"What does a college aducation cost?"

Parents wonder, tool Well, siest there are fixed costs (tuition, room and board, etc.), which can be learned from the individual college under consideration. Then there are extra costs - books and supplies, and so on - a representative total for which, experts say, runs about $500. . . . Few families can meet such expense from current income. Best best Apply the "college savings formula." Divide estimated gross cost by number of months until first year of college to determine amount of monthly savings necessary; then start saving, here! Smokey Bear Dance

Thanks to all who attended and helped, the Smokey Bear dance last Saturday night was a success. The next dance will be February 28 at the American Legion Hall, with good music by the White Mountain Rambiers. Be with us for a good time, and help complete the Smokey Museum.

Donors of sandwiches for the last dance were Ceil Annaratone, Ann Earling, Irene Forbus and Dorothy Guck, who also gave a box of candy for the prize. Other prizes were donated by the Holmes and Renches. Mrs. Boney Zamora contributed the doughnuts. Pearl Soderback and Mary Zamora Trufillo gave two pounds of coffee. Thanks to each one of you. James H. Cole Works As Electronics Engineer At Cape Canaveral

James H. Cole, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mays, is employed at Cape Canaveral, Fla., as an electronics engineer with the physical science laboratory of New Mexico State University. Mr. Cole had been on a year's leave of absence to complete work toward his degree which he received on January 24, 1959. At Cape Canaveral the physical science laboratory is connected with Vanguard and NASA. During his years at New Mexico State University Mr. Cole played leading roles in the Coronado Playmakers dramatic presentations and was initiated into Alpha Psi Omega, the honorary dramatic fraternity. He sang in the college community chorus, the college chorus, and the men's quartet as well as singing leading roles in two operettas, "The Bells of Old Mesilla" and "Down in the Valley."

Mr. Cole was also a member of the Institute of Radio Engineers, and the Theta Chi social fraternity.
