

New Law Requires Immunization for All School Children

Santa Fe (June 9)—Steps were taken here last week to expedite school immunizations at a meeting of the joint authorities in the State Departments of Public Health and Education at the Capitol.

School administrators will be instructed to notify parents at the earliest opportunity about requirements of the immunization law and the regulations which have been adopted by the State Board of Health in consultation with the State Board of Education.

The law, which becomes effective this week, requires each child who enters public, private or parochial school in the state, to present an official certificate stating that the child has received immunizations against smallpox, polio, diphtheria and tetanus.

The regulations require vaccination for smallpox at five-year intervals, three injections of polio vaccine, three injections for diphtheria and tetanus given at least one month apart with booster injections every four years thereafter.

The immunizations must be given by a licensed physician, which in New Mexico includes all M.D.'s and doctors of osteopathy.

Desert Dan

says

Some of these Russians I read about ain't got any more tact than a fellow I used to know. I hadn't seen him for quite a spell, then I ran into him one day on the street in Vegas. "Well, well," he sez, "if it ain't Desert Dan. You know, I'd forgot all about you!" To which I replied, "well you kin start for gettin' agin right now."

TB Ass'n Directors Meet at Fort Stanton

Dr. H. C. Jernigan, director of Fort Stanton TB Hospital, attended the quarterly meeting of the New Mexico TB Association Board of Directors held at Fort Stanton Tuberculosis Hospital Saturday and Sunday, June 13 and 14.

Dr. Jernigan has been a board member since 1941. He is chairman of the School Tuberculin Certification Committee of the Association, and director-at-large to the National Tuberculosis Association.

Members of the board and their guests were honored at a special race at Ruidoso Downs Sunday afternoon.

Position Open: N. M. State Fair Queen

Albuquerque — (Spec.) — Clarion call to girls 16 to 21: If you can ride a horse, shine up your personalities for you've got a chance to be New Mexico State Fair Queen.

C. T. Grable, of Las Cruces, has announced he will ask all county agencies to line up a county contest to select State Fair Queen candidates. The queen, who is partially judged on her ability to ride a horse, will be chosen during the fair, September 16 through October 4.

Grable, who is in charge of the Queen contest, said tentative changes have been made in the rules for this year's contest.

"For one thing," he said, "we hope to hold the contest this year on the Wednesday after the fair opens, instead of Saturday, the opening day.

"This is aimed at giving the girls time to get ready, instead of rushing into the contest as soon as they arrive. In the past they've just had time to powder their noses and that's about all."

"We expect this to be the most outstanding fair ever held in New Mexico," said Tex Barron, State fair manager. "We're doing our best to see that we have the finest talent available."

Fairgoers, and Barron said he expects a record number this year, will, of course, have the nightly rodeo to look forward to; as well as the various exhibits, the races, and the Midway show. A contract already has been signed with Siebrand Bros. for the Midway.

The rodeo, as in the past, will be RCA approved, guaranteeing participation by top men. RCA approval means points acquired at this rodeo count toward the world championship.

In the entertainment field, the emphasis will be on western stars, including Dale Robertson, Chester, Doc and Kitty of "Gunsmoke" TV fame, and singer Jimmy Wakely.

Rarer than a day in June is a day in which you aren't urged to contribute to an alleged good cause.

GRIST & GRITS

By OLIN MILLER
(Copyright, 1959)

We see by the papers that the press mill considers it news when Mickey Rooney gets married.

"Soviet Sentences Drunk Driver to Die Before Firing Squad."—Headline. If the death sentence were given for drunk driving in the U. S., the danger of overpopulation would be greatly reduced.

"If Billy Graham conducts an evangelical campaign in Moscow, as he is contemplating at this writing, he should be commended for bravery," says a commentator. If so, many believe he should have been commended for bravery in having some months ago evangelized the reputedly sinful New York City.

Motorists are being reminded that children are out of school—something that should be entirely obvious to anybody who isn't blind and deaf.

Fainting by women was stylish during the colonial days, and was thought it had become passe, but an East Orange, N. J., woman fainted the other day when she learned her husband had another wife who had just given birth to quadruplets.

"I'm afraid Elvis Presley's attack of tonsillitis will impair his voice," says a Presley fan. Most of us feel, on the other hand, that any change in his voice would be an improvement.

It's next to incredible that American families manage somehow to support cars at considerable expense and their several wasteful and costly governments and still have enough money left to buy shelter, clothing and food.

"Nobody but an idiot would start an atomic war," says a military official. This is by no means a reassuring statement—on the contrary (as the seafarer man said when asked if he had dined).

A college graduate would be fairly well educated if he knew half as much upon leaving college as he thought he knew when he entered it.

The invention of money would have proved a far greater benefit to mankind if somebody hadn't come along later and invented credit.

"There is no such thing as a perfect tax," says a congressman. Oh, yes, there is. A perfect tax is one the other fellow has to pay.

Take care of your pennies, and various agencies, particularly the Government, will see to it that you help take care of the deadbeats.

"I remember way back when a fellow could be born for $10," said Old Sorehead, "and it was worth the money."

It must be that the taxpayer is included among the fittest. Under increasingly tough conditions, he continues somehow to survive.

"Snake Bites Man Seven Times."—Headline. That's what happens when a fast snake tangles with a slow man.

Silence is the best tonic for the nerves; it is conducive to tranquility and longevity," says a physician. Thanks, Doc—do you know where we can find some?

"The average woman doesn't follow any pattern in winding her watch," says a psychologist. Oh, yes, she does. She winds it whenever she becomes aware it has run down, usually within an hour to a day and a half after it stops.

Unusually lazy are those with neuroses, At work of all kinds they turn up their noses.

"It would improve the health of office workers if they would rest their feet on their desks," says a physician. Such improvement, if any, would be short-lived and probably followed by much poorer health brought on by undernourishment.

Donald H. McClung U. of N. M. Graduate

Recent visitors to Albuquerque were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Cummins of Captain who attended the graduation of their son-in-law, Donald H. McClung.

Married to the former Jerry Cummings, McClung is one of four graduates in a class of 785 at the University of New Mexico to receive two degrees, a bachelor of science in electrical engineering and one in mechanical engineering.

His work at UNM has earned him a regular place on the Dean's List of honor, and his memberships include Sigma Tau, engineering honorary; Pi Tau Sigma, mechanical engineering honorary; Kappa Mu Epsilon, mathematics honorary; American Institute of Radio Engineers, American Society of Mechanical Engineers and the American Institute of Electrical Engineers. He was second place winner of $30 in the annual ACF Industries' Technical Writing Awards contest.

The family, including three children, Allan, Stevan and Janis, will leave soon for San Jose, Calif., where Mr. McClung will be associate engineer with IBM.

"How should I evaluate an auto financing plan?"

Simply decide whether it will give you the most satisfaction at the most reasonable cost. Take our bank's plan: You repay, in modest monthly instalments, the amount you borrow (which may cover the initial car insurance premium, if you wish) plus our low borrowing charge; spread repayment over a period of months. Action is prompt; the whole deal is kept confidential; you build that desirable asset, bank credit standing ... Before you decide on any financing plan, look into ours — it will pay you to do so!

ALTO BRIEFS

By AILEEN LINDAMOOD

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jack Stewart, Judith Ann and Bob Hardy of El Paso spent Wednesday night at their Eagle Creek summer home.

Mrs. Edith Zanker, Margaret Bivens, A. V. Desmare of El Paso were here Sunday with Father Fred Schell, S. J. Father Schell will be at the CYO Camp while the camp is in session.

The J. E. Simpson family of El Paso are camping at Skyline and are enjoying all the pleasure of outdoor living—even to the extent of seeing a large bear near their camp one day last week.

John Kuhl of Las Cruces was by on Sunday to renew acquaintances. The Kuhl family lived in the community a few years back.

Marshall Peebles is recovering nicely from the tonsillectomy he had last Tuesday at the Ruidoso Hospital.

L. Z. Manire of Carrizozo was in the community Tuesday.

The Al Swansons of El Paso were at their summer cabin at Eagle Creek for a few days last week.

Ray Taylor is drilling a well on the Tommy Davis property south of the store.

The J. L. Blacks of Capitan stopped by on Sunday.

Charlie Peebles was at Mrs. Henry Peebles' ranch in the Mesa country Saturday. He and her son Bobby Peebles of Alamogordo spent the day working cattle.

A. F. Hubbard and children Denise, Harry and Eugene and Donald Farmer of Lubbock were visiting in the community last week end. His father, Doak Hubbard, drove the mail from Alto to Capitan around 1919 when the family lived near here.

Mrs. Jack Parnell, Harley and Jane of Ruidoso Downs and Judy Beat and Bob Peters of Ruidoso were over for a visit on Sunday.

The Bill Stratton family and E. L. McCoy family of Tucuman are enjoying a few days' stay at Eagle Creek.

The Clem Weindorfs were over from Ruidoso Sunday for a drive up Mon Jean and Eagle Creek Canyon.

THE OLD SWIMMIN' HOLE

By Frank Alsup
(poet low-rate)

It's been many a day
Since I used to play
Down by the old swimmin' hole
I wasn't much bigger
Than a bartender's jigger
And I couldn't touch bottom with a pole

I learned to swim
With my old buddy Jim
Who lived just across the bog
We would splash around
Like a crippled hound
And the lifeguard was our faithful dog

We would swim for a time
Then into our clothes we would climb
And set watermelon beneath that old chestnut tree
It was there in the shade
That our life's plans were made
And on whom would be president
we'd try to agree

If I had the power
To bring back one hour
It's one of those I would take
Since I can't have that thing
I'll take the next best thing—

Teensters Union No. 1

By PAM REID

I haven't been home for so long (it seems) that I'm going to have to reintroduce myself to my father and mother and brothers and sister. What with all the "doings" at the "Rainbow" conflag—and now off to camp at the Methodist Youth camp in the Sacramento Mountains for a week—I just don't know what is going on around Carrizosa at all. Thanks to you "Teensters" that have written in to give me the "low down."

Dear Pam: Not too long ago I met a boy who just seemed to meet every qualification! He was tall, handsome and attentive—if you know what I mean. I met him at a church get-together in Corona. I won't say what church it is but I will say that one of the things they don't believe in is drinking! To make a long story short; yesterday I saw him at the races in Ruidoso Downs, drunk as a lord! He just wasn't the same boy! He was vulgar and loud and insulting in his attitude toward me. I'm so embarrassed about it! I know, he is going to come to see me next week end and I'll probably go to the church get-together with him. What will I say? I'm not sure I can face him—I'll always remember how he was at the races—"Sick-at-Heart."

Dear "Sick-at-Heart": You didn't say how old either you are or he is. Perhaps this was the first time he'd ever taken a drink; or perhaps it's common practice. That's important. Either way I'd tell him that if he wants to go with you—you just don't go with drinking men. If it is his first time—perhaps it will stop him from doing it again; and if he just won't stop and has been known to get drunk before—then you're better off forgetting him. Let me know what happens—Pam.

Come on, gang, let's have your opinion on this.

Dear Pam: What's the use of trying to be decent and have standards? The boys that I like expect a girl to play around—in fact you don't go anywhere with anybody unless you are willing to neck and drink and let the boys manhandle you. I guess I'll have to make up my mind to be a wall-flower or just be "sensible" like the boys say I should be. Don't expect any answer to this—"cause there isn't any"—Gladys

Dear Gladys: I know plenty of boys who don't expect a girl to chaste herself. This I do know, too—the girl that plays around will be the last one to be asked home to meet the family and the last one to get the ring—and the last one to meet the type of boy that you'd be proud to introduce as your boy friend. Any girl can have the fellow who is only interested in petting and drinking; but it takes some brains and some standards to "rate" the kind of fellow that is going to make something of himself in this world! Why conform to that sort of standard? Being a non-conformist is a lot more fun—and you'd be surprised how many other "non-conformists" there are; but you won't meet them until you are one yourself! Best of luck—Pam.

A local busybody, unable to contain her curiosity any longer, asked an expectant mother point-blank whether she was going to have a baby. "Oh, goodness no," the young woman said pleasantly. "I'm just carrying this for a friend."

Love—Pam.

P.S. Three more letters came in this morning that I think ought to be included in the column. I thought that perhaps, before I leave for camp I'd give you my address up there too (in case any of you'd like to write—hint hint!) The address is: "Sacramento Assembly Grounds, Sacramento, New Mexico."

Dear Pam: I don't think it is any of "Copycat's" business what Carrizozo looks like. She doesn't live here anymore so what is she bawling about. I'm proud of Carrizozo just the way it is. It may not look like paradise, but at least we've got some very nice people here. (No Signature)

Amen!—Pam.

Dear "Copycat": Carrizozo won't miss that kind of a person with all that griping and complaining. In the first place it is not her business how the Carrizozo people live. I like it just as it is and hope it stays that way.—"A Guy From Zozo."

Dear "Zozo Guy": I certainly don't agree with the attitude of "Copycat" but neither do I agree entirely with you. Nothing just "stays that way"—it either gets better or worse. And there's always room for improvements no matter how near perfection something may be!—Pam.

Dear Pam: I hope you won't mind receiving a letter from a so-called "adult." I've been in Carrizozo a long time and was born not too far from here. Yesterday I went to the Methodist Church and heard your father preach—I thought it was very good and it made me think. He said that every good thing is usually done by a minority group and I must say that here in Carrizozo—the people who talk pride in the town and do things to make it a better place to live are in the minority.

The Lions Club; the C of C; small groups like that are interested in making Carrizozo a better place to live. Paving the streets for example is important to this town, beauty-wise and health wise too; but it isn't the majority that wants them done—it's a small, public spirited minority!

Unfortunately there are a few big property owners who do not care and do nothing to make the town more beautiful; but a few of the people who really love Carrizozo will fight for it—we'll have a better town! Carrizozo is far from perfect; but thank goodness we have some citizens who do care and who will sacrifice some of their time, money and effort to make it a better, more liveable town—"A Citizen."

Dear Pam: Your column apparently jumped to conclusions last week. I noticed (and I quote): "I'll bet the ones that voted against the pool have their own pools in their own back yards!"

For your information— at the time of the voting, there was one high school student who had a swimming pool in his back yard.

This student was Joe Petty. His father was one of the originators of the idea of a public swimming pool and one of the main contributors at the time the pool was started.

Since the construction had come to a standstill, and there was considerable debate as to how the funds were to be spent, the entire high school was canvassed as to what they wanted. The majority of the students voted the swimming pool number 4 on their list.

Since funds are limited and a public pool with proper facilities is so expensive, it seemed impractical to put a swimming pool first on their list since it is very seasonal.

Apparently it was a very personal remark made by you and/or your advisors, without any knowledge of the facts whatever.

Your column last week was certainly more "sordid" than the story of the swimming pool.

I am proud to live in Carrizozo, and I hope that I can contribute something to the town instead of running it down.

I dare say that Copycat contributed nothing constructive to Carrizozo or its people and will maintain that standard away from Carrizozo.—Ralph F. Petty, Jr.

P.S.—I have a swimming pool in my back yard now, but I did not at the time of the voting, and furthermore, I was not present the day of the voting.

I would appreciate it very much if you would withdraw your remark, or show sufficient grounds upon which to base it.

The fellow who insists upon what he thinks are his rights in traffic, rates high as a social menace. The Portland, Oregon, Traffic Safety Commission points out that in the operation of a motor vehicle, each individual driver is exercising a privilege granted by the state. The difference between a good driver and a highway misfit is often the difference between a driver who appreciates his privilege and one who demands a non-existent right.

Smokeys Schedule Game with Ruidoso

Our little boys baseball team called the Smokeys played at Fort Stanton with the boys of their age and size, the Pole Cats last Sunday night. The score was 27 to 7 in favor of the Smokeys. Those scoring were Willie Herrera 3, Pete Carabajal 2, Mike Montes 4, Lionel Griego 5, Godfrey 2, Michael Randle 3, Ray Sanchez 2, and Lonnie Quarez 4. Lionel Griego hit two home runs with bases loaded and Lonnie Quarez also hit two.

Soon they will play at Ruidoso. Keep up the good work boys. This is a great recreation for happy, healthy, growing boys. We are proud of your progress. Just keep practicing hard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith and three children who have been on a two week vacation, returned in time Tuesday to cast their vote. They enjoyed it all so much, though sometimes the heat was most unbearable.

Frank Morris of Tularosa who is 85 years old spent Tuesday, June 9, with Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kingston and other friends for the day. Then a few days later he returned on business and spent the night with his son Clarence (Mr. and Mrs. Morris). He does his own driving and is in very good health.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Manning of Texas arrived last Friday night to visit his mother (Mr. and Mrs. Bert Manning). They intend to make Roswell their home.

Mrs. S. A. Montes and three children left by bus last Tuesday morning for three weeks' vacation in Stockton, Calif., with her son (Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Montes).

Geraldine McClung and children are here spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Cummins.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jones of Pecos, Texas, have been in the process of moving back to their ranch. Just glad to have them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Whitney have moved from Pine Lodge to Capitán and are renting the Manning property at this time.

Mrs. Vella Cornelius returned from the sad mission of laying her husband Sidney to rest in Garden City, Kansas. Her son Bob and her brother came with her to help get her moved and located. They moved her small trailer she lived in here to Farmington and from there they are moving her large trailer home to Garden City. Bob was flown home from near Nome, Alaska, to be with his mother. He has 30 days, though he will not take them if he doesn't need them.

Woman's Club Has Ice Cream Social

The Capitán Woman's Club had an ice cream social for members and their families at 8:30 at the Jack Shaw residence, on their beautiful lawn, Thursday, June 11. There were 28 at the ice cream social which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Dede Sparks and Mrs. Ray Provine were the hostesses and Mrs. Hugh Calhoun was in charge of the program.

After the ice cream social the Woman's Club had a short business meeting. There was a report on the year books. Club members voted to have a booth at the Fair this year, and also voted to have the year books printed next year.

At the next meeting there will be a report about Girl's State from the club sponsored delegate.

Another Smokey Dance June 27

The Smokey Bear dance held last Saturday night at the American Legion Hall was a success. Everyone had a nice time. We had a good happy crowd that plans to return.

Won't you join us June 27 at the same place? We do need you and would be so happy to have you. Let's meet there, to help build this Smokey Bear Museum.

Thanks to all of you who to this date have made it possible to progress as we have.

Those who donated sandwiches this last time were Pearl Soderback, Add Holmes, Dorothy Guck and Rench. Coffee, cups, etc., were given as usual by Rench. Dorothy Guck donated a beautiful and delicious cake on which chances were sold for funds to help pay for the bear cage. Alicia Morris was the lucky winner.

We had a nice shower last Monday night about 8 p.m. for a few minutes. Tuesday afternoon we had a good rain. It cooled things and surely helped this drought stricken earth. We all are so grateful. The grass and vegetation, we know too will respond.

The Virgil Hall and the Randle families of Capitán and the Joe Wigleys of Alamogordo went together on a fishing trip Saturday morning the 6th. All returned except Halls on Wednesday night. They came in Thursday night. Blue Water Lake was their destination. They caught lots of fish and said they had the most wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Provine and two children returned Wednesday the 10th from a five day vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxe Lawrence of Roswell spent Sunday with us.

Sewer Bonds Carry By Big Majority

Capitan held a special election Tuesday the 16, for sewerage. The balloting was 121 for and 32 against. Thank you voters so very much. Our town has great possibilities and future. You are a big part of it and you can watch it grow and progress, and sewerage is very important. We have made one more step forward. How happy we are.

Ft. Stanton Cancels July 4 Celebration

There will be no parades and celebrations at Capitán, White Oaks and at Mesalero, and also the races at Ruidoso Downs on the Fourth of July, so the boys here have cancelled their plans for a celebration on that day.

Teams will be hard to get for a baseball game, so those able to do so will spend the day at one of the above-named places.

However, there will be a children's picnic at Bonito Inn, near Fort Stanton, and you are cordially invited to take your children there for a day's outing under the nice shade trees.

The highways will be crowded, so let's all try and avoid heart-rending mishaps. Drink—don't drive! Drive—don't drink!

ARRIVALS—James Scott Robinson, Santa Fe; Alfred Rich, Sawmill, Ariz.; Anita Ayala, Silver City; Wm. M. McCommas, Lordsburg; Crescencia Nevarez, Hatch; Elvira Gutierrez, Rincon.

DISMISSALS—Lino Romero, Moses P. Martinez, Mavis McKinney, Fernin and Mike, Fresquez, Nicolas Balza; two children, Dorothy Mae Martinez and Patricia Montoya.

Mrs. Pat Henderson is back on duty at the O. T. Dept. after enjoying a week's vacation.

Peggy (Mama) Fort is back from Albuquerque, where she had been for two weeks after undergoing surgery. She feels better and we are all glad to have "Mama" back with us.

Nurse Rydell is back at No. 4 after her vacation, which she enjoyed immensely.

Medical Tech. Zamora is on two weeks' vacation, during which time he has been going to Roswell for flight training. We'll be the first to fly with Perry when he gets his pilot's license.

Frank Morales of El Paso visited Mr. and Mrs. John Littell last week. John is a carpenter here and she works in the kitchen and is a sister of Morales.

Ben Mirabal of Alamogordo visited his wife here last week end. Her uncle, Adolpho Sals, was killed recently in a car accident near Albuquerque.

The New Mexico TB Association had a two-day board meeting in Fort Stanton last week end, with Dr. Joseph Gordon and Robert Utzinger, president and executive director, in charge.

Los Amigos Club held a meeting last Saturday at 2:30 p.m. The talent show will be presented June 20 and a gift will be presented to Dr. Grasso, who is leaving Fort Stanton.

John Almendares returned the first of the week from Albuquerque where he had been on furlough.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene McCommas returned from Albuquerque the latter part of last week. They feel and took time. We missed you, folks.

Mrs. Rafaelita Guevara, son Alex, Gloria and Sulema, Rodriguez were here last Saturday to visit Maria Rodriguez. The latter two are her daughters.

Adelina Garcia has returned from a week's furlough at Socorro. She is a nurse's aide.

Cook Benito Chavez and family spent the week end in Ruidoso.

Thanks to Bill Zink for his subscription to the Lincoln County News. We are glad you enjoy the paper, Bill. Who's next, boys? Don't all come at once!

Mrs. Lucille Fresquez and son of Roswell were here Saturday to bring Mrs. Epifania Candelaria to the hospital.

Frank Second is making a beautiful purse for his wife, with her name on it—"Aletia."

Mr. Fahrenbrich, district counselor, interviewed patients for the cosmetology course to start July first. All voiced quite an interest for the new course.

Mrs. Dorrine Lykins was here from Roswell June 6 and she and Mr. Lykins made a trip to Carrizozo that day.

Remember When?

By JOE S. CHAVEZ

For the big Fourth of July celebration in Nogal in 1920, the Nogalites built a large dance platform for the occasion. They could hardly wait to try out the same, so they had a dance one week ahead of the celebration.

Marion Hust brought my brother Sat and me from Carrizozo to furnish the music and we were assisted by Andrew McBrayer, Marvin Pascock, Marion, and Homer McDaniel, the Sage of Nogal.

He was called "Sage" because he was the justice of the peace of that precinct, but seldom had a case in his court, for the people were very law-abiding citizens. When he did try a case, he served in his official capacity, and also as prosecutor and defender at the same time.

Judge Bean of the Pecos could not hold a candle to this jurist. He was very kind-hearted, however, and aside from a harsh reprimand, the defendant would always get a suspended sentence unless he should reappear in court within a week, in which case His Excellency would throw the ledger at him.

There is a story that Judge Bean stumbled onto a dead Chinaman one day, who had a full cartridge belt around his waist and a .45 Colt. The judge held court right there and fined the Chinaman $25 for carrying a deadly weapon—the exact amount found in the corpse's pockets when he was searched. No insinuations intended, Judge McDaniel!

To go back to the glorious 4th, the first event of the day was a fine address by Editor John A. Haley of the old Carrizozo News, commemorating our Declaration of Independence. He was followed on the flag-draped-rostrum of Hon. Neil Bigger, editor in chief of the old Capitán "Mountaineer." Hon. Sam covered every angle from the founding of our republic to farming, cattle raising and typesetting.

Ferguson, Pitts and Bamberger had arrived from Carrizozo and the platform was cleared for the dancing to begin. They were fine musicians and were assisted by the great Mickey McNeff of Fort Stanton. Intermission was only long enough for the crowd to enjoy their picnic baskets.

In the baseball game we defeated Fort Bliss. They remained for another game in Carrizozo, which they won on Sunday. In one of the quarter horse races, Anton Vega's sorrel won, but when he came to the end of the rail, bolted and jumped into the arroyo, with his jockey, Roscoe Kuanli. Luckily, he landed in a soft, sandy place and Roscoe escaped without injury.

Sage McDaniel rigged up a merry-go-round by sawing a tree, large in girth, four feet from the ground. He hollowed a hole in the stump big enough to insert an axle with wagon wheel. To this he bolted four sturdy tree limbs and built two secure box seats on each. He had a long pole in the center to fly Old Glory and a small platform on the wheel spokes for his Thomas Edison photograph with roll film.

For power to turn the merry-go-round, he bolted a strong post from one of the end seats and to this hitched one thousand pounds of horsepower—an old roan. When he had a capacity load, he'd start Tom Edison and tap old Dobbin on the flank. The horse soon got the hang of it and at the start of the music he would go "round and round"—munching popcorn—until the music stopped. It was then time to collect another fare and load new passengers at five cents for every disc played.

This entertainment was intended for the kids, and the merry-go-round, brightly decorated with flags, flowers and streamers, resembled military's hat of that era.

On several occasions the contraption was loaded with grown-ups, each with a popcorn ball in one hand and a flag in the other. One time, when the Judge was busy with his axle grease can, Rich Hust, Benigno Gallegos, Ed Comrey and Battista Gavi stole a ride, but had to pay double on the next whirl, or else be hauled off to the stone bastille by Constable Jim (Booster) Gatzwood.

After several rounds, poor old roan would be given a breather and the kids would bring him some more popcorn and a pall of lemonade.

The last time we were at the new merry-go-round, the Judge had so much business that he offered us a job, with good pay, as filter and cleanup man and to follow the nag with a pitchfork and wheelbarrow. The old maddie bag strapped from his shoulder and silver dollars was incentive enough to take the job, but we had on our only and best Sunday suits and regretted to turn down such a lucrative position.

Ward of Leslie Inc., kept his Honor well supplied with choice refreshments for himself and his legal assistants who, by the time they played the last encore to "Home, Sweet Home" at the dance position had increased in large numbers and were swarming like

ABOUT PEOPLE

Mrs. Ruth Chapman and Rev. R. L. Willingham, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, both of Albuquerque, stopped in Carrizozo last week on their way to the Methodist camp in the Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Guttmann of Roy visited friends in Carrizozo and Capitán while attending the Lions' convention in Alamogordo.

Mrs. Henry Dale and daughters Rose Mary and Janet visited Mrs. Dale's daughter, Mrs. Eugene Petree and family over the week end.

Mrs. Catherine Eaker and Miss Minnie Neill attended a work shop in Portales last week. Their choice of course was rhythms for children.

Mrs. J. P. Turner was eating breakfast at a restaurant in Atlantic City, N. J. She mentioned to the waitress she was from Carrizozo, N. M. The waitress then told Mrs. Turner she had a brother stationed at Oscura Peak, and that he and his wife were living in Carrizozo. Small world, isn't it, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Whitaker!

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Peckham, son Keith and friend Paul from Santa Rita, N. M., visited the Fay Harkeys and Wayland Hills the past week end. Bud will leave the latter part of the month for the northern part of Alaska on a government job. He expects to be in Alaska about three months.

Mrs. Marjorie Schlarb, Mrs. Inice Hust and Lewis Cummins attended the state convention for county officials in Alamogordo, Monday.

The meetings were held in the Otero County court house. Registration was one of the biggest in several years. Luncheon was served in the Satellite room in the Rocket Motel and the smorgasbord dinner in the patio on Monday evening.

Mrs. Louise Ferguson left Sunday to attend summer school at Highlands University in Las Vegas for five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Grubb and family moved this week to Alamogordo. Mr. Grubb works for the Southern Pacific Co. and was transferred to Alamogordo.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Roberts are leaving Carrizozo this week to reside in Tucumcari. Mr. Roberts has been working in Tucumcari for several months for the SP Co.

Miss Glenda Sue King is home from the University of Colorado in Denver to spend the summer vacation.

P. S. "Pat" Kirk

Our town lost another valued friend and citizen last Friday when P. S. "Pat" Kirk died in an El Paso hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Kirk came to Tularosa in 1912 and have both been very active in building the town in every way. Mr. Kirk has not been active for the past four years but always had a ready smile and one of his many witty stories for any visitor.

Services were conducted at the Mullins, Hamilton, Mortuary in Alamogordo by Rev. Donald Sims himself a Tularosa boy and now a minister in El Paso. Burial was in the Tularosa cemetery, with the local Masons conducting the service under the direction of M. L. Christerson.

Mr. Kirk's four brothers, W. H. Kirk of San Angelo; R. L. Kirk of Breckenridge, L. L. Kirk of San Saba, and Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Kirk of Brady, Texas, were all here; also E. M. Goodner Sr. and E. M. Goodner Jr., nephew and great nephew of Mrs. Kirk, and J. C. Goodner and son, another nephew, came.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nations of Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rea, Silver City; Mrs. Henriette Mitchell, Lovington, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph of Torc were among friends from out-of-town who attended services for Mr. Kirk.

The pallbearers were Colonel E. L. Ritchie of Fort Bliss, Jerry Ritchie and Roy Henderson of El Paso, Alton Cooper, Tularosa, Arrel Posey Carrizozo and Ewell Miller of Alamogordo. These men, all successful in their own field, have one thing in common. They all began their careers by working, as boys, for Mr. Kirk.

Mrs. Joe Orasco left Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Garcia and family, for a few weeks' visit with them at Colorado Springs.

Gov. Burroughs Served At Tea Given by County Democratic Women

Governor John Burroughs was one of the guests served at the tea given by the Otero County Democratic Women's Club, Sunday at the County Court House.

It was a very successful venture and the ladies received many "thank you's" for that good cup of coffee and the cookies that went with it.

Mrs. G. V. Clayton, Mrs. J. J. Hamilton and Mrs. Gus Najira alternately poured during the afternoon.

Pink, Blue Shower for Mrs. Ronald Walker

Mrs. Wilman Bonannan and Mrs. Luther Watson were hostesses for a pink and blue shower Tuesday, June 9, at the home of Mrs. Leon Nowell. The honoree was Mrs. Ronald Walker. She received a fine array of beautiful gifts for the expected newcomer.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Nowell and family visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Helms at the O-Bar-O Ranch last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garcia and family have been visiting friends and relatives here. The Garcias are former Tularosans. They moved to Colorado Springs a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Edwards went to Las Cruces Sunday, combining a business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Gust Johnson and Roberta are visiting Mrs. Johnson's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. John Sims, this week.

VI'S VIEWS

Hollo readers! My name is Viola Sartin. I am 17 years old and will be a senior in high school next year. My nickname is Vi, which may be more convenient to call me.

"Vi's Views" is a special column for teens of all ages. It will be for the purpose of giving each of you an opportunity to put your opinion in print; also to cover special social events in and around Tularosa.

Do you have any questions, problems, or special opinions on a well known subject? All letters will be welcome and the best ones will be printed and questions answered.

They may be sent to Viola Sartin, Box 674, Tularosa (telephone JU 5-2839).

I hope that with the help of you teens we can make this column of real interest to all.

B & P Women Name Committees

The meeting of the Tularosa Business and Professional Women was called to order Tuesday evening, June 9, at the home of Mrs. E. G. Beyer, with 15 members present and two visitors, Mrs. R. Lovell, state president, and Mrs. Ruth Roberts, Mrs. Richard Yearley, president, presided.

The principal order of business was appointing committees and discussion of a project for the coming year. The ten standing committees and the chairmen are:

Finance, Mrs. Tom Bingham; health and safety, Josephine Chavez; international relations, Miss Maude Mae Bennett; membership, Mrs. Nick Dorame; national security, Mrs. Nell Fribley; program co-ordination, Alice Orozco; public affairs, Mrs. Leon Nowell; public relations, Stella Vigil; career advancement, Mrs. Bill Pierce; legislation, Mrs. H. E. Marr.

A project committee was appointed to study the different suggestions that were brought forth and to make a report at the next meeting.

The charter was closed with a total of 18 members. It was decided to meet right on through the summer. After adjournment the hostesses, Mrs. E. G. Beyer and Mrs. H. E. Marr served home-baked cookies and lemonade.

176 Sign up for Recreation Program

Tularosa's summer recreation program moved into its second week of activities, as 176 boys and girls participated in the first week of scheduled activities.

Both boys and girls trampolines classes have been extended to two hours, due to unexpectedly large turnouts.

In basketball league play, Manny Dominguez and Ansel Austin's Nighthawks took over first place in the standings by beating the Rhythm Kings 30 to 10, and the Bulldogs 28 to 22.

John Lackey's Bulldogs then came back to beat Robert Lopez's Rhythm Kings 10 to 12 in overtime, to take over second place in league standings.

BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Team	Won	Lost
Nighthawks	3	1
Bulldogs	2	2

School Library Open Two Days a Week

The school library will be open on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., beginning Tuesday, June 16.

The school is anxious for adults as well as children to take advantage of this service. Books may be checked out on a two-week basis, the only charge being for overdue or lost books.

Mrs. Watson, the school librarian, will be on duty to help anyone taking advantage of the library service. If the demand is great enough, this will continue for eight weeks. These books are mostly for junior high, high school and adult readers. There are no suitable books for the young children.

Four New Teachers Hired for this Year

Four new teachers have been hired for the public schools this coming year. They are:

Robert Herron, head football coach, assistant basketball coach, driver training.

Michael Dorame, head basketball, assistant football, track and physical education.

Cecelia Ramos, girls' physical education.

Teresa Viraumontes Holguin, home economics.

We will have stories on these teachers in later editions of the Tularosa Basin News.

Town Topics . . .

Maurice Hobson was advanced to Preceptor III at the recent state DeMolay convales.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed McMahon and family were Las Cruces visitors last Sunday.

The community birthday calendars have arrived and will be distributed as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Love are leaving Tularosa for Riverside, Calif. He has been arts and crafts teacher here for several years and will be missed very much. He will be teaching auto mechanics in the school there. We wish the Loves the best of everything, although our town will miss them.

Mr. and Mrs. Saul Cordero entertained the Albert Garcia family with a lawn party and barbecue Thursday afternoon. The Garcias left Sunday to return to their home in Colorado Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Chavez and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Torres also entertained the Albert Garcia during their visit here.

Gerald Marr, Lester Wilcox and Jess Gilliland from Tularosa went to Magdalena last week end for the rodeo. They report that Magdalena is having a severe water shortage, all the water being hauled in.

Series of Articles On Selective Service

The State Director of Selective Service for New Mexico, Major Richard B. Laing is issuing a series of articles for publication as a means of fostering understanding through the dissemination of basic information to the general public.

(The draft has been extended for four years, until July 1, 1963. This means that the young men of the country must continue to expect to serve in the military forces. This series of articles outlines the basic responsibilities and rights of young men under the draft law.)

This is the first article in the series.

Generally, every man is required to register under the draft law within five days of his 18th birthday. He may register at any local board office, but he should be certain to give his home address, for that will determine the local board which will always have his records and which will deal with his case.

If a man is on active duty with the Armed Forces on his 18th birthday, he need not register at that time. Men on active duty must register within 30 days after they leave the service.

Allens born after September 15, 1925, with a few specified exceptions, must also register within six months after entering the United States or at age 18, whichever is later.

Any person who at age 18 is exempt from registration, must, however, register when his status changes.

Failure to register, like failure to comply with other provisions of the law, may subject men to prosecution, or to induction out of turn and ahead of other men.

After he registers, each man is required by law to keep his local board informed of any change in his address, or any change in his personal situation which might affect his liability to serve.

FARM NEWS

University Park, N. M.—The cyclical expansion of cattle numbers has moved into full swing, says W. K. Fowler, economist with the New Mexico State University Extension Service. Cattle and calf slaughter in January-April was 11% below a year earlier. Slaughter of well-finished cattle was higher, but that of all other kinds was down.

Cattle going to market this year have been the best and the worst. They are either highly fed cattle or discards. It appears that almost all animals which offer any hope of returning a profit are being kept at home.

The slaughter rate foreshadows another build-up of 4 to 5 million cattle by January 1. This increase would be about the same as the fastest rate reached in the last cattle cycle. Unless it slows down, it will end all hope of avoiding the big marketings which brought distress only 5 or 6 years ago.

All these are the characteristics of a cattle price boom — small slaughter in the face of rising numbers, holdbacks of cows and calves, and an upswing in prices. It brings with it the sobering prospect of a price decline in the future when marketings catch up with production, the economist comments.

A cattle price boom tends to snowball in the short run, even though collapse can be foreseen for the long run. Prospects are that cattle marketings for the rest of the year will be small enough to put a prop under the prices, Fowler believes.

Cattle went on feed earlier last fall than usual. But the feeders are dragging out marketings by feeding on heavier weights. While prices of fed cattle will remain high, they will be subject to seasonal variations. They may edge lower as the marketings are the heaviest during mid-summer.

University Park, N. M.—A survey of 69 dairy farms in the Rio Grande and Estancia Valleys shows that the average price received for 100 pounds of 3.75% butterfat test milk was only 10 cents more than the average cost of production.

Production cost was $3.68 and the price received $3.68.

The findings are in a research report by George R. Dawson, assistant professor of agricultural economics at New Mexico State University Experiment Station. The survey was based on 1957 costs and prices.

Dawson reported: "Cost of production varied widely between

Load of Trout Planted in Bonito Lake

Joe Gallegos with the State Game Department brought a load of 3,000 nine inch fish to Bonito Lake last week from Red River. I saw a couple with two limits and they were real pretty.

From Carrizozo and catching their limits of fish over the week end were Dick Hicks, his son Jr. and brothers Sammy and Billy. Billy showed me his graduation ring from NMML. Fine looking boys, these Hicks boys.

Eric and Trudy Lynch from Mineral Wells, Texas, are living in their trailer home at Nogal near Mr. and Mrs. Roselle for the summer. Eric may work on the Bonito soon with Bert Pfingsten on his mining claims.

Mrs. Johnson Stearns, Mrs. Hazel English, their children and Winky Bancroft were on the English farm Saturday watering the flowers and vegetables for Frank and Sadie English. They are in Scottsbluff, Neb., to attend Nancy Burton's wedding.

Dr. Frank English and family and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Burleson from Roswell spent Sunday on the English farm.

Robert Lloyd Runnels has been out on the Block Ranch helping mark lambs. Steve Bonnell, Robert and Carlton Britton have learned to be pretty good "hands."

Kenny LaMay is on the Charlie Jones ranch for a few days to help with lambs.

On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Doodle LaMay, Mrs. Fay Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaMay and family, Mrs. John LaMay and children and R. G. Stewart had a picnic in Philladelpia Canyon with Mr. and Mrs. Tom LaMay and family.

At the Jol Dudo's cabin in Bear Canyon over the week end were Mr. and Mrs. Armond Mitchell and children, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Pearce, Richard Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Fowler Hare, their friends, and Spencer Ely and two sons.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS AND CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF ROSWELL AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of the Lincoln County News as he saw conditions. These people are leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the co-operation of these citizens in Roswell who helped to make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

Berlie Griffin

In making this review of progressive Roswell business men, it is fitting that we should include some of those men who, by their aggressiveness, have definitely established themselves in the business and civic life of the city.

Such a man is Berlie Griffin, the representative for the De Coto Coffee Company, who also deserves an additional word of praise for being more than just successful. He is a consistent and enthusiastic booster of the community, and in his way has done much to advertise the city.

Mr. Griffin has pursued the progressive policy of stepping up his business ahead of the times, thus setting a pace for which he has earned the reputation of being a go-getter who does not sit back and wait for the business to come to him.

We are glad to pay tribute to Berlie Griffin, and to point out to our readers that his sincere desire to be of service, coupled with his aggressive methods are largely responsible for the standing of the De Coto Coffee Company throughout this entire area.

Earl F. Perry

There are a number of business and professional men in Roswell who have gained recognition for their progressiveness, and a well-known insurance man who belongs in this category is Earl F. Perry, special agent for the New England Mutual Life Insurance Company, whose fair dealings with many of our readers has earned for him a host of friends and policy holders throughout this entire area.

He is well established in the forefront of the business and civic life of the city. And the ethical manner in which he has conducted his business affairs is but one of the reasons for his outstanding success.

In addition to his insurance activities, Mr. Perry has also accepted his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects. As a result of the combined efforts of men like him, Roswell is firmly established in the minds of the people as the logical business center for this section of New Mexico.

We congratulate Earl Perry for his success in business and civic affairs, and trust that he will continue for many years to enjoy that success which he has so justly earned.

Ray C. Dickenson

At the head of one of the district's more prominent wholesale drug-sundries firms, and as a leader of recognized ability in community life, Ray C. Dickenson stands out today as one of the best liked men on the panorama of Roswell activity.

His friends are numbered by the hundreds, and all of them are of the lasting fiber which comes of worthwhile associations, both in the world of business and in the realms of neighborhood life.

The Dickenson Wholesale Company has been a strong factor in the growth and progress of Roswell; and Mr. Dickenson's own efforts, in many instances, has been the stimuli behind the outstanding accomplishments of the wholesale drug firm.

The case is a fine example of a man weaving his own personal prominence into an executive's life, with lasting benefits to both organization and individual.

We take pleasure in expressing these few words of commendation to a man who is doing so much to promote the growth and progress of this entire district.

Paul Slayton and Paul O. McDonald

Due to the efforts of a group of wide-awake business men, the city of Roswell has attained a dominant position in the commercial life of this section of New Mexico. And two of the men who have justly earned credit for being progressive members of that group are Paul Slayton and Paul O. McDonald of the A-1 Auto Salvage.

It is because of the successful operations of such a business concern that the city of Roswell has earned the reputation of being one of the more progressive cities in the state.

Mr. Slayton and Mr. McDonald have been conspicuously successful in spite of the fact that they have repeatedly neglected their own private affairs to devote a part of their time and efforts to the successful promotion of civic projects.

It is considered a privilege to include Paul McDonald and Paul Slayton in this Roswell review, and to publicly give them credit for their success in business and for their many contributions to the general welfare of the city.

C. M. Robbins

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement the man we have in mind is one of Roswell's more dependable automobile dealers, C. M. Robbins of Robbins Motors Incorporated, authorized Plymouth and DeSoto Sales and Service, who furnished, free of charge, a four-door Plymouth Savoy to the Ruidoso High School for driver training purposes. He has a large circle of personal friends and customers scattered throughout this entire district—many of whom reside in our own community.

His contagious optimism and freely expressed belief in the assured future prosperity of the people of Roswell and its metropolitan trading area, are characteristics which are to be appreciated in a progressive business man. He has always taken an interest in community affairs, and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is men like C. M. Robbins who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs and their willingness to contribute to the public good, who are wholly deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief, but sincere tribute.

Lee Johnston

In compiling this review of progressive Roswell business people, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for them positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Such a person is Lee Johnston of the Roswell Pot Shop and Supply, located at 1120 East Second, offering a complete line of unusual pots, tropical fish, pet foods and accessories.

Mr. Johnston's main interests have not been solely confined to his own business and private affairs, but have also included her contributions, in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of her activities.

Lee Johnston is a woman of wide experience whose exploits in the business and civic life of Roswell and vicinity merits more than a passing mention, and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to one who well deserves more credit than is accorded her here.

"Jim" Reedy

"Jim" Reedy is one of the more successful drive-in and restaurant operators of Roswell who, by maintaining a constant standard of service and high quality goods, has made Jim's Drive Inn and Cafe one of the more popular eating places in the community. We are glad to give him credit for his well-earned success in a field which is so highly competitive.

It is also a pleasure to give him credit for taking part in community affairs and lending his assistance to various activities and public projects. When to take part in such matters he always does so without ostentation, but in a quiet manner which lends dignity to his cheerful acceptance of his share of the civic load. It is a pleasure to be associated in the promotion of community activities with such a man as Mr. Reedy.

This review of progressive and civic-minded people of Roswell would not be complete were we to fail to include "Jim" Reedy. He is the kind of success which deserves recognition, and we wish him many more years of the same.

Cecil Stevens

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to some of those progressive and civic-minded people who have contributed their share of time and energy to the building up of Roswell and the surrounding territory to the position of prominence which it now enjoys.

One of these men whom we wish to present to our readers is Cecil Stevens of Stevens Radio-Television, whose success can equally be attributed to his business acumen and his knowledge of electronics, with special emphasis on radio and television.

He has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward in both business and technical fields, and is a qualified expert in the service and installation of all types of television sets and antennas.

Cecil Stevens' record of achievement is one of which he may well be proud. His value to the city and this district is an established fact, and we are happy to give him the credit which is his just due.

Bill Mikesell

One of the more progressive real estate men of Roswell, and one whose success can partly be attributed to a deep insight as to the direction in which the city will develop is Bill Mikesell. He also has a sound basic knowledge of real estate values and has turned that knowledge to the advantage of the people with whom he does business. And his aggressive methods coupled with his sound and practical ideas have made the service he has rendered to the people more valuable, and materially contributed to his well earned success.

Mr. Mikesell is also civic minded and has always shown a cheerful willingness to contribute his share of time and energy to the promotion of community projects.

It is because of the activities of such progressive business men that, year after year, Roswell continues to show such a healthy growth and expansion, both as a residential and industrial city. We are glad to pay tribute to Bill Mikesell for the part he is playing in the onward progress of Roswell, and the surrounding area.

A. T. Broadwell

We desire in this Roswell review to call the attention of our readers to the well-earned position which A. T. Broadwell has reached in the business life of this section. During the comparatively short time he has been operating the A & B Lauderette, he has made many personal friends as well as having earned the good will of his associates for the straight-forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs.

Mr. Broadwell is working hard to deserve the confidence which the people of the community have in him, and he continues to work hard to maintain in every way, that high standard which he has set, not only for himself, but for the operation and management of the A & B Lauderette as well.

He has also shown a willingness to assist in every manner at his disposal in the growth and development of the city of Roswell, and is always ready to lend his support to civic projects. A. T. Broadwell deserves our heartfelt congratulations on the splendid record he has already established, and we sincerely hope for his continued success.

Herbert Grossman

To be a consistent and persistent booster of any community often takes courage and plenty of optimism. It is because of his unflinching faith in the future of Roswell and the surrounding country and his unflagging efforts to promote its development, that Herbert Grossman is selected now for this brief tribute.

Mr. Grossman has proved very ably that he is a restaurant operator of unusual ability, for it is largely due to his ideals of service, coupled with a determination to serve only the very best of food that the La Cima Restaurant holds its high position in the public's favor.

And his personality and energy in directing the operations of the business are important factors in his outstanding success.

We are glad to pay tribute to Herbert Grossman and to point out to our readers that his is the guiding influence responsible for the splendid service and delicious foods, served in a delightful atmosphere, to be had at the La Cima Restaurant in Roswell.

Irving Baranchik

We wish in this edition to pay tribute to Irving Baranchik of the Variety Liquor Store, for his many services to the city of Roswell, and his splendid record of achievements in the business life of the city.

Mr. Baranchik probably has as wide a circle of friends as any other man we could name, because he is just naturally the kind of man who makes friends with almost everyone, and always conducts himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and good will of all who know him.

Roswell is fortunate in being able to number, among its more progressive business people, citizens of this type. He is always ready and willing to lend his support to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit this entire district.

He may be depended upon, and his services to the people are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that we consider Irving Baranchik an asset to the community, and a progressive business man of whom his city may be proud.

Richard J. Pierce

In bestowing credit upon some of those progressive business men of Roswell, who in one way or another, have contributed their bit to improve both business and civic conditions, we wish to publish a few words about Richard J. Pierce of the R. J. Pierce Chevron Service.

Mr. Pierce has set a standard for himself and the operation and management of his business that, under present existing conditions, has been very difficult to maintain. However, that he has done so is proved by the large volume of business which his Chevron station continues to handle, much of which is due to his unceasing attention to detail and his ability to cope with new and unexpected problems.

Richard Pierce is also civic-minded and has, when asked, cheerfully cooperated on those civic activities to which he has been able to lend assistance. He more than deserves the respect and good will which he has earned, and we and his friends are confident that he will continue to maintain his usual integrity and high standards.

J. B. Howell

Good motels and tourist courts are indispensable to the progress and development of a growing city such as Roswell. And the Holiday Inn, combining the best features of both, has accommodated a great many tourists and business men in a manner that assures them of the continued patronage and good will of the motoring public.

The management of the Holiday Inn has maintained an ideal of service which is thoroughly exemplified by the manner in which every need of the traveling motorist has been anticipated and prepared for. Nothing is taken for granted; nothing is forgotten, and hospitality and service is always their first and last consideration.

Much of the credit for the splendid reputation of this modern drive-in motel is due to the executive ability of J. B. Howell, whose untiring efforts, foresightedness and careful attention to detail, have maintained a standard of hospitality and service which would be difficult to surpass. It is a pleasure to publish these few words of praise about the Holiday Inn, and its friendly manager, J. B. Howell.

Dorothy N. Walker

To serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully is the basic foundation many progressive business men and women of Roswell have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the person we have in mind is Dorothy N. Walker of Avenue Interiors. The popularity and patronage enjoyed by her interior decorating services accentuates the ideals of courtesy and efficiency which she has consistently applied in the management of the business and in the servicing of its patrons.

The conduct of such businesses, and the people who operate them, have done much to make Roswell the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such a woman as Mrs. Walker for her part in the onward progress of the city. In so doing, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know her.

Dorothy Walker has earned her success by the method in which she has treated the public, and accepted both civic and business responsibilities, and we wish her every success in the future.

Bill Turner

In singling out some of the more progressive business men of Roswell, we would be censored should we fail to include Bill Turner, representing the Orkin Exterminating Company. He is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and civic activities of the city.

Mr. Turner has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail, those opportunities which come to him attention to further civic enterprises. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

Bill Turner deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has represented the Orkin Exterminating Company. He is a friendly and likable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for him a host of friends and satisfied customers, and we would like to see him in the future.

A considerable number of suggestions that are being up held to be the above.

Thomas B. Stapp

Performing an outstanding service for the people of Roswell and the surrounding territory, Thomas B. Stapp, Special Agent for the New York Life Insurance Company, with offices now located at 503 South Kentucky, has achieved an enviable reputation for his progressive policies of business administration. His constant study of insurance problems in relation to the protection the people both need and can afford, have been important factors in his well-earned success.

Mr. Stapp is a man of ideas, and he is as practical as he is progressive in putting those ideas to beneficial use in furthering the service he renders to the people. His sound business judgment and unwavering honesty are characteristics which place him in the front rank of the business leaders of his city. Yet he is unassuming and modest in his personal contact with the people; always ready to listen to their ideas and desires.

We are glad to pay tribute to progressive citizens of this type, for it is such men as Thomas Stapp, who have caused Roswell to become recognized as the metropolitan center for this section of New Mexico.

"Ted" Schueneman and "Ed" Bryant

In every community there are a number of business and professional men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Two well-known business men of Roswell who belong in this category are "Ted" Schueneman and "Ed" Bryant, of the Allied Repair Service.

Their leadership in their line of business is recognized throughout this entire district, and their furtherance of civic activities and support of those organizations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress is well known to their immediate associates.

Mr. Schueneman and Mr. Bryant are men who are equally well liked and respected by their intimate friends and their associates. They are loyal to the community, thankful for their success in business, and have shown their appreciation by their contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate "Ed" Bryant and "Ted" Schueneman for being good citizens, progressive business men, and boosters of their community.

Roy M. Murff and Ray B. Miller

It is not always the kind of a business which determines its importance to the community. But, more or less, the methods used in its management, the services rendered to the public, and the way in which it meets both business and civic obligations.

The cheerfulness of the entire personnel of the Food Mart, in their contacts with the public, and the ready acceptance of all business and civic obligations by Roy M. Murff and Ray B. Miller, proves conclusively that they are men who are well-versed in the principles of successful business management.

As most people know, this firm is a leader in their line of business. This is partly so because of their long experience but also because of a never-ending policy of keeping abreast of the times in their particular field.

It is a pleasure to compliment Roy Miller and Roy Murff for the successful management and operation of the Food Mart, and also for their many contributions to the growth and progress of Roswell and the adjacent territory.

A. F. "Andy" and Georgia Johnson

Two restaurant operators of Roswell who have based their success upon the belief that the public will appreciate good food, well prepared and appetizingly served, are A. F. "Andy" and Georgia Johnson of the Cozy Corner Cafe, whose many friends and customers by their daily patronage of their popular eating place, attest to the soundness of their policy.

It is not only because of the successful management of their cafe that Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have come to be recognized as assets to the community; but it is also because of their policy of "looking ahead," and endeavoring to sponsor or take part in those community activities which will, in some manner, benefit the city of Roswell and the people as a whole. They are two citizens who have shown their appreciation for their success by a willingness to contribute of their time and efforts to the promotion of community projects.

It is such people as Georgia and "Andy" Johnson whom we are privileged to include in this review, and to publicly give them due credit for their success in business and civic affairs.

A considerable number of suggestions that are being up held to be the above.

Vonnie L. Jasper

It is fitting in this review of progressive Roswell business men that we acquaint our readers with the man to be credited with having maintained the National Farm Loan Association in the enviable position it holds in the business and industrial life of this area. That personality is Vonnie L. Jasper, the secretary, treasurer, whose genius for organization and for converting new ideas into actual deeds has played a vital part in the distinctive reputation which the association now enjoys throughout this entire district.

Mr. Jasper has found time, in addition to his business interests, to give thought, and energy to community projects. He is a citizen whose talents have been steadfastly devoted to the best interests of the city. He has been successful in his own business, and in the promotion of the general welfare of the community.

We are glad to pay this brief tribute to him, and to say that this district owes much to the many benefits which Vonnie Jasper and the National Farm Loan Association have rendered to the people of this entire area.

Johnie M. Norrid

Johnie M. Norrid has proved his progressiveness by constantly adding to and increasing the service which Johnie's Service Station & Motor Service, located at 401 West Second, has extended to the people. The large volume of business handled by his Mobil station proves that "service," to him, is not "just a word," but something to be rendered to the motoring public to the fullest extent of his ability.

In addition to his close attention to his business affairs, Mr. Norrid was never a man to dodge his civic responsibilities, and help in those matters has always been cheerfully given.

He fully appreciates the value of good will, and has more than his share of that intangible commodity because of the manner in which he meets both business and civic obligations. He is a credit to the community, and is thoroughly established in the forefront of the business life of the city.

Johnie Norrid has many friends in and around this entire district, and it is a pleasure to bring him before our readers in this review of progressive Roswell business men.

Glenn Sherard

Glenn Sherard of the Ace Sign Company, located at 114 East Walnut, is one of those progressive business men who has always done his bit to maintain the prestige of the city of Roswell as the leading business center of this section of the state. He has always worked for the development of the city, and his many services are worthy of sincere appreciation.

His well-earned success as a business man is easily understood, knowing as the people do his widespread reputation for the honesty which characterizes all of his business dealings.

And it is a combination of technical knowledge, professional skill and business ability which has elevated Mr. Sherard to a position of leadership in the neon sign, sales, service and maintenance business. He is completely aware of his civic responsibilities, and is wide awake to the many opportunities for service, and is always ready and willing to lend his support to any project which promises to benefit the community as a whole.

We compliment Glenn Sherard on his accomplishments, and wish for him continued success.

B. L. Wallace

B. L. Wallace of the Home Appliance Service, and P & W Laundry Supply, located at 1131 South Main, has a well-earned reputation for progressiveness because he has consistently forged ahead in his business, never letting up in his efforts to make the service he renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made Home Appliance Service, and P & W Laundry Supply outstanding in their field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout this entire area.

But Mr. Wallace has accomplished much more than just making a success of his business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him for devoting what time he could spare to the general welfare, not only to the city, but this entire district as well.

It is such men as he, who are both successful in business and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publicly giving B. L. Wallace the credit for his accomplishments which his friends and associates have so long accorded him.

LAS CRUCES GOT NAME AFTER INDIAN AMBUSH

Las Cruces, N. M., derives its name from an incident that occurred during Spanish colonial days. A wagon caravan was ambushed by Indians and all the travelers were slain. The cluster of crosses later erected over their graves remained in the spot being known as Las Cruces—The Crosses.

Karl S. Coen

Logically a man who has earned the reputation of being one of Roswell's more dependable motorcycle sales and service dealers would in so doing, have earned the friendship and good will of a great many people throughout this entire district. A man who justly deserves that distinction is—modest, efficient, friendly, Karl S. Coen of Indian Motorcycle Sales and Service, authorized dealer for Indian, and the amazing Italian import, the Parilla.

Mr. Coen is the type of man who would be an asset to any community, not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to his city and this district lies in the fact that he is distinctly zealous, and remarkably successful, in the promotion of civic projects.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of such a man to his community. We congratulate the people of Roswell for numbering among their more progressive citizens such a man as Karl Coen, and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

Calvin Goins

Roswell owes much to those progressive citizens who have taken an active part in the growth and progress of the city and who have helped to make it the business center for this section of the state. In mentioning some of these men, it is only fair to include Calvin Goins of the Calvin Goins Garage, who has a wide selection of new and used cars and pickups, whose outstanding knowledge of the business, backed up by his many years of experience, has brought him to the forefront in his particular field.

Mr. Goins is wholly deserving of our sincere praise, and these few words of commendation are but a just recognition for the many activities he has conducted on behalf of the general welfare of the community.

The honest and successful conduct of his business affairs is not only a reflection of his character, but has also been a strong factor in maintaining him in a position of leadership in his field of endeavor.

We trust that Calvin Goins will continue to serve the people of Roswell and the surrounding area for many years to come.

Harry W. Blythe

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Roswell, Mr. Harry W. Blythe of the Blythe Appliance Company, authorized sales and service dealers for Maytag and Kelvinator, performs a real service for the people of his city, and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns. His personal success has been achieved, in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service his company renders to the public. A policy which has, and continues to build up good will for the Blythe Appliance Company throughout this entire district.

Mr. Blythe is deserving of praise, and this small tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate Harry Blythe on his splendid record, and trust he shall continue to serve the people of Roswell and vicinity.

Clint Benefield

Every progressive and successful business man in Roswell contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And a man who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Clint Benefield, the manager of the Red Rooster Lanes, who is well known and has many friends and satisfied customers throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that the Red Rooster Lanes is playing in the business and recreational life of Roswell and vicinity mirrors the progressiveness and ability of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Benefield has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city, and the surrounding country, and on many occasions, has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Roswell and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Clint Benefield in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying this brief tribute to one of the city's more progressive business men.

Although New Mexico is regarded as a semi-arid state, it has 2,715 miles of trout streams and 11,000 acres of lakes.

Extension Club to Meet Thursday, June 25

The Corona Women's Extension Club will meet Thursday, June 25, for their regular meeting, and will make a quilt for the Ralph Dunlap family (county agent) whose home recently burned.

Hostess for the day will be Mrs. Calle Franks and Mrs. Paillo Dishman. A covered dish-luncheon will be served at the noon hour.

Mrs. Ollie Dee Wade is furnishing the quilt top and Mrs. Paillo Dishman the lining and cotton.

Those who do not care to quilt may bring cup towels or pillow cases to work on, or other things if they wish. Donations of any kind will be appreciated.

All those who attended work shop recently and made blouses and dresses are requested to bring a sample-to-put in the scrapbooks. Everyone is urged to come and help out at this meeting.

Carl Hiners Attend Flying Farmers' Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hiner flew to the State Flying Farmers' meeting held at Las Cruces Saturday, June 13.

New officers were elected and a delicious dinner was served to the members present from different parts of the State.

The Hiners then flew to El Paso where they spent the night, and Sunday morning they flew to Canutillo, N. M., where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crump who formerly lived near Corona.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Porter and two children of Bloomfield were visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Simmons this week.

Mrs. Fred Large had been in Crawford, Texas, taking care of her mother, Mrs. Emma McLaughlin, who has been ill the past three weeks. Recently Mrs. Large's car was wrecked in Texas when a young man ran into the rear of it at a high speed. No one was injured.

Miss Mildred Roper of Alamogordo visited her friend, Miss Cherry Tracey, last week at the Tracey ranch.

Colonel and Mrs. Sam Gray of Santa Fe; Col. T. E. Roberts and Mrs. S. Scarborough of Washington, D. C., visited Saturday with Col. Roberts' aunt, Mrs. Frank DuBois.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Tyree of Douglas, Ariz., visited his grandmother, Mrs. E. L. Jamigan, Saturday. They were here on their vacation. Mrs. Tyree is the former Miss June Mogford of Corona.

Rev. Bill Lytle and Don Simmonds are holding a Vacation Bible School in Willard this week.

Guest Speaker at Corona Baptist Church

Rev. I. W. Fulgham was the speaker at the Corona Baptist Church last week. He brought the message to a good crowd at the monthly potluck supper Wednesday, June 10.

Mrs. Fulgham brought a short talk on the church library, occasioned by the beginning of a library in the Corona Baptist Church.

The Fulghams are the parents of Mrs. Don E. Baker, the pastor's wife of the Baptist church. The Fulghams reside in Fort Worth.

V.B.S. Preparation Day will be Saturday, June 20, at 1:30. All boys and girls ages 3-15 are invited to come.

The program will include a preview of the activities which may be expected during the school. The school will begin June 22 and will end July 3.

Mrs. Harlan Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Harris and daughter Michel of Albuquerque, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Porterfield from Portales were visitors at the Ken Fuller ranch Thursday, June 11, helping Mr. and Mrs. Kennan Fuller celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Aldin were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Stone, on Sunday. The Stones recently moved from Claunch to the old home place on the Chandler ranch, ten miles east of Corona.

Harrell Fuller has been employed by the Toller Pipe Company in Albuquerque. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kennan Fuller and recently home from the American University, Washington, D. C.

Marshal Minor was in Truth or Consequences and Socorro the past week end, and he also took his mother for a medical checkup to Albuquerque. His mother, Mrs. Beato Minor, is still in Socorro with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raney. Mr. Raney has been at Truth or Consequences taking hot baths and his health is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Corlie Harrison of Albuquerque were week end visitors at the Bill Keelin ranch recently. Also Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Owen of Alamogordo and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keelin and children and Miss Sherrell Cathy of Santa Fe.

Morrison Gibson of Austin, Tex., was visiting in the Ace Messer home the first of this week. Gibson homesteaded land west of the Joe Atkinson ranch a number of years ago. He and his wife have sent their two sons through college, and one is now in medical school. Gibson is a successful public accountant, and has worked for the government as well as for several big business concerns in Texas. He started his career by studying home correspondence courses in accounting when he lived near Corona on the old homestead.

Rites in Texas for Mrs. Fannie Hodge

Mrs. Fannie Hodge, 90, (known by her many friends as Mommie Hodge), departed this life in the Presbyterian Hospital in Albuquerque Saturday, June 13, on the 73rd birthday of her oldest son, Frank Hodge of Corona. She was a resident of Corona for many years.

Mrs. Hodge was born in Hayes County, Texas, May 9, 1869. In the year 1888 she was united in marriage to William Ethel Hodge. To this union were born five sons and two daughters, Frank, Clint, and Bryan of Corona, and Mrs. Carroll Wilson of Albuquerque, and Mrs. Kyle Biggs of Tucuman. She is survived also by 10 grandchildren, 23 great-grandchildren, and a host of friends.

Mr. Hodge preceded her in death many years ago; also two sons, Miller and Sydney.

"Mommie" Hodge was a lifetime member of the Order of Eastern Star at Brownwood, Texas, having filled every station in the Order.

She was also Gold Star Mother of Beaver Bond Post No. 35 of the American Legion Auxiliary at Corona for the past 11 years. She was a member of the First Christian Church of Brownwood, Texas.

Funeral services and burial were held in Brownwood, Texas, Tuesday, June 16. All surviving children were present.

Henry Durfee

Henry Durfee, 70, of Chilco, California, died of a heart attack Friday, June 12, at Corona. He was accompanied here by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wilcox, and they were visiting old friends.

The Durfee family, former residents of Corona, were well known in this area. He was foreman for 10 or 12 years on the J. R. Jenkins ranch southeast of Corona. Mrs. Durfee passed away four years ago. The Durfees had nine children, four girls and five boys, four daughters and three sons survive. The body of Durfee was shipped back to Chilco, Calif., for burial.

T/Sgt. and Mrs. Jim Dummond of Wichita, Kansas, visited her sister, Mrs. J. C. Lenhart, recently. T/Sgt. Dummond is being sent to Tule near the North Pole for a year, and Mrs. Dummond plans to come to Corona about June 25 to live and spend the year in which her husband will be away on duty.

Both Mrs. Dummond and Mrs. Lenhart were born and raised in England. Their parents from England spent six months here last year, returning by plane to England in October, 1938.

Miss Inita Carnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Carnell of Corona, is attending Girls' State in Albuquerque this week.

Mrs. Wesley King and two sons were visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Warr, the first of this week.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Joanne Atkinson

Mr. and Mrs. Joe M. Atkinson of Corona, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joanne, to Sam B. Stewart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Stewart of Clifton, Texas.

The marriage will be solemnized in the Corona Presbyterian Church on July 25 at 8 p.m. with the Rev. W. P. Lytle officiating. Attendants will be Helen Kay Atkinson, sister of the bride, and C. W. Stewart, brother of the groom.

Miss Atkinson was granted a Bachelor of Arts degree in Elementary Education with special honors by Eastern New Mexico University this spring. She was a member of Silver Key Euterpeans, and was elected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Mr. Stewart, also graduated from Eastern New Mexico University, received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Business and Economics, summa cum laude. He was a member of Silver Key, Accounting Club, and has served three years in the U. S. Navy.

The couple will reside in Claucho where Mr. Stewart is associated with Stewart Insurance.

All relatives and close friends of the couple are invited to attend the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. Lucille Porter and daughter Vivian Gall moved to Roswell several weeks ago. Corona's new Coach Carroll Bristol and family of Fabens, Texas, have rented the Porter residence.

INSIDE THE CAPITAL

The extra money is coming from additional work added to the contract by the highway department and changes made by the department in the road plans.

The all-Democratic committee of nine state representatives investigating the highway department has the road boys worried. Six of the nine have turned tough in their prying for information. They are Jim Martin, Las Cruces; George Amaya, Gallup; Finis Helde, Lea county; Fred Foster, Grant; Jack Morgan, Lordsburg; and Travis Erem, Deming.

Not so tough are the chairman, Morris Dickenson, of Tucuman; James Rutherford, of Albuquerque; and Reginald Garcia, Albuquerque.

SCHOOL SUPERS SHOW RESTRAINT

School superintendents who have something of a free hand in writing salary increases for themselves whether or not there is money for teachers raises, showed restraint this year in Dona Ana, Grant, Mora and Valencia counties where school money was painfully tight.

Neither the superintendents or the teachers got raises in Las Cruces, Hatch and Gadsden districts of Dona Ana; it was the same in Grant and Mora counties. Valencia which was pinched so hard that the teachers were not even allowed their annual step in-

James Kirker, better known as "Captain," was one of those early adventurers in the Southwest that left a lot of fables and few facts concerning his life.

Born in Belfast, Ireland, on December 2, 1793, he had reached New York by 1810, in the month of June. During the War of 1812 he is said to have served on a privateer along the coast of Brazil. In 1817, Kirker went to St. Louis where he remained until 1821. In the spring of that year he joined General William H. Ashley and Major Andrew Henry on a beaver trapping expedition to the Upper Missouri. After a period of trapping, Kirker then turned his attention to the Southwest. A sketch of Kirker in the old Santa Fe Republican published in 1947 gave the following account of his exploits while in this part of the country based on a story it copied from an early St. Louis newspaper:

"In 1824, Mr. Kirker again left the haunts of civilization, and repaired to the Mexican country on a trapping expedition. For some time he was quite fortunate, as well in the recovery of an impaired state of health, as in his success as a trapper. Eventually, the products of his enterprise were seized by Governor Narbono of Santa Fe, without any excuse or apology, and future labor of the kind forbidden. Mr. Kirker then repaired to the copper mines of Mr. Robert McKnight, where he remained for a period of eight years, trapping the Rio Gila every winter.

"In 1835 the subject of our sketch obtained a license from the Governor of Santa Fe, Don Alvaro Perez, to trap and trade with the Apache nation of Indians for one season which other counties do get, two of the three superintendents asked for nothing extra for themselves—those at Belen and Las Lunas. An exception in the county was at Grants where a $700 raise was put over for Superintendent Manuel McBride.

Teacher and superintendent increases granted for the next school year included $100 base increase for teachers in Lincoln county and superintendent advances of $200 (to $6,500) at Carrizozo, Corona, Hondo and Capitan; Ruidoso with a new superintendent continued the old rate of $6,500; Luna teachers went up $150 and the superintendent at Deming $600 (to $11,000); Rio Arriba teachers advanced $200 and the superintendent at Espanola $400 (to $10,200); Socorro county teachers were raised $200 and the superintendent at Socorro $600 (to $10,000), at La Joya $400 (to $6,800) and at Magdalena $500 (to $6,000); at Springer the teachers got $200 and so did the superintendent.

OLD TIMER COMING BACK

Rich Grimsen, state school budget officer 1936-37 is coming back to the job. . . The backlog of cases waiting trial in San Juan county had mounted to 6,124 and still no new judge three months after one was authorized by the legislature. . . Since June 13 a law has been in effect forbidding public boards and commissions from doing official business in meetings closed to the public. Highway contractors are safer now from losing dough from bond work. The road office has cut the amount of payments held back pending satisfactory work from 20% to 5%.

year. He set out with 18 men, and was, for a time, highly successful in the pursuit of his enterprise. Previous to the expiration of his license, however, the Supreme Government hearing of his success, sent an order to Gov. Perez for his arrest, and decreed the confiscation of his property, alleging that the Governor possessed no authority to grant such a license to an alien and a heretic. Perez accordingly proclaimed Capt. Kirker an outlaw—though it was obvious that he had broken no law whatever—seized his property, and offered $800 for his arrest, dead or alive.

"Thus compelled to abandon the country, Capt. Kirker repaired to Bent's Fort, on the Arkansas, and remained there until after the death of Perez, who fell a sacrifice to mob violence, in the streets of Santa Fe, in 1830.

"As soon as Armita had assumed the reins of power, he invited Captain Kirker to return to the province, which invitation was soon after accepted.

"About this time news was received in Santa Fe that the mining operations of Culder and McKnight, in the state of Chihuahua, had been broken up by the Apache Indians. Capt. Kirker at once resolved to go to the protection of his old friends. He raised, at his own expense, a party of 23 men, several of whom were Shawnee Indians—one of them the noted Shawnee chief, Epy Buck—and marched into the Apache country, near the scene of hostilities. Coming upon an Apache village containing 247 persons, this little party attacked it, killed 53 warriors, took nine female prisoners, drove off 400 head of stock, and totally destroyed the village. In this engagement the assaulting party lost one man killed and eight wounded. The rest, only 14 strong, conveyed their wounded prisoners, and stock to the small town of Socorro, in New Mexico.

"The fame of this victory reaching Chihuahua, Capt. Kirker was invited by the governor of that state to head a party of 50 men against the Apaches, who at that time were very troublesome to the Mexicans. He acceded to the proposition, and was allowed the pay of a colonel, although his no-citizenship did not permit the grant of a colonel's commission."

Johnnie, 14 months, was playing very quietly in his back yard. Sneaking up for an investigation, his mother found him happily contented sitting in the middle of an ant hill, killing ants one by one with his little thumb. After a thorough check, Johnnie was found to have no ants in his pants.

One style that has never changed is that of the panties restaurants put on legs-of-lamb.

One aspect of our foreign policy seems to be that in any country where it appears Miss Democracy has a reasonable chance to make good, we give the little girl a big handout.
