RAMBLIN' AROUND

By PAUL BAKER

It takes a green thumb to successfully transplant our native shrubs and trees. I tried to move a small yucca plant to a different location last spring. I was overly optimistic, as it turned out. Digging around the plant, I found a vigorous taproot almost an inch through. At a depth of a foot the root hadn't diminished in size and was still headed straight down. Not being in the mood to do further assessment work, I broke off the taproot and transplanted the yucca. Naturally, it died.

E. F. Luvaul has successfully transplanted several pinon trees. He says the secret is to take a compass, mark a place of the tree due North and then set the pinon out in the same position.

Fay Harkey says he is considering planting 20 acres of his irrigated farm adjoining the Mal Pais to pinto beans. Starting two years ago, Mr. Harkey planted hegar on the first 20 acres of irrigated land. Last year he seeded it to alfalfa and planted another adjoining 20 acres to hegar. It is on this land that he expects to try out pinto beans. The tapid has a topsoil several feet in depth and is under a good irrigation well and storage reservoir.

New Mexico is still close to the heart of M. R. Lee, formerly of Fort Stanton, now of Cleveland, O., as he writes the News. In renewing his subscription: "Seems as though the News, as close as I can get to New Mexico. But I still have hopes of getting back to the Land of Enchantment. For my health's sake, I should be there now—would, too, if I could only figure out how to make a living there. From time to time I see names of some of the old crowd who once were at Fort Stanton. It's good to hear of them, if only a word in print. Regards to all the folks I knew out there and I hope I'll be seeing you all again. . . . The News was also pleased to receive a note from Mrs. Milton (Thill) Grant of Albuquerque, who in renewing her subscription, writes: "The News is one way of keeping in touch with news of my home town and vicinity."

"Perhaps we can still make it!" Mrs. John Boylan said this week, in reporting that Lincoln County was still behind $431 in meeting its 1955 goal. "I am sure," she said, "that there are some contributors who have not yet been reached by a fund drive worker, and for that reason, I will hold off making a final report until next week. Perhaps we can still make it!"

W. S. Pool, an enterprising young man from Lubbock, who is stationed at Red Canyon, has made a hobby of parakeets and can supply anyone who would like one or a pair of these popular birds. It is said that the parakeet population of the United States is growing 50 times faster than the human element. A recent survey indicates that by the end of 1955 there will be nine million of the little birds—double the number listed in a 1954 bird census. More than 8% of all families own one or more.

A note from the E. W. Youngs formerly of Ft. Stanton, now living in Las Cruces says "We like it fine down here and have learned of several of the Captain families who live very near."

"For that never say die spirit, John Volght, baseball coach at Carrizozo High School, takes the Oscar. "Well beat the socks off them next time." Is a favorite expression of John's. . . . While the Oscars are being passed around, hand one to Bob Gibson, manager of the Big Jo Lumber Co. A customer came in this week, asking for a special type wrench that he needed right away to get his core-drilling equipment operating. Bob didn't have a wrench of the type, but said "I'll order one from El Paso and pick it up at the depot on tonight's train." The customer said he wasn't in such a hurry he couldn't wait until the next day. Chalk another one up for good customer relations.

A small drone airplane which was discovered Saturday by three prospectors in Bonito Canyon has been picked up by Army authorities. Ft. Bliss was notified of the find by Robert Quilling of Lima, O.; Jack Payne of Ocala, Fla., and Jerry Mackiewicz of New Orleans. The drone had been caught in a tree by its parachute.

285 ARE GIVEN SALK VACCINE

Nearly three hundred first and second grade children in the schools in Carrizozo, Corona and Ruidoso this week received their first vaccinations with the Salk anti-polio serum. The total reported by Mrs. Lela Brewster, County health nurse, was 285, as of Wednesday.

The immunization program continues this week at the Valley schools and at Capitán.

Cooperating physicians are Dr. J. P. Turner and A. N. Spencer of Carrizozo, Dr. Bram Vanderstock of Ruidoso, Dr. Pete Starr of Riverside and Dr. W. D. Horton, D. O., of Ruidoso.

The PTA in both Corona and Carrizozo assisted; also Beta Sigma Phi sorority members in Ruidoso, and a number of individuals, including Mrs. Fred English, Mrs. Shirley Holliday and Mrs. Elizabeth McVeigh.

Mrs. Brewster advises that, upon instruction from Dr. James R. Scott, District health officer, the second Salk polio vaccine shots will be given in Lincoln County the week of May 9, rather than the dates previously scheduled. At 3:30 the huge missile, given its initial thrust by a 1200-lb. booster rocket, zoomed skyward and passed out of sight.

A panorama of historical events is brought to mind in a list of major anniversaries observed recently. The list has been compiled for the 1955 Yearbook of The American Peoples Encyclopedia.

The first successful American newspaper, "The Boston News-ago (on April 4, 1704). This was the same year that the Duke of Marlborough victoriously led troops in the Battle of Ba-lakhava in the War of the Spanish Succession. It was the year of the Deerfield Massacre when French and Indians slaughtered inhabitants at Deerfield, Mass.,

during Queen Ann's War.

One hundred years before the above events, explorers Cham-

the 200th anniversary of the ex-

Nation's Auto Toll Declined in 1954

Hartford, Conn. — (Special) —
A moderate decrease in the nation's accident toll in 1954 has been reported by the Travelers
Insurance Companies.

Traffic deaths totaled 33,500
last year compared with 38,500 in 1953. The injury count reached 1,980,000 compared with 2,140,000 in the previous year.

The total are statistics from "Misguided Missiles," the twenty-first in an annual series of traffic accident data booklets published by the Travelers. Accident facts from every state in the country are collected and analyzed for the publication by Travelers statisticians.

Excessive speed was the most dangerous driving mistake again in 1954, killing 12,380 persons.
The 1953 total was 13,870. The injury total resulting from excessive speed remained about the same as the preceding year
— 659,000.

Drivers under 25 years of age were involved in more than 24 per cent of 1954's fatal accidents although they constitute only about 14 per cent of the total of all drivers.

Weekend crashes accounted for 13,960 killed and 678,000 injured. The 1953 weekend record was 15,800 killed and 800,000 injured. "Misguided Missiles" also reports that 39 per cent of the deaths and 35 per cent of the injuries occurred on Saturdays and Sundays last year.

The pedestrian record reflected improvement for the fourth consecutive year. Pedestrian deaths were reduced to 7700 in 1954 compared with 8800 in 1953.
Crossing between intersections,
"jay walking," remains the chief cause of pedestrian deaths and injuries.

The 32-page booklet in two colors features 14 cartoons by Chon Day. The booklet also reveals three out of four 1954 auto accidents happened to passenger cars driving in clear weather on dry roads.

Seventy-eight per cent of the vehicles involved in fatal accidents were traveling straight ahead.

Saturday was the most dangerous day of the week to drive.
1954 was the first year since 1949 to see a decrease in the death toll.

Here's why Chevrolet out-V8's
everybody!

These features and advantages are the measure of a truly modern V8 engine . . . and only Chevrolet has them in the low-price field. Most aren't even found in high-priced cars. That's why Chevrolet is stealing everybody's thunder with the most modern V8 on the road!

- Modern 12-volt electrical system
The only car in the low-price field with the extra energy of 12 volts
. . . twice the electrical punch!
- Faster, stronger cranking for cold-weather starts and a "fatter" spark for faultless high-speed operation.
- Highest standard compression ratio in its field!
Chevrolet's compression ratio is 8 to 1, to wring every possible ounce of power and extra miles out of every gallon of gas.
- Requires only four quarts of oil!
Chevrolet's V8 engines are so efficient they need only four quarts of oil . . . so you save on every change!
- Highest horsepower per pound!
These great V8's weigh far less than any similar engines in America, top the low-cost field in power per pound!
- Shortest piston stroke in the industry!
Three-inch stroke reduces cylinder-wall friction, generates less heat, permits more compact design.
- The pistons do far less traveling per mile . . . that means less engine wear, lighter loads on bearings.
- It's the valve-in-head V8 or only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

Nothing and nobody will ever interest Doll Ray in prospecting, nor in becoming a rock hound in any sense of the word. The answer is a simple one. His father was a prospector and at the ages of 10 and 12 years, Doll was swinging a heavy sledge hammer, breaking up rocks, in search of the elusive gold stuff. Doll had his fill of prospecting, early in life. Believe it or not, but Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Reil had no callers over the Easter weekend. Neither did they trip anywhere. L. H. Keller of Rudoso and Arvel Runnels have been in close conference on a uranium deal. Heavy equipment is being moved and work will start at once on Lone Mountain. In other words, Arvel has located uranium—lots of it—on Lone Mountain, and I know someone who is going to shed crocodile tears when he learns that. Luther King reports that his new walk-in cooler is worth its weight in something or other. Now he wonders how he got along without it. That Cactus is the scene of lots of good, wholesome fun and it is run by two of the nicest people. The rise of Repr. Sally Ortiz is a success story worthy of someone's writing and everyone's reading. It started from a tiny donut shop to State Representative. Where but in this land of democracy could this happen? Jo Shaw of the Fashionette came walking out of Rolland's Drug Store the other evening, tightly clutching four packs of cigarettes in one hand and a box of pills complete with full direction on how to stop the nicotine habit in the other hand. Did anyone lose a black and white female pup about three weeks ago? If so, I know where this lonely, hungry and very smart little dog can be located. When Pearl Clark was managing the Western Hotel, all the railroad men who were living there at the time, chipped in together and presented her with the TV set which is still in the lobby today. A woesome twosome headed for the proverbial "Aisle." Elaine Walker and Bill Davies. Congrats! The Klondike brigade has gained another member, one Bee Jay Womack. A pretty well-founded rumor has it that the Girard Hotel will soon change ownership. Though still in the embryo stage, it is nearing the completed end. Plans are to completely modernize this notable, pioneer building. Chief Warrant Officer Malcolm Cossart left Friday noon on the Golden State—destination Seattle and thence on to Japan. Mrs. Margie Cossart will follow with the children in about two months. The Reynolds Electrical Engineering company has accepted an almost impossible job here. They will string high-tension, open steel wire from Oscura Peak across the canyon. The drop from the peak at this point is about 1500 feet straight down. This will be the longest span of open wire in the state of New Mexico. This same job was refused by two other electrical engineering companies with the declaration that it could not be done, but Reynolds is doing it. The super of this job is A. F. Allred and his immediate assistant is Damon Davis. Mr. Davis was employed by Reynolds before this time, then left them for other employment, and later re-joined them. Between Allred and Davis, they represent over 75 years of experience in the electrical engineering field. In his same capacity, Mr. Allred instituted the largest electrical contract ever let in the United States at Portsmouth, Ohio, which is known as the Reynolds-Newberry Venture. When near its completion, he was transferred here for what had been termed an impossible job. Obviously, both Allred and Davis are highly valuable employees. Sgt. Grady is now Cowboy Grady. He moved out to the Mill Iron Lazy Three on Saturday a.m. Work on the completion of the roping and cutting arena there will begin at once. We predict that this will be the scene of some hotly contested roping matches and cutting rounds. Mrs. Bobbie Leslie is not only a good ranchman's wife—but she is also a right fair hand with horses. That Quarter Horse gal, Pat Dunning, returned home late Sunday night

Outgoing directors were the Mmes. Mabel Rentrow, B. S. Burns and T. E. Kelley. Following the business meeting, Mrs. W. H. Miss Margaret Shrum sang "Melody of Love," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Rickerson. Miss Mary Nickels followed with a flute solo, playing a variety of tunes. She was accompanied on the piano by her mother, Mrs. W. H. Nickels. Bobby Rickerson sang "The Ballad of Davey Crockett," accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Rickerson. Climaxing the afternoon's entertainment a delightful piano trio was played by the Misses Glenda Sue, Mary Alice and Sandra Kaye King. Guests introduced in addition to the entertainers were the Mmes. A. N. Spencer, Alice King and Mrs. B. G. Barnum. Delicious refreshments of homemade cakes and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Fay Harkey, Mrs. C. A. Snow, Mrs. Belle Boyer and Mrs. B. S. Burns. Mrs. C. E. Degner, president, presided.

Hondo Valley Fruit Is in Full Bloom

Fruit in the lower part of the Hondo Valley, is in full bloom and the growers are still hoping for a full crop throughout the valley. Even with the dusty weather, the grower has high hopes for a good crop.

In different parts of the valley ants have been noted on the apple and peach trees. If a closer look is taken, the grower will notice aphids on the blossoms and sometimes the leaves. The ant cultivates the aphid for its "honey" and both the ant and aphid must be controlled. Chlordane as a powder or spray in a basal application will control the ant. Malathion will control the aphid, as well as several other orchard pests, such as mites and woolly aphid.

Our nation needs 100,000 or more new farmers every year if we are to maintain a rate of agricultural production sufficient to keep up with our expanding population.

Shearing in Full Swing

Shearing is in full swing, with most growers started or already through. The wool seems considerably cleaner than last year. At the SHG ranch, I helped weigh some ram fleeces and one weighed 27 3/4 lbs. This ram probably had over 9 lbs. of clean wool and is a very good ram.

A group of ewes at the Bogle ranch last week averaged 16 lbs. of grease wool. These ewes will be used to raise rams for their own use. With selections from this type of sheep, the grower should be able to increase both his wool and lamb weight.

Urge Seed Growers To Apply Early For Field Inspections

The production of certified seed crops is rapidly becoming a big business in New Mexico. This year, many farmers in the state who have found seed production a profitable business, will plant acreages of such crops as alfalfa, corn, chili, and small grains to supply other producers with good planting seed next year. In addition, other farmers who

Lincoln County News
Friday, April 22, 1955

have devoted entire acreages to production of food and fiber in the past will try seed production for the first time.

Officials of the New Mexico Crop Improvement Association reminded seed producers today that deadline dates for acceptance of applications for field inspections have been established for all seed crops produced in the state. Farmers who are growing or who intend to grow crops for seed this year should obtain blank applications from the county extension service office, fill in the necessary data, and forward such applications to the Crop Improvement Association office at State College.

Applications for inspection of small grains (wheat, oats, barley, rye, etc.) and early potatoes should be in the Crop Improvement office not later than May 1. Deadline dates for other crops are as follows: alfalfa, clover, grasses, onions, chili peppers, and sudan, June 15; beans, cotton, corn, broomcorn, milo, negar, kafir, millet, cane, and late potatoes, August 1.

Producers who request field inspections after the above dates will be charged double the regular inspection fee and those who request inspections after field work has been completed in their areas, will also be charged mileage and other expenses of the inspector's special trip.

An application for inspection should be accompanied by a membership application and certification from the seed planter.

Check For Grubs In Sick Lawns

Spotty damage to lawns, or a general unthriftness for which there is no obvious cause, may be caused by beetle grubs. These caterpillar-like larvae develop from eggs laid in the sod by adult beetles. Remaining in the soil throughout their larval stage—sometimes for several years—they feed upon the roots of grasses and other plants. If a sufficient number are present in the lawn, whole root systems are destroyed and the grasses die.

Though lawns may suffer from the ravages of a great array of insects, beetle grubs do the most damage, and their activity is harder to detect.

An easy method to check for the presence of grubs in the lawn is to cut down on three sides of a square foot of sod, two to three inches deep, with a sharp spade. Then forcing the spade underneath, lay back the foot of sod, using the uncut side as a hinge, and examine for grubs. If six or more grubs are found in this area of soil, the lawn is subject to damage, and some treatment is called for.

A number of new insecticides all more effective than the arsenic of lead formerly used for this purpose, will kill beetle grubs. Tests so far have shown chlordane to be the most promising insecticide for lawn treat-

Navy, Marine Officers To Visit County

The Navy and Marine Recruiting Officers will be in Hondo, Lincoln, Capitan and Carrizozo on April 19.

They will be in Hondo from 9 to 9:30 a.m.; in Lincoln from 10 to 10:30; in Capitan from 11 to 1 p.m. and at the Carrizozo Sheriff's office from 2 until 4 p.m.

At the Capitan high school, the Recruiters will give a talk on "Your Obligated Service and What the Navy and the Marine Corps Has to Offer."

April 21, they will be in Ruidoso where they will give another high school talk.

ment, but others include aldrin, DDT, dieldrin, and heptachlor.

All these materials are poisonous and should be handled and applied in strict accordance with the manufacturer's directions. They are available in the form of wettable powders or emulsifiable concentrates that can be mixed with water and used in a sprayer, or in the form of dusts and granules that can be applied directly to the lawn.

When treating for grubs, it is a good practice to sprinkle the lawn after the insecticide is applied. This will wash the poison down into the soil where it can reach the insects.

Beetle grubs are soft-bodied and wingless, completely unlike the adult beetle in appearance. They range from 1/2 inch to three inches in length and are capable of only slow movement. Most of them remain curled up and motionless when exposed to the light. One, the grub of the June beetle, will crawl on its back when it is placed on the ground.

CHECK THOSE DITCHES NOW

Don't delay that annual check of your farm's irrigation system. Is your irrigation system good, or did you have trouble getting all the water you wanted to each field where and when you wanted it last year? Were there losses from bank breakage, leaks, and seepage?

If a check shows troubles, conserve your water and save yourself loss in time and money this season by repairing or changing your irrigation system now. The ditch system often can be changed to put the water where and when you want it by using larger ditches, relocating ditches, or using a connecting system.

Two wells can often be connected by a level ditch or a concrete pipe line to give a larger head of water over the entire farm for flexibility in planning irrigation schedules. Dirt ditches should be cleaned of all silt, weeds and brush and all banks repaired.

Dirt ditches with high seepage losses should be lined. Lined

News from the EPNG Compressor Station

Prayer meeting was held in the Fred Whitmyre home, instead of the DeLoe home, as was stated, last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Darden Grimes have returned from their vacation. They went to Arkansas and other eastern states.

Visitors in the Carl Buttrill home during the weekend and the first of the week were Mrs. Buttrill's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Ray and his Sue of Farmington, and H. L. Poage and sons, Jimmy and Pat, also of Farmington. Due to unexpected measles, Mrs. Poage and two smaller children had to stay at home. Mr. Ray and Mrs. Poage received their EPNG service awards in El Paso on Monday night. Ray has ten years with the company and Mr. Poage 15.

Bro. and Mrs. Ray Bowen and Bro. Lang Gibson, who is holding a Baptist revival in Corona, were dinner guests in the Fred Whitmyre home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Duke and son, David of Farmington, visited the Ronnie Rays over the week end.

Lower Taxes—Less Spending, Same Deficit

The United States government spent less in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1954, than in any year since 1948, according to the 1955 Yearbook of the American Peoples Encyclopedia.

This decline in expenditures was due largely to a substantial reduction in outlays for military purposes.

Since receipts were maintained at nearly the same level as in the preceding fiscal year, the budget deficit, totaling $3,029,000,000 dropped by more than $6,400,000,000.

However, the Yearbook points out that while further cuts are expected in defense spending during 1955, there is little hope that the budget deficit will be eliminated or even further reduced. The savings is expected to be more than offset by a reduction in tax receipts.

Despite a reduction of income tax rates, budget receipts for the fiscal year of 1954, amounting to $64,550,000,000 were only slightly below the all-time record reached in 1953.

More than half the total, or $32,434,000,000, was accounted for by individual income taxes, which were almost the same as those of the preceding year. Income tax rates were lowered by an average of about 10 per cent as of January 1, 1954, but this cut was counteracted by higher personal income for the year.

Corporation tax collections, totaling $21,438,000,000, showed virtually no change, although the excess profits tax was removed January 1. This was because the average profits on which collections were based in 1954 were higher.

Church Worker Lauds Modern Juveniles

Modern juveniles have another side to them—a real heart-warming side—that doesn't get into the papers very often, as was revealed in a recent article in the Christian Science Monitor.

James Price, a youthful field worker for the Congregational Christian Churches, has been sitting in on teen-age gab sessions across the country for the past 10 months, and he likes what's he's heard.

"Young people on the whole today take life very seriously," he said. "More so than most adults give them credit for."

Mr. Price, a Californian, has talked to and worked with about 35,000 youths on his touring job to pep up church youth groups, and he's found a lot of pep already there.

"Give them a chance, and these youngsters generate more ideas for doing good works than most of their elders," he said. "They've got spark and imagination."

Mr. Price recounted scores of instances where the ebullience of youth is helping society, and not giving it problems.

All of which makes a comforting contrast with all those headlines about black marks on police blotters. Here are a few examples:

At the Congregational Christian Church in Linore, Neb., teenagers got a professional auctioneer to put them on the "auction block" to sell their services in mowing lawns and other chores, making the church $180.

In Kansas City, youngsters borrowed a tape recorder to take down Sunday morning services, then carried recordings to homes of handicapped persons and hospital rooms so the ailing could "attend" church.

Charles Palmer Davis Medal to be Awarded

A citizenship award known as the Charles Palmer Davis award is to be given to a student of the Capitan High School this year.

This award will be based on the score made on the Scholastic Current Events Semester Test, and on the student's rating as a good citizen.

The Charles Palmer Davis medal is donated by the Davis Medical Award Committee of the American Education Publications, of Middletown, Conn. The award is in honor of the founder of Current Events, the first current events paper published for schools.

At the turn of the century, Mr. Davis was a member of the school board of Agawam, Mass. In visiting schools, he discovered that students knew a great deal about ancient Greece but little about current happenings in their own country.

These experiences made Charles Palmer Davis conscious of the need for current events papers specially written for students. He set about meeting this need. The first issue of Current Events was published more than 53 years ago.

The winner of the award will be announced the last week of school and the medal will be presented at the commencement exercises Friday, May 20.

PINE LODGE

Mrs. Francis returned from El Paso on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cunningham of Odessa, Tex., spent the weekend in their cabin at Pine Lodge. They had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Stagg of Houston, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Loy Fanning who are connected with the sawmill operations here, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Fanning's sister, Mrs. Pete Shannon, in Capitan.

Mrs. Grace M. Sharpe of Portales spent Saturday and Sunday at the Lodge sponsoring the Campfire Girls of that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Cabot Dysart and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Certim of Roswell occupied Eagle's Nest over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rowland of Oklahoma City and Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Todd of Slaton, Tex., are visiting the Francis family this week. Mrs. Francis, Mrs. Todd and Mrs. Greaves are sisters and cousins of Mrs. Rowland, and the four of them have not been together in more than forty years.

The Chuck and Chat club met with Mrs. J. G. Greaves as hostess, at Pine Lodge on Sunday, April 17. A bountiful noon meal was served. At the business meeting it was voted to have the June, July and August meetings on Thursdays. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Merchant, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Edgar and Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Brill, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. AN OBLIGATION OF CONGRESS

Washington, April 21—Legislation authorizing a special gold medal for Dr. Jonas E. Salk, discoverer of the miraculous polio vaccine which bids fair to end the scourge of that dread killer and crippler, will undoubtedly receive unanimous approval of the Congress. Dr. Salk neither expects nor seeks financial reward for the wonderful service he has rendered mankind. He richly deserves every honor the people of this nation can accord him.

But the obligation of the Congress must not end with honoring Dr. Salk. Inspired by the leadership of the late President Franklin Delano Roosevelt the people of America have made Dr. Salk's achievement possible with their dimes and their dollars. They have built a great heritage for the children of this nation and of the world—a heritage of health and life. It is the obligation of the Congress to see to it that financial obstacles are not permitted to stand in the way of making available with the least possible delay the Salk vaccine to every child in the nation.

ARE WE BUILDING FOR RED CHINA

During debate on the State Department of Appropriations Bill it was brought out that a new building is being constructed for our foreign service in Hong Kong. This brought a question from Congressman Gross of Iowa as to whether we intended to build on Matsui and Quemoy Islands. "Are we building in Hong Kong so that the Chinese Reds can take over our building when they get ready?" asked the Iowan. Although he was being satirical about the matter there is a serious side to it. Are we repeating the extravagances that were revealed not so long ago in our building activities in Bonn, Germany, for instance?

It is at least something that the Congress should think about.

HE DIDN'T TELL THE WHOLE STORY

Excessive imports of petroleum from cheap labor countries have cost the American coal industry $725 million in revenue, Senator Kilgore (D.-W. Va.) told a Senate Labor Subcommittee investigating the unemployment situation. He could have added that in states like New Mexico there are ghost towns for the same reason; that thousands of miners have been idled and their families made to endure want and hardship. He could also have recited the heavy restrictions on the independent oil producers, with the resultant slowdown in exploration and development of the domestic industry. That has added to our unemployment rolls also.

Until the Congress becomes realistic enough to put a reasonable and equitable limitation on these demoralizing import excesses, every phase of our economy from the worker to the government itself will suffer. The taxpayer is the hardest hit of all.

REALISTIC ARTIFICIAL EYE DEVELOPED BY VA DOCTORS

An artificial eye, operated by magnets causing the eye to move and even twinkle as effectively as the living eye it matches, has been developed by two Veterans Administration doctors at the VA hospital in Boston. The "magnetic eye" already has been implanted into more than 150 New England veterans whose eyes have suffered impairment.

THE WONDERFUL CHRISTMAS TREE

It was near Christmastime, and people in the mining town of Silver City were eagerly waiting for a freight wagon train to arrive.

Between Mesilla and Fort Cummings, on the east side of the Florida Mountains, the train was attacked by Indians, the drivers killed, and the materials in the wagons stolen. And now there was nothing in Silver City to prepare Christmas for the children.

At that early day there were few children in Silver City since most of the mining town men were single. Some of the bachelors were most unhappy because the children couldn't have a real Christmas.

One of the single men had the idea of trimming a little cedar tree in the middle of town with $20 gold pieces. The bachelors contributed the gold coins, and twisted wire and string around the money to fasten it to the tree. On Christmas morning the children in town gathered around the tree—there probably was never another Christmas tree like it—and after a brief program they were given sticks to hook the gold coins with. The coins they hooked were theirs to keep.

Among the children around the tree that Christmas morning was Mrs. Robert Bell, now living in Santa Rita, who told the story of the wonderful tree to her niece, Miss Olive Whitehill, Deming High School teacher.

Mrs. Bell hooked three or four gold pieces. Miss Whitehill said her aunt told her that the last time she remembered the $20 gold pieces they were in a baking powder can on the front porch. The kids had a unique Christmas tree, but they couldn't play with or spend the presents.

THE MYSTERY OF THE GRAVE

The following folklore item was contributed by Mrs. Rachel

FLOYD OF 816 MAPLE STREET, TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES:

As a child I heard many tales around the supper table or when the cowboys gathered around the fireplace nights. Here is a story I have heard many times. It happened between the years 1880 and 1890.

T. B. Powell, on his way to Lincoln, the county seat, was riding along the Fenasco Creek when he was ambushed by two Indians who were hidden on top of a bluff. As they shot at Powell with bows and arrows, his horse broke into a run. One Indian in a hurry to give chase fell off the bluff and was killed. The other Indian quickly disappeared.

Powell made his way to Lincoln with an arrow in his back. When he recovered, and was again able to ride, he traveled home over the same route. As he came to the place where he was ambushed he found there a rock-covered grave.

Nobody ever admitted having dug the grave and all passers-by claim they don't know who is buried there at the foot of the bluff. The dead Indian was gone. Some folks say his companion carried him away as was their custom.

But I might add no matter how many times I have heard this story—the grave was always surrounded by mystery. And the place became known as Dead Man's Bluff on Chimney Flats.

Storm Blows Down Power Line—Starts Fire

The terrific wind storm on last Tuesday blew a tree across the REA line down Eagle Creek near the Guy and Medlin ranch. The fall not only interrupted electric service but caused a short that started a fire.

While looking for the cause of the electric trouble, Buddy Guthrie and Earl Bradley of REA discovered the fire. They summoned the Capitán crew of Bill Randle and Forest men Fred Swetnam and Jim McEuen and in a couple of hours they had a fire line around the two-acre blaze.

A fire truck from Ruidoso with a crew of Tommy Jones, Butch Collins and Jack Newsom attempted to reach the spot but could not due to the rough country in that area. Ernest Pittillo, Jake Salas and Clarence Hall were in the forest crew and the fire was guarded all that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Pearce and daughter Lillian of El Paso visited the Ralph Barbers of Capitán on Saturday. The Pearces spent Sunday in their summer home at Alto.

Mrs. Marie Smith of Lubbock was here over the week end for a business visit at the Ruidoso-Chinchilla Farm.

Mrs. Verna Cooper went to Phoenix on Saturday with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Earl King of Roswell. They were called there due to the serious illness and death of their brother, Lester King.

R. Jack Stewart and son, Chester, of El Paso were at their summer home at Eagle Creek Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Chester was home from Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Ollie Calvert and Mrs. W. B. Alexander of Ruidoso were looking over the work being done on Highway 37 near Alto on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Casey of Roswell visited the George Creels at the High Mesa Ranch last Sunday.

Charlie Culver, Scoutmaster from Ruidoso, was in the area on Sunday looking for a suitable camp site for the Boy Scouts.

Twenty-four per cent of all drivers involved in fatal auto accidents in the U. S. last year were under 25 years old.

Weekend crashes accounted for 13,990 killed and 678,000 hurt during 1954.

In 1954, 25,000 Americans were killed in traffic accidents.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Elzy Perry, Jr., Sydney Bonnell and Edna Schierenberg. Services at St. Anne's will move to summer schedule next Sunday, April 24, starting at 9 a.m. instead of 9:30 as before.

Services at Holy Mount, Ruidoso, continue to be at 11:00 a.m. Word has been received from St. Andrew's, Roswell, that Lay Readers of St. Andrew's will serve at Holy Mount on alternate Sundays during June, July and August, with Rev. Charles L. Conder, vicar, of Ruidoso celebrating Holy Communion twice monthly. This will permit services every Sunday at Holy Mount during the summer season, at 11:00 a.m.

Exports of agriculture items increased during 1954. The large supply of commodities made it possible to sell at prices in line with world markets. The exceptions included overseas shipments of wheat and corn, which were reduced because of the large world supplies.

Decline in Farm Products Prices Eases

The long decline in farm products prices eased at the close of last year according to an article in the 1955 Yearbook of the American Peoples Encyclopedia.

During the early part of the year the downward drift in farm prices hit as low as 20 per cent from what prices were in 1950. Then the trend slowed up, showing for the year ending September 15, 1954, a decrease of only 4 per cent from 1950 figure, according to the yearly report.

One factor accounting for the change is that crop prices averaged higher, due to a drop in crop production. Because of the severe drought in the southwest, the crop harvest was four per cent lower than in 1953.

Cattle prices remained at the same level as the previous year, despite the fact that livestock production went up five per cent for that year.

Farmers felt the largest price decrease in eggs, chickens and hogs. To a lesser degree, milk also went down in price. Large increases in the production of these items is given as a main reason for their low return. Another reason is liquidation of accumulated stock. As an example, egg prices went down to a low level in the fall months when supplies were slowly rought out from storage stocks. Large U. S. storage stocks of butter, cheese, and dried skimmed milk had built up from the high price support held from late 1953 and 1954. Also, the price of reduction in price support on milk tended to lower with the manufactured dairy products from 90 per cent to 75 per cent of parity.

The over-all farm output in 1954 was one per cent lower than the 1953 farm production.

As a result of lower prices and output, most farmers suffered a cut in income. However, this varied throughout the country. Income generally held up in the meat and feed-crop marketing areas; but were down in dairy, poultry, cotton and wheat areas. Department of Agriculture estimated that net realized income of farm operators amounted to $12,500,000,000—six per cent less than in 1953. Farm wages tended to decline late in 1954, the first break in a long period of rising farm wages.

The decreased farmers' income was reflected in the market of farm implements and construction outlays. Purchases in these lines for 1954 were about ten per cent lower from those of the previous year.

In some areas, farm land rose slightly in value during 1954. But on the whole, farm land values decreased five per cent compared to the 1953 level.

The article in the 1955 Yearbook of the American Peoples Encyclopedia also states that expenditures for food in 1954 were slightly above 1953, accounting for about 25 per cent of all consumer spending. Physical volume of food requirements increases gradually as population grows at the rate of about 2,500,000 a year.

Noted Anniversaries

military engagements led by George Washington. The other was the First Congress for National Union held in Albany, N. Y. The battle marked the beginning of the French and Indian War in the United States and the Seven Years War in Europe.

The 175th anniversary of the capture of Fort Vincennes by Colonel George Rogers Clark during the Revolutionary War, was observed in 1954.

Three major historical events became 150 years old in 1954. In the year 1804, Lewis and Clark ventured the first west-bound journey across the United States to the Pacific; the Napoleonic French Civil Code was composed and the French presented its first fabled award of merit, the Legion of Honor.

Republicans celebrated the centennial of the founding of the Republican party last year. The American Peoples Encyclopedia Yearbook for 1955 reports. In 1854, the year the party was formed, the first U. S. treaty with Japan was signed, opening Japanese waters to American commerce. Also, in that year, modern nursing had its beginning when Florence Nightingale and 38 young women volunteers from England left for the Crimean battlefields.

Other important anniversaries last year included the 50th anniversary of the General Slocum excursion boat disaster in which 1,021 died in the East River, New York City; 40th year since the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to Austro-Hungary's throne, the event that precipitated World War I; the 10th anniversary of World War II's D-Day when the Allied landing on Normandy beaches led to liberation of France, Belgium and the Netherlands.

The pedestrian record reflected the fourth consecutive year of improvement for motor vehicle accidents in 1954.

Three out of four traffic accidents involve passenger cars.

Grizzly Baseball Team Losing Games But Gaining Experience

The baseball team loaded with underclassmen, Carrizozo High School's baseball crew took their third straight setback of the season Tuesday afternoon, when the Tulare Wildcats overpowered the Grizzly nine, 18 to 1.

The Grizzlies, who are returning to the high school baseball scene after an absence of nearly 15 years, scored their lone tally in the opening frame, when Pete Straley was issued a pass and stole second. He reached third on an error. Natie Palomarez, who turned in a superior pitching performance but was stymied by inexperienced field play, drove Straley across the plate on a fly ball to center.

The Carrizozo crew was handcuffed at the plate until Guy Warden singled safely to right in the final stanza.

Palomarez turned in a sterling performance through six innings, when he showed signs of tiring and Richard Ortiz finished the final inning mound chores.

Coach John Yoight relied on 12 lads who have at least one more year of varsity competition in hopes of building a winning combination by the 1936 spring campaign.

Freshmen Robert Simpson, Franklin Kling, Larry Ortiz and Robert Firman saw action, while sophomores Natie Palomarez, Albert Lucero, Richard Faust, Juniors Tony Beltran, Richard Ortiz, Tom Barnett, Guy Warden, will all be back for at least another season of play. Pete Straley is the lone senior on this year's squad.

Next Tuesday the Grizzlies hope to even the series with Tulare when they meet the Cats at the city park at 2 o'clock.

The Carrizozo crew will wind up their year May 3 at the city park when they play host to Corona in a return engagement. The Cardinals edged out the Grizzlies in a scoring spree recently, 18 to 17.

Mrs. Lusk Honored By Dinner at Coe Home

The beautiful ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Coe, of the lower Ruidoso Valley was the setting of a dinner party on April 17, honoring State Superintendent of Education, Georgia L. Lusk, and Superintendent and Mrs. Fermin Montes, the former having completed, with the current year, 20 years in the service of education in Lincoln County.

Other guests included the faculty members and wives or husbands; John Melgs, local artist and author; Leroy McKnight and Mrs. Sydney Bonnell, Della Joiner and Dorothy Jean Chavez assisted with serving the dinner.

On behalf of the faculty of the Hondo Valley Public Schools, Superintendent Montes welcomed Mrs. Lusk and presented her with a corsage of pale pink and white carnations. Following this Mrs. Coe was presented with a travel clock as a token of appreciation for her gracious hospitality.

Immediately following the dinner the entire party convened at the Hondo Gymnasium for the Appreciation Night program honoring the Hondo faculty.

POLITICAL PRIZES STILL UNAWARDED

SANTA FE, April 20—There's one bright spot in Gov. John Simms' long delay in filling the jobs in his administration—it's keeping hope alive in a lot of people.

Some of the biggest political prizes in the statehouse were still unfilled more than three and a half months after the new administration took over from the Republicans. Among them:

The $3000 a year motor vehicle commissioner's spot. (Still held by Republican Tony Luna who will perhaps continue until Revenue Commissioner Mike Gallegos can get Governor Simms to give the place to Tony Lucero, a Gallegos protege.)

The $6500 liquor director's post (probably more money for the next one.) It is presently held on an acting basis by Democrat Jack Gursley of Carlsbad who is moving over to be attorney for the oil conservation commission.

The $2400 purchasing agent spot held by Republican Bill Campbell with so many Demos after it that Simms would lose a sizeable following if he tried to select one.

The $3000 secretaryship of the cosmetology board. Agnes Martin who came up from Las Cruces with the Governor Mechems is still in and has a good chance to stay.

The $3000 sales tax post still held by Republican J. E. Contreras who is showing no signs of moving back to Gallup.

The $7200 park commissioner's post held by Republican Lee Robinson of Santa Fe.

The $7000 labor commissioner post held by C. W. Barrall who came in under Mechem and who has important labor backing to stay.

still in. The state engineer's post which may pay as high as $15,000, and while no political plum it must be filled carefully to avoid political trouble.

The state personnel officer, who passes on salaries and qualifications of all job applicants, still held by the Republican's appointee. The job pays around $5000.

BOARD PLACES WAITING ACTION

Several board appointments are keeping a lot of people twitching: They are to the fair board, the game commission, racing commission, labor board and contractors board.

Democrats who served in half a dozen important places in the Republican administration and one Republican figure are slated to stay for a time anyway.

Bill Macy stays on his $10,200 job as director of the oil commission. Maj. Gen. Gordon Sage stay on as adjutant general, George Fitzpatrick as magazine editor, Tuffy Holder as educational budget auditor, Joe Roach, for the time being anyway, as state police chief, Dr. Gerald Clark (ditto) as public health director, John Garcia as mine inspector. And Tito Valdez, long an active Republican political figure, was reappointed textbook director by the governor's board of education.

PURCHASING AND PERSONNEL

Democrats are particularly liked by the retention of the Republican purchasing agent who, as might be expected since he has stayed this long, has been working very closely with the governor, and the Republican personnel director who is setting salary rates for the new Democratic job winners. A mighty lot of them are being started at $180 a month. Democratic party committees from Santa Fe, Taos, and several other counties have gone on record urging the reopening of the state Democratic headquarters in Santa Fe.

SIMMS FEARFUL OF OLD CROWD

It might be Simms is conciliatory of the old political maximum in delaying his appointments—the one about the governor who said every time he made an appointment he made ten political enemies and one ingrate. However, he's also concerned about going too far toward reinstating the old crowd that got beat in 1930. Already he has gone a long way in that direction.

Revenue Commissioner Mike Gallegos was a director in the bureau in the old setup; Bill Culver is back in as gas tax director; Charlie Bassett has returned to the ports-of-entry office; Leon Miller is back as income tax director; Murray Hintz is back as welfare director; Woody Saunders is back as bank examiner; former Comptroller Caesar Sebastian is back as budget auditor; Manuel Baca of Las Vegas, holder of many places under the earlier Democratic administrations, is running the Meadows Home for the Aged, and scores of holders of lesser jobs have been reinstated.

RALPH EDWARDS IN NEW ACT

The Ralph Edwards Fiesta at Truth or Consequences which in six years has won a firm place in the New Mexico fun-calendar looks like it may have started something new this time that the public will demand every year as a painful but popular attraction. Ralph Edwards fell off his horse in front of a gillion people at the Fiesta rodeo. It was the most talked about, ribbed about subject of the three day, celebration, and is sure to be in popular demand next year and every year. Edwards exploited the incident for a big ribbing session on the radio. After the fall he got back on the horse and was high in the saddle until the end of the show.
