

Ramblin' Around Lincoln County

(An interview of Charlie E. Pflingsten, now of 442 Auburn st., Lubbock, Texas.)

I was born in Lincoln County three miles above Bonito Dam on the old Ben Robinson place, in 1905. That was about the time Carrizozo started. My mother was Maggie E., the daughter of Ben Robinson and my father was Ed Pflingsten, brother of Albert and Fred Pflingsten. My parents were married in 1899.

My father had three sisters: Mrs. Bob Bourne, Mrs. Willis Hightower and Mrs. Charlie Bragg. My father's folks came to Lincoln county from Del Norte, Colo., in 1885. They landed in Nogal and the following year moved to Bonito City. There is where my grandfather, Henry Pflingsten, died as a result of getting black damp, or bad air, in the Old Soldier mine at Bonito City.

The Old Soldier mine was almost due north of where Bonito City used to set, up on the hillside. It was a lead and silver mine, more or less of a prospect mine. My grandfather had a contract to clean out the old shaft and get samples. That was how he got the bad air. He lived about a year after that.

My mother's folks came to the county in 1886, by wagon team from Eastland county, Texas. They settled above Bonito City and it remained the family home until 1928 when my grandmother sold the place to the Southern Pacific Company. The Jim Robinson, Tom Bragg, and Greer homesteads were sold about the same time.

Neighbors and friends of my grandfather when he first settled at Bonito City were Herman Conbruch, Rudy Schulz, and a man by the name of Rodemaker.

Although my father did not go beyond the eighth grade he read a great deal and in this way acquired a good education. I never knew a word that he couldn't spell. While a young man he went to White Oaks to work in the mines. Soon afterwards he went to work as a printer on the White Oaks Eagle and became a good friend of John Haley.

Around the turn of the century we homesteaded on Nogal Mesa (now the Ben Robinson place). Neighbors were Billie Langston, W. H. Sexton, L. R. (Dennis) LaMay, Bob and Cleve Bourne, W. R. Sallee White, The Burralls, and "Uncle Tom" Zumwalt.

School District No. 9 was established and a one-room schoolhouse was built on the corner of my father's homestead. I started to school there in 1911 and my first school teacher was Mrs. Emma Craddock. Mrs. Craddock was a sister of C. C. Merchant of Capitán. Mr. Merchant's granddaughter, Thelma Yates, while teaching school at Nogal, was married to my brother, Jack Pflingsten. They now live in El Paso, where he is assistant supervisor of water service for the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Pflingsten returned to teaching three years ago in the El Paso public schools.

I finished the 8th grade on Nogal Mesa and graduated from Carrizozo High School in 1925. The next fall I was encouraged by Mary Fritz Johnson, then county superintendent of schools to take a position of teacher at Coyote. After a year at Coyote, I taught two years at Bluewater, about 15 miles north of Tinnie, a year as principal at Ancho, and a year at Nogal under Mrs. J. B. French, county superintendent of schools.

I started working for the Southern Pacific during the war and then moved to Lubbock. At the present time I am service department manager for sewing machines and vacuum cleaners for Atlas Sewing Centers, a national chain in the sewing machine business.

"Food Comes First" Breakfast July 14

"Food Comes First"—that's the theme of the special breakfast to be held July 14, at the Carrizozo Country Club, at 7:15 a.m., Joe Skeen announced this week.

The special observance will be part of a state-wide campaign during the week of July 13-18 in 22 communities across New Mexico, boosting the importance of agriculture as the nation's food producer.

Sponsors of the observance are the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau and the New Mexico State University Extension Service. The local celebration is being conducted by co-chairmen Joe Skeen and Ralph Dunlap.

W. E. Overton will be the speaker. "The meal will be a Dutch Treat affair and everybody is invited."

"We Americans spend $75 billion a year on food," said W. E. McAllister, Fortales dairyman who heads the New Mexico Farm and Livestock Bureau, "and if you consider the hours of work required to buy groceries, food is lower priced now than at any previous time in our nation's history."

"Food is our most basic necessity and the prime item in the family budget. Food literally comes first for us all!"

Nogal Mesa Camp Meeting Begins Next Wednesday with Evening Service

Buster Bird, Claud Branum, Frank Crockett and Gil Peters, three ranchmen who take a leading part in the annual encampment.

By DOROTHY GUCK

It is almost time for the annual Nogal Mesa Cowboy Camp Meeting. This year the first meeting will be Wednesday evening, July 15, and the last service will be Sunday evening, July 19.

Preachers at this year's encampment will be Rev. Arthur Miller of Denver and Rev. Charles Thigpen of Albuquerque.

Since the era when our forefathers took time each day during their covered wagon trek West, to ask God's guidance or say a prayer of thankfulness for a safe journey, ranch people have known the need for religious friendship.

WORK DAY SATURDAY

The general work day to clean up the camp grounds will be on Saturday, July 11.

In a land where neighbors are far, there is a special need for the fellowship of man. The interdenominational Nogal Mesa Ranchmen's Camp Meeting, started in 1949, has been providing the opportunity for the people of southwestern New Mexico to renew friendships and jointly count their blessings each year.

The services of the camp meetings which are held in various parts of the Southwest during the summer months, are still under the direction of Rev. Ralph Hall, Rev. Roger Sherman and Joe Evans. All other arrangements are made by the cattleman.

With 23 acres of camping space under the pines and junipers atop the mesa on Indian Divide, there is ample room for everyone caring to bring their camping equipment and stay the full time. The grounds are at an altitude of 7,000 feet and summer showers chill the air to make warm jackets and slickers a necessity.

Meals are served cafeteria style three times daily, with plenty of barbecued beef and cowboy chuck. Collection plates are not passed, but donations support the meetings. It is only asked that all partakers of the ranchmen's generosity attend all the religious services which are held in the spacious pine tabernacle three times daily at 10:30 a.m., 2:30 p.m., and 7 p.m. Group meetings are held at other hours.

The camp grounds may be reached from Highway 330, the turnoff being 5 miles west of Capitán and 12 miles east of Carrizozo. The turnoff, a dirt road, called Indian Divide, is well marked and passes Nogal Lake south of the camp grounds to join State Road 37 which leads to Capitán, Ruidoso or back through Nogal to Carrizozo.

If you would experience the peaceful atmosphere of the awe-inspiring beauty of the mountain forest; if you feel the need of a cool, quiet hour above the turmoil of the business world; if it is the simple smile of a friend you seek, then come to the Nogal Mesa Cowboy Camp Meeting.

A reprint of the story of the Nogal Mesa Camp Meeting will be available on the grounds at cost. The booklet has been brought up to date with a few new pictures and pages.

Sleepy Motorist Puts Car in Coyote Creek

A sleepy motorist suddenly woke up on Highway 54, north of Carrizozo Monday morning, but too late to keep his car from plunging off the highway into Coyote creek.

The bridge over the creek sustained some damage, according to Sheriff S. M. Ortiz, but the 51 Buick was completely wrecked.

The driver was John C. McClain, en route to Alamogordo from St. Joseph, Mo. He was taken to Carrizozo hospital, not seriously injured. The accident occurred at 9:30.

Carrizozo Using Water from Bonito

Carrizozo is using 100,000 gals. of water daily from the Bonito pipeline. It was brought out at Tuesday night's meeting of the town board.

Average daily metered water consumption during June was 147,259 gallons. The Bonito water is being augmented by a flow from the town's No. 2 well, which is being pumped five hours daily.

Sale of electric power amounted to $2,183 in June, compared to $4,232 in May. The use of power has varied little from month to month since the first of the year, town clerk J. S. Stearns said.

Routine business matters were taken up at the meeting which lasted only a little over an hour. Present were Mayor Withers, Trustees Leandro Vega, L. Z. Manire, Austin Wooten and Clerk Stearns.

Building applications were approved for: Rito Samors, 4-room adobe residence. Self contractor, $500.

Ralph Fosay, adobe extension to dwelling. Self contractor, $100. Pick Warden to construct an all-metal car cover in front of the Tastes Freez. $2,500.

Clarence E. Shaw, enclose carport for game room. $250. Request by patrolman Tony Beltran for promotion to chief of police and increase in salary, was tabled until the next meeting.

The board authorized the clerk to send registered letters to three business firms which are delinquent in the payment of occupational licenses. The board adopted the traffic code of the State of New Mexico.

Rec. Program Set Up For Youth of All Ages

It was announced this week that the Carrizozo summer recreation program is now rounded out to include all ages for both boys and girls.

Due to the conflict of hours between Vacation Bible Schools and the recreation program the girls' gym classes will be changed from the morning to afternoon from 3-4:30. All boys and girls between ages 8-12 are welcome. The story hour will remain in the mornings on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10 until 11.

Boys and girls below the age of 13 are invited to come every morning from 9 to 11:30. Boys and girls 13 and over may come every afternoon during the week.

The story hour for children 4 to 7 on Tuesdays and Thursdays still has room for more and parents are invited to attend. The children work on cutouts, building letters and coloring.

Clovis Zoo New Home for Smokey

Santa Fe, N. M.—Smokey the Bear, of Capitán, an orphan of the New Mexico wilds, has found a new home. The furry cub took up residence this week in the city park zoo at Clovis.

Gov. John Burroughs presented Smokey to Mayor B. N. Hudnall of Clovis in a ceremony at the Clovis zoo Wednesday, July 8. Smokey has been dubbed a successor to the original "Smokey the Bear," a cub rescued from a forest fire near Capitán. Smokey has become a poster symbol for fire prevention throughout the United States.

The transfer of Smokey to the Clovis zoo was arranged by Fred Patton, information chief for the State Game and Fish Department, and Fred W. Phelps, director of the Department of Development.

While the original Smokey was the victim of a forest fire, Smokey was orphaned by another kind of forest tragedy—illegal hunting. A group of hunters, who have since been fined, shot the cub's mother out of season. They left the cub on a doorstep in Alamogordo.

Since then Smokey has spent some time at the Smokey Bear Museum at Capitán, was exhibited at a Sports Show in Albuquerque, and has posed frequently for photographers.

Phelps said the Clovis zoo was one of the few places in New Mexico equipped to handle a growing bear cub. Smokey already has shown an appetite for exploring which has made her difficult to control.

Miss Jeanette Bonnell Weds Ronnie Shriver

Miss Jeanette Bonnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bonnell of La Luz, N. M., became the bride of Ronnie Shriver Tuesday evening in the Ruidoso Downs Baptist Church.

The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shriver of Ruidoso Downs. Miss Bonnell took nurses' training at Santa Fe and is on the nursing staff of the Ruidoso-Hondo Valley hospital. She is a graduate of Alamogordo High School.

Mr. Shriver is a graduate of Ruidoso High School and attended Eastern New Mexico University in Fortales for three years.

Commissioners OK Two Subdivision Plats

At their regular monthly meeting the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners approved plats for two subdivisions. They were:

Plat submitted by L. W. Hutson for second addition to Hutson Carrizozo subdivision.

Plat submitted by Dan Griffith for Spring Park subdivision.

The commissioners were presented with requests for work on their roads by Mabel Rentfrow, Joe McKnight and Jim Miller.

Mayor Joe Rensch of Capitán discussed with the commissioners the status of the fairgrounds at Capitán and jurisdiction thereof.

No action was taken on the matter of appointing a state senatorial vacancy caused by the death of Sen. J. G. Moore, but wrote into the minutes a tribute to the late senator.

"We the Lincoln County Commissioners wish to express our appreciation for the excellent job the late J. G. Moore has done in representing Lincoln County so well, in our State Legislature. We feel that his passing was a great loss, and will be felt for many years to come, throughout Lincoln County and the State of New Mexico."

The commissioners' next regular meeting date will be August 6.

Summer Classes to Start Monday, July 20

Frank Wagner, Carrizozo high school principal, will return next week from Nacogdoches, Texas, where he has been attending summer school.

Beginning Monday, July 20, he will start summer school classes in mathematics and Spanish for those students who had arranged for such work before school closed in May.

These classes will be in session from 8 to 11 a.m., Monday through Friday of each week for four or five weeks.

Superintendent J. T. Clegg this week urged all students who have some make-up work in mathematics or Spanish to take advantage of this opportunity.

There will be no charge to the students for this service.

Civil Defense Setup Given New Impetus

One phase of New Mexico's revitalized civil defense program was presented in Carrizozo Monday night by the state's chief of religious affairs service of the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization.

He is Rabbi Herbert Straus of Santa Fe, rabbi of Santa Fe Jewish Temple. During World War II Rabbi Straus was a chaplain colonel in the Navy, and was stationed at Pearl Harbor when the Japanese attacked. He also has the rank of colonel as chief of chaplains of the New Mexico National Guard. Mrs. Straus accompanied her husband to Carrizozo.

The meeting was called by Vernon Petty, director of civilian defense for Carrizozo. Special invitations to attend were issued pastors of area churches, in as much as the mission of the Religious Affairs Service is to provide for the spiritual needs of the people during an emergency and to help maintain public morale.

In his opening remarks Rabbi Straus emphasized that the danger of panic would be ever-present should an atomic attack come.

"You can understand the fear it would cause," he said, "when you realize that the explosive effect of one hydrogen bomb could exceed that of all the bombs dropped by all combatants in all wars up to now."

"Civil defense education and planning can minimize the danger of panic," he said, "so let's be prepared. It is better to be prepared than to hope we can take care of it at the last minute."

The religious affairs service which Mr. Straus heads, is one of 20 "annexes" which fit into New Mexico's civil defense pattern. Each annex has its special field of disaster work, such as transportation, communication, medical, evacuation and housing.

Mr. Straus made two appointments at the meeting. They were Rev. Homer Reid, chief of the chaplain section, for the area and the Rev. Charles W. Dawson, chief of the church activities section for the area.

Director Petty had previously announced the appointment of Rev. W. P. Lytle as chief of religious affairs. Between now and the first week in August Rabbi Straus and Mrs. Straus will hold 30 such meetings as the one in Carrizozo Monday night and in Ruidoso on Tuesday. Attending Monday's meeting in Carrizozo were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Petty and Mike Petty, Rev. Harold Ely, Clarence E. Shaw, Dr. J. P. Turner and Mrs. Turner.

Motorists Praised for Good Holiday Record

The Carrizozo area State Patrolman James Clayton this week commended Lincoln County motorists for their good holiday traffic record and urged them to keep on driving carefully, holidays or not.

The Lincoln County Mounted Patrol, Troop 5, assisted county traffic officers over the holidays. Each state unit was assigned a member of the Mounted Patrol. Also assisting Officer Clayton over the week end was Patrolman Allen-Jones of Hobbs.

Only six traffic citations were issued during the period, only one of which was for reckless driving.

Carrizozo C. of C. Elects Five Directors

Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce members, balloting last Thursday afternoon, elected five of their members to the board of directors.

Five elected out of ten placed in nomination were J. S. Stearns, Vernon Petty, Kino Ortiz, Clarence E. Shaw and Will Ed Harris.

The new directors and hold-over directors will meet this Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the city hall to elect a president and secretary.

Picnic Date Set for Pageant Rehearsal

The Lincoln County Historical Society announces the start of preparations for the annual Billy the Kid Pageant, to be staged under its supervision and sponsorship at the pageant outdoor theatre in Old Lincoln town.

This performance will be given each evening at 8 o'clock on August 7, 8 and 9 and will take place on the very spot where Billy the Kid made his dramatic escape from jail. Details of his capture and escape are re-enacted in the pageant.

Paul Gardner of San Patricio, who so capably directed last year's pageant, will again be the director. John Thomas will play the part of Billy the Kid. This will be the seventh year that he has played this leading role and he does a wonderful job.

Ralph McGuire of Ruidoso will again take the part of the leading voice (narrator) in the pageant.

All of the actors, the director, and the people who take part in the pageant contribute their time and talent to this show.

The officers of the Lincoln County Historical Society—Wilbur Coe, president; Dan Kustanovich, vice president; Dan Brenton, secretary; Ofelia Salas, treasurer and Edward Penfield, chairman of the pageant committee, invite all of the pageant participants to a picnic to be held at the pageant grounds on Friday evening, July 17, at 6 p.m.

The meat, buns and coffee will be furnished. Bring a covered dish if you wish. Louise H. Coe, pageant publicity director, issues an invitation to "come and volunteer for a part in the pageant."

"This Billy the Kid Pageant," she says, "is nationally known. Life magazine in its April 13, 1933 issue, told the world about this show, with a wonderful picture of the pageant. Let us work to make this, the 11th pageant, the best of all."

Gospel Song Fest At Trinity Methodist

A gospel song fest is to be held at the Trinity Methodist Church in Carrizozo Sunday afternoon July 12.

An invitation to all is extended to come and take part in this stirring gospel singing where everyone gets a chance to sing and to listen to duets, solos, trios and quartets.

The singing starts at 2 in the afternoon and lasts until 4. Rev. James L. Wells, pastor of the Assembly of God church, is host and invites members of all churches, also non members.

"If you like to sing and 'Love the Lord,' then come and enjoy yourself," he urges.

Grace Period up July 15 For Vending Permits

Retail cigarette and vending machine permits were due July 1 and the grace period for obtaining permits without penalty ends on July 15. Frankie Silva, field man for the State Bureau of Revenue, reminds this week.

Application blanks may be obtained at the Carrizozo city hall, also monthly school tax report blanks.

Mayor Wayne C. Withers, the Rev. Charles W. Dawson, Rev. Homer Reid, C. H. Milligan, Ralph Petty, Mrs. Lorraine Brimberry and Paul Baker. The meeting was opened with invocation by Rev. Dawson.

Events on Fourth Drew Big Crowds

Lincoln county residents had a varied assortment of entertainment to choose from for their Fourth of July week end.

The holiday fare included rodeos at White Oaks, Capitán and at Mesalero where Indian ceremonial dances also attracted many.

Several hundred people witnessed the hour and a half long display of fireworks in Carrizozo.

The races at Ruidoso drew approximately 10,000 for Sunday's racing card.

And in the mountain playgrounds lakes, streams, trails and camps attracted their full share of people.

All in all, it was a pleasant as well as a safe Fourth of July for Lincoln county. Only two traffic accidents were reported and no serious injuries.

Capitan Rodeo

The first annual Smokey the Bear Stampede Rodeo sponsored by the Capitán Chamber of Commerce and produced by Troy Lano of Deming, July 3, 4, and 5, was a huge success. It is planned to make this an annual affair.

Ft. Stanton Picnic

In support of the nation's objective to keep the Fourth safe, the families of Fort Stanton planned an old-fashioned basket picnic for the afternoon of July 4. The Bonito Club grounds were festooned with multi-colored pennants and gay carnival hats were provided for everyone.

The Women's Service Club sold soft drinks. Hot dogs were roasted to order at the outdoor barbecue oven. Each family's culinary specialties were spread on the long tables for all to share and enjoy.

Entertainment was provided for all ages. Raymond Vigil, not quite a year old, tottered about in his headpiece of feathers completely entranced by a little rubber ball on the end of an elastic cord. A juke box provided music for dancing in the club house. Even the silver haired participants in the sack race enjoyed the fun.

The Women's Service Club provided shiny silver dollars and half-dollars for the winners. Pat Henderson was master of ceremony throughout the afternoon.

Following is the list of winners in the afternoon's contests: Sack race, won by Stanley Good III, with Johnny Walker as second. Day's three-legged race won by Dick Good and Eddie Griego, with Joe Escobedo and Roy Henderson, second.

Three-legged race for girls was won by Linda Jean and Willard Escobedo, with Linda Huey and Dorothy Barber in second place. Potato race for mothers was won by Eva Henderson and Cathleen Good, second.

The foot race, was won by Johnny Walker, with Alma Walker running a close second.

All boys' race, Robert Griego led with Johnny Walker second. Tiny tots, 3 to 5 years, was won by Sherry Good with Richard Vigil second.

5 to 8 race, Lino Escobedo and Sally Good came in first and second.

A tug-of-war with the boys challenging the girls ended the day's contests.

White Oaks Rodeo

The Fourth of July rodeo at White Oaks drew an unexpectedly large crowd of both spectators and contestants who very nearly overwhelmed the new Roping Club.

However, members and friends rose to the occasion, assisting in handling stock, taking tickets, working the chutes, selling cold drinks and keeping time and books on twice the number of contestants expected.

Deaths in May numbered 475 compared to 457 a year ago. There were 67 infant deaths bringing the total to 408 this year to date, compared to 418 in the same period last year. Many do not answer when they hear opportunity knocking because they know he is invariably accompanied by that tough partner of his, work.

It's an odds-on bet that no matter where an intercontinental airliner may crash, there will be some Americans aboard. Americans have the itchiest feet of anybody.

"Whatever became of bay windows on houses?" asks a columnist. They went straight and became picture windows.

"Which is the stronger motivating force—religion or patriotism?" asks a writer. Religion is. Just imagine the Government's trying to finance its activities on the basis of voluntary contributions!

"Man Falls Out of Tree into Well."—Headline. This is just another example of the truth of the adage that trouble never comes singly.

There are about as many fatal accidents in the home as in traffic, but getting killed at home is invariably less expensive and far less embarrassing.

It is often the case that a person refuses to face facts because he doesn't wish to turn his back on his prejudices.

"Stars are sparkling at the rate of about one a month," says an astronomer. Things seem to be going to pieces all over.

Of course, the saying that fish is good brain food is in error. Fish eat fish and they're smarter than almost anybody.

Both in nature and in economic life, the ultimate conqueror is the worm.

Best Room!
JUST ONE OF 7 Big Bests Chevrolet offers you over any other car in this field!

Take a tip from the experts... in their own words... and from on-the-record facts and figures: More than ever, Chevrolet gives you more than any other of the leading low-priced three! More room to relax in, for instance. A sampling of official dimensions reported to A.M.A. makes this clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for one thing, is up to 5.7 inches wider than comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

Best Brakes Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy out-stopped both of the "other two" in a NANCART-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

Best Style It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Best Engine Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvair V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "... surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Ride MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself instantly, once you take the wheel.

Best Economy No doubt about this: two Chevrolet 6's won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car, 23.55 miles per gallon—with Powerglide.

Best Trade-In Check in any N.A.A.C. Guide Book. Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $126 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

Teensters
Union No. 1
By PAM REID

Colorado Springs, Colo., July 6—This town is no longer a town, it's a city! The population of C. S. when I left it about 1955 was around 50,000 and today it is over 100,000! They really don't know how big it is, actually, but according to gas connections, utilities, etc., it is over 100,000. Boy, O boy! I feel like a real little frog in a big pond!

One thing I liked about Carri-zozo—it made me feel big even if I wasn't. People in Carri-zozo make you feel like you "belonged" but here—! Oh sure, there's some nice things about a big town—a few more advantages maybe, more things to do and so forth.

I went to a teenage dance with my brother Ellery the very day I arrived (the 1st). They have one every Wednesday and Saturday night. It costs 75 cents to get in but they give you a record free (well, it's included in the price of admission). I didn't have too much fun. It wasn't like Carri-zozo where I know everybody and can dance every dance.

Didn't think I'd start missing Zozo so soon—but there it is! Guess I'll get into the swing of things soon. Got two little letters since I've been here—that's not very many! One of them was sort of personal; but I can quote a little of it, anyhow. The other one speaks for itself. Here 'tis:

Dear Pam: That advice from Sylvia to me about the boys making passes at me. She says that no boy makes a "pass" unless he's encouraged to do so. I can tell that Sylvia doesn't know much about men! Or else, and I hesitate to say this, she's going with guys I wouldn't look at twice.

If a man has any gumption at all he'll try! That's human nature. If he doesn't even try—then I don't have much to say for him! My complaint is not about a guy "trying"—you never get anywhere if you don't try; my complaint is that these fellows want everything given to them on a silver platter and if it doesn't come easy then they give up! It's not flattering to have a guy give up the minute he gets a little opposition.

"Are You a Big Thinker"

By Frank Alsup
(poet-low-rate)

Fellow, do you have a man
To be a man among men
A man who thinks for himself
Do you want to be adored
Instead of just bored
Like a has-been who sits on a stool?

Would you be one of those Whose popularity grows
Like the willows alongside the lake
You don't need a board
Or a car that's high geared
You need an Alsup's cake

They don't find it expedient
To use a secret ingredient
Or remove calories to keep you thin

You'll rear back and say
They're good all the way
And you'll wear a manly grin

You can let your fatten
That when you are through
Not a crumb will you let go to waste

For the man about town
They're the cake of renown
They have a thinking man's texture
And an eating man's taste

In Carri-zozo, order your cakes from Thornton's Grocery.

I don't believe there is such a thing as "platonic friendship" between a girl and boy—if they're normal, I'm not interested in being a "pal" to the boys. I want to keep my unique position as a female with all the attention and concessions made to me that a good-looking girl deserves. I want 'em to get going and really try and if they don't then I think something is wrong with me and I want to know why!—Gladys.

Dear Gladys: There's something wrong with your ideas—but I don't know exactly what. I have plenty of "platonic" boy friends—maybe there's something wrong with me! Let's have some comments on this, gang. Question: It is better to be platonic and puzzled or teased and tense? Would really like to know! Pam.

The last part of the personal letter I mentioned stated: "I heard they were going to fix up the tennis courts so they could be used at night. What I want to know is WHEN? Some of that 'recreation money' could be used to really renovate the tennis courts—after all, evening is the best time to play tennis."

As a junior-high-school teacher distributed the first report cards of the year she noticed that one blond teenager was scowling.

"What's the matter? Aren't you satisfied with your report?" she asked.

"I certainly am not," said the girl. "You gave me an F in Sex and I didn't even know I was taking it!"

Write soon. Remember that address, 321 East Bijou, Colorado Springs, Colo., c/o Fern Simpson.—Love, Pam.

Lightning May Strike Twice in Same Place

Washington—Contrary to popular belief, lightning frequently strikes twice in the same place.

A lightning bolt is not a single spark, weather scientists say, but a salvo hitting one spot in rapid succession. Furthermore, the bolts favor certain targets year after year. They have hit New York City's Empire State building hundreds of times, the National Geographic Society says. But occupants aren't worried: the steel-ribbed building acts as a giant lightning rod.

Less well protected are the nation's forests where lightning starts about 7,500 fires a year at a cost of more than $25 million. In addition, some 400 Americans are killed each year by lightning.

To save lives and property, meteorologists are studying the growth of thunderstorms in the hope that man can some day control lightning. This year scientists will seed clouds with dry ice and silver iodide, record electric currents and count lightning strokes.

Some scientists believe they can now modify the form of a cloud and its electric field, though they aren't sure they can really avert lightning.

Indian lands and reservations in New Mexico total 6,486,163 acres. This is 8.35% of the state's total area.

Annual Dinner at Eagle Creek Lodge

The annual dinner was held at the lodge with a large crowd attending. The food was good and plentiful and contributed to the success of the affair.

A business meeting followed with the election of officers for the coming year. Basil Ryan of El Paso was re-elected president. Hugh Puckett of Roswell re-elected vice-president and Al Swanson of El Paso was again chosen for secretary-treasurer.

A new member, E. J. Stratton of Tucuman, was put on the board of directors to serve with the other members for the coming year.

The board, in addition to Mr. Stratton, consists of Basil Ryan, Al Swanson, Marcus Waltermire and R. Jack Stewart of El Paso; Hugh Puckett, Roswell; Hamilton McRae, Midland; Charlie Nabours, Cameron, Texas, and Alan Johnson, Carri-zozo.

It was decided also to redecorate the lodge. The home owners were reminded that the forest regulations must be complied with in so far as rock or cinder block foundations are concerned.

There were many arrivals at Eagle Creek Lodge for the holiday week end. They were: Maggie Randal, Hattie Coffee, Faye Selger, the Marcus Waltermire family, the Basil Ryans, Mrs. Jack Ryan, Mrs. J. L. Al Swanson and George Dingwall were in Carri-zozo Tuesday for the day.

The Jack Parnells went to Alamogordo July 1, with the F. B. Lindamoods to attend a dinner at Desert Aire given in honor of Mrs. Bea Voorhees who retired from the Orogrande post office. Her friends and postmaster associates presented her with a beautiful turquoise pin and ring to show their love and respect for a wonderful woman as well as a fine postmaster.

The Stanley Hightowers of El Paso and the George Hightowers of Silver City are visiting Mrs. W. N. Hightower.

The Charlie Feebles took their grandchildren Donna, Jim and Marshall to the rodeo in Capitan July 4.

CAPITAN

By MARGARET RENCH

Rev. Don Minich, a senior student of Albuquerque arrived June 15 to take care of the ministry of the Methodist Church for the summer, then he will go to McMurry College in Abilene, Texas, to finish his studies. He makes his home in the Methodist parsonage. Welcome to Capitán. We wish you much success with us.

Ernest Weise is home with his wife and children at this time, arriving last Friday. He has been overseas for some time.

Dixie Sparks spent last week end in Alamogordo with friends. Tommy Hall of Albuquerque arrived last Thursday and spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall. He is working in Albuquerque and this is his first trip since Easter.

Joe Rensch was called to Roswell to meet his son who was going to be there for the night. They enjoyed dinner together and a good visit. Junior left on the plane for his home in Houston, Texas. He had been in Hobbs on business, and came to Roswell to visit his father. It was a little too far to come to Capitán for the time he had.

Dance for Smokey Saturday, July 11

A Smokey Bear dance will be held Saturday, July 11, at the American Legion Hall in Capitán. Music by Prather and Jones. Let's make this one of the biggest and best one. Remember, all proceeds after the music is paid go for the building of the Smokey the Bear Museum.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cheney of the Conoco station donated an account of $20 to the Smokey Bear Museum. That was for gasoline and oil used in getting the logs and other materials. Thank you sincerely.

Friday, July 3, there was a baseball game here. Our Smokies vs. the Carrizozo Pony League. Carrizozo won 9 to 1.

Fort Stanton played Mescalero there last Sunday. Mescalero won, 8 to 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Dockray and son of Albuquerque spent last week end here visiting his brother (Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dockray) and his sister Cuple (Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kendrick) who had been here at the home of Mrs. Maude Clark for a week. They had not seen each other for years. All left Sunday after a grand visit.

Name Changed to Smokey Bear Motel

The Mountain Valley Motel has changed its name to the Smokey Bear Motel. It is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Holmes. The neon sign is not quite completed. The glass lettering is now being made.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes have moved their office to their home on the west near by the motel. Where the office was makes another unit.

Their home has been redecorated and the office added. It is beautiful inside. They will enjoy being in a home again. It faces the Capitán on the east. They can sit on the porch and enjoy the beautiful scenery in the cool of the evenings.

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Quarez spent last week end in Socorro, visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ward of Morton, Texas, spent the Fourth holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall, and Nancy. They left last Tuesday afternoon after Nancy had enjoyed a good birthday dinner and her cake for that 13 years. Happy birthday young lady. She went home with the Ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Greathouse of Causey, N. M., spent Sunday, June 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hall. Their daughter Cheryl had been here with Nancy. After driving over the country with the Halla they went home, with praise for an enjoyable day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thompson and Charles of Mt. Edgecumbe, Alaska, are spending five weeks visiting relatives and friends in Texas and New Mexico. They have been in Alaska for four years and expect to be there four more. They like it so much there. They were formerly employed at Fort Stanton. Was nice seeing you. Come again.

Three Day Rodeo Was Big Success

The three day rodeo held here over the holidays was a success and had a large crowd attending. It was wonderful to see lots of people here on the 3rd, 4th, and 5th. It was a reminder of the days of long ago when Fort Stanton had a rodeo and thousands of people attended. We hope pure grows as that did. We know it will if we do our part to make it enjoyable.

Remember the Fair, September 11th and 12th here. Be sure to be working toward that goal.

Mrs. Bina and children returned to Texas with relatives last Monday to visit relatives and friends there for a few days.

Mr. Ida Mae Laif and two sons of Delta, Colo., spent several days with Mrs. Ona Laif this past week. She was here over a month ago for quite some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Annarone are having a block fence built on the west of their home, between it and their business. That will protect their yard from the wind and dust. George McBride is building the good-looking fence. There is another new home to be under construction very soon.

We had a blowing northeast rain in Capitán last Monday afternoon which gave us 1 1/2 inches. It was just what we needed. Capitán has had rain all around us for several days but it rained here only at that time but it was a good one. Looking over our countryside from town, it is pretty and green. We are so grateful for the moisture.

Several new trailers with nice families moved here this past week end to take over on further construction on the highway.

Mrs. Ray Wilson of San Antonio, Texas, arrived last Friday, joining her husband who has been here for this summer at the home of

DIAMOND DUST

By J. J. C.

We arrived late from Carrizozo last Sunday and missed making the trip with the Fort Stanton Cubs to Mescalero.

A glance at the score tally informed us that the Apaches not only beat us at baseball, they out-danced, out-foxed and out-spurred us.

They had three Apaches in their lineup. The rest were college Cherokees from Oklahoma and Palefaces from the famed Alamo. As is customary, our boys lost

Tom Bragg in the mountains, regarding his health. They are traveling together now on a nice vacation, visiting relatives and friends over the State. She formerly was Ethel Harcrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wilson and their grandson, Tommy, went to Lovington June 19 to the bedside of a daughter, Mrs. John Adams, who was quite ill. Mr. and Mrs. John Adams are the proud parents of a daughter, Lora Gwart, weighing 6 lbs., 1 oz., born June 17, at the Hobbs hospital. The baby had convulsions while at the hospital. The doctors said he had walking pneumonia. His mother who is in the Service came home at once on an emergency leave. She is in the Army Medical.

Friday, July 10, the Wilsons are moving to Tucumcari. They have lived here since last October. We have enjoyed them so much. They are with the Armstrong Construction Company.

At this time his part of the work is over, so he will start another job in a new place. Good luck to you. They liked it with us of which we are happy to know.

the game in two innings, when the Red Hats scored four in the first inning and eight in the second. They made 18 to 4, all told, but those two innings were enough to get our boys in their shell.

When Luis Lopez comes here next Sunday we will ask permission to inject them with "high-life" before game time. We do not wish or intend to incite ill feelings, but if some of the lads feel the pangs and "fly off their handles," we'll just fold our bed-roll and transfer to the American League, scorebook and all.

The little Polecats fared better. They beat the Mescalero Papooses 5 to 3 in four innings.

"Meatball" Johnny Zamora, aside from catching like Ray Schalk of the old Chicago White Sox, hit a tremendous home run a la Babe Ruth. He was all smiles from ear to ear when we congratulated him. More power, Little Leaguers! Show your elders how it is done.

Carrizozo also lost to Mescalero on the Fourth by the score of 10 to 7.

The Apaches are so happy that they are still lighting "luminarias" and we can see their glow in the sky.

They'll have a fine and abundant crop of young bucks and squaws next spring.

Envious? Not the least!

Thanks to Phil Griego for his subscription to the Lincoln County News. Phil lost a brand new baseball at Luis Lopez when it went right through him and into the ditch. Hold on to it next time, Phil.

Fred Vigil and assistants have put out pennants all over the Fort and put up a big scoreboard on the visitor's side, obtained by Perry Zamora.

Mrs. Lacy is happy to announce that she now has ten members in her arithmetic class.

Lions Stop Rotary With Two-Hitter

In initial Little League play last Wednesday afternoon, the Lions topped the Rotary 8 to 0 on the two hit pitching of Robert Candalaria and home runs by Larry Davis and Victor Crawford. In the second game, cut short by darkness, the Fraternal Club outclubbed the American Legion 14 to 6. Diaz was the winning pitcher. Hitting homers for the American Legion were Cornelius and Garcia. However, this wasn't enough as Fraternal club got six singles, one triple and eight walks off American Legion pitching to win.

Yesterday (Wednesday) action called for the Rotary to play the American Legion at 5:30 and the Lions to meet the Fraternal Club at 8:30. Results of these games will be announced in next week's paper.

It is hoped that next week's games can be played under the lights. New poles and wire have been installed, but 22 reflectors ordered have not yet arrived. If these arrive before next Wednesday, the Rotary will meet the Fraternal Club at 7 p.m. and the Lions Club will meet the American Legion at 8:15 p.m.

Bleachers have been moved to the new field and it is anticipated that there will be a lot of support from the spectators for their favorite Little League team.

VI'S VIEWS

I received two very nice letters this week:

Dear Vi: My problem is a boy who runs around in our group. He doesn't like me at all, in fact he tells all my friends he hates me. I have never dated this boy but he used to be good friends. I don't know what happened but now he tries to turn all my dates against me. Can you tell me why? Sincerely, Confused.

Dear Confused: The boy you are talking about is probably a very mixed-up person. Just be nice to him, but don't try too hard and remember very few people listen to gossip—Vi.

Dear Vi: So other people think they have problems! Well, I'm in love with my best friend's steady. I know that she likes me a lot too, but she's afraid to hurt my friend and so am I. We've been seeing each other behind his back and I'm sure he doesn't know. Should I tell him or try to curb our feelings for each other?—Worried.

Dear Worried: Either this girl should break off with her steady or you should stop seeing her behind his back. I would suggest that you talk this over with your friend. It may seem hard now, but if you value his friendship you'll see that it will be easier for everyone concerned if you do before someone else does. Good luck—Vi.

Problems? Questions? All letters will be appreciated!

I would like to extend deepest sympathy to the Payton family of Tularosa for the loss of their ten-year-old daughter, Margaret Payton, who was drowned on July 2 at the Holloman recreation pool.

See you next week—Vi.

The town of Wagon Mound, N. M., gets its name from a wagon-shaped rock which was a landmark on the old Santa Fe trail.

The largest volcanic crater in the world is the Valle Grande, near Los Alamos, N. M. It measures 16 miles in diameter and encompasses 176 square miles.

Trade over the Santa Fe trail reached its peak in 1831, when 130 wagons made the trip from Independence, Mo., to Santa Fe, N. M., carrying cargo valued at $250,000.

Having a big 4th of July visiting and riding horseback through the week were the Currell boys from Tucuman and a cousin, Roberta Bower and friend Leita Dodds. At the Currell cabin for a rest this week were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Currell and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bower and their families.

Laura Joe Swift, and Bryan Swift and dad, R. M. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Cazier last week. Laura Joe rode horseback, too.

Albert Scharf from Carrizozo was also seen on the Bonito Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff May and daughter from Carrizozo camped on Bonito creek this week and their daughter had fun riding

News Notes from Along the Bonito

By LOUISE RUNNELS

The weather was beautiful on the Bonito for the 4th of July picnickers and campers. It rained some over the week end, but not a real hard one like came on Tuesday and that we needed—we had 1 1/2 inch.

Jim McClellan, game warden from Roswell, helped Charlie Bird check fishing licenses over the holiday week end. Most fishermen who stopped by Bonito City reported fair fishing and were satisfied except for camping areas. They paid $1 permit to camp or picnic and had to move from places where they camped and picnicked last year. One gold fish was persuaded to come out the Bonito Dam over the week end that weighed 30 pounds and was still gold. Mr. McClellan, game warden, took it to Roswell. It was a curiosity because gold fish usually turn the color of carp at about four pounds—a brown color.

A 4th of July day in Nogal at the beautiful yard at Mr. and Mrs. John LaMay's home was celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. L. R. LaMay, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Nagy and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred LaMay, Mr. and Mrs. James Snow and family, Mrs. Austin Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaMay and daughter and her guest, Nancy Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy LaMay and family, Jeanine Johnson of El Paso and friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Morris and nephews from Lubbock, and Mr. McMahon and son from Fort Worth, and Bob Goff of El Paso, Cora Dutton was there and little Mary Lou Runnels. These folks were lucky to have such a pretty yard in which to relax over the rushing holiday.

At the Collin Walker home on the Bonito over the 4th of July were Jerry and Eugene Whitaker, and Mrs. Jimmie Sikes and Sheri Lin all of El Paso and Tommy Whitaker from Corpus Christi; Sandy Whitaker from Tulsa, Texas, and Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Tarpley of Plainview, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phillips and family, and friends from Tularosa camped in Bear Canyon over the holidays. Mrs. Phillips' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Posey of Carrizozo joined them part of the time.

Don Marr from Tularosa fished at Bonito Dam on Monday. Don is out of the Service now and is at home.

It was a real pleasant surprise to have Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stegall and some of their family from Bronco, Texas, visit Bonito City the 4th. They subscribed to Lincoln County News. They stay here and still have many friends here that they like to read about. Mrs. Stegall was the former Alice Neal.

Bab Shook from Las Cruces was on the Bonito Saturday and planned to go to the horse races. He said Mr. and Mrs. Shook are still in Las Cruces. Mr. Shook has been in Hotel Dicu after having an operation on one eye. He is better.

Coaches Hasler, Gutherie and Stratton from Capitan were on the Bonito fishing last week.

Buster Luck from Capitan told me he hadn't been up to Bonito this year to fish 'cause in my column I always say who's fished—but don't say they took fish home. You're a wise boy Buster, but lately some have been catching fish and no foolin'!

Mr. and Mrs. Don Adams from Artea were on the Bonito last week. Mrs. Adams is Mrs. Herbert Reddy's niece, and they have visited some with the Reddys at Ruidoso Downs.

Having a big 4th of July visiting and riding horseback through the week were the Currell boys from Tucuman and a cousin, Roberta Bower and friend Leita Dodds. At the Currell cabin for a rest this week were Mr. and Mrs. Forest Currell and Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Bower and their families.

Laura Joe Swift, and Bryan Swift and dad, R. M. visited with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Cazier last week. Laura Joe rode horseback, too.

Albert Scharf from Carrizozo was also seen on the Bonito Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff May and daughter from Carrizozo camped on Bonito creek this week and their daughter had fun riding horseback. Duff reported "fair" fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coe from Ruidoso, Bert Stearns and Lloyd's son, Monte took a chance at seeing a good rodeo and went to Capitan for the rodeo the Fourth, and said it was really a fine rodeo—stock, clown and Capitan hospitality—and a big crowd.

The wild west up Bonito Canyon combat at the old Parsons mine Hotel but no one was hurt much. It seems there was an argument over who was older—Tom Bragg or Severo Gallegos of Ruidoso. The cop's siren going up the canyon after a phone call sorta raised excitement.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Philippe of Ruidoso were over to White Oaks Saturday to visit the town and cemetery, then on back by Capitan rodeo and Bonito City. They had an interesting trip they had planned to make for a long time. They have been in Lincoln county 11 years and have built a real photography business in Ruidoso. Louis is an expert on portraits. They were celebrating their 32nd wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crawford and children from Jal spent the week end at the "Jal Dudes" cabin in Bear Canyon.

Mrs. Flora Mae (Cunningham) Reed of Huntington Beach, Calif., and two daughters are in Lincoln county visiting Flora's friends, and sister, Mrs. Jeanette Browning and family. She spent a few hours at Bonito City. She and I usta put hamburgers together at Ruidoso Junction 23 years ago, when Ruidoso was just a pup.

A Ruidosian, J. W. Peterson, who has worked for Southwest Irrigated Cotton Growers in El Paso for four years and J. D. Sanders of Alamogordo fished at Bonito Lake this week.

Charlie Pfingsten and son Charles from Lubbock are in Lincoln county for a few days. They and Ben Pfingsten went up to Parsons Hotel to visit Tom Bragg Saturday and this week they plan to go back and go horseback with Tom up to the top of Nogal Peak. Charlie likes to remember the days he spent as a young boy camping out in the hills up here, building fences for the Forest Service—and he still loves these hills where he was raised.

Linda (Witham) Hayes, the new bride on the Bonito and Sharon Hayes came to Bonito City the 4th to show us the new car she and Johnnie got each other for a wedding present. It was one of those new little things that gets wonderful gas mileage, a "Volkswagen". The two are happily settled at Angus.

Mr. and Mrs. Duff May and daughter from Carrizozo camped on Bonito creek this week and their daughter had fun riding horseback. Duff reported "fair" fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Coe from Ruidoso, Bert Stearns and Lloyd's son, Monte took a chance at seeing a good rodeo and went to Capitan for the rodeo the Fourth, and said it was really a fine rodeo—stock, clown and Capitan hospitality—and a big crowd.

PROGRESSIVE BUSINESS AND CIVIC-MINDED PEOPLE OF ROSWELL AND VICINITY

This department has been worked up largely as a reflection of public opinion. No person has written of themselves or their business. All articles have been compiled by a representative of the Lincoln County News as he saw conditions. These people are leaders in their various lines of endeavor and the co-operation of these citizens in Roswell who helped to make this department possible is sincerely appreciated.

Ima M. Jones

The true value of a citizen is not gauged by her personal success, but rather by the manner in which she shares that success by her contributions to the community in which she lives. A city grows and flourishes according to the number of public-spirited men and women who compose its population.

And Ima M. Jones, well known and completely reliable taxidermist, is one of those women who has given much toward the development of Roswell and vicinity. She has turned her personal success in the business field to the advantage of the people as a whole, and has accomplished much toward making the city a better place in which to live.

Her thorough knowledge of every phase of the taxidermy business has raised her to a position of leadership in her field of activities, and gained for her recognition as one of the city's more progressive business women. We compliment Ima Jones in this Roswell review, and wish to offer her this small evidence of public esteem.

Frank LePell and H. K. Holland

To those progressive business men who have also taken a part in civic affairs, we owe a debt of gratitude that we very often find difficult to repay. However, we can do so in part by publicly acknowledging their many services and we take this opportunity to pay a brief tribute to Frank LePell and H. K. Holland of the Mason Funeral Home Incorporated. In so doing, we express the sentiment and feelings, not only of the community, but also those people who have been actively associated with them in business or civic affairs.

Mr. LePell and Mr. Holland's time is almost wholly occupied by their own affairs. Yet, there has never been an occasion when they have been called upon by the people of Roswell and vicinity to assist some civic projects, that they have not responded and helped to the fullest extent of their ability to further that project. Thus they have frequently sacrificed their own personal interests to promote some worthy cause.

Because of these things, H. K. Holland and Frank LePell have proven themselves to be good and loyal citizens of whom their city and this district have every reason to feel justly proud.

Robert F. Wright

Because this is a period of growth and expansion for Roswell, those progressive business men who had the foresight and ability to lay their plans so as to be able to take advantage of those conditions, are entitled to more than ordinary acclaim. We are therefore, glad to pay tribute to Robert F. Wright of the Roswell Trailer Works, for he has become a well-known figure in the business and industrial life of the city.

Mr. Wright's persistent optimism and steadfast belief in the continued future prosperity of the people of Roswell and vicinity are characteristics which are deserving of our highest praise.

Robert Wright has also always shown a willingness to do his part in civic advancement, and has contributed his bit, in one form or another, to projects promoted for the welfare of the city. We believe that a business man of this kind is entitled to our sincere praise, both because he has achieved success in his private affairs, and because he is willing to contribute to the public good.

Glyn Holloway

In singling out some of the more progressive business men of Roswell, we would be remiss should we fail to include Glyn Holloway of the Gemale Store. He is a man who has never spared himself in his participation in both the business and civic activities of the city.

Mr. Holloway has always been conscious of his civic responsibilities, and is ever ready and willing to meet in every detail, those opportunities which come to his attention to further civic enterprises. He may well be proud of his achievements along these lines.

Glyn Holloway deserves a great deal of credit for the honest and successful manner in which he has conducted his business affairs. He is a friendly and likeable personality, whose sincere desire to be of service has gained for him a host of friends and satisfied customers in and around Roswell who would, if given the opportunity, join us in wishing him many more years of continued success.

James P. Golden

Recognized as one of the more progressive business men of Roswell, James P. Golden of the Ozarka Water Company, performs a real service for the people of his city, and his contributions to civic betterment are too well known to require repetition in these columns.

His personal success has been achieved, in a large measure, because he never misses an opportunity to further the service he renders to the public. A policy which has, and continues to build up good will for Ozarka Water Company throughout this entire district.

Mr. Golden is deserving of praise, and this small tribute is but a just recognition for the many services which he has performed in the way of both business and civic activities. Also his reputation for the successful conduct of his business affairs is no greater than his reputation for the honest practices which characterize his every transaction.

We congratulate James Golden on his splendid record, and trust he shall continue to serve the people of Roswell and vicinity.

Stephen T. Burr

It isn't the size or volume of a man's business which determines its value to the community in which he lives. But rather by the manner in which it is conducted. Which, to a greater or lesser degree, reflects the personality and character of the individual. The value of Stephen T. Burr's business to his city is a reflection of his progressiveness and a determination to render the utmost in service, a policy which has caused Burr's Department Store to be so well thought of, and so widely patronized by the people of Chaves and Lincoln counties.

That same progressiveness and ability which has made him so successful in his own business has also fitted Mr. Burr to be of assistance on community projects and public drives. Moreover, he does so cheerfully and with a friendly spirit of cooperation that is always more than welcome.

It is a pleasure to include Stephen Burr in this Roswell review, and to wish him further success in his field of endeavor.

F. V. Martinez

There are many men in their chosen fields who have gained recognition for the progressive manner in which they have conducted their business, and accepted their civic responsibilities but who will not permit much to be said of their achievements.

But in reviewing a group of such citizens, we should include F. V. Martinez of the Five Point Drug, for he is a man who has always done his work effectively even though it has been accomplished in an unobtrusive manner.

Mr. Martinez, busy as he is, always manages somehow or other to do his bit in any movement calculated to benefit the community as a whole. His modesty however, will not permit him to say the things about himself which are said by his friends, who do so because of a personal knowledge of his activities.

We do not hesitate to recommend F. V. Martinez to our readers as a citizen who continues at all times to work to the advantage of the people throughout this entire district.

Earl "Red" Worley

In critical times such as these, it takes business men of more than average ability to carry on their operations successfully. In making this statement the man we have in mind is one of Roswell's more dependable mobile homes dealers, Earl "Red" Worley of Worley's Mobile Homes Incorporated, who has a large circle of personal friends and customers scattered throughout this entire district—many of whom reside in our own community.

His contagious optimism and freely expressed belief in the assured future prosperity of the people of Roswell and its metropolitan trading area, are characteristics which are to be appreciated in a progressive business man. He has always taken an interest in community affairs, and has shown a willingness to shoulder his share of the civic load.

It is men like "Red" Worley who, because of the successful conduct of their business and private affairs and their willingness to contribute to the public good, are worthy deserving of a few words of commendation. It is a pleasure to pay him this brief, but sincere tribute.

H. H. Reeves

H. H. Reeves is one of the more successful restaurant operators of Roswell who, by maintaining a constant standard of service and high quality foods, has made the Norton Coffee Shop, one of the more popular eating places in the community. We are glad to give him credit for his well-earned success in a field which is so highly competitive.

It is also a pleasure to give him credit for taking part in community affairs and lending his assistance to various activities and public projects. When to take part in such matters he always does so without ostentation, but in a quiet manner which lends dignity to his cheerful acceptance of his share of the civic load. It is a pleasure to be associated in the promotion of community activities with such a man as Mr. Reeves.

This review of progressive and civic-minded people of Roswell would not be complete were we to fail to include H. H. Reeves. His is the kind of success which deserves recognition, and we wish him many more years of the same.

A. M. Cowden

A. M. Cowden, the manager of the Roswell Tire Service Incorporated, distributors of Gates Tires in Southeastern New Mexico, has won the universal respect and good will of the people of Roswell and the surrounding country for the progressiva manner in which he has kept the firm in the forefront of the business and industrial life of this entire district.

Also for the efficient and friendly willingness he has displayed in accepting his share of responsibility in aiding civic projects.

Mr. Cowden is not the kind of man who makes himself conspicuous by the manner in which he conducts himself, either in business or other matters. Yet, his quiet reserve and air of confidence mark him as a man of sound judgment whose opinions and advice are sought after and listened to with respect.

We compliment A. M. Cowden for the successful management of the Roswell Tire Service, and also for his constructive advice and help on those civic affairs in which he has found time to interest himself. He is a man whom many are proud to call friend.

Joe J. Scavarda

Every progressive and successful business man in Roswell contributes in some manner to the growth and progress of the city. And a man who is always willing to do his part in both civic and business activities is Joe J. Scavarda of Scavarda's Town & Country, who is well known and has many friends and satisfied customers throughout this entire district.

The prominent part that Scavarda's Town & Country is playing in the business and recreational life of Roswell and vicinity mirrors the progressiveness and ability of such men as he. Moreover, Mr. Scavarda has also at all times been steadfast in his devotion to the city, and the surrounding country and on many occasions, has lent his support to the successful promotion of meritorious civic projects.

Roswell and this district are fortunate to have such a man as Joe Scavarda in a position of responsibility and service, and this newspaper feels that it merely reflects public opinion in paying this brief tribute to one of the city's more progressive business men.

R. D. Callens

R. D. Callens of Associated Callens Flying Service, has a well-earned reputation for progressiveness because he has consistently forged ahead in his business, never letting up in his efforts to make the service he renders to the people more valuable. This invariable policy has made the Associated Callens Flying Service, authorized Piper Sales & Service, outstanding in its field, a fact that is well known to the public throughout this entire area.

But Mr. Callens has accomplished much more than just making a success of his business and private affairs, and we take this opportunity to pay tribute to him for devoting what time he could spare to the general welfare, not only to the city, but this entire district as well.

It is such men as he, who are both successful in business and appreciative of their civic obligations that are deserving of recognition. We take pleasure in publishing this review of R. D. Callens and his associates who have long assisted him.

Rosendo Casarez

We wish in this edition to pay tribute to Rosendo Casarez of the La Bonita Drive In, for his many services to the city of Roswell, and his splendid record of achievements in the business life of the city.

Mr. Casarez probably has as wide a circle of friends as any other man we could name, because he is just naturally the kind of man who makes friends with almost everyone, and always conducts himself in such a manner as to deserve the respect and good will of all who know him.

Roswell is fortunate in being able to number, among its more progressive business people, citizens of this type. He is always ready and willing to lend his support to the promotion of any project which promises to benefit this entire district.

He may be depended upon, and his services to the people are too many in number to be described here. It may be sufficient to say that we consider Rosendo Casarez an asset to the community, and a progressive business man of whom his city may be proud.

Arthur W. Hirst

Our issue today proposes to call the attention of our readers to some of those progressive and civic-minded people who have contributed their share of time and energy to the building up of Roswell and the surrounding territory to the position of prominence which it now enjoys.

One of these men whom we wish to present to our readers is Arthur W. Hirst of the Art Hirst TV Service, whose success can equally be attributed to his business acumen and his knowledge of electronics, with special emphasis on radio and television.

He has never spared himself in his aggressive march forward in both business and technical fields, and is a qualified expert in the service and installation of all types of television sets and antennas.

Mr. Hirst's record of achievement is one of which he may well be proud. His value to his city and this district is an established fact, and we are happy to give him the credit which is his just due.

Willie Goree

It is appropriate that we include in this review of progressive Roswell business men, Willie Goree of Bill's Trading Post, who has many friends and satisfied customers living in the rural areas outside of the city. Furthermore, he is a man who not only has the reputation of being progressive, but also the added one of being a willing supporter of many community affairs.

Aside from his business activities, Mr. Goree has always shown an interest in the civic betterment and progress of the city, and has backed up his interest by his contributions to many projects which have benefited Roswell and the surrounding trade area. He is a good and loyal citizen, and the full measure of his loyalty is most apparent because of his willingness to aid community activities.

His help along these lines has made of Willie Goree an example of the type of man we all appreciate. We congratulate, and extend to him on behalf of all citizens interested in better business and civic progress, sincere appreciation for his contributions to the general welfare of Roswell and vicinity.

W. R. "Bill" Greene

Good motels and tourist courts are indispensable to the progress and development of a growing city such as Roswell. And the Greenhaven Courts, combining the best features of both, has accommodated a great many tourists and business men in a manner that assures them of the continued patronage and good will of the motoring public.

The management of the Greenhaven Courts has maintained an ideal of service which is thoroughly exemplified by the manner in which every need of the traveling motorist has been anticipated and prepared for. Nothing is forgotten, and hospitality and service is always their first and last considerations.

Much of the credit for the splendid reputation of these modern drive-in courts is due to the executive ability of W. R. "Bill" Greene, whose untiring efforts, foresight, and careful attention to detail, have maintained a standard of hospitality and service which would be difficult to surpass. It is a pleasure to publish these few words of praise about the Greenhaven Courts, and the friendly cooperation, "Bill" Greene.

C. L. Crowe

Performing an outstanding service for the people of Roswell and the surrounding territory, C. L. Crowe, Special Agent for Banker's Life & Casualty Company, whose office is now located at 2000 West First, may be contacted by calling Main 2-8177, has achieved an enviable reputation for his progressive policies of business administration. His constant study of insurance problems in relation to the protection the people both need and can afford, have been important factors in his well-earned success.

Mr. Crowe is a man of ideas, and he is as practical as he is progressive in putting those ideas to beneficial use in furthering the service he renders to the people. His sound business judgment and unwavering honesty are characteristics which place him in the front rank of the business leaders of his city. Yet he is unassuming and modest in his personal contact with the people; always ready to listen to their ideas and desires.

We are glad to pay tribute to progressive citizens of this type, for it is such men as C. L. Crowe, who have caused Roswell to become recognized as the metropolitan center for this section of New Mexico.

Roger L. and Jeanette Harkey

In compiling this review of progressive Roswell business people, we have endeavored to select those citizens who, by the manner in which they have conducted themselves and their businesses, have earned for their positions of leadership in their various fields of activities. Two such people are Roger L. and Jeanette Harkey of the Queen Bee Drive-In, located at 1213 North Main, who are well known and have many friends and satisfied customers throughout this entire district.

Mr. and Mrs. Harkey's main interests have not been solely confined to their own business and private affairs, but have also included their contributions, in one form or another, to those projects of a civic nature which come within the scope of their activities.

Jeanette and Roger Harkey's exploits in the business and civic life of Roswell and vicinity merits more than a passing attention, and the writer is privileged to pay this brief tribute to two people who well deserve more credit than is accorded them here.

Bob L. Ullrich

To become generally accepted as one of those dependable business men of Roswell, who can always be counted upon to recognize his duty to the community, and one who will readily back up his sense of duty by active participation in, or the support of worth-while civic movements is an honor that can be proudly borne.

Such a man is Bob L. Ullrich of the Ullrich Automotive, whose place of business has re-opened at its new and attractive location at 1715 East Second. In addition to his regular repair service, he now offers a complete line of automotive and tractor parts and supplies, wholesale and retail, and will give a special discount to farmers and ranchers.

Mr. Ullrich's friends are always more than glad to have his assistance, because of his constant cheerfulness, and the enthusiasm and optimism which he instills in his fellow men.

These same estimable attributes have also been applied by Bob Ullrich in the management of his business, with the outstanding success which is known to us all. It is our pleasure to give him all the credit which is his just due, and to include him in this review of progressive Roswell business men.

W. W. "Woody" Hair

It is a well-known fact that a man's true character must come through in his work whether in business or professional activities or in public life. So when a man conducts himself in such a manner as to cause the public to recognize in him certain qualities, over and above the average, he is deserving of a few words of praise. Such a personality is W. W. "Woody" Hair of Woody's Trim Shop, a leader in the business and civic life of Roswell.

In addition to being one of the city's more dependable business men, Mr. Hair was never a man to shirk his civic duties. More than that he entered ably and with enthusiasm and optimism into those civic affairs in which he has time to take a part. And seldom does he fail to find time to do his share.

"Woody" Hair deserves his share of credit for being one of those progressive citizens of Roswell who has contributed so substantially to the upward progress of the city. It is a pleasure to include him in this group.

J. O. "Dutch" Saunders

Logically a man who has earned the reputation of being one of Roswell's more dependable used furniture dealers would in so doing, have earned the friendship and good will of a great many people throughout this entire district. A man who justly deserves this distinction is — modest, efficient, friendly J. O. "Dutch" Saunders of the South Side Furniture, who numbers many of our readers as some of his best customers.

Mr. Saunders is the type of man who would be an asset to any community, not only because the successful conduct of his business plays a definite part in the general civic scheme, but because the ultimate measure of his value to his city and this district lies in the fact that he is untiringly zealous, and remarkably successful in the promotion of civic progress.

It would be difficult to estimate the actual dollars-and-cents value of such a man to his community. We congratulate the people of Roswell for numbering among their more progressive citizens such a man as "Dutch" Saunders, and we also express the wish that he will enjoy many more years of success.

Melvin A. and Donald H. Craig

In every community there are a number of business and professional men who can be pointed out as having taken a three-fold part in the onward progress of their city. Two well known business men of Roswell who belong in this category are Melvin A. and Donald H. Craig of the Southwest Millwork & Manufacturing Company.

Their leadership in their line of business is recognized throughout this entire district. And their furtherance of civic activities and support of those organizations whose main objectives are directed along lines of civic betterment and community progress is well known to their immediate associates.

The Craig Brothers are men who are equally well liked and respected by their intimate friends and their associates. They are loyal to the community, thankful for their success in business, and have shown their appreciation by their contributions to various civic movements of benefit to the city.

We congratulate Donald and Melvin Craig for being good citizens, progressive business men and boosters of their community.

Mrs. Mertis Moore Alford

To serve the public honestly, efficiently, and cheerfully is the basic foundation many progressive business men and women of Roswell have found to be the shortest route to success. In making this statement, the person we have in mind is Mrs. Mertis Moore Alford of the Main Loan Company. The popularity and patronage, enjoyed by her many services accentuates the ideals of courtesy and efficiency which she has consistently applied in the management of the business and in the servicing of its patrons.

The conduct of such businesses, and the people who operate them, have done much to make Roswell the business center for many miles around, and it is fitting that we give credit where credit is due to such a woman as Mrs. Alford for her part in the onward progress of the city. In so doing, we are merely putting into words the opinions of those who know her.

She has earned her success by the method in which she has treated the public, and accepted both civic and business responsibilities, and we wish her every success in the future.

Joe and Virginia Miller

Joe J. and Virginia Miller of the Country Club Boarding Kennels, are two of those progressive type of citizens upon whom the community depends a great deal for leadership in business or other matters. They are also civic-minded and have, in the past, and no doubt will continue in the future to give more of their time and energy for the welfare of others than themselves.

They are the kind of people who make friends, and friendships once formed by them are never broken by an unfriendly act on their part, and they spare no efforts in order that their services to the surrounding area shall be more dependable.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller have never been known to neglect themselves into a situation for the mere purpose of gaining publicity. However, they proceed in a calm and unobtrusive manner, and accomplish their objectives with a quiet dignity. We do not hesitate to recommend Virginia and Joe Miller to our readers as good examples of the more progressive type of business people who have aided in the growth and development of Roswell and the surrounding country.

Don't be optimistic enough to expect favors from those who are under obligations to you.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Anderson

A city grows and prospers by reason of the public-spirited men and women who take an active interest in its development. Roswell has its share of these progressive and civic-minded people, and two who are deserving of recognition are friendly, likeable, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Anderson of the Shady Trailer Court.

Their business ability, coupled with a sense of obligation to the public have been major factors in maintaining the Shady Trailer Court in a position of leadership throughout this entire area. They not only in their business activities, but also in their attention to civic duty, assume an active part in community affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson have always been ready and willing to contribute their time and energy to the promotion of any project promising to benefit the community as a whole. They have often sacrificed personal interests to be of assistance to the city, and their efforts are deserving of commendation and support.

We congratulate the Andersons on their past achievements which, in our opinion, indicate similar successful careers in the years ahead.

Cecil and Marie Norman

Two restaurant operators of Roswell who have baked their success upon the belief that the public will appreciate good food, well prepared and appetizingly served, are Cecil and Marie Norman of Cecil's El Rancho Restaurant, whose many friends and customers by their daily patronage of their popular eating place, attest to the soundness of their policy.

It is not only because of the successful management of their El Rancho Restaurant that Mr. and Mrs. Norman have come to be recognized as assets to the community; but it is also because of their policy of "looking ahead," and endeavoring to sponsor or take part in those community activities which will, in some manner, benefit the city of Roswell and the people as a whole. They are two citizens who have shown their appreciation for their success by a willingness to contribute of their time and efforts to the promotion of community projects.

It is such people as Marie and Cecil Norman whom we are privileged to include in this review, and to publicly give them due credit for their success in business and civic affairs.

John Herring

We desire in this Roswell review to call the attention of our readers to the well-earned position which John Herring has reached in the business life of this section. During the comparatively short time he has been managing the Spudnut Shop in Roswell, he has made many personal friends as well as having earned the good will of his associates for the straight-forward manner in which he has conducted his business affairs.

Mr. Herring is working hard to deserve the confidence which the people of the community have in him, and he continues to work hard to maintain in every way, that high standard which he has set, not only for himself, but for the operation and management of the Spudnut Shop as well.

He has also shown a willingness to assist in every manner at his disposal in the growth and development of the city of Roswell, and is always ready to lend his support to civic projects. John Herring deserves our heartfelt congratulations on the splendid record he has already established, and we sincerely hope for his continued success.

John D. Blea and R. F. Vogel

Roswell has attained a prominent position in the business and civic life of this section of New Mexico because of the foresight of those men who had the ability to envision the possibilities of the community, and the trade area it serves. And two wide-awake progressive men who justly should be included in this category are John D. Blea and R. F. Vogel of the Blea Electric Company.

Such men have, many times over, proven their worth to the community, both as business men and as active workers in the civic betterment and progress of the city. And Mr. Blea and Mr. Vogel have earned the good will and respect of their fellow citizens for constructing their bit to the general welfare of the city and the people as a whole.

It is our duty to include R. F. Vogel and John Blea in that group of progressive and civic minded men who have done so much for Roswell, and to express the wish that they will continue for many years to keep ahead with the success which they have enjoyed in the past.

JEST IN FUN
A mother entered the supermarket with her four bouncing boys and pleaded: "Isn't there a cereal that will sap their energy?"
"The boss just offered me an interest in the business," the young clerk confided to the pretty stenographer. "He didn't," she asked in surprise. "Yeah," the young man replied reflectively, "He said if I didn't take an interest in the business pretty soon, he'd fire me."

White Man's Magic
A famed explorer was captured by savages in the wilds of South America. They were dancing around him in preparation for the kill when an idea struck the explorer—he would awe them with "magic." From his pocket he took a cigarette lighter.

"See," he said, "I am a fire-maker!" And with a flick of his thumb, the lighter burst into flame. The savages fell back in astonishment.

"Magic!" cried the explorer in triumph.

"Sure is," replied the chief. "Only time we ever saw a lighter work the first time!"

White Oaks Rodeo
The Roping Club expresses its thanks to all the above and any others who may not have been mentioned.

A sidelight of the show (which many folks missed in the rush and excitement) were five deer that stepped boldly out on the hill overlooking the arena and stood there for a long time to see the cause of all the noise below—more excitement than the old ghost town of White Oaks had seen for some time.

The winners of events, as reported to the News by Pat Dunning, were:

The Barre Double Mugging had to be called on account of darkness and any contestants who did not receive their refunds are asked to write Mrs. Zane Leslie at Capitax.

The White Oaks Roping Club also thanks the Corona Roping Club and the Best Roping Club who contributed roping calves for the show, and again, the Carrizozo treatment who donated the handsome belt buckles; also the post office who made it possible to receive the belt buckles in time for the show.

Speaking for the Roping Club, Pat Dunning said: "We are sorry the Department's Special Roping didn't come off, although Marvin Roberts and Marvin Hughes would have tied with a Buck Stealing perhaps next year."

White Oaks Today is Far Cry from Rip Roaring Days when Mining Town

By JOE S. CHAVEZ

We went to Carrizozo to spend the Fourth with Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Chavez and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Blount. From there we went to the big rodeo in White Oaks with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vega Sr.

When we arrived in White Oaks about 11 o'clock, a big party was formed, with the Vegas, Ray Warner, Bobby Mackey, Lloyd Vigil and George Sanchez families, Mrs. Higino Warner, Susie (Vega) English, Frances Warner and yours truly, and we proceeded to a place near Rabenton for a picnic dinner.

After enjoying the many and varied delicacies of home-cooking, we came back for the big and thrilling rodeo, which we enjoyed to the fullest extent. The events came off in rapid order and one we enjoyed in particular was the kid's scramble for a couple of small nanny goats. It took them a full half hour to catch the first one and the winner had to have three helpers to carry off his prize from the field.

The second goat was so exhausted (and so were the would-be cow boys) they tangled in their ropes and roped one another instead of the goat. To quote a woman standing next to us: "That poor thing will soon drop dead from a heart attack!"

But the goat's heart was stout and she was finally roped by a little girl, assisted by her father, who was more anxious than she.

We had plenty of good food left and we devoured that as soon as we left White Oaks, with an Indian dance for dessert.

The last time we were at White Oaks, about 30 years ago, we helped the late Nick Vega load a big burro in his pickup, and had it not been for Mrs. Jake Fulmer we would never have accomplished such a nerve-racking task!

We remember very little of old White Oaks (our birthplace) as a child, but the peace and serenity of the old ghost town is quite a contrast to the following story, as told to us by our brother, the late Saturnino Chavez.

It happened at a big Saturday night dance in Bonnell's Hall in White Oaks in the year 1897.

The jolly good people had gathered for the big affair and were swinging their feet, and left in quadrilles, when all of a sudden pandemonium broke loose.

Two new miners from old Mexico—Justo Salas and Jose Marillita—had arrived in White Oaks from their native land only a few weeks before. They chose that Saturday night to whomp it up and paint the town, Mexico style, with demijohns of firewater, yelling, blustering mouths and brandishing weapons.

When they came to the dance they were so plastered that they were refused admittance to the "400" dance. Salas pulled a big knife and, cursing and insulting everyone inside, he began slashing on the door frame with the menacing knife.

Jose La Luz Leal had been deputized as floor manager to keep the dancers in line and to restore order. He went to Salas and peacefully and with good diplomacy he coaxed the knife-wielding Salas to fold the weapon and put it in his pocket.

No sooner had he pacified the wild-eyed Salas when a shot rang out in the pitch darkness. It was the frail Indian Marillita, who had fired the shot in the air. He was staggering drunk and pointing the pistol in every direction. Leal grappled with him for the gun and as he grabbed it, it discharged and the bullet struck him in the pit of the stomach. He was rushed to his home and Dr. Paden summoned to his bedside. Everything possible was done for him, but he died before the break of dawn.

An angry mob had formed and had Marillita on the ground, stomping and hitting him with rocks and sticks, when deputies Langston, Dave Tinnon and Jose Chavez arrived in time to save his life. They arrested the instigator of that cruel mob and took the battered and unconscious man to his log shack. His head was a bloody pulp, but miraculously, Dr. Paden saved and prolonged his life.

Two deputies guarded him day and night for several weeks until he rallied and was well enough to stand trial at Lincoln. He was convicted of first degree murder and given life at Santa Fe, where he died shortly after, as the result of that cruel beating. Salas was also sent to prison and after serving a short time, he was deported to Mexico. The mobsters were given heavy fines.

The musicians at the dance were the famous Prof. Juan L. Reyes, Camunoz on the guitar, a flutist and a bass horn. Reyes was a graduate of the conservatory of music of Mexico City and was an expert on the violin, cornet, piano, guitar and other string instruments. He came to White Oaks with a Mexican circus in 1894. He married Chona Gonzalez Bueno and he and his musicians quit the circus and remained in White Oaks. He was a clerk in Sol Weller's store and taught music to a large class. Lorena Sager and Mrs. Albert Ziegler were two of his piano pupils. Lorena in later years was a director in the conservatory of music in Denver.

Reyes left White Oaks in 1908 and located at Anthony, N. M., where he operated a store and later went to Colorado. He taught Sat and Dionicio Guevara to play the guitar, and when his musicians left him they were his accompanists at dances. He made a present of his guitar to Sat when he left.

His brother, Ravo Reyes of El Paso, played in the viola section of the New York Philharmonic Orchestra.

Two brutal murders went unsolved in White Oaks in those years. A minor was on his way to work early one morning and he saw blood dripping out on the doorstep of a shack. He gave the alarm and on investigation, they found Bautista Barrera sprawled on the floor and shot several times, by unknown assailants.

Another murder victim was a Chinaman who was hacked to death with a hatchet and robbed in his own laundry. Two were arrested, but released for lack of sufficient evidence.

The unfortunate Chinaman's business partner, Ah Nue, outlived White Oaks and died of old age, 120 or 130 years. He still had a few chickens for company and you would always find him burning bones on his store for feed for his scrawny poultry.

Saturino worked for many years in Paul Mayer's livery stable and he, together with Eusebio Gurule, Ben Telles, Jesus Maria Padilla, Marcial St. John Sr., Prudenciano Pino and our father, delivered many a parcel of gold bullion to San Antonio by night. Sat drove the hack and the others followed, well-armed, on horseback, as body guards.

On one of the return trips they were accosted by two range riders on the Chupadero Mesa, when the large, bulky, covered with a tarp, aroused their suspicions. They searched the hack and found four quarters of beef, wrapped in the hide, but they had a bill of sale from Victor Salas as proof that they had purchased the steer and butchered it before proceeding to White Oaks.

It was late evening and they camped at the head of the Mal Pais, where the rangers partook of some of the beef, broiled over the hot embers of a big dry cactus fire. They watered early next morning at Indian Tank and continued their trek home.

In conclusion, we might add that the only survivors of old White Oaks residing in Carrizozo are Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lenson, Mmes. Rose and Antonia Telles, Jim Cooper, Joaquin Ortiz Sr., Maggie V. Chavez and Wm. Callacher. Of course, there is still D. L. Jackson, the Sentinel of Cedarvale, and Ward Leale.

Teenagers Elect New Club Officers

At an election last Friday night at the Country Club the teen-age group elected Millie Hodges president to succeed Bob Rickerson.

Wayland Hill was elected vice-president and Jennie Gott replaced Mary Alice King as secretary and treasurer.

The club decided, with the summer staff's approval, to dance every Friday night instead of two Fridays a month, beginning this Friday and continuing through the summer.

July dues of 25 cents will be charged this Friday night. Members are asked to bring records with their names on them tomorrow (Friday) night.

The "Knight Rockers" will play next week for the dance.

The Carrizozo Pony League team averaged a better loss to Capitax by defeating them 9 to 1 last week. Led by Pitcher Bobby Ortiz who hit a 30-foot home run, and tossed a one-hitter against Capitax, the Pony League will try to outdo on Thursday here and Capitax again Saturday, at home.

Capitax's game will be at 8:30 and Saturday's game at 3:30.
