Winningest coach in New Mexico plans to retire after one more year

Bernie Laabs, winningest football coach Lincoln County has ever seen, has indicated that after one more year he wants to step down away from the pressure, maybe teach a few more years before retiring completely from school work.

He is expecting 13 lettermen to return this fall for a new school year. But, graduation this year will see 13 lettermen pass out of high school and there will be room for sophomore and freshman players to make the team.

Positions to be filled include center, both guards, one tackle, one end, quarterback and half-back.

Max Zamora has first claim on the QB position. Christi Juarez and Albert Gallegos probably will be starters at half-back.

The league will be as tough as ever next year. Capitan should be back strong. Melrose has a complete team returning, and Vaughn is expected to be tough. Tatum always hard to handle, and the two Class B games on the Zozo schedule will not be breathers.

Darrell Pearcey and Ed Davis will be assisting next year. A new activity will be junior high football where four games have been scheduled, two with Ruidoso, one each with Chaparral 8th and Central 8th at Alamogordo.

School work is expected to occupy Troy Sadler full time next year so he will probably be out of coaching. Duane Evans basketball coach this year, has accepted a position in El Paso school which leaves a vacancy to be filled.

Bonito leased

Bonito Lake, located northwest of Ruidoso in the Lincoln National Forest, has recently been leased by the Department of Game and Fish from the City of Alamogordo. The ten year lease will allow the Department to continue its fisheries program in stocking of the 44.6 acre lake. Under Department management there will be no extra charge to fish at Bonito.

The opening date for fishing at Bonito Lake is May 7, 1966 and the lake will remain open through November 30, 1966. Fishing hours will be from 5:00 a.m. to 9 p.m.

L. V. Merchant is last of Goodnight Trail drivers

The memorial marking a point about 14 miles east of Fort Laramie, Wyoming, means a little more to L. V. Merchant, Lincoln County rancher, than it does to most people. He is the last surviving person to have traveled the Goodnight Trail with a herd of cattle.

Most all cattle trails originated in Texas where the longhorns were and the Goodnight Trail, first cut out by and named for a Texan, was no exception. In September 1859 Wallace Merchant set out with his family, a small herd of 500 head of cattle, and three cowboys from Clay county, Texas to make the drive up the Goodnight Trail.

In the years prior to 1859 this trail had gone north across eastern Kansas, then with civilization approaching in that section, had shifted west to go north across western Kansas.

By the time the Merchant family made their drive, trail driving had stopped entirely in Kansas and their drive went up through eastern Colorado. The country was all public land then and only one fence in the countryside according to Mr. Merchant, this along a railroad right-of-way just east of Cheyenne, Wyo.

There was one very unusual feature to the trail drive made by the Merchants. A total calving operation was done on the trail, and they got to their destination without losing a calf. "Dad's little cow herd was the only one I ever knew of that made the 1000 mile trip in one season," said Mr. Merchant. "A big herd was maybe 5000 to 10,000 head."

There were two wagons on the drive. Mrs. Merchant drove one with four children, always behind the herd in the thickest of dust. But, this position also provided protection from Indians and outlaws, a common thing in those days.

L. V. Merchant remembers that you could look back and see a big cloud of dust like a hurricane approaching on occasions. The older hands knew what to expect and would move their herd off to one side — it was a steer herd coming. The steer herds really moved, maybe as much as ten times faster than the Merchant cow herd and it paid to get out of the way.

The other wagon on this trip was the calf-hauling wagon. As soon as a calf was dropped and moving time arrived the new calves would be put in the wagon. At night there was an unloading with each mother cow picking out her calf by smell. If a cow failed to find a calf she would be hobbled just to keep her from running off in the night.

Moving a cow herd was slow business. They weren't actually driven, but more or less drifted along, grazing as they went, and were in good shape for winter on arrival at Fort Laramie.

This calf-hauling business was a constant operation for five months. So were the cooking chores performed by Mrs. Merchant. She would bake bread every day in a Dutch oven. Fat sowbely was the meat most of the time. They would butcher a yearling in the evening, hang up the meat with cow-chip fire below to keep the flies off. The meat would be cut in strips known as jerky, and hung out on a line each day to dry. No other meat would have kept on such a trip which lasted through all of spring, summer and early fall.

Len V. Merchant

Southern cattle had to get to the northern climates in time to start an early grass. If they did not shape up before winter set in they would not make it.

The Merchant drive did not start out with any particular destination. It just happened that when they arrived at Fort Laramie, Wyo., on September 9, 1859, winter had set in. It had already frosted and the time had arrived to settle down.

The only incident of the entire trip, as Mr. Merchant remembers it, was their arrival at Fort Laramie. Unknowingly Wallace Merchant moved his herd onto reservation grounds and the cavalry came tearing out and tried to stampede the cattle. They did not entirely succeed because the cattle were finally stopped.

The Merchant family stayed in Wyoming from 1859 until 1914, then moved back to the Carlsbad area of New Mexico for three years, got caught in a drought and went back to Wyoming. They returned to New Mexico in 1925 and located at their present site in Lincoln County.

Some real dandies showing up in reapportioned multi-county races

SANTA FE — Although a decision is expected by mid-March, if the Federal Court agrees with the recent Senate reapportionment, there are some real dandies showing up in regard to races in multi-county districts.

One of the major fiascos will be in District 10, State Sen. W. C. Wheatley (D-Union) has been a power in the Senate on several occasions.

But Union is thrown in with Harding and Mora, involving Raymond Pendleton (R-Harding) and Cirilia Maestas (D-Mora).

Then joining Wheatley, Pendleton, and Maestas to date are Lon (etc) Shurbert of Harding and John Morrow of Union. This is going to be a mean one.

District 36 Also eyed

In District 30 — also contingent on the court's approval — there will be two Senators squaring off. It includes Sen. R. H. Wamel (D-Hidalgo) and Sen. I. M. Smalley (D-Luna).

Both have been respected and effective legislators, and several note this as another tough race. In District 18, State Sen. George Baca is currently being opposed by Ken R. Johnson. This includes Catron, Sierra, and Socorro. (Continued on back page)

A condemned gift

A district airport engineer for the Federal Aviation Agency once wrote the Town of Carrizozo — this is your authorization to proceed with construction on the Carrizozo Municipal Airport, Project No. 9-29-048.

Prior to this time the Town had investigated and accepted a gift of lighting and marking equipment from the Federal Government, the same to be moved from Cedarvale emergency field to Carrizozo.

Work proceeded fine up to a point. Land was purchased, grading done, markers installed and Town was ready to install lights when the Federal Aviation condemned the gift lighting equipment as being obsolete.

One could say that our government wanted us to remove this equipment but did not want us to use it ever again. Sort of an unusual gift from one level of government to another.

World Understanding week

In the Rotary year of 1965-66 World Understanding Week is set for March 20-26.

Rotary clubs do a great work by keeping in contact with other clubs all over the world. This program is carried out with personal letters, exchange of materials, youth exchange, and programs. Sort of a program where only good can result.

Some nation and state understanding would be of equal benefit. Integration is a meaningless word, but understanding is possible. Integration, if taken to mean 'to unite so as to form a complete or perfect whole' is not possible in this country or the world, but understanding between races and peoples is entirely possible and a desirable goal, this week and every week.

A gap in programming

Not too long ago a fund raising drive in Carrizozo went over big, about twice what might have been expected. All of the money went out of town, which vexed some local citizens and caused cross words against the institution receiving the money.

Better we should criticize our own local programming of civic events, including fund raising. If we (meaning me and you) were on our toes, we would take care of our local organization in such a manner that strangers never need come to town for the purpose of raising funds.

We like to accentuate the positive

Spring is just on the other side of Nogal Canyon and at this time of year what this town needs, besides a good scouring, is a regular dosage of positive thinking.

The attitude of "I think it can be done," or "I'll try to find a way" is about the only way our small town can survive the normal ravages of time.

If the best answer you hear is something like, "The town can't do that," or "You tell me how," or "We don't do things that way," then you're talking to the town drawbacks, not the people who will help our town.

My many thanks

To voters of Carrizozo I want to say thanks for your fine support in the municipal election last week.

Being in this campaign was a wonderful experience. I believe each citizen should both take part and do their part in support of local government.

Thanks again from

Arnold Boyce

The wind storm that blew in with a strong puff last Tuesday night, March 1, knocked a tree limb on top of Payton's car, cutting our power at the same time, did a lot of other damage before it blew out late Wednesday. L. Z. Manire said he had gusts up to 60 MPH, and recorded velocity of 50 MPH. The old sign on top of Duff May's service station did not survive. It came off the building landing in a large trailer, no damage except to the sign. The X in Texaco broke off his new sign and splattered over a quarter mile. Out at the Joe West place the wind blew a gate open and a doggie calf got out. It was found Friday morning behind cedars out of the wind, and hungry. A windmill tower also was blown down.

Lawyers, dentists, doctors have unions fully as strong as the printers, and they hassle among themselves about the same. Finished reading "In Cold Blood," factual story of bloody murder at Holcomb, Kansas, a town we know real well and many people in the book were friends and acquaintances. After the trial was concluded and two murderers sentenced to hang, several lawyers in eastern Kansas decided that western Kansas lawyers had not been fair in dealing with two men who killed a family of four for $40-50 and they prolonged the hanging some six years.

Sports Illustrated magazine did a feature on why teams do better at home than on the road with one obvious conclusion: A rabid home crowd, cheer leaders, band, help the home team to such an extent that road games are mighty dismal events. Look at Zozo's record for a clincher, Capitan there 73-71 (Zozo score first), here 85-63, Ruidoso here 66-58, there 64-66; Socorro here 50-63, there 42-57; St. Peter's here 37-65, there 40-72; Hondo here 47-38, there 43-77.

Section 1: There is hereby granted to Ruidoso Cable TV, Inc., its successors and assigns the right, power, easement, authority and privilege to build, construct, equip, own, lease, rent, maintain and operate in the Town of Carrizozo, Lincoln County, New Mexico, a system for the sale, lease, or rental and distribution of television, audio and other electronic signals and impulses, including, but not limited to, audio and video reception, and/or origination, transmission, amplification and distribution; to build, construct, equip, own, maintain and operate coaxial cable, wires, lines, poles, towers, poles for amplifiers, cables, underground conduits, amplifiers, and all appurtenances necessary or desirable to accomplish such purposes; to use all streets, alleys, highways, bridges, other structures and public grounds of said Town, now owned or hereafter acquired, for the purposes of this franchise ordinance, express or implied; to furnish the said services and any services related thereto or compatible therewith, to the people, firms and corporations situated either within or without the limits of the Town.

SECTION 2: Provided, however, that such poles, anchors, wire, brackets, lines, towers, conduits, amplifiers and appurtenances shall, whenever practical, be placed, erected and constructed in the alleys, and shall be so placed and constructed as not to interfere with the use of the streets or alleys, water hydrants, or water mains. Any and all excavations shall be repaired and obstructions removed as quickly as it is reasonably possible under the circumstances. In the event the Grantee does not promptly repair any streets or sidewalks damaged by Grantee, the Town may make such repairs and charge the cost thereof to Grantee, which, upon written demand by the Town, shall be paid within ten days from the date of any such notice or demand. Further, the replacing, construction and manner of erecting the poles and lines of Grantee, as well as fixtures and attachments thereto, shall at all times, be subject to the police power of the Board of Trustees of the Town.

Grantee. SECTION 4: Grantee, for and in consideration of the privileges herein granted, during the life of this franchise, shall pay to the Town two per cent (2%) of the gross base monthly service revenue, not including taxes, derived by Grantee from all subscribers located within the Town limits, such payments payable quarterly, on or before sixty (60) days after the first day of January, April, July, and October, covering said revenue for three (3) months next preceding the above dates of each year. For the purpose of determining said revenue, the books of said Grantee shall at all times be subject to inspection by duly authorized Town officials. Said payments shall be in lieu of any and all other franchise, license, privilege, pole, wire, instrument, excise or revenue taxes, and all other exactions upon the business, revenue, property, poles, wires, instruments, conduits, amplifiers, towers, fixtures or other appurtenances of Grantee and all other property or equipment of Grantee or any part thereof, by said Town during the term of this franchise; provided, that anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, said payment shall continue only so long as said company or Grantee is not prohibited from making the same by any lawful authority having jurisdiction in the premises, and so long as the Town does not charge, levy or collect, or attempt to charge, levy or collect other franchise, license, privilege, excise or revenue taxes or other exactions hereinbefore mentioned, and if any lawful authority having jurisdiction in the premises hereafter prohibits said payment or the Town does levy, charge or collect, or attempt to levy, charge or collect such other franchise, license, privilege, excise or revenue taxes or other exactions or charges, the obligation to make such payments hereinabove provided for shall forthwith cease.

SECTION 5: In further consideration of the franchise herein granted, Grantee shall furnish, install, maintain and keep in repair, without charge to the Town during the whole time of this franchise, so long as it is not prohibited from doing so by some other lawful authority having jurisdiction in the premises, for the use of the Town officials and for monitoring the quality of service provided by Grantee, one service connection to be located at the Town Hall.

SECTION 6: Any person or corporation desiring to move a building or other structure along, or to make any unusual use of the streets, alleys and public ways of the Town which shall interfere with the poles, wires or fixtures of Grantee, shall first give notice to Grantee, and shall pay to Grantee a sum sufficient to cover the expense and damage incident to the cutting, altering and moving of the wires or other fixtures of Grantee, and before a permit is given by the Town therefore, the applicant shall present a receipt from Grantee showing said payments; thereupon, Grantee, upon presentation of said permit shall, within forty-eight (48) hours thereafter, provide for and do such cutting, altering and moving of said wires and fixtures as may be necessary to allow such moving or other unusual use of the streets, alleys and public ways of the Town.

SECTION 7: This franchise shall be in force and effect for a period of twenty-five (25) years from acceptance as provided herein, and shall thereupon terminate and all licenses and privileges shall thereupon cease, unless more than six months before expiration date and not more than one year prior to said expiration date, the Grantee shall confer to said Town, notice of its intention to renew this franchise, in which event the same shall be renewed for a term of five years, and in a like manner this franchise may be renewed for successive terms of five years, with a maximum of five such renewals.

SECTION 8: This franchise may be transferred only with the written consent of the Town; however, consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

SECTION 9: Failure on part of Grantee to comply with any of the provisions hereof shall automatically cancel and terminate this franchise, provided, however, that the Town shall give to Grantee written notice of any such default by certified mail at Grantee's last known address, Post Office Box 280, Ruidoso, New Mexico, and after the mailing of such notice to Grantee, Grantee shall have thirty (30) days to correct any default pointed out by the Town and continue this privilege in full force and effect; otherwise, it shall be automatically terminated and be null and void.

SECTION 10: If any section, paragraph, subdivision, clause, phrase or part of this ordinance shall be adjudged invalid or unconstitutional, the same shall not effect the validity of this ordinance as a whole, or any part or provision other than the part so decided to be invalid or unconstitutional.

SECTION 11: Upon written acceptance of this ordinance and franchise, all prior franchises and/or permits are hereby declared to be null and void that may relate to the premises.

SECTION 12: Grantee shall, within thirty (30) days from the date of the passage and approval of this ordinance, file with the Clerk of the Town of Carrizozo, a written acceptance of this ordinance, and, at the same time, pay to the said Clerk a sum of money sufficient to cover the cost of the publication of this ordinance, at which time this ordinance will be published as required by law.

SECTION 13: The Grantee shall begin construction on the installations in connection with this franchise on or before April 30th, 1966, and shall have the systems in operation on or before July 4th, 1966.

SECTION 14: It is necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety that this ordinance take effect immediately.

in detail, Clapp said, "If we are successful in securing enactment of such a supplement financing program in this session of Congress, we can then look forward to total lending resources in the electric program during fiscal 1967 of substantially more than the $270 million to be available at 2 percent. With such a supplemental program we would have a total program of well over $400 million."

Clapp emphasized that the basic 2 percent REA loans would still be available to the rural electric systems which continue to need this type of financing.

A resolution was adopted at the Las Vegas meeting approving the supplemental financing plan, but there still remains a lot of work to be done.

FARM NEWS

By County Agent Ralph Dunlap

Fruit trees in the home orchard need protection against insects and diseases the same as those in commercial orchards.

Application of a dormant or delayed dormant spray can safeguard tree fruits against a number of insect problems. Delayed dormant sprays should be applied when growth starts in the spring to be most effective.

Lime sulfur is a general clean up spray for powdery mildew, scale insects, and clover mites, but lime sulfur and combined oil-lime sulfur sprays should not be used on apricot trees. The sulfur will injure the trees.

Oil emulsion sprays control insects, mite eggs, and aphids. A combination oil-lime sulfur spray is effective against powdery mildew, scale insects, aphids, and mite eggs.

Dormant sprays are effective only when they wet every branch and twig on the tree.

Growers can ask for dormant sprays by the type listed at garden stores. Instructions on the labels should be followed precisely.

Additional information on dormant sprays and home orchards is available at the county Extension office.

"Plan before you plant" is a basic rule for successful vegetable gardening.

For instance, many vegetables grown in the home garden are wasted because too large quantity of one vegetable matures at the same time. With few exceptions vegetables remain edible for only a short period after they reach maturity. Top quality is even more transient.

One way to avoid having too large a crop at once, then nothing is to make succession plantings of the same vegetable. Plant only enough seed of crops like lettuce, radish, and spinach to provide the amount that can be used within a short period. Then, after a few weeks, plant another lot to mature after the first harvest has been exhausted. Or, if the variety used will not do well later in the season, plant other varieties that mature later.

This kind of planning calls for a careful study of seed varieties and must be done well ahead of planting time. It also may require the purchase of more seed, therefore a somewhat larger investment. But these things pay off in greater satisfaction at harvest time. Ask your county Extension agent for a copy of N. M. State Extension Circular No. 380, "Home Vegetable Gardening."

All farm and ranch operators who are age 65 or over, and all farm and ranch workers who are also that old, are reminded by Ralph Dunlap, county agent with the New Mexico State University Cooperative Extension Service, that the 1965 changes in the law make it imperative for them to file their social security claims immediately. This applies even though they are still active on the farm and ranch.

The hospitalization insurance, which is automatic, and the medical insurance, which is optional at a $3 per month premium beginning next July, require that social security claims be filed before those provisions can apply. Persons already 65 need to take such action now. Those who do not file by the deadline of March 31, 1966, will have only one other chance to enroll, and that will be at a higher cost in the October-December 1967 enrollment period.

All persons affected by the above information should contact their Roswell social security office.

Even though a person's earnings may be too high to permit immediate payment of monthly retirement benefits, Dunlap wants to feel sure that no eligible persons have lost out on the health insurance program because of lack of information.

Outside capital for electric system

The Administration is prepared to work with rural electric systems in developing a proposal to utilize sources of capital outside the Federal budget to supplement its 2 percent loans from the Rural Electrification Administration, the administrator of REA said today (Feb. 15).

Addressing the 24th annual meeting of the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association in Las Vegas, Nevada, REA Administrator Norman M. Clapp said, "These are days of difficult decisions. As a Nation we face the hard choices involved in meeting both our commitments to freedom abroad and progress at home."

Clapp said that the rural electrification program is "already facing the hard realities of the task to which we are committed as a Nation. We are facing them in the problems of REA financing."

He referred to the Federal budget for fiscal year 1967 presented to Congress last month, which proposes a level of $270 million for the REA's 2 percent electrification loans. Clapp said this level is "based on the expectation that the basic 2 percent REA loans provided for in the budget will be needed to provide only part of the total financing available to the electric program next year."

He explained, "It is based on the expectation that there will be, in addition, a new supplemental financing program to meet the balance of your needs."

One possibility for a supplemental financing plan, the REA administrator said, is the result of 2 years study by NRECA and its members, and will be considered at this annual meeting by the delegates.

If approved by the delegates, the systems will seek legislation this year to create a Federal Bank for Rural Electric Systems in the Department of Agriculture to make loans to supplement — not replace — the present REA 2 percent loans.

A plan along these general lines, if enacted, could provide sources of financing outside the Federal budget to meet the growing needs of rural electrification. Clapp emphasized, however, that the new Bank would have to offer interest rates low enough to make the loans usable, provide greater flexibility in the use of loan capital than is possible with the present REA 2 percent loans, and channel increasing amounts of private capital into the program.

Growing Fear In Tax Hike Area There's been some growing fear among some top chiefs who have been inspecting in detail the recent "fiscal" session.

By now it's admittedly beating a dead horse, but experts figure the touted "surplus" has vanished and legislators next round will be scratching around for some $11 million "in addition" to what may be over-spent during the 1967 regular session.

Although it's a long time until the next legislative session, the people of the state would do well to start pecking away at their respective legislators.

Gov. Campbell has been rather severely pounded by several Capitol chiefs who figure there was an "illusion" of wealth maintained until adjournment, when many began to see that it was somewhat of a masterful job of passing the "jack of the buck" to the next Governor.

Administration Buried 'Healthiest' Tax Bill A surtax measure that was proposed by Rep. John Mershon (D-Otero) was buried by Administration forces, but many qualified people say it would have been the "healthiest" piece of Legislation passed. It was a tax bill that would have been effective "only" if the income didn't equal the spending. But it would have made the inevitable tax raise the direct responsibility of the current administration, so it got nixed.

'Old Practice' May Be Closely Eyed

Recently I wrote of the case of Paul L. Hill, now of Farmington, who had appealed to Gov. Campbell for a pardon. Hill spent two years in the penitentiary on a charge of sodomy.

His cause is worth noting because the circumstances can affect similar situations all over New Mexico.

It's old practice, although little discussed, for District Attorneys to "offer" shorter terms or probation for pleas of guilty to perhaps lesser charges than originally were filed.

Hill entered pleas of innocent for several months and then says that he was "offered" six months probation if he would change his plea. He changed and received two years in prison.

The case occurred in Carlsbad and Hill has already served his time. But he maintains he's innocent and is now going to make a severe case of proving it.

Hill launched his effort when Gov. Campbell, on advice from the Probation and Parole Board, refused the pardon.

So the cases where "deals" are made with accused persons may get some full-blown publicity and may bring on some red faces from the persons involved in this case.
