Truck climbs car south of town

At 6:00 a.m. Sunday a truck driven by Bradford C. Grimm, with his son in the sleeper, was approaching Carrizozo from the south when the truck struck a car going the same direction, driven by Orlando Aguilar of Carrizozo. The truck climbed the rear of the car forcing it off the road to the left and the truck went out of control to the right, coming back on the highway where it jack-knifed and laid over on its side on the road. The accident was about 350 yards beyond the Carrizozo town limits. Assistant Town Marshal Eddie Sedillo and state police are continuing their investigation. The question seems to be whether the truck was going too fast to come to stop before hitting the car, or whether the car was going too slow. Aguilar claims he was traveling about 25 MPH. Grimm is in Carrizozo hospital with several broken ribs and lacerations. Aguilar was not injured.

Bids Called On 7.8 Miles

Letters to News indicate interest in Lincoln Co.

POPULATION EXPANSION
Population expansion and trends do definitely include Carrizozo and Lincoln County, even in the immediate future, as you well know. Implications regarding the long range aspects are in a sense more portent than those of the immediate future. However, neither can be neglected without very damaging, or even disastrous effects to Lincoln County and to the State of New Mexico. May 1, is no manner presumptuously, comment that it is of immediate necessity that -

1. Lincoln County thoroughly examine in minute detail its Land Development and Zoning Laws and Regulations. Such scrutiny not to exclude Water Resources and Waste Disposal. Any areas which, upon careful evaluation are not complete and specific, and enforceable, should be rewritten and duly enacted into County Laws and Regulations, insofar as Lincoln County has authority delegated in under State of New Mexico Constitutional provisions.

County requirements should be spelled out for both individual and private developers, and particularly for the "investment type" of developer, both large or small.

2. Efforts should be made to make State government in Santa Fe more aware of this necessity of such actions at state and county levels.

County and State elected representatives must be petitioned, and even pressured.

3. A "Crusade" by fellow New Mexico Publishers and Editors. Generally and specifically, States throughout the Nation have been woefully lax in these regards. An outstanding and Continued On Back Page

Mr. Paul Payton
Editor, Lincoln County News

Dear Sir:

It has been made my responsibility by the "St. Rita Parish Council," as Chairman of said council, to write and bring to the attention of the Town of Carrizozo, and you; a matter of grave importance. As you are probably already aware of the critical and dangerous conditions existing on the crossroads of U.S. 54 and Highway 380 and the main highway leading into town from the south; U.S. 54. This matter regards the proper warning of said intersections by stop lights and warning lights both west of the overpass leading into the crossroads from the east and into the intersection of U.S. 54 and 13th Street coming into town from the South.

We, the members of the Council, would back any or all organizations or citizens interested in bringing this to the attention of the State Highway Commission as it is my understanding that it comes under their responsibility.

In the past we (Citizens of Carrizozo) have experienced a number of serious accidents and near fatal catastrophes at these intersections involving one or two vehicles and/or big tractor trucks which if not by some grace of God would very easily have ended in a great amount of personal injuries or deaths!

I am writing this letter in the hope that thru your great leadership ability amplified by the very excellent editorialship of your newspaper, we may obtain some Continued On Back Page

Billy and Jack Jackson have moved with their families from Las Cruces to Carrizozo where the two brothers have taken over operation of the Western Texaco Truck Center. Billy and wife Sandra have two children, Joan 5 and Sue 2, Jack and wife Olivia have three children, Lisa 5, Jack Jr. 2 and James 1 year. Jack is the older of the two brothers.

About 90 per cent of New Mexico state highway signs mean only half of what they say, like 40 MPH curve ahead is no problem at 60 MPH, but there are a few places on highways in this area where the signs mean exactly what they say -- the approach to Carrizozo from the south is one of them. Drivers who want to survive the curve into town had best start slowing down where the first sign says slow down.

Bob Means, Payton and Don Means hassle this highway sign situation over frequently, in fact about every time there is a wreck in the area. We always come to conclusion that each sign ought to mean what it says -- then people might start paying more attention to them. Yellow strips have their real bad spots too, none where needed, and a few where not needed.

Bartley McDonough, Capitan junior class sponsor, has told the News that he will personally refund the cost of admission to the junior class play to any dissatisfied customer. Bart says you may have to wrestle him first just to prove you are not satisfied -- after three short rounds you can collect.

Carrizozo's sports calendar took on much added interest this year with addition of wrestling and boxing in school. Eli Casey coached the wrestlers, one boy getting 4th in state and the team doing real well its first year on the mat. Nat Chavez is coaching the boxers and he came up with 139-pound novice champion at the

SCMRA completes 28 area projects

The South Central Mountain Resource Area met in Carrizozo Tuesday, March 2. The SCMRA has been operating three and one half years. To date, 74 Project Measures have been received. Of these, 28 have been completed. Three new project measures were accepted at the meeting: One trying to obtain a tourist center for Carrizozo, one for an over-all plan to landscape the Carrizozo Public School, and one for a recreation lake in Alamogordo.

Ray Polasky of the New Mexico State Forest Service presented the program. He gave a presentation on Christmas tree production. There is a great potential in this area for pruning and shearing native trees to make them more attractive and for tree plantations as an irrigated crop. He explained that trees of this nature can be harvested in eight years. The next SCMRA meeting will be in Ruidoso April 13.

INSIDE THE CAPITOL - By Fred Buckles

Sunday liquor will be on ballot at next election

SANTA FE -- Gov. Bruce King signed into law a Sunday liquor sales bill that cleared the Senate 25-15 and the House 38-29.

The Senate vote included: For the bill - Tibo Chavez, D-Belen; John Conway, R-Lincoln-Otero; Emmet Hart, D-Quay-DeBaca-Guadalupe; John Morrow, D-Coffax-Union-Harding; I. M. (Ike) Smalley, D-Luna-Hidalgo-Sierra and C. B. Trujillo, D-Taos. Against - Aubrey Dunn, D-Lincoln-Otero; Odis Echols, D-Cloviss; Finis Heidel, D-Lovington, and R. C. Morgan, D-Curry-Roosevelt.

Sunday liquor sales will probably start July 4. The law requires a special $100 annual liquor license. The question of Sunday liquor sales will be on the ballot in each local option district in New Mexico at the next statewide election.

If voters approve Sunday liquor sales, the issue cannot be presented again for at least one year. The question can be placed on the ballot again by petition signed by voters equal to 10 per cent of the turnout for governor in the last general election.

The legislature completed action on a judicial districting bill and sent it to Gov. King. New judicial districts are created in Lincoln-Otero Counties and in Valencia-Sandoval Counties. A district judge and a district attorney will be assigned to both districts. Judicial districting cleared the house 54-11 and the Senate 34-7. The bill leaves District 8 unchanged - Coffax, Union and Taos Counties.

Rep. George Blocker, Jal Democrat, introduced a bill handing the State Corporation Commission authority to revoke the certificate of truckers-hauling general commodities who do not provide regular scheduled service.

Rep. Blocker is chairman of the House Transportation Committee set to consider the bill this week. Blocker says motor carrier service in Southeastern New Mexico is inadequate. He represents Lea County District 4 including Jal and Eunice.

A bill by Reps. Blocker and Clifton Moreland, D-Tucumcari, to allow peace officers to pick up suspended or revoked driver licenses was set for final House action this week. Moreland is House Transportation Committee vice chairman.

A Tucumcari delegation visited the legislative session. Included were City Manager Bill Gordon, City Attorney Robert Rowley, City Commissioners Norman Wagner and Pete Gonzales, Urban Renewal Director Walter Posey, Mayor Kenneth Schilenz and Frank Baum, Urban Renewal Authority chairman.

attention of the public the opinion of many that the Vietnam War is illegal.

Sen. Trujillo sponsored a bill legalizing slot machines in New Mexico under a State Gaming Commission. The proposal was in the Senate Finance Committee. Trujillo is on the committee. The commission would be composed of the attorney general and four governor-appointed members.

Fees would be $1,000 per slot machine annually plus a per cent of gross revenues of slot machine licensees geared to a sliding scale. Public schools would receive 75 per cent of receipts from fees. Counties would get the remaining 25 per cent.

Rep. Ralph Petty, D-Lincoln-Sierra, introduced a series of horse racing bills. They would remove favored treatment now accorded racing at the State Fair in Albuquerque in payment of state taxes. Another Petty proposal requires the governor to name a State Racing Commission member from each county with a horse racing track. The bill bans commissioners from holding a substantial financial interest in a business that sells goods or services to a commission licensee. The proposal defines the interest as more than 20 per cent of stock ownership by the commissioner, his wife or children.

The House passed 37-30 a public employe collective bargaining bill and sent it to the Senate after a 3-1/2 hour debate. The vote on the piping hot issue included: For the bill - Reps. Richard Carbajal, D-Belen; Alvin Castillo, D-Coffax; Fred Luna, D-Los Lunas; William Upton, D-Luna-Hidalgo, and Alfonso Vigil, D-Taos.

Against the bill - Reps. John Bigbee, R-DeBaca-Guadalupe-Torrance; Blocker; Robert Johnson, R-Cloviss; Moreland; Hoyt Pattison, R-Curry County; Ralph Pruitt, R-Cloviss, and Petty.

Reps. Luna and Carbajal introduced separate bills taxing mobile homes. The bills were in the House Taxation-Revenue Committee on the highly controversial topic. The legislation provides for taxes and fees on house trailers on a scale. Reps. Bigbee, Castillo and David Salman, D-Union-Mora-Harding, cosigned Luna's bill. Salman is Democratic House majority leader.

Rep. Blocker was pushing for environmental pollution controls acceptable to industry. The senior House member in service with 14 years doubted Climax Chemical Co. at Monument in Lea County could comply with stiff rules proposed in some pending bills. The House Natural Resources Committee finally forged a compromise bill set for House action later.

Rep. Bigbee won House approval 44-17 on an amendment to a major public school finance bill that will aid nine small school districts. The districts and their expected 1971-72 enrollments: Maxwell, 140; Grady, 165; Corona, 165; Quemada, 180; Mosquero, 134; Hoise, 103; Causey, 90; Elida, 135; Encino, 160.

Coach Gerald Lee of Carrizozo was honored by District 5A sports officials by being selected as basketball Coach of the Year. Towns in the district include Capitan, Hondo, Ruidoso, Cloudcroft, Lake Arthur, Hagerman, Dexter, Jal and Eunice. Shown with Coach Lee is his son David who made the All-District team in the recent tournament at Dexter.

News And Notes

There must be a week set aside for almost everything and the peanut is no exception. National Peanut Week is observed March 3-13, 1971. While the peanut has its week it might be good to clarify a few things. The peanut isn't really a nut at all. They are frequently called goobers (short for goober peas) and are classified as legumes, in the vegetable family. Many countries, because of the way they are grown, refer to peanuts as ground nuts.

Before the Civil War peanuts were grown only in Central Virginia. Soldiers coming from various states tasted peanuts there for the first time, and took some of the plants home with them. Today, peanuts are important marketing items in many states, including Georgia, Virginia, North and South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Oklahoma, Arizona, New Mexico, Tennessee, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Texas and California. Yearly consumption of peanuts and peanut products is now about 8 pounds per person.

From a flavor standpoint, peanuts have a special kind of appeal. But more important is their nutritive value. They are a good source of protein and contain valuable fat which is needed daily for energy.

For a between meal snack try adding about two tablespoons of peanut butter to a vanilla milk shake. Your blender makes such good milk shakes for all the family. Many like to combine chocolate with peanut butter, so try chocolate peanut shakes too.

A mighty good sandwich filling is combining 1/4 cup finely chopped peanuts with 1 cup flaked tuna or salmon. Add 2 finely chopped sweet pickles, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, mayonnaise and a dash of paprika. On whole wheat or white bread this is a delightful crunchy sandwich for any snack or meal.

With all the varied things that can be done with peanuts and peanut butter, no wonder it takes a special week to tell about them.

By Jackie Silvers

The past week was a very busy one in which we had many visitors and all of them we enjoyed, found very charming and interesting. They came from Rawlins, Wyo., Bloomington, Minn., Alkinson, Nebr. and Walcott, Ind. From towns in New Mexico Espanola, Alamosa, White Sands M.R., Cedar Crest, Carrizozo, Tularosa, Albuquerque, Tucumcari, Glenrio, Roswell and Santa Fe.

Last Tuesday the 23rd of Feb. the remains of Mrs. Izora Sparkman were laid to rest in the White Oaks Cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Levene Snodgrass of Las Cruces were the only members of the family to attend these last rites. They were accompanied by Billy Norman Irwin, their cousin also of Las Cruces. A large number of friends gathered at the cemetery for the Memorial Service, which was sad but very impressive and delivered by Rev. Jones of Las Cruces. From Ancho Bryan Hightower, George Straley, Sara Jackson and Jackie attended. After the services Mr. and Mrs. Friday Sherrill hosted a coffee at the Four Winds for all who attended. This was a very lovely gesture on the part of Alma and Friday and it gave Albie and Levene the opportunity to visit with old time friends and neighbors before returning to their home in Las Cruces. This courtesy by the Sherrills was held in the banquet room of the Four Winds Restaurant.

Mr. Elliott Moore, who formerly managed the Foster Ranch and lived in the Jicarillas but more recently lived in Carrizozo has moved back to the Wilson Ranch and we welcome Elliott back to our community. He has his trailer home parked at the Wilson's. We are glad and happy to report Elliott's health has greatly improved. Also glad and happy to report our good friend Barney Wilson, who has been so very seriously ill in the Carrizozo Hospital, is somewhat improved, we are grateful and very hopeful now for his complete recovery.

We have enjoyed two nice snows Saturday and Sunday nights. The beauty as well as the much needed moisture was greatly appreciated.

Bill Ward and his helpers have finished putting a new floor in the Wortley Hotel dining room.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry visited their children in Albuquerque for a weekend. As Henry and Patsy Vigil and their little daughter now live in Albuquerque, as do Alfred and Henry Jr. and their families, they have lots of visiting to do when they go there.

Mr. and Mrs. Racher continue to furnish their lovely little house and have been putting in their wood-burning Franklin stove.

Manuel Bena videz went to Albuquerque to visit his daughter, Juanita Caljeron and children and came home with a new pickup.

We had to miss the last Bingo party and fine meeting but every one who went had a fine time, they tell me.

Ramon Maes has been doing some work on his little house and the Bakers, next door to it, have been planing and working on their place.

Mrs. Alta Crumpsten entertained the Round Table Club members last Thursday in her home. Everyone said that they had such a good time and enjoyed her paintings so much. She is quite adept at painting pictures as well as other arts such as knitting, etc.

Mary Helen LaMay entertained the club members belonging to her painting group recently. There are many people in this area who are quite talented and who deserve and give a lot of pleasure to others while enjoying it themselves.

The John Thomas have all of the shingles on their big barn. Now everyone wants a barn like Johnny's.

A letter from Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Zumwalt who are living in Duncan, Arizona for the winter came from Tucson, Arizona. They were at the home of their friends Dr. and Mrs. Magee and Edna plans to stay until Mrs. Magee recuperates from recent surgery. Come warm weather we hope they will be back here.

Roberta Lucero, sophomore from Lincoln, has been named to the dean's honor list for the fall semester at the University of New Mexico college of nursing.

The Pen and Brush Group had a work-day at the R.E.A. building in Carrizozo the 25th of February. Those present were Mrs. Pat Flalley, Geneva Walker, Mary Helen LaMay, Jonnie Stout, Eva Zumwalt, Dorothy Guck and Mr. Robert Sully. Elizabeth MacVeigh and Bud Payne visited with the group. Plans will be made for exhibition of the painter's work in early spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Greer are the proud grandparents of a new baby boy born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barnum of Truckee, California. He weighed 5 pounds and they have named him Russell Glynn.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Smith of Nogal attended a big celebration in Roswell over the weekend, with the dedication ceremonies of the Watch Repair Training Center, and the first class graduation in watch repair, held in the Adult Education Center of the Roswell campus. There were five graduates in the first class and they now are able to fix any kind of watch made. Mr. Smith will graduate next year. On Friday night, they attended a banquet honoring Mr. Felix Schwyder, the Ambassador of Switzerland to the United States. Several prominent people from Switzerland attended the banquet, among them the President of Watch Makers of the Switzerland Information Center, Inc., N.Y., the federation of Swiss watch manufacturers, and the Burgenmeister of Switzerland.

Nogal is a pretty special place to live. It is a wonderful thing the way the Community helps out a family during the loss of a loved one. The Stearns family is deeply appreciative to all of you.

Josie Sitton is home from the hospital now and able to get up and move around some. We're so glad to have her back.

"Vacation Plan"

Four couples who lived on the same street in a suburban community concocted a vacation plan that worked so satisfactorily that they plan to do it again. "We four couples went together and rented a country house for two months," explained one of the husbands to a friend. "Each couple spends their two-week vacation there, taking care of all 13 children." "Great Scott!" exclaimed the friend. "I wouldn't call taking care of 13 children a 'vacation'—though it would be wonderful for the kids, I guess." "Oh, the two weeks were hell," admitted the man. "The 'vacation' was the six weeks home without the kids!"

AAU girl basketball tourney at Gallup

Gallup, New Mexico (Special)—The girls basketball teams which enter the second annual New Mexico AAU-Junior Olympic basketball championships here next month will face a lot of stiff local competition.

Last year, Desiree Ortega of Gallup, who was ill, was slowed down by a broken toe, but played anyway with her leg in a walking cast and her team, The Indian City Rockettes, won the 12-and-under division. Desiree and the Rockettes will be back again this year.

Her father, Gilbert Ortega, was named this week chairman of the Gallup AAU-Junior Olympic Board for Girls Basketball which will run this year's championship tournaments.

Thirty teams of girls up to the age of 18 played in last year's three tournaments. Forty-eight teams, 16 in each of three divisions, can compete in this year's playoffs which are scheduled for March 26-27. Entries are due March 23.

There was some confusion last year when the St. Michaels, Ariz. Hawks won the 15-and-under New Mexico championships. Arizona teams were included in last year's New Mexico championships since Arizona did not have state playoffs.

Washington Report

From Your Congressman
HAROLD RUNNELS

After a slow start the 92nd Congress is beginning to get down to some of the serious business at hand, with the spotlight in the House initially being on the Appropriations Committee and the Armed Services Committee.

The Appropriations Committee started hearings late last week on President Nixon's budget for fiscal year 1972, while the Armed Services Committee, of which I am a member, started hearings on the draft and the all-volunteer army concept.

I'll have more to say on the all-volunteer army in a future column, but this week I would like to talk briefly about the matter of revenue sharing, one of the more controversial proposals in the President's budget.

President Nixon, in his State of the Union message, proposed that $5 billion in federal revenues be distributed to state governments for use in any way they see fit.

These block grants, with no strings attached, represent a new concept although the matter of sharing federal revenues with the states and local governments has been a part of the American system of government since the very beginning.

Revenue flowing from the federal treasury to the states has been increasing steadily over the years, with categorical grants-in-aid last year reaching $24 billion, about one fourth of all revenues available for domestic use.

There appears to be widespread agreement on the responsibility of the federal government to provide financial aid to the states. One of the reasons for this is that the federal tax structure, despite its shortcomings, is a more equitable and efficient producer of revenues than state and local tax systems that depend largely on sales and property taxes.

While there are many arguments for federal revenue sharing, it is questionable whether the President's Proposal will get very far in the current Congress. The President's request of $5 billion is included in a budget which, according to the most optimistic estimates, will have a deficit of $11 billion.

With this being the case, it is questionable whether Congress will go along on such a new, untried proposal. Nevertheless, there is no denying that many of the states are in dire financial trouble and will be looking to the federal government to bail them out.

While the President's proposal isn't given too much of a chance in this Congress, there is a possibility that some sort of new revenue sharing proposal may be enacted if not in this session at least by next year.

One of the alternative proposals is for the federal government to take over administration and operation of all state welfare programs. After all, increasing welfare costs is one of the big reasons many states, including New Mexico, are having a difficult time keeping up with expenditures.

This in itself is a relatively new concept in federal revenue sharing and the matter will be debated at great length. There are many arguments in favor of such a proposal, and the New Mexico Legislature was one of the first to adopt a resolution advocating such an undertaking.

The whole matter of revenue sharing, whether it be outright grants to states or a total federal welfare system, will be one of the major issues in the current Congress. I will appreciate receiving your views on the matter.

News from the County Agent

Farmers and farm operators should not throw away their old bills too quickly. The Internal Revenue Service may request an assessment several years after an income tax refund is filed if your return is not in order. It is a good practice to keep records of ordinary receipts and expenditures for at least six years and preferably longer. Here are some suggestions:

You are on fairly safe grounds if you save records - other than those regarding depreciation and capital assets - for six years.

Keep records of land purchases, building costs, and other capital assets for the length of time you own these items. Most of these items are recorded in your depreciation schedule.

If there is a fraudulent or false return, intent to evade tax, or failure to file, the statute of limitations does not apply. The Internal Revenue Service may make an assessment at any time after the return was filed or should have been filed.

Lincoln County fruit trees were not damaged by the exceeding low temperatures that were experienced in other parts of the state. The four consecutive nights of 25 to 35 F below killed the cambium - the growth layer found between the bark and wood of the tree. The cambium is now turning brown to black indicating it was killed. It will be impossible to estimate the full extent of the damage until late spring after the trees are fully leafed out. If 50% of the bark is still alive the tree may recover.

I doubt if there will be many peach blossoms this year. Any time the temperature get minus 15 F or lower it generally kills the peach blossom in the bud. The apple blossoms are not likely to be affected.

At the Lincoln County Development Assn. meeting last week, several growers started plans to let people know when the apples are in bloom and encourage everyone to come at this time. It is a very enjoyable experience to see and smell the apple blossoms in full bloom. Normally they are in full bloom in mid-April.

Trials conducted by NMSU at Fort Stanton and Jornada Experiment Station were discussed at the Cattlegrowers Short Course by Dr. A. B. Nelson, Professor of Animal Science. No cost comparison was given for the different supplements. The animals receiving dry supplement either as cotton seed meal or combined with salt and milo gained as well as those on liquid supplement.

One interesting trial was of seven groups of yearlings on Tobosa pasture at the Jornada. The check group given only a mineral supplement gained 41 lbs. in 159 days. Two groups fed on cottonseed meal once a week at the rate of one pound per day gained 74 pounds. Two groups fed a 30% liquid protein supplement consumed two pounds per day and gained 94 pounds. Two groups fed two pounds of molasses per day gained 78 pounds.

Are you confused regarding soil fertility terms like major nutrients, minor nutrients, macro nutrients, and trace elements? In general, agronomists talk of major plant nutrients and minor (or trace) plant nutrients. Just what is the difference between the two, and what effect do they have on you as a homeowner. Major plant nutrients are required by plants in large amounts, and minor plant nutrients are required by the plants in much smaller amounts. A shortage of a major or minor nutrient prevents the plant from completing its normal growth or reproduction cycle. Nitrogen (N), phosphorus (P) and potassium (K) are considered major nutrients. These three nutrients are used by plants in large quantities. An average lawn may require 28 pounds of nitrogen, 15 pounds of phosphorus, and 13-16 pounds of potassium in one growing season.

Iron (Fe) and zinc (Zn) are common minor elements. The lawn discussed above may only require four ounces of iron and/or zinc during the same growing season.

The terms major and minor nutrients do not refer to the importance of the particular nutrient. All major and minor nutrients are essential for plant growth, and a deficiency of one or the other has a definite effect on the plant.

If the soil is not able to furnish the plant the necessary amounts of major or minor nutrients, these nutrients must be added in the form of a fertilizer. It can be put on as a ground or foliar application.

Cold sky and clouds over Capitan

March is starting out with cold sky and very cold with clouds floating around as promising some moisture. We do hope and pray for that. Our wet snow is nearly all gone and how we did appreciate that.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howard of Tularosa visited friends here in Capitan last week. They left word for me that their son-in-law, husband of Eva, M/SV.E. McCollum returned from Vietnam Feb. 22, 1971. I know his family who has been living in Alamogordo in his absence are very happy of his safe return. I believe this was his second tour of duty there. Eva teaches in Zia School for retarded children in Alamogordo.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Cozzens met their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kenny Cozzens, Cindy and Christie of Burbank, Calif., who arrived in Albuquerque by train last Friday and she will spend two weeks with them. Miss Jane Cozzens of Alamogordo joined them for the weekend.

Mrs. Howard Wright and her daughter Mrs. Terry Strickland and granddaughter Rhonda made a business trip to Roswell last Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mora Tittsworth of Tinnie and her niece Julie Ferguson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ferguson of Ventura, California, visited Mr. and Mrs. Champ Ferguson last Wed. at their ranch home.

Miss Patty Hartley of El Paso, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weyman Hartley visited her aunt and uncle Mr. and Mrs. Champ Ferguson, last Saturday.

Lots Alrich takes her husband Jack Aldrich to the Ruidoso Hospital last Thurs. afternoon as he was very ill with chest congestion. Get well! Jack.

The son born to Mr. and Mrs. Luther McInnes at the Roswell Medical Center Feb. 19 weighing 5 lbs. 13 oz. is Kenneth Winfield. We did not have his name.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Crandall and son Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Lee Crandall of Roswell surprised their mother and grandmother Mrs. Allie Taylor last Sat. night late by bringing her a carpet for her living room and bedroom and installing it. Also an antenna for her TV which they put up. Now Allie is enjoying that. She had her TV combination over two years but did not have an antenna. Now she is sitting in her lovely home very happy with these new furnishings. She lives on north hill and she receives the best TV reception of which I am so happy. What lovely children to give her such great happiness.

Erma Poag Adams passed away unexpectedly last Thurs. evening in her home in El Paso. Funeral services were held Mon. afternoon at 2 at the Presbyterian Church in Nogal and then laid to rest in the Angus cemetery.

Lorene Ferguson visited Mrs. Pearl Stearns in Nogal last Sun. afternoon.

Mrs. Jerry Foster visited Mrs. Hildie Polasky in the Ruidoso Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Polasky became the proud parents of a baby daughter, Amy Celeste, last Friday night and she lived only a few hours. She was laid to rest in the Capitan cemetery Monday afternoon. Her mother Hildie is O.K. I wish you a good and quick recovery.

Mr. Coy Whitten accompanied by his sister Leola Murphy and her grandchildren of Roswell came thru Capitan last Saturday, while enroute to hunt bottles for Coy's collection. His brother, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Whitten are now living and working in Roswell.

Irene Reiro made a business trip to Roswell last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Fillingim and Alice of Haskell, Texas spent last weekend at their ranch.

Leo Peralta is now home and on crutches with a brace on his right lower leg. He was seriously injured in a one car accident east of Capitan in December.

Torrez funeral held at Corona

Joe Torrez, son of the late Callistano and Juanita Torrez, and a lifelong resident of Corona passed away suddenly Saturday night at his home in Corona. Services were held Monday in St. Theresa's Catholic Church with interment in the Corona Cemetery.

He is survived by three brothers, Adolpho and Juan, Santa Maria, Calif. and Eddie with the U. S. Air Force in Germany, one sister, Pauline Luera, Grants, an uncle, Santiago Torrez, and an aunt, Mrs. Procopio Tafuya, Corona, and by several aunts and nephews, to all of whom our sympathy is extended.

This picture was taken by Ted Morse at the district tournament in Mountainair and shows members of the Corona Cardinal basketball team receiving their second place trophy.

The Corona Cardinals played Magdalena Friday night at Magdalena. The B team lost, but the A team came in and beat the Steers 85-65. The Cardinals played a good hard game.

Saturday night the Cardinals played the Vaughn Eagles. The Eagles had beaten the Cardinals early in the season in a overtime game. The Cardinals came in and showed the Eagles who was the best. The Cardinals won 73-41. This ended the Cardinals season with big smiles on everyones faces. The Cardinals record is 17-3, and they are #2 in 2A district. The Cardinals will go to the District Tournament next weekend, Feb. 25, 26, and 27. The Cardinals won't play until Saturday afternoon. We hope to see a lot of SPIRIT and SUPPORT.

The Jr. High team traveled to Encino February 12 to attend the Jr. High Tournament. The Freshmen and several Eighth graders lost to Magdalena. The Jr. High had a good season. We wish they would have had better luck in the tournament.

The Annual Staff is busy working trying to meet their dead line. If anyone would like a 1971 Cardinal please contact one of the members of the Annual Staff.

Many students are happy to hear that there is only 1 week left in this six-weeks, and only 13 weeks till school is out.

The Juniors are busy getting everything ready for the Prom. They have worked very hard to raise money.

Seniors are raising money for their Senior Trip. We hear they are going to Colorado this year.

The eighth grade made a trip Tuesday February 23 to Santa Fe to see the Legislature in action.

Last Tuesday February 16 the PTSA had a meeting. The meeting contain of a panel with the Parents on one side and the High School students on the other. We heard it was very good, and very successful.

Talent Night 1971 will be held April 6. The entry blanks must be in by March 17. The Talent Night is given by the Corona PTSA.

Remember Cardinals, we're all saying Good Luck in the District Tournament.

Mrs. Lucille Sheedy, Chicago, Ill. spent a few days last week with her grandson, Robert Williams, and family. She will visit in El Paso before returning to her home.

We were giving Walt Wilson and Weldon McKinley a bad time about how granddad made out at the ranching game real good without using any pesticides. For sure, it was one of those times when Pate could have been listening instead of talking. This week we get the full low on the ranching business. It starts off by saying, "Charlie, you couldn't even comb your hair without the livestock industry!" And finishes this way -- Even television sets use the livestock industry -- tubes are even protected in transit by contour molds made of curled hog's hair and rubberized hair. "There's a lot more to the livestock industry than the meat on your bone china plate."

Santa Fe Report From Senator John Conway

The House this week passed the judicial redistricting bill which makes Otero and Lincoln Counties the Twelfth Judicial District with a single judge and district attorney. Hopefully by the time you read this, Governor King will have signed the bill which has an effective date of July 1. He will appoint a district attorney to serve until the next general election and believe there will be sufficient funding to have a district attorney and an assistant. Needless to say, I am very pleased to see this bill pass as I introduced the bill in the Senate for Lincoln and Otero Counties, and worked hard for its passage. The Senate passed a bill originally introduced by Rep. Fetting of Alamogordo, which requires that criminal trials be held within six months from the date of arrest of the defendant. I had the privilege of carrying this bill on the Senate floor, and I believe that it is a major step forward in updating our criminal procedure. If the person arrested is innocent, then he should want to go on trial as soon as possible to prove his innocence. If the person arrested is guilty, then the State of New Mexico should want him tried as soon as is possible. A great number of crimes are committed by people who are out on bail awaiting trials, and this law should help stop this problem. I introduced a bill for mandatory sentences of anyone convicted of either the use or sale of drugs. This bill would require that the person serve 1/3 of the minimum sentence before he would be eligible for parole or pardon. The Federal Government has recently reduced the penalty for persons using marijuana, and unfortunately, I think the majority of the senators on the Judiciary Committee agree with this Federal provision. I am hoping that I will be successful in at least obtaining the mandatory sentencing for users or pushers of hard drugs. The highly controversial Sunday liquor sales bill passed the Senate and has been sent to the Governor. Under this bill, Sunday sales are permitted from twelve noon until midnight. The sales are permitted only by holders of a dispenser or club license, and the licensee must pay an additional fee of $100 to have the right to sell on Sunday. Assuming the bill is signed by the Governor, it would go into effect some time during the month of June. There is an option provision in the bill that places the question of Sunday sales on the next State-wide election, and the question will be "Shall Sunday sales of alcoholic liquor be made in this local option district?" With the proposed constitutional amendments and especially the one on 18 year-old voting, it is my understanding that we will have a State wide election this fall which will give everyone the right to vote on the Sunday sales question. I have discussed this matter with a great number of people, and practically everyone, whether they favored Sunday sales or not, indicated that the most democratic method would be to have an option provision where the people could vote on the question. The option provision is in the bill, it gives everyone the right to vote, which I agree is the most democratic way, and I voted for the measure.

Tuesday was the last day to introduce bills in either house, and there were 460 introduced in the House of Representatives and 452 introduced in the Senate. 271 of these bills were introduced on the last two days. With approximately 17 working days remaining, it will be extremely difficult to give full consideration to each bill. It is my understanding that both houses will have Saturday sessions, and time-wise I don't think I will be able to get back to the district on the weekend these last few weeks. I would hope that any of you who want to discuss any legislation will call my office in either Ruidoso or Alamogordo, as I am in daily contact with these offices. Those numbers are in Ruidoso 257-4678, and in Alamogordo 437-1840.

Finance Committee for the New Fair Building in Capitán, reports that Bill Payne, Attorney, of Carrizozo is the first 1971 contributor to building fund.

It is hoped that 1971 will be a banner year for contributions to the building fund. There is still about $14,000.00 owing on the building and some improvements still need to be made.

The Lincoln County Fair is an important county institution, and brings a wholesome competitive relationship to adults and young folks alike here in the county.

Let's all get behind it 100%, and preserve this part of our life in this county and make it better each year.

Population

 thoroughly amazing example of such laxity, haste and precipitous action may be witnessed in the new State of Alaska, particularly in their oil leases and land development "plans" and "arrangements". Alaska is not at all alone in this. Cities, towns, and Federal Government are now reaping a terrible harvest.

If a state, such as New Mexico "makes haste slowly" with full knowledge and intent, population and development will come to it. Population expansion, and population shifts can grant New Mexico a maturity and growth which it well deserves. However, why rush into it? It will come. But let it come to your State when it is prepared to receive it, and to control and regulate it.

These considerations cannot be minimized. They cannot, and must not be shrugged off, or temporized. The feeling that New Mexico is being left out, or that New Mexico deserves and must have its share of dazzling prosperity NOW -- this must not prevail. There is something precious and more than special about New Mexico and its inhabitants. It is true that "Old Ways" and "Old Customs" may be changing; but qualities such as dignity, morality, pride, and much worthy ability -- these are unchanging and continuing.

The intrinsic age old culture of the Indian, the cultures of the Spaniard, the Mexican and the Gringo should not be marketable. They are precious beyond price or irresponsible commercialization. Perhaps New Mexico may forestall and avoid much of sadness and confusion, and of grief -- if it may be well prepared to handle the population influx which is certain to continue, and certain to accelerate.

Perhaps there are further considerations which cannot be ignored. For example, should disastrous earthquakes in (for example California) alarm sufficient numbers of Californians to the extent that there will be an exodus from California, would there be an influx into New Mexico? Should it accelerate revolutionary and terrorist actions in congested parts of the country cause an influx of people into New Mexico, how would this be prepared for this? Could any state be adequately prepared? Should Pollution on the West Coast, the Great Lakes area, the East Coast areas become unendurable for those inhabitants, how many would immigrate to New Mexico. Implications of such possibilities should not be disregarded. At the least, enforceable zoning and land usage laws and regulations would surely be much better than inadequate ones. There are other implications, some of which are ominous and might well be further explored.

A Point To Clear Up
 Lincoln, New Mexico
 March 1, 1971
 Mr. Paul Payton
 Carrizozo, New Mexico
 Dear Editor:
 I would like to clear up a point or two in your last issue of the Lincoln County News about the Baca family labeled an interesting tale. Chronology of Killings in said county, by Fredrika Powell taken from a personal file belonging to Mr. Phillip Rasch, a Californian, who has been in Lincoln a few times. I have a clipping from your Lincoln County News written by an expert from Lincoln County Notoriety of the past which states and I quote, that after he had killed his wife and child a negro abducted a prominent Lincoln girl a sheriff's posse overtook them before they reached Pecos. The negro was given a neck tie party on the spot and not in a bar. In regards to Mrs. Powell's statement that the granddaughter still lives in Lincoln she is 100% wrong. My mother's name was Sara. My aunt's name was not Josephine and as far as I know she had no children. Capt. Baca was my grandfather and I am proud of him. I believe Mrs. Powell was very unkind to say the least, to have such a gruesome scandalous story in a newspaper since we still have relatives from one end of the United States to the other. Our family and friends surely didn't appreciate her blood thirsty story. If her intentions were to hurt me or a member of
