Ramblin' Around Lincoln County

Tape Recorded Interviews With People Who Helped Build Lincoln County

ANDREW J. MCBRAY

My name is Andrew J. McBrayer. I was born in White Oaks, February 16, 1893. I lived in White Oaks until I was about two months old. We then moved to Jicarilla. My father was mining there. He had some claims and built a log cabin. We lived there until I was about 23 years old.

I worked around in different places in Lincoln County. I worked a while in White Oaks in a coal mine and in the mill. Then I spent quite a bit of my time around Nogal, with some of my relations. I worked for my grandfather part of the time, Martin May. In June of 1918 I moved to Carrizozo. I went to work for the railroad company and worked there until the first of June this last year.

My father came from Missouri to Colorado in about 1873. He lived in Colorado for 17 years doing mining and also homesteading in a little place called Gypsum. That was about 1883. My father's name was Willis Erving McBrayer. In about 1891 he sold this little farm at Gypsum and came to White Oaks. He stayed around White Oaks a short time and then he got interested in the Jicarilla country. He went over there and got some mining claims. Shortly after he went to Jicarilla he met my mother and they were married in Jicarilla.

Her maiden name was Liddy May. She was the daughter of Martin May. She came here from Springfield, Mo., in about 1884 by wagon train. There were several families came at that time. Several Mays and some Browns, and I think the Daltons and quite a few others. My mother and Mrs. Maggie Brown Espy are first cousins. There were the Huts, (the father of Marlon, Elmer and George). There were many people in that wagon train. Quite a few are still living in the country now, I suppose.

I lived in Jicarilla until I was about 23 years old and went to school in a log cabin up there. I walked a mile and a half across the mountain to the school house. They only had short term schools, about five months each summer. In the winter time it snowed in those days. It doesn't anymore.

Mrs. Stonerod was my first teacher. The second one was Miss Pearsil. There was one Mrs. Ruidisell. She was a well known lady at the time in White Oaks. Her husband was in some business there in White Oaks. She taught there one term. Albert Ross was one of my schoolmates. He was about the same age as I was and another was Maurice Brookton and he had two brothers. He was a little bit older. Also the Reasoner family. They are well known. Also the Prieses—Floyd, Cecil and Irene. They lived up there and had some mining claims.

My father dug a tunnel, or a mine shaft some might call it. This one was a little over 500 feet deep and it's still there. I held on to it for several years then I sold it to another party. He found some gold there but not in paying quantities. There were several drifts and probably 1500 feet of more work for this one tunnel. He did all of this work by himself. That was from 1881 until up into the twenties. He died here in 1923 and is buried in the Jicarilla Cemetery. My mother is also buried there and one of my oldest sisters and one brother. He died here in Carrizozo.

Jicarilla was a nice little community in the early days. One of the families who lived there were the Rosses that I mentioned. There were four Ross girls and this boy Albert I spoke of. Two of the girls were older. I got a Christmas card from one of them this year—Nellie Hill, who lives in California. The other girls I've lost track of. I think they did live around Los Angeles. There was one who lived at Mountainair for a long time. She married Ed Wheeler. That was Lila. Albert died several years ago. Then there was the Reasoner family. They had a big family. Ted Reasoner married a girl who was a school teacher. Her name was Pearl Taylor. I think she still lives down in Bowie, Texas. I believe she was the last teacher I had.

We only had five months terms and it takes quite a few years for a fellow to get up to the eighth grade. In most cases we advanced one-half a grade. I went to the eighth grade when I quit. They didn't have any high school there in those days. Then I helped my father mine.

AN UNSOLVED MURDER

The unsolved Peeler murder happened about 1900. I was about 7 years old. The old man was killed one night. He had a small store and a log cabin down the canyon from where we lived about a mile.

One night about 9 o'clock someone came to the door and knocked and he hardly ever opened the door to anyone unless he recognized the voice. He opened the door and someone shot him and covered him up with a mattress and piled flour up at one of the windows. They took his money and some gold and anything they could find of value and made away with it. That night there came a light snow and covered up all of the tracks and the officer who was in charge of the county those days didn't ever find any trace of the murderer.

Stolen Car Spree Ends for Youths

Transportation across the state by means of stolen cars came to an end for two youths Wednesday when they were arrested by Capt. E. A. Tafaya of the State Police at Magdalena.

They were James Ray Burris, 14, of Muskogee, Okla., and Joe Earl Ward, 15, of Chickasha, Okla. Sheriff W. G. Bradley informed the News Wednesday that the youths admitted committing seven felonies in this state and about the same number in Oklahoma since they embarked on their wild escapade a few days ago.

Sheriff Bradley entered the case Tuesday when a Pontiac was abandoned in Carrizozo and another car, a '49 Ford was stolen. The Ford belonged to Sgt. Paul Blount of the Red Canyon Range Camp.

The story, as it was unfolded by Sheriff Bradley, follows: The youths were escapees from the Oklahoma reformatory. They drove a stolen car from Atoka, Okla., to Eunice, where they abandoned it in favor of the Pontiac which was later abandoned in Carrizozo. The Ford stolen here was exchanged in Socorro for a '53 Chevrolet and the youths started west on Highway US 60.

Near Magdalena they became lost and damaged the car on a dirt road. They were able to drive it to the Adobe ranch where they entered a bunk house, stole clothing, a 22 rifle and about $20 in cash.

Three miles from the ranch they abandoned the car and picked up a ride on a gas truck. The driver, becoming suspicious, reported the youths to authorities after they had taken a hotel room. Their arrest followed.

The youths admitted stealing eight cars and breaking into a grocery store in Oklahoma and a house in Eunice. They will probably be returned to authorities in Atoka.

Ralph Dunlap and Mrs. Marie Walker attended the 4-H Leaders Short Course held at Howell Friday and Saturday.

DENTAL OFFICE OPENS FRIDAY

With the opening this Friday of the new dental offices of Dr. A. L. Sadowksi, dental services is again available to the people of Carrizozo and neighboring communities in Lincoln County.

Dr. Sadowksi announces that for the present his office will be open Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from 9 to 5. The dental building is located at 10th and E ave. in Carrizozo on the southeast corner of the hospital block.

The building has a reception room, business office, two operating rooms, one with an X-ray, a private office and consultation room, laboratory, dark room, utility room and rest room. The reception room, business office and consultation rooms have wall-to-wall carpeting. Asphalt tile is used on the floors of the other rooms. Wall tints are in citron, light caprice, pink mist and melody. Central heating is gas fired.

The latest in dental equipment has been provided by Dr. Sadowksi.

Among 27 students making the first semester honor roll at New Mexico Western College are Kayette Edington, a sophomore, of Capitan and Joe Joe Picture, senior, of Carrizozo.

With the arrival in Carrizozo last week of 1175 young hens, Leandro Vega and sons, have started operation of a business to produce eggs and poultry on a big stream-lined production scale.

The new poultry plant is said to be the only one in New Mexico having this improved setup for producing, grading and classifying eggs.

Individual wire cages for each hen are arranged in rows in a well lighted, ventilated building 24 feet wide and 180 feet long. It is located in town, southeast of the Southern Pacific depot.

The young hens are a hybrid variety, known as DeKalbs and will start production within a few weeks.

Records kept on hens of this variety indicate a production record of 240 eggs per bird a year over a 16-month period. Records are kept on the daily egg production of each hen.

When the birds have finished their cage operation of approximately 16 months they are marketed for meat and are said to be tastier than broilers and as easy to fry as chickens sold as commercial fryers.

The cage operation set up by L. Vega and Sons has been in cooperation with T. L. Krattil, regional salesman for General Mills in New Mexico and West Texas. A balanced ration of Larro poultry feed is kept before the hens at all times.

Besides having high-energy feed before them, a tray of water runs through all the cages. The eggs when laid, will roll from the cages to a wire shelf for easy pickup.

All eggs will be graded and candled to meet the specifications of the New Mexico Egg Inspection Department at State College. It is expected that 90% of the eggs produced will be of double AA grade premium quality. The remainder will be classified into grades of A large, A medium, A small, B, C, checks and dritties.

Mr. Krattil explained that the reason for putting the hens in cages is that production can be controlled more efficiently than when the hens are on the floor. A ten-year study made in California, he says, showed that cage birds made $1.87 more per bird per year than hens kept on the floor. The operation in Carrizozo, he stressed, is strictly a quality egg program.

The hens were brought to Carrizozo from San Angelo, Texas. Their arrival was delayed a week due to the storm.

Wool Growers To Pool Product

A committee of growers, meeting Monday decided, after much discussion, to pool wool into staple, combing and clothing lines. These lines will be sold as a group. An official coretest will be used to figure the amount of money due each grower in the line wool sold. The growers will act as a committee to accept or reject any bid on this line wool.

Due to the fast approaching shearing season, another meeting is called for Sunday, Feb. 26, at 1 p.m., in the courthouse at Carrizozo. Any growers interested in marketing wool in this group should be present at the meeting, or send, in writing a letter to the County Agent Ralph Dunlap, telling of his interest. He should tell approximately how many sheep he is planning to shear, date of shearing, and kind of sheep.

Members present at the meeting were Charles A. Jones, Fred McTeague, Mike Nalda, Robert Corn, Bud Walker, Clint Sultemoler, Joe Skeen and Louie Nalda.

If interested in more particulars of the meeting, growers can talk to the members of the committee.

This committee will contact the wool warehouses to get support and promotion of the program.

To make grading most effective, the county agent, as well as other extension personnel of the N.M.A.E.M. will help the growers in any way possible in the grading of fleeces at shearing time. There is also a possible need of outside graders to help make the program most effective.

Acquit Defendant In Assault Case

Mrs. Ruth Armstrong was acquitted of a charge of assault in Justice of the Peace Clarence E. Shaw's court last Monday afternoon.

A jury of three men and three women returned a verdict of not guilty following a half hour's deliberation at the conclusion of the trial.

The charge was assault upon the person of Lavon C. Stanley, who is stationed at the Red Canyon Range Camp.

The prosecution, conducted by District Attorney C. C. Chase Jr., called four witnesses to the stand: L. J. Adams, S. O. Curtis, W. R. McCleski and the plaintiff, Lavon Stanley.

Witnesses called by defense Attorney Geo. L. Zimmerman were Mrs. Armstrong, Doris Garner, Frank Ballegos, Denice Miller and Hugh Herndon.

Testimony was offered that Mrs. Armstrong ordered Stanley from the Yucca Grill and when he did not comply, struck him with the butt end of a kitchen knife.

The defendant admitted he had been drinking and defense witnesses testified that the defendant and the grill's chef had been drinking together in the kitchen.

The penalty upon conviction for the offense charged (a misdemeanor) would have been from $10 to $100 fine, at the discretion of the court, plus costs.

Hollywood Post Office Moves to New Building

By AILEEN LINDAMOOD

The new structure is of cinder block material, with a floor space of approximately 1200 square feet. It was built by Lee Wimberly and the floor plan is well adapted for a post office.

The floor is covered with asphalt tile in both the lobby and working area. A forced air gas burning central heating plant will keep the building comfortably warm for the employees as well as patrons.

The new and larger quarters were necessitated by the continual growth of the community. The present boxes were installed with plenty space for additional boxes as the need arises. New equipment, expected to arrive shortly, will include a sorting case and stamping and dumping tables.

The Hollywood Post Office was established in 1928 with three postmasters preceding Mabel Wimberly who was appointed in 1930. Mabel and her clerks, Fran and Mary, regretted their inability to hand out souvenirs.

No Accidents in '55 on Rio Grande Division

Southern Pacific achieved its best employee safety record in history during 1955 and maintenance of way workers of the railroad's Rio Grande Division, headquartered at El Paso, achieved a perfect no-accident record for the year. In the separate competition among the employees of large freight yards, El Paso Yard achieved the best record with a score of 4.96 accidents for each million man hours of work.

According to M. A. Nugent, the railroad's superintendent of safety, SP employees suffered only 627 reportable injuries for each million man hours.

More than half of the injuries during 1955 resulted from slips or falls—and more than half of these occurred because the injured person apparently failed to watch where he was going, Nugent explained.

Ruidoso Lions Club Works to Open Bonito As Recreation Area

According to the Ruidoso News, a committee of the Ruidoso Lions Club, headed by Pat Chubbuck, is working to have the Bonito Lake area opened for recreation, possibly by this year.

Mr. Chubbuck has talked on two occasions with Ray Bell, of the state game department, who assured the chairman he would try to see the place opened and operated by the state for fishing and recreation.

Bell is to set a date soon with Alamogordo civic leaders to discuss the prospects, said Chubbuck. Alamogordo has title to the lake and watershed, having purchased them from the Southern Pacific Railway.

Mr. Chubbuck said if the lake was declared a state park through another state agency, that the game department would be interested in removing all rough fish from the water and restocking with bass and lake trout.

The parks department would erect picnic tables, clear picnic and camping sites and police the grounds.

The Lions Club committeeman flew with Ralph Brown to Santa Fe to make the first contact with Mr. Bell on the project, and has since talked by telephone with him. He also has conferred with Mayor Rolland of Alamogordo, the city clerk there and with HAFB officials—all of whom are said to be optimistic about the possibilities of the recreational development.

MONEY AND BANKING
 In Everyday Living

HARD CASH WAS HEAVY. Too, in the days when coins were the only money. Paper currency was a step forward, convenience-wise—but the risk of loss was still present. In recent times, people have been making more and more use of checking accounts in handling money. Our nation's banks provide the checking service which enables Americans to transfer funds—about $2 TRILLION a year—with convenience and minimum risk.

THE INVISIBLE FAMILY. Regularly as clockwork each week, Mr. "X's" pay check is deposited in his checking account with us. Mrs. "X's" savings from her household money are deposited in her savings account with us—yet we may not actually see Mr. or Mrs. "X" for weeks at a time. It's as though they wore cloaks of invisibility; but the real answer is that they bank by mail. You see, Mr. "X" has to travel a great deal on business, and when he's away his wife has no one with whom to leave the children; so the "X's" can't come into the bank as often as they might wish. But they can—and do—let the postman serve as their emissary. Try banking by mail yourself—we'll supply mail deposit forms on request.

OF THE SCALPING OF MATILDA FRIEND

(Editor's Note: This is an account of the scalping of Matilda Friend by Indians in Texas in 1866, as she told it to her cousin, the late G. G. Reeves, father of Mrs. E. L. Bealick of Truth or Consequences. Mr. Reeves had the account written and it is in the possession of Mrs. Bealick. Mr. and Mrs. Reeves moved from Texas to New Mexico and are buried in Alamogordo. A condensed account follows.)

The story begins on the Saline River in Mason County, Tex. Near the end of 1865 Uncle Frank Johnson was killed by Indians when he went out on the range to look after his stock. His widow, Aunt Betsy, and her children then moved to Legion Valley in Llano County, where they had relatives. They lived in the home of Jack Bradford.

On February 3, 1866, most of the men of the community had to leave on business. On the night of February 3 Becky Johnson, wife of Aunt Betsy's son, Babe, dreamed she was murdered by Indians and that wild hogs ate her body. The next morning she told Aunt Betsy of her dream. Aunt Betsy laughed at her for being a visionary. Becky replied: "You may laugh at me if you choose, but that dream was too real. That dream is coming true, and that real soon."

On February 4 Becky and Samantha Johnson, the latter the wife of Aunt Betsy's son, Boy, took their babies, and, accompanied by Mandy Townsend, and Melinda Cardell, a relative living with Aunt Betsy, went to the John Friend home to stay with his wife, Matilda, and her stepson, Temple, 11. John Friend had to go to Fredericksburg on business. His wife was expecting a baby shortly.

About sundown on February 5, they were all out in the yard, and Becky saw horsemen coming toward the house. The women counted 16 Indians and one Negro. Becky urged that they flee, but Matilda said they had no chance to escape and advised they run into the house and barricade the door. There was a double-barreled shotgun in the house, and Matilda said if the savages broke in the door she would kill one, and if the others tried to enter she would kill another, and maybe that would check them until she could reload, and in that way perhaps

ALTO BRIEFS

Rancher Grateful to Civilian Air Patrol

Jennings Blaylock, whose ranch is northeast of Alto, is indebted to the C.A.P. for their help in feeding his cattle during the recent snowstorms. Without their assistance they would have suffered for lack of food. He feels that saying thanks is not enough and asked me to give this information to everyone so they would know what the C.A.P. did for him and for others in need.

The Don Taylors of Alamogordo visited her family, the Lineol Whites, last Monday.

Marion Embrey was over the past week feeding turkeys for the Game Department. Due to the deep snow the game birds were having a hard time getting food. Ernest Blood was also feeding turkeys on his place while snow was on the ground.

The A. D. Galyeans went to Wellington, Texas, last Tuesday. They were called there due to the serious illness of her father.

Mr. and Mrs. Ras Pittillo of Carrizozo visited in the neighborhood last Friday.

The Jack Stewarts of El Paso were here visiting on Thursday. The heavy snow kept them from going up to their summer home at Eagle Creek Lodge this trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Smith and son, Lester, Roswell, were visiting over the last week end at the Peebles ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Warren, Jr., and Terry Ann of Loveland, Texas, visited the Harlan McCraws of Hollywood last week. He is Mrs. McCraw's brother and she brought them over to visit with us at the Alto store.

The McEuens are driving a new Jeep station wagon. The road along the mall route has been bad since the first storm and now they can get over the road regardless of conditions.

ABOUT PEOPLE

C. A. McNatt of Alamogordo and Eldon P. Harvey of El Paso have been elected to the board of New Mexico Grazing District No. 4.

W. W. Galtcher was a business visitor to Tularosa Monday. He is shortly to begin Spring improvement at his ranch, including fencing and work on the corrals.

John Welk of Farmington was a week end visitor at the home of his brother, H. G. Welk and family in Carrizozo.

Mrs. Richard Johns, of Kittery Point, Me., has returned to her home following a month's visit at the home of her brother, W. G. Shreengost, and family in Hondo.

On Friday Mrs. Louise Babers, postmaster at San Patricio, and Mrs. Dorothy Parnell, postmaster at Green Tree, visited several post offices in the county. They made stops at Ancho, Corona and Carrizozo.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Licenses to wed have been issued by the County Clerk of Lincoln County to Virginia Teuton, 28, of Roswell and Dewey L. Gann Jr., 35, of Ruidoso. The couple were wed February 15 by Evan S. Waddell, evangelist of the Church of Christ in Ruidoso.

To Clara Mae Dean, 19, of Wann, Okla., and Marvin Vaughn, 20, of Red Canyon Range Camp. Justice of the Peace Clarence E. Shaw read the marriage ceremony Wednesday, Feb. 18.

The women ran into the house and barricaded the door. Matilda stood guard with the shotgun. When the other women saw the door giving way under the Indian's attack, they seized Matilda and wrenched the gun from her hands, hoping the Indians would be more merciful if they did not resist.

As the Indians entered, Matilda grabbed a smoothing iron just behind the door, threw it at the leader and hit him on the side of the head. He fell to the floor. As she stooped for the iron again, another Indian shot her just below the spine with an arrow. In a flash Matilda decided to play dead. As she managed to fall on the bed, another arrow pierced an arm.

Then the Indian grabbed his scalping knife. He skinned her head on each side, but left some hair on the top of her head and at the back. The pain was so excruciating that she lifted her arm three times. Each time the Indian hacked at her arm but hit the side rail of the old wooden bedstead. (That bedstead, with the three hacks in it, is a valued souvenir in the home of Boy Johnson's family at Sweetwater, Texas). The Indians took what they wanted out of the house and started off with the others as prisoners.

It was fortunate Matilda didn't get up to peep through a crack to see what direction the Indians were going for presently a big buck Indian came in and, to make sure she was dead, grabbed the arrow and pushed it back and forth several times. Matilda made no motion, and the Indian, satisfied she was dead, left. The arrow had gone entirely through her body.

When Matilda was sure the Indians were gone, she slipped to a crack and saw them ride due south, then northeast, then due east towards Cedar Mountain. As far as Matilda could see them, Becky was still fighting. Matilda tried to remove the arrows piercing her body, but the spikes on one side and the feathers on the other made it impossible.

She went into the yard, salvaged what she could find of her household effects, that the Indians had discarded, put the things in the house, and started to her nearest neighbor's home, Aunt Betsy's, about 1 1/2 miles away. She walked and crawled to Aunt Betsy's, crossing the trail of her tormentors, and arrived there a little after dark.

Jack Bradford cut the arrows below the feathers and pulled them through the wounds. The wounds were dressed. Jack put firewood near the chimney, made a pallet near the fire, and placed Matilda on it and set a bucket of water near her. The night was cold and it would not do to move her. Then Bradford took his and Aunt Betsy's families into a gorge near Cedar Mountain, where they hid for the night, for they feared another Indian raid. They were joyfully surprised when they were

CARRIZOZO

Capitan

By MARGARET RENCH

I was so pleased to overhear two ladies who have not lived here long say that they will hate to leave Capitan when it is necessary as they like our country and the people they have met. So all of us in Capitan must remember to be sweet, kind and congenial as, you see, it does reflect. To have those nice things said about us is very important to us and our town. They live on long after our departure.

Mrs. Daisy Gehring who has been visiting her daughter in Las Cruces for two months returned home Monday. Her little Chihuahua dog Butchie died last Sunday. She is very sad about it as he was such a loyally little pet. We understand how it hurts to lose him. They have their time to go just as we do, so cheer up.

Manuel Marquez is a new resident on Bonita Creek. He works on a ranch and says he likes it here. We are so pleased to have anyone enjoy our country. Welcome.

Mrs. Lair has been visiting her two daughters and families in Alamo for the past week — Beula Foster and Belva Robinson.

Alvita Sedillo, formerly of Capitan, was injured in a car accident in Albuquerque during the snowstorm. She just now has been released from the hospital there. She is doing nicely at this time. Her mother, Mrs. Cuca Chavez of Carrizozo, was with her during the time in the hospital.

Mrs. Isabel Gavi had a letter from Dorothy, J. B.'s wife who arrived with their four children in Japan last week. It is cold but she surely does like it there. They had a good trip, though did get a little seasick. J. B. was delighted to have his family with him. He will be there three more years.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sharp and Tom live at Fort Stanton. Both work there and Tom comes to school in Capitan on the bus. He likes that. He is in the third grade.

The Alto School bus was stolen over the week end. It was found on the Bonito Dam road Monday morning.

Two new families moved in. One moved to the bigger home north of Capitan and the other moved into one of the Wilson's apartments. They are working for the sawmill. Welcome to Capitan.

Mrs. Beula Hartley is home again. Glad to have you back again. Hope you stay.

Many Fans Make Trip To Tularosa Game

Godfrey and Julian Herrera and their families attended the basketball game in Tularosa last Saturday. Capitan lost 54 to 35. It was a good game and they enjoyed it even though our team lost.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy McKnight and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaMay and family, Mr. and Mrs. Aldaz of Lincoln, Tranquillino and Ruby Montoya, Mrs. Eloise Padilla, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stewart, Sr., and Mrs. Fletcher Hall and children, Ray Taylor of Lincoln and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Levitt of Fort Stanton were present at the game in Tularosa. That is nice to support our team, Julian Herrera stated that in one more year Melvin Ferris will be one of the best players Tularosa will ever have. Well it is Tularosa's gain and our loss. Stay with it Melvin, I am glad to hear that. Wish you were here with us.

At this time everyone seems to be getting back to normal duties since the clear, warmer weather. The sawmill and loggers went to work Monday morning after being idle since the storm started. They are glad to get busy in their work again. Good luck folks, we are glad for you and we did enjoy the moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt Hobbs are celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday, Feb. 26. They will have open house from 2:30 p.m. on. Everyone is invited. We do wish you many more happy anniversaries together. God bless both of you.

The Democrats had a dinner and informal get together Monday night at Pearl's Cafe. We are glad to learn that Robert Leslie, Sr. is doing much better at this time. He is still at St. Mary's hospital in Roswell and will be for quite some time. He is in good spirits and has a strong will to get well. That is half of the battle, Mr. Leslie, so keep up the good work. All of us are helping you with our prayers.

W. B. Payne of Abilene, Texas, who is still in the hospital there, top is some improved. You too have our sincere help, for recovery very soon. Mrs. Payne, your friends are truly doing their part in prayer to help you both.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones came to Capitan on business Monday. They left their son at The Mountain Valley Hotel so he can go to school. There has been lots of snow out there way. Much appreciated I am sure.

Blondie Lane celebrated his 57th birthday on Monday, February 20.

CARRIZOZO JUNIOR HIGH WINS TWO

Carrizozo Junior High scored a double victory over the Ruidoso Warriors this week, winning the sixth grade game 21-19 and taking the eighth grade game 30-23.

The two sixth grade teams battled on even terms throughout the game with Carrizozo holding the lead most of the time. High scorer of the game was Sanchez of Ruidoso with eight points. Gallegos, scoring 7 points, was Zozo's leading scorer, followed by Herrera and Crenshaw with 5 points each.

Zozo's foul shooting spelled the difference as both teams had 7 field goals with the home team having two more successful shots than the visitors. The Zozo sixth graders now have won four and lost one.

Concluding a successful season, Carrizozo's eighth graders edged out Ruidoso as Luciano Gallegos caged a lay up with seconds remaining in the game. Point makers for the Grizzlies were Gallegos, B. Herrera and Vega with eleven, ten and eight points respectively. High scorers for Ruidoso were Wilson and Falson, each one making eight points.

The eighth grade game was also won from the foul line with Ruidoso outscoring Zozo 13-11 in field goals; while Zozo landed eight of twenty to Ruidoso's three out of twelve charity tosses.

The Grizzlies, coached by John Voight, ended the season with eight wins and three losses, three of the wins being obtained in a drive that saw the team win its eighth tournament.

Grizzly Freshmen Win Bean Valley Jr. Championship

The Carrizozo Grizzly Freshmen overcame a nine point underdog role in the final three minutes to defeat the Vaughn Eagles, 39-35 last Saturday evening to cap the 1956 Bean Valley Conference Freshmen championship before a near capacity crowd. The tourney was held on the hardwood of the Corona Cardinals.

Carrizozo turned the tide on Corona, the host school, for their fourth straight win of the year over the Cardinals. Lewis Greer paced the Grizzlies to a 31-23 win with Emilio Beltran turning in a stellar performance.

The Grizzlies jumped to 18-8 halftime lead and never relinquished the lead to the fast-breaking Corona five.

Saturday afternoon the Grizzly frosh took Estancia into tow by the tune of 50-34, in what could only be labeled a true team victory. Eight of the Grizzlies who saw action broke into the scoring column, with Lewis Greer, Harry Rickerson, Emilio Beltran and Maxie Saucedo all bettering the eight point figure in point collecting department.

Jumping to a 29-19 advantage over the Estancia, Bears the Grizzlies were never in serious trouble in semi-final tilt.

The Vaughn Eagles, who earlier in the year had turned back the freshmen five from Santa Rosa and Fort Sumner took advantage of a "bold" first half on the part of the Grizzly freshmen and jumped to a 19-13 halftime lead.

In the final three minutes of the contest, with Vaughn on the long end of a 33-27 count, Carrizozo came to life and tallied 11 points in the final three minutes with the Grizzly pint-sized guard Sunny Shrum setting the pace. Shrum's hall stealing tactics netted seven of the 11 counters in the final minutes, five from the charity line while Emilio Beltran and Lewis Greer were contributing a field goal apiece to give the Grizzlies their three point advantage and the 1956 crown.

Frosh Lose to Tule In Overtime Game

The Carrizozo Frosh ran into their first overtime contest of the 1956-57 season Tuesday afternoon on the Grizzly hardwood and lost out to the Tularosa Wildcats, 58-56. The loss gave the Grizzlies a 11-5 season record to date. Thursday afternoon at three o'clock the Grizzly frosh were due to meet the Wildcats at Tularosa.

The Freshman, owners of the 1956 Bean Valley Conference title, will close their season at home on March 2, when they meet the "B" team of Weed High School.

Inability to hit from the charity stripe was the decisive factor in the Grizzly defeat as the frosh connected on 15 out of 41 tosses. During the frosh tourney the frosh had connected for a 60% overall average.

Lewis Greer led the freshmen in the point production department with 17 counters as he was closely followed by Maxie Saucedo with 12.

Norm Bookout walked off with high point honors for the tilt with 29 markers and eight successive free tosses.

Grizzly A and B's Split With Alamogordo

Tuesday night, the Carrizozo Grizzlies lost one and won one game from Alamogordo.

The Carrizozo "A" team got off to a slow start losing to the Alamogordo team, 63-54. High point men for Alamogordo were Black and Buttram with 18 and 14 points respectively. Richard Vega led the Grizzlies with 12 points, followed by Billy Hicks and Skipper Harkey with 10 points each.

The "B" team beat the Alamogordo "B" team, 51 to 47. The Grizzlies held the lead most of the way. High scorer for Carrizozo was Lake Hite with 14 points. Black and Woodruff led Alamogordo with eight points each.

I am wondering if there are any of our readers who remember Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Campbell who lived here 25 years ago. Mrs. Campbell's maiden name was Price. Mr. Campbell was a minister. They had three children, Theresa, George and John. I have tried to find someone who knew them to help Theresa (now Mrs. T. M. Hartley) get her birth certificate. A midwife was present. If there is anyone who can help I'd be pleased to have a word from you, please. Mrs. Hartley lives in Alaska, therefore you can see how important it is to help her.

Mrs. Gussie Titworth and Mrs. Rose Hobbs made a business trip to Carrizozo last Monday morning.

Mrs. Clara Lowe and Mrs. Gussie Titworth went to the Past Matrons Club last Thursday afternoon at the home Mrs. Frank English in Carrizozo. They reported a lovely time.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Floyd are enjoying a visit from their son and daughter-in-law from Canada.

Mrs. W. L. Holmes has been in bed for over a week with a very bad cold. We are so sorry and we do hope to see you well and happy very soon and back with us on the job.

Mrs. Angie Provine is enjoying a visit with her mother who is with her at this time. She is Mrs. Kaveton from Texas. Angie is doing very nicely.

Eva Sutherland spent this past week end with her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. Jim Howard and her three little daughters. Then she returned to her college studies in Portales.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell are guests at the Buena Vista Hotel for a while. Mr. Bell has been in the Carrizozo hospital for a month with pneumonia. He is doing nicely. They live near the Bentons on a ranch. During his illness, I have been informed, Mrs. Bell and her granddaughter were stranded in a pickup for 78 hours. Some one brought them a horse to ride. They had to leave the pickup.

It is events like this that make us realize just how impossible it is to try to travel in the snow. These kind of experiences are not happy ones. It is best not to try traveling under such conditions.

Club Hears Talk On "Native Trees"

The Capitán Woman's Club met Thursday, Feb. 16, in the City Hall. Sixteen members and two visitors were present.

Adrian Hill of the Forest Service gave an interesting and intellectual talk on "Native Trees of the Capitán Mountains."

Plans were made for the National Woman's Club project contest.

Mrs. Edna Laramie, Mrs. Otho Lowe and Mrs. Milton Jones served refreshments.

Men from Capitán Progress in Service

Mrs. Isabel Gavi received a nice letter from Father Rooney, Chaplain, U. S. Navy, regarding her son Vernon who was selected to enter Special Service School after a rigid examination. We are mighty proud to know of the progress Vernon has made. From all reports he has been studying hard and hopes to continue to do so.

Corerony Opens New Red Canyon Post Exchange

Brigadier General Robert Wood, executive commander of Fort Bliss, was on hand last week to snap the ribbon and officially open the new Post Exchange at Red Canyon Range Camp.

The new exchange is a shining steel building including not only ample display and storage space, but also offices, a barber shop, and a large floor area for eating and drinking.

This is the third PX in the history of Red Canyon. The first, a small trailer which was formerly a mobile exchange for an air force base, was in use when the "population" of the range camp was less than two hundred.

Last year, as more and more troops began to arrive, more facilities were needed and a larger exchange was constructed from three small five-man type structures which were formerly used to house men in the Logan Heights area of Fort Bliss.

However, when men who come to Red Canyon for annual refueling of Nike's started to arrive, the relatively new structure was already outdated, and preparations began to enlarge once again.

Also on hand for the dedication ceremonies were Brigadier General Tom V. Stayton, commander of the 1st Guided Missile Brigade; Major Arthur Paulus, Fort Bliss Exchange officer; Lt. Col. John J. McCarthy, Red Canyon commanding officer; Capt. Robert O. Ray, commanding officer of Red Canyon Headquarters and Service Battery, and Pfc. Louis Suchomski, manager of the Red Canyon Exchange.

Walter is now out of the hospital and feeling better.

L. W. Sackett of Truth or Consequences spent the week end here visiting his wife who is now staying with Mrs. Kille. He manages the Williams Bath House in Truth or Consequences.

Mrs. L. Y. Jackson of El Paso, Mrs. Pat Barnett of Carrizozo, and Mrs. Henry Kilpatrick of Corona, were out of town guests at the Barnett shower.

Refunds Mailed to 10,698 N. M. Taxpayers

Tax refunds have been mailed to 10,698 taxpayers in New Mexico announced S. P. Vidal, District Director of the Internal Revenue Service this week.

"We know everyone wants his refund as soon as possible and we're pushing them out by the thousands. We want to go even faster, but two problems are slowing us down. Simple errors still create additional work for us. Many fail to properly sign their returns and others fail to attach their withholding statements. The other big problem is answering correspondence for those who want to know when they will get their refund."

"We plan to release the bulk of our refunds by July. Those who had errors on their returns and have been contacted by our office may have to wait a little longer," he said.

March Proclaimed Red Cross Month

Mayor Marvin H. Roberts of Carrizozo, treasurer of the Lincoln County chapter, of the American Red Cross, has proclaimed the month of March 1956 as Red Cross Month.

He urges all citizens of the county communities to join without reservation in the 1956 Red Cross campaign through the county chapter.

Mayor Roberts further urges in his proclamation "that all men and women of good will remember that this great humanitarian organization must be maintained at full strength in members and funds; that this symbol of man's humanity remain bright as a guide to those who turn to it in time of need."

Membership in the Red Cross enables everyone to serve his neighbors in distress or need; to aid the helpless veteran patient and the man in uniform; provides an available supply of blood and blood products for civilians, and, aids the victims of natural disaster.

Coretest Your Wool to Know Your Shrinkage

Would you like to know what your wool shrinkage is when you go to figure the value of your wool clip this spring? Well, you can get an accurate estimate of shrinkage by having your wool coretested at your local warehouse. Coretesting determines the amount of clean fibers present in grease wool and this helps the grower in transactions with buyers.

You should have your wool coretested before you show it for bid. If you know what the shrinkage is before you receive bids, you'll have a better idea of what your wool should sell for in the grease.

Some buyers buy all their wool on the clean basis, which is determined by an official coretest. Other buyers like to buy on the grease basis and speculate on their estimate of shrinkage. Wool worth $1.25 per clean pound with a 4% over-estimation in shrinkage will cost the grower five cents per grease pound.

Coretesting under proper supervision has been proved to be accurate within 1% of actual mill scouring results.

You can afford to gamble on 1%, but can you risk any more under present production costs? Don't "guesstimate" — but be prepared to sell your wool to your advantage.

Coretesting costs about $20-$35 per lot (all fleeces in one grade).

State Steps Up Campaign to Wipe Out Brucellosis

An accelerated drive to wipe out bovine brucellosis is underway in New Mexico, says Alfred E. Triviz, associate state extension director and chairman of the state brucellosis committee.

Extra federal funds authorized by Congress has made possible this accelerated program for eradication. A national brucellosis committee is arousing further interest and support in the program throughout the United States, while the state committee, headed by Triviz, is urging wider local participation.

The current drive is an expansion of the federal program which has been a co-operative project since 1934, but modified to suit the varied problems of each state.

There are two principal methods of combating the disease, Triviz says, to wipe it out through slaughter of the infected animals, and to increase the resistance of animals to the disease by vaccination. Both methods are being used in New Mexico.

Secretary Opposed to Freight Rate Increase

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson has petitioned the Interstate Commerce Commission to suspend an application of the railroads for a 7% increase in freight rates with respect to raw and processed farm products, farm supplies, and fish.

The Secretary emphasized that favorable action on the railroad request would, to the extent of the increase, nullify concerted efforts now being made to relieve the farm producers' difficult economic position.

He pointed out that since early 1946, the railroads have obtained 11 general freight-rate increases. The increases which applied to agricultural products, totaled 63%. During the same period—July 1946 to December 1955—prices received by farmers for their products fell 8%, while prices paid by farmers for the commodities they buy, rose 32%. Realized net income of farm operators fell 29% during this nine-year period.

The Secretary stated that because of the continuing cost-price squeeze on farmers, this would be an extremely inopportune time to raise freight rates or take other action that would widen the spread between prices received by farmers and the prices paid by consumers.

"The President's message on agriculture," he said, "make it clear that every effort should be made to narrow the spread, not widen."

Carrizozo School Board Adopts Policy Regarding Non-Students at Functions

The Carrizozo Municipal Board of Education held its regular monthly meeting Thursday night, February 16. Election of teachers and other staff members was discussed at some length and the various principals, Mr. Cridger, Mr. Watson and Mr. Devitt, were present to lend their advice and assistance.

Due to a considerable amount of misunderstanding, the Board went on record in regard to its policy concerning high school functions.

Non-students of the Carrizozo schools are not to be admitted to dances and similar social gatherings during the course of the regular school year.

In regard to the Junior Prom, Juniors and seniors may submit the names of outsiders as escorts but such escorts must receive the approval of the principal and sponsors.

Increasing difficulty with the boiler in the junior high school has compelled the board to consider the advisability of replacing it. A special meeting was to be held Thursday, Feb. 23, for this purpose.

Mr. Firman reported on a meeting that he attended with the city fathers and the recrea-

CARRIZO GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

Preparations for Spring Carnival

(By the School Reporter)

Our school is very much excited and looking forward to the annual School Carnival to be held on March first.

This year the proceeds from the entire carnival will be paid on the beautiful new curtains and drapes in our auditorium.

The Grade School will sponsor a 5, 10 and 25 cent fish pond, a cake walk, and a Grade School King and Queen Contest.

We would like to take this opportunity to say thank you for the response we are receiving for cake donations for the cake walk. The cakes should be brought or sent to the Grade School in the afternoon of March first.

Our King and Queen Contest is well underway by most of the rooms. Due to the absence of Mrs. Teague the Second Grade will not select their candidates until Thursday. The others are as follows:

First (Miss Chisholm)—Karen Petty and Tommy Straley.
First (Miss Ridley)—Mary Charlene Hemphill and Hugh Bancroft.
Second (Mrs. Harris) Dianna Barrington and Joe Moore.
Third (Miss Neill)—Ida Lou Luercas and Sammy Vigil.
Third (Mrs. Rasmussen) Terrie Watson and Danny Armstrong.
Fourth (Miss Nix)—Sue Shrum and Donnie Rickerson.
Fifth (Mrs. Fairah)—Linda Barrington and Thomas O'Rear.

The contest will continue until coronation time March 1st. We will not know who is King and Queen until then. All candidates will be attendants in the coronation ceremony. The Queen candidates are to wear long formal. The King candidates are to wear suits, white shirts and bow ties.

The boy having the most money votes will be crowned King. The girl having the most money votes will be crowned Queen. Each penny will count one vote. Come and join our fun. Enjoy spending your money for a worthy cause. We will even let you "peep" at the project for which your money will go.

Young Men Wanted For State Police

Everett Grantham, chairman of the New Mexico State Police Board of Commissioners, advises that the State Police is soliciting applications for recruits to the next State Police Recruit Training School to be held not later than May 15 of this year.

The organization is in a position to offer a career to men between the ages of 23 and 35, at least 5 feet and 10 inches tall, physically fit, have a high school diploma, have been a New Mexico resident for two years immediately prior to application and have a good moral character background.

The starting salary of an officer is $300 a month with substantial raises at the end of the first, third and sixth years.

Immediately upon receipt of a letter of application the regular application forms will be mailed from the Santa Fe headquarters.

Federal Officers to Address Cattlemen

Advance hotel reservations indicate the 42nd Annual Convention of the New Mexico Cattle Growers Association in Albuquerque, March 25-27, will attract some 2,000 southwestern ranchers, principally from New Mexico and adjoining states.

"Because of the many serious land, tax, market and legislative matters presently confronting our industry, we expect this meeting to be one of the most important in history of our organization," said Sherwood Curberson of Lordsburg, president.

Dr. Earl Butz, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, and Wesley D'Ewart, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, both of Washington, D. C. head an impressive group of speakers who have already agreed to appear on the convention program. Others include Don Collins, President, American National Cattleman's Association, Kit Carson, Colorado; Dr. Roger Corbett, President, New Mexico A&M College, State College, N. M.; Governor John F. Limms, Santa Fe; Carl Newman, Manager, National Live Stock and Meat Board, Chicago and Anderson Carter, State Representative of Portales.

News of the County Episcopal Churches

A baptismal bowl of sterling silver was dedicated Sunday, Feb. 19, at the Chapel of Our Redeemer morning services. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Baker of Carrizozo made the presentation in loving memory of Mr. Baker's father, William Holt Baker, a longtime communicant of the Episcopal Church, who died in Carrizozo in 1955. The gift was accepted in the name of the congregation and dedicated by the Vicar, Rev. Charles L. Conder.

Lenten services are being held in Carrizozo homes every Friday at 10 a.m. Holy Communion is followed by lectures on "The Faith We Live By," by Rev. C. L. Conder. This week's service is at Mrs. J. Paul Turner's. People interested in the Episcopal Church are invited.

The Bishop's Committee of Our Redeemer met Monday, February 20, at Mr. Percy Parker's home in Fort Stanton. Appointment of Truman A. Spencer, Jr., as Warden and Percy Parker and James G. Ramey as Bishop's Committeemen by Bishop Stoney was announced by Rev. C. L. Conder. The Committee elected Mrs. J. H. Howard, treasurer, and Mrs. J. Paul Turner, clerk.

Authentic Account

turned in the morning and found Matilda alive.

At daylight Bradford sent Aunt Betsy's boy, John, then 10 or 11, to warn the neighbors. They gathered at Aunt Betsy's house.

Rile Walker and Bill Johnson, Aunt Betsy's oldest son, started out to cut signs for the Indian trail. They found Samantha's baby, the throat cut from ear to ear, scalped and thrown into a briar bush. Looking farther, they found one of Matilda's bed ticks, which had, caught on a bush and had been left there. Bill Johnson wrapped the body of the baby in the tick and carried it to Aunt Betsy's.

Bradford went for soldiers at Llano about 18 miles away, while other runners went for Boy Johnson and John Friend. Early the next morning the soldiers were there, and every available man the news had reached.

They took the trail where Bill and Rile found Samantha's baby. Soon they came on Becky's baby, killed in the same savage manner. They followed the trail to the top of Cedar Mountain, where the Indians had camped the first night. South along the foot of the mountain, they found the body of a woman, which they could not identify, for wild hogs had almost devoured the body. Farther on they came upon the body of Samantha, and then they knew the other body was that of Becky, and that her dream and prophecy had been fulfilled.

They continued trailing, and occasionally would find a piece of cloth on a bush, which they knew were pieces of Mandy Townsend's dress. In the edge of Cut-off Gap they found Mandy's horribly mutilated body. There were 17 rocks by her body, and apparently each of the raiders had taken his turn in pounding her to a pulp. She had been scalped—in small patches.

Apparently the Indians had become enraged at Mandy when they discovered she was marking the trail with pieces of her dress.

A year later when Matilda Cardell was returned to her friends, she said the Indians put blankets over her and Temple when they beat Mandy to death.

Temple remained with the Indians until he was grown, and when he was finally returned to his friends, he was for a long time an Indian.

About a month after the brutal raid, Matilda found her a baby girl, who until some years ago lived in Wellington, Kans. Matilda lived 40 years from the night of the tragedy and died in Wellington.

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES

Duck hunters are pretty imaginative fellows, if their stories are any criterion. One so-called sportsman at Truth or Consequences was "making three big circles after ducks in his motor boat while two hunting partners were conveniently located in a nearby blind." His story was that he wanted to compare the speed of his new motor boat with the speed of ducks. He forfeited a $30 bond.

Another, shooting a half hour after shooting hours, wanted to know whether his conviction would "hurt his reputation." He forked up $25 fine and $5 court cost.

Second on the list of reported deaths was pneumonia with 288. Tuberculosis claimed the lives of 98 people. Most of the deaths from cancer occurred in the age group 65 to 74—a total of 156. In the age group 55 to 64 there were 151 deaths.

WILL HARRISON'S Inside the Capital

REPUBLICANS STING DEMOS

SANTA FE, Feb. 21.—Republican Ed Mechem's entry in the governor run has set statehouse politicians jumping like at no time since the Demos took over 14 months ago—and the major activity hasn't started.

Gov. John Simms has been seeing and luncheon with politicians who didn't have much access to him earlier and Revenue Commissioner Mike Gallegos, political trouble-shooter for the administration, has been busy on fence-mending missions.

Here's the course the administration is expected to follow in countering the admittedly serious threat:

BIGGER PAYMENTS AND MORE JOBS

Increase welfare payments. There is plenty of money for substantially higher payments in the big dependent children's program and for higher grants to the aged. The unrest among the 30-odd thousand relief recipients is perhaps the most serious of all the troubles confronting the Demos. Bigger grants would ease the situation but there is nothing that can be done about the hated lien and relative responsibility laws unless it would be abandonment of enforcement.

Board appointments. There are some 40 over-due appointments on state boards and commissions which are expected to be filled to the best political advantage of the administration. Some of them indirectly involve jobs, paying jobs such as the state labor commissioner and secretary of the cosmetology board, both filled by officers appointed by Mechem when he was governor.

Jobs. Some 40 or 50 Republican continue in so-called political jobs at the capital who could be put aside for Democratic replacements, and there is a possibility of placing hundreds on the highway department payroll which will start growing in the spring. The jobs are calculated to cool the wrath of some northern county chairmen who have been complaining that they couldn't hold their people without more patronage.

MORE RECOGNITION OF SPANISH GROUP

Spanish-American recognition.

Along the Way..

By PAUL BAKER

"Ernest" Gray definitely had nothing to do with the accidental discharge of the shot gun," Mrs. F. G. Minter told the News last Friday. She wished to correct a statement made in the News that Ernest handled the gun at the time it went off, wounding William Milton; "Four boys were in the room at the time," she said, "but how the gun was discharged we do not know. It has a hair-trigger action and could have gone off by being jarred or bumped. The boys didn't know about the safety catch."

Miss Dorothy Dozier of Yaleta, Texas, will start receiving the News this week, the gift of Orris Smith, old-time friend of the family. A hearty welcome to Lincoln County to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bunton of Marfa, Texas, who have purchased the Vaughn ranch in the Patos mountain area. He was sheriff of Pecos County, Texas, for 15 years. He decided to retire after prisoners, bent on escaping, locked Mrs. Bunton in a jail cell. They were later recaptured, but Mrs. Bunton was some time recovering from the harrowing experience.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lemon who celebrated their 45th wedding anniversary by entertaining friends at a buffet supper last Thursday night at the Country Club. Before cutting a beautiful two-tiered cake, Mrs. Lemon said the party was a preview of their 50th anniversary five years hence, and that she sincerely hoped all present would return for that happy occasion.

Mrs. Eleanor Jones, county chairman of the Lincoln County Chapter of the American Red Cross, announces that a dinner will be held at Pearl's Cafe in Carrizozo, Wednesday, Feb. 29, to get the Red Cross campaign under way.

AN AD AND A WARNING

(By Ted Ryberg)

A huge boulder lies close to the arroyo along the dirt road to White Oaks. In 1906, when Herman Kell, Carrizozo postmaster, first came to White Oaks to live, the boulder tore two signs.

At the top in large white letters was an ad: "Stop at the White Oaks Hotel."

Below in smaller yellow letters, a White Oaks minister had painted: "Prepare to meet thy God."

Board appointments, new jobs and some anticipated shifts of present officers are expected to give considerably more recognition to the Spanish-American element.

That group is presently without representation on the tax commission, highway commission, state board of education, Highlands and A&M boards and some other places where they have customarily held seats.

Railroad smear. The news of Mechem's candidacy wasn't an hour old until he was termed a railroad candidate intent on turning the state over to special interests by the acting Democratic state chairman, John Joe Wilkinson. Mechem's Albuquerque law firm is New Mexico counsel for the Santa Fe.

TIME IS LATE BUT NOT TOO LATE

Some skeptics think that such a scramble to get right with the politicians would come too late to be effective. That's a doubtful view. State officers have been doing the same thing for years and making it work.

A payroller who was hungry for a year-and-a-half, they reason, will fight just as hard to protect his new job as if he had

Require Employers to File Tax Information

Santa Fe—A reminder to employers that they are required by law to file information returns with the State Income Tax Division was issued this week by Division Director J. Leon Miller.

Deadline for the information returns is April 1. They must be filed by every employer who made payments in the form of salaries, wages, bonuses, commissions and fees in the amount of $1,000 or more.

Persons who made payments covering rent, royalties or dividends of $100 or more during 1955 also must file the information returns, Miller said.

Miller said he was reminding officers of the State and its political subdivisions, including schools, that they also must file the information returns on their employees.

Forms have been mailed out to all employers who previously filed the returns. Those who have not received the forms may get them at banks, assessors' offices, district offices of the Bureau of Revenue or from the Income Tax Division in Santa Fe.

Vic Lamb, publisher of the Ruidoso News, was a Carrizozo business visitor Monday.
