The two national winners go to Europe in summer 1966.

Interested girls should direct inquiries to your district director, Mrs. N. E. Britton, Capitan. Make plans to go to Ruidoso, it will be rewarding fun.

The best way to be sure a new pattern is selected is to look in the back of the pattern book and choose a pattern that has the highest number.

EDITORIAL . . .

"A page for independent thought"

How free?

We catch some warm arguments with Carl Palmer, one of the few remaining veterans who were in Paris at the time the American Legion was formed. Generally we agree with Carl's thinking, only the degree seems to separate us.

It is true that property owners can do pretty much what they like with their property, moreso in Carrizozo where no zoning laws are enforced than in other towns. Here most every block harbors some sort of junk heap, run-down building, or eyesore. Such a condition is both legal and socially acceptable. We argue with Carl only along these lines, that when a person invests money in a home or business, if he is smart at all he will invest where his surroundings are acceptable and some guarantee exists that the surrounding area remains acceptable.

Freedom for the individual is wonderful — it's those individuals who mistreat their neighbors, their towns, and their families who bring on more laws, and in the long run cut down on the freedoms all of us enjoy.

Fashion is as fashion does!

The News editor has not made regular practice of dictating fashion to readers of our newspaper for a number of reasons but we do feel it within our province to advise men of our community on dressing procedure.

Lots of men like to dress and undress in the same order it's simpler that way because the clothes come off the pile in the same order they were thrown on the chair.

First, a man wants to take his boots or shoes off because a hard work day tends to make a man's feet hot. Then, while wiggling his toes to restore circulation, he can unzip his pants, but doesn't take them off. Next, he starts unbuttoning his shirt but does not take it off until he has scratched his anatomy good in the places now opened up for scratching.

By now his various parts are feeling relaxed and he removes his shirt, his tee-shirt and fixes to get out of his pants, first running over in his mind if he's concluded all the outdoor chores. That being done he strips on down, draping the clothes in their proper order.

That leaves him with only his hat on which most men wear until they get their pajamas on and are ready to get into bed. There's a number of reasons for this routine, like a fire. A man might have to leave the house in a hurry and if he didn't have his hat on, like as not, the firemen wouldn't recognize him as he came out the door. You could get a long-distance call about your mother-in-law being sick and wouldn't want to talk on the phone without some sort of dress.

Now that you've got your PJ's on and are half in bed, then you will want to lay your head-piece aside. Remember — the clothes you wear may not be the most fashionable, but at least you are following proper ritual of disrobing if you go the route recommended here.

Benefits outweigh the hazards

Whether or not to go for a government housing project is something for Carrizozo residents to consider during these hot days when much of our time is spent watching cloud formations.

There's no doubt at all but that the basic economy of the area is ranching and when the ranchers have short crops, business gets short in town. Tourist business is sure second and a real big additive to the economy, but after Labor Day we come back to earth doing business based on local trade.

Where does ranching trade go a reasonable answer would be that it spreads out. When a rancher needs an appliance repaired he probably heads for some distant point and could be that while he is there he buys a new appliance and other items. Town residents follow a similar routine. If they need new glasses it's a trip out of town, and like as not the shopping list will be filled at the same time glasses are fitted.

What does this out-of-town shopping have to do with government housing? It means that Carrizozo has good reason to do the things that would tend to round out services available and start a trend of moderate growth, as opposed to present loss of population.

Government housing (for elderly) is certainly not the complete answer but such a project could start the upgrading process we think is a vital necessity to attracting people to live in Carrizozo.

There are certain disadvantages, one being that the town would sacrifice some control of future actions. Another being disagreement by the people who do not favor government hand-outs.

We think the advantages outweigh the disadvantages. We lose some freedom of choice with a government project, but the way things now stand people have no choice but to leave town on many occasions for services they can't get at home.

TB Hospital licensed for 179 beds

THE LINCOLN COUNTY NEWS, THURSDAY, JULY 22, 1945

The Ft. Stanton State Tuberculosis Hospital board of directors met July 16 at the Fort for its July meeting. Supt. George Bryan reported that the state hospital licensing staff was at Fort Stanton on June 11. On this occasion, prior to issuing a license, the amount of space available for beds was measured (80 square feet required) and the total allowable was 179. In past years the hospital has been licensed for 220 when that many were not available.

In several ways this new license figure will work to the advantage of the hospital. In June the daily average number of patients was 156 and the percentage of occupancy (based on 179 beds) was 87%. The latter figure is of some importance when budgets are made up, the percentage will be higher most months now that the bed count has been lowered.

The hospital was found to be in acceptable condition. The requirements of the licensing board change from year to year. In 1939 corridors were required to be seven feet in width, a building constructed that year has seven-foot corridors. Now the requirement is for eight-foot corridors, some are six feet in width.

At the same time the hospital bed count is set at 179, the hospital can take care of more patients than that if necessary. The children's ward is licensed for 26 occupants, there have been as many as 39 children in the ward. This ward is the only one that does not measure up to license requirements. It is an old warehouse, converted because of necessity.

The motion was made and passed to complete contracts transferring 57.81 acres of land from the TB Hospital to Springer Boys Home, the land now being used by Sierra Blanca Boys Camp. The TB Hospital received $703.09 from Springer and paid the Federal Government, land owner, the same amount.

The 1965-66 budget at Fort Stanton is tight. There was a time when the institution had a surplus of some $300,000 but it is anticipated that around $3,000 will be left at the close of the present fiscal year. Several things contribute to this condition.

First, the TB Hospital has been following an expanded program for some months along the lines of complete TB control in the state. Some figures in this connection — there were 2255 newly reported cases in the last six years, 435 deaths from TB in the same period, leaving a difference of 1820 cases that should have care, many of them not getting care, and a few could well be called TB carriers. This expanded program included 3,613 X-rays taken by mobile unit and read by FSTH staff from July '64 to June '65. Many more chest clinics were held over the state and this program will be continued.

The number of Indian patients at the hospital, cost paid by the government, has dropped and this cutback will mean a considerable loss of revenue. The annual appropriation was $40,000 less than anticipated, all together the hospital will operate on some $100,000 less than expected.

One financial cushion is a fund created by selling off materials and equipment from the Hagerman-Morlarty site. The work of dismantling was done, and cost borne by Fort Stanton. If necessary the hospital could draw against this fund, if not used the money will go into the state general fund.

Fort Stanton is now a registered Blue Cross hospital. As is the case at present, all avenues of income will be investigated and expenses constantly reviewed as a part of good management at the hospital.

Fort Stanton has more acres of ground and more buildings to maintain than any other institution in the state.

Statistics for June 1965 show that 1,123 X-rays were taken by the mobile unit and read by FSTH staff, 667 active and temporarily inactive patients are on out-patient chemotherapy, meaning they receive medicine (INH) by mail at a cost of 22¢ per patient. The cost per day for a patient in the hospital is $17.00.

A nagging problem that needs to be handled is when the family bread-winner has TB and should be in the hospital and either won't come or comes and goes home long before he should because his family is in need. The board has discussed some form of welfare being set up to take care of such cases but not much accomplished to date. There is no easy answer.

Dr. Gene Mann, chairman of the hospital board, has been elected to serve as TB Christmas Seal, chairman. Dr. Crawford Jernigan was chairman last year.

The hospital audit should be complete in August and copies of the audit available in September. Supt. Bryan said this was the first time he has not had to transfer money from medical to maintenance — the main object of the hospital is medical and both the board and superintendent were pleased that maintenance costs were being kept down.

Present were Dr. A. E. Mann, chairman; Mrs. Lena Pfeiffer, secretary; Mrs. Eleanor Jones, Dr. Louis Levin, Mr. Paul Payton, members; Dr. H. C. Jernigan, medical director; and Mr. George Bryan, superintendent.
