

RAMBLIN' AROUND

By PAUL BAKER

Every passing day sees progress being made in the swimming pool project. Joe Sargent, sparkplug of the finance committee, reports donations received to date are past the half-way mark of the estimated amount needed. Free plumbing, carpentry and supervisory services have been offered, assuring the pool will be built at a minimum of expense and that it will be well constructed. The reaction to the project is almost unanimous in favor by both youngsters who will use it most and by adults who have been so generous in offering gifts of money and services.

When work on the swimming pool begins, those in charge can count on two volunteer workers. They are Felipe Apodaca and his buddy Ernest Navarro. The pair hunted up Sgt. Engle the other day and said they were ready to go to work. "We can do most everything," they said. Sgt. Engle looked them up at them and guessed they must be all of 6 or 7 years old. "Sure, enough, boys," he said. "We'll call on you."

Lee Adell Baker has always wanted a saddle horse, but up to now her luck along this line has all been bad. Her first horse, a sorrel cow pony, was killed by lightning when it was turned out to pasture. Recently her father bought Lee Adell a 13-month-old colt and was bringing it down from Santa Rosa in a trailer. The colt jumped from the trailer and broke its leg. It is being treated by a veterinarian.

ONE BUNDLE THAT DIDN'T GET TO THE LAUNDRY

It may seem funny now, but it wasn't when the following incident happened. A fond grandmother in Carrizozo who was minding her daughter's infant son, let the child toddle out of sight for an instant. When he couldn't be found downstairs, grandmother hurried upstairs in time to see the infant disappear head first down the laundry chute. Another more hurried trip down stairs found D— had landed unharmed, bottom-side down, on a pile of clothes.

The News office was pleased to receive a call this week from Alonzo (Zo) Elliott, American composer, who came to Lincoln County three weeks ago to work on a grand opera based on the life of Billy the Kid. The opera will be in four acts, with four preludes, and "The Kid" is to be the leading character.

Mr. Elliott is stopping at the Lee Motor Court in Capitan. He drives daily to an unused church in Lincoln, where he composes for two or three hours. Local color, activities, riding and Spanish personalities are being woven into the theme of the opera. The composer, whose residence is in Manchester, N. H., conducted the Madison, Wis., University band and the Military Band of Victoria Park, London, Ont. Among his successes are the ballads "There's a Long, Long Trail, The World is Made for You and Me and There's a Wee Cottage on the Hillside; also the grand opera, "Top Sergeant."

Mr. Elliott has written an amusing western ballad, "The Papago Cow," which he has given the News permission to publish in next week's issue.

No word as yet from Squeaky, our cat, who left for parts unknown, without a forwarding address. I like to think she may have survived that auto accident and found another home where she can take her siestas in peace. Any way, her little dog, Foodle, has filled the gap by giving birth to five puppies. They were born last Sunday. Four of them are blonde-colored, which places the responsibility of parenthood on "Glimmers." We had suspected that dog knew quite a bit about the event, and now we know. He is very interested in the new arrivals but at Foodle's request, is keeping a safe distance away from the kennel.

Fred English, Sally Ortiz, Joe Sargent and Gene Stoker attended the dedication June 12 of the new Highway 54 bridge over the Canadian River at Logan. Approximately 8000 attended the celebration and 2000 were served a barbecue dinner.

PREPARATIONS FOR JULY CAMP MEETING NEAR COMPLETION

All the food or cost of meals for the annual Cowboy Camp Meeting on Nogal Mesa is by custom donated, and the best committee is beginning to sound out the ranchers to see if any have a few fat calves going to waste.

If you'd like to have them taken off your hands, contact Floyd Skinner, Bill Edgar, Bryan Hightower, or any rancher who makes the Camp Meeting his headquarters during the encampment.

The REA has donated time and materials to enlarge the electric system on the grounds and improve it. The Highway Department and Forest Service have completed a new approach to Indian Divide from Highway 380, which is much smoother and safer.

More than a hundred dish towels and two dozen aprons have been made. A roof is to be built over the dish washing area.

All other preparations are almost complete for the encampment, which is inter-denominational and put on by the ranchers of Lincoln County. It starts July 14 and everyone is welcome to attend.

To date over 3,000 acres of national forest land have been worked under the initial contract. Roy E. LaMay of Nogal, and his two D-7 tractors did the contour and diversion construction, gully plugging, and pin-juniper eradication completed thus far.

Similar work is to continue under the new contract for other national forest lands included in the Upper Hondo watershed. The project is a cooperative effort of the Upper Hondo Soil Conservation District, Soil Conservation Service, and the Forest Service.

Any interested group is invited to tour the work with a Forest Officer. Arrangements can be made by contacting the Forest Supervisor, Post Office Building, Alamogordo.

ENGINEER TO PREPARE BIDS FOR WATER SYSTEM

At their meeting Monday night with Ashley Clasen, engineer, the Carrizozo town trustees authorized him to proceed with contract specifications to submit to bidders for the town's new waterworks system.

Mr. Clasen estimated it would require 30 to 40 days to prepare the plans and specifications. They will be re-submitted to the town trustees before being advertised for bids.

In the event a bid is awarded, the engineer estimated approximately 75 days would be required to complete the work.

Attorneys Daniel R. Brenton and Frank Boyce attended Monday night's meeting. They suggested the existing contract with Mr. Clasen, which was originally drawn in 1948, should be clarified and brought up to date to cover only the work contemplated in the recent bond election. A provision was agreed upon that the contract would end with the completion by Mr. Clasen's firm of the municipal water system improvements and additions within the townsite.

ATTORNEYS DISCUSS BONITO WITH TOWN TRUSTEES

MIDGET WRESTLERS ON FRIDAY'S CARD AT H. S. GYMNASIUM

The midgets and the heavies will provide entertainment at the Lions Club wrestling matches Friday night in the Carrizozo High School gymnasium.

Tom Thumb, weighing 65 lbs., meets Cowboy Bradley, 82 lbs., of Cheyenne Wyoming. Thumb hails from San Antonio, Texas.

In the heavyweight class, Shoulders Newman, who proved to be a tough hombre in last week's matches, takes on Marlo de Sousa, heavyweight champion of Mexico. DeSousa wrestled in El Paso Tuesday night and his bout in Carrizozo will be his second one in the State.

Promoter Sandy Martin rates Thumb and Bradley (no relation to Sheriff Bradley) as the "world's greatest midget wrestlers." Both matches will be two out of three falls to a positive no-time limit finish.

The matches will get under way at 8:30 p.m.

Wrestling at Ruidoso Saturday, June 19

Another sensational all star wrestling card comes to Ruidoso Saturday night June 19th at 9 p.m. The matches will of course take place at the newly appointed Ruidoso Coliseum, where every Saturday night is wrestling night—and promoter Spencer Tishman announced the new starting time of 9 p.m. to accommodate requests of many fans.

One of the best cards ever assembled will be on tap, when the world famous midget wrestlers, Cowboy Bradley and Tom Thumb tangle in the principal event. Their bout is slated for a two or three falls, one hour limit. Bradley is the top midget wrestler in the nation today and is very fast and scientific.

The semi-final pits together popular Vicente Lopez, who has been undefeated in his Ruidoso starts, and the masked villain of the mat, The Golden Terror. The Terror who tips the scales at 245 pounds, is a protégé of Count Rossi and is known as the roughest man on the mat, and certainly will prove to be the most formidable opponent Lopez has had to date.

The opener brings two top notch grapplers to Ruidoso. Both are experienced wrestlers and stars of TV. They are Shoulders Newman and Thor Egan.

LITTLE LOAN SURVEY GETS BIG AND COSTLY

SANTA FE, June 16—The survey of the small loan business in New Mexico, launched last March as a one-man, 30-day operation has grown into a big costly operation that looks like it may be in danger of becoming the benefactor of one big national operator known here as Personal Finance.

Ilbirm Homan of Torrance county, former legislator, 1953 clerk of the house and prominent Stockton Republican, was designated to make the 30-day study. That was three and a half months ago. The cost has mounted above $10,000, several members of the survey party are sojourning in Nebraska, half a dozen are employed on the job, and the purpose of the survey seems to be drifting from the original objective of correcting abuses in the forced sale of insurance on borrowers to changing the character of the small loan business in New Mexico.

STATE STUDY FAVORS ONE LARGE OUTFIT

Homan, who is drawing $25 a day, Sundays and every day, plus expenses, hit some good licks, cancelling one license and drawing up cancellation orders on others for gross abuse of people trying to borrow a few bucks. The present stage of his work, however, appears to be moving toward favoring those companies which follow the procedure advocated by Personal Finance which came into the state legislature in 1947 and lobbied a new small loans law into effect.

Here's what it amounts to: A few companies who are willing to make really small loans, $35 or $50 maybe, are increasing their profits by an insubstantial but unofficial demand that the borrowers buy insurance on themselves and their loans. The companies contend that the legal rate of 5 per cent a month will not meet the cost of collecting the unsecured loans and have been insistent in selling the borrowers insurance to boost the profits.

The result has been an outrageous cost for a small loan but not nearly so high as that encountered by the sap going to one of the other loan firms operated on the pattern followed by Personal Finance and apparently favored by the small loan clean-up crew that is now at work.

The little guy who can't get a loan from a bank or is afraid to try may need $45 to ransom his kid out of a hospital. If he gets the $45 from one of the high-rate, insurance-selling outfits it may cost him $15 or $20 in interest and insurance. He can go to one of the Personal-type loaners and get turned down on his $45 request but wind up with a loan of $450 for which he pledges his salary, furniture, and extra suit, and finds himself paying interest on money borrowed to pay his utility bills, grocery, doctor, rent and most all other current expenses that far exceeds the high-rater cost of the $45 loan he needed in the first place.

The Homan survey seems to be moving toward cutting off the really small loaners and leaving the field to the group following the Personal plan of consolidating current debts and making big secured loans. Since 1947 Personal has been a big influence in small loan matters in the state. The outfit has one of the most competent lobbying crews in the country and has recently been accused of securing confidential records and other material from the state bank examiners office, that prior to 1951.

Unless Homan is careful he might be led into a course of knocking out the only places a real little guy can get a few bucks and establish a system in which $200 or something like that is the minimum loan with all the accompanying costs.

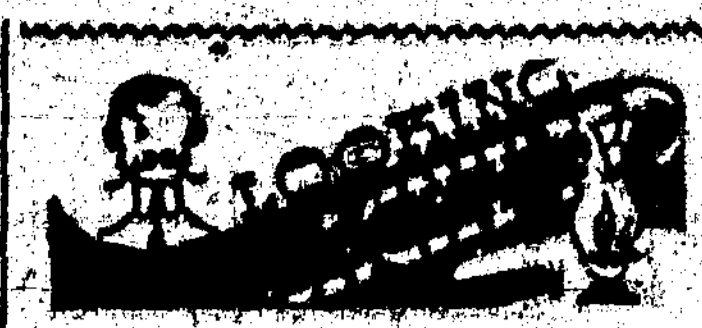

STATEHOUSE IN A HURRY

Republicans are boasting that there are 50 fewer liquor licenses now than when they took over at the first of 1951. The drys like that and so do the established liquor dealers who are enjoying a monopoly with legally guaranteed profits. The new foreman at the state university printing office has employed his wife and son as helpers. The Bureau of Business Research at the state university has completed a study of gas rates in New Mexico that makes us look like a bunch of saps for paying the rates charged here. I will do my part to uphold and rebuild the American Agency System which has developed insurance to its present fundamental place in the economic fabric of our nation, and to my fellow-members of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE AGENTS I pledge myself always to support right principles and oppose bad practices in the business.

I believe that these three have their distinct rights in our business: first, the Public; second, the Insurance Companies; and third, the Insurance Agents; and that the rights of the Public are paramount.

Realizing that only by unselfish service can the insurance business have the public confidence it merits, I will at all times seek to elevate the standards of the insurance profession by generating all my business and community relations in accordance with the provisions of this Code and by inspiring others to do likewise.

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT

By RALPH DUNLAP

At the recent fruit growers in the Hondo Valley they decided to run the packing shed themselves, as the crop was so small. Estimates of the total apple crop in the Valley runs from 8000 to 23,000 bushels, with many not willing to hazard an estimate. Many things could yet affect the crop such as hail, insects and other natural happenings.

The appearance of a few codling moth worms in the apples has been noted in the lower part of the Valley. The growers with fruit should apply another spray on the remaining fruit if they expect to have a marketable apple. Either DDT or Lead Arsenate are recommended for the spray.

During the last two weeks the woolly aphid has shown up in ever increasing numbers on the apple trees. To control it you could use Nicotine Sulfate or Malathion in your next cover spray. At the rate of 1/2 pint to each 100 gallons of spray.

The Slaughter Ranch has tried a different method of adjusting its sheep numbers to the range condition and they did this without reducing the ewe herd. By breeding less than half the ewes he reduced the grazing requirements of his herd. Recent research has estimated that a dry ewe needs less than half the grass that a wet ewe needs.

They still had a wool crop from the dry ewes and these ewes required less supplemental feed than the bred ewes. The bred ewes had over a 100% lamb crop at marking time with all lambs growing well. A reduced death loss also can be obtained from this method.

More information can be obtained on this procedure by getting the recent bulletin entitled

"Lamb and Wool Production on the Range and in the Feedlot."

A demonstration on selecting ram lambs for the breeding herd at marketing time will be held at the Clyde Marley ranch south of old Lon in Lincoln County on July 16. Bill Snyder, extension ram marketing specialist at New Mexico A&M College, announces.

From 200 to 250 ram lambs of Corriedale Fine wool cross, 2 1/4 months of age will be used in the demonstration. Also on hand will be rams of similar age from top native Fine Corriedale rams bred to imported Australian Corriedale ewes.

Sires and dams of these rams will be penned for further close observation and will be in 2 1/2 months wool, separately painted-branded according to fineness and length of wool. The bulk of Marley's ewes, grade 60s/64s, predominantly are of fine medium wool grade. Those attending the demonstration will be able to judge first hand the results of a closely supervised range breeding program which stresses the home-raising of quality rams and ewe replacement stock from stud and super-classed ewes under a wool and herd improvement program, Snyder states.

Ralph Dunlap, Lincoln County agent, will assist Marley in conducting the demonstration. Snyder will be in the chutes with the county agent to conduct the lamb selection work. New markers will be placed along the country road to guide visitors to the Gallo Ranch headquarters. The demonstration will get under way at 9:30 a.m. A ranch style luncheon will be served, guests during the noon hour.

Wool producers, county agents and others are invited to attend the demonstration.

Cattle Growers Meet June 25-26 in TorC

More than 500 cattle growers from all parts of New Mexico are expected to attend the second quarterly regional meeting of the New Mexico Cattle Growers' Association in Truth or Consequences on June 25 and 26, according to Sherwood Culbertson, Lordsburg, president.

"Federal and State land problems, beef promotion activities, and livestock theft are among matters to be considered by the next session of the State Legislature and will highlight subjects to be acted upon at the coming meeting," Culbertson said.

"It is possible that the Congress may decide to send a joint committee from the Senate and House to investigate Army Department land acquisition matters in New Mexico, and should this be the case, such hearings will probably be held after ad-

CHICAGO—The faster you go, the harder you hit!

Excessive speed was a factor in 35% of the nation's 37,300 motor vehicle deaths last year, according to "Accident Facts," the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook.

Twenty-eight per cent of the drivers involved in these accidents were reported violating some speed regulation. Fourteen per cent exceeded the stated speed limit, 5% exceeded safe speeds although traveling under the stated limit, and 9% violated safe speeds in areas where there was no stated limit.

"If this procedure is followed one of the major subjects for discussion at our June meeting will be the government land ownership in this State," he added.

STATE GAME DEPARTMENT

NEWSLETTER

The State Game Commission has adjusted its 1954 hunting regulations to limit hunting hours to sunrise to sunset. The original regulation provided for starting half an hour before sunrise and ending half an hour after sunset.

The commission voted to remove all bag and size limits on the basis to be taken from Bear Canyon Lake in the Gila wilderness. This will be effective late this month, after the required legal publication.

Later, when fishing pressure declines, all fish will be poisoned and removed. The lake is to be replanted with trout, which do not fare well in the presence of bass.

Among others, the game refuge at High Rolls in Otero County was abolished, as the department reported it had served its purpose.

The commission authorized issuance of 2500 special licenses for hunting antelope in various areas sometime between Sept. 1 and Oct. 31. The areas are: 1, north of Highway 66 and west of the Rio Grande; 2, south of Highway 66 and west of the Manzano, Ocuero, San Andres and Organ mountains; 3, east of those mountains and south of Highway 66; and 4, east of the Rio Grande and north of Highway 66.

The general elk season was set for October 2-10 inc. for the San Antonio-Red River area (100 permits) and the Pecos (300 permits). An elk of either sex may be taken in the San Antonio-Red River areas, bulls only in the Pecos. There will be 24 permits for an elk of either sex in the Luna area, where the dates are

An Important Statement about Telephone Rates and Refunds

The recent New Mexico Supreme Court opinion affecting telephone rates in the state is of such far-reaching importance to telephone users and the telephone company alike that you'll be interested in the following brief review of this situation:

- Over a year ago, in accordance with the procedure provided by the State Constitution, this company filed a new schedule of rates with the New Mexico Corporation Commission. Under our previous rates, our earnings had declined to a point where we were not receiving an adequate return on our property in New Mexico.
- Following public hearings on the matter, the Corporation Commission denied the Company this increase in rates.
- In the best interests of telephone users the Company then had two alternatives under the New Mexico Constitution:
 - To petition the Supreme Court to overrule the decision of the Corporation Commission.
 - To proceed with the new rate schedule, and let the Commission take the matter to the Supreme Court.We elected to follow the second alternative, as the need for rate relief had become so urgent that time was of the essence, and the delay involved in alternative A would have proved injurious to our expansion program in New Mexico. We posted bond, to guarantee any refund which might be due our customers in event a lower schedule of rates ultimately should be established. The new rates were placed in effect and the Commission thereupon appealed this matter to the Supreme Court.
- The Supreme Court, after hearing arguments of both parties to the case, handed down their opinion on May 8, 1954, sustaining the position taken by the Commission. However, the Court stated in its opinion:
"In fairness to the Company, it is appropriate to say that there is grave doubt in our minds as to the adequacy of the old rates, and the fairness of the Commission's findings that such rates are adequate."
- We then petitioned the Court to reconsider several points in the opinion, including the possibility of referring the new question back to the Commission for determination of an acceptable rate schedule. Our request was denied.
- This still leaves unsolved the problem of establishing reasonable rates which are fair to all concerned—a level of rates essential to the expansion and improvement of telephone service in New Mexico. The old rates (in effect prior to June 23, 1953) would yield less than 4 per cent earnings on our property today.
Therefore, we have filed with the Commission:
 - An emergency schedule of rates to become effective in 30 days. These rates will provide less than 6 per cent return on the Company's property, on the type of rate base used by the Commission in recent cases. They represent only temporary and inadequate relief.
 - A request that the Commission further study the problem with a view to establishing rates which are fair and adequate in relation to the Company's present property in New Mexico.
- In the meantime, we are starting work on the huge job of refunding the amounts collected under bond for the past year. The refund will take the form of credits to present accounts and payments, where appropriate, to former accounts. This will take a number of months to complete, since the various services involved in nearly 100,000 customer accounts must be re-computed. More than two million long distance charge tickets will have to be re-priced. Federal excise and State sales tax must be re-figured on practically every transaction.
A specially selected and trained force will undertake this task, to accomplish it efficiently and as quickly as possible.

Our program of expansion in New Mexico (totalling more than $7 million in 1954 alone) necessarily depends upon the continuing addition of new capital to the Company. New money for expansion of telephone service will not be forthcoming from investors unless we are permitted to charge rates sufficient to bring investors a fair return.

nation for state superintendent may have lost the run because many of his supporters could not vote. Spot checking shows only about half of the teachers registered to vote in the primary, and only part of those registered as Democrats. A recently retired principal of the University Heights school in Albuquerque boasts that during 30 years she never marked a ballot. Wonder if she encouraged her kids that way? ... Henry Kiker, the Democratic nominee for supreme court justice, is encountering criticism because of his 73-year age which was stated during the campaign as 69. ... Attorney General Dick Robinson is not enjoying the ribbing he's getting for buying a state car equipped with sleep, red light, spot light, and two-way radio. Some of the jesters have been offering him box tops to get plastic space helmets for his crew.
