

RAMBLIN' AROUND

By PAUL BAKER

Another Safe Driving Day has come and gone and, tragically, it was the last day behind the wheel for 30 Americans.

Some states are making progress in reducing traffic fatalities, but unfortunately the same can't be said of New Mexico.

Santa Claus's blood pressure must be building up these days, what with presents to wrap, a sleigh to pack and gift lists to check and recheck.

Dear Santa Claus, I am 5 years old. I would like for you to bring me a doll that walks and talks, roller skates, and a little record player and bunk bed for my dolls.

Please send me my discharge papers and that's all I want for Christmas. Signed, Package 42, Red Canyon Range Camp

The local scene was covered with a blanket of welcome snow over the week end. A snowman made its appearance in the court of the Petty Motel.

Deer stories continue to come in. Lewis Faris says he found a deer tag INSIDE the hide on a deer's leg. He's checking.

Notifying the News of a change of address to Lometa, Texas. Sam Richardson writes "I enjoy reading my home paper. I have lived around Carrizozo from 1910 until this year."

Delores Gardner, former teacher in the Carrizozo school, is seeing the world while continuing in her profession. In previous years she has mailed Christmas cards to her friend, "Pop" Anderson, from Norway and Peru.

A wish for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all is expressed by George and Ida Goodson of Alamogordo.

Several matters are to be discussed including the swimming pool, the town dump and sewage system.

Representatives from several organizations are expected to attend.

At Tuesday afternoon's meeting of the trustees, the resignation was read of Clyde Atwood as deputy town marshal, effective December 1.

J. A. Bagley and Juan Sandoval requested permission to place a drainage pipe in a ditch behind the new Frontier Motel and cover same for sanitary reasons.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Marvin H. Roberts, trustees Clifton B. Zumwalt, Juan Martinez, R. L. Sherrill and A. P. Sifton. Also Town Clerk Ruth Rickerson and Utilities Manager H. G. Wank.

Commissioners OK Closing Road in Oscura

Meeting Monday, the Lincoln County Board of County Commissioners approved the closing of Grand Boulevard, which runs west from U. S. Highway 54 at Oscura to the west boundary of the Oscura townsite.

A petition to close the road was presented to the commissioners last month by L. S. Drake, Octa Drake, Louis Montoya, Lagarita Montoya, J. Vernon Petty, Gwenneth Petty, Arthur D. Helms and Dollie Helms.

The viewers, Lewis Faris, John E. Wright and W. C. Withers, reported that Grand Boulevard has never been opened to the public, and recommended its closing. The viewers' fees were paid by the petitioners.

A wish for a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all is expressed by George and Ida Goodson of Alamogordo. Mrs. Goodson writes: "We certainly miss seeing our good friends of Lincoln County, but the doctor's orders are for George to stay away from high altitudes. We hope some day to be able to drive up to Carrizozo if his health continues to improve."

JOY M. MILLER

State College, N. Mex., Dec. 4—Joy M. Miller and William Henry Ferguson, both of Captain, were recently chosen among thirty students at New Mexico A&M College for Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities this year.

Who's Who is a national listing of outstanding students on American college campuses. Basis for the selection of students is rated by their scholarship, leadership and participation in extracurricular and academic activities, citizenship and service to the school and promise of future usefulness to business and society.

She has been one of the most active students on the campus, in addition to maintaining her high scholastic average. 1956 License Plates Go On Sale Dec. 15

Robert B. Means, license distributor, has set the date of December 15, 1955, as the date 1956 plates may first be sold. "Under no circumstances," he says may sales commence before this date. Potential applications (prepared applications) will be delivered to the license distributor and port of entry offices, rather than to the registered owners as in previous years.

In serving the public the distributor must require the applicants to furnish the 1955 license numbers. Unless a registered owner requests that the New Mexico Bureau of Revenue mail his prepared application to a specific location, applications will be routinely delivered to the same office that issued the 1955 license plates to a particular vehicle.

Mr. Means states that "all license plates will be strictly sold in numerical sequence. Plates may be reserved upon request, but will only be actually issued when the particular numbers are reached in the normal process of sale. If individuals wish to request special numbers they may contact the distributor's office located at Means Motor Supply, between now and December 15, 1955."

Miss Rita Baldonado is in charge of license plate distribution for Mr. Means.

Scout Levy Traffic "Fines" Boy Scout Troop 53 in Carrizozo collected about $45 on "Patrol Day" last Saturday. The Troop thanks the townspeople, town trustees, sheriff's office, state parliament, and city police for their cooperation.

Area Conservationist Talks at SCD Meeting

The Carrizozo Soil Conservation District is building an erosion control structure on the Precillano Fluvial ranch in the Nogal watershed northeast of Carrizozo. The conservation equipment will continue working in the vicinity of Carrizozo during December.

G. L. Beene, area conservationist of Artesia, gave a talk at Tuesday night's meeting of the Carrizozo SCD board. He made a number of suggestions on conservation practices.

Attending the meeting were Claud Branum, chairman; J. A. Hightower, secretary; members I. V. Withers and E. I. Harkey and Dan Giles, conservationist.

Commissioners Review Plans for New Court House

County officers and third judicial district officers met with the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners Monday to continue discussion of the proposed new courthouse.

A drawing of the proposed new construction and annex alterations was laid before the meeting by A. R. Millington of the firm of Wolgamoot & Millington, Santa Fe architects.

A number of changes were made for a revised drawing. The problem confronting the commissioners is to design a courthouse that will meet present and anticipated needs of the county and hold the cost down to the lowest possible figure.

When the revised plan is submitted the commissioners will have figures on the cost of the courthouse and the tax levy required to finance it.

Mr. Millington said the estimated cost of construction would be $12 per square foot, which is $2 a square foot less than that of the new Otero County courthouse.

Attending Monday's meeting were Commissioners George Fuchs, Charles A. Jones and Alfonso Soto, District Judge W. T. Scoggin, District Attorney C. C. Chase, County Officers W. C. Bradley, S. E. Grelsen and Lloyd Vigil; W. A. Mullane and John Ferrell, tax consultants, respectively, of the El Paso Natural Gas Co., and the Southern Pacific; also Architect Millington.

Applications for associate memberships may be made through any club member, but are subject to approval by the board of directors.

Other members of the board of directors who spoke briefly on the new club policy were Roy Shafer, A. R. Roberts, Pat Murphy, R. E. Lemon and D. J. P. Turner, a past president.

Mrs. Roy Shafer was chairman of the committee arranging the buffet supper.

Sheepmen to Discuss Wool Warehouse

A sheep growers meeting is planned for January 7 in Carrizozo, starting at 10 a.m.

The tentative program includes plans for the 1956 sheep and wool improvement program, discussion on a wool warehouse in Lincoln County, and the shipment of wool by rail.

Temporary Jobs Open During Xmas Season

New Mexico merchants will probably enjoy the best Christmas season on record, it was announced this week by M. R. Salazar, Director of the New Mexico State Employment Service.

He said that full employment, considerable overtime work, and increasingly higher wages during the past year all point to record Christmas buying.

A heavy demand for temporary sales people, wrappers, and deliverymen will become increasingly apparent during the weeks ahead. The New Mexico State Employment Service, as it has in past years, will act as the clearing house to bring together the merchants who need extra Christmas help and temporary workers who want to earn some Christmas money.

Three men cited for the illegal use of a spotlight and firearms in hunting were acquitted of the charges in justice of the peace court of W. S. Campbell Tuesday night.

A full-fledged trial before a jury determined the outcome. District Attorney C. C. Chase tried the case and District Game Warden Marion Embrey was the chief prosecuting witness.

The men tried were Joe Coe, James Goforth and James Lackey, the latter two of Tularosa. They testified they were using the spotlight trying to locate a horse which got away from their hunting camp before the deer season closed.

May Start 4-H Club in Carrizozo School

Considerable interest was shown in organizing a 4-H Club at an assembly held in the Carrizozo school Tuesday morning.

The one thing holding up the organizing is the need for a leader for the boys. The only requirement is that he be interested in boys and girls.

By the interest shown, there may be a need for several leaders. Atlas Josefita Aboytta, school home economics teacher, will help with the girls' projects.

If interested in helping with 4-H work in the area, leave word at the County Agent's office.

WORKERS PENSIONS ARE HIGHEST HERE

SANTA FE, Dec. 7—New Mexico is paying higher retirement benefits and has easier retirement qualifications than the federal government and any of the other states so far studied according to findings in a study being made for the legislature.

The payments for retirement are not only higher, ranging from $500 a month (for judges) down, but the contributions to the retirement account by employees are lower ranging from nothing at all for school teachers to 7% of salary for state police.

Credit for time worked toward retirement, according to the legislative study, is also easier here than elsewhere. New Mexico gives full-time credit for such part-time jobs as county commissioner and school board secretary.

Better paid employees may quit at any age after 30 years service with $250 a month. Outstanding beneficiaries under this plan are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Westaway of Carlsbad who are eligible for $250 a month each for time in the county assessor's office alternating as assessor and deputy assessor.)

Judges may quit at $500 a month after as little as 10 years service; ordinary employees may draw $200 a month at the age of 60 after 20 years on the job.

HIGHWAY WORKERS HAVE IT MADE

The highway department has five who could step out at any time on the $250 rate. They are L. C. Campbell, Las Cruces engineer who with more than 35 years is the senior of all the 1700 on the payroll. Others with 30 years or more are T. H. Card of Roswell, Roy Nelson of Albuquerque, and J. A. White and G. G. Lopez of Santa Fe. There are 19 in the 25-year bracket and 27 in the 20-25 year range.

Burton Dwyre, former highway engineer and still in his mid-fifties, is drawing the $250 retirement while working with a private engineering firm that is engaged in work for the department.

OUR CLINT IMPROVES TOM BROWN'S HEALTH

Captiol politician are impressed by the improvement of State Demo Chairman Tom Brown's health since Our Clint, the senator got in the picture as a possible candidate for vice president.

Brown went to the hospital early this year and all but retired from the chairmanship. John Joe Wilkinson of Portales was on pay ($700 a month) as "acting chairman" and most everyone understood that a new chairman would be elected late this year, probably Bernalillo County Chairman Charlie Spann.

Brown's health difficulties, however, seemed to end at the same time that Senator Clint Anderson started getting serious notice for vice president, or even president. Brown has been active ever since and apparently has no intention of stepping aside. In talking of politics he commonly refers to what he plans to do "next year."

The Demos took Brown of Portales on as chairman when they desperately needed the kind of respect that Baptist Tom Brown could give the party. After he had served that purpose a lot of the politicians thought that he could be shoved aside and one of the conventional political type moved into the post. Brown apparently doesn't figure it that way and the Demos don't dare fire him.

If the sky should fall on Anderson at the national convention next summer it would make an important figure of his home state chairman.

ZIA OVER LONE STAR BUT NOBODY SEES

New Mexico finally had its moment over Texas but unhappily there were only about a dozen to know about it. It happened last week when Gov. John Simms was entertaining Gov. William Stratton of Illinois, Gov. Hugo Aronson of Montana, Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas and Gov. Bob Kennon of Louisiana.

It was during the oil compact convention and they were feasting with the Simms at the governor's residence.

Shivers, who was perhaps the greatest of the Democrats for like in 1952 started calling Adlai Stevenson a bum at the Simms party. Before the conversation had a chance to develop Simms got to his feet, told the Texas governor it was no place for such a discussion, that Democrats most everywhere were behind Stevenson, and in effect the governor of New Mexico told the governor of Texas to shove, and he did.

Coroner's Jury Meets After Crash of Plane

An inquest was conducted by Justice of the Peace Everett Dame and a coroner's jury in Corona Thursday evening in connection with the death of two men in a plane crash that day on Tecolote peak. Their finding was that the deaths were due to head and body injuries received in the crash.

William Carpenter, 48, Carlsbad funeral home operator, and his brother, Daniel Carpenter, Roswell nursery proprietor and city councilman, lost their lives when their plane en route to Albuquerque got off its course and crashed into the peak south of Corona.

The plane was bearing the body of A. Pamela Starcke, 2, of Carlsbad, being flown to Albuquerque for cremation. Her remains were taken to Albuquerque and the bodies of the two men were brought to Carrizozo by the Shaw ambulance. Their remains were taken to Carlsbad Thursday evening.

Fog conditions prevailed in the area at the time of the crash. The plane crashed after clipping the power lines on a pole. Power at the ERNG sub-station went off at 9:30 Thursday morning and a crew sent to investigate the source of trouble located the wreckage of the Cessna 170 and its occupants.

Winter Hazards Call For Careful Driving

Chicago, Dec. 8 — If you've had your hand on the bottle keep your foot off the throttle.

That warning was issued by the nation's drivers this week by the National Safety Council as it opened its annual Christmas safety campaign.

The campaign is aimed at reducing holiday accidents. Special emphasis will be on traffic accidents, which have taken an upward swing this year of about 6%. A contributing factor to this increase is an even greater gain in motor vehicle travel.

Heavier travel and the festive spirit of the Christmas season always add to the normal winter hazards of bad weather, slippery roads and added hours of darkness, the Council said.

In warning against driving after drinking, the Council said that one-fourth of all fatal traffic accidents involve a drinking driver or pedestrian. The conviviality of the holidays probably increases this percentage.

In an effort to reduce yuletide accidents to a minimum, city and state officials, civic leaders, safety councils and 100 organizations are joining with the Council in enlisting the cooperation of every motorist and pedestrian.

"If everyone would be his brother's keeper and assume personal responsibility for himself and others, whether walking or driving, many holiday traffic accidents could be prevented," Ned H. Dearborn, president of the Council, said.

THE JOKE THAT BACKFIRED

Miss Valley Hannah came to the Cady Ranch on the Lower Pecos Creek in the Sacramento Mountains as a teacher to Mrs. Rachel Floyd now of Truth or Consequences and her two older brothers. The school was too far away for the children to attend.

The brothers asked one of the cowboys questions about women teachers and if they were mean. The cowboy told them, "If you bloody her nose the first day, she won't be any trouble." They asked the joker if there were any other way to make a good teacher. The cowboy replied he didn't know any.

The small boys took the cowboy's joking seriously. The first morning of school, Ben, the older brother, hit Miss Hannah in the nose, and Cur, the younger one, probably would have socked his teacher if he had been tall enough.

Miss Hannah didn't know whether to go on teaching after that beginning. After the outbreak the boys settled down to work. She told the children's Mother about the incident. The shamed cowboy admitted telling the boys to bloody the teacher's nose but that he didn't dream that the boys would take his joking literally.

A week or so later, Ben was told to ride over to Duncan, six miles away to get a can of baking powder. Ben, eager to show his good intentions, was soon out of sight. He arrived at the store and found it closed. He didn't know Mr. Duncan sometimes left his store and went to his house nearby. Ben waited at the store a long time, but Mr.

Duncan never noticed his young customer. Finally Ben turned his horse and rode back home. When he got home, Ben said, "Mr. Duncan has a new sign in the store window, that says 'No Trade for the Public.'" Later that day a neighbor stopped by and said, "Mr. Duncan is a notary public by the new sign in the window."

Ben didn't read the sign correctly but he studied hard and still claims that Miss Valley Hannah was the best teacher he ever had.

Introduction To Deming

A. J. (Tony) Clark and his wife, Mary Theresa Mahoney Clark, were two of the pioneer residents of Deming. Clark returned to Ladoga, Ind., about 1880 to marry Mary Theresa. While there, he received a newspaper published either in Mesilla or Las Cruces, that had scare headlines on an Indian raid or massacre.

Clark didn't read the story—he just glanced at the headlines and shoved the paper in the kitchen stove before anyone else had a chance to see it. He had good reason to burn the paper because Mrs. Mahoney was having a "fit" over her daughter going to the wild Territory of New Mexico.

After their marriage Mrs. Clark lived in Mesilla for a time because it wasn't as wild as Deming—and the protection against Indian raids was better. But Mrs. Clark, mother of John W. Clark of Deming, didn't escape a Wild West introduction to the town. On the day that she and her husband drove into Deming from Mesilla, they saw three men hanging from a pole, where the underpass now is on the road to Silver City.

"Water" is Title of '55 Agriculture Yearbook

The USDA has announced the publication of its 1955 Yearbook of Agriculture, a 752-page volume devoted to drought, floods and the normal sources and uses of water. Entitled "Water" the book contains a wealth of information on all aspects of this subject that has become a major concern of all engaged in agricultural pursuits, and also for industries, cities, etc.

Among the subjects treated are: The importance of water in history; the need for water of people, animals and plants; weather cycles; "cloud seedings"; desalting sea water; water and erosion; the care of watersheds; water laws; floods and their prevention; water for forests and rangelands; irrigation in the West and East and for specific crops; drainage; farming in dry areas; and research regarding water.

The Yearbook of Agriculture is a Congressional document prepared in the USDA and published under direct Congressional authorization. It is distributed mainly by members of Congress. It is also sold by the Supt. of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., at $2 a copy.

Fewer Farmers Today But They are Better

The Herald, of Ashton, Idaho, recently had something worthwhile to say about the agricultural situation and outlook:

"By actual records, the farmer's buying power is increasing faster than the buying power of people not on farms. Farmers today are fewer, but they're better. Total farming income, therefore, is divided among a smaller number . . . increased mechanization . . . more efficient methods . . . increased and better use of fertilizer and modern watering systems—all these add up to a bright future for the competent farmer."

The technological revolution that began less than a century ago is still on a full-speed ahead basis. In the last 15 years alone, the number of farmers and farm workers has gone down almost 40%, while farm production has risen 30%. This is the result of the enormous impact of modern agricultural machinery, coupled with the other aids mentioned by the Herald, on the arts of agriculture. There can be no doubt but that both consumers and good farmers have benefited enormously—both financially, and in the coin of better living.

This isn't to say that all farm problems, long run or short run, have been solved. They never will be. But the tools and techniques available today justify optimism as to agriculture's future.

It has been definitely established that cockroaches can spread disease germs to pets.

Farm and Livestock Bureau Asks A&M College Expansion

(The New Mexico Farm & Livestock Bureau took a stand on State and National issues at last week's convention in Las Cruces. In this and subsequent issues, the News will publish the adopted resolutions which will be presented to the national Farm Bureau convention.)

New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts—Cooperation — We again express our appreciation to the administrative officials, the Extension Service, the Vocational Agriculture Department, faculty and research personnel of the New Mexico State College for the work that they have done on behalf of New Mexico agriculture during the period since our last annual meeting. We again pledge our support to the College and to all institutions of higher learning.

We urge the College to expand its usefulness to New Mexico agriculture in the fields of education and research.

Name—We oppose attempts by any person, or group, to change the name of New Mexico College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, or to make other changes that will in any way lessen the effectiveness of the Agricultural Departments of the institution. The College was founded for the primary purpose of improving agriculture and mechanic arts in New Mexico and it has made substantial progress toward accomplishing this goal. We oppose any attempts to impair its original purpose.

We further urge that it require an act of Legislature before a name change can be made.

Student Acquisition—We feel that the College should expand its student acquisition program in the schools of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts to enable it to fully utilize present facilities. Decreased enrollment in agriculture and home economics is an alarming trend and efforts should be made to reverse this trend.

Agricultural Student Placement—We recommend that the School of Agriculture develop an effective Agricultural Placement Service for the benefit of graduating students and alumni.

Research, Research Facilities—While Farm Bureau would like to see an experiment station in every locality, but realizing that funds available for agricultural research in the state are limited, we feel that the interests of New Mexico agriculture can best be served by demonstrational plots, and

Whereas, The college has set up this program, and

Whereas, this program is receiving a widespread support among farmers and ranchers of the state,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that this organization express its appreciation to the Board of Regents of the A&M College for putting into operation this program and express to them our willingness to assist in the furtherance and extension of this program.

Weights and Measure Laws—We favor rewriting of the Weights and Measures Law

RURAL ELECTRIFICATION

Rural Electrification and Telephone Program — Whereas, the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau believes in the basic principle of rural electrical and telephone cooperatives, but is opposed to outright extension of government programs which stifle or eliminate private enterprise.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau that rural electrical and telephone cooperatives programs be carried on and encouraged where necessary to supplement inadequate or non-existent service of private companies; that all cooperatives be operated on an efficient business-like basis and that administrative staff and expenditures be reduced and kept to a bare minimum, and that the American Farm Bureau Federation and State Farm Bureaus be urged to carry on an educational program for the general public as well as ranchers and farmers, upholding the true nature and proper place of the R. E. A. in our economy.

We recommend legislation to restrict private utilities from entering an area that is served by existing R. E. A. and R. T. A. cooperatives, and that private utilities be required to furnish adequate service within one year in any area declared thereon or such area declared open.

Unless satisfactory agreement is reached to supply the necessary amount of energy for farm use at reasonable rates, it may be necessary to use Rural Electrification Administration funds to finance the generation and transmission facilities farmers need. We will oppose any efforts (Continued on Page 5)

News from the EPNG Compressor Station

Carol Gibbons and Thelma Noyes gave a coffee Saturday night in honor of Ramona DeLoe's birthday. Almost all the women of the camp attended, and an enjoyable time was reported by all.

C. L. DeLoe and his daughter, Mary Louise, both are in the Carrizozo Hospital at this writing. C. L. has pneumonia and Mary Louise a severe cold.

Mrs. Ronnie Ray's dad is in the hospital near Hamlin, Texas, and she and her brother, J. W. Riddle of Flagstaff, were called there last week. Both families went to his bedside, but Mr. Ray, Judy and Roy returned for work and school. The others are still there as he is in critical condition.

Carl Johnson spent his long change (five days off) near Durant, Okla., where he has bought a farm.

Carl Buttrill and brother, Leonard of Hereford, Texas, went to Farmington last week end. EPNG hired Leonard and he will move his family there within the next two weeks.

We had six inches of snowfall on Sunday, with no wind, but now (Tuesday) it is blowing and drifting!

People who keep rabbits as pets for children are advised to select a good, nutritious ration for the bunnies and to keep feeding it without sudden interruption or change. Abrupt changes of feed or feeding methods will invite trouble and possibly disease, the AVMA says.

Corona Wins Out In Overtime Game

Saturday night on the Tigers hardwood, the Corona Cardinals handed the Tigers their first setback of the season 76 to 75 in an overtime thriller. The Tiger "B" team kept its winning streak intact by winning 58 to 53, also an overtime affair.

Cardinal Pat Huey, returning to his old home court, showed he hasn't lost his touch here and racked the basket for 11 field goals and 13 out of 18 free throws for a whopping 35 points to lead the Cardinals.

The Tigers started fast, leading from 7 to 10 points all the way until midway through the fourth quarter, when starters Gallegos and Guck left the game on fouls. Tigers center Stewart returned to action after sitting out the third and half of the fourth quarter with 4 fouls. Jim Minter, Tiger second team center gave the Tiger team a good performance.

The game ended in a 74 to 74 tie as Aldaz of Captain chopped in a final second goal. In the overtime Huey added a basket for Corona and Aldaz added a free throw. A basket by McKnight was disallowed as he shot after the clock had run out.

The Tiger "B" team was led by Carabajal with 20, and Vance with 15. Corona "B" was led by Kilpatrick with 19.

The Tigers entertain the Tularosa Wildcats Friday and then journey to Socorro for a game Saturday.

CAPITAN DOWN N. M. M. I.

Last Friday night the Capitán Tigers notched their third straight win of this young basketball season by downing the N.M.M.I. Colts of Roswell 69 to 44 on the Capitán court. To round out a perfect night for the Tigers, the little Cats also defeated the Ponies 40 to 30.

Capitan started fast with a basket by Joe Gallegos to open the scoring and jumped to a 19 to 7 first period lead. Aldaz, McKnight and Stewart led the Tigers through a fast second quarter to a 41 to 17 half time lead.

The Colts of N.M.M.I. came out in the second half and kept pace with the Tigers to keep the game interesting.

Leading scores for the Tigers were Joe Aldaz, who counted 21 points before leaving the game on fouls, R. G. Stewart adding 18, and Penny McKnight got 15 more for the winner. Harvey, Levine, and Cox each had 10 for the losers.

Johnny Carabajal led the Tiger Bees with 11 points. Cook led the Ponies with 10.

NOGAL NEWS

By MRS. RALPH DUNLAP

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. LaMay returned to El Paso Wednesday. Mrs. LaMay wasn't doing too well as she hadn't completely recovered from the flu.

The State Highway Dept. has been in the Nogal area the past week surveying the road between Hwyay 380 and Nogal. It will certainly be nice when they get it all finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert May left for a visit with their daughters and families in Lordsburg.

Lois Dunlap had her tonsils removed Friday morning. Her parents brought her home Sunday. She is getting along fine. Louise "Sissy" Zumwalt returned to school Friday after being sick for almost a week.

Mr. Mary Nell Ferrell is the proud mother of a 8 lbs. 1/2 oz. boy, named Lester Allan. The baby was born a little after noon Saturday. He is certainly a big husky boy. Mary Nell and the baby came home Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Davis and family of El Paso visited Mrs. Davis' father, Walter Snell, Sunday. I see they are driving a new Ford.

Mrs. Allen Lard and children of Lake Arthur, N. M., visited Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Zumwalt Tuesday. Mrs. Lard is a niece of Mrs. Zumwalt.

Ralph Dunlap and Wayne were Sunday afternoon callers at the Gil Peters home. Ralph picked out a 4-H calf for Linda.

RESOLUTIONS

to change the present law which makes this possible.

State Board of Education and State Superintendent of Public Instruction—We recommend that the State Board of Education be composed of ten (10) lay people, appointed by the Governor, one from each of the ten judicial districts, with not more than five (5) members belonging to any one major political party, and that they be appointed for staggered terms, and

We further recommend that the State Legislature set up qualifications which must be met before a person is eligible to run for office of the State School Superintendent, and

We further recommend that the State School Superintendent be elected for a four year term, and that he be limited to two consecutive terms.

Open House Party Honors Couple on Their Tenth Wedding Anniversary

Mrs. Lewis Cummins gave an open house party for her daughter, Geraldine, (known as Gerry) celebrating her 10th wedding anniversary Thursday, Dec. 1. This is the first time that Gerry spent an anniversary at home. Her husband, Donald McClung, is in San Diego, Calif.

There was a beautifully decorated cake in their honor. It was enjoyed with coffee by the guests after a very pleasant visit. The lighted candles on the beautifully covered table with the silver service was impressive for the anniversary.

Guests were Ofelia Salas, Lois Aldrich, Rose Hobbs, Henrietta Belknap, Elizabeth Petree, Pearl and Allen Bloys Hobbs, Hilda Young, Opal McClung, Mary Werner, Bessie Jones, Helen C. Provine, Opal Peters, Jane Coleman, Grandmother Sellers, Glennda Peters, Jonell Darling, Leota Livingston, Mrs. Churrier Pepper, Oleta V. Cloud, Angelina Provine, Marnie Grelson, Alta Hickman, Edna M. Laramie, Emma Gene Hall, Lucille Smith, Lee Smith, Duane Darling, Margaret Rench, Louise Ferguson, Dorothy Gueck, Ida Parker, Clara Lowe, Ethel Howard, Amelia McKnight, LeRoy McKnight, Henry and Lyda Pebbles.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston and daughter spent last week end in Albuquerque. Mr. Johnston works on the Riggins Riachuelo Ranch. She is our commercial teacher.

Gas Explosion in Home Injures Kenneth Lacy

Last Sunday morning Kenneth Lacy lit a match as he went to his home to start the gas fire and there was a terrible explosion in which he was seriously burned.

He is in the Carrizozo Hospital at this time. It is not known for certain just how the gas was escaping but the house was full. There was much damage done.

Mrs. Rose Hobbs spent the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. Pearce and Steve. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dodds who took her were guests there also. Mrs. Dodds is Mrs. Pearce's daughter. Teddy Cummins has returned to the Service in Anchorage, Alaska. He left Friday morning driving his car. Another Nebraska Serviceman joined him in Denver. I think that trip is going to be quite an experience at this time of year. All of us are anxious to hear more about it and are saying a sincere prayer for a safe journey.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hall returned last Tuesday to Albuquerque after several days' visit with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Hall, and many friends.

Miss Anna Montoya who works for an electric company in Roswell came home to visit her parents this past week end. It gives Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Montoya such pleasure to have her.

Mrs. Richard Flores returned from California for the Thanksgiving holidays and intends to remain here to work near home. Her husband is employed at Fort Stanton. She is a nurse, therefore is much in demand. She truly is glad to be home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Foster of the Block Ranch were Capitan shoppers Saturday. They reported there was not as much snow there as we had.

Mrs. Roger Zamora arrived here from California to meet her husband who is returning from Germany where he was stationed in the service. They will spend Christmas with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Corder of Texas have moved into the new house on North Hill until their new home is completed on the Bonita. Its construction will be slow due to this winter weather. Welcome, glad to have you with us. Henry Romero made a flying business trip to Roswell Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Caravajal are planning on taking their daughter Lydia as suggested by Dr. Turner, to Truth or Consequences, to stay for some time for treatment for arthritis that has occurred in her left wrist and arm. I do hope this cures this ailment. Do not be discouraged. It is a long battle but you will win if you try and you believe. No worries, just smile on.

The Christmas play will be the night of the 20th. Robert Rannels is opening a uranium mine. He has purchased bulldozer, compressor and a jackhammer. Good luck.

Mrs. Nestor Trujillo is visiting her daughters in Alamo. You will remember them as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Margarita Schuh, Stella, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Presido and Beatrice, though I do not know her married name. Rev. Collins, former minister of the Nazarene Church who now resides in Albuquerque, spent last week end here with friends and attended church Sunday.

Silver Tea and Bazaar Was Successful Event

The Silver Tea and Bazaar was a success, thanks to everyone. Their program was thoroughly enjoyed. We'll give you a more thorough report later.

I just learned that the bazaar took in $96. The automatic electric percolator can be seen at Pearl's Cafe. The percolator will be given away December 20 after the Christmas party.

Mrs. Roy Morgan, her daughter Vada, Mrs. Chapman and their lady friend came from Alamogordo to attend the Silver Tea and Bazaar. Glad to see you again.

Mrs. Lupe Otero Joins Husband in Alaska

Mrs. Lupe Otero, formerly Priscilla Padilla of Lincoln, left by plane from Roswell November 14 to join her husband in Anchorage, Alaska, where they will make their home while he is in service there. She enjoyed her trip.

She is very happy and truly does like Alaska. She intends to start to school after the first of January to finish her Senior year. She needs two credits to finish. We are so happy that she can continue her studies.

Honor Mrs. Newt Kemp On 91st Birthday

Mrs. Newt Kemp celebrated her 91st birthday November 21 at a nice dinner with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Pepper, with whom she makes her home. Her granddaughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Cloud, were present for the occasion. She is in very good health though her vision is not too good. She is strong and happy. We do wish her many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. John Martin, of Calgary, Canada, visited her brother, Travis Werner and Mrs. Werner this past week.

Robert Rannels reports four inches of snow at Bonita. He had to put on chains to get into Capitan.

Mrs. Gussie Titworth returned by plane to Roswell, then by bus home. She has been in the East for nearly three months and had a grand time, enjoyed every moment of it, but says it is good to be home again.

Mrs. William Ferguson was taken to the Carrizozo Hospital Sunday morning with a serious kidney infection. Sometime during the day she fell and fractured her hip. The extent of injury will not be known until they can X-ray.

Chamber of Commerce Annual Banquet Dec. 7

The Chamber of Commerce is having its annual banquet Wednesday night, Dec. 7, at the City Hall. The Methodist ladies will prepare the food.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Embry were business visitors in Roswell Monday.

W. L. Holmes, too, is not improving so rapidly. He is still in bed with a long siege of flu.

Mr. Rench has not thoroughly recovered either but he journeyed on to Lovington in answer to a business phone call Sunday.

The large deer that Mr. LaVailly took home to California with him caused much comment along the way. Many said it was the largest they had ever seen, especially in California.

Sonny (Jullian Florence) Herrera, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Herrera, talked on the phone from Fort Knox, Ky., to his mother telling her he will arrive in Albuquerque by plane the 19th to spend the Christmas holidays at home. They will meet him there.

Biondie Lane is ill, therefore will be off duty for awhile at the El Centro Bar.

Jim Howard took his granddaughter, Martha, to Albuquerque for an eye checkup. His mother, Mrs. Monroe Howard, went with them. Mrs. N. M. Toehill, his sister, came home with them.

Mrs. L. R. LaMay of Nogal who has been ill in El Paso for quite some time returned to her home Saturday but on Wednesday had to return to her daughter's home in El Paso where she could be under the supervision of her doctors. She and her husband will stay there as long as is necessary. Keep your chin up, for soon you will be able to stay here.

Mrs. Eloise Padilla returned after three weeks' visit in Las Cruces.

Mr. and Mrs. John Soderback have a new TV which Johnny is truly enjoying. He watches from the beginning of the programs to the closing. I do not blame him for I do the same with mine. To me it truly is relaxing.

Pearl said if they won all of the games she would give them a party. The above mentioned Saturday was Nov. 26. It was on this night that Pearl fed 25 basketball players and 25 guests that were with them, by candle light. They enjoyed it just the same and had a good time.

STATEMENT ON 1955 TRUCK WEIGHTS LIMIT LAW.

Editor News,
Because there has been so much misinformation put out both by the newspapers and radio about the 1955 Truck Weight Law, I feel that it is in the public interest that some of the pertinent facts regarding this law be brought out.

In 1943 the Legislature passed the law which set the weight and size limit of trucks on the highways of the state. This law permitted maximum loads for single axles of 18,000 pounds and for tandem axles of 28,600 pounds. It provided also that trucks hauling unprocessed native products of New Mexico could haul an excess of 20% over the limits set up, or 21,600 pounds for a single axle and 34,320 pounds for a tandem axle. In other words one group of trucks could haul the limits set out in the law and another group of trucks could haul a 20% overload on the same highways. The record does not show that in 1943 or any time since and certainly not in 1955, that anyone in the Highway Department or out of it made any claims that this 20% overload was injuring the highways of the state.

The 1943 law was so discriminatory that it was probably unconstitutional, and the 1955 Legislature decided that it should be replaced with a law that would be fair to all parties concerned, and so the 1955 law was prepared and the maximum weights per axle and tandem axle are exactly the same as that permitted by the 1943 law with the 20% overload.

The 1944 law did not raise the maximum weight per axle by a single pound above that already permitted by existing law, but it did give all trucks the same limit. It has been stated many times in the press, that this law permits the heaviest loads in the nation. The fact is that ten states permit heavier loads per single axle, and 17 states permit heavier loads per tandem axle, than are permitted under the 1955 law. Damage to the highways is done by the pressure in pounds per square inch of the surface bearing on the road, and all of the above mentioned states permit heavier loads per axle than does our law.

Another provision of the 1955 law that has not been brought to the attention of the public, is that the State Highway Commission is expressly authorized to reduce the limits as to height, width and weight at any time they shall decide the limits per-

Check Gas-Fired Heating Equipment

With the beginning of winter weather and the use of home heating appliances, the New Mexico State Health Department is again receiving notifications of carbon monoxide asphyxiations due to faulty gas-fired heating equipment. In 1954, 22 deaths were reported in New Mexico as due to this type of accident. Many more near-fatal asphyxiations probably occurred, but only a few were reported. After falls and burns, carbon monoxide asphyxiation is the third most important cause of deaths due to home accidents. The most tragic aspect of these accidents is that they were all preventable.

Carbon monoxide is a gas slightly lighter than air, non-irritating, colorless, tasteless and odorless in moderate concentrations. Since carbon monoxide has an affinity for hemoglobin 200 to 300 times that of oxygen, anemia is produced in cases of poisoning, and death is due to oxygen starvation. Poisoning depends not only upon the carbon monoxide content of inspired air, but also upon the duration to the gas. Carbon monoxide may kill with great suddenness or the onset of illness may be insidious.

The clinical picture can usually be divided into three stages, the first being marked by vertigo, headache, throbbing sensation and muscular weakness. The second stage is characterized by unconsciousness with cyanosis, a cherry red color of the skin, and elevation of temperature, and the third by coma. The coma may last for days and still be followed by recovery.

The prevention of carbon monoxide asphyxiation due to faulty heating appliances is relatively simple. The appliance must be correctly designed and regulated, properly vented, and an adequate supply of combustion air should be assured. Open-faced heaters or heaters without vents should not be trusted.

When located in concealed spaces, such as attics and closets, or when outside the building, the vents should be of double-wall construction. When the heating appliance is dependent upon the room atmosphere for combustion air, an opening for the admission of make-up air should be provided. In most instances a window open one half-inch from the bottom is adequate. Floor furnaces and water heaters require combustion air inlets equal to one square inch for each one thousand BTU rated capacity.

Defects in heating appliances can be caused in many unexpected ways. One asphyxiation was due to the blocking of a floor furnace vent by a bird's nest. An empty tin can over a vent resulted in two deaths. Investigation of another death revealed that a screened combustion air inlet supplying a floor furnace had been covered when a house was plastered during the summer. In another instance, a teacher

Frank Maes died at the St. Joseph in Albuquerque Saturday night. Funeral services were held at Willard Monday afternoon.

Rev. and Mrs. Bill Lytle went to Santa Fe Tuesday to take part in the Synodical meeting which accepts the Ghost Ranch as a Presbyterian retreat and camp.

The firemen met Monday night to plan the annual Christmas treat for the children of the community.

Ben Roberts has been on the sick list the last week with pneumonia.

Counterfeiters Active During Holidays

Albuquerque—It has been the experience of the Secret Service that during the holiday season, when a larger amount of currency is in circulation, counterfeiters are more active and more counterfeit currency appears.

If a counterfeit note is brought to your attention, please try to delay the passer under pretext and notify your local law enforcement authorities immediately. If you are unable to delay the passer, please obtain his complete physical description, the description of any automobile he may be driving, and the automobile license number; then telephone, collect, the U. S. Secret Service at Albuquerque, New Mexico, the telephone number being 7-0311, Extension 243, and supply as much information as possible.

It is believed that if all merchants in this area take normal precautions that the circulation of counterfeit money can be kept at a minimum.
