

Teensters
Union No. 1

By PAM REID

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 27 — I really hate to admit this, but two very nice letters that I received last week have been misplaced. I don't want you to think that this happens very often — if doesn't I think this is the very first time I've lost a letter (some I haven't published, 'tis true—but that was on purpose.) This time it was "an accident," and I'm really sorry! However, we have some other letters, so here goes!

Dear Pam: Please tell your "Bill Lytle Fan" that fellows like Bill do not move in order to get into "more lucrative climates," but rather for the good he can do where he is, as he sees it. "Another Bill Lytle Fan."

Dear "Another": Thanks for the card and the remarks. I agree with you that "fellows like Bill Lytle do not move into more lucrative climates" because if they were in it for the money, the ministry would be the last choice I ought to know! One thing you can be sure of—Bill is a happy man—one would never question that; but there are some millionaires I know of that are not happy! So draw your own conclusions!—Pam.

Dear Pam: You may not realize it (being so near to the subject in question) but you have the best preacher who ever hit this town in the person of your own father.

"Home Is Where The Cake Is"

By Frank Alsup (poet low-rate)

You may feel lucky
To live in Kentucky
Or the Land of Ten Thousand
Lakes
You may yearn
To live in Lucerne
But they don't have Alsup's cakes
You might like to reside
By the rolling tide
And watch the fishing boats un-lead their take
You may have a yen
To live in Berlin
But you couldn't get an Alsup's cake
You may have an urge
To make a big splash
Like Eddie and Lix a splash you would make
You may look dreamy
In a scanty bikini
But on the Riviera you can't buy an Alsup's cake
Menace is the place
Where Princess Grace
Arouses the envy of every Tom,
Dick and Jake
She would gladly surrender
A hunk of that splendor
If she could order an Alsup's cake
You are one of the fortunate few
In the world who can order an Alsup's cake
In Carrizozo you can order at Thornett's.

His sermons are always good—and I mean always! He has a sense of humor that is second to none (and what preacher doesn't need a real sense of humor) and he is the best songwriter I've ever had the pleasure of witnessing. Come on over to those "hymn sings" they have every month, if you don't believe me. He is pretty tolerant and broad-minded about other people and other churches and, as a result, is criticized by some of the old bigoted "hard-shells," but I can tell you that as far as the general public is concerned, you'd never know that it bothered him, and I doubt seriously that it does.

I can tell you something that you don't know, too. He's been going over to the county jail and singing and preaching to the prisoners each week (no collections taken there), but he remarked to me the other day that he enjoyed preaching to a congregation that was in no hurry to get to Sunday dinner or the TV or to the Country Club—and even if they were, they couldn't do anything about it any more! Bill Lytle is a wonderful man and I admire him for what he has done since he's been here in Lincoln County, but in less than a year your Dad has created more good will, more thinking and more improvement in people than any other preacher, doctor, lawyer, rancher or what have you! I want to ask you not to publish my name although I'll sign this letter so you can know who it is, but for the rest of the folks (and especially your Dad) just call me "Appreciative."

Dear "Appreciative": I appreciate your appreciation. Appreciating an appreciative person who appreciates one worthy of appreciation is always appreciating! Seriously, I didn't know he was that good. Thanks for telling me.—Pam.

Y'know, I didn't think I would be getting homesick, but I sure am. It seems that ever since I've been to Colorado Springs I've felt something was missing — now I know: I'm homesick; but my mother will be up here next week and that should help.

BOY FRIEND'S PRAYER

Heavenly Father up above, keep and protect the boy I love
Keep him safe and keep him sound no matter when or where he's bound
Help him to see that I love him and make him love me.
Keep us now always together,
happy in love now and forever.
Amen.
I thought that was cute, how about you'all?
A sign on a movie house up here had this startling caption: "Super Double Feature! Super Horror Show! Free Lollipop!"
Well, take care. Love—Pam.

ALTO BRIEFS

By AILKEN LINDAMOOD

Kin of Eugene Rhodes Calls at Alto Store

Larry Hill, a great grandson of Eugene Manlove Rhodes, stopped by on Sunday. His home is in Roswell and while he was in the area he wanted more information on the school up Eagle Creek Canyon where his great-grandfather taught. He said that two sons survive Mr. Rhodes and they make their homes in Apalachicola, N. Y. They are Allan and Jasper Rhodes.

Jim Peebles Wins Goat Scramble at 4-H Rodeo

Jim Peebles was the winner in the Goat Scramble at the County 4-H Rodeo in Capitan last Saturday. The contest was limited to youngsters 8 years old and under, with about 20 trying to catch the goat. Jim had to catch and hold the goat for 30 seconds before he was declared the winner.

Lieutenant and Mrs. John Everhart and children were over from Ruidoso on Saturday, taking a drive through the mountains and up Mon Jeau Lookout. He is here on leave from his base in Iceland.

Sawmle Carrell and family of Kerrville, Texas, stopped in on Saturday.

The R. O. Pittillo were up from Tularosa on Friday, visiting the George Creel family and the Lindamoods.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Adams were up from Canutillo, Texas, for the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore, Mrs. Malcolm Marsh and Mrs. W. H. Orme-Johnson were up from El Paso, spending the week end in their summer home in Ruidoso. On Saturday they came over to see the Alan Orme-Johnsons at Eagle Creek Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Swanson were in El Paso a few days last week, returning on Saturday to their Eagle Creek home.

Hatyo Coffee of El Paso and Mrs. Ola Akin of Albuquerque came up to be with their sister, Mrs. Margaret Handel, at Eagle Creek Lodge for the week end.

J. P. Jones and family of Irving, Texas, came by on Thursday. They have horses at Ruidoso Downs and were driving around over here and enjoying the mountains.

Mrs. Jackie Silvers, postmaster from Ancho, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stoneman and daughter Glenna, also of Ancho, were Alto visitors last Tuesday.

The Paul Bakers of the Lincoln County News at Carrizozo visited the Lindamoods on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Price and daughter Janna Sue of Crane, Texas, and Dixie Hendricks of Midland stopped to see the Sidney Prestons on Thursday.

Robert and Elva Loyce Sherrill of Capitan visited the Jim McEucens last week end and on Thursday they all went to Weed, N. M., for the day.

Willie Rev. and Mrs. Bill Holmes of Van Horn, Texas, were visiting in Ruidoso he came over to see us at Alto.

Mrs. A. D. Addison, Wilford Addison and the L. P. Comblts of El Paso spent some time at the Addison ranch on Little Creek last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Woodward of Alva, Okla., stopped by to see the Charlie Nabours at Eagle Creek last week on their way to Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Pennington of Athens, Texas, are vacationing at their summer place in Gavilan Canyon.

Mrs. Barbara Long and children Mary Ann and Tommy were house guests of the Jack Stewarts last week.

Nick Nabours came in from Cameron, Texas, Wednesday to vacation with his parents, the Charlie Nabours at Eagle Creek Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Neal and sons Dick and Tom are here from Houston enjoying a vacation at Eagle Creek Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wistrand and children of Colorado, Texas, and Dana Derogibus are camping up Eagle Creek Canyon at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Technanski of Phoenix are visiting the E. P. Zielinkis in their summer home at Cedar Creek. One day last week they drove over for a steak fry at Skyline and made a stop at the store on their way home.

Jackie Stewart returned to Albuquerque Friday after visiting his family, the Jack Stewarts of Eagle Creek Lodge.

The Hugh Puckett of Roswell were here the past week end.

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Davis and children Jeff and Janis are here from Cameron, Texas, visiting the Charlie Nabours.

The W. T. Diehlons of Lubbock were camped up Cedar Creek last week and made several trips over in this area sight-seeing. Their son Freddie was with them and the others related to them were: Ed Dickson, Joe Dickson, Rusty, Alena and Gregory Dickson and Mr. and Mrs. Randall Warren and son Randy. It was a pleasure to know

(Continued on Page 6)

FOOD MART

131 GREEN STAMPS

FRYERS SUNCO FANCY

RIB STEAKS

SPARE RIBS SMALL, LEAN and MEATY

BACON Rath's Cedar Valley—2 1-lb. packages or Rath's Cedar Farm—1 2-lb. package

FRANKS GLOVER'S

FROZEN FOODS

PURE BEEF STEAKS RATH'S

VEAL CHOPETTES Rath's Sizzle and Serve

TOMATO JUICE HUNT'S 46 OZ.

PORK & BEANS Van Camp's No. 300

CATSUP HUNT'S TOMATO 14 Oz.

APPLESAUCE WIN-ALL No. 303

COCKTAIL FRUIT HUNT'S No. 2 1/2

CORN NIBLETS 12 OZ.

STRAWBERRIES SLICED — LIBBY'S 10 Ozs.

KLEENEX TISSUES 400's

DELSEY TISSUE ROLL

Potatoes No. 1 New California Russett

GRAPES THOMPSON SEEDLESS

BELL PEPPERS JUST RIGHT FOR STUFFING

CUCUMBERS CRISP, CRUNCHY

Prices Effective July 31 thru Aug. 1st only

Double Stamps ON WEDNESDAYS

CUT UP WHOLE lb. 37c
lb. 33c

73¢

49¢

89c

49¢

3 FOR 23¢

8 Oz. Pkg. 59c
8 Oz. Pkg. 59c

4 for $1

8 for $1

6 for $1

8 for $1

3 for $1

6 for $1

5 for $1

Box 27c
2 for 29c

10 LB. 69c

21c

2 lbs. for 27¢
2 lbs. for 25¢
2 lbs. for 25¢
2 lbs. for 25¢
2 lbs. for 25¢
2 lbs. for 25¢

BEAUTY SHOP
Specializing in HAIR SHAPING and PERMANENT WAVING
Gladys Morriss
Phone 111

Lawnmowers - Saws - Engines
SHARPENING — PARTS — REPAIRING
Welding — Machine Work — Outboards
Barbecue Grills and Steel Frames Made

—AT—

HE 7-2079 TURNER-CLINE ALAMOGORDO
ALAMOGORDO TURNER-CLINE 244 VIRGINIA

NOTE: We give special attention to Out-of-town Work
Also Mail and Ship — Visit our Shop

ALWAYS A FRIENDLY WELCOME at the ...

Holiday Inn

ROSWELL

MR. AND MRS. J. B. HOWELL, Managers

Get 15¢

Cactus Doubles

with...

Cottage Cheese

