Obituary

Frank Boyce 41, was born June 7, 1920, at Capitan, was graduated from New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell, attended George Washington University, and received his law degree from the Harvard Law School.

He was admitted to the New Mexico bar in 1949, following service in the Army during World War II, in which he rose to the rank of Captain. He entered law practice in Carrizozo with Daniel R. Erenton, the firm later moving to Alamogordo, where Boyce was a former attorney for the city.

Boyce was a member of the Carrizozo Lodge No. 41, A.F.&A.M., of the Episcopal church, Harvard Club Alamogordo Rotary Club, Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, of the American Bar Assn., and of the New Mexico state bar. He was serving as secretary of the Alamogordo Industrial Development Corp. and as treasurer of the local Friends of the Library organization.

While living at Lincoln Boyce wrote the statute for the Old Lincoln County Committee and was instrumental in domestic water being brought to Lincoln.

He leaves his mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Rigby of Alamogordo; a brother, Robert L. Boyce, Jr., of Prescott, Ariz.; and a sister, Mrs. Will Latham, of Mosca Lake, Wash. Mrs. Fred L. May of Carrizozo is an aunt.

Each and every cafe in Carrizozo will give to the March of Dimes campaign Tuesday, Jan. 30, by donating each cup of coffee that is sold to the fund.

Those participating in the Drive are: Village Inn, Coffee Cup, Yucca Grill, Windy Aster's Kitchen, Diner and Taste Freeze, Mrs. Wilcome Armstrong, chairman of the Coffee Committee for the Drive, announced that there will be coffees given this week in own and some of the other communities.

There will be a dance at White Oaks Saturday night and the proceeds will be turned into the fund. Mrs. Lloyd Vigil announced that the Mothers' March will be held Tuesday, 30th, from six to 6:30 p.m.

The March of Dimes Foundation has expanded their aid to patients of arthritis and victims of crippling birth defects. The nation's dimes also helped train thousands of students in health professions and supported scientific research which led to the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines and now holds out hope for preventing the crippling diseases under attack.

The Lincoln County Mounted Patrol will meet in the courtroom at the courthouse at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, January 28.

School receives $5,149.00 - safety signs will go up - adult ed offered

Supt. J. T. Clegg received the following telegram from the commissioners of Education, Washington, D. C.: Approval of project No. New Mexico 32-E-713 for Carrizozo Schools District No. 7, Pursuant to Public Law 874 tentative entitlement $5,149.00. Amount certified for immediate payment is $3,553.00. Congratulations and best wishes, Joseph Montoya and Thomas G. Morris.

The above amount, explained Mr. Clegg is the money received for children who attend our schools and whose parents work on government projects. There are a total of 58 children who fall under this category and 30 of this number are children of parents working at Stallion Site.

Also there is a letter from Clarence M. Hill, Director of Civil Defense, Adult Education, concerning a program to be offered to Juniors and Seniors for Civil Defense education in the Hi-school. Mr. Hill states that films are being revised and brought up to date. New copies will be available in February. Films can be scheduled at that time for high schools. A 12 full hour course will be offered to juniors and seniors toward the end of the year if it can be worked in and if there is enough students interested in the course. This program would be held at night.

Mr. Clegg also stated that if there are enough adults interested in taking the Adult class on Civil Defense that was offered previously a class could start March 12.

In response to a request by Mr. Tom Wiley, all superintendents of Lincoln County schools met in Mr. Clegg's office on Tuesday, where they planned a uniform request for the school budget.

Standard dollars for supplies and library supplies are $9 per pupil. Junior supplies are $3 per pupil. Last year these amounts were cut drastically. It is hoped to restore these amounts to be standard rate.

A substantial increase for teachers salaries was also requested. Carrizozo has next to the lowest salary schedule in the county.

At a recent school board meeting official approval was given to the request for Carrizozo Maintenance. The present budget is $170, $41.00 and the new budget is $193, $75.00. Most of the increase will go to the instructional staff.

On April 23, which was scheduled for a holiday, will be a make-up day for the Carrizozo schools due to the day the school was closed, Jan. 10th, because of the extreme weather.

This semester Mr. Manuel Pacheco is teaching a new course in French. There are nine students enrolled for this course. Mr. Pacheco speaks Spanish, French and German.

Fourteen boys are enrolled this semester in a course in Home Economics. This is a course which is of interest and value to boys and not to be confused with the regular course. Mrs. Lawson is the instructor.

A survey was made Dec. 27 by the Traffic Service Section of the State Highway Department which will result in new traffic signs being made to replace old ones at the Post Office crossing and other places. These signs will be put out at the three intervals that the school children will be using the crossings. The rest of the day they will not be in effect. Report cards were issued Monday at school and we hope to print the honor roll names by next week.

It was a good thing they were there to help take care of the emergency — the Phillips dog walked out on the swimming pool cover to get a drink and fell through into the icy water. Some loud yelps soon brought help.

Mrs. Ruben Griego and Mrs. Della Griego of Vaughn were visiting here last week.

Some of the Carrizozo people attending the Frank Boyce Funeral Service in Alamogordo were: Mr. and Mrs. Will Ed Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank English, Mr. and Mrs. Fred English, Mrs. Albert Roberts, Mrs. Mildred Moore and Pat Murphy and mother of Capitan.

A 34-day search for a missing plane carrying two Alamogordo men ended January 20 with the discovery of the plane on a rocky hillside near the New Mexico - Arizona line.

Bodies of Jack Hobson and Frank Boyce were discovered amid the scattered wreckage of their demolished plane 2 1/2 miles north of Virden and three miles from the Arizona boundary. The wreckage was discovered by Richard Johnson, rancher on whose land the crash occurred, while he was riding the area in search of cattle.

The bodies were brought to Lordsburg Saturday night and returned to Alamogordo Sunday.

Rites for Boyce were held at the Episcopal Church, for Hobson at Grace Methodist Church on January 23.

Bob Ortiz's 30 points along with Bobby Dan Crenshaw's 23 downed the St. Peter's team 70-56, in an important sub-district game.

Carrizozo's win over the Crusaders gave the Grizzlies an 11-0 mark and 0-0 record in the sub-district, putting them in the driver's seat in the sub-district race.

St. Peter's dropped to 5-7 for the season and a 3-1 mark in sub-district.

Larry Fields and John Rodriguez led St. Peter's with 12 each. St. Peter's led at the end of the first period 14-12, but Carrizozo had it from there on, leading at half time 23-27, and after three periods of play 47-43.

The Grizzlies beat Cloudercroft Saturday night at Cloudercroft with a score of 50-32. After downing

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT IS
By Kit Carson
805 Ortiz NE
Albuquerque

Gold in the Guadalupe has made print again. Jim Hinton in an article entitled, "Fabulous gold treasure of Guadalupe stems from many legends," gave a very interesting account of the Old Ben Sublett Lost Mine—lost to man somewhere in the southern fringes of the Guadalupe for a little over half a century. It appeared in the Sunday issue of the El Paso Times, November 26, 1961. He handled the subject very well, with concise accounts.

Much has been written about the lost mine, and more have searched for it. Legend says that it is one of the richest in the Southwest. Very few people question its existence, and many fully believe that come day a lucky finder will again line his pockets with the precious yellow metal, as did Old Ben Sublett.

Hinton's feature, in substance, tells of a certain deep cavity in the Guadalupe from which Sublett took fabulous fortunes in pure gold. The only access to the hole or deep canyon, was by means of a ladder, the base of which was strewed gold with nuggets, large and small. Old Ben, for years on periodical trips, always took just enough from his secret larder to supply himself. On those trips he went alone, craftily eluding anyone who attempted to follow him. He also never told his secret, except to his nine-year old son and one very close friend. They went to the mine with Sublett one time. Neither could ever return to the location. The secret died with Old Ben.

Lew Wallace, while governor of New Mexico, recovered an old Spanish parchment, telling something of fabulous reserves of gold in the Guadalupe. He was an enthusiast of the story. Many savants have searched for the same information which Wallace attained, but to no avail. The aged document faded into oblivion. God only knows how, through the years. It's a dream of every chronicler or lost treasure hunter to find it.

At one time, Lew Wallace lived in Lincoln, on the Old Ellis Ranch, where he wrote a portion of "Ben Hur." He figured prominently in his relation with Billy the Kid during the Lincoln County War. James G. Ramsey is the present owner of the historical site, where he lives in Old Lincoln.

A steep into Hinton's feature in the El Paso Times is worth while. And, too, any mention of a treasure story always recalls the word "legend."

Legend springs from the people of the soil; and the soil is the backbone of the world. People make history; therefore, legend becomes a part of the history, and history is of the people of the soil and their legends.

Quest of gold enticed the first civilized man into the Southwest, and the territory that now comprises New Mexico. American history commenced in New Mexico. And despite the efforts of some historians, they can not eliminate the pages of lost treasure conquests from those early-day chronicles, or even those of today.

So don't become amazed when you pick up certain periodicals or volumes pertaining to history and find them blended with accounts of lost treasure and lost mines—conquest for gold opened the first door to the Great Southwest.

A little story, common but appropriate, analyses to an extent, the characteristics of gold-mined people.

A prospector, with burro all loaded with pan, coffee pot, skillet, a few frijoles, side-meat, and a meager bed roll, approached the Heavenly City.

Peter met him at the Gate, and remarked, "I can't let you in. This place is over-run with prospectors now I can't allow another one to enter."

From his quid, the prospector squirted a liberal stream at the Gate entrance, and replied eagerly, "Let me in, and I'll take care of your problems!"

Peter meditated, as the burro laid his long ears back on the nape of his neck, and switched flies. He replied, "Very well, enter. But I certainly shall expect the prospectors to be moved out!"

The prospector entered. He carried with him an intriguing story of the most recent "strike"—down in hell. He spread the story all around about the rich find.

Shortly the gold-minded hordes of prospectors left, hurriedly. None of them remained.

Not much time lapsed until the old prospector with the same old burro, all packed, approached the Gate, on his way out.

Peter inquired, "My friend, where are you going?—you have done me lots of good!"

The old prospector lost no time in replying, and did not stutter, "To hell," he replied. "After all, there might be something to the story!"

WILL HARRISON'S Inside the Capital
SCHOOLERS BLUNDERED ON $19 MILLION
SANTA FE — The action of the schoolers in figuring that the very least they could get by with next year in New Mexico was $19 million, which just happened to be the exact amount that a one-cent increase in the sales tax would produce, has seriously damaged the prospect of the schools getting any considerable advance from the legislature.

If it were a coincidence that the absolute minimum required by the schools happened to be the amount the sales tax increase would produce, it was unfortunate and stands to be costly to the school program.

NEEDS TAILORED TO MATCH MONEY
Legislators are pointing to the "coincidence" as indicating that the NMEA, the state board of education, and John Gott, the state school finance officer, who drew up the proposition for $19 million more were not actually stating the schools' needs but were adjusting the needs to what a sales tax increase would produce.

Opinion among legislators is heavy against providing $19 million more money or any amount close to it, and the opinion is growing.

The $19 million would provide $400 a year increase for teachers on top of the regular annual increase of $50 to $150, and $450 a year more for superintendents.

JOHN GOTT SQUIRMING, DIDN'T MEAN TO SAY IT
School Finance Officer Gott, one of the three authors of the plan calling for $19 million a year for the schools, is squirming.

He said he approved the document calling for a total operating budget of $94 million for the next school term, which includes the $19 million new money, "as an ideal budget if the money is available."

He said he did not advocate raising $19 million more.

That leaves it not quite clear what he did have in mind, but that's his story.

CHANGES NAME AT AGE OF 6
Records of the Santa Fe district court show that on July 6, 1927, John and Sofia Block of Espanola adopted Juan Fidel Salazar, age 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Salazar, and the boy's name was changed to John Block, Jr. Sofia Block was the boy's great aunt.

John Block, Jr. is now a state corporation commissioner running for re-election and having a time with his name.

He said that he was running to preserve representation of the Spanish-American people in the elective offices of the capital. Block is the only one of that group in a capital elective office.

Critics have charged him with inaccessibility in his using the name Salazar, and have also charged that he is using the Block name for a political advantage.

The adoption records of 35 years ago answer both charges. His name isn't Salazar and it could hardly be said that a boy of six would change his name for political purposes.

ANDERSON CARTER GOES REPUBLICAN
Anderson Carter, recent Democratic chairman of the House Appropriation Committee, and campaign manager for Joe Bursey for governor in the Democratic primary of 1960, has changed his voting registration to Republican.

He addressed a Republican meeting in Lovington, his residence, last Tuesday.

Carter, a conservative Democrat who served in the legislature as a representative of Roosevelt county, had a violent break with the Democratic John Burroughs administration in the legislature of 1959.

CHURCH ISSUE CROPPING UP
The church issue is beginning to show in the Democratic scramble for nomination for governor.

A prominent protestant layman in one of the northside counties who had been active for the Catholic candidate Jack Campbell of Roswell suddenly went silent with the capital attributing it to church influence.

Campbell and Santa Fe Mayor Leo Murphy are Catholic. The third candidate, Sen. Ed Mead of Albuquerque, is Baptist.

It is only since the Kennedy campaign that church affiliation has had any attention in New Mexico politics. John J. Dempsey, governor and congressman and one of the most popular political figures New Mexico has known, was a Catholic who won his elections in Protestant eastern New Mexico.

There is much talk about church this time and former Gov. John Burroughs, a Presbyterian, attributes his 1960 defeat to east side Democrats voting against the Democratic ticket because John F. Kennedy was a Catholic.

Don't under estimate the legends of lost mines and hidden treasures. "After all, there might be something to the story!"

Governor of Rotary Speaks to Carrizozo Rotarians
Dr. E. W. Schmidt, Pecos, Texas, Governor of Rotary District No. 532, spoke to the Carrizozo Rotarians on Thursday. Dr. Schmidt, a flight surgeon in World War II, has covered most of his Rotary District by private plane but the fog around this part of New Mexico prevented him from flying to Carrizozo.

Dr. Schmidt said there are now approximately 11,000 Rotary Clubs in 123 countries with Japan showing the greatest increase in the formation of new clubs. Rotary fellowship the world over is helping to strengthen international relations and making the world a better place in which to live. Their ideal of building bridges of friendship is reaching far and wide to make men aware of the importance of living together peacefully. Dr. Schmidt was to meet with the Monahans, Texas Rotary Club on Thursday evening.

It is the time of year for all property owners in Lincoln County to file a 1962 tax schedule with the County Assessor.

Don't forget to do this between now and March 1.

The staff at the Assessor's office at the Court House will be glad to assist you. You must come to the Court House and sign your tax schedule, or meet the Assessor at one of the places designated below; if you live away from the County Seat. Our office hours are:

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. (we are open during noon hour) Mondays through Fridays.

Many people, each year, have to pay considerably more taxes because they do not take the small amount of time necessary to attend to this legal obligation. If no return is filed the law requires a 5% penalty and all exemptions are lost. Veterans must bring their Certificate of Eligibility for their exemption, for endorsement by the staff.

The Assessor will make the following itinerary for the benefit of those property owners living away from Carrizozo:

FARM NEWS

By County Agent Ralph Dunlap

Fleeces from 3 Lincoln County ranchers won awards at the National Western Wool Show, held in Denver. Tom Slaughter had a first in the 62's ewe class. Shanks Brothens had a second in the quarter blood ewe class and Fuller Ranch had a sixth in the 56's ewe class. These fleeces competed against 72 fleeces in the Territory Wool Division.

Wool Prices are holding firm to a slight advance. Local 8 month lamb wool has been reported sold at 42 cents per pound with nearby similar Texas wool selling for 47 cents per pound. In California ewe wool sold for 46 cents per pound.

With wool prices holding firm, contract your wool only if you consider that it will be to your advantage.

Need a Transplanter—Eat an Apple
In a Michigan State University study for 2 years, students who ate 2 apples a day had a 33% reduction in nervous troubles, such as headaches and nervous stomach.

Another result was the reduction of the common cold by 23%. So the old custom of taking an apple to the teacher might help in more ways than one.

They have developed several new varieties of chili and some of them are very mild. The mild varieties are known as G-4 and G-18. If you want some of the hotter kind try Sandia A or Sandia B. This and other research findings were given at the Fruit and Vegetable Short Course last week, in University Park.

In Grape variety tests, Dr. D. T. Sullivan reported that American varieties grown on a Colans Rootstock were more vigorous. The Solanos rootstock is Chlorosis resistant and can stand a more alkaline soil before the leaves turn yellow. Of the varieties tested for 3 years or over Buffalo appears best at present.

Another tree for landscaping—the Carpathian strain of the English Walnut was discussed by Douglas Bryant, Extension Horticulturist. This hardy tree can still bear every year. Some Carpathian Walnuts planted in the Black Range near Lake Valley in Sierra County have been producing every year. They were planted as nuts in the early 30's and began to bear at about 10 years of age.

Prevent Water Pipe Freezing
Have you had trouble with water pipes freezing up this winter?

If so, cover any pipe on the surface of the ground with about 30 inches of soil, or place in a trench below the frost line or about 30 inches below ground level.

Use insulation to cover a pipe entering a building in an exposed location. If insulation is impractical consider electric heating cable. Heating cable, rated at 7 watts per foot, placed along the underside of a 4-inch pipe, and taped in position with friction tape, will protect to about 10 degrees above zero. To protect to 5 degrees below zero it will be necessary to wind the heating cable around the pipe with spirals not more than 3 inches apart.

Caution should be used in using heating cable. Be sure the pipe being protected is grounded to prevent shock hazard.

Never lengthen or shorten the heating cable as it will affect the heat output. Lengthening decreases the heat output and shortening will increase the heat output which can be a hazard.

Thermostats are not necessary but desirable. A thermostat makes insulation automatic and more economical. Without a thermostat, the heat stays on all the time until the switch is pulled.

The pump will need protection too. A heat lamp or an ordinary 100-watt light are satisfactory under most conditions.

Chemicals Stop Rodents From Harming Trees
What's the most effective and least expensive way to prevent rodent damage to young trees and shrubs? Paint or spray them with a chemical preparation containing thiram.

Among the fungicides that contain thiram are Arasan, Arasan SF-X and Tersan 75. They can be obtained from insecticide and fungicide dealers. The chemicals should be mixed with a carrier such as an asphalt water emulsion, which can be purchased from building supplies dealers and orchard supply houses, before they are applied.

Following are directions for preparing rodent repellents:

1. Add one gallon of asphalt-water emulsion to two gallons of water. Stir in four pounds of Arasan and mix thoroughly. This makes 3 1/2 gallons of paint at a cost of $7.25. This formulation cannot be diluted for spraying; apply with brush.

2. Add one gallon of asphalt water emulsion to one gallon of water. Stir in two pounds of Arasan SF-X or Tersan 75 and mix thoroughly. This makes 2 1/2 gallons of paint at a cost of about $4.50. To make a spray, dilute the formulation with one gallon of water and one pound of Arasan SF-X or Tersan 75.

Apply the repellent thoroughly to the trunk of the tree, from the base of a point high enough to be out of reach of rodents. Snowdrifts enable rodents to feed higher on the tree than from the ground surface. One gallon of repellent will brush-coat 100 trees one inch in diameter.

-Livestock-Report-
RANGE CONDITIONS — Year-end weather has been almost ideal in the Range and Central Plains area. Some scattered moisture, but for the most part sunny days with about average temperatures have been the rule. Wheat pasture remains short in our country. Heavy freezes and below zero temperatures in early December froze down most of the big wheat. While being good feed, this wheat supply is soon exhausted and does not grow while the ground remains frozen. Cattle are still on wheat in most areas, but supplemental feeding is heavy. Weight gains are well behind last year. If some warmer weather is not soon coming to start wheat growing, many cattle could be moved in the next six weeks. These cattle would probably not be in large enough numbers to cause a serious over supply, but might bring about some softening in the replacement trade. Most all cattle in the Plains and Southwestern range country are in good condition. Feed supplies are plentiful, and without a serious storm should see the cattle continue to winter well.

Some milo crops are still unharvested at this date. Many of these fields were left standing to dry the crop more. Early snows broke down standing milo and are causing considerable loss in these remaining fields. Milo prices here and bulk of the feed milo has been contracted by feeders. Prices will probably continue strong to slightly higher into early summer. Hay supplies plentiful and market slow. Protein feeds in strong demand and prices somewhat higher than last year.

CATTLE PICTURE —
Prices on most classes of cattle remain very strong. December is usually a slow month in the trading country. This past month is no exception. Clean-up deals were fairly strong in early December but trailed off in the latter part. Many people held cattle to see how year-end incomes and inventories shaped up for tax purposes. Some of these cattle will start to move in early January.

Fat cattle prices have been strong and have caused quite a few "green" cattle to move into slaughter channels. It would seem a bigger supply of "honest fat cattle" would bring about a weakening in these short fed very soon. Feed lot numbers are about the same in our territory as last year. Some market forecasters seem to think the Southwest as a territory has somewhat less cattle on feed than last year. The Western feeding territories of Arizona and California are also less. This has brought a very good slaughter demand for cattle in our country.

If the weather, general economy, and good employment conditions, along with the other influencing factors continue favorable, this demand for fat cattle could maintain a steady to strong price range for a period extending well into the spring months. Most of the cattle in feed lots seem to be lighter weights than last year. This is a big factor in over all tonnage.

Most everyone is usually looking forward to the prospects of a new year about this time. Guessing is a hazardous game, especially with something as big as the livestock industry. Economists' reports and statistics can prove most anything as well as nothing. One thing is sure, the American Livestock Producer is better posted than at any time in the past. I think one reason we are the greatest in the world in this business is because we do make our own decisions! Read all the facts you can. Look at the figures. Talk to friends and people in related businesses. Check the weather outlook. See how many acres Mr. Freeman will allow you to plant. Then go talk to your banker and see how optimistic he feels. Buy the kind of livestock best suited to your need. With this educational start and a good season I predict 1962 will be a successful year for you. Oh yes! Don't forget to apply a little honest sweat of your own!

Number 13 not unlucky for Gran Quivira

The staff at Gran Quivira National Monument today announced the thirteenth consecutive year of record travel. Since 1949 each year has set a new record for visitors to the monument. Visitors totaling 10,650 entered the area in 1961, an increase of 3 percent over 1960. December visitors totaled 304 which was a twenty-one percent increase over the same period in 1960.

Gran Quivira National Monument may be reached by paved road 25 miles south of Mountainair on State Highway 10. It is also accessible from Carrizozo 56 miles north of U. S. Highway 54, and State Highway 10. The Monument was established to preserve the ruins of two 17th century Spanish Mission churches and the large Indian pueblo surrounding them. The village was occupied for over 350 years and then abandoned in the 1670's because of Apache attacks and drought. The museum is open from 8-5 daily all year. A picnic area is available.

MYF Installs New Officers

The new officers of the Trinity Methodist Youth Fellowship were installed Sunday evening in a ceremony conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Thomas A. Banks. About 25 members of the Carrizozo MYF were present to see new officers take their vows.

Also in attendance were Rev. James Knowlton of the Capitan Methodist Church and three members of the Capitan Methodist Youth Fellowship; Nita and Rita Campbell and Alma Walker.

Cookies, doughnuts and punch were served at the reception which followed the installation.

Mexican Supper Scheduled At Trinity Methodist

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of Carrizozo is scheduled to have a Mexican Dinner to be served at the church on January 29th. The supper is being given in response to numerous requests following a well-received Italian Dinner put on by the youth group during the month of October.

In addition to Mexican dishes, the group plans to create an atmosphere to fit the occasion, complete with candlelight, appropriate decorations and special music.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend. Supper table served from 5:30 to 7:30.

Of late the MYF has emerged as one of the top fund-raising organizations in our community. The youngsters made the final installment of a $1,000 pledge to the building fund of the church on Christmas Eve. The two-year pledge was paid in full in less than four months.

Proceeds from the dinner will go toward payment of their most recent pledge of $220 which will purchase the pulpit for the new MYF ELECTS OFFICERS.

New officers were elected last Sunday evening by the Youth Fellowship of Trinity Methodist church. The new slate of officers will serve the organization for a six-month term. Elected to office in the senior division of the group are: Joe Anderson, president, succeeding Sharon Banks; Margaret Wilthers, vice president, succeeding Linda Seek; Linda Seek, treasurer, succeeding Margaret Wilthers; Linda Seek, secretary, succeeding Era Dell Hemphill.

The intermediate division elected the following: Minette Smoot, president, succeeding Glen King, Jr.; Tommy Banks, vice-president, succeeding Joe Moore; Mary Schlarb, secretary - treasurer, succeeding Sharon Smoot.

The new officers have their work cut out for them. The outgoing officers guided the group through its most active era of fund-raising having contributed substantial sums to the church building program, UNICEF, the Methodist home and have pledged substantial sums to other causes. Approximately $1,200 was raised during the past six-month term through candy sales, a booth at the county fair and the MYF thrift shop.

Rev. and Mrs. Banks of Trinity Methodist Church in Carrizozo, traveled to Socorro last Sunday afternoon to attend a Layman's meeting at the Socorro Methodist Church. The meeting was attended by pastors and laymen from Carrizozo, T. or C. Mountainair, Belen and Socorro. The meeting was conducted by Dr. Paul Petty of Albuquerque. Principal speaker was Dr. Earl Nowlin, superintendent of the Albuquerque district. The woman's Society of Christian Service of the host church served coffee, tea and cookies for the visitors.

Joe White to Supervise final Phase of Trinity Methodist

Mr. Joe White has arrived from Albuquerque to supervise the final phase of construction of the new $35,000 Trinity Methodist Church. The new work in progress will provide a new roof for the educational building to which the new sanctuary will be joined.

Bricks for the double-brick structure are expected to arrive momentarily and the masonry phase will begin at once, weather permitting. The new structure will seat 150 people and will include two store-rooms a pastor's study and library, and a choir room.

It is planned that the present pastor's study will become the office of the church school superintendent. The present sanctuary will be used as classrooms for the church school, made up into separate rooms by portable dividers. The same auditorium will be used as a fellowship hall for social functions much the same as it has been in the past.

Now-
Ford frees you forever
from the expense and bother of frequent car servicing.
Twice-a-year maintenance is here-and only the cars from Ford have it!

In a new Ford Galaxie or Fairlane, the odometer rolls off a long 6,000 miles between every service stop. Compare this with other '62 cars and here's what you'll find: many cars still have to check in for service every 1,000 miles; some every 2,000 miles; others every 4,000 miles. Only the cars from Ford need service only twice a year, or every 6,000 miles.

Fairlane, you don't have to drive with one eye on the odometer to make sure you're not forgetting an oil change or a grease job or other servicing. Ford's twice-a-year maintenance saves you time, saves you money. Just one stop every 6,000 miles takes care of servicing. You'll go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications, 2 years or 30,000 miles without changing engine coolant-antifreeze. Brakes adjust themselves.

Why buy a service headache when Ford is ready with the cure? See your Ford Dealer—and see how close Ford has come to the fill-it-and-forget-it car!

Smoking the air with long down-courts-passes, the big Fort-Summer squad whitened the score down to a 53 to 45 Corona third-quarter lead.

The hometown Corona fans will long remember the fourth quarter as a classic in fast break offense. With the entire Corona team joining the scoring circus, the high-flying Fort-Summer lads were literally blasted off the court.

Chewing up the Foxes' last-ditch full court press, the Cardinals unleashed both barrels of the Roper twins' scoring managery. Playing his finest game of the season, Corona's Woody Dame showed new speed and finesse as he smoked the scoreboard for 34 points.

The Cardinals were fast, aggressive, hard-driving team Friday night. Every man on the team was passing, moving and driving beautifully. Fort Summer brought a splendid 11-5 record and a big powerful team. Only an enraged Cardinal team playing inspired ball could rout such a fine team as Fort Summer.

The Fort Summer squad took the B game 32 to 24.

Cardinals battle down Tularosa 54-48
 By Kenneth Bridgman

The Corona Cardinals ran their victory string to two Saturday nights by battling down the Tularosa Wildcats 54-48.

Playing on the Wildcats' creaker box gym, the Redbirds blasted out a 15 to 10 first-quarter lead. Still sizzling from Friday night's rout of Fort Summer, the Red-shirted Cardinals continued their fast break attack to good advantage. The Wildcats fashioned a bruising man-to-man defense, while Corona played the percentage with a tight zone.

The second quarter turned into mayhem as the referees apparently swallowed their whistles. Spectators probably would agree that this was indeed a rough and tumble quarter with both teams sensing the lag in officiating, neatly polished each other off in cowboy style. The Cardinals, with Woody Dame passing the basketball like a baseball, got behind the Wildcats for many cheap layups. In the meantime, the "Tulle" boys were having a field day clicking their collective heels and popping for long jump shots all over the floor. The Cardinals, getting in their wallops too, came out on the wrong

Corona out-foxes Fort Summer

The sizzling Corona Cardinals pulled their famous fire horse, fast break offense out of moth balls Friday night to blister the Fort Summer Foxes 81 to 64.

Running up their highest score of the year, the flaming Cardinals fast break offense turned on all after burners to raze the high-flying orange men at their own game.

In the first quarter it was "Katie bar the door" as Corona's big Woody Dame left lips of fire on the map as he led his determined teammates to a 19 to 16 lead. Both Corona and Fort Summer played man to man defense.

By the second quarter, the Foxes' high-rung 11-5 record was in danger of being trimmed. Fighting fire with fire, the tall plasmans restored to their own version of the fast break pattern. Both teams played chips down ball with the half-time score standing 38 to 27 in Corona's favor.

Despite the fact that both teams changed to a zone defense, it was strictly fast break alley down the middle during the third quarter.
