School people have banquet in Ruidoso

Approximately 65 members of school boards, principals, and superintendents and their wives from five county school districts attended a turkey day banquet in Ruidoso Monday evening.

The Ruidoso schools were hosts at the dinner in the Nob Hill School cafeteria. The School Board Association, Ralph Petty president, comprises Ruidoso, Carrizozo, Capitan, Honda and Corona.

Among topics discussed at the meeting was having a counselor to serve all the schools in the district; establishment of a trade school for the county; problems connected with students driving automobiles to school; also equipping the bands of the smaller schools with adequate instruments and uniforms.

The Honda school presented for consideration a handbook containing rules and regulations for students' behavior and activities.

Former agricultural census was in 1934

The 1939 Census of Agriculture, now under way in Lincoln County, will bring up to date farm statistics last collected in 1934, when the farm census revealed the following facts:

The value of products sold in 1934 by farm operators was $3,185,254.

The value of all crops sold was $274,779 and included $72,224 for field crops, $1,650 for vegetables, $200,205 for fruits and nuts, and $700 for horticultural specialties.

The value of all livestock and livestock products sold was $2,908,200 and included $57,032 for dairy products, $13,778 for poultry and poultry products, and $2,837,490 for livestock and livestock products.

The value of forest products sold from the county's farms was $2,175.

Contract signed for Highway 54 sign

A contract has been signed by the New Mexico Highway 54 Association to erect an illuminated sign, 10 feet high by 20 feet long on Highway 54, south of Tularosa.

The sign is to be erected and maintained for a period of three years by the Tesco Neon Sign Co. of Roswell. It is to be placed on the Adron Walker property in Tularosa, about a mile south of the Tustec-Ereoc.

The sign reads "Straight Ahead—Shortest Route to Chicago on Highway 54." The lettering is in Scotch-Lite.

The State Highway 54 Association has engaged the Ace Sign Co. of Tucumcari to design a similar sign directing southbound traffic to El Paso and the West Coast. It will be placed on the A. E. Hunter property, south of Vaughn, just before the junction of Highways 60 and 54.

Lions clubs aid in safety program

Portales (Special)—Lions Clubs throughout the state continue their safety on the highways program at Thanksgiving by reminding motorists of the importance of a "Thankful Thanksgiving."

As a part of a year-long project, known as "Operation Thankful," the clubs, over 70 strong, will park wrecked cars in prominent places throughout their communities over the Thanksgiving week end to caution drivers.

Each club has been requested by the three district governors of New Mexico Lions to carry out the project with the hope of causing drivers to be more cautious and have a "Thankful Thanksgiving."

The three governors—Jack Notman, Las Lunas; Eugene Mann, Portales; and Bert Newland, Deming, will meet for a governors' council meeting in Las Cruces on Sunday, Nov. 29, and a part of their business will be to consider the results of the project.

"Our Nation's Safety"—the latter part of the Lions International slogan of "Liberty, Intelligence, Our Nation's Safety" is the inspiration for the year-long project.

Lions of New Mexico have cooperated with the state traffic commission and the state police in operating roadblocks during the Labor Day week end.

St. Rita pupils receive penmanship awards

As a reward for effort in good penmanship, Sister M. Assumpta, principal of the St. Rita parochial school, Carrizozo, announced this week that 28 students will receive the Seal of Acceptance certificates awarded by the National Board of Examiners in Florida.

Sixteen pupils will receive the Junior High Certificates and 17 the National Writing Improvement certificates.

Specimens of the pupils' writing were sent to Florida for examination during the past month. The results were sent by Dale E. Spencer, chief examiner of the board.

A fire at the St. Rita church rectory was extinguished with little damage last week, when a vacuum cleaning bag caught fire. Two firemen from the City Gas Co. were adjusting the furnace furnace at the time.

STATE BONUS FOR JOB CHANGE

Santa Fe, Nov. 25—Changing jobs at the statehouse is profitable. When Sandoval Demo Chairman Ruben Miera of Sandoval got crossways with Betty Florin, the secretary of state, and shifted to a better paying job in the bureau of revenue he collected $600 severance pay from Florin, money he couldn't have gotten without quitting.

State rules allow employees to accumulate a maximum of one month's vacation time at the rate of one and a quarter days a month. As long as they stay on the same job the only way they can utilize the credit is by taking time off. Only by quitting do they get the cash.

People in important posts must always get the maximum pay on their claims that they haven't had a single day off in 12 months. There is no close control on time-off in the statehouse, particularly for people in higher paying jobs.

FRIENDS FLUJING SAGE FOR CONGRESS

There are apparently a lot of people who would like to back Maj. Gen. Gordon Sage for Congress after his acquittal at Aztec of charges of mishandling public money.

Sage is a glorious figure in the estimation of many. He inherited the command of the New Mexico National Guard after the outfit had been abandoned by the United States at Corcoran in the Philippines and stood with his men during their long imprisonment by the Japanese.

There has been a buzz of talk about Sage going against U. S. Rep. Tom Morris in next spring's Demo primary. Morris having been a member of the legislative committee which gathered the material for Sage's indictment.

CUSSING GIRL IS REHIBED

Pete Richardson, the little Carlsbad gal who got fired out of the bureau of revenue for calling Revenue Commissioner Bob Valdez an offensive name, has been hired by the Independent state secretary, Betty Florin. She said Pete was recommended by Demo County Chairman Lon Watkins of Eddy and other influential Demos down there. Pete, coming from Little Texas, didn't have the proper respect for Spanish-American officials in the statehouse.

MABEL MILLER IN THE CLEAR

The acquittal of Maj. Gen. Gordon Sage for wrong doing in the state national guard office means that in all probability Mrs. Mabel Miller, his secretary and office manager, will not be tried for charges that grew from the same investigation. She is the wife of Capt. K. K. Mills of the state police.

Still on the spot are Maj. Armando Masol, who is under serious charge of perjury before Santa Fe grand jury, and Maj. Franklin Miles, son of the former governor, charged with misappropriation of money.

HORN DEAD SET ON 1940 RUN

Calvin Horn, the rich and aggressive young man from Albuquerque who had a long run in the state legislature, is dead set on making a run against U. S. Rep. Tom Morris of Tucumcari in the Demo primary next year.

State Sen. Gene Luak of Carlsbad, an early prospect for the run against Morris, seems to have retreated.

Meanwhile, several are mumbling about taking on U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya but none has admitted such plans.

POLITICIANS SAVVY THE DOUBLE TALK

Declarations by former Republican Gov. Ed Mechem (a record three terms in office) that he doesn't want to run, doesn't intend to run in 1940, have stirred Republican politicians to celebrating Mechem's candidacy. That's the way of political language.

Mechem is the top Republican prospect. No. 2—Robert O. Anderson of Roswell, young oil millionaire; No. 3—Tom on Block of Farmington, young oil millionaire; No. 4—Alva Simpson of Santa Fe, not so young uranium millionaire.

Mechem is the only pacifist boy in the group.

LAMB'S PLACE IS IN DOUBT

As this was written the Jim Lamb place on the corporation commission had been vacant more than a week. Statehouse people were saying that the delay probably meant that the early favorite for the place, G. Y. Falls of Albuquerque, choice of State Demo Chairman Seaborn Collins and Our Clint the Senator, might have been put aside for consideration of former Atty. Gen. Dick Robinson and truck association manager Les Thomas.

The governor could wait a long time in making this appointment. He was six months in naming Harold Saurens to the public service commission.

Grazing Ass'n to have annual meeting Dec. 2

The annual meeting of the Southern New Mexico Grazing Association will be December 2 in the Chamber of Commerce room, 115 East Second, Roswell. The meeting will start at 10 a.m.
A number of prominent speakers will be on the program. Bill May, vice president of the Federal Land Bank of Wichita, Wichita, Kansas; Ivan Watson, formerly with the New Mexico A&M College; Dr. Sharp, veterinary-surgeon with the Cattle Sanitary Board; E. R. Smith, state supervisor for the Bureau of Land Management, Santa Fe, and Messrs. Wade Miles and Guyon Hayes from the State Land Office, Santa Fe.

Matters concerning the public lands, B. L. M., Forest Service and state lease are the vital concern of every ranchman, and the opportunity to have a part in these discussions is expected to be a major part of the program. There have been several recent changes that have much impact on association members.
Lon D. Merchant, president, urges cattlemen to attend and bring any and all interested parties with them.

Capitan's sewer system will not increase city taxes

Editor, News:
Due to the rumors to the effect that the proposed sewer system has caused the city taxes of Capitan to take a leap, I would like to explain that the sewer system will in no way affect the city taxes. The sewer system will be paid for by a revenue bond and will not be paid for by taxes.

Pvt. John R. Eaker to be home for the holidays

Pfc. John R. Eaker of Carrizozo writes from Korea, dated Nov. 4.
Editor News:
"Please discontinue sending the Lincoln County News to me in Korea. I will be leaving for home in about 28 days and since the paper come by boat, I would miss all future issues.
"I have certainly enjoyed getting the home town news while spending my tour overseas. I am looking forward to being back over the Christmas holidays."

Letter says Belen schoolman has "tremendous following"

Editor, News:
Phil Lull is now involved in seeking the vice-presidency of the NMEA. This clever school executive, sometimes a controversial figure but always an educational leader, has a tremendous following among school people in our state, as well as his full share of "thats-the-man" enemics.
That's always the price of aggressive leadership in a democracy of ours. Some superintendents are not known beyond the bounds of their own school district—everyone knows Phil! Those who vote against him doubtless will be so doing for personal reasons, not for any lack of respect for the man's ability.
Lull made his initial big reputation as a schoolman serving in the State Legislature. There he worked tirelessly for the better salaries, higher qualifications, and was always in the middle of every legislative battle for the then poorly-paid teaching profession.
Many of those advantages now enjoyed by New Mexico educators go back to this then little country boy from San Miguel county fighting for the future of New Mexico education.
The Belen superintendent is perhaps now overly zealous on this subject, but that's exactly what the teachers need to hold their own in a rapidly inflating American economy.
At least the elaborate advertisement in a last week's Santa Fe New Mexican, paid for by a group of pedagogs endorsing the Lull candidacy, and a repeat performance in other northern and central New Mexico newspapers, indicate how capable the rank and file of our teachers feel about the man.

FT. STANTON

By J. E. C.
ARRIVALS: Raymond Lowoya, Hobbs; John Lester, Artesia; Cruzita Gonzalez, Roswell; Manuel Urias, Silver City; John Scott, Shiprock; George P. Hanner, Albuquerque; Margaret Bond, Alamogordo; Pat Medina, Anthony.

DISCHARGES: Tresa Marek, Adelaida Villas, John C. Cira, Lawrence and Eloisa Gonzalez, Freda Palmer.

Edith Searcy of Capitan has resigned in Fort Stanton and we understand Connie Padilla and her husband will leave for Colorado in the near future. Sorry to see you leave girls, and we wish you good luck.
Mr. and Mrs. Elias Meraz have returned from a month's vacation in Artesia and Las Cruces and Elias is back on duty in No. 4 annex.
Mr. and Mrs. Benito Chavez were Roswell visitors last week end.
Mrs. John Littell is now back on duty in the kitchen after a slege of illness which took her to a hospital in El Paso for several weeks.

The lawn is heavily-laden with fallen leaves now and it won't be long before the trees will be bare in their winter desolation. The few evergreens do not shed their needles, but they do turn to a dark green. Something beautiful for Christmas if they are well-lighted and laden with snowflakes from above. Providing the wind does not blow them away, the leaves will be good fertilizer for the lawn.

Jack Carlisle has returned from a pleasant vacation spent with his family in Carlsbad.

Edith Lela has been assisting with the paper work in Dietitian Pat Henderson's office.

Lawrence and Eloisa Gonzalez have been given an indefinite leave from Fort Stanton.

Perry Zamora was chided so much by the boys, that he slipped off by himself and came back with a 7-point buck. You can't keep a good man down, Perry. More power to you!

Jake Lopez is still fretting over that "dangling" he missed at arms length. "Another buck is happy, Jake, so why take it so hard?"

Orderly Ren Sullivan has resigned in Fort Stanton and will go to Roswell where he has accepted a position with the Welfare Dept.

Several nurses' aides and orderlies have been hired in Fort Stanton of late. We hope they like it here and remain permanently. We are sorry to lose many of our old friends who have left here recently.

Hillery E. Shattuck, 50, of Palo Alto, Calif., died unexpectedly there last week. His brother Armond of Capitan, is an orderly in Ft. Stanton.

"Reports on Living" was shown at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon, followed by a lecture by Mr. Vigil, both in English and Spanish. Richard Nolan of Lovington killed a 300-pound black bear near Nogal during the hunting season. Herbert Totten has plenty of Christmas gift calendars left. Hurry, folks, as they are going fast.

Girls, get that nice hairdo for your Christmas furloigh. Appointments will start in December, so contact Mary Louise, Emma, Wayne, Marie or Dixie. Our appreciation and thanks for your co-operation and patience.

Inspectors from the Sanitation Department were in Fort Stanton last Thursday, making an inspection tour of the kitchen and other buildings for roaches and other vermin which might accumulate in these places.

A Navajo Tribal Council from Fort Defiance held an audience with Dr. H. C. Jernigan in Fort Stanton one day last week, in the interest of Indian patients.

Assistant secretary, Mrs. Tony Navarro and painter Tony had visitors in their home last week.

To Eugene C. Dow of Carrizozo: Nice contribution for the readers of the Lincoln County News with that old Lincoln paper of 83 years ago. Of those mentioned, the only ones we knew well were Messrs. Norman, Hakey, Hewitt, Wharton, Barber, McDonald, Fritz, Busch, and Wright. Joe, Mirasole, Kelly, and Mrs. Lassett. Nice contribution, Eugene.

Of that Kosonoma component of Zamora, Vigil, Lopez and Montano, only Joe Montano brought the bacon home, a large doe.

School News: Our six weeks tests are over. We all showed improvement in our subjects. We are now painting our crafts. Some of us are finishing our free hand pottery work.

Olympia (Wimpy) Candelaria will be away from the hospital for a while. Mrs. Lacy will need a reporter in her absence.

HUNTING NOTES

Other lucky Fort Stanton deer hunters were Cruz and Arnelmo Gutierrez, Robert Trujillo, Demeclo Ferralis, and Perry Zamora.

Mostly does have been killed in these parts, which goes to prove that the female of the species exposed themselves more to danger than their antlered mates, who took to the remote canyons in the mountains when the fustle began. The poor (dears) were left behind to face the music.

The boys included a large bottle of linseed oil in their box of camping supplies. On their first morning out, Perry Zamora mistook it for the Vaseline oil and he made French fries with it. The boys balked on the taste of the potatoes and Perry, feeling slighted, killed up on them. He spent the rest of the day dodging in the brush, but it did him good. When they returned, he had gained ten pounds, while his companions looked haggard and emaciated.

The season will expire next Sunday and those who were not fortunate in getting their does, are already forming a party to go after the two-legged variety between now and Christmas.

Jake Lopez missed a "honey" at about twenty paces. "She almost kissed me," Jake said, and broke down in tears.
She almost examined credentials; shall we say, Jake?

The boys donated some of their kill to the Fort Stanton kitchen and we all were treated with barbecued deer one day last week. Thanks a lot, boys!

The boys came upon the carcass of a doe, which had been dead for several days and partly eaten by vultures. It had been shot through the belly and the hunter either did not care to follow the trail, or else could not find his wounded doe.

The one Montana brought down had already been shot in the foreleg just above the knee joint, but that did not impair her velocity and it took a well-placed shot to bring her down on her Southern knees.

The boys have put their artillery away in moth balls for another year, and have settled down in their jobs, to be interrupted for the coming holidays, which are not far off.

Shame on Labor Secy. Mitchell! He not only chickened out on his promise to eat his hat if unemployment didn't drop in October, but what was far worse, he ate a rigged hat—one made of pastry.

Dear Pam: Thanks a million for your interest in "Teen Magazine". Let's give credit where credit is due. You deserve it. We hereby charter you with Teenster's Union No. 1. At present we are working

Teensters
Union No. 1
By PAM REID

Great news! In the November issue of the Teen Magazine which is published in Hollywood, Calif., address: 5959 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles 28, Calif., I read where they were organizing a "Teenster's Union" which will promote teenagers all over the world! Already thousands of towns, cities and villages have written in for charters, etc. Well, the great news is that our own town of Carrizosa, N. M., will be "Teenster's Union No. 1". It happened this way: When I saw the article and read that some famous newspaper writer had suggested the name "Teenster's Union", I sent the magazine a copy of our Lincoln County News showing that we'd been using the name for about a year now and it was by right ours—and that we, as the original users of the name should get some recognition. This is the letter I received in reply:

Dear Pam: I am not a Teenster, but I know not of a better place than your script to express my views and opinion of the Juvenile Delinquency. Not condoning juveniles but supporting setting indelible rights of the juths of witch you are one, I have forgotten my inglish so please skip it and make the best out of it. A Citizen.

Parents are to blame 70% Child should have permission of parents, know where he or she is, and whom with, time and place. Institutions of Learning; night specialty should know how the 10% pupil is coming to social activities, who is he or she going with, and when.

Law Enforcement Agencies: 10% Child attitude, officer insubstant behavior toward juvenile, liberalism in executing juvenile. Juvenile constitutional rights. First hand talk, with the thought in mind we all make mistakes. Grown ups as well as kids, none of us are perfect; not even Adam and Eve.
Divorce: 5% Separation of the head of the family, leading to disorder, the family lack of respect, certain hatred toward humanity.
Government: 5% Indirect Compulsory service, Advice by most law enforcement agency to juveniles.
Catholic Church: none, openly refrains children of school age to assist mass or service at night, if not accompanied by either their parents, guiding, or chaperone prohibits steady dating, smooching, indecent clothes, condams divorce under God own words (What God has join together let no man put asunder) A Citizen.

Thanksgiving praise service by Ancho UPW
The Ancho UPW Thanksgiving praise-service was well attended at the community building Sunday evening with about 85 present. The program was ably led by Blinde Lytle and members of the UPW as well as the audience participating. A very impressive film "The Secret of the Gift" was viewed and a thank offering was received.
Advent trysts were presented to each family for devotional use between Thanksgiving and Christmas. Following a brief business meeting the hostesses, June Straley, Elva Wilson and Katie Mae Straley served traditional pumpkin pie, coffee and hot spiced tea from gaily decorated tables, using the fall motif.
Chester Johnson and Mr. Brown of Albuquerque were hunting and visiting at the Wilson Ranch Sunday.
SP/4 Nat Palomarez has returned to Fort Hill after spending a couple of days with home folks. Walter Wilson and son Alton made a business trip to Las Cruces.

Mr. and Mrs. Friday Sherrill were visiting in this area last week. Friday is a deputy game warden.
Mrs. Ivy Kennedy of Houston, Texas, is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Leo Robinson and her brother John.

from the Navy home for a visit.
Did you hear the story of the beatnik sitting on the corner looking bored; just then a little old lady steps out in the street as a car zooms by—she looks at the beatnik and screams helplessly: "Call me an ambulance!" (silence) "Call me an ambulance!" (silence) Then desperately: "Call me an ambulance!" pause. "So you're an ambulance!"
Take care! See ya next week—Pam.

Dear Citizen: Thanks loads for the letter. Not that I completely agree with you; but that "pretty much" seems to sum up how I feel about it. Where did you get your info—that is the figures, percentage wise or were they your own opinion? If you ever have time drop me a line and let me know, I am about to die of curiosity. At the "Youth Panel" the kids agreed that most of the responsibility was with the home. Kids now-a-days are going to be independent no matter what; but they are not being trained for independence! All of the kids on the panel thought that self-responsibility was the greatest asset for anyone—and that is learned at home. Kids don't learn self-responsibility by being "forced" to do things—but only through "learning" and education; but according to the panelists the desire to learn, the respect for parents and law enforcement agencies starts and is learned at home before school ever gets a chance. Let's hope some of the Teensters will write in about this. Thanks again—Pam.
Congratulations to _____ for getting the "B" string cheerleader. I wish you all the luck in the world.
It's real nice to see you guys! Pam.

Holiday Frozen Pie Trio Hostess Aid
From now on through the end of the year every household will be full of the bustle and bustle of one holiday on top of another. In addition to the planned celebrations, there are bound to be a multitude of casual get-togethers to get extra "slices" on "slices". She can make them gay times for her, as well as for everybody else; if she cleverly rolls on a supply of frozen pie. Here's a mom's fresh-frozen holiday trio—pumpkin, mince and apple pie.
With these three favorites on hand, it's simple to host through the holiday season, stress in the knowledge that you're ready for all comers. No dessert needed—just pop in the oven and bake. The tender, golden crust and delicious filling always are the best feature of hospitality you can offer your guests. And when there's a special event, bake a pumpkin, a mince and an apple pie, and offer a choice to your guests with a light, spiced topping in the holiday mood.

Making national survey of polio vaccinations

The Bureau of Census is conducting a survey to determine the polio vaccination status of the national population, and the information is expected to be available around December 1, according to Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney of the U. S. Public Health Service.

Rough estimates made last June placed the number of fully vaccinated persons at around 68,000,000. Approximately 36,000,000 persons in the vulnerable under-40 age group had no vaccination at all, and around 5,000,000 of these were infants and pre-school children.

Extension Club elects officers

The Corona Women's Extension Club met Thursday, Nov. 19, for their Thanksgiving party and installed officers. Mrs. Ed Hindi and Mrs. John Nalda were hostesses. Thanksgiving turkey and all the trimmings were served at the noon hour. Pine cones and fruit in silver dishes decorated the table. Eleven members were present and one guest, Mrs. Joe Renaldi, who became a new member.

The new officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Ed Hindi; Vice president, Mrs. Maureen Dayton; Secretary, Mrs. Bill Keelin; Treasurer, Mrs. Frank W. Sultermeyer.

Committees appointed were: Education, Mrs. Ernest Sultermeyer; Reading, Mrs. George Hanson; Legislative, Mrs. George Bagley; Health, Mrs. Harry Crow; 4-H, Mrs. Joe Renaldi; Hot Lunch, Miss Bonnie Joe Mason; Social Chairman, Mrs. Bud Bagley.

Members brought samples of decorations made from pine cones, painted thistles, etc. so that others might get ideas for home decorations this Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Porter were visiting this week at the Proctor ranch. Mr. Porter, formerly of Sun Spot, N. M., is recovering from a heart ailment.

Mrs. J. M. Shelton fell Saturday evening, Nov. 24, breaking her right arm. She was in Carrizozo hospital this week.

Attend youth rally in Albuquerque

Thirteen Senior High young people attended a youth rally of the Presbyterian churches in Albuquerque Friday and Saturday, Nov. 20 and 21, along with sponsors Miss Dorothy Kerr and Bill Lytle. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Williams and their daughter and son from Cold Water, Mich., were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Narciso Montoya, this past week. Mrs. Williams is the former Miss Romona Montoya of Corona.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodges had their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Mitchell, of Las Cruces visiting them the past week end.

Cardinals wallop Stanley, 100 to 25

The Corona basketball team had an easy time with Stanley on the home field Saturday night. The score was 100 to 25. They also won a game from Vaughn Friday night, and won their first basketball game of the season from Mountainair Friday, Nov. 13.

The "B" team also played good games and won. Score for the second team Saturday night, Nov. 21, was Corona 39, Stanley 14.

The 30-30 Winchester ruffed off by the Junior class was won by Otis K. Klizor of 1911 S. Michigan of Roswell. Vern Smith won the Orion blintz.

Bill Bert of the El Paso Natural Gas station shot the largest buck, or one with the largest horns, a 15 pointer, on the Sarratt ranch a few miles southwest of Corona.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. James held a Thanksgiving dinner Sunday, Nov. 22. Their guests were their son, George of Farmington, their daughter, Miss Glenda Sue James from Highlands University and her friend, Elmo Shelton, also from the University, and Mrs. James' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doc Martin of Chautauch.

Keep driveway clear, Postmaster asks

Because of the large increase in our population in Corona, and the heavy increase in our mail, it is necessary for the postmaster to ask that the driveway in front of the post office be kept clear between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 10:30 a.m.

Also, since the Southern Pacific mail truck must park in front of the post office to unload the mail, it will be necessary that there be no parking in front of the post office between the hours 12 midnight and 7 a.m.

These places will be painted yellow. Thank you for your cooperation.

George James who works for a uranium drilling company returned to work this week after spending the past week at home.

Clayton rodeo

Steer roping standings — the last for 1959 — by finishing first in that contest at the finals.

But the world's steer roping championship, his fifth, went to Everett Shaw, 51, Stonewall, Okla. Shaw had such a heady lead before the "scaries" started that no one overtook him.

On his first run — third place Troy Fort, Lovington, N. M., dia-tioned a shoulder; doctors ordered him to withdraw. So, Shaw stayed out association standings, with Webster safe in second, but Fort dropped to fifth position.

Sonny Davis, who earlier tied the season's speediest steer in 12.4 seconds at Clovis, N. M. (Webster's 15.8 on one was fastest in the finals), had "lax" luck here. The Kenna, N. M., contestant managed, nonetheless, to hang on to his fourth place for the year.

Steer roping results at Clayton: first, Snively, 370.4 seconds on six head, $1,433; second, Shaw, 183.8 for $224; third, Buddy Groat, Bandera, Texas, 187.7, $563; fourth, Joe Bergovin, Walla Walla, Wash., 210.0, $350.

Simplest Sweets This Side of Heaven

Holiday cookies can be as much fun to make as they are to eat and almost as fast.

Refrigerated milk combined with confectioner's sugar is one of the easiest cookies going. Flavor it, color it, shape it, decorate it any way you like. Children especially love making this no-cook formula. Use 1 cup evaporated milk to 2 pounds sifted confectioner's sugar. This mixture is good with nuts, chocolate, peppermint, coconut or vanilla flavor.

For decoration use the sugar and vanilla, the higher white milk chocolate, or the white chocolate. Use the pink, purple, yellow, orange, and other colors for your festive cookies. Here's a recipe that should win you a big oven without mistakes:

Chocolate Mallow Fudge

1 cup evaporated milk
2 cups sugar
1/2 cup cocoa powder (1 cup each) semi-sweet chocolate pieces

Combine evaporated milk and sugar in a saucepan. Place over low heat and stir until thick and creamy. Add cocoa powder, sugar, and cocoa powder. Stir and cook until thick. Turn approximately 1/2 of the chocolate mixture into small paper-lined candy cups. Cover with remaining mixture, pressing mixture gently into candy cups. Top with chocolate shavings. Cool and cut into squares. This makes approximately 1 pound.

went into another room. Pretty soon he came out holding a coat. There was a broad smile on his face. In his hand was the package of $500. The money had worked through a hole in the pocket and down the lining.

"Didn't it lucky the women didn't find that first?" he said with a laugh.

"This hall of the castle was the gathering point of the Duke's numerous retainers. He had cowboys to look after his herds. He had trainers and jockeys about his stable for thoroughbred, for racing was his chief sport. In the valleys of his principally Mexicans lived and raised grain, which gave business to his great mill.

But the strangest of all his vassals were the Ute Indians. As a companion of Kit Carson, Maxwell had spent years among the Indians, especially this savage tribe. When he set up his establishment at Cimarron, his dusky friends returned the call. There was seldom a time that a band of Utes was not loafing about the ranch living on the bounty of the Duke.

"The head men of the tribe would come down and stop for days. They would gather in the hall at night, the wood fires lighting up the strange scene. For hours not a word would be spoken, but Kit Carson and Maxwell would sit there carrying on continuous communication in the sign language.

"An occasional 'ugh' from some chief was the only sound save the snapping of the pine boughs. And when the 'solres' was over Indians and white men would lie down in their blankets on the floor so thick it was almost impossible to turn and sleep."

A man came out to install the hillbilly's new TV set. "Now this," he said, pointing to the antenna, "will have to go on the roof."

"It's like I always said, Zeke," said the lady of the house to her husband, "One thing leads to another. Now we have to put a roof on the house."

School educator asks for closer contact between teachers and the public

Though our public schools have made remarkable progress, one weakness is our failure in social contact with the teachers, Fred Miller, Carrizozo elementary principal, told members of the local Women's Club at their meeting Thursday, Nov. 17.

Mr. Miller, guest speaker, was introduced by Mrs. J. P. Turner, program chairman.

The speaker appealed for closer unity between the people of Carrizozo and the teachers. "In itself this would make living here more attractive to the teachers," he said, adding that due to lower salaries and lack of social contact, we are losing our teachers to larger cities and to the bordering states of Texas, Oklahoma and Colorado.

Other points made by Mr. Miller were:

Students should take school work home as it is a preparatory approach to future college work, where nearly all of the studying is done by the students away from the classrooms.

The Carrizozo school, he said, has meeting standards of the North Central Association, is accredited with most colleges and universities, only a placement test being necessary for entrance.

Out of a $4,000 Federal appropriation, the Carrizozo school has received $2,700. This fund has been used to give frequent standard tests; to improve the school grounds, strengthen all courses, add new laboratory courses and select gifted speakers in science.

As a preliminary, he said, the school has started a special algebra class in the seventh and eighth grades.

At present the faculty is working on a new project called "The Carrizozo Language Arts." This is a variance between the Joplin plan and the Bond plan—(Dr. Bond is a Columbia University educator.) It is designed to promote more avid reading by the students.

After opening the business meeting and hearing reports, Mrs. E. T. Fletcher, club president, urged the members to enter the Vogue contest. Each club may have one entry which must be completed by April. The final winner will receive a $500 award.

The club voted to buy a book for the library in honor of the late Mrs. Clifton Zumwalt, a past president.

Mrs. Fletcher suggested the club give a Christmas party for the teachers on the second Tuesday in December. Mrs. R. M. Shafer volunteered to help with the program and Mrs. A. N. Spencer with the decorations. Mrs. Lewis Farris was named food chairman. Mrs. Bryce Duggar was requested to write invitations to the teachers; also cards to members about donations for the Los Lunas and Fort Stanton hospitals, and to write cards of appreciation for the generous decorations given for the State Convention to Mrs. Fred English, Mrs. Kelley Stephenson, Mrs. R. M. Shafer, Mrs. Truman Spencer Jr., Mrs. Hardy Shrum, Mrs. J. D. Bunton, Mrs. Thomas Kern and Miss Frances Degner.
