DEMOCRATIC TREK SERVED MONTOYA

The Democratic caravan's two-week tour of the state served the interest of U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya in his drive for the U. S. Senate...

CHAVEZ RECOGNIZED MONTOYA AMBITION

It is interesting and typical of the harsh nature of politics, that Montoya should be up front for Dennis Chavez's place just a little more than a year after Chavez tried to drive him out of politics...

BURROUGHS BEST FOR MONTOYA

Montoya's ambition for the Senate may lead to the Democrat nominating John Burroughs for governor as the only one of the four candidates who could be depended upon to appoint Montoya if a Senate vacancy should occur when he was in as governor.

JUSTICE CHAVEZ POSSIBLE STARTER

The worst thing that could happen to the 49-year-old Montoya in his climb toward the Senate would be for Supreme Court Justice David Chavez, brother of Senator Chavez, to file against him.

BURROUGHS, CAMPBELL AIDED BY CARAVAN

The unprecedented political tour launched 13 months before the next general election brought former Governor Burroughs forward as a strong prospect for Demo nomination next year.

WILL NEED MONEY BY TRUNK LOADS

If a Senate position is open by primary filing time in March the resultant situation is going to put a load on the people who put up the money for the Democratic party like they never felt before.

REPUBLICANS EYE RICH-ROSWELL MAN

If Chavez retires it is a pretty good guess that Republican Gov. Ed Mcchem would appoint the wealthy Robert O. Anderson of Roswell to the place with the thought that he would run for nomination and election in 1962 with the prestige of an incumbent senator.

Ask damages after car hits house

Samuel Sanchez and his wife, Grace Sanchez, of San Patricio, have asked $9,000 damages in district court from a Roswell man, charging that his car struck their house after it collided with another car on Highway 70 in San Patricio.

Dentists to leave Carrizozo soon

The "Missionary Dental Training Institute" in Carrizozo will close in a couple of weeks, according to Philip Lewis, who is now in charge here. Most of the group went to Mountainair about a month ago to open a clinic there.

Mrs. Sanchez says that she became frightened, fell off of an incline leading from the kitchen door of the house when the car struck it, thereby injuring her neck and back. She asks $3,000.

JUVENILES PICKED UP

Three juveniles were picked up in Ruidoso last week, wanted by California authorities. One was an escapee from reformatory. They had stolen a car and admitted out-running a police car in Tularosa.

Expect some radiation here should all-out atomic war begin

Carrizozo High School teacher Joe Allen, recently returned from a two-week course in civil defense at Alamogordo, this week told what people in Carrizozo and Lincoln County can expect in case of atomic war.

Everyone can expect to absorb some radiation from fallout dust, he said, but, depending on how many and what kind of bombs are dropped in our area, there needn't be many deaths from radiation sickness.

Most of the deaths in the United States would occur from blast effects, he added, and they wouldn't bother Carrizozo. Nearest targets, as predicted by national C.D. experts, are Alamogordo and Roswell.

Allen said that there probably would be few deaths in Carrizozo from fallout, and less in the nation from fallout than from the blast.

Each home should have a supply of food, he suggested, and bottled water, transistor radio and first aid kit with burn ointment.

Symptoms of radioactive sickness are vomiting and stomach upset, and falling hair. Most of the people who develop these symptoms will live, Allen emphasized—only those that absorb big doses of fallout dust over a period of time will die.

Here's how the experts suggest local folks should behave in case of atomic war.

First, there will be ample warning time before fallout reaches here, the blast of the bomb will have its effect. Fallout danger begins about eight hours after a nearby bomb is dropped, and will last for about two weeks after the blast, in the Lincoln County area.

A family should get into their homes, as near the center of the building as possible (assuming there is no basement or fallout shelter—rare items in Carrizozo.)

Use the water in the hot water tank, and run the bathtub full on soaps. Carrizozo's water, from wells, probably will be safe, Allen said. For food, eat only canned or bottled goods for as long as possible. Probably, Allen said, emergency food will arrive before the two-week isolation period is up.

DISTRICT COURT

Morris Book, charged with embezzlement when he was Ruidoso city clerk, pleaded "nolo contendere", or no defense. The judge deferred sentence for five years, placed Book on probation for five years and levied $500 probation costs. Book is to repay the city of Ruidoso about $10,000 at not less than $100 a month.

The case of John T. Regan and Chester E. Baugh, Stallion Site soldiers involved in a killing in Carrizozo a few weeks ago, was also heard Tuesday. Regan, originally charged with assault with a deadly weapon, had his charge reduced to assault and battery, to which he pleaded nolo contendere. Sentence was deferred for 17 months, he was placed on probation for 17 months and paid $400 probation costs.

Elmer H. Humphreys, Ft. Dilea, pleaded guilty to reckless driving and was given $150 costs in lieu of fine.

Elmer O. Sanchez pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking and entering the Cactus Bar the night of October 18. He was sentenced to 1 to 3 years in prison, and two more 1-3 year sentences were made for violation of parole, the three sentences to run concurrently. Sanchez was placed on probation October 9 on two breaking and entering charges.

CLUB HEARS OF RUSSIAN EDUCATION

The Carrizozo Women's Club met October 20. Mrs. Claud Brannum gave a report of her trip to the fourth district convention in T or C recently.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Dr. Darrel Nilley of Las Cruces. Dr. Nilley compared our country with Russia and its youth of today in education and controlled education.

He said that from the sixth grade up students are under state control, and must spend two years in a labor group anywhere there is a shortage of labor.

Nilley said there are 40 religious groups in Russia today, but they are mostly made up of gray-haired old men and women.

Atom bomb site tour set

A ball of fire, a flash of light, a deafening explosion and the world was plunged into the Atomic Age, July 16, 1945. This was Trinity Site located on the White Sands Missile Range near Carrizozo.

A tour of the area is planned for Sunday October 29, and folks in Lincoln County are invited to go along. Col. Jim Snow of Nogal is in charge of the tour.

One group will leave from Alamogordo C of C building at 9:30 a.m. Meeting points for cars from other areas are:

Oscura range camp gate, on Highway 54 16 miles south of Carrizozo, at 10:30 a.m.

Stallion Site gate, on Highway 380, 80 miles west of Carrizozo, at 10:30 a.m. (This is best for Carrizozoans, since it will require only four miles of dirt road.)

Escorts will accompany all three parties. Departure will be at 12:30 p.m. from Trinity Site, although sight-seers may stay on for other departures at 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. No departures will be allowed on an individual basis.

No charge is made for the tour.

"UNCLE BILLY" KIMBRELL DIES

Services were held in Pecos October 16 for William Edward Kimbrell, long-time county resident who died at his ranch there October 13.

He was born July 21, 1877, in Lincoln County. His parents were George and Pauline Kimbrell. Mr. Kimbrell attended Pecos school until graduation and went to New Mexico Military Institute by appointment and was graduated there. He returned to Pecos school as a teacher, where in 1904 he met and married Virginia Romero.

To this union 12 children were born, three dying in infancy and two daughters preceded him in death. Surviving are Albert, Dick, Andrea, Jane, Viola, Josephine, Pauline and George.

Mr. Kimbrell served as Lincoln County clerk during 1903-1908. From 1909 to 1930 he took up farming and ranching in Pecos and during the years 1931 to 1934 was county assessor. From 1934 to 1939 he was deputy assessor, and in 1939 and 1940 was again county assessor.

He then returned to his ranch where he lived until his death.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. W. E. Kimbrell, Albert N. Kimbrell, Richard H. Kimbrell, Andrea Salas, Jane Ortiz, Josephine Kimbrell, Pauline Mackey and George Kimbrell, several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mr. Kimbrell was known to his many friends in Lincoln County as "Uncle Billy."

CAPITAN - TULAROSA GAME TIME SET

The time of the football game between Capitan and Tularosa on November 3 has been changed from evening to 1:30 p.m. It's the last game of the season for the Capitan Tigers, and is non-conference.

Catch two car thieves at Ancho

Two GFs were arrested at the Ancho truckstop Monday after the car they admit stealing was wrecked about eight miles north of Ancho.

The car was taken from a Clovis used car lot, where it was left with the keys in the ignition. Personnel at the truckstop phoned patrolman Jack Brax at Corona when two suspicious men showed up, and they were immediately arrested.

The men are David Funk, 19, Ft. Hood, and Richard Sandler, 21, Fretona, Texas.

SCHOOLS OUT, YEA! THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

Elementary and high schools will be dismissed Thursday and Friday as teachers attend state teachers convention in Albuquerque.

About half the faculty plan to attend. J. T. Clegg, Veda Lou Colwell and Mrs. Myrtle Williams will go early Wednesday as council delegates for Carrizozo.

THOSE "TRICK OR TREATERS" WILL BE AFTER YOUR UNICEF PENNIES NEXT TUESDAY NIGHT

Tuesday evening, October 31, boys and girls from the 2nd grade through the 8th grade of Carrizozo will be among more than 2,500 American boys and girls who will devote their Halloween's fun to "trick or treat" for UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund.

The children may receive their customary treats of candy etc. in addition to the pennies dropped into their UNICEF containers, thus they are receiving a treat for themselves as well as helping a less fortunate child.

Bonito Bits

BY Louise Runnels

The Game Department stocked fish in the Blue Hole Tuesday—enough to last through hunting season.

The temperature hasn't dropped too fast. The coldest night has been 26 degrees at Bonito City.

The hills are beautiful with colors and there are still some apples in the old orchards above Bonito Lake.

The lake has about 55 feet of water now, and South Fork and North Fork Creeks are dry again.

To those who read about Bonito and folks coming and going, I'm sorry I haven't gotten my column in lately. I started working on Wattle's cafe in Ruidoso and don't see many folks anymore.

To give the Wattle's a plug, they came here from Texas, like many others who have helped build Ruidoso and have a fine cafe across from the state bank. When they have a day off they usually pack a lunch, jump in their jeep and take to the hills. They know near all the hills and trails that the Coas and Billy the Kid know. They have one daughter, Judy, age 15.

Received word Thursday that Fred Sweet Sr. is in Fort Bayard, N. M., in the veteran hospital. Hugh Truitt took him there from T or C.

Word from Robert Runnels who is going to school in Poggio Springs, Colo., tells us their football team, the Pirates, have not lost a game. Robert and Eunik Pruitt are scoring along with Russell Reed from Washington state.

Sam Allen, Budro Morris, Earno Hazen and brother Johnnie have gone elk hunting in Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Stuart in Alamogordo are parents of a son named Robert Scott.

Mrs. A. N. Runnels and daughter and Mrs. Joe Goo and little son Danny have just returned from a trip to Texas to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Guber, and Mrs. Effie Vestal from Rising Star, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Guber from Merion had a wonderful visit at Tom Guber's home.

Ben Hingman was on the Bonito Sunday to visit friends and went to Alto to see Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blood and perhaps Mrs. Nannio Hightower. It was Ben's birthday.

The "Trip of the Week" in last week's paper was about Ruidoso, and folks can easily spend a day around the resort town, driving over the newly-paved scenic subdivision around the golf course,

Letters to Editor

Before selling Carrizozo down the river let's stop and wonder about these things. Carrizozo bonded itself for $250,000 several years ago, has paid out some third of it, also interest for all these years and now wanting to sell us out for about half of what this Carrizozo franchise is worth and if the Rural Electric Corp. gets hold of the franchise same could not be bought for half a million dollars. Then we give it away.

Yes the people voted a sales tax but why. Do they pay property tax, then just think about all the old days, when we had a lot better town than we have now but we never had any foreign population that thought we were so backward. We got along fine and never thought of having a town manager if that's what it is. The town has always got along fine without one. Figures out some savings that can be made such as repairing streets. You see the town truck out filling up holes every so often throwing away as anyone knows these holes won't hold and stay unless the dirt in the holes is cleaned out. Did you ever see the state highway fill in a hole without cleaning out the dust and filth out of it first. NO.

We built a swimming pool that can be used a few months of the year when if the same money had been put into a bowling alley it would have been an all year round sport and kept our youngsters off the street day and night. Then neither could the town have ever been sued for some child's death due to negligent help that was busy looking at shapes instead of them. Just think of a lot of this unnecessary stuff and wonder how Carrizozo has got along so many years without outside help.

Personally I am not against selling the light plant but let's think several times before giving away out town's light franchise for as I say it can't be bought back for half a million.

Got rid of the unnecessary expense and let's live the life we are entitled to and like we always have. Got a picture of the town's past and just wonder how it has been here so long without a city manager, and now we have a city planner which we have always got along without. Make an ordinance and see that its lived up to irrespective of how big they are.

Take a ride down Railroad street where No. 3 and 4 sees every time they go through town and just wonder as a stranger if after looking at the sight one sees over there if you would ever want to come here to have a home or business. Let's keep our light franchise until some one comes by and wants to buy it and clean up the town.

The Lincoln County News Carrizozo, New Mexico Gentlemen:

I am pleased to enclose check in renewal of my subscription for one year to my Home Town Paper. It was gratifying indeed to receive the October 12 issue, carrying on the front page the wonderful picture and article by Mrs. Jimmy (Eva) Woodward of Lovington, New Mexico. Visiting with her each year is one of the bright spots in my annual trips to my home state. Mrs. Woodward and my Mother were life-long friends from the time they were seven and eight years old and lived on the Bonita. She is truly a pioneer in the finest sense of the word. Her memory is keenly alert, her sense of humor incomparable and she is one of the most lovable characters it has ever been my privilege to know.

Sincerely,

 Dear Sgt.,
 In reply to your letter about me to the editor, I'd like to answer you in detail.

1. You say I'm one of the many unjustly taxed.
2. You state my knowledge of the U. S. Govt. is beyond reproach. You're wrong—however, by reading some of the congressional reports and the digest, also several of the best newspapers, I do get a slight idea of a few essential things.
3. Being the Americanization officer of my Legion post, I'd like to learn much more.

Sergeant, I have four honorable discharge papers, no absence of duty because of G.O. 45. Number one, the U.S. navy—mostly on the U.S.S. Texas—like me now a relic. Next, U.S. Army, 8th Bgd. A. Bat., 156th A. The next two were from the same outfit, reorganized after the war, to wit: A. Bat., 189th. We trained a lot of boys who did so well in WW II. They classed me 2 d.o., too—old then, so I got with the atomic energy commission at Hanford, Wash.

Son, my hair grew gray in government service before your mother—God bless her—passed on your first day.

Next you ask me if I realize we have soil conservation. Yes, I have a farm.

Education... well, I had a teacher in the first grade.

Hospitalization and the V.A. hospitals I've had four major operations and one in France.

Social Security—Yes, I know about that too, but it's every month.

Yes, I even draw a disability pension from Uncle Sam.

Next you say my tax and you're going to prevent comments from entering our wonderful country... right, 36¢ per cent, sure, a lot of it has been subtracted, and $80

Home run kills a calf?

(Here's another entry in Shorty Miller's Tall Tale Contest.)

One of the old timers came in the other day and asked me if I remembered the time that old timer Clark Hust went over to the old Beavery (Western Hotel now) and asked if anyone there wanted to go over to Roswell the next morning and one of them said Yes I sure do. Clark told him to be at Kelley's Corner the next morning at 7 o'clock. Well, the fellow was there, and they started off down the street and got as far as the old Dutch Reil's garage where the fellow thought Clark's car, was. When they walked on by the garage, he asked Clark where his car was. Clark said, "Hell I ain't got no car" and the fellow asked him what he was going to Roswell in. Clark told him: "Why I am going to walk and just wanted someone to keep me company."

You would have had to hear Clark talk to imagine how this conversation ended.

(Where are all these real liars or are they all dying off?)

Thanks from superintendent of HS

The parade, the homecoming game and dance were well received by everyone. It is seldom that we have so many activities in such a short period of time.

The Alumni, the Student Council, the Teachers, the Coaches and the Team are to be congratulated for the smooth manner in which all of the events (especially the way the game against Melrose) were handled.

In behalf of the School Board, the Faculty, the Student Body and the Team, we would like to take this means of saying "THANKS" for your cooperation and support of the coaches and the team.

Let's be here Wednesday night at 7:30 P.M. and support the Grizzlies when they meet the Ruidoso Warriors in what will perhaps be the toughest game of the season.

We will announce the date of the State Championship game with Escondido as soon as the game date has been set.

Christmas trees to be sold from nearby mountains

Christmas trees are being offered for sale this Fall on the Lincoln National Forest.

One of the many valuable products from the multiple use management of the Lincoln National Forest is Christmas trees. They are cut from forest stands where small trees are too congested to permit the best growth. By cutting Christmas trees, not only is a valuable product obtained from the land that brings joy to many people, but this cutting permits the remaining trees to grow faster and even be more resistant to disease.

The Lincoln National Forest has advertised for sale on November 14 three Christmas tree permits about 25 miles southwest of Mayhill, New Mexico. The estimated number of Christmas trees for each unit is 20,000, 7,500 and 7,500.

In addition to these large advertised sales, small sales ranging in size from 50 to 500 Christmas trees will also be sold on the Sacramento Ranger District.

Persons interested in any of these sales should write the Forest Supervisor, Alamogordo, New Mexico or the District Ranger, Mayhill, New Mexico, for bid forms and further information.

If all the midwife kits shipped by UNICEF were stacked one on top of each other, they would form a pile twice as high as Mount Everest.

Tatum gallops by Corona 41 to 12

The galloping Coyotes from Tatum sped by the Corona Cardinals Friday night 41 to 12. The speedy Tatum squad built up a 35 to 0 half time lead, then had to battle an aroused Corona eleven for a losing second half. Corona outscored the Coyotes 12 to 6 the last half.

A bright moon coupled with a cold night and a dust-swept Tatum field was the setting that saw the classy Coyotes howl and growl as they swept to two fast touchdowns before the Corona lads even gained possession of the ball. At the end of the first quarter, Tatum led 21 to 0. At half time the score was 35 to 0 in Tatum's favor.

A classy trio, Michael Harton, Archie Harris and Joe Wilson led the Coyote attack with savage bursts around the Redbirds' pulverized flanks. Ripping the hapless Cardinals with alternate left and right end runs, this clever and speedy three kept the Corona squad reeling from the fierce onslaught.

Corona's beleaguered seventeen Minutemen, whittled down to their lowest physical edge for the season came out loosed for bear in the second half. Tatum's opening kickoff, the gritty Redbirds crew set off a sustained 67 yard drive that ended with Clint Koper going over for the touchdown three yards out. The Coyotes stung by this resurgent Cardinal effort set into motion another fierce drive that resulted in another six points for Tatum.

The fourth quarter was a lulu with the fired-up Cardinals lashing out in grim determination, kept the surprised Coyotes in full concentration. Throwing caution to the wind, Coach Clark called for a "gang ho" effort, and his two gang ho boys, the Roper twins, ripped the air for two dazzling passes that led to another Corona score. J. T. Roper hit twin brother Clint Lee with a pass for 25 yards, then on the next play parlayed a pass play for a 53-yard touchdown score. No conversion on either touchdown.

Licking their wounds, and appreciating a good licking from a fine Tatum team, the Redbirds felt proud of their second-half showing. Homecoming is in the air this week at Corona with the Cardinals playing host to the winless Honda Eagles. The Cardinals may rate a slight nod in this encounter, but look for plenty of fireworks — the Eagles need a win and the Redbirds are determined to end the season in a blaze of glory.

Letters to Editor

Lincoln County News
Dear Sir:

It gives me great pleasure to announce that Pfc. Antonio L. Beltran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Beltran and husband of Mary L. Beltran, of Carrizozo, has been selected to represent the 3rd Armored Division "CCA" board of governors of all of our six clubs now open in the Ayers Kaserne, and Schloss Kaserne, Germany. Pfc. Beltran has shown great ability and responsibility toward the maintaining of our fine clubs.

He is now a Master at Arms of the EM club, which he has held since April of '61, and has made many relations with the German Nationals that visit our clubs. Our main task is maintaining good German-American relations, while our men are stationed here in Germany. Pfc. Beltran works among 20 Germans and all have reported good high-standard words for him.

Pfc. Beltran according to his company commander has the making of a good soldier, and as yet has shown no discrepancies in his records. At present he is employed as our UAC Classification and Assignment clerk, in which he is turning in a "good long hourly" job. Pfc. Beltran is a 1956 high school graduate of Carrizozo, where he participated in football and baseball, and later was the town team manager, which won the New Mexico South Central League championship. A copy of "Letter of Commendation" will be filed in his 201 file.

HERE'S A "NEWS" RELEASE PRINTED JUST AS RECEIVED

An awful group of bad young people from the cantankerous Carrizozo Baptist church met for a dumb time at an evil party. The one who presided over the foolish affair was the ghoulish Frank McBride. He and his hateful wife are recognized leaders in all the ignorant affairs of the church. I suppose that next to the juvenile pastor and his kittenish wife, they are the most prominent members.

Lousy Connie Casey could easily usurp Frank's place in popularity if he could just land that mushy school teacher he is so gone on! He really makes a nasty spectacle of himself trying to run her down and make her say yes.
Always an added attraction to any Carrizozo gathering is the obnoxious personality of the putrid Gary Armstrong. What a queer sense of humor he has! But every time he opens his rotten mouth all the sticky people laugh their trashy heads off.

There were many other vociferous dignitaries present like Jackie Miller, John Miller, John Casey, Jim Lock, Lora Arvin, Elizabeth Rogers and Mary Hubbard. Oh this party was a wacky occasion. All the yellow crowd had a zany time!
THE IDEAL GIFT — Sends the Lincoln County News for birthdays, Christmas, anniversaries, anytime. Ina.

TELL ME...

IS 24-CARRAT GOLD... PURE GOLD?

YES! BUT IT IS TOO SOFT FOR ORDINARY WEAR! A HARDER METAL, USUALLY COPPER, IS ALLOYED WITH GOLD. 24-CARRAT GOLD IS GOLD CONTAINING 14 PARTS OF GOLD AND 10 OF ANOTHER METAL.

HOW DID THE TERM "RAINBOW CHASER" ORIGINATE?

THE ANCIENTS BELIEVED THAT A HUGE POT OF GOLD RESTED WHERE THE RAINBOW TOUCHED THE EARTH! SINCE THE RAINBOW'S END CANNOT BE LOCATED, RAINBOW CHASER CAME TO MEAN ONE WHO FOLLOWS ILLUSION!

IS A REINDEER SO-CALLED BECAUSE IT CAN BE DRIVEN WITH REINS?

NO! THE NAME IS DERIVED FROM THE LAPP WORD "REIND" (HASTLE) AND THE ANGLIC- SAXON WORD "WILD ANIMAL" MEANING A DOMESTICATED DEER!

DID COFFEE ORIGINATE IN ARABIA OR BRAZIL?

NEITHER! COFFEE FIRST GREW IN ABYSSINIA!

Corona News

Mrs. A. E. Mulkey • Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Perkins were in Albuquerque last week to attend services for Charles and Valerie Thompson, tragically burned to death in a car when they stuck matches into a can of gasoline. The children were the son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson; Mrs. Thompson is the granddaughter of Mrs. George Simpson. Mrs. Simpson's niece, Lucille Bruce of Santa Fe, was murdered the same day by two boys who have admitted the crime. Glenna Chadwick has returned to school after a recent tonsillectomy in Roswell.

Luther Porter of Alamogordo, son of Mrs. Lucille Porter of Corona, was here this week fixing up his cabin for deer season which begins November 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wart returned first of this week from Lubbock and reported cotton picking in full swing at their cotton farm in Lubbock.

Darrell Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Robinson of Corona, was home the past weekend from Air Force National Guard, Lackland AFB, San Antonio. He went back to work at Grants this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Mulkey were in T or C having some dental work done first of the week.

Willard and Louella Lackey were home for the weekend from State university, Las Cruces. E. E. Milton of T or C was a visitor in Corona and Cedarvale this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Buell of Ft. Sumner visited in the Mulkey home the past weekend enroute to Albuquerque. Mr. Buell planned to enter Veterans hospital for a checkup this week, while Mrs. Buell visited with her daughter who lives in Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Keelin recently returned from a trip to Colorado where they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones at Green Mountain Dam, and several other places including Steamboat Springs, Denver City, and Shadow Mountain Dam at Delta. They visited with the Bill Thomas family and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Colbaugh. At Dayfield they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jeter who have a huge apple crop this year. Mrs. Jeter had picked over 400 bushels of apples, and still had many more of Chimayo and the valley below. The Santa Clara Indian pueblo lies only two miles south of Espanola, and two miles further on the turn-off leading to the Puyo Cliff ruins. The Santa Clara people believe their ancestors occupied these spectacular ruins centuries ago. Archaeologists have confirmed that the Puyo community was abandoned in the 1500's, the occupants probably moving to the more fertile Rio Grande valley below.

The road to Puyo is unpaved, but well-maintained, and 10 miles up from the highway the cliff ruins come into view. There are the remains of a long row of yellow houses at the base of the reddish-yellow cliff, and a few of the buildings have been restored. The adventuresome can climb ladders to reach the top of the mesa, although there is also a road leading to the top.

On top of the mesa are the spreading remains of a pueblo, also with a restored house. From here, you get one of the most thrilling scenic views in New Mexico—a 100-mile panorama of the Sangre de Cristo mountains to the east and the Rio Grande valley, cradle of New Mexico history, below.

Apaches quite a bit different now that civilization has arrived

By KIT CARSON

Conditions today between the White Man and the Apaches are not exactly the same as they were fourscore years ago in Lincoln County or any of the surrounding territory. Then, their raids on early-day settlers and pioneering ranchers were a constant menace, and their rampages were feared by every man who entered the Territory.

Geronimo was the fearless chief of the Apaches. He led his brave warriors through hell and high-water as they fought practically every white man who entered the New Mexico and Arizona Territories. His warlike methods in the rugged west became a perplexing problem. It became a major cause of the Federal Forces who sought to protect the settlers as they opened the doors of the early west.

Fort Stanton was established along after the middle of the nineteenth century in Lincoln County to suppress the raids of Geronimo and his warriors. The Forces of the Fort were taxed to the height of their strength to combat his forages, and, at times, it seemed the issue could not be met successfully.

However, today, those problems have been overcome. The ranchers enjoy peaceful usage of the valuable elements of the land to run their valuable herds over the richest grazing land in the southwest. (Occasionally, grazing rights, however, become a problem.)

And the Apaches enjoy a domain set aside for them, known as the Mescalero Apache Indian Reservation, on the south fringe of Lincoln County. It is a most wonderful, picturesque, mountainous country—very beautiful.

There at Apache Summit, a little way south of Ruidoso, is sort of a meeting place for the Apaches, tourists, and those who travel over Route 70.

Geronimo, the last surviving son of the staunch old Apache warrior, has headquarters there. He meets the tourists at Apache Summit each day in the most peaceful manner, and appeases them in various methods—and seems to enjoy it, too!

Apache Summit is a Mescalero Indian Reservation business enterprise, serving the motorists in many ways. Tribesmen of the Reservation meet at the establishments with C. C. Cantrell and Stanley Cochran holding lease on the business enterprise.

It's a little different today from what it was only a short time ago, so to speak, when the Federal Forces at Fort Stanton answered the early-morning bugle call and wondered to which section they would be dispatched that day, to suppress a bloody Apache Indian attack on settlers, some lone rancher, or cross-country wagon train!

Hondo School News

On Friday, October 20, we had our homecoming game against Vaughn. Vaughn was victorious. Those playing their last home game were Julian Salcido, Leroy Gomez, Bobby Salas, Bobby Montes, and Refugio Gallegos. During the half-time Homecoming Queen Theresa Romero, a senior, was crowned by the tri-captains, Leroy Gomez, Bobby Salas, and Julian Salcido. Her Princesses were Edith Joiner, sophomore, Ruth Joiner, senior, and Pauline Mackey, senior. Students and alumni attended a homecoming party after the game to which Vaughn was invited.

On Wednesday, October 18, election of class officers was held. Those ruling in the freshman class are: Eloy Torres, president; Vicente Chavez, vice president; Kathleen Kimbrell, secretary; and Stella Herrera, treasurer.

Sophomores: Adelina Sanchez, president; Alberta Kimbrell, vice president; Priscilla Gomez, secretary; and Jerry Salas, treasurer. Junior class: Sam Sanchez, president; Rosa Romero, vice president; Willie Romero, secretary; and Stanley Thomas, treasurer. David Montoya is student council representative.

Senior class: Priscilla Sanchez, president; Theresa Romero, vice president; Ole Chavez, secretary; and Julian Salcido, treasurer. Cecilia Gallegos is student council representative. Martha Simeros, Edith Joiner—reporters.

TO POSTMASTERS CONVENTION Mrs. Mamie Perry, Mrs. Gladys Nordin and Mrs. Ruth Roscoe of Corona are in Denver attending a postmasters convention. So is our faithful Elton Lindemann, reporter and Alto postmaster.

About People

Stella Padilla is helping out at the county treasurer's office, making out tax statements which will be mailed soon.

Cookie Sherrill is moving from the Bell motel, which she has managed for three years, to the house next to John Harkeys.

Among those in Carrizozo for homecoming last weekend were the C. D. Nowells, Guy Wardens and Barbara Jean Branum of Alamogordo; LeRoy Sidwell of Roswell, and Mr. and Mrs. Clint Branum of Albuquerque.

60 ELK HUNTING Elk hunting near Pagosa Springs, Colo., are Ray Taylor and Jimmy Gibson of Lincoln, and Virgil Hall, Gerald Dean and Bill Randall of Capitan.

CLEANEST LOT IN TOWN — After Richard Lopez, printers' devil at the Lincoln County News, finishes a "clean-up" job it is well done and Richard is applying his talents to the trash and weeds on the lot west of the News office. It will be slick and clean real soon.

MOST SUCCESSFUL PARADE The Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce this week issued a "Thanks" to the 40 merchants who helped make the homecoming parade a success by donating gifts that were distributed via the "flying saucer" float.

HOW BANKS HELP YOU TO Buy a Car

Perhaps it's obvious: Banks help you and thousands of other folks like you to join the ranks of new-car owners by making auto loans. But perhaps you are not aware of all the advantages that bank auto loans provide: The low over-all cost; the prompt action on applications; the terms designed to suit your circumstances; the inclusion of the initial car insurance premium in the loan; the build-up of credit standing. If you have chosen your next car, come in and let us give you figure-facts on financing here!

Trip of the week suggests visit to old ruins at Espanola

History began in New Mexico in the fertile Espanola Valley. You can stand on the spot where armored conquistadors first planted the flag of Spain and claimed a wild new land for their king.

There is much to see in the Espanola area beside the now vanished village of San Gabriel where Juan de Onate established his first capital in 1598. But if you are history-minded at all, you will want to visit the San Gabriel site.

To reach it, drive north from Espanola on U. S. 64 to the San Juan Pueblo, and then west three miles across the Rio Grande. A simple wooden cross marks the site of San Gabriel.

In another direction from Espanola—east on State Road 76—you can step backward in time to rural scenes that are only now beginning to change from their 18th and 19th century appearance.

Five miles up this paved road is the village of Santa Cruz, its plaza surrounded with adobe buildings and dominated by the 18th century Santa Cruz church. Although the exterior of the church has been somewhat modernized, the interior is typical of decoration in Spanish colonial times.

Santa Cruz has scenery days in New Mexico history. Founded in 1692, it was the scene of a decisive battle between rebels and Mexican troops during the rebellion of 1837. And in 1847, it was at Santa Cruz that U. S. troops fought an engagement with New Mexicans and Indians taking part in the Taos rebellion.

From Santa Cruz, State Road 76 winds past adobe houses and irrigated fields along the Rio Santa Cruz to the famous village of Chimayo.

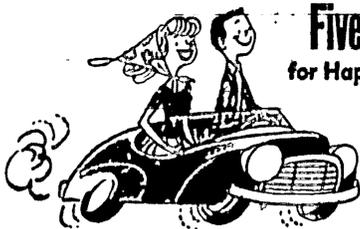

Chimayo strikes the eye instantly as an unusual example of old New Mexico charm. It is one of the most popular subjects in the state for painters. And there is more than one weaver who will show you how he works a hand-made loom to produce famous Chimayo blankets.

Also in Chimayo is the twin-belfried "Sanuario," a chapel built in 1810 for family use and since become, both a religious shrine and a subject for the brushes of painters and the shutters of cameras from all over the world.

If you are a fisherman, by the way, Chimayo is not far from Santa Cruz Lake, a trout-stocked reservoir which feeds the many farms

Mr. and Mrs. John Dale and family of Alamogordo spent Sunday with the Price Millers. Kay returned home with her parents after a three week stay with the Millers. Mrs. Dale is much improved over her recent illness.
 Mrs. June Straley, Roldo and Tommy J. of Carrizozo, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Barnett and family of Hatch, were Sunday guests of the Cope Straleys at their Luna ranch home.
 Ancho was proud to participate in the Carrizozo Homecoming Parade last Friday afternoon. Three of our fairer sex were modeling. Miss Glenna Stoneman, modeling the latest in hair styling and coloring for Erma's Beauty Salon with champagne beige hair, was a stand-out in a matched lilac sweater and slack suit. Mrs. Cope Straley and little Miss Leanna Straley modeled lovely dresses and hats for "June's Dress Shop."

 Mrs. Violet Lynch and son Boyd, of El Paso, were guests of the Lynches at Ancho and Jcarilla over the weekend. Mrs. Violet Lynch, Mrs. Eric Lynch, and Mrs. Larry Lynch spent Saturday in Carrizozo. They picked up Mary Carol who had spent Friday night with Miss Jackie Miller. Mary Carol and Jackie attended the homecoming school dance.
 The Ancho U.P.W. met in the home of Mrs. Walton Wilson October 19. A delicious covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the group, with the hostess Mrs. Wilson serving chicken pot pie as the main dish. Mrs. Barney Wilson led the group in their final study on the Book of John. Business included final preparation for attendance at the fall district U.P.W. meeting in Albuquerque. Mrs. John Allen Hightower and Mrs. Clyde Stoneman dedicated the overseas sewing of the group which will go to the United Church Hospital in Cebu in the Philippine Islands.
 Mr. and Mrs. Barney Wilson spent several days with their son, Charles, and family at Elmhurst this past week. On Friday Mrs. Wilson attended the regular Women's Club Meeting. She reported a most interesting speaker, Dr. Darrel Nilley, who spoke on the Russian Education System as compared to the American Education System. Dr. Nilley had visited in Russia and his report was first hand. Mrs. Wilson felt that all parents should have heard this speaker.
 Tommy Eanits of Carrizozo was a week-end guest of the Leo Straleys.
 Bryan and John Allen Hightower were shipping cattle in Ancho last Saturday. Children of Ancho turned out last Thursday afternoon after school for the organization of the Ancho Children's Choir Club. Light refreshments were served and the children enjoyed singing games and fun songs for warming up exercises. Several new children's hymns were learned. Director of the choir is Mrs. W. P. Lytle, who will be assisted by Mrs. George Straley and Mrs. Cope Straley. Meetings will be held at the community building each Saturday afternoon at 1:30 and also on the 3rd Thursday of each month following school.

 Little Stevie Harkey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Harkey, was hospitalized the last part of the week with a severe cold. Stevie, who is four years old, thought it great fun to be in the hospital. Dan Harkey was also on the sick list last week.

Waldon-Hefker marriage told

Miss Sharon Louise Waldon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Waldon of Corona, became the bride of Jack Hefker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hefker of Carrizozo, in a double ring ceremony at 3 p.m. October 8 in the Presbyterian church of Corona.
 The Rev. W. P. Lytle officiated, and Miss Sherrill Perkins played traditional wedding selections. Mr. Waldon gave his daughter in marriage.
 The bride and her mother designed and made the wedding dress of nylon organdie and lace over satin, fashioned with scalloped neckline and sleeves with the full skirt gathered at the lowered and pointed waistline. Her tulle veil was fastened on a headband of lace and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and orange blossoms centered with a white orchid which she later planned to the shoulder of her traveling suit of magenta and black velvet.
 Mrs. Cope Straley was matron of honor. She wore a gold catin dress with matching headpiece, and carried a nosegay of bronze and gold mums.
 Cope Straley was best man, and ushers were the bride's brother, Miles Waldon, and a cousin, Rand Perkins. Miss Sharon Dayton was the ring bearer.
 The bride's mother wore beige lace with a corsage of gold carnations. The groom's mother chose blue bill with a corsage of pink carnations.
 An autumn theme was featured in the baskets of large bronze mums which were used with white candles in tall seven-branch candelabra in the church. Bows of white satin ribbon marked each party.
 Bronze mums also decorated the bride's home where the reception was held. The table was centered with the three tiered wedding cake and an arrangement of white flowers and candles. Miss Dayton served the cake and Mrs. Straley the punch.
 The bride is a graduate of Corona high school and attended New Mexico State university. The bridegroom is a graduate of Carrizozo high school and is employed in Alamogordo where they are making their home.
 Out of town guests included Mrs. T. M. DuBois and Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Miller of Los Lunas, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Dale, Susan, Kay and Abe Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Givens, Ross and J. C. Boren, Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. David Brown, Mrs. Marie

Ancho 4-H Junior Ranchers Meet
 The Ancho 4-H Junior Ranchers met on October 19 at the Knight Ranch with their leader, Nancy Knight. The main purpose was to elect officers for the coming year. The newly elected officers are Becky Barham, President; Sterling Spencer, Vice President; Pete Gnatkowski, Secretary; Scott Shafer, Treasurer; Eric Lynch, Reporter; Bill Hightower, Song Leader. Gary Hightower was appointed Jr. Leader. Refreshments were enjoyed by the whole group. The next meeting will be held on November 2.

ORANGE IS SAFEST COLOR FOR HUNTERS

"Protect yourself—don't be mistaken for game. The well dressed hunter will wear color. Not just any color, but daylight-fluorescent orange. Scientific studies have proved that this color can be seen by more people earlier and later than any other color. Reds were too dark and were often mistaken for other colors.
 "Legislatures in many states are changing their hunting laws to make it mandatory for hunters to wear this color. The wearing of a vest of fluorescent orange would save many lives."
 What's the value of life? Ask the man who accidentally shot and killed a friend when he thought the movement in the brush was a deer. Ask the father whose child was killed by a gun carelessly left loaded after the hunt was over. The state's Division of Vital Statistics shows that 22 New Mexicans were accidentally killed with firearms last year.
 Hunting with its pleasures also has a two-way responsibility—protect others from yourself and also protect yourself.
 These are some basic principles to be observed:
 1. Know the gun you are using. The field is no place to break in a new gun. Whether the gun is new or old, always treat it as if it were loaded.
 2. Handle your gun properly. Start by pointing the gun muzzle in a safe direction at all times.
 3. Distinguish yourself as a safe hunter by observing rules for safe hunting and insist that your companions do the same.

WIND PROTECTION

In areas subject to hurricanes, tornados, or other high winds, builders often roof homes with wind-resistant applications of asphalt shingles to assure protection from deluging rains that usually follow wind storms.

MARGARET BENCH

The Womens Club is sponsoring the Christmas lighting in Capitan this year. Prizes will be given to different divisions. Start thinking as of today. The lights, as you know, give much happiness and pleasure to weary travelers. The cost is small.

The Capitan Chamber of Commerce held its regular meeting October 16 at the city hall with a good attendance. They plan to help with the lighting. A committee will meet with the city to get their help, too.

The Roundtable Club met at the home of Frances Shaw October 19 with 11 present. They were Marie Edgar, Pauline Britton, Ethel Howard, Ethel Merrell, Corinne Provine, Angelina Provine, Lorene

Ferguson, Millie Wallace, Beale Jones, Grace Murphy and the hostess, Frances Shaw. House decorations were of nature's dry arrangements and autumn leaves. The main dish was pork chops barbecued with all of the goodies. Grace Murphy was the program chairman. They played a game making as many words out of Halloween as possible, with Beale Jones winning the high score and Millie Wallace the low.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Provine and family accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Corinne Provine, spent this last weekend in Las Vegas, N. M., visiting his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Coleman and went bird hunting as well.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Williams Sr.

of Albuquerque spent last weekend with their son Miles Jr. and family.

Mrs. Miles Williams, Ann Robinson and Mrs. Marie Walker made a business trip to El Paso this last weekend.

Elmer Ham entered the Roswell hospital Friday night October 20, a very sick man.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lacy and son Joe were business visitors in Roswell last Saturday.

George McBride spent more than three weeks down with an injured knee. A horse fell with him. He now is at work with a brace on the knee.

Perry Zamora of Ft. Stanton moved his family to Capitan recently. He has been employed at Ft. Bayard since September 18.

When he can find a house to buy he will move his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Minter spent the weekend of October 24 with the family in Alpine, Texas. She is in Sul Rus college there and is doing fine.

The Minters also were business visitors in Roswell this past week. Paul Jones took his wife Arlene to Roswell a week ago for further tests. She has been very ill for quite some time.

Macie Edmondson returned the first part of last week from a vacation in Texas. She enjoyed a very good circus while there, and visited various points of interest.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Kingston this past week were Mrs. P. I. Taylor, Mrs. Dove Taylor and Mrs. Burnett, all of Roswell. They spent one day with the Kingstons.

The new Smokey Bear Motel addition of 10 units is expected to be completed by November 1.

Last Sunday a high wind here sent the leaves scurrying away. There have been several hard frozes and all the leaves will soon be gone. Lincoln has many beautiful flowers still blooming and it is so relaxing to drive through there. Their season is earlier and later than ours. All of us here are preparing our plants for the winter. It is a great season just the same. Keeps us on our toes.

PALMER AT REGIONAL LEGION CONFERENCE

Carl Palmer, American Legion district commander, attended the National Commander's regional membership conference in Albuquerque October 15. He was a member of the group who met the national commander, Charles L. Bacon, at the airport.

Mrs. Frank Vega left a week ago Sunday by plane from El Paso going to Norfolk, Va., to visit her daughter, Mrs. Susie English.

Alonso Montoya, brother of the congressman and senator from San Diego, envisioned when he tried so hard for the "Dead senator" bill in the last legislature.

The measure, which was defeated, would have forced the governor to call an immediate special election if a vacancy occurred in the Senate, eliminating the possibility of an appointee named by the Republican governor gaining an advantage as an incumbent over a protracted period.

Big Increase in hunters and fishermen

In the five years from 1955 to 1960 the number of hunters and fishermen across the nation exactly doubled, according to a report by the Fish and Wildlife Service.

The National Survey of Fishing and Hunting for 1955 revealed that 25 million persons hunted or fished. The survey for 1960 gives the figure at 50 million, adding that 30 million persons fished or hunted "in more than an occasional way."

The 30 million more serious sportsmen spent nearly four billion dollars on hunting or fishing; the exact figure is $3,852,000,000. The 25 million studied in 1955 spent somewhat under three billion dollars on their sport; the figure given is $2,851,000,000.

The number of anglers and hunters is shown to have increased faster than the general population from 1955 to 1960. The number of women hunters increased tremendously, while the number of women anglers increased only slightly.

Households containing at least one angler or hunter increased from 17 million in 1955 to 20 million in 1960.

In the population 18 years old and over in 1960, anglers took in one man in every four and one woman in every ten. As for hunters, there was one man in every five and one woman in every 27.

With respect to expenditures on fishing and hunting, the biggest item in 1960 was boats, boat motors and maintenance; $611 million dollars. Fishing and hunting equipment took $64 million. Bait, guide fees and other trip expenses called for 610 million. "Other trip expenses" were over and above transportation, food and lodging. These items aggregated $21 million.

Copies of the 1960 National Survey of Fishing and Hunting (Circular 120) may be had from the government printing office, Washington 25, D. C., at 50c each.

Miners warn hunters to use caution when shooting in the Jicarillas

A group of Jicarilla miners, always in danger of being plucked by a trigger-happy hunter, this week issued the following statement to hunters:

With the hunting season approaching, a warning in advance may save a futile trip, inconvenience and avoidance of possible trouble by knowing in advance that a considerable part of the located Jicarilla Mining District will be closed to all forms of freentry.

Several of the privately built and maintained roads leading off the Forestry Road to mining sites will be closed and no trespassing signs will be encountered giving such notice.

Roughly, the area west of Ancho Gulch north of the Paden Well in Ancho Gulch is open, but the area immediately south of this well extending east to the Forestry Road, and westerly about one-half mile west of Ancho-White Oaks gulches south almost to the Foster Ranch on the Forestry Road will be almost entirely closed to hunting and all forms of freentry, with warning signs throughout.

This is the largest single closed area which takes in Ancho and Juggler peaks and their spurs with the strip still further west of Juggler. There will be no trespassing. Other areas are also posted. People are either living in the area or else scattered and working at various sites and this action becomes necessary for human safety and protection of property.

Let it be distinctly understood there will be no more freentry upon such posted areas. The best thing always in a mining district is to get permission at any time; state your business, act openly and above board and so avoid any unpleasantness, and possible trouble.

The Fish and Game Department sells licenses, but contributes nothing to the roads, nor do they give any protection to lives and property. The Jicarilla Mining District which is being reactivated for lead mining therefore finds it necessary to take this stand from now on. Heed all signs and avoid the active area, leave everything alone.

No longer a thing of the distant future is the "Picturephone". This device required considerable research by Bell Laboratories because of the problem of reducing high frequency waves necessary for television screening to lower frequencies for single line telephone transmission.

A two-inch diamond-shaped tube in the front of a small cylindrical base pictures the face of the caller. A small telescopic device atop the cylinder picks up and transmits the picture to the other end. And in case lady finds her hair disheveled or her make-up pasty when the phone rings, she simply presses a button — and presto! no picture.

Besides the "Picturephone" the near present and future will see the home and farm interphone systems, the bellboy, the compact wall phone, dial-in handset phone, the new artificial larynx, the touch tone phone, and many other new services designed for the home, office and national defense.

Groping for a ringing telephone in the dark is like playing hide-and-seek, but Bell Laboratories didn't go for the idea of games in the early hours of the morning. It developed the picture phone with a built-in night light.

One-man offices discovered a godsend in the mechanical secretary. This device permits the office occupant to leave at will and all telephone calls will be answered and the message recorded.

In an attempt to find answers to everyone's problems, Bell Laboratories came up with the speakerphone for hands-tied workers. A separate microphone and speaker permits the busy worker or the homemaker to talk without raising the receiver and thus tying up the hand.

The hard of hearing no longer face isolation, thanks to Bell Laboratories research. Available to them is the transistor amplifier set. The volume can be turned up and down at will.

Available now is a new artificial larynx for people whose vocal chords have been surgically removed or have been inoperative due to paralysis.

The future promises most everything, but few thought the day would ever come that they could afford a butler. But that day is here — Eklings Easy.
