Two "railroad" bridges burned less than a week apart—one eight miles north of Carrizozo and the other below Oscura. It was surmised that sparks from the locomotive ignited tumbleweeds that were lodged beneath the bridges. The Carrizozo town board contracted with Geo. J. Dingwall and Geo. T. McQuillen to install 22 electric street lights.

CLAUNCH

George Chambers, laundry employee, has returned from San Diego, Calif., where he spent several weeks receiving treatment for his eyes. He is doing much better, he reports.

Mrs. Henry Griego, who has been confined in the Carrizozo hospital for the past several weeks, is somewhat improved, according to her husband, who is one of the cooks in the Fort Stanton kitchen.

Mr. Merritt of Roswell visited his wife Evelyn here last Sunday afternoon.

Santos Velasquez went to her home in Lovington last week on emergency furlough.

The Apollonio Marquez family of Socorro visited Mr. Marquez and father Fabjan one day last week.

Gene McCommas was here from Hobbs last week and his wife, Lilly, returned with him on a visit to her home. Everyone will miss the McCommas' and we wish them health and good luck.

Joe Navarro, daughter Mary and son Pablo—and their families of Pueblo, Colo.—were here last week visiting the Mariano Navarro family of Carrizozo and the Tony Navarros of Fort Stanton. They have returned to Colorado, but Joe, who has been in falling health, remained in Carrizozo for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Petty were soon to move to Carrizozo, it was reported by the Alamogordo News. Fay Goodwin was in Carrizozo buying wool.

Pablo Chavez went home on furlough to Lemitar last week.

Kirby Lykens was here from Roswell last week for a short visit with Jim Robinson and other friends.

To quote the slogan used by Paul Dodge of the old Tucumcari Weekly News of years ago: "Discussed by many, cursed by a few, and read by all."

There was a good run-off of water in the Fort Stanton creek recently. Just like old times before the Bonito Dam was built and the water diverted to other points. Old Baldy has lots of snow and presents a very white appearance from here. We have seen it remain white at the summit, in years past, until early June.

We have some "smokes" coming from Benny Dalton, as Mrs. Dalton gave birth to a baby daughter in the Ruidoso hospital on March 25. Congratulations!

The grass and weeds have been burned on the baseball field and Manager Serafin Vigil has been taking some of the boys out for workouts, and to gradually work out the kinks from their muscles. The air is still somewhat chilly, so they must take it easy at first, lest they become sufferers from sore arms and legs. The fire boys had a good drill one morning and gave a diamond a soaking.

CLAUNCH

We are so glad to have Brack Sloan and family home again. At last report he was slowly improving.

Mrs. Dee Martin is visiting relatives in East Texas and Oklahoma. We are having dry, sunshiny weather in our vicinity now but we will be glad to get a good rain on the pastures.

Don't forget, the Fourth Sunday in this month the Torrance County singing will be at Claunch. A basket lunch will be served at noon. Be sure and come.

John and Stella Smith attended the state convention at Lovington last Sunday. They reported a good convention. The next one will be in Alamogordo in 1961.

along the hillside at the cabin sites have also been burned by the maintenance crew, thus eliminating a fire hazard.

Good work and you are to be commended, boys!

Nurse Mrs. Patricia Flatley and Orderlies Hernandez, Martin, Lopez and Torres have done quite a bit of spring clean-up and other improvements in No. 3, putting up new window curtains and placing paper towel dispensers in the bathrooms. Very nice!

The Perry Zamoras, Joe Escobedo and Tony Navarros are owners of new '60 Chevroltes. Henry Sanchez is driving a new '60 Chevrolet pickup. Undoubtedly they've been listening to the Dinah Shore Chevy Show.

Dr. H. C. Jernigan attended a TB Association meeting in North Dakota last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Anselmo Gutierrez went to Carlsbad last week to see Mrs. Gutierrez's sister, who was seriously ill.

Joe Henderson has been discharged from Fort Stanton. He was a member of the executive committee of Los Amigos Club and was quite active in the affairs of the club.

Joe Archuleta went to Las Vegas last week on furlough.

The painting crew has been applying a nice coat of paint on the second floor in Main-1, and also to Dr. Jernigan's office and the remodeled supply room.

Those having visitors recently were Ora Fisk, Jessie A. Durnes, Rosa Tambo, Fidella Castillo, Agapita Olivares and Virginia Soto. They are home on furlough.

Jack Dalling to Roswell, Mrs. Soledad Gonzalez to Hobbs and Mrs. Eva Lee Campbell, on a business leave.

School News: Rosa Carrol, Tobby Montoya and Helen Rodriguez are new students from No. 12. Good luck to Jimmy Bekis and Ray Thompson, who were discharged. Mrs. Lucy enjoyed the teachers' meeting very much. While in Socorro she visited her son and family near San Antonio—"Little Joe," reporter.

Lloyd Vigil of Carrizozo was a business visitor one day last week.

LINCOLN

Mrs. Bonnie Baker spent the week-end in the hospital in Roswell, but was able to come home with her mother, Mrs. McMichael, on Sunday.

The Lee Bealls are back in Lincoln to stay all summer (we hope).

Mrs. Bert Pfingster is again at the Medical Center in Roswell, this time to stay six days for a series of X-ray treatments, and will have to go back at later dates for further treatment. We are hoping that the treatments will complete the cure and that she will have no recurrence of her illness.

Mr. Hovey went to Alamogordo to visit friends and on to El Paso for a few days stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Brenton of La Paz spent Saturday night in Lincoln. They were here primarily for the Lincoln ditch meeting which was held Saturday evening, but enjoyed visiting in Lincoln, too.

Mrs. Rufina Maes feted on 78th birthday

Mrs. Rufina Maes celebrated her 78th birthday on April 3 at her home in Lincoln. Her daughter, Mrs. Maggie Diaz, who makes her home with her, gave a big dinner party in her honor.

Here to help Mrs. Maes celebrate the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Hilario Maes, the granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Koesage and daughter Christina of Alamogordo and Mr. and Mrs. Roman Maes of Lincoln.

She also received gifts from her sons Ernesto and Cruz and their families, who live in California.

"May you have many more 'Happy Birthdays,'" Mrs. Maes said. Margie Irish will be married to John R. Fraire on April 23 in El Paso. Margie's many friends wish her happiness.

The Jack Earlings were over from Capitan on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore and Mrs. Harry Orme-Johnson of El Paso were over at their Ruidoso home. On Saturday they went to Capitan to see Mrs. Corinne Province.

The L. J. Adams were here the past week-end from Canutillo.

Lawrence Peebles came home from Albuquerque Thursday from jury duty.

The Henry Hoffmans of Carrizozo were in the community on Friday.

The Bill Dingwalls of El Paso were visiting the George Dingwalls for the day last Thursday.

Mrs. Tommy Lemay stopped by Monday from over on the Bonito.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Bradley were here Friday, making a stop at the store.

Marvin Roberts stopped by Thursday on his way to Ruidoso from Carrizozo.

Louis Duggals stopped by to see the George Dingwalls last Wednesday.

Jim Ryan and Travis Maples were in Roswell last week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Dreedlove of Midland have been spending a few days in their Ruidoso home. On Thursday they were over this way, trying their luck at fishing in Eagle Creek.

Bonnie and Corby McEuen were in Roswell the past week-end. Bonnie went to bowl in the New Mexico Bowling Association tournament and Corby was going to visit the Earl Coopers.

The Mimms, Charlie and Lawrence Peebles attended the meeting at Navajo Lodge in Ruidoso last Monday when the Lincoln County Home Demonstration Clubs hosted the District IV meeting there.

J. R. Williams of Lancaster, Pa., and Merle Printkey of Albuquerque were here and in Ruidoso last week with the mobile showcase that the Armstrong Cork Co. has in the territory displaying their merchandise. Marvin Substad from Albuquerque was also with the display, being the wholesale representative from Wm. Volker.

Mrs. I. E. Hanson of Houston flew to El Paso on Saturday, being met by the Bill Dingwalls. Sunday, Bill and Mary came up to visit their brother, George Dingwall, and Rosa.

The T. L. Andersons were over from Las Cruces on Sunday for the day to visit the George Dingwalls and P. D. Lindamood.

TALKING BACK

By HOMER REID

Dear Rev. Reid: I enjoy your column very much and I think you are doing a fine job with it. I understand, however, that you will not be returning to Carrizozo this coming year, and I'm truly sorry to hear it. I'm not a member of your church but I have a lot of friends who are and most of them tell me that they would like for you to come back again, but if you can go on to something better they certainly will not stand in the way. I wonder who will write your column when you go? Now, that is off my chest. I'd like to say something a little critical—and I know it is not "Christian" to criticize, but here goes:

Every time somebody writes to you about our schools or about the church it seems to me that you sort of "soft soap" them. Apparently you feel the schools and the school administration can do no wrong—nor the church no wrong. In your article of last week (April 8) you said the church and the school are the two institutions in this country where waste is not tolerated. I realize that you are quoting from an article that was sent to you—but the article goes on to say that the school and the church want to reach everyone, but of course can never do so, and as a result never really succeed.

Now this may be so. Universal education is an ideal that may never be achieved and universal salvation is another ideal that just isn't meant to be. But it seems to me that our own local situation is the worst yet! When a few individuals get control of a school or a church and run it to suit themselves—to the complete detriment of our children—then, I must say that it is time for a change of administration!

We'll have another complete "turn-over" of teachers at the end of this year. We're not willing to pay the wages for the best, so our children suffer with second-best and if we do manage to get a teacher who is "tops" and really wants to do a good job he's fired! Now my daughter tells me that one teacher has been changed and the new one has completely confused her! I don't mean to say that I wouldn't know, but I do say that when a class has three teachers in one school year in one subject, all of them teaching a different system, the chances of learning anything are pretty slim. You probably won't print this letter because you won't "criticize," you turn the other cheek; but in the meantime they kick you in the teeth! I suppose I shouldn't blame you, after all. I won't sign my real name to this letter, not that I'm afraid to criticize, but because my daughter would suffer if they knew who really wrote this—INDIGNANT.

Dear Indignant: And, I think you were probably very indignant when you wrote the letter. When one is angry or indignant one cannot be too objective because the emotions upset the judgment—so our judgment suffers; besides it's hard on the glands. No, I'm not "soft-soaping" the situation at all. I agree with you that there are many things that should be corrected in our school system. These are facts and every thinking person realizes it; but "Rome was not built in a day" and the improvements must come gradually.

The teacher situation is not confined to Carrizozo, but is nationwide. There is probably not one town in the United States today that is not having "teacher trouble." I'm not sure you are referring to the church in your remarks since you mention "church" in the same sentence with school—but I've never claimed the church was perfect.

In my own church I'm very concerned with the spiritual welfare of many members, but a preacher is pretty much in the position of a physician—the members want help, but they disregard the advice of their doctor. Ask any doctor—he's had the same experience. The patient pays him for his advice and counsel but will not heed him after he's got it.

Now, in regard to "criticizing," I think that we must realize that Christ was speaking of "mental" attitudes when he said "Judge not." A critical, judging attitude is an unhealthy one; but remember, he criticized the Pharisees and even the disciples on many occasions. Most of all, he criticized hypocrites. However, the type of criticism Christ used was "truth" and truth cannot be termed in the same category as criticism.

If I say about a man: "Look, that poor man has only one leg!" I am not criticizing—I am stating a fact! We need citizens who will have the courage to state the truth as they see it and who are willing to "sign their name" and stand up and be counted.

Now, let me say this. There is much truth in what you say. The turn-over in teachers has been excessive. As a preacher I've heard many of the teachers express themselves quite vehemently; but let's not jump to conclusions. For instance, in regard to my status here—I certainly don't know for sure where I'll be. The church (bishop) will put me where he thinks I'll do the most good. Wherever that is, I don't know, but I do take this attitude: Whatever God wants me to do—He'll find a way for me to do it.—H. R.

Dear Rev. Reid: I've been reading your column for some time now and really enjoy it, but the one before last really got me boiling mad! That guy who wrote about not going to church because they are all hypocrites must be a psycho. I notice that he apologized this last week, but it seems a little late to me. Our preacher here in Alamogordo (and I won't say which church it is) gets five thousand dollars per annum. For this he's expected to keep up "appearances," pay all his expenses for all meetings over the state, work 60 hours per week, contribute to every charity and fund-raising project, pay for his own library, educate his children, provide for his retirement and keep out of debt! There is no such a thing as a "cost of living" raise but each year the deacons try to reduce the salary. I know a lot of preachers and I enjoy being with them. They are the finest type of men in the world but I don't know a single one who is not in debt! Come to think of it, I don't know anyone today who is not in debt! America is the one country where it is a crime to be poor. You can have all the sterling qualities of St. Francis of Assisi but if you don't have a few bucks you are nothing! This is unfortunate, but true—JEAN SITKA.

Dear Jean: I'd like to make a few comments: Definition of a Financial Genius: "A man who can earn money faster than his family can spend it." Cold cash is something no one can keep long enough to warm up. Your remarks all make sense—but a preacher has to learn to live within his means, chiefly because he is expected to "set an example." My daughter expressed the situation when I told her that ten cents was a pretty good allowance when I was a boy. "How times have changed," she said.

Write again—H. R.

Our Gal Sal Says Try a Little Concentration

With all the spring cleaning lotions and potions the housewife has picked up some foolhardy notions. She feels that to do a job really thorough she must lug a load that would challenge a burro. Of cleaners you rub on, you spray on or pour, and each does one job and not a thing more. Now what's the result of such specialization? Back ache, stiffness and generalization.
But how can you clean without being a pack horse? Simple, my dear! Where there's a will there's a way. Buy all soda concentrated next time you shop. In solution you'll use it with brush, sponge or mop. Or you'll use it to scour with, applying dry. And you'll find your cleaning unburdened and spray. For this single pound box saves you pep, dough and time in your annual battle against dirt, grease and grime.
