COUNTY AGENT RALPH D. CLAR REPORTS

Agreement made with Australia for reduction of meat imported to U.S.

Sanchez says he will make the post

Abraham B. Sanchez, seeking nomination for sheriff of Lincoln County, told the News this week: "For the benefit of those who have the intention to become a candidate for sheriff, I will say that I will be waiting at the county clerk's office to file my candidacy for the Democratic nomination for sheriff at 9:30 a.m. on the day of filing."

WATER CONSERVATION CALENDARS AVAILABLE

"Better late than never" expresses the feeling of the members of the Board of Supervisors of the Upper Hondo Soil and Water Conservation District in announcing that the 1964 District calendars are finally in.

The attractive calendars feature a print of Peter Hurds painting of a spanish shepherd looking skyward praying for rain.

Anyone who would like to have one of these calendars may get one by coming by the Soil Conservation Service office in Capitan.

Explorer Scouts offer sleeping bag

Raffle tickets at 50 cents each are now being sold by the Explorers for a sleeping bag. A public drawing will be held March 20, at 7:30 p.m. in the fire hall. Proceeds will be used to buy new tents and equipment.

The sleeping bag was donated to the troop by Mr. Vernon Petty.

Democratic convention nominates Montoy

SANTA FE — The pre-primary convention accomplished exactly what it was intended to accomplish and now its sponsors, some of them a little ashamed and apologetic, are ready to lay it aside.

The convention was set up in 1963 with the purpose of giving U. S. Rep. Joe Montoya the Demo nomination for the Senate and Jack Campbell re-nomination for governor without going through a primary election.

TEN FREE RIDES, THREE CONTESTS

The operation was beat up so strong that it over-ran a little and not only gave free rides to Montoya and Campbell but also to eight other candidates who got their nominations without being tested in the primary.

The record of last week's convention of giving uncontested nominations for 10 of the 13 offices on the 1964 ticket was considerably better than the convention of 1964, the last one held in New Mexico, which gave only eight free rides for 15 places that were open.

ATTORNEY GENERAL AND CONGRESS JOB

The three nominations left for the May 5 primary are for one congressional seat, Johnny Walker, Calvin Eora, and Fabian Chavez, the candidates, attorney general, Boston Witt and Ernest Hart, and one corporation commission place, G. Y. Falls and Robert Valdez.

Five of those may be dropped. Robert Valdez, who was staggered by the powerful opposition he encountered in the convention in going against the favored Falls, may pull out of the race.

There is also some question in the minds of the backers of Fabian Chavez about whether they should contest.

LITTLE INTEREST AND LIGHT MONEY

The situation promises the Problems of the woolgrowers were discussed at the Lincoln County Woolgrowers Saturday at the Firehall in Carrizozo. The eagle problem is still being studied. Snare traps are being set in the area to band and mark eagles so their migratory habits can be studied.

Robert F. Corn told the group of the bill (HR9037) in Congress designed to protect all predatory animals. He also said that an agreement has been made with Australia and New Zealand to hold meat imports to 542 million pounds as against 577 million pounds for 1963.

Edward Barker reported on another method of predatory control being tried. For coyote control a special bait is put out whereby when the coyote eats the bait it fails to reproduce for that year and helps keep the population in check. This bait will be usable in areas that previously could not be baited with 1080.

Dr. Bond gave a report on epididymis and sterility of rams in other areas and suggested that ranchers consider testing their better rams.

Dr. Bodenwieser stated that the sheep quarantine area north of Pine Lodge Road must all be inspected at shearing. If there are no more outbreaks of scabies the quarantine may be lifted by fall.

Anyone in the Carrizozo area wanting their milk cow tested for Brucellosis on March 3, should let the County Agent in the Courthouse (Phone 106) know. Dr. John Ryan will be in the area to test that day.

Anderson Buddies Talk for Walker

Land Commissioner Johnny Walker zoomed to the top place for Congress after the word spread a few days before the convention that Anderson wanted him.

Anderson denied doing anything for Walker but Anderson's political buddies Victor Salazar and John Bingaman went to the convention platform to speak for Walker.

WALKER, MORGAN SHOW STRENGTH

A second level political force that showed big muscle was the combine headed by Walker and Corporation Commissioner Murray Morgan with 180 state payrollers.

Their ticket, Walker for Congress, Sheep Hays for land commissioner and G. Y. Falls and Columbus Ferguson for the corporation commission was nominated, Hays and Ferguson so strong that none was allowed on the primary ballot with them.

PROMINENT FIGURES FAIL TO PLACE

The convention was so exclusive that Jess Nelson, of (right) Trails or Consequences, the immediate past president of the state bar association, couldn't get the 20 per cent convention vote needed for a place on the (Continued on back page)

Ernest Vega assigned to McGuire AFB

AMARILLO AFB, Texas — Airman Third Class Ernest J. Vega of Carrizozo, is being reassigned to McGuire AFB, N. J., following his graduation from the technical training course for United States Air Force inventory specialists here.

Airman Vega, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe S. Vega of Carrizozo, was trained to order and account for supplies and equipment through the use of punched card accounting machines and electronic data processing equipment.

The airman is a graduate of Carrizozo High School.

Monday noon the supervisors of Upper Hondo Soil and Water Conservation District met at the Bonnell Ranch with John Sudderth, chairman of the State Highway Commission, and C. D. Rickman, district engineer from Roswell.

The subject of discussion was routing a mile and a half of Devil's Canyon road around the proposed Lower Eagle Creek Dam and Lake site.

Attending were Bert Pfingsten, chairman; Ernest McDaniel, secretary; and Ralph Bonnell, member of the conservation district board of supervisors; Kenneth Nosker and Roman Nunez, Lincoln County Commissioners; Jerry Gordon, work unit conservationist for the conservation district; Dick Fox from radio station KRRR in Ruidoso, Paul Payton, from the Lincoln County News, and the highway officials.

The meeting started off good and ended good. First, a full meal was served to the group by Jewell Bonnell and Irene Nosker assisted by Myrtle Pfingsten, Della Bonnell and Eleanor McClendon, cooked on the large double-oven Monarch that has served the Bonnell Ranch kitchen for many years, the meal was as fine as could be eaten anywhere in the country. The last item on the agenda was a second round of coffee after the dam site tour.

It was brought out late in the discussion, by Chairman Sudderth, reading a letter from highway commission files, that five years ago a delegation from Lincoln County appeared before the highway commission in Santa Fe to ask relocation of the Devil's Canyon Road. In 1959, estimated, costs of the work was presented at which time the commission deferred action pending more definite word from the conservation project.

Chairman Sudderth told the conservation supervisors that the Highway Commission would agree to relocate the road, and such agreement would be put in writing, which work will be done when dam construction gets under way.

Jerry Gordon was asked about timing on dam construction. Engineering planning is 46% complete but actual construction is dependent on the priority that can be given this project. There are more watershed projects pending in the state than there are funds to support. The Eagle Creek flood control dam will have to wait its turn. Possibly two years before work could actually get under way.

During the five years that Upper Hondo supervisors have been working on this project an entire township has been taken out of the upper end by the Ruidoso Water Area, which decided it wanted the water for town use. This change necessitated new planning and slowed the project.

Such projects are built by the government then turned to a local group for maintenance. Lincoln County commissioners have agreed that the county would maintain the dam. It's 72-hour storage capacity is close to 5,000 acre feet.

The Devil's Canyon road will go around the dam and lake area, probably on the south side. After touring the dam site the group returned to the Bonnell Ranch to discuss what could be done. Gordon will contact the state watershed planning committee immediately with the information that the road rerouting can be accomplished.

Chairman Sudderth told the group of pending road building plans in Lincoln County, more than generous in the Hondo Valley.

Area Road Projects

A project is scheduled on Highway 70 from Tularosa east, and a second project on the same road going further east, both primary road jobs.

Contract will be let in July for work on Highway 70 east from Ruidoso Downs. Dirt work should be done this fall, surfacing next spring. Another similar project will be done the following year which will take the new "70" closer to Hondo.

These two projects were set back a year by the local squabble over location of Highway 70 down the Valley. The Highway Department had aerial survey maps made, which proved to their satisfaction that a new road "on top" was completely out of the question.

Two $500,000 projects are scheduled on US390 in the Indian Divide area between Carrizozo and Capitan.

Forest Service funds will be used on this construction. The State has $1 1/2 million such funds each year for entire state. About 40% of this allotment will be used in Lincoln County.

The first project will go from Indian Divide west, the second project the following year will go west to Negal junction. This work should be starting in 30 days.

A major project is set for the fiscal year of 1964-67 when the Highway Department expects to start work closing the gap from Negal to Angus with a new road.

Chairman Sudderth said that state road work was based on a formula which considers amount of travel primarily. There are some 4,000 miles of secondary roads which need reconstruction. The State has $10 million a year for reconstruction of primary roads with something like $14 million in work to be done.

Roman Nunez told Commissioner Sudderth that he thought most of the people up and down the Valley were satisfied with the decision on location of Highway 70.

Gladney Stubbs is President

Election of officers for the 1964-65 year of Rotary International was held February 20 in the Carrizozo Rotary Club.

Gladney Stubbs was elected president; Vernon Petty, vice president; Don Aynwine, secretary.

$400 needed for future dental clinic

The dental health clinic last week was very successful. This is a community project, sponsored by the Carrizozo Woman's Club, assisted by the PTA in cooperation with the county health department.

The mobile dental offices were provided by the N. M. State Department of Public Health. They were set up on the school grounds where electricity and water were provided by the school. The units were staffed by Dr. Hernandez Mendez and Dr. Steve Cain, public health dentists, and two dental assistants, William Riviera and Daniel Quintana.

This hard working staff reported 92 fillings and 37 extractions while in Carrizozo.

Carrizozo School	37
St. Rita School	16
Pre-school	18
Emergencies	2
Chronic Cases	5

All patients received an X-ray to determine their needs. All had their teeth cleaned. All children received instructions in the correct method of brushing their teeth and were given a new tooth brush. At the end of the visit each child received a fluoride treatment. This is a decay preventative and where there is decay it will slow down the process.

Public Health Nurse, Alma Bradley had charge of the organization of the work. Mrs. Lois Burns was in charge of securing volunteers for clerical help. The following people gave very valuable service during the clinic: Mrs. Wayne Withers, Don Means, Ralph Currie, Glen Bradley, S. M. Ortiz, Fred Engleb, Raymond Gabelhart, Joe Lunsford, Bob Means, Eddie Holguin, Sabino Sandoval, Peter Agullar, David Ortiz, Miss Isabel Vesquez and Miss Minnie Leo Nelli, Miss Rita Ortiz and Sister Maria.

This project grows larger each year. Indications are that next year we will have need for four days service, which will cost the community $400. Every citizen of the Carrizozo area should support the Carrizozo Woman's Club and help them raise this money in advance for the return of the dental unit.

Twenty Carrizozo students plan to take national merit scholarship tests

Twenty students at Carrizozo High School plan to take the 1964 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, V. J. Marr, principal, announced today.

The test will be administered at the school at 9:00 a.m., Tuesday, March 10, 1964. All students who wish to be considered for Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1965 should take the test at this time.

The qualifying test is a three-hour examination of educational development. The test is the first step in the tenth annual competition for four-year Merit Scholarship provided by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and by sponsoring corporations, foundations, colleges, associations, unions, trusts, and individuals.

The number of scholarships awarded in any year depends upon the extent of sponsor participation. In 1963, 1523 Merit Scholarships were awarded; 951 were provided by 179 sponsors and 577 by the Merit Corporation. There are 4118 Merit Scholars attending 425 colleges in the current academic year.

The scholarship stipends are based on financial need. The minimum award is $100 and the maximum is $1500. The average stipend awarded to freshman Merit Scholars in 1963 was $795 annually, or $3184 for the four years of college. Each scholarship constitutes a form of educational insurance, since the stipend may be increased at any time if the student's financial situation changes during the four-year term of the scholarship.

Supplementary grants are usually made to the colleges that the scholars attend.

Club ladies have done a grand job

The Woman's Club will have a Arthritis Benefit Coffee on Mar. 4 from 9:30 to 11:30. Do attend and help this cause.

These ladies have done a grand job in whatever they have undertaken. They now have their club house paid for, I extend my compliments to all of those ladies. They have worked and accomplished their rewards for this community. Their project for this year is to complete the park, to start the beautification of it this Spring.

The Smokey Bear Club held its annual board meeting February 19 at Pearl's. Election of officers resulted as follows: Barbara Solether, president; Mary Bowden, vice president; Ralph Solether, treasurer; Gloria Cummins, secretary. The board members are Hollis Cummins, Pearl Soderback, Dwight Bowden, Gerald Dean Sr. and Pat Murphy. This is a fine group of officers and board members. I do have confidence in them. Let all of us pay our dues at once and give them all of our help and cooperation that we possibly can.

Remember — this is a non-profit corporation, to keep our part of this country alive and a constant reminder to the world to prevent forest fires, Smokey, the live bear in Washington zoo, is the real living symbol for our own Captain Mountains. Driving through those mountains you can realize that misfortune results from man's carelessness. Let us keep this motto to live and be ever mindful. We all have to work constantly. Finances are needed. Give — your kind and sincere cooperation please. Pay the dues now.

Joe Bert Cheney, who has been attending school for the last three months in San Francisco, Calif., arrived Saturday to visit his parents, Mayor and Mrs. Bert Cheney for the night and journeyed home Sunday to Houston, Texas. He is employed by the Remington Rand company.

I have been informed that Cab Callaway is very ill from a heart attack he suffered recently. He will be confined to bed for some time and has two nurses attending. They made their trip successfully and he was helping his son when this occurred. Doctors said his illness here was the heart, but the change from this altitude to that lower one climaxed it. We do wish you a very speedy recovery.

The Capitan PTO ladies successfully served the dinner at school February 17 for 200 Democrats and their dignitaries. Gov. Campbell was present. Mr. and Mrs. Zack Wheat and baby son, Arthur, dropped in Thursday from Las Cruces to spend the night with his mother, Dixie Sparck and his grandmother, Macie Edmondson, while enroute to Wichita, Kansas, for his checkup, then on to Mississippi to visit relatives for one week then home to Syracuse, N. Y., to resume his duties with the General Electric Co. They Malcolm Petree, her husband, were Grand Page and Usher for the Fall meeting of the Grand Lodge. We are very proud of them.

We did have some snow last Thursday and still have some of it from that day and before which is melting now. It truly and still is very cold. It is windy at this time.

Frances Shaw and Clara Lowe attended O.E.S. at Ruidoso last Tuesday. The Grand officers were there that night.

I extend my sincere sympathy to Mrs. Paul Payton at the death of her aunt in Kansas, Kansas.

Incompatible Have you heard about the Texan who needed a blood transfusion, but couldn't find anyone with type $8 blood?

about this question: "A neighbor doing a backflip on our icy walk... the roof collapsing from snow... freezing and bursting of the plumbing or heating system. These are more tragic without insurance. Does a Homeowner Policy cover such liability and losses, where a standard fire policy does not?"

Musical decoration theme followed for Corona sweetheart banquet

Corona Baptist Church held its annual Sweetheart Banquet Wednesday night in the annex building of the church. Many glittering red notes suspended from the ceiling, swayed in a breeze. Other decorations included records, miniature musical instruments, notes and red hearts cleverly arranged on the walls. The tables were beautiful with a simple arrangement of tall red candles and tiny red flowers placed in green ivy and fern winding its way gracefully down the length of the tables.

The theme was "All I Want Is Music", with the program announced by Mr. Stanley Lamb, M. C. as a command performance to be given before "King Hooten Guen Army", (Mr. Ronnie Brunson and Miss Camilla Lindsey).

The program entitled "All Sharps, no Flats", consisted of musical numbers which were designated by B sharp, sung by the group, and a skit and impromptu speeches, labled by C sharps. Forty two of Coronas prettiest girls and handsomest boys had a foot stomping, hand clapping good time.

The tastfully prepared nutritive harmonies which included an Edible verse and a Dessert chorus, were served by a group of men belonging to the brotherhood.

The grand finale included an address on having Jesus as My Friend, by Rev. Clyde Cook of Espanola.

The next evening the Juniors had their banquet using the same theme, program and decorations. Rev. Noel Moore, pastor, spoke on the Need for Wisdom. The adults present enjoyed hearing the boys and girls sing a number of Negro Spirituals. The skits were well presented.

Both groups wish to express their appreciation to those who made such an enjoyable occasion possible.

Library committee selects books

Mrs. V. J. The following teachers are on the committee: Mr. Frank Wagner (Science), Mr. W. Norden (English), Mrs. Joyce Simpson (Junior High), Mr. B. Leab (Social Science).

All faculty members are making recommendations to the committee. A considerable sum of money is available for use in this project.

The committee has already selected five sets of New World Book Encyclopedia to be placed as follows: 1 for the grade school, 1 for Junior High, 1 for Social Science Department, 1 for High School library, and 1 for the English Department.

The grade school will soon have a new set of Childcraft known as the "How and Why Library."

"A page for independent thought"

Most Independent Of All

Of the 32 counties in the state only one or two can say they are really free of machine politics, free and independent in their thinking in the true American tradition, spending more of their money on civic projects than government money, and generally voting for the person they think best qualified for political office.

Lincoln County is one of those rarities. A county that votes as it thinks, not as any governor, senator, representative, or chairman says to vote.

It was no surprise to a great many Democrats and some Republicans listening to Gov. Jack Campbell state that he could not understand how Lincoln County, with a majority of voters registered as Democrats, could possibly vote Republican in the last several elections.

Such a vote (1634 for Meechem, 1349 for Campbell in the 1962 election), testifies strongly to the appreciation Lincoln County people have for the two party system. Also to the selectiveness of Lincoln County voters.

It takes more than just a politician to get a majority vote in Lincoln County and this is true clear down through the smallest county job. Generally Lincoln County people have elected and returned to office people who give honest service in return for their vote.

We have the greatest faith in New Mexico as a land for wonderful living "right now", as a land that has a "tremendous future". We also favor the $265 weighted school money. In the matter of tourism and increased industrial development of the state — we think the present governor's department of development after nearly two years in the office, is a complete farce, his hired hands are stupid, no continuity whatsoever exists, the whole thing of development under present administration is a political football.

For these reasons the budget ought to be held within limits that can stand lean years. Lincoln County people will welcome growth, but not as the result of spending only — and we think Lincoln County people will continue to vote in their own free, independent way.

Few Negro Printers

Many doors are not closed to the Negro race — they simply are not open. This trick of color will become more prominent as the struggle for race equality is played out.

The News editor puts himself in the position of a moderate integrationist. There are sections of the country where Negroes must struggle for the right to vote, for education and job opportunities. But at the time these injustices are being eliminated Negroes must do what a civil rights bill will never do for them — and that is, educate and train themselves to a point where they can compete for jobs and other rights they demand now through legislation. The government can't do their work.

There are few Negro printers. Bishop C. J. Kinsolving III, in a letter to be read from pulpits of his 13,000 communicants, was not thinking of printers but his letter was striking out at the same established practice of discrimination.

The Order of DeMolay sponsored by Lodge No. 60, AF&AM, in Los Alamos was getting ready to vote acceptance of a Negro into membership, knowing that racial discrimination is not written into their constitution. Before the vote could come off the Masons withdrew sponsorship and DeMolay charter was lifted by R. E. Scott of Roswell.

In his letter Bishop Kinsolving commended the vision and the example set by the members of the DeMolay chapter in Los Alamos, saying it was their purpose to present for membership in their order one whom they respected and admired.

Trade unions operate in the same manner. There are no racial discrimination clauses in trade union by-laws, particularly for printers. The practice is simply not to accept members of the Negro race for apprenticeship.

The difference between black and white, right and wrong, moral honesty, and / or characters of men is well stated by W. A. Beyer, a Los Alamos resident. Beyer says, "One can hardly claim there was no color discrimination if one abolishes an organization rather than admit membership to a fine Negro boy." The Atomic Energy Commission has a non-discrimination clause in its contract with the sponsoring lodge. John L. Steln, master of the Los Alamos lodge, said he could not permit any discrimination because of the lease clause.

There are few Negro printers nor are all Caucasian characters on white as newspaper. It hurts to see a Christian brother make a lie of his oath.

Letters to Editor

Whether We Like It or Not

When our President and our Congress passes a law the majority does not like, that is not Government by the people.

We as a Nation would not sell wheat to Russia at all, much less on credit.

We know they have not paid one cent on the destroyers they bought from us during World War II.

We know they are the same cause of hundreds of our boys being shot down, imprisoned and killed trying to stopgap trouble all over.

We're told not to hate. It's hard to love and respect our representatives that sell wheat and other things to Russia, and at the same time try to blame England, Italy and France for trading with them.

What we are doing has lost us the respect of the free world and we justly deserve it.

We, the public, both Democrat and Republican, know we are being misrepresented. We know that to put into effect the laws of the U. N., we're through as a nation.

Why do we, the most intelligent and highest civilization on earth permit ourselves to be governed by a U. N. Our vote has no more power than some African heathen or Asian nation who still plow with cows.

We're being took — let us not shoot, but vote it out.

IT'S THIS WAY FELLOWS — Gov. Jack Campbell is shown explaining the situation about the proposed Fort Stanton experiment station to Sid Goodlee and Walt Wilson at the Democratic banquet in Capitan last week. It looked like the Governor's budget would be adopted with little change this week and money would be available to get the range experiment station under way.

John Whately, new vice president of the Professional Photographers Assn. of New Mexico, elected in Ruidoso last week, stopped in the Lincoln County News office long enough to criticize one of our pictures — "you can do better", said the pro. John is a brother of Sen. Bill Wheatly, and the kind of photo who also heads the fire department, runs the county fair, pilots people over the country, and does some farming on the side.

It appears rather obvious that the judges in the recent N. M. Press Association advertising contest came right of the sports department of the Oklahoma daily responsible for supplying judges. The winning daily advertisement was a page promoting the Babe Ruth world series in Farmington. The winning weekly advertisement was a page complimenting the State Champion Grizzly football team. Both ads were reprinted in "Shop Talk", magazine which circulates among all media of the state.

Wayne Withers thinks maybe we're jumping on him in every other line of an editorial last week — and we were not intentionally sniping at Wayne, except in maybe a real round-about way. Editors don't win popularity contests and we're not about to try, but it's never been our policy to try to improve a situation by going after the 2nd or 3rd man down the line. When we think something is wrong — tell the boss.

Like the city council, or mayor, or the school board or superintendent, or the commissioners — or just present the problem to the people and let them decide what should be done. The people in charge are the ones basically at fault in our book, not the people on the payroll.

Carrizozo must have had the world's worst power plant maintenance men for 30 or 40 years but the lack of success of the old municipal power plant was not their fault. The ones really

The long and short of it is

By Kit Carson

Mine shaft lost in Manzano Mountains

I am extremely imbued with a craving to prospect, to search for lost mines, and lost treasures. And while I've been fortunate with such pains, I've also learned that I lack a helluva lot of being infatuated with a rare pain. Lots of others have the same disease.

My pack saddle, my camping gear, my desert water bags, and all such things, including the old smoked coffee pot and skillet that's never been wiped out since the last somewhat successful venture into Old Mexico, are always ready to go. They dominate one of the most protective and favored spots of the garage; and I can almost lay my hands on them, day or night, even without a light. They haunt me as they do many another man.

A look at the equipment, clearly defines its usage and spells out in bold words that it is a long ways from being as new as it was when it was purchased. What tales it could tell—and will some day—tales that can take you around, as it did me.

My ears are never closed to prospective yarns, either; I'm always looking for a prospect, whether it's a story to tell, just a trip to make. Here's one of the stories that Leo Schuessler is somewhat responsible for, and I'll pass it on. It might be worth looking into, especially if you are hunting in the area. Leo has done some prospecting and knows what he is talking about. It all happened just north of Lincoln County.

Two years ago a certain hunter from Mountainair was stalking game in the Manzano Mountains, not far from the town of Manzano. Much game lives in that region. He came upon an old mine shaft, shadowed by brush of the mountains. It had the appearance of not having been used for ages. Suspended into its depths was an old rawhide ladder.

Curiosity seized the hunter, as it would any other ordinary person, especially when they were aware of the country being traditionally rich in lost treasures and lost mines, and being a mineralized region. He tested the strength of the ladder and made an entrance for a short distance. He became leary as he was alone, due to the age of the rawhide, which had been used for ingress and egress into the ancient diggings, bore evidence of being very, very old, indicating that its last users had long since passed into the Great Beyond.

The site bore evidence of considerable workings at one time. The hunter carefully noted his surroundings, calculating how he could make the return trip to the shaft. He was highly elated over the find.

He took his departure, intending to return with suitable equipment with which to enter the aged hole; for, he knew, it could have been used for no other purpose than digging minerals.

A short time elapsed and the hunter set out upon his return trip, as planned, with eagerness, to the mountains. He carried with him proper tools and a strong ladder with which to enter the hole.

But, alas! He could not retrace his steps, his previous route, or find the old mine. Search as he did, all to no avail. The old, old shaft remains today, so far as is known, the same secret as the day when the hunter first stumbled onto it.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT IS . . . The lure of lost mines and lost treasures; What dream can surpass that of the healthy prospector, and how far-fetched the tales can become.

Then we think of the crank who entered the camp of Coronado, in the winter of 1541, the famed Spanish Conquistador the greatest of all treasure hunters of the Southwest, with the story of the great Kansas plains; where was a river two leagues wide with fish in it as big as horses, and the banks of the stream were strewn with gold dust as thick as the sands of the seashore!

Camp was broken, and the campaign was on! It's no different today, over four hundred years later; and will branch out with new vigor on the unexplored surfaces of the moon.

It's got a frisky new engine

(that puts superior traction under you)

Some cars do best on the highway. Others seem tailor-made for city driving.

Then there's Corvair—that gets along just great most anywhere. Swishing along a highway. Scouring around in traffic. Or wading through a soggy trail.

Take highway driving. Corvair's got a bigger new engine with horsepower up nearly 19% in the standard version. But in case figures don't impress you, just wait until you head a Corvair for some far-away places. You'll get the message.

Take city driving. Corvair's trim size, light steering (because the engine weight's in the rear) and flat cornering make anything from rush-hour driving to parking a cinch.

Take back-road driving. The weight of Corvair's engine bearing down on the rear wheels gives them remarkable gripping power on most any surface, whether it's loose, solid, dry, wet—or even snow covered.

Something else you can take note of, too: There's no radiator to overheat or run dry. No hoses to check or replace. No need for antifreeze. The engine's air cooled.

Beginning to sound like a car you can really warm up to? Then there's only one thing left to take: a ride in one at your Chevrolet dealer's.

Committee starts selecting books

The library committee began their task of selecting books for the new library this week. This is not an easy undertaking since the books will have to meet with the approval of all five committee members and also have to coincide with the academic program of the school to a certain extent.

The cafeteria menu which will be located in the new school building now under construction will be very modern and up to date with an automatic dishwasher, stack ovens, walk-in deep and cold freezers, new gas ranges and a deep fat fryer. There will be ample room in the dining area or the cafeteria to feed all students at the same time.

J. T. Clegg attended a school budget workshop directed by Mr. Harry Wugalter in Portales Wednesday.

On Thursday, Mr. Clegg interviewed prospective teachers at Eastern New Mexico University in Portales.

Mrs. Pauline Pherrigo is instructing her 4th grade pupils in square dancing. For many years, Mrs. Pherrigo has taught her class the fundamentals of this type of dancing and the students seem to enjoy it very much.

Murals, which were made by the 5th grade art class are on display in the hall of the Elementary School building. One tells a story about Coronado, the explorer, and the other shows Desoto in action on a battlefield.

No inspired man ever referred to Mary as the "Mother of God." The council of Ephesus (431 A.D.) which declared her to be the Mother of God was held more than three hundred years after the death of the last apostle, hence no inspired men were in attendance. Those attending the council were not in agreement. Nestorius, a high ranking bishop, expressed the views of one group by saying: "Since only the human nature of Jesus was born to Mary, it was improper to call her the mother of God." Anastasius, a co-presbyter had already declared: "Let no man call Mary the mother of God, for Mary was a human being; and that God should be born of a human being is impossible." See Encyclopedia Britannica. Despite the opposition, the council approved the term, "Mother of God." It is unfortunate that the term was established. Our Saviour's human nature came from Mary, but his deity he had had always. He existed before Mary was born. He said, "Before Abraham was I am." John 8:58. Of Christ, John said, "All things were made by him; and without him was not anything made that was made." John 1:3.

Is Mary the "spiritual mother of the whole human race." Teeming millions died before she was born. No inspired man ever mentioned her as a spiritual mother. But according to the inspired record, "Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all." Gal. 4:26. If spiritual Jerusalem is our spiritual mother, Mary is not.

Mary had no part with Christ in the atonement. "I have trodden the wine-press alone" and of the people there was none with me." Isa. 63:3.

Student teaching program studied

Mrs. Basil Lawson attended a meeting of the New Mexico State University supervising home economics teachers which was held at Las Cruces, Saturday. At this meeting the supervising teachers and college supervisors worked on a device to assist in standardizing evaluation of the student teachers in the seven high school centers. Various problems which arise during the student teaching experience were discussed.

The student teachers held a "coffee hour" for their supervising teachers, at which time they got acquainted and obtained a brief overview of the units they will be teaching and the community in which they will teach.

Children ... matches fire - fire - fire!
A Saturday afternoon fire, which started in the back yard of the Ignacio Sedillo residence was caused by several children playing with matches inside the shed.

The fire quickly spread to a fence, a stack of lumber and old tires nearby, due to the strong wind that day.

Damage was only slight, thanks to the efficiency of the local fire department who were right on hand, and had things under control in a matter of minutes.

After the fire was completely out the remains of the shed were torn down. No one was hurt.

Cardinals play Indians open district tourney

Corona Cardinals, champions of the Bean Valley Tournament, go into district basketball play against the Albuquerque Indian School at 7:15 tonight.

There are 15 teams in the district tournament: the Indians, Menaul seeded 4th, Moriarity, OLOS seeded 2nd, Bernalillo seeded 1st, Lourdes, Cuba, Magdalena, LaJoya, Jemez Springs, Estancia, Encino, Boys Academy and Mountainair.

Corona did not play enough games to be seeded, Bernalillo goes into Class A at the end of this season.

The Bean Valley tournament opened Friday at Mountainair with Estancia tromping Encino 91-50 and Corona giving Menaul a lesson 53-38.

Vaughn, beat Mountainair 67-60, Moriarity got a bye.

Saturday afternoon the Cardinals took the floor against Estancia, Bramblett hit for 31 points and the Cardinals sailed through 62-51.

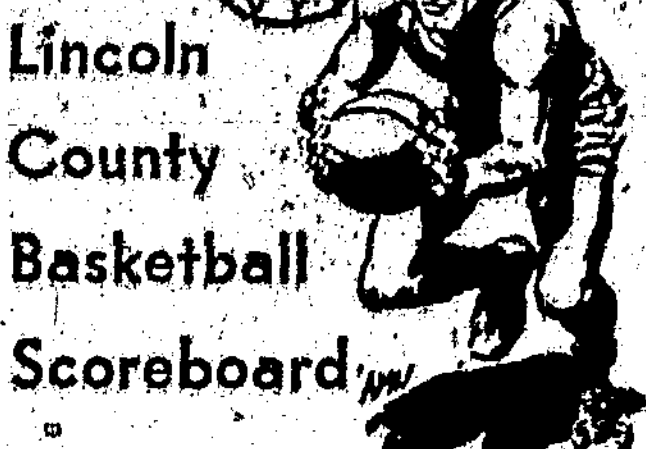

Vaughn beat Moriarity 73-58.

The game for the championship was a dinger, Corona was down 2 points with a minute to go, Bramblett scored a field goal, Vaughn made FT to go ahead with 4 seconds left.

Bramblett got a chance at the FT line, hit and that was the game.

Bramblett had 21 points for the game, McCloud 11, R. Brunson 11, Moore 6, and A. Brunson 10.

Corona 15 16 17 12 60
Vaughn 21 11 16 11 59

their own bucket. No one had any idea of how to cope with a backcourt press and a championship was lost.

ballot for the supreme court resulting in Justice Cleve Compton getting the nomination without a primary contest.

The same was true of four-time State Auditor Bob Castner who wanted to run for the office again but was denied a place on the ballot.

The nomination went to Auditor Alex Aramijo without going through the primary.

FIVE IN RACE, ONE QUALIFIES
There were only two in each of those convention contests, but five were nominated for land commissioner and only Sheep Hoys got enough votes to qualify.

Four tried to enter the primary with Columbus Ferguson for the corporation commission race but the nomination went to Ferguson exclusively.

Others who got free rides: U. S. Rep. Tom Morris, Lt. Gov. Mack Easley, State Secretary Alberta Miller, and Treasurer Joe Grant.

NATIVE COUNTIES SNUB FABIAN
The biggest conversation piece that came out of the convention was the way congressional candidate Fabian Chavez was let down by the delegations from the heavily Spanish-American counties.

He got only tiny, token support from the delegations headed by chairman George Baca of Socorro, Joe Campos of Guadalupe, Ruben Miera of Sandoval, Filo Sedillo of Valencia, Apolonio Duran of San Miguel, Emilio Naranjo of Rio Arriba, Tom Wheaton of Taos.

Chavez' home county of Santa Fe was the only Spanish-American county that gave him as much as half of the delegation votes.

He qualified for the primary ballot with support from Albuquerque and Los Alamos.

Hustle wins for Warriors

The Carrizozo Grizzlies went up against the Ruidoso Warriors three times the past season (Jan. 24 75-64, Feb. 14 71-70, Feb. 23 72-62) and lost all three games simply by being out-hustled.

Stirman pours in a good average of score most games, but is not as competent a ball player as Mike Voss, the rest of the Warrior bench including eight players, are average size and in ability - but they make the Grizzlies look even worse with their backcourt press.

The Warriors won their own Sub-district 5B tournament by beating Capitan 64-54 Friday and Carrizozo 72-62 Saturday.

Cloudcroft took Hondo Thursday 44-40, lost to Carrizozo 68-46 Friday on a night when the Grizzlies were doing everything right. Cloudcroft beat Capitan 57-51 Saturday for third place in the tournament.

The Grizzlies made 16 of 35 F. T. against Cloudcroft, and 16 of 31 F. T. against the Warriors, so coldness at the line was not the reason for blowing the championship.

Mike Ortiz hit 8, Herrera 3, Vigil 9, Torres 2, Posey 26, Tom Ortiz 1, Mike Voss 16, Lucero 2, Dusty Voss 2 against Cloudcroft. Playing the Warriors Mike Ortiz hit 16, Herrera 3, Vigil 0, Torres 0, Posey 13, Tom Ortiz 0, Mike Voss 15, Lucero 5, Dusty Voss 7. The difference was not in the scoring.

Where the difference was was between the Warriors and Grizzlies - the Griz failed to get the ball out of their own back yard half the time, then would throw it away when pressed by the hustling Warriors under
