, cooked salad dressing, stuffed eggs or egg salads, and all cooked meats, poultry and fish. These foods can't wait in picnic baskets or out on the table.

Nine Counties Enter Grassland Contest

Nine counties have entered teams in the New Mexico farm grassland program contest for 1953. They are Bernalillo, Dona Ana, Eddy, Sandoval, Santa Fe, Socorro, Taos, Torrance and Valencia counties.

Object of the program and the contest is to promote better pastures and more efficient use of roughage, according to E. E. Anderson, extension dairyman at New Mexico A & M College.

Circular Tells How to Build Portable Livestock Scale

Want to know how to build a portable livestock scale? Ask your county agent for a copy of Extension Circular No. 238, "How to Build a Portable Livestock Scale."

Circular 238 outlines specifications and lists materials needed to construct a scale similar to the one used in the New Mexico A & M College's Beef Cattle Improvement program. That's Extension Circular 238—available at your county agent's office.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT

Time for Control of Screw Worm Is Here

Stockmen can reduce possible heavy losses this year from screw worm infestations by familiarizing themselves with the habits of the pest and the means of reducing the losses, says Ralph R. Dunlap, County extension agent.

Another mild winter in Texas made it possible for the worms to overwinter as far as 150 miles north of their normal winter range there, the county agent points out. The mild winter gave the insects an early start in their annual migration northward.

To become infested, an animal must have a wound on which the screw worm fly can lay its eggs. Once infested, wounds become more attractive to female flies and numerous egg masses about the edge and hundreds of larvae of different sizes may be found in the same wound at the same time. When they become abundant the larvae feed so rapidly on vital tissues such as muscle, nerve, blood and lymph that they may cause the animal to die within a week or 10 days.

For prevention of screw worm infestation, County Agent Dunlap stresses the importance of care to avoid wounding of animals during the screw worm season, regular inspection of animals and prompt treatment of accidental wounds that may occur. When animals are shipped to northern states, careful inspection should be made before the shipment. Upon arrival at the destination, and daily thereafter for at least four days, wounds should be treated immediately with a medicine called EQ-335, smear 62, or other similar remedies.

EQ-335, developed by scientists in the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, contains the chemical insecticide lindane. Because of its more lasting effects as a screw worm poison, it need be applied only once a week on moist wounds, whereas other medicines should be applied twice a week. EQ-335 will also kill female screw worm flies that lay eggs in the wound.

Alamogordo May Abandon 2 New Wells

ALAMOGORDO.—Two wells recently drilled in La Luz canyon for the city of Alamogordo may be abandoned, city officials reported this week.

The first well, on the Carl place, was pumped out in about 15 minutes. It has been drilled by John Collins, contractor, to a depth of 96 feet after water had been found in sandstone at 70 feet. The hole was plugged back to the sandstone formation when water began to flow away at the greater depth.

The well, which was within six feet of the city's pipeline from Narroche and Carl Ranch springs, was 12 inches in diameter with a 10-inch casing.

A second well on the Edison place is pumping about 50 gallons of water a minute at a depth of 48 feet.

THAT HELPS KEEP TELEPHONE COSTS LOW

THIS IS A "MIRACLE BUG"—a transistor developed by the Bell System. Despite its size—less than a third the length of a man's finger—the transistor does almost everything a vacuum tube can do. And it consumes less than a tenth the power used by an ordinary flashlight bulb. Put to work in your telephone system, it generates and amplifies the electrical currents that carry your voice and does it more economically than other equipment.

New developments like the transistor account for the fact that telephone service is improving day by day—and also, in large part, for the fact that telephone prices have gone up much less than the prices of most things you buy.

The Mountain States Telephone & Telegraph Co.

Circular Tells How to Can Foods Properly

Do you know the proper pressure and cooking time for canning fruits, vegetables and meats according to the altitude of your city or town? It's important to have this information, says Miss Grace L. Neely, extension nutritionist at New Mexico A & M College.

"Proper pressure for any given altitude is absolutely necessary if you want a safe and tasty canned product," Miss Neely points out. "New Mexico cities and towns vary greatly in altitude, ranging from 3100 feet above sea level at Carlsbad to 9500 feet above sea level at Cloudcroft."

A recently revised extension publication, "Canning for Better Living," by Miss Neely, tells New Mexico homemakers how to meet some of their food processing problems. The circular shows step-by-step procedures for canning sour cherries, pears, peaches, tomatoes, snap beans, sweet corn and beef. Complete instructions are also given for canning all kinds of fruits, vegetables and meats, including poultry and rabbit.

Single copies of "Canning for Better Living" may be obtained from the local county extension office or from the Extension Service, State College.

Insect Repellents Give Outdoor Comfort

A small sum spent for a good insect repellent preparation can pay big dividends in outdoor comfort and safety, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture entomologists suggest. Home gardeners and other outdoor workers, campers, picnickers or families sitting out in the yard will find repellents helpful against mosquitoes, chiggers, gnats and ticks, for example. Pack a preparation with Juniper's camping equipment or in the family car when starting on a vacation trip and keep one handy with gardening supplies.

Repellents should not be confused with insecticides. Repellents are applied to your skin or clothing to keep insects off, but insecticides are used in the garden or elsewhere to kill insects. Repellent preparations—usually in liquid, lotion or "cream" form—sell at drug, hardware or even grocery stores under different trade names.

Among the most satisfactory chemicals as repellents are dimethyl carbate; dimethyl phthalate; ethyl-hexanediol and indalone. Unlike some of the older repellents, the substances listed above have little or no odor and give protection from insects for several hours.

Beef is a good buy. The largest supply in history is going to market from the ranches and farms of the nation.

National Farm Safety Week will be observed July 19-26.

Lightning kills 400 people and injures 1000 others every year in the United States. About 90% of these fatalities occur in rural areas. In addition, lightning is a major cause of farm fires—about $20,000,000 worth of farm property is destroyed annually.

Ask your county agent for a list of free publications available from the Experiment Station and Extension Service of New Mexico A & M College.

The 23rd National 4-H Club Camp will be held in Washington, D. C., June 17 to 24. The camp is held annually under the supervision of the Cooperative Extension Service of the Department and the land-grant colleges.

LINCOLN COUNTY
IN BYGONE YEARS
20 Years Ago
 (From the files of the Lincoln
 County News, May 26, 1933.)

Fishing season opened last Saturday and many anglers, including whole families, have fished themselves to the mountains to fish. Some to stay a week; others just a day.

Among those who went to Eagle Creek last week were Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Lee, Mrs. E. H. Sweet, Louise Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Finley and L. A. Whitaker.

A few who went to the Bonita were Mr. and Mrs. Byrd Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Zumwalt, Wm. Humphrey, Jess Roberts, John Harkey and family, Albert Snow and family and William Ferguson and family of Nogal Mesa.

Wilma Lorene Snow accompanied her uncle, Dr. Clyde Snow, to his home in Rawls, Tex., last Friday.

Miss Oney McPherson spent a few days with Misses Maudie and Mary Pickett-Warden at their ranch home near Ancho last week.

Mrs. John Burton of Roswell spent last week visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank English.

The first quarterly executive board meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association will be held at the J. V. Taylor ranch near Carrizozo, June 12, 1953.

All problems of vital importance confronting the cattlemen today will be discussed and acted upon as usual but Mr. Taylor is promising something unusual by asking the livestock men to meet at his ranch, where he will serve barbecue beef and mutton, together with a pot of beans, lye-hominy and coffee with pickles and huns for lunch.

Mr. Taylor requests that everyone attending bring his own bed roll and come in Levis and boots.

The Methodist Church reported 56 in Sunday school last Sunday—34 at Capitan and 50 at August, even tho' the fishing season opened last Saturday and the fish were really biting.

40 Years Ago
 (From the files of the Carrizozo News, May 30, 1913.)

Court convened in special session Monday morning, Judge Collin B. Neblett of Silver City presiding. In addition to the judge, the court officials are: H. B. Hamilton, district attorney; A. H. Harvey, clerk; Fortislo Chavez, sheriff; A. M. Major, stenographer; C. S. Pedregan, interpreter; John Adams and C. M. Estes were appointed bailiffs. Three were excused from the regular panel—T. J. Grafton, E. E. Wilson and A. H. Hayes. Filling the vacancies were Marvin Burton, S. F. Miller and R. L. Howell.

Wednesday a case of larceny of a calf was called, the evidence failed to connect the defendant with the alleged crime. The city case from Las Cruces will not be heard because of the resignation of all of the city officials. Attorneys present from out-of-town were Byron Sherry and Edward Mechem of Alamogordo, Geo. B. Barber of Lincoln and Hewitt & Hudson of White Oaks. L. R. York of Capitan was given a temporary permit to practice without the formality of an examination.

Carrizozo fans, after Sunday's defeat by the E. P. & S. W. El Paso Ship team, feel very much as did the Romans upon their defeat at Ascoli by Pyrrhus, King of Epirus. It was said another such defeat would give the Greek king's domains to the Romans. But such is not the case with Carrizozo. The defeat Sunday is not discouraging; it simply re-awakened the fever for conquest.

At its March meeting the Chavez County GPA explored the possibility of reestablishing fish in the Bottomless Lakes 12 miles east of Roswell.

The Socorro GPA has set out 52 Russian olive trees along the river from Escondido to San Antonio. Berries from the trees are said to make excellent winter bird food.

S. P. President Predicts
In the Southwest

In the happy event of an end to Korean hostilities, there is reason to believe that industry and agriculture in the territory served by Southern Pacific will continue to expand; since their spectacular development of recent years has not been dependent upon defense spending to a great extent.

D. J. Russell, president, Southern Pacific Company, expressed this opinion at the recent annual meeting of the railroad's stockholders. Population growth is the basic reason for business expansion in the West and Southwest, he declared, pointing out that the West and Southwest are continuing to benefit from the greatest westward migration in history.

"With an ever-increasing population, an abundance of natural resources and a growing diversification of industry and agriculture, the eight states traversed by our lines have reason to expect much of the future," he said. "Traditionally, these states have been dominantly agricultural producers; now industry is the largest source of traffic for Southern Pacific, although agriculture is continuing to grow."

In looking forward, business must not lose sight of the need for long range planning, the railroad president said.

"Southern Pacific," he added, "is engaged in an intensive study of future development probabilities in the West and Southwest, as geared to the nation as a whole. The railroad's long range planning program is looking from 10 to 25 years ahead. With the past and present as our guides, we have reason to be optimistic over the continued growth of the territory we serve, and we plan to keep our transportation facilities keyed to the requirements of shippers and travelers."

IT'S WORTH WHILE
 By WM. FELTER

There are things in life worth living for,
 For a man to have and to hold—
 The love of a girl, the faith of a pal,
 Worth far more than jewels or gold;
 And the clasp of children's fingers warm
 When the tasks of the day are through
 If you have these you are rich indeed,
 And men honor and envy you.

There are things in life worth fighting for:
 The goal that is just o'er the hill,
 Home and country and friends you would keep
 As long as there's life in you;
 Still,
 So many falter before the end
 Of the rainbow comes into view—
 It's easier to go with the crowd
 Than to fight life's hard battle through.

There are things in life worth dying for:
 Our flag and the faith we hold—
 Only a coward would hesitate
 Or bargain his honor for gold.
 It is easier to die than live
 And 'tis said the good die young—
 Who wants to live to good old age
 Unless he can say: "I have won."

There are fifty years of experience back of our service of repairing watches, clocks and jewelry. Service guaranteed. A. F. Roselle, Carrizozo, N. M. 5-1-14

 SANTA FE, May 26.—Federal tax collections in New Mexico amount to some two million dollars a week, or an average of nearly $3 weekly for every man, woman and child in the State.

In 1952, New Mexicans paid more than $1 million dollars in individual federal income taxes, compared with only $434,000 in 1939.
