Eleven players start and finish the job of beating the Cloudcroft Bears

The Corona Cardinal football team, coached by Randall Burke and assistant Jim Hughes, number 16 boys but after the first 11 they simmer down in size pretty fast. Last Friday at Corona The Cards beat the Cloudcroft Bears 8-0 -- 11 boys started and the same 11 went all the way to victory. Lincoln Sanchez is QB, Joe Lueras, Danny Lueras and Bernal Lueras (all cousins) complete the backfield. Ends are Robert Tenorio and Bobby Clouse. Tackles, Allen Sultemeier and Mike Ratsey. Guards, Charles Lueras and Jimmy Stratton. Center is Melvin Yancey.

was not moving real good but on 4th down and long yardage a pass, Sanchez to Lueras went for 30 yards and touchdown. End Bobby Clouse took a pass in the end zone good for 2 points to make the score 8-0.

That was the end of the scoring but lots of fireworks followed. Gordie Burrell went 80 yards for TD but play was called back. Corona Coach Burke says there should have been three flags on that particular play. The Cards got into scoring territory again in the first half but couldn't make it in from the 5-yard line. In the 3rd quarter the Cards were knocking on the door having got field position on fumble recovery, again they were stopped. In the 4th quarter Corona made a penetration only to fumble away the ball.

Coach Everett Banister of Cloudcroft named Rick Compton, Michael Chance and Chris Scott for their outstanding defensive play.

Field conditions were good at Corona but there were lots of fumbles and lots of penalties. The Bears were penalized a total of 185 yards, the Cards 20.

Corona received to start the game, couldn't move and punted. The Bears made a punt return but fumbled on the first play, Cards recovering. Again Corona

Rolling south from Palomas the going is easy, the countryside about like it is around Alamogordo. But when vehicles hit the loop road coming down from Juarez the pace slowed down to "mule train." Gravel was rough and much of the time, 30-40 miles, the route was detoured alongside new road under construction. Leon Lock car and Bob Simpson pickup were rolling along. Continued On Back Page

Trip south of border quite an experience

You can get close to a first-hand look at the country around Colonia Juarez, 150 miles south of the Mexico border, by going north of the Capitan Mountains and looking around. The low mountain country of Mexico is fairly well grassed over and in good years would support a lot of cattle.

Main difference is that water flows down through the Mexico valley and there are lots of apple orchards. This industry is big, orchards, low, price of apples on the Mexico City market maybe double what it is in Lincoln County, the orchards spread over a 40-mile area.

Football fans making the trip to Mexico last Saturday got to see what there was to see along the road and that was about all. Even by leaving at 5:00 a.m. not all of the cars arrived by game time due to delay at port of entry and more time taken traveling over a 90-mile stretch of gravel road.

Port of entry people were courteous and efficient but the process takes time. Young boy of 18 or 20 was doing his father's work filling out the forms. He spoke no English which was really no problem because plenty of Spanish speaking people were on hand.

The bus load of football players spent two and a half hours going through the port and papers on only one of the boys, Andre Hoff, seemed questionable to the officials. Zozo school people thought his papers would be a cinch.

Robert Owen Simpson needed a notary seal on papers for Woody

Harrington and Paul Payton had forgot to bring anything so we stopped in Dering and got help from Editor Wendell Faught, Sheriff Fred delano and Notary Marie Moore. We're sort of proud to be a special deputy of Luna County.

Once you're through the first official stop at port, car owners have another, and then most of the car owners bought $2.88 worth of insurance at Tillie's Curio shop.

Fighting Tigers put it all together for 14-8 win over Vaughn Eagles

The fighting Capitan Tiger Football Team pulled for a tough 14-8 win over the Vaughn Eagles Friday. Coach Richard House was well pleased with the offensive and defensive efforts of his inexperienced team.

Mike Romero, B.J. Jenkins, Sandy Loomis, Robert Barber, and Jimmy Lacy opened up gaping holes in the middle of the line to allow Bronson Cummins, Ted Sinsaros, and Ronnie Smith make large gains.

The game started with Robert Sherrill making a beautiful open field tackle on the opening kickoff. Then the defense held and the offense took over from there. Bronson Cummins broke loose for a 55 yard touchdown run and Kenny Jones ran the two-point conversion. Ted Sinsaros scored on a 15-yard reverse. The P.A.T. failed.

The Tigers were clad in their new Black and Old Gold uniforms. The people and businesses that made the uniforms possible for the Tigers should be proud of the team's striking appearance on the field and should come to the next game to see them in action.

Tomorrow night is homecoming at Tiger land when Tatum invades. All alumni and other boosters are urged to return home and cheer the fighting Tigers on to another victory.

Grizzlies win international victory in game with Colonia Juarez Lobos

Playing on a 90-yard field (10 shorter than normal) in foreign country after 12-hour bus trip to Colonia Juarez, Mexico, Carrizozo Grizzly football squad was just a little lucky to come out with a victory 12-8.

The New Mexico Class A champions hardly played "their game" in any way. The drive to run out the clock in the last four minutes was good ball and really the secret if there was one -- to success on this long, long trip.

The Col. Juarez Lobos took the first kick, but right away Carrizozo's smaller defense went to work and the Lobos never really got going until late in the game.

Zozo received punt but penalties and tough Lobo defense held the Grizzlies down. Roper got off good kick to Lobo 20. Zozo defense held and the first quarter ended with no scoring.

Gaby Chavez came in to quarterback the Grizzlies in the second quarter and they moved right out, on long sustained drive which was climaxed by Willie Gallegos scoring. Chavez try for extra point no good, score 6-0. This score held up through the first half.

Carrizozo received to start the second half and moved all the way for a TD, again by Gallegos. Roper missed kick for PAT, score 12-0.

The Grizzly defense held again. The Lobo punt was received by Gallegos who handed off to Matt Ellison who ran the ball back on the most beautiful play of the day for 50 yards. Jim Speight made a lot of yards for Zozo but at this point he fumbled on the one to stop the drive.

Lobos had to punt again, so did the Grizzlies. In the final quarter the Lobos threw long pass, Willie slipped and the pass was good for a long gain to the 15. They scored three plays later and ran over a two pointer, score 12-8.

About this time the trip was taking its toll, the Grizzlies were getting tired from 12 hours on the road and very, very short sleep.

But, luckily, not so tired but that Rusty Leslie, Ben Bradley, Jay Barnes and Gerald Wells were opening up big holes in the right side of the Lobo line. On dive plays by Willie Gallegos and Jim Speight the Grizzlies marched most of the length of the field to use up the final four minutes -- after the Lobos had scored and seemed off and running -- to put the game on ice. Speight fumbled on the one-yard line to stop this drive with only 19 seconds remaining in the game.

Two plays by the Lobos and it was over.

Shawn Lock came out in the first quarter with injured neck, will be out for two weeks. Lock was replaced by Andre Hoff who played out the game, and at 120 yards was equal to any play that came his way. Matt Ellison had injured lower back but he will be alright.

Rusty Leslie and Christy Monreal, both on injured list in recent weeks, played most of the way and came out well. Game time was 2:00 p.m., it started at 3:00.

Coach Roger St. Louis says he expects to have his hands full at Cloudcroft Friday.

Gov. King to "kick-off" Oktoberfest

Cloudcroft -- The West German Consulate General to the Southwestern U. S. will be a special guest Friday night (Oct. 1) at the kick-off reception for south-central New Mexico's Cowboy Oktoberfest.

Governor Bruce King is expected to be on hand to greet the German Consul, according to Department of Development Field Representative Jerry Baker.

Further ceremonies opening "Cowboy Oktoberfest" will be held during half-time of the Alamogordo high school football game in Alamogordo. Baker said the reception will be held in The Lodge at 5:30. The football game begins at 7:30.

"Cowboy Oktoberfest," a joint project of the DOD and several south-central communities, is a 17-day series of events ranging from Indian arts and crafts shows, a German festival and a rodeo to motorcycle races, polo games, aspencades, trail rides, fiddlers contests, an apple festival, a tour of Trinity Site and chess, bridge, bowling and archery tournaments. "Oktoberfest is designed to offer something to everyone," Baker said. "It's a combination of traditional Teutonic fall festivals and traditional and contemporary Southwestern events."

Participating communities include Alamogordo, Cloudcroft, Carrizozo, Capitan, High Rolls, Lincoln, La Luz, Tularosa, Ruidoso, Picacho, San Patricio and the Mescalero Apache Reservation.

I'm gonna come right out and say: I think the Zozo Grizzlies can be had!

By Kate Graw - Cloudcroft Teacher

Dang! Dang and then some! Snagblasted referees snagged snazblasted referees snagged! The above is the only comment I shall make on the Corona game, except to say that--all "we wuz robbed" arguments aside--the Bears would seem to have a slight consistency problem!

 You hope on these pages (I'll be) the Lineman of the Week and Back of the Week choices for the past three games. This will be a regular feature for the rest of the season. My congratulations to these young men. *****

Well, I've heard all the arguments. I've been told by all and sundry that I can write the Zozo story now--no use to go--why watch such a massacre? I've heard all about their size, toughness, etc. Been apprised of the "dark blood" theory, plus the "they always play dirty" game plan. Estimates on the final score run all the way from 50-0 to 70-0, with nobody except Tommy Betcher willing to bet on the Bears. I've been told, and understand, all about how the Grizzlies always go to State, how they've got a winning tradition, and a great coach--how, in fact, we're just totally out-classed tonight and everybody'll be glad when it's all over!

Bull. It is my opinion, and has been for years, that the main problem with the Dallas Cowboys is that they walk onto the field telling you about all the problems that'll make it just about impossible for them to win this game. To my mind, excusemakers lose games. I'm not interested in excuse--particularly before the game.

At the risk of putting my foot right where it usually is anyway, I'm gonna come right out and say it: I think the Grizzlies can be had. Furthermore, I think the '71 Bears are just the fellas to do the job.

Size? Look at Buddy Briscoe, Mike Chance, Ben Hegwer, Lou Medina . . . and there're more where they come from. They don't feed 'em anything different in Carrizozo, people. And altitude doesn't stunt your growth. Tough? I refer you to the game story for this week--Rick Compton had 7 tackles by himself! Catch a glimpse (if you can) of Gordie Burrell sometime, as he makes run after run at the opponent's line. And check out little Chris Scott's fierce running sometime if you really wanta see from tough. He's the first freshman I've seen who can run gut-hard into another guy's helmet (and head, etc.) and get up to do it again!

Dark blood? I personally think that's a lot of hooey, but if you want dark blood, watch the aforementioned Lou Medina in action. Better yet, cast an eye on our freshman Joe Willie, Jose Castanon.

Coaches? From what I've seen of Banister, Warren, and Hasseloff, I don't think you could do better.

And finally, "winning tradition" that every "winning tradition" in football history started with one--count 'em, one--game.

Yessir, I think that this can be The Game That Was in Cloudcroft--if. If the Bears can play the same heads-up, alert, thinking football on offense that they do on defense. If they can provide the kind of protection for their quarterbacks that they need to get the ball off. If they can play with the kind of concentration and determination that prevents busted plays and fumbles. In other words, if they can jell as a team, as a solid, stable unit. And I think they can. And I double-dog-dare 'em--as we say in Arkansas--I double-dog-dare 'em to prove me Right, and prove all their classmates, friends, relatives and other well intentioned excusemakers wrong!

Jackson - Burns wedding announced

The engagement of Martha Lyn Jackson to Dennis E. Burns, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Burns, of Hobbs, N.M. (formerly of Carrizozo) is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Y. Jackson Jr., of 6805 Barber Place N.E., Albuquerque, N.M. 87109.

Miss Jackson is a senior at University of New Mexico, majoring in mathematics. She is a first cousin to Mrs. Steven (Pat) Spencer.

Dennis is a graduate of Carrizozo High School, and a 1970 graduate of U.N.M. School of Pharmacy. He is now employed by Hughes Drug Stores, in Kailua, Hawaii.

A January 15, 1972 wedding date is planned in Albuquerque, N.M.

Alamogordo Hosts Legion

Alamogordo American Legion Post 34—hosted the District 5 Legion meeting Sept. 26.

Hazel Hayes, District Auxiliary president, and Louis Marrijo, District Commander, presided at the joint meeting. Dinner was served at noon by the Alamogordo Auxiliary.

Those from Carrizozo who attended were: Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hayes, Mrs. Austin Wooten, Mrs. Joe West, Mrs. Edna Littleton, and Mrs. Julia Sherrill.

Miss Martha Lyn Jackson

Mrs. Anderson talks about art

Mrs. Kenneth Anderson presented a talk for members of Xi Beta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Jackie Davidson on the topic, "Let's Begin With Art."

Mrs. Anderson said perhaps the most important aim in planning the interior decoration of your home is the achievement of basic comfort. "People are the focal point of decoration," she said. "Knowledge of the details of art—line and mass, pattern and value, color and texture all count, but the human element makes a house a home."

The business meeting was conducted by Miss Sherrill Perkins, president. She advised the group that International Headquarters commended the chapter on the previous year's efforts and outstanding achievement. A certificate for achieving the three-star rating and the first annual Founder's Award, a Founder's Award scrapbook and charms were received from the international office of Beta Sigma Phi. These awards are given for having achieved balance in the three aspects of their sorority life, plus outstanding community service.

The hostess for the meeting, Mrs. Davidson, served refreshments. The refreshment table, covered with a lace cloth and laid with crystal and silver, featured a centerpiece of sorority colors. Members present were: Mmes. Rogene Alford, Kenneth Anderson, Butch Carnell, Archie Perkins, Frankie Sultemeier, Melvin Sultemeier, Tommy Tyree, Miss Sherrill Perkins, and the hostess.

Deborah Vega receives award

The first meeting of the Carrizozo Woman's Club for the 1971-72 season was held on Thursday, September 23. After a very enjoyable luncheon, the meeting was called to order by the new president, Mary Ellen Payne.

Among matters of old business, of particular interest was the announcement by Mrs. Payne of the awarding by the Club of a silver plate to Deborah Vega as the outstanding 4-H member in the county.

The Club members discussed several community projects, such as volunteer work at the new Hospital Annex, which now has several residents; and serving of a Soil Conservation Bankers Award Banquet at the Woman's Club building on the evening of September 30.

Since the speaker for the day was unavoidably detained the meeting was adjourned after the conclusion of business.

JANET AND ALLEN REPORT ON TRIP TO WASHINGTON

The Corona Extension Club met Sept. 23 at the Recreation Room. Hostesses for the covered dish luncheon were Mrs. Frank Sultemeier Jr. and Mrs. Joe Atkinson.

Janet Davidson and Allen Sultemeier reported on their 4-H trip to Washington D.C. which the members enjoyed.

Members present were Mmes. Vera Cato, Tommy Huey, Jack Davidson, Sr., Earl Molder, Dimmit Bond, Frank Sultemeier, Jr., Wilbur Dishmon, Melvin Sultemeier, Joe Atkinson, L. D. Sparks. Two visitors: Mmes. Sparks, Roswell, New Mexico, Williams, Stockton, California, niece of Mrs. Wilbur Dishmon.

Miss Jan LaMay is Worthy Advisor

Miss Jan LaMay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom LaMay of Capitán, was installed as Worthy Advisor of Carrizozo Assembly # 7, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, on Sunday, September 12, 1971. Installing officers were Jane Shafer, musician; Ginger Armstrong, chaplain; Abby Allen, Marshall; and Kathy Robinson, recorder. Mrs. Austin Wooten, aunt of Jan and member of Carrizozo Comet Chapter # 29, Order of the Eastern Star, was Jan's special installing officer.

After the new Worthy Advisor had taken her vows at the altar, Ginger Armstrong sang her chosen song 'The Impossible Dream.' She was then escorted to the East through an aisle of rainbow colored flowers held by the officers of Assembly #7.

Jan has chosen the following for her term: theme is "Looking for that blessed hope"; motto is "To have hope is to reach the unreachable star"; her symbol is the open Bible; scripture is Titus 2:13. Jan's honor station is Hope; her song is "The Impossible Dream"; her colors are mystic blue and white; and her flowers are the blue and white carnations. Mrs. Dorothy Straley is Mother Advisor of Assembly # 7 for Jan's term and Rainbow Dad is Mr. Austin Wooten, uncle of Jan. Jan dedicated her term to her family and to Abby Allen, special Rainbow friend.

Assisting at the registration table with the guest book was Megan LaMay, cousin of Jan. Other officers installed were Worthy Associate Advisor, Mrs. Wesley Willis, center, a new member of Carrizozo Woman's Club is shown admiring the new club yearbook with members Mrs. Frank Lindsey and Mrs. Welcom Armstrong.

Carolyn Lucas; Charity, LeAnne Straley; Chaplain, Tammi Lindsey; Drill Leader, Bonnie Hobbs; Love, Dorothy Hein; and Patriotism, Susan Abercrombie. Awards were given to outstanding officer for the term presented to Bonnie Hobbs, and perfect attendance presented to Dorothy Hein.

Following installation a reception honoring Jan was held in the dining hall.

Entries are already coming in for Make It Yourself With Wool Contest

Entries are already coming in for the 1971-72 New Mexico Make It Yourself With Wool Competition. Girls will compete in 11 district contests, with winners vying for state honors December 4, in Clovis.

Information on how to enter may be obtained from district contest directors, Sub-deb, junior and senior division competition will take place on the district level, with state competition limited to junior and senior classifications. No adult competition (over 21) will be held in New Mexico.

Junior and Senior division state winners will represent New Mexico in national finals January 20, 1972 at Phoenix, Arizona. Prizes at the national level include European vacations for junior and senior division winner, college scholarships, savings bonds and many other prizes. Prizes are also awarded at the district and state levels.

Sub-deb entrants are between 10 and 13 years old; juniors are 14 through 16; and seniors are 17 through 21. Entrants in the district and state contests must be from New Mexico unless they are attending college here from another state. Garments entered in the contest must have been made after January 1, 1971, and must be made from American yarn or American loomed, knitted or felted 100 percent wool.

The Make It Yourself With Wool Competition is both a sewing or knitting and fashion competition. Girls will be judged on knowledge of wool fabric or yarn and design; poise and presentation; the suitability of the garments to their way of life; and sewing or knitting skill. Girls are required to model their garments at all levels of competition. They must select and construct their own garments, although they may be advised and taught by an advisor, parent or teacher.

The District director for Lincoln County is Mrs. Mark White, 3209 Encanto Drive, Roswell. Chaves and Lincoln counties contest will be November 6, at 7:30 p.m. Eastern New Mexico University Roswell Campus Student Union Building; deadline, October 23rd.

Rainbow girls have slumber party at hall

A covered dish supper, slumber party, and pancake breakfast was enjoyed by girls of Carrizozo Assembly # 7, Order of Rainbow for Girls, and their special guests on September 18 and 19 in Carrizozo.

The girls and their guests met on Saturday evening at 7:00 for a supper held at the Masonic Hall. Families of the girls left after the meal and the girls remained at the Hall for a slumber party. Midnight snacks, mock initiation, ghost stories, and music were all a part of entertainment throughout the night.

Sunday morning Mr. Hap Allen of Capitán was special chef and served pancakes to the wide awake group of girls and their sponsor. Participating in this gala event were Jan LaMay; Abby Allen, Megan LaMay, Carolyn Lucas, Susan Read, LeAnne Straley, Bonnie Hobbs, Lupita Mackey, Margaret Mackey, Dorothy Hein, Grace Hoff, Debbie McDaniel, and Karen Lindsey. Sponsor was Mrs. Lee Straley. LeAnne Straley Reporter

Heavy frost on 19th was a killer

We had one and two tenths of an inch of rain this last week which was enjoyed with heavy fog and cold weather and no sun for a few days. The heavy frost the 19th was a partial killer. It did leave its marks though since it has not been so cold. We have a clear sky with west wind today. Fall for certain.

We have good reports on Mrs. Dee Anderson who is in the Carrizozo Rest Home. She is in good condition and happy. I do send my very best wishes to her for a good and complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Beck have all of the walls of their home repaired and they are now painting the outside a very pretty yellow. The Nazarene Church has had the outside woodwork painted white. Which is pretty.

The Pope apartments look just beautiful. White trimmed in light brown. So clean and pretty, they did a very good job. Inside and out. They had a new roof put on which will last for years.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Chaffin and sons Jay W. and Wayne with Buddy Godnez and Benjie Trujillo enjoyed the State Fair in Albuquerque last Wednesday. The boys did miss that day of school and there were many others that went too.

Mrs. Maude Kingston accidentally had a fall while out for a walk last Saturday morning and she injured her right arm which she is having to take care of for a while. No bones broken.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Dean, Sr., and their daughter Janie Randle and Joe Paul spent last week on vacation and returned Sunday. They enjoyed the State Fair in Albuquerque.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. DeBust of La Puente, Calif., spent Thursday with her brother Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright while enroute to her brother's funeral in Hobbs and they will come by on their return.

Mr. Hollis Cummins went to Santa Fe, Sunday and attended the Hospital Board meeting and returned Monday night.

Members of the local Nazarene Church held a close out meeting of the Laymans' Retreat at the Nazarene Camp Ground last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peralta and family and Mr. and Mrs. Isidro Peralta and family of Grants, spent last weekend with their mother Mrs. Frances Peralta.

Mrs. Alta Jones returned last Sunday from four days vacation in Kermit, Texas, with her son and family and did see her grand daughter crowned homecoming Queen. It happened on grandmother Alta's birthday which made it a brighter event. I wish you many more happy birthdays Alta.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harris of Hollywood visited with his aunts Miss Lou Harris and Mrs. Maude Kingston last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Marguerite Trujillo spent last Saturday at the State Fair and enjoyed it. The traffic was heavy and they did witness an accident in front of them.

Mrs. Vera Beall, Mrs. Juanita Abercrombie and Mrs. Lorene Ferguson spent last Thursday in El Paso.

Miss Lynne Williams of Eastern N.M., Collegiate Portales spent last weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Miles Williams in Nogal.

Mrs. Clara Snow of Carrizozo spent last Friday with her sister Mrs. Champ Ferguson at her ranch home.

Mrs. Eltha Merrell and Mrs. Lorene Ferguson went to Ruidoso last Monday and took care of business and then went down the valley for apples at Mrs. Mayme Perry's. They said most of the Bonnell ranch home was nearly all taken down and the bull dozer was working higher up on the hill. The scene is changing there now with the beginning of highway construction.

Mrs. Irene Rentrow spent some time in Roswell last week and will have to go again this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Annarato made a business trip to Carrizozo Monday morning. They are enjoying their retirement. They have their lawn growing, the new garage completed and are very nicely and comfortably located.

Bob, Sue and Margaret Stearns, and boys went to the fair in Albuquerque on Saturday and had a nice time. The Sheep to Shaw exhibit was especially enjoyable.

Bunty Richardson was in Albuquerque all last week helping with the Sheep to Shaw exhibit at the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Greer had their granddaughter Tammy visiting them for a few days recently while their daughter-in-law, Jeannette, underwent emergency surgery in Alamogordo. Jeannette is doing fine now.

Floyd Ringener, wife Viola, Craig 14 and Lisa 10 have moved to Carrizozo where Floyd takes over job as lineman for Otero County Electric. Floyd has been in electric work the past 22 years, the last six with Lea County Electric at Lovington. He will have a helper here as soon as one can be hired. What does Floyd do after working hours -- "Take in the ball games", was his answer. The Ringeners have three other children, Diane in Lovington, Richard in service, and Mrs. Donna Threest in Lovington.

October per-school clinics announced

The following pre-school immunization clinics will be held in Lincoln County for the month of October, 1971.

Conron speaks to Historical Society

The White Oaks Historical Society met Saturday night in the school house at White Oaks. The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. John Conron, an architect from Santa Fe. He is a member of the New Mexico Cultural Property Review Committee. This committee has allotted the White Oaks Historical Society $1,000.00 for restoration purposes. They also have been promised $1,200.00 in matching government funds for the money already spent in repairs on the school house. A survey will be made by the Property Review Committee for recommended improvements. Mr. Conron is also the editor of the New Mexico Architectural News. The September-October issue carried a story about White Oaks.

Among those present were Mrs. Maggie Kelt and John Kelt of Tucuman, Mr. Herman Kelt, Albuquerque, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tully, El Paso, and Jerry Percival, architectural student from the University of New Mexico.

Bud Payne donated his time to scraping off and removing dirt on the school house property making drainage better and also marking parking space for cars. The work is continuing on black topping the White Oaks road.

of Western Star Temple No. 11, Pythian Sisters. Her daughter, Mrs. Lee Barley, was a candidate for initiation, and Mrs. Robinson was a special guest for the ceremony. Best wishes to both Terrell Wherry and Suzanne Stagg were recent guests of Mrs. J. N. Wherry. Both are from Denver where Terrell is employed by Gold Star Meat Packing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hocker are the parents of a daughter, Elizabeth, born last week in Las Cruces. Mr. Hocker is a candidate for a doctorate at NMSU.

Theresa Jones and Mrs. Eddie Sanders and son, Joseph, were visiting their grandparents over the weekend. Miss Jones is from Crag, Colo., and the Sanders live in Alamogordo.

Mrs. Irl Welch and Rick were in Albuquerque Monday to meet Jerry Welch who arrived by plane on a two week leave from the US Naval Base at San Diego, California.

Sierra Blanca boys do clean-up job

A group of boys from the Sierra Blanca Boys Camp were in Carrizozo Saturday helping with the clean-up of the Carrizozo Cemetery. Ladies of the Carrizozo Cemetery Association served lunch to the boys at noon. The cemetery has undergone several improvements this year. The most outstanding is the entrance arch. The two posts are made of Mal Pais rock and support the well designed wrought iron arch denoting entrance to the cemetery. New plantings have also been added this year including a row of Russian Olive trees which outline the boundaries of the cemetery.

Mrs. Maude Eshom and son, Robert and family of Farmington, visited Mrs. Eshom's sister, Mrs. Mary Johnson on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hiltness of Carlsbad visited on Monday this week with Mrs. Hiltness's sister, Mrs. Mary Shrum. They were enroute home from Nevada, where they had attended a wedding. Darla Lomonica of Hollywood, California, spent three days last week visiting her uncle, Mr. Cliff Zumwalt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller of Ancho are the parents of a baby boy born on September 21. The baby weighed 9 lbs. 6 oz. He has been named James William. Mrs. Callie Hall of Roswell has been staying at the Gnatkowski ranch in the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Gnatkowski and Mel who were in Albuquerque all week at the Sheep to Shawl booth at the fair. Mrs. J. A. Hightower was also assisting at the booth.

Mr. Bryan Hightower and Jackie Silvers attended the White Oaks Historical Society meeting in White Oaks Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stearns and children and Mrs. J.S. Stearns were in Albuquerque Saturday, attending the state fair.

Invitations are out for the annual Banker's Award Banquet to be held at the Carrizozo Woman's Club on September 30.

There will be a Stockholders' meeting at the Carrizozo Country Club Saturday evening. The meeting will be preceded by a social hour and steak fry.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baumgartner, the former Verne Holliday, of California have been visiting Mrs. Baumgartner's cousin, Cora Boone.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Johnson of Las Vegas, visited Monday and Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. Frank Lindsey and family. Tuesday the Lindseys and the Johnsons spent the day in El Paso.

Al Jung of San Francisco was a guest of the Bob Shafers last weekend. Mr. Jung is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley and was on his way to continue his studies at the University of Florida.

Mrs. Carl Reichert of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is here visiting her daughter Sue, who has been here this summer doing research work in the Mal Pais.

Those who will be attending the mid year Cowbelle meeting in Tucumcari Thursday are: Jane Shafer, Ruth Wilson, Catherine Cornett, Annie Wilbers, Margaret Lightfoot, Ann Ferguson and Juanita Abercrombie.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Otero of Albuquerque and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Sandoval and family of Alamogordo were here Sunday visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sandoval.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Rickerson and family of Silver City are here this week visiting Bobby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Rickerson.

Mrs. Refugio Najar, Mrs. Frank Sheehan and daughter, Kelly and Mrs. Marvin Hill were in Alamogordo Monday. They also visited in La Luz with Mrs. James Walter and family.

Mrs. Mabel Rentrow returned Monday from California where she has been visiting relatives for five weeks.

Mrs. Manuel Ortiz was in Albuquerque one day last week to visit her brother Richard Kimbrell of Pichaco, who is a patient at the Veterans Hospital. He expects to be able to return home this weekend.

Connie O'Rear entertained the ladies who are Past Noble Grand of Coalora Rebekah Lodge, at a noon luncheon Saturday at her home on E Avenue. Those present were: Rachel West, Madelle McDaniel, Catherine Cornett, Edith Stoneman, Mary Means, Opal Greer, Eunice McBrayer, Dorothy Current and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman E. Kelt Jr. and family of Albuquerque were visiting in Carrizozo and White Oaks Sunday.

Birthdays were surely a special occasion this month in the Campbell family. Mary Jane went up last week for the quarter horse classes, meeting her mother at the airport on 21 Sept. Mrs. Pride's birthday. She's visiting for a few weeks from Evansville, Indiana. The granddaughter and great granddaughter, Cora Francis, who now lives in Albuquerque, came back for a visit too.

Sept. 27, is Ollie Campbell's birthday and he had told the family not to send him anything, he "knew just what he wanted." That just what he wanted turned out to be 2 calls home. He called from Clark AFB Philippine Islands, Sunday night, which was Monday morning his time. Mary

Jane and Mrs. Pride were at the Barham's for dinner. That call he talked to Jane and Cora. Mary Jane thought she had missed talking to him until 4:00 a.m. Monday morning when Ollie called again, so "I could wish him a Happy Birthday," says Mary Jane.

$1,000 grant awarded White Oaks

By John P. Conron, written for New Mexico Architecture magazine October 1971 issue.

The White Oaks Historical Society has been awarded a $1,000 grant by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. Obtained through the efforts of the State Planning Office and the Cultural Properties Review Committee, the grant funds will be used to prepare a comprehensive preservation and development plan for the town of White Oaks and its valley.

Today, White Oaks is a crumbling ghost town, but it was once known as the liveliest town in the Territory of New Mexico.

The discovery of rich gold lodes on the eastern slopes of Baxter Mountain in 1879 gave White Oaks its birth and short-lived boom. By 1880 the hastily erected tents were giving way to substantial buildings of stone and brick. In fact, the population grew rapidly to 4,000, and White Oaks seemed destined for permanent prosperity. The school, churches, banks, four newspapers, bars, and bawdy houses all pointed to permanence, and the proposed construction of a north-south railroad line through the town seemed to be a certainty.

Confident of continued growth, local businessmen demanded high prices for property, but the expected railroad went through Carrizozo instead, and White Oaks was left with only stage connections. The effects of this bypass were not immediate, but by 1904 the high level of ore production had fallen off, the population was declining, and White Oaks' days of vigor were coming to an end. By 1936 only 150 inhabitants remained, and by 1971 just eight families were left.

As the population dwindled in the early years of the 20th century, log and frame houses were torn down for fuel, so that today most of the remaining structures are of brick or stone. These include the schoolhouse, a two-story store building, the impressive brick Hoyle house, as well as several smaller buildings. Old mills and mine shafts may also be seen in the immediate vicinity, and the Cedarvale cemetery, with many historic gravestones, remains unlandscaped and well maintained.

The era of prosperity in White Oaks lasted for about twenty-five years. In addition to the glamorous and coveted gold, Baxter Mountain and its surroundings produced iron and tungsten, as well as some silver, lead, and copper. Coal and marble discoveries nearby seemed promising at first, but high transportation costs discouraged their exploitation.

During this quarter of a century, the value of ore production mounted to $2,860,000, with another $140,000 worth of metals taken out between 1904 and 1933. The remains of this temporarily successful and important town stand as eloquent reminders of one of the State's most important periods: the mining days of the 1880's and 90's. Certainly White Oaks was among the best known and most productive centers of that period, and helped maintain Lincoln County's fame as one of New Mexico's truly exciting areas.

But now White Oaks must find a new way of life. While the recovery of tungsten from the abandoned mine dumps seems a distinct possibility, and will provide some new life for the town, it is as a vital part of the developing Lincoln County recreation area that White Oaks might find the start of long-range economic re-birth.

Case Moved To Federal Court

A Lincoln County District Court suit filed by the Ruidoso State Bank to determine ownership of stock placed in escrow by former Ruidoso Downs general manager Eugene Hensley and Newco Industries was removed to federal court Tuesday at the request of U.S. Atty. Victor Ortega.

The bank filed the suit in March when both Hensley and Ruidoso Downs, Inc., successor to Newco, claimed right to Hensley's stock in the Ruidoso Racing Assn.

The Federal authorities filed a complaint in intervention Friday asserting the priority of federal tax liens totaling $157,951.64 over the fund representing full payment of Hensley's stock.

The sum of $451,166.85 representing payment for the stock was paid the Lincoln County clerk after the interpleader action by the Ruidoso bank on March 13.

EDITOR'S CORNER

Izvestia and Attica

A recent newscast reported that Izvestia, one of the two official Soviet newspapers--the only other is Pravda--has publicly condemned and denounced the Attica prison affair. It is an interesting review of recent history to note, while considering Izvestia's concern for purity and truth, that the wanton slaughter of some 10,000 captive Polish officers by the Red Army occurred in the USSR, in a forest near a place named Katyn. This was in 1939, and the massacre, committed in the coldest imaginable blood, eliminated the entire officer corps of the Polish Army, among them the cream of Polish youth. Not only have the Communist Soviets refused an investigation of the matter, but neither the impeccable Izvestia nor the pious Pravda editors have ever published a single syllable about that.

These officers were military captives. They were not rebellious and defiant felons who held Russian hostages or made demands. Nevertheless they were methodically murdered and dumped into a mass grave in the Katyn woods.

Again, the very word, pogrom, now in the English dictionaries, is a Russian word that lives in infamy for the Russians' heartless persecution and murders of Russian Jews from the 1880's through the early 1920's. Pogrom is a word that shall endure in such company as 'Auschwitz, Katyn, Dachau, Lidtze . . . and, perhaps, even My Lai, if we are to deal truthfully.

Izvestia's hypocrisy is of such magnitude that words do not exist to reject it strongly enough. It is to be deeply regretted that on the grand scale succeeded in having their perverse and unutterably foul verbal excrement distributed over American and world news media.

Lincoln County gets shaft!

Bill Gilbert, writer for Sports Illustrated but surely not their top talent, ought to put another 'I' on his name and get with us home folks in Southern New Mexico or keep the 'I' out of our country.

Bill came to Lincoln County to do report on the All American Futurity. Us newspaper people have a frequently used saying that "Any kind of publicity is better than none at all." No more. Last time, we've dropped that slogan right here.

Bill's report probably hurt more than it helped.

He starts off - "The village of Ruidoso Downs sits in the wide-open, empty lands of New Mexico where it is two folds of the road map between taster freeways--out of the way, to be sure.

Then he goes on - The track hardly looks the part, being an enlarged 5/8s oval surrounded by a rickety grandstand and barns, sheds and corrals that might have been picked up reasonably at a sheriff's auction of a busted ranch.

Bill apparently is not a first-rate, wild-eyed quarter horse enthusiast like inhabit these parts. He says - Explosive it is, like a 100-yard dash, but too explosive to be much of a spectacle. Certainly not enough of a spectacle to watch with much enthusiasm half a dozen times in an afternoon.

Course this is not the first time New Mexico has been shot down by eastern visitors who fly in, fly out, and see little of the natural beauty of our land. There are enough transplanted New Yorkers, Nebraskans, Kansans, Iowans, Texans and others who will testify that this land is beautiful--sure don't have to take a back seat that way.

What we do need is to study on how to better impress people back east who know us only as rattlesnake and cactus desert country. Maybe we got a few cacti and sure need those snakes to keep varmints in check but most of them are up around Mozaun Callentine's diggings and there aren't a whole lot of cactus except in the Malpais and maybe on Cowboy Spencer's place.

One sure way would be to screen all newsguys and especially sports writers at the border. If they've cut a letter off their name you send them back right there because they're bound to be queer one way or another.

Another way might be to get up some color movies of our scenic areas and spread them around the country. Or print some colored brochures, books, maps or whatnot just for the sake of beauty--with not business places showing.

Can't expect a man right out of some ghetto to appreciate 13,000-foot mountains, tall pines all around, all shades of blue on the distant hills as the sun sets, and a country so big that it has everything.

Our own pride in our land is what is most important. Course some of us can see the scars left by man--but they are puny compared to beautiful Capitan Mountain.

Sure sorry to learn one of our favorite magazines leans on such poor help.

BY BATE

This is the "relative" time of year when lots of comparisons are being made of football teams that will never play each other. Like maybe, Deming in 3AAA could beat any of the teams in 4AAAA.

Webster defines relative 3. Arising from relation (football is played by both 3 and 4AAAA), comparative (Deming could be best in state this year), not absolute or independent (no sure answer because the teams won't play).

It's a relative situation. Bill Gilbert, Sports Illustrated writer, saying that a quarter horse race is too explosive to be much of a spectacle, is about as relative as you can get. It's one man's opinion of what sort of an explosion is worth watching. Makes Bill out a little careless with words to say the least. A lot of people in the southwest area like to see horses running any distance, like their action fast--in other words Bill's opinion is sure not the last word on what a spectacle may be.

It used to be said that nothing worthwhile is free except warm sunshine and fresh air and today that is a relative sort of statement. We hear that lots of Californians have to spend trip money to find either of both fresh air and sunshine. Getting to be that way more all the time in the San Juan section of New Mexico. What is free these days?

Lots of people use the phrase, "They say he mistreats his wife." Who do you suppose "they" is or are. One person, two, a dozen. Gets to be relative in a hurry and usually doesn't mean much. Probably the old bag needed more mistreatment than she got.

How to tell-it-like-it-is gets to be a problem when talking about schools, churches, towns. This one's good, that one bad--who knows. The good looking church may be full of people who don't like each other. The new modern school may turn out students who can barely read a printed page and have gained little when it comes to thinking out a problem in life. The good looking neighborhood may harbor the coldest, most unfriendly people in town. So--it becomes rather relative as to what is really right.

We hear a lot of talk about poverty levels these days, about how people making less than $4,000 a year don't have enough food or clothing. That becomes relative as all get-out when you go south of the border where the wages are 50 cents to 75 cents a day.

Heard many an argument about the quality of bootleg whiskey in its day. About how one liquor was smooth, another firey, another sweet, etc. Sure brought on some powerful hangover setting those arguments which were "relative" from the first sip. It all depends on the taste a man prefers, which may be the best--and the third drink of a bad whiskey is sure better than the first.

That Bill said we live in wide-open empty lands. Little e does he know that Sierra Blanca is just up in the mountains above the clouds, Pearl Soderback's food is being served just down the road and that is really something. You go just a-hop and a skip from the Downs and there is Fort Stanton and Lincoln where a lot of men died fighting over mountains and valley that sure suited them. Bill never took time to go in the Win, Place & Show down the road or he'd of sure known he was some place and it wasn't empty. How could you call country like the top of Capitan Mountain with its beautiful forest and animals an empty place. We admit the Malpais and White Sands Country is some big but it sure isn't empty. Bill talks "relative" a lot. He just doesn't have any background for comparison.

Was a time Torrance County was thought to be a distressed area--which was plenty relative even in those times. Largely a designation of government which didn't really know. We'd say a distressed area is one where there are no beans in the pot... any you Torrance people ever run completely out of beans?

Even sin is "relative" in Village Press country. A woman can gun down a man in these parts and like as not be turned off. Wedding vows are not the first thing a couple has to have for a happy life--been many of those common-law affairs work out beautiful. Place called the Adobe flourished and was thought necessary in its day.

The sun will rise, that's true. We'll be hungry when it does, that's true, and likely be tired come night, also true. In between those times better pick your words with care if you want to speak real positive like.

Norvell Names Committees

Santa Fe - Attorney General David Norvell announced today that he had named nine Lincoln County citizens to serve on three different advisory committees.

Drug Abuse Committee: Don Swalander, Harold Longon, Dr. R. L. Annala.

Consumer Protection: Mrs. Pat Voss, Mrs. Barbara DiPaolo, Dale Wynn.

Environmental Protection: Mrs. Marion Hyman, George P. White, Don Riley.

Norvell said, "These citizens, along with similar appointments in every county of the state, will serve in advisory positions to our office and will be instrumental in the formulation of policy and direction in their related fields."

Bobcats praised for team effort!

Hagerman Bobcats beat Tatum 20-6 for their third win and second conference victory. Especially praised for their defensive work were big Rufe Dunnahoo, Jay Bill Andrews and Melvin Bannister, but the successful game was a team effort with every boy on the squad getting his part of the credit.--Hagerman Star.

Jimmy Fikins, a Deming senior has been named to the "Hamburger Band". Each year McDonalds Corp. selects two band students from each state to comprise an All-American Band. These students are flown all expenses paid to New York for the Macy's parade and are later flown to Pasadena for the Rose Bowl Parade.--Deming Headlight.

American Legion Deaf Lucas Post held a banquet Sept. 20 in honor of the Boys and Girls State area delegates and their parents.--Curry County Times.

The annual Trinity Site tour will be held Sunday, October 3. The tour will leave Alamogordo Chamber of Commerce building at 9:30 a.m.--Silver City Enterprise.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Diffee has been named Yard of the Week by Jal Chamber of Commerce selection committee.--Jal Record.

George Luck read excerpts from an article appearing in Sports Illustrated entitled "After a mountain of money" to the Ruidoso Chamber of Commerce. The article concerned the recent running of the All American Futurity, and presented a very unfavorable picture of the Ruidoso area. It was decided to submit a letter to the editor of the magazine pointing out errors in the article.--Ruidoso News.

Over 100 seats have been reserved for the Chamber of Commerce annual banquet at Shadow Hill Restaurant Sept. 30. James Kerby, superintendent of the Bureau of Reclamation will make the keynote address.--The T or C Herald.

Two U. S. Legislators from New Mexico, Rep. Manuel Lujan and Sen. Clinton Anderson have pledged their support in the effort to get the 480,000 acres, $26.5 million Vermejo Park into public ownership.--Outdoor Reporter.

One hundred parents of school-age children in Union County this week were receiving questionnaires from the Legislative School Study Committee aimed at determining "accountability". Parents as well as legislators want to know whether their children are getting a quality education. Taxpayers want to know that they're getting their money's worth. Clayton was one of 17 school districts chosen throughout the state to participate in the survey.--Union County Leader.

The educational system of the state is too firmly entrenched in the status quo to be budged more than an inch at a time without screams of anguish. Powerful numbers of educators continue to look on any innovation as a direct threat to their position and income. And if ever there was a position apparently designed to stunt the mind and stagnate the personality, it must be the office of principal in a public school (noting that there are some outstanding exceptions).--Albuquerque El Independiente.

The first father and son cake bake sponsored by Cub Scout Pack 115 was a huge success in terms of fantastic cake creations.--Eunice Star.

The Springer Red Devils suffered their first loss of the season Friday to the No. 1 rated Clayton Yellow Jackets. The game was played in an early fall snowstorm with an inch or better on the ground.--Springer Tribune.

The Fort Sumner Village Council has received approval of its 71-72 budget for the Department of Finance. The budget calls for expenditure of $264,253.--DoBaca News.

A community meeting will be held October 14 in the courthouse to determine which direction the Guadalupe General Hospital will take in the future. Because of the expense operation, plus the constantly increasing minimum wage, the facility is now operating at a loss of over $5,000 per month.--Santa Rosa News.

New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology has for the first time, passed the 1000 mark in enrollment. Tech has more than doubled its enrollment in five years.--Defensor Chieftain.

A ground breaking ceremony for Bloomfield high school's new $370,000 natatorium (place for swimming) was held Tuesday. Board President Carroll Crawford predicted that the new facility would be a great asset both to the school and to the community.--Aztec Independent Review.

Monday evening the Lordsburg Women's Club started its year in a big way. Fifty persons partook of a fine home-cooked dinner, they being club members, husbands and guests.--Lordsburg Liberal.

The annual meeting of the Claunch-Pinto Soil and Water Conservation District will be held October 2 in Mountainair.--Torrance County Citizen.

About 760 Taos junior high school students were evacuated from classes last week during a one and a half hour bomb search. No suspicious objects were found following a youthful caller's warning to a school secretary that the first to go will be the annex (old junior high building).--Taos News.

Rotarians Zeke Candelaria, Ron Meeks and Eddie Abeyta asked the Tularosa Village Council about placing a permanent evergreen tree on the lawn of the town offices which would be used each year for the Christmas tree. Zeke explained in years to come you won't be able to cut trees in the forest. The council agreed this was an excellent idea.--Otero County Tribune.

Old timers say that Sunday's cold snap means we will have some really fine, mild days for the next four weeks, or so. But after that, watch out! Get those skis, sleds, and snowmobiles ready--you'll need them this winter.--Cloudcroft Sun.

According to the Census Bureau a total of 10,612 babies were born to local residents between 1960 and 1970. $743,000 a year is spent to provide the new arrivals with supplies and equipment.--Belen News Bulletin.

Armstrong, Dunbar to see Brass Strike

The United States Strike Command (USSTRICOM) began preparations for its final operational joint forces demonstration, Brass Strike VIII, on September 13 at Pope AFB and Fort Bragg, in Fayetteville, N.C.

Invited to attend from Carrizozo with a Holleman AFB tour group are Welcom Armstrong, president of Carrizozo Chamber of Commerce, and Bill Dunbar, Lincoln County Director of Health and Social Service.

Participating Air Force Forces (AFFORS) operating in Brass Strike VIII are commanded by Brigadier General Edward R. McNeft, vice commander, Tactical Air Warfare Center, Eglin AFB, Fla. Air Force elements are comprised of combat ready forces of the USAF Tactical Air Command.

Both Air Force and United States Army forces will demonstrate joint services operational techniques developed by USSTRICOM for quick reaction and close support roles.

The purpose of Brass Strike VIII is to provide first-hand training on current military developments for civilian guests and for officers attending military service schools. The demonstration will unveil the latest in military hardware as well as equipment modified for current techniques.

Approximately 3,000 personnel and more than 100 rotary and fixed wing aircraft with pilots, crews and support personnel from both the Air Force and Army will be participating.

Round-Up

You can reduce the use of insecticides inside your home this winter if you kill bugs outside. Apply an invisible barrier of insecticide all the way around your house this fall. You can kill the bugs before they get in. Many insects that are content to spend the summer outside, head for the shelter of your house when the nights become cool. Heat radiating from the walls after sundown and lights at night attract insects seeking shelter for the winter. Some of the most troublesome pests are cockroaches, silverfish, crickets, boxelder bugs, elm leaf beetles, and fall webworm caterpillars.

A chlordane spray applied to the outside foundation of your home will keep out most of these invaders. If the invasion is already in progress, add Dibrom or Spectracide to the chlordane to give a fast knockdown. Dibrom, also sold as Fly Killer D, gives very quick results against boxelder bugs and caterpillars when sprayed directly on them. In areas where elm leaf beetles and boxelder bugs are a problem, treat the trunks of elm and boxelder trees with your insecticide mixture. Spraying is the best method of applying the barrier around the home. Treat the outside walls and foundation from sill to soil and about five to six inches of the soil next to the foundation. Give cracks and crevices extra attention. Also treat along edges of sidewalks and driveways. If a sprayer isn't available, then a sprinkler can will do. For treating window sills and thresholds, a paint brush makes a good applicator.

Read the label on your insecticide before mixing your spray. Use the rate recommended for control of household insects or flies. Plant foliage should not be treated with the mixture, however the bark of trees can be treated without injury.

"See--they are shaving the sheep" was one of the many comments of the sheep shearing at the Sheep to Shawl exhibit at the New Mexico State Fair this last week. The exhibit attracted large numbers of people. You could almost time the crowd as they would show up each hour to watch D.L. Marquez shear. At the same time, Lincoln County Woolgrowers and Las Aranas Spinning guild were spinning and weaving. Many people came back to watch many times. The exhibit was full of visitors from early morning to late evening. Some of those helping from Lincoln County were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gnatkowski, Mrs. Phil Richardson, Mrs. John A. Hightower, Mr. and Mrs. Mill Jones and Mrs. Ralph Dunlap.

Calcium may help keep farm soils from cracking, a speaker at the annual American Society of Agronomy meeting said.

According to Dr. James U. Anderson, professor of agronomy with the New Mexico State University Agricultural Experiment Station, vertisols -- soils which swell and shrink greatly on wetting drying -- are common in arid and semiarid areas throughout the world.

Much of the shrinkage is due to the effect of exchangeable sodium on the fine clay in the soil.

The fine clay content of the soil is fixed, Anderson said, but it is possible to change the exchangeable sodium percentage by adding a source of soluble calcium such as gypsum.

Little space is required for a colony or two of bees, and they are not demanding of one's time. Many persons are afraid of being stung, but there will be few stings if bees are worked carefully and slowly. A good pair of leather gloves and a veil are a big help.

Start with one of two colonies to gain experience, then build up your numbers to meet the demands or your market or interest, the county agent says. Package bees are an ideal way to start in the business.

LEGAL NOTICE
IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF LINCOLN COUNTY STATE OF NEW MEXICO

OTERO COUNTY ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE, Inc.
A New Mexico Cooperative Corporation,
Petitioner,

vs. No. 8783

IN THE MATTER OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF WELLA ALLISON, DECEASED; ALL UNKNOWN HEIRS OF WELLA ALLISON, DECEASED; AND ALL UNKNOWN CLAIMANTS OF INTEREST IN THE PREMISES, HEREINAFTER DESCRIBED ADVERSE TO THE PETITIONER, Defendants.

NOTICE OF FILING PETITION FOR CONDEMNATION OF LAND RIGHT OF WAY

THE STATE OF NEW MEXICO
TO the above named Defendants, IN THE MATTER OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF WELLA ALLISON, DECEASED; AND ALL UNKNOWN CLAIMANTS OF INTEREST IN THE PREMISES, HEREINAFTER DESCRIBED ADVERSE TO THE PETITIONER:

GREETINGS:

YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED that the above named Petitioner, Otero County Electric Cooperative, Inc., a New Mexico cooperative corporation, filed in the District Court of Lincoln County, New Mexico, on the 29 day of September, 1971, a Petition, the general object of which is to acquire by condemnation a right-of-way for constructing an electric line across the lands of the Defendants, owned by the Otero County Electric Cooperative, Inc., poles, wires and necessary appurtenances in order to furnish electric service to its members and to the public in the area, and that an easement or right-of-way for such electric line is required and demanded by said Petitioner over and upon the following described land of you, the said Defendants:

Beginning at the SW corner of Section 34, T. 10 S. R. 14 E., N.M.P.M., and proceeding north along the west line of Section 34 for 1046 feet to a point of beginning thence right 75 degrees 33' for 779 feet to a point, thence left 12 degrees 6' for 2074 feet to a point, thence left 29 degrees 19' for 1123 feet to a point, thence right 15 degrees 34' for 1328 feet to a point, thence 39 degrees 38' for 1447 feet to a point, thence right 87 degrees 5' for 61 feet which point is on the South side of the NW/4 of the NW/4, Section 35, T. 10 S., R. 14 E., which is the point of ending. This right of way is to be 20 feet wide along, across and generally adjacent to the existing road, being 6770 feet in length and occupying 3.11 acres.

YOU ARE HEREBY FURTHER NOTIFIED that on the 22 day of November, 1971, at the hour of 9:00 A.M. of said day said Petition will be called up before the Honorable Richard A. Stanley, Judge of the District Court at Carrizozo, New Mexico, or as soon thereafter as council can be heard for the purpose of moving the appointment of three disinterested commissioners to assess the damages which you may severally sustain by reason of the appropriation of such land for right-of-way purposes. WITNESS MY hand and seal of this Court this 29th day of September, 1971.

(SEAL) /s/ Edward Penfield
CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT
By: Eugenia Vega, Deputy

Trip South

Continued From Page One together about 40 miles out of Casas Grandes when we came up on the three N. M. State officials; their car broke down with ruptured fuel tank. Time was lost towing them to next little town where their car was left for repairs.

The countryside started looking better shortly after that stop. Not too much different from the low hilly country north of Capitan Mountains. Cows didn't have enough meat to hide their ribs but in a wet year they ought to do well.

Game was schedule for 2:00 p.m. but by the time we pulled into Colonia Juarez academy grounds it was close to 3:00 and the PA system said the game was due to start in eight minutes with substitute officials--Fred Chavez, Charley Castillo and Colonia's man. That's as close as they will ever get to officiating a football game in Mexico.

The three young officials changed quickly and the game got underway after opening ceremonies which included introducing parents of Juarez Lobos and their sons, then the Grizzlies, then the flag raising. Quite a few citizens of United States had not thought much about being in a foreign country until the flag raising. The thought flashed through our mind. 'Now we'll have the pledge of allegiance,' but it wasn't that way. Instead the flag of Mexico was raised and people sang the Academy alma mater song. They teach both Spanish and English in the Academy, and people there speak both languages real well.

It was well along into the first half of the game when Payton was feeling like a cigar would be nice -- when we became aware that no person in the football crowd was smoking. We had our cigar along with two delicious hot tamales, cup cake and Pepsi for 35 cents at half-time.
