It is good news, if true, that a movement is on foot to start a baseball league for the young-- sters of Lincoln County, The addition of baseball to the athletic programs of the schools would provide a year found sports calendar for youth. Spring is just around the corner and now is a good time to lay the groundwork for summer baseball.

. In the past iew weeks, three persons have reported the loss of wallets and to date none has been found and returned to the ewner. The last to lose a wallel is E. ## Don't fool yourself about fire insurance

If you're going to carry fire LOUISING, CALLY ENOUGH.

Many people merely carry "some" fire insurance, to ease their minds a little.

You should face the facts. What if a fire burned your home or business TO THE GROUND tonight? What would it cost you to replace your loss at today's prices?

Your insurance should be big enough to cover a major portion of replacement cost now. THAT is the way to decide how much fire insurance to carry. See us today.

Miss Reba Jean Luck Weds Ralph O. Barber

In a double ring ceremony at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, leal Center. Feb. 6, Miss Reba Jean Luck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney L Luck of National City, Calif., former residents of Alto, became the bride of Mr. Ralph Odel Barber, son of Mrs. G. L. Dutton, of El Paso.

The wedding was solemnized in the Community Methodist Church in Ruidoso, with only immediate members of the famfly attending. Rev. Frank A. Matthews, pastor of the church officiated.

Attending the couple were Mrs. Jerry Pearce, sister of the bride, matron of honor, and Al Robinson, best man.

Will M. Moyer, Clovis, brotherin-law of the bride, sang "Until," by Wilfrid Sanderson, which he sang at the bride's sister's wedding, Mrs. Jerry Pearce, and it was also sung at his wedding.
Mr. Mayer was accompanied by Mrs. John A. Hawkins at the organ, who also played a medley of wedding selections.

For her wedding the bride chose a Navy blue shantung dress with tan and Navy accessories. She wore a yellow rose corsage and carried a white mother of pearl prayer book, belonging to her friend, Mrs. C. B. Little of El Paso.

The bride carried out the tradition of something old, new, borrowed and blue.

For something old and borrowed, she wore a gold dollar, pin borrowed from her triend Mrs. Susie Mayer, of Clovis; new and blue, her dress. For luck she wore a one hundredyear-old sixpence in her shoe, belonging to her friend, Mrs. C. B. Little, of El Paso.

The bride's attendant, Mrs. Jerry Pearce, wore a tan shantung dress with brown accessories. She had a white carnation

THE STORY OF JACOB

By REV. J. M. KERR Postor First Boptist Church Capitan

Another form of bargaining with God is found in some pegple who say to God that if he will answer their prayers they will not do or will do certain things. There may be a legitimate form of this when a person takes a definite step in life covenanting to do a certain thing, but generally speaking, it is bargaining. Prayer is never Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stanley promised to be answered be cause we do a certain thing, is true that, "If we abide in me and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and shall be done unto you." But is also true that prayer is based on God's will and God's will is paramount in consideration. You should want to do what wants us to do regardless of the consideration.
