New Snack Bar in Carrizozo features microwave cooking, instant service

The newest business in Carrizozo is Henry Vega's Snack Bar on the lots across the street from the old postoffice building. Vega has announced his grand opening for Saturday, December 5, starting at 10:00 a.m.

This new business is located in the friendly red and white striped bar barrel, made real compact so one person can serve a great variety of snack foods without having to move much.

The serving and food preparation at the snack bar will be done by Ida Herrera and Frances Bohl, both girls being on the job during the noon rush hour.

Food preparation is unusual at this place, nothing is fried, both hamburgers and hotdogs being cooked in a new type oven that does the job in matter of seconds. Both hamburger meat and hotdogs come to the Snack Bar 80 percent cooked, are placed in the oven for less than a minute, then the meat and trimmings are put in bun and the entire sandwich put back in oven for another 45 seconds and delivered to the customer "hot" and ready to eat. Nothing is fried under this process.

Chili at the Bar is special made by Ida. In the near future the Bar will be serving a Zozoburger and Coke for modest price. The soft ice cream is real creamy and rich, makes delicious shakes and malts as well as cones and sundaes.

During the grand opening day there will be free balloons for the kiddies and free Cokes with each food purchase.

Les Rainey, former state policeman in this area, is the franchised area distributor for Snack Bar. He was talking with Henry Vega last August about taking on this franchise and Vega became one of the first in this area to set up the Snack Bar eating place.

Muzzle loader gets deer for Leroy Acker

Leroy B. Acker of White Oaks shot his first deer 59 years ago in Old Mexico at a time when he was too small to carry a rifle and had a gun bearer for that job. This action took place in 1911.

Things haven't changed a whole lot by 1970 except that Leroy is some older, the gun he used this season was probably an old-timer in 1911, and the deer he got Nov. 27 was maybe a bigger animal than the one he shot in Old Mexico.

Acker had been telling Jackie Silver that he would get himself a deer with an old muzzle loading rifle given to him by an aunt more than 30 years ago. He started getting ready for the season by sighting in his gun and getting the proper load worked up.

The gun he planned to use is a .451 bore, and the load he settled on was 50 grains of 3F black powder and a patched ball weighing 148 grains. The balls were cast by Mr. Acker.

Using this gun, sometimes known as a Kentucky rifle, or commonly known as a muzzle loader, he got two inch groupings at 50 yards consistently from the 36-inch barrel, once he settled on the load.

On Friday, November 27, Leroy went a hunting, not too far from his home place, up the Canyon above White Oaks where Roy Long first stalked out and later sold some property to Aker who built a cabin there. He saw a big buck early in the morning but it was about 100 yards distant and he decided against such a long shot although the rifle probably could have made the kill at that distance. Then an eight-point buck showed up only about 50 yards distant and Leroy put one ball clear through the neck of this big buck, right where he was aiming.

The Ackers have lived in White Oaks since 1962, coming there from El Paso where Mr. Acker had been in the postal service for 36 years. He has thought about deer hunting every year but this was the first year he had a rifle good enough to suit him--the Kentucky rifle from his aunt.

200 men fight range fires in three areas

The grass country of Lincoln County is dry. Lots of extra people in the area and one known mishap brought on three fires that took the efforts of some 200 people before they were brought under control.

The worst of the three, a fire thought to have started Sunday around 2:00 p.m. from moon camp fire between Wally Ferguson's Black Hills Ranch headquarters and the iron mines west of there, some five to six miles north of US 380, spread over 1,000 acres of BLM land before it was brought under control early Monday morning. This land is in Socorro County, part of ranch operated by Phil Harvey.

T. H. Rett who lives in El Paso and weekends at cabin two miles northwest of Capitan was emptying gasoline from lawn mower when the gasoline caught fire and spread to grass fire that quickly got out of control Saturday around 2:30 p.m. A hundred acres of grass were burned and many homes and trailers in the area threatened before it was put out.

The smallest of the three fires happened at White Oaks just inside the Forest boundary at foot of Patos Mountains. First report came at 3:30, thirteen acres burned before the fire was put out. The Socorro County fire got to be quite an operation before it was put out. E. M. Calentine, manager of the Harvey Ranch, was first at the scene with a D4 Cat and working right out in front of the fire but it was just too big a job for one machine. Ranchers of the area came in to help but a crew with equipment enough to control the range fire really didn't gather up until late Sunday night.

By that time the fire was going good, backed by fairly strong wind. Road graders were brought in from the north and south parts of Lincoln County, another from Socorro County, and all of them taking some time to find their way into the fire. Access from the Carrizozo side was down the Shafer road and on the iron mine road, then turning north.

Word received by the News was that Mozaun Calentine was pretty well choked down with smoke by the time help got there, around 10:00 p.m. Sunday. By that time five sections of land were burning.

This fire was in a rough area, lots of stumps and brush that kept burning after the grass fire swept by. If it hadn't been for the limestone points that sort of slowed up the fire, hard telling when it would have been controlled.

Fire workers with hand tools, sacks, shovels, pumper trucks were busy much of the time but it wasn't until the graders got busy cutting a fire guard a couple of blades wide that progress of the fire was stopped.

Lee Straley was there Sunday night. He said in places you could walk right up to the fire line, but where the grass was tall you couldn't get within 300 feet of the blaze. The fireguard that finally did the job was cut out maybe a quarter mile out in front of the blaze on the northeast side.

There were lots of local people involved, coming from all around the area. Mozaun Calentine, Joe Petross, John McKibben, Preston Stone and their help, Red McDaniel, Ernest Copeland, Morgan Maxwell, the Hinkies, Orndorffs, plus Mrs. Cliff Lynch and Mrs. Red McDaniel supplying coffee and sandwiches -- to name the ones we know about. George Hansen of Fish and Game Department, was coordinator at this fire, keeping in radio contact with outside and work being done at the blaze.

The fire wasn't out by no means Monday morning early even though its progress had been stopped because the fire area was full of hot spots, but it was contained about that time. Special Indian crews came in Monday morning from Questa and Mora to help with the work.

The fire near Capitan starting from a hot lawnmower was in the Mt. Capitan subdivision area and could have been more serious than it was. The stuff in that area is real dry and the wind was high.

Help came in from all around, probably 100 men involved before the fire was brought under control. The Capitan fire department, Forest Service, boys from Sierra Blanca Boys Camp, Jack Robinson with his D8 tractor, a slurry plane from Almagordo, and numerous individuals using all types of hand tools.

The slurry plane helped the firefighters buy time and the D8 Cat made a fireguard, hand work helped and everything combined brought this fire under control around 6:00 p.m. Saturday. It burned about 90 acres of grass on Jack Robinson's place and 10 more acres of subdivision land.

Two Fish and Game Department Wardens, Tony Campbell and Calvin Smith were first at the White Oaks fire, followed shortly by Warden Kenneth Schear and a seven-man crew from Mora. They brought this fire under control using mostly hand tools.

FRANCES IN NEW KITCHEN -- Frances Bohl, one of two chefs at the Snack Bar, seems happy in her new red and white striped all-modern kitchen. Their grand opening is Saturday.

Building donation is tax deductible

Attorney Bill Payne checked with the Internal Revenue Service about whether or not donations to the new Lincoln County Fair building are deductible.

Section 170 (c) defines charitable contributions as a contribution or gift to or for the use of a state, a territory, or any political subdivision of any of the foregoing, but only if the contribution or gift is made for exclusively public purposes.

Lincoln County Sheriff Ernest Sanchez made an investigation Tuesday of two broken front windows at Pearl's Bar in Capitan, the incident happening some time Monday night after the bar closed. The vandals were apparently on foot and did not take anything from inside, just broke the windows.

The county fairground are owned by Lincoln County, hence any donations for improvements on such ground would be a deductible item.

Quite a little more money is needed to clear up the construction cost of the new fair building at Capitan and donations for this purpose may be made at the bank in Carrizozo or to any fair board member.

SIX BUSES REGULARLY STOP AT THE DINER

There are busy times at The Diner on US54 south of Carrizozo. Six big buses of the New Mexico Transportation Co. pull up at the Diner for rest stop and food.

Going north these buses arrive in Carrizozo at 12:32 p.m., 3:00 p.m. and 8:05 p.m. Going south they arrive at 9:40 a.m., 3:15 p.m. and 9:55 p.m.

The Diner is operated by Juanita Ryals with Carol Samora helping in the morning, Juanita Zamora and Geneva Aguilar in the afternoon and Ray and Perla Romo at night.

Harbinger of winter - birds go south

That harbinger of winter -- robin redbreast -- is on the wing, flying south.

For Guatemalans, the first robin can be as sure a sign of coming winter as it is a traditional herald of spring when it flies north with the melting of snow in Illinois and New Jersey.

The robin is only one among the thousands of species of birds billions strong now taking to the air in another repeat performance of one of nature's greatest spectacles: the twice-yearly migration of the birds.

After centuries of watching in wonderment, man still does not exactly know how or why birds may fly perhaps a third or more the width of the world every autumn, and then return to their

Undiscovered Satellite Accompanying the Earth at a Near breeding grounds -- sometimes to the same nest -- in the spring. Fanciful Theories

But scientists think they finally may be closer to solving the mystery, with theories that may sound as fanciful as the explanations of the ancients, the National Geographic Society says.

Aristotle and other philosopher naturalists of Greece noted the migrations, but thought swallows and some other birds spent the winter in hibernation or sleeping in hollow trees, caves, or even beneath mud in marshes.

New England's famed Puritan preacher, Cotton Mather, proclaimed "The Wild Pigeons on Leaving us Repair to Some Distance."

Sparrows and some robins seldom migrate at all, braving the snow and cold, and bobwhite, quail, and cardinals may never fly more than 10 miles from the nest where they were hatched. 25,000 Miles a Year

Other birds make epic flights: The arctic tern migrates from the land of the snowy owl to the South Polar home of the penguin, then returns as the season's change, perhaps flying 25,000 miles a year.

Most bigger birds fly by day, a few thousands of miles without stopping to feed. But 90 percent of the migration is at night, including that of most small birds, despite the legend that they hitch hike on the backs of the bigger fliers.

Flocks of migrating birds do ride prevailing north and south winds.

How do birds navigate? Scientists' elaborate experiments indicate that some birds, at least, may actually use sightings of the sun and stars.

Other theories indicate they may find their way by somehow sensing the varying forces of gravity and magnetic attraction around the Earth, or by reacting to the Coriolis force produced by the Earth's rotation.

But birds are also apparently not above taking shortcuts on their migrations. Swiss birdwatchers have reported swallows flying through a four-mile mountain tunnel to Italy -- better than flying over the 8,000-foot Alps.

Nice words from Johnson Stearns who liked his Thanksgiving ad. Thank you Johnson, we like to write ads for appreciative customers.

Question was asked at recent town meeting, "Does a town have the right to die?" Answer is "yes". More comment on same subject, Carrizozo went from 1500 to 1000 people in decade, more people not always the most desirable thing but in Carrizozo's instance the down trend will accelerate if not stopped and a town does need more than 700 - 800 - 1000 people to offer services that people demand these days.

Larry Baker, Department of Development rep., made statement that applies here -- "If you look alive, you have chance to survive". At this same meeting Clara Snow spoke up about eyesores, hazards such as old cars and buildings that could be removed if anyone cared enough. Fred English said that fellow comes here from Chicago every year and chews on me about looks of town.

No one was intending to slam at school situation but there is lots of food for thought in comment by Jerry Baker -- we tax ourselves real good for schools and end up by sending all our youngsters clear out of the country -- ought to be taxing ourselves to help the town make some changes that might keep more of our young people here. Carrizozo has 2nd oldest average population of any town in state according to Baker.

One more comment from notes taken at town meeting -- Ruidoso tries ten projects and if two work they figure they've done well. Carrizozo tries two and if they fall ZoZo people quit.

It's the sad chore of many newspapers to preside at the last rites of farms and small businesses, and some large ones. We've run a lot of farm auction ads where we knew the farm was being vacated and people moving off somewhere. Sorry to see Ben Roberts' quitting business at Corona but there comes a time for reasons of age or health when there is no other course.

Letter from J. C. Palmer asking who was committee of five that got the questionnaire filled out by 55 people. Honest answer is, we don't know, their names are in some minutes some place, we trust them and feel they did a good job -- end of that. Carl wants to know is football coach worth $2,000 more than county sheriff, which question ought to be put to county commissioners and/or school board. One job is elective, the sheriff seeks his job at whatever the salary may be, a good coach takes his choice of job and salary that suits him. Carl has some bad words about drivers in Carrizozo, cars speeding in school zone, running stop signs, drunken drivers hitting parked cars at night. We're sure he is partly right but, except for US 54 traffic, situation in ZoZo is not bad -- our opinion.

Courtesy of National Geographic Magazine we have beautiful world that goes with feature article "Our Ecological Crisis" in the Geographic. One paragraph from this article -- Last year Americans threw away 50 billion empty cans, 30 billion glass containers, 4 million tons of plastics and more than a million television sets. A big part of that throw-away comes from the fact that television programming is so lousy people can't stand the viewing any longer.

Wednesday morning last week was happy time at News office. Call came in from Jake Fulmer in New York and we had chat with this former Lincoln Countian. Jake sounded well, fixing to enjoy Thanksgiving and through his generosity we had special toasts around our Thanksgiving table.

"My son," boasted the proud father, "plays the piano by ear." "My son," declared the other father, "fiddles with his beard."

Watching Lobo-Buffs basketball game on TV Tuesday night, it was plain to see that large numbers of Colorado University students can't sing, can't hear, or can't see that our country's flag was being honored. TV spotted student body completely ignoring the Star Spangled Banner.

Swiped from Duffy -- a few overheard: One coffee bean to another -- "We're going to hafta cut out this instant stuff -- and go back to the old grind."

Inflation is where everyone is so rich that nobody can afford anything.... Oh, for the good old days when an allergy was just an itch and all you had to do was scratch it.

Progress made on White Oaks school

The White Oaks Historical Assn. will hold a meeting at the Rural Electric Cooperative building in Carrizozo on December 12 at 7:00 p.m. at which time members of the association will hear a report on work at the White Oaks School.

All window sashes in the school building have been refinished and repainted, broken windows have been replaced. The association is grateful to Leroy Acker for his donation of work and material and to Dolly Ward for a paint donation.

Work is now planned for the roof and front porch as well as plastering and painting. The door to the big heating stove had disappeared and needs to be replaced. A good friend, Owen Simpson, went to the school house and did some measuring and after a while he returned with a new door he had made with his welding equipment.

All member of the association are urged to attend the December 12 meeting.

News and Notes

Temperature and humidity are among the many things which contribute to a comfortable home environment. Doors and windows are usually open in warm weather and closed in cold weather so we depend on a heating system to keep us warm. So far we can't control the weather outside the house. However, we need to be aware of what happens inside when a house is closed and heat dries the air.

Most of us work best and are more comfortable in air that contains 35 to 40 percent relative humidity. This refers to the amount of moisture in the air compared to the total amount of moisture the air is capable of carrying at a given temperature. Sometimes the air inside the house becomes dry enough to cause damage to furnishings. Furniture warps, cracks, or becomes unglued; wallpaper may peel or crack; the piano may be out of tune often.

As for people, they are subject to a static shock when they touch a metal object; nasal passages feel dry; and people may be cold even when the room temperature is high.

To increase the relative humidity, pans of water can be kept near a heating unit or in the furnace; doors and/or windows may be opened occasionally to ventilate the rooms. In extreme cases of low humidity, a commercial humidifier may be used.

The members of the Happy Homemakers 4-H Club were assisted by their leaders, Mrs. Wesley Dross and Mrs. Truman Spencer, in delivering jelly to the Senior Citizens during Thanksgiving week.

Dere Teecher, please ekshus Donald

Donald had left home with plenty of time to spare, but he didn't get to school until thirty minutes after the tardy bell had rung. Along the way, it seems, Donald had found it necessary to play with a stray dog, watch some laborers digging a trench for a new sewage line and study the posters in front of a movie house.

"You are thirty minutes late," said the teacher accusingly when Donald, finally made his entrance into the classroom. "What is your excuse?"

"My pop made me work with him in his law office," fibbed Donald promptly.

"Is that so? Well, young man, ask your father to give you a note to that effect, and be sure to bring it to class tomorrow. Otherwise, I'll speak to him myself!"

"Yes, ma'am," gulped Donald, realizing that the jig was up and that retribution would be forthcoming.

But Donald was an enterprising youngster, and he arrived at a solution to his problem. He compounded his felony by writing the note himself. When he handed it to the teacher, here is what she read:

Dere Teecher,
Pleez ekshus Donald for beeing lait yestiday bekuz he helpt me preepare an impawtent law kals.

Successful hunt depends more on abundance of wild game!

LAS CRUCES -- Your success at getting a deer this season probably depends more on the number of deer in the area where you hunt than on the number of hunters.

Wildlife scientists at New Mexico State University, who recently completed a study of the Fort Stanton deer herd, point out that the size of the harvest is controlled by the abundance of game and not by the number of hunters. In five years, the harvest of legal deer on the Fort Stanton range remained fairly constant, from 43 to 64 bucks, but the number of hunters varied from just over 300 to almost 1000, each spending about the same amount of time hunting.

Former professor John Wood, former students Thomas Biekle, Wainwright Evans, James Germany, and assistant professor Volney Howard, Jr. have reported the findings from the study in NMSU's Agricultural Experiment Station

Bulletin 567, "The Fort Stanton Mule Deer Herd."

Their study was made to learn more about the habits and preferences of mule deer so that deer herd management can be improved.

They also studied hunter success on the range. They found that more than one fifth of the deer shot near Fort Stanton during the buck-only hunts were illegal.

The scientists found the Fort Stanton deer to prefer areas with a variety of browse plants instead of only one kind of plant. The deer use of the range decreased with the distance from water. When more water was developed on the range, the deer herd increased. When water holes went dry, the deer moved away from the area.

Livestock Report
By Reuben Caplan

It was difficult to measure the impact of the General Motors strike on the cattle market. There were those who contended that effect of the strike went far beyond the 350,000 workers directly involved. But even after the strike was several weeks old, procurement men for large retail food chains in Detroit said they could not be sure if the strike had a significant production in consumer buying. They cited union funds to tide strikers over.

Now, there are those in the meat industry who suggest that the General Motors strike may have had another effect -- that of encouraging packaging house workers to seek higher wages by way of strikes. This comes as a surprise to many packaging industry people.

When one of the major packers settled last April, well in advance of the contract expiration, it was thought this would lead to predictable smooth contract negotiations -- without strikes. But early this week strikes were continuing against 19 packers in Los Angeles, six in St. Louis, and a key packer in Greeley, Colorado. And reports received at Merrill Lynch indicate the possibility of strikes for two slaughterers in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

In Los Angeles, butchers working for breakers and jobbers settled their strike for $1.56 an hour over a three year period, prompting the removal of pickets from the stores of a large retail chain. But, so far this has supplied apparent incentive for the packaging house butchers to go back to work since they are reported to want an increase of $1.87 an hour over a three year period, plus fringe benefits. It's reported the demand for fringe benefits is the stumbling block to settlement.

The strike in Greeley continues to force selling of cattle from Monfort Feedlots to Midwestern Packers who already have adequate supplies of cattle available to them.

In the meantime, a major packer closed its slaughtering operations in St. Joseph, Michigan, planned closing but nevertheless occurring when the cattle trade needed all the demand it could get.

Threats of strikes against two eastern packers who have been long term key buyers at the Chicago stockyards slowed demand at that major price basing point this week. There appears to be no sign of quick settlement of these strikes.

Virtually all contracts come due between July and November and, hopefully, there will be little chance of further strike problems.

Round Table members will make gifts

By Margaret Rench

The regular meeting of the Capitan Round Table Club was held on Friday November 20 at the lovely home of Mrs. Frank Titsworth in Tinnie with the following members present; Alta Cumpsten, Lorene Ferguson, Corrine Provine, Marie Edgar, Vera Beall, Emelia McKnight, Frances Shaw and the hostess Mora Titsworth.

After the usual fine luncheon consisting of Tamale Pie and other Spanish dishes, Mora Titsworth presided as president in the absence of Geraldine Randle. A rather lengthy business meeting was held. The following officers were elected for 1971. President—Mora Titsworth, Vice President—Lorene Ferguson, Secretary—Treasurer—Vera Beall, Mene Chairman—Marie Edgar.

It was decided that the usual boxes of candy, cookies and cake would be prepared and distributed to the shut-ins at Christmas time.

The Christmas Party for the members, husbands and guests will be held at the Wortley Hotel on December 19.

The January meeting will be held at the home of Vera Beall. I have had several inquiries for the address of Velma Luck. Therefore this is it as follows; Mrs. Velma C. Luck, C/O Taylor Nursing Home, Taylor, Arkansas 71861.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lacy are the proud parents of a baby daughter born Saturday at the Ruidoso Hospital. Further information will be furnished later.

The students home from their respective Colleges for Thanksgiving Holidays were Laura Lee Lacy, Jimmie Don Wright, Patricia Grantham, Jackie Robinson and Virginia Robinson.

Little Danny Cummins entered the Ruidoso Hospital Wednesday morning and was released Friday afternoon. It is good to see the little fellow back at the store again. Keep on staying well.

Mrs. Edna Sides of Waco, Texas spent the Thanksgiving Holidays with her daughter Mr. and Mrs. Hank Lacy and family.

The members of the Nazarene Church, their families and their friends enjoyed their Thanksgiving Dinner at the Nazarene Camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Armstrong and Renee of Roy, N.M. spent several days and Thanksgiving with her parents Mr. and Mrs. LaMoyne Peters and her grand parents Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Peters. Leslie killed a deer.

They had just returned from a month vacation in Portland, Ore. where Leslie attended school two weeks. They returned via California visited Glenda's uncle Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Peters and family in Long Beach. They took one month and made a vacation out of it. Mrs. Lila Nix of Belen, Calif. came by bus recently to visit Mrs. Mayme Grieson. They visited Mrs. Maude Clark and she called Mrs. Allie Taylor and Mrs. Annie McInnes to come as she was inquiring about them. Allie had not seen her in 35 years. She is a former resident of Capitan, her husband died over one year ago in Montana. She enjoyed visiting old friends.

Allie Taylor Thanksgiving dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. George McBride, Cody and Dee Warren Chesser of Mesclero. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crandall of Roswell, Annie McInnes of Capitan, Miss Dee Dee Wright of Albuquerque.

After dinner Dee Warren came with his deer. Jerry Wright and J. D. Wright came with him. George and Mittie McBride hunted too and were late though they did not see a deer. This was Codys 17th birthday. I wish you many more very happy birthdays Cody.

Mrs. Duane Darling, Peggy and Kenny of Loving spent Friday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw and left for their home Saturday night.

A bridal shower honoring Miss Peggy Darling was held at the Baptist Church here at the fellowship hall, Saturday afternoon November 28.

A large crowd attended. More information will follow on this later.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Shaw met their daughter Diane Mr. and Mrs. Michael Risk of Clovis, in Roswell at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Drews Riska and all enjoyed Thanksgiving together.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Dean of Claunch visited his parents Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dean last Sunday and they all joined his brother Mr. Harold Dean and daughter Sally Ann for dinner together at the Four Winds in Carrizozo.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Britton and 13 months old daughter Gretchen of Texas spent the holiday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. N.E. Britton. Last Saturday little Gretchen became ill with a kidney infection and was entered in the Ruidoso Hospital. I wish her a good recovery.

Mr. Hollis Cummins made a business trip to Santa Fe last Monday November 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Smith accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Aikie Hicks left for California Tuesday Nov. 24. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks stopped in San Diego to spend the Holiday with his sister Mr. and Mrs. Brown while the Smiths journeyed on to Perris, California to have their holiday with their son Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lee Smith and family. They returned home 4 am Monday morning after a wonderful trip.

Mr. and Mrs. S.M. Cozzens Thanksgiving guests were their children, Miss Jane Cozzens of Alamogordo, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cozzens and daughter of Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Cozzens and four children of Portales, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parson and four daughters of Ft. Sumner and Bobby Parsons of Las Cruces.

Mrs. Molly Stoneman entered the Ruidoso Hospital November 14 very ill. At this time she is still there. I wish you a good recovery.

Mrs. H.W. Ellis and her daughter Mrs. Elma Campbell went to Albuquerque, Monday 21 to attend the funeral services of her grand son.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Werner and two children of Roswell spent the first day of hunting season, with Travis Werner. John killed a deer. They spent the night.

Three weeks hunting season ends this weekend. Several hunters of this area are happy to have it over. They fear we soon will not have deer the way the doe have been killed. As bucks are now at a premium, I hope that is not true. It is great to have them in our forest and nothing is so beautiful than to see them in their own habitat along with turkey and bear. We must not have everything extinct. So many people are so thoughtless. Fires started by camp fires seem so useless too. I know there is excitement but one should still stop and think hard.

Mrs. Kingston and I made a business trip to Carrizozo last Saturday. We were fortunate to have met Elizabeth McVeigh and she gave us a tour of the New Rural Electric building. It is all electric kitchen with lovely carpeted office and large room in which groups can meet if they desire. A lovely rest room, it is so pretty and cozy. I know Elizabeth is happy in it as she just radiated it. I cannot blame her for it is very nice. Certainly something for Carrizozo to be proud of. We enjoyed shopping at Ben Franklins store and at the Carrizozo Hardware. It was a lovely day too. Met several people of which we did enjoy.

The Rench and Kingston outside Christmas trees are decorated and ready to be turned on in their beautiful colors of cheer starting December 1 through January 1. Do come forward dear friends and help us pass this cheer on to others. It is catching and gives so much happiness at so little cost.

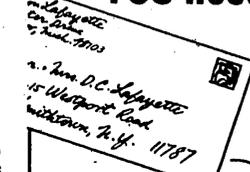

Cody McBride killed a deer too. Fletcher Hall, Margerito Trujillo, Buzz Willis, Tom Chaffins and Speedy Chavez. There may be others though I have not learned of it.

Mrs. Maude Kingston and Mrs. Rench went to Roswell Thanksgiving. Enjoyed dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gordie Goins. Others present were her parents

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Harris of Ruidoso Downs, Miss Lou Harris her aunt of Ruidoso Downs, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Harris and Tracie of Weed, her brother, Mrs. Willa Mae Luck, Danny, Robert and Mary of Roswell. We had a delightful day as we started home we turned back and went to the Sunset Villa Nursing Home and visited Mrs. Daisy Gehring. She was just OK and glad to see us. She sings the praises of the home. She looks good and remembers everything.

We are having such cold dry weather, with high winds. The last few days have been warm, but windy too. The variations do cause that virus which seems so prominent.

MY HOUSE OF OLD THINGS
By Jackie Silvers

It was a pleasant and enjoyable week gone by. We had some old time Lincoln County residents to return for a look at the relics of their day and others from Tucson, Arizona and Weldarado, Texas, who enjoyed the things of the past and from New Mexico the towns of Albuquerque, Tatum, Alamogordo, Tularosa, Estancia, Clovis, Ft. Sumner, Belen, Roswell, Tucumcari and Cloudcroft brought us a lot of interested visitors. Again our hunting friends of long standing, came by to greet us and have a look.

Mr. Jack Pruett of Tularosa and retired S.P. Track man was by to say hello to us. He spent several days with Bryan Hightower and hunted the first of the season. It is always good to have Jack return.

Mr. and Mrs. Koogler of Aztec and their daughter Virginia (Mrs. C.W. Whitney) of Aztec, were by to see us on Friday. Mrs. Koogler will be remembered as Josephine Clements of Corona and Mr. Koogler as Supt. of the Corona and Capitan Schools—a good many years back. Josephine and Virginia left with us pictures of the entire Clements family, beautifully arranged and mounted. This will be a most interesting and delightful addition to our pictures of "Lincoln County Old Timers". We are deeply grateful and our visit with Mr. Koogler, Josephine and Virginia was a real joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker Tosh of Tucumcari, with their son Marlon of the EPMG Co., Corhoa came to see us. They are old time friends of the Luna and Coyote pump station days. They were deer hunting and have hunted in this area for twenty years or more. We had a most enjoyable visit with the Toshes.

Another delightful visit we had was with Mr. and Mrs. David Sanchez Sr. of Rosemead, Calif. They were accompanied by their children David Jr., Carmen, Shiela, Susan and Sandra. David Sr. is the son of our "old time" neighbor Abe Sanchez of Carrizozo, Abe and his brothers at one time homesteaded near Ancho, David Sr. and Mrs. Sanchez really enjoyed the relics, Mrs. Sanchez favorite was the dining room and the cut glass dishes. We enjoyed their visit very much indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Witherspoon and son Jack of Mineral Wells, Texas and Mr. and Mrs. Marramore and son Jeff of Weatherford, Texas came by to see us and take a tour thru "My House of Old Things". They have been guests of the Lane Fanning family and were on their way home. We enjoyed and appreciated their nice visit with us.

George Cooper of Clovis came by for another visit with us last Wednesday. He was accompanied by a group of friends from Clovis and all of them were hunting in the Corona area. It is always a great pleasure to see George, his family and friends. George was born here, the oldest child of Jimmie and the late Lucy Cooper. George is very interested in the history of Ancho and Lincoln Co. We enjoyed his visit and that of his friends. A small boy he attended the Ancho School.

Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hightower have returned to their home in Ridgecrest, California after a nice vacation with home folks. Gary was lucky and got his deer. Bill Hightower was also lucky and got his too.

Millard Langly of Carrizozo was by for a short visit with us. He had been hunting in the Jicarilla vicinity but no luck so far.

Mr. and Mrs. Heasley of Tucumcari stopped by for a visit thru "My House". They are both interested in relics and are real bottle collectors. They do a lot of digging and find very interesting and old bottles of all descriptions. We enjoyed their visit and found it informative on "bottle history".

Lucky hunters in Old Lincoln Town

By Mrs. Edgar Phillips

Among the lucky hunters I've heard about are Dan and Robert Abercrombie, Clark Pfingsten, Martin Garcia and Mrs. Joe Gallegos, also Sam Welsh of Logan, and James Ray Taylor. I'm sure there are others around who have gotten their deer but I haven't heard yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Pfingsten and son left Saturday for California. Pete came to get Allison and the baby but had to hurry back as he is assigned to another session of schooling. They called back to say that they are settled in an apartment and they made the trip without trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Racher have their house in Lincoln carpeted and it is a very charming little house. The kitchen is lovely and all the walls are finished with wood paneling.

Nicollette Nethaway went to New York with her cousin Kathy Stahl and has already found a job and is working.

Chuck Marson has been in the area hunting and stopped in Lincoln to say hello to friends.

We were saddened to hear that Mrs. Wm. Sterrett passed away in Albuquerque. She had not been well for some time but her family had thought for awhile that she was improving, but she became seriously ill and passed away Saturday morning Nov. 28. The funeral was on Monday November 30th. Our whole-hearted sympathy goes to her family. She was a very wonderful person and they will miss her so much.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Womack have had as guests during hunting season, Eddie's parents, who used to live at Ft. Stanton and his brother Emmett, his wife, Rose Marie and their children. They have enjoyed every minute of their visiting with each other.

Betty and Bill Shrecengost had as guests over the weekend, the Boone's and some friends of theirs from Portales. They came to hunt but I haven't heard what luck they had.

Edward Penfield had Thanksgiving dinner with his sister Ruth Penfield in Roswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ward and Sawyer met Pat's parents in Roswell and they all had Thanksgiving with Schar Ward who is a student at NMMI.

Perpetuate Inflation?

By Arch N. Booth
As executive vice president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.
LET'S NOT PERPETUATE INFLATION

Almost every time you buy something these days -- food for the family, clothing or whatnot -- you are conscious of inflation. Prices are higher. Your money doesn't go as far as it used to. Your dollar has lost about 15 per cent of its purchasing power in the past three years, U. S. Department of Commerce statistics show.

The trend is continuing. The value of your dollar is shrinking rapidly.

We all know what the main cause of this inflation is: It is excessive government spending.

The government has been spending far beyond its income.

Continued deficit spending puts more money into circulation in relation to the amount of goods and service available, and makes prices go up.

In the long run, no one escapes the inroads of inflation.

It certainly affects you if you live on a pension or a fixed income. Yes, but it also affects you if you earn wages, carry insurance, have a savings account, or own property, stocks or bonds.

By undermining the value of the dollar, inflation affects the whole economy. It affects the future of the country.

There are two ways Congress could hold inflation in check, if it would. It could increase taxes. It could slow down the rate of federal spending. It could do both.

The businessmen of America feel that the sensible place for Congress to start is by reducing spending.

For some reason, however -- whether the reason is political or otherwise -- Congress is in a spending mood.

In fact, it looks as though Congress is deliberately trying to perpetuate inflation. Consider what has happened on Capitol Hill recently:

--Action by the Congress will add $7.5 billion to the President's 1971 budget request, if the House action is sustained by the Senate.

passed by both the House and the Senate total $2.8 billion more than the President requested -- and final action has been taken on only five of the 15 regular appropriations bills.

As originally proposed by the Administration, the budget for this fiscal year projected a surplus of $1.3 billion. Subsequent changes in estimated revenues, and spending action taken by Congress, have put the budget in the red. The estimated deficit is now $10 - $15 billion.

For fiscal 1972, forecasts of the deficit run as high as $23 billion.

If an about-face is not taken on deficit spending, we will have inflation with a vengeance. How could it be otherwise?

Once inflation is permitted to become a way of life, a tax increase would not be able to slow it down. Nor would governmental controls on wages, prices, rents and credit solve the problem.

Certain Congressional leaders are rationalizing their present spending actions by promising that they will economize later on, when they find an opportunity to do so.

The way to economize, however, is to economize now.

The way for Congress to put the brakes on inflation is to look the facts in the face, and to get out of the spending mood.

As a responsible citizen you can be helpful toward halting inflation by writing to your elected representatives in Washington, and urging them to keep federal spending within bounds -- and then by letting them know that you appreciate their doing so.

Why don't you?

For awhile nothing happened except occasional bleeps from the radio. One of the police cars pulled out. The jeep went away, then came back. Tonia and John Able remained away -- but apparently in radio contact.

"I overheard snatches of conversation about how long it takes a Honda to run out of gas. Another state police car pulled in and the driver, in full uniform, walked over to the group and they were apparently filling him in. The cyclist drove away."

Search story is unusual account by Elizabeth R. Lightfoot, Capitan Our usual radio music was interrupted, one fine Monday morning, by a request for volunteers to aid in a search for a party of unidentified persons.

"I overheard snatches of conversation about how long it takes a Honda to run out of gas. Another state police car pulled in and the driver, in full uniform, walked over to the group and they were apparently filling him in. The cyclist drove away."

Part of costs will be paid from a $1,6809-million state severance tax bond issue voted by the 1970 legislature. The 80-bed facility will be for multi-handicapped, profoundly retarded students. This category accounts for about one-third of the present LLMC waiting list of 450, the largest classification.

Domenici and Skeen carried Lincoln County narrowly over King and State Rep. Robert A. Mondragon, 1,336 to 1,199. Foreman won in Lincoln County over State Sen. Harold Runnels, Lovington Democrat, 1,452 to 1,009. But Runnels upset Foreman in 18-county U.S. House District-2.

NOTICE OF HEARING FOR PROVING WILL. TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: NOTICE IS HEREBY given that on the 30th day of November, 1970, the last Will and Testament of L.R. The woods were thick, the snow was heavy on the ground, the timber was tall and lush. Deer were everywhere, and John said that elk, too, roamed these woods. Up in the mountains were plateaus from which the "low country" was hardly visible. Then, progressing further into the forest as the tracks led upward, they would see parked along the road jeeps from the rescue squad, the men hanging over their car radios. Finally the pair came to a huge fallen tree blocking the road and set to with axes. Tonia asked John if he felt like a beaver. John nodded. Then Tonia said he thought a chain saw would have come in handy. They stopped and wiped the sweat from their eyes and John laughed.

"I overheard snatches of conversation about how long it takes a Honda to run out of gas. Another state police car pulled in and the driver, in full uniform, walked over to the group and they were apparently filling him in. The cyclist drove away."

The LLMC estimate for the expansion: State share, $267,000, federal money from the U.S. Health, Education and Welfare Department, $267,000, and Four Corners Regional Commission grant, $89,450.

Just at that moment, back at Salazar Canyon, the car from the real estate office had appeared again, with word that the leader of the three had phoned from Arabela. They were all safe, no injuries, though they had to abandon their cycles and walk all night to a ranch near that town. Apparently they weren't able to get through to their families and co-workers till just that moment. About 15 minutes before twelve noon. The other radios took up the message--the ranger stations at Capitan, Carrizozo and Alamogordo, the airplane aloft. "The people have been found!"
