

Suit Would Enjoin Planned Move of Gas Storage Plant

A suit to enjoin the City Gas Company of Carrizozo from moving its bulk propane storage tank from its present location to a new designated location, has been instituted in district court by Salomon G. Sanchez, plaintiff.

The town of Carrizozo is named as a co-defendant.

The complaint states that the plaintiff owns all of Block 28, McDonald's Addition and that the defendant owns, or is in possession of a tract of land across the street from Block 28.

The complaint states "That on the west one-half of Block 28 the defendant, City Gas Company of Carrizozo is building and is erecting an industrial butane storage tank, which tank when completed will contain more than 30,000 gallons of butane gas."

It is further alleged by plaintiff "That in erection and operation of said storage tank much noise, quantities of sediment and fumes will be emitted therefrom . . . further that plaintiff's home value will be diminished for residential purposes."

The plaintiff seeks to recover damages in the sum of $5,000 already incurred, plus costs, and punitive damages in the amount of $10,000.

The plaintiff asks that the defendant be forever enjoined and restrained from continuing the building and erecting of said butane storage tank.

Mr. Sanchez is represented in the suit by Attorney A. J. Rivera. Judge Scoggin has set the day of October 30, at 10 a.m. for a hearing on the motion for preliminary injunction.

Plan Recreation Areas Adjoining Bonito Lake

BONITO CITY — The meeting here last week between the County Commissioners, Forest Rangers, and others, brought out the information that a recreation area may be developed soon above and below Bonito Dam.

As for the land trade, the commissioners seemed to think there was no conflict with the interests of the county, but questioned the deal of Alamogordo closing the lake to fishing, but as Commissioner Emmett Reese put it: "We folks better concentrate more on getting the Fish and Game Department to be sure and stock the dam—and how?"

Citizens attending the meeting were Mayor Joe Rench, from Capitán, Bernie Hayes, Angus, Jim H. McEuen, Alto; Messrs. Doberman and McDermitt, Alamogordo; Commissioners Clint Sultemeler, Corona, Ramon Nunez, Picacho, and Emmett Reese, Ruidoso Downs, and Arvel Runnels.

The party drove above the dam to look at the lands and discuss roads, camp grounds and the kinds of signs (friendly ones) that could be placed along the better roads to the badly-needed camp grounds.

Mr. McEuen pointed out that camp grounds would greatly decrease the fire hazards and make possible camping in the spring, at times when, due to fire hazard, camping is banned in the forest for extended periods.

Lovelace Ranch Host to Bow and Rifle Hunters

CORONA — The Willis and Holt Lovelace ranch southeast of Corona was the rendezvous of 41 bow hunters, camped in tents, and hunting antelope, October 11, 12 and 13. Twelve antelope had been taken out the first two days.

Some hunters came by car, others by plane, to set up camp on the Lovelace ranch.

There was also hunting with guns where landowners gave permits for buck antelope, on the Bond, Straley and Hightower ranches south of Corona.

Also hunting deer with bow and arrow was permitted the past week around Corona, with the season ending Wednesday, Oct. 14.

Excitement at Ancho as Antelope Season Opens

ANCHO — Ancho was the scene of much activity and excitement on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 12 and 13, as the antelope hunt got underway for this area. Sixty-nine hunters from various towns in New Mexico checked in at the checking station in the Straley Store.

George Hanson, game warden, was in charge of the hunt and James Taylor checked the hunters in and out. Late Monday the kill was twenty antelope.

Youngest Plover Picked Gets Lost in Jicarillas

Ronnie Green, 3, gave his parents and others a scare last Friday afternoon when he became lost from a plover hunting party in the Jicarillas.

Miss Era Berry phoned the sheriff's office in Carrizozo at about 3 o'clock, saying that the tot had disappeared and could not be located. She made the call from the Foster ranch and said the child disappeared from the vicinity of the Stoneman ranch.

Deputy Sheriffs Hoppy Gutierrez, Libe Mirabal, and Sgt. Wm. Crews and Jim Clayton from the State Police proceeded to the Foster ranch, where they met Miss Berry and she took them to the scene of the search.

The tot was found about two hours later by his mother, Mrs. Dale W. Green, on a road about a mile distant, trudging back toward the ranch.

Col. and Mrs. John J. McCarthy and family from El Paso visited friends in Carrizozo last week end.

New Post office at Mesalero to be Dedicated Oct. 18

Apache dances, Comanche version of the National Anthem and refreshments served in a ceremonial "repeal" will be part of the dedication program for the new U. S. Post Office at Mesalero on October 18, according to Postmaster Corinne McNatt.

The Indian theme will honor the 1500 patrons and history of the post office serving the Mesalero reservation. Although this is the first dedication, Mrs. McNatt says the post office was known as South Fork in 1864 and became Mesalero in 1887 when the 473-320 acre reservation was established. The first postmaster was Col. Hanford Cowart, Indian agent.

Postal officials appearing on the program which begins at 2 p.m. Sunday, include Kenneth L. Mason, postal installation manager; Denver; Leland Mitchell Jr. and Glenn Armstrong, field service officers, Albuquerque, and E. S. Sampala, inspector from Roswell.

The dedication will open with tape recordings of Indian ceremonial chants. Herb Gregerson will be master of ceremonies; Mrs. Bruce Klinekole, president of the Mesalero Tribal Business Committee, will welcome guests; Rev. Sojanus Haugh, O. F. M., St. Joseph's Mission, will give the invocation; and the benediction will be by the Rev. Harvey M. Calabok of the Mesalero Reformed Church.

As entertainment, Indian costumes will be worn by Eugene Klinekole in a war dance, Eugene Hostosavit doing the hoop dance and a dancing trio of Hostosavit youngsters, under the direction of Alfred Hostosavit who will also sing the Comanche version of the National Anthem during the flag raising.

The new Mesalero post office is connected with the McNatt store on U. S. Highway 70. Mrs. McNatt has been postmaster there for nine years. She is a graduate of New Mexico State University and has two sons who attend schools in Tulare.

Tom DeLong, brother of Mrs. Lewis Farris, died Saturday, Oct. 10, in Bowie, Ariz. Funeral services were conducted in Willow, Ariz.

Alanzo "Zo" Elliott, well known composer, returned to San Antonio and Austin last Friday after completing the first draft of his grand opera "El Chivato" (Billy the Kid).

When the orchestration is completed it will be the culmination of eight years' work. The idea of a grand opera based on the life of Billy the Kid came to him while he was continuing his studies in music at the University of Arizona.

He was looking for a vehicle to express in a drama, put to music, the character and color of the Southwest, woven around a central personality. The Billy the Kid myth he felt was beneficial and one that was known throughout the world.

The theme of "El Chivato" is not immoral, he says, because the main character receives the penalty for his misdeeds.

Lincoln Nat'l Forest Issues New Folder

By DOROTHY GUCK

The Lincoln National Forest has a new information folder and map just off the press. One side contains a detailed map of the forest and nearby areas, with points of interest to its tourist market, and the facilities at the various picnic and camping grounds listed.

The other side of the folder contains detailed information on the water, grazing, timber, recreation and wildlife of the Lincoln National Forest. There are 14 photographs, a description of points of interest, the Southwestern Region, and the work of the forest ranger.

The folder was designed by McGinn's Advertising Art of Albuquerque and is illustrated with photographs by Carmen Phillips and Louis Philippe, well-known Ruidoso photographers, the late Harold D. Walliter of Santa Fe, New Mexico Tourist Bureau, New Mexico Game & Fish Department and Forest Service photographers.

The story of Smokey the Bear is headed with this plea, "Please take care of the forest where I was born."

"The Friends of the National Zoo" sponsored a "Salute to Our National Zoo" program the week end of September 23 in Washington, D. C. Smokey had 10,000 visitors, the most of any of the animals at the zoo.

During National Fire Prevention Week the news bulletins lauded the outstanding work of the Lincoln's Smokey Bear. Since 1942 approximately $10-billion worth of damage did not happen because 200 million acres of timber were destroyed by fire. Last year the average burned was one-tenth of that amount.

Since the campaign to prevent forest fires was started, losses have been cut by 90%, despite the fact that the use of our forests has increased ten-fold.

Smokey has encouraged many people to help him in the campaign against carelessness—a major cause of forest fires. The poster Smokey inaugurated forest fire prevention, but the living cub from the Lincoln National Forest in New Mexico captured the hearts of everywhere, convincing them that by taking an active part in the prevention campaign, our green treasury of forest wealth will not only be preserved, but grow.

Copies of the folder can be obtained by contacting the Forest Supervisor, U. S. Forest Service, Post Office Bldg., Alamogordo.

WILL HARRISON'S Inside The Capital

HIGHWAY PROBES ARE HANDICAPPED

Santa Fe, Oct. 14—The $54,500 of public money set up for investigation of the highway department looks like a bum investment.

A New York engineering firm, Ebasco, is getting $49,500 for what stands to be a technical report on the operation of the agency.

The legislative finance committee, sharply divided in pro and anti administration sentiment, has $5,000 to spend on getting into the subjects that prompted the demand for an investigation, such as asphalt buying, right-of-way purchases, and collusion between contractors and department personnel resulting in sub-standard road construction.

BURROUGHS SEES LOOK INTO PAST

Gov. John Burroughs has already told the press that anything uncovered by the investigation would relate to the former administration, that apparently in reference to road failures that were planned and constructed before he took office last January 1.

That is contrary to the hopes of many of the investigation demanders who had hoped to go into such current subjects as right-of-way purchases in Albuquerque, asphalt buying and personnel juggling in the department.

SEVEN LEGISLATORS CARRY THE BURDEN

The load is on seven legislators, each facing re-election next year. They are: Sen. Gordon Melody of Las Vegas, chairman, Democrat, facing a hard run for re-election and one not likely to embarrass the Demo administration; Sen. William Osborne, Roswell Democrat, ditto Melody; Rep. Morgan Nelson, Roswell Demo, who is in debt to the Burroughs administration for his chairmanship of the powerful house money committee.

CARTER, PATTON RARING TO GO

On the other side: Rep. Anderson Carter, Portales Democrat, an avowed opponent of the Burroughs administration and the Burroughs highway commission; Rep. Jim Patton, Las Cruces Democrat, ditto Carter.

The big question mark encircles Republican members Rep. Fred Thompson of Wagon Mound and Sen. Charles Mumma of Farmington. Both are timid, reluctant to fight.

Mumma, another one under a hard go for re-election, is the No. 1 member-in-doubt. Thompson's lever is a little above normal because of being fired from the Springer reform school board.

SHORT TIME SHORT MONEY

If the Republicans join Democrats Carter and Patton the majority combine might produce a report of some significance but it would be under the handicap of operating with seriously limited money, and the timing of the investigation is such that it might have no effect on next year's elections.

Top beneficiary of the investigation stands to be Governor Burroughs, who seems to have been relieved of the demand for a dangerous special session of the legislature and relieved of the charges that he was keeping in present an opening of the books on the highway operation.

BURROUGHS PEOPLE WELCOME BURSLEY

Joe Bursley's declaration that he would run against Governor Burroughs in the primary next spring was celebrated in two quarters.

The Bursley quarters and the Burroughs quarters.

Bursley, regarded here as a weak challenger, is still strong enough to keep others out, such as rich and popular Lt. Gov. Ed Mead who had been talking about running for governor if Bursley did not.

The Burroughs people have been hoping all along that it would be Bursley, one they beat in last year's primary 48,340 to 32,663.

Bursley has been gaining new support recently but not enough to worry the Burroughs people.

The second half of the Burroughs people prays is that Ed Mechem will not go as the Republican candidate.

BOB VALDEZ EYED FOR LAMB'S JOB

Revenue Commissioner Bob Valdez has been added to the list of prospects for Corporation Commissioner Jim Lamb's job. Lamb came from Dona Ana county and it seems that about 25 years ago Valdez lived in Dona Ana which gives him some kind of a claim on the job. Valdez was a member of the corporation commission back in the 1930's and 40's, but having much fun in his new job as revenue commissioner.

OPPONENTS ATTEND TRACK OPENING

Dona Ana county which so bitterly resisted the establishment of Sunland race park, in the county at a location shouldered up against El Paso, and far removed from the county seat at Las Cruces, was represented at the track opening by Demo Chairman Howard Klein and Rep. Bob Mayne, the only Dona Ana legislator who didn't fight the track. Former Republican Gov. Ed Mechem of Las Cruces was also present.

Ruidoso Warriors Meet Grizzlies in Game Here Friday

Another county grid rivalry will have an answer one way or the other Friday evening in Carrizozo when the Grizzlies entertain the Ruidoso Warriors. Game time is 7:30 p.m.

Both teams have met Honda, Capitán and Tulare and on the basis of scores of those games, rate even in Friday's contest.

Ruidoso defeated Honda 27 to 0, Capitán 34 to 6 and Tulare 7-6. Carrizozo won from Honda 27 to 0, from Capitán 19 to 0 and defeated Tulare, 12 to 0.

The strong Grizzly line that made two goal line stands against Capitán will again be put to the test, as Ruidoso will have a weight advantage in both backfield and line.

The passing of warrior quarterback Jones will be a constant threat. He is rated one of the best tossers in this area.

Coaches Laabs and Bode report the Grizzlies came out of the Capitán game in good shape, with no injuries.

The game will not count in conference competition, as Ruidoso has moved up into B competition. The Grizzlies at the present time are leading in the 2C conference race, with the Vazquez game remaining to be played.

Two of the Carrizozo touchdowns were long gainers—a 90-yd. pass and run play, Crenshaw to R. Ortiz and a 35-yard ramble by Crenshaw later in the game.

The combined bands of the two schools played the national anthem before kick-off. At half-time the bands again joined on the field to take part in the Queen coronation and to salute the stands on both sides of the field.

Captain won the toss and elected to receive, defending the north goal. E. Nowell's kickoff went out of bounds. His second kickoff was returned 25 yards, then intercepted.

Letter to Editor

Editor, News: In your September 2nd edition of the Lincoln County News I came across an article which seemed to have been written by an former-fure person. I was very surprised when I inquired and found it was written by one who is supposed to be a scholar. The article was written about sportsmanship, or maybe I should say the title was Sportsmanship. But the article to me seemed just the opposite. Sports bring out the quality of all people, whether they are directly in contact with the game, or just a spectator, student, alumni or faculty member. The article was mostly about a game which one team won and the other lost. For some reason, that is the way the game was intended, and for some reason, after every game there is one or two persons who can't take a loss or lose a ball game without looking for an excuse to blame someone else. In my opinion this kind of person is a very poor sport and doesn't know how to admit that his team can make a mistake. I played five years of high school ball and in those five years I never saw an official call a penalty which we or the other team didn't deserve. I won't believe that officials have started giving penalties for nothing. I know that all the mistakes can't possibly be seen by the officials, or anyone else, and if the person who wrote that article can do a better job than the officials are doing at ball games, then why in heck isn't he out there? Is he afraid there are more critics like himself and that he couldn't take what they dish out? LONNIE NOWELL.

FT. STANTON

By J. R. C.
ARRIVALS: John Secody, Tuba City, Ariz.; Josefina Madrid, Albuquerque; Luis Trujillo, Santa Cruz; Mary A. Pate, Las Cruces.
DISCHARGES: Ernest Brawley, George Edmondson, Toribio Garcia, Alfred Romero.
Following is the schedule of Father Chavez at the Catholic Church: First Thursday of each month, afternoons; first Friday of every month at 6:30 a.m.; the last three Sundays of the month. Ambulatory patients are invited to the chapel to pray the Rosary through October at 5:30 p.m.
Rev. Brown of the Episcopal chapel will have morning prayer the first and third Sundays of each month.
Alfred Romero was discharged last week and left for his home in Mora.
Thomas Salabye has returned from furlough at his home in the northern part of the state.
Wayne Perkins of Clovis visited Mrs. Perkins and daughter, Barbara Faye, here last Sunday.
Mmes. Bowley and Paulina Aragon had visitors last Sunday; also Mr. Martinez of Main 1.
Mrs. Salvador Chavez and daughter of Lordsburg were here last week to bring back Mr. Chavez, who had been on furlough at his home for two weeks.
Nurse Dana Hull has resigned at Fort Stanton and is now located some place in Arizona. Best of luck, Dana.
Alfredo (Navajo) Padilla died on the night of October 4 and the remains were sent to Window Rock for burial.
We enjoyed the World Series between the White Sox and Dodgers very much. We thank those in "4" for watching the games on their TV while ours has been out of order for several days. The White Sox failed to live up to their base-stealing reputation, but certainly made up for it with their fine pitching, hitting and spectacular plays afield—more especially Aparacio, Landis, Rivera and Ted Kluszewski.
Our painting crew gave the schoolhouse a good spray of white paint and green trimmings last week. Looks nice.
Marcos Barela of the Carrizozo Hardware Company was a business visitor here on Thursday of last week.
Head orderly Anselmo Gutierrez is back on duty after his narrow escape three weeks ago, when his car turned over near Roswell. He feels all right now, but has to have a few teeth put in. Be careful, Anselmo!

Miss Hazel Melas, one-time teacher in the Carrizozo schools years ago, died in Carlsbad on October 7. Many will remember Miss Melas. She was 62.

A state patrolman was here last Friday night to deliver a message to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trujillo to the effect that Mrs. Trujillo's parents had been killed in a car wreck in Utah. The people of Ft. Stanton tender their heartfelt sympathy to the Trujillos.

Cook Jake Zengerle and Mrs. Zengerle have moved to Albuquerque.

Antonio Barrera was here from Mountainair one day last week to visit his brother, Juan, and niece, Librada Barrera.

Harry Fahrbruch, district counselor, rehabilitation department, was here October 7 and 8, interviewing patients for rehabilitation and cosmetology.

In a letter to Joe S. Chavez from his niece, Mrs. Mary Lou Padilla of Denver, she states that her mother, Mrs. Stella Salcido, had left by plane for Los Angeles to see her daughter, Mrs. Ruth Vigil, who underwent surgery and was in critical condition in a hospital there.

We have had a nice letter from S. A. Montes of Stockton, Calif. He is foreman on a ranch and has thirty bracers under him. His wife Lucy is a nurse's aide in a hospital. They have a granddaughter now and her name is Sylvia Jean. He sends best regards to all in Fort Stanton.

Dr. H. C. Jernigan went to Clovis last Friday and to Las Vegas Sunday, on professional business.

Wm. Zink and Steve Uhorriett each had a $10 pool for every game and the following were the winners: 1st game, Lilly Escobedo; 2d game, John Littell, Jack Ciria; 3d game, Joe Montano, Col. L. W. Varner; 4th game, Nurse Mrs. Hale, Wm. Zink; 5th game, B. Manish, Padlock; 6th game, Wm. Zink $10 and Esmael Salas, the $40 pot on one pool and Benny Dalton $10 on the other. Manish and Zink won two each.

Esmael (El) Salas was pulling for the Los Angeles Dodgers and won the $40 pot on the White Sox total runs of 23 to 21. He should at least send a card of condolence to the Sox. We were for the Sox all through the Series, but then, we also were for the Fort Stanton Cubs all summer, so we are not taking it too hard.

In conversation with Nurse Mrs. Danston, we learned that she is a sister of Joe Bursay, prominent state politician and probably a candidate for governor again in the Democratic primaries in the spring of 1960.

Another film and slides were shown to the patients at Los Angeles Club on October 8. Mr. Vigil and technician Perry Zamora were present to answer questions.

For the information of Editor Baker and Mrs. M. C. Turner of Alamogordo: The old road from Fort Stanton to the Bonito is passable, but very rough and is traveled only by the water crew in Jeeps. To go to the Bonito from here, people go through Devils Canyon or around by Capitan. Other way is to go to Hondo and take Highway 70 to Ruidoso and from there on up to the Bonito.

Some of us have made some pretty work. Mary and Tomie Tarr's mother came to see them Monday.

Patrick is among the 18 general reporters covering campus activities as they unfold from week to week. He is also registered in the course in news reporting.
He is a 1959 graduate of Carrizozo High School.

"Does your bank help families meet education expenses?"
Indeed we do, in two ways: By providing savings account service and by extending low-cost loans. Many parents regularly set aside a definite part of income in savings accounts at our bank, so that they will be able, at least partially, to meet the expense of college for their youngsters. Many adults hoping to advance their own careers through special study take advantage of the economical credit available at our bank to finance such education. We're proud to help people to help themselves. May we help you?

Teensters Union No. 1

By PAM REID

Boy! That was some game the other night! We certainly are proud of our boys—they really make life seem worthwhile when they win that way! I enjoyed the pep rally too. Last Wednesday and I think everybody else did too. On Saturday night we had our first teenage dance at the Country Club. The turnout was pretty good considering it was the first one and had not been publicized very much; but we want to urge the rest of you to come on out.

The new records were welcome, but the suggestion was made that a little more variety would be in order—some regular fox-trots and waltzes, polkas and even some latin dances. The Cokes were refreshing, but not enough of them. We appreciate the Country Club's courtesy in letting us use it for the dance. Let's all be very careful and leave it as clean and orderly as we find it.

I received a postcard the other day without any address on it. However Roy (the postmaster) put it in my box, since the message started "Dear Pam." Thanks, Mr. Postmaster! It goes, like this:

Dear Pam: I have a problem that bothers me a lot. I am always crying. When my parents bawl me out or my teachers are cross with me it hurts me very much and the tears start. I am very sensitive and get hurt easily. This may sound silly to some people, but it really bothers me. I hope you can help me.—Cry Baby.

Dear "Cry Baby": I'm assuming you are a girl (?). I remember reading something about "stuttering" and the one thing this doctor said that stays with me was: "Don't hesitate to hesitate." He called stuttering "hesitating" and he said the person that hesitated in his speech usually did so because he was trying so hard not to. Once he relaxed and just didn't care—the less he hesitated. This might apply to crying too. Don't try to keep from crying—just let the tears come and have a good cry. It's just a way of relieving yourself of pent-up emotion, and teenagers are supposed to be over-emotional. I still think it's better than getting drunk, or having a tantrum or driving like mad in a car or starting a fight, etc. There are a lot of ways of relieving pent-up emotions and to me, this "crying jag" seems the least offensive! Just remember too—that you'll outgrow it eventually. The main thing is DON'T WORRY.

Good luck—Pam.

Teensters: Do you think this is good advice for cry-baby? If you do, let me know, if you don't why don't you write and tell us what you think? OK?

News Notes from Along the Bonito

By LOUISE RUNNELS

Autumn colors are beautiful from Angus to the end of any road above the dam. This past week end many people viewed the colors from Mon Jeau—riding over the hills on the Aspenade, horseback, or up and down any of our mountain valleys in Lincoln County.

A few bow-and-arrow-hunters have been in the canyon this week but haven't heard of any deer being killed. The deer are plentiful this year as usual.

Mrs. Gertrude (Babe) Hale came with her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Allison, from Ruidoso Downs to Bonito City last week to check on our supply of cherry cider.

Mrs. Allison's father, Tom Britt, died October 9 in Roswell. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor attended the funeral services there.

Collins Walker's brother and Collins have a good supply of pinon nuts, if anyone wants to buy some. With Collins' patented "pinon picker" they have some 700 pounds ready to put in those little expensive bags.

Visiting Ben Pfingsten over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong and son Bernard from Tucuman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pfingsten, sons Bobbie, Jerry and Doug and Doug's girl friend Halley Smith, all from El Paso; Mr. and Mrs. Noel McDaniel, sons Ronnie and Roger; Mrs. Jack Pfingsten's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Yates from Carrizozo went to Mon Jeau Saturday to see the pretty autumn colors. Then on Sunday they went to Loma Grande, which is a yearly event for many of the Pfingstons and friends. Part of this jolly group visited Bonito City Saturday evening and the city rode horseback.

Going from Bonito on the elk hunt in Colorado were: Roland Chano, Bobby Pierce, J. R. Crawford, Richard Moore, J. C. Ely, Arvel Runnels and Virgil Hall from Captain. Mike Gaydos from Organ, N. M., was in Bonito Sunday morning about 10:00 on his way to Colorado. The others had left about 3 AM that morning.

Bridal Shower Honors
Mrs. Buddy Duncan

Thirty-five guests attended a bridal shower for Mrs. Buddy Duncan (nee Julie Robinson of Nogal), given at the Community Church in Nogal, Sunday afternoon, October 11.

Hostesses were aunts of Mrs. Duncan, Mrs. Gladys Alexander of Carrizozo, Mrs. Betty Galloway of Roswell and Mrs. Thelma Tucker of Alamogordo.

Entertainment for the afternoon was unique and interesting.

Mrs. Duncan received many beautiful and useful gifts. Guests unable to attend sent their gifts.

Lovely refreshments of assorted cakes, coffee and candy were served by the hostesses.

The beautiful flowers used to decorate the church for the shower and also for the wedding a week previous were furnished by George Wandell of Nogal.

Tuberculin Tests Given Pupils Of First Grade in Two Schools

Mrs. Alma Bradley of the Lincoln County health office, gave TB tests Monday to first grade pupils of the Carrizozo schools. Of 41 children enrolled, 24 were given tests.

The tests were sponsored by the Lincoln County chapter of the New Mexico Tuberculosis Association.

Similar tests were given in September to 14 out of 15 first grade pupils in the Corona schools.

that matters. In other words GROW UP! Love, Pam.

Andy Brown, a Scoutmaster said: "While I was at Philmont Scout ranch I overheard two boys who were sprawled on a nearby bank after a vigorous hike, playing a game that started with one or the other giving clues to an imaginary identity and ending with the question, 'Who am I?'"

"After they had been successfully spotted in turn as Ted Williams and John Wayne, one boy began a new round, particularizing: 'I am five feet two, a red-head, weigh 112 pounds, stretch the tape at 35-23-34, and have grey eyes and dimples. Who am I?'"

"Who cares?" came back from the other, with a sigh, "Kiss me!"

Love—Pam.

Mmes. Greer, Wooten Nogal UPA Hostesses

The U. P. W. A. of Nogal held its regular meeting in the church with Opal Greer hostess and Faye Wooten co-hostess. Eleven ladies were present.

Faye Wooten, president, presided at the meeting and Callie Roselle had charge of the devotional, with the theme, "Working for the Lord."

An invitation was accepted from the Ancho U. P. W. A. to be their guests at a luncheon October 21, preceding the afternoon meeting. There will be a guest speaker.

The finance committee gave a report and plans were made for next year's budget. Gladys Alexander was appointed a new member on the nominating committee.

The program was presented by Martha Zumwalt and Faye Wooten on a theme taken from the Book of Proverbs, "Women in the Worship."

The hostesses served refreshments of cakes, cookies, nuts, coffee and tea.

The next meeting will be in the home of Olive Hallert in Carrizozo on November 12. A special Thanksgiving program will be presented by Laura Zumwalt.

On Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coe and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy LaMay went to Roswell on business. Mrs. LaMay's mother, Mrs. Elwood Stearns and Evalene Purcella from Morenci, Ariz., visited this week end.

Floy Skinner has been traveling again. He went to Rosasco to see his grand children and great grand children. Mr. and Mrs. Dick Cox and son, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cox are there now and Sam and Dick are doing a little elk hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ogden Carroll and daughter were on the Bonito sight-seeing Sunday.

Lloyd Zumwalt and little Tommy Snell from Nogal were on the Bonito Sunday, also.

ALTO BRIEFS

By ALLEN LINDAMOOD

J. B. Hightower, lookout stationed atop 10,000-ft. Mon Jeau, reported nearly 700 visitors were checked at the tower on Sunday. They came for a last look at the fall colors. Aspens at the highest elevation had already lost their leaves, due Mr. Hightower said, to an early freeze. The oak trees had unusually bright colors this fall due, the lookout guard believed, to lack of moisture late in the summer. The weather was pleasant on Mon Jeau Sunday, but a slight haze reduced visibility to about 70 miles. On a clear day the lookout can see the Caprock, around 140 miles east of Mon Jeau.

The Mmes. Amelia Anderson and D. Dirmeyer of El Paso were over while they week ended in Ruidoso. Neal Chapman of Carlsbad was in the community a few days last week on business.

Mrs. T. N. Maples spent the day in Roswell Wednesday of last week.

Richard Eldredge of Tularosa stopped by on Friday.

The D. A. Kincaids were here from Albuquerque the past week end.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Adams were here for the week end from Canutillo.

Buddy Hightower, Kent Anderson and Donald Cadenhead of Alamogordo visited the J. B. Hightowers and Mrs. W. N. Hightower Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. J. R. Richardson of Dora, N. M., is visiting the Sidney Prestons.

John Von Rosenberg of Albuquerque and Eldon Jones of Farmington were here for several days last week.

The Mmes. May White and Mabelle Davis of El Paso and Miss Almeda Doerr of Ruidoso were over on Thursday.

Mrs. Wilma Donohue and grandson George Molen Jr. of El Paso were here Friday.

The George Dingwalls are visiting the T. L. Andersons in Las Cruces this week.

Ed Guck and Paul Jones were over from Captain last Friday.

Bobbie Prentiss and Barbara Ann Creel were in Roswell Wednesday to attend the fair.

Ernest Blood returned last Tuesday from an elk hunting trip over near Silver City.

Ernest Pittillo of Ruidoso Downs was a business visitor on Monday. Robert Creel was up from Carrizozo and visited the George Creels on Sunday.

George Fuchs of Ruidoso stopped in on Monday.

Yolanda Manley stopped by Monday on her way home to Ruidoso, from the State Fair in Albuquerque.

Mrs. Henry Feebles was over on Wednesday to see the Charlie Feebles and also came by the store.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jack Stewart of El Paso spent a couple of days at their Eagle Creek home last week.

A. P. Aschoff and John Rask of El Paso were up for the day on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Black were over Sunday from Captain.

The Bill Strattons of Tucuman were here the past week end.

The Earl Shamburgers of Tucuman visited the Charlie Feebles over the week end.

Construction Scheduled For Gran Quivira National Monument

Sealed bids for the construction of water and sewer systems and roads for the headquarters area at Gran Quivira National Monument will be opened November 3, 1959, Supt. Channing Howell announced this week. Plans and specifications for the construction of these facilities and the roads are now available to bidders.

A water well, with a plentiful supply of drinkable water, was drilled several months ago. Completion of the water system consists of installation of 1 1/2 miles of pipeline, a 50,000 gallon steel reservoir and distribution system.

As visitation is increasing each year to the monument, the construction of these utilities is essential to provide adequate facilities and proper operation. The National Monument preserves for the present and future generations the ruins of a large pueblo village and two stone mission churches, built by the Franciscan missionaries during the early part of the 17th century.

The work to be done under these projects is a part of the "Mission 66" program for Gran Quivira National Monument. Mission 66 is a ten-year program by which the National Park Service plans to provide adequate facilities to accommodate the number of visitors expected by its fiftieth anniversary in 1960.

Bids for two 3-bedroom residences are also to be let in the near future. When completed, the projects will provide employee residences, a visitor center (museum building), utility building, picnic area improvements including a comfort station, additional excavation of ruins, water and sewer systems, utility roads, relocation of the entrance road, improved trails and other facilities.

Contractors interested in bidding on the work should request plans and specifications from the Regional Director, Region 3, National Park Service, Santa Fe, N. M. Sealed, marked bids will be accepted until 3 p.m. November 3, 1959, and should be mailed to the above address.

Evangeline Montes Heads Student Body of Hondo High School

She received unanimous approval of the faculty on the basis of scholarship, citizenship and a highly cooperative attitude. She is a member of the Honor Society, F.T.A. and is one of this year's cheerleaders.

Evangeline was selected to represent the Hondo High School at Girls State last June. She was elected Carnival Queen a year ago by popular vote of the students.

GRIZZLIES CONTINUE

To Huey who carried across the Grizzly 50-yard marker. Two incomplete passes and 4th down called for a Tiger punt. It was fumbled and again Captain had possession of the ball on their own 15-yard line. They advanced it to the Grizzly 35, themselves to fumble at this point and Carrizozo took over.

Carrizozo got a drive under way that carried over the goal line, aided by a 15-yard penalty and a Beltran-caught pass, good for another 15 yards. Crenshaw carried over from 7 yards out. The pass for extra point was broken up. The quarter ended 6-0.

The second quarter saw play taking place mostly in mid-field, with the teams exchanging fumbles. The Tigers twice were effective with lateral passes. The Grizzly outstanding play of the quarter was a successfully executed pass to Vega by Crenshaw after he had been tackled.

The Tigers opened up after the half time kickoff to start a drive from the Grizzly 20-yard line. Alternating running plays with two long-gainers, passed to Joe Lee Smith, they carried the ball to the Grizzly 40-yard line, only to be held for downs. Ortiz ran the ball out 15 yards as the quarter ended. Two plays later Crenshaw passed to R. Ortiz for the TD and then scored standing up for the extra point.

Captain engineered a long drive from their 40-yard line. Three long passes put them on the touchdown trail, only to be thwarted by a fumble across the ZoZo goal line. The ball was brought out to the 20-yard marker and punted out of danger. The Tigers came back from their 40, but another drive was stopped when a Joe Lee Smith pass was intercepted on the Grizzly 25. Carrizozo worked the ball back to their 45-yard line where Crenshaw made his 35-yard run. He started to the right, then cut back to the left and crossed the goal line. The try for point was no good.

Following the kickoff and the completion of two Tiger passes good for a total of 30 yards, the game ended.

Construction Scheduled For Gran Quivira National Monument

Sealed bids for the construction of water and sewer systems and roads for the headquarters area at Gran Quivira National Monument will be opened November 3, 1959, Supt. Channing Howell announced this week. Plans and specifications for the construction of these facilities and the roads are now available to bidders.

A water well, with a plentiful supply of drinkable water, was drilled several months ago. Completion of the water system consists of installation of 1 1/2 miles of pipeline, a 50,000 gallon steel reservoir and distribution system.

As visitation is increasing each year to the monument, the construction of these utilities is essential to provide adequate facilities and proper operation. The National Monument preserves for the present and future generations the ruins of a large pueblo village and two stone mission churches, built by the Franciscan missionaries during the early part of the 17th century.

The work to be done under these projects is a part of the "Mission 66" program for Gran Quivira National Monument. Mission 66 is a ten-year program by which the National Park Service plans to provide adequate facilities to accommodate the number of visitors expected by its fiftieth anniversary in 1960.

Bids for two 3-bedroom residences are also to be let in the near future. When completed, the projects will provide employee residences, a visitor center (museum building), utility building, picnic area improvements including a comfort station, additional excavation of ruins, water and sewer systems, utility roads, relocation of the entrance road, improved trails and other facilities.

Contractors interested in bidding on the work should request plans and specifications from the Regional Director, Region 3, National Park Service, Santa Fe, N. M. Sealed, marked bids will be accepted until 3 p.m. November 3, 1959, and should be mailed to the above address.

GRIZZLIES CONTINUE

To Huey who carried across the Grizzly 50-yard marker. Two incomplete passes and 4th down called for a Tiger punt. It was fumbled and again Captain had possession of the ball on their own 15-yard line. They advanced it to the Grizzly 35, themselves to fumble at this point and Carrizozo took over.

Carrizozo got a drive under way that carried over the goal line, aided by a 15-yard penalty and a Beltran-caught pass, good for another 15 yards. Crenshaw carried over from 7 yards out. The pass for extra point was broken up. The quarter ended 6-0.

The second quarter saw play taking place mostly in mid-field, with the teams exchanging fumbles. The Tigers twice were effective with lateral passes. The Grizzly outstanding play of the quarter was a successfully executed pass to Vega by Crenshaw after he had been tackled.

The Tigers opened up after the half time kickoff to start a drive from the Grizzly 20-yard line. Alternating running plays with two long-gainers, passed to Joe Lee Smith, they carried the ball to the Grizzly 40-yard line, only to be held for downs. Ortiz ran the ball out 15 yards as the quarter ended. Two plays later Crenshaw passed to R. Ortiz for the TD and then scored standing up for the extra point.

Captain engineered a long drive from their 40-yard line. Three long passes put them on the touchdown trail, only to be thwarted by a fumble across the ZoZo goal line. The ball was brought out to the 20-yard marker and punted out of danger. The Tigers came back from their 40, but another drive was stopped when a Joe Lee Smith pass was intercepted on the Grizzly 25. Carrizozo worked the ball back to their 45-yard line where Crenshaw made his 35-yard run. He started to the right, then cut back to the left and crossed the goal line. The try for point was no good.

Following the kickoff and the completion of two Tiger passes good for a total of 30 yards, the game ended.

Mining Man Lists Mineral Assets of Lincoln County

Wheat C. E. Degner, mining engineer of Carrizozo, heard this week that Pittsburgh, Pa., people were planning to build a steel mill in the vicinity of Alamogordo, he asked "Why?" and proceeded to list the mineral assets of Lincoln County. He sets them down as follows:

"I would like to enumerate the iron deposits in Lincoln County. Briefly, they are very extensive; they cover the areas of Captain MINTO, WHITE OAKS, or LEWIS Mountain, Gallinas, Tecolote and the Jearilla mining districts, which aggregate millions of tons of undeveloped reserves.

"These numerous iron ore deposits are both magnetite and hematite and would run a large steel mill for a great number of years, and the iron ore is all an exceptionally high grade.

"This, together with the various coal deposits in White Oaks, Captain and the Oscura districts. The White Oaks coal in particular is A-1 coking coal which the steel mills need. The White Oaks coal exposure and hence is above bituminous in grade. It is an excellent coking coal. A report on this is made by Corroll H. Wagemann, Bulletin 541, of the U. S. Geological Survey; other papers mention the huge coal deposits of Lincoln County.

"A report on the White Oaks coal field by John McGregor, mining engineer and very eminent geologist, states that the White Oaks coal field contains an estimated 75,000,000 tons. C. E. Melzer, U. S. Geological Survey also reports on Lincoln County coal.

"There is a great number of deposits of fluorapatite in the Gallinas Mountains. Fluorapatite is used in steel mills to toughen steel.

"Therefore, this vicinity offers the most ideal location for a steel mill, as we have here what is needed—iron, coal and fluorapatite for a very successful and economic operation.

"I therefore ask the Pittsburgh interests to make a complete survey of the iron coal and fluorapatite resources of Lincoln County, of which we have abundant wealth if utilized. We also have the water for any large operation."
