In the next few issues I would like to put in some recipes that were taken out of my Great-Grandmother's cook book. Hope you enjoy them.

OLD BERRY INN — BOILED CUSTARD

This recipe is well over 100 years old.

4 eggs beaten light, with 2 coffee cups of sugar.

Boil 1 quart of new milk and pour slowly over the eggs and sugar, stirring all the time. Then pour the custard into a clean stew pan. Set the pan into a vessel of boiling water and stir until it begins to thicken. Take care not to let it get too thick. For flavoring, use anything you prefer but the old ladies always said, "Spice it!"

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Montgomery went fishing near Roswell this week and visited with their sons and families. The Tracey and Leonard Montgomerys. They brought their granddaughter Bonnie home with them for a visit.

The Ladies Club met the sixth with Lela Lovelace as hostess. Mrs. Louie Jobe won the Mystery Box. Members present were: Neva Petross, Dola Stange, Lela Lovelace, Tola Bussey, Peggy Maxwell, Lena Jobe and Lela Lovelace. Visitors included: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bosh of Nogal, Mrs. Sarah Maxwell and Bonnie Montgomery. It was voted to sell chances on a night which will be the 20th.

EVERY AD A VALUE OPPORTUNITY

BONITO BITS

BY Louise Runnels

Fourth of July was something like this: 1000 cars went over the Forest Service counter, rain, plenty, fishing and camping all over the place.

Questions asked: "How far is it to Bonito Dam, are the fish biting, do you have rain like this all the time, when are THEY going to fix these roads, why do you have to pay $1.00 to fish in Blue Hole, do you have any fire balls, did you see a certain certain car go by where we camp, what kind of bait are they using, and the question I like to hear most, isn't this beautiful country?"

One answer: The road has been worked!

From Carrizozo to Bonito lake over Bonito Lake on the 4th were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chavez and family and Mr. and Mrs. Chevo Baca and family.

Over eight o'clock from Ruidoso Downs last week were Gladys Bever, daughter Joanna and Bud Holaday.

Tony Archuleta and David Silva from Capitan fished at Bonito the 4th.

Mrs. Elmer Peyton and son Edward tried their luck fishing last week and took home a mess of fish for Elmer who is not well and loves fish.

Visiting at Bonito City were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Williams from Amarillo, Texas, who have a cabin in Eagle Creek near Mrs. Hightower. They are ready to retire and live in Eagle Creek. Also from their cabin to cook a meal at Blue Hole were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neal from El Paso and children Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stagers and young granddaughter Christy.

How nice to have Ola and Elliott Jones from Ruidoso to stop at Bonito City for a visit Saturday evening. Ola has been a mighty brave girl facing the loss of her right leg below her knee and having trouble with one eye too. All the operations, and she is still smiling and is as beautiful as ever. She is passing her time now that she feels better having friends come to her home west of the Old Mill in Ruidoso to have beauty demonstrations, and if pleased, which they surely will be, buy some of her products. Ola and Elliott plan to go up to the old Parsons Mine soon and picnic. Ola was Lincoln County school superintendent when there was a school near Parsons Hotel. Her two sons are Paul and Tom, who with their families live on the Ruidoso.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hall and son Virgil Jr. from Capitan and Mrs. Hall's cousin Fern Hill who is visiting them from Benton Harbor, Mich., drove up Bonito Canyon for a ride Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Morgan and family camped recently in South Fork Bonito while here Lowell's father and his new bride had a charcoal steak fry with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Collins Walker are on their Bonito farm for a few days from Bonito. Their niece Janice and friend are visiting them. Coach Stratton and family were in Capitan and to Bear Canyon where they have a lot for a cabin some day. Lewis has been football coach in Poudre Springs, Colo., the past two years and will return this year. He and his family are in Portales now where he is in Eastern N. M. University going to summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Zamora from Alamo were at Bonito fishing last week. Eddie thinks fishing in the lake is not like the good old days when rainbows most always measured 14 inches and over.

B G Barnum, W. D. Grubb from Carrizozo and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Barnum and Bruce fished at Bonito last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rust and family and other Jal Dudas spent the 4th in the Jal Dudas' cabin in Bear Canyon.

The rodeo and parade "Smolley Bear Stampede" in Capitan over the 4th of July was a howling success and I heard compliments on the rodeo at White Oaks too. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cox and family and Luis Rumbold went to the celebration at Capitan the 4th.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Phillips and family and friends from Tularosa spent their vacation in Bear Canyon camping recently. Mr. and Mrs. Arrell Posey and son Gerald joined them over the weekend.

Milce Gaydos from Oregon, N. M., faced a rainy day on his motorcycle up to Bonito Lake to do some fishing last week.

The farewell party at Nogal church for Mrs. Pearl Stearns was a jolly one and a sad one too. Mrs. Stearns was a faithful postmistress at Nogal for a long time. She deserved the two parties and the orchid given to her along with other gifts from friends. "Now, you'll have time, Pearl, to come to Bonito fishing."

Mr. and Mrs. Bob McProud from Alamogordo, and also the Harold Shillio from Alamo were on the Bonito recently. Mrs. Bob McProud was recently elected Otero County Democratic Chairwoman.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rayburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Neal from El Paso fished at the Lake last week.

John LaMay, Austin Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and son, Kenneth LaMay and Joe West from north were fishing at Bonito recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar (Vester) Bailey from Azusa, Calif. who had been back East visiting were in Lincoln County visiting friends and relatives last week. Baileys lived at Alto, years ago.

Paul and Lois Mayer, Carl and Mary Johnson from El Paso were Ruidoso and Bonito visitors recently. Paul and Lois had the first Curlo Stone in Ruidoso and still own the Wagon Wheel curlo store in the center of town. Mayers have been staying in Mr. and Mrs. Pat Chubbuck's home in Alamogordo.

A letter from Walley and Louise Heese in Palm Beach, Florida says they have subscribed to the Lincoln County News to keep up with friends and mining in Lincoln Co. We hope to see them here on vacation before the summer is over.

Wilfred Neal and son from Alamogordo caught good mess of fish at the lake last week.

Mr. Archie Shipley, daughter and a little Chavez from Ft. Stanton had fun fishing at Bonito last week.

At Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sparkman's "Idle Moments" cabin last week-end were guests Mrs. A. Caylor and Santo Brand from Hobbs and Katie Casseberry, Sue Lawlis and Terry Cross from Lovington. All these girls except Mrs. Caylor are in the treasurer's office in Lea County in Lovington. Vera Sparkman is Lea County Treasurer and joined the girls for an enjoyable weekend.

Emma Jean Hall and children and Mary Elizabeth Hall and children visited at Bonito City Sunday evening. Mary Elizabeth lives in Calif and after visiting friends and relatives in Capitan will go on to Albuquerque to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hall where her husband will join them later.

The Lloyd Coe, Tommy LaMay, and Darrell Wynns from Ruidoso fished at Bonito Lake Sunday. Hess Coe was on the Bonito Saturday evening and also Dolmar Turner.

A. T. Hannett (1925-26), looks like the final compromise between Sen. Dennis Chavez and Clint Anderson for the U. S. District Court place which Judge Carl Hatch is leaving.

The Hannetts and the Chavezes are tradition political allies. George Hannett was picked by the Burroughs organization for lieutenant governor in 1960 in a move designed to bring the Chavez force into the Burroughs camp, but the grand strategy failed with the nomination going to Albuquerque Joe A. Montoya. That was a memorable race. Montoya 34,912, Hannett 32,202, Elfo Seallio 29,180, Peter Gallagher 19,823.

LIQUOR MERCHANTS FEELING NO PAIN

As anticipated in this space last week the Democrats did not adopt a plank for repeal of the guarantee-prohibit-liquor law. Neither did Republicans in their earlier convention. . . . Not only do New Mexico liquor dealers have the highest price level in the U. S. guaranteed by law and a legally maintained monopoly but the New Mexico tax on liquor is among the lowest in the country, ranking 39th from the top among the states.

BRUSH FIRES TROUBLE DEMS

Jack Campbell, the governor-running Democrat, has a lot of little brush fires to stamp out before they become serious. Party leaders here last Saturday for the platform convention confided of discontent among people who had helped Campbell in the primary in Albuquerque, Dona Ana, Valencia, Chavez, Rio Arriba. It was Sen.
