

RAMBLIN' AROUND

By PAUL BAKER

Though there has been no recent publicity...

A recent book that has created much interest in the Southwest since its publication in 1953...

Among the eleven interesting and informative chapters in "Tales of the Tularosa" are ones on Eugene Manlove Rhodes and the western tradition...

Mrs. Charles has dedicated her book to her children and to the memory of her husband, the late Tom Charles...

Much of the material in "Tales of the Tularosa," Mrs. Charles says, is verbatim as her husband wrote it.

The author has a good deal to say of the authorship of Eugene Rhodes, his intimate knowledge of the Southwest and of the men and women who rode across the great stage in the eventful days before Statehood...

land, an old-timer of Alamogordo who grew up with Rhodes, will still tell you with emphasis born of admiration that "Gene Rhodes could ride any bronc that walked."

Eugene Rhodes' fame as a writer of western stories came during the 20 years he lived in New York State. Several of his stories made the point that there were heroic qualities in men such as Tom O'Fallard...

In her chapter "Got Without Cause," Mrs. Charles tells sympathetically the story of old Chief Geronimo and his little band of Indians who went on the warpath in the early eighties...

Familiar names run through the chapters of the "Tales of the Tularosa," including General George Crook, Kit Carson, Chief Nana, Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, Tom Keeney, J. M. Aguayo, Eugene Dow, Charles E. Eddy, and Frank Rolland...

A chapter on the Apache Mesquero Indian Reservation describes the massive stone archway, which was the realization of a dream by Father Albert W.

YOUTHS GET INTO TROUBLE

Two youths from Espanola are in jail at Clovis, after a wild episode in Chavez and Lincoln counties in which they wrecked two stolen cars and finally ended up in the Otero County jail. The boys stole a 1946 Fiaceline Chevrolet in Roswell from Myron Carson, wrecked it at the Lincoln and Chavez County line on U. S. 70, hitchhiked back to Roswell and stole a 1951 Chrysler Club coupe from Bill Striman. This car became total loss No. 2 when it was wrecked at Picacho last Friday night. The boys hitchhiked to Alamogordo where they were picked up by State Police.

Braun, O. F. M.

Tom Charles, when a U. S. Commissioner, became a personal friend of several Mesquero Apaches who were called to duty as guides in the final campaign against Geronimo. Among them were Martin Kayitah, Charles Martine and Alfred Chatto. Sam Chino, now nearly a century old, remains one of the Mesquero's leading citizens.

Of the reservation today, Mrs. Charles says: "There has been an amalgamation of the two former warring factions. Descendants of the old warriors as well as of the faithful scouts form the present generation. Robert Geronimo, son of the old chief, is a prosperous and respected member of the community, as is Wendell Chino, son of the retired chief of the reservation police."

"Tales of the Tularosa" is recommended reading for anyone interested in the lore of the Southwest.

L. S. (Heavy) Drake this week announced his candidacy for re-election to the House of Representatives for Lincoln County, subject to the Republican primary. Mr. Drake has been a resident of Lincoln County for 26 years and has served two terms in the legislature.

In soliciting the support of the people of this county in his campaign, Mr. Drake submits his record to the voters, as follows:

The following bills, resolutions and memorials were introduced in the last session by him: House Joint Resolution No. 1—This constitutional amendment was approved by a big majority of the voters of New Mexico in the last special election held in September, 1953. Drake's resolution provided a speedy, non-expensive way of filling vacancies in the Legislature by the County Commissioners in any county or counties comprising a shoe-string district, where a vacancy occurred by resignation or death of the elected member of the Legislature.

Under the old system, the governor called a special election just for this purpose, in the county or counties. This election had to be advertised 30 days in all precincts in the county or counties; had to be manned by election officials who received $10 a day for each such official. This old method in Lincoln County, for example, would cost the people of our county about $2,300. Counties such as Lincoln and other poor counties in the future will be able to save this money.

House Bill No. 45 amends our State law to comply with the Federal laws affecting the blind. The blind people now can earn up to $50 a month, without this amount being deducted from their assistance checks from the state.

House Memorial No. 7—This requests Congress to amend its laws so New Mexico can amend its state laws giving to old people past 65, who are on state assistance, the same privileges as the blind, namely the right to earn up to $50 a month, without this amount being deducted from their state assistance check. This would permit the old people to do odd jobs, to make souvenirs or other useful articles of some kind for sale to the public. Nothing is so important for the happiness of the old people as the feeling that they themselves are helping keep themselves up, at least partly, by having some kind of work that the new law will permit them to do. Under present Federal law, these elderly people are forced to sit around in complete idleness, with nothing to occupy them, or their check from the state is cut by the amount of their earnings from light odd jobs.

House Bill No. 61—Puts villages on the same plane as cities and towns, who are permitted to hire their own city clerks. If it is all right for a city or town to hire a city clerk, it should certainly be all right and only fair that villages should be afforded the same opportunity. This bill was carefully drawn so that no present village clerk was forced out of office. He or she stays in office until the expiration of the term for which elected.

Auxiliary President to Visit Capitan VFW Post

Mrs. Laura Jones, district president of the VFW Auxiliary, will visit Capitan VFW and Auxiliary at the January 26 meeting to be held at 7:30 p.m. at the VFW Home.

S. P. VICE PRESIDENT VISITS CARRIZOZO

J. W. Corbett of San Francisco, vice president in charge of operations for the Southern Pacific System, was one of the principal speakers at the monthly meeting of the railroad's safety meeting last Friday in Odd Fellows' Hall.

Mr. Corbett stopped over between trains to attend the meeting. M. A. Nugent of San Francisco, superintendent of safety for S.P., also spoke. He complimented the Rio Grande division for having the second best safety record last year among the company's ten divisions. The mechanical department won the president's award with a perfect record of a year without a reportable accident.

In his remarks, Mr. Corbett recalled that 26 years ago he stopped off in Carrizozo on his way to take the position of trainmaster in Tucumcari. "Times have changed since then," he said, "but not the people. The finest railroad people I have ever known are in this Southwestern country."

A WATER SYSTEM FOR SALE

"We could not possibly have predicted then many of the things that have happened since. Years ago we were concerned with a water shortage and falsing the height of Bonito Dam to store more water. Today we are trying our best to get rid of the Bonito system."

Business is off a little on the Southern Pacific lines, Mr. Corbett said. "We estimate business for this year will be 7 1/2% to 10% less than in 1953, which was the biggest in the history of the railway. But in this great country of ours we know there will be a continued need for lots of transportation. Our goal is to hold what business we have and if possible get business back that we have lost to other forms of transportation."

R. G. Barnum, S. P. roadmaster in Carrizozo, and his committee provided an excellent program of entertainment for the meeting, with refreshments following. The program included solos by Thomas Young, Laverne McSmith and Bobby Rickerson; an accordion solo by Barbara Hurley; tap dance by Jean Guthrie and an exhibition of baton twirling by Norman Crider and his twirlers.

P. D. Robinson, superintendent of the Rio Grande division, spoke briefly. He presented Clyde O. Newate, agent, with a Certificate of Good Housekeeping, signifying that the personnel at the local station "attained standards of cleanliness and orderliness set up by the railway company's good housekeeping committee."

The meeting was presided over by C. E. Alward, trainmaster at El Paso. Also attending from El Paso were L. J. Adams, road foreman of engines; W. R. Adair, asst. supt.; Frank Kurz, master mechanic and L. E. Lyons, division engineer. From Tucumcari came R. O. Coltrin, trainmaster, and his assistant, R. V. Currier.

In his talk on safety, Mr. Nugent said the Southern Pacific in 1953 had its second lowest casualty record in history, and the Rio Grande division has set the pace for safety for the past two or three years.

He brought out the fact that the husband employed on the railroad is safer than his wife in the home, and that accidents are the greatest killer of our children. The Southern Pacific at the present time has 35 permanent employees in Carrizozo. From 50 to 60 trainmen are making regular stopovers here for one night or less.

ADULT CLASSES RESUME FEB. 2nd

The adult classes in typing and shorthand, which terminated recently in the Carrizozo schools, proved to be such a success that it was decided to resume a new schedule, beginning Tuesday, Feb. 2.

Supt. R. G. Firman states that new and old members wishing to enroll may do so at any time in the superintendent's office at the high school.

A tuition charge of $5 per course is levied to cover the costs of operation, plus the expenses for books and other materials. If there is sufficient demand, it is hoped to launch a more comprehensive adult program next fall.

Young Bagwell, who spent three months in India this summer as a youth exchange delegate to that country, gave an illustrated talk of his visit to farming sections of central and northern India.

He said the hospitality of the people in India was outstanding and the greatest benefit he derived from the trip was to learn to know India, not as a geographical location, but as a nation of individuals.

MOTHERS TO MARCH FOR POLIO FUND

When the Voice of America was casting about for subjects which could best interpret to foreign countries the most praiseworthy features of the American way of life, its sponsors might profitably have chosen to depict the Mothers' March on Polio.

Probably nowhere in the world is there a counterpart of this dramatic humanitarian undertaking which involves the voluntary cooperative effort of the mothers of an entire nation.

On the night of January 23, in Lincoln County, as elsewhere throughout the United States, mothers will call at every home where a lighted porch lamp proclaims that the householder wishes to help fight polio by contributing to the 1954 March of Dimes.

The fire siren will blow in Carrizozo at 7 p.m., Friday, January 23, signaling the start of the march of Mothers. Mothers in Carrizozo who will march between 7 and 8 p.m., are the Mimes, J. N. McDaniel, Jerry Givner, A. A. Young, C. A. Snow, Glenn King, John Hein, H. T. Roy, Sally Ortiz, Lloyd Vigil, Manuel Chavez, Nick Vega, Fred Schlarb, and Mrs. Rex Werner, chairman of the Lincoln County Mothers' March of Dimes.

In Capitan, the fire whistle's summons for the Mothers' March will be at 7:00 o'clock Thursday evening, January 23. Mrs. Lee Smith, is chairman of the March. She will be assisted by the Mimes, Marie Walker, Ray Provine, Roy Morgan, Charles Ferris, Jeff Dechroy, Leroy McKnight and Mrs. R. E. Aldrich. Those who wish to contribute to the drive for combating this dread disease, will please leave their porch light on at that time. A mother will stop to collect your contribution.

PORT STANTON

In Port Stanton, Mrs. Joet Shaw is chairman of the Mothers' March for the polio fund.

Christmas Celebrated On Tropical Island

KWAJALEIN, MARSHALL ISLANDS (PHINC)—A tiny Pacific Ocean Isle, 2 1/2 miles long and 1/2 mile wide, radiated with Christmas spirit with the rest of the free world. The "glad tidings" and "ringing" in the new festivity was shared by more than two thousand Naval Station personnel aboard the crescent-shaped and largest atoll of the Marshall chain.

Among the celebrants was Chester Donald Dale, quartermaster 3rd class, USN, son of Mrs. Bessie Dale of Capitán.

Despite the drastic temperature change from the frigid North Pole to that of the tropical isle and with numerous mopings of the brow, Santa Claus managed to dole out a gift to each of the 150 children of military personnel living here.

DRAKE ANNOUNCES

Under Governor Mechem's administration, Lincoln County has finally gotten some material recognition which we have been looking for. When he campaigned in Lincoln County, he didn't promise us any roads. He just said we needed roads, and here is the record of what has been handed to Lincoln County under Mechem, according to official figures that Drake compiled from Highway Department records:

All road contracts in Lincoln County for 1951, '52 and '53—$2,784,575.03.

Highway 54—Forty-nine and eight-tenths miles.

Tinnie-Arabela project. Hondo High School—Approach from Highway 380 to the school house.

Tinnie-bridge and approach from Highway 380.

Ruidoso High School—Approach from Highway 37 to High School.

Ruidoso-Hondo Valley Hospital. Frank J. Sager, cashier.

T. W. Stoneroad of Ft. Stanton returned from the Macho where where he went to recover his horses and mules which stampered for the flats during the storm.

The Woman's Missionary Society met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George L. Ulrich.

ital—Approach from Highway 37 to Hospital.

Highway 390 and 70 resealed. Ruidoso—From Main Street to the airport, known as Mechem drive.

In addition to the above projects, completed or under construction in Lincoln County, an additional Lincoln County road program is set up for February, 1955.

Highway 37 is No. 1 priority. This will be an extension from the airport known as Mechem Drive, toward Angus. It is possible this project could have advance setting, even before February of 1955.

In addition to all the above road building, Ed Mechem came to the rescue of Lincoln County again and saved Fort Stanton Hospital. Drake has furnished the following statistics on the Hospital:

From July to Dec. 31, 1953, a total of 137 tubercular patients have been admitted. It is expected that some 50 cancer patients will be admitted, when the building operations are completed.

At the present time, there are 125 people employed, with a monthly payroll of $26,775.

Drake says the hospital is operating in the black, due to the Indian patients sent to the hospital and paid for by the Federal government.

The State Tourist Bureau has finally recognized Lincoln County, according to Drake. This spring new picture maps of New Mexico will be scattered across the United States, and these new maps very prominently show tourist attractions in Lincoln County.

Regarding Lake Bonito, Drake says that from yesterday, today, tomorrow or from now on, he will fight Otero County, or any other county which tries to divert water from the Lincoln County watershed.

Drake says that the very valuable experience he gained as a legislator in the last two sessions will, in his opinion, be a real advantage in serving the people of Lincoln County and

SILTATION MEANS POOR FISHING

Siltation means poor fishing in many of New Mexico's warm water reservoirs, according to Roy Barker, director of Fisheries for the New Mexico Department of Game and Fish.

Barker states: "If the present rate of siltation continues, game fish populations in most of our reservoirs will be a thing of the past. The high country is indeed our major source of water but it is not the only one. Every inch square of land in the state

New Mexico, if he is re-elected. He says it is a tough job to be a member of the legislature and try to please everybody, so he is going to follow the rule of trying to please the majority of the people of Lincoln County, and will appreciate your support in the coming primary.

is a part of the watershed, and recognition of this fact is essential if siltation is to be curbed. "Our vast prairie lands are bisected and broken by gullies and intermediate stream channels. These contribute the greater part of the silt load of our major streams. Grazing and farming, small dam building, technical aid to landowners, stream and gully improvement, and education, are the solutions to this problem.

"Sportsmen and landowners can help," suggests Barker, "by initiating stream improvement projects which consist of building rock deflectors in arroyos, filling gullies and planting soil-building grass, trees and shrubs which will tend to retard open land washing down into the streams."

Until the atomic era, uranium was merely a byproduct of radium and vanadium, useful for coloring glass, pottery, and artificial teeth.

By ETHELYN PHILLIPS

Mrs. Myra Richards of Roswell visited Mr. and Mrs. Clark on their vacation trip to the end.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon Zamora and daughter, of Los Angeles, are visiting relatives in Lincoln. G. Philippe de Rosier has returned from his trip back east. He encountered very bad weather on his trip and is glad to be back in Lincoln.

VARIED PROGRAM OF ENTERTAINMENT AT WOMAN'S CLUB

By CLARA BAKER

Members of the Carrizozo Woman's Club and their guests enjoyed a varied program of entertainment at the regular monthly meeting last Friday, noon. Mrs. W. H. Rickerson was program chairman.

A violin selection, "Andante Religioso," by Thome, was beautifully played by Mrs. Betty Nickels, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. G. Firman. Norman Crider held everyone spell-bound by his "baton twirling" exhibitions. An accordion solo by Mary Guck followed. She also sang "Passing By," by Edward Purcell, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Leota Pfingsten. Mrs. Pfingsten sang two delightful numbers, "Try Smiling" and "Mocking Bird Hill," accompanied by Miss Ethelyn Phillips at the piano.

For the grand finale, Ethelyn played several piano selections including the very difficult "Impromptu in A-Flat Major" by Faure.

Through the courtesy of Mrs. Rex Werner, a film, "Marching Mothers," starring Helen Hayes, was shown by Carl Thornton acting as projectionist. R. G. Firman, superintendent of Carrizozo schools, loaned the projector to the club for the showing of the film.

Mrs. H. T. Ray read the devotional and brought out the difference between "nonentity" and "identity."

New members welcomed were Mmes. Luella Bingham, Nellie Riley and R. G. Firman.

Guests introduced were the Misses Catherine Chisholm, Janice Ridley and Mrs. Margaret Shown, teachers in the Carrizozo schools. Other guests introduced included: Mmes. Louis Huffman, Owen Simpson, Wayne Zumwalt, B. G. Barnum, Wanda Stiggins, Clint Morris, H. F. Fulkerson and Ora G. Tully; also Glenda Sue King, Susan Spencer, Jerilyn Graves and Robert Firman.

Refreshments of ice cream, cup cakes and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mmes. Lewis Farris, Kelley Stephenson, T. E. Kelley, A. A. Young, W. H. Belcher and Helen Wrye.

In the absence of Mrs. C. A. Snow, president, Mrs. Betty Nickels presided and Mrs. Rex Werner took over the duties of the secretary in the absence of Mrs. J. N. McDaniel.

A HIGH CODE OF ETHICS

"I BELIEVE in the insurance business and its future, and that the American agent is the instrumentality through which it reaches the highest point and attains its widest distribution.

I will do my part to uphold and support the American Agency System which has developed insurance to its present fundamental place in the economic fabric of our nation, and to my fellow-members of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF INSURANCE AGENTS I pledge myself always to support right principles and oppose bad practices in the business.

I believe that these three have their distinct rights in our business: first, the Public; second, the Insurance Companies; and third, the Insurance Agents; and that the rights of the Public are paramount.

Realizing that only by unselfish service can the insurance business have the public confidence it merits, I will at all times seek to elevate the standards of the insurance profession by governing all my business and community relations in accordance with the provisions of this Code and by inspiring others to do likewise."

NEWS FROM THE COUNTY AGENT

TREND IN WOOL PRICES ANALYZED

The brokerage firm of Merrill Lynch, Pierce Fenner and Beane, in its latest analysis of prospective wool price trends, listed a number of factors which may be conducive to price advance or price decline. In the United States and the world, William K. Snyder, extension wool marketing specialist at New Mexico A & M College said this week.

Factors conducive to price advance in the U. S., according to the brokerage firm are: (1) Stocks continually reduced by current consumption and import rates, and (2) Government action to raise the domestic wool prices.

Factors conducive to price advance in the world are: (1) World stocks reduced by current consumption rates, (2) Broader competition from Communist countries, and (3) Producer's attitudes in exporting countries firmer.

Factors conducive to price decline in the United States are: (1) Increased production of synthetic fibers, and (2) Continued hand-to-mouth trade-buying policies.

Factors conducive to price decline in the world are: (1) Increased world wool production, (2) Increased stocks of finished or semi-manufactured goods, and (3) Continuation of world price trend toward lower levels.

TESTED AT THE ORLANDO, FLA., LABORATORY OF USDA'S AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH SERVICE DURING 1953, AND ALL OF THEM PROVED EFFECTIVE IN CONTROLLING DDT-RESISTANT FLIES. USED IN DAIRY BARN AND POULTRY HOUSES, THE THREE CHEMICALS REDUCED RESISTANT FLY POPULATIONS BY 90% OR MORE WITHIN FOUR HOURS AFTER APPLICATION.

The three phosphates appear to be well-suited for farm use against resistant flies because they are not only the best fly-killers of several chemicals tested, but have relatively low toxicity to livestock and humans.

Registration of Aliens Reported Lagging

M. R. Toole, acting district director of Immigration and Naturalization Service at Paso, states that the registration of aliens under the new Immigration Act is lagging somewhat behind the registration program of last year, despite the fact that more aliens are required to report their address under the new bill, such as students, and contract laborers.

This may be accounted for by reason of an extension in the allowable period to register in the new law. Under the old immigration law all aliens were required to register by the 11th of January, which has now been extended to January 31.

Mr. Toole points out that the penalties for the failure of an alien to report his address between the period of Jan. 1 and Jan. 31 are more severe under the new law in that any alien who willfully or inexcusably fails to report as required is subject to deportation proceedings. In addition, imprisonment or fines may be levied, before deportation.

Few Changes Reported in SCS Reorganization

ALBUQUERQUE, January 20—State Conservationist R. A. Young announced today the selection of personnel for the state office of Soil Conservation Service in New Mexico has been completed. Ray McDaniel will be deputy state conservationist; Lewis J. Korn, assistant state conservationist; C. W. Bennett, conservation engineer; A. S. McCorkle, soil conservationist; H. J. Maker, soil scientist, and K. P. Blair, administrative officer.

In announcing the reorganization plan for New Mexico, R. A. Young emphasized that very few changes and transfers of local SCS personnel assigned to districts would be made in the near future. Every change made will be after full consideration has been given to the needs of the districts and the funds and personnel available to meet those needs.

He said: "I am sure that every district supervisor in New Mexico will be happy to know that the people who have been working with their districts, by and large, will be the same people who will be with them in the months ahead."

In announcing these reorganization plans, Mr. Young stated that the soil conservation pro-

Lessons from the Bible

THE STORY OF JACOB

By REV. J. M. KERR
Pastor First Baptist Church
Capitan

This is what the Scriptures say: "Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with Him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin. Now, if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him; knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over Him: For in that He dieth, He died unto sin once; but in that He liveth, He liveth unto God."

"Likewise reckon ye yourselves dead to sin, in his opinion, will go forward with even greater impetus, particularly because of the greater responsibility which is being transferred to the state office and additional personnel being assigned to New Mexico.

In other words, it's full steam ahead not only on regular soil conservation work, as conducted through soil conservation districts, but in the expanded soil and water conservation work which is being emphasized in the Sandia Mountain tributaries (Bernalillo) and upper Rio Hondo pilot watershed protection projects located in Sandoval and Lincoln counties.

On Dec. 8, 1953, a joint message was sent to all soil conservation service and extension service personnel in which Don A. Williams, administrator of the SCS, and C. M. Ferguson, administrator of the Federal extension service, stated:

"The reorganization does not change in any way the functions of the SCS in carrying out a national program of soil and water conservation primarily through soil conservation districts. The Soil Conservation Service and the Extension Service continue to have the responsibility for effective cooperation at county, state and national levels. Both services will look to the state experiment stations service of the department for improved technology through which to assist local people in handling their programs.

"Let's move together to tackle the job. We are committed to and will help you in every way we can to develop a closely coordinated and smoothly working program. The job is a big one. Let's tackle it in a big way."—Signed D. A. Williams and C. M. Ferguson.

to be dead unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin, therefore, reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in the lust thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin; but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God." (Rom. 6:13.)

The thing that is revealed here is that there can be two yieldings of self. We can either yield ourselves to unrighteousness or we can yield ourselves to righteousness. We can follow the lower nature or we can follow the higher nature. We can express self, or we can express Christ. The way to keep from the expressions of self is the supplanting of self expression with Christ Expression.

How can this be done? Perhaps a very simple suggestion along this line can be the most effective thing we can do. It is this formula: In any given circumstance in which we are to act, let one's actions be decided on this basis: Not what I shall do, but what would Christ do? Decide and determine to express Him and not yourself.

It is true that something must be done about self. For almost two years the S. S. Normandie, later renamed the U. S. Lafayette, lay on her side in the water and mud of the Hudson River. While she was being refitted from a luxury liner to a transport, fire broke out which resulted in her capsizing and sinking. Here she lay all those months utterly helpless and useless. Navy salvage experts went to work to raise the giant hulk from the water, and refloat her for use. It was a stupendous task. Before she could float again, they first had to get rid of the dead weight of water which filled the inside of her. To lift her by main force would have been impossible, but if they could remove the water within she would float herself in the water without. Hence every hole and opening in the giant ship frame was sealed tight. Everything above her main promenade deck had to be removed, including two masts, two complete decks and three funnels, each big enough to accommodate both tubes of the Hudson Tunnel. This meant that a total of 5000 tons of superstructure had to be taken off the ship, along with 6000 tons of debris, 11000 cubic yards of mud, 5000 pounds of broken glass and 1,000,000 tons of water. All this dead weight had to be removed before the Normandie could float. It is the same with us. There is the dead weight accumulated through self that so cumber and clutter up our lives that we are actually sunk. We are so cluttered up with our petty activities and selfish motives that we are unfit for the bigger life and better results in life that awaits us. This dead weight must be removed.

Jesus said: "If any man will come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross and follow Me." (Matt. 16:24.) Paul said: "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I but Christ liveth in me." Self must be crucified. However, denying and crucifying self is only part of the victory. So far it is negative.

Tierra Minerals Ships Car of Bastanite From Gallinas Mill

Tierra Minerals shipped a carload of ore concentrate, a "rare earth" called bastanite, from their mill at the Gallinas Station ten miles south of Corona to Chicago Tuesday of last week. The ore had first been stored in Roberts Mercantile warehouse before shipping.

Bastanite is used as a hardening substance in the manufacture of jet engines. Another kind of ore being separated at the mill is fluorospar and the mine owners have been shipping carloads of this ore to Deming for several months.

About ten men are employed at the mill when running in full operation. All employees are local men. Cold weather, a frozen water line, and trouble with their pumps has caused some delay recently, but work at both the mine in the Gallinas Mountains and the mill at Gallinas Station will be progressing rapidly by the first of next week.

Frank Hall of Vaughn is doing some blocking for the Nina Mining Co., of Ardmore, Okla., on their mine ore claims on the L. D. Strickland ranch about 25 miles southeast of Corona. Last year several carloads of iron ore were shipped to the Colo. Iron & Fuel Co. at Pueblo, Colo.

The S. P. Railway has purchased a new state job truck for use by Lineman Bryan Sandercon.

J. E. Robinson has bought from Arthur Melton of Tucuman the building and cafe now operated by Gustie Wanderer.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Waldon and children made a trip to Los Lunas to visit her sister, Mrs. Emmett Miller, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McKibben were in Albuquerque the first of this week. McKibben is helping his brother, Herman, move a house from Albuquerque to Carrizozo.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Casey spent the first of this week in El Paso shopping for Casey's Sweet Shop and Western Store. The shop and store were closed for two or three days.

Julia Kerr, second grade teacher, was in Carrizozo Hospital suffering from pleurisy. Many children have been absent from school recently because of flu and scarlatina.

Hondo Band Boosters To Present Play Jan. 29

By MRS. LEO JOINER
Friday evening, Jan. 29, at 7:30 p. m., members of the Band Boosters Club will present a rip-roaring comedy "The Campbells Are Coming."

The cast includes Mrs. E. Tittsworth as Ma Branigan, who has only one interest in life - her grandchildren. Mrs. W. McKnight as Catalpa Tapp, the one and only hillbilly servant. Betty Branigan, Ma's younger, doting granddaughter, is played by Mrs. Tom Babers, and Dick Branigan, Ma's lovable grandson, is played by McKinley McTeigue.

Mrs. J. Hamilton takes the part of Kaye. Kingston Campbell, Kaye's fiance, is played by Wilbur McKnight, while Betty Shreengost takes the part of his aristocratic mother, Mrs. Agusta Campbell.

Don't forget the date and be sure of an evening of hilarious entertainment.

"Red Heads" to Play Corona Independents

The World Champion All-American Red Heads will play Corona Independents (or Corona Town Team) at the Corona gym this Saturday, Jan. 23. Proceeds go to the Athletic Fund.

Corona Freshman team lost to Vaughn Friday by three points. The proceeds of the game was $61.00 and went to the March of Dimes fund.

Corona Freshman and Sophomore team will play Mountainair on Corona court this Friday, Jan. 23. Proceeds will go to the March of Dimes fund.

There will be a dance after the ballgame with Carrizozo, Friday, Jan. 29, at the Corona school gym for the benefit of the March of Dimes.

Mrs. Effie Mulkey and daughter, Elene, visited her mother, Mrs. Ada Harris, and did some shopping for car parts for Corona Motor Co. in Albuquerque the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson took their son, Keith, to the Cerebral Palsy Hospital in Albuquerque Wednesday of this week for treatment. Pete Porter ran the school bus route for Robinson Wednesday.

Ait Jones, formerly of Moriarty is helping at Clyde's Garage. Jones has just recently been discharged from the Armed Services. His wife is the former Miss Kathy Merritt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Merritt, of Corona. The Jones have a small son.

There are going to be a lot of outraged lady politicians next March 2 unless some way is found to stretch the Democratic ballot so a dozen or more may run for that $3,400 a year secretary of state job. Actively working for nomination are Maxine Schump of Portales, the state treasurers daughter; Rowena Joseph of Clovis, a long-time legislative employe; Natalie Smith Duch of Carrizozo, chief clerk of the senate; Genevieve Calvani, Carlsbad party worker; Edna Westfall of Albuquerque and Carlsbad; Cecelia Tafaya Cleveland (ugh) Truth or Consequences who had the job for two terms back in the forties; Ramona Montoya of Bernalillo county courthouse in Albuquerque; Mary Castillo of Belen; Lillian Thompson of Gallup; Irene Arlas of Santa Fe are getting favorable mention and there must be others. Among all the ladies is one male who must feel a little self-conscious—J. Chris Sanchez of Torrance, the present deputy secretary. Bet the convention can hope for us to get three or four on the ticket, a low number that would perhaps favor the eastside gals.

Statehooders were red-faced the other day when a searching investigation and a long hearing completely exposed Harold Boyd, business manager of El Mirado home for the aged, of vicious personal accusations that had forced his withdrawal from the job a few days earlier. He has been invited back and a new investigation started, this one of the people who brought the accusations.

Leon Miller, the holdover Democratic director of the state income tax division was fired because he resisted a change in office procedure which was recommended by Pete Ortiz y Pino, finance officer, and the only other Democratic director remaining in the bureau of revenue. Ortiz y Pino got a $100 a month raise ($600 to $700) and an increase in authority.

Friends of John Simms for governor are telling what a fine candidate for lieutenant governor Embury Wall of Elda would make. Wall, former state senator and frequently mentioned prospect for governor, is the kind of eastsider calculated to relieve Simms of some of the Albuquerque curse. Thinking along the same line, are some northside friends of Leroy Wise of Hobbs who are boosting Sixto Leyva of Santa Fe as the right man for the I. G. place.

J. R. Winkler of Silver City and W. O. Culbertson of San Miguel are picking up important support which could throw the Democratic struggle for governor into a complicated tangle. Some observers think the four-candidate situation is increasing the possibility for a compromise choice to sweep the field. Getting most attention is a compromise prospect is Bryan Johnson of Albuquerque who said a month ago he was not interested in running.

Republicans are not impressed by Gov. Ed Mecham's coyness about saying whether he will run against our Clint for the Senate. They say they know that he will run or he would have said so by now and given the party time to develop another candidate for the race.

With the Republican nominating convention less than six weeks removed it appears that Holm Burson of Socorro has the edge for the nomination for governor. Wes Quinn of Clovis and Alvin Stockton are right up close—Quinn because he's a pal of the governor and the choice of a group of statehouse Republicans. Stockton because he has

WILL HARRISON'S Inside the Capital

SANTA FE, Jan. 20—When State Senator Henry Eager was sounding off in Santa Fe last weekend about running for Congress against Reps. John J. Dempsey and Antonio Fernandez, he did it after spending an hour in a huddle with David McNeill, Dempsey's son-in-law and office manager.

Hotel lobby politicians who saw the pair immediately conjectured that the Tucumcari legislator might have been encouraged to run that he might discourage others from trying it, particularly Henry's brother-in-law, State Rep. Virgil McCollum of Carlsbad, who has been threatening to run for years.

Henry's interest was surprising also to those who recalled that he has been politically close to Dempsey for a long time.

We wouldn't give an ounce of credibility to such a scheme and moreover it would be a dangerous one for the incumbent if Eager were permitted to run alone against the pair. He might beat one of them out.

There are going to be a lot of outraged lady politicians next March 2 unless some way is found to stretch the Democratic ballot so a dozen or more may run for that $3,400 a year secretary of state job. Actively working for nomination are Maxine Schump of Portales, the state treasurers daughter; Rowena Joseph of Clovis, a long-time legislative employe; Natalie Smith Duch of Carrizozo, chief clerk of the senate; Genevieve Calvani, Carlsbad party worker; Edna Westfall of Albuquerque and Carlsbad; Cecelia Tafaya Cleveland (ugh) Truth or Consequences who had the job for two terms back in the forties; Ramona Montoya of Bernalillo county courthouse in Albuquerque; Mary Castillo of Belen; Lillian Thompson of Gallup; Irene Arlas of Santa Fe are getting favorable mention and there must be others. Among all the ladies is one male who must feel a little self-conscious—J. Chris Sanchez of Torrance, the present deputy secretary. Bet the convention can hope for us to get three or four on the ticket, a low number that would perhaps favor the eastside gals.

Statehooders were red-faced the other day when a searching investigation and a long hearing completely exposed Harold Boyd, business manager of El Mirado home for the aged, of vicious personal accusations that had forced his withdrawal from the job a few days earlier. He has been invited back and a new investigation started, this one of the people who brought the accusations.

Leon Miller, the holdover Democratic director of the state income tax division was fired because he resisted a change in office procedure which was recommended by Pete Ortiz y Pino, finance officer, and the only other Democratic director remaining in the bureau of revenue. Ortiz y Pino got a $100 a month raise ($600 to $700) and an increase in authority.

Friends of John Simms for governor are telling what a fine candidate for lieutenant governor Embury Wall of Elda would make. Wall, former state senator and frequently mentioned prospect for governor, is the kind of eastsider calculated to relieve Simms of some of the Albuquerque curse. Thinking along the same line, are some northside friends of Leroy Wise of Hobbs who are boosting Sixto Leyva of Santa Fe as the right man for the I. G. place.

J. R. Winkler of Silver City and W. O. Culbertson of San Miguel are picking up important support which could throw the Democratic struggle for governor into a complicated tangle. Some observers think the four-candidate situation is increasing the possibility for a compromise choice to sweep the field. Getting most attention is a compromise prospect is Bryan Johnson of Albuquerque who said a month ago he was not interested in running.

Republicans are not impressed by Gov. Ed Mecham's coyness about saying whether he will run against our Clint for the Senate. They say they know that he will run or he would have said so by now and given the party time to develop another candidate for the race.

With the Republican nominating convention less than six weeks removed it appears that Holm Burson of Socorro has the edge for the nomination for governor. Wes Quinn of Clovis and Alvin Stockton are right up close—Quinn because he's a pal of the governor and the choice of a group of statehouse Republicans. Stockton because he has

'53 Saw Record Postal Receipts in Carrizozo

December 31, 1953, marked the completion of the year with the highest postal receipts in the history of the Carrizozo Post Office. Herman E. Kelt, postmaster, said this week. The receipts were approximately 12% greater than for the year ending December 31, 1952.

Even though the Carrizozo post office has shown a steady increase in revenues each year the work has been handled with no increase in personnel. In addition, the 1953 budget was less than that for 1952, Mr. Kelt pointed out.

"Carrizozo can well be proud of the excellent building and equipment," he said. "People from different parts of the country have commented about this and expressed surprise at it."

The year 1954 marks the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of a post office in Carrizozo.

New Insurance Setup For Carrizozo Schools

At the regular school board meeting last Thursday night, the Carrizozo board members voted to adopt a new and comprehensive insurance program for the school district. The board had worked on the program for some time and had received cooperation from local agents, J. G. Moore, Miss Grace Jones, R. E. Lemon and A. E. Huntsinger.

The new plan, according to Supt. R. G. Firman, will greatly simplify the coverage, reducing the present 37 policies to only six, and expand the coverage to include boiler explosion. A revised valuation of the school properties was used as the basis for the new coverage.

Superintendent Firman states that the plan will cover the school building at Ancho and the library building in Carrizozo, as well as the local school buildings. Mr. Moore was named supervisory agent to set the plan in operation.

Carrizozo High School Girls in Homemaking

The girls in homemaking classes carried out home experience last semester in many areas of homemaking, including selection, care and construction of clothing, care and guidance of children, foods, and housing. Thirty-nine experiences were completed and the two sent to the state office were those of Anno Gallacher and Margo Duncan.

Home experiences are those learning activities which are carried out at home by homemaking students after the guiding principles are learned at school. They are larger activities than home practices, involve management and judgment, take a longer time, may involve new learnings, and may involve other family members. Each girl carries out one each semester.
