George J. Limacher of Hondo this week formally presents to the voters of Lincoln County his candidacy for the office of treasurer. He is a Republican and will take the place on the ballot of John E. Wright, who stated two weeks ago that he would not be a candidate for re-election, due to reasons of personal business and health.

GEO. J. LIMACHER

Mr. Limacher was born in Pasadena, Calif., January 1929, moved to New Mexico in 1943 and has been a resident of Lincoln County since that time. He and his brother operate a fruit farm at Hondo.

He was graduated from Hondo High School and attended New Mexico A&M College and the University of New Mexico. Upon returning home from college he entered the Army during the Korean conflict and served his entire enlistment with the 82nd Airborne Division. Among other duties he was a qualified Army parachutist.
After receiving his honorable discharge he returned to Hondo to again take up farming and growing fruit. He is a member of the Lincoln County Farm & Livestock Bureau of which he is a past secretary and treasurer. He is a member of Elks Lodge No. 998 of Roswell.
In soliciting the support of Lincoln County voters, Mr. Limacher states that "If elected, I will continue to conduct the treasurer's office in the same manner that has given the county efficiency and economy during the past six years."

Wool Program Given Three Year Extension

By RALPH DUNLAP

The national wool incentive program has been extended for another three years. The program was scheduled to expire March 31, 1959, but was extended to March 31, 1962, in the new farm law enacted in August.

To insure adequate monies for payments under the program, the amendment provides for the use of 70% of the ad valorem duties on wool and wool products in addition to the 70% of the specific duties formerly used to make incentive payments.

The purpose of the wool program is to increase the national production of wool. Payments are made to wool growers to supplement their income from marketings. For the present marketing year, the incentive rate is 62 cents a pound, and payments will be made on a percentage basis to encourage producers to do the best possible job of marketing their wool.

Slick Pavement Causes Wreck on Highway 54

A rain-slicked pavement, plus mechanical trouble in a pickup, were given as the cause of a head-on collision early Saturday evening on Highway 54, five miles south of Carrizozo.

Two pickups, one driven by Carroll Wallace of Tucumcari, the other by Charles Hope of El Paso, crashed and were completely wrecked at the first big bridge south of town.

Mrs. Gladys Hope, wife of Serviceman Hope sustained a compound fracture of a leg and severe chest injuries. He had cuts under the chin and was bruised. According to the sheriff's office and state patrol which investigated, the transmission of Wallace's pickup locked and the car swerved into the lane of the oncoming Hope car.

Wallace was going south. He was released from the hospital following a checkup.

EXPLAINING SEASON AT THE STATEHOUSE
Santa Fe, Oct. 1.—There's been a lot of backing up and explaining at the statehouse.

State School Superintendent Georgia Lusk on Sept. 18 announced employment of her brother at $600 a month, bag hit the fan on Sept. 25, and Sept. 20 she said he hadn't been appointed.

Johnny Vigil, $365 a month payroll with corporation commission and Santa Fe county Demo chairman was noted keeping office at party headquarters on working days, his office said he was not on leave. Commissioner Johnny Block heard about it and put him on leave, retroactively.

A pair of state police officers, it was disclosed, had borrowed money from a Las Cruces justice of the peace to meet the expenses of an investigation to which they had been assigned. When the news finally came out nine months after the transaction a police board spokesman said it must never happen again.

It has been hard to do business at the state corporation commission the last few days.

Not only was the $365-a-month County Chairman Johnny Vigil absent on political duties but Commissioner Jim Lamb was out stumping the state for reelection and the other two, Johnny Block and Seven-Foot Pickett, were sojourning in Mexico City. The trip cost the citizens $400.

COMMISSIONERS BUSY IN MEXICO

It has been hard to do business at the state corporation commission the last few days.

Not only was the $365-a-month County Chairman Johnny Vigil absent on political duties but Commissioner Jim Lamb was out stumping the state for reelection and the other two, Johnny Block and Seven-Foot Pickett, were sojourning in Mexico City. The trip cost the citizens $400.

THE OTHERS PLAY WHILE LAMB'S AWAY

One of Commissioner Lamb's companions from the campaign party reported he was burned about the departure of his colleagues after he had held down the office for them when they are campaigning.

The office has been kind of floundering since the campaign started.

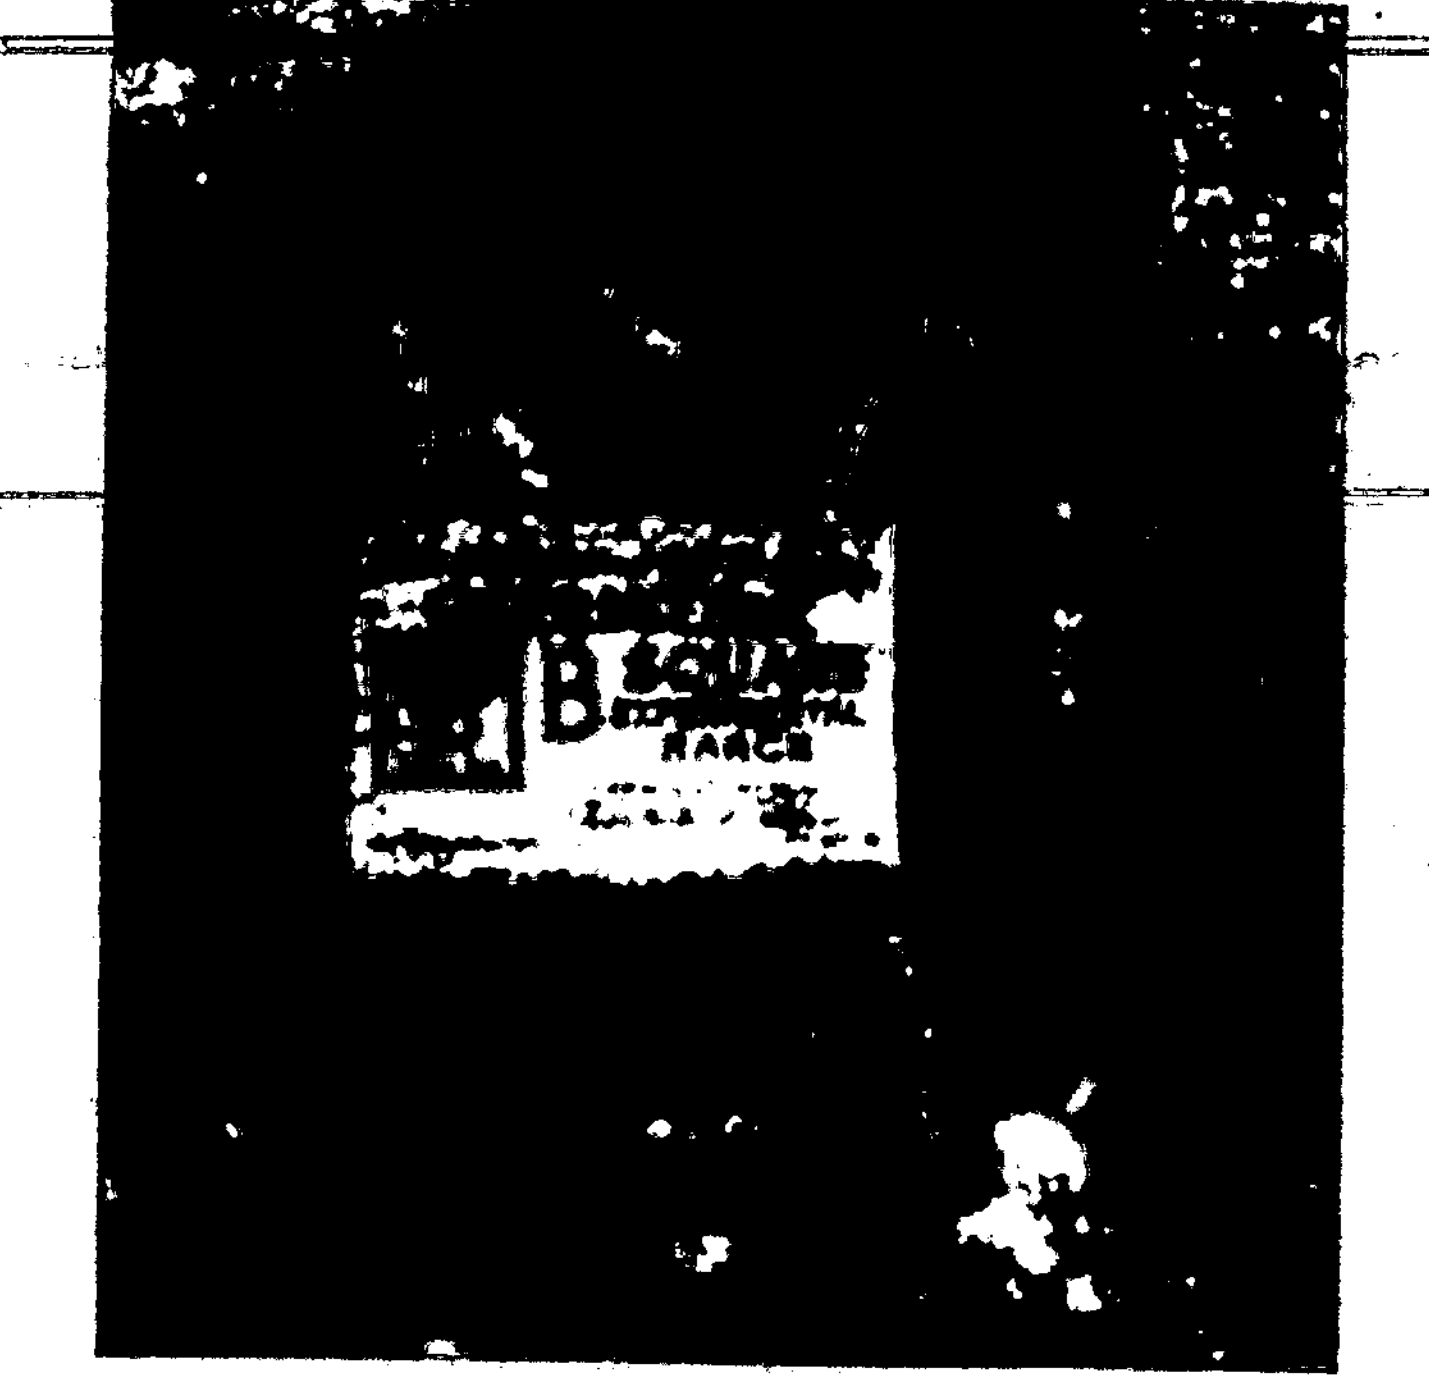

Before Pickett took off for Mexico one of the employes, $630 a month Jacob Barth, asked him to approve a travel expense account for trips ranging from Farmington to Las Cruces. Pickett wouldn't do it and Barth tore up the claim telling the commissioner to forget it.

MOYER SURPRISED BY BIG JOB

None was more surprised than Dr. Don Moyer when he was selected by the board of educational finance for the post of executive director and chancellor. The assistant director had sold his house and was living in a motel in preparation for taking off for Washington to work with the federal education office. Moyer, an applicant for the place, hadn't been given much chance because he lacked the experience and background that the board was

Private Experimental Farm Proving that New Mexico Can Raise Finest Crops

Tom Bolack, owner of New Mexico's first privately-owned experimental farm, the B-Square Ranch near Farmington, is setting out to prove that New Mexico can produce finer crops in greater varieties than any other state in the Union.

If the number of blue ribbons that his experimental farm, after only one growing season, won at the state fair in Albuquerque this week, is any criterion, Tom Bolack and his experimental farm will prove this point.

Tom Bolack, who in the last ten years, has gained a reputation as one of New Mexico's most prominent citizens because of his shrewd business investments, his untiring efforts in behalf of New Mexico water projects and his civic and philanthropic endeavors, says he has several reasons for developing an experimental farm in New Mexico.

"The Navajo Dam near Farmington and other water conservation projects throughout the state will bring many thousands of acres into cultivation in New Mexico," he said. "I felt that there was a need for crop experimentation to find out how this new acreage can be put to its best use for the future development of the state. I bought this farm last fall. It is a non-profit project, and we market only enough produce to prove the economics of the production of particular crops."

"My purpose is to develop new crop varieties and test new growing methods that will be adaptable to New Mexico's climate and soil, and will be profitable for New Mexico's farmers. I want to demonstrate to the Navajos who will benefit by the new water supplies in this area, that they can achieve more productivity by new methods and new varieties of crops."

"I want to discourage the substituting of one best irrigated variety, while the rolling hills grow cactus and sage. We have good soil in New Mexico, and now that we have more water supplies, I feel we should use our good land to grow better and more abundant crops that will raise the economics of the whole state."

Bolack and his farm superintendent, George L. McCollm, entered 32 varieties of garden produce in the State Fair, and walked off with the first prize in the garden exhibit. They won first prizes for the following: Acorn squash, summer squash, small hot peppers, green tomatoes, turnips, radishes, egg plant, broccoli, and English peas.

First prize for a box of Kieffer pears.
Second prizes for red potatoes, cabbage, slicing cucumbers, and bell peppers.
Third prizes for a plate of Kieffer pears, red bell peppers and head lettuce.

Only 60 acres of the Bolack B-Square Farm was planted in garden crops this year. Already its produce is supplying a substantial share of the San Juan basin market, and the surplus is overflowing to Albuquerque. Other acreage on the ranch was planted in cover-crops or is being rehabilitated in other ways.

Lee Robinson, in Wednesday from their ranch northwest of Captain, says apple picking is in progress in their orchard, though 300 inches of rain last week caused some delay.

Last week end was Homecoming Day at Carrizozo High School and was highlighted by numerous activities.

Sutherland Ranch To be Operated By Ivan Watson

Ivan Watson

The resignation of Ivan Watson, extension animal husbandman at New Mexico A&M College, has been announced by Dr. Robert H. Black, dean of agriculture. The Watsons have purchased and will operate the Sutherland Ranch in Lincoln County.

Watson has been with New Mexico A&M since 1943 and has spearheaded extension educational programs in livestock production and range management and sheep and wool improvement.

He has worked closely with livestock producers, county agents, state extension specialists, and livestock organizations to promote more efficient use of rangelands and higher yields of meat and fiber.

"Although I am changing from the theoretic to the practical side of livestock production, I shall continue to foster and promote extension educational programs and work with county extension agents, livestock producers, and livestock organizations for the betterment of the industry," he commented.

Mr. and Mrs. Watson have two daughters, Betty Ann (Mrs. Robert L. Callaway, Alamogordo) and Mary Lou. Betty Ann is a graduate of Las Cruces Union High and attended New Mexico A&M College. Mary Lou graduated from Las Cruces High this year and is a freshman at the University of New Mexico.

Watson has served as manager of the New Mexico State Wool Show for the past 15 years and manager of the New Mexico State Ram Sale from 1943-56. He is a member of the New Mexico Cattle Growers, the New Mexico Wool Growers, and was the first president of the New Mexico Extension Specialists Association which was organized in 1952. He is a member of Aztec Masonic Lodge No. 3 at Las Cruces.

New Phone Directory To Serve Two Counties

The second telephone directory for Carrizozo in 1958 also will include all telephone numbers for Alamogordo, Tularosa and Cloudcroft. Russell Eddings, manager for Mountain States Telephone Company said this week.

"Since these communities have so much in common and so many telephone calls are made between them, it was felt that it would be more convenient for the telephone subscribers to have in one directory, all telephone numbers listed in the four communities. Consequently, although the current directory has been in effect only since August, the second directory will be delivered on November 13," Eddings said.

The next directory will be in effect for one year, so it is doubly important that all listings are exactly as the subscriber wants them. Changes or additional listings for telephones in Carrizozo may be made by calling the telephone business office any time before Thursday, Oct. 9.

The directory now in use in Alamogordo, Tularosa and Cloudcroft was distributed last April, but the new directory will also bring them completely up to date.

News Notes from Along the Bonito

By LOUISE RUNNELS

An announcement card from Joe and Kathy Rodgers came lately saying they have a baby girl—Debra Elaine.

Ya' know the Charles Corders have some dwarf fruit trees they put out last year. This year they had four huge plums, a few big cherries and a pear that weighed a pound and measured 12 inches the long way around. And, speaking of new fruit trees, Ralph and Hettie Brown at the Ruidoso airport had fruit this year too on young trees — 14 peaches and 21 plums.

"Budro" Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lora Morris, was home on leave from Fort Bliss this week end and brought two of his friends who are in the Service there — Russell Richard, whose home is in North Dakota and Jerry Kingen from Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sparkman, Claudia Kay and Brooks Gilbert of Lovington spent the week end at their "Idle Moments."

One day last week Marvin Jones came by to show the Corders the big lynx he had killed up Philadelphia Canyon. He had his bear dogs with him and after they had put the cat up a tree Marvin shot it.

Monday morning (Sept. 29) the good ole New Mexico sun broke through the fog and clouds for the first time in several days. The rains have been wonderful for our beautiful forest and ranches, but we will be glad to see the sun for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Kelley spent the week end in Toyah, Texas, with their son Jack and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaMay, Judy and Jeanette attended the fair at Albuquerque last week end.

Mrs. Ethel "Graham," "Zip" Franklin's mother, of Lovington, also her sister Mrs. Beckle Townsend of Lovington came up and spent several days at "Zip's" trailer on the Bonito. Mrs. Townsend and her late husband John lived on their ranch at White Oaks for many years, back in the days when White Oaks was a mining town. Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harkey of El Paso (Mrs. Townsend's daughter) joined Mrs. Graham and Mrs. Townsend on the Bonito. Earl is a brother of John Harkey of Carrizozo and was born here on the Bonito. The party had planned to go to White Oaks visiting and to see their old home, but due to all the rains we have had they decided to wait until another time.

Mrs. Collins Walker is spending some time with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Billberry at Peacock, Texas.

Howard Barton was called to Frederick, Okla., last week to his mother's bedside. She is improved now and Mr. Barton returned home Friday.

Johnnie Dale Hayes is spending a few days in Lovington.

Fred Sweet Sr. has been in Alamogordo this week with his son Fred V. Sweet Jr. and family and Fern Sweet. Fred isn't feeling too good and thought the warmer climate might help him. It has been raining all over the and is cool. I believe we've had put near enough rain, 'cause when th' worms start leaving the earth to crawl onto your porch to dry out, it's getting wet—huh?

It's good for fish the and, speaking of fish, Charlie Bird told me a load of 3,000 fish were divided between Nogal Lake and the Ruidoso stream. He also promised a load for Bonito this week if it isn't too muddy to get them here. In that case, we'll help him get rid of them should he get stuck. Bonito Creek isn't too far from muddy roads—and there's lots of water coming down now. South Fork Bonito is running big and with much more rain the dam will soon fill to the spill way.

ALTO BRIEFS

By AILEEN LINDAMOOD

We've really had the rain. Eagle Creek is high and so is the Ruidoso. All the creeks are high. The sun was out Monday morning and it's a welcome sight after at least three inches of rain since Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hollis and Evan Heald were over from Ruidoso last Monday enjoying a picnic up Eagle Creek Canyon.

The Dr. Frank Parsons family were up from El Paso last week end at Eagle Creek Lodge.

The Bill Smiths of Roswell were up for the day on Tuesday to see the Charlie Peebles.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jack Stewart of El Paso spent the night Tuesday in their summer home at Eagle Creek Lodge. They were going to Roswell and Albuquerque before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schneider were on a business trip to Hobbs last week.

The George Creels visited the R. O. Pittillos in Tularosa last Sunday.

Neal Chapman and son Bodie of Carlsbad were here for the week end making a trip to Carrizozo Saturday on business.

Mrs. Charlie and Lawrence Peebles were at Mrs. Wilbur Coe's at Glencoe Wednesday for the Extension Club meeting.

John Rask was here from El Paso the past week end.

The Jack Parnells and daughter Jane were over Saturday from Ruidoso Downs for a visit at the store.

the Bonito over the week end. Fowler Hare is interested in a cabin site and the other Jal boys were working with Arvel Runnels, Fred Coe and Shilke Runnels on their hunting cabin.

Dr. Frank English's folks and his wife's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Merrell from Oklahoma and the Fred English family were visitors on the English farm last week end.

Last week Boyd Lucas' sister and her husband from Alamogordo spent a few days with Boyd and Lena Mae.

Fred and Elva Coe are spending a few days with Tom Bragg.

Sorry I got mixed up in the place Earl Bragg is stationed. He is stationed in Michigan and left last week for his training base.

A letter came from Mrs. B. E. Billups, 520 College Place, Las Cruces (the former Willma Hust) telling me she was in the St. Joseph Hospital in El Paso because of the spray for the mosquitoes in Las Cruces.

"In trying to chase flies, mosquitos, and etc., I almost exterminated myself!" she writes, and "as much as I enjoy getting the Lincoln County News and the liltling fresh breeze-in-the-pines column you write, it nonetheless makes me sad to read of the loss of so many of our friends by death. The way is always perplexing isn't it? I always thought allergies were for city girls, but looks like country girls can have 'em, too!"

Ben Pflingsten wanted to pay our tribute to Johnny Bragg and a high school girl from Angus wrote a poem in his memory.

In Memory of Johnny Bragg
Our hearts should all remember,
This man who now is gone,
This man who always helped us
When anything went wrong.
He always had a friendly smile.
For people whom he saw;
Even if he didn't know you,
He spoke to one and all.

Johnny was born in a house below the Bonito Dam and started to school at Angus. In 1941 Elwood Stearns drove the school bus from Parsons Mine to Angus. That year we had the flood and the roads were washed out. Bernice Westfall was the teacher. They continued school after the flood in the Dr. Rathman cabin where Alice Wright now lives. While just a small boy Johnny's dad, Everett Bragg, was killed. Tom Bragg then helped Johnny's mother Jewel raise the four small children, Evelyn, Johnny, Mary Nell and Earl.

When World War II began Jewel joined the WACS and stayed in the Service a couple of years and Tom kept the children.

Johnny, like his dad, loved the mountains and wildlife, but as soon as he was old enough he started making his own way. His school mates remember him as always being kind and friendly in spite of hardships. He lost his life while trying to help someone, as was his way in life.

The Hondo Corner

By FREDDA FERRY

Hi there! Here I am back again with little bits of news from around the valley schools. The game last week end was really a thriller. The Eagles got off to a bad start, but Zozo kept the excitement up by making two touchdowns and an extra point before the half. Then late in the third quarter the Eagles crept into Grizzly territory, and Vic Pineda went over for the TD. For the extra point, Vic Pineda passed to Danny Chavez, and the final score was 13-7, in favor of Zozo. We're proud of you, Eagles!

Friday, Sept. 26, the Eagles faced the Capitan Tigers in their own back yard and nearly turned the tables on them. In the first quarter the Eagles battered their way to pay dirt, then they pushed the ball all over the field, getting 11 first downs to the Tiger's six. But Tiger claws were still sharp enough to send the ball over the line in the third quarter to even the score. Neither team managed to make the extra point so the score stood 6-6.

Albert Booky, president of the Athletic Club, informed us that the Athletic Club met last Tuesday, Sept. 23, in the Hondo gym. A business meeting was held, and a movie of professional caliber was shown. The date for the next meeting has not yet been decided.

The Seniors had two field days, Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 24 and 25. These were the designated days for Freshman initiation, and both days were very successful. Wednesday the Freshman treated the Seniors with candy, and each one wore a green "F" on his forehead. Thursday was the day of performances. Louie Pineda taking top honors, Monica Torrez and Alberta Montez running second, and Bobby Montes a close third. All in all it was a very successful event, and we are glad to have the Freshmen as official members of our High school.

Thursday, Sept. 25, the Ruidoso Eighth Grade flag team met the Hondo Eighth Grade team at Hondo. Zeke Pineda of Hondo made a 40 yard run in the first half for a touchdown, but Ruidoso followed up closely with a touchdown and extra point, and the score at halftime was 7-0, Ruidoso's favor. During the second half, Ruidoso scored twice and both extra points were completed, making the score 21-0. Then Zeke Pineda made a touchdown from 5 yards out, and David Montoya completed the extra point for Hondo. The final score was 21-13, favor of Ruidoso. That's all for now. Be careful, and I'll see you next week!

'Tween Us Teens

By MARY (Ginger) NICKELS

Say, wasn't that a swell hottie-coming Zozo had Friday night? Opal McBrayer, the homecoming queen, certainly looked beautiful! It was so impressive when the queen and her escorts, football captains Jack Helker and Maxie Saucedo, came on the field, with attendants Angie Grubb, Bobby Rickerson, Delores Zamora, Benny Herrera, Clara Nell Burns, Patrick Agullar, Minnie Narvaez, and Fred Vega.

By the way, if anybody needs a magazine subscription or ten or twelve of them (we're always ready to oblige) just let the Carrizozo Junior Class know.

Speaking of school, a prof. called a student's dad into his office one day and said, "Mr. Jones, I hate to tell you this, but Rasputin is a moron."

"A moron!" shrieked Jones. "Let me at him. I'll teach him to join a club without telling me!"

The other day I was reading a fascinating article on the art of flirting, and you know, it is an art. Not anyone can do it. Some people just answer a question with a plain "yes" or "no". Well, if you want to kill a conversation, that's one good way to do it, but if you want to know about the topic being discussed, ask questions. No one will hang you for that, in fact, they appreciate your interest. Then, of course, speak clearly. A person who mumbles is never the center of a crowd. Correct grammar and not too much slang is always nice, too.

We teens like to talk for hours on the phone. Magazines print all kinds of jokes about teens and phones, but you'd be surprised how true some of these cartoons really are! We could cut our phone calls short, state our business, get the information for which we called, then hang up, it's as simple as that!

Here are some questions from the article you might like to ask yourself about good conversation. See how many you can answer with "yes."

1. Am I at ease with people my own age even though they are strangers?

2. Am I at ease with older people?

3. Do I think grammar is important?

4. Do I limit social phone calls to five minutes as a rule?

5. Do I always give my name to whoever answers the phone?

6. Do I avoid making fun of people I don't like?

7. Do I always look at the person who is speaking?

8. Do I keep my voice down, especially on buses, trains, etc.?

How did you come out? —Ginger

New 4-H Swine Program and Awards Open to State Club Members

A new 4-H awards program open to boys and girls interested in raising meat animals has been arranged by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, according to Norman G. Mindrum, director.

$400 Scholarship-Awards
It is the National 4-H Swine program, and is supported by the Moorman Mfg. Co., Quincy, Ill., makers of concentrate feeds and parasite control products for livestock and poultry. The company will provide $400 college scholarships to six national 4-H champions as well as state trips to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, and medals will be awarded to county winners.

"It gives us a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction to become the donor in connection with the national 4-H Swine awards program," stated E. H. Wilson, president of Moorman.

Greater Interest is Aim
"We consider it to be a splendid way by which we can help farm boys and girls gain a greater appreciation of—and to acquire a greater participation in—the future of animal agriculture."

"It is our sincere hope that these awards will stimulate ever greater achievements from the fine group of youngsters which make up the 4-H membership," Wilson said.

Enrollment Now Open
Although this new awards program has just recently been launched by the State Extension staff, 4-H Club members enrolled now will be eligible to enter their records in competition for the 1958 awards. Detailed information may be obtained from the county agent.

What to do if Your Freezer Stops

Should a storm down the power lines in your area and cause your freezer to stop running, what should you do? Here are some practical tips about how to keep food from spoiling.

First, don't open freezer door unnecessarily, because this lets warm air in and raises the inside temperature. Try to find out how long the electricity will be off in your area. If the freezer will be on again in a few hours, your frozen food is safe.

When the power is off, food in a freezer that is full won't thaw for two days. In a freezer only half full, food should keep well for one day. The larger the freezer the better the insulation, of course, the longer food will stay frozen.

Before any emergency, locate the nearest place to get dry ice for your freezer. In case the power should be off for more than one or two days, the ice is most effective if you saw one 50-pound chunk into smaller pieces and set them on pieces of cardboard on top of the frozen food packages. Wear gloves to keep the ice from touching your skin while you are handling it.

Although it isn't necessary in most freezers, a small rod, such as a pencil, put underneath the lid will allow gas from the dry ice to escape. It's all right to put blankets around the freezer packed with dry ice as long as the air vent is not covered.

You could also arrange with a local freezer locker plant to transfer frozen food there in an emergency. To carry frozen food from one freezer to another, put crumpled newspapers around the frozen food packages and pack them in cardboard boxes.

Grapes have been cultivated so long that the plant's place of origin cannot be accurately determined, the National Geographic Magazine says. Egyptians evidently grew grapes and made wine 8,000 years ago. The oldest Hebrew, Greek, and Roman writings all refer to grape culture.

Capitan and Hondo Battle to Deadlock

By BONNELL and SMITH

The Capitan Tiger eleven battled the Hondo Eagles to a 6-6 deadlock last Friday under the lights at Capitan. This was the second conference game for both teams. Each had previously lost one.

Capitan kicked off and the Eagles took over on their own 30 yard line. The Tigers recovered the ball on downs. Both teams saw-sawed in mid-field until the Eagles took to the air with V. Pineda passing to P. Chavez. Two consecutive throws brought Hondo to the Tiger 5 yard line as the quarter ended.

GAMES THIS WEEK END:

- Oct. 3—Capitan at Tatum
- Oct. 3—Carrizozo, open
- Oct. 3—Hondo at Ruidoso
- Oct. 3—Corona at Mansal

Pineda opened the second period with a skillful quarterback sneak to the 2 yard mark. He repeated the sneak for a touchdown. J. Gomez failed to score the extra point.

Capitan received Hondo's kickoff and advanced the ball to the 30 yard line. C. Jones then carried to the 10 yard line through tackle holes, but there the Tigers lost the ball on downs. Hondo took the ball to the 40 before they were stopped. The remainder of the half was indecisive, neither team gaining any appreciable yardage.

At the opening of the second half Hondo's kickoff was carried to the 40 yard line by the Tigers. On the third play W. Purcella passed to J. Smith to the 20 yard line. Smith drove for another 8 yards. On the next play Jones dashed through a left tackle hole for a score, tying the touchdown. Smith's kick failed. The Tigers kicked off, the ball going out of bounds on the 10 yard marker and it was returned to the 40. There were no more threats of scoring in the third quarter.

Capitan had the ball on Hondo's 40 yard line as the fourth stanza began. The Tigers pushed to the 15 yard line before they were obliged to hand over the ball on downs. Hondo backtracked to the 40, and the remainder of the game was played in that vicinity.

Capitan had 3 penetrations; Hondo 1. Carrol Jones was named as Capitan's outstanding back of the week; Joe Smith, outstanding lineman.

Tatum Dampens ZoZo Homecoming

By BILLY LOPEZ

The Tatum Coyotes downed the Carrizozo Grizzlies Friday night, Sept. 26, by a lopsided score of 26-7, before a large homecoming crowd at the Grizzly stadium.

The Tatum Coyotes drew first blood as they scored early in the first quarter when they received the opening kickoff on their own 5 yard line and ran it to the 25 yard line. Fourteen plays later Royce Fort went over on a quarterback sneak to make the score 6-0 as they failed to make the extra point.

The Coyotes kicked off to the Grizzlies and held them for downs and a few plays later after taking over the ball scored again with Billy Medlin going the last 25 yards for paydirt and B. Hoyle running the extra point, to make the score 13-0 in favor of Tatum at the end of the first quarter.

The Grizzlies went scoreless till late in the second quarter when a Tatum fumble on the Grizzly 47 was recovered by ZoZo. The Grizzlies tried two plays through the Tatum line but failed to penetrate it, then on the next play a pass from Saucedo to Herrera was good for 45 yards to the Tatum 5. Two plays later Saucedo went over for the TD with Pat Aguilar going through guard and tackle for the extra point to make it 13-7.

But Tatum was not through as they scored once more in the closing minutes of the second quarter with E. Fort going over for the TD to make the score 19-7 at halftime in favor of Tatum.

The third quarter opened with Tatum kicking off to the Grizzlies. The Grizzlies again could not penetrate the Tatum forward wall and were forced to punt. Not much action was seen from either team till late in the third quarter when Tatum started the drive for the final score of the game with B. Medlin going over for the final TD from 17 yards out and J. Carr running the extra point, to make the score 26-7.

The Grizzlies threatened late in the last quarter when they recovered a Coyote fumble deep in Tatum's territory but were held for downs on the Tatum two yard line.

Outstanding players for Carrizozo were Wayland Hill and M. Saucedo in the backfield and S. Shrum, L. Sandoval and B. Herrera on the line.

The Grizzlies next game will be October 10, when they meet the Capitan Tigers on the Capitan Gridiron.

A Sermonette

By W. T. ELY
Pastor, First Baptist Church

The greatest text in the Bible is John 3:16, which says, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

This scripture is sometimes called the Gospel in a nutshell. For this little verse shows in few words the lost condition of the world and that the great God who created all things loves the sinner to the extent that He came in the person of the Son of God and literally died for His rebellious creation.

The Bible makes it plain that all who believe in Him are saved, from the wrath to come, and are given everlasting life.

When one believes in Christ he repents of his sins and by faith trusts in the finished work of the Lord Jesus Christ on Calvary, when He took all our sins in His own body suffered and died for us. In so doing He frees all who believe in Him from the power of sin and the second death, and imparts to them His own righteousness. This is known as justification, which means the saved individual will stand before God at the judgment in Christ's righteousness.

The Bible itself is its best interpreter. We read in II Corinthians 5:21, "For He hath made him (Christ) to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him."

Though there are many things in the Word of God hard to be

THESE WOMEN! By d'Alencio

"I don't know, Eric... I've asked medical advice it about all I could take from you if we were married!"

What is "Normal" Growth for Children?

Worried because one child in your neighborhood has grown faster than your son or daughter? Then take heed of what the editors of Changing Times, the Kiplinger Magazine said in their September issue about the normal pattern for growing.

Birth to 1 year — A period of rapid growth in length and weight. Birth weight trebles by the first birthday.

1 to 3 — Physical growth slows down some, and appetites tend to lag. Boys attain half their mature height at 2.2 years; girls at 1.7 years.

3 to 5 or 6 — Growth becomes slower than at any time between infancy and puberty. Appetites are dull.

5 to 6 to 10 or 11 — A period of slow, steady physical gains with a tendency toward underweight. Girls' rate of growth may pick up at 9; boys' at 11. Boys reach 75% of mature height at 8.9 years; girls at 7.2 years.

10 or 11 to 16 — A time of very rapid growth. Appetites may be voracious or picky. Boys' rate of growth in height reaches a peak at 14 or 15; girls' at 12 or 13. Peaks in weight gains come six months later. Boys have 90% of their height at 13.7 years, girls at 11.4 years.

16 to early 20's — Growth in height ends between 16 and 20 or 21. Growth in weight should end in early twenties.

Scientists Seek To Solve Mystery Of Thunderstorms

Socorro — Using an airplane, captive balloons, and radar, a Cambridge, Mass., research team, working under a Navy contract, this summer did research atop 10,297 foot high Mt. Withington in search of answers to the mystery of thunderstorms.

The work took place during a six-week excursion on the summit of Mt. Withington, 50 miles southwest of Socorro.

Dr. Bernard Vonnegut, scientist for Arthur D. Little, Inc., Cambridge, said the project of investigating the origin of thunderstorms and lightning is extending the work pioneered by Dr. E. J. Workman, S. E. Reynolds, and Dr. Marx Brook during the past decade at New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology.

From atop the mountain laboratory, the research team, headed by Charles B. Moore, flew 15-foot-in-diameter balloons into clouds, like kites on a string, and took readings of electrical conditions.

The scientists also bounced radar beams off the clouds.

And a U. S. Weather Bureau tornado research pilot—Jim Cook of Jacksboro, Texas, — flew a P-38 through and around clouds, sending out a stream of smoke like a sky-writing plane while cameras on the mountain recorded the wind currents around the clouds under study.

The team sought new information to unravel the mystery of how clouds make their electricity, how thunderstorms originate, and the movement of air in, above, and below clouds.

"In this age of satellites and nuclear energy, science still doesn't know what makes big sparks (lightning)," Dr. Vonnegut said. "It's a real mystery. What causes electricity to accumulate is far from being understood."

Studying cumulus clouds as they change to thunderstorms was pioneered by Dr. Workman, president of New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology, and his associates S. E. Reynolds and Dr. Marx Brook.

Dr. Workman is president of New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology, Reynolds, a research scientist, is now New Mexico state engineer. Dr. Brook is a research physicist in charge of the continuing thunderstorm research project underway at NMIMT.

The naval project research team has packed its data and headed back for Cambridge to study the findings. The mystery of lightning has not been solved by the research, Dr. Vonnegut said.

"The main value will be to give us an idea of what to do next," he declared. "The next step seems to be to make studies of thunderstorms in the tropics."

The summer project was the third in New Mexico in the past three years, Dr. Vonnegut said. Other studies have been made near Boston and in Minnesota.

Dr. Vonnegut's work is based on his theory that electricity is built up through a self-induction process from ions already in the air naturally as updrafts and downdrafts churn through thunderclouds.

The theory is similar in many respects to one advanced by a Frenchman, Gaston Grenet, in 1937.

These differ from the theories advanced by Dr. Workman and associates. Dr. Workman's initial theory is known as the glaze ice process. According to this theory, there is a separation of ions during the freezing of water in the clouds. Certain ions present as minute impurities are selectively incorporated into the ice structure, leaving the ice negatively charged and the water positive. A second theory advanced by Dr. Workman and associates is that electric charge separation may be expected to result from collisions between graupel pellets (granular snow or soft hail) and ice crystals in thunderstorms.

Laboratory experiments at NMIMT by Reynolds, Brook, and M. F. Gourley revealed that in frictional contact, the ice form which is warmer, or which contains minute impurities such as sodium chloride, acquires a negative charge.

"We deal with the same kind of information," Dr. Vonnegut declared. Continuing research, he said, may prove that the answer to the mystery of thunderstorms may lie in present theories or prove them wrong on that the answer lies in facts yet undiscovered, or in a combination of theories.

Much work lies ahead, he indicated. Dr. Vonnegut said that to learn how thunderstorms make lightning, scientists have to know how air moves in clouds, above and beneath them. No one knows, he added.

Some of the answers were sought in another project held in conjunction with the Naval thunderstorm research.

This was a study of the movement of radon—radioactive gas originating from uranium and thorium minerals in the ground and rocks.

This work was headed by Dr. Wilkening, head of the physics and geophysics department and the department of graduate study at NMIMT. Working under Dr. Wilkening on the mountain-top project this summer was Everett Tompkins, science teacher from Farms, Ohio, a suburb of Cleveland.

He used equipment on the mountain to test air to see if changes in radon content could be used to identify downdrafts associated with thunderstorms over Mt. Withington. It was rea-

'59 Oldsmobile Has Distinctive Styling

Full details of the totally new 1959 Oldsmobile with brilliant, distinctive exterior and interior styling and two new family-sized body styles, have been announced by Jack F. Wolfram, general manager of Oldsmobile and a vice president of General Motors.

Wolfram stated that the 1959 Oldsmobile will feature increased passenger and luggage space, two completely new and more efficient Rocket engines, more responsive power steering, new Air-Scoop brakes on all four wheels and a host of other engineering and accessory advancements.

"Oldsmobile for 1959 represents the most outstanding product in Oldsmobile's history in styling, quality and value," Wolfram stated. "And our two new Holiday hardtops introduce an entirely different trend in passenger car design," he added.

The Holiday SportSedan is a sporty four-door family-size car. The two-door Holiday Scenic Coupe has an entirely new silhouette, a snappy appearance and exceptional visibility in all directions. The two new styles will be available throughout the Oldsmobile line, which goes on display this week at the City Garage in Carrizozo.

soned that air from a high altitude—air far from the surface of the earth—should be relatively free of radon content. The thunderstorm, scientists theorize, acts as a pump to bring down air high in the atmosphere above the cloud.

Data was gathered on radon content by pumping air through a tube in which copper wire was suspended to catch the radioactive effect of radon. A geiger counter was used to test the radioactivity of the copper wire after it was exposed to samples of air on the mountain top at various times.

A sample of air relatively free of the radioactive gases would indicate the downward movement of air from aloft with the cloud serving as a pump.

Some Alibis for Non-Church Attendance

By REV. HOMER REID
Trinity Methodist Church

I haven't been a preacher very long; but for the short time it has been my pleasure to be the minister at the Trinity Methodist Church here in Carrizozo, I have heard some pretty "wonderful" alibis for not coming to church.

You wouldn't believe some of the excuses that have been given by people with perfectly straight faces! Perhaps they think that preachers, when they enter the ministry, take a vow to believe everything they hear.

In these series of articles I'd like to discuss some of the reasons given to me—not in a spirit of criticism—but more in a spirit of "helpfulness" because I sincerely believe that you are missing something by not coming to church.

One of the most common excuses goes like this: "When I was a child my father and mother made me go to church and Sunday School so much . . . You know the rest of it. Our 'alibi' explains that as a child he was dominated by his parents. They had authority over him, and they made him go to church, and they made him wash behind his ears, and they made him clean his fingernails, but now that he is a man and rid of the tyranny of adults, he is not going to wash behind his ears, and he's not going to clean his fingernails any more! Well, maybe not that—but he is not going to church any more, because they made him go when he was a boy.

The first inclination is to think of that person as an utter ingrate, incapable of understanding the love that his father and mother had for him, as they tried to give him a good foundation for life. It is hard to be patient with this excuse. And yet, maybe he does have something on his side.

Perhaps he sat under some painful preacher of the truth. Perhaps he had a Sunday School teacher with no sense of dedication or consecration. Could be! But even granting all of this, the trouble with him is not that he has had too much religion, he has had too little! He has never gone far enough to understand it, and he has judged it all by a false or a wrong impression. Not too much religion; too little religion!

He is probably a pretty good man. He is probably a moral responsible citizen, and yet he boasts that religion has nothing to do with his morality. He ought to have a session with a psychologist who would explain it by saying to him, "When you were a child, your devoted parents took you to church, and there you sat with them, and the roots of your life went down deep into the rivers of God—those underground rivers below the level of consciousness. Now you don't recognize those rivers, but you are still drawing strength and health and wisdom from them."

If no attention is given to the roots, if they are not sent deeper and deeper, who can tell what he will do in the future. Recently in the Saturday Evening Post, you may have read an article by a Jewish chaplain of the Air Force. During the war in Korea he ministered to Protestants and Catholics as well as to those of his own faith.

He said some things which he thinks people will think heresy. For example, he believes that a foxhole is seldom the place where a man gets religion. He says some other interesting things in this article. For instance, he says that the service man who starts out with a profound religious faith may draw upon it when he goes into combat, but he most certainly will not find it there.

Louisianians Witness Nike-Ajax Firings

Congressman Overton Brooks, House Armed Services Committee member from Shreveport, was among a group of Louisianians at Red Canyon recently for "Operation Understanding."

The visitors list included: Congressman Overton Brooks; James C. Gardner, mayor of Shreveport; J. W. Cameron mayor of Bossier City; J. "Duke" Davis, assistant to the President of United Gas Corp.; Douglas F. Attaway Jr., president of the Shreveport Journal, and Col. Rupert Ingram, Chief of the U. S. Army Military District in New Orleans.

They observed firings of Nike-Ajax missiles.

60% of Farm Families Save Trading Stamps

Fargo, N. D.—American farmers have a $47,100,000.00 annual marketing stake in the growing trading stamp industry, an economist for the largest trading stamp company said.

This, he declares, is in addition to the approximately $25,000,000.00 in merchandise that farm families receive as stamp savers.

Dr. Eugene H. Beem, of the Sperry and Hutchinson Company (S&H Green Stamps) told the Fargo (N. D.) Moorhead (Minn.) Sales Executive Club that farmers receive $37,300,000.00 for food products from wage earners directly dependent upon trading stamps for their livelihood. In addition, farmers receive another $9,800,000.00 from industry for farm goods used by manufacturers in producing merchandise for trading stamp campaigns.

Dr. Beem said that almost 60% of all farm families—about three out of every five—now save stamps.

and the skies above them are the least likely places for men to acquire an insight into mature faith. I have noticed," he says, "that boys with substance to them do not fall apart. The truth is that military service rarely gives a man a new direction. It usually confirms the old direction. Just as the same fire that melts the wax, strengthens the steel."

Next week I'd like to discuss with you another alibi. The man who says he won't go to church because he doesn't like to associate with hypocrites.

Indians Once Lived In Carlsbad Caverns

Scientists recently discovered that prehistoric Indians once lived in a huge cave that forms the natural entrance to the gigantic Carlsbad Caverns. Although the Indians never entered the immense underground chambers, they did take shelter in the mouth of the cave, and its walls and ceiling are blackened with smoke from their campfires.

A Texas oil man was visiting New York. His city friend showed him all the sights, including the Empire State building. "Isn't that a magnificent structure?" asked his friend. "Nothin'," said the Texan. "I got an outhouse bigger'n that!" The New Yorker looked him over. "You need it!" he retorted.

It was Monday morning and the small-town minister was greatly shocked when he unexpectedly came upon his wife with her hand in the coins gathered during the Sunday church collection. "Martha, what are you doing?" he exclaimed. "What do you think I'm doing?" she replied, annoyed. "I'm looking for a button to sew on your coat."

Orville O. Dow in USAF Nuclear Test Group

Kirtland AFB, N. M. — M/Sgt. Orville O. Dow, USAF, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Dow, Sr. of Carrizozo, is taking part in the Air Force program of mating nuclear and thermonuclear weapons with delivery systems at Kirtland Air Force Base, Albuquerque, N. M., as he has been assigned to the 4925th Test Group (Atomic).

The Air Force Special Weapons Center at Kirtland conducts research, development and testing to provide nuclear-carrying capability for USAF's bombers, fighters, rockets and missiles in defending the U. S. against aggression.

Sgt. Dow re-enlisted in the Air Force September 10, 1958, after prior service dating back to 1941. In 1938, he graduated from Carrizozo High School. Foreign duty assignments include Alaska and Bermuda.

His wife is the former Miss Jane Hooker of Cisco, Texas.

INSIDE THE CAPITAL

seeking. This was apparently 500 for the work for which Dr. John Dale Russell was paid taken care of in paying him $13, $18,500.

THREE CONSIDERED FOR CARMODY PLACE

Capital politicians have heard that Santa Fe District Attorney Walter Kegie or Santa Fe City Attorney Sam Montoya will be named to the First District bench in the event of John Burroughs being elected governor and Dist. Judge Dave Carmody going to the supreme court. In the event of Governor Mechem being re-elected and Democrat Carmody winning, the guessing is that the Carmody job will be offered to Republican Melvin Yost.

VOTERS DON'T KNOW THE CANDIDATES

Two university students sampling opinion at the state fair in Albuquerque for this writer came up with the report that "They don't know who's running."
"Of 102 questioned none knew both candidates for state auditor, nine knew that Democrat Bob Castner was a candidate, none named Paul Corey, the Republican."

None could name both candidates for attorney general, Frank Zinn, Demo, and Republican Jim Enloe.
None could name both candidates for state land commissioner, 31 did know that Murray Morgan, Democrat, was going for reelection. (Barney Gardner is the Republican candidate.)

None could name both candidates for the corporation commission. Sixteen knew Jim Lamb, Democrat, was running for reelection. (Robert Jordan is the Republican candidate.)
Thirteen of the 102 questioned knew both the candidates for state treasurer, Democrat Joe Callaway and Republican Ted Corman.

Eight of 102 questioned knew both the candidates for state school superintendent, Democrat Tom Wiley and Col. C. E. Rothgeb, Republican. Forty-two, however, knew that Wiley was running.

MEAD AND BACA ARE WELL KNOWN

Eleven of the 102 questioned knew that Democrat David Carmody and Republican Morris Shillinglaw were running for the supreme court.
Fourteen of the 102 were able to name the four candidates for Congress, Democrats Tom Morris and Joe Montoya and Republicans Tommy Thompson and George McKim.

Eighty-eight knew both candidates for governor, a full 102 knowing the incumbent, Ed Mechem.
Only 59 could name both candidates for the U. S. Senate, Sen. Dennis Chavez and Republican Forrest Atchley.

Fifty-four, surprisingly, could name the candidates for lieutenant governor, Democrat Ed Mead and Republican Elfege Baca.
And only two, surprisingly, could name the nice looking gals running for secretary of state, Betty Florina and Republican Leona Marshall.

Republican Corey for auditor was the only candidate without a single identifier.
The result reflects the lack of activity and the lack of advertising that has marked the campaign.

Thought for the day: "When there is room in the heart there is always room in the house."
