

Lack of funds forces county schools to discontinue driver training programs

Five Lincoln county school superintendents were in Carrizozo Tuesday, trying to decide where $45,000 could be pared from a previously trimmed combined county budget for the new year.

The $45,000 figure was given the school men by John Gott, state school budget director, who said anticipated school revenue from all sources were anticipated to be that amount less than in the previous budget year.

Meeting with Supt. J. T. Clegg were superintendents Duane Darling of Capitan, Kenneth Knight of Corona, Fermin Montes of Hondo and J. H. Morris of Ruidoso.

Two programs of long standing in the county school systems fell by the wayside, as the administrators trimmed their budgets. They were the drivers training program and the county nurses' service. The county of Lincoln will be asked to bear this additional expense.

Other budgetary items trimmed were clerical help, school supplies and services to pupils, also the 3% school emergency fund.

The superintendents were determined to hold the line against cuts in teachers' salaries in Lincoln county, already near the bottom of the totem pole in state teacher salary scales.

At the end of their meeting the administrators still had $10,511 to trim, which, as one administrator put it, "had to come from a bone that had already been cut."

Due to a declining school population the county schools have had to operate on reduced budgets. "Any further cuts will be most detrimental to our county schools," Supt. Clegg said following the meeting. How the schools will fare will be determined at the May 22 budget hearings.

School crisis discussed at Corona meeting
Lincoln County school administrators and board members met Thursday, March 30, in the Recreation Room at Corona for their semi-annual conference.

Approximately 65 were present to discuss the 1961-62 school budget and New Mexico school finance legislation with John Gott, chief of the New Mexico public school finance department, and Lincoln county's two legislators, Representative Bill Shreevogost and Senator Joe Slicen.

After a delicious dinner was served, compliments of the Corona School Board, Superintendent Kenneth Knight asked Rep. Shreevogost to give his impressions of the school finance situation as seen from the 25th Legislature. He said that most of Lincoln County appeared to favor Governor McChesney's one-cent sales tax increase, if a definite time limit for its duration was written into the bill.

Partisan politics, he said, caused this school tax measure to die in committee. Shreevogost said the budget is set up to barely balance and he asked the boards to make out a realistic budget to present to the school finance director.

Clegg said that the main problem confronting the legislature was that practically every department in the state was without funds. The reasons for this, he said, were many: "Overpending, which had been endorsed by the past administration; over-appropriation from the general fund which occurred as a result of the 1959 Legislature's allocation of money that should have gone to the schools; a business recession, which deprived the schools of some anticipated sales tax income; and irresponsible budget control in the various departments."

Money problems plague schools

Superintendents of three county schools were guests at Tuesday's luncheon of the Carrizozo Lions Club. They were Kenneth Knight, Fermin Montes and J. H. Morris. Each was introduced by J. T. Clegg, and spoke briefly.

Supt. Montes said the Hondo system would probably have to hire three new teachers this fall and it would not be easy because Lincoln County is one of the lowest in the state in regard to teachers' salaries. "We can be thankful that teacher tenure is keeping some teachers in our system that we might otherwise lose."

Supt. Knight said he expected some teacher turnover in the Corona system. "We can be sure there will be some teachers to hire; we know we'll have pupils coming to school; our problem is to get the needed supplies and equipment."

Supt. Morris said the county schools are faced with a drastic cut in money available for next year. "We have already cut to the bone," he said "and must now decide what part of the bone must go." He said many school programs were threatened, such as library, art, music and athletics.

Supt. Clegg said the uncertain financial situation of the schools has made teacher salaries uncertain and "it is this uncertainty that is making it difficult to hire new teachers. We're educating young teachers in New Mexico who are going to California to take positions," he said.

In club business, President Clegg appointed a nominating committee for new club officers. They are Arrell Posey, Bernard Laabs and W. F. Ball.

The club plans a visitation to the Alamogordo Evening Lions Club the night of April 13 or an alternate night of April 27. Friday evening was set as work day at Lions Park to trim the trees and clean the grounds. The time was set at 5 p.m.

April Fool's joke was cruel hoax

An April Fool's joke that was a cruel hoax was reported last week by the Albuquerque Journal. Under the heading "Fatal Accident Report Reveals a Cruel Hoax," the Journal stated:

"A cruel hoax was perpetrated on two young Albuquerque men and a friend of theirs from Portales Saturday night when it was erroneously reported that two of them had been killed and the other injured in a two-car accident near Needles, Calif."

"The men—two of whom are stationed at the West Mesa radar station and one of whom is a student at Portales—were not involved in any accident."

"(The Kilpatrickes were thankful that Willis was home at this time to answer the phone to friends and relatives all over the state who called to express their concern and sympathy.)"

"The Journal continued: 'The report received by the Journal by telephone from a man who identified himself as Captain Barnes of the California State Patrol, had said Willis Kilpatrick and Allison P. B. Warner, both of 509 16th NW, were killed when their car collided with one driven by Marvin Taylor. Taylor was identified by the Capt. Barnes as being from Needles. He was reported badly injured.'

"The Journal checked the city directory and found Warner listed as living at the address given. The telephone at the address went unanswered. Neighbors reported there had been a recent change in occupancy."

"Sunday the Journal was told that Warner, Taylor and Kilpatrick had lived at the address until last fall when Warner was married and Kilpatrick started to school at Portales. They are close personal friends."

LEGISLATORS SLAM STATE SCHOOL BOARD

Santa Fe—The recent legislature manifested no confidence in the two-year-old state board of education and its $900,000-a-year department of education under Superintendent Tom Wiley. The creation of the public school finance board amounted to a powerful curb on the state board. What the legislators had in mind was emphasized by a provision barring school officers and employees from membership. Other legislation delegated new authority over the schools to the state department of finance and administration. One seriously considered measure offering a new formula for distributing state school money was rewritten in seven places, striking out the department of education as the controlling authority and substituting the new public schools finance board. The measure finally died because of failure to reach agreement on the divvy of the money.

EDUCATORS SLAP BACK

The breach between the professional schoolers and the legislature was widened by seemingly defiant statements by Superintendent Wiley and Charles Wood, who succeeded Wiley as secretary of the New Mexico Education Association teachers union. Wiley advised school boards to prepare two budget proposals for next term, one what they considered they should have and another based on money in sight. Wood recommended that schools open next term with what the boards consider proper programs and proper salaries and close the doors when the money runs out.

SCHOOLERS REFUSE TO MAKE CHANGE

The schoolers attitude has generally been that of refusal to adjust to the short money conditions. The situation is fanned by the political rivalry of Democratic Speaker Jack Campbell who set up the money for the schools and defends it as adequate, and Republican Gov. Ed McChesney who wanted more money.

EASTER IN SPAIN FOR JOE MONTOYA

U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya spent the Easter holiday in Spain. Land Commissioner Johnny Walker is as proud as a peacock about the great public reception of his grazing fee increase and the deal to open all grazing lands to public hunting and fishing. When he entered the deal he feared the consequences. La Gov. Tom Balch has been hunting in Mexico staying closer to his political ally than his usual African hunting grounds. Dennis Chavez Jr. who has said that he is moving here from Washington to practice law is not a member of the New Mexico state bar. Ordinary applications from outside lawyers are readily accepted but sometimes not.

FOUR MORE YEARS EYED BY OFFICERS

State Treasurer Joe Callaway and State Secretary Betty Florina are excited about the possibility of four years more on the job after completing the legal limit of two two-year terms. Gov. Ed McChesney signed the measure for a special election in September which includes a constitutional provision for four-year terms for all state and county officials regardless of how many two-year terms they had served. If the proposition is approved McChesney, who is already in as governor for twice as long as any other ever served, would be clear to run for four years more in the next election.

MONTOYA, CHAVEZ IN AGREEMENT

The announcement by Congressman Joe Montoya that all the state congressional delegation was agreed on Ernesto Flores of Deming for collectors of customs at Columbus stirred interest in Santa Fe. That was not because of Flores, who isn't known here, but because of Montoya announcing that he and Sen. Dennis Chavez were in agreement on Flores, or on anything else. Chavez led a campaign to throw Montoya out of Congress last year but couldn't get it done.

CAMPBELL RISES, OTHERS SEEM SAFE

Speaker Jack Campbell of Roswell is rising rapidly as the top prospect for Demo nomination for governor next year. There hasn't been a sign here of opposition to the congressmen, Montoya and Tom Morris of Tucuman. And no indication of trouble for Attorney General Earl Hartley, Land Commissioner Johnny Walker.

ELIMINATE MORE ELECTIVE OFFICES

The September special election will offer propositions to do away with the elective state auditor and elective corporation commissioners. Auditor Bob Castner appears combative, but not the three corporation commissioners, Seven-F. Pickett, John Block and G. Y. Falls. Many Spanish-Americans are against abolition of elective offices for reasons not entirely clear. Only Corporation Commissioner John Block, who was born Salazar, has an elective place in the capitol.

Carrizozo given Federal grant to aid town planning

A telegram received in Carrizozo Tuesday, stated that the town will receive around $4,000 in a federal grant for "preparation of comprehensive plans for the growth and development of Carrizozo." Three other New Mexico communities have received a similar grant from a total of $22,385 sum allocated. The telegram was sent to Mayor W. F. Ball by Congressman Thos. G. Morris.

The Carrizozo City Planning Board, composed of Jeto Voss, Fred English, Sonny Smoot, Mrs. C. A. Snow and Dr. A. N. Spencer, applied for the grant, which will be matched by county and town funds.

Planning work includes base maps, studies of economic base, population, neighborhood analyses, major roads, transportation routes and terminals, community facilities, public utilities and other comprehensive plans for the community. The work is to be completed in two years.

Morris Beauty Salon now in new location

The Gladys Morris Beauty Salon was moved to its new location this week, to the building on Twelfth St., which was formerly occupied by Attorney H. Elfred Jones. The building has been remodeled and is equipped with the most modern fixtures and furnishings. Mrs. Morris and Miss Carmen Vidaurri are filling appointments now and a formal opening will be held at a later date.

Ruidoso bank supports Nat'l 4-H fund drive

The Ruidoso State Bank in Lincoln County has joined with other New Mexico banks in national and state support of 4-H work. The Ruidoso bank made its contribution to the National 4-H Club Foundation, Washington, D. C., and to the State 4-H Club fund (or State 4-H Foundation) as part of a nation-wide fund raising program. Through its support, the Ruidoso State Bank is among more than 2,400 public spirited representatives of private enterprise that are helping to extend and improve the 4-H program through the National 4-H Club Foundation.

A 4-H recognition plaque will be presented to the Ruidoso bank for its "service to youth" activities.

District Court

In district court in Carrizozo on April 3, presiding Judge W. T. Scoggin, in case State of New Mexico vs. Ray M. Preciado, placed the defendant on probation for 12 months and deferred sentence for 12 months. Preciado entered a plea of guilty to non-support. Three juveniles were processed in juvenile court. Two juveniles from Ruidoso admitted the allegations, one charged with reckless driving was fined $10 and license suspended for 30 days; one charged with speeding, was fined $5.

A juvenile from Carrizozo was assessed $10 costs for not having a driver's license and was placed on probation. The Spring term of court opens April 10, with both the criminal and civil dockets called, beginning at 10 in the morning. All cases pending will be given dates for hearing. No jury cases have been scheduled for this term of court.

A condemnation suit regarding property on Highway 27 right-of-way has been filed by the Lincoln County Board of Commissioners vs. Belmont L. Dorman and Jane Dorman. Richard Parsons, assistant district attorney, represents the county board and Peter Meites the defendants.

Capitan PTA features "Books On Exhibit"

The Capitan PTA will meet April 7 to 7:30 p.m., to feature "Books On Exhibit." "Books On Exhibit," a national exhibiting operation, is designed to supply to school systems, in organized exhibit form, a completely representative collection of the new junior library books as they are issued each year by the country's leading publishers. The exhibit consists of 600 books, ranging from kindergarten through grade 9. In all, some thirty different subjects are included. The publishers involved in the exhibit represent, by common consent, the outstanding imprints of the industry.

Unlike any other exhibit, the one to be on display in Capitan is covered by a complete, graded, annotated, indexed catalogue, which is supplied in quantity for free distribution to teachers and librarians attending the exhibit. The Capitan PTA invites all teachers, librarians and parents who are interested in providing better reading material for children to take advantage of this opportunity to become acquainted with the best of the new books by examining the exhibit on Monday evening.

White Sands travel down from 1960

Travel figures at the White Sands National Monument are 10,968 below March, 1960. Total visitors were 20,469 in 4,907 vehicles last month, Superintendent Forrest M. Benson Jr., reports. Snowy Sundays were given as cause for the decline. Travel figures during the week were steady and average, as the weather was better. Easter Sunday drew 12,200, which gives an optimistic look for the overall total.

MRS. HOLLIS HAMMOND

Mrs. and Mrs. Roe Jackson of Tularosa announce the wedding of their daughter, Carol Fern, to Mr. Hollis Ray Hammond, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hammond of Farmington. The ceremony took place April 4.

Mr. Hammond is a graduate of Farmington High School and is presently employed by Armstrong Construction Company. Miss Jackson is a former student of high schools in Tularosa and Alamogordo.

"Bloomer Belles" prepare for crucial

Word is being passed around this week that the "Bloomer Belles," Carrizozo's pride of the basketball court, are rapidly rounding into condition for their one big game of the year. This year it will be the Bloomer Belles vs. the Capitan Cookies, a group of yesterday's feminine stars. The match will take place April 10 on the Carrizozo court. Elizabeth MaeVehel is captain of the Belles and Amelia McKnight is leader of the Cookies. All proceeds of the game will go to the Crusade against Cancer. Further details of this sporting event will be printed next week.

Gospel singers to gather in Alamogordo

The Second Sunday gospel singing will not be held in Carrizozo this month because of the State Singing Convention in Alamogordo on that date, which is April 9. Rev. James Wells said this week that the convention will feature the Stampa Baxter quartet from Dallas and many other special singers and directors. He encourages all who like to sing or hear good music to attend. The convention will be in the Buena Vista School in Alamogordo, Saturday evening, April 8, starting at 6 and on Sunday, April 9, from 9 in the morning until 4 in the afternoon.

El Paso services for Mrs. Neil Hughes

Mrs. Hughes had been bedfast for the past 14 years. She was the widow of Slater Hughes, who was raised in Lincoln County and was a fireman on the Southern Pacific for many years.

Palibearers were Jeff Brown, T. H. Gibson, R. E. Springer, B. M. Clements, Jack Dutechovsky, A. F. Farnell, D. B. Wilson, Earl Harkey and E. J. Textor. Burial was in Fort Bliss National Cemetery.

Two rabies clinics set for Hondo Valley

A dog vaccination clinic for rabies will be held in two communities in Lincoln County on Saturday, April 15, County Sanitarian Garcia has announced. Dr. Edmund Stanley of Alamogordo will vaccinate dogs at a location near the postoffice at Hondo and an assistant will be at Bowker's store in Picacho between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. on the above date. The standard fee for vaccination is $2. Recent clinics in Carrizozo and Ruidoso were very successful, Mr. Garcia said.

SKETCHES of some lamentable events of bygone days

By J. S. C.

In 1925, on a Sunday afternoon, two youngsters, Pablo Pino and Edward Gallegos were struck by lightning and killed while they were hunting cottontails in the arroyo near the Benigno Gallegos ranch. There were only light clouds in the sky and it was not raining, when a lightning bolt suddenly flashed from the sky and struck the boys.

One time, when working for the late J. B. Dinwiddie, we were putting in new ties near Walnut station on the Capitan Branch. The day was hot and sultry and it was raining hard on Church Mountain, but there was not a cloud over the prairie to hide the burning sun and give us relief. Suddenly, lightning commenced striking all around us and raising swirls of dust within a radius of 200 yards. Jim ordered us to hit the motor car on the track and we let it coast for home.

A few years after that, Joe Agunoy, who lived in Tortolita Canyon with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Harry Agunoy, was caught in a heavy downpour and went into a mine shaft to escape the rain. When he failed to return home, they went to look for him and found his body not far from the tunnel entrance. Lightning had found him there even while within the shelter.

In 1909, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Mack lived in a log cabin which they had moved from White Oaks when they came to Carrizozo. They had gone to Roswell one day and one of their neighbor's girls, Alice Perea, went to hang her washing on Mrs. Mack's clothesline. A bolt of lightning struck the corner of the cabin roof, went in the house and splintered furniture and a closet just outside a window, at which point the bolt left the house. Alice fainted and fell to the ground, but was unharmed.

Not so many years ago, the night operator in the telephone office in Carrizozo, whose name we cannot recall, killed herself at her post of duty, using a pair of pointed shears.

A few years ago a motorist was driving into town from his ranch on a very dark night and his car struck and killed a son of the late Lorenzo Guavara. The boys, two of them, were also coming in to town with a wagon load of wood and were walking alongside the wagon. The rancher was traveling at a high rate of speed and he almost turned over when he overrode his car to avoid hitting the boy. The lad was blinded by the glare of the headlights and jumped in the path of the vehicle. The boys were in a dip on the road and the rancher didn't see them until he was only a few feet from them.

At the old Brubaker Garage in Capitan, back in the thirties, an employe climbed an empty gas tank on a truck with a lighted cigarette in his mouth. The fumes exploded with such force that it shook Capitan, knocked in the wall of the garage and blew the man to bits.

In the early twenties, Jimmy Rocelle, youngest brother of the late A. P. Rocelle, and an aviator in World War I, was working as a delivery man for Ziegler Bros. He lived alone near Coyote Spring in the Highlands. One morning, when he failed to report for work, they went to investigate and found him shot in the head and unconscious. His gun had discharged under his pillow while he slept. He died a few days later without regaining consciousness.

Frank Anaya and son Jose were convicted of manslaughter in 1920, when they strangled a man to death near Tularosa, but neither served a day in prison. They were out on appeal when Jose was killed in a car wreck, together with ex-sheriff John Brady and Vidal Zamora. The elder Anaya died also before a decision was reached on their appeal.

Council turns down TV cable franchise

At their regular meeting Tuesday evening the Carrizozo town board of trustees turned down a franchise which would have put a TV cable into town. The board found there were complications when they sought a guarantee that the cable system when installed would not interfere in any way with TV programs that people were getting over their own antennas.

Two building permits were issued: To A. T. Roberts for garage; to Al Seay for addition to shop building. With engineer Ashley G. Clasen present on April 18, the town board will open bids on the municipal swimming pool. The board discussed the possibility of acquiring an additional plot of land adjacent to the block bought for the swimming pool.

The program will include a variety of selections that all will enjoy, among them a beautiful arrangement of the Strauss waltzes and an arrangement of the 18th Psalm by Benedetto Marcello.

The program will also include a medley of Irish songs and an unusual arrangement of "Intermezzo" by Henry Wiegand. Edgardo Buena, Carrizozo band director, will be guest conductor and the beginning band will also contribute to the program. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. They may be bought at the school office all day Friday and at the door before the concert.

An enchilada supper will be served by the elders in the school cafeteria prior to the concert.

Family in accident were Easter-vacation bound

Mrs. Louisa Argueta, and her daughter and son were on their way to Garden City, Kansas, last Thursday morning when they met tragedy on snow slick Highway 54 north of Carrizozo. Services for Mrs. Armstrong were conducted Saturday at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Las Cruces. Her husband, Rudy Armstrong, operates a tire business in that city. Judy Armstrong, whose principal injuries were two broken arms and a broken leg, is in Hotel Dieu Hospital in El Paso.

Mrs. Armstrong's son David received a broken right arm and head injuries in the accident. He has been taken home. The remains of Eddie Joy Roybal, also a victim of the two-car head-on collision, have been taken to Santa Fe for interment.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Petrozo of Las Cruces, formerly of Claunch, spent Easter with their daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Talley in Claunch. On the way home they stopped in Carrizozo for a visit with Mrs. L. V. Ladd and daughters.

Take-offs on TV commercials

The March meeting of the Carrizozo Future Homemakers of America chapter was held in the Junior High School Auditorium. After a short business meeting, the four delegates who attended the state convention at Farmington, Terri Portillo, Dolores Zamora, Rosa Torres and Martha Najer gave interesting accounts of their impressions of each convention session.

The last number on the program was an original play by the morning section of the Home Economics class, a skit based on television programs and commercials. The commercials were used to introduce a good nutrition theme. Some of the scenes which brought the most laughter were taken from "The Roaring Twenties," "The Private Lives of Doble Gills" and "Gunsmoke."

New feed-grain program explained

By RALPH DUNLAP

Lincoln County Extension Agent Think of future results, as well as the present situation when you decide whether to participate in the new feed-grain program. Such a program could have great effect on the present huge feed-grain surplus. The government-owned stocks of these grains are so large that, at the current rate of disposal, it would take the Commodity Credit Corporation a year to move them into use on a first-in, first-out rotation basis. USDA economists estimate that if enough farmers participate in the new program, this surplus could be reduced substantially in just one year. This year's program could also lay the groundwork for additional reductions of the surplus in the future.

SIGN UP FEED GRAIN PROGRAM TO BEGIN SOON
Farmers who desire to cooperate in the 1961 Feed Grain Program will be able to register their intentions to participate beginning next Monday, April 10, according to R. Archie Perkins, chairman of the Lincoln County Stabilization and Conservation committee. Perkins encourages all farmers who desire to participate in this program to file their intentions to participate during the remaining weeks of April. Up to half of the payment to be earned on a farm under the 1961 Feed Grain Program will be available as soon as the producer signs up under the program. Perkins says. He encourages all feed grain farmers to inquire as to how this program works on their farm prior to the end of April.

County 4-H recreation night planned

The Lincoln County 4-H Clubs will hold a county recreation night on April 15 in the school lunchroom at Capitan, starting at 7:30. The evening program includes a talk by Barbara Fulkhouser, on her trip as an IFYE delegate to Belgium, Luxembourg, plans for county events and games. Some of the events to be discussed are a 4-H rodeo and horse show, county 4-H contest and the county fair and record book entries.

The program will also include a medley of Irish songs and an unusual arrangement of "Intermezzo" by Henry Wiegand. Edgardo Buena, Carrizozo band director, will be guest conductor and the beginning band will also contribute to the program. Tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students. They may be bought at the school office all day Friday and at the door before the concert.

An enchilada supper will be served by the elders in the school cafeteria prior to the concert.

Nogal Fire Dept. to have box supper

The Nogal Volunteer Fire Department of the Nogal Rural Fire District will have a box supper at the Nogal Church on Saturday, April 8, at 7 p.m. The public is invited. The fire district encompasses the area within a five-mile radius of Nogal. Two films will be shown as entertainment. Coffee will be served by the department.

Town to have lower summer water rate

Special water rate for the summer will be in effect for June, July and August. All water used during these three months will be charged at the rate of 30 cents per 1,000-gallons. The minimum of $2.50 for the first 3,000 gallons, remains the same. This summer's reduction in the rate per 1,000 gallons is the lowest since the reason being Town Clerk Edward Penfield said, that the lesser figure would give the town an insufficient margin in its water reserve fund.

Carl L. Eford takes part in Army training tests

Hohenfels, Germany (AHTNC)—Sp4 Carl L. Eford, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Eford of Corona, recently took part with other personnel from the 24th Division's 21st Infantry in annual Army training tests at the Hohenfels training area in Germany.

The tests, designed to test unit and individual combat efficiency, included training in coordinated troop-helicopter movements, nuclear defense and armored infantry attacks.

The maneuver was highlighted by a crossing of the Danube river under cover of darkness. Over 1500 men and various types of trucks and equipment made the crossing in assault boats and on tactical rafts.

Specialist Eford, a clerk in the infantry's Headquarters Company in Munich, entered the Army in August 1959, completed his basic training at Fort Riley, Kans., and arrived overseas in January 1960.

WRIT OF ATTACHMENT

To the most of us, the word attachment means being attached by a physical connection or by personal ties of affection—not the legal seizure of property.

However, in law the word means the taking into custody of the property of the defendant in a civil action, to be held as security for the payment of any judgment which may be recovered in the action.

In other words, the law makes it possible for one person who is owed money or property by another person to hold by means of a "writ of attachment," the property of the debtor until such time as a valid judgment can be executed or enforced. In this manner the debtor is kept from putting his property beyond the reach of his creditor when judgment is obtained.

The "writ of attachment" is issued by the court under the statute that states that the writ shall command the sheriff or any constable of any county where property of the defendant is supposed to be, to attach so much of the property as will be sufficient to satisfy the demand of plaintiff and the probable costs of the action.

This appears to be a harsh remedy, so it is necessary to comply very closely with all the requirements of the governing statutes. In New Mexico, the debtor can take action against a person who has wrongfully attached his property, and also against his bondsmen, for it is necessary to make a bond, when attaching.

THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA
By C. L. KAY

The Answer to Communism

Since 1933, the Communists have taken over 24 countries and presently control over one billion people. Their ultimate goal is world-wide conquest. The target date for taking America is 1973.

After discussing the communist threat, the first question that usually comes up is, "What can I do?" or "What can we as a group of people do to stop it?"

Basically, there are two things that we can do as a group.

The Need for a Freedom Academy

First: Push the Freedom Academy Bill that has recently been introduced into Congress.

An editorial appeared in the February 18 issue of the "Saturday Evening Post" which should be read by every thinking American.

Relative to the importance of the "Freedom Academy Bill," the author states:

"It should be adopted in this Congressional session without delay. Its object is to lessen one of our chief weaknesses — our amateurism in the struggle against the enemy's professional. The statements of many national leaders indicate woeful ignorance in high places.

"We don't have amateur military officers. Nor do amateurs manage our huge industries. Yet we have thousands of amateurs who are trying their untrained best to resist the attacks of the highly trained professional Communist."

The purpose of the Freedom Academy is to educate our leaders about Communism — its strategy, aims and tactics. The bill has been introduced by three senators and two congressmen, namely, Paul H. Douglas of Illinois, Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut, Karl E. Mundt of South Dakota, and Congressman Walter Judd of Minnesota and A. S. Henshaw of Florida.

Second: We must realize the importance of the public schools. Several public schools in Texas have incorporated into their curriculum the "Syntax System." From the first through the 12th grade, each class thoroughly investigates one basic idea of our American Heritage. These ideas are based on our eight basic freedoms:

1. Trust in God
2. Importance of the individual
3. Freedom of the individual
4. Dignity of work
5. Private ownership of property
6. The profit motive (hope of reward)
7. Free competition
8. Government as a protector, not a provider.

The Challenge

First: It is time for the American people to wake up. The Communists are not asked to give an evening to Communism; they are asked to give their lives. All we ask of the American people is to take time to become informed and then write letters requiring that necessary legislation be passed to establish the Freedom Academy.

Second: We must strive for an enthusiastic dedication to democracy. Democracy can be strengthened if the home, the church, the school, and the community want to do something about it. The challenge is yours; I have accepted mine.

FT. STANTON

By J. S. C.

ARRIVALS: Jessie Campos, Magdalena; Michael Fuhs, Gallup; Jasper Isom, Los Alamos; Mary Montoya, Albuquerque.

DISCHARGED: Otis Green, Lela Marie Watson, Jewel Tolbert and Max Montano.

Gene and Lilly McCommas and small son of Hobbs were Ft. Stanton visitors on Saturday. They had been to Alamogordo visiting relatives and from here they went on to Albuquerque. The McCommas are ex-patients of Fort Stanton and both look fine.

Housekeeper Mrs. Donna Butler made a hurried trip to Truth or Consequences last Friday.

Supplyman James F. Corcoran spent last week end visiting in Albuquerque.

A fairly good snowfall visited Ft. Stanton on Palm Sunday. It started to snow about 8 in the morning and continued until the noon hour, when it cleared up and the sunshine soon melted the white blanket on the ground.

Palm Sunday was observed with beautiful and appropriate services in the Sacred Heart Church and the Chapel of Our Redeemer, with Father Jaramillo and Rev. Brown officiating.

Last Friday night when Mr. and Mrs. Lupe Baca were returning home from Capitan, the driver lost control of the car and it hit the railing on the second bridge this side of Capitan. Mrs. Baca was bruised somewhat and the car was considerably damaged.

The following left for their home last week to spend the Easter vacation: Josie Morales, Maria De-Anda, Jesus Contreras, Fidelia Carrillo, Georgia Lyon, Dorothy Maestas, Esther Esquivel, Esther Martinez, Dora Flores, Floripa Esquivel, Clara Sierra, Steve Sierra, E. Salas, Matilde and Jesus Holguin, Manuel Esquivel, Catalina Espino, Louis Baum, Walter Hill, Manuel Lujan, Alfred Romero, Eulalia Montoya, Margaret Montoya, Frances Corral, Paula Martinez, Max Montano, Otis Green, Tony Esquivel, Stella Maestas, Lila Maria Lucinda Medina, James Craig, Henry Sanchez, Burton Reed, Alvin Smith; George Tur, Pete Garcia, Chris Zoula.

Some of the Maintenance boys have been doing considerable repairing to the interior of the Theatre Building, on the second floor of the post office and the Fort Stanton store.

Perry Zamora is having the interior of his service station remodeled and repainted. It is a nice improvement.

Emily Trujillo had visitors from Albuquerque last week end.

Mrs. Etha Clark had visitors from Albuquerque on Sunday.

Fill Garcia and Jake Sorrow went to Albuquerque Monday to bring back Max Ortega, who underwent surgery there.

Several of the boys and Little Leaguers have been going out on the baseball field to get the feel of the horseshoe. The weather has been chilly, but soon warm days will be here and the boys can have a real workout.

A brand new large automatic ice cube maker has been taken up stairs, to be installed in Main 2 by members of the Maintenance crew and electricians Kelly and Griego.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Totten have returned from a trip which took them to Phoenix and Chihuahua City, Mexico. On the return trip they stopped in El Paso and attended the horse races at Sunland Park at Anapra. In Phoenix they saw an exhibition baseball game between two major league teams.

The new dentist in Fort Stanton, Dr. Howard Tate of Ruidoso, will be here during the week when Dr. Sadowald is not in attendance. This will double the present amount of dental work available to the patients.

The Hospital's Board met in the library building Tuesday afternoon, March 28. Those attending were Mrs. Alicia Romero, chairman, of Santa Fe; Mrs. Shirley Fenner, secretary; Hobbs; Reed Mulvey, member, Roswell; Dr. Eugene Mann, member, Portales; L. W. Varner, superintendent, and H. C. Jernigan, M. D., medical director of the hospital here.

Chest Clinics held in three cities

Dr. Jernigan held chest clinics in Roswell, Carlsbad and Hobbs on March 23-24. The following ex-patients attended the clinics:

Roswell — Egypt and Olympia Candelaria, Hilaria Salcido, Leslie Forter, Willard Wren and A. W.

The Rancher and the Sportsman

(By Jack Samsen in "The New Mexico Stockman")

The recent decision of the State Game Commission to hold a three-week deer season in the northern half of New Mexico and the same in the south, left a lot of people sort of hanging in midair.

A good many of the ranchers had cause to be madder than a freshly-dipped bobcat. Their contention was it's nice to get away from the ranch sometimes and a three week season in their area just means they have to stay around and "watch the store" so to speak lest some of the more irresponsible hunters leave open a few gates, sight their guns in on the stock tanks or mistake a Hereford for an eight-point mule deer.

And this is in addition to ranchers opening up their land to hunting in the first place—something they don't necessarily have to do. The sportsmen's groups and most of the thinking outdoorsmen appreciate it too — as well as the Game Department.

The point of this whole thing is that a lot of the ranchers simply went to their local Game Department representative and asked as a favor that they recognize the shorter two-week season. Naturally the local game man, whether he was an area director, district conservation officer, patrolman—trapper—or what-not—took the request seriously and so recommended it.

Then on top of all that the 30 or so biologists of the Game Department — plus the entire field force—who had been making game surveys for months, recommended to the home office in Santa Fe that they also favored the shorter season. Their reasons were that the seasons could be better managed by the department, the proper percentage of game could be harvested for any given area and that everybody would be satisfied.

But they had not reckoned on the Game Commission. The commission obviously wanted the longer season and got it by turning down the recommendations of about 75 Game Department men.

As one official of the New Mexico Wildlife and Conservation Area said later: "If we're going to pay for 30 biologists to tell us what to do about our reasons why don't we listen to them?"

The whole thing boils down to an inherent weakness in the commission type of operation when appointments are made to it on a political basis rather than on merit.

A little experience—not necessarily a whole lot of it—with game and fish problems and those of ranchers, farmers and sportsmen in general would cure him in handy sometimes.

Leukemia—cancer of the blood-forming tissues — has increased sharply in men over 60. The American Cancer Society is spending large sums of money for research on this still fatal form of the disease. Your support is needed.

Stork shower for Shirley Campbell

Last Thursday noon in the home of Rosa Crain, Shirley Campbell was given a stork shower by the administrative and medical clerks and Dixie Sparks.

After delicious refreshments were served, the honoree received many beautiful and useful gifts for the coming event.

Jim (Red) Cavanaugh, who died in Santa Fe at the age of 70, lived and worked in Fort Stanton for many years when it was a Marine Hospital. He was the star first baseman of the great Fort Stanton baseball team of that epoch.

Introduction of New Simple Simon Pies

Are you looking for variety in spring desserts? Carnation Company, makers of Simple Simon fresh-frozen pies, have the answer in the three new pies currently being introduced. Included in this delicious trio are Custard, Coconut Custard and Blackberry Pies.

The smooth, melt-in-your-mouth custard, made with wholesome milk, country fresh eggs, sugar and imported spices, is baked in tender, flaky, crisp, well browned pastry. No more soggy, pale crusts of watery fillings when you serve custard pie! The Carnation Research Laboratories and Simple Simon test kitchens worked several years to perfect the formulas for both custard and pastry in order to market a top quality custard pie, and now it is yours to enjoy! The delicate custard flavor is enhanced with the addition of imported spices, and a light sprinkle of nutmeg over the top adds eye appeal. In the coconut custard variety flavor and texture contrast are created through the liberal use of shredded coconut.

The new fresh frozen blackberry pie is another dessert triumph. Sun-ripened Oregon blackberries of the finest quality are processed and quick-frozen at their flavor peak to be used in the pie filling. The berries are combined with sugar and lemon juice, and the resulting flavor is a delicious sweet-tart one. As in the case of all the Simple Simon pies, the crust is tender, flaky and well browned. So now you can enjoy blackberry pie, regardless of season. The berries used to make the Simple Simon pies are carefully chosen by Carnation Company Quality Control personnel.

New orchestra recalls group in years past

Remember how old Heavy Stewart usta make music on the piano that wouldn't quit, for dances all 'round the country? Well, now his son, R. G., and daughter Anna Lou are making up for lost time.

They are in an orchestra called "Western Swingsters," and the members are: Joe Blayon (rhythm guitar), Anna Lou Blayon (piano), Pat Duran (bass guitar), Wilson Purcella (lead guitar) and R. G. Stewart (steel guitar).

They have uniforms of black slacks, white shirts, red vests and black ties. R. G.'s wife, Judy, made the red vests.

With their orchestra suits and name "The Western Swingsters," they make gay for eye and plenty of swing for the foot.

They have played for several dances 'round the country. On April 2 they played at Corona and are ready to play by engagement anywhere within reasonable distance. R. G.'s address is 1510 Roosevelt, Alamogordo.

CAPITAN LINGOLN
By MARGARET RENCH
Darkness lifts and family is thankful
This message I am giving you now is from Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy McKnight, Penny and Janice:
"After months of darkness perhaps we can raise our heads and thank the hundreds of people for their prayers; the churches who devoted prayers for the welfare of our Mary Ann. We would like to thank the most wonderful people of Alamogordo, Tularosa and Cloudcroft, who opened their homes to us and also offered words of consolation. No one could know what this means unless they may have gone through a similar experience as the accident that happened to our little girl and sister."
"We thank the wonderful high school students for their cards, gifts and visits, especially those two dark weeks in the Alamogordo hospital. They were certainly appreciated more than you'll ever know. We would like to thank our relatives and friends for all their help in so many ways."
"After three operations and four weeks in the hospitals, Mary Ann has fairly good vision in her right eye. Our battle is not won; we still hope and praying that Dr. Morrow's skill will return vision to her left eye. Thank you all for your kindness."

Building Capitan
C. M. Francis has purchased the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Olson on Second st. and they will live there until their new home is ready near their business, which is progressing very nicely at this time. Ray Province is taking the old fence down and getting ready to put up a redwood fence on their enlarged part to beautify with lawn and flowers. Old wooden fences have been removed at the Ranch home, too, preparing for grass and flowers which will add more beauty. Work is progressing on the Flatley home on West Second. They are going to build their little home on a lot for a rental place after work, etc. The Plaza Maryland property sold this past week. The Pat Murphy are progressing nicely with the work on their home they bought from Edna Wright. Many yards are being cleaned. Williams are digging the cesspools on their lot near Armstrong's on West Fifth street and a water meter is being installed. When the electricity is in, they will move their trailer home from the Kingston Trailer Park to their permanent location.
Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Annarone and John Paul enjoyed a business trip to Roswell this past week.
We had several snow showers last week. The best one was Thursday evening about 5:45 when we received four inches in 50 minutes. The snow was so wet it stuck to the trees and fences and made a wonderful picture against the dark colors in the sky and moonlight. Much of the snow stayed through the next day. The last few days have been really Spring-like. The birds with their songs have made us aware of the season.
Mrs. Margaret Searle of Rice Lake, Wis., came as far as Carriazo with her brother-in-law, Ronald Searle, who had four horses in a trailer that he was taking to Tucson. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Howard, met her and she visited them here at their home until Tuesday.
Mrs. Eltha Merrell returned a few days ago from a vacation trip to Window Rock, Ariz.
Johnnie Soderback, who is in the Veterans Hospital in Albuquerque is improving in health. He has been there for three weeks.
Mrs. Maude Fritz has been in the Carriazo hospital for over a week. Her daughter, Mary Johnson, with whom she stays, has also been there for several weeks. Mrs. Johnson is now using crutches and is doing OK. Mrs. Louise Ferguson is doing OK. Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kingston for a while last Sunday were in and Mrs. Halson of Carriazo. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Ferguson of Albuquerque and Mr. and Mrs. Craycroft and Mrs. of Las Cruces.
Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dean, AMZ, spent Easter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean in Livingston, returning by Capitan Monday to spend the day and night with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean. Guy Dean is the manager of Penny's at Flagstaff.
Students home for Easter vacation were Buddy Williams from Albuquerque, Gerald Dean Jr., Jimmie Kerr, Charles Lockhart and Nathalie Britton, all of Texas Christian College; Penny McKnight from Eastern New Mexico University and Joe Leo Smith and Carroll Jones from Thatcher Junior College, Arizona. Carroll brought Joe home and visited relatives and to friends before he traveled on to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Jones in Deming. He is enjoying a new car.

Carrizozo Woman's Club to send three delegates to State Federation meeting

Members of the Carrizozo Woman's Club who will attend the Golden Anniversary convention of the New Mexico Federation of Women's Club will be Mrs. A. N. Spencer, Mrs. Kelley Stephenson and Mrs. Bryce Duggar. The convention will be April 11, 12 and 13 at the Western Skies Motor Hotel in Albuquerque.

According to Mrs. J. B. Davis of Hobbs, state president, there are a total of 60 women's clubs in the four districts of New Mexico in the federation, including 13 junior women's clubs. More than 4,000 club members make up the federation.

One of the highlights of this year's conference will be a detailed pageant depicting the 50-year history of the organization which was founded in Las Cruces in 1911.

In its 50-year history, the federation, under some of the most distinguished New Mexico civic and community leaders, has been in the forefront in the battle for social legislation.

The group was instrumental in urging legislation which has established a number of state institutions, including the Los Lunas Hospital and Training School, the State Mental Hospital at Las Vegas and the Girls Welfare Home in Albuquerque.

Adult conversational Spanish class to open

Miss Alicia Davila, Spanish instructor at Carrizozo High School, is offering an adult Spanish conversational class, two nights a week in the high school library, beginning at 7 p.m.

Classes will be on Tuesday and Thursday nights and start this Thursday evening.

No experience in speaking Spanish is needed. All interested in attending the class are asked to bring a notebook to the first meeting.

A small fee of less than $1.00 per student will be charged. The larger the enrollment, the smaller the fee will be, Miss Davila informed the News.

Mrs. Spencer heads '61 Cancer Crusade

Mrs. A. N. Spencer of Carrizozo has again been named county chairman of the 1961 Cancer Crusade in Lincoln County. The educational and fund-raising campaign began April 1.

As leader of the ACS campaign, Mrs. Spencer will welcome volunteers to help in the many jobs that need to be done in the county during April, Cancer Control Month.

"Because cancer eventually will strike two out of three families," Mrs. Spencer says, "there is urgent need for everyone to do his share to combat a disease which last year took the lives of more than a quarter of a million of our fellow Americans."

Both Congress and the governor of New Mexico have proclaimed this month Cancer Control Month. "Let us all join together," Mrs. Spencer urges, "to surpass our efforts of last year, by giving more and working harder in the 1961 Cancer Crusade."

Did you know Gasoline is Taxed at a Rate 5 Times as High as Diamonds?

IN NEW MEXICO, YOU PAY $1.00* TAX ON 10 GALLONS OF GASOLINE

* DOES NOT INCLUDE LOCAL TAXES

Gasoline taxes will be lowered-- if the latest temporary Federal gasoline tax increase expires on June 30th as scheduled by the 1959 Federal Highway Act.

Along with all good citizens, we are in favor of building the roads that the motoring public needs. But, in the last 10 years alone, Federal and State taxes nationwide on gasoline have skyrocketed 51%—skyrocketed to a point where gasoline, a basic commodity, is actually taxed at a rate five times as high as luxuries like diamonds and mink coats.

Most gasoline taxes be so high? Most people believe that gasoline taxes are high because the money is needed to pay for our national highway program. This is not so. The fact is that out of every highway-user tax dollar collected last year by the Federal government, more than 40 cents was diverted to non-highway purposes.

If these highway-user tax revenues were spent for highways—as they should be—gasoline taxes could be lowered, and the highway program given a boost.

In fact, the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1959 provides that when the added temporary Federal gasoline tax expires on June 30th, 1961, as scheduled, some $802 million a year in highway-user taxes—now diverted to the U. S. Treasury's general fund—will instead be deposited in the Highway Trust Fund.

As a result, if the latest Federal temporary gasoline tax increase expires on June 30th as scheduled—the national highway program will actually get $225 million more each year than it now receives from the latest Federal temporary gasoline tax increase.

In January of this year, after an exhaustive 2-year survey of national transportation policy, a special U. S. Senate study group confirmed the wisdom of this decision. This will be good news for you. You will be able to enjoy a steadily improving highway system, at a lower gasoline tax-rate.

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT TODAY'S HIGH GASOLINE TAXES

- In New Mexico, you pay $1.00 tax on 10 gallons of gasoline.
- You pay 10¢ tax a gallon—4¢ in Federal taxes plus 6¢ in State taxes plus local taxes.
- Gasoline is taxed at a rate 5 times as high as diamonds.
- The average New Mexico motor vehicle owner pays $93 a year in gasoline taxes.
- Since 1951 there have been three increases in the Federal gasoline tax alone.
- In the last 10 years, gasoline taxes nationwide have skyrocketed 51%—yet the national average price of gasoline itself has risen only 5.5% during the same period.
