Arrangements for the annual meeting of the Third Judicial District Youth Commission, which opens Tuesday, Nov. 3, at the Junior High Auditorium in Carrizozo, have been complated, District Judge W. T. Scoggin announced this week.

The conference, which includes professional and lay people! from the Third Judicial district, as well as from the entire state, will be partly held in conjunction with the New Mexico Probation and Parole, and Correction Officers Association's yearly meeting.

All sessions are open to the public and is hoped that all adults who can possible do so, will attend for first-hand information on the problems of youth and suggested solutions, as will be brought out by panelists and prominent speakers.

to utilize its ideas and concepts.

The Third Judicial District Youth Commission of New Mexico came into existence at the Courthouse in Las Cruces in the early spring of 1954, At that time Judge Scoggin had interested people from the countles of Lincoln, Dona Ana and Otero in an all-day conference to deal with children's problems. The commission was directed by Jas. T. Stermer, who was at that time execultive secretary of the New Mexico Commission on Youth,

"This year," Judge Scoggin said, trends, our concern is with the fact that the state no longer has an operat- dation upon which the Youth Coming Youth Authority, and what can mission philosophy was built is be done to fill, this vacuum will flexible and can accommodate new be the theme of our conference." ROBERT E. HEMPHILL.

Lackland AFB, Texas - Airman Robert E. Hemphill, son of Mrs. Brack Cornett of Carrizozo, has completed his initial course of Air Force military training here. He has been selected to attend the technical school for armament systems maintenance and gunner training at Lowry AFB, Colorado. Airman Hemphill is a graduate of Carrizozo High School.

Basic-airmen at Lackland are selected for specialized training at technical schools on the basis of their interests and aptitudes. They are reassigned to the school after four weeks of basic, and are given additional military basic training, along with the technical subjects.
