Outstanding New Mexican coming

On January 30, 1960, General Hugh M. Milton was given the Hall of Fame Award by the Dona Ana County Historical Society and Mrs. Orville Priestley, in reading the citation, said of General Milton:

"Generous in giving of himself and his many talents, motivated by an intense love for his country and his community, General Milton has labored to preserve the best of the past and to project into the future all that is good in the unique blending of cultures and traditions that characterize the Mesilla Valley."

Fourth District includes all of southwest New Mexico, 125 or more people are expected to attend.

General Milton was born in Lexington, Ky. He received a B.S. degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Kentucky, and a Master's from the same university. He instructed at Texas A&M, N.M. State, was president of N. M. State from 1938 to 1947, president of NMMI at Roswell, served as Assistant Secretary of the Army and Under Secretary of the Army 1953-1961. He has been vice president of First National Bank of Dona Ana County since 1961 in charge of public relations and business development and is engaged in that work at present. General Milton's service record spans two wars. He served as enlisted man and second lieutenant, field artillery, in World War I, entered World War II as lieutenant Colonel, Chemical Corp., N. M. National Guard in 1941, advanced to Brigadier General in June 1945, serving as Chief of Staff, XIV Corp., in the South Pacific area; Major General in 1951.

August 5, 1969 was designated "Hugh Milton Day" throughout New Mexico. This was the day General Milton made the keynote address at the opening of the State Constitutional Convention in Santa Fe.

The Carrizozo Woman's Club, together with district officials, is making plans for an outstanding convention.

Rebecca collects FB jackpot loot

The Lincoln County News had to make a second printing of jackpot football contest cards last week and some of this new order were delivered to Reuben Samora at his Malco Station. Rebecca Warner picked up a card there, filled it out (we'd guess with Reuben's help) and Mr. Samora brought it to the News -- a winner of the $15 cash on the Clouderoff-Corona game last week. Final score was 38 - 6.

There were a few people battling around the edges of the cash, like Nancy Luna at 33-6, Mary Delgado at 30-6, Esther and Rudy Samora at 36-6, Rito Samora, Jr. at 36-0, Frank Gallegos at 32-6, Carol Samora 38-0, Joe Vega at 42-6, plus near a 100 contestants who gave Corona six points but missed bad on Clouderoff's scoring.

The News has been putting out cash each week, so read the football ad, pick up an entry card at any business place listed and get in the game. Costs nothing to enter, lots of fun and money for the winner.

SHAW BAGS ELK -- A party of hunters including Roy Shaw of Carrizozo, Pete and Jess Gilliland of Tularosa, Roy and Ronald Blades, Pete Weisler of Alamogordo opened the elk season in the Gila Wilderness area north of Silver City. They packed in about eight miles. Shaw got his elk early Sunday morning.

Carrizozo fans make up the crowd for game with NMMI in Roswell Carrizozo went to Roswell Saturday for a game with NMMI B squad, and the Grizzly boosters made up most of the crowd. The game was unusual in that Carrizozo Coaches Casey and Porter got to see some new people in action, the regular starters did not play a lot.

The Grizzlies got the action started when Matt Ellison and Jim Speight hit NMMI hard enough to jar the ball loose, Willie Gallegos gathered it up and hot-footed 60 yards for a touchdown. The second score came on a pass from Gaby Chavez to Leland Jackson who made a fine catch, really beating out the defenders, about a 10-yarder for TD. After a drive down the field

Jody Wrye on option play went over to score from six yards out. The fourth tally came on a long 85 yard run by Ray Roper following a pitchout.

Roper kicked for two extra points, Wrye on an option ran over for 2 more making the final score 28 - 0.

Those new people in action included Shawn Lock at defensive end, Bobby Hobbs at guard, Jay Barnes at defensive guard, David Lee at defensive end, Danny Harkey got his first shot at center and did good, Marcos Barila looked good on defense, Richard O'Brien saw his first action in two years on the kickoff team. You'll be seeing more of these boys and others.

Those were all football games and winning the annual Tiger Grizzly battle was no small deal but from now on the heat is on. Clouderoff, loser to Carrizozo in state playoff last year, comes to town Friday with a 2 - 2 record. After that it's Mountainair, a team that thought it could beat Carrizozo last year and didn't. Then comes what could be the toughest game of all, Dexter with a 4 - 0 record playing in Carrizozo.

After Dexter comes the second league game with Reserve in Carrizozo, Mountainair was the first league game. And then another Double A school, Hatch at Hatch. Hatch Valley does not look so tough on paper with a 1 - 2 record but not too long ago Carrizozo went to Hatch with a top-notch team and lost out after being ahead 14 points at the half.

But, first things first, and this week it is Clouderoff, a team that probably stacks up pound for pound against Carrizozo at any position. The News sports Reporter gets the message that the Bears have some real good people backing up the line on defense, and an attack that is tricky enough to go all the way most any time.

The Bears play an aggressive brand of ball which should make the Friday game a dandy to watch because the Grizzlies generally are out on the field to play ball and don't mind some head knocking - in fact that is Grizzly meat.

Tigers flubbed then roared

If they can get by Tatum at its homecoming this Friday the Captian Tigers may become known as the homecoming spotters. That's what the Tigers did at Vaughn last Friday.

Coach John Dickey said the wind in Vaughn was blowing about 90 MPH and it was colder than a well-digger's rear. His team sort of stood around in the first half expecting Vaughn to give them touchdowns. The Tigers had the ball on the Eagle ten twice but couldn't score. Worse, that the Eagles intercepted a pass on the Tiger 20 and scored with out opposition.

Dickey was not too happy about that first half. During half-time some changes were made then the Tigers started to work better. They drove five and ten yards at a clip going 60 yards, Junior Guevara scoring on QB sneak from the one, pass for extra point was good, score 8-6.

Next time the Tigers got the ball they moved from their own 40 right down the field, Guevara pass to Buddy Hall was good for the score. Another Tiger score, reverse play of 20 yards, was called back on clipping penalty.

The Tigers racked up 156 yards rushing, 126 passing for total of 282, while Vaughn had 91 yards. Final score 14-6 Captian.

The game at Tatum ought to be a rouser. Tatum is rated about a two TD favorite, on their home ground for homecoming. Tatum gave undefeated Dexter a real run last week before logging 14-0.

CARLSBAD -- The Democratic caravan of candidates in statewide races ended eight weeks of campaigning with a drive in Eddy County at Artesia, Loving and Carlsbad.

Divided into teams of three or four hopefuls, Democrats will now concentrate on the populous Santa Fe-Albuquerque-Belen "corridor" in the general election campaign.

The consensus in our travels so far with Republican and Democratic candidates: Rancher-Bruce King, Santa Fe County Democrat, is leading Republican Pete Domenici, Albuquerque attorney, in the governor's race.

U. S. Sen. Joseph M. Montoya, Santa Fe Democrat, is ahead of Lovington Republican Anderson Carter in his reelection bid. But Carter's corps is quietly effective. Door-knocking is emphasized and Andy's conservative backers are dedicated. Carter is trailing but he could still surprise Montoya, a veteran politician and office holder, on election day Nov. 3.

In U. S. House District 1 Rep. Manuel Lujan Jr., Albuquerque Republican, holds a big lead over Santa Fe Democrat Fabian Chavez. Chavez is a 3-time loser and his campaign is under-financed. Lujan enjoys the incumbent's advantage. He has made no major mistakes in his first term.

In U. S. House District 2 Rep. Ed Foreman, Las Cruces, Republican, is ahead of State Sen. Harold Runnels, Lovington Democrat. But Runnels' campaign style is improving and his strategy is generating gains.

If King and Montoya run well enough, they might pull Chavez and Runnels to upset victories in the election. Democrats are showing the best unity in many years. They have lost the statehouse in the last two elections and they are hungry for victory.

But Republicans are well-organized. Their carefully built political effort far outstrips the Democratic machinery. Vietnam is not an issue in this campaign. Democrats are hitting hard at the economic downturn and Republicans are underscoring recent encouraging business signs.

Law and order is a major issue with many voters throughout the state. Student unrest disturbs the people too. King and Domenici repeatedly stressed a need for New Mexico economic development. The state's population grew only 5 per cent between 1960 and 1970.

Arthur Evans, Caballo Republican, withdrew from the race for State House of Representatives in the Lincoln-Sierra Counties district. Republicans did not pick a replacement.

So, State Rep. Ralph Petty, Ruidoso Democrat, is now unopposed for re-election. Petty, 29, seeks a second House term. The deadline for candidates to withdraw from the ballot was Sept. 22.

Evans said his duties as manager of the Ladder Ranch prevented him from campaigning. He is former Sierra County Republican chairman. The 1969 President's Report by Dr. Ferral Heady of the University of New Mexico said: "... the legislative investigators have done little to build public understanding and acceptance of the university's role in society."

The comment sparked a reply from the University Study Committee. The committee said: "It should be realized by Dr. Heady that the public's understanding and acceptance of the University of New Mexico rests squarely on the administration of the university and the public may judge them by their actions or failure to act."

State Sen. I. M. (Ike) Smalley, D-Luna-Sierra-Hidalgo, is committee chairman. State Rep. Richard Carbajal, D-Belen, is on the committee. The committee statement said the panel and its predecessor have accomplished the following:

A sense of security has been established in the minds of many citizens through the knowledge that the committee has had the legal authority to investigate and study the university structure.

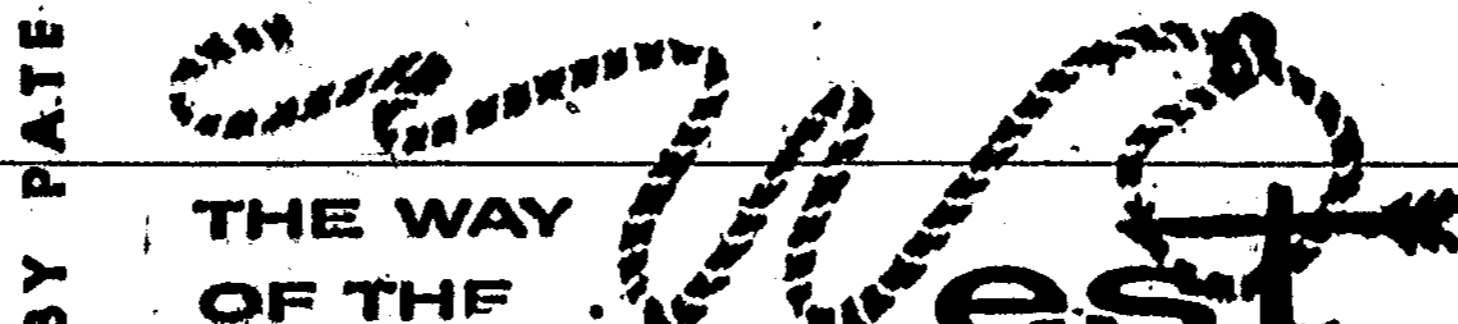

Through the committee's activities the public has been keenly informed about the strengths and weaknesses of the University of New Mexico.

The new regents "Statement of Policy" is an indirect result of the committee's research, study and conclusions.

State Corrections Secretary Howard Leach fired James Garitson as superintendent of New Mexico Boys School at Springer. Robert Marks, director of Camp Sierra Blanca near Fort Stanton, was named to replace Garitson.

An investigation under Leach's direction developed allegations of physical abuse of boys at the state school at Springer and its forestry camp near Eagle Nest. Carlos Gutierrez, publisher of the Main difference we see between our town of 1000 and any other town our size around these parts -- is that new construction continues all around town... must be a good sign of some sort. Henry Vega going along with construction for snack bar, Otero Electric building near completion, the hospital facility is well underway, three new houses this year, plus lots of little jobs like fencing, remodeling and painting.

Johnny Horizon Cleanup Month is on us and Carrizozo is taking it in stride -- which means reading the sports page, watching TV, bowling, biking, battling the beezes and not working up much sweat about the whereabouts of the U.S. BLM created Johnny Horizon in the image of an outdoorsman who is a litter-fighting symbol: and Whereas etc.

When some people go neighbor visiting in Lincoln County it's not quite like walking across the street. By the time Tom Pounds drives or rides horseback from his ranch at Cedarvale to the Hondo Valley he's covered close to 100 miles -- all worth the trip. He arrived in apple country just the right day for Bert Pfingsten's anniversary. Apple work goes right on but more people are watching and visiting is what this anniversary means.

Edna Laabs is back in school, filling in for art teacher who became ill. From their school paper at Minocqua, Wisconsin, "Mrs. Laabs taught for a number of years in New Mexico and is introducing phases of Mexican culture to our students." Bernie says they don't know difference between Mexico and New Mexico back there.

Jackie Spencer likes to help people -- her help around Carrizozo has been appreciated for years. Now she is working with the 7th Step Foundation which is a new experience in many ways. People in 7th Step are all ex-convicts, most in need of help in becoming contributing members of the community. 7th Step is operated by ex-convicts who have been successful in maintaining their own freedom and now seek to help others straighten out their lives. Good thing somebody cares about such people.

Quiet times in Lincoln County says State Policeman Andy Benavidez. District Clerk Clark Edward Penfield backs him up. Court was scheduled here this week but Judge Stanley was tied up in court in Las Cruces.

Dead Man's Corner caught another, big lumber truck this time which scattered timber along the far side of this tight curve near Captian.

PLACER HOTEL IN NOGAL ABOUT 1885 -- At the time the Helen Rae and Parsons mines were in full production the town of Nogal was a going place with two newspapers, several saloons, livery stables and general merchandise stores. The boom was shortlived and in a few years, near turn of the century, most of the people were gone and the boom-town had all but disappeared. This picture shows people gathered in front of the Placers Hotel in year 1885.

SMOKEY BEAR COUNTRY — By Margaret Rench

227 students after first 20 days

The Capitan Municipal Schools completed the first twenty days of school on September 24, 1970 with an enrollment of 227 students in grades 1 - 12. This is a 9 student loss compared to the enrollment at the same date last year when the enrollment was 236. The school administrators had projected an enrollment of 230 at the budget hearing last May.

During the first month of school Mr. James Warren, Assistant Director of the School Transportation Division, Mr. Ira Caster and Mr. Tranquillo Silva Bus Contractor surveyed all bus routes in the Capitan District. The information from the survey will be used to evaluate the feasibility of extending some routes to provide better service and to improve safety conditions at the loading and unloading zones.

The new school lunch regulations have been initiated. Application forms, guidelines and other pertinent information was sent to all parents explaining the qualifications for free or reduced lunches. All parents who have questions pertaining to the new regulations are urged to contact the Superintendents office. The average daily participation in the lunch program for the first month was 160.

This Fall or Autumn seems like the winter cold. This Monday it is foggy with mist and light rain at intervals. Very cold. The growth is not thoroughly killed but it is very near it. This unexpected cold just goes through one. As it turned cold with out warning. Perhaps early winter of which we will soon learn.

I did make a couple of business trips to Ruidoso and the autumn colors are fabulous. So very beautiful. Just breathtaking. What a gorgeous drive. I do hope many of you are able to view it before the leaves go.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Grantham, Jr. went to Wichita Falls, Texas Sept. 11 to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Grantham, Sr. Then went on to visit their son and wife and Patricia in Dallas.

Pat has started to college and just loves it and she certainly is very happy. She is also working as Cashier at the Baker Hotel in down town Dallas.

Saturday 12th they all five went to where they had the 50th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Grantham, Sr. Seventy five friends and relatives attended. They received many lovely gifts.

Granthams, Jr. returned home the 20th. It was so hot they were glad to get home in this cool climate.

I wish Mr. and Mrs. Grantham, Sr. many more happy anniversaries together.

Marijuana Tree found in Capitan Creek Bed

A large marijuana "seed tree" was found last Saturday afternoon in a creek bed near Capitan by New Mexico State Police Officer Darrell Austin. The plant, well over six feet tall, according to authorities was not the general "run of the mill" type of marijuana plant but was labeled as "good stuff" and worth approximately $200.

Austin said that "the plant was the last of many plants of an apparent marijuana plantation covering a large area along the creek bed." The New Mexico State policeman also stated that he was "sure that the plant was left for a purpose, to produce more plants, and that there is really no way to determine just how many trees already had been removed from the site."

The land owner along the creek bed of the apparent marijuana plantation has been cleared of any possible connection with the growth of the plants. Austin stated, "He was not even aware of its existence."

The Capitan area has been under surveillance for possible growth of marijuana for several months by the State Police. Although no arrests have been made in reference to growing marijuana authorities indicated that they have some very serious leads. It also was reported that other areas in Lincoln County, because of its ideal soil and climate for producing the unlawful plant, have been under investigation by area police.
