

Republic Around Lincoln County

LINCOLN COUNTY BY LUCIUS MILLS

(Continued from Last Week) At the creation of Lincoln County in 1850, and the establishment of a governmental unit on the east side of the Sacramento mountains...

These Harrells, of doubtful loss to Texas and less gain to our Territory, assumed to dominate affairs on the Rio Grande. Several deaths followed...

Another disagreement, with some unpublished fatalities, with no racial matters in it, mushroomed in the Seven Rivers section of the Pecos Valley...

No review, however skeletal, of past events in Lincoln County could rationally omit mention and comment upon that greatly overpublicized Lincoln County War...

Stripped of the romanticism that has been builded around it, that alleged war was simply a feud between two rival cattle outfits over property and range rights.

On the one side was Alexander McSwain, John H. Tunstall, of Lincoln, and John S. Chisum, of Newhall. On the other was Lawrence G. Murphy and James J. Dolan, of Lincoln...

Each faction charged the other with cherishing false notions as to property and range rights, and with carrying those notions into practice. Contemporary onlookers held to the view that neither side standared the other.

The feud, or bad blood period covered some two years. The actual war may be computed as between the killing of Tunstall, February 18th, and the extinction of McSwain, in the only real fight of the war, July 21st, following—five months.

During those simmering months there drifted into the County about the vilest collection of murderers, thieves and other type fugitives from justice ever to have infested the Southwest...

Among these was one William H. Bonney—more widely known, and heralded by some, as Billy the Kid—who had but lately returned to the Territory from Chihuahua, Mexico.

This was in the fall of 1877, and the service lasted until the death of Tunstall, February 18th following—less than four months—and it is the only instance ever suggested of the Kid's having earned a dollar by honest work.

With the snuffing out of McSwain, head of his faction, the war was over.

The Bonita Valley having been the first to be settled, with the Placita for half a century its metropolis and seat of government, more attention has been given them than to the rest of the County.

Shortly following the initial settlement on the Bonita, there were settlements made in the Hudsons near Duran's Mill to La Junta, near Mesita, principally at San Francisco, and in the open Valley below the mouth of Gavilan (Sparrow Hawk) Canyon.

Then too there were settlements in the Bonita Valley from its beginning, at the junction of the Bonita and Hudsons—La Junta—then to the spreading out of the valley, the end of the Canyon, just west of where later the Republic Electric Power of the Diamond A Electric Company was established.

The first prospect of these settlements was at Placita, a recognized landmark, since 1873 a Star State postoffice, and in the days of August Kline a gathering place for merry-makers, where everyone had a good time.

News Notes from Along the Bonito

By LOUISE RUNNELS

I don't think anyone objected to our beautiful weather over the Christmas holidays. It seems Ole Santa comes in his airplane now and snow isn't really a big help. The cutest thing I heard of at Christmas was little Jan LaMay, age 4, and her red nightgown. Santa left it under their Christmas tree and after she had opened all her other packages she wanted to put on her red nightgown. Mother told her to wait until night before she could wear it. In a few minutes Jan said she was sick and wanted to go to bed. She won. The pretty little gown fit perfectly and as mother knew, it was on for the day!

The "sickness" was forgotten until Uncle John was teasing her. She said "quit messin' with me, I'm puny!" All Christmas Day Baby Jan was flitting about in her red nightgown.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Coe and family from Ruidoso had Christmas dinner with Mrs. Coe's parents on the Bonito to the A. N. Runnels. Jim Byler had dinner with them too.

At Mr. and Mrs. Tommy LaMays home for Christmas dinner were the John LaMay family and Arvel Runnels family.

Christmas afternoon was a jolly time at the Tommy LaMay's. Visitors were: Helena and Fred LaMay, bringing goodies for the children, Nita Coe, her sister-in-law Esto Carter and her three little girls bringing Christmas presents; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Snow from Kansas; (Mrs. Snow was Elsie Wooten) their three boys; Mrs. Fay Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aguayo, Judy LaMay, R. G. Stewart and Wilson Purcella.

The Roy LaMay family had Christmas dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Loss Morris, Mike Gaydos, Joe G. West, Jr., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe West.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott Mitchell who have a cabin at Ruidoso Downs and live at Lubbock, were on the Bonito last week with friends, eight-seeing around the Dam and Bear Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pfingsten and family from El Paso were in the county over the Christmas holidays to visit both his and her relatives. They visited on the Bonito while to let their three boys romp in the woods and fire a few .22 shots at targets.

Ruidosans Nita Coe and more young folks visited Tom Bragg last week and had a wicker roast up in the mountains. They thought the ole Parsons Hotel, where Tom lives was real interesting.

Guess a lot of folks watched the show on TV the other night from Roswell and saw the Bill Deano drawing for prizes and the '59 Chevy and we're real glad with many many others that Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titworth won the new 1959 Chevy!

At J. D. Faulkner's during the Christmas week and were: J. D.'s brother, Olan Faulkner and family from Roswell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown from Lovington, and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Heavens and family from Roswell.

Angus folks having company over the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Sikes and daughter from El Paso (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collins Walker), Bill Williams and Jerry Whitaker, Mrs. Walker's nephew.

Gil and Chloe Peters went to El Paso to have Christmas dinner with Gil's sister.

Boyd and Lena Mae Lucas went to Roswell to have Christmas dinner with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baldwin who are caretakers now at the Nazarene Camp at Angus had their two sons and families with them for Christmas dinner. One son lives at T or C and the other at El Paso.

Ira, Jill and Wilma June Young took a long trip in their new Ford back to Indiana to see Jill's folks and on to Michigan on business.

At the Barney Hayes home over the holidays were: Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hayes and son from Eunice, Texas; Dick Walker from Corsicana, Texas; Barney's brother, Carson Hayes from Dallas. For Christmas dinner Barney Hayes and family were in Lovington.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Elam's son and family — Maxine Elam and Mrs. Charlie Elam's sister and her son were with the Elams for a visit and to bring presents to the Elam's two little granddaughters.

Review of 1958 Tax Filing Requirements

Ernest W. Bacon, district director of Internal Revenue Service, New Mexico, today reviewed Federal income tax filing requirements for 1958 returns.

United States citizens, adults or minors, with gross 1958 income of $600 or more ($1,200 or more, if 65 or older at close of '58) must file a return with their IRS district director.

Most taxpayers file their returns on the calendar year basis. This means that Wednesday midnight, April 15, is the final hour to file that return for '58. "By filing as soon as possible," however," Mr. Bacon reveals "odds are in your favor for getting an early refund, if you are eligible for one."

"Taxpayers using the fiscal year basis must file by the 15th day of the fourth month following the end of their fiscal year."

Mr. Bacon explained that each individual filing a '58 tax return is allowed a deduction for personal exemptions. Each taxpayer is allowed an exemption of at least $600, if he is 65 or older, or if blind, he is due an additional ex-

Teensters Union No. 1

By PAM REID

Hil Gang. Wasn't that a wonderful Christmas? A Happy New Year to everyone!

I sure had a Merry Christmas! My brothers Bobby and David came down to see us—also my grandmother, Mrs. Fern Simpson and my future sister-in-law, Patti Beeler spent three days with us—actually four because when they decided to leave they found the roads closed—so they're staying over at least another day. Patti is just darling. She teaches dancing in Denver—that is tap, ballet and contortion dancing, to little kids mostly. Sunday night the church had a pot-luck supper for them (at least we think of it that way, although it was actually our regular monthly pot-luck supper).

I got some real nice mail this week (mostly complimentary—and, believe me, that is not unusual in the case). Here they are:

Dear Pam: Congrad on your article! It's an eye catcher and really has a lot of great material in it for us teenagers. While visiting our grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bunton, we came upon the first time in close to 18 years except one daughter and family who are in Germany.

Those present were Capt. and Mrs. Carl Dunlap and family of Ender, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Greer and son of Morehead, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Phalba Smith and sons of San Diego, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dunlap and family of Willcox, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap and family and the father, E. T. Dunlap of Willcox, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Peebles and sons spent Christmas with Mrs. Lydia Peebles. Little Henry then stayed with his grandmother until Sunday.

Major and Mrs. James Snow and family arrived December 20 to spend the holidays with Mrs. Snow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Wooten.

On Christmas day the Wootens had as dinner guests the Snows, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy LaMay and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aguayo of Belen.

In the afternoon they journeyed to the Mesa to visit the Roy and Tommy LaMay families.

Mrs. A. P. Sittton was expected home Tuesday. She had been taking care of her mother, Mrs. D. L. Ritchie in Tulare for the past two weeks.

The A. P. Sitttons hope to be able to take Mrs. Rose Sittton home with them from the hospital Wednesday.

Nogal and surrounding area experienced a severe snowstorm Sunday night and Monday. The snow was accompanied by severe wind which made the snow drift quite high. The Mesa had approximately 8 to 9 inches of snow on the level.

Lorraine Dunhamel and Lorie left for a visit with friends in Portales Friday.

Lawrence Chaulek of Las Cruces was a week end visitor of the Ralph Dunlaps.

your article and would like to tell you that we think it's really neat. The El Paso paper doesn't have any teenage columns except question and answer column. Respectfully, Shirley and Sandy Smith.

P.S. We are coming back to Carrizosa January 1-4 and would like to meet you. Keep up the good work!—S. and S. (Gee! Thanks for the compliments! I really want to meet you too and am looking forward to it greatly!)

I got a letter from Mary Nickels (Ginger) and thought you'd all like to know how she's doing. To quote: "I was so happy to see that you hadn't forgotten us! Thanks loads for your "hl" in the paper last week. Here is the "line" you requested: When we first got to Silver City, we were so lonesome for Carrizosa we were tempted to hop the next freight back! Gradually though we got acquainted and things started to happen. The first thing was, that I was invited to be the first flute in the Western High School Band. Then Mr. Parotti asked Mom and me to play in the town orchestra. Later, Billy had a ball singing in the Junior High minstrel show.

(There's more; but I've got to put some more of these other letters in the column this week—especially I want to quote in part—because it's from one in the "Know") She is a former Lincoln Countian — many of you might have known her. Her name is Danna Kuslanovich and she is working for the Albuquerque Journal. She used to write a column for the Lincoln County News—local news from Ft. Stanton. Her letter is very encouraging and perhaps a little too complimentary for me to quote verbatim; but I want her to know how much I appreciate it and although I have never really seriously thought of doing newspaper work professionally — you have put a "bug" in my head—thanks loads—Pam. P. S. Write often!

Now for a problem letter—and be sure to send in your advice!

Dear Pam: I'm not saying where I live but I sure hate it! My folks have a ranch and think there is nothing like it; but I'm tired of it and just have to get away. I'm 14 years old and could marry a man that lives in El Paso and get off of this ranch; but I'm not sure I love him. He's older than I—about 32; but the nicest person I know. What would you do? If I don't get away from here I'll go nuts! Please answer: Desperate.

Dear Desperate: I'll submit this letter to the Union for comment. It's kind of hard for me to advise you; but you ask "what would I do" so I'll tell you. I would wait. I wouldn't marry; at this young age you have your "teens"—the most wonderful years of your life (supposedly) ahead of you. Explain to your parents—maybe they would understand — and maybe they could find some way to send you away to school or find some more interesting activity for you at the ranch. Get a hobby; get a "pen pal" from another country—there's lots of things you can do to make life interesting. Pam. (Come on, Gang, let's help this girl!)

Well, I guess I'd better close now; will be seeing you at school (ugh!) Thought for the week: Don't get discouraged when you are down and out—just remember something is bound to turn up—usually the noses of your friends! So long! Pam.

Diana Cordova of Tularosa is visiting her cousin Fatty Sanchez at her home, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sanchez in Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lee Miller and their daughter Joy and her husband (Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Berle- mann) spent Christmas here at their home, leaving for Alamogordo Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Miller returned to their duties at the air base at Holloman and the Berle- manns journeyed on to Phoenix to spend New Years with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Demecio Peralta enjoyed the reunion of their children for the holidays. They were Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Chavez and Adelle of Grants, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Heberling and Tommy of Clovis, Andy Peralta, John Peralta and family, also Ceceli and Helen Quintana, all of Albuquerque. What a happy time!

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Coer spent Christmas with their mothers, Mrs. Mayme Grelsen and Mrs. Maude Clark, leaving Saturday for their home in Aztec. Mrs. Grelsen returned with them for awhile. Last Friday night they all attended a meeting in Alamogordo.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald McClung and three children spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Cummins and children and a young couple from Carrizozo. All had a lovely dinner and day together.

BURROUGHS INHERITS CHAVEZ KINFOLKS
Santa Fe, Dec. 23—John Burroughs will have an early opportunity to show precisely how he stands on having followers of Democratic Sen. Dennis Chavez in his administration.
Mrs. Robert Sena, wife of the senator's nephew, serves as a Democratic member of the state welfare board. Her appointment, made by Gov. Ed Mechem, runs until 1961 but she is subject to removal by the governor.
Mrs. David Chavez, wife of the Senator's brother, is a member of the state merit system council, and while not under the jurisdiction of the governor could be indirectly fired by the executive through the state welfare board which she represents on the council.

INCOME TAX CHIEF A CHAVEZ ADMIRER
No kin but a long-time follower of Senator Chavez is the outgoing administration's Democratic income tax director, Frank McColluch, probably the best income tax officer the state ever had.
There are many Chavez people in lesser places, a number of them in Maurice Miera's Employment Security Commission.
The incoming governor is reported to have made a list of the Chavez Democrats with the idea of getting rid of them.

TEACHERS TURN, REJECT DUES HIKE
In a surprising show of independence the state public school teachers voted 3,500 to 1,700 against increasing their dues from $15 to $25 a year for membership in the New Mexico Education Association.
The top-sided vote surprised be-

Let's All Help Keep Legion Grounds Clean

At this time I would like to mention that the grounds all over the Legion Hall property have been cleaned.

We are asking that if you are there and have cans, bottles or trash of any kind please do not be a litterbug and scatter it over the grounds. Put all trash in the barrel at the back of the hall.
Please help us so we can have a clean place for our patrons to come—one that we will not be ashamed of.
Another thing is that someone, adults or children, have been putting holes in the north wall, which certainly is all uncalled for.
Franks are OK, but destroying property is another thing. The hall is being watched night and day. Someone is going to be caught. The average parent does not want their children to do such things. Readers, please investigate and help us.

Will Rogers Weds Bonnie James of Raton

Miss Bonnie James of Raton and Will Rogers were united in marriage last Saturday, Dec. 27 at Hondo.
Will is home on furlough from the Navy, stationed at Bainbridge, Maryland. His leave is from December 19 to January 5. He is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rogers and his aunt in Carrizozo, his sister Irene (Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Forbus) and daughters Darla and Barbara. He lived with them and attended high school here and graduated.
Bonnie too spent her school days here for several years before going to Raton. Congratulations to a long happy life together. She will return to Raton for the present, as Will is going to school. They attended the dance Saturday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Swattek and son of Pampa, Texas, have been Christmas holiday guests through the New Year with her mother, Mrs. Ara Dollnar and Joe Hobbs. Their baby has been very ill.

Will Harrison's Inside the Capital

HOW ABOUT ALL THE OTHERS?
The situation is a serious one because of what it may mean in the future. Hundreds of New Mexico firms are under property liens filed by the bureau of revenue to protect the state on the collection of taxes.
And hundreds of others are paying interest and penalty for having fallen behind in their payments to the state. If the governor should get out of paying the claims made against him it might follow that the others should also be excused from paying.
POLICE POLITICS FAVORED MECHEM
Capital folk took notice the other day when John Burroughs made a public statement at El Paso about "taking the state police out of politics."
The police force has been remarkably free of politics in such matters as political appointments, political favors, political oppression.
The "politix" Burroughs may have had in mind was that of many of the state police going against him and for Mechem in last month's election.
Mechem is popular with most of those on the force, being an ex-FBI cop himself and a frequent companion at the police gym and firing range. He also inaugurated the police merit system which put an end to the reign of county sheriffs in the chief's post.

JEST IN FUN

A fellow in search of a wife consulted a marriage broker who promptly interested him in a candidate he described as "a girl who looks like a picture." Anxious to meet her, the client had the broker arrange a meeting at a local night spot.
But when the meeting came the client winced as he spotted the girl—cauliflower ears, a nose like a bent fender and a hank of hair dangling over her head.
"I thought," he scolded the broker, "that you said she looked like a picture."
The broker shrugged, "Either you like Picasso or you don't."

State's New Governor To Take Oath of Office At Noon on January 1

Santa Fe (Special)—John Burroughs, a man unknown to most of New Mexico a year and a half ago, will be sworn in as the state's 18th governor at 12 noon on January 1.

In the space of 10 minutes after a National Guard band plays the National Anthem, the 51-year-old Burroughs will place his hand on a family Bible and repeat the oath of office after Chief Justice Eugene D. Lujan. At that moment he will assume the governorship in succession to Gov. Edwin L. Mechem.

The ceremony will take place on the beautiful state capitol grounds, starting at 11:50 a.m. Invocation will be delivered by Archbishop Edwin V. Byrne. This will be followed by a five-minute talk by Mechem, the taking of the oath by Lt. Gov. Ed Mead and then Burroughs.

While the Guard band plays ruffles and flourishes and the traditional 17-gun salute is fired in the governor's honor jet planes are scheduled to zoom overhead. Then Burroughs will speak briefly and the Rev. John L. Carpenter will pronounce the benediction.

A public reception at the State Art Museum from 3 to 5 p.m., and the Inaugural Ball at La Fonda, starting at 9 a.m. will mark Inaugural Day. Tickets for the ball, the only event for which an admission is charged, are available at banks throughout the state and at several Santa Fe locations at $10 a couple. The public is invited to all events and no invitations are being sent.

DRIVER PERMITS FOR THE BLIND

Santa Fe, Dec. 30—A totally blind man in Albuquerque has a current driver's license which has been periodically renewed since he lost his sight six years ago.

He told Welfare Director Bob Pritchett that he used the permit for identification purposes. How he made the renewals wasn't explained.

A totally blind public officer in the southern part of the state is the subject of an inquiry on a report that he also is currently licensed to drive.

The welfare department is looking into several other reports of blind or near-blind clients of the program for the blind holding driver permits.

TEACHERS PREFER ANOTHER METHOD

An officer of the New Mexico Education Assn. has described the defeat of the proposed increase in dues to members' objection to the method of assessment rather than the amount involved—from $15 to $51.90 average pay classroom teachers now receive.

What the NMEA lost in the dues defeat seems to have been more than made up by the new administration in replacing School Budget Officer Homer Heathmann with an NMEA employe, Jim Green, and State Finance Officer Ed Hartmann with A. E. Hunt who was eight years Roosevelt county superintendent and 18 years an officer at Eastern New Mexico University.

That, along with NMEA Secretary Tom Wiley moving in as state school superintendent puts the big union-like organization in the strongest position it has ever had in the statehouse.

The real test will come, however, in the influence the NMEA is able to wield in the legislature on that new set of laws announced last summer.

ROAD PEOPLE SORE AT TONY HEIMANN

Engineers and brother commissioners are privately cursing Highway Commissioner Tony Heimann on his demand for a $300,000 to $400,000 road-into-the-Harding county ranch of his brother Frank. Tony has about that much to spend wherever he chooses in his northeastern district and designated the 13-mile stretch into his brother's place for the construction.

The proposed road would serve but little else than the Frank Heimann ranch, it prongs out to the west from State Road 14 in Union county and ends 40 miles east of Roy.

Mr. and Mrs. Mervyn Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Aguayo visited in Carrizozo during the holidays.

Mrs. Helen Nowell and sons Jessie and Ebbie attended a family reunion in Tularosa on Christmas Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carl of Fallon, Nev., are visiting his mother, Edna Carl, during the holidays. The family spent Christmas Day in Alamogordo visiting the Lee Carls.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerik and son from Las Cruces spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Petty and brothers Joe and Mike.

Joint Installation of Masons and Stars

By LEONA BROWN

There was a large attendance at the Masonic Temple, Carrizozo, Saturday night, Dec. 23, when at open, joint installations, officers for the ensuing year of Comet Chapter No. 29 Order of the Eastern Star and Carrizozo Lodge No. 41 AF & AM were installed.

Installed for Comet Chapter No. 29 were: Worthy Matron, Clara Snow; Worthy Patron, Donald Monroe; Associate Matron, Annie Withers; Associate Patron, Jack Shaw; Secretary, Leona Brown; Treasurer, Clara Lowe; Conductress, Minor Thomas; Associate Conductress, Ethel Howard; Chaplain, Frances Degner; Marshal, Alfred Garrison; Organist, Mattie Kelley; Aides, Ethel Roberts; Martha, Vernice Monroe; Electa, Jeannette Lemon; Warden, Emma Degner.

As Rev. Homer Reid sang "Star of the East," Mrs. Snow was escorted to the East by her daughter, Mrs. Wilma White, who pinned on her mother a purple, orchid corsage.

Mr. Monroe was escorted to the East by his wife, Mrs. Vernice Monroe, who pinned on him a carnation boutonniere.

The gown which Mrs. Snow wore for her installation was made of material sent from Japan by her son, Capt. Charles Snow.

A message entitled "Friendship" was given by the newly installed worthy matron. Her motto for her year is "Love One Another"—her colors, white, lavender and purple, which she chose to honor her mother, Mrs. Anna Brazel—her flower, the daisy, the favorite flower of her deceased sister, Mrs. Beula Hartley, late a member of Comet Chapter.

The presentation of a past matron's jewel to the outgoing matron, Mrs. Fronie Ramey, was made by Mrs. Leona Brown.

The newly installed worthy patron expressed appreciation for the honor conferred on him and introduced out-of-town friends and relatives.

Assisting with the installation were the following: installing officer, Frances Shaw; installing marshal, Ethel Roberts; installing secretary, Leona Brown; installing treasurer, Clara Lowe; installing organist, Mattie Kelley; installing chaplain, Emma Degner.
