REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION SATURDAY

A. T. Bert Pfingsten, chairman of the Lincoln County Republican Central Committee, has issued notice call for a county convention to be held in the courthouse in Carrizozo at 7:00 p.m. on February 12.

At the meeting of Lincoln County Commissioners Joe McKnight, Bob Shafer and Max Oliver in the courthouse Tuesday, a seven-page letter from Voll and Nolan architectural firm was read. The letter was sent by registered mail February 2, 1966, to the Cee-Bee Construction Co., contractors on the courthouse job. In this letter was outlined the work to be done for final acceptance of the courthouse by the county.

Icy roads cause three accidents

State Policeman Andy Benavidez was kept busy Wednesday investigating accidents caused by icy roads.

The first accident occurred Wednesday at 7:50 A. M. when a 1964 Kentworth Truck and Trailer driven by Glen Strait, 57, of Artesia, California took a curve at the intersection of 13th St. and U. S. 54 too fast. The truck and trailer left the road and turned over 1/2 time. The other occupant of the truck was Andrew J. Holland, age 28 of Downey, California. The driver is in the hospital with bruises and small lacerations on left hand. The trailer had a load of produce bound for Wisconsin. Damage to truck and trailer was estimated at $3,000.00. A citation is pending further investigation.

Gentlemen: An inspection of the Lincoln County Courthouse including Jail and Annex was conducted on January 31, 1966 by Voll and Nolan, Architects, AIA. The project is under the warranty period and corrections shall be made in accordance with the Contract Documents.

The following is a listing of discrepancies noted during the afore mentioned inspection together with previously noted but uncorrected discrepancies. After wrangling over two plans the Demos select convention delegates

Lincoln County will send 15 delegates to the Democratic preparatory nominating convention February 22. Ken Fuller of Corona, chairman of county Democrats said the entire delegation would be uncommitted.

The county chairman, Fuller, and county chairwoman, Fern Dunn of Nogal, will each have a full vote. Fuller made a statement at the county convention Saturday night in Carrizozo, saying that his vote would be cast in a manner that will best protect our county.

A minor squabble broke out in the party convention Saturday when former chairman Hollis Cummins of Capitán submitted a plan of precinct presentation. This plan, boiled down, would have taken precinct votes from Nogal and Corona, due to the fact these precincts furnished the chair-

British counsel big help to Withers

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Withers went by the way of Nogales to Puerto de Guaymas, Sonora, in Mexico on a fishing trip, arriving there from Carrizozo in their pickup truck Sunday morning. Their headquarters at Guaymas was Club Yates (motel) on San Carlos Bay. Probably there were 100 trailer houses parked there, plus another 100 campers, and other Americans down across the border for fishing and vacation.

Warriors make Eagles hustle Friday, Griz swallow them whole Saturday

With Ruidoso on their own home court Friday night the Hoode Eagles coached by Frank Ready were hitting the bucket and won 65-53. The Warriors had lots of hustle and gave the Eagles a bad time but weren't hot enough to win. Gilbert Montes and Freddie Herrera alternated in the position usually filled by Harold Radcliff. Bobby Richardson hit 22, Sanchez 14, Gomez 10, Fermin Herrera 7, Montes 7 and Freddie Herrera 5.

On the Carrizozo court Saturday night it was tough going. Coach Ready says that the Grizzlies deserved to win because they played a better ball game, not one Eagle hit in double figures.

The Eagles miss Radcliff, a senior who has been hitting good, they lost three of their last five games.

The Eagles play St. Peter's Friday at Roswell. Coach Ready says Radcliff may be ready to go and if he is they figure to make a game for St. Peter's.

JAL IS TOUGH FOR ANY TEAM

Coach Bud Hendrickson and his Cloudcroft Bears won a game from Lake Arthur Friday night, making it 2-1 for the season. Lake Arthur beat the Bears in OT on Dec. 4, then the Bears took them nicely in the Cloudcroft tournament. The score Friday was 77-53 and no problems.

Saturday night on the Jal court was something different. The Jal team is one of the tough ones who beat Tulio last Friday 83-72. Coach Hendrickson said he tried experiments around in case they might have to play Jal again and found out several things he couldn't do against Jal. If the Bears had stayed in their delayed defense the score would have been closer, with Jal the winner. Final score 81-45.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Withers went by the way of Nogales to Puerto de Guaymas, Sonora, in Mexico on a fishing trip, arriving there from Carrizozo in their pickup truck Sunday morning.

The Withers needed help — no money, no transportation, and a long distance from home. There was no American counselor in that area but Great Britain had a counselor there and he turned out to be of much help. Especially in preparation of the document which declared that the Withers' passport was stolen, and Wayne said that he had many sessions with the British counselor getting things just right.

He had called Arrell Posey Wednesday morning, telling him of the situation and that transportation was needed on the Gulf of Mexico. Arrell contact-

GOOD SEASON WRAPPED UP — The Hoode high school Eagle basketball team has stacked up a good season, even with a letdown due to sickness close to the end. Harold Radcliff out with pneumonia but expected back this week. Coach Frank Ready in the middle. (News Photo)

Tigers have two real tough nights

Playing St. Peter's in Roswell Friday night the Tigers couldn't hit and were behind 20-3 at the end of the first period and had trouble all night getting the ball down the court against the St. Peter's press.

St. Peter's had four men in double figures, Franchini 21, Hartley 17, Brewington 14, and Gomez 13. Final score 83-35.

The Ruidoso Warriors went wild over Tiger meat Saturday night, piling up 107 points to 67 for the Tigers. It was one of those nights when Captain could not do anything right and Ruidoso could not do anything wrong. For the Warriors Baker had 28, Scott 20, Ross 20, Joseph 13, and from there on down every player scored some.

The Warriors had it tough Tuesday night in a makeup game with Hagerman, they lost 71-54. Team was lifeless said Coach Bob Lee. Joseph had 26 for the Warriors, Mann 28 for Hagerman.

WILL IT OR WON'T IT — This is the Hoode Eagle basketball player, the potted ball did drop in but it wasn't enough. The Grizzlies won 47-38.

Weather was wonderful in Guaymas, their trip was enjoyed except for the minor interruption of being set afloat for a short time.

A touch of spring weather

Today, the weather has taken a turn towards Spring in feeling. A robin came bobbing out this morning. I am afraid he is a little early. But, it did make one have an elated feeling. It looks and feels like rain. But, we know of course, it is too early. We have lots of snow on the ground and in the hills and mountains. Very good moisture.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night. No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection. In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months. Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration. The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in solumentary suppository form known as Preparation H. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.

Old Mac Says

How firm was our faith, in the Old Fashioned Doctors who came with their remedies all ready to use, and cured us of fever and ague and headaches with forty-nine bottles of different hues, in doses colossal, sweet, bitter and sour, and poured the things down us in rapid succession explicitly ordering more in an hour.

But now it is different, we go to the doctor's office, and wait our turn for an hour or more, and he gives us shots and advice galore, investigates matters and writes prescriptions. And this takes the place of the old fashion dope. Fresh air, early hours, less tobacco and coffee. More sleep, filtered water, plain diet each day, and exercise, pshaw, it's a high handed swindle to have to be cured this high handed way.

 And after we are cured of our aches and pains and go to the doctor's office with our pills to pay we don't take money for there is a new fangled way. We just take our medicare slips and show him, for the Government has arranged to take care of this for us.
 In the Great New Fangled Great Society Way.

car. It turned over 1/2 time. He is being cited for failure to use due care and no driver's license. Damage to car was estimated at $200.00.

Carrizozo Grade School

The first grade has an electric incubator in their room. It holds three eggs, one is a bantam egg. It contains water and has a small plastic pipe so some air can enter to the eggs. The children set the incubator last Friday and the eggs are due to hatch in three weeks. Time goes so slowly for children that it will seem a long time for them to wait.

The children are planting seeds so that each child will have his own plant to care for. The plants are coming up now and as soon as they are large enough will be transplanted into individual cups.

Thursday and Monday there was perfect attendance in the first grade.

The children are decorating their room with valentines which they have made and will have a party Monday afternoon.

The second grade is glad to have Ricky Edwards back with them. He has been away visiting. There were two checked out of the second grade Friday. Lora and Kenneth Arellano. They will enter school in Las Cruces.

The children are studying dental care this week getting ready for the Mobile Dental Unit that will be here next week. They made a poster for their room using pictures to illustrate the different rules for teeth care.

Dr. Gordon of Santa Fe has held a Dental Workshop for the grade school giving lectures and tests.

The second grade is preparing for Valentine's Day Monday. Last Friday the third grade walked to the telephone office to learn about another phase of communication. We want to thank Mr. Wayman Gray for showing us the equipment and explaining how it is used. The children were interested especially in just what makes a telephone work. Mr. Gray took a telephone apart and explained about the receiver, transmitter, electromagnet, and open and closed circuits. It always adds to one's education when the material read about is actually seen in practice.

This week we are embarking upon the study of sound. How does sound travel? Perhaps after this chapter the children will understand even better how a telephone works.

Parents, be interested in your child's future. Help him all you can. Encourage him in his lessons. Compliment him for his accomplishments. Study his spelling with him. Practice number combinations with him. If you are not satisfied with your child's grades please call me. I am always willing to make suggestions of how you can help your child improve. (You have an interested teacher here. Her telephone number is 2310.)

The third grade has been making valentines with the white weaving design.

The fourth grade will have a party Monday and will decorate their room for the occasion.

The fifth grade had perfect attendance Monday. They lost two Friday. Michael and Joe Arellano. They are moving to Las Cruces.

The room mothers for the fifth grade are Mmes. Frank Knoblock, Ruth Wilson, Jovita Torrez, Jessie Daniel, and Isabel Portillo.

The sixth grade has a very attractive bulletin board of block printing in the hall.

Mrs. Nell Davis, teachers' aid in grade school has a nice exhibit in the hall for month of February featuring Washington and Lincoln.

Home economics II class enjoys visit with Jackie Silvers at Ancho

By Sharon Smeot

The Home Ec. II class of Carrizozo High School went to see My House of Old Things at Ancho recently. Jackie Silvers has done a great job of showing the past. Most of the signs and posters say "come and see a glimpse of the past." I have decided it is more than a mere glimpse. She has gone "way back into history. All her items show and tell a story of their own.

After going through the museum, I really appreciate all the modern conveniences we have. We have running hot and cold water in the house, electricity, plumbing, and stoves that do not use wood. Those are small examples.

I learned that long ago most of the furniture was heavy. The furniture was made of different types of wood with hand carvings on them. Through the years the furniture looks like it has been very sturdy. A lot of the furniture was upholstered and extra soft. The more wealthy people used fancier furniture.

The furniture, the lamps, the stoves, the sewing machines, and the wagons and buggies show how the world has progressed.

For pastime when Mrs. Silvers was a child, she and the other children of the family would work their ouija board. It is very interesting and she let our group enjoy playing with it some.

Most items Mrs. Silvers has are from near by. I think it makes the whole house more interesting because we love our state and can see some of the things from the past.

Mrs. Silvers old things are mostly heirlooms. She has her parents' bed which has the original feather mattress. The quilt was made by her grandmother.

I got more out of her House of Old Things than I could get from reading a dozen books. It is hard to put into words how much I really learned and enjoyed the House of Old Things.

The program this year will take care of all first graders interested and only those in the next three grades who have been in the program in preceding years. Emphasis in this program is put on early and continued dental care.

EDITORIAL . . .

"A page for independent thought"

A vanishing statistic

We read that President Lyndon B. Johnson has long been committed to the proposition that the great cities of the U. S. present problems so staggering that only Federal help can get them on the road to recovery. For this purpose a six-year $2.3 billion pilot program has been set up.

Eighty percent of our nation's population is supposed to live in great cities now, or at least by the time the $2.3 billion is spent on their behalf.

It just happens that the Lincoln County News is much more concerned with that other 20 percent of the population, who live in towns like Corona, Carrizozo, Capitan.

We know that towns of this size are a vanishing statistic, not even considered in any future planning of our Federal government. This is good.

The $2.3 billion pilot program has at least one self-defeating feature — appropriation of $30 million for rent subsidies for low-income housing. This one feature will attract people to the great cities faster than housing can possibly be constructed.

There are no self-defeating features in the recovery of a small town, only ourselves — we either do it or we don't. We don't have to vanish, but if that is our choice we can vanish in a manner of our own choosing.

Like using a teacup!

Carrizozo people could get some idea Monday what spring days will be like at least part time because the wind was blowing in from the southwest. Little swirls of dust moving along the sidewalk, bigger swirls out in the middle of the street.

It was only last week that the street sweeper was by our place picking up dust with his broom and shovel. This street sweeper did a good job, but for him to ever catch up this time of year is almost exactly like trying to put out a barn fire with a tea cup full of water.

Carrizozo streets need a lot more than broom-and-shovel treatment . . . to protect the paving, to cut down on blowing sand and dirt, to keep streets clean . . . the street cleaner needs a power tool of some kind.

There can be no doubt but that doing business in a beautiful newly redecorated office is one of life's pleasures. Margaret Stearns and Dorothy Straley have the prettiest rug in town to walk on, a lush set of draperies and still sort of green on the walls which all adds up to the smartest office in town. Better go in for a look, they might even talk a little insurance to you.

mal areas as in mining claims and according to the conclusion p.1 of this circular: "geothermal power could become a potent economic force in New Mexico."

It appears from these and other studies that the high temperature natural steam or brines encountered in deep drill-holes in thermal areas must have their heat from magnetic sources, suggesting the role of deep faults and associated fracture system to make such deep earth heat accessible.

The report notes that Rio Grande trough is the most prominent feature and that the Valles Caldera near Jimenez Springs is one of the largest in the world, ringed by warm and hot springs. The appendix B, Sections E and F show comparative costs of plants and generating cost in mills (.1 cent) per kw hrs. with geothermal in the lowest cost brackets for both.

New Mexico has many wonders and natural resources in every field, and Lincoln County is richly endowed.

Water, water all around —

Holloman AFB, N. M., — We've all heard quoted a line that goes "water, water all around and not a drop to drink." It has never been that bad at Holloman but not many years ago it was close. During the period 1942-47 drastic measures had to be taken to prevent a crisis. Among these measures was prohibition of outside watering and limiting baths to once a week.

Since 1947, when water from the Boles Wells ended the "drought" and we gained additional water from the Douglas and San Andres areas, we have initiated a widespread program to improve our water situation. This was done to keep up with ever expanding base requirements.

Not only will this provide us water reserves to meet current peak demands but it will provide resources for future programs and facilities around on Holloman. It will permit the fullest development of these unexplored ground-water reservoirs without overdevelopment. In effect, this control will allow maximum use of water and prevent exploitation that might destroy or lessen the life span of the water source.

As part of this long-range program, the Deputy recently acquired a drilling rig capable of testing potential water sources to depths of 5,000 feet in the Tularosa Basin.

On its first drilling location in San Andres Field — a site chosen for testing to a depth of 2,000 — all indications are that the well has a potential yield in excess of two or three times that of the best well now in use. As of this writing, however, the well is not producing.

Along with the drilling activity we are using improved well-completion techniques. This should increase the life span of the wells and provide water of better quality.

This program has a potential of identifying water resources capable of supporting Holloman's expansion and at the same time contributing significantly to over-all water resources. The program may well contribute to the stability of Alamogordo and the surrounding communities.

Dear Mr. Payton,
Since it is now time to send in my subscription renewal I may as well ask you if you received my letter and story concerning the Bonneys?

Our mail has been fouled up some here in the Los Angeles area, so possibly my letter never reached you. I mailed it December 21, 1965. It probably did not look too good, but since I've had no word from you I don't know what to think about it! Probably you haven't had time to go over it etc.

I miss the articles Kit Carson used to write from time to time on Arabia etc, and always look for other interesting stories about your section of the country. A lot of western history was made there.

Enclosed find my check for my subscription renewal.

Thank you.
Sincerely,
William Carson

William Bonney was an alias

Mr. Paul Payton, Editor
Dear Mr. Payton,

I wrote a small article for your paper last year concerning the famous outlaw "Billy the Kid" and who his parents really were. It has been generally assumed that his real name was William H. Bonney, which has been taken with a grain of salt by old timers who knew something about such outlaws and the fact that they loved to - confuse people by using aliases. At present the general public, western fans, and a very few researchers are still trying to associate the name William H. Bonney with "Billy the Kid". This is probably because a very large headstone bearing that name has been erected over his grave site, and the fact that a few people have come forward claiming that they themselves, were related to "Billy the Kid", simply because there was a "Bonney" somewhere in their family tree during the Kid's era.

Now, I am quite sure we are all willing to allow "Billy the Kid" to call himself whatever he pleased. He chose the name William (Billy) Bonney, and that is alright as far as it goes. However, in reality, it goes no further than a self chosen alias.

There is a great deal of proof existing in the "Old Lincoln Museum" that shows the Kid's real name to be "Henry McCarthy", and at the very, very least, Henry McCarthy. There is no room for a Bonney anywhere in the records, nor has a name such as Bonney, or anything even close to it, ever been indicated in the slightest way during the lengthy and rather expensive research on "Billy the Kid's" genealogy and family background.

Mr. Philip J. Rasch has spent a great deal of his time and money on this project, and so has Mr. Robert Mullins, to say nothing of my own work. No indications of any related "Bonney" has ever turned up in any of this work. The aforementioned men are to be considered as experts on Lincoln County affairs, and especially on "Billy the Kid."

Two such people whom I previously mentioned, that claim to be related to the "Kid" because their own genealogy points to an ancestor by the name of Bonney, are Miss Lois Telfer and Mrs. Mary Scott. Time and time again researchers have tried to get some hint or clues from these people as to why they think they can show themselves related to "Billy the Kid", or why they think the name "Bonney" has anything to do with the "Kid" at all. They have never made the slightest effort to substantiate their claims.

To begin with, Miss Telfer has made the most forward and bold claim of all. She claims, and I quote from the book, "Tales of the Tularosa" quote: "A recent development in the over-worked but still popular subject of Billy the Kid, involves the appearance at Lincoln of Miss Lois Telfer, of New York City, whose great grandfather, Orris Bonney, was a twin brother to William Bonney, the Kid's grandfather. She has joined a Lincoln County group who are attempting to have the body moved from Fort Sumner." Unquote.

Mrs. Scott replies, in article that her ancestors were also Bonneys, and if she thought that there was the slightest chance of the body being moved she would intervene on moral grounds. (This is to be admired, and many people agree with her) however this does not alter the fact that neither of these people have ever shown that any Bonney was related to "Billy the Kid" or the "Kid" to themselves.

Repeating the evidence mentioned in the previous article in the Lincoln County News, and citing some of the documented evidence on record, I will attempt to show that the existence of a Bonney in this affair is out of the question.

Number one in importance is the statement of Billy the Kid's own stepfather on his pension application to the U. S. government, "She was married to McCarthy, died in N. Y. C. No other marriage, no military service that I know of." If this man did not know of any other marriage who would." McCarthy's death had to be in N. Y. C. before 1865! A Mr. Woldo Koop, who has done an outstanding piece of research into this field, shows that Mr. Wm. Antrim (Billy's stepfather) knew Catherine McCarty (Billy's blood mother) for six years past and that she was a widow with two boys. This shows up on Mr. Antrim's sworn statement to these facts as a witness on a land transaction by Catherine in Wichita, Kansas 1871. This would indicate Mr. Antrim's acquaintance with Billy's mother started in about the year 1865. This friendship as Mr. Koop shows it in his book, seems to have originated in Indianapolis, Indiana. Since the year 1871 Mr. Antrim associated with Catherine McCarty in various land transactions around Wichita until he married her in 1873 very unfortunately Billy's mother died the next year of tuberculosis in Silver City, New Mexico 1874.

On April 2, 1915, much later when Mr. Antrim was able to reflect back to the whole situation, he filed his pension application with the U. S. Bureau of Pensions that was to state that "his wife was formerly married to McCarthy in New York City, and that there were no other marriages as far as he knew." This naturally put Mr. Antrim's personal relationship to this woman in a very valuable position to researchers. He knew her to have been married only to McCarthy! After McCarthy Mr. Antrim was Billy's mother's business associate and partner. According to Mr. Antrim's statements, and documents we have found, the previous evidence is true. This does not leave room for any Bonney husband, and nowhere has any indication of him ever been shown on any records turned up by anyone!

The previously mentioned Bonney claims, in regards to "Billy the Kid", are very confusing to the issue, and they have made getting at the real facts very difficult. So please, present and future Bonney descendants; Do not confuse us any longer with your claims of relationships to "Billy the Kid." It throws legitimate research off the track and causes a lot of time and effort to be wasted. If any of you can show a relationship of any Bonney to Catherine McCarty (Billy the Kid's mother) it would be very interesting to all of us researchers, who have spent a small fortune in time and money researching for these facts to see that sort of evidence. End.

Four-fifths of land in Carrizozo area in need of some type brush control

One of the most difficult problems facing ranchers in the Carrizozo Soil and Water Conservation District is the invasion of brush onto rangeland. At present about 4/5 of the land in the District is in need of control of one or more types of brush. Invasion of brush lowers the production of useful forage, increases erosion activity and inhibits grazing. The competition for soil moisture during the dry periods is acute since most of the species have quite extensive root systems. Research has shown that Cholla cactus, for example, has such extensive root systems that an infestation of 40 mature plants per acre can compete for soil moisture over the entire acre. There are large areas in Lincoln County of 300 to 1200 cactus plants per acre.

The major problem is with Pinon, Juniper, Cholla cactus, Mesquite and Creosote brush. Some of the other types in need of control are oak, yucca, algerita, salt cedar and other types of cactus.

The control of Pinon-Juniper has been practiced for several years but large scale measures started in 1959. Methods that have been used are cabling, chaining, bulldozing and stacking, brush choppers, burning and chemical control. Cabling was used for a few years, but has been discontinued because of the tendency to ride over much of the timber. This left too many small trees and left many just leaned over. Chaining has been used extensively and with good results when used on shallow types of soil and on stands of mostly mature trees. Follow-up treatment on chaining by bulldozing, re-chaining or hand chopping has produced very satisfactory kills. The generally accepted price of chaining has been $3.50 per acre with follow-up treatment ranging from about $2.50 to $4.00 per acre. One of the disadvantages of chaining has been securing equipment for smaller jobs. Very large tractors and ship anchor chain is required. Re-chaining improves the results to quite an extent by not only increasing the kill but by breaking and scattering the debris of the original job.

Bulldozing individual trees has the advantage of obtaining a high degree of kill. Various bulldozer attachments have made this method quite efficient on small trees in light and medium stands. Costs have been from $2.50 to $10.00, per acre for this method, depending on the degree of infestation and terrain. Tractors of a Caterpillar D-6 size are large enough for most stands in Lincoln County. Several ranchers recently have stacked the uprooted trees in this operation. This adds $1.00 to $2.00 or more per acre, but produces a very attractive job that should be easily maintained. It has been recognized in several locations that seedling trees grow rapidly underneath the debris of a control job. Stacking reduces this and makes it possible to chop the small trees. Also, it has been observed that a dense tree when uprooted will shade out and smother the grass underneath it. Stacking eliminates this and also opens the entire area grazing. The stacks are sometimes burned. This kills the grass under the fire, but observations this summer show the spot to be only 20 to 40 feet in diameter if piled in a compact stack. It was also noticed that weeds came into the burned spot within 3 months, and grasses after two years. There may be an advantage in stacking the brush after a year or two to allow recovery of the grass.

The other methods of controlling Pinon-Juniper mentioned are in the experimental stage. The LeTourneau brush chopper was recently near Corona and the results are being evaluated. Controlled burning has been tried and will work to a certain extent but the hazards are obvious. Use of chemicals has been almost entirely experimental. Some chemicals will work if properly applied, but the expense so far exceeds mechanical control.

Control of Cholla Cactus has also been extensive the last few years. Two general methods have been used. The most effective method has been grubbing and stacking. The grubbing is done with a narrow cutting blade on front of a small tractor. It is stacked with a long-toothed buck rake. Since the cactus plant is capable of sprouting from an individual leaf of pad, stacking has been necessary. The plant must also be cut below the ground surface to prevent sprouting. This operation has cost from $2.50 to $7.50 per acre with very dense stands exceeding this. Some stands have been observed in the District of over 1200 plants per acre.

Cabling cactus has also been used. If done with two loops of cable covering the area twice it produces a fairly good job. This should be done in late fall or early winter to take advantage of the weather increasing the kill. This method is hazardous in that re-sprouting can result with favorable growing conditions. This method is not approved for cost-share since it is so risky.

Mesquite control has not been extensive in the Carrizozo District, but there are fairly large acreages infested. Approved methods are bulldozing, root plowing and chemical control. Bulldozing is probably the most desirable method in Lincoln County since most of the stands are not heavy. Cost of bulldozing mesquite are quite variable, depending on the degree of infestation and the amount of sand duning in the plants.

Control of Creosote brush has been very slow in the District because of the low potential of forage production on rolls where it is found. Cutting below two inches or uprooting the plant is effective.

There is experimental work being done on the control of the other types of brush mentioned, but each seems to have individual problems. Chemical trials on Algerita, Yucca and Salt Cedar have shown good to fair results, but are expensive at present.

More consideration to beneficial uses of these plants may result in more economical control. There is some use of Pinon and Juniper for firewood, and cactus and yucca for livestock feed, but more research is needed to develop these and other uses.

Ranchers who are interested in brush control can get more information on methods of control and on the types of assistance provided in contacting the Soil Conservation Service.

Increase in social security deductions

With their first pay checks or pay envelopes this month local workers received a notice of an increase in their social security tax deductions. Since 1962 employees have been paying social security tax contributions of 3-5/8 percent on the first $4,600 of their annual earnings. Their employers have been matching this amount. The rate had been scheduled in the law to rise to 4-1/8 percent beginning with 1966, but the new law changed this to 4.2 percent which amounts to 3/4 of a cent more on each $10 of earnings. In addition, the amount of annual earnings subject to the tax — and creditable toward social security benefits — is raised from $4,800 to $6,000 per year.

Anyone wishing to file a claim for old-age, disability, or survivors benefits, or to enroll for "Medicare" benefits, should contact Ralph Yowell, Social Security Field Representative, in Carrizozo at the County Commissioner's Room in the new court house building, on February 4. He will be in the office from 9 a.m. until noon.

FARM NEWS

By County Agent Ralph Dunlap

The Clover mite, an eight-legged, reddish or brownish creature smaller than a pinhead, is frequently a household pest. They do not bite people, transmit diseases, or feed on household furnishings or pantry supplies, but they are a nuisance. If they are crushed, they leave blood-red spots that are especially noticeable on linens, curtains, walls, and woodwork. It is difficult to remove these pests from homes without creating these stains.

Clover mites breed and feed in grasses, clovers, and other plants around buildings and on lawns. New lawns, heavily fertilized old lawns, and lawns invaded with weeds and clover are favorable for them.

Clover mites are most annoying in the fall and early spring, but they may be a nuisance to homemakers during any period in the winter. They also invade homes in large numbers during the summer if their food plants have been cut or have dried up.

Infestation of these mites inside buildings can be reduced or prevented by treating outside surfaces. Thoroughly spray or paint the lower exterior walls, the foundations, and 10 to 20 feet of adjacent lawn with Aramite, Kelthane or Tedlon.

These insecticides are often slow to kill these pests and if a rapid knock down is desired, combine one of the above with diazinon or malathion. For treatment of window sills, walls, and dormant plants use double strength recommended on the package for control of foliage pests. When treating evergreens and hardy grasses, don't exceed the rate recommended in the label instructions.

Low temperatures and rains will reduce the effectiveness of these insecticides. Therefore, treatment should be made when day time temperatures are at least 50 degree F. Repeated applications should be made every seven to ten days or after heavy rains until the mites are under control.

Indoors
Once the mites get inside, they are difficult to control. Use a vacuum cleaner to reduce larger number of mites. Then to keep them under control, spray or paint around windows, door sills, and other places where mites enter. Use a household spray containing at least one or two percent malathion or 0.5 percent diazinon. Repeat treatment indoors every seven to ten days.

When treating for mites, keep children and pets away from treated surfaces until the solution dries. When applying an insecticide, don't contaminate water, food, dishes, or kitchen utensils. When using an insecticide indoors, don't exceed the rate recommended on the label and only treat areas of the room where pests can be seen or where you believe they are hiding.

Grizzly Roars

By Slim and Lee

The old school has been quite busy this past week, so here we are to report all the news once more.

This is really the Juniors' year. Last week Mr. Monte Sherrill was here from Jostens to help the Juniors in selecting their class rings; they all seemed to be quite pleased with their selection and can't wait until they arrive in April. The Juniors also have started practicing for their Junior Play. It seems to be very cute and all the play cast is having a real enjoyable time working on it to make it a memorable Junior play for all.

Mr. John Allanson and Doctor Ralph H. Gordon were here from the State Education Department in Santa Fe to speak to the grade school teachers about dental care. Everyone enjoyed the talk very much.

This past Monday, four boys and their coach were here from New Mexico State University to put on tumbling and trampoline acts for us. The boys performed individually, then in pairs. At first they worked on a hard wood floor to show us what all could be done without mats, then they advanced to the trampoline to show us warm-ups and then some special tricks. They also had a comic act which everyone thought was so cute.

The Junior High boys had a game with Socorro Tuesday night, the boys played a wonderful game with the score ending up 23 to 25 in favor of Socorro. The ninth didn't play as well but put up quite a fight against the Warriors, the score at the end of that game was 65 to 34.

The Junior High boys will go to Tularosa for an invitational tournament Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Pearty will take 12 of his eighth graders and we wish them all the luck in the world.

We would like to congratulate the A and B strings on their performance Saturday night, they just played a marvelous game. Thanks to the cheerleaders the crowd really cheered the boys on to victory.

This just about takes care of the Grizzly news this week, my Uncle Wilbur is really feeling his oats this week, he had his birthday Monday and he was 78 years old, we celebrated by going horse back riding, that poor animal, Uncle Wilbur had to whip him three times with that rattle snake before he'd jump the bear! He never gives up. Until next week this is Slim and Lee saying Good Bye.

Jean-Pierre Filipinetti, driver of a $14,000 Mercedes, test-drove a '66 Ford. His opinion: Ford rides quieter.

Ford's Quiet Man here he discusses a '66 Ford 4-Door LTD with Jean-Pierre Filipinetti at the castle which houses the famed Filipinetti collection of over 30 classic autos.

"It's incredible," said M. Filipinetti, "the Ford is quieter." "The quiet, it's tremendous," continued M. Filipinetti, "it's incredible that you could build a car so luxurious as this at such a price." Ford's amazing quietness is the result of deep-down quality and engineering excellence.

And Ford for '66 offers more engineering magic: Optional new Stereo-Sonic Tape System that turns your Ford into a concert hall. Exclusive Magic Doorgate for wagons swings out like a door for people and down like a tailgate for cargo. Safety/Convenience Control Panel option—one button locks all doors, lights warn when fuel's low or a door's ajar, and remind you to fasten seat belts. Quiet test a '66 Ford soon.
