Finishing touches put on new arena, everything ready for Little Maverick

By R. C. Barham
A small work crew consisting of Bill Stephenson, Bob Curtis, John Stearns, Jim Cooper, Wayne Withers, yours truly and wife added some of the final touches on the Carrizozo Arena this week. Hallett-type automatic roping barriers were installed on the roping and digging barriers. Thanks go out to Ralph Dunlap and Maydell Daniel for their help with entry lanks.
Nancy Knight made arrangements for championship trophy buckles to be awarded to the six top contestants for the two days of events.
Ruidoso Downs is donating an all-around championship trophy to the top senior cowboy.

Sheriff Bradley will meet "Fast Guns" in Albuquerque

Things are shaping up for what appears to be a fine weekend outing when the first Fast Gun Contest ever held as a sport comes off in Lincoln — starting at 10:00 a.m. The county is noted for its fast gun action but most of those recorded in history books were of a ready nature.
Sheriff W. G. Bradley will meet Buck Monell, Vince Vaccarino, and George Virgines, the Deputy Marshall of Dodge City, at Albuquerque Thursday evening. At this time he will receive from Pat Smith, New Mexico sculptress of "Borralle, the statuette of "Billy the Kid" which will be the top trophy at the contest.
The first place shooter, either man or woman, of both days contests will have a shoot-off for the Billy the Kid Trophy Sunday afternoon as a final.
A chuck-wagon lunch will be served at noon by the Lincoln County Mounted Patrol, probably with some help from the Captain Women's Club, who serve a real fine brand of chuck.
The three Roving Gunslingers will have a busy day in Lincoln County Friday when they will appear on the stages of Carrizozo, Captain, Hondo and Ruidoso high schools. And, later in the afternoon will go to Roswell for a television appearance at 4:30 p.m.
Monell, Virgines, Vaccarino are western type entertainers as well as fast gun artists. They work out a bull whip, show action with a sawed off shotgun, and can show how fast a "fast gun" should be.
Timing equipment, an important part of the Fast Draw Contest, is coming with five shooters from Colorado Springs. At present it is known that shooters from Colorado, Texas, Nevada, California, Illinois, Kansas, and Arizona will attend with a good possibility several other states will be represented.
It's something new and entertaining for Lincoln County, the Fast Gun Contest this weekend in Old Lincoln Town at the Billy the Kid pageant ground. Make your plans now to attend.

Police vaccine given Sunday

Dr. Stanley J. Leland, New Mexico state health director, said recently, there is no plan for changing the mass Sabin oral vaccination program scheduled to begin in New Mexico Sept. 23.
Dr. Leland said that health authorities feel assured of the safety of the types of vaccine planned for use in New Mexico and there is no cause to become excited about the situation.
The New Mexico Medical Society with Dr. A. N. Spencer and Dr. J. P. Turner, of Carrizozo and Dr. W. D. Horton of Ruidoso as co-chairmen mapped out plans for a three-month long campaign to immunize the entire county against polio.
The drive known as "Sabin Oral Sundays" (S. O. S.) will seek to administer the new Sabin Oral Vaccine to everyone in Lincoln County, beginning with age six weeks.
Lincoln County will participate in the campaign with most of the state, as New Mexico becomes the first state in the nation to attempt total immunization of all its residents.
Three doses of the new vaccine are necessary to guarantee full protection against polio. The new vaccine not only protects the person who receives it, but eliminates "carrier condition" whereby the disease can be transmitted from one person to another.
The clinic site in Carrizozo will be at the fire hall. Ruidoso will have their clinic at the High school gymnasium.
Dates of the various doses of vaccine are: first dose, September 23 and 30; second dose, October 23 and November 4; third dose, December 0 and 15.
Then charge for each dose is 25c but no one will be refused the vaccine.

Cope Straley a clean winner

One man in the country knows his football and the knowledge is worth $15 cash to him this week. Of all the entries in the Lincoln County News football contest only two guessed the Melrose-Tatum tie. Herman McKibben had that game pegged 7-7, but he missed the other three games completely. Cope Straley guessed a 14-14 tie.
Game Scores
Captain 40 Hondo 0
Vaughn 0 Carrizozo 39
Corona 7 Dexter 7
Melrose 13 Tatum 13
In scoring the cards this week the majority spotted Captain and Carrizozo but missed Corona over Dexter and the tie game on the list. In a four-game contest things ought to get tight and several people come up with correct cards but upsets continue to happen and the power of several teams is just now showing up.
Cope Straley gave Captain 25, Hondo 0; Carrizozo 28, Vaughn 0; Corona 14, Dexter 7; Melrose 14, Tatum 14, for a point spread of 32.
Getting honorable mention this week (all missing the tie game) were Marcos Vilasos Jr., Juan J. Chavez, Jose F. Lucas, Irno Laster, Claude Monreal, Ray Stoneham, Tommy J. Straley and June Straley.

Capitan too strong for Hondo Eagles

The 40-0 result of the game between Capitan and Hondo indicated to fans watching the game that Hondo was not yet in condition for a rugged game and that Capitan had too much power for the Valley boys.
Game statistics, first half: Hondo rushing 23 yds., passing 0. Second half rushing 71, passing 17, total for game 116. First downs 9, penalties 43 yds. Passes attempted 10, complete 2.
Capitan first half rushing 236 yds., passing 2. Second half rushing 145, passing 2, total for game 335. First downs 11, penalties 105 yds. Passes attempted 10, complete 2.

Arrow managers discuss safety

Arrow Gas Co. managers of New Mexico held their annual meeting in Ciudad Juarez September 12-13.
A variety of topics, the most outstanding being safety measures and better customer relations, were presented by Bill Schmalberger, President of the Arrow Gas Co., and Jacobson, Vice President, both of New York City. R. E. Glass, Division Manager and Donald Davis, Assistant Division Manager of Roswell.
The managers enjoyed golfing and bowling while attending the two-day meeting. They also toured the Sun Spot, a sun observatory located near Gable's Knob and were shown scientific films taken of the sun by the giant telescope.
Vernon Searey, manager of Arrow Gas Co. in Carrizozo, attended the affair.

Bears soar over Vaughn Eagles 39-0

By Andy Lopez
The Carrizozo Grizzlies soared past the Vaughn Eagles, 39-0, in a one sided affair here Friday night to protect their District 2C title.
Quarterback Bobby Ortiz, the offensive standout for the Grizzlies, led Carrizozo to its first victory this season with three touchdown passes, scoring one himself and tossing three PAT passes.
Carrizozo scored in every quarter and at half time had a commanding 20-0 lead.
Bobby Ortiz opened the scoring for the Grizzlies as he connected with a 29-yard pass to end Mike Voss and the same combination worked for the PAT.
With four and a half minutes remaining in the first period halfback Come Gallegos kicked-off to the Eagles. Larry Garcia returned the kickoff from the 20 to his own 27 yard line before being downed by end Billy Wrye.
Five plays later the Eagles fumbled and Voss recovered for the

Capitan woman's club holds meeting

The Capitan Woman's Club had a delightful evening at the Woman's Clubhouse on September 13.
A delicious dinner was served by the hostess Mrs. Hollis Cummins and Mrs. Mill Jones. After dinner canasta was played and all those present had a very enjoyable time.

Change of hour for woman's club meeting

In last week's paper the Woman's Club Luncheon was scheduled for 1:00 p.m. on September 20. The luncheon time has now been changed to 12:00 noon but the date remains the same.

ADULT CLASS IN HOME ECONOMICS TO BE ORGANIZED

There is to be an adult class in home economics offered again this year. In response to requests which have been received to this date, it will be offered in clothing construction, either as tailoring with emphasis on making woolen garments, or as renovation — making over garments completely or changing the style.
The first meeting will be held September 23, at 7 p.m. in the home economics room of the Jr. High School building.

Wife beaters get the message!

Two wife beaters learned in District Court on Monday, that wife beating is a serious offense.

CAN'T BUY VOTES WITH STATE JOBS

SANTA FE — The new personnel law has politicians digging for a new way to "buy votes" in the November election.

The much talked about but seldom explained "vote buying" has been conducted almost entirely in New Mexico in the illegal tender of state jobs.

Large family groups and other groups have been enticed to support certain candidates in return for state jobs for members of the group, but state jobs cannot be easily delivered under the personnel law which is already strong and which both parties have pledged to make stronger.

MUST HIRE PEOPLE FROM BOARD LISTS

Under the law, and regulations set up by the personnel board, all people hired by the agencies covered by the law must be selected from lists of applications who have passed personnel board examinations.

In each case the person hired must be from the top five in examination grades. Politicians hate the system which seems to be here to stay unless thrown out by the courts.

REPUBLICAN JUDGES MAKING HARD RACES

Two Republicans appointed by Gov. Ed Mechem are the only district judges up for election this time, Paul Larrazolo of the Valencia-Bernalillo-Sandoval district and Caswell Neal of the Eddy-Lee-Chaves district, and both are making strong bids in overwhelmingly Democratic territory.

There has been a considerable open shift of Democrats to both the judges. Larrazolo is opposed by Joe L. Martinez of Albuquerque, state attorney general 1949-52, and Neal is going against William Osborn of Roswell, a former state senator.

GUTHMANN QUITS, STATE IS LOSER

Ed Guthmann Sr. knows when he's had enough and can fold the Springer Tribune if he wants to, but a lot of his old buddies would kick his pants if they could reach that far.

Suspension of the old paper at the end of the month as Guthmann said he plans will be a loss to the state as well as the Springer community. In 23 years Guthmann's much quoted writings did much toward molding public opinion.

He was a republican candidate for Congress a few years back and both he and his boy, Ed Jr., served as president of the New Mexico Press Assn.

Ed Sr.'s greatest success, perhaps, was in the phenomenal commercial printing business that he developed in the small town plant, doing competitive work for business houses all over the United States.

Maybe Ed should reconsider. There's really some advantage to running a money losing newspaper. You don't have big advertisers trying to run your business all the time.

PROBATE JUDGES PAID FOR NOTHING

Lowell Green, clerk of the supreme court and "administrative officer of all the courts" apparently doesn't think much of probate courts.

His report for 1961 notes that Oral E. Tinney, probate judge of Catron county disposed of no cases in 1961 and got $500 pay, and the same for Feliciano Trujillo of Mora county.

Probate Judge Ignacio Salazar of Mora and Probate Judge Krallio G. Jofola of Socorro each disposed of one case during the year and each was paid $600.

Probate judges handle estates of deceased persons but all the cases could be handled in the district courts. They are paid from $500 to $3,000 a year according to the size of the counties they serve. Green notes that two more district judges could be set up for the $60,000 a year it costs to maintain the probate courts.

DEMO CANDIDATES SHOW NO WORRY

At mid-September only two state Democratic candidates were acting like they had opponents for the Nov. 6 election, Jack Campbell who is very much aware of Republican Gov. Ed Mechem, and U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya who has developed an awareness of Dr. Jack Redman of Albuquerque. Both are scrambling. Most of the other candidates seem bored and are planning on making the usual campaign four only because it is expected of them. Land Commissioner Johnny Walker who is on crutches won't do much of that. Mack Easley of Hobbs, the Democrat for lieutenant governor, is not paying much attention to his opponent, Jack Dillon of Albuquerque, but has been putting in a lot of time for Campbell for governor. Dr. Redman, the Republican for Congress, has turned his practice over to another M. D. and is campaigning full time for Little Joe's job. LOREDBURG ENGINEER WINS A PROMOTION The state highway department man who was supposed to see that the Lordsburg road was correctly constructed has been given a solid promotion in the department, rising from "highway aide" to "highway engineer" a classification in which he will have much more authority and responsibility. He is Leland Doty, project engineer of the Lordsburg road failure but never officially held responsible for what happened. He was a registered professional engineer by the state engineer's board without an examination because he had put in 60,000 hours in the highway department. The promotion and a pay raise from $2000 to $5900 a month came in consideration of his professional registration.

...KNOW WHAT'S THE YUMMIEST BREAD?

IS!

I know... I tested it. I tested it for flavor first. If bread doesn't taste good, you don't eat it. This bread tastes swell. I like it. I tested it for freshness. Bread's got to be soft and tender—and this bread is, for sure. Mommy says it stays that way. I tested it for smoothness, too. Grown-ups call it texture. All I know is it's plenty nice. Dad says it looks like quality with a capital Q.

I tested it... why don't you?

By Effie Mulkey

Mrs. Tom Roper, who lives with her youngest son, R. L. Roper, in Alamogordo had a light stroke Friday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Roper and son, Martin and John Ernest Tracey and daughter, Alice Kay, were down to see Mrs. Roper the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ashcraft of Vaughn were visitors in Corona Sunday.

J. T. and Clint Roper recently made a trip to Wilburton, Okla., and spent a week there checking on college. This week they were in Albuquerque.

Mrs. R. L. Sheffield took sick at her home three miles north of Corona near the overpass Sept. 13 and was rushed to Carrizozo hospital and later taken to a hospital in El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Marable of Albuquerque visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lackey the past weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Mulkey moved their trailer house last weekend to Corona from Albuquerque where both have been working. Lee began working Monday morning for I. H. Carnell at the standard station.

Mrs. Ada Hester, 73, wife of A. C. Hester, died at their home near Bayfield, Colorado, September 15. Mrs. Hester was a long-time resident of Corona. Funeral services and burial were in Colorado Tuesday. A number of friends and relatives from this area attended the services.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. James had as their guests the past weekend Mr. and Mrs. Roy Knox of El Paso. Mr. Knox is an uncle of Mrs. James, a brother of her mother, Mrs. Dee Martin.

Grady L. Dungan On September 11 at 2:00 p.m. funeral services were held in Alamogordo for Grady L. Dungan, 69-year-old Otero county constable who died the 9th of a heart attack.

The Rev. Albert L. Chandler officiated with burial in Monte Vista Cemetery. A resident of Alamogordo for 15 years, Dungan was a city policeman for many years and was serving as constable at the time of his death. He also had interests in a real estate business. He lived in Dungan addition.

He was a member of the Baptist church and Elks Lodge. He was born in Hill County, Texas, on July 26, 1893.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Dolores Dungan, Alamogordo; five brothers, Dennis of Albuquerque, Theodore of Alamogordo, Jack of El Paso, M. R. of Alamogordo and Paul Dungan of El Paso. Three sisters, Mrs. James Bostick of Alamogordo, Mrs. Ervin Caffoy of Abilene, Texas, and Mrs. Toby Watson of Albuquerque.

At one time he made his home at Ruidoso and will be remembered by many friends. His brother, Dennis, now of Albuquerque, once lived near Alto with his wife and they still own property in the community.

Mrs. Opal Bowers and son, Johnny and Tommy of Roswell were here the past weekend to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Blood.

Friday Mrs. H. C. Jernigan and Mrs. William C. Polm of Ft. Stanton stopped by for a little visit.

Jack Floyd of Calif., stopped by Sunday to renew acquaintances with old friends in the community.

In the early 30's he worked in the mine up Eagle Creek Canyon and hauled the ore to El Paso. He went to visit Mrs. W. N. Hightower who just returned from Alamogordo Saturday when Mrs. C. E. Harrington brought her home from there where she had been visiting for some time. Mr. Floyd was interested in knowing where and how the Barney Luck family was.

Austin Wooten stopped in Wednesday on his way back to Carrizozo from Ruidoso.

Thursday Mrs. John Laffay of Nogal was a visitor at Alto.

Charif Glenn Bradley stopped in on Wednesday when he was in the community.

Voland Manley, Gretchen Barrett and Marie Martin stopped to see us Wednesday morning on their way to Albuquerque and the Stato Fair where they were going to work the races as cashiers.

"Dones" Wright and "Deb" Williams of Ruidoso were over Thursday looking for doves—did not hear if they ever found any.

While J. B. Hightower, Jr., (Bud, dy to us) was here for the funeral of his uncle, C. E. Anderson, he stayed around a few days to visit in the community. It was nice to see him in the store for a visit.

Mrs. Robert Neal and Mrs. Kenneth Hicks of El Paso are enjoying a fall vacation in the Neal home at Eagle Creek Lodge.

Over this way on Friday hunting doves were Mrs. Walter Fay Averitt and son Billy and Leck Cowden of Ruidoso.

Bert Rice and some friends from Ruidoso were by Saturday on a Jeep trip to Parsons and around to Nogal Peak and Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. R. Jack Stewart and Richard spent the weekend at Eagle Creek Lodge in their summer home there. They agree with many others that Sept. is a fine time for a vacation and disliked having to return to El Paso so soon.

he had a most trying time getting to his feet. He was winded, but he was more determined than ever and when he mounted his pony again, it didn't take him long to catch his calf. After that it was all slow-motion on his part. He took his sweet time dismounting, walked nonchalantly to the calf and bending its front foot, he tried pushing it to the ground, but no soap. That longeared Brahma had her notions too, and not because he was big and fat and the son of Bud Bagley of Corona, was she going to lay down for him on that hard ground and mess up her sable coat. In his last desperate effort he slid under the calf's belly and pinned her shoulders to the mat as if he had been wrestling Matty Matsuda of El Paso back in the 20's. The attendants went to the rescue of both Bagley and the calf. He was beaten, but not undaunted, and it goes to prove that there are no quitters in Lincoln County from the cradle to the grave.

Saw Ramon Arizaga, whom we had not seen for many years. The old-timers will remember Ramon as a familiar sight on the old roads in these parts. When he rode his two-wheeled chariot drawn by a big white donkey, Ramon never missed a dance, a wedding, a huntism or a funeral from Lincoln to Carrizozo in his sure way of conveyance. He and his donkey had a home wherever they went in their many wanderings. Once when he went to Carrizozo, the donkey turned right around and headed for home in Canon del Oso, while Ramon was eating his dinner in the home of Mrs. John Mack. He followed his donkey and rig afoot and found them under the old fall railroad trestle at Indian Divide, minutes one of the wheels on the cart. He found that a half mile below in the deep ravine, Ramon talked both English and Spanish to that donkey, but it's still a secret to this day, just how he addressed him on that particular trip, because Ramon had not even begun on his visit to all the neighbors in Carrizozo when his partner turned traitor and left him afoot.

Margie Montoya and Vickie Morales were here on Sunday. Margie to visit her little daughter in No. 12 and Vickie her old roommate, Liz Lopez, the most publicized girl in Fort Stanton. These butterflies are expatriates of Fort Stanton and their many friends were overjoyed to see them looking so well.

Had a very threatening letter last week and it wound up with "I'm going to shoot you if you don't leave my gal alone." What worries us is that he didn't sign his name; otherwise we would send copies of the letter to "Let-to the Editor" and Deputy Leonardo Vega Jr. Just so that letter didn't have its inception from within these boundaries, we feel pretty safe and have a running chance.

The Joe Sacobedo family attended the Fiesta of the rheumatic fever drive in Roswell Sept. 13-14-15, in which Red Flame Linda was one of the candidates for Queen. Let's hope Linda brought the laurels back to Lincoln County. Let you know next week.

S.O.S. Sept. 23

Fort Stanton

By J. S. C.

Tranquilino Silva and R. C. Nunez were in Ft. Stanton, Sept. 17, registering voters for the general election in November.

Joe Solano has been discharged and left for his home in Albuquerque.

Postmistress Frances Shaw has been on a two-week vacation during which time Mrs. Etha Merrill substituted for her in the local postoffice. Mrs. Shaw was a busy woman during the County Fair, helping with the arrangements of the big dinner given by the Woman's Club of that place.

Cowboy Louie Derrick visited his parents at Nogal during the past weekend. Derrick doesn't have to sell his pet calf, because Daniel Salazar has been discharged and he will never see him again with Mozart's Serenade on that piano.

Plenic For Employees There was a picnic for the employees of Ft. Stanton and their families and other residents at the Bonito Inn Sept. 15, 2:30 to 5:30 p.m. The food was furnished by the hospital and the menu consisted of T-Bone steak, French fries, coleslaw, coffee and punch.

There was music and games for the youngsters and all had a grand and glorious time.

In talking to Earl Greenwood, an old-timer of Otero County, born and reared in Alamogordo, he mentioned the Old Hatchet Cattle Co. of Three Rivers, where he knew Tom Johnson and Lock Cornett of Carrizozo, Pat Carrillo, Victoriano and Pedro Crawford of Tularosa, well. He also mentioned Old Stanton, Mesalero Apache Indian, who had many head of sheep at La Rinconada near Three Rivers, and also Andalco Padilla, one of the first commissioners of Otero County. His son, Andy, was Postmaster at Three Rivers for several years, after which he worked for the Highway Department and later for Wm. S. Norman in Carrizozo and also conducted a pool hall there. He still resides in Carrizozo.

Toby Valdez has gone on a fur-tough to his home at Rancho de Taos.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Lopez and children visited relatives at Las Vegas and Mora last weekend. He accompanied them as far as Capitán to take in the last day of the County Fair. We enjoyed the exhibits, the parade and the rodeo by the school kids and also met several old-time friends. We had the pleasure of meeting Louie Lounso's Benito correspondent. Louie talks like she writes, with no strings attached, and we were highly impressed with this fine lady. Also had a brief talk with Editor Paul W. Payton of the Lincoln County News. Bob Lalle, Kennan Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Current. We also met Louie's niece children and we took in the show with Ramon Herrera, survivor of two pioneer families of the Capitán country, the late Eulogio and Jose Herreras.

No Quitters in Old Lincoln County There will be a report of the Fair from Capitán, but we cannot resist making a few comments on that junior rodeo. First, there were two babies riding in the barrel and polo races, who looked like little pet monkey on top of those horses. One of them had his tongue out from the start to the finish, trying to stay on that weaving horse. The calico ropers competing in the calf roping contest were good horsewomen, but failed in roping their calves.

Then came the boys in the same event and the first boy roped his calf, but when he dismounted, his horse started to run away from him and when he run alongside, trying to get hold of the reins, the mare wheeled around and threw a pair of hooves at him. He rolled on the ground, but was only grazed and wasn't hurt. Papa taught a few manners to that mare by kicking her several times in the belly.

The next two contestants roped their calves in two lassus each, but it took them over 25 seconds to tie their prizes.

Next came the pantomime and the whole cake of the show. Slow-motion Bagley of Corona, a small kid in years, but well-proportioned in avoirdupois, weighing over the 200 mark, came out on a small spotted horse and when he cornered his calf at the dead-end of the fence, he missed his loop and when he lost his stirrup and leaned out too far from his saddle, he fell to the ground flat on his stomach. That deflated the old balloon and he had a most trying time getting to his feet. He was winded, but he was more determined than ever and when he mounted his pony again, it didn't take him long to catch his calf. After that it was all slow-motion on his part. He took his sweet time dismounting, walked nonchalantly to the calf and bending its front foot, he tried pushing it to the ground, but no soap. Tough new '63 Chevrolet Trucks are here!

...THE ONES THAT WHIPPED THE BAJA RUN...TOUGHEST UNDER THE SUN...
TO SHOW THE WORTH OF NEW ENGINES, FRAMES AND SUSPENSIONS!

Sometimes the caravan crept along for hours in low gear. It took 17 days to go 1,000 miles! This is the road near Loreto.

Round trip from Detroit to the end of the Baja Peninsula is over 10,000 miles.

Millions of years ago nature fashioned a proving ground for trucks that man can never duplicate. Today it is known as the Baja (bah' hah) California Peninsula, Mexico.

These pictures give you only a bare idea of the place. The road is fine for 140 miles below the U.S. border. Then the heating begins. Rocks and hard-baked ruts bang, jab and jerk the trucks from stem to stern. Loose sand makes them struggle and strain. Dust chokes them. Heat roasts them. Rivers drench them.

The Baja Run took this Chevrolet truck caravan 17 days to go the 1,000 miles.

All the trucks performed magnificently. Not one was forced to drop out because of mechanical difficulty.

Trucks that can take this kind of beating can take on your toughest truck jobs. Come in now and see tough quality-built '63 Chevrolet trucks with all their new improvements.

Ryberg Family Reunion
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ryberg of Corona were host and hostess at their ranch home the past Labor
Day weekend for a family reunion.
This was the first time since 1935 that the four Ryberg brothers and one sister had been able to get together at one time.

At present there are 74 Rybergs,
but many were unable to attend.
Among them were one brother,
Richard, and one sister, Ruth, who live in Sweden.

Those who attended were Mrs.
Alma (Ryberg) Anderson (a sister), and her daughter, Mrs. Ethel Anderson, and granddaughter, Diane, from Sacramento, Calif., Oscar Ryberg, (a brother), and his wife, Violet, and daughter, Doris from Evanston, Illinois, Mr. Carl Ivan Ryberg, (brother), his wife
Dorothy and three sons, George,
Ernie and Duane, from Clovis.
Mr. Ernest Ryberg, (brother), and his daughter, Mrs. Dona (Ry-berg) Apple, from Sacramento, Calif.

Mr. Harry Ryberg, (brother), his wife, Pat, his daughter, Mrs. Alice Hunt and two of her children,
Rickey and Jeanie, and son, Carl,
and his wife, Barbara, all from Denver, Colo.

Also another son, Charles, and his wife, Ronnie, from Las Vegas,
N. M., and several others.

Movies and slides were shown by Oscar Ryberg who had visited ten (10) countries in 1961, with his wife and daughter.

Good food and a good time were enjoyed by all. Future plans are being made for another reunion of the Ryberg families in 1967 in Calif.

Homecoming Plans Made Preparations for the Carrizozo high school student council are underway for the Homecoming Activities on October 19.

The football team and her coach will be chosen. The traditional parade, snake dance, bon fire and homecoming dance are being planned.

The homecoming football game will be with the Dexter Demons and their coach, George Lewis promises to bring a strong squad to match the Grizzlies. Fans and students from Dexter will be invited to join the festivities.

Business firms and students organizations will be encouraged to enter floats for the parade.

comes, what they are as well—unless we find a herd of Mustangs in the wild canyons of the Moon!

THE PRICE OF NEGLIGENCE
With the rockets and missiles, the war heads of atomic destruction of the world's two most powerful nations zeroed in on each other, it surely is time for Americans to pause and think.

It behoves each of us to do so: The world has been too busy to heed what is happening ever since the Bolsheviks, Communists, Reds or by what ever name you care to call the government of Russia.

Since the overthrow of the last Czar the world has been menaced by them.

With the overthrow of the Czar they began their carnage of murder, pillage, and rape—first of their own country, their own women, their own banks and stores. To this day they have not stopped, nor do they intend to do so.

If Russia as a nation on a national scale (with the possible exception of a few decent ones) will do this to the masses of their own country, what, then, can we expect if we let them point their missiles at us? We should have the intelligence to know they aim to do the same to us. Knowing this, why do we bargain—why do our statesmen get and try to make any deal of any kind with them?

We know they have us out-gunned. They won the revolution yet their own government, the czar—they're still winning. Why? Mainly because: first, during World War 2 America thought we needed their aid, their man power, etc. to defeat Hitler and his ilk. So we aided Russia and gave them much assistance under the Marshall Plan: Also technical know-how. While we did this it is common knowledge they, with the help of some of our pink American's stole our Atomic secrets.

They're still stealing from us at Canaveral. What they don't steal our left wing pinks give it away. Many so-called Americans are in favor of the exchange of ideas of outer space with them. They'd give it to them like the Marshall Plan. We, the common people, read about these things, cuss a little, and do nothing else.

What price we pay for thoughtlessness! What can we do?

The ex-soldier can put his shoulder behind the true, the one-hundred per cent American organization which is Anglo, Negro, Mexican, Jap, Chino, Catholic, Protestant, or Jew. That is a bunch of fellows who stand United for Americanism; who are not afraid of being counted, but hold their organization with the best American and American ideas; who believe in smacking a Communist down where they find them. That, dear reader, is The American Legion.

To all others who are not ex-soldiers but loyal Americans just the same, speak your mind. Let it be known that you resent such people who advocate the exchange of ideas on Nuclear Power and Space Flight and Peaceful co-existence while they steal us blind.

There is no such thing as peaceful co-existence with Communism. Those ideas put Castro in Cuba.

It is my personal belief that if America had the leadership it should have had he never would have got there. If we had the leadership we need, he could not stay. If enough Americans would demand it we'd hang Communists in this country where we find them.

It is the custom of the Socialists and pinks to say a man belongs to the John Birch Society who has the fortitude to write the truth about them, so may I sign for Americanization for sure.

Horses

Our temporarily occupied apartment is not very spacious; but it's large enough—enough space where Mrs. Carson and I can carry on a few operations without being right under each other's feet all the time.

I had just recovered from a historical orbit and returned to the Space Age from a trip over the Old Santa Fe Trail, where I had been fighting Indians and chasing them all over the country for a gory act they had committed around Wagon Mound, and was no very much aware of the actual environment I was in. I strolled into the living room, in sort of a daze, mind completely blank as usual—more so after completing an article. I glanced toward the couch.

There rested a couple of paintings—still wet. Mrs. Carson had just completed them and placed them in such a position to cure, or whatever, they do. She knows, for she works with paintings a bit. They were paintings of horses. One was not so good. The other one bore qualities a horse-lover likes to gaze upon. It touched inner feelings—produced a sort of nostalgic effect deep in the heart. I'm a lover of horses, even above dogs—"man's best friend," and definitely care for them far above the species of animals known and called house cat. I grew up on one of these four-legged critters, and I love them next to human beings—a little more than some.

There were always a few ponies on the place, some mares with pretty little colts following them around, foal-ing and "chewing their wax" when things didn't suit their fancy. A cow pony was there to handle a few cows on the place. His name was Ole Sid, named for a favorite cow horse my grandfather used to ride when he ran cattle on the open range about Denton, Tex. And each boy of the family, as he grew old enough to fork a horse, acquired one of his liking — my father saw to that. And I stayed with horses until the fancies of travel engulfed me into a world which did not permit the possession of a horse.

I'll never forget the little bay mare called Bird. She was not a very big animal, weighing around 800 or 850, but seemed to have an awful amount of intellect; for it was she that I cruised with during two years of my high school work. Even though she never got inside the school, she got pretty close by. We lived six miles out in the country from the village high school and school buses did not operate in those days. Horses then served the purpose. For some months of the year, five days of the week, excepting the holidays, she faithfully hauled me over the six-mile route, each night and morning, in all kinds of weather, storms and all — and don't you ever forget that Northeast Texas can come up with some good ones. The little bay mare seemed to have only one concern at her heart. She was already to travel, through dust and mud—the same faithful pace through all the days. She was wide between the eyes, dark bay, with a little white spot between those knowing eyes. I'll never forget her.

And there was the little mouse-colored pinto horse — the type that can pace all day in the shade of a tree. We called him the "sop and tatter" critter. He was a mischievous sort of equine, like he might not have wanted to depart the Mustang strains and become a portion of civilization. He was good for a little "trouncing" every once in a while, too. I remember him as the one I used to ride when I had a little "showing off" to do about over the community, before the community ladies, about my age! My brother, before he met with his fatal accident, owned a little bronco, of a broom-tail nature. He was acquired and became a part of the livestock on the place when my father traded an old 1910 or '12 model car of some sort for him, saddle and all. This bronco was mean as the very devil — had a perpetual habit of rearing up and falling back on the saddle every time he was mounted. One day my father mounted him with a single-tree in his hand, ready for business. When the crafty little bronco reared into that single-tree, that was the last attempt of that nature he ever made.

Some horses are awful, but most of them are good. There's the bronco that seems to live for no other purpose than to see you pilled in the dirt at his feet. There's race horses and every other sort.

And then in later years, when business became with me a sort of reality, and the procurement of a dollar became a must, and all foolishness was cast aside, in order to try to make a living, an old sorrel mare came into my life. She had a blaze face, and was as wicked as hell. We had only a few things in common — one of them was to ride among the herds of cattle, and look them over.

She occupied the saddle horse pasture, always handy and available; for it was nearly always early in the morning or very late at night that she had her chores to accomplish — that of carrying me over the various pastures, looking after the cattle. The old sorrel mare liked those trips. In fact she seemed to always know where the cattle were located. Once the back corral gate was let down, and she had free rein, at a stiff gallop, she went right to the herds — as though she had lingered up and down the fence during all her excess time, day and night, observing and locating the herds, to be ready for us to go to them.

But one morning very early all bell broke loose. It was sort of cool in the Fall of the year, and on this occasion things in our life took on a decided change. Word had reached me that a break in the fence had been made on the back side. I saddled up the old mare, and she was willing — willing as hell, as usual. But where I made my mistake, I took down a bucketful of staples, put in it a pair of fencing pliers, and a hammer and hung the whole works on the saddle horn.

I thereupon shouldered a double-bit axe, to chop down a little timber for fence posts, and a pair of post-hole diggers. I mounted the old pony, swinging into the saddle with much effort due to the load on my shoulder, and with unsteady movements, I touched off that bucketful of staples and fencing paraphernalia hanging from the saddle horn. It rattled. The old sorrel mare didn't like the strange noise. She sort of laid back her ears, rolled her eyes where the white as steam showed momentarily. The bucketful of staples rattled again. The show was on!

After a few stiff licks, the post punch and the double-bit axe flew into the high altitude in which I was riding. But, as hell would have it, the rattling bucketful of staples hung tenaciously to the saddle horn, making my situation more perplexing and my seat in the saddle a bit dubious. It was not very long until I was in the dirt with the axe and other tools. The old sorrel, cuss her every hide, turned a gaze upon me. She seemed to sort of smile and apologize. I never pulled that trick on her again. And she did likewise for me. We got along very well thereafter — after having a definite understanding. Horses are that way.

And horses could go on and on. They are wonderful critters.

Within minutes, too, are plentiful supplies of foods, clothing, tools for doing our jobs, and services which are often vitally important to living in Today. These are some of the material blessings . . . as part of life in a typical American town area . . . built and supported by trading among ourselves.

But emergency needs . . . those things and those services for which we cannot wait many hours or days . . . are but a relatively small part of our total trade . . . never enough to wholly support the stores and service people and their facilities we find so essential in times of sudden need.

And . . . we can enjoy the best possible service in emergencies only if we keep our community economically vigorous and strong with our everyday trade.

HOW BANKS HELP YOU TO Get Ahead

A recent survey of outstanding men and women in widely varied fields revealed a noteworthy correlation between bank saving and success. Seven out of ten of these "V.I.P.'s" had one or more bank savings accounts! Regular saving, in their own words, "Builds confidence" . . . "Molds character" . . . "Teaches self-discipline" . . . "Gives independence." Why bank saving? Any bank saver can tell you: For safety plus availability plus earnings plus service plus helpfulness. Whatever your definition of success may be, save for it - here at our bank.
