Governor's Play-Mates

Augusta, Maine — Governor John H. Reed confers the honor of "Play-Mate of the Maine Sardine Fleet" on Lisa Jane Merrick, 5, and Charles "Chuckie" Brown, 6. The two happy youngsters are the first of thousands of boys and girls who will get the same seafaring rating through a program developed by Richard E. Reed, standing (no relation to the Governor), who is executive secretary of the Maine Sardine Council. The yellow slicker sou western coats worn by Lisa and Chuckie, have been designated by the manu-facturer as the official coats of the Maine Sardine Fleet. Similar in design and protection to those worn by the hearty fishermen of the North Atlantic, the coats—along with the continues and a color comic book recounting the adventures of Ricky and Debbie in Sardineland—are expected to make the small fry reverse the usual refrain of "rain, rain, go away" to "rain, rain, come much quicker, so I can wear my fishermen's slicker." The "good government" tide is rising...from Hobbs to Farmington, from Lordsburg to Clayton

Thousands of New Mexicans have examined the issues and

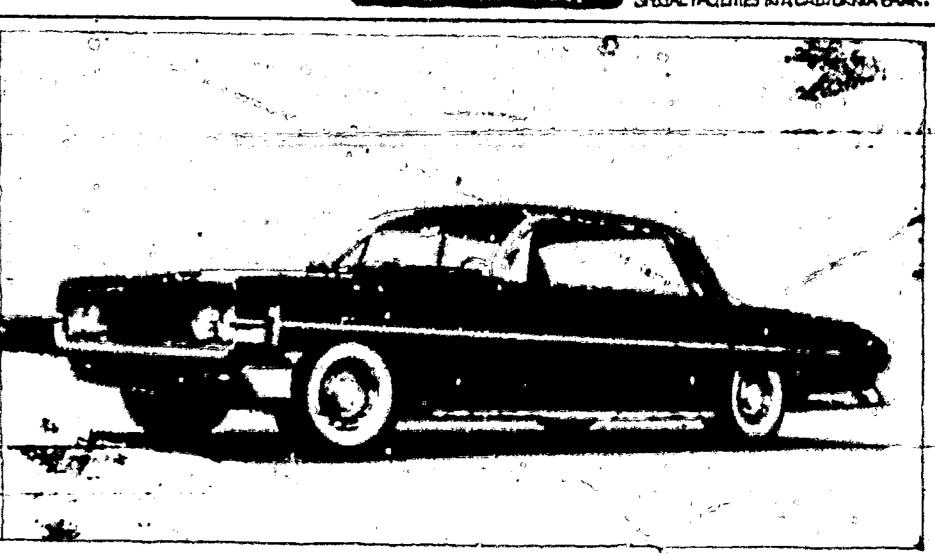

- The Burro's budget hoax
- As"faulty" Contracts to Burroughs' pals ● The high cost of highway "consulting"
- Political Payrolls skyrocketing
- Phony overruns for favored highway contractors
- Burroughs talking safety while miners die
- Political meddling with utility regulations
- 16 Million Dollar steamship investment
- Governor's domination of Attorney General's office for political maneuvering

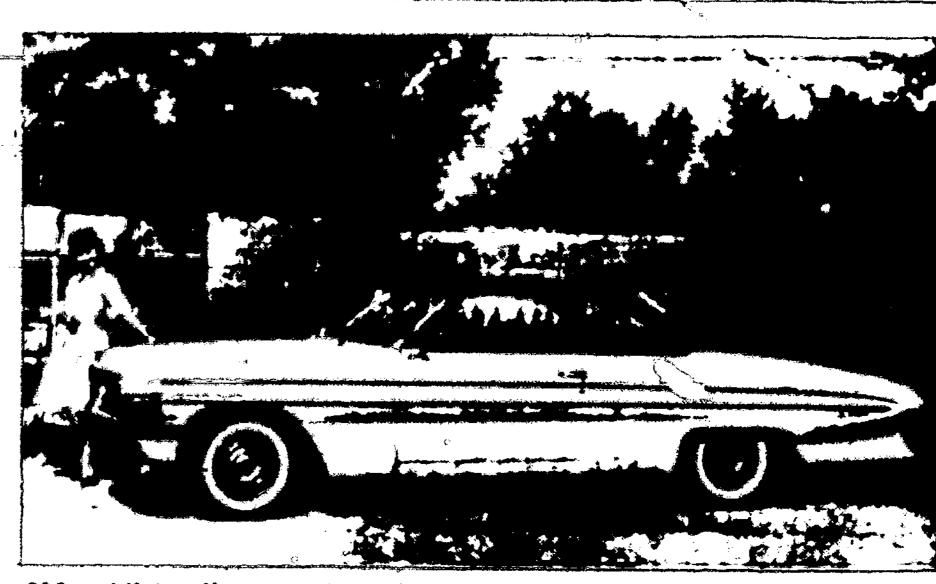

Yes, the people have examined the Burrocratic Record and they have concluded that New Mexico's only hope for Good Government, for honesty and integrity in the state's public affairs, is with...
