AMENDMENTS AND SUNDAY LIQUOR VOTE TUESDAY

District 3A sacked up by Grizzlies, Hatch is last on regular schedule

The Carrizozo Grizzly football team racked up its 7th win of the season and the District 3A championship at Reserve Friday with a 60-0 win.

Reserve started the game in a very determined way and managed to control the ball for most of the first period, during a time of no scoring.

In the second quarter, behind the blocking of David Roper, Rusty Leslie, Shawn Lock and David Lee -- Jim Speight found the first TD for the Grizzlies on a 3-yard run. Matt Ellison ran for 2, score 8-0.

Willie Callegos started to open the game as he, along with Speight, Ellison and Gaby Chavez moved the ball down field, capped by Willie's 5-yard run for score. Willie also ran the extra point, score 16-0.

Two plays later Willie snared a Reserve pass and ran 62 yards with the interception for another touchdown, and again he added 2 on run for PAT, score 24-0. All this in the second quarter.

After intermission the Grizzlies continued to roll as Speight climaxed another Zozo drive on a 10-yard run. Kick for PAT was short, score 30-0.

After recovering an onside kick, Gaby Chavez hit Shawn Lock on a 51-yard touchdown pass. Willie ran for 2, score 38-0.

Reserve had pretty well played itself out and wasn't really in the ball game by now. Willie took a punt and took off on one of his patented runs, this one good for 48 yards and 6 more points. Again he ran for 2, score 46-0.

In the 4th quarter with the ball on the Zozo 11-yard line, Chavez found David Roper behind the Reserve defense and threw a TD bomb to complete a 39-yard TD pass. Run for PAT failed, score 52-0.

Callegos went into the end zone for the 4th time on a 11-yard run and Chavez scored the 2 extra points for final tally of 60-0.

The Grizzlies had another opportunity to score as the second unit moved the ball deep in Reserve territory only to have Toro Ortiz fumble inside the 5 and Reserve recover to end the game.

Fighting Tigers ramble over Mountainair

The fighting Capitan Tigers played their best game of the season burying the Mountainair Mustangs 60-2.

Five Tigers crossed the Mustang goal line. These included Ronnie Smith, Bronson Cummins, Johnny Preslado, and Robert Abercrombie. Ted Sisneros scored four touchdowns and passed to Preslado for 6 points.

The Tigers kicked off to the Mustangs and held, forcing them to punt from which the Tigers marched in for a score. On the ensuing kickoff, Preslado made a brilliant tackle, forced a fumble and recovered. This was the turning point of a supposedly close game. From here the Tigers marched into pay dirt with Sisneros going the last four yards. The defense held the Mustangs each time and the offense ate up the ground. The Tigers punted only once and this was late in the fourth quarter with the reserves at the helm.

Ronnie Smith scored on a beautiful 60-yard pass interception. Johnny Preslado played an outstanding game on both defense and offense. He consistently made key tackles and ground gains.

Coach House tried to keep the score down but the Tigers came to play and weren't to be denied. The Tigers travel to Cloudcroft for their last game of the season this Friday.

11 questions are important

On Tuesday, November 2, New Mexico voters have the opportunity to vote in a special election where eleven (11) questions will be on the ballot. A majority of these 11 questions are important to the future of our state.

1. This amendment lowers voting age in all elections from 21 to 18. By the 26th Amendment to the United States Constitution, the voting age has already been lowered to 18. Passage of Amendment No. 1 makes our state constitution be the same as the federal constitution. We recommend "yes" vote.
2. Will increase per diem expense for members of legislature from $20 to $40 and charities payment of legislators serving on interim committees. We suggest "yes" vote.
3. Most sportsmen, ranchers and people living in rural areas will support passage of Amendment 3 which changes wording and broadens the right of citizens to keep and bear arms by adding the following language, "for lawful hunting and recreational use and for other lawful purpose." Use of the word "citizen" establishes certain requirements and responsibilities for the exercise of this right. Vote "yes" recommended.

4. You won't know from reading the ballot what Amendment 4 is all about, it has to do with uniform system of text books for public schools. The amendment would repeal law requiring text books not be changed more than once in six years. Most educators are for the passage of this amendment.
5. Bad legislation, discriminates against thousands of men who enlisted or were drafted, for the Armed Forces. The legislature under this amendment could establish scholarship program for Vietnam conflict veterans, but they must have been awarded a Vietnam campaign medal. Our vote is "no".
6. Property assessment is real tough subject for most people. Amendment 6 sets a maximum value for tax purposes which is not to exceed 33-1/3 percent. Passage of this amendment would protect property against excessive taxation. It is needed legislation, we will vote "yes".
7. Too much property now exempt from taxation. We'll vote "no" on exempting water user cooperatives.
8. We believe a "yes" vote for Amendment 8 to be a good vote. Passage of this amendment would repeal Article 9, Section 5, of Constitution which reads as follows: "The provision of Section 1 of this Article shall not be changed altered or abrogated in any manner except through a general convention called to revise this Constitution." A "yes" vote on Amendment 8 would permit amendment of Article 19 without calling a constitutional convention. Article 19 is the section requiring extraordinary majorities, 3/4s of the voters voting.

9. This amendment is considered to be a mandate for the Legislature to provide for the control of pollution in New Mexico. We need it, will vote "yes".
10. This Amendment deletes the authorization for state-wide property tax levy for support of public schools. It also deletes the provisions for 1) distribution of the current school fund; 2) a minimum school year of five months, and a school reserve fund. "Yes" vote recommended. Sale of liquor on Sunday in New Mexico is on a local (county) basis. New Mexico bars and private clubs have been selling drinks on Sunday during all but seven of the past 28 months. No problems have developed in Lincoln County during this period. You can vote your way, same as you can on the previous 10 questions.

October 21 was a special day for Vincoot "Dutch" Reil but it was also a work day. Dutch was celebrating his 93rd birthday by putting away some cans of paint when the News photographer came to visit. On Friday his family of Mr. and Mrs. Buster Smoot, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gallacher and family, Linda, Kimberly and Pat Moore and Mrs. Reil helped him mark the occasion with a birthday party.

Mary Meyer, language arts and art teacher in Carrizozo, has an unusual background for her teaching. At age three she went with her parents who were Lutheran missionaries to Japan and lived there 10 years, plenty long enough to learn the Japanese language. Back in the States she attended the University of Southern California and received a B.A. Degree in History, all of this plus a natural flare for art is motivation for a wide range of art projects in Carrizozo School. Miss Meyer's parents live in El Paso.

The many faces of Halloween are looking at you here, part on the wall part standing and some in chairs. The faces were made by Zozo 7th and 8th grade girls under direction of Mary Meyer. The other faces belong to John Chavez, Deborah Lynn Vega, Michael English, Esther Miller, Rosanne Herrera, Lee Vega, Miss Meyer, Kelly Lee, Billy Bob Shafer, Mich Colwell, Curtis Maxwell, Yvonne Pacheco and Brenda Lindsay.

NAVAJO vs. HAGERMAN, ZOZO vs. MELROSE

State Class A playoffs next week

Melrose wrapped up the District 2A championship with 46-16 win over Vaughn while Carrizozo was doing the same in District 3A at Reserve winning handily 60-0.

These two teams will meet next week at place not yet designated in playoff game going into state championship game the following week.

In District 1A Navajo Mission has one game remaining and should play Hagerman the District 4A champion, also at place not designated.

These two games shape up as much better and more evenly matched contests than in past years. Melrose lost its first two games then won six in a row and is 3-0 in league play. Hagerman has only lost one game, that to Dell City, Texas, and has six wins against the loss. Navajo Mission played McCurdy Mission, Wingate, Chinle, Dulce, Thoreau, Aztec B, Zuni and plays Mountainair this week.

Carrizozo's State champion

Grizzlies have a win streak going back into the 1970 season and will be placing this along with the title on the line when Carrizozo plays Melrose either Friday or Saturday of next week.

Walt Wilson of Ancho has been appointed by Gov. Bruce King to serve on the three-man Grass-hopper and Other Range Pest Control Board. The function of this state board is to certify areas as needing state help with pest control and to make recommendations to the federal government.

Archuleta is grad at Marine School

San Diego - Marine Pfc. Guillermo F. Archuleta, son of Mr. and Mrs. Florencio Archuleta of Carrizozo, N.M., has graduated from recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Liberty National joins Bank Securities

Alamogordo, N.M. -- T. A. Bonnell, President of Bank Securities, Inc., and Mr. Winford Carille, President of the Liberty National Bank, today jointly announced that their respective Boards of Directors have approved an agreement for the Liberty National Bank to become a member of the Security Family of Banks through an exchange of stock.

The proposed agreement is subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Liberty National Bank and of all regulatory agencies including the Comptroller of Currency and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System.

Bank Securities, Inc. now operates six banking institutions in the State of New Mexico and is in the process of seeking approval to acquire the First National Bank of Roswell and the First National Bank of Portales to become members. With the approval of these and the Liberty National Bank, Bank Securities, Inc. would have 29 locations in New Mexico with total assets of over $175,000,000.

Under the terms of the agreement, Mr. Winford Carille would be elected to the Board of Directors of Bank Securities, Inc. In a separate statement, Mr. Carille stated that "people in this area have given this bank their whole hearted support; and in our effort to repay this debt, we have always searched for better ways to serve them. We believe through becoming a member of the Security Family of Banks, we can do this."

School appoints hearing authority

A new title has been designated and new person appointed to an official position by Carrizozo school board at its last meeting --for work that may never have to be done. The board appointed a local school patron as "hearing authority" for the sole purpose of hearing, and hopefully settling, arguments that might come up between students - teachers - patrons - board, etc. This "hearing authority" is expected to hear both sides of any argument and seek a solution if possible.

Other action taken by the board of education included:

- Hearing report on budget, cash in bank, lunch fund and activity fund.
- Approval of transfer of funds, $10,979 from general building fund to principal fund.
- Discussed second evaluation meeting held with State Department of Education October 14, when behavioral objectives were worked out. Items of testing for seniors at end of year were started. Next meeting will be December 1.

Halloween motif at sorority meeting

Xi Beta Epsilon of Beta Sigma Phi held its second regular October meeting in the ranch home of Mrs. Frank W. Sultemeier, Jr. President Sherrill Perkins was in charge of the business session. Mrs. Melvin Sultemeier read the Exemplar ritual for Mrs. Frank W. Sultemeier, Jr., with the ritual table covered by a white cloth with the sorority insignia, a tall white taper, and the traditional yellow rose.

Mrs. Royce Washburn presented the program on "Kitchens" developed from the outline "The Home We Make." Roll call was answering the question, "What is the first consideration in planning a kitchen?" Members were given paper on which to diagram their dream kitchen and then were asked to make any desired changes as the discussion progressed. Mrs. Washburn recommended a minimum kitchen space of one hundred feet and a maximum of one hundred seventy square feet. She compared the advantages of the U. L. one wall and corridor types and compared types of counter tops, wall and floor coverings. She ended by reading "A Kitchen Prayer."

Mrs. John Tracey gave the worlds for the month--banteary, opprobrium, baningism, and cryosurgery.

The dining room decorations were in the Halloween motif with gold wool flowers and a jack-o-lantern centerpiece. The hostess served fresh apple cake with whipped cream, nuts, candies, coffee and spiced tea.

Members present were Mrs. Rogene Alford, Mrs. Jack Davidson, Jr., Sherrill Perkins, Mrs. R. A. Perkins, Mrs. M. Sultemeier, Mrs. Tracey, Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. John D. Holleyman and Mrs. F. Sultemeier Jr.

Catherine Cornett, and the hostesses, Rachel West and Julia Sherrill.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Martin, of Los Angeles, California, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards of Summit, New Jersey, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Carrizozo, and enjoyed some sight seeing around Opcura. They had been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Gladys Moore, in El Paso.

Mr. Bob West of Tularosa was a guest of Mrs. Rachel West and Mr. and Mrs. Joe G. West Saturday.

Mrs. Kino Ortiz accompanied her brother, Mr. Chop Oroco of Tularosa, on a trip to West Virginia. They were gone ten days and saw a lot of beautiful country. They went through Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Virginia. They arrived home Thursday.

The Sunshine Class of the First Baptist Church will meet next Tuesday at 7 P.M. at the home of Mrs. Bill Miller.

Mrs. Edna Littleton is visiting her son in Silver City this week. Among those attending the football game in Reserve last Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Lock, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Sherrill, Miss Margaret Lane, Mrs. Don Means, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chavez and Johnnie.

porch busily spinning thread from wool as they chatted.

In Athens, we visited all the museums, the Acropolis and other ruins, as well as going to a supper club which featured traditional Greek folk music and dancing. So nice to have a grown son to take me to all these places. Also, we were lucky to be at the Acropolis the afternoon they were preparing for St. Paul's Day, which is held annually on a nearby hill where St. Paul first preached to the Athenians. It was very impressive. As you might guess, we really enjoyed Greece.

After four days there, we flew to Arabia with a short stopover in Beirut, Lebanon where Mike will attend school in September. It is a lovely city, and he looks forward to going there, I, too, to visit him.

The airport in Damman is one of the most beautiful I've ever seen. But, between there and here and in most parts around, there is nothing but sand dunes, camels, and oil wells. The temperature for July-September is from about 80 degrees at night to 110-120 in the day time. But, being so dry, one gets used to it quickly.

Living in Abqak is, bar none, the greatest. For $159 per month we are given a two bedroom house, worlds of storage, complete with all utilities. If I want anything fixed or changed, pick up the phone and call the proper office, within 2-24 hours someone repairs it, free.

Best of all, we live three short blocks from the huge recreation complex with two swimming pools, several banquet halls, theater has two shows daily changing every other day (doublets as church on Friday, Moslem weekend is Thursday and Friday).

Then there is an excellent dining hall, library, bowling alley, pool room, student recreational lounge and tennis courts. Across the street from that is the commissary, postoffice, barber shop, cleaners as well as a greenhouse etc.

Everyone is friendly and there is a constant round of bridge parties, Arabian Horse club meetings, baseball, basketball, water games, etc. Our only real item of expense is food, and on hot days we can go anywhere in camp by taxi for 44 cents.

About 60 miles away is el Khobas, a seaport town catering to Americans. One can buy most anything we want there, but at higher prices. Also, there are beautiful fabric shops, jewelry shops, and import shops featuring items from all over but emphasizing Middle Eastern things which are absolutely wonderful. Taxi fare round-trip there is about $15 with three hours free waiting time, so several women usually go together and it costs each of us $4-5.

Women can drive only inside the camps, so we must have men drivers out on the highway. Few people here even own cars as taxis are so cheap and we walk most everywhere. The men usually have company cars and can pick up groceries, or they will deliver the groceries to your house.

Now you see why I say this is as close to ideal living as one can find.

Mike started right in on one hour each day in typing, and Arabic, in addition the past two weeks he's helped with the 5th and 6th graders in Vacation Bible School. Also, he is in fact becoming the favorite child sitter and gets $1 per hour with $1.25 after midnight. He still finds time for youth beach parties, swimming etc.

Wes enjoys his work and is very busy. Since no liquor is allowed here, he watched them make white lightning and realized the quantity of sugar used in it, so he gave up drinking completely. Bought a case of Scotch for me and guests, but he drinks only grapefruit or other natural juices. As result he is down to about 168 pounds, runs a mile every night. He's getting back into his Masonic work, playing with the local baseball team and acting like a 25-year old, even though he still hasn't gotten his teeth!!

As I told you, Thursday and Friday is the Moslem weekend, so no mail goes out until Saturday. Have had a busy schedule, duplicate bridge, tea for wife of retiring manager, Garden Club, try to get some plants started. A woman gave me some African violets, but soil is very scarce. Tomorrow night is an affair at school. Wes is going for overnight to a well-site and fly in again Tuesday-Wednesday.

Always,
Opal and all

Opal Crenshaw writes homefolks

Opal Crenshaw Mills has written an interesting letter to homefolks from Saudi Arabia

Dear Robbie:
First of all, happy birthday again, this time from the Land of Arabian Nights.

We are all fine and enjoying life to the fullest.

Mike and I left Houston June 22 and flew to Amsterdam via Montreal. We spent four days in Holland seeing all the sights both in the city and out in the country. There aren't many old windmills left, and wooden shoes are only for the tourists, but the climate was delightful and one real highlight was a night cruise we took on the Amstel River and canals (500 miles of waterways in Amsterdam alone).

From there we flew on to Athens and felt as if we were back in South America. Whereas the American youth had taken over the parks of Amsterdam, the old school marms and old maids (American) were swarming all over Greece. Mike and I just spoke Spanish and even the shop keepers were surprised and would immediately reduce prices since we were "not Americanos." It was great fun and we even had some Spaniards baffled--the woman wanted to ask us from where we came, her husband would not let her. We just said Venezuelians when asked.

We took a 12-hour trip to Delphi to see the ruins of the Sanctuary of Apollo, eating lunch nearby and looking down to the sea across what is claimed to be the largest olive groves in the world.

Passing through the country side in early morning, we saw many men on horseback or donkeys, out looking over their fields which were usually filled with what we presumed were the women folk. Since we never saw their faces, only their bottoms turned up -- we couldn't be absolutely sure. Apparently, the women pull weeds by hand or with very short handled implements.

Returning in late afternoon, the men were all congregated in the village coffee houses and the women sat in groups on their trophy costs and I would like to donate one for some child. I have watched you riding on Sundays and I have never seen a finer bunch of kids.

So kids, I believe in you and while I watch you ride I wonder where that generation gap is that I have heard so much about. I watch you riding and I hear all those mothers and fathers cheering you on and I feel good inside knowing that children and parents do still pull together. The thing that really touches me is the way you kids cheer each other on. Even though it means that if your friend wins, that you might lose a blue ribbon, you still cheer on your friends. Now that's what I call good sportsmanship.

So kids, keep it up. When the whole world seems to be falling apart, flags are burned, parents disregarded. I see you kids pulling together, enjoying your parents and showing respect when the flag goes by. I see a bunch of kids out in the arena and I hear the National Anthem being played and I feel good inside.

I am not worried about the younger generation-not when we have kids like you. I have never seen a hipple cowboy. I have never seen a kid brought up like you who would turn around and burn the flag. I have faith in you and the younger generation and I feel great pride in you. Sincerely, A friend

Which side for the butter?

Lt. Gov. Robert Mondragon and lovely wife were welcomed at the annual convention of New Mexico Press Association and Gov. Robert was a big hit singing with guest chorus from Las Cruces. One of his remarks made a hit of another kind, right on the head of many small towners, especially those in the areas of dwindling population.

Mondragon was born in La Loma near Anton, Chio in the northwest part of Guadalupe County. He does not want his home area - or New Mexico at large - to grow in population. He welcomes all visitors and tourists to our state and after they have spent their money he wants them to go home.

Should it be this way - that rural areas like Lincoln, Torrance and most of Otero County should strive to hinder all growth - while a few areas become population centers. Going that route, you eventually eliminate the small town way of life with schools, churches and business places . . . a way that has served our country well for generations.

Would it be best if Carrizozo stayed just like she is today, with all those priceless, unoccupied buildings that can be pointed to as a way of life when railroad was big here, when ranches employed cow and sheep hands, when gravel roads were the only access, when bootlegging and pleasure houses were going concerns . . . times have changed some.

For the sake of starting an argument right here, let's choose up sides. On the side of trying to maintain small towns as a viable concern, able to supply all but the fanciest needs of local residents - we would put a small minority of people now living in such towns. Mainly those in business and not including teachers, preachers, ranchers, railroaders, government employees, and only one of every ten old-timers.

It would be beautiful if most New Mexicans could honestly say, and believe - this small town way of life that was so wonderful for our grandparents is really what I want and need today - sorry it is not that way. Allegiances have changed, away from family, church, town or small farm or ranch. It has become too easy to pack up and move. Roots at home don't mean what they used to because towns have lost the "togetherness" that existed before interstate highways, television, government installations, air travel and what not made us into a moving society.

While back to Robert. He may get what he wants, we think, but probably not the way he wants it. Towns and things just don't stay the same, nor has the life of his people stayed the same, even during the past two decades. They either get better or worse, bigger or smaller, - the only thing around New Mexico that hasn't changed since statehood is politics.

There is no way to stop development when the time, place and need is right. Outside money will flow in faster than water down the Rio Grande. Forces little known this year will have an impact on our state in the 80s. Of course, your writer is one of that small minority who prefers rural life in a town that is "living" in the present. And, one added thought to conclude - the most important single item on the agenda of any small town or county where exists even the most remote chance of growth or development - should be controls for orderly and proper development suitable to the home folks. Make no bones about the thinking of this writer. We like some butter on our bread and it all comes from business in the home area.

duct leading from main venom gland to fang. Duct is tied in two places out between the ties, and exposed ends are electro-coagulated to cauterize blood vessels and stop bleeding. w-w Other item tells about razing four business buildings, one built in 1884 and believed to be oldest commercial building in the city. At least four look real attractive, but probably the old theatre building is no longer needed. A savings and loan association bought the bunc and will build new office on the land. w-w Swiped from Duffy One way to be popular is to listen closely to a lot of things you already know. Some people can't tell the difference between working up steam and generating a fog. How's that again? Dept. A bigamist is a man who leads two wives. A hobo is a migratory stinker. A sports car is a status thimble and the Queen of Witches would like to be called Sweeping Beauty. Life begins at forty - and so do fallen arches, bad teeth, falling eyesight and the tendency to tell the same story to the same person several times.

It was an exceptionally warm Halloween evening, in southern California. I and several other handicapped people were sitting on the patio of our home, a former motel now converted to quarters for young adult "handicaps."

We'd already given our supply of candy to all the little trick-or-treaters who had come calling. Now we were nervous. The callers were getting bigger and bigger. And we had read the newspaper reports of beatings and purse snatchings by juvenile delinquents in the neighborhood.

When five hulking teen-agers in masks came up to us, not saying a word, we were uneasy. I managed a nervous smile and explained that they were too late for their treat.

"That's all right, lady," one of them said. Then, as one by one the boys stepped toward our wheelchairs and emptied their bags of goodies into our laps, he added, "We've come to treat you."

That turned Waldo undoubtedly stood on the sidelines and barked while Otis was busy saving his skin and fighting off the foe that had jumped the fence into his own private yard.

Couple of interesting items in Osawatimie Graphic-News sent by Webster Hawkins from Kansas, a guest speaker at Press Convention. A native of Osawatimie has developed a method of transforming a poisonous snake into a harmless, non-lethal reptile with a simple surgical operation. Now all we need is for Bud, Ron and Bill to gather up all the rattlers in Lincoln County for anesthetizing (snake can be put to sleep for up to a week) so small incision about five to eight millimeters long can be made in the jaw, to expose small

New book tells of forgotten figure

An almost forgotten figure of New Mexico history who played a dramatic role in frontier events of the 1870's comes "alive" in heroic stature in a book published this week.

In the book, "The Morleys-- Young Upstarts on the Southwest Frontier," W. R. Morley's spectacular career reads like fiction. As a young newspaperman, W. R. Morley fought political corruption and was the near-victim of a murder plot.

As a young engineer, he navigated the 2,000,000-acre Maxwell Land Grant.

As a railroad locator, he beat the D. & R. G. into Raton Pass and won right-of-way for the Santa Fe Railroad. A few months later, in the famous race of man-on-horseback vs. locomotive he beat the D. & R. G. into the Royal Gorge.

He located the route of the Santa Fe across New Mexico. He built the railroad that connected the Southwest with Guaymas, Mex. He located the route of the railroad that runs from El Paso to Mexico City. He was accidentally killed while locating this route -- and at the age of 36 had accomplished more than many men in twice as many years.

He was a central figure in the Colfax County War and was involved in the investigation that led to the removal of Governor Artell and the appointment of Lew Wallace, author of "Ben Hur", as Governor of New Mexico.

McGREGOR RANGE GRAZING CONTRACTS DETERMINED

Livestock forage contracts on two hundred-thirty four thousand (234,000) acres of grazing land on McGregor Range were awarded to the highest bidder on October 12, 1971 at the Las Cruces office of the Bureau of Land Management.

J. W. Young, District Manager for the Las Cruces District stated that a total of 24 bids were received ranging from $1.38 to $3.30 per animal unit month.

High bidders for nine grazing units on McGregor Range are: B. B. Johnson, Orogrande, New Mexico; Ralph Rainwater and Edward Bryan of Scholle, N. Mex.; Jim Irwin, Clayton, N. Mex.; Tom Deek, Stanley, N. Mex.; Buck Harvey, Encino, N. Mex.; Gerald Greeman, Daming, N. Mex.; Don Lee and Mike Pittman of Alamogordo, N. Mex.

The grazing unit on McGregor Range has not been awarded. Grazing unit 14, was previously offered on October 12, 1971 and two bids were received. However, since the bidders were awarded another unit there was no successful bidder on Unit 14.

This grazing unit is being re-offered and bids will be accepted until 1:30 p.m. November 4, 1971. Unit 14 contains approximately 12,000 acres and is set up to be grazed by 500 cattle for a six month grazing period beginning on Employers being interviewed!

Have you seen some girls wandering over town carrying important looking papers recently? They are probably members of the class in Marketing Home Economics Skills on their way to interview employers in the town of Carrizozo. Each set of interviewers is armed with a set of questions for which the class is seeking answers in order to get a better picture than they now have of what the employment opportunities in the town might be and what kinds of characteristics employers want in their workers.

After as many employers as can be located are interviewed the class plans to summarize their findings. They expect to come out of this experience with some clear-cut ideas of what employers expect and they plan to share these ideas with the rest of the vocational classes in Carrizozo High School. Class members are Donna Wells, Margie Zamora, Geneva Narvaez, Margaret Mourreal, Rosie Fortio, Carol Fortio and Ruby Romo.

Get ready! Get set! Go plan some great meals during November, using plentiful foods! The U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service reports a host of plentiful, featuring pork and rice in the spotlight. Other foods on the November list include: potatoes and potato products, prunes and prune juice, cranberries, cranberry sauce and cranberry juice cocktail, fresh and canned pears, turkeys, eggs and hollander-fryers.

The November output of pork will be seasonally large and will probably equal the record high of a year ago. Plan to put pork on your shopping list for what beats a hot juicy, succulent pork roast for appetite appeal?

Speaking of pork: whether you're superstitious or not, you will find that the pig rates mention in the proverbs of many nations. As you might expect, the Irish have a number of superstitious sayings about the pig. They consider it a good luck symbol. One of the ancient names for Ireland is "Pig Island" apparently a reference to the abundance of pigs there. Illness can be averted the Irish say, by walking three times around a pig pen. But watch out for black pigs—they are a "bad sign."

A "good sign" for November eating also concerns a saying about pork from the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Consumer and Marketing Service: "Pork is plentiful." Remember that when you're shopping this month, and stock up on pork cuts to please your family.

You'll find that pork has "pick-up" power, for it is rich in thiamine, a B-complex vitamin, and also supplies other B vitamins and iron. It's a good source of protein, too. Variety meats are rich in these nutrients. In addition liver is an especially good source of vitamin A.

Appearance of pork serves as an important guide to quality. Choose meat, either fresh or cured, that has a high proportion of lean to fat and bone. The flesh should be firm and fine-textured. Color of the lean in fresh pork may range from grayish pink to red. Lean cured pork has a typical deep pink color.

All fresh and processed meat products that are shipped from one state to another must bear a mark of federal inspection. Each wholesale cut of an inspected and passed carcass is stamped with a round inspection mark. A number designating the plant at which the animal was slaughtered is included. This inspection mark indicates that the meat came from a healthy animal and was processed under sanitary conditions. The stamping fluid is harmless and need not be trimmed from the meat before cooking.

To combine two of the plentiful foods for November, try this combination of Pork and Rice:

- Ham and Cheddar Rice
- 6 fully-cooked ham slices, cut 1/2 inch thick (about 2 pounds)
- 4 cups hot cooked rice
- 4 ounces natural Cheddar cheese, shredded (1 cup)
- 1/4 cup sliced green onion (with tops)
- 2 tablespoons snipped parsley
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Slash edges of ham slices. Broil 2 inches from heat for 4 minutes on each side. Toss together rice, cheese, onion, parsley, and salt. Arrange rice mixture on platter; top with ham slices. Makes 6 servings.

Capitan News
By Margaret Rench
Good news. We had near two inches of rain, slow and easy and then heavier Sunday night and Monday and Monday night. Today is trying to snow. That moisture was great. Our country needs it so very badly.

Mr. A. E. Davis finished loading and shipping their cattle Sunday evening before the rain came which was good luck of which they did appreciate.
Monday morning six big stock trucks were waiting to go to Bill Edwards. They waited until very late. Tuesday morning two more big trucks came in. There were lots of loads of cattle and sheep going by. It is that time of year.

This moisture is grand and we do hope it continues all winter as then we would have some submoisture. The grass hoppers are just begging and are thick near buildings. They want shelter. But I do hope freezes get them for this year. There are millions. Thanks to the late rains they did hatch late.

The White Mountain peaks are very white. The rain yesterday took the soot from Nogal peak. Surely it will return soon.
Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lindamood of Alto and Mr. and Mrs. Manille Badilla of Ruidoso returned Oct. 18th from a Postmasters Convention Tour in Hawaii. 800 took chartered planes to Honolulu. There was one week of island hopping which made all of them so very happy and such enjoyment to be remembered for a long time. All are back on their jobs again.

Mr. and Mrs. Badilla attended the Postmasters' Convention before going.
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Laay last Friday were Penny, Dale and one month old Lunetta Taylor of Ruidoso.

Mr. Emilio Zamora of Honda was in the home of his daughter Mr. and Mrs. Ramirez when he was taken seriously ill and they took him to the Ruidoso Hospital Thursday 21st and he underwent surgery Friday morning. He will have to remain there for several days. He is doing O.K. I wish you a good recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Freeman and Laura Wagner of Chicago are here now to spend two weeks on their ranch (the former Padilla ranch). They do like it here so much and are so very happy. I do wish them far more joy that I can ever express.

The Capitan Nazarene Church are now having carpet laid in the church. It is a pretty green. The inside has been painted recently. They do appreciate this improvement very much.

Mr. S. M. Cozzens was brought home from the Ruidoso Hospital where he had been for two weeks. His daughters Cornelia Grannis of Calif., Miss Marilyn Cozzens also of Calif., Miss Parsons of Ft. Sumner and Miss Jane Cozzens of Alamogordo are with him and their mother. He will be here for several days for a while. I wish him a good recovery. He has such a loyal family. All of the children have been so loyal and good. You just must get well.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newsom of Lovington spent the Holiday weekend in their home here.

Corona News
Miss Karen Holleyman won the goat tying at the N.M.J.R.A. finals in Albuquerque last weekend. This clinched her title as the state 1971 Goat Tying Champion.
Students of Mrs. David Stecher and young people of the Corona Presbyterian Church will be trick or treating for UNICEF this Friday night.

The Ritual of Jewels for Delta Theta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi in Mountainair was read by Miss Sherrill Perkins and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson at the home of Jackie Brown. Xi Beta Epsilon members assisting in the ritual were Mrs. John Tracey, Mrs. W.T. Tyree, Jr., and Mrs. Rogene Alford. Delta Theta members assisting were Mrs. Denzil Bates and Mrs. George Schillings.
Refreshments of cake, sandwiches, cookies, mints, punch and coffee were served from a lace covered table centered with the traditional yellow roses. The cake was a beautiful replica of the ritual table.
Pledges receiving their pins were: Linda Allen, Barbara Baca, Hazel Bickford, Jackie Brown, Judy Eschberger, Patsy Gustin, Beverly Luna, Doris McBride, Sue Sanchez and Eva Willborn, president.
Mr. and Mrs. A.F. Winchester and Alva Winchester spent the long weekend in Lubbock, Texas with their granddaughter and niece, Linda Miller.

The ladies of the Round Table Club met at the home of Mrs. Edgar Phillips last Thursday. It certainly was a pleasant day for me, and I hope they enjoyed it also.

Joe and Cathy Pflingsten spent the weekend with Joe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Pflingsten, and also attended the Barn Dance. They returned to El Paso Monday evening.
The "Barn Dance" held at Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Thomas big new barn was a complete success. It was hosted in part by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ward acting for the OLCMC honoring everyone who has ever helped with the "Billy the Kid" pageant. Everyone I have seen who was able to attend said that everyone there seemed to be having a
