"Fastest gun in the west" known Saturday

Day in Old Lincoln Town promises the best in variety entertainment

The Day in Old Lincoln next Sunday, August 4, promises to be filled with much good entertainment as well as the opportunity to meet and visit with old friends. Betty Shreengost who is acting as program chairman informs us that the Hil Overton Family Orchestra will furnish Western music during the afternoon.

The program which starts at noon includes numbers by "The Moonshiners", a musical duo consisting of Michael Hurd, and his partner who specialize in Spanish ballads and are currently appearing at the Chapparal in Ruidoso. Michael Hurd is the son of Peter Hurd, well known artist of San Patricio. A group of entertainers from Tularosa will sing and play some Spanish numbers, among them an original ballad, "El Corrido de Billy the Kid," written by Mrs. Manuelita Padilla of Capitlan.

Square dancers from Roswell and Ruidoso Downs will perform. The Fiddler's Contest, an event which is held every year will begin at 4 o'clock.

There is a possibility that there will also be a display of vintage model cars.

So plan to go to Lincoln on Sunday. You'll have a wonderful time.

The second Fast Draw Contest to be held in Lincoln County comes off Saturday, August 3, starting at 8:00 a.m. on the pageant grounds at Lincoln.

From letters and phone calls received by the secretary a large turnout of the nation's best fast draw artists is expected.

Al Milicevic, president of the Chicago (Illinois) Fast Draw Conference, says "I intend to make the shoot, as do others from my area."

Frank Lowe, of Mackenzie Gunslingers at Lubbock, Texas, is making plans to attend, maybe with a carload.

Fred Norcross at Las Vegas, N. M. is on the expected list. Gene Ballard, representing the Colt Pacemakers at Mesa, Arizona, wants reservations for two couples in Lincoln at the Wortley. They will arrive Friday night.

Most of Brownfield, Texas, will move to Lincoln County this weekend to boost for their champion, C. E. Hook, who will be back to defend his championship.

Ronnie E. Gardner of the Colorado Fast-Draw Association, is coming with timing equipment and probably two carloads of shooters.

The Desert Gunfighters from Phoenix, Ariz., will be here in quantity with the woman who won the National Blank Championship at Las Vegas last year. We had a phone call from Macon, Georgia, this week and the message was that the Cherokee Gunfighters are planning to come to Lincoln County.

Letters of invitation have gone out to about 30 Fast Draw Clubs and over 200 shooters in most states of the nation. All signs point to a lot of fast drawing in Old Lincoln Town this Saturday, August 3.

Sheriff W. G. Bradley, on his way to Farmington Friday on official business, will pick up the special Billy the Kid trophy made by artist Pat Smith of Corrales.

The Lincoln Co. Fast Draw Committee who will be doing most of the work putting on the shoot is composed of Charles A. Jones, Gerald Dean, Ed Penfield and Paul Payton.

TRICK ROPER — Marc Stern of Houston, Texas, brother of Dan who directs the pageant, will perform fantastic rope tricks during the pageant days at Old Lincoln Town, August 3-4.

INSIDE THE CAPITOL — By Will Harrison

Politicians getting an early start

POLITICIANS PICK AN EARLY DATE

SANTA FE — New Mexicans should get braced for the longest and noisiest political campaign they ever experienced. Republicans had ten thousand out for a jamboree in Rio Arriba this month. Earlier there was another nearly as big in Sierra.

The Demos are already at the knifing stage in the drive for nomination for land commissioner — Sheepherd Hays of the land office and State Highway Commission Chairman John Sudderth.

Land Commissioner Johnny Walker, State Demo Chairman Calvin Horn, Lt. Gov. Mack Easley and State Sen. Fabian Chavez are at work for nomination for Congress.

DECEMBER START IN PAST YEARS

All this is at the first of August for a primary election ten months away and a general election in November, 1964, fifteen months in the future.

A few years ago December was the starting time for campaigns.

Last time it was late September when the candidates took to the road.

REPUBLICANS HAVE IT SOFT

As usual, the Republicans don't have a primary contest indicated for any office.

It will be Sen. Ed Mechem for the Senate, Tom Bolack for governor, Dr. Jack Redman for one of the two congressional places, and the other candidates picked in hotel room conferences.

As usual, the Demos are confronted with trouble for most all the offices.

CONVENTION SNAP APPEARS WEAK

The convention system for the nomination of state candidates set up by the last legislature to ease the way for U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya getting the nomination for senator, and Gov. Jack Campbell to have a free ride for re-nomination appears weaker than it did a couple of months ago.

There is serious talk about opposition for both. If that develops it would be harmful to the Demo party.

OPEN OFFICES FOR HOPEFULS

Lt. Gov. Mack Easley's activity for nomination for Congress seems to have left his loot giv office open for any with the muscle to get it.

Atty. Gen. Earl Hartley is going out with his assistant Boston Witt the strongest prospect but no clinch for the job.

Land Commissioner Walker is going out with Hays and Sudderth fighting for the place.

Columbus Ferguson, a brand new corporation commissioner appointed by Gov. Jack Campbell, and G. Y. Falls, appointed to the commission three years ago by Gov. John Burroughs but required to run again next year, look like they will have serious primary opposition.

NO TROUBLE YET FOR ALBERTA, JOE

The only ones free so far from threatening challengers are State Secretary Alberta Miller, Justice Cleve Compton, Treasurer Joe Grant and Auditor Alex Armijo.

Armijo has stirred a lot of grumbling and threatening but appears fairly safe at this August date.

SENATE WORRIES THE DEMOCRATS

Next year's election is a big one, obviously, because it is a presidential year, but what has the Demos in a frantic state is the presence of a Republican, Ed Mechem, in the Senate, first of that breed since 1935.

The Democrats are intent on getting him out but aren't sure that U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya is the one who can do it. The dilemma they face is running the doubtful candidate Montoya or offering another who would be bruised by Montoya in a primary fight and thus weakened for the November main event.

TEN-YEAR DEAL FOR GOVERNOR

The 1964 election is also a big one on the governor level. Republican Tom Bolack has mounted to a formidable position for the big state job.

The Republican has a ten-year pattern working in his favor. Since 1954 the voters have been turning out governors after one two-year term and alternating Republicans and Democrats.

It has been John Simons Democrat, Ed Mechem Republican, John Burroughs Democrat, Mechem Republican and Jack Campbell Democrat.

REPUBLICANS NEED BARRY GOLDWATER

All the state political dope of the summer of 1963 could be washed out by the national conventions of 1964.

If the Republicans nominate Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona it would help the local Republicans. Anybody else would probably hurt them.

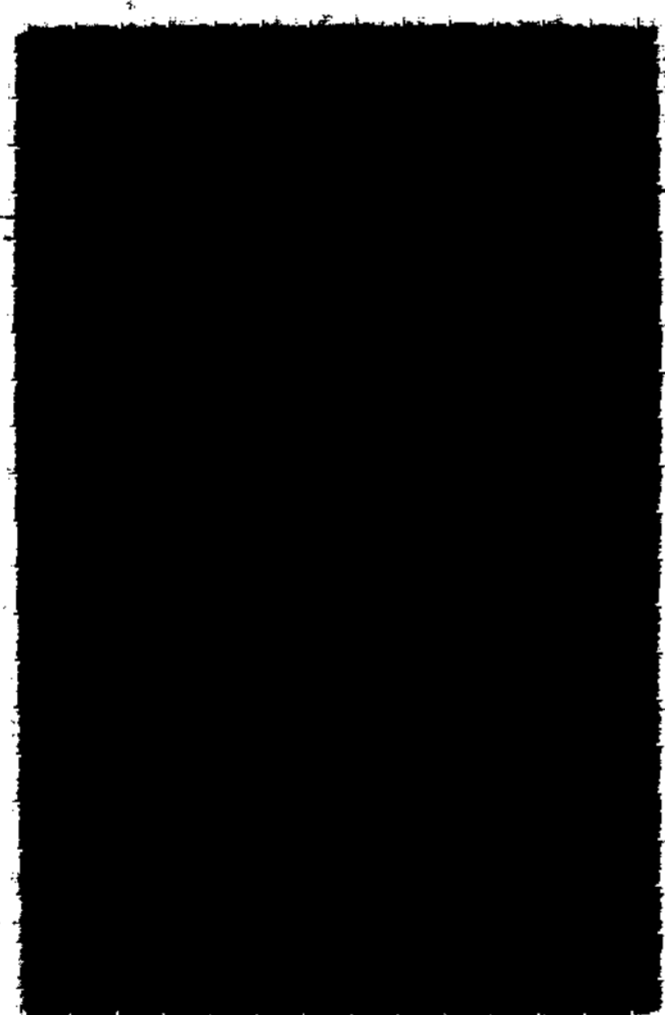

Grade Enrollment August 23

Registration for new students in grades 1-12 will be on August 23. A general teacher meeting will be held on this day, the opening day of school is Monday, August 26.

New principal from Illinois

Carrizozo municipal board of education, school district No. 7, has employed V. J. Marr of Tallula, Ill., as high school principal for the coming year.

Mr. Marr is an experienced school administrator who received his undergraduate work training at Shawneet College, Alton, Ill., and completed his graduate work for a Master's Degree at the University of Illinois in Urbana. He has also studied with the Jesuits at St. Louis University in St. Louis, Mo.

Mrs. V. J. Marr

His work as high school principal includes ten years at Ashley and Gladstone, Ill. He comes to Carrizozo from Tallula where he has completed four years as high school principal.

Mrs. V. J. Marr has been employed as teacher and librarian in the high school. Mrs. Marr has her Bachelor's Degree from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, and a Master's Degree in Education from the University of Illinois.

Ben Pfingsten was the congenial friend of many in Lincoln County. We shall miss him. For so many years, the Pfingsten home on Nogal Mesa was a hospitable haven to friends and relatives. After his mother's passing, Ben continued to entertain his many visitors with tales of the old days, school at Angus and the Mesa, and mining and ranching in the county.

He was especially fond of children, and always had a nephew or two spending the summer with him. I remember one night about ten years ago when he gathered all the children on the Mesa and took them on a hay ride in his horse-drawn wagon, giving them a unique never-to-be-forgotten experience.

Ben always kept the coffee brewing at the Angus Cemetery meetings, and never missed a camp meeting. Of recent years he lived in Nogal, visiting his friends up the canyon, on the mesa, and over to Bonita, as long as he could travel.

Of worldly goods, Ben had few. He was physically handicapped. But he was a Christian man in all ways, kind, charitable, and with a joy for his fellow man. He gave all he had of his cheery disposition and made the world a better place for having lived among us. — Dorothy Guck.

Friends he had everywhere and none can say they aren't a better person after knowing Ben. His sincere philosophy was the bright side of life. He picked the good out of every friend, gave all he could of everything he had, any time. Thru the years he often said, "I have the best brothers and sisters in the world." Just if we could all say that about our family! Ben loved Lincoln county and its history and remembered vividly many interesting stories. On the Bonita and at Nogal he was happiest. Surely Ben is at the Great Roundup, we should not be sad, its only that, like Ben, none of us want to leave our friends. — Louise Coe Rumele.

A last letter from Ben Pfingsten

T or C, N. M.
July 23, 1963

Dear Mr. Payton:

Ben Pfingsten is ill in St. Ann's Hospital here. He has asked me to write you. He will appreciate it very much if you will put a little note of thanks to his many friends for their get-well wishes. He has had so many recently. It would be quite a task to answer each individually.

And, he says to be sure to thank those who signed his card at the camp meeting. He hopes he will be able to attend next year and was so sorry he could not make it this time. This was the first time he has not been there since the camp meeting was organized on Nogal Mesa. He really missed it.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Bernice Pemberton
(Ed. Note — This letter mailed July 23 did not arrive in time for our paper last week printed on July 24. We feel sure Ben Pfingsten's friends will accept the message as it is written.)

Obituary

Ben R. Pfingsten, age 62, of Nogal passed away at T or C after a short illness. He was a life-long resident of Nogal Mesa and was in the farming and ranching business until he retired on account of his health.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Emma Armstrong, Tucuman; Mrs. Pearl Kendrick, Albuquerque; four brothers, Bernard and Ray of El Paso, Charles of Lubbock, and Robert of Tucuman. One aunt, Mrs. W. N. Hightower of Alto, one uncle, J. W. Robinson of Portalek.

Funeral services were held in Angus Community Church Saturday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Paul Westberg officiating. Organist was Mrs. Johnson Stearns, singer Mrs. Eva Zumwalt. Casket bearers were Fred LaMay, Mert Zumwalt, John LaMay, Roy LaMay, Albert Roberts and A. P. Sitton.

Laws are enforced, but no speedtrap

A check of motel, service station, and restaurant owners in Carrizozo this week turned up some complaints but none that the state police, in this area were operating speed traps.

Betty Ortiz said she'd heard quite a number of complaints, but all come from people who stated they had violated traffic regulations in some manner — but not much. They frequently objected to the $7.50 court cost in addition to the fine.

Speed traps are making news in other parts of the state, especially along U. S. 66. An official of the New Mexico Motor Club, an affiliate of the American Automobile Association, has stated that his organization is preparing a report as a result of "far too many complaints" from tourists. To be criticized in the club report are conditions existing at some of the state's JP courts where motorists answer to the traffic charges.

Mary Phillips at the Four Winds said she had heard numerous complaints from travelers,

Gabehart elected new commerce president

The new president of Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, elected at a special meeting of the board of directors Tuesday night, is Ray Gabehart, manager of Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co.

The board held an informal discussion on signs on highways coming in to Carrizozo, the proposed new county courthouse, program outline for the coming year and membership drive. The selection of a secretary was left open until a later meeting when the new president could be present. Paul Payton was elected vice president.

Directors attending were J. H. Fulmer, Austin Wooten, Vernon Petty, Fred English, Paul Payton, C. E. Burns and Gladney Stubbs, Elizabeth MacVeigh, secretary and Ralph Curry.

The Old Prospector says:

Back there when Indians had their teepees pitched in the Gila forest country I almost lost my scalp over a black-eyed maiden that was attracted by the strong odor of some corn lightning I kept around for such emergencies. See by the news dailies that what's now Catron County is depressed and is getting a lot of money from the road man Frank Tatch. We sort of thought, while prospecting those hills, that it was best suited for the Indians... nothing much there but a lot of purty tall trees, tall grass when it rains, mountains and scenery. The sort of depressing to have all the bounty the good Lord can provide in surroundings and then not have any one furnishing a show line.

some under the influence she knew, but it was about a 50-50 chance whether or not the complaints were honest, or just grumbling from people who were caught.

W. H. Rickerson at the Monte Vista Station has heard enough complaints to know that traffic laws are being enforced in this area. The only question seems to be whether or not the travelers are entitled to speed five ten or more miles and hour beyond the limit without being given citations.

Virgil Moss at the Frontier Motel simply has not heard any complaints of any kind. George Maki at the Crossroads out of town this date.

Duff May at the Western Texaco Truck Center hears complaints right along but none that matter much, they were all in violation of the law and hated to be caught. Might be that laws here are being enforced in the manner that petrolians are paid to enforce them, which is slightly on the strict side, said Duff.

CHURCHES OF CHRIST

Capitan, Claunch and Carrizozo

Bible School 10:00 a.m. - Worship 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m.
Come Study and Worship With Us

1. Have you been baptized? You have if you have been buried in water. The Bible teaches that baptism is a burial (Rom. 6:4), in the likeness of Christ's death. We must be planted and raised (Rom. 6:5). Our bodies (not heads) must be washed with pure water (Hab. 10:22).

2. Does baptism save? Jesus said: "He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved . . ." (Mark 16:16). Peter said: "The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us . . ." (1 Pet. 3:21). For one to contend they were saved before baptism is to deny the Bible. If saved before baptism, then one is saved before the remission or forgiveness of sins (Acts 2:38). Peter teaches us we are to be baptized "for the remission of sins." If saved without baptism, we are saved out of Christ. We are baptized to get into Christ (Gal. 3:27).

3. Are you willing to do what the Bible teaches? All sincere and honest hearted people are. We need to make our salvation as sure as possible. The safest course and the right thing to do is to follow the Bible. Are you willing to give up the opinions of men, even yours, and render complete obedience to Christ? Faith alone will not save (Jam. 2:24) but faith plus obedience will save. The faith that saves will lead you to repent of your sins, confess Christ's name (Rom. 10:10) and then will lead you through the watery grave of baptism.

Lincoln Station

The forest fire in the Gallinas Mountains this past week produced quite a bit of damage. The Forest Service, asked for men on horse back to ride the ring and Waymon Lightfoot and his boys, Eddie, George and Wayne responded by taking their horses to the scene. It was reported last Friday that the fire had spread from 25 acres at noon to 100 acres at 4:00 p.m. Saturday morning it was reported the fire had been contained at the worst was over. Mr. Joe Hanawold and his construction crew are here at Lincoln overhauling the cooling tower. This tower is about three stories high and cools the gas that is pumped through Lincoln Station. The gas becomes heated when compressed. Water is pumped to the top of the cooling tower and as the water falls, it is cooled through evaporation much the same way as an evaporative air conditioner works. Pipes running through the cooling tower carry the gas through the cool water. The

THE LONG and SHORT OF IT IS

A 3-part long and short on the Kid Taken from old files of the Santa Fe New Mexican Part II MAY 1, 1881: If a shell had hit in Santa Fe yesterday it could scarcely have created more astonishment, or at least more talk, than did the receipt of the news of the Kid's escape from the Lincoln County jail. Not that any desperate deed by the young cut throat was surprising, but because the Kid had made many narrow escapes, and was consequently placed in the keeping of such good and reliable men, that people while apprehending some unfortunate occurrence that would interfere with his execution, could not help believing that the halter was around his neck in earnest this time. The death of Bob Ollinger and Bell added force to the shock also, and news of all three calamities coming at once in a three line dispatch was very well calculated to startle persons acquainted with the three men and their careers. Bob Ollinger and Bell were well and favorably known in Santa Fe, and the former had hosts of friends here. He was a noble fellow in many respects, being brave, generous and true as steel. His services as an officer of the law were conspicuous, and time and time again did he pass through the most trying ordeals without shrinking once from the personal danger to which he was subjected. Bob took a hand in the Lincoln County war, where his steady nerve and ready hand made their impression. During that time he killed one or two men, but was so clearly justified that he was never indicted. He was willing at any time to stand trial, and offered to give himself up, but the authorities

did not want him. He was one of the quickest, coolest men in the country, and was withal as fine a specimen of the human race physically as could be found anywhere, standing six feet two inches in his stockings and pulling the scales at a figure far above two hundred pounds. He was quiet and well behaved and was never in any trouble on his own account. J. W. Bell was also a courageous man and a good fellow. He served as deputy sheriff of Lincoln county for a long time and crimo which would have created such a feeling against him as the killing of these two men has done, and New Mexico will be a bad place to linger hereafter. JULY 21, 1881: Early yesterday morning Mr. James Donan, one of the Lincoln county men with reason for congratulations upon the death of the Kid, started out with a subscription list in search of donations to the fund to be presented to Pat F. Garrett, sheriff of Lincoln county, and the slayer of the worst man the Territory has known. Two men who are interested in property in the South headed the list with subscriptions of one hundred dollars each. These were followed by donations ranging from twenty-five dollars down, and before night the sum had reached five hundred and sixty dollars. The list was carried around in the afternoon and was also successful in securing subscriptions. It is hoped by those who have the matter in hand that the sum will be raised to at least six hundred dollars. Garrett deserves every cent of this and even more, but if the other towns do as well he will receive a good round sum. (All of part II.)

A lesson in "Wreckless" driving

The judge was grim, who looked at him,
 And court attendance large,
 When Jimmy Meade was called to plead.
 A reckless driving charge,
 Which held that Jim risked life and limb.
 While driving to the west,
 Till fixture lost, at public cost,
 Occasioned his arrest.
 Patrolman Hyde had testified
 That just before the crash,
 He clocked the speed of Jimmy Meade
 By meters on his dash;
 Which pointed styles to sixty miles
 As Jimmy lost control,
 And struck the lamps at Rainbow Ramp
 With force that wrecked the pole.
 "With what's been said of charges read,"
 The judge instructed Meade,
 "You'll give this court a brief report
 On how you wish to plead.
 "It represents misleading sense,"
 Defendant Meade replied,
 "And guilt inferred, from what occurred,
 Will have to be denied."
 "As Earth revolves, it's trend resolves
 Two cogent facts, at least,
 For both my car and streetlamp spar
 "Were moving to the east;
 And while I pressed toward the west,
 My mile a minute pace
 Was far less speed than I would need
 To hold my own, in space."
 "So what I lacked to counteract
 The world's rotation rate,
 Should serve to say I backed away
 From that impending fate;
 And it would look from Einstein's book,
 Which brought him such renown,
 The cupid's role involves that pole
 Which ran my auto down."
 "As man to man," the judge began,
 "No issues of the sort
 Have ever been presented in
 The presence of this court;
 So when they bear on judgement, where
 No precedent is known,
 I'll have to use your learned views
 To supplement my own."
 "It's our design to set the fine
 For speed offenders, Meade,
 A dollar each for miles they reach
 Beyond the limit speed;
 And since my files show forty miles

 Were posted through that zone,
 This court withdraws the reckless clause
 To judge on speed alone."
 "The central girth around this Earth,
 That science now compiles,
 Is somewhat more than twenty four,
 In terms of thousand miles;
 But use that straight, to compensate
 For latitude this way,
 And Earth, we learn, completes one turn
 In hour of a day."
 "So if you've found the logic sound,
 That rests within my power,
 That lamp, I fear, did somewhere near
 A thousand miles an hour,
 From all that Hyde has testified,"
 And all that you confess,
 We must concede, your auto's speed
 Was only sixty less."
 "When we deduct, you did obstruct
 A lamp that should have passed,
 And though you're slow, as lamp-posts go,
 You're legally too fast,
 To so exceed our forty speed,
 Should render it condign
 To grant your way, and let you pay—
 Nine hundred dollars fine."

Get-Ready Time

A - is for after the summer heat is over I'm really going to tear into that back lot and clean it up. U - is for "ugh", this has been a hot one. G - is for "goah", just three more weeks until school starts. U - is for "urp", shouldn't have eaten that last piece of watermelon on top of all that broiled steak. S - is for the showers that fell on my neighbor's land, guess he needed them as bad as I do. T - is for time to get ready for a busy, busy, fall.

Got to get them youngsters new shoes and jeans, wonder if six pair will get them by this next school year. Just don't understand how they wear clothes out so fast.

The Lincoln County Fair getting closer all the time. Sure hope my calf fills out just a little more, kind of like a blue ribbon this year.

Guess I can drive down the alley to get in the house while they are paving my front street, won't be any rougher than the street was.

Wonder if they want me to work on the new school building when construction starts, hadn't ought to be too far off.

You know, Labor Day is just around the corner and we have not even used our ice cream freezer once this summer. That will be the weekend when we have some home-made ice cream to go with those home grown trout.

Reckon the County Commissioners are just as busy as everyone else what with getting ready to vote on a new building as well as taking care of a whole lot of other details each month.

You know what, think I'll just go Christmas shopping this week; that holiday will be on us before we know it.

A Tough Decision

We can't begin to review all of the arguments, pro and con, on "Dangers of Disarmament" in this newspaper . . . the best we can do is point out some known facts that might excite our readers enough so they will become better informed on the subject, which is becoming more vital to Americans each passing day.

Current disarmament proposals are so far reaching, that after you many have settled in your mind the question of "war or peace" you have left the weighty question of whether or not American people want to submit to an international agency with power to tax, power to prescribe laws and regulations, power to enforce these laws through a court which has none of the safeguards to the individual which we have and the power to compel adherence by military might which no nation can challenge.

No one wants war, nuclear or even a peaceful shooting war like Viet Nam where American boys are dying, a few each day.

Some basic facts: The President has proposed a treaty calling for general and complete disarmament, in three stages. The first two stages would require three years each. The United Nations police force would be built up simultaneously. The treaty proposal says: "The parties to the treaty would progressively strengthen the United Nations Peace Force es-established in Stage II until it had sufficient armed forces and armaments so that no state could challenge it."

At the end of three stages, all nations — including the United States — would have only internal security forces closely supervised to make sure they continued to be that and nothing more. President Kennedy is personally pushing this proposal, stating, "Our primary long-range interest in Geneva . . . is general and complete disarmament — designed to take place by stages, permitting parallel political developments to build the new institutions of peace which would take the place of arms."

The real hard part for Americans to swallow will be the thought that Russia will be a party to this treaty, a nation that has broken 50 of 52 major agreements it made and is even now operating an active fifth column in the Americas from a base only a few miles from our shores — Cuba.

More facts. Rep. Lipseomb asked W. C. Foster, director of the United States Arms Control and Disarmament Agency, the following question:

"It is charged that in the broadest sense, that if this treaty is taken to the ultimate, it means the abolishment of the Armed Forces of the United States and turning over the peacekeeping functions to the United Nations and reducing our armaments to taking care of internal and domestic problems. Is that what would happen if this treaty were signed by all parties?"

Foster replied: "This is a correct statement of what would ultimately happen if these other revolutionary changes in the world were to take place."

Every American should take to heart the words of J. Edgar Hoover: "We are at war with the Communists, and the sooner each red-blooded American realizes that, the better and safer we will be."

The Communists follow the same pattern in one country after another. First, the fifth column and internal disorder. The Red army masses on the victim's border. Then an offer of a coalition government which includes local Communists. Using the coalition government, the Communists seize communications and the police branch, then the final takeover. The pattern has happened often enough, it should be familiar to most Americans.

The question at hand is so complex that the answer should not be left to a few. We have the problem of judging the honesty and motives of other governments and deciding life-and-death questions within our borders. The answers should surely not be left to a few politicians or a few scientists who are no better judges of human nature than you and your neighbor.

Listen to the radical elements, on both sides, respect the opinions of people who should know facts about our government, but don't let your mind be swayed too much by politics or pressure propaganda . . . try to make a decision you feel is your own, because it's the future of your country at stake.

Bob Miller, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Manire who works for Western Electric in Chicago, has spent part of his vacation doing Carrizozo a real service. Bob has made a survey of the signs on all four approaches to town — more about this next week. Right now Carrizozo people who take an evening drive could check the signs that are worn, obliterated and damaged . . . which are a poor advertisement for the town. On this list are the following: NE54, Carrizozo, El Paso Gas, Carrizozo, Carrizozo, El Paso Gas, SE380, Carrizozo, historical marker, El Paso Gas, Carrizozo, NW380, El Paso Gas, El Paso Gas, Church of Christ, Motel Pety, Park Motel, SW54, signs in pretty good shape.

Because no school financed by taxpayers' money can afford to flunk out too many kids, the education system has designed a method of grading so that most children get some kind of passing grade. The highest in strained encouragement occurred when a teacher added this note to an otherwise poor report:

"He contributes nicely to group singing by helpful listening."

Faith in human nature gets restored every once in a while, as happened to Buster Smoot. On the way to Ruidoso last Wednesday to tend to a collection matter on a semi-trailer Buster came upon a pickup with a flat. Standing beside the truck were two young fellows, saddles in the truck bed, boys needing a shave, both from Texas. They wanted to borrow a car jack. Buster was willing to loan but couldn't stay around so told them to leave the jack by road sign in the weeds when they were through. He went on to Ruidoso and tended to his business. Coming back as he neared the sign he looked and looked for the weeds, all gone now. There was a pile of rocks there. Buster hadn't noticed before. He stopped and pushed the top rock off the pile . . . sure enough there was his jack. This was up on the other side of Alto just a bit, where Buster had his faith in human nature restored.

COMMUNISM—The Threat

What It Means

By La Vonne Zinck

(No. 2 in series)

WHY THE COMMUNIST THEORY IS WRONG

As discussed last week, Communism is not merely a government, but it is a way of life, governed by laws which "explain" the universe and creation.

Marx, himself, was a philosopher and these laws had to be plausible enough to satisfy a doctor of philosophy. Nevertheless, the laws are conspicuously wrong.

In the first place, Marx got to provide a beginning! In the law of opposites, he contends that from the union of opposites, all energy and motion was created. But how could this be so when there had to be some kind of energy or motion to induce these two opposites to unite? Even the opposites themselves had to have energy to BE opposites!

The next theory, the law of Negation, states that each entity negates itself in order to reproduce and in dying produces in greater quantity. This theory negates itself, for human beings can produce many times without dying. Many species reproduce without dying. Besides, an entity can grow and die without reproducing.

As for the Law of Transformation, it defies the basic law of life which has been proven beyond a doubt by nature. The Marxist theory states that thru the constant increase of matter by the Law of Opposites, 'leaps' result and a new form or entity is created. Thus, thru matter, life was created. However, Mother Nature teaches us that ONLY life begins life. She has shown us that life cannot arise from lifeless substances.

To the Communists, these laws confirm that there is no God. But these laws have been disproved. Besides, they neglected to provide any kind of beginning. Something had to be there to start things rolling!

What was the maximum spread of horns on the famous Texas longhorns? It is extremely hard to separate fact from fancy to answer that question with accuracy and certainty. Legends, exaggerated claims and newspaper stories which cannot be verified reported spreads of more than 9 feet. The most famous Texas longhorn, "Champion," was described as "a pair of horns with a steer hitched to the bottom of them." However, Will Eldson, his owner for years, asserted that Champion's horns measured 8 feet, 7 3-8 inches, tip to tip.

Readers who like western tales will find a familiar name in the September "Frontier Times". Kit Carson has written about "The Shadow of Old Magdalena" for the Times. Also currently in "Real West" is another Carson tale, "Saga of Dog Canyon". The Lincoln Co. Phil Halste of Ruidoso called our attention to the matter of juxtaposition. Looking quickly at a recent copy of the News you could read, "Bigger, better bargains inside the capitol". We remember when the Alamo editor pulled a real sneaky trick on a politician by use of juxtaposition.

It's the opinion of one member of the Lincoln County Fast Draw Contest committee, which includes Payton, Charlie Jones, Ed Penfield and Gerald Dean, that this event will draw a whole posse of shooters this year and can double the number of fast draw artists present last year. We've talked to fast draw clubs in Colorado, Texas, and Arizona all coming in full force. Red Jordan called from Macon, Georgia, to get additional information and said the possibilities were good that a carload of the Cherokee Gunfighters would make the trip to Lincoln.

The proper position for a photographer to assume while picturing the "girls barrel race" is not exactly clear in our mind. We tried aiming the camera at the girls coming out of the barrels and decided that is not the most graceful angle. Maybe in the barrel would be better.

Sam Jenkins in the junior calf roping probably made the throw-of-the-day at the 4-H rodeo in Captain Saturday. Sam made a loan about 12 feet beyond what you'd expect a young boy to throw, it laid right out in front of the calf just right.

Ralph Dunlap says there was more enthusiasm for this young rodeo this year than shown in the past. Weather was about right, just enough showers to keep things lively in the arena while Bill Edgar could see his ranch was really getting wet, so Bill Geddes told him. The young riders and ropers were out for fun and they were having it in a big way — one of
