FORT THORN

By TED RAYNOR
Feature Writer for The Lincoln County News

Sand drifting eastward with high winds for nearly a century has obscured all but a few traces of the adobe walls of Fort Thorn which once guarded the El Paso-Santa Fe route against the Apaches and outlaws.

The fort was established in 1853 and abandoned in 1859. It lay almost due west of the present farming community of Salem in northern Dona Ana County.

Rains this summer have given the mesquite trees new life, and weeds have sprung up where only half-dead mesquite had kept a foothold in the drouth years on the old fort. Rattlesnake trails twist along the sandy spots of the land where cavalrymen once rode and infantrymen marched. The only signs of life now are the green mesquites and the weeds, the snakes' trails and buzzing insects.

The military reservation, which once covered more than 15,000 acres, has been a happy hunting ground for Jerry and Genevieve Franzoy, children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Franzoy who live on a farm a mile west of Salem. Around the site of the fort the sharp eyed country youth have found many relics of the Indians and the U. S. military past.

A collection of numerous arrowheads and potsherds represents the Indian civilization. The pottery includes Mimbres fragments.

From the concentration of rifle slugs and cartridges near the site of the fort itself, it appears that this must have been a target range. There, the children have found Minie balls, slugs from Sharpe rifles, cap and ball primers, cartridge caps from .44 rifles, and revolvers and .45 revolvers.

Generally west of the fort is petrified wood which began forming ages before the Apaches roamed the country. Fred Franzoy, his children; his brother Charlie and the latter's son, Charles, recently uncovered a considerable deposit of petrified wood at a depth of several feet.

The Soil Conservation Service office in Hatch, headed by Dave Franzen, has a copy of a map of the Fort Thorn Military Reservation. There are three written notations on the map. One reads: "Letter to N&N Feb. 14/77." The second: "Send copy to R&R April 30/77 with instructions to allow no mine entries inside the limits." The notations were signed by L. P. Driver. There is no explanation of the letters N&N and R&R, and no identification of Driver.

A third notation, written on the map of the reservation itself, reads: "In Sec. 14 there are several running springs of good water surrounded by large cottonwood trees." The springs were southeast of the fort and presumably were its water supply.

The snaking Rio Grande bordered the reservation on the north side and along the greater part of the east limits. The map shows the river close to what is now the Albert J. Franzoy farm on U. S. 85, just north of Salem. The river has since changed its course. It is straighter and about a mile farther west.

The reservation occupied parts of Township 19 S&W and Township 19 SAW. The map placed the fort itself in Section 34 and due west of the beginning of the next to the last bend in the river, a roughly-shaped "U." The reservation probably comprised 25 sections or 15,000 acres.

One must be as familiar with the country as Albert or Fred Franzoy to spot the lines of the adobe walls, which are about eight inches wide and even with the surface of the earth. One line, running roughly east and west, extends for approximately 100 feet and apparently was one of the outer walls. There are much shorter traces of walls that possibly were rooms within the fort. Some of these may have been quarters for officers and their wives. The foundations of what appears to have been an adobe fireplace are located at the site.

No rock foundations to the walls have been noticed. However, the adobe extends at least two feet beneath the wall lines in some instances. During the years the land in and immediately around the site of the fort itself has been broken by small arroyos, making the tracing of the fort's actual outlines even more difficult. The side of one small arroyo definitely shows cut adobe.

No other settlement ever was established on this site as far as is known.

West of the fort, a rim extends north and south for some miles. Albert Franzoy said there are wagon wheel ruts two feet deep in a very steep and winding road leading to the top of the rim. The land levels out immediately west of the rim. Pieces of old wagon bolts have been found along this road.

West of the gap in the rim are the Southern Springs, which

Ask Postmaster to Delay Retirement

Herman E. Kelt, Carrizozo postmaster, whose optional retirement was to have been effective September 30, 1957, has been asked by the Post Office Department to continue to serve until October 31, 1957.

In a memorandum to Mr. Kelt, dated September 24, A. C. Peterson states "The Department is endeavoring to appoint someone to serve as acting postmaster at Carrizozo and it will be appreciated if you will continue as postmaster until October 31, 1957."

Postmaster Kelt has handed the News for publication his reply, dated September 25. It follows:

"Mr. A. C. Peterson, Director, Postmasters Div., Bureau of Operations, Post Office Dept., Washington 25, D. C.

"Reference is made to your memo of Sept. 24th, file P 4, LR, requesting that I continue to serve as Postmaster until Oct. 31 pending the appointment of an acting Postmaster.

"I have always endeavored to follow the wishes of the Post Office Department but I fail to see the justification of another delay in this appointment as there is an employee in the office, Roy W. Harman, who is perfectly capable of assuming the duties and by all the rules of fairness entitled to be promoted.

"He is now the designated Assistant to the Postmaster, has served in the office for over 21 years except for a period of military service during World War II. He is a graduate of the Army Administration and Postal School. Had intensive training in the San Francisco Port of Embarkation Army Post Office, San Francisco, Calif. Served with a Base Post Office in the China Burma India Theater, all of which is an asset here as this office serves military installations.

"He has a letter from his Executive Officer commending him for an excellent job in his unit, is thoroughly familiar with every phase of the operation of the Post Office and it is my opinion that his promotion would meet with the approval of 99 per cent of the people of Carrizozo and would actually give the Post Office Department a boost. I personally think that more attention should be given to efficiency and qualifications than to political expediency to the end that a better employee morale could be promoted.

"In conclusion, I urge you to act accordingly.

have never been known to fail in the driest years, Franzoy said. Northwest of the gap are Nutt Mountain and Cook's Peak. The road may have been used to haul water to the fort if the other and more accessible springs were inadequate at times, and it probably was a route for military expeditions and wagon trains west.

An article in the New Mexico Historical Review for October 1934 stated that Fort Thorn was built in December 1853 and garrisoned with two companies from Fort Webster which was then abandoned.

A footnote in the book "Forts and Forts," the diary of James A. Bennett, a dragon in New Mexico from 1850-56, stated that "Fort Webster was established in 1851 about eight miles north-northeast of the Santa Rita copper mine to check the Apache."

Another footnote in the same book said that the fort "was named in honor of Captain Herman Thorn who lost his life on October 16, 1849, by drowning in the Colorado River."

The October 1934 article in the New Mexico Historical Review said that Fort Thorn occupied an unhealthy spot on the edge of an "extensive marsh." A footnote stated that Assistant Surgeon T. Charlton Henry called the fort "the sickliest post in the territory."

After Fort Thorn was abandoned in 1859, the property was moved to Fort Fillmore south of Las Cruces.

Although Fort Thorn had been abandoned in 1859, it figured briefly in the Civil War, for it was there in 1862 that General Henry H. Sibley joined his several columns of Confederate troops and marched north in New Mexico.

The Journal of Lt. Henry M. Lazelle, a native of Massachusetts and a West Point graduate, contains comments on Fort Thorn. Lazelle took part in the campaign against the Apaches in the spring of 1857, which was commanded by Col. Benjamin L. E. Bonneville. Lazelle's detachment from Fort Bliss stopped at

THE STATE BUYS MOST EVERYTHING

Santa Fe, Sept. 25—If you're in the selling business you've probably got something the state buys.

In spending nearly $10 million the state purchasing agent in the year ending July 1 did business with such far-fetched outfits as AFL-CIO, Alcoholics Anonymous and the Arkansas Democratic Co., whatever that is.

No packaged goods from licensed liquor dealers showed up but goodness knows what was in $211,000 worth of drugs purchased by the state during the period.

TOM SUMMERS TOP PRINTER FOR STATE

The state's biggest printer during the year was Tom Summers Ward-Anderson firm of Albuquerque with a volume of $110,000 mostly from the state magazine job and the legislature. Bishop of Portales was next with $64,000. Rydal of Santa Fe $38,000. Valiant of Albuquerque $33,000. Schifani of Santa Fe $28,000 and Case-Thompson, Albuquerque, $11,000.

Frontier Motor of Albuquerque was way ahead with automobile business with $208,000. Santa Fe Motor $150,000. Sanco of Santa Fe $67,000. Oden of Albuquerque $56,000. Jones Motor of Albuquerque $44,000, and Clayton Automotive Service $28,000.

CAPITOL USES MORE PAPER

Indicative of mounting red tape in the statehouse were paper purchases of $59,000 from Carpenter, $21,000 from Butler and $7,000 from Graham.

Santa Fe office supply houses, an ungal, got-big business:

Santa Fe book $23,000. Southwestern Stationers $33,000. New Mexico Office Supply $33,000. Healy Mathews $18,000. Warren Cobean of Roswell did $3,000 volume and Western Stationers of Silver City $3,000.

Among the bookkeeping machine firms IBM got the most, $110,000. Remington Rand $85,000. Burroughs $34,000. Monroe $15,000.

STANDARD LEADS GASOLINE SALES

Standard of Texas led the gasoline parade with $182,000; Phillips $164,000, Continental $133,000, Texaco Co. $130,000, Magnolia $50,000.

As usual for the past 15 years or so the Clinton P. Anderson Insurance agency of Albuquerque was way up top in state insurance business—$121,000. The firm founded by Our Clint writes most of the state's workmen's compensation insurance.

Next was the Carl Bishop firm of Santa Fe, $43,000, then Robert Bronson of Albuquerque $23,000 and Howell Ernest, Santa Fe, $21,000.

LIQUOR STAMPS COST PLENTY

The tiny stamps you see on liquor bottles cost the state $77,000 during the year. Two Chicago companies had the business — Meyercoad $40,000 and American Deacalcantia $37,000. Meyercoad up until a few years back gave the commissioner of revenue or an agent approved by him 10% commission on sales.

A coffee merchant, the Dentonson firm, sold the state $20,000 worth of java. A small Santa Fe hardware merchant had a $175,000 volume in highway paint.

STILL PREFER SPENCER OIL

Uniforms and institutional clothing accounted for $32,000 in business for Henry Hillson of Albuquerque and $42,000 for Willie Seligman of Santa Fe.

The old Fat Spencer firm of Santa Fe continued to supply the highway department's road oil, most of it that is $671,000. Second was the C. E. Mitcham firm of Albuquerque, $72,000.

The state two big grocery wholesale houses, Ifield and Kimball, had business of $124,000 and $74,000.

HARRISON HOLDS FIRST POSITION

Like the Spencer firm in road oil and Our Clint's firm in insurance, the R. L. Harrison heavy construction equipment house of Albuquerque continued firm in its hold on state business. The volume during the year was $223,000. Henry Cornelius, had $112,000. Lively Equipment $117,000. Construction Machinery $34,000. N. C. Ribble $44,000. They are all of Albuquerque.

Reports for the Republican half of the year, January-June 1957, and the Demo half, July-December 1956, showed some interesting changes in buying habits.

DEMOCRATS SLIP IN STATE SALES

Joe Torres, the big Simms man in Las Vegas slid from $42,000 automobile supply business in the first half to $10,000 in the second.

A contingent of 20 men from all parts of the county left for Fort Riley, Ladies, under the auspices of the Red Cross, gave them a farewell banquet. ### Church Proposes to Give Sunday School Instruction by Mail

Nashville, Tennessee. — Sept. 3.—The Methodist Church will launch a new program on October 1 called Church School at Home. This is not a suggestion that people stay home from Sunday school on Sunday morning but an endeavor to reach the hundreds of families who cannot attend. Distance, poor roads, and inclement weather keep many parents from bringing their children to the church for Christian instruction on Sunday morning.

Under this new plan suitable graded Sunday school lesson leaflets and study booklets will be sent free to any family unable to attend a church school. There are special materials for each age group — kindergarten, primary, junior, junior-high and youth. A quarterly publication will also be sent for the parents.

It is hoped by the Dept. of the Christian Family, Board of Education of the Methodist Church, that parents will guide their children's study in the home.

This project is for people like the Andersons. There are four children and a grandmother, besides Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. They live fifteen miles from a church. Of course they could drive that far part of the year if it were not for the cost. Their car is old and uncertain. Mr. Anderson says they can't afford to drive that far to church. They do listen to church services by radio but Grandma Anderson says, "It's not the same as studying the Bible in Sunday school."

Now they can have Sunday school papers and Bible study books selected for them by trained religious education leaders. They can study regularly at home. One hour a week of Bible study together will make a difference in their lives.

Any family may enroll by sending their name and address and the ages and school grades of their children to Church School at Home, P. O. Box 871, Nashville, Tenn. There is no charge for this service. Those who enroll during September can begin their study with the first Sunday in October.

These materials are published by the Methodist Church but are not denominational in content. No effort will be made to influence members of other denominations to leave their churches. A similar project is sponsored by the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran Church.

The fire department arrived before the building caught fire.

Nick Maes of Jacks Peak had a trial of strength with a bronco a few days ago, resulting in Nick being laid up with a badly sprained ankle.

The Carrizozo Cleaning Company opened a tailor shop in the Adams Hotel building.

Earl Bountre was in Carrizozo visiting his parents before answering a call by the Army.

STATE GAME DEPARTMENT

Big Ones Planted

Seven-to-nine inch rainbows numbered 25,300 in a total planting of 82,500 trout during the period September 9-14. The department of Game and Fish put the big ones in lakes, ponds, creeks and rivers.

Nogal Lake received a planting, along with Clayton, Eagle Rock and Santa Cruz lakes.

Soon Time for Deer Hunting

The state says that there is the biggest ever deer crop this year and the map shows several special seasons with either sex hunting, Hondo-Bonito Nov. 1-18, 23-24 and Nov. 30-Dec. 1, 7-8. General hunting in the Sacramento-Guadalupe area is Nov. 9-18 for either sex.

With all the rain we have had this season the deer should be in fine shape.

Hunters Again Observe Red Hat Days

Red Hat Days will be observed in New Mexico this year on September 25, 26 and 27, by proclamation, of Governor Mecham. Sportsmen, students and all others are urged by the Department of Game and Fish to wear red hats or caps as reminders of the Red Hat Pledge, which reads: "I give my pledge to be law-abiding, to respect the rights and property of others, to be careful with fire and firearms."

The New Mexico Wildlife and Conservation Association and the New Mexico chapters of the Izaak Walton League of America are cooperating with the Department of Game and Fish in this campaign, first observed in New Mexico last October.

Stream Fisherman Gives Angling Tips

Some revolutionary ideas about stream fishing are to be found in an article by Ed Fite of United Press in Dallas, reprinted in the September issue of New Mexico Wildlife.

Fite quotes a longtime limit catcher on the Rio Ruidoso, who recommends the wearing of dark clothes, fishing with a fly rod with a four-foot leader, and "sneaking up to the bank under cover of brush."

Fite says that most fishing rules advocates working and casting upstream, but the fellow who pulled in his limit for 22 straight days is quoted to the contrary, "Drop your bait downstream slowly with the current." Well, read all about it in the September issue of New Mexico Wildlife.

Sight Plenty of Deer in White Mountains

Some choice deer-hunting areas are described by biologist Bob Stewart of the Department of Game and Fish, after his aerial surveys in the White Mountains of Lincoln County and Sacramento, Otero County.

In three hours of aerial counting time over the White Mountains during the latter part of August, Stewart counted 515 deer.

Ninety-three minutes of aerial counting time over the south and west sides of the Sacramento brought a count of 363 deer, and incidentally two bears. Too many deer for the range.

Fine Comes Higher Than License Fee

"It might pay to run, but it sure doesn't pay to run and get caught," says Law Enforcement Chief Ray Bell of the Department of Game and Fish.

Bell was talking about a fisherman who was approached by Conservation Officer Marlon Embrey on a routine check in the Ruidoso area. As he saw the officer approach, he ran into the timber in an attempt to get away, but he was caught in about 100 yards.

This 21-year-old Oregonian could have fished legally if possessed of a nonresident fishing license costing $8 or even a five-day fishing license costing $3. Instead he forked up $30 in fine

A SIERRA COUNTY GOLD RUSH

On the day before Thanksgiving more than a half century ago, a Spanish-American by the name of Silva, appeared in Hillsboro with several small-bottles filled with kernels of gold.

Silva was a member of a family which lived along the Rio Grande where Caballo Dam now is. If Silva had timed his appearance in Hillsboro, he could not have found a better day to spread news of a gold find. District Court was in session in Hillsboro, then the Sierra County seat, and people were there from all parts of the county. Because of the holiday, court was recessing until the following Monday.

By Friday morning of that week the gold rush was on. Soon Shandon was born, and the community gained enough permanence to acquire a post office. The excitement that spawned Shandon occurred about 1904.

One old-timer and a friend who were attending court in Hillsboro were among those who rushed to the gold area that was centered at the east end of what is now Caballo Dam. By the time they arrived, the old-timer said from 1000 to 1500 people were swarming over the area. They had come in by train, by horseback and afoot. They were there from Engel, Hillsboro, Kingston, and virtually every other town and settlement in Sierra and many other points. Some had walked from Rincon in Dona Ana County.

One of the first sights the two old-timers saw on nearing the river was a gold rush store-keeper bogged down with a load of grub and supplies. Ordinarily they would have helped the man, but with gold across the river they ignored him and rode on.

Before they left to return to Hillsboro, the two located a prospector by the name of Hopkins. He took them into the caliche area next to the river. There he showed them that wherever breaks in the caliche were found, there were a few kernels of gold that had been washed down from somewhere in the mountains.

Fall Fashion Notes For Homemakers

By LOIS JASPER
County Extension Agent

For you homemakers who sew here is interesting news on fall fashions, fabrics and fittings.

Fall fashion included a softening of the silhouette, defining the figure more gently. The softened look includes open necklines, back interest, unusual button placement and now sleeve treatments. No matter what the silhouette, one of the leading fabrics his fall will be jersey.

Pattern companies have special designs for new fabrics in dress, coat ensembles, as well as smartly tailored dresses. Choose the correct weight of jersey for your pattern—six or seven ounce weight is desirable for blouses, eight to nine ounce weight for dresses and skirts. For suits and coats, choose the nine and ten ounce weight. Fall's new look in wool jersey may be the ribbed look, vertical stripes, tweed, or sweater knit.

Your jersey garment must be on grain. Before you pin on a fold, cut the length of the fabric along a single rib, or run a basting thread the length of one rib. Pin-the-cut-edges-together or fold on the basting line and press the fabric.

When pinning and cutting, keep jersey flat and avoid stretching when laying the pattern.

A complete lining of taffeta or sanforized cotton should be cut for the garment. The jersey should be carefully handled as it is staystitched 1/4 inch from the cut edge. Or, the jersey and lining may be treated as one piece of fabric and the two staystitched together in one operation. Use a medium tension on the sewing machine and about 12 stitches to the inch.

To match jersey's elasticity, use Dacron thread and your seams won't pop. Twisted dacron thread is easier to work with than bonded. Silk thread is also resilient and may be used. Feed the fabric loosely—do not pull or stretch. If the jersey is lightweight, the darts may be made in the lining and jersey in one operation otherwise the darts are made separately in the jersey and lining before joining at the waistline and side-seams. Press all seams and darts as you go for professional look.

If the underarm seam, shoulder seam, neckline and waistline are reinforced with cotton tape, you may expect the garment to hold its shape longer.

Let the garment hang a few hours before hemming. A jersey lined skirt or dress may be hemmed in one of two ways. First mark and baste at the hem edge. About three inches above the marked hemline, baste lining and outer fabric together so that both hang evenly. Trim the lining to the hem edge and catch-stitch to the inner hem. Finish the hem and press the entire garment lightly with a medium-hot dry iron over a damp cloth on the wrong side of the fabric.

Another way in which the hem may be finished is to staystitch the side of the skirt, stopping 9 inches from the lower edge. Before stitching the side seam, clip the lining seam allowance only at the end of the staystitching. Start at the lower edge, stitch jersey skirt alone up to the lining clip.

Santa Fe, New Mexico, the oldest capital city in the United States, was founded in 1610 by Spanish colonists. Prior to that, the site contained a small Tano Indian village called Poge.

Capitan Downs Mountainair, 20-0

By JERRY LOBE

Capitan-downed Mountainair at Mountainair Friday, Sept. 20, by a telltale score of 20 to 0.

In the first quarter the Tigers received the kickoff on the 20 yard line and halfback Carroll Jones returned it to the Mustang 40. After a second down, the Tigers were penalized 15 yards for holding and were forced to kick.

At this point, the Capitán eleven woke up and held the stubborn Mustangs to take over the pignskin on downs. On the first play, Tiger quarterback Penny McKnight picked up 20 yards on a right end run.

In the next play, McKnight plunged 11 yards for the touchdown. Fullback Ralph Vance picked up the extra point through a tackle hole. Score at the end of the first quarter, 7-0, Capitán's favor.

In the next stanza, a long pass play, totaling 40 yards, from McKnight to Charles Lockhart started the second Tiger attack. McKnight beat out 25 yards on an option play.

Powerful Tiger fullback Vance set up the second touchdown for the visitors by lugging his way 20 yards around left end to put the ball down on the Mustang 2 yard line. Halfback Carroll Jones stepped over right guard for the TD. The attempt for the extra point failed.

In the second half of the game, the Mustangs came to life as they picked up 40 yards and advanced to the Tiger 15 yard line. At this period, the Tiger defense stiffened and Capitán took over on downs.

The fourth quarter was a repetition of the third, with both teams gaining and losing possession of the ball without noticeable progress. Late in the final period quar-

Getting Acquainted With Our Newcomers

(Continuing a series on new students attending Carrizozo High School)

By MARY NICKELS

David Laabs is one of the most interesting boys in high school this year. One reason for this is his ambition. He plans to be a chef, because of his liking for cooking. Also, he says that he does not want to be tied down, and he can move any time he wants to as a chef.

Although Dave can cook just about anything, steaks are his favorite. You tell him how you like it, and he will cook it. As a matter of fact, he has worked with a chef. This experience has increased his enthusiasm for the life of a cook.

David was born in White Lake, Wis., and lived there five years. At the end of that period the Laabs family moved to Mosinee, Wis., where they stayed for seven years, then on to Minocquan, Wis., where they resided for the next five years.

Mr. Laabs, David's father, is now the principal of our Junior High. They are living here. David is a senior and plays center on our football team.

We extend to David a hearty welcome, and sincerely hope that he and his family will enjoy living in our town.

Grizzlies Defeat Cloudercroft Bears

By BILLY LOPEZ

In a game played last Friday afternoon at Cloudercroft the Grizzlies defeated the Bears by the score of 14 to 0.

The game started out with Zozo receiving the kickoff, but little action was seen from either team until late in the quarter when Zozo penetrated deep into Bear territory but lost the ball on downs. Cloudercroft failed to gain as the Grizzly linemen kept throwing them for losses. Cloudercroft was forced to punt, but a bad pass from center to Navarro went rolling past the goal post for an automatic safety, to put Zozo ahead 2-0.

In the second quarter Zozo marched 70 yards and a TD, climaxed by a pass, L. Nowell to Aguilar good for 35 yards. The next play Saucedo went through tackle and end for 20 yards and the TD. The try for extra point failed and the score stood at 8-0 in favor of Zozo at halftime.

The second half opened with Zozo kicking off to Cloudercroft, with neither team being able to make any yardage. Late in the quarter Lonnie broke loose and went 45 yards through tackle and end for a TD only to be called back for a holding penalty.

The last quarter started out with a bang as the Grizzly backfield, led by Nowell, Saucedo and Gallegos went inside the 20 yd. line of Cloudercroft, only to be stopped by the Bears. The next play Aguilar covered a fumble. Gallegos ran for 14 yards to the Zozo 2 yard line. The Zozo backfield could not penetrate the Bears line and so the ball went over to Cloudercroft on the one foot line. Two plays later Maxie intercepted a pass and ran into the end zone to make the final score 14-0.

The Grizzlies will travel to Hatch this Friday where they will take on the Hatch Bears. The Grizzlies will be out to win and even the series which started last year, when Hatch beat Zozo 7-2.

Coach Burch said this week that illness and injuries will probably keep three regulars out of the Hatch game but that he hopes the Grizzly squad will be at full strength when they meet Ruidoso next week in a home-coming game.

LINCOLN

Mrs. Maurida McGrew was in the Carrizozo hospital with flu over the week end, but is well again and on the job teaching in Capitán.

Miss Barbara McGrew and Christine Jones gave a bridal shower for Mrs. Leo Robinson (Flora Jean Morris) at the school house last Sunday. Those who were able to attend reported having a nice time. The honoree received nice gifts.

Fall is definitely in the air in Lincoln. Maybe we've had a light frost.

Mrs. Priscilla Otero plans to leave in about two weeks to join her husband at his station in California. She and her little daughter will be missed.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles have been enjoying a week's vacation.

Lloyd Hulbert is home after a visit with his daughters in Albuquerque and in the vicinity of Raton. He enjoyed the visit. The Womacks brought him home Saturday.

Some of our Lincoln residents got a big thrill out of seeing the Northern Lights Sunday night. It was evidently an unusually brilliant display.

The state tree of New Mexico is the pinon (peen-YONE), a member of the pine family. Pinon wood was used as fuel by prehistoric Indians, and is still popular today because of its fragrance. Pinon nuts furnish food for wildlife, and Navajo Indians harvest them for their own use.

Legion Posts to Assist Vets in Applying for Eligibility Certificates

One hundred American Legion Posts in the Department of New Mexico will throw open their doors in the next few weeks to Veterans throughout the state, wishing to make applications for the eligibility certificates, for tax exemption, which all Veterans must have prior to January 1, 1939.

American Legion Post Hugh A. Carlisle No. 13 will host a State wide meeting on Saturday, Sept. 28, beginning at 1:00 p.m., at which time Manuel Armijo, Director of Veterans Service Commission, will instruct the post leaders and post membership in the methods of filling out applications, explaining to them what materials the veteran must have to substantiate his claim, and will present supplies to all Legion Posts for use in their own communities.

To be eligible for the tax exemption certificates, Department Commander W. Peter McAtee states that discharges must be honorable; World War I Veterans must have become residents of the state prior to January 1, 1934; World War II Veterans must have become residents prior to January 1, 1947; and Korean Veterans must have become residents prior to January 1, 1955. McAtee also stated that unmarried widows of Veterans who served in these three wars are also eligible.

Personnel will be on duty at the American Legion Posts throughout the State to facilitate the handling of these eligibility certificates after October 1, 1937.

News Notes From Along the Bonito

By LOUISE RUNNELS

HUNTERS PREPARE FOR TREK TO COLORADO

Getting ready for the annual elk hunt from Ruidoso, Bonito and Alamogordo are: Jim Byler, chief cook and time keeper (don't know what time means to these hunters unless they have a prize for the first kill); Robert Lloyd Runnels (first hunt); J. C. Harris, Emmett Reese, Henry Shier, Bill McCarty and sure shot Arvel Runnels. Others in the party: Paul Pelt, Chief Huey, Bud Crenshaw, Dick Witter, Col. Kelly and Col Judy. The hunters are going to rent horses in Colorado and plan a ten-day hunt.

Doc Foreman from Ruidoso is going along to Colorado to cook for about 15 Jal boys who are probably talking days and night, too, about their hunt. Lem Salles from the Ruidoso Riding Academy will transport the Jal boys' horses.

The boys from here plan to leave about the 13th of October. They don't know it, but all we gals have a trip planned to leave October 15th to go to Alaska and kill a kodak bear—We haven't asked Ralph Brown or Coke Hedgecock how many bullets to take along.

Loss Morris is driving the school bus this week for Fred Whitley, Mr. and Mrs. Whitley are going on vacation.

The Arvel Runnels made a trip to Alamogordo on Monday on business and to visit the G. I. Hutchisons.

Eula Corder, Sunday School superintendent at Anguán, wants folks to know the Sunday School there will be discontinued until further notice.

REBA JEAN BARBER WRITES FROM NEVADA

A letter from Reba Jean Barber sounds like they are a million miles away from Lincoln county.

"We are in Nevada," Reba said, "about 85 miles north of Las Vegas, a place called Hathaway Wells. It's right out in the desert not too far from Death Valley."

I'd rather those Perry brothers and Ralph would dig wells nearer home huh? Besides Cora needs Ralph close so he can shoot a lion that keeps killing Cora's chickens. She has lost about 400 now, and has shot at a lion, but the bead wasn't fine enough.

Reba Jean and Ralph went to California (about 360 miles from where they live) recently to see Becky and Barney Luck. They were feeling fine and settled again in California.

Reba gave us news of Buddy and Geneva Clary. They are in Puerto Rico, where Buddy is superintendent of a cannery. They like the country in spite of heat at times.

SUCCESSFUL D. A. V. MEETING IN RUIDOSO

Fred Sweet, Arvel Runnels and Jim Byler attended the D.A.V. meeting in Ruidoso Monday night. Paul Jones made it a successful meeting for election of new officers. Men were there from Albuquerque, Santa Fe, Las Cruces and Alamogordo.

Officers elected were: Jim Byler, chaplain; A. B. Harris, TV and Radio Sales Service of Ruidoso, was elected commander. Mr. Harris said he would call

Kennecott Gives Away Buildings and Land in Two Communities

Hurley, N. M.—Kennecott Copper Corporation is giving away more than a million dollars worth of buildings, land and equipment in Santa Rita and Hurley, W. H. Goodrich, general manager of the company's Chino Mines Division, announced this week.

The property will go to civic, religious, educational and fraternal organizations in the two towns where Kennecott's New Mexico operations are located, Goodrich said.

Total value of the gifts has been appraised at $1,147,600. Of this amount, $766,900 represents property in Hurley while the remaining $380,700 is made up of a meeting soon, but in the meantime wanted to get around a little more to get acquainted and his aim was to do some good for the organization.

Dan Storm is now senior vice commander; Paul Jones, sergeant at arms; Romeo Kline, adjutant; Arvel Runnels, junior vice commander, and Mr. Plummer takes Kenneth Ferguson's place from Albuquerque, as the State D.A.V. adjutant.

A couple of Carrizozo's football players were on the Bonito Sunday, Bobby Stearns and Billy Payne.

Had a short visit with the Bill Driggers. They have been pretty busy from the 22nd to 23rd with the yearly New Mexico State convention of sheriffs and police officers. On Monday night (23rd) they had a banquet and dance at Carrizo Lodge where about 148 attended and Ray Reed and his orchestra played. Mrs. Driggers estimated about 300 enrolled for the convention and felt it was enjoyed by all.

facilities in Santa Rita. Most of the property consists of buildings valued at $850,150. Equipment, mostly for recreational use, is valued at $79,050. Land included with the gifts was appraised at $50,200 and Hurley public utilities properties were reported worth $168,200.

The largest single contribution—valued at $509,750—consists of buildings, land and equipment given to the Cobre Consolidated School District. The second largest donation totaling $316,700 worth of property, was given to the Town of Hurley.

Other beneficiary organizations include the community churches in both towns, the Hurley Catholic Church, the Chino Clubs of Hurley and Santa Rita, the Casino club buildings in both towns, the Hurley Rifle and Pistol Club, the Copper Country Club, the Santa Rita Town Committee and the Santa Rita Masonic Lodge.

Most of the gift property has been occupied or used by the organizations which now have received title to it. Until this week, Kennecott had owned the buildings and equipment and had made it available to the various organizations.

Goodrich said the gifts were made in conformity with a company move to "get away from the paternalism of the old-fashioned 'company town'."

MISS MARIE NEILSON and "Beauty," one of the many trained horses who will entertain circus goers attending the Carson & Barnes 3-ring wild animal show coming to Carrizozo next Wednesday for matinee and night performance at 2:30 and 8 p.m., under auspices of the Carrizozo Lions Club.

Student President Elected at Hondo

James Sanchez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sanchez of San Patricio, was elected president of the Hondo High School Student Council last Friday, Sept. 20, after a very close race against Patsy Nunez, last year's president.

The student body showed a great deal of spirit and interest in the election. Ninety-eight students registered and voted after the enthusiastic campaigner spoke on behalf of their candidates in a general assembly. James is a junior this year and is a member of the Fermin S. Montes chapter of the National Honor Society.

Apples Are In The Food News

By LOIS JASPER

At this time of year, with the cottonwoods beginning to turn yellow, everyone is busy getting their winter food supply taken care of.

In this area, apples play a big part in jellies, canned goods and fresh winter fruit. There's an apple variety for every apple need. Most of them serve more than one purpose. The five most important varieties in New Mexico are:

Delicious: a good eating apple and in raw salads.

Golden Delicious: tops as an eating apple and also good in salads as it doesn't brown as easily.

Rome Beauty: baking apple and good pie apple. Jonathan: good eating apple if you like tart apples, good for pies and sauce.

Winesap: A good all-purpose apple.

The 1937 crop is estimated to be one of the largest ever produced in the state. In Lincoln County, harvest is well under way, but will continue for several more weeks.

There is a new bulletin of apple recipes and general information about apples put out by the Extension Service at New Mexico A&M College. It contains about 50 recipes for apples used as a main dish, in salads, in quick breads, as desserts, as beverages, for the littlest cook, and tips on freezing them. It may be obtained by writing to your county agent's office in Carrizozo for a copy. The following recipe is taken from it:

APPLE FRITTERS

(Fritters are special and especially good with any lean meat—cold, sliced or hot.)

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1 tablespoon sugar
Fat for deep-fat frying
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1 tablespoon melted fat
1 cup thinly sliced apples
Sift together flour, salt, baking powder, and sugar.

Combine milk, egg, and fat. Add to the dry ingredients all at once, stirring only enough to moisten. Stir in apples.

Drop by spoonfuls into hot fat (350-365° F.) and cook until browned.

Serve with syrup or sprinkle with confectioners sugar. (Makes 8 small fritters.)

Care for Fall Cottons

With special care, your dark cottons can be washed in your automatic washer.

Dark cottons should not be washed with light-colored clothes or liny items such as linens or towels. Check the fabric for color-fastness, then squeeze a portion of fabric in warm water. If fabric "bleeds", wash the garment separately.

Binding and trimming should be pressed between folds of damp white cloth to prevent shine which may occur when pressing dark fabric on the right side. Garments which are non-colorfast, or have non-removable trims, should be dry-cleaned.

Don't forget to remove shoulder pads and close zippers. To prevent unsightly stains, empty and brush pockets and cuffs.

Stains around the neckline, cuffs, or heavily-soiled areas should be sprinkled with a good detergent and rubbed between hands or use a soft brush.

Rinse well. Avoid wringing, or excessive spinning as they cause wrinkling. If allowed to "drip-dry," little ironing may be necessary.

To make ironing easier, "finger-press" the garment while it is drying (such as straighten seams, facings, collars, cuffs, pleats, etc.).

"A parent should have a definite end in view when he or she punishes a child," says a psychologist. Yes, indeed—in view and in handy position for warring up considerably.

"Why did daddy have to die?"

That morning he kissed her good-bye as usual. "Be a good girl," he said, "and I'll bring you a surprise." But he didn't come home that night—nor ever again. How can you explain a thing like that to a tearful child?

Death comes suddenly on the highway. No one expects to meet it, much less to cause it. Yet last year, 40,000 men, women and children died in traffic accidents throughout the country. Most of them didn't have to happen.

Remember this heartbroken little girl the next time you are tempted to take a chance—pass a stop sign—overstep the speed limit. Only you can put an end to such tragedies.

Now, during the peak driving season, accident hazards are highest—so be especially careful!

Here's how you can help stop traffic tragedies:

- 1 Drive safely and courteously yourself. Observe speed limits and warning signs. Where traffic laws are obeyed, deaths go DOWN!
- 2 Insist on strict enforcement of all traffic laws. Traffic regulations work for you, not against you. Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!
