

Capitan to Dedicate New Pipe Line and Filtration Plant at Sunday Program

Capitan will dedicate its new pipe line and filtration plant Sunday, November 24, at 2 p.m., with a program at the filtration plant.

Dedication marks completion of a project to bring mountain water to Capitan, started about three years ago.

The first step was the formation on July 1, 1954, of the Eagle Creek Intercommunity Water Supply Association, in cooperation with Ruidoso.

The original Association board was composed of Dan Swearingin, Harold Jones and A. J. Gates (Ruidoso); Don Murphy, Earl Harcrow and Fletcher Hall of Capitan, and Richard E. Strahlem, acting director of the New Mexico Department of Public Health.

On October 19, 1954, a contract was drawn to purchase from the Southern Pacific Railway 1,000 acres of land and six second feet of water diversion from Eagle Creek, the two towns to share equally. The purchase price was $10,000.

In August, 1955, an application was made to the state engineer to divert six second feet of water to the Association. The two towns shared ownership of the water rights when the state engineer gave final approval on July 30, 1956.

The purchase included the Southern Pacific pipeline which ran from the Eagle Creek intake to Angus.

Capitan, through a bond issue voted a year ago last April, built a new pipeline from the existing Nogal pipeline into Capitan. The line is about six miles in length and is gravity flow all the way.

Other new construction has been a filtration plant costing around $16,000.

The new water supply flowed into the lines November 8 to serve over a hundred users, with new applications coming in weekly.

W. F. Turney, project engineer, will be a guest at Sunday's dedication; also Ramsey Enix, executive vice-president of the Brodie-Enix Construction Co., and Frank C. Boyce, attorney for the Association and for Capitan.

Everyone in the county is invited to attend the dedication. Refreshments will be served.

Ramblin' Around Lincoln County

BY MRS. ROSE SITTON

Louis Falcohi, an Italian boy, was one of our special friends. He had been a wireless operator in the Coast Guard and was a TB patient at Fort Stanton. He had a wonderful understanding of radio and made his own receiving and sending set. When he got news broadcasts on his set, he would give a special ring on the phone and everyone in the Fort would listen. That was how we were among the first in the nation to hear about Villa's raid on Columbus.

Louis got well and went to Roswell. He worked for the Roswell Auto Company and married the daughter of a doctor in Roswell. He opened his own shop, selling and repairing radios and also did some instructing at the Military Institute. He fell, striking his head, in 1947, and died.

Fort Stanton had several divisions. Around the parade ground were the doctors' and nurses' quarters, the dispensary, the engine room, hospital, store and post office. Up on the hill, south of the main entrance, were the tents of the TB patients, and the Boars' Nest, a men's rooming house, where the working cowboys and transient stayed. Then there was License Row—a row of tents for the officer patients.

The chief engineer's quarters was at the site of the old hospital at the end of the main entrance road. The old hospital had burned some years before but the kitchen was not entirely destroyed. It was added to and made into a residence. Our place and the tailor shop, which was a make-over out-house, were what you might say out in the country.

Here is a clipping from the El Paso Times that has some names in it that will be familiar to many. It was about a Christmas party while we were living at Fort Stanton: "Mrs. A. P. Sitton's pupils gave an excellent Christmas tree entertainment in the Sitton home on Friday, Dec. 22. The following was the program given: Welcome, William Weber; declamation, 'The Wise Gifts,' by George Leach; 'Christmas Spirit,' Alice Weber; 'On Christmas Eve,' James Anderson; 'Santa and His Reindeer,' Edward McKeon; domestic science demonstration, Miss Ruby Hale; Hazen Brooks played the part of old Santa Claus in a pleasing manner, which filled the children with much anxiety. 'Dr. Charles Iby played the piano and added greatly to the program. At the close of the entertainment Dr. McKeon congratulated Mrs. Sitton and her students for the talented manner in which the program was presented. Those present were Mrs. and Mrs. E. Lewis, Mrs. Dr. Eucht and son Kemp, Mrs. H. Leach, Mrs. W. L. Weber, Miss Sallie Brown, Mrs. James Anderson, Mrs. F. C. Berry and daughter, Jean, Dr. Iby and Chaplain Frund."

I resigned at the end of the 1919 term as we were moving to Tularosa. I started to teach the second grade in Tularosa the fall of that year and continued teaching for eight years, through 1927.

From 1927 until 1934 I was a substitute teacher. I started a nursery school in 1934, averaging around 23 to 38 children daily. They were all five years and younger. We were able to do a great deal for these children, improving their minds and bodies. We arranged for dental work, for glasses and even had their tonsils removed when necessary. The mothers of the children were mostly in the government sewing class, a WPA project.

After we moved back to Tularosa, Mr. Sitton opened up an Army and Navy surplus store on a corner lot that he owned. He had no intention of going into the store business permanently, as he had in mind starting up a picture show. This he did the following year, in 1930, and the first show was in a store building. He later built the Muse-U Theatre building, where he showed pictures until its sale in 1947 to Ed Turner.

We moved to Carrizozo in 1947. Our son Alva and his wife Josie had come here a year earlier and bought the Lyric Theatre from R. A. Walker. Mr. Sitton passed away in 1948. I have continued to make my home in Carrizozo.

My brother, John, who is 86, is living at the present time with his son Dan McGuire and wife in Tularosa. My sister Ruth Knight, who is 81, lives in Corona, Calif. Another brother, Dan McGuire, 88, lives at Yuba, Calif. (The End)

Carrizozo Grades Have Open House

The Carrizozo public schools, grades 1 through 5, observed American Education Week with open house Wednesday afternoon. The observance was a week late due to a conflict with the hunting season.

Visitors and friends were many. Upon entering the grade school they were greeted by either Joe Moore or by Bradley Baker (fourth grade), the doorman, and by Mary Hemphill and Becky Barham (third grade), the ushers.

Grade school principal J. T. Clegg tried to personally meet all the visitors and help with introductions when they were needed. He also pointed with pride to the large school poster which illustrated the theme of American Education Week: "An Educated People Moves Freedom Forward."

Miss J. T. Clegg and Marvin H. Roberts poured either tea or coffee for the visitors. Other refreshments were cookies and salted nuts.

Classes as usual were in progress in all the grades. The rooms were decorated mostly in the Thanksgiving theme, including turkey drawings and cut-outs, turkeys made of modeling clay and pictures with fall colors.

Visitors who called at all the rooms met the following teachers: First Grade—Mrs. Sedell Bishop (22 pupils) and Mrs. Christine Eaker (24 pupils).

Second Grade—Mrs. Thelma Teague (17) and Mrs. Cordella Harris (17).

Third Grade—Miss Minnie Neill (23) and Mrs. Charles Wilson (25).

Fourth Grade—Mrs. Marlon Frazier (21) and Mrs. Louise Ferguson (21).

Fifth Grade—Mrs. Thelma Parrish (40 pupils).

It was pointed out that it was not possible this year to divide the teaching burden in the fifth grade, as was done in the lower grades. A similar crowded condition exists in the sixth and seventh grades. It is one of the problems that crops up every year and causes school people to lie awake nights wondering what the solution can be. More children flock to school every year, but money to build new classrooms and hire more teachers does not come that easy.

Commenting on American Education Week, Supt. E. G. Firman expresses the belief that "our own school system is advancing and progressing. Not only are we trying to improve our grounds, our buildings, furniture and equipment, but we also strive constantly to offer better courses, better teachers, and a wider curriculum."

Through the upper grades were not having open house Wednesday, Junior High principal, Bernard Laabs was glad to take any visitors through the junior high school building, showing them the classrooms and the band room, where the members of Carrizozo's future bands are working on fundamentals under the direction of Jess Lara, band director.

At a fire drill last week the entire junior high school building was emptied of pupils in 35 seconds, which will probably stand as a record for some time to come.

Bert Pfingsten of Hondo was a Carrizozo visitor Wednesday.

Lions Club to Put Picnic Tables in Park

Plans to install picnic tables in the Lions Park, opposite the Carrizozo Hospital, were made at Monday's luncheon meeting of the club.

A committee of members Arrel Posey, Albert Burch, Wayne Hamilton and J. T. Clegg volunteered to make the tables and set them up in the park.

Another committee of members Doll Ray, Fred English and Jete Voss will lay a new line of pipe and sprinkler heads along the west side of the park.

A profit of $146 was made on the rifle given away, which was won by George Perry of Glencoe.

This money will be used to help finance a Christmas party for around 700 youngsters expected to greet Santa Claus and receive treats.

24-hr. 'Quiz Show' At Phone Exchange

There's a 24-hour a day quiz game going on in the Carrizozo Telephone Exchange, but the experts who answer the wide range of questions don't receive a new car, a trip to Bermuda or an armored car full of cash. They get their weekly salary and that's all.

Operating this quiz game without prizes is the Mountain States Telephone Co., according to Russ Eddings, manager here. It's an audience participation game, with the telephone subscribers asking the questions of the information operators. These ladies are asked questions that are far cry from what they are supposed to do—provide telephone numbers.

"How far is it to Alamogordo?" "Where is the University of New Mexico located?" "How is Carrizozo spelled?" These are a few of the questions, along with such queries as "Did the Grizzlies win the ball game Friday?"

Whenever the operator knows the answer, she will give it. Otherwise she will refer the callers to a possible source of information.

It's not unusual—after 3 p.m. when schools are dismissed—to get calls such as "Can you tell me what Bobbie's telephone number is? He lives down the street and he's in my class at school?" This type can give the information operator a headache when the calls are in large doses.

If there's a power failure, callers want to know why—and they ask the information operator, not the power company.

"One person recently called from another city and was attempting to reach a person here. The information operator said there was no number listed to such a person. The caller then explained, 'Well, of course not, he's just visiting friends there for a few days.' All was well when the operator finally obtained the information as to who the visitor was staying with.

Mis-spelling of names provides one of the top problems—particularly where there are several spellings. The Jones, Bacas, Smiths and Chavezes also give trouble. The information operator must look through long lists of names to get the correct one unless the first name or initials are known.

Questions such as "What time do you get off?" from mashers go unanswered. Many of the information operators are married and have families. They're interested in providing information—not dates.

Snow Greet Farm Bureau Delegates

Raton, N. M., Nov. 21—(Special to the News)—Delegates here attending the state convention of the New Mexico Farm & Livestock Bureau woke up this morning to find five inches of snow on the ground. Snow fell intermittently all last night.

Most of Lincoln County's delegation will start for home early this evening, weather permitting. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Jones and Walt, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Shreengost, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sultemeier, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap and Joe Skeen.

Though she did not win the talent contest, Miss Mary Guck scored high with her number "Whispering Sands." She was accompanied to Raton by her mother, Mrs. Dorothy Guck, and by Mrs. Leota Pfingsten.

The convention today is sifting over approximately 135 resolutions submitted by the county locals.

Approximately 300 attending have had a good meeting, with fine speakers.

Hiram Brimberry Brings In Biggest Buck

Hiram Brimberry of Nogal won the biggest buck contest at the Harkey-Posey Lumber Co., and with it a 300 Savage rifle. His buck weighed 210 lbs.

Other big bucks entered in the contest were those of Jerry Beltran, 197 lbs., Bryan Hightower, 190; Natalio Chavez, 189, and Emil Strohmeyer, 186 1/2.

Two Escaped Convicts Turned Over to FBI

Walter Graham and Marvin Vohs, escaped convicts from the state penitentiary at Jackson, Mich., were picked up in Ruidoso Wednesday and have been turned over to the FBI.

Acting on a tip that the men might be headed for a cabin at the end of Ruidoso Canyon, Ruidoso city police, state police and three deputies made a stake out at the cabin. The pair were arrested when they drove up.

Sheriff S. M. Ortiz says they are responsible for the theft of five cars and four or five armed robberies, including one this week at El Paso.

Turkey Shoot Sunday Capitan Rifle Club

The Capitan Rifle Club is sponsoring a turkey shoot Sunday, Nov. 24, starting at 10 o'clock in the morning.

The shoot will be at the rodeo grounds, 2 miles east of Capitan. The targets will be bulls-eye and running deer.

Carrizozo Student Pledged to Sigma Pi

State College, N. M.—George Dean of Carrizozo, a senior at New Mexico A&M College, has pledged the Beta Xi chapter of Sigma Pi national social fraternity.

Dean, a business administration major at A&M, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Dean of Birmingham. He is a 1950 graduate of Carrizozo High School.

John W. Thompson, an attorney of Houston, Texas, is now associated with Attorney Geo. L. Zimmerman in his law practice in Alamogordo.

PICKETT DEMANDS YES, NO ANSWERS

Santa Fe, Nov. 20—Seven-Foot Pickett the Corporation Commissioner is preparing hundreds of letters for dispatch to Democratic public officials and party officials throughout the state demanding that they go on record for or against him for the Democratic nomination for governor.

He will file the "for" and "against" replies and will record the names of those not replying as against him.

The record will be for his use, Pickett said, after he becomes governor.

TO ASK JOB-HOLDERS TO TAKE AN OATH

The unconventional corporation commissioner is preparing for his next run for the big job with more care and confidence than ever before.

He disclosed the other day a plan to "swear in" his appointees to state positions with the same solemnity accorded elected officials. The appointees will take an oath on a Pickett family Bible to uphold the policies and ideals of the Pickett administration.

Another innovation schemed by Pickett is a governor's cabinet that will function with each member exercising authority over a segment of the executive department.

He plans to organize other elective state officials into a state advisory group for aid in patronage and policy matters.

Pickett's for-or-against letters are scheduled to hit the mail in early January. Meanwhile he will be occupied penning in post scripts on the form letters.

GENE BOWS OUT. MAMA CONSIDERS

It looks like State Sen. Gene Lusk of Carlsbad has bowed out of the Demo governor list for 1958 and that Mama Georgia Lusk may be bowing into the congressional list. Mrs. Lusk, the state school superintendent, won so much favorable notice with her scheme to double the science and math requirements in public high schools that her friends think she is ripe for another term in Washington. Mrs. Lusk is not admitting anything but she is obviously pleased with the talk.

DEMO FEMALES ARE SCRATCHING

The Democratic female contingent stands to make the 1958 run for nomination for secretary of state memorable in the annals of New Mexico politics.

Latest development in the scratching contest was a petition filed in district court by Mrs. Beatrice Roach Gottleb to make her name legally Beatrice Roach Gottleb so she could get in on the ballot that way.

Beatrice, who was secretary of state 1951-53, already has such a legal name but was fearful that the incumbent secretary, Natalio Smith Buck, wouldn't let her put all of it on the ballot. So like Seven-Foot Pickett she went to court to make sure her name is her own.

Mrs. Buck can't run for another term but it appears that (Continued on Page 8)

Along the Way..

By PAUL BAKER

Joseph G. Merkel, Carrizozo High School principal, has written a story that will appear in Magazine "AIR BE" a British aviation magazine. The story entitled "Tickets From Heaven" tells how the New Mexico State Police give tickets from airplanes.

Mr. Merkel accompanied the State Police early this year and was able to take many photographs from the plane of actual traffic violations while they were being made.

Stories taken by Mr. Merkel appeared on KOE-TV.

The British magazine was anxious to receive further stories. He is in the process of writing an article on "Rebuilding the Home of Smokey the Bear," which involves the using of Air National Guard aircraft to fly over the Lincoln National Forest and drop seeds furnished by U.S. Forest Service.

J. H. Fulmer, ambassador of good will of the Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, hands us an editorial reprinted from the Carlsbad "Current-Argus." It is titled "Six Ways to Make a Ghost Town" and tells how to do it by the following methods that are "broken by experience to produce bankruptcy, insanity, disappointment and suicides:

1. Tell everyone you meet that you never buy anything at home; the merchants are a bunch of crooks, robbers and cheats.

2. Belittle all efforts for community betterment; the people trying to do these things are secretly making a lot of money, want to run things, and their way of doing things is all wrong, anyway.

3. Never waste money by advertising or waste time trying to attract trade to town; nobody reads the ads, there is never anything in the paper, it's always late, and why should anyone want to come to town... it's a dead place.

4. Turn down all appeals for contributions, and do it in a nasty way so you won't be bothered again, because the money collected is eventually stolen by some higher-ups, anyway.

5. Refuse to serve on all committees, have nothing to do with civic organizations; the Chamber of Commerce never does anything and is run by a bunch of dimwits who want to get their names before the public. All the city officials are in office to get their share of the graft.

6. Knock the town, knock the schools, knock its present industry, the churches and stores, keep repeating: "The town is going to the dogs; things are better in other places; to invest in such a place would be the height of foolishness" and keep on knocking like a drunken woodpecker.

It would be difficult for one individual to produce a ghost town, but if he kept knocking long enough, he might get some converts. Likewise, one single community booster can live up a number of converts. The better sense is obvious.

Hunter Killed When His Rifle Goes Off

Two more accidents, one of them fatal, have marred the general hunting season in Lincoln County.

Johnnie Joseph Harrison, 20, of Roswell, died Sunday en route to the hospital in Roswell, after he had accidentally shot himself in the groin with his hunting rifle.

The accident happened at 10 o'clock Sunday morning when the victim, his brother Franklin Harrison and a hunting companion, Charley Beeman, were going down a slope in VI Canyon on the Grantham Ranch. They were trailing a wounded deer and Johnnie Harrison was between the two others. He stumbled and it is thought he brought the butt of his rifle down to protect his fall; that the hammer struck a rock and discharged a shell in the chamber.

The bullet severed an artery in his groin and lodged in his hip bone. The wounded man was brought out in a vehicle borrowed from the Padilla Ranch and they started for Roswell.

At Double Crossing they saw a State patrol car and stopped. Officer James Clayton was there assisting in the search for lost persons. He gave the hunters a police escort to Riverside, where Patrolman Odell Parrish and Captain Izzy Funk joined the escort. Young Harrison was still conscious when they drove up to Double Crossing at 2:30 p.m.

Officer Clayton followed in his car. Again, motorists failed to yield the right of way for emergency vehicles and he issued four citations on the way into Roswell.

An inquest was held Monday in Hondo and it was determined probable cause of death was bleeding both internally and externally.

He was an accountant for the Carrigan General Tire Co. in Roswell. He is survived by his widow, Dorothy Harrison of Roswell.

Reckless Shooting Cripples Youth for Life

Two unidentified hunters, shooting recklessly, crippled a Roswell youth for life. He is Larry Boggs, 18, of Roswell.

Amputation of his right foot at the ankle was necessary after a rifle shell had shattered the bone.

Young Boggs and his father were hunting in Baca Canyon mid-afternoon Saturday when Larry was struck by three bullets. Two men were seen about fifty yards away in the direction the shots came from.

One bullet struck the youth above his ankle. Another entered his left shoulder, and the third pierced his left arm pit.

Boggs was taken to the Roswell Medical Center. The men suspected of doing the shooting left the scene. It is said the victim wore a red hunting cap.

Sheriff S. M. Ortiz was in Roswell and Lovington this Thursday to check with hunters believed to have been in the vicinity of the shooting.

Square Dance Saturday at Ancho

Another square dance is to be held at the Ancho school house Saturday, Nov. 23, at 7:00 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

NEW MEXICO BRIEFS
 For more than 150 years, a native art called "saint-making" has flourished in New Mexico. In many of the small mountain villages, Spanish-speaking craftsmen carve religious images, called "santos" and "bultos," and these artisans are known as "santeros," or Saint-makers.
 A curious species of pine carries built-in fire insurance. The heat of a forest conflagration is needed to trigger the slow opening of cones and release of seeds. Thus the tree automatically replants a burned over tract.

Representative of Social Security Office To Be in Carrizozo
 Ralph H. Yowell, field representative of the Roswell Social Security Administration Office, will be in Carrizozo on Friday morning, November 22, to assist local residents in making application for old-age, survivors, or disability benefits and to give general information concerning the Social Security Act.
 He will be at an office in the Court House between the hours of 10 a.m. and noon.
 "How can I prove my age when I claim social security benefits?" "Will it take a long time to get my claim through when I claim my benefits?" "These are questions which are often asked by people claiming social security benefits, according to Mr. Yowell.
 "Most people do not have difficulty finding documents or records needed for their claims," he says, "even though they may not have an old birth certificate."
 "It is important, however, to be prepared in advance and to have your 'proofs' ready when you call at the office to meet the social security representative to file your claim for benefits. Not having these papers readily available when a claim for benefits is made can sometimes cause delay in getting your first benefit checks," Mr. Yowell said.
 Many different records can be used to help you prove your age for social security benefits. Some of them are: Family Bible records, old poll tax receipts, baptismal certificates, insurance policies, draft records, driver's licenses, and other records which show on them the age of the person. In addition to records of age, the widow claimant is required to present her marriage certificate.

 A dramatic club was organized at Carrizozo High School with Charles Dow, president; Zane Harkey vice-president; Betty Shafer, secretary-treasurer and Frank Perkins, reporter.
 The Captain Girls' Camp in Baca Canyon was to hold open house on Sunday, Nov. 21.
 Jess Roberts returned from a hunting trip. He killed a mountain lion, and he was going to have the pelt made into a rug.
 Miss Jane Clayton of Tularosa, winner of the Southwest beauty contest, was heard over Radio Station, KNX, as she appeared with Bob Crosby's orchestra.
 Mark Sloan won the T. E. Kelley gun contest with a buck weighing 224 lbs. Arvel Rinnell's buck, weighing 208 1/2 lbs., was runner-up.
 Roy Blalock purchased the Earl Bell farm on the Bonito.
 Belle Johnson filed notice of intention to make three year proof on her homestead. Her witnesses were Colonel Jones, Howard Barnes, Robert Ashby and Jack Pierce, all of Carrizozo.

Kennecott Company Assists Employees Being Laid Off
 Hurley, N. M.—Kennecott Copper Corporation's Chino Mines Division is working closely with the New Mexico State Employment Service in an effort to find jobs for employees who are being laid off at Chino under a cost reduction program. W. H. Goodrich, Chino general manager, said this week.
 At the same time, he added, the division's industrial relations department is conducting interviews with employees who have received layoff notices to inform them of any rights and benefits to which they may be entitled.
 In addition to supplying necessary background information to the state employment service, Kennecott also has sponsored advertising in areas where employment might be available, Goodrich said. Employment services in New Mexico and adjacent states also have been notified.
 A number of employees at Chino have been laid off as part of a cost reduction program which also will include campaigns against waste of materials and supplies and a move to Employees who have received layoff notices but who have not yet contacted the industrial relations department at Chino were urged to do so. Information is available for these employees on recall rights, insurance programs which may be continued, vacation eligibility and other benefits.

BURIED GOLD OF A TRAIN ROBBERY

Late in 1914 a southwestern old-timer came to San Simon, Arizona, with the intention of homesteading. While there he became well acquainted with another homesteader whose land was in the vicinity of the Cienega Ranch, southwest of Lordsburg. The Cienega was formerly a large cow outfit with range in both New Mexico and Arizona.

The homesteader told his friend that during the spring of 1914 while riding towards his place he had found a locked, Wells Fargo express metal box in the tall grass to one side of the trail. One end of the box had been cut open.

The finder said he took the box to the Southern Pacific agent in San Simon, who sent it to the railroad's office in San Francisco. He was told later that it was the box taken in a hold-up of a train at Stein's Pass, which is five miles east of the New Mexico line.

Gossip had it that there was $40,000 in the box — $5000 in Mexican gold and the balance in U. S. currency.

Stein's Pass was an ideal location for a train robbery because steep grades on both the east and west sides slowed trains almost to a crawl.

The homesteader near San Simon said peace officers had followed tracks from the holdup scene to the Cienega Ranch.

While they were questioning cowpunchers there, a boy became panicky and ran. The officers shot and killed him, he added.

Some years later the southwestern old-timer met an elderly man from Phoenix who told him the story of Black Jack, a former cowboy on the Cienega Ranch. This cowboy with the nickname of Black Jack—not to be confused with Black Jack Ketchum, a notorious train robber who was hanged at Clayton in 1901—was supposed to have been one of the three cowpunchers who held up the train at Stein's Pass.

The Phoenix man had heard the story from a Southern Pacific conductor. The railroader had become engaged in conversation with a couple from Atlanta, Ga., riding in a special car at the end of the train. They quizzed the conductor about Black Jack and the train holdup, and he told them what he knew about the robbery.

Then the woman, according to the Phoenix man, volunteered the information that Black Jack was her youngest brother who had come to the Southwest. She said further that her brother had returned to Atlanta, had gone blind in some years later and had died in her home. She did not mention whether or not her brother had returned home with considerable money.

Later, the Phoenix man said he became acquainted with an old prospector in northern Arizona, and that the latter had told him he was one of three cowboys who held up the train. This was the prospector's story as the Phoenix man related it to the southwestern old-timer:

After the holdup the three rode towards the Cienega Ranch. As soon as they believed they had put a safe distance between themselves and the robbery scene, they stopped and divided the loot. The prospector took the Mexican gold, the other two split the currency and rode off together.

The old prospector said he buried the gold near a fence

ALTO BRIEFS

By AILEEN LINDAMOOD

Earnest Shields of Holloman Air Base hunted in the community last week end and took a deer back for his efforts.

Bob Williams of Amarillo was here the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Peebles and Layrence drove to El Paso Sunday. Charlie had an appointment there on Monday for a checkup with a specialist. His friends are happy to know that he's recuperating nicely from his recent sick spell.

Elmo Taylor of Clayton was here during hunting season assisting Marlon Embrey in the State Game Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lowe of Los Angeles, who are visiting the Jim McEvers, made a trip to El Paso and back on Thursday.

Eldon Jones and family of Farmington came to be with the J. W. Von Rosenbergs last week end and do some hunting. While here he did bag his deer and went on back to be on the job there on Tuesday morning.

The G. A. Jays of Ruidoso come over to see the George Dingwalls last Thursday.

Wednesday, Merle Prinke of Albuquerque spent the night with the Lindamoods while on his regular trip through the territory for the Armstrong Cork Company.

The D. A. Kincaids of Albuquerque came back again for the second week end of hunting.

Donna Peebles was out of school last week with a severe cold. Her brothers, Jim and Marshall, were suffering from colds by the end of the week.

J. W. Von Rosenberg returned from Albuquerque to hunt again before the season closed for the year.

The Wayne Hamiltons of Carlsbad drove up on Sunday to enjoy the snowstorm and have dinner with the Lindamoods. The storm brought several inches of welcome snow to the entire community.

with certain markings. He then built a fire over the gold cache, and after the fire died down he scattered the ashes around the spot. He said he had always been afraid to go back and dig up the gold.

The Phoenix man said he made a deal with the prospector. He gave him a quitclaim deed to a gold mining claim in northern Arizona—incidentally it was an unpatented claim—in return for information that would lead him to the gold cache. The prospector drew a map with exact markings to locate the loot.

With the map in his possession, the Phoenix man said he packed out to the spot and found the markings. He never hinted what the markings were. While camped there, the Phoenix man said he became quite ill and did not dig for the gold, which probably was not buried at any great depth.

This question remains: Did the Phoenix man actually dig up the gold and mention "illness" in his story to the old-timer to cover up his "find"?

CAPITAN

BY MARGARET RENCH

We had a three-inch snowfall over Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, followed by strong, cold winds. We enjoyed it, but it was difficult for the hunters, many of whom stayed out until the last minute.

Capitan is quiet now, but it had the confusion of a city while so many hunters were here. They were able this year to enjoy, along with the rest of us, our wonderful new water. It would be hard to find anyone more happy about good water than we are at Capitan. It has been the finest thing to happen to our town.

Our village officials deserve much credit and praise for a job well done. We are proud of you.

Mrs. Nancy Sullins, whose home is in Capitan and who is cook in No. 4 at Fort Stanton, met with an accident on the job over a week ago. The finger-nails on the second and third finger on her right hand were cut off on the bread slicer. She has the fingers protected and is back on the job again. Nancy also had the misfortune to lose her glasses. She thinks they went out with the garbage. Anyway she and her husband who is employed there went to Roswell this week on their day off and she is getting new glasses.

Little Johnny Annaratone is recuperating very nicely and is getting stronger every day. We are so happy as he is such a pleasant, smiling baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howard and son Thomas of Albuquerque were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Howard, and other relatives, last week end. Tom and Thomas both killed their deer.

There will be union Thanksgiving services on Thanksgiving Day, the 28th.

Ray Provine Grading Capitan's Streets

Ray Provine is grading our streets, since all the moisture we have had the past month has left its mark.

He has been kept so busy with water construction and digging up pipes where leaks appeared it seemed he couldn't do more. We appreciate all of his efforts.

Capitan will dedicate its new pipe line and filtration plant at 2 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 24. There will be a program at the filtration plant and everyone is invited to attend. Refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Bert Cheney was a Roswell visitor last Tuesday.

G. A. Farmer and Vernon Hall of Lovington were dinner guests at the Jop Rench home last Friday. After a pleasant visit they departed to get ready for the hunt Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keen of Hobbs were also over-night guests last week. They returned to Hobbs Saturday, unsuccessful on their deer hunt, but having had a wonderful vacation.

Our ministers in Capitan formed an alliance last week. They have planned a potluck Thanksgiving supper at the school cafeteria on Wednesday evening, the 27th.

Carl Ness and Mr. and Mrs. Al Robinson of Alamogordo and Douglas Gladfelter of Elida were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gaston this past week. All were hunting.

R. G. Stewart was home for a day this past week from his work in Roswell.

I have just been informed of this news, though there were no details. Mrs. Gene Johnson, formerly of Capitan, now of Delta, Colo., died last week. They had been living there for a number of years. She had been ill for a considerable length of time.

Community Service at Capitan High School

Everyone is invited to a community Thanksgiving covered dish supper and worship service at the Capitan High School auditorium, Wednesday, Nov. 27.

The supper will be at 6 p.m., and the worship service at 7:45. The school will furnish the turkey and dressing.

Dora Peralta and her two children left by plane from Albuquerque Sunday the 17th for New York where they took a ship on the 19th for Le Harve, France. From there they will take the train the remaining 78 miles to Paris where her husband will meet them. He is in the Service and they will make their home there for three years.

The travel bureau assisted Mrs. Peralta with necessary information and supplied guides along the way. It has been six months since her husband left on his overseas assignment. We are all anxious to hear from her.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lostetter have moved to the Long apartment on First street.

A Happy Thanksgiving to everyone. I hope you find much to be grateful for.

Silver Tea and Bazaar Saturday, Dec. 7

The Capitan Women's Club will hold their annual Silver Tea and Bazaar at the City Hall, Saturday, Dec. 7 at 2 p.m. All are invited to come.

Mrs. D. O. Murphy and Mrs. Ray Provine are co-chairmen for the affair.

Basketball Practice Started at Zozo Jr. High

The Junior High School basketball teams have been working out for the past two weeks.

The seventh and eighth grades are under the direction of Mr. Laabs, and the sixth grade is handled by Mr. Mac.

Mr. Thorp is teaching tumbling to the boys not interested in basketball to provide halftime entertainment for the games.

Following are the list of boys on each squad.

Seventh and eighth — Ronnie Richards, manager, Ray Barrera, Roman Chavez, Robert Crenshaw, Nick Serna, Armando Borja, Lynn Stoneman, Frank Gallegos, Peter Aguilar, Tom Delgado, Dennis Hill, Charles Straley, Richard Means, William Greer, Dick Palomarez, Robert Luna, Charles Barnum, and Ebbie Nowell.

Sixth Grade — Miguel Borja, Kenneth Crenshaw, John Dimas, Glen Derefeldt, Faustino Gallegos, Buddy Roberts, David Harkey, Marvin Hill, Roger McDonald, Wayne McDonald, Donnie Rickerson, Michael Voss, and Joey Means.

Hondo Five Outscored Corona, 58 to 37

The Hondo Eagles started the basketball season with a bang, downing the Corona Cardinals 58 to 37.

Gerald Maez, a senior of Hondo and a flashy forward, paved the way for the Eagles as he sank 9 field goals and 10 free throws, not to mention his brilliant defensive playing.

The Eagles had to start the game with a technical foul because of the rulling on Jersey numbers; but, after tying the game at 9-9, were never headed again.

The full court press applied by Hondo had the Cardinals working hard throughout the game. Every man on the Hondo team was able to see plenty of action.

Score by quarters —
Hondo 17 14 16 11—58
Corona 9 7 9 12—37

Hays led the Corona "B" team, scoring 22 points to a 59-47 victory over the Hondo "B" team. Danny Sanchez was high for Hondo with 17 points.

LINCOLN

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Price now have quarters at Fort Stanton. We hated to lose them as neighbors, but everyone is glad they are now more conveniently located.

Mr. Pond and Clark Pfingsten are ill with the flu.

A searching party, headed by Bob "Junny" state policeman, located a hunter, an airman from Walker AFB, who had been lost for 24 hours in the hills south of Lincoln.

The airman was cold and hungry, but seemed to have suffered no serious effects.

The post office has a greatly appreciated new ceiling and is undergoing a much-needed face lifting.

Church to Have Preaching Revival

Rev. J. J. Spurlin, pastor of the Methodist church at Tatum, will be guest preacher at a week of revival services, starting Sunday evening, Dec. 1 at the Capitan Methodist Church.

The preaching revival continues through Friday evening, Dec. 6. All are welcome.

Junior Class Praised For Play Presentation

By ROY HERRERA

The Junior class of Capitan High School announces that their play, "Girl Shy" presented Friday, Nov. 15, was a big success. It was estimated that between 220 and 230 persons attended the three-act comedy.

Wilson Purcella, playing the part of "Chuck" stole the show in the last scene with his portrayal of a wildly angered auditor who had been in a fight with his girl.

Helen Sealfro, the "wash lady," followed closely behind him in her acting ability.

The entire cast was highly praised for doing such a wonderful job on the play. Play director, Fred Miller, was also complimented.

The Carrizozo High School play cast were guests of the show, since both classes selected the same play. In return, the Capitan cast is invited to attend their play, which is to be presented Thursday, Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m., in Carrizozo.

Hondo PTA Holds Panel Discussion

At the regular meeting of the Hondo Valley PTA on Tuesday, Nov. 12, a group of parents sat on a panel to discuss the subject of what our schools should achieve.

Moderating the panel was vice-president, Mrs. Albert Kimbrell, who introduced the following participants: Mrs. Leo Jolner, Mrs. Tom Babers, Mrs. Joe McKnight, Mrs. Fred Torrez, Mrs. Jean Maxwell, Peter Hurd, Waldo Nunoz, and Proceso Salcido.

Among the objectives of education that were expressed were an adequate stressing of the 3 R's, a wider emphasis on safety, counseling at the grade school level, more stress on English, an art program for all levels, placing character building in its proper place, and teaching Spanish in the lower grades.

Don Roush, field secretary for the NMEA, expressed his gratification at the interest the Hondo Valley school patrons were showing in their schools, evidenced by the large crowd in attendance and the lively participation in the discussion.

The routine business of the meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Brink Bandle. A social hour followed with coffee and cake served by the hostesses, Mrs. John Cooper, Mrs. Paul Pacheco and Mrs. George Blanceros.

STATE GAME DEPARTMENT

LOTS OF LOST HUNTERS

There were more lost hunters in the Capitan area this year than ever before, according to Ray Bell of the Department of Game and Fish. This was perhaps to be expected, in view of the heavy snow and fog. Moreover, there were more hunters than ever in the area.

Bell points out that many hours of Department men's time could have been saved in the search for lost hunters, if they had been notified promptly when the hunters were located.

In three instances the hunters had managed to find their way back to their own camps or to neighboring camps, but nobody had the good grace to let the Department men know that the hunters were safe.

LITTLE FISHERMAN

A 27-inch trout fell for a Colorado spinner the other day at Red River below the trout hatchery of the Department of Game and Fish. At the other end of the line was a beaming high-school sophomore, Jake Ortega, who lives at the Red River Hatchery.

DONATE THAT SURPLUS MEAT

Hunters who have surplus game meat are urged to contact the Isaac Walton League, which will distribute the meat to needy families for Thanksgiving dinners.

STILL TIME TO GET A DEER

Heavy hunting pressure with 50% hunter success was reported from deer hunting areas Sacramento-White Mountains and Capitan, where the season closed November 18. Hunters who failed in the northern areas because of inclement weather are pretty sure to do better in the southern areas. During the next three weeks ends the Hondo-Bonito area will be open, and from November 30 through December 2 the Oscura post-season is on. All of these require special deer tags. There is no limit on number of hunters in any of these areas.

In the north the only area still open to deer hunting is the Cimarron. Except for a small portion of this area in the Cimarron Canyon owned by the Department of Game and Fish, this is privately owned land not to be hunted without owner's permission.

IN 58 DAYS, A PLYMOUTH RAN 58,000 MILES

MORE THAN TALK AROUND TOWN

AND IT DROVE EVERY INCH OF THE WAY!

We knew this car was tough. We desired it that way.

That's why we weren't afraid to give Plymouth the toughest test run of all time... with all America as the "track."

We didn't coddle this Plymouth. Didn't crate it and ship it carefully from place to place. Instead, we aimed it out of Los Angeles one misty morning and sent it through a course that ran 58,000 miles through 37 states.

The time limit? Only 58 days.

A thousand miles a day!

The equivalent of 6 years' driving crammed into little more than 8 weeks!

Three times this Plymouth crossed the Rockies. Three times it wound its way up and down across the country... passing through more than 1200 cities and towns. Whipping over turpikes... creeping through city traffic... arrowing down super-highways... feeling its way through 500 miles of rattled detours. And when the drivers turned the key to end the marathon, it still looked, ran and rode like new.

This is what lasting value really means. The ability to take everything that American roads and weather can dish out—and come up grinning. Why don't you give Plymouth a test drive yourself—today? You'll see what we mean.

That's the Plymouth "trunk"... and just look at that route! Every possible road and weather condition. Plymouth ran every inch of that marvellous route 3 times in just 58 days. What greater proof of lasting built-in stamina!

Star of the Forward Look... Plymouth ahead for keeps!

Sandra Ann Hayes Celebrates Birthday

Sandra Ann Hayes celebrated her sixth birthday with a party at her home on the Bonito on Thursday, Nov. 14. Games were played and favors of prize boxes were given.

Birthday cake and punch were served to Billy, Bobby, Jan and Edith Fay LaMay from Philadelphia Canyon, Jeanette LaMay from Nogal Mesa, Benny Runnels, Genie McCann, Barbara Jean Skidmore, Sharon, Dwayne and Mike Alvis from Alto, Sharon and Kest Hayes.

Mrs. Tommy LaMay assisted the hostess, Mrs. Barrie Hayes.

The Collins Walkers and Charles Elams, with several friends, spent the week end in their cabins near Angus for a hunt. Some killed deer.

Over the week end guests at the Barrie Hayes home were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hayes and son of Eunice, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Hayes and son of Lovington, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kinman and son of Lovington, and a football star of Euclid, Finis Witherspoon, and friend, Hubert Brown Jr.

Zip Franklin and family spent a few days during hunting season in their trailer house on the Bonito.

The Charles Corders had many guests during the hunting season. From Lovington came Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wade and son Charles Henry, Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sparkman, Mr. and Mrs. Art Mahoon, Clyde Carson Jr. and son and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Floyd. From Graham, Texas, came Jan Daniels and from Fort Worth Mr. Harberson.

Shorty Gilbert and son Brooks and friend Ronnie Rodgers of Lovington hunted with some of the Angus folks.

The A. B. Kellys who have a cabin on the Bonito, had guests, Mrs. Kelly's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skidmore and daughter of Three Rivers, Texas. Bill got a nice nine-point buck at 6:40 on opening morning.

Most all the hunters around about Angus got their deer. Arvel Runnels killed a buck with a 30-inch horn spread.

Don Rousch Addresses Meeting at Hondo

Don Rousch, field secretary for NMEA, addressed a large crowd of parents and teachers at Hondo on Tuesday, Nov. 12. He gave an informative and inspiring address commemorating American Education Week by showing how teaching is one of the top professions of our country.

In acquiring the necessary knowledge, a teacher must receive adequate instruction in psychology, child growth, and the subject matter to be taught, he said.

The methods used to impart this knowledge through the channels of child psychology, child growth, and the three R's

'Tween Us Teens

By MARY (Ginger) NICKELS

Oh, tests, tests, tests! Does anybody have a gun they'll lend me? I don't think I can face 'em again. Just think, four more after this! Does anybody ever get used to them? I know I won't. How about you? Those poor teachers must really have it bad along with us, though.

Billie Jane Crumley came up from Lordsburg for the week end. It sure was good to see her too! By the way, do you remember Sharon Fulkerson? Well, she's going to school down there. How about that? If any of you are ever in Lordsburg, be sure to look them up. After all, it gets pretty lonesome away from the gang. I know I would be!

How did you like President Eisenhower's speech over TV? We're sure getting shook up over missiles! Let's hope we don't get caught with too little, and too late like we did once before!

Our first basketball game is coming up the 22nd. It's at St. Peter's in Roswell. Let's start a long winning streak fellows! I hope a lot of us can go to the game. It ought to really be a good one. With Carrizozo playing it's gotta be good! We just take it for granted. Again I say good luck to the basketball team.

Look for us again next week. Ginger—

Glee Club, Chorus to Depict Birth of Christ

The Junior High Glee Club and the fifth grade chorus are preparing materials for the presentation of a pageant depicting the birth of Christ. The staging will be complete with lighting effects and proper costume.

Two choirs will be used to back up the narrator and characters as the action unfolds reminding us of the real meaning of Christmas.

The department hopes to make this an annual event free to the public. Much is expected of this program and we have been informed that all who attend will not be disappointed. "Christmas by Candlelight" is to be presented on December 9, at 8 p.m. The public is invited.

make the teacher a professional in his position.

Mr. Rousch pointed out the unfortunate lack of adequate salaries for a group of professional and highly trained people who are responsible for America's greatest resource—our children.

His address, with the many details of the daily teaching duties, was an inspiration to both the parents and teachers of the Hondo Valley Schools.

Several parents visited classes during the week, a gesture which teachers always appreciate.

76 Beginners in Carrizozo Junior Band

The instrumental program has grown to 76 in number, according to Jesse Lair, Carrizozo band director.

"This means that within a year Carrizozo will have a band that will bring prestige and recognition in the music field to Carrizozo," he says.

The largest group which will make up the heart of the future band is the Junior High Band made up of 40 members. There are 18 more members from the fifth grade.

These eighteen members will be promoted to the Junior High Band this coming Spring. This will then enlarge the Junior High Band to well over fifty pieces, made up of members who have completed their course of study for the first year. All this promises to give Carrizozo a band second to none.

Carrizozo Stage Band To Play for Dance

The Carrizozo Stage Band performed during Carnival night with many comments of "well done." A program was presented which consisted of two instrumental numbers and two vocal numbers by the newly organized vocal quartet, "The Pastels."

The Pastels will be used along with several other acts to promote good entertainment, spirit and goodwill for Carrizozo schools.

The members of the stage band are now in the process of becoming equipped with identical sport coats which the members are buying, and band fronts (muscle stands) which promise to be an eye opener. The fronts are going to be built by Mr. McCollum and his force.

The stage band plays its first dance job for the FHA during the month of February. There the student body will get its first glimpse of them and also enjoy dancing to their offerings. The Pastels, of course, will also be with them.

Mr. Lara announces that any young lady who wishes to solo with the stage band may see him. Auditions for the position of band vocalist will close during the month of December. Any persons interested will be more than welcome to try out, he says.

Many Ideas About Food Habits are False

For centuries, man has tried to find "magic" diets to cure his ailments, or to keep him fit. Foods have been the subject of as much nonsense as anything else.

For instance, you've gone astray, foodwise, if you believe that:

Milk should never be given to a patient with fever. False. The patient's temperature has no bearing on his ability to take milk. Milk should form the basis of the diet, whether you're "sick" or well.

Yogurt and blackstrap molasses will keep you young and fit. False. These so-called "wonder foods" do not contain unusually nutritious properties.

Such combinations as milk and fish, ice cream and oysters, buttermilk and cabbage, are poisonous. False. No experimental or clinical evidence shows that combinations of natural foodstuffs are harmful. If two foods can be eaten separately, they can also be used in combination without harm.

Vegetable juices have magic health-giving qualities. False. No vegetable or fruit or its juice has a specific disease-curing property. The nutritive values of vegetable juices and vegetables are about the same. Whole vegetables are an important source of bulk in the diet.

Large amounts of gelatin dissolves in water and taken as a food supplement will strengthen fingernails. False. Fingernail formation apparently is influenced by a number of factors. Gelatin is a pure protein. Whether protein of itself, in any form, will improve fingernail condition is questionable.

Farm Program Not to Be Scrapped: Benson

Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson recently reassured farmers that he had no intention of scrapping farm programs.

The Secretary said, "I have not suggested, and am not now suggesting, that we scrap government programs to assist farmers. I have not suggested, and am not now suggesting, that we scrap price supports."

"There is much that is good in our present government programs for agriculture—and all that is good we must keep and strengthen. I have suggested that our farm programs be changed to meet changed conditions—and to effectively help farm people better their bargaining position—to help farm people secure a better living from the land."

He pointed out that we face two problems in agriculture. One is to reduce surpluses to manageable size. The other is to expand markets for farm products and raise the bargaining power of farm people as they move their products through marketing channels.

Regarding this year's outlook, Secretary Benson said, "1957 will not be as good a year for farmers as both you and I would like it to be. But it will be a much better year than would have been possible if real progress had not been made in expanding markets and in reversing the trend on surpluses."

"Net farm income will be higher this year than last. It was from the diet to cure arthritis. False. There is no evidence that any food will either cause or cure this disease.

Fish and celery are brain foods. False. Special foods do not build special tissues.

Farmers Should Study New Soil Bank Features

New provisions in the Soil Bank's 1958 Conservation Reserve program should be taken into consideration by farmers who are beginning to work out plans for their 1958 farming operations, according to Ed Heringa, chairman, New Mexico Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The chairman reminded farmers of several features of the 1958 Conservation Reserve that were not in effect in 1957. One such feature is that a producer is permitted to place additional land in the Conservation Reserve at the nondiversion rate (30% of the regular rate) up to the number of acres which are placed in the Conservation Reserve at the regular annual payment rate.

Under the 1958 regulations, farmers may also place any acreage in the Conservation Reserve at the nondiversion rate which is to be devoted to forest trees. These provisions will apply to contracts which start with 1958 and subsequent years.

Heretofore, farms for which the Soil Bank base was more than 30 acres were prohibited from placing any acreage in the Conservation Reserve at the non-diversion rate unless all the eligible land on the farm was placed in the Conservation Reserve. (A farmer's "Soil Bank base" is the average amount of land devoted to Soil Bank base crops—generally all crops produced for harvest except hay crops—on farm in 1956 and '57.)

Mr. Heringa also reminded New Mexico farmers that this new regulation provides that a farmer who has been practicing the Conservation Reserve 1 acre of land which he would normally summer fallow for each acre taken out of crop production higher last year—on a per-farm basis, higher by 7%—than the year before. This is the first time we have had two successive peacetime years of improvement in net income to farmers since 1947.

Outstanding Speakers Scheduled for S. W. Irrigation Exposition

Several outstanding authorities on water management in the West will be featured speakers at the Southwest Irrigation Management Exposition at the Eastern New Mexico Fairgrounds in Roswell, December 5, according to Robert L. Gulce, extension soil conservationist at New Mexico A&M College. The exposition is sponsored by the New Mexico Inter-Industry Electric Council, the New Mexico A&M Extension Service, and other state and federal agencies.

Speakers and their subjects at the day-long event are: "Irrigation Water in the Lower Pecos Valley and Adjacent Areas," Steve Reynolds, New Mexico State Engineer, Santa Fe.

"Wise Use of Irrigation Equipment—Surface and Sprinkler," Ivan D. Wood, USDA, retired, Denver, Colo., and Guy O. Woodward, educational director of the Sprinkler Irrigation Association, Salt Lake City, Utah.

"Irrigation Pumping Power Units—Electric and Internal Combustion," John F. Schrank, irrigation engineer, Irrigation Equipment Co., Denver, Colo.

"Home Management in the Arid Southwest," Clara Sherbourne, home economist, Hotpoint Company, San Francisco.

"The National Farm Economy," Dr. Herrell E. DeGraff, economist, Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y.

"Farm Management in the Southwest," Vern Englehorn, secretary, Western Farm Management Service, Phoenix, Ariz.

Another feature of the exposition will be an exhibit of the latest types of farm machinery and irrigation equipment, demonstrated by commercial concerns.

Presiding chairman at the Exposition will be William M. Harr, Southwestern Public Service Company, Roswell; Jay D. Lasater, manager, Otero Electric Cooperative, Cloudcroft; and Al W. Woodburn, Chaves County extension agent.

TOO LITTLE, TOO LATE is the way we Dodge dealers feel about competitors' efforts to match the Sweep-Wing 56. They lowered the roof some, but left the sides high. Their windshield got smaller while ours got bigger. So much for styling. Then, for another important comparison, take ride. Here's Dodge with Torque-Aire suspension that just about every body admits is the greatest advance in sway-free, dip-free, silent going that any car offers. So what do these other cars do? They borrow an air suspension system that's been used in buses for two years! (Costing well over $100.00 extra.) And most of 'em still don't have push-button driving—much less Dodge TorqueFlite—the proven automatic transmission. If you're a little disappointed in the '56 version of your car, come on in and see our Sweep-Wing 56. The others are catching on—but they can't catch up.

News Notes From Along the Bonito

By LOUISE RUNNELS

John and J. G. Vanderpool from Ft. Stanton spent the night on the Bonito last week. John killed his first deer with one shot in the shoulder. John's mother, and friend Angela Collander came to Bonito after the boys and the deer. Mrs. Margaret Vanderpool and Miss Angela Collander are nurses at the Fort Stanton hospital.

Emmett and Sally Reese have had hunters from Waco, Texas, this week—Emmett's brother, J. B. Reese, and Bill Huber. These boys both got their deer while hunting on the Bonito. J. B. is president of the Texas Shrine Motor Patrol in Waco.

Hunters from Roswell were: Butch Burry, John Hillis and Richard Kechr.

Fred Sweet Sr. killed a nice five point buck. Fred never fails to get his buck each year. He has a secret "hide out" or else keeps one tied 'til season. Every one is always glad to see Fred kill a deer as he gives us a good story.

Fred Sweet Jr., Dick Kondo and Joe Black had luck before it was too late—each got his buck before bad weather.

Fred G. Ladd Jr. from Holloman Air Force Base and friends "Brush Beaters" Floyd Wright and Tony Nunez have been busy hunting. Fred carries a German boar rifle .58 caliber cap and ball. To load it takes 96 grains black powder and a 365-grain ball—put grease in the end of the barrel—come rag, powder and a ball about the size of a marble—lamp well and yea, I shot th' thing—quite a kick! Our forefathers didn't have it easy with a rifle like that one. Oh, yes, he had a grease cap in the handle of the gun and a horn fulla powder.

Mike Dailey and family were on the Bonito for a few days hunting. Mike is a state plumbing inspector. He killed a six point buck. The Daileys are from Carlsbad.

Pug Ecklund's horse fell with him while high in the mountains and broke two of Pug's ribs. Emmett Reese took him to Dr. Horton in Ruidoso.

Bob McProud and Mary are back on the Bonito again this week to make a last try for Bob's buck—he wouldn't settle for an ole doe.

Shorty Saunders (Jack) and Tom Barga from Carrizozo were among lots of hunters Saturday trying their luck.

Yes, there's deer in these hills. Pete Rowden's father-in-law, Mr. McSwain from Albuquerque, killed his buck right across the road from Pete's house on the hillside.

Speaking of an easy kill—Doc Forman who was busy in camp at Bear Canyon cooking for the Jal boys saw a big buck watering with the horses and knocked him over. If he had told me the deer was eating hay—I wouldn't have believed it.

Bob Moore, who has a filling station in Ruidoso, and friend Kenneth Gress from the Spanish Nook were hunters Saturday on the Bonito.

Hugh and Nina Trullitt are back in T or C now for the winter. Hugh got his buck.

Jerry McClung and children from Albuquerque were visiting lately with Jerry's folks in Capitlan. They made a scenic drive up to the Bonito Dam. Jerry was chauffeur and the two rode in back of the pickup to be sure and see everything. They weren't comfortable at the dam—they were afraid it might wash down anytime.

Airman 1/c Sgt. Jack L. Gerber, wife and two young sons spent four days hunting on the Bonito. Jack got his four point buck and they were on their way home, but weren't at all at ease. Wife Jan had lost their house keys and Jack lost his billfold while on a hunt horseback.

Joe Rodgers, his father and friends were in these parts hunting and Joe's father got his buck.

Obliging Buck Waits While Hunter Gets Ready for Careful Shot

George and Beulah Runkle from East Grand Plains were on the Bonito the last day of deer season. As they started home in the evening with long faces they saw a big buck near the road looking them over. George got his gun real quick as the deer ran a short distance and stopped again. George decided the deer wasn't in a hurry so he unloaded a sand bag from his car trunk, made himself a rest, and the buck was soon loaded in place of the sandbag and the two went on—but smiling. I saw them in Capitlan.

Mrs. Alvis Garland from Alto was on the Bonito first day of hunting season looking for the little dog that we'll remember found the airplane that fell near Eagle Creek Lodge last year and barked enough to show folks where to look for the crashed plane with two men. Hope he's at home now.

"Bood" (Dearwood) Reed from Jal killed a big bear up near Tom Bragg's barn. We hope it was "Ole Three Toe." She's been killing pigs for Tom every year. Tom "putnear" caught her once.

Lester Greer and Bertha are in these parts from El Paso. Lester went to Tom Bragg's one day to help get winter wood—good boy Lester!

Francis and Harold Sellars and visiting relatives were here from Alamo Sunday. They thought the snow was beautiful and said it was also pretty in the Mesquero reservation.

Richard Moore from Jal got a nine point buck while hunting with the Jal boys.

Archie Fitzsimmons from Tucumcari hunted with Bryan Cucazar on the Bonito. Archie has been in Tucumcari for three years and has a gun shop there. Before that he lived in Hawaii several years. He stopped by Bonito to visit with Jim Byler. He and Jim had fun years ago out on a wagon camp and in Tucumcari.

Sid Wadell was on the Bonito from Ruidoso Friday. Sid is a distributor for the Nutrilite food

The Jal boys checked out the canyon before season was over. They got their deer and had lots of fun. After talking with them about the elk hunt in Colorado last month, I learned the majority of these boys didn't feel too bad—at least they said "We didn't have to hire a professional guide to take us into a big bull elk's nest." We know this happened to one of the Jal boys, most commonly known as "Hard Head."

I expect most of us women who don't hunt are glad season is over—what with long whiskers, the tall tales, cooking beans, a bed "Mutniked up" from the smell of capthire smoke, deer and saddle perfume.

J. C. Harris killed a big buck and was the only hunter in our bunch to get a gobbler—"Weed turkey" in mountain words.

2. That if any person claiming or asserting under, or by virtue of, any unpatented mining claim located prior to July 23, 1935, any right, title, or interest in the vegetative surface resources and other surface resources, under such mining claim, contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of said act, as to the above-described lands or any part thereof, shall fail to file in the Land Office of the Bureau of Land Management at Santa Fe, New Mexico, and within 150 days from the below-stated date of first publication of this Notice, a verified statement which shall set forth as to such mining claim:

- (1) The date of location;
- (2) The book and page of recordation of the notice or certificate of location;
- (3) The section or sections of the public land surveys which embrace such mining claim; or if such lands are unsurveyed either the section or sections which would probably embrace such mining claim when the public land surveys are extended to such lands or a tie by courses and distances to an approved United States mineral monument;
- (4) Whether such claimant is a locator or purchaser under such location; and
- (5) The name and address of such claimant and names and addresses so far as known to the claimant or any other person or persons claiming any interest or interests in or under such unpatented claim; such failure shall be conclusively deemed (i) to constitute a waiver and relinquishment by such mining claimant of any right, title, or interest under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with the limitations or restrictions specified in section 4 of the Act of July 23, 1935 (49 Stat. 867), as to unpatented claims located after that date, and (ii) to constitute a consent by such mining claimant that such unpatented mining claim shall be subject to said limitations and restrictions, and (iii) to preclude thereafter, any assertion by such mining claimant of any right or title to or interest in or under such mining claim contrary to or in conflict with said limitations or restrictions. Section 4 provides, generally, that unpatented mining claims located after July 23, 1935 shall not be used for purposes other than prospecting, mining, or processing ores, or uses reasonably incident thereto; that such claims will be subject to the right of the United States to manage and dispose of the vegetative surface resources thereof and to manage other surface resources thereof; and that, except to the extent required for mining operations and uses reasonably incident thereto or to provide clearance for such operations or uses, claimants of such claims shall not use or dispose of vegetative or other surface resources thereof; and that, except for clearance for such purposes, any permitted severance or removal of timber must be in accordance with sound principles of forest management. Said Section 4 also provides that any use of the surface of any such mining claim by the United States, its permittees or licensees, shall be such as to not endanger or materially interfere with the prospecting, mining, processing or reasonably incident uses by the mining claimant.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF PUBLIC AUCTION

OF STATE LANDS
LINCOLN COUNTY
SALE NO. 3123
Office of the Commissioner of Public Lands Santa Fe, New Mexico

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the provisions of the Act of Congress, entitled Enabling Act for New Mexico (38 Stat. 557), approved June 20, 1910, the laws of the State of New Mexico, and the rules and regulations of the State Land Office, the Commissioner of Public Lands, subject to the conditions hereinafter set out, will offer for sale at public auction, to the highest and best bidder at 10:00 o'clock, A. M., on January 6th, 1938, at the front door of the County Court House, in the City of Carrizozo, New Mexico, subject to existing rights, easements, rights of way, lease or leases, if any, the following described state institutional lands, to-wit:

ALL of Section 23, Township 2 South, Range 15 East, N.M.P.M., containing 640.00 acres, more or less, according to the government survey thereof. These lands are located approximately 16 miles southeast of Corona, New Mexico.

Said above-described lands have been appraised at $6.75 per acre and no bids for a less amount will be considered.

Any person desiring to qualify as a bidder, other than the applicant who has requested said lands to be offered for sale and who has complied with the rules for so doing, is required to deposit with the Commissioner of Public Lands, or his agent conducting the sale, prior to the hour set for the sale, the sum of $205.00 to cover the cost of appraisal, advertising, filing fee and other expenses connected with such sale. An advance payment of 5% of the appraised value of the lands will also be required to be deposited as evidence of good faith, and not to be refunded if party or parties be highest bidder for lands offered for sale. Deposits shall be in cash or in the form of a certified check drawn to the order of the Commissioner of Public Lands. All deposits made by unsuccessful bidders shall be refunded.

The purchaser at the time of said sale will be required to pay five (5%) per cent of the amount bid, less the 5% appraised value deposited in advance, plus $13.00 being the appraised value of the improvements on said lands. The balance of the purchase price will be payable in thirty (30) years with interest on all deferred payments at the rate of four (4%) per cent per annum in advance. In addition, the purchaser at the time of sale shall be required to pay for the improvements on the above-described lands, in the event the improvements are not owned by the said purchaser. Payment for such improvements shall be in cash or in the form of a certified check drawn to the order of the Commissioner of Public Lands.

All minerals of whatsoever kind, including oil and gas, are reserved to the State of New Mexico.

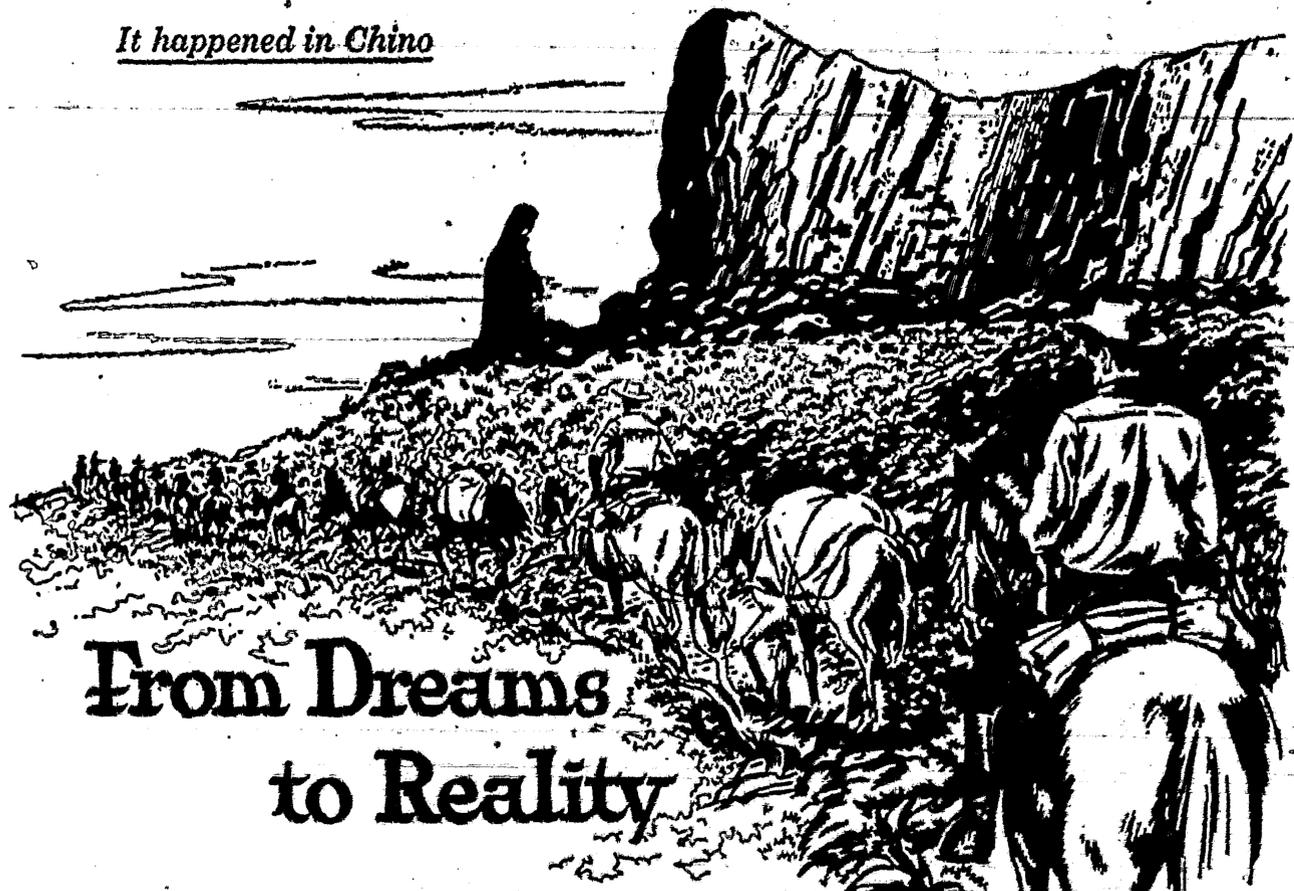

The right to reject any and all bids is expressly reserved and no sale shall be effective unless and until approved by the Commissioner of Public Lands.

Detailed information concerning this offer of sale, the lands involved, the improvements thereon, if any, and other matters related thereto may be obtained by writing to the Commissioner of Public Lands, State Land Office, Santa Fe, New Mexico.

DATED at Santa Fe, New Mexico, this 18th day of October, A. D. 1937.

It happened in Chino

From Dreams to Reality

Historians tell us that in about 1800 Spain ordered its army to exterminate the Apaches in what is now New Mexico. But by a twist of fate, it was the friendship of a Spanish officer and an Apache that led eventually to the development of one of America's great copper mines—Chino.

The friendly Indian showed Lt. Col. Manuel Carrasco a piece of native copper and told him about the outcroppings in the Santa Rita area. Dreaming of riches, Carrasco resigned from the army and headed north with 24 men. His first glimpse of the region was the rock formation named "The Kneeling Nun."

Carrasco and his men worked over the nearby outcroppings, and started the first sustained effort to produce copper in Chino. But Carrasco's dreams of riches faded as his problems mounted. There were Indian raids and transportation difficulties. Carrasco's limited capital was insufficient to tide him over, and in 1804 he was forced to sell to Don Francisco Elques, a Mexican banker.

Carrasco learned that mines are made, not found.

Kennecott has long known this axiom. It, too, faces problems. True, there no longer are Indian raids, transportation difficulties or lack of capital. Today, the problems are centered on increased operating costs. Mining equipment and supplies are more expensive; taxes are up, and payrolls have increased substantially. Also, the problem is made greater by the recent drop in the price of copper.

Kennecott, which has operated successfully in the past by solving many problems, is tackling the present one by studying all phases of its New Mexico operations to see where economies can be effected—how efficiency can be raised. Bringing operating costs in line can help Kennecott continue to compete successfully with other copper producers and so continue to produce the benefits that mean so much to our state's prosperity.

This is the second in a series of advertisements pointing out highlights in the development of the copper industry in New Mexico.

JEST IN FUN

It happened on one of those children's television programs. "So your father works in a factory?" the master of ceremonies beamed. "What does he make?"

The five-year-old smiled back as he answered, "Payments."

"Can you let me borrow $10?" Brown inquired of Jones.

But Jones replied that he wouldn't. "My dear friend," he said, "the loaning of money destroys friendship, and your friendship is worth more than $10."

"All right," answered Brown. "Then let me have $100."

"Does this package belong to you? The name is obliterated."

"Can't be mine. My name is Smith."

"A sight-seer was just emerging from a cave. 'What's the average tip you receive from each person you take through this cave?' he asked confidentially of the guide.

"The average tip, sir, is a dollar."

This seemed a little high for the short time it took to go through, but not wanting to be ungenerous the sight-seer produced a dollar bill.

"Thanks, thanks kindly!" exclaimed the guide. "You're the only gentleman who has reached the average in my whole experience."

The officer stopped the man going down the street clad in a barrel. "Are you a poker player?" he asked.

"No, I'm not," the man replied "but I just left a bunch of fellows who are."

County Savings Bonds Buying Exceeds Goal

S. E. Grelsen, chairman of Lincoln County's Savings Bonds Committee, announces that residents of the County invested $23,126.45 in E and H Bonds during October.

During the first ten months of 1957, County residents invested $114,273.01 in E and H Bonds.

The county has now attained 106.11% of its annual goal of $105,700, the chairman reports. He urges people to complete their Savings Bonds purchases before December 15, to make certain that they will be credited to this calendar year.

He reminds us that Savings Bonds make perfect gifts—the gifts that keep on giving. A free, beautiful gift envelope is available wherever bonds are sold.

FLYING SAUCER GROUNDED

A weather balloon, the first he had ever seen grounded, was found by Byron Perry of the Department of Game and Fish in a pasture east of Roswell last week. Withholding his male curiosity about what its box contained, Perry notified Walker Air Force Base of the whereabouts of the balloon. "I didn't even pull the lid off the box to see what was inside," said Perry, with pardonable pride.

tourist director would be a sure entry for the spring run. That would make it at least a three-way race with Pickett, Bursey and John Burroughs of Portales. Ernie Tucker of Roswell, the Democratic state chairman, is the latest one to talk about going for governor.

FIGHT BUILDING AGAINST LAMB

There's a gang-up developing among some Democratic politicians against Corporation Commissioner Jim Lamb who is up for renewal next year. They're complaining that the Las Cruces commissioner forgot his friends after getting in office five years ago and are plotting to back Jess Kornegoy, Santa Fe county commissioner. The opposition to Lamb is extensive but at this point doesn't appear to be of a fatal nature.

BURSEY GAINING, SURE TO FILE

Joe Bursey's quiet but persistent push for support for Demo nomination for governor has been paying off and it appeared this week that the former state she is going to be up to her neck in the race just the same. Currently she is reportedly favoring Betty Fiorina.

CAMPAIGN FEVER AT HIGH LEVEL

There are about a dozen females after the nomination each talking about her opponents. Three, Gottleb, Fiorina and Mrs. Eveline Robinson, have been campaigning full time for three months and the election is still more than five months away.

MONTOYA CHOSEN AS DENNIS REIR

Members of Sen. Dennis Chavez family have been confiding that young Rep. Joe Montoya has been chosen heir to the old senator's place. It's nice of them to pick someone . . . Ira (Socks) Miller, the state highway construction engineer and slated to be the state's turkey of 1958, has job offers in Arizona and with contractors here . . . Joe Montoya the congressman is campaigning along the Mexican border in Texas for the Democrats . . . Joe Clark of Santa Fe, long-time employe of the secretary of state's office, is getting some attention as a prospect for Demo nomination for treasurer.

Calvin Horn who lost his senate place in the 1956 elections would like to run for lieutenant governor. He's an Albuquerque Democrat.

Band Boosters to Raise Money for Uniforms

The Corona Band Boosters at their regular November meeting decided to raise money for new band uniforms.

They will give away an electric blanket this month, and are planning a bingo party for December 12.

The band has made trips to Roswell and Las Vegas, and will go to Truth or Consequences for the Ralph Edwards Fiesta next spring.

County Savings Bonds Buying Exceeds Goal

S. E. Grelsen, chairman of Lincoln County's Savings Bonds Committee, announces that residents of the County invested $23,126.45 in E and H Bonds during October.

During the first ten months of 1957, County residents invested $114,273.01 in E and H Bonds.

The county has now attained 106.11% of its annual goal of $105,700, the chairman reports. He urges people to complete their Savings Bonds purchases before December 15, to make certain that they will be credited to this calendar year.

He reminds us that Savings Bonds make perfect gifts—the gifts that keep on giving. A free, beautiful gift envelope is available wherever bonds are sold.

MISS PATRICIA DELL YOUNG

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Young of Carrizozo announce the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Dell, of Carrizozo, to Harold Cecil Ely Jr., son of Rev. and Mrs. Harold Ely of Carrizozo.

Miss Young is a senior in Carrizozo High School and has been in band three years. F. H. A. two years, drum major one year, majorette one year and cheerleader two years.

Mr. Ely is a graduate of Roswell High School and at the present time is employed by the Fu-Way Cleaners & Laundry.

Both of the young people are active in church work.

The wedding will take place in the month of June at the First Baptist Church in Carrizozo.

N. M. Joins Other States in Nationwide Employment Service

A nationwide list of more than 6,900 job openings for professional and managerial personnel is now available at the Albuquerque and Espanola local offices of the New Mexico State Employment Service, M. F. Miera, ESC's Chairman-Executive Director, announced this week. He said that the openings include not only job orders filed by New Mexico employers, but also those filed by employers in other States.

Mr. Miera said the State agency is now participating with other States in a nationwide expanded and specialized placement service for professional and managerial workers which provides for an exchange of unfilled job openings between States.

In New Mexico, local offices in Albuquerque and Espanola have been designated as two of 78 special employment centers in the nation to speed up the matching of men and jobs in professional and managerial occupations. Each center, he added, will have on file at all times a nationwide list of job opportunities in the professional and managerial fields.

Largest number of job openings on the current national list is 1110 for mechanical engineers; there are 993 for electrical engineers, Miera said. The list, which includes more than 300 different professional and managerial occupations, also indicates strong demand for nurses, with 730 openings and draftsmen with 542.

Trinity Methodist Church News

By REV. N. DITTERLINE

The Carrizozo Methodist church in New Mexico observed Laymen's Day in a different way, October 20th. The service began in the usual way with Rev. Robert N. Ditterline, pastor, presiding. At 11:11, Rev. Ditterline asked the people to leave the church and go out through the town inviting people to come back to church with them. The congregation left in groups of 2's, 3's, and 4's. During the singing of "Bringing In the Sheaves," the people passed by a table and picked up a name whom they should invite.

At 11:45, the congregation re-assembled and the sanctuary was full. After the singing of "Blessed Assurance," the pastor spoke on "Live One Day At A Time." This service was a part of the Church Loyalty Crusade and part of the Layman's visitation prior to revival, which was held October 27-November 1.

On October 15th the Carrizozo church held a "What You Do?" night. Prior to the meeting letters were sent to members and friends of the church stating the purpose of the night which was to create a new interest in the work of the church.

Rev. Ditterline gave a short devotional on "Churchmanship" and presented a definite problem to the group. He asked "if you were chairman of the Commission on Missions and wanted to present a missionary study course to the entire church for 4 to 6 sessions, what would you do? The group divided into buzz sessions and spent 10-15 minutes discussing this question. Afterwards, each group presented their ideas and suggestions to the entire group.

Questions on all phases of the church were presented to the group with the question "What Would You Do?" asked after each. Each problem or situation discussed were things that were confronting the local church.

This type program is another approach of studying the local church's problems and situation, according to Rev. Ditterline. The response was good; the people spoke with open minds, with dreams, with visions, enthusiasm and interest, he further stated.

NEW MEXICO INHABITED 15,000 YEARS AGO

Although written history began in New Mexico in 1540, with the arrival of the first Spanish explorers, much is known of life in the area for centuries before that time. Archaeologists have discovered that people lived in New Mexico 15,000 years ago, and developed from nomadic hunters to highly civilized city-builders in the period before the Spanish conquest.

"Conservation and Natural Resources" is Club Meeting Theme

Joe Merkel, Carrizozo High School principal, was guest speaker at last Friday's meeting of the Carrizozo Woman's Club.

Mr. Merkel talked and showed colored slides to illustrate his topic "Conservation and Natural Resources." Many of the observations he made were gathered first hand when he worked as a National Park Ranger in Yosemite as biologist in charge, Carson National forest.

Careless campers are the cause of much destruction and disorder in our forests, he said. When Kleenex is discarded, for example, it is possible for a ground squirrel to take it to its nest, become infected, and result in an entire colony of squirrels being wiped out.

Other points made were: Tin cans will soon rot if burned in a campfire; otherwise they will lay in the forest for years. Broken glass has been known to start forest fires. Man's food is not good for wild animals. It takes away their ability to forage for themselves.

The spruce budworm is the No. 1 killer in our forests in New Mexico. Another killer high on the list is the porcupine which destroys young pines by eating the bark.

Mrs. E. T. Fletcher was program chairman. Hostesses were the Mmes. W. W. Gallacher, R. M. Shafer, F. O. Brown and Mrs. Mable Rentfrow. They served delicious refreshments of pumpkin pie and whipped cream, coffee and mint.

Several women from Carrizozo attended the district convention November 9 in Tularosa. They were Mrs. Marby Burns, Mrs. R. E. Lemon and Mrs. R. G. Firman, delegates; also Mrs. Kelley Stevenson, Mrs. J. E. Pemberton, Mrs. Belle Boyer, Mrs. Roy Shafer and Mrs. Pat Murphy.

* ABOUT PEOPLE

Mrs. J. E. Pemberton underwent surgery Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 9 a.m. She is in the hospital at T or C.

Bob Chamberlin and Hollis Lilly were guests of C. A. Snow at the ranch in White Oaks the last two days of hunting season.

Winnie Robinson, J. R. Taylor and Clyde Oswell of Las Cruces were visitors in Carrizozo over the week end.

E. T. Aldaz sends in another hunting item: Lorenzo Aldaz got his deer, a 4-point buck; Lupe Baca, my son-in-law, got his deer and I got mine November 18 at 4:15 p.m., an eight-point buck, weighing 197 pounds.

C. A. Snow was one of the lucky hunters who got a buck. Mr. and Mrs. Juan Coyahu left last Tuesday for Chihuahua, Mexico, where they will stay for a week. While there they are to assist at a marriage.

THE MAN WHO BURNED LIKE FIRE

By YOLANDA MARQUEZ

(From Folk Tales by Children, written by third grade pupils of Mrs. James F. Saunders, San Miguel school, Las Cruces)

Once there was a girl and her boy friend. One night the girl and her boy friend went to the cemetery. In the cemetery there were a lot of benches. The boy said, "Do you want to sit on this bench?" Then the boy and girl sat on the bench. Then the girl said, "Take me home."

When they were walking along the sidewalk, a man appeared. He spread his cape at the boy, and the girl noticed that he was burning like fire. Then the strange man grabbed her by the arm, and she fainted. She disappeared. Next, she appeared in the hospital. And that afternoon she was all right.

Why use two when one will do?

You'll do better to protect your motor with this one all-weather oil than to change from heavy oil to light oil according to the season.

Users of Trop-Artic All-Weather Motor Oil never have to worry about using different grades of oil at different seasons of the year. Trop-Artic is a light oil and heavy oil in one (grades 10W through 30). Furthermore, it lubricates and protects your motor far better than any of the old-fashioned "single grade" oils.

The reason is that Trop-Artic never gets too thick or too thin. In a cold engine it flows quickly for easy starting. In a hot engine it retains the "body" necessary to prevent wear. It reduces friction to save you gasoline. It keeps your engine clean. Compared to old-fashioned oils it can even double engine life. Get Trop-Artic All-Weather Motor Oil today from your Phillips 66 Dealer. *A trademark.
