Lamar Bailey and James L. Stewart, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, appeared before Judge W. R. Scoggin in district court last Friday morning. Pleas of not guilty to the charge were entered and both waived preliminary hearing. Bond was set at $10,000 cash for each and the defendants were bound over to the fall term of court, opening October 10.

When Bailey stood before him, Judge Scoggin read the charge: "On the third day of April you did unlawfully assault Jack Main with a deadly weapon. How do you plea?"

In his brief appearance before Judge Scoggin, Bailey said "I plead not guilty. I will waive preliminary hearing." He was not represented by counsel.

Bailey remained in the custody of the sheriff until Monday afternoon at which time Sheriff Manuel Ortiz of Santa Fe came to Carrizozo to return him to Santa Fe to face a charge of issuing worthless checks.

The Lincoln County sheriff's office states Bailey is also wanted in Bernalillo county on a charge of kidnaping an innkeeper.

The previous day, April 14, before Judge Allan D. Walker, James Stewart and Ronald Stewart heard a charge read by District Attorney Dan Sosa of resisting and abusing a peace officer. (The two defendants had previously entered a plea of not guilty and the hearing was set for April 14.)

Shortly after the hearing began, Attorney C. C. Chaga Jr., representing the defendants, told the court their pleas had been changed from not guilty to "no contest."

Sentence of the court was: To serve 6 months in the county jail, sentence suspended; placed on probation 6 months. Assessed costs of $200 each.

At the same time, Judge Walker, acting on their appeal from Justice of the Peace Alton Gray's court—disorderly conduct—dismissed the charge.

In other district court action before Judge Scoggin April 15, State of New Mexico vs. John Thomas Boyce, charged with driving while intoxicated and reckless driving the DWI charge was dismissed. A plea of guilty was entered to reckless driving. Social driving privileges revoked for 90 days and placed on a year's probation. Sentence deferred one year. Assessed $150 probation costs.

State vs. Truman Sanchez, charged with driving while intoxicated and reckless driving. Atty. H. Elford Jones was appointed by court to represent defendant. Plea of not guilty entered to both charges. Hearing set for May 31.

A suit, alleging debt on a note, has been filed in district court, entitled Harold C. Summers, Mary Ida Summers and Cora Allice Lee, plaintiffs, vs. Edna Main Ray, def., d.b.a. Navajo Lodge, Ruidoso.

A suit for divorce has been filed, entitled Dulce Stewart Zamora, pl., vs. Abundo Zamora, def.

CRUSADE IS PAYING OFF

John Gunther's report on the country's fight against cancer during the past 15 years states: "Since 1945 the American Cancer Society has led a continually expanding and emphatic attack on cancer, embracing many disciplines and an astonishing range and variety of activities. Here are some major achievements: "In 1945 there were some 350,000 Americans alive who had been cured of cancer; by 1950 the figure had risen to 500,000; today there are more than a million men, women and children who have had cancer and been cured."

Fifteen years ago one-in-four patients was saved. Today the figure is one-in-three. In other words, we are saving 40,000 Americans every year who would have died of cancer 15 years ago. This is a very big step forward."

Deadline near for turning in wool sales

County Agent Ralph R. Dunlap reminds that April 23 is the deadline for turning in wool sales for the 1953 wool marketing year.

Wool sold from April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, is included in the 1953 wool marketing year.

The who have sold wool during this time are asked to be sure to turn the sale receipts into the County ASC office in order to assure payment.

According to the county agent, wool has been selling very well during the past month, with most wools bringing around 5 cents per grease pound more than last year.

More growers than ever are selling their wool on the clean basis with the price around $1.25 per clean pound in Boston.

Several growers have taken advantage of the book sampling and had their wool grade calculated by W. D. McFadden, at the wool laboratory in University Park. Most of the wool sampled was finer than estimated by the eye.

Water again to flow in Historic Lincoln Ditch

With the promise of the Rio Bonito flowing during the spring and early summer, the historic Lincoln Ditch Association has been reactivated and is making plans to rebuild the dam a mile above Lincoln and divert water for garden irrigation.

Jack Boylan has been elected president of the association; Bert Pfingsten, vice-president and Al Booky, secretary-treasurer.

History of the Lincoln Ditch dates from the early days, when townpeople used its water to irrigate their gardens. The association has remained a legal entity down through the years and has a water right to full flow of the ditch, which in past years averaged one second-foot.

It is believed that the newly-built Salado retard dam will prevent flood water from washing out the dam in Bonito creek, as has occurred in former years.

He was 85 years of age, having been born in Tularosa December 16, 1874.

His family lived in Lincoln during the colorful days of Billy the Kid and the Lincoln County War.

Make It With Wool contest opens

The "Make It With Wool" contest opened April 1 and contest blanks will soon be available from all home economics teachers in the county. They will also be available at the county agent's office.

Every girl who enters the contest from Lincoln County and who completes her garment and models it in the district contest, will be given $5 to help pay for the material. This money is being donated by the Lincoln County Wool Growers.

Girls between the ages of 13 and 22, in 21 states, are invited to enter one of 250 district competitions from which winners will be selected by judges for state contests to be conducted next fall.

The purpose of the contest is to encourage home sewing and show young girls how easy it is to sew with wool.

Something new has been added to the contest this year—the Adult Contest. This will be fun, as well as profitable for all who enter—so "come on, ladies, make yourself a lovely wool dress." Adults will be eligible for the district and state contests, but not the national contest.

Until the contest blanks are available, any information desired may be had by writing to Mrs. Charles A. Jones or Mrs. N. E. Britton, both of Capitan.

40 years ago

(From the files of the Carrizozo News, April 23, 1926)

From 12- to 18-inches of snow fell in the Capitan and Bonito districts as the worst blizzard in years struck Southwest towns.

The Lincoln County Board of Commissioners voted to pay $3,000 for the Gonzales toll bridge in Honda.

Taking an army deserter and his stolen car back to El Paso, W. M.
Barnett was injured when the car lost a wheel and went over an embankment south of Tularosa. Bryan Caslar was also in the car, accompanying City Detective Block of the El Paso Police Department.

Bears Crockett was moving his family back to their ranch west of the Mal Pais.

Mrs. Mary Fritz of Capitan spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Burleson in Lincoln.

Lloyd Hulbert from Alamogordo was remodeling the old Aragon place in Lincoln.

J. V. Tully of Glencoe was shipping two cars of cattle from Carrizozo.

FT. STANTON

By J. S. C.

ARRIVED: Amelia Marshall of Central; Nellie Fincher, Roswell; Francisquita Molina, Grants.

DISCHARGED: Frank Nochideneh, Sam Padilla, Joe Henderson and Jim Robinson.

The Fort Stanton fire fighters were on the alert Saturday morning, April 9, and checked a big grass fire past the old dairy. It could have proved disastrous, had it got to the dry, heavy brush down in the creek. Stanley Good and others of the boys are of the opinion that those grass fires have not been accidental and have been lighted on purpose. If the culprits are kids, and it is proven on them, we are sure their parents will not spare the rod on the seat of their jevis.

Leona Props, Frances Corral,
Stella Maestas, Mary Noche, Rosa
Tahito, Rosa Baje and Marie Baca had visitors from home over the week end; also Ora Eisk and Pedro Garcia.

Others on furlough for Easter were Pauline Gallegos, Jose Suanzanu, Manuelita Mendez, Margaret Solano Epifania Mendez, Agapita
Olivos, Catalina Espino, Rafaela
Ranquilla, Erminda Sandoval, Doc Owen, Georgia Lyons, Stella Castillo and Gregorio Romero.

Addie Quails has received nice letters from Mrs. Ida Bloom and Mary Louise Arguello. Addie mailed Mrs. Bloom her present as first prize winner in the word contest. She had 1,881 words. Wow!

Mrs. Soledad Gonzalez and Sam Green have returned from their furloughs.

A. F. Durr, state director of the division of vocational rehabilitation, Santa Fe, and H. Fahr-nbruch, district counselor, Las Cruces, were in Fort Stanton on business last week; also Mr. Darnell of the Veterans Administration in Roswell.

The painters, Rene Grigo, Tony Navarro and Cip Griego have painted Dr. Rosendatt's office and will also paint Dr. Logan's office and the clerk's office in Main-1.
Looks nice, boys!

We spent the week end and Easter with relatives and friends in Carrizozo.

Stenographer Shirley Campbell was with home folks in Carrizozo for Easter.

A large group of Mesquero people were here last Thursday evening and sang beautiful hymns in the dining room. A choir of adults sang hymns in Apache. All enjoyed it, and thanks to them.

On Tuesday, April 12, Ft. Stanton was fortunate to have Dr. Edward Blomquist, chief of the tuberculosis control division of the USPHS, and Dr. Paul Fampoloma, director of field programs, also of the USPHS, from Washington, D.
C., visit the hospital for several hours. They had been invited to visit us, if time permitted, during their trip to a public health meeting in Hermosillo, Mexico.

Last Saturday morning as Protation Officer Manuel Chavez was on his way home from Lincoln to Carrizozo, he became very ill and came in to Fort Stanton for aid.
He barely made it to the service station, from where Perry Zamora brought him to the hospital. After being treated and made comfortable by Dr. Rosenblatt, the Shaw ambulance came over and took him to the hospital in Carrizozo.
Perry took care of his car and Mrs. Chavez came over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vidal Silva to take it home.

In a letter from Raul C. Horta of Blanca, N. M., he expresses his gratitude to Dr. Jernigan and his medical staff, the nurses and "all the nice people of Fort Stanton" for the treatment he received while a patient here. He misses everyone here and sends kindest regards.

Judge and Mrs. Thomas Apodaca were here from Albuquerque on April 10 for a visit with their mother, Mrs. Elena Apodaca.

Father Chavez and Rev. Brown held impressive services in their respective churches on Palm Sunday and on Easter Sunday. Those attending the Chapel of Our Redemer received beautiful palm crosses.

Jim Robinson of Four Annex was discharged last week and left for Santa Fe after which he will return to his home in Roswell. Deal of luck, Jim.

Among those who went home to spend Holy Week and Easter vac-cation were Emma Montes, Manuel

Los Amigos Club

had good meeting

At a meeting held by Los Amigos Club Wednesday afternoon, April 13, the following new committee members were elected: Josie Contreras, Mary Montoya and Tony Esquivel; with Joe Contreras chairman, Mary Montoya, secretary and Evelyn Merritt remaining as treasurer. Other members are Tony Esquivel, Steve Uharriet and Joe S. Chavez.

As an incentive for more suggestions to be dropped in the suggestion boxes in the various wards, a $5. cash prize will be given the person having the most constructive idea for the benefit of the hospital in general.

Mrs. Ida Bloom of Silver City,
Joe Contreras and Tony Esquivel were winners in the word contest and were given prizes for making the most words out of the word
"incomprehensibilities." The winners had over the thousand mark.
They were allowed to resort to
"Dan Webster."

Another contest is on and will be known as the "Ejeing Contest."
All patients are eligible and the big list must be fold in 200 words or less, but not over that. Participants can use names of persons and put plenty of spice and color in their writing, but no profanity or obscenity will be tolerated. Contest will close May 19.

Misses Provine Sparks and Henderson and also Mr. Vigil were present at the meeting. Cocoa and vanilla wafers were enjoyed by all present.

Josie Contreras and Dixie Sparks were in such a happy mood after the meeting that they were seen playing hop scotch on the slab walk leading to the porch of the Administration Building. They motioned for us to come and join them, but we did not want to address to injury, for we have arthritis.

Working to improve

Stanton Ball Diamond

Col. L. W. Varner had a high-pressure pump installed on the ball-diamond and the boys gave the field a good spray every evening after practice. Fred A.
Vigil planted some Bermuda grass in the infield last summer and it's coming out nice and green.

The outfield is quite rough and treacherous, with the abundance of rocks in it, but when they are taken out and the heavy roller run over the ground, we'll have a first-class ball field. The boys will not have to be afraid of twisting their ankles; also it will keep baseballs from being scratched by the rocks.

Manager Vigil has had the boys doing some stiff workouts for our next game, which will be Sunday, April 24, against the Colts in Carrizozo. The management and all the team are determined to give the Colts a good battle.

On the following Sunday, May 1, a team from Roswell will invade the Fort Stanton portals.

CLAUNCH

Singing Convention to be in Claunch in April

The Claunch ladies are redecorating the interior of the Assembly of God Church, getting ready for the Torrance County Singing Convention the fourth Sunday in April. All are cordially invited. About 12 years ago the Claunch community was voted into the Torrance County Singing Convention district, as there was no other singing association in Socorro county at that time. A basket dinner will be served. We're expecting singers from Alamogordo, El Paso, Capitan, Carrizozo, Corona, Moriarty, Albuquerque and various other places.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wade were in Brownfield, Texas, over the week end.

TALKING BACK

By HOMER REID

Dear Rev. Reid: I've been reading your column for some time now and have been impressed with the frankness of your discussion. I feel that you at least make an effort to "lay it on the line" and "let the chips fall where they may." This is a good attitude, I think, but I wonder if you'd have the nerve to answer publicly a question that perhaps interests everyone today and that is: Would you vote for a Catholic for president? One of the most important items in our constitution is separation of church and state and yet I'll bet there are a lot of people who consider a man's religion when they vote. You're a Protestant preacher—just what do you have to say about it?—"A CATHOLIC."

Dear "Catholic": Thank you for writing that letter—and I, for one, believe that complete frankness in this regard is necessary to avoid bitterness that has a tendency to appear when "religious" enters politics. It was Cardinal Manning who declared that "Politics are morals on the wildest scale" and in that sense there can never be a complete divorce between the moral forces of organized religion and the social programs of government. Religion is eternally relevant to politics and politics is eternally relevant to religion and no repetition or evasive disavowals can destroy this vital relationship.

Article VI of the Constitution declares that "no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States." I certainly go along with that statement! No fair-minded voter questions any Catholic's right to adhere to the devotional aspects of his faith without penalty; but the complex moral and political code that passes for religion in the Roman Catholic Church includes a great many policies and principles that non-Catholics believe to be in violation of the principles that are to be written into our Constitution because they bear a religious label, the withdrawal of which will constitute a fundamental denial of free speech. They insist, therefore, that a candidate's religion is relevant to his qualifications for the Presidency to the extent that his faith involves such political policies.

The purely devotional and theological policies of the Roman Catholic Church are irrelevant to the presidential campaign, but what of those social policies which overlap and to some extent contradict American legal traditions? If a Methodist wanted to close all the liquor stores, or if a candidate for the Presidency actually included all-out pacifism in his personal profession of religious faith, most voters would undoubtedly regard him as ineligible for the Presidency.

If a presidential candidate could answer the following three questions to my satisfaction I'd consider him a good prospect for president, considering he had the other necessary qualifications:

1. The canon law of your church (Canon 1374) directs all American Catholic parents to boycott our public schools unless they receive special permission from their bishops. Do you personally approve or disapprove of this boycott rule?
2. At present the Catholic press and ranking prelates are promoting a plan for securing grants of federal money to parents to cover the cost of parochial school tuition by laws which would parallel the GI education bill. What is your personal attitude toward your bishop's interpretation of the Constitution, and toward the new plan for financing parochial schools?
3. Many nations recognize your church as both a church and a state, and send official ambassadors to the Holy See. If you became president, what would be your policy concerning the appointment of an American ambassador or a personal representative to the Vatican?

As a matter of fact, Kennedy gave to "Look" magazine for publication on March 3, 1950, a statement covering the answers to these questions. It was remarkable for its candor and breadth.—H. R.

CAPITAN

By MARGARET RENCH
A garden club was organized here last week. For details, inquire of Mrs. Virgil Wallace and Mrs. Harold Armstrong. Mrs. Earl Powell of Roswell came to help.

Mae McCollum left for Germany on Monday the 14th. His wife Eva and four children are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Howard, for several months, as at this time quarters are not available for the family. Two of their girls are in school here. The couple were stationed at Clovis before coming to Capitan.

Dixie Kay Wheat of Las Cruces spent the Easter holidays with her mother, Mrs. Dixie Sparks, and grandmother, Maude Edmondson.

Mr. and Mrs. Champ Ferguson had a pleasant Easter by driving to Las Cruces to visit Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hartley and family, then to El Paso to visit Mr. and Mrs. Wayman Hartley and family.

Billy Ferguson arrived home last Thursday the 14th from Rhode Island. He has been in the Air Force, but in now out of the Service, and at this time his plans are indefinite. Glad to have you home again, Billy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holmes have gone to El Paso for a while, after a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Howard and other relatives. It is much warmer in El Paso and they feel better there. They both look rested and well after these several months' vacation.

Mrs. E. S. Forbus is spending the summer with her son (Mr. and Mrs. Dyer Forbus) and family. She is always happy to return here to our cool climate and her old-time friends for the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. Dusty Williams and children drove to Carlsbad on Easter Sunday to visit their parents and other relatives for the day.

Nathalie Britten of the Christian College at Lubbock, has been at home for Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Britton and Carlton.

G. E. Fleming has returned from a trip up north where he was looking for work. Construction has not started there but will in the next six weeks or when they get the work order. Monday he left for Las Cruces and the El Paso area.

Find Spring arrived early at Santa Fe

Mr. and Mrs. Cab-Callaway enjoyed Easter by driving to Santa Fe that morning to visit her mother, Mrs. Gallegos, and a younger brother. Cab took his fishing tackle along. They drove through the Dixon, Tres Ritos and Embuda communities. The streams were high, especially around the Embuda where he had hoped to fish. The orchards were in full bloom, the grass green, and people were busy in their fields and orchards. Flowers were in bloom everywhere. They arrived home at 11:30 that night, after a pleasant trip, but tired. They said it was hard to understand why Santa Fe was green and flowers blooming at this time of year, while we here at Capitan, at a lower altitude, are behind the season, with lots of wind.

Capitan residents awakened to a temperature of 22 degrees this Tuesday morning.

The heavy frosts these last few nights and cold winds during daytime has injured the perennials. Easter was cold and windy here, but there was no-moisture.

Mrs. Mary Zamora closed her cafe last Thursday. She and Ida are working at the Spanish Nook in Ruidoso on the evening shift. They will drive to and from until school is out May 20. Then they will move to Ruidoso for the summer.

George Crawford has been home with the flu for the last three days and is still quite ill.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce met Monday, April 18, at the City Hall with only fair attendance, due to illness of some members.

The City Hall floor has been refinished and looks beautiful. Painting is still going on in the inside.

The Methodist Church had services during Holy Week, with good attendance. Communion was held Maundy Thursday.

Mrs. Janie H. Key of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Key and daughter of Albuquerque spent the week end of the Easter holidays with his grandmother, Mrs. Key, and the Jack Youngs. Jack Key attended grade school in Capitan and was graduated from Carrizozo High School.

Duane Darling, principal of Capitan High School, has announced the honor roll and perfect attendance lists for the fifth six weeks period.

Seniors appearing on the honor roll are Carol Bonnell, Cecelia Griego, Juanita Griego, Christina Kosage, Barbara McGrew, Arcenia Trujillo and Betty Walker.

Juniors, Marilyn Cozzens and Mary Guck. Sophomores, Glenda Peters, Freshmen, Kenny Cozzens, Betty Lou Jones and Ann Robinson.

The perfect attendance list: Seniors, Ellen Taylor, Rudy Zamora, Junior, Leslie Armstrong; sophomore, Glenda Peters; freshmen, David Silva, Joe Zamora.

Spring concert Friday by Capitan band

The Capitan school band, under the direction of James Van Dyke, will present its annual spring concert Friday, April 22.

Songs to be played at the concert are Fantasy for Band (Ericsson), Sarabando and Gavotte by Correll, An American Scene by Grundman, Belmont Overture by Hermann, March Processional by Grundman, Evangeline Overture (Buchtel), America the Glorious by Kleffman, Our Commander March (Peterson), The Vulcan March by Farrell and Praeludium (Cacavas).

Before the intermission a wood wind choir will play several selections. Some of them are Der Froliche Landsman (The Jolly Farmer) by Schumann, Jesu, Meine Freude (Choral—Jesus My Joy) by Bach and Country Dance Song arranged by Findlay from a Russian tune.

The band and its director invite everyone to attend the concert.

Mrs. Lewis Stratton's mother, Mrs. W. E. Bazemore of Portales, is visiting the Strattons.

Dan Preuit, one of their sons and their daughter Ethelyn left last Thursday afternoon for Milwaukee, W. M., to visit his parents for the Easter holidays, returning Sunday night. Ethelyn has been ill since.

The State Highway crew is coming in from the west to put a top coat on Highway 350. They have done a fine job from Carrizozo this way and will continue to work east of Capitan. All of us appreciate the good work.

Mrs. T. C. Key recently returned from a very pleasant visit with her two sisters. One sister, Mrs. J. C. Buciner of Artesia, went with Mrs. Key to Sweetwater, Tex., to visit their elder sister, Mrs. A. Daugherty, who had fallen last November and broke her hip. She gets around in a wheel chair but is unable to walk. They visited other relatives there as well.

Grizzlies second at four-way track meet

By MANUEL ORTIZ
The Carrizozo Grizzlies took part in a four-way track meet at Tularosa on April 13. Others schools were Tularosa, Truth or Consequences and Capitan.

TopC took first place with 102 points. Carrizozo was second with 93, Tularosa third with 68 1/2 and Capitan's total was 67 1/2 points.

Coach Bill Thorp is pleased with the team's showing to date. "The boys are making good progress," he commented this week and pointed-out that three Carrizozo high school records were broken in the first meet of the season and at least two in every meet following.

First-place winners were Jerry Beltran—Broad Jump, 19 ft., 11 in., and the javelin, 150 ft. Bobby Chenshaw took first in both the high and low hurdles. His times were 10.7 and 22.0 seconds, respectively. Record in the discus, 127 ft., 7 in. He was also high point man at the meet, with 28 points.

Fred Vega placed first in the pole vault at 11 ft., 6 in.

Carrizozo travels to Los Lunas over the week end for the Los Lunas Invitational.

The Carrizozo Junior High School trackmen will host Tularosa in a dual meet Saturday, April 23, at 1 p.m., on the Grizzlies' field.

Recruit graduates from Naval Training Center

San Diego, Calif. (FHTNC)—Robert L. Anderson, apprentice petty officer 2/c USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Armstrong of Ruidoso, graduated April 8 from nine weeks of recruit training at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

Apprentice petty officers are chosen from the ranks of the seamen recruits to assist company commanders. The selection is based on individual aptitude and leadership qualities.

NYPS youth group has program on diamonds

(Contributed)
As previously announced, the N. Y. P. S. group of the Church of the Nazarenes had their program, April 10, on a "Diamond Exhibit," in two parts.

Mrs. Opal Peters, program chairman, announced that "Since we are studying diamonds tonight, it is well that we know a bit more about diamonds." She explained that the diamond holds supreme place among jewels—goal of the adventurer, livelihood for the worker, indispensable tools, symbol of royalty and pledge of love. Diamonds are the hardest material known and are among the most costly things in the world, because they are so rare.

She then introduced Mrs. Ethel Keathley, who, she said, had two exhibits of diamonds.

Mrs. Keathley first unveiled a group of pictures of diamonds and the mine in Arkansas from where they came. Mrs. Keathley visited this mine in 1939—and brought home pictures of a number of the most famous gems, including the "Star of Arkansas," so called because in the rough it resembled Ike's bald head.

The mine, she said, was actually

Cotton farmers expect '60 to be good year

University Park, N. M. — New Mexico cotton farmers are enthusiastic about their crop prospects for 1960. Why shouldn't they be? The history of cotton production in the state shows that even-numbered years are the most productive. If past records mean anything, the current crop year should be a successful one, says E. J. Neal, cotton marketing specialist with the New Mexico State University Extension Service.

Superstitions have nothing to do with New Mexico's modern cotton production, but it wouldn't be difficult to get an old-timer to place a substantial wager on a better-than-average crop in 1960.

Producers in New Mexico, justly proud of past accomplishments, are confident of their ability to produce a quality crop destined to move into trade channels. This confidence is evidenced by 34% of the state's upland cotton farms selecting the plan "B" cotton program for 1960.

Only 1,065 or 19% of the state's cotton farms selected the "B" program in 1959, whereas 1,864 or 34% chose plan "B" for 1960—799 additional farms, for an increase of 12,574 "B" acres over 1959.

New Mexico's yield of upland lint cotton per harvested acre in 1959 was 819 pounds. This is 39 pounds below the 1958 yield of 858 pounds, but 65 pounds above the past five-year average of 794 lbs. The 1959 crop was one of the best maturing in history, harvest conditions were near ideal, and the crop was processed much earlier than usual.

A "volcanic bilater," and it yields diamonds of rare beauty and it is open to the public. People may "mine" the diamonds themselves and keep the stones up to a certain size.

Mrs. Keathley then showed the other part of her exhibit—a family Bible, leather bound, and printed 123 years ago. "This," she said, "is another diamond, and must be mined before its true values are revealed."

She made several comparisons to the diamond mine and the Bible. The crater, she said, is stationary. You must go to Southwestern Arkansas to mine it. The Bible is available in most homes, in book stores, libraries, etc. The crater was discovered in 1906. The Bible in thousands of years old.

You do not pay for what you find in the Bible. Whatever you find is yours to keep and lock in your heart.

NOTICE

The Lincoln County Commissioners wish to advise that from this day forward, under no circumstances will they maintain any road at any time that has locked gates leading into same.

It has been necessary for us to adhere to this policy, since a large portion of our road funds are derived from the amount of mileage of roads maintained and left open to the public.

A recent survey by State and County employes found that there were a number of locked gates in Lincoln County, the result being a loss of revenue to be used for the maintenance thereof.

Services held for Mrs. Eva L. Robinson

Mrs. Eva L. Robinson, a longtime resident of Alamogordo, died Tuesday, April 19, after a long illness at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson in Tularosa.

Mrs. Robinson, formerly Mrs. Eva Fetzler and her two children, Clair A. and Carol H., came to Alamogordo in October, 1904, on an "emigrant train." An uncle, Charlie Brown, and a brother, John C. Minns, came the same year to take up homesteads northwest of Alamogordo.

Mrs. Robinson was born Eva Laila Minns on July 12, 1874, in Harrisville Township, Ohio. She was united in marriage on October 18, 1895, with Elmer F. Fetzler who died December 25, 1900.

Mrs. Fetzler became Mrs. Geo. H. Robinson December 18, 1907 only to again become a widow in August of 1908.

Mrs. Robinson was organist for the Presbyterian Church in Alamogordo for a number of years. She conducted a kindergarten, with the help of Mrs. Orpha Ogden, which was attended by many of the men and women who are now prominent in affairs of the county and the state. Among them were the Mechem and Rolland boys, the J. Lawson girls, Irving Menger, Fred Apel and the late Nell Fribbley.

Mrs. Robinson later taught school at High Rolls and in the Indian schools at Crown Point, N. M., and Mojave, Ariz. She was a lover of poetry and had poems published in the New Mexico magazine, Arizona Highway, Desert Magazine and the El Paso Times.

Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. J. C. Johnson; a son, Clair A. Fetzler; two sisters, Miss Orpha R. Minns of Lodi, O., and Mrs. Rendell Hoff of Medina, O.; three grand-children; eight great-grandchildren and one great-great grand child.

Burial was to be from Mullins-Hamilton Mortuary on Thursday, April 21, at 10 a.m., interment following in the Alamogordo (Monte Vista) cemetery.

"Cemetery Clean-up Day" to be April 24

In an official proclamation, Earl Haggard, mayor of Tularosa, has designated Sunday, April 24, as "Cemetery Clean-up Day."

The proclamation urges all associations and organizations and all other persons, firms and corporations in Tularosa to assist in the clean-up by "contributions of labor, equipment or other forms of assistance."

The Tularosa Business and Professional Women's Club has taken the leadership in the cemetery clean-up, having adopted it as a club project.

Mayor Haggard's proclamation states that the cemetery has a growth of many weeds, unsightly plants and is infested with prairie dog holes, and "is in a state of disrepair to the great prejudice of the inhabitants of the Village of Tularosa."

DO NO RIGHT IN THE CAPITOL

Santa Fe, April 20—It's mighty hard to do anything right at the statehouse.

A few days ago what seemed like the whole population was splittin' mad about a 25% jump in Southern Union gas rates installed last September and under hearing ever since.

Gov. John Burroughs came out with a statement that he would recommend that the public service commission, appointed by him and serving at his pleasure, deny the entire increase.

The result: He was slammed by the press and attacked by politicians for interfering in rate making matters and seeking political favor.

THINK GOVERNOR SPOKE TOO LATE

This came after a large segment of the press had criticized the rate increase and thousands of citizens had signed petitions against it, but these same ones didn't appreciate the governor's help.

The backfire was attributed to the circumstance that the governor waited until only a few weeks before the primary election to take a stand and that he made the statement just eight weeks after saying publicly that he could not interfere in the work of the commission on the gas case.

What the commission will do remains to be seen. Guessing around here is that part of the increase, maybe 25%, will be approved and the governor will be in a position to say that he tried to stop it all. If the governor were dead set on stopping the increase he could fire the commission and install another that would take orders.

MOVIE BUSINESS IN LAND OFFICE

A dispute last week between a movie maker and people at the state land office brought out the information that the land office spent $35,000 last year for a motion picture extolling the state land program.

It was by far the most expensive picture the state ever made and what the hour-long movie will be used for hasn't been explained. It is in two parts that can be shown separately.

The tourist bureau, game department and the economic development office have had movies in the past but none to compare with the land office production.

PROGRESS TOWARD LOW PAINT BID

A year ago the Wellborn Paint Manufacturing Co. of Albuquerque got a contract for highway department paint that was $12,232 above the low bid offered by Hay Smith Hardware of Santa Fe.

This year Wellborn got the business on a bid that was only $4,101 above the offer of Gene Autry's Reflex Glass Co. of Albuquerque.

That's progress and in maybe a

Two ladies hostesses to Nagal U. P. W. A.

The Nagal U. P. W. A. met on Thursday, April 14 in the home of Mrs. Pearl Stearns, with Mrs. May Sharp co-hostess. Fourteen members were present and three visitors, Mrs. Cora Dutton, Mrs. Berntha Williams and Mrs. May Sharp.

In the devotional period, Mrs. Leora Zumwalt and Mrs. Blye Cox read the Easter Story from Ideal Magazine, closing with prayer.

A very interesting report of the Praxbyterial meeting in Albuquerque was given by the delegates who attended, Mrs. Faye Wooten, Mrs. Gladys Alexander and Mrs. Molly Bosh. The theme of the meeting was "Declare His Wonderful Deeds."

The program theme was Africa, Mrs. Eva Zumwalt showed slides from Life magazine's pictures on South Africa and its problems.

Refreshments of pretty Easter-decorated cakes and coffee were served by the hostesses. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Birdie Lytle in Corona, May 12, at 2 o'clock, when the third study about Africa will be led by Mrs. Gladys Alexander.

year or two the road department will be able to buy paint at the low bid.

SPRINGER REGRETS DEAL WITH DEMOS

Tough Ed Springer, the big Republican of Colfax county, stood up at a public meeting in Colfax the other day and said that he had made a mistake in backing the Democratic candidate for governor in 1958. Quite a concession for Ed.

Hollis Cummins, Demo chairman of Lincoln county, noted an item in this space about a bureau of revenue payroll bringing in a hundred new voting registrations, said the number was better than that . . . Cummins said about 500 new registrations had been filed in Lincoln county this year, including some people, 60 to 70 years old who had never been registered before . . .

Word reaching the capital indicates Dona Ana to be one of the best counties in the state for U. S. Rep. Tom Morris who is having a difficult run against Calvin Horn of Albuquerque. Farmers down there apparently like farmer Morris . . . Albuquerque District Attorney Paul Robinson continues as a threat to Ed Mechem for the Republican nomination for governor, that because of the small Republican vote in the primary and the circumstance that those with spine enough to stay registered in the Republican party are largely the kind that would like an all-out Republican administration as advocated by Robinson.

WORKERS FEAR RATE INCREASE

The proposal to pull the highway department out of the state employees group insurance program and set up one for the highway people alone is causing concern here among capitol workers who fear that loss of the highway people—one-third of the $700 in the program—would result in higher rates for the remaining two-thirds.

The attorney general has given Governor Burroughs a memorandum holding that the highway office may withdraw and select a policy of its own upon approval of 75% of the highway department people.

The Southern plantation style of the Kappa Delta sorority house on the University of Denver campus made a beautiful setting for the surprise announcement of the engagement of Miss Glenda King to Mr. Frank Metzger.

Glenda presented a miniature bridal bouquet to each Kappa Delta. The bridal bouquets consisted of pale pink flowers surrounded by white net. These were attached to a card with the couple's name and wedding date. The traditional five pounds of candy was passed.

ECONOMY PROVED IN MOBILGAS RUN!

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U.S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:

- Frontal and rear . . . real foot room for the driver in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space.
- Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, faster ride.
- Rear-engine traction . . . that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the drive wheels.
- You probably realize already that the mileage figure Corvair recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the car's not every kind of driving conditions—rugged second-hand grades, long country stretches, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.
