CARRIZOZO, NEW MEXICO, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1935

(Outlook, Volume 47, No. 39)

Grizzly Frosh Play Tularosa Thursday

The Carrizozo Freshman will be looking for win number nine of the 1935-36 campaign this Thursday night when they face one of the strongest fives in the area, Tularosa, at 7 p. m. in Carrizozo.

The Grizzly Freshmen will trek to Tularosa next Thursday evening and return home on Friday evening for their final of the season against the Weed "B" team.

On February 17 and 18 the Freshmen will take part in the Bean Valley Tourney to be held at Corona, with Corona their first opponent. In the opening tilt of the annual Carrizozo Freshman tourney, the Grizzlies won out over the Cardinals in a real thriller, 32-31.

The Carrizozo varsity will play two home games this week and Friday night they meet Ruidoso, which has improved since their last loss to Carrizozo.

Saturday night the Grizzlies play Magdalena. Game time is 7:00. Regular prices and season tickets may be used at these games.

Corona is at Mountainair Friday and in host to Estancia Saturday.

Capitan plays two games away from home—Vaughn Friday and Ruidoso Saturday.

Hondo meets Jal there Friday and Eunice Saturday.

Announces for State Representative

SHERIFF W. G. BRADLEY

Sheriff William Glen Bradley, who completes a four-year term of office December 31, announced this week that he will seek the office of State representative for Lincoln County, subject to the Republican primary election.

Sheriff Bradley, upon the completion of his term of office, will return to Hondo and again be associated with his brother, A. M. Bradley, in the Bradley Garage, situated on Highways 70 and 260.

Blizzard Strikes Lincoln County

A blizzard swept into New Mexico Wednesday, ending one of the mildest winters in many years.

High wind and snow struck Lincoln County in force during the afternoon and was continuing Thursday.

At 10 o'clock Thursday morning no cars had come into Carrizozo across Indian Divide and traffic out of town was possible only in one direction—on Highway 54 south—and that was not advised by the Sheriff's office.

Tow car service in Carrizozo began to get calls Wednesday evening. Stranded motorists were given help on Highway 380 east and west and Highway 54 north.

Both the City Garage and Bob Means tow cars were out on 54 north Thursday morning.

Before traffic was halted on Highway 70 Wednesday night, 150 cars were reported stalled at the Picocho Hill. A house trailer turned across the road at San Patricio and was sideswiped by a truck. Cars were also stalled in Dark Canyon.

The Sheriff's office received the report that all roads in the northern part of the state were closed. Highway 66 was open from Tucuman east. Organ Pass was closed by ice and snow; also the highway from Las Cruces to Deming and toads around Hatch.

Eight inches of snow were reported at Corona and around three inches at Capitan.

Formal Opening for New Office Building

The public is cordially invited to attend the formal opening Saturday, Feb. 4, of a new office building in Carrizozo.

The former library building, completely remodeled, is now the home of the Lincoln County Savings & Loan Association, the New Mexico Acceptance Corporation, the J. G. Moore Agency and the office of R. A. Doughty, certified public accountant. Mr. Charles Creagh is associated with Mr. Doughty in the Carrizozo office.

Though the above firms have been established and doing business in the new location for several weeks the formal opening was delayed until all of the new furniture and fixtures arrived.

GOOD SLEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Truman A. Spencer Jr. and family and the Geo. L. Zimmerman family of Rulo, N. M., visited the ski run Sunday on Cedar Creek. The snow pack was not sufficient for skiing, but it was just right for sledding.

Carrizozo's newest auto court, the Frontier Hotel, opened for business last week. Above is the lobby and living quarters. The building is faced with ornamental flagstone from the quarry of the Corosa Stone Company.

Learning to drive is a pleasure in a car such as the above—a 1934 T-3 Packard Ford Town Sedan—newly acquired by the Carrizozo High School for student driver instruction. Meyer Marvin E. Roberts, president of the Lincoln County Motor Club, hands the car keys to Supt. R. G. Firmans. John McColligan, instructor, looks on. He teaches driving to 24 students in two classes daily during the school week. The Ford has a number of safety features, including padded dash, padded rear view, safety steering wheel and new style door locks. There is a bump on the floor before the instructor.

Regional Farm Bureau Conference Held at Salt Lake

W. G. (Bill) Shredengost has returned to his home in Hondo after attending a Western Regional conference comprising 11 western States of the American Farm Bureau Federation, held in Salt Lake City January 26-27.

The purpose of the meeting was to inform State presidents and boards of directors on important issues concerning agricultural people at present and in the near future.

Particular emphasis was laid on the Soil Bank program which the New Mexico Farm & Livestock Bureau, along with the other 47 States worked out and have proposed to Secretary of Agriculture Benson and President Eisenhower.

Among 15 delegates to the conference who represented New Mexico were W. E. (Hil) Overton of Yesso and Mr. Shredengost, both State board members, and John Mershon of Mayhill, president of the Otero County Farm & Livestock Bureau.

Charles E. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, addressed the conference and predicted that some type of soil bank plan will be enacted by Congress within 60 to 90 days.

CORE OF FARM PROBLEM

"The core of the farm problem as it exists in 1935 is simply that our total productive capacity currently exceeds effective demand," he said. "The situation is particularly critical for some of the commodities that have had mandatory 90 per cent of parity price support."

Mr. Shuman outlined the major aspects of Farm Bureau's proposal for surplus reduction as follows:

1. A certain percentage, to be determined annually by the Secretary of Agriculture, of the acreage currently planted to price supported crops on a farm must be placed in the soil bank as a condition of eligibility for price support.

2. Producers who voluntarily decide to underplant any allotment may do so and receive a payment in the form of a negotiable certificate valid for the purchase of CCC stocks.

3. Producers who voluntarily wish to do so may participate by placing any amount of cropland they desire in the soil bank for a period of not less than three years. Payments for such participation may be either in negotiable certificates against CCC stocks or other forms of payment.

4. No harvesting or grazing will be permitted on any soil banked acreage. ACP payments may be made on an acreage placed in the soil bank if approved practices are performed on such acreage.

School Students Have Sadie Hawkins Day

By GLENDA KING

Guy Warden, president of the Carrizozo Student Council, proclaimed Friday, Jan. 31, as Sadie Hawkins Day.

Each Carrizozo student and teacher was asked to dress as some character from Dog Patch. Cossages of onions, celery, lettuce and radishes were sold to the girls to be pinned on the lucky boys as a sign they were to be taken to the dance that night.

Coach Willis, dressed as Marilyn Sam, carried Sadie Hawkins marriage certificates around. For the small fee of 25 cents anybody could get married up.

Prizes were awarded Billy Fitzpatrick, Laverne McSmith and Jim McMaraddy for the best dressed characters.

A party was held that night in the band room and Lorraine Sanchez became Queen of Sadie Hawkins Day. She had the largest number of penny votes. Congratulations, Lorraine.

So if any of you townspeople saw some funny looking characters wandering around it was just the local high school students acting like Dog Patchers.

It was a lot of fun and we hope to make it an annual event.

Grizzlies Drop Game To Estancia Bears

With Leon Gonce leading the way with 39 points, Estancia defeated the Carrizozo Grizzlies Tuesday night, 75 to 66.

For Carrizozo, the scoring was as follows: R. Vega 13, G. Pino 2, S. Harkey 24, E. Hicks 17, N. Palomarez 6 and J. Morris 4.

Score by quarters—
Carrizozo 17 25 43 66

Ramblin' Around Lincoln County

Types Recorded Interviews With People Who Helped Build Lincoln County

EUGENE C. DOW

My name is Eugene Charles Dow. I was born at La Luz, New Mexico in 1861. La Luz was part of Lincoln County at that time, but later came to be Dona Ana County. My folks moved to Lincoln in 1877 and were in Lincoln at the start of the Lincoln County War. In 1878 my mother was so sick the family left there and moved to El Paso.

My father was a contractor and carpenter. His name was Eugene W. Dow. He came from New York to California and enlisted in the army as a carpenter. He served in the Army for two terms, about ten years altogether. It was after the Civil War. He took part in some Indian fighting some place in New Mexico, I believe. He enlisted in California and when he had served that out he came to Arizona and enlisted again. After that he came to Fort Stanton and was discharged there. After that he worked at Ft. Stanton. My folks had a place in Alamo Canyon, but the Indians chased them out of there, stole their stock and so on. There were four or five families that came out then.

There were the Dows, Hills and Aguayos. Harry Aguayo is my first cousin. His mother and my mother were sisters. They were in Alamo Canyon and they were chased out by the Indians too. They moved to Tularosa and stayed there a while and from there they came to Lincoln. They lived at La Luz for a while, too, after the Lincoln County War.

Our homestead was three miles east of Lincoln. I had two twin brothers who were both there about a year before the fighting started. It's still known as a few years ago to the railroad. Then John Melgs, the artist, bought the salvage of it. It was a pretty good-sized adobe house. My father died at that place in 1898 and my mother died at the same place in 1918. My wife and I lived there until 1926. I had three brothers—twin brothers and one other. I have a brother, Ralph Dow, in El Paso, the only one living besides myself. Larry and James are the others.

On our farm in Lincoln we raised a few head of stock and we had some grazing land too. We used water out of the Bonita and we had plenty of it until the railroad took it. We had cattle and horses.

About 1919 we sold horses to the Mexican government. During the last war, too. I saw in a paper where they brought a pretty good price. Once in a while we sold polo ponies to the Institute in Maxwell.

I went to school in Lincoln. We walked three miles to the school. We didn't have buses then. They taught to about the sixth grade.

I was married January 22, 1911. The twenty-second of this January we will have been married 45 years. We raised a family of eleven children. They are still living—three girls and eight boys. We had eight of them in the service. All of my boys have been in the service—four during the war and Roy just came out of four years of service. One is still in the Service. He's at Kirtland Field in Albuquerque. Orville is in the Air Force. Ralph has a home in Albuquerque. Arthur has a barber shop and Earl works in a machine shop in Albuquerque.

My wife's maiden name was Jennie Peppin. She was the daughter of the late Geo. W. Peppin. He was sheriff before Pat Quinn. They called him "Dad" Peppin. He was one man July 20, 1888 and he wanted to

Announce Pairings for Bean Valley Tourney

Pairings are announced for the Bean Valley tournament which gets under way February 10 in Moriarty.

Corona meets Mountainair 4:30 Friday afternoon and Carrizozo opens with Estancia at 3.

Friday's opener sees Moriarty clashing with Vaughn and Estancia with Stanley.

Semi-finals are Saturday afternoon and the championship game that evening.

get but never did. "Dad" Peppin died in 1904. He was around 64 years old. He had quite an experience during the Lincoln County War. My wife was born in Lincoln.

When we lived in Lincoln I worked on the farm, mostly with stock. In 1901 I started working for the Blocks. The Block Ranch belonged to the Capitan Land and Cattle Company. The general manager was Tom Pridemore. After he left a fellow by the name of Henry Scott took over the place and after that Loyd Taylor was made foreman. Henry Scott was bookkeeper and stockkeeper for the ranch. I worked for the Block Ranch from 1901 to 1905.

After we sold the place near Lincoln we moved to Picacho. We stayed there for two years and then we went to Capitan. I worked in Capitan two years at the school house. In 1901 we moved to Carrizozo and have been here ever since. When I came here I worked for the State Highway Department. I quit in 1933 and after that I worked at different places, carpenter work and so forth.

HELPED BUILD HOLLOWAN

At the beginning of the war, I worked at Hollowan Base when they were building it. I worked there for about a year at carpenter work. From there I came to Bonita Dam and worked there for three and a half years on the Bridging and Building crew rebuilding the dam. After that I worked around town here until 1947 and then went back to the Highway Department. I was foreman for four years.

During the war I worked as a guard at the concentration camp at Fort Stanton. They didn't have very many Japs but they had approximately 500 Germans. Once in a while they would raise a little trouble. They would break out and try to get away but they got tamed down pretty good. They were mostly seamen.

(At this point in the interview, Mrs. Dow filled in some history about her family.)

"Dad" Peppin came from Underhill, Vermont. He came to New Mexico in the early 50's. He died in 1904 and he was 64 years old then. He came here when he was a boy. He left home when he was quite young and never did go back home. He was a bricklayer. He had his training in Albuquerque. He was the butcher at Fort Stanton for quite a while. That's how he came to settle in New Mexico.

His wife's maiden name was Victoriana Salazar. She's a distant kin of the Salazars in Lincoln. The Peppin place was built before any of us were born. The place is the first house on the right as you go north from Lincoln. That is where I (Mrs. Dow) was born. It was already built when Mr. Peppin bought it. There were two rooms then and he kept adding on to it until it had about eight rooms.

Three Dow brothers married three of Sheriff Peppin's daughters. First, Larry Dow and Carl Peppin were married in 1904. We were married in 1911. Then the other two, Clara and Ralph, were married in 1906. We were neighbors for a long time and our fathers worked together a lot. We grew up together. Ralph and Clara live in El Paso. Carrie is a widow and lives in Maxwell.

MOTHERS TO MARCH

The Mothers will March for Dimes Friday evening at 7:00. Please turn your porch lights on.

The March of Dimes coffee at the Woman's Club last Saturday added $60.58 to the polo fund and the Girl Scout tag day brought in $30.07.

School Lunch Programs Curtailed by Decrease in Federal Assistance

The various school lunch programs in the county all received the news this week of a sharp and sudden cut in reimbursement for school lunches.

In the case of Carrizozo, Supt. R. G. Firman states, this will mean a drop from 8c to 5c per child, effective February first. About 4000 children are served a month so this will mean a loss of about $120 per month.

The reason given is that the federal government has decided to economize by cutting down on help for school lunches," Mr. Firman told the News, adding:

"It might be added that during the same time distribution of commodities to the school lunch program has also fallen off sharply although, at the same time, the public schools are compelled to pay the costs of distribution which were formerly borne by the State Department of Public Welfare.

"Most schools will be compelled to face two unpleasant alternatives. They can either decrease the quality and quantity of the lunches or increase the prices to the children."

He suggests that parents and patrons contact their congressmen and senators immediately and see if something can be done about the school lunch curtailment.

27-Ft. Trailer House Destroyed by Fire

A 27-ft. tandem wheel trailer house was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon two miles north of Carrizozo on Highway 54.

Its owner, Marcia Letzke, was en route from Albuquerque to his home, 3027 Mountain Ave., El Paso.

A passing mototist notified the City Garage that the trailer was on fire. Fire Chief Fay Harkey and the Carrizozo crew responded to the alarm.

Brodie Firm Reported Low on Bonito Bid

Albuquerque — The Brodie Construction Co., of Amarillo was apparent low bidder on the Bonito pipeline project Tuesday afternoon when bids were opened in the office of the U. S. Engineers.

The Brodie bid was $3,221,227.07 as against a government estimate on the job of $3,522,045.96. There were 15 bidders. A contract is expected to be awarded in the near future.

New Dental Office Nearing Completion

The new dental office being built in Carrizozo by Dr. A. L. Sadowski is nearing completion. Painting was under way this week and plumbing and dental equipment are to be installed next week.

PTA Party and Dance Feb. 8 in Hondo

The Hondo Valley PTA will sponsor a tucky-party barn dance, sock foot style, on February 8 at the Hondo gymnasium, to which the public is cordially invited. A special feature of the evening's entertainment will be a square dance number.

Guests are to come in tucky costume, and there will be a contest to determine the tackiest costumes. Admission prices of one dollar will be charged to the men and fifty cents to high school students while women will be admitted for a pie or cake.

An orchestra will furnish the music and there will be baby sitters available at the school to take care of small children. Refreshments will be on sale.

The Pilgrimage Play Coming to Capitan

The Pilgrimage Play is to be presented at the Capitan High School the night of February 10. This famous play, which portrays the life of Christ, is being sponsored by the Capitan Band Boosters.

It is a 90-minute motion picture, in sound and color.

DISTRICT COURT MEETS MONDAY

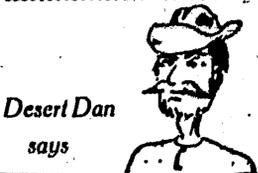

District Court meets Monday, Feb. 6. A divorce action has been filed, Teresa G. Hollis, plaintiff, vs. Floyd E. Hollis.

Four juveniles from Alamogordo will have a hearing in court. They are charged with stripping a Mercury sedan in Capitan.

Officers took the youths admitted taking Richard Sidwell's car in Carrizozo, draining its gas, and taking some merchandise from it.

Three were fined in justice of the peace court in Carrizozo Sunday morning on a charge of co-habitation. They were Eugene C. Landis, Anthony Marquez and Flora Apodaca. Fines of $25 each were assessed. Officers report the affair lasted from Saturday evening until Sunday evening.

Entered as second class matter July 30, 1926, at the Post Office at Carrizozo, New Mexico, under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription: In Lincoln County, Yearly, $2.75; Six Months, $1.50; Outside Lincoln County, 7.25 year; six months, $1.75

 To protect them against coming wind, ice, snow and cold garden experts suggest: Wrap burlap strips around slim trees; prop up heavy branches, cover root areas with mulch; water well before ground freezes.

A POETICALLY MINDED
 depositor recently read us the following verse (his own), and asked for our opinion.
 "Now, young Mrs. A. had a great deal to do. There's housework, and caring for three children, too. Her time is most precious, and that's why she sends her checks via MAIL to pay bills, my good friends!" "We're not experts on poetry as such," we told the depositor when he had finished, "but we do know about checking accounts, and to our mind your little poem expresses very neatly one of the outstanding advantages of paying by check. If only there were a contest for 'practical poetry'! You might win a prize with this piece." "Perhaps," said our poet friend modestly. "One thing, though, is sure: In any contest of convenience among bill-paying methods, a checking account would carry off top honors!" Open your account, at our bank, soon.

Texas W. C. Students Have Snow Fiesta Events at Cloudcroft
 Students of Texas Western College at El Paso held their Snow Fiesta Saturday at Cloudcroft.
 A feature of the day was the crowning of the Snow Queen. She was Gerry Lynch of El Paso, a sophomore student at the college. A member of the Chi Omega sorority, Miss Lynch was sponsored by the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. Her escort was Bill Mischon of El Paso.
 Brief visitors in Carrizozo before the fiesta events were Herman Gschwind of El Paso, a senior engineering student at Texas Western; Prof. Wade Hartwick, chairman of the department of economics and business administration at the college, and his daughter, Miss Taxon Hartwick, also a Texas Western student.
 Mr. Gschwind's parents were at one time residents of Oscura.

Two Elected Directors Of Grazing Dist. 4
 As a result of the Advisory Board election held at Alamogordo for New Mexico Grazing District No. 4, the following persons were elected to serve a three year term:
 C. A. McNatt of Alamogordo and Eldon P. Harvey of El Paso. Together with present members, they will assist the district range manager in offering advice and making recommendations relative to issuance of grazing licenses on federal lands within Grazing District 4.

Travel to Gran Quivira Continues to Climb
 Visitation to Gran Quivira National Monument during January shows a 60% increase over January 1955, according to Channing T. Howell, superintendent. Total visitors numbered 417 and were from 25 states, Alaska, Canada and Mexico. The camp grounds were used by 109 persons.
 How sufficient water was obtained for the large pueblo Indian village has long been a subject for speculation. It is known that the Indians had a water system, consisting of reservoirs located on the higher slopes to the east, with canals to carry the water to the village.
 Spanish documents reveal that during the time the missionaries were at Huanos (or Gran Quivira) there were 22 shallow wells in the vicinity, the deepest well being ten estadas, or 55 feet deep.
 There is no admission charge to visit the National Monument, to view the 300-year old Spanish missions and the Indian pueblo ruins. The monument can be reached by traveling north on Highways 54 and 10 from Carrizozo.

Shorthand Reporters Needed By Air Force
 AFSWC, Albuquerque, N. Mex. (Jan. 25)—Vacancies exist in Japan for qualified shorthand reporters for duty at Air Force Bases. Requirements include a minimum of six months experience in the field, the ability to take dictation at the rate of 150 words per minute, and a typing speed of 55 words per minute.
 The tour of duty is 24 months, with travel to and from the Orient provided by the Air Force. Starting salaries are $4080 and $4525 per annum, plus quarters allowance.
 Applications may be submitted to the Overseas Representative of the Department of the Air Force, Civilian Personnel Division, Kirtland Air Force Base, New Mexico.
 Teachers interested in obtaining employment overseas should forward applications immediately to be considered for the coming school year. "The Application for Federal Employment," Standard Form-57 may be obtained at your local post office or any Government agency, and forwarded to the Overseas Representative, Civilian Personnel Division, Kirtland Air Force Base, New Mexico.

Catching a Witch
 An owl is supposed to be a witch and the only time you could catch it would be on a Friday night, and the person would have to be a Juan or Juana. (This item is from the folklore Archives of Highlands University, Las Vegas. It was told to Agnes Rudolph by her father in February, 1953.)

20 Years Ago
 (From the files of the Lincoln County News, Jan. 31, 1936)
 The editor of the News visited the mill and concentration plant of the Lincoln County Mining & Milling Co., above Bonito dam and described the property as one of the most valuable in the county. Silver, lead, zinc and gold ore were being mined from a vein 42 to 52 inches in width.
 C. N. Amis of Roswell was awarded the contract to build a union high school at Capitán. Contract price for the PWA project was $49,295.
 Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Stihmel celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. The couple were wed in White Oaks. His bride was Miss Ajina Mackel. A report of the wedding in the Lincoln County Leader (Jan. 30, 1936) stated that "After the nuptials a festival began at Brothers Hotel, but the space proved too small. The celebrants resorted to the Town Hall where festivities were kept up until far beyond the hour when graveyards are reported to yawn."
 Will Rogers was appearing at the Lyric Theatre in the movie "Doubting Thomas."
 Charles Monteller, Mrs. Louise Hodson and Orphe Kennedy of the Ramon community made a trip to Roswell.
 Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Adams returned from a trip to Oklahoma. Elvin L. Harkey of Ancho filed notice of intention to make final three-year proof on his homestead. His witnesses were Wm. E. Kelt and Herman E. Kelt of Carrizozo and W. R. Ferguson and Hugh Cathy of Ancho.
 Buster Walker and Lee Carl went to Roswell to bring back a load of hay for Will Ed Harris.

40 Years Ago
 (From the files of the Carrizozo News, Feb. 4, 1916)
 The Parsons school closed after a successful seven months' term—the longest taught there in many years. It was hoped that the time would not be too distant when the district could afford a nine or ten months' school.
 The San Patricio correspondent reported that several citizens down that way were courting, probably due to the nearness of spring. The "courting" however, was proving to be expensive, as they had been in trouble and were lined in the courts.
 The Fraternal Order of Practitioners was organized in Carrizozo, with a number of prominent citizens taking office.
 Station Agent L. Brown and Charles Pierce, depot freight man, went to El Paso No. 7. $45 in currency was lost on the streets of Carrizozo and a liberal reward was offered for its return.
 Mrs. Charles D. Mayer and her niece from White Oaks were in Carrizozo en route to El Paso.
 Mrs. A. W. Adams moved her millinery and dress making shop to a new location in Carrizozo.
 At a district court session, presided over by Judge Medler, the jail was cleaned out of all prisoners. Undersheriff John Baird and Deputy Forifio Chavez Jr. delivered two prisoners to the State penitentiary to start serving terms.

PERSONNEL BOSS DOESN'T UNDERSTAND
 Statehouse workers trying to get higher salary rates are burned about Fred Barron of the employment security commission serving as head of the state personnel board. Barron's big outfit operates almost entirely under the federal government and is one of the state merit system departments. It has no relation with the ordinary state offices that are trying to get together on a standard plan for employees. Barron, Gov. John Simms' choice for head of the personnel group, took over after Santos Quintana of the land office stepped aside. Quintana was antagonistic to the Simms policy that held many employees to a salary starting rate of $180. He wanted a minimum of $200.

 Trouble making Tom McGrath of San Miguel has indicated to friends at the capital that he will file for lieutenant governor against incumbent Joe M. Montoya. LADY CANDIDATE CAUSES RUMFUS
 SANTA FE, Jan. 25—Eveline Robinson's entry into the Democratic run for corporation commissioner may shake up that race more than most realize.
 The state never had a lady corporation commissioner, but neither did the New Mexico League of Young Democrats have a lady president until Eveline made it, nor were there any lady county commissioners until the good looking politician got in at Los Alamos.
 "If the race attracts half a dozen entries as it very well might observers here think Mrs. Robinson would have good prospects of winning," New Mexico voters have shown no reluctance about supporting females. There have been nothing but women in the secretary of state post for more than 30 years, they have held the state school superintendent's slot about half the time and Georgia Lusk was in Congress for a term.
STATEHOUSE IN A HURRY
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pfeiffer of the Rafton Range are taking off next month for five weeks in Europe. Wallace Barnes, formerly of Gallup, is going to look after the paper while they are gone. Twenty-one people from the poor and hungry county of Harding came up to the $50-a-plate Republican dinner at Albuquerque last week. Tom Bolack of Farmington really wants to run for Republican nomination for governor if he's in the clear on March 6. Bolack is looking after the Upper Colorado deal for New Mexico in Washington and can't let it down. The State Highway Department at the middle of the month entered into a deal with Bob Gilliland of Las Cruces to go to work February 1 as maintenance boss of the new highway building at $140 a month and a week later called off the agreement. There was no explanation. Gilliland, a Democrat, was statehouse custodian under Republican Ed Mechem.

FURNITURE BUY DEFIES BIDDERS
 The statehouse has reached a new high in its determination to buy where it chooses regardless of competitive bidding. Last month the state purchasing agent, Charlie Horn, told the board of finance that there was only one source for some special furniture needed by the bureau of revenue: Paul Huss, state Demo chairman had it at a price of $3400. Jack Campbell, legislative representative on the board of finance raised a big fuss and the transaction was advertised for public bidding. The equipment which the purchasing agent had said was (Continued on Page 7)

A GREAT DAY IN DEMING

A survey, decorated with bunting and flags, stood at the Santa Fe Railway in Deming about 9 o'clock on a spring morning in 1901. A crowd waited impatiently outside the station for the train which was bringing Representative Joseph A. Mahoney home from the Territorial Legislature in Santa Fe.

Luna County had been officially carved out of Grant County, and nearly everybody in Deming was waiting to honor Mahoney, who worked successfully for the creation of the new county. It was such a big day in Deming that a school holiday had been declared.

After Mahoney arrived and the first enthusiasm of the welcome subsided, he was escorted to the survey. John Walter Clark of Deming, nephew of the late legislator, recalls that the horses were unhitched, and that school children pulled the survey from the station up to Spruce Street and Gold Avenue, where a bandstand had been erected for the occasion.

The band played its best, and Mahoney and several others made speeches on one of Deming's great days.

The Deming Band at that time was directed by I. Brown, father of Nacio Herb Brown, who composed "Singing in the Rain," "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers," and many other hits. Nacio Herb Brown is still writing songs and music for the movies in Hollywood.

'SHE'S STAMPEDING'

Early in the 1880s a restaurant stood on the present site of the White House Cafe on West Pine Street in Deming. There were many tents in the town at that time, and John Walter Clark of Deming says the restaurant may have been in a tent. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. (Tony) Clark, who came to Deming in 1881 or 1882, lived in a house behind the restaurant.

Clark had started for California but he stopped in Deming because it looked like a live town. It was Indian raid scares and killings provided plenty of suspense and excitement. The Southern Pacific Railroad was being built towards Deming at the time, and the consequent influx of gamblers and other characters added to the wildness of the town.

This story, which Clark remembers his father telling, concerns a killing in the restaurant. The Clarks had not been in Deming long when the incident occurred.

A man who had been drinking, walked into the restaurant, sat down at a table across from a stranger, looked at him and said: "I don't like you."

Then he drew his revolver and killed the man.

Just as the shot was fired, Navajo Bill, the waiter, stepped in from the kitchen with a trayful of food. Navajo Bill dropped the tray and ran out the back door. (His real name was William Gordon, he was supposed to have been an Indian scout, and he wore his hair long.)

Mrs. Clark was in the backyard of her home. She heard the shot, picked up another woman's baby in the yard, and started running in the same direction as Navajo Bill—south on what is now Copper Avenue.

Someone who saw her running went to Tony Clark's grocery store, which was on the present Sprouse-Relitz site, and told him:

"You better go get your wife, she's stampeding."

Clark found his wife in the Adobe Corral, where the women and children were taken whenever Deming had an Indian raid scare. The corral was located at what is now the intersection of Copper Avenue and Hemlock St.

The Pesky Telephone

Mrs. R. E. Lemon of Carrizozo recalls the story about the late George L. Ulrich, vice president of the Exchange Bank in Carrizozo. The first telephones were installed in Carrizozo about 1909, and the new-fangled gadget excited Ulrich—and sometimes he yelled into the phone. It especially annoyed him if he failed to get a party. One day he slammed down the receiver and shouted:

"By G—, I'll cut myself a walking stick and go see them."

COUNTING CALORIES

How often we hear that abundant America is the best fed country in the world! Praise for the varied American diet is frequently expressed in terms of "calories"—we may hear, for example, that the people of less fortunate lands have only so many calories a day in their diet compared with the high calorie content of the average American diet.

In these days, when so many people are conscious of their weight, we hear about "counting calories." We take this to mean that people who are overweight should avoid rich foods. But the fact is that everybody, even those whose weight is normal, should be concerned with "calories"—not so much with counting them but with distinguishing between two different kinds of calories, for the kind of calories in our diet holds the key to

Chinchilla Owners Return From Shows

The Walter Schneiders are home again after a busy time in San Bernardino, Calif., and Lubbock and Amarillo, Texas.

While in California Mr. Schneider gave his annual report to the state branch of the Chinchilla Association at Riverside.

In Lubbock he was engaged in Chinchilla grading. Amarillo was the location of a Chinchilla field day and he was judging at that event.

Tuesday the Henry Peebles of the Mesa country were visitors at Alto.

The new pavement on Highway 37 is a finished project now. The yellow lines were put in last Tuesday and they add to its appearance as well as safety.

The George Dingwall were Carrizozo visitors last Tuesday. They took Mrs. Edith Crawford there after her visit here of about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. James Madden of Ruidoso are living temporarily at the CYO Camp on the Monjeau road.

Mrs. Lineol White went to Las Cruces Friday to take her sons, Tommy and Harry, for a check-up at the heart clinic there.

Lawrence Peebles has been suffering from a leg injury but is much improved at this time. Jean Rankin of Roswell visited Dell Koster at the Ruidoso Chinchilla Farm the past week end.

The L. J. Adams of El Paso enjoyed the week end in their home atop Peters Hill.

Buster Hickman has a lame back caused by a pitching horse. Last report is that he is getting along satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Peebles and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Peebles and children were in Roswell Friday attending a sale of registered cattle by the Eastern New Mexico Hereford Association. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peebles and grandson, Marshal, spent the night with the Albert Andersons, returning home Saturday.

The Al Swansons and Mrs. Buckner of El Paso were at Eagle Creek for the day last Sunday.

good nutrition. An important defect in the U. S. diet is the large consumption of "empty" calories—a defect which has worsened by about 40% in the last 40 years.

What are "empty" calories? They are sources of body energy that provide virtually none of the minerals or vitamins essential for health. They are found primarily in sugar and cooking fats. If the intake of fats and sugar in our diet should be curtailed to cut down on "empty" calories, where do we find the "full" calories that do contain the minerals and vitamins we need? They are found in meat, eggs, and milk, starchy and watery vegetables, and fruit. For better nutrition we should eat more of these foods.

It would be ironic indeed if well-fed America should suffer from poor nutrition because we don't know what kind of calories to count!

State Champion Is Award Winner In National Wool Sewing Finals

Champions in the art of sewing with wool, Norma Jo Thigpen (left), 17, of Lake Arthur and Nancy Ann Fore, 20, of Estancia, are seen in Fort Worth after representing New Mexico in the National Fashion Revue. Climaxing the ninth annual "Make It Yourself" with Wool" contest, the revue brought together top needle-and-needle experts from 15 Western states. With the New Mexico girls are Mrs. Frank McWilliams of Carlsbad (right) and Mrs. Earl Powell (seated) of Puerto de Luna.

Eunice Cops Two In Basketball Festival

By DONNA ZUMWALT

Friday night, Carrizozo lost to Jal 63-57 and Tularosa lost to Eunice 49-28. Skipper Harkey was high point man for Carrizozo with 17 points followed by Jeff Morris with 15 points. Morris played his best game to date. Richard Vega also turned in a good game. Grims led Jal with 23 points. Tularosa's high point man was L. Fairbanks, scoring 11 points. High man for Eunice was Sims with 16.

Saturday night, Carrizozo lost to Eunice 60-41. Tularosa defeated Jal 69-55. In the first quarter of the Grizzies and Eunice game, Carrizozo led 17 to 7. Eunice took the lead in the second quarter. Leading the Grizzies was again Skipper Harkey with 12 points. The Carrizozo B team was put in for the last three minutes of the game. Scott Lewis and Roger Pope showed improvement and also hit several goals. Lewis also stole the ball several times. Sims was high for Eunice with 23 points. High point man for Tularosa was Max Salcedo with 18 points. Grims led Jal with 25.

ZOZO FROSH WIN FROM CORONA 67-51

The Carrizozo Freshman cagers rang up victory number eight of the season Tuesday evening when they overpowered a good Corona five, 67-51, on the Grizzly hardwood.

The handful of spectators on hand for the tilt realized they were in for a scoring festival from the first quarter on as the Grizzlies and Cardinals battled to a 21-21 deadlock at the end of the initial period.

Lewis Greer paved the way for a 37-31 halftime advantage for the Carrizozo red and white cagers when he poured eight field goals through the meshes during the first sixteen minutes of action.

Maxie Saucedo and Emillo Beltran contributed to this scoring cause during the second half and the pint-sized guard Saucedo ended up the evening with 13 tallies, while Beltran counted for 11. Greer walked off with high point honors for the evening with 20 points—all scored from the field.

J. Rieffel matched Greer's high point total for the evening, whipping in 20 points for the Cardinals.

Cortina D'Ampezzo for Vllth Winter Olympics

Washington—In an ancient town set amid snowy rock spires of the Italian Dolomites, the world's best skiers this winter are finding the ultimate in ways of getting to the top of a ski slope—an elevator.

Cortina d'Ampezzo, whose normal population is about 6,000, is the site of the 1956 Olympic Winter Games from January 26 through February 5.

This picturesque village in northeastern Italy, 18 miles from the Austrian border, has gone all out in preparing for the Vllth Games, the National Geographic Society says. Not least among its facilities stands an extraordinary ski jump.

In skiers' early days the chief way of going up a steep hill was a sort of herringbone slog, with skis angled outward and tilted to prevent backsliding. Then came the rope tow. All the skier had to do was hold on. Even more elaborate mechanical aids followed: bar lifts to propel skiers, pulled by a traveling overhead cable; chair lifts that hoist riders off the ground entirely; aerial tramways and even miniature cog railroads.

To ascend the "Italia" Olympic jump near Cortina, however, contestants ride an elevator up a concrete tower. On top there are red and green signal lights signifying "wait" and "jump."

Cortina's Olympic Stadium, holding 10,000 spectators, provides enough ice for two hockey rinks. If the weather turns warm, the ice can be frozen artificially. For speed skating, another stadium has been built at Lake Misurina about eight miles away. A championship 1700-meter bobsled run ends practically in the town square.

Zozo Cubs Grade School Champs

The Carrizozo Cubs broke an eight year reign by the Alamogordo Kittens as Kings of the Alamogordo annual grade school basketball tournament last Saturday evening when the Cubs edged out the Kittens, 25-21, in the final seconds to emerge as champions of the annual basketball carnival.

The Carrizozo five led the Alamogordo cagers until the final minute and a half of play when the Tigers pulled to a 1 point advantage at 24-23. With 3 seconds remaining on the clock, Sammy Hicks, who was elected to the All-Tourney team, along with teammate, Fred Vega, flipped a 20-foot one-handed jump shot through the meshes for the winning 25-24 margin.

The Grizzlies had jumped to a 17-7 halftime lead over the Kittens and led throughout the contest with the exception of the final 65 seconds of play.

GOOD WEED TEAM BEATEN

Carrizozo battled their way into the championship tilt by defeating a "strong Weed five, 35-20, with Benny Herrera and Fred Vega sharing scoring honors with 13 and 12 points respectively. Weed went on from the Carrizozo tilt to defeat Tularosa and Hondo for the consolation championship.

In the semi-final round, Carrizozo jumped to an 81-12 advantage over the Alamogordo Seventh graders, who garnered third place honors in the tourney, to win out by a 34-23 decision.

Fred Vega and Benny Herrera again set the scoring pace with 16 and 10 markers.

In the championship tilt, it was a team scoring combination and an entire team victory with L. Gallegos, Fred Vega, Benny Herrera, Sammy Hicks and Bobby Rickerson turning in their best games to date to win the right to rule as champions of the Ninth Annual Alamogordo Grade School Tourney.

The Carrizozo Cubs will finish their season this Friday evening when they meet the Ruidoso Eighth Grade at 6 in a preliminary before the Ruidoso varsity and "B" team contest.

The Cubs now boast a won-lost record of 7 and 3, with one of these defeats coming at the hands of St. Peter's of Roswell, Freshman team in the Freshman tourney, while Corona turned the trick twice.

JEST IN FUN

We quote from a high school girl's definition of "bolt and nuts" in an exam: "A bolt is a thing like a stick of hard metal such as iron, with a square bunch on one end and a lot of scratches wound around the other end. A nut is similar to the bolt only just the opposite, being a hole in a chunk of iron sawed off short, with wrinkles around the inside of the bolt." She got an "A."

"I'd like to have the rest of the day off," said the mail clerk to the postmaster. "I don't feel very well, and I won't be able to sort the mail."

"Too bad," said the postmaster sympathetically. "Anything serious?"

"Nothing serious," answered the clerk. "I just feel out of sorts."

Natives who beat drums to beat off evil spirits are objects of scorn to smart American motorists who blow horns to break up traffic jams.

HOW MANY STRADIVARI ARE THERE?

Of the estimated 1,116 violins, cellos and violas that Antonio Stradivari made for over sixty years, only 602 of these 18th Century instruments are accounted for today, 540 of them being violins. Only a few, if any, of the remainder are likely to be rediscovered since it is believed most have been destroyed. The violins declared genuine during the past century have all been carefully recorded and determined through a study of model, wood, design, varnish and tone quality.

Gov. Simms Proclaims March 25 as Arbor Day

Governor Simms has proclaimed March 25 as Arbor Day in New Mexico.

The Governor's proclamation reads as follows:

"Whereas, for the continued beauty and liveability of our State of New Mexico in the Land of Enchantment, it is advisable that all who can, shall plant trees on their home property, on their church and school grounds, parks and playgrounds, public grounds, and highways for the benefit of posterity, and

"Whereas, for the benefit of our adult population to give relaxation, rest and peace of mind, for our children, to teach them a true value and beauty, and to instill love and nature, and

"Whereas, the correct use and placement of trees can and will prevent erosion, and in due time, make our rivers things of beauty, now

Therefore, I John F. Simms, Governor of New Mexico, do

1955 Savings Bonds Investments Increase

Residents of Lincoln County invested $123,106 in Series E and H Bonds combined during 1955, according to S. E. Griesen, chairman of the County Savings Bonds Committee. The total of these two Series in 1954 was $101,010.20.

Series E Bonds attracted the largest part of the Savings Bonds investments with $77,606, while $45,500 went into Series H. Of a yearly goal of $116,000 set up a year ago, this County was credited with sales of 106.1% of that amount. Residents of New Mexico achieved 93.2% of their $14,800,000 goal for 1955 or $14,534,283, an increase of 17% over the total for 1954 and 34.1% over that for 1953.

hereby proclaim March 25, 1956, to be recognized as Arbor Day and urge all citizens to assist in every way possible in recognizing Arbor Day throughout the State of New Mexico."

The Lordsburg Mavericks edged out the Captain Tigers, 51 to 49, in Lordsburg Saturday night.

Captain held a 30-31 lead at the end of the third quarter, but the Mavericks pulled ahead in the final minutes.

Meek Pace, with 24 points, led the Mavericks scorers, followed by Jimmy Williams with nine.

Captain's leading scorers were R. G. Stewart and Penny McKnight, who had 12 points each, followed by Joe Gallegos, 11.

Ever wonder what "Santa Fe" means?

Back in 1901, about 40 years after the Santa Fe Railway was founded, the ancient Indian Cross-within-a-Circle design was placed in a square and the assembly was adopted as the official trademark of the young railroad.

The words "Santa Fe" mean Holy Faith. Today, that faith and vision in America's future have built the Santa Fe Railway System into a vital network of steel, linking the West,

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Miller of Alamogordo and Joy, their daughter, who is in college in Las Cruces were home this past week end. It is nice to have you home again. Joy had a mid term vacation.

Tom Guck, Dick Cox, Billy Ferguson and Willie Ferguson of State College were home for the mid term; also Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Werner.

NOGAL NEWS

By MRS. RALPH DUNLAP

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dale McDaniel on the arrival of their new son.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer McDaniel spent a few days last week with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dell McDaniel of Deming.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilham spent Friday to Monday in Yuma visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Stortz. Bobby returned home with them.

It is so nice to have our neighbors back with us. Mrs. Jennie Johnson of El Paso brought Mr. and Mrs. L. R. LaMay home Friday. Sunday several members of the family visited them.

Mrs. Paul Aguayo of Belen will stay to help her mother for awhile. Welcome home, neighbors.

While welcoming back one neighbor we have lost another. Mr. and Mrs. Herald Pope and son Roger are now living in Carrizozo. They have leased the Reil Motel. Good luck in your new venture.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Peacock Sr. were over from Truth or Consequences for one day last week.

Mrs. Pearl Stearns left Saturday for San Angelo, Texas, to spend a week with her daughter, Erma and husband, Mrs. Beulah Hartley is taking care of the post office during her absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Frye, Judy and Tommy, Mary Nell Ferrill and son Lester Allan were Nogal visitors from Hermanson over the week end. Mary Nell is going to stay with the Randall Greens and help Opal. So nice to have you back with us, Mary Nell.

Mrs. Marie Walker and family of Capitan were Sunday afternoon callers at the Ralph Dunlap home. Mrs. Walker reported her father had had an operation but is doing as well as can be expected.

There is to be a meeting Thursday at 3 at the home of Mrs. A. B. Zumwalt to see if we can reactivate our Auxiliary.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred English and family went to the Santa Fe basin to ski over the week end.

250th Anniversary Of Benjamin Franklin

Washington — January 17 marked the 250th birthday of the patriot, statesman, scientist, inventor, businessman, musician and humanitarian who referred to himself simply as B. Franklin, printer.

Benjamin Franklin's unbelievably varied gifts to America and the world was internationally acclaimed last month by scores of organizations with a Franklin tradition, the National Geographic Society says.

His talents ranged far beyond the role he played abroad as champion of the American colonies before and during the Revolutionary War.

From a Horatian Alger start as a poor boy in Boston, he won business success in Philadelphia and retired affluent at age 42. Thereafter he plunged into life-long interests with but a single regret: "I wish the good Lord had seen fit to make each day just twice as long as it is. Perhaps then I could really accomplish something."

Accomplishments Piled Up — The world soon took note of his works. Though not a physician, he invented medical instruments still in use today. He introduced bifocal spectacles. He developed a device for showing circulation of the blood and launched studies into the contagious nature of colds and influenza and the cause of lead poisoning. Inoculation for smallpox was among his projects. He was appointed by the Court of France, to investigate hypnosis.

It was Ben Franklin who introduced mineral fertilizers to the American colonies. He brought in Swiss barley, rye, Scotch kale and turnips, terming farming "the most honorable of all employments, the most useful in itself and rendering man the most independent."

Meanwhile, his observations on the Gulf Stream, weather forecasting, whirlwinds, storms, trade winds and waterspouts were far advanced for his time. Watching early balloon flights in France, Franklin speculated on man's eventual mastery of the air.

His papers on the theory of the earth, magnetism and density, drew keen attention from contemporaries in science. In 1752, with his famous kite and key, he proved that lightning was electricity. He invented the lightning rod and introduced electrical terms.

Invented the Harmonica — While scientists noted his experiments, famous musicians esteemed him as a musician. He invented a type of harmonica, using musical glasses, and could play as well the harp, guitar and violin. A music pub-

Check Alfalfa for Aphids Now

Alfalfa growers should check their stands for spotted alfalfa aphids. The warm days we've been having are perfect for aphid build-ups, and the aphids have really been taking advantage of them. Cold nights, with the temperature far below freezing, doesn't affect them in the least.

The aphids are very small insects which live in colonies on the undersides of the leaves. They are grayish-yellow to yellow in color and range from 1/64 to 1/16 of an inch in length. Several tiny rows of spots run the length of the abdomen. Both winged and wingless forms are found on the alfalfa plants.

When the aphids are actively feeding they secrete small drops of honeydew, which makes the leaves sticky. The honeydew is often so plentiful that shoes and pants cuffs will be covered with the sticky substance after walking through an infested field.

Examine several plants closely to find out whether the aphids are present. Because of their size, you have to get down on your hands and knees and carefully turn over several leaves on a number of plants. If you find aphid colonies on two or three leaves of every ten examined and the aphids are producing honeydew, it's time to control them with insecticides.

BHC applied as a 2% (gamma isomer) dust at the rate of 25 pounds per acre (or as a spray at the rate of one-half pound actual gamma isomer BHC per acre) gives good control when applied on a warm still day. Methyl parathion applied at one-fourth pound actual per acre also gives effective control during cold weather, but is more hazardous to use and doesn't have the residual action of BHC. However, methyl parathion is more effective than BHC at low temperatures.

lisher, he composed many popular lyrics.

Most famed in publishing circles for Poor Richard's Almanac, Franklin is credited with publishing the first novel printed in America, and as the first publisher to illustrate a news story. In Philadelphia he founded fire and insurance companies, hospitals, the University of Pennsylvania; and he developed the renowned Franklin stove.

Near his life's end, a letter from George Washington bespoke his stature: "If to be venerated for benevolence, if to be admitted for talents, if to be esteemed for patriotism, if to be beloved for philanthropy, can gratify the human mind, you must have the pleasing consolation to know that you have not lived in vain."

Carrizozo Grade School News
 By SELMA TRACUZ
 Last Wednesday afternoon at 3:50 our local N.M.E.A. of teachers met in the Home Economics room for our regular monthly meeting. It was called to order by our local president, Clyde Shultz. Our secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Simpson read the minutes of last month's meeting which were approved as read. Supt. R. G. Firman gave us an interesting talk and made some important announcements. We voted for a spring school carnival and Supt. R. G. Firman appointed a committee to make plans: Coach Willis, Mrs. Simpson and Ruthie Mae Nix. Proceeds from the carnival will be used to make a payment on new drapes and curtains for our newly decorated auditorium. Mr. Shultz appointed Principal Crider, Mrs. Grace White and Mrs. Chisholm to serve on a program committee for our local Association. Mrs. Palrah and Miss Abeyta served Cokes and ice cream sandwiches. Miss Nell reports a new boy in her third grade room. He is Thomas Morse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morse, who are here with the U. S. Army at Red Canyon. Bobby Herrera reported back to Miss Nell's third grade room after being ill and in the hospital for a few days. Mrs. Julia Firman substituted for Mrs. Rasmussen, third grade teacher, last Friday. She was absent from school because of illness. Several of our children are ill and out of school this week. Miss Nix, Fourth grade teacher, has two new boys, Donald and Robert Halley from Glenn Burnie, Md., who are here with the U. S. Army at Red Canyon. Mrs. Palrah has a new cork bulletin board in her fifth grade room that cost $35. Our principal, Mr. Crider, purchased the board with money out of our ice cream fund.

ANCHO BRIEFS
Pink and Blue Shower For Barbara Harkey
 A pink and blue shower was given for Barbara Harkey on the 24th by Vernelle Hightower. After several pencil games, the guests watched "Queen For a Day" on television. At the close of the TV program Barbara was presented with a huge bundle announcing she was "Queen For a Day." After the gifts were opened, delicious refreshments were served. Guests were Mrs. Elbert Brown, Mrs. Fred Sweet and Mrs. Bob Bond of Carrizozo; the Meses, June Straley, Geo. Straley, W. B. Lindsay, Walt Wilson, E. I. Harkey, Howard Harkey, the honored guest, Mrs. B. A. Hightower, and the hostess Mrs. J. A. Hightower. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Straley were home for the week end. Walter Brinnisford has been moved from Hotel Dieu to St. Francis Hospital in Carlsbad. There he will be near his parents. Walter is still a very sick boy but shows improvement. His sister, Mrs. J. A. Hightower, returned home Sunday night. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson of Carrizozo, were recent visitors at the George Straley Ranch. Mrs. June Straley was a week end visitor in El Paso. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hightower attended the bull sale in Roswell after going to Carlsbad for a visit with the L. V. Payne. George Straley, Tommy Knight and Oris Smith attended the bull show and sale in Roswell Thursday and Friday. Miss Barbara Funkhouser of Las Cruces spent several days last week with the Knight family. Barbara has recently returned to Las Cruces from Chicago where she has been at work with 4-H clubs. Pete Straley and Gary Mills of New Mexico A&M are at the George Straley ranch during the semester vacation. While here they made a business trip to Texas, returning Sunday. Mrs. W. B. Lindsay went to El Paso for a visit with her children. Mr. Lindsay will go for her on his two days off from the Luna pump station. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lopez of Morenci, Ariz., are visiting their daughter, Viola, and their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salamon Aragon. They plan to return Sunday. The Waymond Lightfoot family of E.P.N.G. Co. were Saturday guests of the Price Millers at their ranch home east of Ancho. The country boy, doing a hauling job, was told that he wouldn't get his money until he submitted a statement. After much meditation, he produced the following bill: "Three comes and three goes, at four bits a went, $3."

HONDO SCHOOL NEWS
Beatrice Gomez Plays With All-State Band
 Beatrice Gomez of the junior class of Hondo High School participated in the meeting of the All-State Band in Santa Fe on January 27 and 28 at Santa Fe. J. B. Lara, band director, made the trip with her. Under the direction of Mr. Sawhill, director of bands from U.C.L.A., 180 high school musicians from 41 schools in the state performed. These students were previously auditioned by a group of university men, and they worked six hours daily at practice, while attending this meeting. On March 16 and 17 Beatrice Gomez and Stella Freguez will be members of the American Bandmasters Association at a convention in Santa Fe. Student representatives at this meeting are state-wide picked and are representative of high school musicians from all over the United States. A part of the events taking place at this convention will be a concert by these students in conjunction with the U. S. Air Force Band.

DIANA MONTEZ RECEIVES BETTY CROCKER AWARD
 Before a student assembly of Hondo High School on January 26 Diana Montez, daughter of Supt. and Mrs. Fermin S. Montez, was presented the annual Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award. Mrs. Hazel Arthurs of the Home Economics Department presented her with the golden award pin designed by TIFAF. The school receives a Betty Crocker Good and Easy Cookbook. The recipient of the award scored highest in a written examination which tested the homemaking knowledge and attitudes of the members of the senior class. By winning this Diana's name will be entered in competition with other state winners. On April 12 the national winner will be named in Philadelphia. This program, sponsored by General Mills, is designed to help the schools build a deeper appreciation and understanding of the American home in young women. Each state winner in the contest will receive a $1500 educational scholarship and an educational trip to Washington, D. C., Williamsburg, Va., and Philadelphia.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY
 On Thursday, Jan. 26, the third grade pupils of the Hondo Schools, assisted by their mothers, surprised Mrs. Niggl Threet their teacher with a television birthday party in the home of Preston and Harold Radcliff, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Carl P. Radcliff, Hondo. After watching the Pinky Lee

News of the County Episcopal Churches
 A lay reader training session was conducted Tuesday night, January 31, by Rev. Charles L. Conder, Vicar, at Holy Mount Episcopal Church in Ruidoso. Recently commissioned as Lay Readers for Lincoln County by Bishop J. M. Stoney, were Messrs. Edward Penfield of Lincoln, Bart Payne of Picacho, Dan Storm of Glencoe, Henry Shier of Hollywood and Charles A. Culver of Ruidoso. The office of reader is very ancient in the Church. Lay readers besides reading Scripture Lessons in regular services, may also conduct certain offices in the absence of an ordained minister. Lay Readers are in charge of the services of the Church of the Holy Mount on the 1st, 3rd and 5th Sundays. The Episcopal Church in the U. S. A. has 3,022 lay readers and 7,367 ordained clergy. Confirmation instruction is given every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at Holy Mount Church and privately by appointment. Women's Auxiliaries will meet Tuesday, Feb. 14, with the Fort Stanton group holding a Valentine Party at the Truman Spencer, Jr. ranch near Carrizozo in the evening. Ruidoso-Glencoe group meets in the morning. Thursday morning classes are being planned for Lent in homes in Carrizozo. Rev. C. L. Conder states with Ash Wednesday service starting off Lent at Fort Stanton chapel at 10 a.m.

Show, and after Mrs. Threet opened her many birthday presents, delicious punch and birthday cake were served to the following: John Sanchez, Bennie Romero, Estelita Montoya, Tommy Rogers, Beatrice Gonzales, Michael Montez, Drew Hamilton, Virgie Sanchez, Louise Harrington, Kathleen Kimbrell, Tito Salcido, Eddie Montes, Joe Torrez, Albert Sedillo, Alan Henderson, Irene Richardson, Stella Ortega, Virginia Gutierrez, Jimmie Rue, Eloy Torrez, Joanna Phillips, Paul Sedillo, Tony Benavidez, George Nunez, Kathleen Sanchez, Preston and Harold Radcliff. The mothers sharing the happy occasion were: Mrs. John Hamilton and Webb, Mrs. R. C. Nunez and Caroline, Mrs. Ignacio Torrez and Albert, Mrs. Joe Phillips and Bessie, Mrs. Fred Torrez and Charles, Mesdames Dudley Rue, James W. Henderson, Carl P. Radcliff, and the honoree, Mrs. Threet. Mrs. A. N. Kimbrell, also a room mother, furnished transportation for the group from the school and return.

Incidents of Rhodes' Life in N. M. Magazine
 Eugene Manlove Rhodes' name as a writer of western stories continues to grow, but fifty years ago it rested on his being an A-1 cowboy and man of influence in New Mexico ranch life. Dramatic incidents in the life of the famous author are interestingly recounted in an article about "Dick Gilliland, Pioneer Cowboy," by Emily K. Lovell, in the February issue of New Mexico Magazine. Dick Gilliland was associated with Rhodes in ranch work, the author relates. One incident had to do with the mysterious disappearance of Judge Albert J. Fountain and his young son, Henry, in 1895. Rhodes figured in the surrender of Oliver Lee and Jim Gilliland as suspects in the case. They were tried and cleared of suspicion. The surrender was made to Judge Parker, of Las Cruces, who arranged for the men at the Socorro jail. Another article in New Mexico Magazine for February features "Ruidoso's Old Mill," by Virginia Chappell. It tells of Captain Paul Dowlin and his picturesque water-wheel mill around which the settlement of Ruidoso was built. The doughty captain had worked up a good business when he got himself killed in a gun duel. The old mill has been rehabilitated, and tourists can buy packets of flour just large enough for a batch of muffins, with recipe attached.

Li. John S. Oldham
 Quantico, Va. (FHTNC)—Having completed a five-months off-icer basic course in December at Quantico, Va., Marine and Lt. John S. Oldham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Oldham of Tinnie and husband of the former Miss Rachel R. Schoenhals of Follett, Texas, has been transferred to Pensacola, Fla. The basic course, conducted at the Marine Corps Schools, qualifies newly commissioned lieutenants for command of infantry platoons and staff duties.

Historical sidelights: The old mill building became a rendezvous for meetings and dances, where such personalities as Billy the Kid, Pat Garrett and Lt. John J. Pershing used to cavort.

Corona Cardinals Win 14th Game of Season

The Corona Cardinals won their 14th game of the season Saturday night over Stanley by a 59-23 score. The Cardinals "B" team did not have a game because of illness, but the "B" saw action in half of the "A" game. Corona's record is now 14-2. The Cardinals play Mountainair Friday night and Estaneta Saturday night. Fifteen boys played in the Stanley game with Huey netting 18 points and Gilbert Bryan 18.

The March of Dimes Collection to date is $139.30.

A truck load of elk from the Chama region were due at Corona Tuesday to supplement elk already in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Holt Lovelace and daughter left Monday for Portales where Holt will attend E.N.M.U.

Bud Fulton of San Francisco with his mother, Mrs. W. C. Fulton, visited Corona friends on Monday. The Fultons farmed in the Cedarvale and Corona communities in the days when beans were an important source of farm income.

A large crowd attended family night at the Presbyterian Church January 24. Mrs. Ada Hester and Mrs. Johnny Bond were co-hostesses. A varied program of music followed the supper.

The Presbyterian Fellowship met in the home of Sue Sharp recently for their regular Wednesday evening meeting.

Mrs. W. S. Dishman and Mrs. Vick spent a short time in Clovis and Portales. Joanne Atkinson accompanied them home for a few days' visit between semesters at E.N.M.U.

Friends of Ralph Simpson of Vaughn are glad to know he is improving following an accident in which his right hand was seriously injured. He made a second trip to the Roswell hospital where it was necessary to re-break and reset two broken fingers. The accident occurred while he was working on a well.

Mrs. W. M. Pfeiffer will accompany her daughter, Sally and friends on a trip to Houston, Texas. The girls are taking part in installation services for a new chapter of Alpha Delta Pi, the national sorority to which Sally belongs at U.N.M. Mr. and Mrs. Casey made a business trip to El Paso, Texas last week.

Corona Boxers Score at Artesia

The boxing tournament sponsored by the Artesia Optimist Club at the Junior High School gymnasium last Tuesday night featured 15 bouts, with a well trained Corona team chopping 6 out of the 15 for the highest win percentage.

One of the best fights of the evening saw Sheldon Dickie of Corona win a TKO over Joe Morales of Artesia in the 144-lb. weight division.

Carlos Torral, Artesia won a split decision over Billy Wolland, 112, of Corona. Tony Marend, 121, of Artesia lost to Jimmy Bussy, 122, of Corona.

In the 164-pound class Larry Sharp won a first round TKO over Billy Page of Artesia. Merle Petross, 125, of Corona with an odd weaving stunt won a decision over Johnny Baca, 122, of Artesia.

Donald Petross won a decision over Leslie Sharp, both fighters of Corona.

Joe Cruz, Roswell, lost to Johnny Erramouspe, 83, of Corona in a well fought fight.

Billy Thorpe of Portales, put on a good exhibit with Jim Strickland, coach of the Corona boxing team.

Mrs. Gladys Burgess is receiving treatment in the hospital at Carrizozo.

The Corona Seniors presented their play on January 27. There was quite a large crowd. Everyone seemed to enjoy it very much.

ROSE SITTON HOSPITALIZED

Mrs. Rose Sitton was hospitalized this week when she fell in her home, breaking an arm and a leg. She was reported resting comfortably at the Carrizozo hospital Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McClune of Stafford, Kans., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lemon. They were on route to Tucuman, where they will spend a month. Mrs. McClune is a cousin of Mr. Lemon.

February Designated As "Heart Month"

February is Heart Month in Lincoln County.

Leading citizens of this county are helping the New Mexico Heart Assn. with a campaign to raise funds for heart research and further education on what can be done about heart disease. Seaborn F. Collins of Las Cruces, former national commander of the American Legion, is state chairman of the Heart Fund campaign. He points out that heart disease and circulatory ailments are responsible for nearly 800,000 deaths in this country annually, or about 52% of all deaths, and that these diseases affect about 10 million Americans in all, including 500,000 children.

Many thousands of lives could be saved if Americans would only consult their physicians at the first sign of heart disease. It is mostly unjustified fear—fear of death or a lifetime of invalidism—that makes us ignore these warnings. Your Heart Association this month asks you to substitute hope for fear. Here are five hopeful facts that everyone should know:

1. Some forms of heart disease can be prevented, a few cured.
2. All heart cases can be cared for best if diagnosed early.
3. Almost every heart condition can be helped by proper treatment.
4. Most heart patients can keep working — often at the same job.
5. Your "symptom" may not mean heart disease. Don't guess. See your doctor and be sure.

GERTRUDE WATSON WEDS FLOYD ALLEN

Gertrude Watson of Corona and Floyd H. Allen of Vaughn were married by Justice of the Peace Clarence Shaw in Carrizozo last Friday, Jan. 27. Guests at the ceremony from Corona were Mrs. A. E. Yancey, Terriene Yancey, Sharon Yancey and Joy Willingham.

Out-of-town guests were Nita Northington of Egypt, Texas, and Stanley Allen, son of the bridegroom, from Vaughn.

The bride looked lovely in a powder-blue suit with black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses on her suit lapel. Mrs. Allen owns and operates the Corona Service Station. Mr. Allen is a switchman for the Santa Fe Railway in Vaughn. The couple is residing in Corona at present.

Week end guests of Miss Dorothy Kerr were Mrs. F. T. Massey of Memphis, Tenn.; Miss Jean Sutherland of Booneville, Miss.; Mrs. Eileen Adkinson and son David of Artesia and Miss Julia Kerr of Carlsbad, N. M.

High School Students In Conference Panel

A youth conference and institute is being held February 2 and 3 in Las Cruces.

Taking part in a panel discussion Thursday on "The Mutual Problems of Youth and Adults and the Youth's Place in the Community" were Margo Duncan, Carrizozo High School student; Henry Grannis, Tucuman High School and Nyles Lackey, Ruidoso High School; also Fermin Montes, superintendent, Hondo Schools.

Dr. Roger Corbett, president of New Mexico A&M College, was to address the conference Friday on "The College and the Community."

Among those planning to attend the conference from Carrizozo were Mrs. Nell Craig, Manuel Chavez, Wendell Watson and Ralph Petty.

What happened to the contingent of the New Mexico Guard that was supposed to bivouac in Carrizozo last Friday? The Carrizozo Lions Club made reservations for sleeping, accommodations for ten men and arranged for meals at the Yucca Grill and Steak House. Sleeping quarters were generously donated and reserved by the Ortiz Brown, Frontier Motel and Mrs. Vincent Bell. It happened there was a shortage of accommodations in town that night due to the visiting basketball teams.

The Guard did not arrive, nor has anyone here heard of the whereabouts of the ten-man detail that was supposed to be headed for Carrizozo to help with the March of Dimes. Whatever the reason, Carrizozo is entitled to an explanation and an apology.

How much would you give for a historic old school bell? The bell, located in the old Hondo High School building, is to be sold to the highest bidder on February 13, 1956. Bids on the bell will be received by the Board of Education of the Hondo Schools up until the date set for opening bids. For particulars, see page 4, this issue of the News.

Some one will win a calf during half-time at the basketball game in Carrizozo Saturday night. The calf is being given away by the Senior Class as a fund-raising project.

A letter to the Carrizozo Recreation Committee, written by Glenda Sue King, secretary of the Carrizozo High School Student Council, requests permission to "send some delegates to attend your next meeting. If this can be arranged, we would certainly appreciate it."

In its February "Crop Report" the Santa Fe Railway states that "Although ranges are dry in New Mexico, conditions are better than they have been since 1950, with only a limited amount of supplement being used. Sheep are in good to very good condition in New Mexico."

Inside the Capital

NEW MEXICO POLITICS DOUBLE TALKING AGAIN

SANTA FE, Feb. 1.—New Mexico officials in Santa Fe and Washington are getting in a difficult spot on their talking and their doing.

The economic development commission, prize new pet of the administration has come out with a proposal to assist the areas where employment and business activity are down.

At the same time the state is taking up consideration of closing the TB San at quiet little Socorro because the plant has not been kept up to date, and closing the Fort Stanton hospital that is so important to Lincoln County because it is too far away from a medical center, and putting the whole works in already overflowing Albuquerque.

In Washington Sen. Dennis Chavez has been talking for a measure for federal assistance for depressed areas and at the same was quoted in the Hobbs press as having promised a new air base for that petroleum capital of New Mexico. Depressed Tucuman a little ways north, and other communities in the troubled northeastern part of the state had been frantic in their efforts to get the installation.

RICH-GET-RICHER AND POOR-HUNGRIER

The extremes between depression and boom in New Mexico have become so severe that poverty areas are developing across county lines from the richest, fastest growing places in the country.

The northwestern part of the state jumping with gas and uranium, the oil rich southeastern part of the state, and Albuquerque, are among the half-dozen brightest economic spots in America.

Prolonged drought, and lack of private or public business stimulation have made the northeastern portion of state and some of the Rio Grande counties distress areas. It is reflected in heavy relief loads, unemployment, dropping school attendance, public health problems that are getting worse while the rich get richer.

THE SITUATION NOT HOPELESS

The thinking but no action program being discussed by a few in the capitol would assist the distressed areas by immediate-road construction, it has to be done some time; by easing bank credit for home and farm loans under a 1953 law authorizing the use of state money for federally guaranteed mortgages; encouragement of hospital construction with state and federal funds; school building construction through the hoped for federal aid program; first consideration for these areas in the establishment of new state institutions.

A major part of such a program calls for the state economic development commission to give its entire attention to the suffering areas for the establishment of new payrolls before lavishing more riches on the already rich parts of the state.

SCHOOL TEACHERS GET SOME RELIEF

The difference between the poor and the rich has gone so far that the so-called "equalization" method of paying school teachers is allowing 35% less for poor county teachers than the lucky ones in neighboring counties.

This was alleviated a little last week when state school authorities authorized $100 bonuses for 978 teachers in Socorro, Harding, Lincoln, Mora, Sandoval, Taos, Torrance and San Miguel. The teachers were denied raises at the first of the year because local taxes weren't producing enough. The bonuses were granted from state funds when state-level revenue proved to be higher than anticipated.

FAVORITISM DEALS DISCOURAGE BIDS

One of the most serious consequences of the state buying from favorites rather than low bidders is the discouragement of suppliers from entering the competition for state business.

Even now after State Democratic Treasurer Paul Huss said that he had sold his Southwestern office equipment company these are suppliers who do not enter bids if the firm is participating. They also are learning that it is futile to compete for business on which the purchasing agent has been forced to call for bids after proposing to give the business to a participating firm.

In three recent cases of that type the business went to the original favorites although in two of the transactions the firms did not offer the lowest price. GHOSTS LEAVING VOTING LISTS

The ghostly aspects of the next state election (primary, May 8) should be alleviated by the clean-up of the registration lists that is expected to remove the names of more than 70,000 dead, removed and otherwise disqualified voters. With six counties still incomplete the purge this week stood at 64,000, about 15% of all those registered.

Valencia with work still incomplete had knocked off 21,150 leaving 11,233 registered; Valon purged 389 leaving 4028; Socorro struck off 1675 leaving 5750; Sierra 1025 leaving 4067; Rio Arriba was incomplete with 418 purged leaving 15,034; Luna struck 553 leaving 4367; Lincoln 520 leaving 3688; Harding 200 leaving 1281; Colfax 1643 leaving 7268.

Donna Ana with a 42% purge of 9000 names, Roosevelt with 46% purge of 5000, and San Miguel with a 35% purge of 6217 were the top cutters.

FREE PRIMARY BIDS LOOM FOR SOME

Democratic critics of John Simms have almost despaired of bringing out a strong candidate against him in the primary. Four others look like they might have a free ride to renomination — School Superintendent Georgia Eusk, Treasurer Joe Grant, State Secretary Natalie Buck and Justice Cleve Compton. Next Monday is the last day for changing party affiliation for the primary election.

Last Word in Comfort

Elegance, privacy, and up-to-the-minute convenience are the keynotes of this attractive ranch-style house.

Architect Rudolph A. Matern of Jamaica, L.I., N.Y., has separated the sleeping, working, and living areas for efficient household activity and gracious entertaining.

Completely equipped, the kitchen is a housewife's dream. Dryer and washer are located at one end of the room, separated from the work area by a snack bar. Refrigerator, freezer and oven are set in.

The sunken living room has a ponderosa pine bay window that frames a planted area. A large wood-burning fireplace adds to the friendly atmosphere.

The master bedroom suite has a complete bath, a walk-in closet, and a built-in vanity. A built-in wood-paneled bedroom serves both the bedrooms and the bath.

There is a sun room, an attached garage with storage closets and a work bench, abundant closet space throughout, and a full basement.

The exterior of the house is warm and impressive. Vertical boards on the gable ends add height. Pastel painted shingles emphasize the feeling of brightness and unify the exterior decoration.

The architect suggests that a half 4 inches of mineral wool insulation be installed in the attic and 2 inches in the walls for economy and comfort in winter and summer.

The house has 1,647 square feet of floor space and should be placed on a lot at least 100 feet square.

This plan is from the Executive Plan Book. Descriptions and specifications are available at 1000 Broadway, N.Y. 10018. Call for plan No. 502.
